COURT HOLDS YOUNGBLOOD FOR CONTEMPT

Appeal Taken to Higher Tribunal and Defendant Is Again Free on Bail.

Special to the Times.
AUSTIN, May 1.—Hull Youngblood of San Antonio, who is charged with having designated the Texas legislature as "rabbit chasers and hill billies," besides making some other remarks about them, was guilty of contempt of the Texas legislature, according to an opinion given out yesterday by Judge James R. Hamilton, judge of the district court here, who remanded Youngblood to the custody of the sheriff.

An appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals was filed at once and the defendant will be released on bail until the opinion of that court has been handed down. As the punishment for contempt was to end with adjournment of the second special session, the period for punishment is likely to be over before the higher court announces its ruling.

Jurisdiction Upheld.

Judge Hamilton, referring to the question of jurisdiction, held that "it plainly appears, from the judgment of the committee, that the committee, at the time the contempt was committed and the judgment rendered, had jurisdiction of the person of Youngblood," and also that "the committee had jurisdiction of the subject matter intrusted to it so as to render the judgment of contempt that was rendered."

As to whether the committee had the power to render the particular judgment in the instant case, Judge Hamilton said that this power was conferred by Art. 5517 of the Revised Statutes, enacted in 1907, and he was "inclined to believe that the statute was constitutional."

Judge Hamilton wrote an opinion of seven pages, and declared that without question the legislative body had power and authority in the conduct of its business to appoint committees to facilitate its work and expedite business. The subject matter intrusted to the committee was to investigate the charge alleged to have been made in said speech by said Youngblood and to report the result of its investigations to the Legislature at the present session thereof.

That this was the subject matter within the jurisdiction of the Legislature and of any committee it might appoint to make the investigation expressly appears, Judge Hamilton said, from the provisions of Art. 2, Sec. 11 of the Constitution, which reads as follows: "Each house may determine the rules of its own proceedings, publish members for disorderly conduct, and, with the consent of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same offense."

"It is not reasonable to presume that the Legislature would punish or expel a member on charges of misconduct or corruption without first investigating such charges, nor can the power of a Legislature, at the time engaged on general subjects of legislation submitted to it, to appoint a committee to make such investigation, be successfully questioned," wrote Judge Hamilton.

"The object of the investigation was to protect the integrity of the Legislature and punish or expel any member whose conduct had been such as to warrant punishment or expulsion, all of which was amply provided for in the Constitution itself. It necessarily follows that the committee had jurisdiction of the subject matter intrusted to it so as to render the judgment of contempt that was rendered."

The greater part of the opinion was devoted to the question as to whether the committee had power to render judgment. Art. 5517 of the Revised Statutes, referred to by Judge Hamilton is, in part, as follows:

"Full power and authority to administer oaths to any witnesses and parties called to testify before it and to compel any witness to testify in respect to any matter or charge by it investigated, in answer to all pertinent questions propounded by it, or under its direction, and to fine or imprison any witness for a failure or refusal to answer such pertinent questions propounded."

This law, enacted sixteen years ago, Judge Hamilton said, has never been repealed or directly held unconstitutional by any court in this state, and will be considered the law of the land until it is held unconstitutional by the highest courts of this state."

Gas Showing On Hagaman Farm, 4 Miles to North

Gas began showing for the first time yesterday in the Hagaman farm well, four miles north of Ranger. The first report to reach the city said that it was producing an estimated 1,000,000 cubic feet of gas. The well was 3,200 feet deep yesterday.

There are a number of Ranger men interested in the well. The nearest well to the Hagaman is the Texas Co.-Gholson on the Denison tract, one and one-half miles north of the former. When this well came in nearly 1,000 barrels daily was produced.

AMERICAN SHIPS LIKELY TO STAY DRY, IT IS SAID

Practical Difficulty of Going Wet Outside Three-Mile Limit Bars Liquor

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, May 1.—American ships on the high seas will continue "dry" in spite of the supreme court's ruling that out side of the three-mile limit vessels need not abide by the Volstead law.

This was the opinion of government officials in practically all departments having to do with shipment of liquors. Although the supreme court's ruling theoretically opens the way to make the Atlantic ocean a great pool of liquor, the practical difficulty confronting ship owners makes it virtually that any great number of American vessels will be wet when they get beyond the three-mile limit.

GOVERNMENT OWNED SHIPS TO BE KEPT BONE DRY

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Definite indications by Chairman Lasker of the shipping board after a conference with President Harding that government owned ships would be kept "bone dry" was made, although under yesterday's supreme court ruling they legally could carry and serve liquor on the high seas.

Negro Runs Amuck, Kills Two Men and Gets Self Killed

By Associated Press.
HELENA, Ala., May 1.—Failure of a negro miner to receive his pay check resulted in three men, including the negro, being killed and two others wounded here yesterday and a house, in which the negro had barricaded himself, fired by a posse, including officers.

According to witnesses the negro came to the office of the company and asked for his pay check. The timekeeper told him he would have to wait for his check. The negro left and returned with a pistol and fatally wounded the clerk.

Armed with a rifle, shotgun and revolver, he barricaded himself. A force of deputies and peace officers went to the house to arrest him. The negro's reply was to open fire, wounding one of the posse. One spectator also was killed in the fight. About 100 shots were fired before the negro was killed.

HOOVER SAYS HE APPROVES OF SUGAR BOYCOTT

Women on Right Track to Bring Down Prices, He Declares.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover today gave his approval to the sugar boycott organized by the American women as the most effective means of breaking the sugar trust.

"The women are on the right track," he said. "The way to control the prices of any commodity is through the spontaneous control of its consumption."

Hoover's statement was made just before a cabinet meeting at which were to be considered appeals from women's clubs, governors of states, mayors of cities and others asking President Harding to use his good offices in an effort to bring down the price of sugar.

BANKHEAD HIGHWAY NOW IS RECEIVING COATING OF ASPHALT

Asphalt is being placed on the Bankhead road between Ranger and Strawn. The work was started this week at a point about two miles from the city, it being necessary to delay work on the portion of the road closer to the business district until holes washed out by the recent heavy rains have been filled in and thoroughly repaired.

Only one truck is being used to carry the asphalt from a point near the station where several carloads of it are parked and where it is being melted ready to distribute over the road.

BIG GATEWAY FOR NARCOTICS IS THROUGH EL PASO

By United Press.
EL PASO, May 1.—That El Paso is the gateway to narcotic traffic into the United States was the assertion of D. A. Walker, United States marshal for the Southwest, recently.

"A majority of narcotics which find their way to all parts of the country enter by way of El Paso," Walker said.

"In order to curb the enormous traffic in morphine, cocaine, heroin and opium from Mexico into the United States through El Paso, at least one hundred agents would be needed at this point alone."

"Even then it would be found exceedingly difficult unless more drastic penalties are provided for violations of the Harrison anti-narcotic act."

"If Mexico were recognized by the United States a treaty regulating the narcotic trade might remedy conditions, but until diplomatic relations are resumed between the two countries and joint action is taken to stamp out smuggling, this country is almost powerless to check the constantly increasing supply of drugs that find their way across the border," Walker declared.

WESTERN UNION ANNOUNCES REDUCED CABLE RATES

Exit "Perfect 36," Enter "Jazz 34"

NEW YORK, May 1.—(United Press).—The "perfect 36" is a thing of the past.

The "perfect 34" is here.

All on account of the American flapper.

American fashion designers have practically abandoned the "perfect 36" styles, which was based on the measurements on the Venus De Milo. The "jazz" age has produced a taller, less rounded, athletic type.

The American "Venus De Milo" is 5 feet seven inches in height, has a 34-inch bust, 22-inch waist and 34-inch hips. Her ankles measure eight inches. Her weight is 110 pounds.

The "perfect 36" is five feet four inches in height, with a 36-inch bust.

J. R. Bolton, fashion expert of New York, believes the new American type is an improvement.

FRENCH FROTH AT U. S. SUPREME COURT DECISION

See Loss of Profits and Threatened Disaster to American Shipping.

By United Press.
PARIS, May 1.—The decision of the United States Supreme Court that the Volstead Act bars liquor from all vessels, American and foreign, within the three-mile limit, is likely to result in serious reprisals against American ships in French ports, according to loudly voiced protests here today.

The French government could hold the American ships for long delays in ports on technicalities which may arise from the ruling, it is claimed. Serious action along this line is being considered, it is claimed.

President Diaz of a French line which operates steamships between French ports and New York, declared the decision of the United States supreme court is certain to promote complications.

"It is a grave test," he said. "We must have an actual test of the decision and see to what extent we are limited before we decide as to our activities."

FRANK BROWN TO DRILL FOR OIL HERE SOON

Will Begin Work on Three Wells as Soon as He Returns From Pacific Coast.

Returning to Ranger within the next two weeks, F. A. Brown, recently elected finance commissioner of this city, will start drilling three wells near here, according to a telegram received by the Daily Times from him this morning.

Mr. Brown went to California with his family immediately after the municipal election, for a month of rest and recreation. The telegram from him today is dated at Long Beach and he writes:

"Have spent the last three weeks with W. R. Fleming, assisting him in bringing in a well on Signal Hill, which is making 3,500 barrels and getting better. This is a wonderful field. The Ranger boys in Mr. Fleming's bank here are well pleased and the bank is growing fast."

Mr. Fleming was a former resident of Ranger and built some of the high-ways of which Eastland county is now so proud. He was a candidate for mayor of Ranger at the time John M. Gholson was elected. He left here soon afterwards and has since engaged in banking in California. R. A. Thurman is one of the Ranger boys in the bank with him.

Special to the Times.
BRECKENRIDGE, May 1.—The R. B. Pender well on the Kiel lease, two and one-half miles northeast of Breckenridge, which came in five days ago, is reported to be making 5,600 barrels per day. It is now connected up with pipe lines.

Biggest Co-Operative Movement Ever Staged By Merchants In Pay-Your-Bills Campaign

Eastland county is at this time witnessing the biggest cooperative campaign ever staged by its business men.

Ranger, Cisco and Eastland have joined hands and have placed their shoulders together in this great move for better business conditions. The readjustments called for in business have made this move necessary, and credit business has needed this clearing house movement to place it back on its old basis.

The campaign is being pulled off simultaneously in all three towns of the county with remarkable results. The day of the man who habitually ran accounts and then moved on to greener fields has passed, and the business men of the county believe that business will swing back to a safe and sane basis with a distinct advantage to both creditors and debtors of the county. Many people appreciate the advantage of the campaign to establish their credit, and in other cases to re-establish through paying up past accounts and get right with their merchant friends.

No doubt the oil belt towns have had different conditions to deal with than any other business community. People have settled in its limits from every country in the world and naturally the demands and needs of these people have called for business dealings that have taxed the judgment of the business people to the utmost. It is only to be expected that in many cases advantage has been taken of the merchants, and in other cases people have been unable to meet their obligations due to the depression that followed. All business has gone through a readjustment period or is going through it now, and the individual debtor is being called on at this time to readjust, and if necessary do without a few luxuries so that he can get square with the merchants and professional men who have borne the burden for the last year or two.

STUDENT'S BODY FOUND AFTER 2 YEAR'S SEARCH

Northwestern University Freshman Disappears; Skeleton Just Unearthed.

By United Press.
CHICAGO, May 1.—The nationwide search for Leighton Mount, Northwestern University freshman who disappeared after an alleged inter-class hazing in 1921, was followed today by renewal of a widespread investigation of his death.

The body of Mount was discovered near Evanston last night, in a pit and covered with sand and rock. Police recovered the skeleton after its presence was reported by Henry Warren, 12, who found it while playing near the place. Police said several pieces of rope scattered about the skeleton were similar to that used in the 1921 class rush, after which it was alleged another freshman, Arthur G. Persinger, was found bound and hanging head downward to a Lake Michigan piling. University officials declared at the time, however, that Persinger was not bound.

The discovery of the body of Mount followed a search that has extended over two years. His mother, Mrs. J. L. Mount, was near collapse today after identifying a belt buckle found on the body as that of her son's.

A motion was offered prevailed that the salary of the assessor be reduced from $200 to 175. Doubt was expressed by one member if Mr. Love would serve for the new salary. Mrs. Dreinhofer said she had spoken to Mr. Love and that she believed he would.

The name of Mr. Cole was then presented by H. E. Clewell and on a vote, he was named assessor and collector to serve at $175 per month. M. H. Hagaman was absent and the vote was 3 to 2 in favor of Cole.

Clab Hancock took his wife and children over to the Calf Ribs neighborhood yesterday for a pleasant visit with his wife's folks. On account of the bad condition of the roads he was awful glad when he got there.

Raz Barlow was in the vast throng that attended the first circus of the season at Tickville Saturday of last week, and offered to loan the bareback rider his overcoat.

Cricket Hicks says of course, as usual, a young man's fancy is turning to love this spring, just as it has done for centuries past, but that he has an added burden now, as he has to take pencil in hand and figure on how much gasoline it will take per proposal.

A suggestion for making better fried potatoes

USE Mrs. Tucker's Shortening! Potatoes fried in Mrs. Tucker's Shortening have the same goodness as when you use the best butter. They brown evenly and delicately, without a trace of greasiness.

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is an absolutely pure vegetable shortening. It is rich and wholesome and lacks entirely the indigestibility of an animal fat.

Whether you use it for baking hot breads or pastries or for all cooking purposes, you will be delighted with the result. Mrs. Tucker's is economical, too. It costs no more than ordinary shortening and goes much further.

Be sure to get the blue pail with Mrs. Tucker's picture on it. Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is a southern product.

Made exclusively of choice Cotton Seed Oil. The South's own cooking fat.

TEXAS LEAGUE TEAMS FOOLING EARLY PROPHETS

DALLAS, May 1.—With the Texas league well on its way, pre-season dope, as usual, is being outraged mercilessly.

Beaumont, Dallas and Galveston are the chief offenders against the do-as-should cult.

While the three were conceded fairly strong teams at the start of the season the upward spurt of the Beaumont Exporters and the Dallas Steers were hardly predicted.

The Exporters have the hardest hitting outfield in the league with Demaggio, Kirkham and Edgington. They have a good pitching staff but the infield remains to be proven with the exception of Strong, first baseman, who started the season with Beaumont last year, but was out of the game most of the season because of injuries.

The unexpected phase of the Dallas percentage is in the crippled condition of the team. Injuries consisting of Lovelace's broken leg, Davenport's broken leg, Mathes' sprained ankle, Massey's spiked foot and Love's hurt leg have instilled fight instead of depression in the Steers, it appears.

Wichita Falls, running true to form, has a powerful aggregation, playing bang-up ball with the exception of a slight wildness in base-running.

The Fort Worth Panthers have not started yet. They seem to be playing listless ball. Their old fight, pep and team work is lacking to a certain degree. The slugging of Stellbauer is featuring the early games of the champions.

San Antonio has a very strong team, according to the dope and initial showings. The Bears have the best infield of the league and a strong outfield. Pitching is the thing that is undetermined in this pennant contender.

Shreveport and Houston, made up almost entirely of new comers, have shown but little so far. Perhaps after the strangers in camp have become acclimated and used to Texas league pitching—well perhaps.

MAGNOLIA OF OLDEN DEFEATS EASTLAND IN SUNDAY GAME

Embree, elongated pitcher for the Magnolia Petroleum company team, of Olden, Texas, southpawed the Eastland Bears into complete submission Sunday afternoon before a crowd of 800 fans. The Magnolia club won, 4 to 3. The game was fast from start to finish and the Bears never got past second base until the eighth inning when Fairbairn scratched a hit down the first base line. He went to second on Andrews' infield out and to third while Hornbuckle threw out Seale. Anderson walked. Lafon hit the pitcher's rubber and the ball bounded high to second base, Fairbairn scoring. Russell scored Lafon and Anderson on a hit that Greer missed by inches. Russell was thrown out trying to take second on the hit.

Embree Seldom in Danger. Except for this inning Embree was never in danger. The Magnolia club played a fast article of ball, killing off Eastland's best chance with a lightning double play started by Hornbuckle. Garrett at second for the Olden outfit, made several fine stops.

Fairbairn, who turned back the strong Parks Camp team for one of their two defeats last season, was combed for three ringing doubles and a triple good for four runs. After Greer tripled with none down in the eighth, Fairbairn pulled a limp signifying that he had enough for one day.

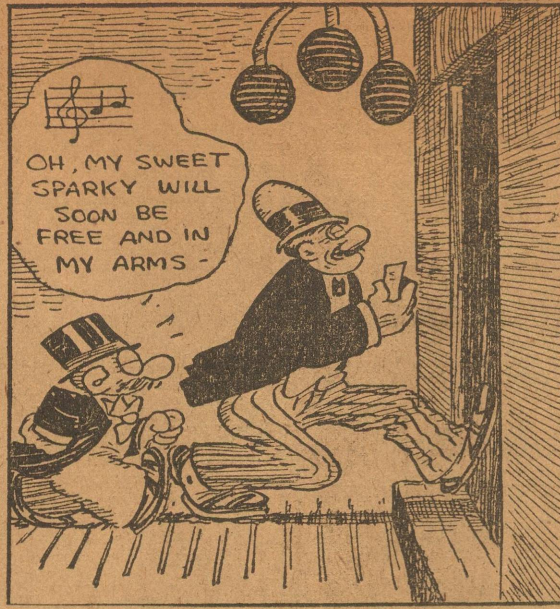

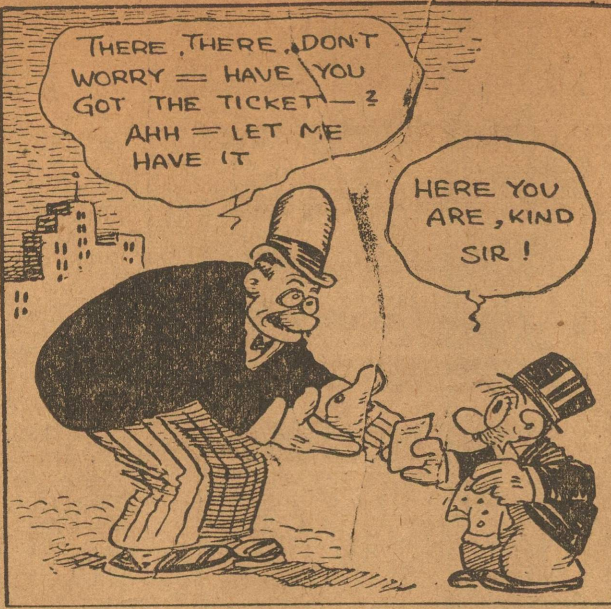

The Magnolia team scored one in the second and one in the third by solid hitting. Two doubles and a single in the eighth accounted for the last two scores.

The Magnolia club will play the Texaco team of Parks Camp, last year's claimants of the West Texas amateur championship, at Olden on May 4. This is the second meeting of these clubs, Parks taking the first contest 3 to 1.

DEMPSEY MEETS GIBBONS ON JULY 4

Details are said to have been completed for a fight between Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight, and Tom Gibbons, brother of Mike, in Shelby, Mont., on July 4, under the auspices of the American Legion. C. & S. TO PLAY INDEPENDENTS AT EASTLAND

The Crestnut and Smith of Ranger baseball club will meet the Eastland Independents next Sunday afternoon at Eastland. It will be the second game of the season for the local team, having met the Magnolia Petroleum company of Olden club last week. The club will engage in its first work-out at Nitro park this evening. Ranger fans who are wanting to see the team in action will be enabled to get a line on the team's caliber.

Manager Carl Snapp plans to have his men work out regularly at Nitro park. The field that has been used on the corporation's grounds is not in condition, but it is planned to keep Nitro park in shape so that the players will have both a good infield and outfield to practice on.

Rosenberger batted for Edwards in eighth inning. Score by innings: Magnolia . . . . .011 000 200-4 Eastland . . . . .000 000 030-3

FORT WORTH, May 1.—Can you remember the first tree you ever saw?

When Police Fail To Preserve Order Call In the Bull

BY MILES W. VAUGHN, (United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, May 1.—Bulls rush in where coppers fear to tread. American tourists visiting a Rio bull fight got double entertainment for their money. They saw a lone black bull break up a near riot and send the pride of Brazil's picked police scuttling over the wall of the arena.

The excitement came just before the last fight. A chocolate-colored hero, clad in a white linen suit, had conquered a not-very-fierce bull with his bare hands, spat in the bull's eye, twisted his tail and otherwise submitted the terror of the arena to humiliating indignities. The bull had retreated in chagrin and the populace was stepping on each other's toes to kiss the hero, when a civilian with a loud voice announced to the world that he didn't think much of the stunt or the hero.

Then the fight began. Police, spectators, bull-fighters attendants and peanut boys traded wallops. Swords flashed and somebody, even pulled a gun.

Heads were cracking right and left when the bull-keeper—a man of genius—had an inspiration. He opened the gate of the bull pen and shouted:

"Beware the bull." That was enough. One look at a pair of capable horns mounted on the head of a wicked looking bellower and the mob melted. Insults and enmities were forgotten and a lot of clothing ruined in a mad scramble over the arena fence.

The fight was over and the bull-master of all he surveyed—stopped to browse on the straw stuffings of the seat cushions which spectators had hurled into the mob to encourage their champions.

As bull fights, the spectacles for the American tourists had all the elements of badly written low comedy. The Portuguese style of bull fighting doesn't permit of killing the bull.

MUSIC CLUBS RAISING FUND TO PAY PRIZES

National Federation Wants $10,000; Carl Venth of Ft. Worth Wins Award.

"The Chopin club offers to be one of one hundred clubs to subscribe one hundred dollars to the federation before the biennial."

The receipt of this telegram by Mrs. Frank A. Seiberling, Akron, Ohio, national chairman of finance of the National Federation of Music Clubs, from Mrs. Edgar J. Lownes, president of the Chopin club, of Providence, R. I., has been made the basis of a campaign among the affiliated clubs of the federation to see if 100 clubs can be found which will subscribe the $100 each, making a total of $10,000 before June 1, for expenses of the Biennial Festival to be held at Asheville, N. C., June 9-17, 1923.

Four Other Help. Already four other clubs have subscribed, i. e.—the Tuesday Musical club, Akron, Ohio; Tuesday Musical club, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Tuesday Musical club, Milwaukee, Wis.; and the Philadelphia Music club, Philadelphia, Pa. This leaves 95 to get. For the full one hundred clubs must subscribe else the amount will be lost to the federation.

Can this be done? Will your club help?

Everyone within the federation circle is asked to assist; and no one outside is excluded from helping! With 1400 clubs and the valuable suggestions for raising money contained in the new "Ways and Means" booklet, to be had from Mrs. Seiberling, the matter should not be so difficult. But it takes team work, determination and a real interest in the cause to effect results. The federation hopes that the clubs will prove their loyalty through this united effort to finance the greatest convention ever held by this organization.

Prize Awards
Of the 10 classes of prizes offered by the federation for musical compositions, but three have been found to be worthy of awards, i. e.: The Lyric Dance-Drama, Libretto, by Robert Francis Allen, Boston ($400); Musical composition, Carl Venth, Fort Worth, Texas ($600); Chamber Music "Spring in Sicily," offered by Mrs. Seiberling, won by Irene Berge ($500); Violin solo, offered by Musicians club of Chicago, won by Joseph J. McGrath, Syracuse, N. Y. ($100).

These three winning compositions will be performed at the Asheville Biennial by competent musicians under the most favorable conditions.

This can contain 88 square inches of rubber. Think how easy it will be to sell something that is used by everyone and sells for the same price everywhere.
