DEAD MAN AT THROTTLE OF FAST TRAIN

GET IN RACE TO WIN THAT COUPE OR THAT RING

Names of Entrants to Be Published Soon With Votes So Far Obtained.

Enterprising candidates are lining up fast for the Ranger Daily Times circulation campaign. One of them expressed the hope that, if a winner, the Ford coupe might be used for a trip to New York. Well, why not? There is no more delightful way to travel. It costs far less than by train, and has the added advantage of giving the traveler a better view of the country, and a more complete knowledge of the various cities passed through.

Traveling in a Ford has another advantage also. It costs less for tires, and no matter where repairs are needed a Ford shop is always at hand. Then this handsome coupe will be a protection from rain, wind, and sun, so will be adapted to any kind of weather or climate. It surely is worth working for.

Each new day the roster of candidates continues to grow. Each new day brings some one who is anxious to own either the Ford coupe or the diamond ring, and is eager to enter the race. Candidates will be accepted for several days, yet, so those who wish to enter should not think it is too late, for it all depends on the amount of "go-get-it" power that the workers have as to who will win in the final count.

Each day the Times publishes extra coupons of ten votes each. Save these, and get all your friends to save them for you. They are worth money and will help materially in winning one of these handsome prizes.

There have been inquiries as to whether the campaign would deprive the agent or carriers of their profits. The answer is "No." It interferes in no way with either of them. On the contrary it will be a means of helping many of the carriers in increasing the subscriptions along their routes.

All entrants are determined fully to win one of these splendid prizes and the campaign will soon be revealed in full swing, showing remarkable salesmanship qualities on the part of many who had not even dreamed that they had such ability.

This campaign is not confined to residents of the city of Ranger. There may be some in the immediate outside districts who would like to enter, and who would have as good a chance to win as anyone within the city limits. So those desiring to announce as candidates from the surrounding locality, should not hesitate to do so.

The actual voting will start with the first published list of candidates, so all who are working now on their lists or who expect to do so, are urged to begin soon in preparation for the first announcement.

INCREASED ACTIVITY IN SHALLOW OIL POOL HELPFUL TO RANGER

H. A. Coomer, traffic manager of the Wichita Falls, Ranger and Fort Worth railroad, says the increased activity in the shallow oil pool south of Ranger will have a beneficial business effect on Ranger.

The railroad traffic department is working to get an increased volume of freight business from shipping points into Ranger over the company's line, north and south.

"We can handle less than carload lots in as quick time as any other road passing through Ranger from here to Fort Worth," he said. "We think that with the general offices here that Ranger business men will give us a share of their patronage."

"Little Mothers" Trained to Help Care for Baby

EL PASO, May 17.—When baby brothers get the pepper shakers or go into convulsions for some other reason, 33 "little mothers" will know what to do. A class of 33 girls known as "the little mothers" has been graduated at one of the grade schools and given certificates showing they have finished courses in the care and feeding of infants.

The course was given especially for the girls, who have baby brothers and sisters at home, or who will work as nurse and servant girls. All the "little mothers" in the class are Mexican children. Signs of illness were taught, and methods on how to make a baby's bed and other things. The girls to get the certificates are 12 and 13 years old. City nurses helped teach the course, which extended over four months.

STATE INCOME TAX BILL GETS NEW IMPETUS

Senate and House Committee Agree on Measure to Be Reported for Passage.

AUSTIN, May 17.—Governor Neff today supplemented his message to the legislature yesterday by a brief explanation that he intended to include revenue and appropriation measures under his call for the third special session.

The state is not facing as large a deficiency as has been estimated and there is no urgent need for additional revenue to meet large appropriations, Senator Stewart of Fort Worth told the senate this morning. He said that the revenue already provided had been underestimated. The statement followed an appeal by Senator Floyd urging reduction in some of the large appropriations.

The Dinkie income tax bill was discussed at a conference of senate and house sub-committees and a substitute that is a combination of the original measure and the senate substitute was agreed on. The substitute levies a graduated tax of from 2 to 12 per cent with a maximum income of $1,000 for single persons and $2,500 for married persons up to a maximum of $200,000 and 12 per cent on incomes in excess of $200,000.

Four additional tax measures were introduced in the house. Representative Smith suggested in the house that the emergency and rural school aid appropriation be reduced as means of meeting the possible deficiency, which he said, would not be so large as was anticipated.

FORT WORTH, May 17.—Attorneys this morning resumed arguments in the federal court on the validity of the wholesale indictments returned by the United States grand jury against 91 oil promoters charging use of the mails to defraud.

The first attack on the indictments sought to invalidate them on the ground that the grand jury was improperly formed. A motion to this effect was overruled and a further motion to quash the indictments was presented today.

FLARE-UP IN NEAR EAST MAY REAWAKEN WAR

Another Turko-Greco Conflict Threatened, Involving Serbia and Bulgaria.

LAUSANNE, May 17.—Renewal of the Turko-Greco war involving Serbia as an ally of Greece and Bulgaria as an ally of Turkey is threatened. Such a Balkan conflagration would, it is feared, precipitate another general European conflict.

The Greek delegates threatened to leave the Near East conference unless their demands for reparation were given more favorable consideration. According to a Turkish communication, two Greek warships attempted to approach Zikeli, but were forced to withdraw. Officials of the British general headquarters at Constantinople have been delegated to investigate the situation.

There is also an unconfirmed report that British officers in Turkey have been requested to cancel their social engagements so as to be ready for any emergency.

GOVERNMENT CARRIES SUGAR GAMBLING CASE TO SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The federal government asked the United States supreme court yesterday afternoon for an injunction to stop trading in sugar futures on the New York sugar and coffee exchange.

The refusal of the New York district court to grant an injunction against the sugar exchange under the Sherman anti-trust law and the Wilson tariff act led the government to appeal to the highest court of the land.

The department of justice will ask the court that the case be expedited on Monday.

THRIFTY STAMFORD BOY TURNS WORMS INTO THRIFT

STAMFORD, May 17.—The worm will turn—sometimes, a little profit. Frank Fleming, 10, is the proprietor of a "worm ranch" here which is at present doing a thriving business and gives promise of developing into a real "public utility" with the coming of summer.

Each day after school Frank digs the worms and places them in small wooden boxes full of the same dirt in which they were found and feeds them until his customers call for them.

That he carries the best in his line, was proved recently, when one of his customers handed a forty-one pound catfish out of Clear Fork river with bait purchased from the young "worm magnate."

Mitchell County Appeals to State To Help Sufferers

COLORADO, May 17.—Mitchell county needs $50,000 to provide emergency relief for 350 homeless tenant farmers, wiped out of their homes by Monday's cyclone. The county asks the people of Texas to assist in raising it. At a mass meeting yesterday $6,000 of this amount was raised by the citizenship.

"We must ask the good people of Texas to assist us," Mayor Looney said at the meeting which was held in the Union tabernacle. "It is cash these poor people need. We have distributed everything on hand, an adequate supply of food and clothing, but unless financial aid is extended quickly, much suffering will occur."

ALVA B. ADAMS NAMED SENATOR FROM COLORADO

Governor Sweet Ignores Advice and Makes Own Selection.

DENVER, May 17.—Alva B. Adams, Democrat, of Pueblo, Col., will be the new United States senator from Colorado. He was appointed today by Governor Sweet to succeed Samuel D. Nicholson, who died in April.

The new United States senator is ranked as a conservative. He is an attorney, was born in Colorado, and is a son of Alva Adams who was three times governor of Colorado.

In making the appointment Governor Sweet ignored the recommendations of former President Woodrow Wilson, of William G. McAdoo and William Jennings Bryan. Houston Thompson, a member of the federal trade commission, was urged by Wilson, while McAdoo and Bryan asked the appointment of Morrison Shafroth, a son of former Senator Shafroth.

ARLINGTON'S MAYOR IN DELIRIUM FALLS FROM WINDOW TO HIS DEATH

ARLINGTON, May 17.—While in a state of delirium, Mayor W. H. Rose of Arlington, fell out the third story window of the Baptist hospital at Fort Worth, Texas, Wednesday morning at 1:30 o'clock and was instantly killed. His neck was broken and his skull was fractured.

Mayor Rose was taken to the hospital Friday morning where he was operated on for appendicitis. At that time his condition was serious and recovery was doubtful. However, the report was given out late Tuesday evening that he was somewhat improved and his relatives and friends felt hopeful. About 1:30 o'clock on the following morning the tragedy happened. It seems that Mayor Rose asked the attending nurse for a wet towel with which to wipe his face, and when she left the room for but a moment in order to get the towel, he raised the window and fell to the pavement below, a distance of something nearly 50 feet.

Mayor Rose was about forty years of age, was born and reared in Arlington. He has been engaged in the real estate business here for the past twenty years.

Surviving him are his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Norris, of Arlington and Margaret Leslie Rose, 8; five brothers, Chas. Rose, a former county clerk, of Fort Worth; Jack Rose of Oklahoma, James Rose of Tennessee, L. W. Rose of Dallas, and Webb Rose of Arlington; three sisters, Mrs. Percy Knox, of Erie, Colo., Mrs. Joe Baldwin, of Dallas, and Miss Nan Rose of Dallas.

Funeral services were to be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Arlington First Methodist church after which he will be buried in the Arlington cemetery.

ENGINEER DIES AT POST; HEADON CRASH FOLLOWS

Fireman Cries Warning Which Goes Unheeded and Then Leaps to Save Life.

LIMA, Ohio, May 17.—A dead man had his hand on the throttle of the locomotive that was drawing a Lake Erie passenger train when it crashed dead-on into a freight near here, injuring a number of persons, authorities believed today.

The report followed a statement by the fireman on the locomotive that Engineer Assler, 61, had died of heart trouble a few moments before the crash. The fireman leaped to safety before the trains came together. He said that his shouts of warning to the engineer had gone unheeded.

The engineer had disregarded an order, according to the fireman, to stop at the Oakland switch and wait for the freight. The order was clutched in his right hand, but the train went by the switch without halting, the engineer with his hand on the throttle driving it at a speed of about 60 miles an hour.

"I called to him as we passed the Oakland switch, but he paid no attention to me," said the fireman. The next moment we saw the freight ahead. I am satisfied he was dead at the throttle, but how long he had been dead I could not say. Probably for only a moment or two.

Assler's wife said that he complained before starting for his work that he had a pain near his heart. He had been with the road for 41 years and had a perfect record for service and obedience to orders.

BAPTISTS HEAR REPORT ON GOOD WORK OF THE LOCAL BROTHERHOODS

KANSAS CITY, May 17.—Reports from Baptist educational institutions in the South were being considered today by the Southern Baptist convention, which convened here yesterday. The institutions include the Southwestern Theological seminary at Fort Worth, which had an attendance exceeding 700 last year and has property valued at more than $1,500,000.

One of the most promising developments of the past year has been the organization of several hundred local brotherhoods, according to Dr. John Henderson, corresponding secretary. These local organizations promoted not only greater social life, but a fuller acquaintance with the program and activities of the denomination.

"I'm just one of the boys that can't settle down," he said when he passed through here, "and every spring the fever comes on me and I gotta cover territory."

Williams saw service in the old "Tom Green" regiment and fought in the battle of Galveston. It was at Galveston that he was forced to witness the execution of "Nicaragua" Smith, renegade.

MYSTERY DEEPENS IN DEATH OF YOUTH

When his parents separated when he was a child Fred Carter was taken into the Kent, Conn., home of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Goodwin. The Goodwins had, long before that time adopted Jennie Barker, now 32-year-old school teacher. The Goodwins died a few years ago, and Carter continued to live with Miss Barker, who wielded a strange influence over him, in the Goodwin home. A few weeks ago Carter, now 19, disappeared. Bloodstains were found near his home, and later a shotgun was found in the Housatonic river. A few days ago Carter's chum, Henry Gregory, shown above in a skiff, found his body in the river. He had been shot to death, but although shotmarks were found on his shirt none was found on his outer clothing. Although some were inclined to the suicide theory, no motive could be found, nor could the absence of shotmarks on his outer clothing be explained. Carter is shown here with his graduating class in the Kent High School.

PARK LOCATIONS WHILE CITY YET YOUNG IS URGED

Should Be Considered Important As Streets Says Mayor of Orange.

ORANGE, Texas, May 17.—Parks are breathing spaces in a city, are necessities, and not luxuries, according to W. E. Lea, mayor of Orange. Such necessities should be as carefully planned and cared for as the streets, sewer and other essentials to the development of the American city, Mayor Lea declares.

"Parks may even be called the pores of the civic body," Lea said. "They are the breathing spots of the town. Without parks children take to vacant lots and the bad influence of vacant lots is in proportion to their general untidiness. Huddled among buildings, they seem to promote and shelter evil tendencies in children as against the healthful, cleanly spirit that seems to be developed among children who play in well-kept parks."

"Parks are the touch of nature in the city and one of the greatest influences toward upbuilding of character in both children and grown people. They are to be looked upon therefore as vital influences in the making of citizens."

Although parks are generally considered important, Mayor Lea says that this phase of city building usually is neglected until the property which is logically the place for a park becomes so valuable that it cannot be bought except at great expense to the tax payers.

"It is generally necessary, therefore for far-sighted men in office and other interested citizens to press the matter of purchasing adequate and suitable park locations early enough in the city's growth that the cost will not be excessive," he says. "Naturally real estate values go up in close proximity of a park, particularly if the park is well cared for. On the other hand, the erection of a park stimulates neatness in the appearance of the homes, and many an untidy residential district has been changed in an orderly and well lawned set of homes because of the opening of a park."

HERE'S AN INDUSTRY SEEMS OVERLOOKED BY WEST TEXAS FARMERS CORPUS CHRISTI, May 17.—Comes now a rattlesnake farm, devoted exclusively to breeding, raising and shipping of the deadly reptiles.

The farm, one of world renown, is owned by W. A. King of Brownsville and is perhaps the only farm of its kind in the world.

"Snakes can't be handled very well with gloves," King said. "We use only our bare hands."

"Sure it's dangerous. I've been bitten many times. I don't know how many."

The only sure antidote for rattlesnake poison is a serum manufactured in a laboratory at Sal Paulo, Brazil, according to King. At present the serum is practically unobtainable, he said. His present supply was given him by Professor Raymond L. Ditmars of the New York zoological gardens.

The serum is injected into the blood. King has spent a number of years experimenting with rattlesnakes and other reptiles.

EL PASO, May 17.—Enrique Montes Jr., of this city, was born with 12 fingers and 12 toes, six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, according to attending physicians. The city health officer decided that the extra fingers and toes would not help him any, and convinced Montes Senior that they would not, so they were cut off when Montes got a few days old.

Name American Girl to Head School for Nurses in Warsaw

Miss Amelia Greenwald

It was not so many years ago that most of the minor surgical operations in America were performed by barbers. The red spiral barber poles are a present relic of their past advertisements as blood-letters. And in those days the nurses were elderly women whose scientific knowledge consisted largely of good intentions. In some villages in Poland the barbers are still the doctors and there are few nurses available for any but the very rich. An American girl is going to change this. She is to leave shortly to open a nursing school in Warsaw and spread the gospel of health and sanitation where it is pitifully needed. The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee has appropriated $50,000 for the establishment of a school for nurses and chosen Miss Amelia Greenwald as its head. She is a graduate of Turo University in North Carolina, and has taken post graduate courses at Johns Hopkins and public health work at the Teachers' College. She spent a year and a half at Base Hospital No. 8 in Savenay, France, during the war. The Committee, whose work is non-sectarian, has been for two years aiding local Polish societies engaged in work for the sick, and has provided drugs and medicines for their use. Now it is undertaking to train young Polish girls as real nurses and is hopeful that soon at least one real trained nurse can be assigned to each town not only to serve the sick but to teach the young people the fundamentals of public health knowledge. The nurse's school will not only teach modern nursing methods but help its graduates to establish baby health stations and do the sanitary work that is so much the part of every American city.

COCA-COLA HAS SPECIAL APPEAL WHEN DAYS BECOME WARMER

Coca-Cola, the world's favorite drink, will be used in Ranger this summer more than ever. Last summer's sales were unusually large for a city of this size, and since the city has grown and prosperity has increased, there will be more sales of Coca-Cola.

Those who know what they say claim that this is the most refreshing drink on the market. Those who sell it have so many regular customers that they know what to prepare for them as soon as they enter the store. The daily consumption of this popular drink outnumbers all others of similar kind, as any dealer in soft drinks will tell you. There is some quality in it that not only quenches the thirst but cools the blood and refreshes the tired nerves.

Many a long, hot day has been made more bearable by this refreshing drink. Many a tired clerk or business woman or man, has been able to "stay on the job" because of this cooling and strengthening drink. If you are uncertain about it, just try it once, and you will be drinking it often.

PARIS STYLES IN VOGUE AT MOSCOW

By JOHN GRAUDENZ, United Press Staff Correspondent. MOSCOW, May 17.—Fashions from gay, wicked, bourgeois Paris are creeping back into the Bolshevik capital.

Russian women are patriotic and loyal; but they are women first. Under their skins they are sisters in a communist republic. Outside they are the commissar's lady or the Russian equivalent of Judy O'Grady, as their purses dictate.

The few women here who can afford it are able by some underground means to smuggle Paris gowns in; and they are the leaders of fashion. To most women—including the remaining ones of society—the exorbitant prices demand for Paris frocks put them beyond their present dreams. But Necessity has brought her daughter, invention, to the rescue.

Moscow women of good taste and small means are dressing themselves before the mirror of the fashion magazine.

HARDING EXPRESSES VIEWS ON NEW YORK DRY LAWS

NEWBURG, N. Y., May 16.—Repeal of the state prohibition enforcement statute would be likely to result in more or less conflict between federal and state authorities in the enforcement of the Volstead act in the opinion of President Harding. This view was expressed in a letter to Wesley Wait of this city. A bill passed by the legislature repealing the act is awaiting the action of the governor.

$45,000,000 Worth of Studebaker Big-Sixes in 1922

The public paid more than forty-five million dollars for new Studebaker Big-Six automobiles in 1922, buying more of this model than of any other car selling in the same price field.

In the entire world there were only eleven other automobile manufacturers whose total sale of all models equaled the sale of Studebaker Big-Sixes for 1922, and no other manufacturer sold as many cars of the Big-Six class. In addition to the Big-Six, Studebaker builds the Special-Six and the Light-Six in large volume.

For the first quarter of 1923, Big-Six sales showed an increase of 70 per cent over the same period of 1922, evidencing the growing popularity of this model. Big-Six popularity is the result of Big-Six superiority. Materials and workmanship are unexcelled in any car at any price, and unequaled in any car at the Big-Six price.

With its long 126-inch wheel base, big 4 1/2-inch tires, heavy frame, scientifically distributed load, long Studebaker-made springs, the Big-Six Speedster rides more comfortably than most cars selling at much more money. Its 3 3/8 x 5 motor delivers a world of power, plenty of speed and a quickness of getaway hard to equal.

The price is the result of quantity production.

The name STUDEBAKER is assurance of quality. It has stood for high grade transportation for seventy-one years.

STATE INCOME TAX BILL WILL ADD TO REVENUE

General Fund to Be Enriched Several Million Dollars Annually.

By Associated Press

AUSTIN, May 16.—The state general revenue fund will be enlarged by between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 annually under terms of the Dinkle income tax bill as passed by the senate, according to Representative C. E. Dinkle of Greenville, author of the first income tax measure to be placed upon the Texas statutes. Representative Dinkle estimates that if the county ad valorem tax exemption clause had been removed the act would net between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 annually.

The income tax bill as passed is not perfect, sponsors of the measure declare, but it is the basis for a source of income which it is said will be one of the largest the state has at its command. Proponents declare that no doubt amendments will be necessary to the act it has been tried and used.

It is generally conceded by members that the Dinkle bill is the most important one passed by the present session of the legislature. It is one of the sources of revenue which Governor Neff noted in his pre-legislative address last fall.

The tax under the bill ranges from 2 to 10 per cent. Incomes up to $5,000 are taxed 2 per cent; up to $25,000 for 3 per cent; 4 per cent up to $50,000; 6 per cent up to $100,000, and 10 per cent for all the incomes over $200,000. A single man is exempt from the tax on an income below $1,000, and married men below $2,500. A further exemption of $100 for each child is allowed.

County and state ad valorem taxes are deducted from the income tax due, under the senate bill. An effort to eliminate the county taxes from this provision failed.

City Urged to Buy Tractor For Street Work Here

"You can use a tractor to do everything the city needs to be done," said W. J. McFarland, representing the Dallas branch of the Ford Motor company in presenting reasons why Ranger should own a tractor to the city commissioners Tuesday afternoon.

This statement sounding interesting, Mayor Hodges invited the Fordson tractor representative to proceed with his sales talk. When he had concluded the mayor told him he would have to consult with Raymond Teal, street commissioner, before the matter could be laid before the commissioners for proper action.

In the event that the city of Ranger is "broke" like "many of us," McFarland said he was prepared to present the city a "liberal proposition" in making payments. As the commissioners were not in a position to consider his proposal, he was not asked to present his offer of liberal terms.

The Fordson would cost the city less than $1,000 complete, Mr. McFarland said. This would include the cost of the tractor at $450, rubber tires at $250 and a complete set of wheels at $195 and some other equipment.

The sales agent said he was prompted to present the idea of the city buying a tractor after reading that the commissioners would probably be in the market for horses for street work. He contended the tractor would give more satisfaction than teams of horses.

In support of his argument that "up-to-date cities and towns of the class of Ranger," are buying tractors, he said 54 municipalities of the Dallas trade territory of the Ford company were using tractors.

Twenty-five counties of the same trade territory are also using tractors in road work, he asserted.

In answer to a question as to how long a tractor would last, he said at least several years. "If you get a good man to run it, you won't have much trouble," he said.

EASTLAND ELKS PLAN INITIATION PROGRAM

EASTLAND, May 16.—Saturday, May 26, will be a gala day in Eastland, according to officials of the Elks' lodge here. They are planning on entertaining brother Bills from all over this section of the state. Thousands of circulars, posters and newspaper advertising has been sent out over West Texas, even south as far as San Antonio, inviting Elks and their friends to be in Eastland Saturday, May 26, for the largest initiation of Elks ever held in Eastland county.

Neighboring Elks have assured the entertainment committee that they will be here. Special interest is being taken by these lodges as several applications have been received from out of town for admittance to the Eastland lodge. It is said the Eastland club now has a larger membership than either Ranger or Cisco.

The committee on entertainment have on display at the City News Stand a beautiful loving cup which will be awarded the person having the prettiest and most elaborately decorated car in the parade to be held during the morning.

EQUIPMENT TO GRIND MOTOR CAR CYLINDERS INSTALLED IN RANGER

When an automobile driver "steeps on it" going up a hill and the motor refuses to respond, he declares solemly the "old car hasn't any pep." He complains to the repair man at his favorite garage and the former makes an examination.

If he goes far enough and finds the walls of the cylinders scored, he has located the trouble. He tells the owner, the cylinders need to be ground to get service from the motor in proportion to the gas used.

Until today, Ranger auto owners, who needed this class of work done had to send the cars out of the city. This meant additional delay. But by tonight a Heald, No. 60 grinding machine will be in operation at the Postoffice garage under the charge of Ellis Gotcher, an experienced operator.

Excessive use of oil and gas and the fouling of the spark plugs, the expert repair man will tell you is the result of leaking cylinders. This will result if the cylinder bore is not straight and round for proper compression can not be obtained if the hole is not round. The car's speed depends for one thing on the efficiency of compression. The piston rings will not fit properly if the cylinder walls have been scored by the piston appreciably. This will let the oil get by the piston rings into the combustion chamber, leaving carbon on the head of the piston.

The Heald machine was installed at a cost of $3100, according to the Postoffice garage management.

In grinding the cylinders, an abrasive wheel is held by a rigid arm moving at a high rate of speed, cutting away the metal freely until a round and straight hole is produced. The abrasive wheel moves in a true circle.

Many high grade automobiles such as the Stutz, Lincoln, Pierce-Arrow, Locomobile, and others are reground before leaving the factory.
