CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN MAY HIT HOVELS

DRY AGENTS TO GUARD CANADIAN BORDER CLOSELY

Federal Authorities Determined to Keep "Hard" Liquor Out of New York.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The first step of the federal government towards assuming full responsibility for enforcement of prohibition in New York will be taken shortly.

Along with withdrawal of New York from cooperation in the enforcement of the federal prohibition act comes the determination of the federal enforcement authorities to act speedily before the border situation gets out of hand.

Secretary of Treasury Mellon, who considers the border problem the most serious of all created by repeal of the New York law, will confer with Internal Revenue Collector Blain and Prohibition Commissioner Haynes on a plan of action.

Wrecked Oil Cars Start Big Fire On River

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 5.—A bridge of the A. T. & S. F. railroad over the Cimaron river, about 3 miles north of here, was destroyed early today.

A wagon bridge about one-half mile down the river also was damaged.

VETERAN OF WORLD WAR ASKS CLEMENCY TO SAVE HIS LIFE

HOUSTON, June 5.—T. T. Barton, 26, veteran of the World War and for nine months a patient of the Camp Logan Tubercular hospital here, must go to what physicians claim will be his death cell at the Texas penitentiary unless Governor Neff grants him executive clemency before June 29.

Barton was found guilty of stealing an automobile and given a five-year suspended sentence. The evidence was circumstantial and Barton protested his innocence.

Because his lawyer failed to place him on the stand, the judge ruled that the suspended sentence could not be granted. The sentence was reduced to two years.

The jury has made written affidavit that it would not have given Barton such a heavy penalty had it known a suspended sentence could not be granted.

The former service man was discharged from the tubercular hospital several days ago and is now on a 90-day furlough, granted by the governor. The furlough expires midnight June 23, and unless a pardon is granted by the governor before that time the man will have to go to the penitentiary, where, physicians say, the "white plague" will kill him within three months.

Barton was a non-commissioned officer in charge of gas instruction during the war. He served overseas and was given an honorable discharge when he returned to this country. The effect of the gas on his lungs caused him to fall a victim to tuberculosis, according to physicians.

BOY SCOUTS CHALLENGE ROTARIANS TO PLAY BALL

Ranger Boy Scout baseball team has challenged the Rotary club for a game of baseball, according to Scoutmaster W. R. Pettet of Troop No. 1. He said the challenge had been accepted by Gus L. Coleman, president of the Rotarians. No date has been set but the game will be played within a week.

A small admission fee will be charged, the proceeds to be used to complete the scout building at Haganman Lake.

Language Class Come Forward, All Officers Attend

DALLAS, June 5.—"Now children, sit up and pay attention while we have the English lesson," is the way Judge Atwell could have begun a recent session of his court.

The judge elucidated to the court attaches the right and wrong way of reading testimony regarding violations of the Volstead act.

The court's ire was aroused when officers and prosecutors of his court used the terms "bootleg," "raid," and "joint" in giving testimony regarding their arrests.

So from now on the testimony will probably be given in the following approved form: "We made a thorough search of the premises and found a quantity of contraband liquor," rather than the colloquial "we raided a joint and got some booze."

BOY SCOUTS TO WORK SATURDAY ON CLUBHOUSE

Troops Nos. 1 and 2, Ranger Boy Scouts, will hike to the new scout camp at Haganman lake Friday night to spend the night in their quarters and on Saturday to fall to the task of completing their building.

Windows have to be screened and the porch boxed. This was decided on last night at a business meeting of the scouts on the mezzanine floor of the Gholson hotel. Sixty scouts were present.

B. F. Bennett, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Robert ("Bob") Bates of the Oilbelt Motor company talked to the scouts. Mr. Bennett asked the youths to join with civic bodies in the big clean-up campaign next week. Mr. Bates talked solely of the Boy Scout movement here and there.

The scouts re-elected patrol leaders and an assistant for both troops. Troop No. 1 re-elected the following scouts: Patrol No. 1 (Eagles), Harry Britton; assistant Philip Shipp. Troop No. 2 (Wolf) Jack Sanderford; assistant Glenn Hawkins. No. 3 (Wild Cats) Buster Mills; assistant Jack Galloway.

Troop No. 2 will be officered by the following: Patrol No. 1, Ewell Phillips; assistant Truman Bohanon. Patrol No. 2, Francis Plumley; assistant T. J. Melton. Troop No. 2, Bobbie Sanderford; assistant Richard Allworth.

CYCLONE IN ITALY CLAIMS MANY LIVES

MILAN, Italy, June 5.—Sixteen persons were killed in a cyclone which swept the Ossola Valley, according to official reports of deputies who were sent into the devastated region to inspect the extent of loss of life and property. The government has been asked for immediate aid, especially in the way of food and shelter.

The property loss, according to the reports, will run as high as $17,000,000.

GOVERNOR APPROVES NEW ELECTROUTION ACT

AUSTIN, June 5.—Governor Neff Monday signed the Thomas bill abolishing hanging as the method of administering capital punishment and substituting electrocution instead.

The "blue sky" bill and that creating a separate state banking department also were signed. The Burkett bill to locate the eleventh court of civil appeals at Eastland was vetoed.

CARDINAL DEAD RELIGIOUS WAR IS THREATENED

Soldevia, Archbishop of Saragossa, Killed by Assassins; Spain in Uproar.

MADRID, Spain, June 5.—A religious war is threatened in Spain as a result of the assassination of Cardinal Soldevia, archbishop of Saragossa.

The Catholic churchman was slain as he was alighting from an automobile outside the monastery St. Vincent de Paul, three or four shots being fired by assassins hidden behind trees. He collapsed dead. His chauffeur and valet also were wounded.

Authorities are taking precautions to prevent street outbreaks in the larger cities and towns of Spain. Rioting has already been reported in Barcelona, where the cardinal was revered.

CITIZENS' MILITARY TRAINING CAMP AGE LIMITS ARE REDUCED

FORT SAM HOUSTON, June 5.—Orders have just been received from the office of the adjutant general of the army, Washington, D. C., permitting corps area commanders to accept applications for the Citizens' Military Training camps who are 16 years of age, but who will be 17 sometime during the calendar year 1923. Thus, a young man who is only 16 years old when the camp opens July 28th, but will be 17 on or before December 31st, 1923, may be accepted.

The order granting this authority reads as follows: "Several applications from young men below 17 years of age have been forwarded to this office, recommended by commanding generals of corps areas, for acceptance.

"The minimum age limit for entrance to the C. M. T. camps was determined by the war department after considering recommendations from all the corps commanders and from other sources in the country at large. The secretary of war considers that candidates for the camps should have attained the physical, mental and moral characteristics typical of a well developed young man of 17 and directs that 17 be the normal minimum age limit for the camps.

"However, the corps area commanders are authorized to accept applicants for the basic red course who will attain the age of 17 during the calendar year in which the camp is conducted, when they are convinced that the young men in question are of exceptional physique; that they possess the required attributes of character and who have sufficient mental and moral stamina to attend the C. M. T. camp.

"This authority will not be used to lower, in any manner, the standards that have heretofore been expected in the C. M. T. camps."

This order will have a pronounced effect upon the recruiting of C. M. T. students in the Eighth Corps area, which includes Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico.

Heretofore, a large number of applicants who were perfectly qualified physically had to be rejected because they were a few months, and in some cases, a few days, under the age limit.

Any young man who may be affected by this change, even though they have been previously rejected, should make application at once. There is a Citizens' Training camp representative in practically every town in the corps area. Application may be made to these representatives or by writing direct to C. M. T. Officer, Eighth Corps area, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

BOOTLEGGERS BUSY RUSHING SHIPMENTS OF LIQUOR TO BORDER

MANTREAL, Canada, June 5.—American bootleggers from New York state are rushing shipments of Canadian liquor to the border, hoping to smuggle heavy cargoes across the line before the federal authorities have time to establish their cordon along the international boundary.

These bootleggers are seizing the opportunity offered by the repeal of the New York enforcement law and slackening of law enforcement.

RANGER FLOODED BY HEAVY RAIN DURING NIGHT

Gutters Overflow and Water Gets Into Basement at Gholson Hotel.

A terrific downpour of rain early this morning caused a miniature flood in Ranger streets and the lowlands. It began falling about 1:40 a. m. and for 30 minutes or more poured in torrents. It slowed up after falling hard for more than half an hour.

The water carried everything that was loose, paper, sticks and sand, onto the sidewalks. It was a two-inch rainfall, according to a Ranger man, who has a galvanized tub in his yard. There was a driving wind back of the rain.

The water got into cellars that have poor drains, or where the doors and windows are below the ground level. Persons, who slept through the rain found wet carpets, carpets and sills around the open windows.

The Gholson hotel lobby was washed with water that came through the immense skylight over the central court. A broken leader on the skylight allowed the water to run through from the roof. No great damage was done. The Gholson hotel basement was slightly flooded by water running in over the sidewalk. Water also ran into Crawford's drug store.

This is the second heavy rain within three days, a hard rainfall being registered early Saturday night.

GIRLS WHO ATTEND CHURCH NOT FRIVOLOUS SAYS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

EL PASO, June 5.—Four hundred and seventy-six El Paso high school girls, out of 573 who answered a questionnaire recently, are regularly attending church members. The other 97 go to church irregularly, it was said.

Of the 573 who replied, 459 attend Sunday school each Sunday, 20 said they went irregularly, and 94 replied they are not enrolled as members of Sabbath schools.

Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts, principal of the high school point to these figures as showing the be untrue reports of El Paso high school girls were frivolous or went to Juarez to enjoy the bright lights on that side of the river. He says that it is known that church going and Sabbath school attending young persons do not waste their time.

Thirty young women are working their way through high school. They are employed as stenographers, and clerks and thus support themselves. The number planning to go to college was 367.

SHRINERS ARE REVIEWED BY NOBLE HARDING

President, Attended by Imperial Potentate, Salutes Paraders From Allah Court.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Pennsylvania avenue, scene of many brilliant spectacles in the past, probably never saw such a colorful picture as 20,000 nobles of the Mystic Shrine marching over the "burning sands" from Washington Circle to the White House.

As the parade passed Allah Court in front of the White House, it was reviewed by President Harding, a noble, and Imperial Potentate McCandless and his divan.

Each of the scores of temples had its drill team and with the avenue cleared of all traffic, they were able to do all the complicated executions. Music was heard from the beginning to the end of the procession.

Crowds of spectators reached beyond the police limits, filled windows and all vantage points. A boiling sun beat down on the spectators and numerous heat prostrations resulted and ambulances were busy running through the crowds picking up heat victims.

The parade consumed more time than that allotted, delaying the opening session in the afternoon at which President Harding is to deliver an address.

MANY SHRINERS ARE PROSTRATED BY HEAT

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Forty heat prostrations had occurred among the Shriners marching today before half of the parade had passed the reviewing stand where President Harding stood. The boiling sun wilted the marchers and Red Cross and hospital ambulances took 32 to hospitals while eight others were treated in drug stores along the line of march.

Score of spectators also were affected by the heat which registered 90 degrees.

SECRET FRATERNITIES VERY DIFFERENT FROM SECRET CONSPIRACIES

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Secret fraternities are one thing and secret conspiracy is another. President Harding said this afternoon at the opening session of the Mystic Shrine here.

"I like the high purposed fraternity because it is an assurance against menacing associations," he said. "So long as 20,000,000 American cherish the principles of our government, and have due regard for constituted authority and love of liberty, the future is secure."

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR SPECIAL TRAIN IS WRECKED IN MICHIGAN

DURAND, Mich., June 5.—Five persons were killed and 40 or more injured when a special train on the Grand Trunk railroad was derailed two miles west of here today. The train was carrying Knights Templar to a state convention in Flint.

NEW YORK MOB HELD BACK BY POLICEMEN WITH DRAWN PISTOLS

NEW YORK, June 5.—Police with drawn revolvers kept back an angry crowd today and permitted the escape from a mob of William Mooncey, a street car motorman, whose car had a short time before run over and killed a baby. Some of the mob stoned the car and Mooncey was threatened with violence.

The mother of the baby claimed that Mooncey had been careless in operating the car and because of his carelessness the baby had been killed.

Clean Up and Get Ready For Early Start In Campaign

"Clean up your premises before the city-wide campaign to clean up the streets, alleys and lots begins next Monday," was the suggestion of B. F. Bennett, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, today.

The idea is for citizens to get their own cleaning done and out of the way that they may assist in the general clean-up, and that all rubbish will be placed at convenient points for the trucks and wagons to pick up next Monday.

The three days for cleaning up are June 11, 12 and 13.

SENATE REFUSES TO REDUCE SUM FOR EDUCATION

AUSTIN, June 5.—The general educational appropriation bill, carrying appropriations amounting to $11,800,000 was endorsed by the senate today, the vote being 14 to 8. The appropriation is the same as passed at the last session and vetoed by Governor Neff. A plan to make a reduction was voted down 16 to 6. A reduction of more than $1,100,000 in the educational bill was defeated, 17 to 5.

An amendment by Senator Burkett, which sought to itemize the entire bill was defeated. The reduction will be left to the joint conference committee.

House Proceedings. The Turner bill extending for five years all oil and gas permits on state land, and the Carpenter bill regulating property conditions for tax purposes were finally passed by the house today. The Bonham bill amending the recently enacted delinquent tax bill was endorsed by the house.

Representatives Stewart of Jasper and Furl of Dallas entered into a personal debate on a resolution proposed to dispense with the services of three committee clerks. After considerable discussion the resolution was postponed.

Rural School Aid. The house went on record for an appropriation of $1,500,000 for rural school aid when it adopted an amendment to the Great bill, 59 to 43 after tabling a resolution calling for an appropriation of $2,000,000.

GOVERNOR VEToes BILL FOR EASTLAND COURT. AUSTIN, June 5.—The Burkett senate bill creating the eleventh court of criminal appeals to be established at Eastland was vetoed by Governor Neff late Monday. In disapproving this bill the governor stated in his veto message:

"This bill is disapproved and vetoed for the reason that we already have too many courts of criminal appeals. This legislature during its regular session created a new court of civil appeals and a large number of district courts, would place an additional burden upon the tax payers of the state. Before the creation of the new courts we already had too many district courts and too many courts of civil appeals.

SHACKS BARRED FROM RANGER BY STATE STATUTES

City Charter Also Presents Means of Removing Them as Fire Menaces.

If the city of Ranger moves against the owners of shacks, located within the fire limits of the city, it can base its court action both on state laws and the city charter. That legal action is being contemplated against the owners of several downtown shacks, which are known to be a menace to the safety of life and property and also to health was indicated several weeks ago by Mayor Hodges in a statement to a Daily Times representative.

Fire Hazards Barred. City Attorney Milton T. Lyman outlined briefly the steps the city must take to condemn fire hazards and the provisions of the article dealing with the subject of public safety in the Texas Civil statutes.

Article 1096 specifically mentions the right of a municipality to condemn dangerous structures or buildings or dilapidated buildings or buildings calculated to increase the fire hazard.

The city charter, written by A. E. Firmin, Ranger attorney, also defines the power of the city to insist upon safety in buildings standing within the city limits.

Structures that are a public nuisance and injurious to the health of citizens are liable to court action, once the fact that the building is actually a nuisance is actually established.

The paragraph of Article 1096 dealing with the establishment of fire limits declares:

"To provide for the establishment and designation of fire limits and to prescribe the kind and character of buildings or structure or improvements to be erected therein; to provide for condemnation of dangerous structures or buildings or dilapidated buildings calculated to increase the fire hazard and the manner of their removal or destruction."

All Treated Alike. City Attorney Lyman pointed out that no one building could be singled out for condemnation, and the remainder, equally as dangerous, be allowed to stand. The character of the neighborhood would have to be considered before procedure of any kind could be made. He said it would be easier for the city to act if a dilapidated shack stood amongst a number of well constructed buildings.

Persons, who wish to see Ranger converted into a modern and pretty city point out that numberless shacks some ready to tumble in because of their faulty and cheap construction, will never be of use to their owners in the city's history of the future.

Three-fourths of the dilapidated shacks within two blocks of Main street are empty, an investigation will reveal.

CREWS OF FOREIGN SHIPS IN U. S. PORTS MAY YET GET LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Foreign nations, whose laws require the issuance of liquor licenses to ships may obtain necessary permits to bring in moderate amounts of liquor for use of the crew if they can convince the local port authorities that the liquor carried is necessary for the health of the ship's crew.

This announcement was made today at the treasury department.

WIND, HAIL AND RAIN CARRY DESTRUCTION TO AREA NEAR DENISON

DENISON, Texas, June 5.—Precipitation of 1 3/4 inches of rain in less than 30 minutes last night, accompanied by wind and hail, caused thousands of dollars damage to those within a 4-mile area near here. In Denison, stocks in stores were damaged when streets became flooded and the water overflowed the sidewalks.

Within the 4-mile area where the wind blew most violently several small houses were blown down and others unroofed, trees were uprooted, fire communication interrupted and the grain crop that was ready to be harvested was almost destroyed.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

Everybody laughed at Ellick Helwanger when he appeared one cool day wearing the first straw hat of the season, but he says if somebody didn't be bold enough to wear the first one, there wouldn't be any worn at all.

A lady near Rye Straw took a shot at her husband one morning recently, but she missed him so far he kept on talking to the other lady.

The Ladies Mite society has been organized by the Methodist women and held their first meeting Thursday afternoon. Poke Eazley, who has been tinkering around his hen house a right smart this week, believes he is eligible to join.

SMITH'S DECISION MIGHT MAKE HISTORY

B.P. Gage, J.B. Muller, Louis Cuvillier, Charles Murphy, Gov. Alfred E. Smith.

"To sign or not to sign." That was the question confronting Governor Alfred E. Smith, following the close of a lengthy debate between wet and dry forces gathered for the public hearing at Albany on the measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier and passed by the legislature, repealing the state prohibition enforcement law, enacted through the efforts of Senator J. B. Muller and Assemblyman B. P. Gage, of New York. The governor signed the bill despite the fact that his political future had been more or less threatened by both sides. In the lengthy statement accompanying the approval of the bill, the governor, according to the opinion of many leaders, practically outlines the principles upon which he will seek the Democratic nomination for President at the 1924 convention.

BANKERS CAUTION AGAINST INFLATION

By J. H. PUELICHER
President of the American Bankers Association

A recent meeting of the Executive Council of the American Bankers Association, attended as it was by representative bankers from every state in the Union, afforded an excellent opportunity to get a composite view of the business situation in the nation as a whole. Representatives of agriculture were present at the meeting. They made it clear that the upward trend of affairs in business had not yet reached the farmer and that his position of having to pay a relatively larger price for what he purchases as compared with that received for what he sells should be given the most thoughtful consideration.

There were also present men fresh from observing and studying conditions in Europe. While they lent encouragement to the belief that European affairs are slowly, very slowly—righting themselves, there is in the feeling generally expressed by American bankers a distinct note of caution. Questions of the Hour

One hears the questions everywhere asked: "Are we going to permit American affairs to slide again into a situation of extreme inflation, which will, as we all know, be followed by another period of depression? Had we not better keep business on a normal keel by not going too rapidly? Should not the banker be sounding a note of warning to business men generally to keep their affairs well in hand?"

HOW WOULD YOU SPEND A MILLION DOLLARS SHOULD IT COME TO YOU AFTER MANY YEARS OF HARD WORK?

By United Press.
CHICAGO, June 5.—What would you do with a million dollars?

Several of the "Springer heirs, inc.," who claim they are about to inherit $500,000,000 worth of property in Wilmington, Del., by proving their rights through a title alleged to have been granted to one of the original Springers, answered the interviews with the United Press.

There are several hundred of the "heirs," most of whom have lived lives of hard work. A representative number of them held a convention in Chicago to lay plans for what they said would result in the $500,000,000 inheritance, giving them about $1,000,000 each after "expenses" dianapolis, said.

"With my riches," C. M. Chown, Lima, Ohio, declared, "I will build spiritual temples in Lima and Clinton. My money will be used to lead straying feet into righteous paths."

"I will buy an airplane, so I can visit Chicago easily, and I will go in for raising Belgian police dogs," Mrs. Emma B. Springer, widow of Indianapolis, said.

A home for old maids and bachelors of the Springer heirs would be built by Maud Lindley, Chicago. J. W. Lutes, Chicago laborer, said he had worked long enough and would spend the rest of his life in a plush covered chair with a pipe in his mouth—IF he got his million.

"A tour of the Pacific Ocean Islands and the Orient would be the first thing I would do, and then I would be ready to die," A. H. Denison, who has farmed all his life near Dunlap, Ill., confided.

J. L. St. Pierre, Detroit, would help his fellowmen by loaning his riches to those wishing to go into business. "I would also build a castle for my old father and mother, who have had to work hard all their lives to get by," St. Pierre said.

O. C. Crume, farmer, Flora, Ind., has aspirations of becoming a railroad magnate, and said he would buy some kind of a railroad in Indiana, when he gets his million.

Charles W. Donn, Detroit, remembered the fight his parents made in the struggle for the Springer inheritance. "I would build a monument to my mother and father, because they saved all they made to help pay the legal costs in the contest for this property," Donn declared.

Relief from constipation, whether it be mild or chronic, will follow the regular, every-day eating of Kellogg's Bran. We have thousands of letters from former sufferers who tell us that the natural "bulk-action" of this wonderful cereal product has given relief they have not known for years. We guarantee that Kellogg's Bran will free the system from constipation because it is ALL BRAN—not a composition in which bran is added. If constipation is to be permanently relieved, you must eat ALL BRAN—that's why your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran for constipation.

Constipation creates toxic conditions which poison the blood and every organ of the body. It slows you down mentally and physically, and creates sick headaches, nausea, bad breath, pimples—finally, in many cases, leading to Bright's disease, diabetes and other dreaded illnesses. You must fight constipation with Kellogg's Bran regularly if you want health!

You'll say Kellogg's Bran is really delicious—it has a nut-like flavor that appeals to the most fastidious appetite. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled on hot or cold cereals or cooked with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person. Be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls each day; as much with each meal in chronic cases. Kellogg's Bran is delicious made into muffins, macaroons, raisin bread, griddle cakes. Recipes in every package. Kellogg's Bran is served by leading hotels, clubs and restaurants in individual packages. It is sold by all grocers.

HUMAN SACRIFICE IN RHODESIA TO APPEASE GODDESS OF THE RAIN

By Associated Press

SALISBURY, So. Rhodesia, June 5 Human sacrifice is still practiced in some parts of the old world. This became known today when six persons were sentenced to death for the sacrifice of a young man by fire in an effort to appease the rain goddess. Rhodesia had been suffering a long time from a drought. The claim was made that the rain goddess was angry and it was charged by one that she had become incensed because of being assaulted by a young man. The rain goddess herself, described as a handsome young woman, did not testify against him, nevertheless he was taken out and buried alive.

COLLEGE MEN HAVE CHANCE TO PLAY BASEBALL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, June 5.—College baseball is advancing so rapidly in class that major league scouts in the immediate future may confine their time up to June around the outskirts of the university campus.

Princeton, right on the heels of the eastern football championship, seems to have clinched the baseball championship with one of the finest college teams seen anywhere.

After traveling all over the middle-west and the east, looking over college teams, a veteran sport writer, whose opinion amounts to something, said Princeton had a team that played as well as one or two teams in the major leagues, and that was good enough to play in the class AA leagues.

College players, who desire to take up baseball as a profession, will have more opportunities to make good now than were ever offered before. The draft minor between the majors and the leading minor leagues has cut off the best supply of the big leagues and the college diamond is now regarded as one of the best fields of development.

John McGraw, one of the wisest of all baseball men, prefers college players, because they are qualified to learn and trained to think. It is said that the Giant leader has the ambition to present a championship team composed entirely of college players before he retires.

Connie Mack has always been strong for college players and he keeps such a close watch on the varsity diamonds that scouts going after college prospects nearly always cross the trail of Mack and find that he was there ahead of them.

Zev, the Sinclair colt that won the Kentucky Derby, is a real prima donna. He runs when he feels like it and when things go wrong he sulks. One of the youngsters at the barrier for the start of the Preakness gave him a couple of kicks and Zev got peeved and wouldn't run. He stayed on his grouch until a few days before the Derby, when he got back into a runnin' mood and he went out and won the big classic.

There are a lot of Zevs in other sports and they all haven't four legs.

WHAT FARMERS NEED ADDED TO CREDIT AND GOOD ADVICE

By WALTER W. HEAD
First Vice President American Bankers Association.

If the farmer is not prosperous there can be no permanent prosperity in other industries, because the farmer's purchasing power, under normal conditions, is one of the most potent influences we have in the United States. When conditions with the farmer are good, and he is receiving the cost of production plus something more for his labor, he is in a position to buy from the manufacturer.

A condition that affects the farmer, cutting off his purchasing power, destroying his belief in himself, in the banker and in everybody else, can only bring about a chaotic condition, which affects every business man and laboring man in the United States, regardless of what job he may have.

The farmer had all the credit and advice he needed during the period of prosperity, but he, with us all, suffered depression. There clearly must have been something lacking to enable him to go on the even tenor of his way. The answer is very plain. It is that some means need to be provided to enable the farmer, after his labor has been expended, when the crops have been harvested, or when his live stock have reached the stage where he must ship it, to liquidate his indebtedness. He must have somebody interested in him sufficiently, not altogether from his own standpoint, but from the standpoint of the banker and business man, so that he can put his products on the market at the time when they will bring him the most.

I do not mean to endorse every imaginable scheme for co-operative marketing, but I do believe the basic idea is worthy of consideration from the banker's standpoint as well as from the farmer's standpoint. Bankers are certainly interested in the farmer, by reason of the fact that they cannot be prosperous in their own business unless the farmer also is prosperous. They must interest themselves in the farmer, not only in giving him the business advice he needs and in financing him during the period of construction, but also in helping him place his products on the market at a time when they will bring him the cost of production, plus a reasonable addition for his services and in payment for his labor expended.

VOGUE OF THE JACQUETTE LIKE GREEN LINE ON SUBWAY

BY HEDDA HOYT,
(Fashion Editor of the United Press)
NEW YORK, June 5.—Following the "vogue for the jacquette" is like following the green line on the subway. You can get a long ways for a little money.

The smartly gowned woman has not only one but several jacquettes in her summer wardrobe. They are made of different materials and for different occasions. They are extremely simple to make and the woman who sews at home will find that one pattern is sufficient for any number of jacquettes, as they are all made on similar lines.

There are sports jacquettes of printed materials bound in ribbon, vivid colored flannels, crepes, and for dressier sports wear there are those of chiffon velvet which are worn with silk pleated skirts. Then there are those charming little affairs made of embroidered Japanese silk crepe which can be purchased in lovely tones of jade, yellow, rose and gray. They are combined either with skirts of matching shades which are embroidered or with white pleated skirts.

Again we have a dressy frock by combining a jacquette of beautifully embroidered silk material with a pleated skirt which carries out the dominant shade of the jacquette. Either buckles or ribbon sashes are used as a side fastening for these jacquettes.

Paris Shoe Tendencies.
The tendency for shorter skirts has brought a demand for the shorter vamped shoe in Paris. These latest models are not as short and stumpy as to vamp, however, as the shoes of a season or so ago.

Bright colored kid shoes continue to be popular in Paris and it is thought they will last throughout the summer. For every day wear, brown, tan, beige and all leather shades are favored, and they are adorned with ivory buckles either in plain buckle shapes or in carved oval effects. Sometimes these buckles are tinted to match the leather of the shoe, but as a rule they are left in their ivory tones. For evening wear the plain satin slipper in colors or in black are embroidered in the vamp with silver or gold metal in fancy designs. Brocades combined with gold kid are almost as popular as they were in the winter season for evening wear. This is the first season brocades have been carried on into the summer months. Eyelet monograms on the vamps of slippers offer a new usage of the cut-out effect and they are being sponsored by several well known Parisian boot shops.

Latest Novelties.

Some of the newest bracelet handbags have narrow straps, ornamented at the wrist with jeweled ornaments, monograms set in rhinestones or Egyptian medallions. Tiny slides matching the ornaments confine the strap about the wrist, giving a bracelet effect. Sometimes there are tiny gilt or silver tassels attached to the ornament which dangle about the wrist. These bags come in colored leather as well as in taffeta faille and moire. Another pretty bag is made of knife-pleated blue taffeta, attached to a celluloid frame of amber shade.

The vogue for light toned stockings has brought several new shades into the limelight. There is a grayish pink which is just a trifle off the nude tone, a pale violet shading into light caramel, called "mauve" and several new cinnamon tones. Nude is still popular and gunmetal for the black pump is being stressed considerably.

Knob handled canes with leather straps will be carried by many New York women this season at resorts and for sport events.

Even the little dolls that dress like window displays of the smart shops are becoming "Tut-ish" in their costumes with their Egyptian head-dresses and gowns.
