PRESIDENT FACES TAX REVISION PROBLEM

Ranger Has Taste of Blue Sunday Law and Finds It Has Bitter Flavor

DEALERS ARE REMINDED OF OLD STATUTE

Deputy Sheriff Heeds Request for Evidence and Warns Against Sunday Sales.

An old state law of 1876, forbidding the sale of merchandise, with certain exceptions, was resurrected yesterday in Ranger, and one merchant arrested under its provisions. Raymond Teal, proprietor of the Fountain, a popular stand in the Lamb theatre building on Main street, was charged with violating the so-called Blue law, and he gave a personal appearance bond. The arrest was made by officer Jim Ingram.

A letter from E. A. Bills, an attorney of Eastland, and not one from the sheriff's department, to Deputy Sheriff Haden Neal of Ranger, was responsible for the latter notifying proprietors and managers of drug stores, confectioneries and groceries that certain goods must not be sold. Merely Gets Evidence.

Deputy Sheriff Neal made no arrests, he told a newspaper man this afternoon. He declared Sunday morning that he would not file any complaints. He said that Bills, who has been employed as special prosecuting attorney in cases against owners of movie houses in Ranger, Eastland and Cisco for a group of ministers in the county, requested him to work up cases Sunday.

Bills requested, the deputy sheriff said in response to an inquiry for his authority after it was learned that County Attorney Barnes apparently had nothing to do with the order, that he get the names of the sellers of cigars, the names of the purchasers and a description of the merchandise and the prices paid.

This attorney further requested in his letter that he get the name of the picture show owner, with a brief description of the picture, so that Neal, as a witness could tell it in his own words.

When asked if he had sent any information in to Eastland as the result of his inquiry he said he had. Further asked if he had any knowledge when the complaints, if any, would be filed against Ranger business men, he said he had been told it would be on Nov. 19, or one week from today.

McFatter Protests.
J. N. McFatter, justice of the peace in Ranger precinct, said today that he would not have anything to do with the movement to close Ranger up on Sundays.

"I will not take any complaints," he said. "I'll resign my office before I will. This law hasn't been enforced at any time in the four years I've been here. Why should I take a special interest in it now?"

COUNTY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE KNOWS NOTHING OF ATTACK

EASTLAND, Nov. 12.—County Attorney Barnes is out of the city today. Gilvie Hubbard, an assistant in his office, said he knew nothing about the effort to enforce the Sunday "Blue Law," in Ranger and was sure that the order under which action was taken Sunday had not come from Mr. Barnes.

"It's just a retaliation," said Hubbard. "It's all a part of that Sunday closing squabble they had over there some time ago."

No effort to compel observance of the Sunday closing law was made in Eastland yesterday, cigars, cigarettes, soda water and anything else that one might wish for pleasure or refreshment being sold freely. It was stated here, too, that Cisco was running Sunday just as wide open as was Eastland.

NEGRO MINER KILLED, OTHERS HURT IN ALABAMA MINE

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 12.—One negro miner was killed and nine others injured, four of them seriously, when an explosion occurred in the entrance of a coal mine at Moffett Spur, Ala., this morning, according to a report reaching the bureau of mines here. It is thought the explosion was caused by the ignition of a pocket of gas.

Crude Oil Becoming Scarcer, Demand Increasing Steadily

The prorating policy put into effect early last summer by the big oil pipeline companies in Texas is virtually finished. Announcement that the Sinclair, like the Prairie, expected to take a greater amount of crude from connected leases and the statement of the Gulf Pipe Line company that it would purchase full production of connected leases brings to an end the curtailment of crude purchases.

It may be some time, however, before the Sinclair and Prairie purchase the stored oil, as the other major pipe line companies are doing, but the action of these companies in taking greater amounts of oil is believed to constitute a step in that direction.

The announcement of the Sinclair and Prairie was modified with the statement that the company did not expect to put on any storage building program.

Beside the Sinclair, Prairie and Gulf, three other principal purchasers of crude oil in Texas, now have no restrictions on the amount of the purchase. These are the Texas company Magnolia and Humble.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATED IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

Business Largely Suspended in Honor of Anniversary of World War End.

Eastland took a sure enough holiday Monday to celebrate Armistice Day and to pay its respects to the soldier boys. The Retail Merchants' association voted to close at noon, but nearly all members of the organization went their formal resolutions one better and were closed all day.

Groceries, markets and drug stores were about all that were open in the forenoon and it appeared likely that Eastland would be tight as a drum by afternoon.

The weather helped a lot. Through Sunday the lowering clouds and high wind gave promise of rain and perhaps cold. But late Monday morning the sun came out and the air was balmy and pleasant.

Many Visitors In City
Early in the morning visitors began to come in from neighboring towns and country and by noon parking space about the court house square was at a premium. And the worst was yet to come and the largest part of the crowd was not expected until the afternoon, for the Eastland-Weatherford football game.

Flags were in evidence all over Eastland. The city hall, schools and other public buildings displayed their flags and the national emblem also waved from the Elks club, the American legion athletic club, the banks and such places.

Nearly every store displayed specially decorated show windows, decorated with flags and bunting. Some of them had groups of war trophies, guns, gas masks, tin hats, German helmets, automobiles and such things.

Drills and Gym Work
There was a good attendance at the athletic club in the morning, where from 9 to 11 o'clock there was a series of athletic drills and gymnastics by pupils of the high school, girls and boys and by the Boy Scouts. It was a highly interesting exhibition and no little degree of skill was displayed. The work of the youngsters spoke well for their teachers and trainers.

The youngest was born shortly after the death of its exiled father on the Island of Madeira. The ex-Empress Zita is said now to be almost destitute. The heir to the Austrian throne, Prince Otto, is at the extreme left of the photograph.

Chestnut & Smith Gasoline Plant 108 Recovers From Fire

The Chestnut & Smith corporation gasoline plant, No. 108, visited by a bad fire two weeks ago, has three engines in operation, and is producing 12,000 gallons daily, approximately. The plant's full capacity is about 30,000.

It is not known when all of the engines will be running, this being dependent upon the arrival of new materials, R. W. Gordon, assistant superintendent, said in an answer to a newspaperman's inquiry.

An explosion of gas wrecked the plant two weeks ago today. Three men, who were working in the galvanized iron engine building at the time of the explosion, were severely burned, but all of them, George Seibert, Arthur Haney and D. L. Williams are recovering at a local hospital.

VETERANS' BUREAU HEARING MAY CLOSE THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Inquiry into the veterans' bureau, medical, insurance, and rehabilitation and disability claims formed the subject of questioning today by the senate veterans' bureau committee. An effort will be made to close the hearing this week and witness for Charles Forbes, former director of the bureau, probably will be heard Wednesday if he desires to take the stand at that time.

WALTON BLAMES KLAN FOR HIS IMPEACHMENT

If Convicted, Expects to Carry
Issue to United States Supreme Court.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—"The fight will go on."

Seated in a modestly furnished living room of his executive mansion, Governor "Jack" Walton today blamed the klan for the impeachment proceedings against him. The suspended governor expects to be impeached. His counsel may carry the issue up to the United States supreme court.

Already the house board of managers, prosecuting the case, has completed its evidence in 20 out of 22 counts. But Governor Walton says he will carry on the fight he has started against the inviolable empire.

The hearing was continued today by witnesses regarding the purchase of Walton's home, which may drag on in argument for a number of weeks. It is believed by some the hearing may end abruptly. Once the prosecution has satisfied itself that it has built up a sufficient amount of evidence it will rest. The defense will then have its inning before the senate takes a vote. Twenty-eight of the 42 votes in the senate are required for impeachment.

Another anti-klan movement was launched today by Aldrich Blake, former counsel to Governor Walton. He sent out initiative petitions for a bill forbidding the masking of faces and requiring the filing and recording of names and addresses of officers and names of members of secret organizations by counties. Blake said he did not doubt but that the present legislature would enact such legislation.

Ku Klux Klan Issue Barred From Trial of Governor Walton

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 12.—The first attempt to inject the Ku Klux Klan issue into the impeachment trial of Governor Walton failed today when the senate court by an oral vote refused to permit a witness to answer a question that bore upon the governor's opposition to the organization.

Morgan Martin, who testified that he had guarded the governor's residence on nights on different occasions during the last 18 months, had told the court that the governor's life had been threatened.

"At about that time Mr. Walton had issued as mayor of Oklahoma City a proclamation against the klan, had he not?" defense counsel asked. The prosecution objected and the president of the senate moved that reference to the klan be stricken from the record. The court supported his direction by an oral vote.

Parents of Dead Baby Are Held On Charge of Murder

By Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 12.—Flames seen by passersby on the Lake Worth road early this morning brought about a charge of murder in connection with the death of the eight-day-old baby of Ralph G. Vancil and also the holding of the mother without bond by the police here.

Officers saw Vancil when he drove his machine into a lonely road and, after alighting, started a fire. Investigation showed he was using some woman's wearing apparel for fuel. At first he said his wife had given birth to a baby in a Fort Worth sanitarium. Later he said the baby had fallen from the automobile and had been killed and, because of his financial inability to bury it properly, he had attempted to dispose of the body himself.

Investigation showed what appeared to be acid burns about the baby's mouth and a slight abrasion above the heart. The baby's body was found in a shallow grave.

GERMANY CONSIDERS FORMER CROWN PRINCE AS GERMAN CITIZEN

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A note replying to the protest sent by the council of the ambassadors protesting against the return of former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm to Germany was received here today. The note is understood to be of an unsatisfactory nature to the allies and members of the ambassadors' council were hurriedly notified to convene this afternoon for its consideration.

It is understood that Germany takes the stand that Frederick Wilhelm has the same rights in Germany as any other German citizen, and that the German government has no reproach against him.

GREAT BRITAIN UNCONCERNED ABOUT FORMER CROWN PRINCE

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Great Britain is not likely to undertake individual action looking to the ejection of Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm from Germany. Nor is it at all probable that she will stress his banishment in a collective representation, which may be made through the council of ambassadors, it was declared here today.

FORMER CROWN PRINCE NOT YET AT HIS HOME

OELS, Silesia, Nov. 12.—At 11 o'clock today, Oels was patiently awaiting the arrival of Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm, but was still without advices when he would join the former crown prince.

TRIAL OF FOX DOCKETED FOR DECEMBER 12

"God Told Me to Kill Coburn," Says Defendant to Alienists.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—Alienists expected today to resume the examination of Phil E. Fox, publicity director of the Ku Klux Klan, charged with the murder of William Coburn, leading attorney for the Simmons' faction of the klan. Fox's nervous condition was such Saturday that a postponement of the examination was agreed to after Fox had stated that "God told me to kill Coburn."

Meantime attorneys for the state and the defense are preparing evidence for the trial which is to be held Dec. 12. Solicitor General Boykin agreed to a postponement of the trial when Hugh Dorsey, former governor of Georgia, and attorney for Fox, protested that he had not had sufficient time to prepare the case for trial this week.

MEXICANS PROTESTING ELECTION FRAUDS IN SONORA START RIOT

By United Press.

NOGALES, Ariz., Nov. 12.—More than a dozen Mexicans were killed, including one city trustee, in a small border town in Sonora and scores were wounded in a bloody clash between police and a mob, according to advices received here.

The fight resulted when a crowd of 1,000 citizens advanced on the city hall protesting fraud in a municipal election.

According to word received from the Rio Mayo delta, where the crash occurred, members of a political organization called the "Delores Guarizippa," several hundred in number, marched on the city hall protesting against what was declared to be "false returns" in a recent municipal election. The president, treasurer and three city trustees fled to Navajo, about 30 miles distant.

Arriving at the city hall, the crowd was met by a hail of bullets from the police sheltered in an adjoining store. The shooting was returned and several were killed. Hard pressed, the police attempted to retreat, but were overtaken and the fighting resumed. Federal soldiers finally halted the rioting.

Ten Dallas Firemen Hurt, Two Seriously, When Trucks Collide

By United Press.

DALLAS, Nov. 12.—Eight firemen were in a hospital here today suffering from injuries when two fire trucks collided at a downtown street intersection while answering a fire alarm. Two others were less seriously hurt.

Of the eight men, four are injured seriously. All of them are suffering from numerous cuts, bruises and internal injuries. Fifteen persons, including one bystander, were hurt when a big ladder truck and a smaller machine crashed. The ladder truck was thrown against the curb, toppled over, dashing the men to the sidewalk.

The firemen were going to trash pile fire. A street car that had stopped to discharge passengers obstructed the view of the truck driver and he crashed into the aerial truck. Otto Maples and H. Byrum, two of the firemen, have fractured skulls, and are regarded in a very serious condition.

MELLON'S NOTE FORERUNNER OF COOLIDGE PLAN

Message to Congress Will Ask for Some Action Along Lines Outlined.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Secretary Mellon's tax reduction program, it was learned today, is the biggest problem that will confront President Coolidge during the coming session of congress. While some of the house ways and means committee today hoped that Secretary Mellon's program might be made the basis for some action by congress, others were doubtful because it is feared that the president will find it impossible to obtain adoption of any satisfactory plan at the coming session.

President Coolidge today was working on his forthcoming message to congress. It is believed certain that the tax question will have a prominent part in the message and leaders in congress favorable to the president are awaiting some word from him before declaring themselves.

Will Arouse Controversy.

President Coolidge is expected to take the same attitude on tax questions as Secretary Mellon as outlined in his letter to Acting Chairman Green (Iowa) of the house ways and means committee. Senator King of Utah, acting chairman of the senate finance committee, said that it might be possible to cut the taxes 500 million dollars, but he is against revision at this time because of the controversy that would be aroused.

However, in view of the coming election, it is believed here the administration will try to get through some tax revision program. The agitation that will develop in congress in consequence makes it certain that President Coolidge will face many difficult problems. The soldiers' bonus will have a prominent place to tax discussions. Secretary Mellon declared that it will be impossible to pay a bonus and cut taxes also. On the other hand, the program of the progressives, headed by Senators Capper and La Follette, calls both for the bonus and the return of excess profits taxes, and also for an increase in the inheritance tax.

Mellon's Proposal.

Secretary Mellon, in his letter to Representative Green, recommends a revision of the federal taxes so the tax assessment may be reduced next year by $323,000,000.

Recommendations are made for a 25 per cent reduction in the taxes on earned incomes, reduction of the normal taxes on incomes from 4 per cent and 8 per cent to 3 per cent and 6 per cent, respectively; application of the surtax at $10,000 instead of $6,000 and scaling progressively upward to 25 per cent on incomes of $100,000, and repeal of the taxes on admissions and on telegrams, telephone messages and leased wires.

Against the reductions, the program provides taxation increases by limitation of the deduction of capital losses to 12 1-2 per cent of the loss and limitation of the deduction from gross income for interest paid during the year and for losses not of a business character to the amount the sum of these items exceeds tax-exempt income of the taxpayer. It is proposed, also, to tax community property income of the spouse having control of the income.

Mr. Mellon suggests that the changes be made effective next January.

CHARLES HUGHES DIES FROM HEART FAILURE DURING THE NIGHT

Charles Hughes was found dead in bed Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Mahaffey, of Eastland. The cause of death was believed to have been heart failure. Hughes had not been in the best of health for some time, but no alarm was felt for his condition when he retired on Saturday night.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Monday by the undertaking department of the Barrow Furniture company.

Hughes was the father-in-law of Charles H. Mahaffey, who is employed by the Prairie Gas & Oil company.

BIBLE THOUGHT

SELF-MASTERY.—Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer.—Psalm 19:13, 14.

TASTE OF "BLUE" LAWS

Ranger had a taste of the old-time so-called "blue laws" yesterday and found the taste rather bitter. But the odd thing is that there was little protest, both merchants and their customers merely smiling and shrugging their shoulders, sometimes remarking, "more of the county attorney's work."

It seems, however, that the county attorney was not responsible. A deputy sheriff living in Ranger received a letter from a lawyer living in Eastland who once upon a time was employed as a special prosecutor by a bloc of the for-the-blue-law citizens, asking him to collect evidence relating to the violation of an ancient statute on the law books of Texas forbidding most any kind of activity on the Sabbath day except going to church. In fact, it is claimed by some that if the strict letter of the law should be enforced ministers of the gospel would not be permitted to occupy their pulpits and preach on Sunday.

Just why the Eastland attorney should have been interested in having the ancient statute observed in Ranger, why he made no similar effort in either Eastland or Cisco or elsewhere in the county does not appear. Apparently he wished to have all business and other activities suspended in Ranger, but not elsewhere. And Ranger observed the law. Just so far as notification was given to suspend business, it was suspended, so the officer was able to obtain very little information upon which the Eastland attorney will be able to make any case in court.

It was remarkable that none got angry. In fact, few appeared to take it seriously except those who had failed to provide themselves with cigars, cigarettes or a bottle of "sody-pop" and even these found consoling friends who tided them over the hiatus.

Ranger is game. A little thing like strict law enforcement does not worry her at all. Ranger is used to it for Ranger always observes the law and might easily be held up as a model community in this respect.

Perhaps the Eastland attorney will try his little "searching out" in some other community next Sunday. Ranger is not especially interested whether he does or does not, for Ranger assumes that every community in Eastland county, like herself, is law abiding and believes in strict enforcement. Disappointed in obtaining such evidence in Ranger as he sought, the Eastland attorney will have to look elsewhere to find what he wants.

FOOTBALL DICTATORSHIP

Two high schools, both members of the interscholastic league, agree to play a practice game at the beginning of the season, before either has played a game in the series arranged for the championship. Neither team makes any stipulation as to eligibility of players, for neither cares which wins or loses, so far as the interscholastic league is concerned. The interscholastic league is not concerned and it is none of its business.

Of course the game is not reported to the league, the league not being interested, but the interscholastic league officers assume to themselves powers to pick up all contests, whether on its announced schedule or not, and so it gathers in the practice games—presumably from newspaper accounts—and insists they shall be counted as if included in the championship series.

Apparently the officers of the interscholastic league arrogate to themselves the right to say what games shall be played by high schools in Texas wishing to play interscholastic league games. The officers would have each high school ask permission for every game it plays outside those scheduled. Each must wear chains for the honor of belonging to the league.

Texans never did like a dictatorship and there is no need of one in the interscholastic league. Texas high schools should reserve to themselves the right to say what games they may wish to play outside the league's announced schedule and the league keep its hands off them. The high schools should hold themselves responsible to the league only for the previously scheduled games and for no others, for it cannot be considered good demerit for the high schools of the entire state to be governed in all their athletic activities by one little coterie of officers at one of the state's several institutions of higher learning.

GERMANY HUNGERS IN MIDST OF PLENTY

By CARL D. GROAF
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN (By mail to United Press) Germany thought it hungered during the war. Today it begins to know the real meaning of the word hunger. Strangely enough, hunger in the midst of plenty!

Bursting barns in East Prussia, Pommern, Brandenburg and elsewhere. Foodless homes in Berlin and other big cities; coalless dwellings to accentuate the gnawing at the stomach.

That is the picture presented in Germany as the leaves of autumn are shaken off by the cold blasts of winter. Growing unemployment and short-time labor in the belching mills and mines of Prussia, the Ruhr and Rhineland are part of the answer for this hunger.

But, on the other hand, the fatal inflation policy of post-war days has led to a situation where today the peasants and big landowners sell nothing to the metropolis against paper money. The government hopes its new rentenmark will be ready by mid-November. Then the peasants are ready to disgorge.

But the month intervening between the time of writing and the accomplishment of this new currency is a month fraught with misgivings for those who rule the nation and those who would support their families.

In the last few weeks thousands of workers have been thrown onto the streets. Those still working must content themselves with two or three days work weekly. For this they have been getting about $1 or $2. This means about two huge black bread loaves, a few pounds of potatoes, a little lard to spread on the bread.

Nothing more. That is the picture in the homes of trained machinists.

For the unemployed, their doles from the state the past week or two have not been sufficient even to buy one four-pound loaf of black bread.

One wonders outside perhaps at "food riots," and hears that "communism" is growing in Germany. There is nothing political about empty stomachs, however.

A workless dole equal to 2 cents a day has been paying the amount the state has been paying recently.

This buys no bread and no potatoes.

HUBBY KICKS PET CAT ABOUT WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE
DALLAS, Nov. 10.—The front yard is no place for an expensive chiming clock. So thinks a Dallas woman who is suing her husband for a divorce.

She complained that in addition to throwing the clock out the front door when it chimed longer than usual he also had a habit of kicking her little pet cat from one room to another and almost killing it with harsh treatment. She refuses to live with a man who is cruel to her cat.

FARMERS MAY BENEFIT THROUGH PRESENT HIGH PRICES FOR COTTON

DALLAS, Texas.—Members of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association throughout the state of Texas, of which there are in excess of 30,000, will substantially benefit through the present high level of cotton prices, it is announced by John T. Orr, president of the association.

"Co-operative marketing has as one of its prime purposes the orderly marketing of cotton, according to the law of supply and demand. During the past months when cotton growers over the south were dumping their crop upon the market in excess of demand, there was little demand for cotton in the bands of the co-operative," he said. "Now that this dumping season is passing and the price level rising, the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association has in excess of 100,000 bales with which to take advantage of the high price. Its supply will be disposed of according to the law of supply and demand, and members will substantially benefit because of the averaged pool price received throughout the year for each grade and staple of cotton sold," he said.

Last year the association returned to its members in excess of $25 per bale additional profit over the price received by non-members through street sales.

POINT 20 MILES NORTHWEST OF BRADY IS CENTER OF STATE

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 10.—Strike until you arrive at a spot about 20 miles northeast of the town. Then park and you'll be about in the center of Texas.

The geodetic survey of the federal government says that the geographical center of the state is about 20 miles northeast of Brady.

Three towns—Milburn, Mercury and Frisco—have all claimed to be at the center of Texas.

ROBY WILL CELEBRATE HER ELECTRIC INTERURBAN

HASKELL, Texas, Nov. 10.—A large number of representatives of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce are to attend the barbecue to be held shortly at Roby celebrating the electrification of the Roby & Northern railway.

This will be the first electric interurban ever built in West Texas. Representatives of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will also attend. It is anticipated that Homer D. Wade will deliver an address.

The West Texas Utilities company, which recently announced plans for the operation of its new electric railway between Roby and North Roby, and which also has acquired the electric light franchise of Rotan, is planning to erect a new brick office building in Rotan on the lot between the First National bank and the postoffice.

BETTER PRICES BEING PAID FOR FALL MOHAIR

SONORA, Texas, Nov. 12.—Approximately 3,000,000 pounds of fall mohair will be distributed this season through the principal distributing markets at San Angelo, Uvalde, Sabinal, Kennedy, Menard and Del Rio. The price is averaging 42 1-2 per pound for mohair off of grown goats, and 80 cents per pound for kid hair, six months growth. It is anticipated here that the increased price for cotton is to have a stimulating effect on wool prices, since a number of eastern buyers have lately entered this territory.

R.H.S. HAS THREE MORE GAMES TO PLAY THIS YEAR

Three more games remain to be played by the Rampagers. Big Springs is here on the week-end. Stamford will be played on Nov. 23, if arrangements can be completed for a game. Strawn will be played in a second game on Turkey day at Strawn.

The squad will rest today. The Saturday game with the Lobos at Cisco was a gruelling affair and nearly everyone on the line and in the backfield got a bruise or a cut. The Big Springs game will not be a hard tussle, judging from the showing she has made against other teams this season.

That Switch Helped.

The Rampagers' team play was smoother after Coach Sandlin switched George Zaranofetis from left end to his old position at left halfback in the second period Saturday. There was more precision. And the line held tighter. To several close observers, the line seemed to be spread out too much in the earlier part of the game. At any rate the Lobo backs went through the line for nice gains. If the Lobos had not been set back 15 yards, when she had the ball on Ranger's 15-yard line, it is possible she would have made two touchdowns. This fault of a scattered line was not in evidence in the closing stages of the game.

From a standpoint of observance of the rules of the gridiron, the Saturday clash was disappointing. It is humiliating to a team captain to see his side penalized time and again from five to 15 yards. And for the back it is discouraging. To have a gain of 12 or 15 yards in line plunging taken away because of a penalty is galling to a backfield man.

Both Teams at Fault

Both teams were at fault. The Rampagers suffered the most. To several football followers from Ranger, it seemed to them that the referee was "tying" into the Rampagers. But statements of Empire Kuhn, a Simmons graduate, and Timekeeper Webb of Ranger, do not back up such statements. Ted Rummage, quarterback, said that his penalty of 15 yards was unfair, inasmuch as he gave Yonkers not a push but a slap.

But a referee's eyes have to be on 22 men at one time when the scrimmage begins, so to speak, and he may have mistaken the slap for a push. Etlinger has the appearance of being a clean cut college man. If the Rampagers lost the most ground Saturday because of "hair-splitting" decisions, it must be accepted as part of the game.

If Referee Etlinger did not err in his decisions, pushing and shoving tactics must be suppressed in this week's practice. These penalties in the fourth period Saturday threw away the Rampagers' only chance to score. It would take a wonder team like the Notre Dame university eleven to overcome three 15-yard penalties in less than 10 minutes against a fighting team.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS WERE GIVEN CAKE BY THEIR HOSTS

Several members of the Ranger High school football team who were the guests of Charles Dyar at a dinner in the new St. Rita school building, were reported to have helped themselves to liberal amounts of cake but it was said afterwards that they were told to take it.

The committee in charge of the dinner looked upon the affair as a boyish prank before it was understood the boys were given the cake, but for fear that the story in the Times might be misconstrued, a statement was made today that the cake was given to Mr. Dyar's guests.

'WILL ENTERTAIN RANCER PEOPLE,' CULWELL SAYS ON HIS ARRIVAL; ALL IS READY FOR THE BOXING PROGRAM

F. W. (Dutch) Culwell, middleweight boxer of Dublin, was the first principal in the main bout of the Lions club boxing show at the Liberty theatre to arrive in Ranger. He arrived here this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Culwell and his representative, T. E. Woodfield. He said he felt fine and ready for the gong. The bout is for 10 rounds.

"Lefty" Bradley of Coleman, his six-round bout. Seale's calibre is well known here, but Whitehall will be a newcomer locally. The state laws regarding boxing will be observed, the Lions club announced. There will be no decisions.

This will be the first fight between Bradley and Culwell. Culwell is short, measuring only 5 feet and 7 inches tall. He is sturdily built. He was wearing a sweater and cap. His first comment to a newspaper man was that he had come to Ranger to give "your people some entertainment."

"Shorty" Houghton of Ranger took his last workout Saturday night. Houghton is an automobile mechanic and yesterday he occupied himself with work on his own car. This afternoon he intended to take a long walk.

Pirtle Rainey, Houghton's opponent in the eight-round bout, was taking things easy today. "Pug" Seale and "Red" Whitehall, both of Ranger, are matched for a

EASTLAND-WEATHERFORD AND CLEBURNE-STRAWN GAMES OFFERED TODAY

Football fans of this section are being afforded two classy high school clashes this afternoon. Weatherford at Eastland and Cleburne at Strawn are games calculated to draw holiday crowds.

Today's battle at Eastland is the third meeting for the two teams. Weatherford lost in 1921 by a score of 14 to 3. Last year the Mavericks won, 32, to 13. Weatherford is stronger than last year, while Eastland is weaker through graduation of star players.

Strawn and Cleburne contest for district four honors of the state league. Strawn, for a little town, has been the sensation of this section. Her defeat of Central high of Fort Worth by a margin of a field goal focused attention on the claims of her backers. The game was to start at 2 o'clock.

HUDSPETH COUNTY BEGINS TO ATTRACT PROSPECTORS ARDMORE, Hudspeth County, Texas, Nov. 12.—Quite a considerable movement of prospectors to the mining regions near here is under way. Quite a number of prospectors are hoping to make stakes.

BIBLE TO CONTINUE FOOTBALL COACH AT A. & M. NEXT FIVE YEARS

Special. COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 12.—Assurance that Aggie football tactics are to have Biblical origin for another five years was given yesterday in the signing of Dana Xenophon Bible as head coach of athletics of the A. & M. college of Texas for that period of years. Announcement of the new contract was made by Colonel Ike S. Ashburn, commandant of the college and chairman of the athletic council. He did not announce the figure that had been necessary to secure the services of the coach for such a long period of years. It is known, however, that the price was not the strongest inducement to Mr. Bible. He has never asked a salary commensurate with offers that he has had from schools of the Central West and East in the last two years. It has been the appeal of the Aggie spirit that had held him at College Station and the friendships that he has made in his wonderful career as a coach. For that reason his continuance here is made more significant. It signifies a human element and individual desire and purpose that could not be bought with money.

The last contract with Mr. Bible expires with the present football season. It was for three years.

Mr. Bible came to the college in 1916 as freshman football coach, and served during the session of 1916-17 in that capacity. In the football season of 1918 he was piloting an American flying machine as an observer over the German lines on the French frontier. He returned to the college and was made head coach in 1919. He maintained the record of being undefeated and unscored on until the fight with the University of Texas in 1920 when the might Domingues of the Longhorns slipped through his famous defensive line on Thanksgiving day on Clark field and passed the secondary defensive built around Jack Mahan for a touchdown.

EASTLAND COUNTY COURT HOUSE IS QUIET MONDAY

The Eastland county courthouse was exceedingly quiet Monday. The authorities had declared a holiday because of Armistice day. No courts were in session and no business of record was transacted. Nearly all officials and clerks were on the job, though, and they took advantage of the lull to get a lot of back work cleared up.

BIG RUSH FOR NEW DICTIONARY EXPECTED

Extraordinary efforts have been made for a big rush to get copies of the New Universities Dictionary, the book offered by this paper to its readers exclusively. Thousands beyond all expectations were distributed during the week.

"When we set our thoughts down in written form," says Professor Forrest M. Lunt, M.A., instructor of English in Horace Mann school, teachers' college, Columbia University, "we are without the aids of voice and manner to make clear what we are trying to say. Our thoughts must be understood because the relations which exist between the various parts of our sentences are clear. If the relations between the parts of our sentences are not clear, the thoughts we are trying to express will not be understood." This is Professor Lunt's introduction in the New Universities Dictionary to his article on "Practical Syntax," which shows readers of this dictionary how to build correct sentences.

"Good usage, common practice, society—whatever you will—has decided what is good form, what is proper, in this field of syntax, just as it has in morals, etiquette or fashions," continues Professor Lunt; "therefore, the man or woman who has occasion to set his thoughts down in writing should observe the common practice, the universally understood rules which govern the relationship of words. If he fails to do this, or if he attempts to make his own rules, he will be considered without the pale of cultured educated people. From this it will be seen that the ability to construct sentences properly is hardly less important than the power to speak."

Four Years Ago In Ranger

Taken from the files of the Ranger Daily Times, Nov. 12, 1919: Ranger became a full-fledged member of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce today when a total of 200 memberships was subscribed by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce. W. T. Wheeler, organization manager closed the deal with Secretary Hemmingson and the board of directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce was organized less than a year ago at Fort Worth and its headquarters established at Stamford.

How to Carry Cigars in a Real Mean Way; Making Appointment by Wire; Still Seeking Introduction to Mayor of Thurber.

By P. G. T.

There are but few men in existence who can go around with a cigar or two in their outside coat best pocket and avoid putting that cigar or those cigars out to their rope hungry friends. Usually those who carry them in the open pocket can afford to give them away and those who can't afford it carry them in a hip pocket, out of sight, or some other place where they won't break.

One of the meanest men in our town can carry a set of perfectos in an open pocket and get away with it. When this guy buys a pocket full of smokes he bites off the end of each cigar, chews it delicately, and then loads the aforementioned pocket. When somebody tries to graft a rope off'r him he merely says: "Sorry, but I been a chewin' on them seegars; they ain't sanitary."

One of Ranger's important lawyers has all the luck. He went to Fort Worth on a case not long ago and wished to locate a party by name of L. O. Isham. Isham not having a telephone the smart law-

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advertisement.

yer, lawyers are usually pretty much that a way, sent a wire to Mr. Isham's home, asking Mr. Isham to meet him at a certain bank at a certain time.

When the lawyer arrived at the bank he was pleased to learn that a young lady was waiting for him. She was pointed out and he crossed the bank lobby to where she was. Smiling, he said:

"I don't know you lady, but Mr. Sanso, said that you wished to see me." Don't know whether he used those same words or not but something like them.

"I don't know you either," she replied, "but didn't you send me this wire."

The lawyer looked it over and discovered that the telegram company had garbled the address and made it Lois Ham instead of L. O. Isham. He explained and the lady gave him the "o" and said "O" and then traveled, which wasn't so lucky.

P. S.—This last tale is straight stuff and no lie.

Tonight is the night for the American Legion dance in Thurber. Any one who is strong enough to get there and possesses the necessary two and one-half dollars is invited.

Have been very anxious to go to Thurber ever since starting to wonder who the mayor is down there. It would be an awful calamity to live so close to a place as Thurber is to Ranger and never discover who the mayor was or get to know him personally. From all the entertainin' times to be had in Thurber we little feller. Gosh! how I wanta meet the mayor. Wonder does he talk Ectalian like Mussolini or do he butcher the king's English like me an' you.

Mebbe he wears full dress and a violent hued stocking across his white shirt bosom like them bosses of nations what you see in the pitchers. Iffen he is an old guy and ex-cowhand he can probably be picked out from the crowd by his wearin' spurs on the dance floor to keep hisself from falling. It were an awful slipery dance floor last time we were down there and teetered some too.

MRS. SEALE TO HEAD SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS IN EASTLAND

Mrs. Henry Seale, president of the Martha Dorcas Sunday school class, has been appointed chairman of the Eastland Christmas Seal sale, to be put on under the direction of the Texas Public Health association.

The selection of Mrs. Seale was made by Miss Emma Bacon, public health nurse, of Austin, who spent Friday in Eastland, canvassing the situation.

Decorative Christmas seals are on sale by the Public Health association during the holiday season for the purpose of raising funds for carrying on its work, particularly its fight on tuberculosis.

It is customary to have the seals on tap in public places, banks, hotels and the like, at the Chamber of Commerce and often in the stores.

Vigorous Old Age

WHY separate youth and old age with a deep and ever-widening abyss? The bloom of youth and the hardy, ruddy glow of Old Age—sixteen and sixty—should be separated only by the span of years and not by varying differences of physical wholesomeness.

Vigorous old age is within the grasp of all. S. S. S. brings that hale and hearty feeling back with a rush. Rich red blood is the greatest enemy of weakening, health undermining Old Age. S. S. S. builds Red Blood Cells. Rich, red blood coursing through your veins sweeps away impurities that retard the proper functioning of your system. Old Age—once a dreaded agony becomes a vigorous, enjoyable, care free time of life.

S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks—scientifically prepared and proportioned. Welcome Old Age when it comes. Be ready to withstand the attacks of diseases that follow in its wake. Meet Old Age with a hearty handshake. A handshake that speaks of well being—of a vigorous, clear thinking, red blooded constitution. S. S. S. is your best friend when Old Age is seen rounding the corner. Get a bottle and drive care and worry away. All leading drug stores carry it.

The large size is the more economical. S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again
