WINFIELD SCOTT JR. SEEKING A DIVORCE

SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST GAINS IN EXCITEMENT

Candidates and Their Friends Working More Earnestly Nearing Close.

In just about two more weeks some one is going to ride away in that handsome Ford coupe which is on display in the lobby of the Gholson hotel. Another fortunate person will win the handsome diamond ring on display in the window of the W. E. Davis Jewelry & Music store.

Either one of these handsome prizes is well worth winning and the winner will be fully entitled to either one as well, for it means energy, foresight, determination and constant untiring work to secure the necessary number of subscriptions for the grand prize. There is lots of fun and excitement in it, too, and the candidates, Miss Mary Massa, Mrs. B. M. Davis, Mrs. W. P. Lacy and Mrs. E. A. Wheeler, are the most enthusiastic workers one could find anywhere. They are real city builders. They are serving the merchants who advertise and the people who read, and are doing a real favor to those who are yet unacquainted with the Ranger Daily Times and its progressive policies.

Exciting Finish.
The next two weeks will be exciting ones for the candidates who have elected to stay in this race. The extra vote coupons which have appeared every day in the Times, and which entitles each candidate to 10 extra votes on every coupon, are to appear daily until the 16th. After that date they will be withdrawn, and the race will be one of merit alone until the closing day of July 2.

Candidates who do not win either prize are sure to get a fine commission on their large number of subscriptions, and will feel fully repaid for any amount of work they may have undertaken in this circulation campaign. Their measure of success will not be in commission alone, but they will have acquired an added amount of business ability which will make their services more valuable in whatever work they may undertake hereafter. The successful man or woman is usually the one who can do several things, and in doing one thing well makes it an avenue leading to success in some other line. So in a contest of the kind just now running in the Ranger Daily Times, the business experience acquired will be of use in some other way at some other time aside from the liberal commission paid on all subscriptions turned in above the amount of $30.

Friends Interested.
While this has been a quiet campaign in many ways, yet it has had various excitement features, known only, perhaps, to the candidates and the contest manager, but all are deeply interested in the success of the event and are giving their wholehearted attention to it with that end in view. In two more weeks the final announcement will be made and the name of the winners made public.

Those who have a friend among the candidates are urged to give her their fullest support and encouragement in these closing days, in order that she may be the winner.

ONE OFFICER KILLED, ANOTHER IS WOUNDED IN SHOOTING AFFRAY

GALVESTON, June 14.—J. C. Dilworth, federal prohibition agent at San Antonio, was held in jail here today without bail on a charge of murder following a shooting affray on the famous seawall boulevard in which S. Wilson, plain-clothes officer of the local police force, was killed and Dilworth wounded.

An argument occurred yesterday between the two officers as to whether a man arrested in a raid on a cold drink stand should be taken to jail. Dilworth contended he should be sent to jail, but he was taken instead to the local police station. Later the two officers met on the boulevard and the affray followed.

VOLUNTEER FIRE ORGANIZATION TO BE FORMED

Fire Chief Chapman wants to meet with all the men who wish to become members of the Ranger volunteer fire department at the fire hall tomorrow night. Young men, whose vocations won't interfere with drill nights and service are invited by the chief to be present.

The chief has received information on volunteer organizations from the state fire association, and he is now ready to assist the volunteers in getting organized. The volunteer department will be a separate entity, and will not be a part of the regular department. The volunteers will have their own organization and will choose their own officers.

The regular department has room for several men, who would care to sleep at nights in the department's dormitory. It was in this manner that Chief Chapman became interested in fire fighting and later took it up as a profession.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ARE SENT TO GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, June 14.—The senate today adopted the conference report on the emergency school bill, reducing the appropriation from $6,000,000 to $4,000,000. The reduction represents the largest cut on any of the appropriation bills voted by the governor.

The general education bill, totaling more than $11,000,000, was disposed of in the senate with adoption of the conference committee report, 23 to 1. The bill shows a reduction of more than $800,000 as compared with the bill passed at the last session and vetoed by Governor Neff.

The senate today held a brief ceremony in honor of Flag day and the Flag day oration by former President Wilson was read. The senate also adopted a resolution by Wood urging the teaching of state and federal constitution in public and private schools.

The house disposed of the reclamation bill with the adoption of the conference report which places the reclamation control funds at $353,000 for the next two years, a reduction from $600,000 appropriated at the regular session.

The report on the senate bill reappropriating $300,000 for university land acquisition was also adopted.

GOVERNMENT REPORTS DECLARED CONTRADICTORY

BLOWING ROCK, June 14.—The results of the government report of what the cotton growers were going to plant and issued on April 20 and another report issued on the following day were "disastrous," A. W. McLain of Lumberton, N. C., former director of the war finance corporation, declared today in an address.

"It seems that neither of these reports were reliable or entitled to consideration," he said.

LEGISLATURE LIKELY TO BE GIVEN REST PERIOD

AUSTIN, June 14.—By adopting the conference committee report on the emergency school bill, the house probably avoided another extra session.

It is generally believed that the governor will not call another session but will wait until it is seen whether the emergency reductions have been enough to bring the appropriations within the available revenue.

NATION AT WORK AND UNEMPLOYMENT NOW AT ITS LOWEST STAGE

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The whole country is steadily at work with unemployment at the lowest point in 12 months, the United States labor board reported today. The farm labor shortage is increasing and is becoming acute in some sections.

Industrial labor generally is reported working full time and in some instances overtime and unskilled labor is being absorbed by road building and kindred activities.

Stars and Stripes Lauded by Owsley as Hope of World

INDIANAPOLIS, June 14.—"A sick and exhausted world turns to the Stars and Stripes in the hope of aid," Colonel Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion, said today on the 164th birthday of the American flag.

"We of the American Legion," said Owsley, "have received the priceless heritage of the flag from those who wore the blue and those who wore the grey, and lofty ideals are symbolized in our banner. Let us determine our loyalty to and devotion for the flag, for it is worthy of manly emotion."

HARDING URGES IDEALS OF THE AMERICAN FLAG

Would Have American Legion Adopt Rules for Its Proper Display.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Harding urged the American Legion flag conference, which opened here today, to adopt rules and regulations for the proper display of the flag and also to include an obligation that every American citizen learn the words of and learn to sing the American anthem. He said it should not be forgotten that American citizens have an obligation to sustain in upholding the high ideals for which the flag stands.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, also urged more widespread respect for the stars and stripes.

ERUPTION FORECAST IN HAWAII'S BIG VOLCANO

HILO, Island of Hawaii, June 14.—The present spectacular activity of Kilauea, the ever-active volcano on this island, probably indicates the rapid approach of a great outbreak of the sister volcano, Mauna Loa, one of the largest in the world, according to a statement by L. W. de Vis-Norton, secretary of the Hawaiian Volcano Research association.

The activities of Mauna Loa, which rises 14,000 feet above sea level, occupy a cycle of roughly nine years, it has been found, and it is upon this fact that De Vis-Norton based the indications.

In the immense fire-pit of Kilauea floods of molten lava, in excess of 1,000,000 cubic yards daily are welling up from unknown depths now, and this is said to be a certain indication of the rising of the lava within the Mauna Loa rift system.

Slightly more than a year ago the active throat of Kilauea collapsed and presented to the spectator a terrifying abyss 1100 feet deep and more than a mile wide. Its walls overhung on all sides and the only things to be seen were masses of debris and broken rock far below the rim of the pit. Now the diameter of the pit is more than one and one-quarter miles and there is an area of 28 acres of seething, boiling and wildly fountaining lava, less than 200 feet below the rim upon which the spectator stands.

Earthquake shocks which are being recorded at the Kilauea volcano observatory seismograph, together with reports from outlying stations at important points around the entire mountain, strengthen the indications of an outbreak of Mauna Loa, which may be reasonably expected to come during the June solstice, De-Vis-Norton said.

While an overflow of Kilauea is not anticipated at present, the heat of the rim is becoming intensely intense.

WACO.—The employment service of the United States Department of Labor will open an office here soon for the purpose of recruiting hands to work in the wheat fields during the summer months, according to word received here by C. B. Braun, secretary-manager of the Waco chamber of commerce. The office will be maintained here as long as men can be recruited, Mr. Braun said.

MILLIONAIRE WOULD PUT OFF MARRIAGE YOKE

Wed In January, But Happiness of Honeymoon Appears to Have Passed By

FORT WORTH, June 14.—Fort Worth was wondering today about the short-lived romance of Winfield Scott, Jr., youthful millionaire and son of a pioneer Texas family, and Miss Gertrude J. Lane of Kansas City, Mo. Scott filed suit for divorce yesterday. The papers containing the allegations were withdrawn immediately and the allegations in the petition could not be learned.

The couple were married at the Muelbach hotel in Kansas City last January, after Miss Lane broke an engagement to wed another man, it was said at that time. He gave his bride several automobiles when they came to Fort Worth, and high society in Fort Worth, because of the rumored opposition of Scott's mother to her son's marriage, began to think it a success. Therefore the youthful millionaire's divorce action has thrown a bombshell into society circles.

Mrs. Scott is in Kansas City visiting her mother. She is quoted as having expressed herself as surprised at her husband's action and stated she and Scott were on good terms when she left him.

SWEDEN ELECTRIFYING HUNDREDS OF LEADING INDUSTRIAL CONCERNS

STOCKHOLM, June 13.—The first coast to coast railroad electrification in the world, extending from Stockholm, on the Baltic Sea, to Gothenburg, on the North Sea, is heralded in the official request just made to the Swedish government by the state railway administration that it be empowered to begin immediately the expenditure of 23,000,000 crowns which have already been appropriated toward this project.

This is an important step in the great movement which has already resulted in the electrification of hundreds of leading industrial establishments, and at least 50 per cent of all the farming area in Sweden.

The trunk line from Stockholm to Gothenburg, which carries heavy traffic both of freight and passengers, is nearly 300 miles in length. The work of electrification can be carried through within two years, says the railway administration, and if it is begun immediately the total cost will be about 47,000,000 crowns, or about $12,600,000.

THE WORK OF ADVERTISERS.
 They Build Industry, Civilization and Prosperity.

By Arthur Brisbane. Copyright, 1923, by Star Company.

The convention of Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at Atlantic City concentrates attention on the work done by advertising.

It is first of all constructive work. It actually builds factories, stores, great organizations, great fortunes, while supplying work and wages to millions.

A hundred words occur to your mind, and every one means that advertising has created a name, and that the name represents a great business that time and competition itself cannot injure unless the owners of the name allows it.

Advertising builds, and what it builds it builds permanently.

Take the two words, Atlantic City, and you know instantly that you have before you something that has been created first by intrinsic merit and second by intelligent advertising.

Any one of a half dozen automobile names means permanent prosperity, gigantic production, thousands of men well paid, ten or hundreds of thousands of customers well satisfied, and all that is built on merit and advertising.

What is the art of advertising? It is the art of getting a truthful idea from one brain into another—or into fifty million other brains.

In advertising, first you must create a thing the people want. That is the task of the manufacturer, the business man who understands production and quality.

After that you must make the people know that you have it. In addition to that you must, by description and convincing argument, make the people want it.

Making the people know that the thing is to be had and making the people want that thing, such is the task of the advertiser.

Nature was the first great advertiser. And she did her best advertising in color, which would interest Mr. Kobler, of the Hearst American Weekly.

The first great and effective color advertisement was the brightly colored flowers, the blossoms advertising the honey to be obtained from them, thus attracting the bees and other insects necessary to carry the pollen and produce more flowers. The next great colored advertisement was the rainbow, announcing "no more floods."

Learn from Nature and the colors of the flowers and the plumage of the birds to make your advertising attractive.

In advertising or in conversation it is just as easy to present your facts in a pleasing way as in any other way.

This is the age of hurry. Men want to do all they can in the few years they have. They want to finish in one lifetime. Advertising is the great time saver.

They say in England that a business built up slowly without advertising, from father to son, for a hundred years or more, is a very respectable business. And it is. But you can see in the United States the same kind of business, a hundred times as big, built up in ten years by American energy, plus efficient advertising.

Business men should realize that advertising is a specialty.

They should realize that the advertising agent is to a business what the architect is to a building. The owner's money and the contractor's technical knowledge build the building. But it is a poor building if you don't have an architect mapping it out for you in advance and supervising it as it goes on.

So with business and the advertising agent, the specialist who is the architect of business.

For the young man advertising is a promising career. Advertising is in its infancy. There are plenty of chances ahead.

Advertising, intelligently understood, trains the mind in a hundred different directions. To be a thorough advertiser you must understand clear, simple and convincing writing.

A poor advertiser uses a hundred lines to make the reader think one line. The advertiser of real genius uses ten lines and makes the reader think one hundred lines.

What you write and put in the paper your employer pays for. What you make your reader think about your goods, after he has read it, you give to your employer for nothing. That is the thing for the advertising man to remember.

Advertising properly understood develops a good style. It compels the man who engages in advertising to study and understand the mind, the needs, the temperament, the shifting moods of the public.

Atlantic City will welcome the Advertising Clubs, who are to business many things, including the short cut to success, and the possibility of doing in one lifetime that which, without advertising, would require a series of generations.

Washington Hocks says when a fellow gets so he hasn't got either money or credit, about the only thing left for him to do is to go home and go to bed.

Sim Flinders, who is always a little behind or a short piece ahead, says a person who is careful to keep his watch just exactly on the right time, is either a railroad man or does not do anything.

LOAN OF FILM OFFERED FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES

"The Story of the Gasoline Motor" is the title of the latest issue in the series of industrial motion picture films prepared by the department of the interior through the bureau of mines. This film, made in co-operation with the Continental Motors corporation, visualizes in a most graphic manner the complete operation of a gasoline engine. Special views have been made to show the cycles through which the gas travels from the time it enters the engine as an explosive mixture, until the time it leaves the engine as a burned gas. With the aid of special lenses, some unusual "close up" scenes have been obtained. In order to show clearly what has taken place inside the engine and the particular role which each part plays in creating power from liquid fuel, much elaborate work was done. To give this correct portrayal in every detail, many engines were cut into at various points and made to operate so the particular function of every moving part would be clearly shown.

Copies of this film may be borrowed for educational purposes from the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Mines, Pittsburgh, Pa.

AUSTIN.—Waco was selected the next convention city for the Texas Abstracters' association. The executive committee met recently in Austin and after designating Waco as the place for the holding of their annual convention of the association fixed the dates as Aug. 6 and 7.

GRASSHOPPERS INFEST SECTIONS OF COUNTY DOING MUCH DAMAGE

Certain areas of Eastland county are said to be badly infested with grasshoppers which are doing considerable damage to crops. The pests are reported active on several hundred acres of land north of Eastland a short distance, and also to the northwest in the Bedford community. The section around Dothan is reported ridden with grasshoppers.

The grasshoppers are not only eating up the crops but are damaging fruit orchards, stripping trees of leaves and also eating the fruit.

Arsenic to fight the ravages of the grasshoppers has been received by County Agent O. H. Bush and he is distributing it to farmers at cost. A preparation prescribed by the Texas A. & M. college, consisting of arsenic, bran, oranges and molasses is recommended as being successful in killing off the enemy.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSN. OBTAINS RESTITUTION FOR 'NO FUNDS' CHECK

Through the efforts of the Ranger Retail Merchants' association, a woman living between Strawn and Minus, who is alleged at times in the past to have solicited as a home missionary, was arrested last night at her home and brought to Ranger in connection with a complaint that she had obtained goods from merchants by giving checks on a bank in which she had no money.

The woman was brought to the police station in Ranger and, after questioning, acknowledged giving the checks and paid the amounts called for by them.

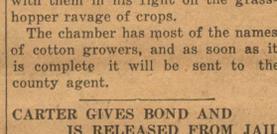

COUNTY AGENT BUSH ASKS NAMES OF COTTON FARMERS IN COUNTY

The chamber has most of the names of cotton growers, and as soon as it is complete it will be sent to the county agent.

CHINESE FOUND ON SLOOP TELL STRANGE STORY

NEW YORK, June 14.—A strange story of a fight on the high seas in which five Chinese, two white men and three negroes were killed is told by surviving Chinese of the two-masted British sloop, Mary Beatrice, from the Bahamas, found yesterday outside New York bay without crew or captain but having 15 Chinese aboard.

One of these Chinese made a statement to immigration authorities that after he and his fellow Orientals had paid $500 each to be smuggled from Cuba into the United States the skipper had absconded with the money and the crew had tried to hold them up, after which a free-for-all fight followed.

Dr. Harry Logsdon, recently elected president of the Lions, presided today at the weekly luncheon in the Gholson hotel for the first time. A musical program was given and several informal talks made.

Following the luncheon the club re-elected J. T. Holmsley, assistant cashier of the Peoples State Bank, as secretary of the club.

RANGER LIONS MATCHED TO PLAY BALL WITH BRECKENRIDGE LIONS

The Ranger Lions will go to Breckenridge on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 26, to play a game of ball with the Breckenridge Lions. Nothing is known of the ball playing ability of the neighboring Lions, but reports have it that they are practicing hard and intend to make the game interesting for their friends on Ranger.

Dr. Harry Logsdon, recently elected president of the Lions, presided today at the weekly luncheon in the Gholson hotel for the first time. A musical program was given and several informal talks made.

Following the luncheon the club re-elected J. T. Holmsley, assistant cashier of the Peoples State Bank, as secretary of the club.

TRAIN HITS AUTO AT GRADE CROSSING, DRIVER IS HURT

An automobile driven by Welch of Eastland was struck by westbound train No. 11 of the Texas & Pacific railroad early this morning as he attempted to cross the railroad tracks at Main street crossing in his automobile. He was said not to be seriously hurt, according to a railroad employe.

The sidewalks in front of the railroad station were scraped by the automobile as it was dragged along by the engine from Main street to a point opposite the baggage room of the station.

Welch was taken to the office of a Ranger physician and his injuries treated. The car was badly damaged.

 By Associated Press

GENEVA.—The last obstacle towards the floating of an international loan of 50,000,000 gold crowns, whereby the League of Nations hopes completely to re-establish Austria's financial situation, has just been removed by an official notification to the league by the American unofficial delegation on the Reparations commission that the United States has agreed to release her claims on Austrian assets awarded her under the treaty of St. Germain. There assets will be used temporarily as security for the league's new loan.

Second Rate Boxers Are Asking for Big Share of Gate Money

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor. Tex Rickard is beginning to get a back-fire from the bad habits he gave the big boxers when he took over Madison Square Garden.

His generosity in giving huge purses made all the boxers reappraise themselves and add a couple of ciphers to their old rate. Rickard complains that he now has to offer a fortune to get second-raters in the ring and that the champions will not fight for any amount if they are called upon to risk their titles.

Jess Willard and Luis Firpo both gave Rickard a nice throw-down recently, but from his experience with a certain element of the boxing crowd, he should have expected nothing better. Rickard put Willard in the way of a lot of money when he staged the Dempsey-Willard fight, and later when Willard was trying to come back for more money Rickard helped him to get around the "age limit" rule of the boxing commission by getting him into a charity show.

Perhaps Rickard thought that he might be compensated for his part in arranging the Willard-Johnson fight by getting Willard steamed up into a card for another big fight. The opportunity for such was offered in a bout against Firpo, and Willard turned around and demanded 40 per cent of the gate receipts.

Firpo was indebted to Rickard even more, because Rickard brought him along when all the other promoters were giving the South American the grand go-by. Firpo was brought along to a real money fight with Willard, and then Firpo demanded 40 per cent of the receipts, if Rickard had agreed to his terms he would have had 20 per cent for his end, and it takes about 15 per cent to stage a big match.

Rickard made such a big splurge that he saw his business grow out of Madison Square Garden. With the limited seating capacity in the Garden it became impossible to pay the champions and near-champions the money they wanted and, with competition springing up against him from the baseball parks, Rickard had to give up the Garden and set about to build a big new arena for winter sports. Wise old fellows in the business said that Rickard was making a mistake when he was giving the boxers so much money, and they predicted, make the "eggs" all rich and lose his own shirt.

Some idea of the valuation that boxers are putting on themselves was gotten when Firpo replied to promoters who wanted to match him with Erminio Spalla, the European heavy-weight champion, that he would accept the match for "$100,000 in American Gold."

Firpo's avarice and greed for money are getting him in bad with the New York fans. No one can blame the South American for trying to get all the money he can, but he should not try to squeeze it out of his benefactors. Jimmy DeForest, who was making a great fighter out of him, has almost given him up as hopeless, and if Firpo doesn't stick with DeForest he never will make the most of the opportunities that are presented for him.

Rickard had ten big championship fights planned for the summer season, and so far he has cinched only one of them. He is despairing of the others.

She was appointed a member of the board of regents of the state normal schools by Governor Neff. Miss Neal's entrance into the race would be the first of women candidates in Texas and it is thought would attract nation-wide attention.

MIGHTY LIONS LOSE GAME TO FAMED TEE PEES

Sluggers Out in Force and Make Contest Very Interesting.

Slamming the ball to all corners of the lot was the grand pastime of the Tee Pees and the Lions club baseball teams yesterday afternoon at municipal park when the two clubs came together to get the bouquets and brickbats of the crowd. These honors were accorded individually and collectively to both teams. The score was 12 to 6. And it was called at the end of the eighth with the Tee Pees on the long end.

Funny thing about the game: The Tee Pees were ready to call it a game at the end of the seventh but left it to the Lions whether this was to be done. But the Lions yelled for two more innings. Result: Four Tee Pee runners crossed the platter in the eighth, and the Lions said "Let's call it a game." And they did. Time, two hours and 20 minutes.

They "Rained" Hits. This not being a Ranger Snapper game, when the hits are few and the score is easy to keep, an account of the plays, inning by inning is physically impossible to keep so readers must be content with a few incidents of the game. Palmer, playing third base for the Tee Pees started the batting bee for his team with a mighty slam to left field. Larson made a weak throw to the short stop to get Palmer, but he was safe. And the slaughter was on. Three runs were scored before a third out was made. The Lions didn't do a thing in the scoring line in their half.

But the Lions scored in the second. Bobby Bates walloped a two-bagger out and scored Aubrey Jameson. And in the third, goaded to desperation by the comfortable lead of the Tee Pees, the Lions broke loose with a batting fest and passed up the Tee Pees. The Lions, feeling none too good from the fierce heat that beat down on them, were finally beaten into submission when Bloodworth went into the box in place of Nurss.

That Elusive Ball. At times the ball was so elusive that it required the services of more than one player to handle it. For example in the first half of the fourth inning with the Tee Pees at the bat, Palmer singled to center field. Bates ran up to the ball, threw it to Craig at short stop to get the man on base, but the pesky ball went on by the second baseman. Jameson, wide awake in right field, was playing close in and he dived after the ball but he was too late and the honor of stopping the ball in its wild flight "through the green" fell to H. U. Pond, who ran behind the first base line and gathered it up bodily. As you see, it would take considerable baseball shorthand to record all of the plays.

It was not until the first half of the fifth inning that the spectators were to be treated to a thrill. An awful long wait, but it was worth waiting for to see Jameson, playing right field for the Lions, reach out and stab single-handed a hot liner off of the bat of Blackwell. Jameson had to cool his hand off before resuming his position.

White Not in Usual Form. J. M. White, of whom great things were expected, didn't fan the Tee Pees as he did with such regularity when he faced the Rotarians week before last. He did strike out Hocker of the Tee Pees with no uncertain regularity. Hocker in five trips to the pan fanned four times. Nurss was chased to the showers in the third. The Lions showed utter disregard of his reputation as a former member of the St. Louis Browns.

After all it was played for the "fun and pleasure it gives a fellow," as Dr. Clyde C. Craig put it. And laying all brickbats aside, one will have to "hand it to them" for getting out on a ball diamond in a hot June sun, unaccustomed to the hardships, and chasing flies and running bases, all for charity.

LEHIGH FINDS METHOD TO PLAY BASEBALL IN PEACE

The boys are put on their honor. Any Bethlehem boy may see Lehigh games free on condition that he sits in a section of the grandstand especially reserved, and obeys the rules. They have a cheering section of their own and are led by a Lehigh student cheer-leader. No longer do they disturb the play by "razzing" visiting teams and shouting "kill the umpire." Nowadays they even have cleanly washed faces and hands.

The terror of all the youths in his native island home of Iloilo, in the Philippines, Villa was fashioned into a boxer in 1918 by an American patron of the game of fisticuffs. Villa was then 17 years old. He entered the professional game in the Philippines in 1919, and for three years he fought without losing a single contest.

VALUABLE ADDITION TO LIBRARY

What the general reader of the Bible most wants to know is covered by many pages of helps—these might be called an appendix—which are within the covers—limp bound, by the way—of the new Big Print Red Letter Edition of the Bible now being distributed to readers of this paper. This volume and appendix are as essential in a library as an encyclopedia. On the average book shelf, where the number of books do not warrant the term library, such a Bible is even more necessary. The smaller the collection, the more important it is to have it comprise the best and most concise of reference works.

This is the best edition that has ever been offered to the public for much more than the present nominal cost and the three coupons. The red letter feature of Christ's words alone mark a special desirability. Then there are the comprehensive annotations and the half-tones which add immeasurably to its value. Even with other Bibles in the home, this particular edition should be there also for its convenience and for the excellence of its additional information other than the regular text. The coupon offer is explained in another part of this issue.

MARATHON DANCER COMPLAINS OF LOSS BY FORGERY

Conklin alleges that a check made out in his name by J. W. Sanders for the amount of $50 was fraudulently signed by Lacey and cashed. Lacey left Ranger last Monday, Conklin said, without turning the money over to him.

Lacey, according to the Ranger Retail Merchants' association, was arrested in Dallas today by the Dallas police and is being held there pending the arrival of a Ranger officer,

ONLY GRANDCHILD OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN WANTED TO GROW UP LIKE HIM BUT DIED IN YOUTH

When Robert Todd Lincoln, only surviving child of Abraham Lincoln, is gathered to his fathers, the line of Lincoln through the martyr president will have ended, for the only child of Robert Todd Lincoln, who might have perpetuated the line, passed away in early youth and there was no other issue.

Few know that there ever was an Abraham Lincoln II and still fewer know the sad, but fascinating story of his brief, but entirely Lincoln-like life, for Abraham Lincoln II was the true grandson of his illustrious grandfather.

The story which should be known to every boy in the world was recently brought to light through the researches of the Rockett-Lincoln Film company, now filming in Hollywood the life of Lincoln under the working title, "The Dramatic Life of Abraham Lincoln."

Resembles Grandfather

The little boy, though christened Abraham at his birth, was called Jack by his parents and relatives, and was so known by his playmates. He strangely resembled his grandfather in appearance and partook also of that great man's sterling character and courage.

At an early stage Jack's father began to tell him stories of his grandfather's life and, later, when the boy reached an understanding age, it was explained to him that though his name was Abraham, he would not be permitted to assume the name until he had proven his worthiness to bear it.

On his twenty-first birthday the decision was to be made by his father, so Jack, eager to win the honor of so illustrious a name, made a study of his grandfather's life, and very soon the wisdom and philosophy of the martyr president became the rule of conduct of the boy's life.

Like Abraham Lincoln I, Jack was popular with his fellows and a good example to them, too, for he was fair in play, truthful and generous, also he loved books and was devoted to his studies.

In the neighborhood of the Lincoln home in Chicago lived a rich old gentleman whom the boys of Jack Lincoln's gang called "the Crab." He lived in a mansion with spacious grounds and seemed always to be crabbing about the boys. For some reason they couldn't make friends with him and he was always complaining about the noise they made and interfering with their games. So, of course, the boys didn't like "The Crab."

Converts the "Crab."

One day during a game of ball one of the boys hit a long fly into a window of the "Crab's" house and fearing the consequences, they all started to run away, scattering like frightened sheep. Jack Lincoln started to beat it with the rest, but had run only a few yards when the still, small voice asked: "Would Abraham Lincoln have run away in such a case?"

Jack stopped in his tracks, but before he could turn back a heavy hand seized him by the collar and whirled him around. It was "the Crab."

"Who are you?" he demanded.

"Abraham Lincoln," answered Jack taken by surprise, then remembering he said: "I mean Jack Lincoln."

"Look here young man, don't you lie to me."

"I didn't lie, sir."

"Did you break my window?" demanded "the Crab."

"No, sir."

"Then what made you run away and say your name was Abraham Lincoln? Wasn't that a lie?"

"No, sir."

"Thought you said your name was Jack Lincoln."

"It is, sir."

"Now tell me the truth, you young scamp, or I'll tan your hide. What is your name and who broke my window?"

"I'll tell the truth sir; I do not think I could tell a lie because I'm sure my grandfather wouldn't tell a lie if he were me, but I can't tell you who broke the window because he wouldn't want me to be a tattletale either."

"Who is your grandfather?" grunted "the Crab," becoming interested.

"President Abraham Lincoln," answered Jack, and then he told his story.

Gang Is Welcomed.

A few minutes later the gang, watching the scene from their several hiding places and expecting every minute to see their pal eaten alive, were flabbergasted to see "the Crab" suddenly elevate Jack to his shoulder from which exalted position he called to them to come back.

From that time forth the spacious grounds were open to the gang and such inconsequential things as noise, and broken windows went unnoticed by "the Crab" who, through the story of Abraham Lincoln II, became a "regular fellow." But little Jack Lincoln never became Abraham Lincoln. He lived up to the ideals of his beloved and illustrious grandfather, building into his character day by day his wisdom, virtues and power until a second edition of the Lion of Liberty seemed to be developing under the eyes of his parents and teachers, but the Designer of Destinies must have had other plans for Jack Lincoln for, before his twenty-first year, he "slept with his fathers" and went to join that grandfather he had never seen, but had loved so well, or it may be that, in the nature of things, there could never be but one Abraham Lincoln.

Automobile Still A Luxury for the Average Frenchman

By Associated Press

PARIS, June 13.—France is 10 or 12 years behind the United States in automobile production, is the conclusion of Andre Citroen, sometimes described as the Henry Ford of France, upon his return from America after making a comparative study of manufacturing in the two countries.

"In France," said M. Citroen, "we haven't mass production of automobiles yet because of a more limited market. There are 12,000,000 cars in the United States, a very big market, whereas in France we have 300,000 cars, with, say, 75,000 customers, each one of which buys a new car every three or four years.

"The chief difference in French and American cars," said M. Citroen, "is that of style. The French like a graceful, light machine, burning relatively little gas. The automobile is still something of a luxury to the average Frenchman. Consider, there are only 30,000 in a big place like Paris, of which 12,000 are private, 12,000 on hire and the rest trucks."

"I was amused," said M. Citroen, "at the reception given the two sets of cars I took with me. I thought my caterpillar car which made the trip over the Sahara would be regarded with curiosity. Not at all. It was my regular type car. The novelty of possessing a French car will appeal to Americans, I think. There everything is for novelty. Yesterday is a closed period for Americans, something to be forgotten."

KARO INDISPENSABLE IN MAKING OF MANY HOT WEATHER DISHES

So many delicious dishes can be made with Karo that a new one could be found almost every day in the year. At this season, however, hot weather dishes are first thought of and in making ice cream and custards, Karo can be used in many recipes. Two new ones follow:

Coffee Custard.

One pint milk, 3-4 cup Karo (Crystal White), 2 eggs, 1 cup strong coffee (hot), 1 tablespoon Argo or Kingsford's cornstarch. Heat milk and Karo to boiling point. APPLY FOR PERMIT TO MAKE CARBON BLACK IN EASTLAND COUNTY

AUSTIN, June 14.—The railroad commission Wednesday afternoon heard the application of the Arab Gasoline company, a Delaware corporation, with Texas headquarters at Eastland, for a permit to establish a carbon black plant, and took the matter under advisement.

The applicants desire a permit to establish a plant for the manufacture of carbon black four miles north of the town of Eastland. The corporation plans to invest not less than $400,000 in the plant. It proposes to use the residue from casinghead gasoline plants in Eastland county to manufacture carbon black.

This is the first permit applied for to manufacture carbon black from the Eastland county oil fields.

DR. GILBERT USES FERRASAL

"I am using Ferrasal for indigestion and acid stomach and it is the best remedy I have ever taken. I also recommend it in my practice for pyorrhea and acid condition of the mouth and am getting excellent results. I know others will appreciate Ferrasal as much as I do if you will bring it to their attention."

Where Quality Counts Above Everything Else

Quality is more important in an enclosed car than in most any other product in daily use.

Regardless of price, it is not economy to buy a makeshift job in which the quality is skimmed and cheapened at every turn. Paint, imitation leather and fibre board too often cover serious structural defects and cotton-and-wool trimming cloths are short lived. The chances are that the buyer will more than pay the differentiator—in higher upkeep cost, frequent repairs and excessive depreciation.

The price of the Light-Six Sedan is the lowest at which it is possible to obtain a substantial, high grade hardwood and steel body, upholstered in mohair, in combination with a chassis of proved dependability and performance.

Studebaker's South Bend plants build more high quality closed bodies than those of any other automobile manufacturer and consequently overhead costs are reduced and the price to the customer is low.

The in-built quality of the Light-Six Sedan is evident the moment one gets behind the wheel, and is appreciated far more after twenty-five or thirty thousand miles of service.

The Light-Six Sedan, with its sturdy four-door body, its improved L-head motor, and the excellence of its chassis, combines distinction of appearance with a reliability of performance, a degree of comfort and economy of operation unknown in any other car at anywhere near its price.

Wonderful Lessons in the Bible's English for Writers and Speakers

Shakespeare was master of nearly twenty thousand words. Milton of about thirteen thousand. But the whole King James Version of the Bible contains not over six thousand words; not a half of Milton's, not a third of Shakespeare's vocabulary.

Short words are always strong words; they explode like bullets. Do you know that the average word in the English Bible, including even the proper names, is composed of less than five letters? Leave out the proper names and the average word wouldn't have even four letters. In the beloved 23rd Psalm there are 119 words; 95 are words of one syllable. In the Sermon on the Mount more than 80 per cent are words of one syllable. In the Ten Commandments, on which are based all the laws of all the world, there are 319 words; 259 are words of one syllable; and only 60 of two and more syllables. In Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg, perhaps the greatest in the world, there are 266 words. Of these, 194 words are of one syllable; 53 of two syllables; and only 19 of three or more syllables.

There is food for thought in these figures. What an improvement in our writers and speakers, if, like Lincoln, they would only give study to the English of the Bible.
