MOHLER CONTRADICTS HIS BROTHER CLYDE

U. S. WILL NOT PERMIT FRANCE TO SEIZE BIT

Refuses to Help Solve Reparations Problem Along Lines Charted by Poincaré.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The United States has made clear to France that she will withdraw from the proposed investigation of Germany's ability to pay reparations by a commission of experts if the scope of the inquiry be restricted in advance by Premier Poincaré.

This development came simultaneously with the attack on the Hughes plan by Senator Johnson at Oakland, Calif., which, though not unexpected, nevertheless served to impress the administration with the kind of criticism which it must expect if it enters the allied councils again.

The United States will refuse to become involved in an abortive investigation. Secretary Hughes offered to join in an inquiry of Germany's capacity to pay and methods by which payment may be made. He does not regard the restrictions laid down by Premier Poincaré as necessary on Thursday as in line with his proposal made in the recent note to Lord Curzon. In that communication Hughes said the United States would be willing to join in an economic conference for the purpose of considering the questions of the capacity of Germany to make reparations payments and an appropriate financial plan for securing such payments.

By Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Increasing confidence is felt in government quarters on the early organization and meeting of the reparations commission on which American experts will sit. Premier Poincaré shows a perceptible desire to soften some of the restrictions he already had set forth.

TEXAS STATE BANKS IN SPLENDID CONDITION

By Associated Press

AUSTIN, Nov. 2.—More than 90 per cent of the state banks of Texas are in a position to pay their bills and rediscunt, and the same percentage are maintaining their legal reserve, according to Bank Commissioner Chapman in reporting on bank conditions today.

Fully 25 per cent of the banks are carrying more than the legal reserve, said Chapman. Individual deposits are far in excess of any period of the last three years and banks are carrying less than 3 per cent of what is owed such banks, the commissioner stated, pointing to this as an optimistic financial outlook for the state.

WALTON INTENDS TO CARRY CASE TO SUPREME COURT

By Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 1.—Counsel for Governor Walton let it be known today that if decision in the impeachment case is unfavorable to him, an appeal to the United States district court will be made.

His attorneys declined to reveal the basis of their contemplated action, but intimated that the special election on Sept. 26, when the election board officials ignored the governor's orders that the polls be kept closed, would be one of the grounds for an appeal.

DEATH OF WOMAN PUZZLES AUTHORITIES AT ST. LOUIS

By Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—St. Louis authorities, who have been investigating the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Catherine Renard of Cincinnati, whose body was found in a creek said today that their findings had been such that they would probably ask that the coroner's inquest be reopened.

The coroner's jury declared that Mrs. Renard came to her death at the hands of unidentified persons and the theory was that she met death at the hands of robbers. She came here to visit her son, James Renard.

The sheriff's office has received information that a woman who said she was Mrs. Renard was escorted to within 100 feet of Mr. Renard's home on Oct. 18 by a man whose name is being withheld.

Dallas Man Flogged by Unmasked Kidnapers

Fight On Mosquitoes Begun This Year Is County-Wide Crusade

Jay Phillips, representing the Texas health department at Austin, who has been working in Eastland county for several months, has made up his final report. He left Eastland Thursday for San Antonio, where he will spend the winter.

The health specialist came here mainly to start a fight on mosquitoes and to stimulate the county to co-operation in the crusade. He met with fine success, he said, and left Eastland entirely satisfied. His report to his home office said in part:

Places of operation: Tanks, lakes, cisterns, storm sewers, rain barrels, etc.

Character of work: Oiling, ditching, draining, cutting grass and weeds.

Progress of work: Reported as being entirely satisfactory.

WALTON DEMURS TO CHARGES IN IMPEACHMENT

Argument Begun in Senate to Strike Out 14 Bills of Particulars.

By Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 2.—Counsel for Governor Walton on trial in the senate court on impeachment charges preferred by the lower house of the legislature, were today deep in their arguments on a demurrer by which they hope to strike 14 bills of particulars from the 22 articles.

Given as much time as they desire and uninterrupted as a result of an agreement with the prosecution until the entire demurrer has been argued the defense counsel were going into a detailed offensive against the charges.

The governor's attorneys argued that the naming of State Representative Baskin as district judge during Baskin's term as a legislator does not involve an impeachment charge and the charge that the executive had an excessive state payroll lacked specific evidence, no names of such employes being given. The charge that Walton's personal chauffeur was on the health department payroll was declared as a duplication. That the purchase of Walton's $48,000 home was legitimate transaction and innocent of any wilful intentions.

By United Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 2.—Arguments in support of Governor Walton's demurrers were begun in the senate this morning. Only three of the defense attorneys may argue, but they will be allowed all the time they wish.

Activities of the Ku Klux Klan are blamed by the defense for the charges against Walton. If the case be carried to the United States supreme court, as has been forecast if it goes against Walton, observers believe the claim will be made that the senate court was directed by the Klan and would not give the governor a fair trial.

AMERICAN BOAT DECLARED WINNER OF SECOND RACE

By Associated Press

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, Nov. 2.—Canada has not yet won the International Fisherman's trophy. The Canadian champion, "Blue Nose," after finishing well ahead of her American rival, "Columbia," was disqualified last night by the racing commission as winner of the second trial and the Columbia was declared the victor because the Blue Nose had failed to pass the buoy to seaward as directed to do after the first race.

The third and deciding race will be sailed tomorrow.

Wrong Man Punished Victim Says

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—"I do not approve of unlawful river bottom whippings, but I believe in the old-time whipping post and, if I had the authority, would establish a whipping post in front of the city hall," Mayor Louis Blaylock said today, commenting on the flogging in the Trinity river bottom last night. The mayor said the law would be enforced and every effort made to bring the flogging mob to justice.

SEPARATISTS AGAIN HOLDING AIX LA CHAPELLE

By Associated Press

COLOGNE, Germany, Nov. 2.—The town hall at Aix-la-Chapelle and the government buildings where the Rhineland republic was proclaimed 12 days ago were today again in the hands of the separatist forces. A force of men under Leo Deckers, separatist leader, reinforced by separatists from Coblenz and Duren, seized the buildings this morning. The town hall was besieged by 1,500 separatists.

A force of firemen, police and communists defended the building, hurling bombs of sulphuric acid at the separatists, who used dynamite and destroyed several doors of the town hall.

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—The band of unmasked men who last night kidnaped Joe Westbrook, 23, and Lon Johnson, also 23, and carried them into the Trinity river bottoms where the former was flogged, awaited the men in concealment behind the door of Westbrook's rooming house, according to the rooming house proprietor. In the Trinity river bottom the two captives were separated, according to Westbrook's story to the police. Westbrook said he did not think Johnson was flogged, but had not seen him since and did not know his whereabouts this morning. Westbrook was not seriously hurt.

Police said they had been told by a woman Westbrook was charged by the kidnapers with having kicked a woman at the state fair recently. "It was a case of mistaken identity," said Westbrook. "They got the wrong man. When they seized me last night they asked me if I was married. I told them I was and that I supported my wife and baby. When they asked me why I did not live with them I told them it was none of their business."

KLAN OT IMPLICATED SAYS DALLAS CYCLOPS

By United Press

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—Members of the Ku Klux Klan were not implicated in any way in the kidnaping last night of Joe Westbrook and Loren Johnson and the subsequent flogging of Westbrook in a lonely part of the Trinity river bottoms, J. V. Van Winkle, exalted cyclops of the Dallas Klan, declared today. He added that the Klan would gladly aid in an investigation of the affair.

In a speech at the dedication by the local Klan of a memorial cottage last week, Van Winkle declared there would be no more whippings or tarring parties here. "Instead of indulging in flogging and tarring and other parties in the river bottoms, as our enemies would have you believe," said Van Winkle, "the Klan has devoted its time and efforts to laudable work."

District Attorney Shelby Cox today offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of members of last night's whipping party. A sweeping investigation has been ordered by the police.

Johnson told newspaper men this morning that he had not been flogged, but had been guarded by two men in an automobile while Westbrook was beaten.

Further Advance in Cotton Prices Appears Imminent

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A decrease of 767,000 bales in the prospective cotton crop as compared with one month ago was shown today in the department of agriculture's forecast of 10,248,000 bales, based on conditions prevailing Oct. 25.

The report is the first of its kind ever issued in November, and has been awaited with interest by the cotton world in view of the scarcity of cotton and the diversity of opinion as to the exact size of this year's crop.

The condition of the crop is reported as 47.8 per cent of normal, as compared with 49.5 per cent on Sept. 25 of this year, 52.6 per cent Oct. 25 of last year and 43.2 per cent on that date in 1921, indicating a yield of 128.9 pounds of cotton per acre. The condition of the crop Oct. 25 and the forecast of production in Texas was 57 per cent and 4,300 bales.

FRANCE APPEARS TO STOP HAGGLING OVER CO-OPERATION

By Associated Press

PARIS, Nov. 2.—France accepts with cordiality the contemplated co-operation of the United States in a conference of experts to study Germany's capacity of paying reparations. She demands that it be based solely on her present capacity to pay and that the experts respect all of her rights under the treaty of Versailles.

This is the substance of France's reply to England's invitation that she join with France, Belgium and Italy in a conference of experts.

Food Prices Climb In Germany Into Triple High Levels

By United Press

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The food situation overshadowed politics today as prices soared to a new high level. Prices were trebled overnight. Eggs and butter were not to be bought in Berlin today for any money, the merchants either holding for higher prices or being unable to replenish their stocks.

WAR SPIRIT IS RUNNING HIGH IN BAVARIA

By United Press

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Minister of Interior Soliman today demanded that the Bavarian government explain what it meant by allowing a concentration of illegal military organizations along the border of its neighbor Thuringia.

A war spirit recalling that of 1914 is reported extending throughout northern Bavaria, where the forces of the fascist are reported to have been mobilized. The mobilization order is said to have been published openly in papers at Cobert, telling that the Bavarian government has summoned a portion of the regiment. Further summons are expected to follow and factories are expected to allow workers to enlist and to keep their positions open for them while serving and to try to continue their salaries.

With equal frankness, the northern border guard's proclamation asks for old army uniforms, bedding and other equipment to be loaned the organization. Another proclamation asks for rifles and ammunition.

East Breckenridge Seeks To Withdraw From City Taxes

By Associated Press

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 2.—Thirty-four residents of East Breckenridge, in a petition to the city commission, have asked that the east side addition be withdrawn from the city limits. The petition alleged that the procedure by which the addition was taken into the city limits last year, was illegal on the grounds that a majority of those who signed the petition were not legal residents and did not hold poll tax receipts.

Mayor C. H. Fulwider said that the sewage system laid down in the east side since the presentation of the petition for annexation would have to be salvaged if the residents withdrew. Fire and police protection would also be withdrawn. The tax rate in the city would be affected and insurance rates among the east side residents would also be upset if the claims of the 34 residents are recognized.

ACTIVITY IN OIL DRILLING LOOMS AHEAD

By Associated Press

Work on 50 Derricks Now Progressing and More Reported in Sight.

According to reliable reports brought to Eastland, the W. J. Ray well, recently brought in by the Gordon Petroleum company in the western part of Eastland county is now running 200 barrels a day.

It came in a producer. The pay was struck in 3,400-foot sand, about 80 feet higher than the Gulf company's well on the same tract.

The Ray farm is about six miles northwest of Cisco and had been regarded as proven territory, though no extensive drilling has been done there. Indications are that there will be considerable drilling activity in this field before long.

An Eastland oil worker told the telegram that the people by whom he is employed were engaged on 50 derricks at the present time, with much more similar work in sight.

Independent Falls Into Open Maw of Big Oil Octopus

By Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Part of a general campaign to regain control of the oil industry by assimilation of some of the larger independent companies is seen in the purchase of the Producers and Refiners Corporation by the Prairie Oil and Gas company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil company, says an article in the New York World, commenting on announcement from Chicago that the first of the big independents had fallen when the Prairie Oil and Gas company, a Standard Oil subsidiary, purchased the Producers and Refiners Corporation.

Close to $112,000,000 is involved in the consolidation. Prairie Oil is capitalized at $60,000,000, with assets of $129,000,000, while Producers and Refiners is a $59,000,000 concern, with assets of approximately $49,000,000. The merger will be completed when Prairie Oil obtains 51 per cent of the capital stock of Producers and Refiners on a basis of one share of Prairie for ten shares of Producers. The par value of Prairie common stock is $100, while that of the independent company is $50. Ownership of a majority of Producers common stock will give Prairie voting control.

Producers & Refiners has 265,000 acres of oil and gas leases in Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana. It is a large factor in the natural gas business in Wyoming, with several plants for extracting gasoline as well as a gas line, half owned with the Midwest Refining company, for moving gas to the plants. Producers also has a 15,000-barrel refinery at Parco, Wyo., connected by pipe line with several Wyoming fields; another refinery, 7,000 barrels capacity, at West Tulsa, Okla. It owns and controls a number of retail service stations in sixteen middle west and southern states. Last February Producers offered its stockholders 150,000 shares of common stock for subscription at $50, underwritten for acquiring the balance of the Fensland Oil company and the Lyons Petroleum company, as well as to provide for refinery, pipe line and tank car expansion.

By United Press

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Resignations of the socialist members of the Stresemann cabinet were handed to the chancellor today and immediately accepted.

DEFENDANT ON WITNESS STAND DENIES GUILT

By Associated Press

Testimony Given to Establish Alibi; Other Witnesses Virtually Accuse Brother.

As calmly and nonchalantly as though it was an every day occurrence, Robert Mohler, Friday, held the spotlight in his own trial for the slaying of Hugh Maples, Cisco rural mail carrier and service car operator.

It was the climax of the tedious hearing, the appearance of the defendant in his own behalf, testifying before Judge E. A. Hill and a jury in the eighty-eighth district court and Eastland took full advantage of the drama.

Casual observers would have said that a shoe horn could not squeeze in any more people than had crowded the little courtroom since the trial began last Monday. But they were wrong. When the word spread that Robert Mohler was on the stand, scores more women, men and children flocked to the court house and the room was so packed that every available seat was filled and the "standees" were so jammed that it was impossible to open the doors.

Defendant Is Cool

Coolly and without any trace of nervousness or emotion of any kind, Robert Mohler walked to the witness chair and took the oath. It appeared to be all in the day's work, as far as he was concerned. In a low but easily heard voice, he answered all questions, slow and deliberately. He betrayed no hesitancy or confusion at any point.

Mohler was still on the stand, under direct examination by Judge B. D. Shropshire and T. J. Cunningham, defense counsel, when Judge Hill ordered noon recess. It was deemed likely that Mohler would be on the stand all day, and he would be subjected to searching and grueling cross examination by the state's lawyers, County Attorney W. J. Barnes, Senator Joe Burkett and Elzo Been.

Establishing Alibi

Robert Mohler's testimony throughout the morning session of court was largely a diary of his movements about the time of the disappearance of Hugh Maples. His attorneys began with a period late in July, 1922, and questioned Mohler about his movements every day until a period in August, subsequent to the slaying of Maples.

He had ready answers to all questions and his memory seemed remarkable. He told where he was on a given day, where he went, how he got there and the reason for his movements.

The defendant emphatically denied much of the evidence put in by the prosecution. He knew Maples and had dealings with him, but he swore he was not with Maples on the trip from which the mail carrier never returned.

Mohler flatly denied that he had anything to do with making away with Maples and he retold the story related on the witness stand by his wife and son, Archie, about the alleged meeting and conversation with his brother, Clyde Mohler, in which Clyde warned him to drive back the other way he had come, because he, Clyde, had "planted" Hugh Maples so that he would never return to Cisco.

Were the Mohler trial a "movie thriller," a fitting sub-title still would have been "brother vs. brother," when the hearing was resumed Friday forenoon, after a late night session Thursday.

Family Is Divided

Before court had recessed for night, both Mrs. Robert Mohler and the boy, Archie, had indirectly accused Clyde Mohler of having first-hand knowledge of the death of Maples.

Both boy and woman alleged that Clyde Mohler had warned Robert Mohler to get out of the country, as he had "planted" Maples.

Before that, Harve Gray had testified that when he saw Robert Mohler in jail at Fort Worth, awaiting the Eastland county officers, Robert had said that he had to "frame" Clyde or he himself go to the gallows.

Then Clyde Mohler, as a state's witness, wholly contradicted the stories of Mrs. Robert Mohler and Archie. Clyde Mohler was recalled to the stand briefly on Friday morning and stuck to his previous testimony.

DON'T WASTE THE GAS.

There are few now living who can not recall the days of artificial gas. It is not so long ago that the natural product was introduced into the homes of Cincinnati and elsewhere in the central west.

This is no idle warning. It is given by no less an interested party than the Ohio Gas and Oil Men's association. A committee is being formed to consider the crisis. It is to act on the recommendation of the department of mines and metallurgy of the Ohio State University.

The situation is an unpleasant one and fulfillment of the prediction of the not-distant exhaustion of natural gas would produce much inconvenience. It will be almost a retrogression of progress to go back to artificial gas with its high cost of production and consequent high cost to consumer.

Robert Mohler took the stand and himself tried to throw the burden on his brother.

At the midday recess, it seemed likely that the case would get to the jury sometime Saturday. It was probable that the examination and cross-examination of Robert Mohler would consume the remainder of Friday.

The end was in sight when the long-drawn out Mohler trial, involving the killing of Hugh Maples, Cisco service car driver, was resumed Friday. When Judge E. A. Hill reconvened the Eighty-eighth district court at 9 a. m., the defense of Robert Mohler had a few witnesses yet to be examined.

The prosecution then would be allowed a short time for rebuttal testimony, after which would come the instructions of the court and the lawyers' speeches. It was believed the fate of Robert Mohler would be in the hands of the jury some time Saturday.

Defense High Lights.

The high lights of the defense were finished up Thursday, with the examination of Mrs. Robert Mohler and Archie Mohler, wife and 16-year-old son of the defendant.

Denial By Clyde Mohler: On cross-examination by the defense, Clyde Mohler, who appeared as a witness for the state, already had denied this alleged meeting and conversation. He declared emphatically that in the specified August, 1922, he had seen Robert Mohler only once and then he was alone.

The cross-examination of the Mohler boy by the state developed the same sort of controversy as was precipitated when the mother was on the stand. The state attorneys attempted to question the witness regarding other letters between his father and mother that he might have seen.

Defense counsel, as in the case of Mrs. Mohler, objected on the ground that these purported letters were not mentioned in the direct examination. Judge Hill sustained the objection, telling the jurors to disregard both questions and answer.

This ruling precipitated the same sort of argument from the state counsel that occurred while Mrs. Mohler was on the stand, but Judge Hill was firm.

DRINK WATER IF BACK OR KIDNEYS HURT

Begin Taking Salts If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Weakness.

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders.

By all means, drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.

OIL PRODUCTION IN TEXAS GOES TO HIGH MARK

Texas oil production reached a new high level for the week ending last Saturday, according to figures compiled by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, a total of 601,060 barrels being produced. The average daily production of the great Powell field was 340,000 barrels last week.

The increase at Powell, which was 80,000 barrels, was partially absorbed by losses elsewhere, notably in the northwest and in California, the latter field dropping 20,000 barrels.

The total production for the week averaged 2,247,000 daily for the week, of which 1,506,010 was east of the Rockies. California's production was 801,000.

Drilling in the Powell field is showing a slackening at present, and the number of completions are declining. Unless additional territory is opened up, the present peak of the field will mark the crest. On Tuesday of this week, production reached 360,000 and the estimated potential production 400,000.

The Ranger-Eastland daily production increased 240 barrels, or to 8,310 as compared with 8,040.

The Texas production figures below are for the week ending last Saturday, while those of fields outside of Texas, compiled by the American Petroleum Institution, represent the standing of those fields at the close of the week ending the Saturday before:

Mr. Burden is a pleasing speaker and every bit a Pythian and from suggestions of his there may arise some surprises for the knights of Ranger lodge who attend the meeting regularly.

CENTRAL BAPTIST T. E. L. ENTERTAINS ALATHEANS

A delightful party was tendered the Alatheans and their husbands and husbands of the T. E. L. class members of the Central Baptist church by the ladies of the T. E. L. class on Wednesday evening at the annex building of the church. A "witch met the guests at the door and introduced them to a long line of "ghosts," whose clammy handshakes made the party seem spooky enough. A negro porter ushered the guests into the large dining-room where appropriate decorations made the desired effect, and weird music from a phonograph added to the spooky atmosphere. Here all sorts of merry games were played until late in the evening when pumpkin pie and coffee were served to 125. Everyone enjoyed the evening and the Alatheans expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the delightful hospitality.

GROUP OF YOUNG LADIES GIVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

Misses Bessie Faye Irion, Blanche Garber, Lillian Neal and Eulalia Wolfe gave a delightful Halloween party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. R. Newnam in the Gholson addition. The guests were met at the door by a witch impersonated by Miss Neal, who brushed the cobwebs off of them with her broom as they entered the darkened living-room. Bags containing fortunes cut into puzzles were presented each guest and fortunes matched for partners then read aloud.

During the evening lots of games appropriate to the occasion were played and at ten o'clock everyone unmasked and enjoyed the refreshments of apples, nuts, toasted marshmallows, pumpkin pie and coffee, which was eaten by the light of jack-o-lanterns, while Mrs. Newnam played "meditation" softly on the piano. Those present were, Misses Velma Leath, Florence Sandlin, Anna Clewell, Evelyn Clewell, Effie Smith, Emma Stephens, Ruby Cook, Blanche Garber, Lillian Neal, Eulalia Wolfe and Bessie Faye Irion, Messrs. Mrs. Nellie C. Metcalfe, president of the West Texas Woman's Chamber of Commerce addressed the assembly.

Interesting papers on the subject of the day were read by Mmes. C. D. Woods, C. E. Maddocks, and Miss Ruth Hagaman. Following the program a short business session was held during which Mrs. S. P. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without expense or money make $250 to $500 per month.—Advertisement.

MISS ROQUEMORE ENTERTAINS IN HER CLASSROOM.

Miss Roquemore, teacher of the fifth grade in the South Ward school, entertained the pupils and departmental teachers Wednesday afternoon with a Halloween party in her class room, decorated in Halloween devices, and arranged for the occasion. Spooky games and fortune tellings were features.

Miss Roquemore served candy, nuts and grapes, in individual orange color crepe paper baskets, that bore the emblems of black cats and witches. Candy-pop corn balls were provided by Christine Whitehurst as compliment to Miss Roquemore, who is known for her able handling of children, and has a warm place in their hearts.

On gloomy days, when languid children droop, Miss Roquemore has a fresh apple or an orange for their refreshment. There are 40 pupils in her class room.

REV. J. N. WOOTEN IS SURPRISED BY FRIENDS.

The past week has been filled with informal Halloween festivities and the season has furnished occasion for clever decorations and unique entertainments.

One of the most attractive was the surprise party for Rev. J. N. Wooten and family.

Forty guests the majority affiliated with the Christian church, descended upon the Wooten residence in a body, armed with generous supplies of goodies, and edibles of all sorts, including coffee, fruit, sugar, etc.

Beautiful decorations of autumn foliage and the appropriate halloween devices had been arranged by Mrs. Z. W. Outward and Mrs. C. F. Smith, a complete surprise to the honor guests.

Halloween games were played and delightful music given by Mmes. Wooten, J. N. Andrews, James A. Beard. Principal Andrews of the West Ward school "held" an audience with his renditions of old-fashioned ballads. Voice numbers were given by Mrs. Smith, and a clever reading of "Little Orphant Annie."

A committee of ladies prepared and served a delicious hallowe'en supper of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, apples and coffee.

MRS. CLARKE IS HOSTESS FOR EPISCOPAL GUILD.

A domestic bazaar will be given after Christmas, date announced later.

The guild is trying to find an appropriate location in which to hold the Episcopal church services, and their Sunday school periods.

Mrs. Clarke served dainty sandwiches and Russian tea and candy.

The guild will meet with Mrs. W. L. Gupton Wednesday, Nov. 14.

IMPROVED ROADS BETWEEN RANGER AND COMANCHE

"Rain or shine, we'll go to Comanche." This was the sentiment of the Ranger High school today, before and after the assembly of students to talk over the game with Comanche tomorrow at Comanche and to indulge in a few lusty cheers.

Thurman Gholston, one of the cheer leaders, says he is going to have a pep squad on hand tomorrow, whether the skies weep or the sun radiates.

The coaches have provided all of the players with enclosed automobile transportation to Comanche, business and professional men doing the generous act.

But more autos are needed to take part of the student body, who have no means of transportation. Anyone who would like to see some high school boy or girl enjoy the game can pick up a deserving and appreciative student at the high school building Saturday morning about 9 o'clock. The team and most of those who already have a way of going will pull out of Ranger about 9 o'clock.

There is no danger of automobiles getting stuck in the mud between Ranger and Comanche if the drivers go by way of Eastland, Gorman and DeLeon. The Times has received dependable information on the roads to Comanche and no one need fear mud. It is paved from here to Gorman and gravelled from Gorman to DeLeon and thence on into Comanche.

TEXAS U. ATHLETES MAY CHANGE DOMINANT COLOR OF THEIR SWEATERS

AUSTIN, Nov. 2.—Because white is considered an effeminate color, it is proposed that the prevailing color of Texas university athletic sweaters be changed to orange. L. Theo Belmont, athletic director of the university, is taking the lead in the movement. The question will be definitely settled at an early joint meeting of the Longhorn "P" association, the organization of university athletes, and the university athletic council.

In the past, white coat sweaters with an orange "T", six inches in height, have been awarded to letter men in the various major sports. Under the proposed change, the sweaters would be orange with a white "T".

"This true that white symbolizes purity and virtue; but the orange denotes manliness and courage and should put iron into the blood of the athletes," declared Mr. Belmont. "Last spring nine-tenths of the athletes in school signified that they were in favor of the change, and I anticipate little opposition to the proposal at this time."

COURT TELLS BAILEY HE IS INSOLENT AND "TIRES" HIS HONOR

By United Press.
FORT WORTH, Nov. 2.—Objection by Joseph Weldon Bailey, chief counsel for the defense in the trial of Dr. Frederick Cook on charges of using the United States mail to defraud, to the questioning of witnesses by the court brought him severe censure by Federal Judge Killitts again today.

"A series of studied insolencies have been flung at the government of the United States and I am tired of it," Judge Killitts declared.

In interpreting the objections by Bailey, as another insinuation against the government, Judge Killitts said:

"I have had enough of this. I have heard the last word on this subject." The court refused to permit Bailey to discuss the question, "Your whole conduct since the trial opened justifies the court in feeling that the court has not been treated fairly," said Judge Killitts.

The boy or girl who is always conscious of their pimply, blotchy, inflamed or rough skin, and really drawing more attention to it when they keep making excuses for not looking good, don't get any sympathy because folks now know that it is not necessary to keep putting up with this sort of thing.

Since the wonderful Black and White Ointment was introduced in this country a short time ago, thousands of people who had been troubled with these skin ailments for years are now happy, because they find it gets rid of them so quickly.

Black and White Ointment is economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have it.—Advertisement.

SURE IT DOES GOOD

Theford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine (Vegetable) Praised by the Head of a Louisiana Family.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine."

"We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

If your liver gets out of fix, take Black-Draught. It will help to drive the bile poisons and other unhealthy matters out of your system.

HARVESTING IS INTERRUPTED BY EXCESSIVE RAIN

HOUSTON, Nov. 2.—Excessive rain fall the last two weeks has interfered with harvest and retarded ripening crops, according to the bi-weekly issued today by W. H. Schutz, agricultural statistician.

The letter contained the following report on various crops:

"General crop and weather conditions: Excessive rainfall during the past two weeks interfered with harvest and further retarded ripening of late crops. Fields and roads have been too wet to allow much progress in the gathering of crops. Only a small percentage of the small grain acreage has been sown.

"Cotton: Picking has been greatly delayed by rains of past two weeks, particularly in northwest where crop is very late. Scattered frosts have stopped growth in parts of northwest, northeast, and southwest. Most cotton is being sold as ginned.

"Corn: Much corn is yet in fields, cotton picking having interfered. Corn has been badly damaged by rains. Crop is only fair. Few counties have surplus.

"Wheat, oats, rye: There is a great amount of volunteer wheat this year which is doing so well that is being left for pasturage and grain. Wet weather has retarded sowing of small grains; that sown early is growing very well.

"Hay: Sorghum, sudan, and Johnson grass are extra good in many instances. Much wild hay is being harvested.

"Peanuts: Crop not affected by frost is still growing. Outside of the south Texas acreage very little harvesting has been done.

"Sweet potatoes: Too much rain has interfered with harvest; some black rot has developed and second growth is causing loss. Most of the crop is being sold.

"Pecans: The crop is moving rapidly, especially where cotton is all gathered; the nuts are mainly small, but sound and sweet. Prices range from 10 to 18 cents for native nuts and from 30 to 75 cents for improved.

"Livestock and pastures: Cattle, sheep and goats continue in good condition and promise to winter without much feeding. Very little restocking is being done. There is considerable trading in steers. Ranges are in fair to very good condition. Wheat and oat pastures are extra good due to the great amount of volunteer growth."

THREE MEN INJURED IN FIRE ARE GETTING WELL

OTTAWA, Kan., Nov. 2.—Four men driving a large car held up the First National bank this morning, taking all of the cash in the vault, estimated at $25,000 and escaped. The quartet entered soon after the doors opened and with drawn guns forced the bank employes to lay down on the floor.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

Medical Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected New Tablet Called "Calotab."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known by the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning and are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—Advertisement.

Better Biscuits-Cakes & Pastries?

—WHY tell you that Aunt Jemima Flour is made from highest quality selected Missouri soft wheat? Or that every grain of that wheat is washed individually before it is ground? Or that every particle of flour is sifted through silk fabric of the finest weave? Or why tell you of the many other details of extreme care essential to the manufacture of this perfect flour? The fact that Aunt Jemima sponsors it and that it is milled by the same folks who make Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour is sufficient proof that if a better flour could be made it would bear Aunt Jemima's name.

Doctor Terrell Recalls Some Primitive Habits of Pioneer West Texas That Rex Beach Failed to Hear About; Extracts From "The Gusher."

By P. G. T.

Rex Beach seems to get lots of kick out of describing how dumb-bell Eastland county farmers were before oil succeeded in seeping out of mother earth, in his old field book, "Flowing Gold."

A lady who claims Texas as her native land, and who is working as assistant nurse to her fast recovering Michigan husband way up in the Clinical hospital, was reading this book yesterday and saw fit to comment on Rex's criticisms regarding Ranger. Doctor Terrell happened to be paying a social call.

"I suppose," speaking to Doc Terrell, "that you went to the university barefooted and wearing a five-gallon fedora."

"Well, not exactly," answered the operationist, "Almost always wore my shoes, but found it rather difficult to get used to sox. Fivegallon hats were necessary in those days to bring footbaths to the patients we were practicing on."

"I do seem to recall," he continued, "the difficulty we had in getting some of the natives around here to wear pants. Had to go out and rope one occasionally and put a pair of pants on him. They always wore those longer than knee length shirts until they grew up and if you let one grow past a certain age, he got kind of wild and hard to bring down."

"Oh, Doctor Terrell," said the Texas wife glancing at her Michigan husband askance, "you know that's not true." But the medico didn't offer to retract his statement.

Here are a few of the clever things in the "Gusher," Ranger Hi's monthly publication. There are lot of other kickey ones in it, too:

She: "Chauncey, I have bad news for you."
He: "For me?"
She: "Yes, I was at a fortune tellers today and she told me I was to marry a handsome man."

A tall girl by the name of Short, long loved a big Mr. Little; while Little thinking little of Short, loved a little lass named Long. To make a long, short story, Little proposed to Long, and Short longed to be even with Little's shortcomings. So Short, meeting Long, threatened to marry Little, which caused Little in a short time to marry Long. Query: Did tall Short love big Little less because Little loved Long?

John (in spelling class): If s-i-o-u-x spells "soo" and e-y-e spells "I," and s-i-g-h-e-d spells "side," I guess that's what I better do, commit Sioux-eye-sighed.

E. W. (first date): "Don't you love driving at night?"
Virgil F: "Yes, but we are still in Town."

BOOM DAY SHACKS BEING SALVAGED FOR LUMBER THEY CONTAIN

Salvaged lumber in Ranger's boom day shacks is finding a market. The C. E. Maddocks & Co., real estate dealers of Ranger, have sold a half dozen shacks, used for different purposes several years ago, to local and out of town men recently. J. A. Pritchard of the Ranger Auto Salvage, 500 Melvin street, has bought the shacks on the lot of the Cisco Cotton Oil company on South Commerce street, and is having them torn down.

W. W. Harbour of Roscoe, has purchased a cafe shack on North Austin street, the old Savoy hotel building at Walnut and Marston streets and a restaurant shack adjoining the community hall on the east of Walnut street. Also a two-room shack on Mesquite street. Harbour will use the good lumber to erect buildings on his farm property.

MAIL ORDER CATALOGS?

If we all did our buying from mail order catalogs, where would our home store be? If our home stores sold nothing but outside flour, where would our home mill be? If it were not for our home mill, where would the market for our farmers' wheat be? Next time order Jones Best from your grocer.—Advertisement.

Lovers of good music will enjoy the Temple Singers at the high school auditorium, Saturday evening, Nov. 3. This group is a company of artists, each of whom has won distinction in his field. Get your tickets early and reserve choice seat for entire season of five numbers.—Advertisement.
