N. Y. Woman Lost 14 Pounds of Fat

One 85 Cent Bottle of Kruschen Salts Did It

"I am starting on my second bottle of Kruschen Salts and am repleated with results. I take it for reducing and so far have lost 14 pounds and I think it is doing wonders for me. I do not feel so tired evenings when I get home from work."

A generous bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks costs but 85 cents at Collins Bros. or any drug store in America—take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—cut down on starches and walk a little each day.

Before the bottle is empty surplus fat is leaving you—indolence changes to activity—you'll feel younger—eyes will brighten—step grows spry. Millions know this—you ought to know it. Kruschen Salts is the ideal treatment for constipation, indigestion, headaches, nervousness and acidity—only.

RELIABILITY ECONOMY GOOD PERFORMANCE

THE NEW FORD TUDOR SEDAN

YOU are buying proved performance when you buy a Ford. You know it has been built for many thousands of miles of satisfactory, economical service.

Letters from users in every part of the world show the value of its sound design, good materials and accuracy in manufacturing. You sense a feeling of sincere pride in the oft-repeated phrase—"Let me tell you what my new Ford did."

Further tribute to the sturdiness, reliability and general all-round performance of the new Ford is shown in the repeated and growing purchases by government bureaus, by police departments, and by large industrial companies which keep careful day-by-day cost records. In most cases, the new Ford has been chosen only after exhaustive tests covering speed and power, safety, comfort, ease of control, oil and gas consumption, low yearly depreciation, and low cost of up-keep.

They have found, as you will find, that the Ford embodies every feature you want or need in a motor-car at an unusually low price.

He's Getting To Be The Picture Of Health Again

SON OF DORA, TEXAS, FARMER BEGAN TO IMPROVE FEW DAYS AFTER TAKING ARGOTANE.

"Argotane certainly has been the making of my son," said J. C. Rogers, a well known farmer, of Dora, Texas, while in Bowen's Drug Store, at Sweetwater, a few days ago.

"Yes, sir, since I put my son on Argotane, he has picked up several pounds in weight. This seems remarkable to me, but it's a fact because I weighed him myself. He is now getting to be the very picture of health and really looks like a different man."

"He had been in bad health for the past one and a half years and got in such bad shape that it seemed like no medicine would do him any good. He suffered terribly from headaches most all the time and I guess he was bilious because he had those sickening, dizzy spells."

"I had been reading how Argotane was helping so many people right around us here in Sweetwater, that I couldn't see why it wouldn't be good for my son, too. So after talking with several of the neighbors who had taken it, and inquiring fully into it, I started my son on it, giving him doses as per the required physician's directory. Well, I'm a happy man now over what it has done for him."

"He commenced to look brighter and pick up in weight and strength in just a few days. He soon got a good appetite, began to eat a hearty meal and gained in health right along. It does me so much good to see him so cheerful and happy all the time now. It's a pleasure for me to recommend Argotane because it has made my son like a new being at a cost too small to notice."

Genuine Argotane may be bought in Big Spring at the Collins Bros. Drug—adv.

Communism Is Here

THAT MUCH money is being spent in the United States to plant the seeds of Communism is quite obvious to one who reads the news dispatches closely. Congress has dedicated one of its many "probes" to an inquiry into communistic activities.

Hereditarily appears to play an important part in the production of these defects. A number of explanations have been offered to account for the failure of the face to complete its normal development.

A NICE GIRL COMES TO TOWN

It was a stupid, obvious thing to say, but her head was in such a whirl that she could think of nothing else. "You're thinner, Tony," she gasped, as they made their way to a car. Tony winked. "Prickly pears," he grinned. "They're marvelous reducers."

"I'm afraid not, Tony." "Damn it all, why not?" Think of all the good times we've had together. It can't end like this. Why wouldn't he go? She could not answer him.

Announcements... The following have authorized The Herald to announce they are candidates for the offices designated, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 26, 1930.

Associated Electric Income Increases

Operating revenues of Associated Electric company for the year 1929 as shown in the annual report amounted to $18,944,581, a decrease of $1,129,247 from the previous year. This decrease is due to the fact that certain properties in New York State were sold during 1928 and hence are not included in 1929 revenues.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

WHAT THE often stimulated charge of isolating towns by the relocation of highways is refuted by the records of the Highway Department is made clear in Alonzo Wasson's correspondence to The News from Austin. That 1,313 out of 1,348 cities and towns of more than 200 population are served directly by intercontrol point highways should be informative enough to those who have heeded the oft-raised cry against Highway Commission discrimination.

She would like to collect autographs but doesn't. She is too shy to ask fellow players for their signatures. Unlike Maureen, little Tommy has an impressive collection.

TREATY DEBATE CONTINUES

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—Senator McKellar told the senate today France and Italy had been "brought on the verge of war," by war "by secrecy, bad blood and calousy" surrounding negotiation of the naval treaty.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Prayer—Pittston, Pa. But by the act of prayer you recognize a personal relationship with that Father which consciously enriches the lives of millions of believers. It is intended to harmonize your desires with His purposes, out of their lives. No man can pretend to God to get contrary to His trying to overcome evil and to procure and will. No man can have more good in themselves and in the world. He is to be met in His enlightening and His heavenly Father's wisdom and pardoning grace. It is His will that you should know what things you have need, means that you want what He wants for you, and are assured that

What, good does prayer do for a man like myself who has not prayed for many years? Certainly it does not accomplish much for those who have thrust it out of their lives. No man can pretend to God to get contrary to His trying to overcome evil and to procure and will. No man can have more good in themselves and in the world. He is to be met in His enlightening and His heavenly Father's wisdom and pardoning grace. It is His will that you should know what things you have need, means that you want what He wants for you, and are assured that this is your best attainment be it what it may. Prayer offered in such faith fosters your spiritual life. You cannot have character, any more than you can have intellectual culture, without wishing for it. It must be produced by intense devotion and unceasing effort. The testimony that prayer purifies and enlarges the petitioner's individuality is too conclusive to be set aside. Try out the grand experiment for yourself.

Canada, where it undertakes the salvage of unprivileged youth; in need of right direction. Nine thousand boys and girls under sixteen years of age were cared for in New York alone by Big Brothers and Sisters during 1929. Individual interest is secured; one man for one boy and one woman for one girl as their wards, to whom they extend a sympathetic heart and a helping hand. Jews, Catholics and Protestants alike share in this humane service, and every youngster is attached to an adult follower of his or her particular religion. Politicians, statesmen, clergymen, journalists and settlement workers endorse the Big Brother and Big Sister movement. They believe that reclamation of wayward youth is a problem of social health, to be solved by moralized intelligence and not by police measures. Too often prisons are incubators of lawlessness. And since the majority of offenders in penal institutions are not twenty-five years old, it is plain that the nation must sustain the movement in question or face obvious consequences. It costs $400 annually to commit a boy to a reformatory, and only a little more than $10 annually to place him in the care of a Big Brother. But the financial advantage of the new regime is negligible compared with its spiritual gains. These are the cultivation of good citizenship through improved circumstances, proper education, religious training, wholesome recreation and personal attention to the youngster's necessities. Those who undertake to do these things find that the labor involved is its own reward. Many who assumed it somewhat reluctantly are now its enthusiastic advocates. All thus engaged testify to its satisfactory results. What is more conducive to our happiness as adults than to have a boy or girl refer to this or that man or woman as God's messenger in their hour of need?

Trenton, N. J. With the increasing number of agencies for educational and moral benefit, why should there also be an apparently increasing amount of lawlessness? Because parentage is entirely too promiscuous and home life is not what it should be. I do not advocate harsh domestic discipline. But attention, oversight, the provision of attractive features and most of all, parental example, are conspicuously lacking in countless American households. There should be nurseries of good character, not breeding spots for lawlessness and irreligion. Psycho-analysis rightly stresses the paramount importance of the child's first five years. Intelligent parents have always realized this fact, but they know it now as they never did before. To avoid complications in later life, the youngsters must be properly cared for during that decisive period. This is not mere pulpit piety, it is the basic principle of the best psychology. Experience confirms its intelligent application. If we would explain our empty churches and crowded jails, let us picture the inefficient homes of our last two decades; homes without order, life with confusion, waywardness, betrayal and strife. The sure remedy for the evil you name, and the equally sure guaranty for the benefits we all desire, are in the home as nowhere else. This is the sacred institution, older than church, state or school, which determines their success or failure.

MISS SAYLES HOME—Mrs. Alice Sayles returned Wednesday from Sweetwater and Brownwood where she has been the guest of relatives for the past ten days.

YOUTH DROWNS—ENNIS, Texas, July 16 (AP)—Lester Woodall, 9, son of Clyde Woodall of Wellington, Calif., was drowned today while bathing in a tank on the R. M. Jackson farm four miles west of Garrett. The family was visiting the Jacksons.

TO USE POWER—BERLIN, July 16 (AP)—The Brüning cabinet today decided to use the dictatorial powers granted under Article 48 of the German constitution to put through its financial program. The decision followed the Reichstag rejection of Finance Minister Dietrich's proposals.

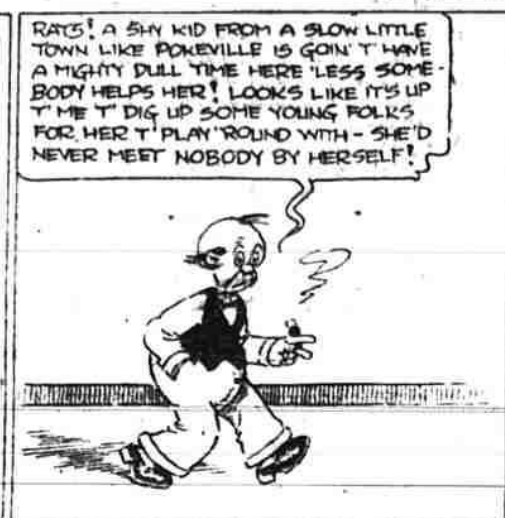

R. C. Hunter of Midland, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company was a Big Spring visitor Tuesday.

HERE FROM CLEBURNE—Miss Martha Plummer of Cleburne is spending the summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Whit Plummer.
