

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT NOW COUNTY WIDE FORTIETH LEGISLATURE CLOSES TODAY

FOUR TROOPS EACH TOWN COUNTY PLAN

Campaign To Put It Over Already Begun; Towns Cooperating

Before the week ends, Ranger, Eastland and Cisco will have been organized into a county-wide Boy Scout movement. Actual organization of four Boy Scout troops will be completed in Ranger on Thursday night, in Cisco on Friday night and possibly in Eastland on Saturday night.

Four troops will be organized at four Ranger churches, Thursday night, namely, the Central Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian churches. These churches will be the meeting place for the various troops but the troops will be known by number and not by the name of the churches where they meet. A number will be assigned each troop, as its charter is granted. All scouts in this district will wear the same color neckerchief, but each troop will have its individual color as a border.

There are said to be about 400 boys in Ranger of scout age, and scout executive Guy Quirl, who is in Ranger today, said that the scoutmasters, who have been taking the training course hope that a large number of these boys will enroll in the various troops to be organized in Ranger Thursday night. The other two cities are thought to have about the same number of boys to be enrolled.

Each town will have four scoutmasters, most of whom will be selected from the business men who took the recent scoutmaster's training course.

Enact Scenes. These scoutmasters have been instructed in the fundamentals of organization. They have worked hard to acquire this knowledge, and now it is really up to the boys of the county to join some of the many troops that will be organized this week, to make their efforts a success.

On Thursday morning there will be a breakfast at the Gholson hotel, participated in by 21 Ranger business men, which will close a membership campaign in the scout movement.

This evening at two downtown Ranger stores, there will be special Boy Scout scenes enacted in the show windows, which will be of interest to the passing public.

Croarkin Trial Nears Its End, Now With Jury

CHICAGO, March 16.—The positive, indifferent H. J. Croarkin, today will watch his trial for murder come to a close. State Attorney Robert E. Crowe, vigorous prosecutor, who led the attempt to send Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb to the gallows, this morning will begin a summation by which he hopes to send Croarkin to the gallows for the murder of Walter Schmidt, Jr.

The defendant's plea based on the argument that Croarkin is a crazy man, and a victim of all powerful psychoses, ended in a special night session leaving only Crowe's argument before the case is turned over to the jury for a decision.

Garland Adair Leaves Mexia News, Goes to Abilene

MEXIA, Texas, March 16.—The News Publishing company of Mexia, Texas, announced this afternoon the resignation of A. Garland Adair as editor of the Mexia News, who has purchased an interest in the Abilene, Texas, Times.

Texas Pioneer, 91, Weds Girl of 26

At 91, Colonel Charles Goodnight, ranchman of Clarendon, Texas, has just married Miss Corinne Goodnight, 26, of Butte, Mont. Miss Goodnight a telegraph operator, read of the colorful life of the colonel, a noted southwestern pioneer, and wrote to him. The romance resulted.

27 MAGNOLIA OFFICIALS, EMPLOYEES BANQUET

Representatives From Seven Counties of West Texas Hold Conference

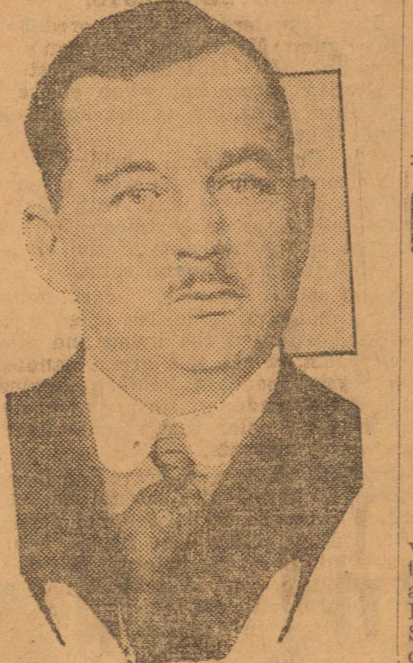

Six officials from the Magnolia general office at Dallas and 21 foremen and superintendents from seven counties, forming this district of the Magnolia Petroleum company, gathered at Olden last night for a banquet and a foremen's meeting.

Officials present from Dallas were F. V. Faulkner, vice president of the Magnolia company; M. J. MacLaughlin, assistant general manager; George Kilchenstein, general superintendent of Texas; R. M. Johnson, land department; W. Gary, machine shop superintendent, and Frank Lane, Magnolia superintendent of drilling tools.

The following counties were represented by Magnolia foremen and superintendents—Coleman, Brown, Stephens, Eastland, Erath, Shackelford, and Comanche.

A banquet was served at the Magnolia boarding house and was followed (Continued on page two)

North Carolina now has three bets for the democratic nomination for president in 1928. Governor Angus Wilton McLean (above) is the latest Carolinian also proffer Senator Furnifold M. Simmons and Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy.

MOTOR BUS REGULATION AND REGISTRATION LAST MEASURES TO CONFERENCE

Expect Special Session Will Be Called Within Next Thirty Days Sure

AUSTIN, March 16.—Clocks in the senate and house again were turned back this morning, the last day of the regular session of the fortieth legislature to allow time for free conferences to iron out differences in the bill for prison reorganization and relocation, and the motor bus bill, which seeks to put the regulation of motor buses under the jurisdiction of the railroad commission.

Time set in the concurrent resolution adopted several days ago, called for sine die adjournment at noon today. It is probable that adjournment will not come until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

All the other bills which went to the free conference will not come until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Registration Fee. The last bill to be agreed to was that of the committee on the motor vehicle registration bill. The committee agreed to the modification of the Fairchild senate amendment which sought to take away from the commission county jurisdiction of roadwork and place it with the county engineer, and if there is a county without such official, then the work is to be supervised by the nearest division engineer of the state highway department.

The bill as it goes to the governor does not require the registration license, as it now exists.

One of the closing acts of the senate was to permit Senator Love of Dallas to call up his resolution providing for an investigation of activities of lobbyists at this and previous sessions of the legislature. The senate promptly killed the resolution by adopting a motion by Senator Wirtz to indefinitely postpone it.

Protem Officers. The senate before final adjournment will elect a presiding proton officer to serve until the last day of the special session, which is expected to be called within thirty days.

Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston is slated for election. Under the rules, the senate will, on the first day of the special session, elect another proton presiding officer.

The house concurred in the senate's amendments to the Williamson house motor speed bill. The amendment eliminated the provision for a highway patrol of forty officers. The bill as it goes to the governor prohibits peace officers from making speed arrests by the use of traps or lying in hiding.

Rotarians Hear About Boy Scouts

Boy Scout work was the keynote of the Ranger Rotary club meet today at noon, at the Gholson Hotel. W. W. Housewright, made most interesting talk on the work that has already been done in the county, and told briefly some of the hopes and aims of the tri-cities, Ranger, Eastland and Cisco, in putting over the organization of Boy Scout troops.

He urged cooperation from all Rotarians in this effort, explaining that the boy of today is the man of tomorrow and if our cities are to have good future citizens, they must be trained properly early in life.

Ray Judia and Mrs. Watts furnished music for the luncheon, and a number of Boy Scouts were present as guests of the club.

Boy Scout slogans around the green room, further emphasized the importance of the work that will be fairly launched this week in Eastland county.

County Agent Plans Increase Of Dairy Herds

J. C. Patterson, county agricultural agent for Eastland county, is going to make a special effort to interest Eastland county farmers in dairy herds and is going to devote considerable of his time to the organization of boys' clubs.

Aside from these, he said he is setting himself to the task of carrying on the work started by his predecessor, R. H. Bush. He paid a high compliment to the ability of Bush and stated that to carry on the work already started will be a big task.

Patterson, however, is very much interested in the bringing in of more dairy herds and finer dairy herds to Eastland county. He believes that this is one of the best and quickest methods of making the farm and the farmer self supporting at all times.

He pointed out that dairy products are daily being shipped into practically all sections of Texas, a state that should supply, not only its own demands but should be able to feed many other states where conditions are not so favorable to the dairying industry.

Patterson will exert much effort in trying to put the dairying industry of Eastland county on a thoroughly scientific basis.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION PROBE CALLED AGAIN

DETROIT, Mich., March 15.—Senator James A. Reed, democrat of Missouri, in an interview today declared he had summoned the primary fund investigation committee to meet in Washington Saturday for the purpose of proceeding with the Pennsylvania inquiry.

Reed said he probably would not be able to muster the full committee, but that he was of the opinion that the alleged ballot fraud of two Pennsylvania counties should not rest until the next session of congress.

GOLD STRIKE AROUSES ARIZONA

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 16.—Lured by reports of a new gold strike rivaling the wealth of the Weepah, Nevada, field, caravans of prospectors today were pending their way over the hills from here toward Dripping Springs valley.

The new strike was reported the Cowboy mine, about 125 miles from here. C. W. McGraw, a veteran prospector, is credited with the discovery. Ore running as high as $60,000 a ton has been assayed by the Arizona assay office, according to W. W. Lawhorn, a prominent Arizona mining man. He has been working on the ground for several weeks and already has staked out several claims.

Other prospectors have been at work secretly for weeks since indications of the strike.

Souvenir Fans Buy Charlie's Old Trousers

LONDON.—Everything from five stuffed pigeons to fourteen pairs of "Charlie Chaplin trousers," went under the hammer here recently when the contents of the famous Empire theatre were sold at public auction.

Souvenir hunters were the principal bidders for originals in clothing, designs, while second-hand dealers cast lots for opera glasses, roller skates, scimitars and outlasses. All of the lights, signs, wardrobe and decorations of the theatre were included in the sale and were sold at any price. Workmen will shortly begin demolition of the old Leicester square landmark to make way for a modern American-owned moving picture theatre.

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

March 16. The Romanoff dynasty ends in Russia as the former czar relinquishes his son's right to the throne and Grand Duke Michael abdicates as regent.

Republic announced and constitutional assembly convoked by provisional government.

PARTY LEADERS ARE PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Political leaders of various sections of the republican and democratic parties are quietly preparing the ground for formal opening of the 1928 presidential campaign this summer.

President Coolidge has indicated he will abide by the decision of party leaders in their present demand that he run for re-election. Meantime a campaign is being conducted by his close friends to educate the public to the president's position upon farm relief in an effort to nullify criticism from some quarters because of his veto of the McNary-Haugen farm price stabilization bill.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover is making himself available for call with a waterways campaign—with an incidental farm relief angle—which during the summer will take him from coast to coast. Other prospective candidates with the exception of former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois are marking time waiting for Mr. Coolidge's decision.

There is less activity in the democratic ranks. Friends of Gov. Al Smith of New York are quietly working in the south to overcome the opposition there against Smith. An active organization for Senator James A. Reed, democrat, Missouri, has been formed in his home state and has received some endorsements from some wet areas.

There has been little activity for William G. McAdoo, who fought to a stalemate with Smith in the 1924 democratic convention.

Another prominent dark horse has been trotted out by Thomas Taggart, Indiana democratic leader, who has announced himself for Evans Woolen, Indianapolis banker.

LAWYERS PRESENT CASES IN SAPIRO FORD LIBEL SUIT

AUSTIN, March 16.—Complying with a resolution inviting him to address the house, this morning, Governor Dan Moody urged the house to concur in the senate substitute for the house prison bill.

Moody wrote the substitute in cooperation with senators Wood and Wirtz. Moody urged that the penitentiaries be put on a cash basis; that they have a managing head, and that the proposed board of directors be given power to sell prison lands, and to make executory contracts for purchase of other lands. No payments would be made until the legislature appropriates purchasing money.

"I do not know where it would be best to locate the prison," Moody said, "but the systems should be centralized."

The legislature still in session waiting for reports at 2 o'clock.

Ranger Adds Another Citizen Who Buys Home

S. R. Christensen has been added to the roster of Ranger citizens and home owners. Mr. Christensen, who works for J. M. Gholson et al, has bought the E. P. Rust place, one of the former Mid-Kansas houses, and will make Ranger his home. Madocks & Son made the deal.

SINCLAIR SOON WILL KNOW FATE

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Sinclair contempt of the senate case was sent to the jury today. The jurors are to decide if Harry F. Sinclair, wealthy oil operator and sportsman, is guilty of contempt of the senate for refusing to answer questions by the senate oil committee three years ago.

The case is the outgrowth of the famous senatorial investigation in 1923 and 1924.

Sinclair appeared before the committee on March 22, 1923, and declined to answer questions explaining, he feared, his testimony might affect litigation in which his Mammoth Oil company was involved.

A jail sentence or a mandatory fine if a conviction is returned. The penalty is from $100 to $1,000 fine and from one to twelve months in a common jail.

DAN URGES NEW PRISON SYSTEM

AUSTIN, March 16.—Complying with a resolution inviting him to address the house, this morning, Governor Dan Moody urged the house to concur in the senate substitute for the house prison bill.

Moody wrote the substitute in cooperation with senators Wood and Wirtz. Moody urged that the penitentiaries be put on a cash basis; that they have a managing head, and that the proposed board of directors be given power to sell prison lands, and to make executory contracts for purchase of other lands. No payments would be made until the legislature appropriates purchasing money.

"I do not know where it would be best to locate the prison," Moody said, "but the systems should be centralized."

The legislature still in session waiting for reports at 2 o'clock.

MEXICO BUSY SELLING SELF UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Rumors of an imminent break between the United States and Mexico, were countered by a state department announcement today, expressing hope that the disputes could be settled by negotiations.

Secretary Kellogg authorized a statement, that there was no danger of war and that this government does not contemplate issuing an ultimatum.

By RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Mexico, wondering what is going to happen next in her relations with the United States, and fearing the worst, has taken a lesson from the American press-agent and apparently is undertaking to "sell herself" in this country.

Thus, along with the reams of mimeographed press-agency that come to newspaper correspondents from government departments, large corporations, trade organizations and national associations for this, that and the other thing, come neatly mimeographed pages from the Mexican embassy.

Since first nasty diplomatic notes entered into the scheme of relations between the two countries, there have been mimeographs explaining the Mexican oil laws, announcing the compliance of new oil companies, giving textually statements and messages of Mexican government officials and otherwise furnishing light on points at issue from the Mexican standpoint.

A high-pressure $25,000 a year American press-agent—or "public relations counsel"—could have done no better.

The latest mimeographed sheaf comes from the embassy's commercial attaché, Francisco Suastegui, a survey of Mexican foreign trade, mineral and petroleum production for 1926.

This "handout" boasts principally Mexico's progress toward diversification of production, and points to "a rapid and favorable change taking place in the economic structure of Mexico." A few years ago the country had emerged from a period of political readjustment with larger production and export trade, but with what is termed an unbalanced distribution in the leading sources of national wealth.

Credit is given to the Obregon and Calles administrations for obtaining a more satisfactory condition through a systematic campaign of agricultural, industrial and commercial developments without disregarding the two leading industries, mining and oil production.

United States Steel Stocks Boost Market

NEW YORK, March 16.—United States steel common stock boosted the stock market in today's session, having arisen to a new record of high 116.2-1/2 up 2 1-8 points from yesterday's close. The dealings in the issue were heavy.

KERENS—Five new oil tests to be made in Powell field.

OIL OPERATORS NOW WATCHING BRIDEN LEASE

Oil operators of this territory are watching with considerable interest the work being done by B. G. Shaw and associates of Fort Worth on the Briden lease in Stephens county, Shaw and others are drilling a test on the Briden land about three and one-half miles southwest of Harpersville and about 10 or 12 miles northwest of Ranger.

The well is now drilling at a depth of 1,100 feet and is to go to 3,300 feet unless commercial production is obtained before reaching that depth.

The nearest production to the new test is a mile and a half to the east.

Operators of the Briden test are hopeful of getting production in the Shaw sand at something less than 2,000 feet as this sand is known to exist in certain parts of Stephens and Eastland counties and has been found to be very productive.

A number of other operators have taken protection around the Shaw and others test, among them being the Independent Oil & Gas company, Lewis Oil company, States Oil corporation, Chestnut & Smith and Harrell and Elliott of Breckenridge.

Associated with Shaw in the drilling of the well are Frank T. Connor, Jake Graft and Carl Rehn.

The Sinclair Oil and Gas company has just completed two additional producers on its 80 acre Fry lease in Brown county. The No. 17 Fry is estimated as good for 100 barrels at a total depth of 1307 feet with 12 feet of sand. The well is to be drilled deeper.

The same company's No. 18 on the Fry lease is also a new producer, making an estimated 75 barrels with 12 feet of sand topped at 1301 feet. Both of these wells are in the extreme northeast corner of the Sinclair 80 acre lease.

FOUR KILLED EXPLOSION GAS PLANT

SHAMROCK, Texas, March 16.—Four men were instantly killed here today in an explosion in the gas absorption plant of the Columbia Gas company.

The dead are: Lason Chance, 24; W. Melton, 30; Robert Griffith, 30; Jack Todd, 29.

The blast was caused by leaking gas, according to officials.

The victims were employees of the plant. Two other employees had strolled away from work a few minutes before and escaped death.

Chance's body was found 100 feet from the explosion.

Corpus Christi Concentration Point for Cotton

DALLAS, March 16.—Corpus Christi has been named as cotton concentration point for approximately 31 cotton producing counties by the Texas Farm Bureau and Cotton associations, Harry Williams, secretary, announced today.

Shipment of cotton will begin as soon as proper warehouse facilities are constructed, expected by next fall.

BULOWSKI'S CALIFORNIANS TO PLAY AT ELKS DANCE.
 Tonight for the first time in the history of Ranger Elks, Bulowski's Californians will be heard at an Elks dance in Ranger. Ever since it was announced that this orchestra was coming to Ranger, the dancers and music lovers of the city and nearby towns have been on tip-toe with expectation. Tonight those anticipations will be realized.

Bulowski's Californians are favorites wherever they go. Radio fans everywhere are familiar with their music and during dance seasons they play at such famous places as the Ambassador hotel, Ocean Park pier and many other notable places.

The entertainment committee of the Elks club is glad to have an opportunity to present this talented and famous aggregation of players to its large following in Ranger, and neighboring cities.

JUNIOR NEW ERA BRIDGE BENEFIT AT LEGION HALL.
 The Junior New Era bridge party will be held at the American Legion hall on Friday evening, March 18. Today the members of the club will begin selling tickets for the affair, but those who do not acquire tickets prior to the event can pay as they enter, that evening.

Delicious refreshments will be served and four prizes will be given. There will be plenty of tables arranged to take care of the players and the young business women who are backing it are very desirous of a large crowd.

Those who wish to reserve tables may do so by phoning Mrs. R. B. Campbell.

TEE PEE ENTRE-NOUS CLUB ANNOUNCEMENT.
 The Tee Pee Entre-Nous club will meet on Saturday night at 8 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fearsall. Members please note place and time.

MISS HELEN BRADY AND HARLEY OGLE MARRY.
 A wedding that took the friends of both the contracting parties by surprise was consummated last night at the Methodist parsonage when Helen Brady, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Brady, became the bride of Harley E. Ogle, Rev. George Shearer officiated at the simple wedding ceremony, witnessed by the bride's mother, and a friend of the groom, W. A. Lewis.

Mrs. Ogle, who is one of Ranger's prettiest girls, was tastefully attired in a blue georgette frock, with which she wore a black satin hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogle will make their home for the present with Mrs. Ogle's mother, at the family home on Caddo road.

Mr. Ogle has not been in Ranger long. He came here from Fort Worth quite recently, so the courtship that ended in marriage last night was rather a love at first sight one. He is an employe of the Gholson barber shop.

MRS. SAUNDERS GREGG HONORS HOUSE GUESTS.
 Mrs. Saunders Gregg honored her house guest, Mrs. Alex Thompson and daughter, Miss Mozelle, of Houston, yesterday afternoon, when she entertained at bridge, at her home on Pine street.

The Gregg home, bridge and luncheon appointments were with sympathy in spring colors, with shamrock tallies and Irish colleens, giving a hint at the nearness of the birthday of Ireland's patron saint.

California poppies, carnations, ferns and shasta daisies effectively massed, adorned the living and dining room, while tall green candles in crystal pendant holders, formed the real keynote of spring, as green is the first color that flaunts itself as winter retreats.

Refreshments were served on large trays, centered with crystal baskets filled with shasta daisies and ferns, flanked by yellow lace plates, holding mints in spring colors. The dessert, course, topped with blood-red strawberries, was adorned with a colleen attired in a beruffled skirt of shamrocks.

Prizes were wrapped in the shades that suggest spring, and took their cue from the approaching season. Mrs. Walter Cash made the lucky high score and was awarded a handsome set of lingerie, Mrs. O. L. Phillips was consoled with a great bunch of white violets, while Mrs. J. T. Gullahorn's lucky cut prize was a corsage of purple violets.

Mrs. Thompson was presented three madra handkerchiefs, and Miss Thompson a dainty apron, by their hostess, as souvenirs of the event.

At tables bearing initialed cards, the guests found their places, and they too, emphasized the hostess' color motif, in their colorful frocks and hats.

Invited guests were: Mmes. Homer Brelsford, Sr., and Harry and Homer Brelsford, Jr., of Eastland; W. H. Cash, J. T. Gullahorn, D. H. Barnett, E. Crawford, Ed Maher, W. R. Bowden, Frank Brahaney, M. K. Collie, A. Neil, Frank Champion, E. L. McMillen, O. L. Phillips, C. C. Craig, L. P. Lawton, MacLaughlin of New York, Jarvis of Lawton, Okla., G. C. Barkley, R. B. Campbell, J. D. Gholson, Harry Logsdon, Misses Gillian Buchanan and Thelma Jameson and the honor guests.

During the week Mrs. Thompson and her daughter have been honor guests at several other most delightful affairs. On Monday noon, Mrs. Homer Brelsford, Sr., of Eastland, entertained for Mrs. Thompson at Acorn Estates, with a party of twenty, all Eastland people, except the honor guest and her hostess.

On Monday night, Mrs. Frank Brahaney entertained for Mrs. Thompson and Miss Mozelle, with a beautifully appointed seven o'clock dinner, followed with bridge, at her home on Desdemona Boulevard.

The hostess on this occasion used a yellow color scheme, which was effectively carried out in yellow journals, yellow canes and yellow place cards and tallies.

At dinner places were marked for Mmes. E. E. Crawford, J. T. Gullahorn, John Thurman, Frank Champion, M. K. Collie, Jerome McLester, Saunders Gregg, the honor guests and the hostess.

Mrs. J. T. Gullahorn made high score and was awarded a set of goblets, Mrs. M. K. Collie's low score prize was a strand of beads, and Mrs. Brahaney presented Mrs. Thompson with some dainty hankies, and Miss Mozelle with a corsage.

This afternoon Mmes. Harry and Homer Brelsford Jr., are entertaining in Eastland with bridge in honor of Miss Thompson.

Former High Football Star On Trial Today

The case of Nestor Zaratofotis, former high school football star, who is charged with the theft of an automobile at Cisco, will probably go to the jury in Judge Elzo Been's court sometime this afternoon. At the forenoon session of the court the defendant pleaded guilty to the charge and asked for a suspended sentence. Young Zaratofotis was a star back on the Breckenridge high school football team last year.

 ed by a meeting of officials, foremen and superintendents, who discussed the affairs of the company from their various standpoints.

No special significance is attached to the meeting, other than the getting together of the various officers, and employees of the county, who all work for the same end, the success of the Magnolia's operations in West Texas, and the further cementing of loyalty from employes to employers and vice versa, as well as a greater understanding of the daily problems that confront each.

The Magnolia company is one of the biggest things in Eastland county. It not only maintains extensive district offices at Olden, and has a beautiful camp there to house its employes, but it is always among the first to launch new projects for the betterment of the county and to enter new fields of endeavor. It was one of the first major companies to project a pipe line from Eastland county to the Panhandle fields and will be one of the first to arrive there.

It is a live factor in the affairs of Eastland county and its district and affairs like the one of last night reveals the secret of much of its success.

IS EVERYBODY MISERABLE?

Harry K. Thaw has thought out a project which he said would make all people happy, according to a dispatch. Maybe it's a Maxim silencer for an alarm clock.

People are happiest when asleep, says a noted thinker, which gives rise to the quaint observation that there is "lots of misery in the world these nights."

Maybe Thaw has figured out a way to abolish the United States senate. Could it be possible that he has discovered a plan to clean up this chess skulduggery?

But he says it will take $3,500,000 to put his project into action and he is waiting for someone to put up the money.

Why doesn't he ask Harry Lauder for it?

POLITICAL POW-WOWS.

It appears as if both the democrats and republicans are having trouble to select a city for the two national conventions. Just now it appears as if a middle western city will be chosen for the holding of the meeting that will name the standard bearers of the two great parties.

It also appears as if both parties are finding it rather hard to select standard bearers. The republicans are waiting to see what Calvin Coolidge proposes doing, and the democrats are somewhat split over the wet and dry question. To some it looks as if another dark horse will have to be selected, Evans Woolen of Indiana, an Indianapolis banker. Woolen is being groomed by Tom Taggart, the democratic leader of the Hoosier state.

Al Smith's election as governor of New York puts him in the running and he will have to be reckoned with. The south, of course, will support the democratic nominee despite the fact that Smith may be a wet and because of his religious tenets, that should have nothing to do with the matter. In the meantime, Smith's friends are doing some missionary work in the south to try and overcome that prejudice.

Jim Reed, the fighting senator of Missouri, is being spoken of highly despite that Jim says he is out of politics. Reed has made a wonderful fight in the senate against Vore and others. However, he is from Missouri and too far south to carry certain states that are in the doubtful column. To some the selection of the city will have something with the selection of the nominee. While some of the opinion that Coolidge will not run again, quite a few want him to throw his hat in the ring. The third term bogey pops up. It was the third term bogey with Roosevelt that gave birth to the "Bull Moose" party, and the same thing will pop up again. There is Hoover, secretary of commerce and Frank O. Lowden, ex-governor of Illinois, also groomed. Lowden may loom up as dark horse. Lowden is a dirt farmer, so to speak, and made a good record as governor.

The democrats stand a fair chance of winning if a conservative candidate is nominated. The middle western farmer is sore over the failure the republican congress to enact some farm relief legislation. That fact alone, together with the exposure brought out in investigating the senatorial primaries in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Another matter that must be taken into consideration, and the democratic party must select a conservative man. The south is dry, the northern democrat is wet. Light wines and beer and a revision of the Volstead act are two questions that must be adjudicated.

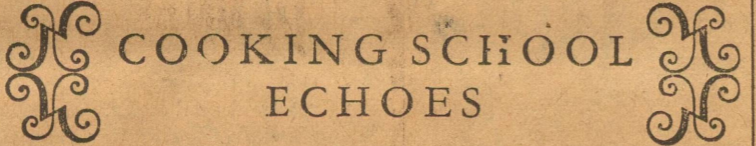

You can never tell what the result will be. Both parties are up in the air, but the democrats now have a fair chance of winning, provided a conservative course is pursued. Of course, the republicans will use the trite slogan, a full dinner pail. The democrats can do the same thing.

We want to see the strongest available man put up by the democrats against the republicans, one who the south will stand behind as well as the north.

Nick Longworth has his eyes on the white house, but can Nick win, a conservative republican? That is the question, we think not.

White CAKE

A Tested Recipe

1/2 cup Crisco	3 egg whites
1 cup sugar	2 1/2 cup milk
2 cups flour	1 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoons baking powder	1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream Crisco with sugar. Stir in alternately milk and sifted dry ingredients. Fold in thoroughly beaten egg whites. Add vanilla and turn batter into two greased layer pans. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.

Ice with cocoanut or maple icing, or Crisco white icing.

Crisco White Icing

2 cups confectioners' sugar	1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons Crisco	1 teaspoon almond or lemon extract
3 tablespoons milk	1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream Crisco with egg and salt. Add milk and rest of sugar and flavoring. Mix well.

Crisco gives me delicious cakes that you simply cannot tell from butter cakes—light and tender, with a fine, even texture. But Crisco is by no means limited to cake making. I find that I can always depend on Crisco for flakier pie crusts, fluffier biscuits, dainty desserts and for all frying.

To test your cooking fat—taste it.
 Crisco's sweet flavor will astonish you.

BALL PLAYERS ARE PAID LESS THAN BOXERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor.

New York, March 16.—In defending themselves against criticism that they underpay their athletes, owners of major league baseball clubs claim that the average rate of pay is higher for a baseball player than that of many other professions.

Considering the time actually spent in their work, baseball players make much more money than they could in an average white collar job or in the overalls of a mechanic but their pay does not compare to that of boxers, wrestlers and even bike riders.

It is well known to the public what the heavyweight boxing championships means to the holder and what money is commanded by champions and prominent boxers in the lower classes.

In less than three years Paul Bernbach cleared a fortune of close to $300,000 and retired. Dempsey made more than a million dollars and his successor Gene Tunney will have as much if he succeeds in holding the title for any considerable length of time.

$100,000 Wrestler. Joe Stecher, the heavyweight wrestling champion, made more than $100,000 last year, according to the estimate of Jack Curley, and contenders for the title earned almost as much in proportion.

Some of the prominent bike riders are paid as much as $10,000 for competing in the six-day bike races promoted by Tex Rickard and John Chapman and they get even more in prize money.

Promoters of boxing, wrestlers and bike racing can afford to pay more money than baseball club owners because their receipts are much larger and their expenses trifling in comparison.

Tex Rickard, of course, has a tremendous overhead but he does not depend upon any one or two sports to pay the running cost of his garden.

He operates the year around and his prices will average at least five times more per attraction than is paid for baseball games.

Parks Expensive. Practically all of the other promoters rent places for their shows and they have no operating or upkeep expenses.

Baseball club owners have expensive parks to support and with few exceptions they are a source of revenue for only six months in the year. The New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh parks are used for boxing but the other clubs do not find such a big field for this side product.

Baseball magnates have to pay salaries regularly, they have to pay traveling and hotel expenses and bear the burden of other incidentals which accumulate into five figures.

Then the club owner has to gamble on his players. One accident to a star player not only may force the payment of a big salary without any return in service but it might wreck the chances of the whole club for big money.

This was the recent experience of the New York Giants when Pop Young had to retire because of illness. Young was a great ball player and he was counted upon to be a part of a potentially great outfield but when he was lost the Giants had to change their entire plans and if they don't win the National league pennant it may be because of the change that was made necessary in the outfield and on first base.

May Blow Up. There is also no way of telling when a baseball player is going to blow up and for this reason the magnates are reluctant to sign players on contracts for more than one year.

Dizzy Vance, rated in 1925 as one of the greatest pitchers in baseball, was one of the highest salaried pitchers in the league but he blew up last season and was practically of no use to the Brooklyn Robins. This is just the example to illustrate the point. It resulted in not only an actual salary loss but a very decided falling off in the attendance and attendance keeps the clubs going.

The magnates don't pay enough more than they have to—but what employer does? There is no doubt that some of the club owners do not, or have not in the past, given players what their services were worth.

Medals Awarded Sport Champions Of the University

Special Correspondence. AUSTIN, March 16.—Winners in two intramural sports, boxing and wrestling, at the University of Texas have been announced.

Champions of all weights in the wrestling tournament were given gold medals by the athletic department of the university, as follows: 110 lb. class, L. Legionaires Preparing For Cat Invasion

Final plans for the elimination of the Fort Worth Cats, on March 28, when they play the American Legion All Stars, in Ranger, will be made at a baseball meeting Thursday evening at the American Legion hall, Ranger.

Secret workouts are the teams' daily dozen just at this time, but so far the personnel of the line up has been kept strictly under Captain Renshaw's hat.

Reports are that the game will be attended by a large part of West Texas, who are anxious to see the Cats in action, and see the work of the nifty legion team, that will test their mettle against the former winners of the Dixie series.

The making of phonograph records used to be a mechanical process requiring peculiar arrangement of the instruments of an orchestra with relation to the position of a huge recording horn so that some would not overshadow others. Bass notes, for instance, were easily lost. Today the orchestra sits more naturally while microphones familiar in radio broadcasting record the music from various parts of the room. The process of making records is now electrical.

Make Your Town Attractive For Auto Tourist

By United Press. CHICAGO, March 16.—Make your town attractive, is the substance of advice issued by Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, to small town merchants who desire the cross-state motorists' trade.

"The first view a motorist has of a town may be a lasting impression," Hayes said. "If the first view is unfavorable the prospective visitor may decide to drive on to a town that shows a fairer face."

Hayes said clerks in charge of the large touring bureau of the club say motorists often refuse to tarry in a village because of its unsightliness and general "down-at-heels" air.

"An unpainted foul-smelling hot-dog stand on the road to a town, a vacant lot filled with refuse these are the sort of things that give a bad impression of a town," Hayes asserted. "When to these things is added the picture of a dusty figure in ill-fitting khaki, loafing in the vicinity of a garage and looking more like a reincarnation of Jesse James than a police officer, the disillusionment is complete, and the motorist moves on to some other town where hot-dog stands are free from obnoxious disorders, where vacant lots are not an eye-sore and where the members of the constabulary look the part," Hayes said, summing up.

Intercollegiate Press Program Ready for Meeting

WAXAHACHIE, March 16.—The program of the Texas intercollegiate press association convention which will be held at Trinity University, April 29 and 30 is being built around the address of Dean Walter Williams of the University of Missouri, who has accepted the invitation to address the meeting of the Texas collegiates. Dean Williams in addition to his address here will address students of journalism in Fort. Worth, Denton and Belton.

EUROPEAN CHANCELLORS AND MEN IN HIGH POSITIONS ARE WORRIED OVER THE FRENCH-ITALIAN STATUS

By A. L. BRADFORD, United Press Staff Correspondent. (Copyright, 1927, by United Press of America)

PARIS, March 16.—Will there be a war between France and Italy, the two great Latin powers of the world? Are the League of Nations, Locarno, the new spirit between France and Germany to be vain hopes?

Is human carnage once again to reign over Europe, for, as the world war showed, it is impossible to confine a major to the original disputants?

Alarmed publics and diplomatic chancelleries more than once nervously asked these questions two or three months ago, as the white-hot patriotic enthusiasm born alongside the renaissance wrought by Mussolini in modern Italy turned in anger against France.

Mussolini. Rightly or wrongly, France was blamed for various attempted assassinations of Mussolini. French consulates in Italian and Italian colonies were stoned, violated; French railroad workers at Vintimille, on the Franco-Italian frontier, were attacked by Italian fascists, resulting in a tense situation between the two peoples along the international frontier. The Journal des Debats, a serious Paris newspaper, recently described this situation in the following sensational terms:

"During six hours the massacre of the French at Vintimille seemed inevitable. Our country was menaced, if not by an openly declared war, at least by bloody incidents caused on our territory by armed Italian bands."

Protects Border.

Events moved rapidly. The Franco-Italian border for years had been about as peaceful as the frontier between the United States and Canada. But now the French government took action to meet the situation at her southeastern frontier. Into the peaceful Riviera region, one of the world's most famous playgrounds, moved thousands of poilus. At the fortified places of the Alps, which had been stripped of their cannon and munitions, cannon rolled back into place, thousands of troops again took up station and stocks of munitions were established. Tanks even rolled through Nice. The French Mediterranean squadron drew up off the Riviera. Even in Tunisia, though it was not known at the time, France took similar military and naval precautions to protect her territory.

These precautions everywhere have been maintained, and tension between the two "Latin sisters" has lessened. But what are the fundamental reasons for any fear of a possible war between France and Italy?

Admiration.

France has watched with admiration, Mussolini's rejuvenation of Italy, but has listened with qualms to certain of his addresses, in effect demanding Italy's place in the sun and announcing that if necessary Italy is prepared to take it. Italy has a population which now is estimated to be superior to France's. Italy's is ever on the increase, France's is virtually at a stand still.

If the Italian population continues to grow, Italy must expand, or, as Mussolini said, must explode.

Italy expected great benefits from the war, the actual result was a great disappointment to her. Rightly or wrongly, the tendency in Italy is to blame France for the negligible result. At any rate, France has what Italy wants, territory beyond the seas. And Italy feels that she has more need of this territory than France.

All discussion of Italian expansion inevitably involves the question of French territory or interests—in Tunisia, at Tangier, in Syria, Djibouti, the possibility of a transfer of a French mandate over a former German colony like Togo Land, to Italy, not to speak of the so-called "peaceful penetration" of hundreds of thousands of Italian settlers in the south of France.

Worried. Mussolini's foreign policy also worries France. Are not the Italian chief's efforts in the Balkans aimed at counteracting the Little Entente, France's creation, the French ask? As the result of Mussolini's negotiation of a treaty with Primo Rivera, French diplomats wonder whether Spain's attitude in demanding a better place at Tangiers, and even the inclusion of Tangiers in the Spanish zone of Morocco, is not due to Italian influence. Mussolini's treaty with Albania, in effect bottling up the Adriatic, has caused anxiety to France, for Jugo-Slavia, which the Italo-Albanian treaty particularly hamstrings, is one of France's allies in the Little Entente.

According to French eyes, Mussolini seems to be searching for a new balance of power in Europe which will give Italy that place in the sun which he demands. According to statements published in Paris, Mussolini has alternatively dreamed of an Italo-German-Russian alliance against France and England and of an Italo-French-Spanish Latin catholic bloc against England and Germany.

Involved in the situation between France and Italy are two of the most interesting figures of Europe. Mussolini, without a doubt the outstanding post-war figure of Europe, on the one hand with strong arm methods has brought about a remarkable rejuvenation of his country, and is anxious further to improve the position of Italy. Briand, whose efforts in the League of Nations and to bring about a rapprochement with Germany, have won him the mark of probably Europe's outstanding pacifist, is seen on the other hand. Will the present "situation" between France and Italy grow worse or will it be satisfactorily settled? This principally depends on the two men mentioned above.

Of the 8,800 miles of mainline railway trackage in Japan, 158 miles are now electrified and 137 miles of extensions are under way. Electric power replaced steam first on a difficult seven-mile stretch of line that climbed 1,817 feet and ran through 26 tunnels over Usui Pass near Yokogawa.

DALLAS, March 16.—Daniel Ortego, Mexican, charged with vagrancy in connection with alleged bolshevik activities in the Mexican district here, was fined $200 in the police court here this morning.

Ortego took an appeal to the county court. Witnesses testified that Ortego, had made speeches causing unrest in the colony and declared there were many rumors of threats on the life of Cantu Laru, Mexican consul here.

Demonstration Is Held at Okra Club Meeting

The women's club at Okra met at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon with 18 members present. After the transaction of the regular business of the club, Miss Ruth Ramey, home demonstration agent gave a demonstration of milk and egg dishes. Demonstrations were given on the making of soft custard, plain baked custard, creamed eggs, plain omelet and daisy salad. Miss Ramey also gave the members several other recipes for the various use of eggs.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday, March 29 at the home of Mrs. Alford, when demonstrations will be given on salads and salad dressings.

North Star Club Organization To Be Completed

In anticipation of probable unfavorable weather, Miss Ruth Ramey, home demonstration agent for Eastland county, states that bad weather will not interfere with the meeting and banquet of the North Star Women's club at Rising Star Friday night.

The meeting is to be held in the chicken house at the home of Mrs. A. L. Bland just north of Rising Star. The chicken house is provided with gas stoves and lights and the Bland home is on the paved highway. Every preparation has been made for the comfort of the guests in case of cold or rainy weather.

The Polish government has reached an agreement in principle by which extensive electrical works are to be built throughout that country calling for the expenditure of about $25,000,000.

Expert Lauds Uniforms As College Attire

DENTON, March 16.—Uniforms as college attire were lauded here this week by Mrs. Mary Schnek Woolman, founder of the Manhattan Trade school of New York, who visited the campus. She expressed the conviction that simplicity should be the keynote of clothing for college girls. "Play-time," said Mrs. Woolman, "should be distinguished from work-time, even in the matter of clothes. Evening is the time for fluffy things. Silks are convenient for the college girl because they launder easily and do not catch dirt quickly."

Boys and Girls Club Founded At Olden Today

A boys' and girls' club was organized Wednesday morning at Olden by Miss Ruth Ramey, home demonstration agent and J. C. Patterson, county agricultural agent of Eastland county. The following officers were elected: Garrett Cayer, president; Lloyd Woods, vice president; Geneva Young, secretary; Walton Branscum, reporter, and Claud Leclair, yell leader.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday, March 28. The regular meetings of the club will be held on the second and fourth Mondays at 1 o'clock.

Infantry Passe In Next War, Say Experts

LONDON.—Conclusions drawn by military experts based on the most advanced practice in British and continental army maneuvers in 1926 indicate that the next war is likely to be almost entirely a matter of machine guns, artillery, aircraft and tanks. The role of the infantry seems to be about to be taken over by the machine gunner.

The present trend of the French and German armies to have one machine gun company to every three of ordinary infantry—a far bigger proportion of machine guns to rifles than was used in the Great War—is expected during 1927 to continue to progress in favor of the machine gun. Some experts prophesy that within the next ten years the proportional figures will be reversed, and that 1937 will see three companies of machine gunners to every company of infantry in an efficiently organized army.

Increasing reliance on the machine gun both as a weapon of offense and defense, is due to marked improvements that have been made since the war, both in increasing the reliability of the machine-gun, and decreasing its weight. For readily mobile forces, the Browning machine gun, it is said, seems likely to entirely replace both the Lewis and the Hotchkiss machine guns.

AN EDITORIAL

There is a lad today with his face turned toward the men of Ranger with a question on his lips and with eagerness in his heart. He is wanting to know if Scouting is going to be brought to him. This boy is a lad of 12, he is nearing that age when he comes to the forks of the road. It is important to all men which fork he takes. One fork leads to usefulness, honor, riches, wisdom, good citizenship, while the other fork leads to failure, dishonor, poverty.

While this boy sits with his face turned toward the men of Ranger with a question on his lips and with eagerness in his heart to know if Scouting is to be brought to him; while he is looking for the character initiative and resourcefulness that Scouting brings to him—there is a man looking toward this boy. The man has said in his heart that Scouting shall be carried to every boy in Eastland county. He knows this boy will soon reach the forks of the road and he is going to help him take the right fork. As soon as the boy is well along on the right fork he takes up the work and passes it on to many other boys. It is an endless chain proposition. The man sees the vision of the boy whom he helps today. He sees him passing on the work to others and so on down the cycles of time, ever magnifying good, and the man knows that there is a principle back of such work that lives as long as time.

The boy described here represents a group of boys in this district that are eagerly looking and longing for the companionship and leadership of men. The man represents a group of fine fellows who are giving their best thought to the greatest work of the world—boy training.

This man is in business but he has left his business and he is calling on other men to raise funds to carry Scouting to every boy in this jurisdiction. He asks all other good men to join with him. Scouting is so broad and so useful and is so huge in its scope that it offers some kind of activity to every man who is willing to strive and to help. It is a healthy activity. It develops brain and heart and brawn. It is as much of a man movement as it is a boy movement. It is making as many men as it is turning out boys. It is waking up all men to a greater degree of alertness to the needs of the boy, in supplying these needs the man is adding riches to himself.

You will be asked this week to become a part of this great work.—By Guy Quirl.

A GREATER TELEPHONE SYSTEM FOR TEXAS

Texas Telephone News
A Journal of Telephone Information Published by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company
Vol. II No. 3

YOUR NEIGHBORS SUPPLY YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE

A CONVENIENT SERVICE

The "two number" long distance service, which is now in effect all over the Southwestern System, simplifies and speeds up long distance calls. This service is available only on station-to-station calls where you know the number of the distant telephone.

To use this service, all you have to do is give the telephone number of the party you are calling to your local operator, just as though you were going to place a local call. For example, from any point in Texas, if you wanted to call "Garfield 9800" in St. Louis, you would have only to say to your local operator, "St. Louis, Garfield 9800." No need to ask for "long distance" at all.

These calls being station-to-station, of course take the lower station-to-station rate. For calls other than station-to-station, ask for "long distance" in the usual manner.

Catch Them At Home

Starting at 7 p. m. and continuing until 8:30 p. m., rates for station-to-station long distance calls are reduced 25 per cent. This is a very convenient time to place your call, as the hour just after dinner is the time when most people are apt to be home.

The Telephone Employees in Your Town are the Telephone Company

Your telephone service is in the hands of your neighbors. The men and women who build and operate the telephone lines are part of your community. They are interested in business improvement and civic betterment, because they know the telephone industry must prosper or decline as the community improves or retrogrades.

A LOCAL INDUSTRY

The 7132 telephone workers in the Southwestern System in Texas are spread throughout the State in 241 towns and cities. The telephone business, unlike other large businesses, is a local industry; it produces what it sells—telephone service—right in the town or community which it serves. Both local and long distance service are produced locally, and are not made in some distant city and distributed to the various towns to be sold.

CIVIC SPIRIT

The chief operator, the operators, the manager, the cashier, the wire chief, the installer, the linemen, these people supply your telephone service, and these people are the telephone company in your town. They help to make it a good place in which to live.

REDUCED RATES START AT 7 P. M.

LENTEN MEDITATIONS
 God comforts men.
 Comfort is one of the world's greatest needs, but it is one of the world's rarest gifts.
 When sorrow enters your life the world withdraws.
 It resigns. It puts crape on the door.

It adds gloom to your heart.
 It doesn't know what to say. It leaves you alone.
 At such an hour God knocks at the
 door.
 He comes into your life.
 He comforts your soul.
 He wipes away all tears.

CHENEY NEWS

Special Correspondence.
CHENEY, March 16.—Everything is running smooth around Cheney,
 the sun is shining and all are at work,
 so we are happy. Some are planting corn, others getting ready to plant.
 Health is good at present, no sickness,
 all busy, thus all happy.

A large crowd from Cheney were at Ranger Saturday and attended the opening of Woolworth variety store, which was a sight to see so many people together.

George Harper is moving to the H. P. Minchew place.

Tom Kimbrough and family have moved to the W. F. Barton place. Our houses are all full.

Dean Gentry and Miss Ellie Mahan
 were quietly married Saturday night, Bro. Smith Lemly officiating. There was a large crowd attending the affair Sunday at J. A. Gentry's from Erath county and Desdemona, and Sunday night a crowd enjoyed an old time "shiveree." We all wish them a long and happy life.

Parent-Teacher association met
 Friday night and had a good meeting as much business was attended to.
 T. A. Jones, wife, son, T. A. Jr., and Mrs. Clair, ex-president of Eastland, were present and gave us a nice talk,
 which was encouraging and enjoyed by all. We thank them and want them to come again.

Bro. J. F. Skaggs preached at Cheney Saturday night and Sunday to a large crowd.

There will be a play at Cheney
 next Saturday night entitled "Home Across." All attend as it is for the benefit of Cheney school.

A good many from Cheney attended the singing league at Grand View Sunday evening, and report a grand time and fine singing.

S. E. Thomas from Mineral Wells is here visiting his son and family, James Thomas. Mr. Thomas lived at Cheney before going to Mineral Wells. They all come back.

Miss Myrtle Rose and friends visited her home near Stephenville Saturday and Sunday.

Oscar Scott and wife of Ranger attended church at Cheney Sunday.
 Iwe Lee and W. A. Love are at Eastland this week on business.

Pampa Planning White Way And More Paving

By United Press.
PAMPA, March 16.—Improvements which will include a "white way," additional paving, extension of water and sewer lines, two new water wells and other improvements were included in the program outlined to the city council recently.

The improvements will involve an expenditure of more than $250,000.

Plans were also discussed for a large city hall to be erected soon.

A bond election will be held on March 30 to vote $1,200,000 in bonds to hard surface all highways running through Pampa and the south part of the county.

TELL IT TO THE MARINES, CHANEY PRODUCTION

"Tell it to the Marines" is now running in New York at the Embassy theatre as a two-dollar attraction, and it comes to the Lamb theatre
 next week where it will play at 50c prices. This is the picture that was made with the cooperation of the United States Marines, and which stars the man with a thousand faces, Lon Chaney. Here, however, we see Lon Chaney not as a cripple or a freak, but as Lon Chaney, a hard-boiled, tough sergeant of the marines.

Besides Mr. Chaney the cast includes William Haines, who will be remembered for his sterling work in "Brown of Harvard," and Eleanor Boardman, recently seen with John Gilbert in "Bardelys the Magnificent."

"Fatty" Arbuckle To Stage Comeback Before Camera

By United Press.
HOLLYWOOD, March 16.—Roe-coe (Fatty) Arbuckle the "sad glad boy" of the films, who has not appeared before the camera since the death of Virginia Rapp, will stage a comeback, it was reported here.

The famous comedian will leave here shortly on a vaudeville tour which will take him to the East coast and from there he will go to Germany to pose before the camera for the first time in five years.

Since his sensational trial and acquittal in San Francisco, Arbuckle has been directing pictures in Hollywood.

Rheumatism can't be rubbed away

Are you one of those unfortunates who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?
 You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?
 For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered from rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried most everything. Went to Hot Springs and finally I decided to try
 S. S. S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I also had a breaking out on my hands for years that nothing would heal, but now this has disappeared, and I am sure that it was S. S. S. which removed the cause. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S. S. S. is the best." Carl C. Campbell, 115 West Main Street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medical plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
