Texans Among Victims Of Storms; Missouri, Illinois, Arkansas Hit

By The Associated Press

Tornado winds whipping across East Texas, southeast Missouri, Illinois and Arkansas killed at least 14 persons, injured many others and caused thousands of dollars damage last night.

Six were killed and eight injured, one critically, near Benton, Ark., as a tornado cut a 75-foot swath through a sparsely settled rural section.

J. E. McNeese, 70, and his son Cecil, 30, were killed when a twister crushed their home near Richland, Tex., and demolished several barns and chicken houses. Mrs. J. E. McNeese, 68, died of injuries suffered in the wreckage. Funerals will be held for them tomorrow.

At least three were killed and an uncounted number were injured as a tornado bounced over southeastern Missouri and southern Illinois. Seventeen persons from both states were taken to a Cairo, Ill., hospital. Six were hurt at Marion, Ill.

Mary Lee Cook, 18-month-old daughter of Mrs. Ted Cook of Frankston, Tex., was torn from her mother's arms by a flood and drowned. A cloudburst washed the Cook family and others from a taken refuge.

Mrs. Ruby Hawks was killed when a building collapsed during a heavy windstorm at Grand River, Ky.

Heavy rain and hail accompanied swirling winds in the mid-south, causing damage to crops. Water swept into stores at Thomaston, Ala.

A wind storm uprooted trees and unroofed several buildings at Owensboro, Ky.

Those dead in the Tull community near Benton, Ark., were Ben Hicks, 50; Mrs. Ben Hicks, 48; Ed ward Hicks, 20; their son, Elijah F. Hicks, 63; brother of Ben Hicks, Miss Elsie Hicks, 28; daughter of Elijah Hicks; and Mrs. Sophie Miller, 27.

In southeastern Missouri, Lewis Campbell, 66, was killed on a farm north of Sikeston. The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Pettis of Bertrand, lost his life in the storm. Max Lee Hawk of San Scott county (Mo.) farmer, was killed while milking a cow.

Hail damaged the ripening strawberry crop in the Ozarks of northwest Arkansas, and trees in the apple and peach orchard region around Rogers were uprooted by wind.

Special Week Planned For Public To View WPA Jobs

Open House Week is to be held May 20 to 25th inclusive and is to provide a week for sponsors and WPA to acquaint the public with the types of work being done on the projects, their aims and accomplishments. The week will open with a party

British Fliers Strike At German Air Bases; Invaders Are Tightening Hold On Norway

Victories At Sea Claimed By Berlin

Hitler Command Aims At Driving Allies Out Of Country

BERLIN, May 1 (AP)—Heavy new blows to British naval power and steady strengthening of the Nazi hold on Norway were reported by the high command today as the German army, jubilant over its swift successes, mapped a sweeping concentric attack aimed at driving allied forces into the sea.

The high command's communique said German aerial bombs had sent a British cruiser, a destroyer and five transports to the bottom and damaged another cruiser and five other transports. The air force attacked British sea forces successfully before Namso, the communique said, describing yesterday's operations.

Declaring that "the German advance in Norway continues," the high command reported that German forces had taken more than 4,000 prisoners. Of the front, it said, included seven cannons, 125 machine-guns and 250 motor vehicles in good condition.

The British, meanwhile, were said to have met reverses in their air forays. The high command declared eight British warplanes were shot down by German pursuit craft and anti-aircraft guns in an attack on Stavanger. It said the British lost another in the first of two raids on Fornebu, airport near Oslo—the latest early today—and had caused only slight damage.

DNB, official German news agency, said that later reports put the British losses at Stavanger at eleven planes. DNB also said that isolated British attempts to attack the Aalborg airport failed, although a bomb landed in a garden plot in the Aalborg suburb and caused slight damage to houses in the vicinity.

The high command's report of continued fighting in the Trondheim region indicated that allied resistance still was formidable in some areas in the path of the German advance.

Germans Ordered Out Of Rumania

BUCHAREST, May 1 (AP)—The Rumanian government was reported today to have signed orders for the expulsion of 200 Germans after the evacuation of 600 homes in the oil field districts and other strategic areas of Rumania.

Thompson Will Run 'If Enough Folks Want Me To Run'

AUSTIN, May 1 (AP)—Ernest O. Thompson said definitely today he would run for governor if enough people wanted it.

"I'm sure folks want me to run, I'm going to run," Thompson, member of the railroad commission, said.

"I am available. Any good citizen ought to be available for the office of governor if the people want him."

FOOD STAMP PLAN EXTENDED TO WACO

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Secretary Wallace announced today that the agriculture department's stamp plan for distributing surplus food among the needy would be extended to McLennan County, Tex., including the city of Waco, in about a month.

The secretary estimated that about 34,500 persons in this area would be eligible to participate in the plan.

Million-Dollar Reward Offered For Capture, This Month, Of Hitler

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—A Pittsburgh group offered today to pay a million dollar reward for the capture of Adolf Hitler, unhurt, but specified that the German fuhrer must be delivered into the custody of the league of nations before the end of May.

Samuel Harden Church, president of the $28,000,000 Carnegie Institute, announced the offer in behalf of an unnamed group, which he said was acting in "good faith," in a letter to the New York Times.

The unusual proposal brought back recollections of a daring post-world war scheme of a group of American soldiers to kidnap the German kaiser from his refuge in Holland.

In his letter, Church said that Hitler should be delivered "for trial before a high court of justice for his crimes against the peace and dignity of the world."

Church said in a telephone interview with the Times that the proposal had been discussed for some time among members of the Duquesne

City Building Shows A Gain During April

Building permits and postal receipts showed pronounced gains here for the month of April, reports from public agencies showed.

During the same period, however, new passenger car market shrank to almost half its previous volume.

Building activity during April totaled $7,780, up from the $34,300 for the same month a year ago but off from the $45,200 for March. Included in the aggregate were three new business structures for $17,100 and seven residential buildings for $13,330.

Postal receipts were up sharply, too, amounting to $7,079.71, second highest April on record. It was up considerably from the $6,393 for March and the $6,211 for April a year ago. Influx of West Texas Chamber of Commerce correspondence was believed to have played a part in the gain.

New passenger car sales slid from 110 in March to 79 in April. This also was far under the 91 for April a year ago.

Private Jobs Increasing

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Federal Security Administrator McNutt reported today that private employers had hired 18 per cent more persons during March than in the same month last year.

Authoritative reports x x x, he said, "indicate that there is an increasing demand for workers in industry and commerce. Slowly but surely the level of the country's great reservoir of idle workers is falling x x x."

Despite the optimism in McNutt's report, it was disclosed that congressional leaders were weighing a suggestion that additional funds be allocated to the WPA, should need arise before the fiscal year closes June 30. Approximately $1,500,000,000 already has been appropriated for relief up to that date.

Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) said more WPA money could be obtained by dipping into the $775,000,000 relief appropriation President Roosevelt has requested for the first half eight months of the 1941 fiscal year beginning July 1. He said no decision had been reached.

WPA rolls on April 1 listed about 2,100,000 persons, and officials were reported to have estimated that enough money remained to keep all but 300,000 employed through May and June. Some congressmen have predicted elimination of 600,000 relief clients from the rolls unless extra funds are provided for the two months.

club of Pittsburgh after private advice reached them saying Hitler planned an attempt to break through on the western front soon.

Shortly after the armistice of 1918 a band of Americans who had served with the A.E.F., among them Col. Luke Lea of Tennessee and Larry MacPhail, now president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, secretly entered Holland and travelled to Kaiser Wilhelm's "haven."

According to legend surrounding the adventure, which the participants were reluctant to discuss in later years, the party actually entered Wilhelm's home, but fled when surprised by Dutch guards.

Complaints were made with the state department and Lee and his comrades were placed under military arrest. Disposition of the case never was revealed, but all were released.

Church said his group was not over-optimistic about its chances of achieving its end, but it thought the possibility was worth encouraging.

U.S. Envoy Asks Mussolini About His Intentions

ROME, May 1 (AP)—United States Ambassador William Phillips today called upon Premier Mussolini to receive first hand information on Italy's position and intentions in view of recent developments in the international situation.

Political circles regarded the visit as particularly timely for the opportunity provided to obtain a clarified view of the Italian policy in the face of the strained Mediterranean situation and constant rumors concerning possible future developments.

Phillips was reported to have found Di Duce in excellent health and good spirit.

The impression prevailed in political quarters that no change in Italy's policy of non-belligerence was in prospect.

Exports To Russia Diminish Sharply

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Pointing to statistics as proof, United States officials declared today that the country's exports of tin and rubber to Soviet Russia have ceased and that copper shipments have greatly diminished despite Russia's recognized normal need of these commodities.

They cited export figures for 1939 and the first quarter of 1940 in replying to assertions of Ronald Cross, British minister of economic warfare, that Germany was obtaining vitally needed war materials from the United States via Siberia.

London Admits Situation Is 'Dangerous'

Allies Move To Relieve Pressure On Expeditionary Units

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—The situation of British forces in central Norway was described by a military spokesman today as "dangerous and very obscure," but efforts to relieve them continued and the British air force struck savagely at three German air bases in Scandinavia.

The spokesman admitted it was "quite possible" that Dombas and Storen, vital railway junctions in the Trondheim basin of Jnr. had been taken by the Germans, as reported in Berlin yesterday. Today Berlin said "the German advance in Norway continues."

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain today informed the house of commons that he would make a statement on the Norwegian situation tomorrow.

Allied anxiety lest German successes in Norway have a damaging sequel in Italy's entrance into the war beside Germany found expression in Britain's order suspending her through merchant-ship traffic in the Mediterranean and an authoritative French declaration that the Italian attitude "has become definitely alarming."

Indications that the British were seeking to relieve the pressure on their forces in Norway was seen in a war office announcement last night that fresh troops had been landed.

The military spokesman declined to speculate on Norwegian developments, declaring that "speculation at this stage may mean the loss of men's lives."

He said that the situation at Nampos and Steinhjor, north of Garmstad, Trondheim, was "serious" and that the allied forces were moving closer to Narvik, most-occupied port in far-northern Norway.

The air ministry said seven British bombers were lost in raids on German airbases at Stavanger, on the southwestern coast of Norway, on Fornebu, near the German-occupied capital, Oslo, and on Aalborg, Denmark, but declared three German planes were shot down and "heavy damage" was inflicted on the three airfields.

The war came home for Britons on the east coast during the night and three civilians were killed, and more than 100 injured when a huge German bomber, winged by anti-aircraft fire, crashed and exploded in the center of Clacton-on-Sea, a resort town 80 miles from London. Five Germans in the plane and bomb-laden bomber were killed.

Confronted with repeated German reports of successes in Norway, there was no attempt by Britain's military spokesman to discount the most recent announcement that German forces in Oslo and Trondheim had joined hands.

However, he pointed out that "we must remember that what we demolitions and bombing German communications will not be easy." He said that if only small parties of Germans had made contact this "does not mean there is a constant flow of men and material."

HOUSE COMMITTEE KILLS HATCH BILL

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The house judiciary committee killed today the senate approved Hatch bill to regulate political activities of state employees paid with federal funds.

The committee ordered the bill "tabled," meaning that it will be stuffed away in a pigeonhole.

The vote was not announced and Chairman Sumners (D-Tex.) refused to discuss the matter beyond making the hard announcement of disposal of the measure.

In addition to restricting the political activities of state employees paid in whole or in part with federal funds, the measure also would have limited personal campaign contributions to $5,000.

Film Story Of Beverages To Be Shown

"Refreshment Through the Years," a motion picture in Technicolor, dealing with the romance and growth of the carbonated beverage industry, will be shown to Big Spring Kiwanis Thursday during their regular weekly luncheon meeting at the Crawford hotel.

The theme of the picture is man's constant search for refreshment. The story begins in the early days when natural springs of carbonated water were places that only people of wealth could visit. According to the picture, it was Joseph Priestley who made carbonated water available to everyone, by discovering how to make it in his laboratory around 1767. Later, Townsend Speakman, of Philadelphia, hit upon the idea of flavoring carbonated water to produce what people began to call "soda water."

"One of the many interesting sections of this picture," according to Jack Roden, local manager of the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling Co., "are the scenes showing how the old-time bottling plants were operated at the beginning of the present century. To make these scenes, an old time plant, with its foot-power machinery, was set up in a studio on the United Artists lot in Hollywood.

"Then the problem developed—how could this forty-year-old equipment be operated? Property men and technicians were stumped. Someone discovered that a man now living in Los Angeles, and identified with the Coca-Cola bottling business, once ran a set of this old-time machinery in his youth in Alabama. He turned producer for a day—and saved the day."

Contrasting with the crudity of the old-fashioned bottling methods are modern scenes detailing the scrupulous care with which every detail of the modern manufacture of syrup and the modern bottling of carbonated beverages is carried out.

"These modern bottling plant scenes," says Roden, "dramatize the safeguards which surround the bottling of Coca-Cola today and are typical of the operations in the more than 1,000 Coca-Cola bottling plants located in the United States."

The scenes around the soda fountain of the "Gay Nineties" constitute another interesting historical portion of the picture. Great care was taken to have the colorful costumes of that day authentic and details of the historical background true to life. An old soda fountain of our grandfather's day was reconstructed in the studio as the setting for these scenes.

"Refreshment Through the Years" also provides glimpses into related industries such as the making of bottles, the manufacture of crowns for bottles, and the harvesting of sugar, as well as scenes made in steel mills and other plants which supply materials for the carbonated beverage industry.

There are 378 important waterfalls in Brazil.

MARKETS Wall Street

Americanism The Keynote For WTCC

Americanism will have its day at the 22nd annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention here May 14-18. It appeared today as preparations for the event gathered more momentum.

The dominant convention theme will be "The American Way of Life." Dorothy Lawrence, director of the revue, announced that it would be called "Life in America," and the featured address by Oscar Benson, national scout official, will be "The American Youth's Way of Life."

As the revue began to shape up, Mrs. Lawrence pointed out that each of the sponsors—and the number increased to 29 Wednesday—would be given prominent roles.

Perhaps for the first time in the history of the West Texas chamber, twins have been named to represent a city and a college. From Waco came word that Lois and Louise Bailey had been selected to represent Waco and Baylor university in the sponsors' affairs.

North Texas State Teachers college at Denton came through with the announcement that Theresa Corcoran, one of the most gifted young dancers in the state, would serve as its sponsor. McMurtry college at Abilene nominated Frances Middaugh, Odessa, who is a sophomore, press queen and sweetheart of the Ko-Sari club.

W. C. Blankenship said Wednesday that he had secured nine judges, three for each of the preliminaries of the My Home Town speaking contest at 2:30 p. m. May 14.

Advertising Discussed By Conoco Men

Continental Oil company's 1940 advertising campaign, an extensive program that surpasses those of former years and features a new device called "Mile Dial," was outlined to Conoco's commission representatives, dealers and others at a district meeting here Tuesday evening.

The affair, at which some ten towns were represented, was held at the Settles hotel, with advertising discussion following a dinner. C. L. Oden of Fort Worth, division manager for Texas, was in charge and outlined the sales and advertising campaign, which will again feature newspaper space. After his talk, a "quiz contest" was conducted to test the Conoco men on their knowledge of the new program.

Other officials here were John Simmons, Sweetwater, district superintendent; Lloyd Winston; Midland, district superintendent; and George Wray, auditor. J. C. Loper of Big Spring was host commission representative. Several were present from Continental's production department.

The "Mile Dial," which Conoco will use this year to stress the mileage arguments in behalf of its gasoline, is a device which may be attached to a car and which quickly calculate the gasoline consumption per mile.

Towns represented at the meeting included Lamesa, O'Donnell, Post, Snyder, Rotan, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Bronie and Big Spring.

THE "WISE" MONEY

is buying Ford this Year!

And Here's Why: Wise money likes room, and Ford has the most rear seat knee-room at its price,  more inside length than cars far higher in price! Wise money likes performance,  and picks the only low-price "8"! But wise money likes economy, too, and Ford gave most miles per gallon of all standard-equipped cars at its price in the famous Gilmore-Yosemite economy test! Wise money likes a fine car ride, and knows that Ford has the ride of the year!  Wise money likes value, so it knows that Ford has the biggest hydraulic brakes, the only Semi-centrifugal clutch giving lower pedal pressure at shifting speeds, and the only hardened valve seat inserts for all engine valves among cars at its price. Wise money likes up-to-the-minute "features," and this Ford has them all!  ... But why not come in today and put your own money "wise" to everything this big and brilliant Ford car gives you! Your Ford Dealer's ready and willing to trade... See him now!

CHECK EQUIPMENT!... See how much more you get in a Ford at no extra cost!

Tremaine, secretary of the national music week committee, the president said, "Music contributes greatly to the nourishment of the human spirit. It is a factor in our national culture which must be supported and encouraged. I am impressed with the steady and remarkable growth of music education in our schools. The excellent orchestras and choral clubs in our thousands of high schools are significant monuments to the advancement of culture through music."

MISS LANEOSU NOTES

By Mary Whaley

Words are really a barrier to meaning lots of times and we often wish we had a language of our own that would really express what we mean. Common usage has put into contempt so many words and expressions that it's worth your life to use them.

Take the word "sweet" when applied to a person. We really know a few people who are sweet, yet when you hear the word it makes you think of sticky chocolate goo that clings to the roof of the mouth. And to call people sweet, usually makes them feel liked.

Another is "good." Some few we know are really good, meaning goodly, yet the raised eyebrows discourage anyone from its use.

Then a few times there have been things that were perfect yet this word has been used to describe everything. A perfect show, a perfect hat, a perfect dancer. No wonder the word can't be used except in slang and irony without misunderstanding.

Happy is another adjective that we would like to use but very seldom do. Anything that causes a laugh doesn't make people happy. Happiness is something that starts way inside and sings in your heart all day. It makes you want to do nice things for others and make them happy too.

Sometimes we believe that silence is more expressive than words and although it's a hard thing to wish on anyone like us, silence would often be safer than talking. A gentle smile with plenty of eyelash batting will help more girls.

Standard And Forsan Upset In M-C Play

Phillips Score Surprise 8-6 Win In Opener

Upsets marred Major-City softball league opening round play at the city park Tuesday evening, the Phillips Tiresmen scoring a surprise 8-6 victory over the Standard Oilers while the Forsan Oilers went down in defeat at the hands of the Carnett Sporting Goods aggregation by a 10-4 count.

In the opener the Tiresmen scored six runs in the final inning to rout the heavily favored Standard team, winning when the Standard battery, Bobby Savage and Chuck Smith, went berserk.

Savage surrendered up only three hits in the sixth inning but his mistakes gave him poor support. The Oilers scored five of their six runs in the third.

In the aftermath, the Carnett team came from behind with a nine run outburst in the fifth and sixth innings to win after the Forsanites had scored heavily in the first three rounds.

First game: Phillips 8, Standard 6. Second game: Forsan 10, Carnett 4.

Irish Stage Comeback At N'Dame

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Bimblech's stall at Churchill Downs is guarded by two special coppers 24 hours a day. The Irish are making a fine comeback at Notre Dame. No fewer than four O'Brien and two Kellys are among the flank candidates.

Lucky guy: the army captain who showed the customary in a Louisville bar receipts for 100 bucks worth of Bimblech in the winter books—at 12-1.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Apparently Coach Peabody Walker of Wake Forest doesn't read the papers. He, he didn't know the West Virginia sports writers were crusading against "furnurers" who slip into the state and skim the cream of the football talent. Anyway, Walker arrived in Morgantown last week, unannounced and unarmed. He registered at the same hotel where Bill Kern, West Virginia coach, puts up. Then he faded forth and in less time than it would take to call the cops, had talked two Morgantown high stars into matriculating at Wake Forest.

NO JUSTICE DEPT.

After losing 17 in a row, Pitcher Pete Hader of the Columbus Red Birds, broke into the win column—but wasn't around to see it. St. Paul shelled Pete off the hill in the eighth, but Columbus rallied and went on to win. News that he had chalked up his first victory since May 27, 1939, came to Pete while he was under the shower.

Don Wolin To Join Barons In Amarillo This Weekend

Skipper Tony Rego of the Big Spring baseball club completed a deal Tuesday evening via long distance telephone following the Clovis-Barons game whereby Don Wolin, Big Spring's great short stop of the 1939 season, and a third sacker by the name of Cox will join the club this weekend.

Wolin has been playing regular short for the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast league but, according to Oscar Reichow, business manager of the Stars, is in need of another year of seasoning. It is said he especially wanted to return here.

The magnificent Wolin is probably the greatest infielder to ever play ball in this circuit. He made a contender out of the club after joining it in May last year. He covers more infield than anyone, with the possible exception of Joe Gordon, your correspondent has ever seen.

Rego will probably move Eddie Laurel to second in place of Augie Benites and bring Leo Jones, now a short stop, in as a pitcher when Wolin and Cox show up.

According to Laurel, Jones has many possibilities as a pitcher. Wolin and Cox will meet the club either Friday or Saturday in Amarillo.

Larsen Learns Lesson After Home Run Pitches In Ninth

Gordon Nell, Berger manager, and his ace backstop, Ernie Potete, visited here Tuesday evening to confer with R. L. "Pat" Patterson, rookie pitcher, out loose here last week.

Pat Patterson, outfielder released by Rego Monday, will probably catch on with Clovis.

Clarence Trantham, former Barons hurler, made his first start for the Amarillo Gold Sox against Midland Tuesday evening, a futile relief job. The Waddlers came from behind to win in the ninth inning, 10-9.

Best umpiring team we've looked at to date is Dave Smith and Earl Cartwright. Smith is better on balls and strikes than he was last year, and has acquired peace. Cartwright, a colorful veteran, knows the game.

New Barons outfielder is Steve Sitek, who was with Lubbock for five or six days before coming here. He's on a five-day look. The fact that he is a left-handed batter is something in his favor.

Bill Scopetone, the locals' new middle gardener, seems to be just what the doc ordered. He's hitting better than anyone on the club, with the exception of Eddie Laurel, at the present.

Don't be surprised if Will "Frenchy" Ramsdell dons catching regalia as relief for Eldon Muratore. The Chantone, Kas, pitcher has, asked Manager Rego for the chance to work behind the plate.

Bob Larsen, who tamed the Clovis Pioneers with five hits Tuesday evening, might have blanked the opposition had he not twice crossed up Muratore's signals on those home run balls in the ninth round.

He had been getting Johnny Stone out all evening with high pitching. He decided to change with one low and outside when Stone ankled to the plate the last time despite Muratore's insistence he stick to his old tricks.

Result Stone connected and the ball disappeared over the right field fence. His confidence shaken a bit, he then tossed one too fat to Al Williams, a southpaw swinger, and the Clovis third sacker slammed it over the wall.

BARONS TO BE ON ROAD FOR NINE DAYS

Home runs by Johnny Stone and Al Williams in the ninth inning saved the Clovis Pioneers from a blanking as Bob Larsen pitched five hit ball to pace Big Spring to a 4-2 decision here Tuesday evening.

Larsen had the better of the argument all the way with Pete Potete, whiffing 13 and issuing but two free passes. Potete surrendered a total of ten hits. His own error in the first inning led to his downfall. He dropped Leo Jones' pop fly in front of the plate after he had retired the first man and the Big Springers went on to score three times.

Jones pitched second, Steve Sitek stroked and the sacks were populated when Williams dropped Potete's throw at third after taking Snooks Carroll's slow roller. Eddie Laurel then waited successfully for free transportation, forcing in Jones and Augie Benites followed with a single through second that scored Sitek and Carroll.

In the fourth the Barons put together three singles for their other run, Larsen crossing the plate on Sitek's drive into right field.

Air Tight
The invaders could get but two men as far as third base through the first eight innings, Williams moving that far on Scopetone's misplay after singling in the second.

Again in the seventh the Clovis third sacker went for three on a single and Eldon Muratore's overthrow into centerfield.

Stone hit a low outside pitch over the rightfield wall for the first thing that looked like a run off Larsen and Williams followed directly with a drive that just topped the fence and edged inside the foul line.

Manager Howard Taylor of the visitors desperately tried to pull the game from the fire by sending in Roscoe Hunt, a left-handed pinch hitter to bat for J. Moore but saw his hopes vanish when Hunt went for a change of pace, was caught off stride and popped to Laurel at third.

Schmidt then rolled out to Benites who froze the ball to terminate the threat.

Scopetone had three singles for the locals but could do no damage when the chips were down. He was nipped in an attempted effort of second once, retired on a double play another time and finally caught off first base. Benites and Charley Correll had two licks each.

The two teams wind up their three game series this evening in an 8:30 bout. Thursday the Barons move on the road, going first to Midland, then to Amarillo. They will not return until Saturday, May 11.

Tex Carleton Looks Down From Heights

CINCINNATI, O., May 1 (AP)—Tex Carleton, discarded by the minors only months ago as an apparent "washout," looked at the world today from the heights of no-hit baseball fame.

The tall, curly-haired 33-year-old refugee from the American Association pitched the undefeated Brooklyn Dodgers to a 3 to 0 triumph over Cincinnati yesterday before 10,544 fans who were with him almost to a man.

If any there were who cried "They can't do that to our Reds," they didn't have much chance to be heard.

The 10,544 cheered Milkman Jim Turner, late of the Boston Bees, who in eight innings allowed but four hits. But soon after Pete Costantini lofted one over the left field wall in the fifth for a three-run homer, fans suspected they might see the realization of a pitcher's dream. They applauded the Reds—but yelled and cheered the Texan's every move.

Aside from tying modern major league records in giving his team its ninth straight game at the start of the season, there was poetic justice in Carleton's performance.

Carleton, formerly with the St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs but sold down river to the Milwaukee Braves, had pitched and released last year, conceded "I didn't realize until the eighth that I might have a no-hitter."

"From then on," he grinned, "I counted every pitch."
In hurling the second no-hit no-run game of the season—just two weeks to a day since Bobby Feller turned the trick for Cleveland in the opener against the Chicago White Sox—Carleton threw 92 pitches. Four men faced him in each of three innings as a result of his two walks and Dodger errors, and the rest of the time the Reds went out one-two-three.

Nine Horses To Start In Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1 (AP)—It's one of those daffy things with no rhyme or reason, but all signs pointed today to the fact that eight other horses actually are going to the post with Bimblech in the Kentucky Derby Saturday.

What they'll be in there for no one among the thousands already in derby town for the big show seems to know. Of course, that $5,000 second money "ain't hay," and in times like these your not anecdoting at $2,000 for third or even $1,000 for fourth. But there doesn't seem to be any chance for anything with four legs catching Bimblech once he throws 'em in high.

The way he came down in 1:35 on a slow track in the derby trial at Churchill Downs yesterday made one thing just about a dead-end cinch. The other fellows are going to get a lot of his dust kicked in their faces.

Several of the candidates thought they had an outside chance up to yesterday. Of those in the trial, only Mrs. Ethel V. Marx' Gallahadion, which ran a creditable second to Bimblech yesterday, and Charles T. Fisher's Sirocco, which wound up third, will get a ticket to the derby post.

These and the other die-hard optimists who still think maybe Bimblech will run the wrong way or something, make the picture for the derby post, parade look something like this:

Horse— Jockey Odds
Bimblech..... Smith 2-5
Dit..... Haas 8-1
Midland..... Balaski 10-1
Pictor..... Wolfe 10-1
Gallahadion..... Bierman 15-1
Roman..... Wright 15-1
Royal Man..... Gilbert 25-1
Sirocco..... Bottolou 30-1
Sky Dog..... Wall 200-1

Padres Add To League Lead

Before the Texas League season started the critics picked Fort Worth, Shreveport, Houston and Dallas as the big four.

Only Houston has lived up to expectations. The Buffs have either been on top or in second place from the start.

Dallas is dangerously near the cellar. Shreveport is in it. Fort Worth is having a tough fight to stay in the first division.

And leading the big parade is a gang of San Antonio youngsters relegated to the second division by even the broad-minded before the drive opened.

Last night, with Ray Hanning in the box, they shut out Oklahoma City 2-0.

Houston lost ground when threatening weather forced postponement of the game with Fort Worth.

Beaumont edged ahead of Dallas with a 4-3 decision and Tulsa beat Shreveport 9-4.

Shippers Will Continue To Play Day Ball

DALLAS, May 1 (AP) The show's the thing says Ernest (Dutch) Lorbeer, who never has gone in for theatricals above the footlights but knows a thing or two about getting crowds into ball parks.

The president of the Beaumont club of the Texas League, one of the citadels of daylight baseball, let it be known today that he has an open mind on the subject but that it isn't likely the fans will see the team play under the globe in Beaumont anytime soon.

"I still contend that the winning ball club is the thing," he declared while on a visit to the Texas League office. "Put on the show and the fans will come and see your team play."

In 1938 Beaumont won the pennant and drew 103,000 fans in a city of 70,000 population. Last year Houston finished first and drew 120,000 fans from a population of 500,000. That is a strong argument in its favor.

"Of course we will put in lights if the need comes. I am sure they would mean better crowds for a time—until the novelty wears off."

Detroit of the American League owns Beaumont and does not want it to play night ball, he added. "Detroit is interested in developing players and they want them developed under the conditions they'll meet when they go to the big leagues," Lorbeer said.

"There's no doubt but that a youngster can play better ball in the daytime. At night the ball gets the jump on the player. In other words, the ball plays the player instead of the player playing the ball."

Brook Must Be Looked Upon As Contender

There's no use being skeptical any longer. Denny's Dodgers are so hot they're setting the National League on fire and the other clubs are blotted out of the picture.

Nine straight victories, climaxed by a no-hit pitching performance from a 23-year-old Texas cowhand who almost decided to quit baseball last winter and stay at home on the range, show that Brooklyn is taking baseball seriously and will have to be taken seriously.

Winning streaks sometimes are put together with luck but the Dodgers' wasn't. They simply overwhelmed every foe they have met.

Tex Carleton's no-hit 3-0 masterpiece against Cincinnati yesterday pointed up the fact that Brooklyn pitchers have allowed only 63 hits and 14 runs in nine games.

The St. Louis Cardinals were rained out against the Giants yesterday, but the Pittsburgh Pirates were beaten for the fourth straight time, 4-2, by the Phillies. The Chicago Cubs had an 8-7 squeeze to win in ten innings from the Bees. Al Todd hit a homer in the extra installment for the victory.

Faults of the baseball world also went to another Texan, the 25-year-old southpaw of the St. Louis Browns, Emil Bidwill, who stopped the world champion New York Yankees 2-1 on two hits in his first start in the majors.

It was the seventh time in ten games a lefthander had started on the mound against the Yanks and the fourth time they had fallen. They have been beaten twice by righthanders.

The Cleveland Indians climbed back into exclusive possession of the lead in the American League with a 10-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

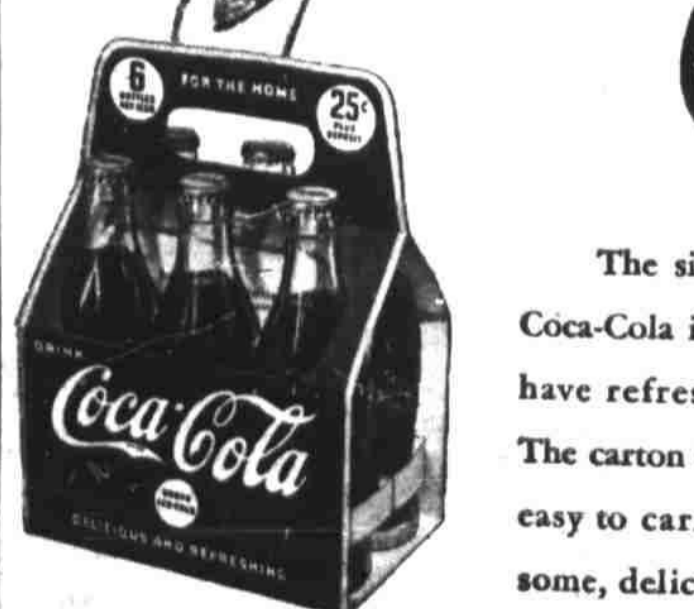

The Boston Red Sox were 2-4 victims of the Chicago White Sox.

HINTS OF NEW FEDERAL TAX ON SAVINGS

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Ernest F. Conely, president of the Investment Bankers Association of America, told the United States Chamber of Commerce today that spending theories of the "government-must-do-it" school might lead to a federal tax on private savings.

Conely, in a prepared address, coupled his remarks on the possibility of a savings tax with an assertion that the federal monopoly committee had refused to give investment bankers a hearing in its study of savings and investments.

Describing some proponents of a spending-lending economy as "the government-must-do-it-ers," the Detroit financier declared that the social order they envisioned would offer no opportunities for savings to find employment and in so doing to provide work for men.

"According to the 'government-must-do-it' boys," he said, "if people are allowed to save in the future, those savings will be sterile. The saver will be performing a disservice by withdrawing the amount of his savings from the flow of money spent for consumption. There will be no means for him to put the money back to work by investing it."

SALES INCREASE

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The commerce department announced today that retail sales in independent stores in Texas were 7.2 per cent greater during the first three months of 1940 than in the same period last year.

Sales during March 8.6 per cent higher than in March, 1939. Amarillo merchants enjoyed a 22.9 per cent increase in dollar volume of business in March this year over the same month in 1939 to lead the state, followed closely by Waco with an increase of 22 per cent. For the three-month period Waco dealers led in the increase over the corresponding period of last year with an upturn of 15.8 per cent, followed by Amarillo with 14.8, Beaumont, 14.1; Port Arthur, 13.6, and Fort Worth, 11.1.

Arizona's first prospector was Antonio Espejo, who found rich silver ore in 1583 near what is now the city of Prescott.

Mrs. Jack Lapham, Champ 23 Years Ago, Survives 1st Test At Dallas

DALLAS, May 1 (AP)—Twenty-three years ago this month a young San Antonio lady won the first Texas women's golf title.

Today, little of the spring gone from her step, virtually none of the effectiveness from her game, silver-haired Mrs. Jack H. Lapham tied off for the second round of the annual tournament, still a favorite.

Sentiment didn't make her a favorite. She established herself from the beginning, carding a comfortable 90 over rain-washed Brook Hollow in the qualifying round and then eliminating Mrs. P. W. Alexander of Dallas, 7 and 5 in a stunning first round match yesterday.

Seven times the gracious, kindly San Antonio sportswoman has won this Texas title, the last time in 1928 at Houston.

Younger stars came along. Mrs. Lapham still is the master of the short game. National Champion Betty Jameson and the youngsters who have taken over the headlines still pause to study her chips and putts.

Mrs. Lapham isn't the current favorite—those roles belong to Betty Jameson, Mrs. Dan Chandler, Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite and Mrs. E. R. Hury—but she will be feared if she meets up with any of them before this tournament is ended.

The tournament had only one feature match today. Mrs. Goldthwaite drew Miss Marie Levi of Dallas.

Mrs. Goldthwaite easily disposed of Mrs. S. R. Lawder of Houston in the first round, 6 and 5. Miss Levi was only a shot or two off par with a 3 and 2 victory over Mrs. G. G. Gamson of Houston.

Miss Jameson, nearing Mrs. Lapham's title record in trying for her fifth consecutive victory, was paired against Mrs. W. H. Almsworth of Houston. Betty dropped Mrs. P. K. French of Fort Worth 6 and 5, while Mrs. Almsworth rallied to beat Mrs. Jake Hamon, 3 and 1.

Mrs. Chandler was only one over par for eleven holes in beating Mrs. H. V. Cordova of Fort Worth, 8 and 7. She plays Mrs. C. O. Scott of Dallas today.

Mrs. Hury was an easy 5 and 4 winner over Mrs. Robert Payne of Dallas. Today she gets competition from Mrs. Frank Jones, Dallas city champion.

Italian Military Activity Worries Slovania Leaders

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, May 1 (AP)—Reports of Italian military activity near the Yugoslav frontier worried authorities in Croatian Slovenia and Dalmatia today.

Italian coal imports from Germany by way of Slovenia have been virtually suspended. This was attributed to heavy military traffic on Italian railroads leading to the Yugoslav frontier.

Railway workers said they saw a trainload of tanks being moved in Italy, and others reported erection of new anti-aircraft defenses at the northern Italian ports of Trieste and Plume.

Parents May Go To Court In Effort To Reopen School

FORT WORTH, May 1 (AP)—Parents of striking students of Lake Worth school said today they would go to court in an effort to have the institution reopened.

The board yesterday closed the school indefinitely.

Seventy-two students had walked out in protest of the board's action in not retaining the principal, V. R. Ramsey.

Three other students declined to walk out. They accused Ramsey of making "embarrassing remarks" concerning Adolf Hitler's re-populating program in Germany.

The striking pupils erected a wire fence across the entrance to the school grounds. Officers removed the wire.

The school board met behind locked doors to make its decision yesterday. Parents and students, waiting outside, booed and booted the board members as they emerged from the meeting.

The school had four weeks of the semester to run when it was closed.

"Gloss over" your engine's age—
Change now to OIL-PLATING

"Full-time lubrication" is the good description of OIL-PLATING given by a garage man. He was letting a customer see why to change to patented Conoco Germ Processed oil, which is the way to have your engine OIL-PLATED.

"Now part-time lubrication," explained the garage man, "is from oil-film draining down every chance, like a liquid. But this Germ Processed oil, besides its swell oil-film, gives OIL-PLATING, which is up through your engine every minute, full-time!"

"Never drains down, not even parked?" the customer quizzed.

"Right! That's what's special about Germ Processed oil. It's made to OIL-PLATE lubricant on engine parts in a regular close partnership—this way... and grunting forcibly the garage man made his fingers interlock.

The customer allowed that OIL-PLATING must be as drain-proof as chromium-plating, and he added, "So all I've heard about starting up with the oil drained down, wouldn't be a worry any more with the engine's insides OIL-PLATED?"

"No it wouldn't. OIL-PLATING outsmarts heavy starting wear—and other wear, too—and that's why you wouldn't guess the age of an OIL-PLATED engine from the way it keeps giving oil mileage."

"I'd like to see how much mileage is meant by Your Mileage Merchant sign, but I've only got five or ten minutes"... which proved ample for changing to Conoco Germ Processed oil, and the customer drove off with his engine being promptly OIL-PLATED. Continental Oil Company

FINAL WEEK OF THE HERALD'S MUSIC PLAN

No More Records or Record Players Available After Saturday, May 4th

Saturday, May 4th, will be the final day of the history-making Daily Herald Music Appreciation Program—a program that enables the people of Big Spring and vicinity to secure; at almost unbelievably low price, a giant collection of symphonic recordings. The supply of records and record players allotted to this territory is rapidly becoming exhausted and it has become necessary to set a definite and final closing date for the offer.

Therefore, at 6 P. M. Saturday, May 4, 1940, The Daily Herald Music Appreciation Offer will come to a close. Until 6 P. M. Saturday, orders for records and record players will be filled in the order of their receipt. After that date no further symphonic recordings or record-players will be available.

The Daily Herald urges all readers who have not completed their ten symphonies to act immediately. We cannot guarantee that last-minute orders will be filled. From now on it will be strictly a case of first come first served. If you need any of the symphonic masterpieces to complete your library of recordings, by all means come in and claim them at your first opportunity.

Memo to the Screw News Editor: If you haven't already seen it, here's Washington's bid for the screwiest news of the week.

James E. Martin, a cab driver, appeared at police headquarters the other day carrying a gray-trousered, white-and-brown shod artificial leg. He said he had dropped a passenger at First and K streets northwest and was cruising about when he glanced back and saw the leg stretching comfortably from the rear seat. No, he didn't recall that his passenger hopped off after paying him. The leg still is kicking around police headquarters.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK Where are the Kreugers and the Spoletos of yesterday? And where are the Roasts, the Oldenburgs and the Vasseus? These are great names in the motor boat racing world. But the war has taken them, and they may never come to the regattas again.

I was talking about these men only last night with George Sutton, the man who is chairman of the international affairs committee of the American Power Boat association. Sutton is a former president of the association and knows intimately everyone connected with motor boat racing in Europe and in this country. He thinks the war has just about wrecked racing—as it was. There will be competitions, but with the European stars eliminated by blitzkrieg and mobilization, it can hardly be the same.

All of these men mentioned here are well known and highly regarded in America. They have raced before the president, at Detroit and on the coast. Where are they now? Count Theo Rossi, the Italian speed boat king and Gold Cup champion of the world, is a captain in the Italian army, and is mobilized. His countryman, the Duke of Spoleto, is commanding a torpedo boat flotilla in the Red Sea. The Duke is a cousin of the king and head of the Italian Motor Boat Federation.

Commodore R. C. Kreuger is in the German navy. In 1933 he and his wife came to America and raced successfully in the 1-1/2 litre class. They became widely popular here. Like Rossi and the Duke of Spoleto, Kreuger is a close personal friend of Maurice Vasseu, the French motor boat champion.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD "Buck Benny Again" Screenplay by William Morrow and Edmund Helton. Directed by Mark Sandrich. Principals: Jack Benny, Ellen Drew, Eddie Anderson, Phil Harris, Virginia Dale, Andy Devine, Lillian Cornell, Kay Linaker, Theresa Harris, Dennis Day, the Abbott Dancers.

There's a sequence here in which Jack Benny waits outside an apartment house in a rainstorm while his retainer, Rochester, pays court to a comely light-colored maid upstairs.

For the first part of the picture that sequence seems symbolic: Benny's out in the rain while Eddie Anderson, the slickest negro comedian in these parts, is tucking the picture under his arm and strutting away with it. For there is no funnier sequence in recent films than this of Rochester's meeting, wooing and leaving with the shapely and talented Theresa Harris. When Benny arrives finally to break it up, he's a "heavy" because nothing he has contributed is a tenth as amusing.

Where Changes Are Needed

people, including those very workers, think that was preferable to having no work at all. The purpose of the wage and hour law is in consonance with the trend of legislation nowadays, to take care of business as well as government. But it was so new a problem for legislation, that the men who were accustomed to making laws did not know how to go about framing it and it was done by theorists who had no knowledge of business and little of lawmaking.

By Jack Stinnett

because word "boom" generally is associated with a town that mushrooms and then goes bust. Persons who know their Bret Harte and Jack London and—or those who have followed oil discoveries from Spindletop to Borger will understand it that way, at least.

As a matter of fact, Washington has been booming since 1800 and about the only things that have gone bust here in all that time are some pieces of sculpture and those 19th century politicians who played real estate on the wrong side of the capitol.

What is more correct is that Washington is a no-depression town. At least, it's the closest thing to it that this country ever has seen. The reason is that Uncle Sam always meets his payroll and those of his 127,771 nephews and nieces who work here can always—and often do—pay their bills.

By George Tucker

In his spare time Vaseu manufactures airplane propellers. Another racing champion and courteous sportsman well known in America is Arthur Bray, an Englishman, who has charge of the motor boat patrol of the Thames. If London is bombed, as many believe it ultimately will be, it is planned to evacuate much of the population by the river. They feel it almost certain that the seven great roads leading into the heart of London will be among the first objectives of Nazi airmen.

Another British racing enthusiast is Lord Forbes, 10th ranking peer in the British Empire. He is an officer in the Royal Air Force. Kurt Oldenburg is the outdoor champion of Sweden and an officer in the Swedish navy. It may be that by the time you read this Oldenburg will have an opportunity to display his skill with boats that were designed for more serious purpose than racing after gold trophies.

In Sutton's possession is a letter sent to him only eight months ago in the Finnish government. It urges him to interest many American racers into entering the great regattas which Finland, for the first time, was to incorporate as part of the 1940 Olympics. But now of course there will be no regattas. There won't even be Olympics. And Finland herself now is more shadow than substance.

Still another champion is Alfred Buysse of Belgium, who may lose his life the very first day, if Belgium is invaded. All of these men have put away thoughts of friendly competition on pleasant waters, with a little gold cup hanging in the balance.

However, a Benny displaying a ripper screen assurance comes into his own as the film proceeds. After he has been tricked into a western sojourn by his "enemy" of the orchestra, Phil Harris, to win the favor of pretty Ellen Drew, the Benny stock soars. There's a load of tenderfoot fun, climaxed by one of the most hilarious chases yet filmed to wit the conventional western. The ending finds Buck Benny up against a couple of tough hangers he thinks are his stooges, and it's a bang-up finish.

"One Million B. C." Screenplay by Mickell Novak, George Baker, Joseph Flickert. Directed by Hal Rosson and Hal Roach, Jr. Principals: Victor Mature, Carole Landis, Lon Chaney, Jr., John Hubbard.

A long, long time ago the Rock Tribe (we're told here) didn't know the first thing about manners, but the Shell Tribe, down the river a piece, had met Emily Post. The Rockers (Mature, Chaney, et al) tore into their food, first come first served if you were strong enough to beat off the rest of the family, but the Shellers (Landis, Hubbard, etc) were polite and fed the women, children and old folks first. Roker Mature gets knocked out in a squabble with Roker Papa Chaney over a choice out of Triceratops, and floats unconscious down the river to be discovered by gentle Sheller Landis. There he learns soft words can turn away wrath, which is a nice sermon at a time like this in human affairs; he learns how to laugh, how to hold his little finger well out while he chaws his meat, how to raise parsnips, and how to pitch woo, which he does enthusiastically.

"Johnny Apollo" Screenplay by Philip Dunne and Rowland Brown. Directed by Henry Hathaway. Principals: Tyrone Power, Dorothy Lamour, Edward Arnold, Lloyd Nolan, Charley Grapewin, Lionel Atwill.

Story of a college boy who turns sour on school-book maxims when his financier dad embezzles himself into the pen. Dad takes the quickest, easiest way—fortune by teaming up with gangsters; get caught himself; learns about the rat his pal is when they try to break jail. It's gangster stuff, with accent on story and character, rather than machine guns, and it makes for a good, solid movie. The acting—even Lamour's, which atones for some of her so-wrong wrong epics—is first-rate, and Hathaway's direction keeps the tale to the point. First laurels go to Grapewin, as the gangster's mouthpiece, but Nolan, Power and Arnold pitch effectively, too.

Chapter 17 INTERFERENCE "Do you think a woman proud enough to refuse your money all that time—to make no effort to patch up the quarrel—do you think she'll tolerate your finding her in her present circumstances?" Brenda asked. "Linda is proud," he said again. "Proud as the devil!" "You're not exactly a lamb for meekness yourself, my Hugh! Now listen to Auntie. Conoco Earnings Up From Last Year

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 1. — Continental Oil company earned $1,350,454.09 during the first quarter of 1940, as shown by the financial statement released by the company's offices here today. This is equivalent to 29 cents per share on the issued stock of the company, exclusive of shares held in the treasury, and compares with earnings of $721,423.63, or 15 cents per share, during the same quarter in 1939.

The increase in net earnings, accompanied by an increase in gross operating income from $17,100,838, to $20,438,305.56 for the same quarter of 1940, was largely the result of increased production of crude oil and larger sales of refined products.

LITTLE SPITFIRE

By Jean Randall

pression, but that's what I mean. Here I am, a perfect stranger to all of you, yet trusted with some most intimate affairs. It makes me feel—well, sort of uneasy; humble, you know; as if I had no right to know—all I do know."

He puffed his pipe from his mouth and regarded her. "You're a nice little thing, Brenda, when you don't get on your high horse. You do have a right to know what is being thrust upon you, certainly. I admit that perhaps nowhere else in the country—certainly nowhere else in this town—is there such a closed corporation as The Street. It started with its physical limitations, of course. It's almost as if we were on a little island, isn't it? And then most of the families have been here so long they know one another's secrets."

"Personally," he continued, "I think you're getting too large a dose of Street affairs. I understand that dear little Dorothy is the latest applicant for advice and sympathy."

"Did she tell you?" she demanded, startled.

"Curis Or No"

He grinned. "Didn't I tell you we have no secrets here on The Street? No, Dorothy didn't tell me but Mrs. Arnold did. She called me up at the office this morning and poured out her woes."

"Called you up at the office? About Dorothy's hair?" Brenda was aghast. She leaned forward urgently. "Mac, tell me! That was what I was going to ask you. Is there anything the matter with Dorothy's mind?"

"Nothing that I know of—save its small size. Dorothy's mind," he elaborated, "is so small you're always falling off the edge of it and bruising yourself. Now you're warned, Brenda! Keep off! Let Dorothy and Mrs. Arnold settle the vexed question of curls or no curls."

He shrugged his shoulders. "It's up to you, my dear! Don't say afterward that I didn't warn you. What," he went on calmly, "are you going to do about Hugh Salus? Discontinue your visits to the studio, or take Miss Ormond along with you?"

"I suppose she telephoned you, too?"

"No, she stopped me as I drove in this evening. Said she'd issued an ultimatum."

"She and her ultimatum! I shall pay no attention to her, of course!"

He leaned back lazily and regarded the ceiling. "I'll remind you of that a week from now. What about Ned Barrow? I hear he's returning this week."

"There's precious little you don't hear, it seems to me! But yes, he will be back and I shall ask him about that mother-and-child story."

"And if you find he's married—or ought to be?"

It was her turn to shrug. "I shall discourage Alaine's feeling about him."

He was silent for a moment; when he spoke it was with a note of earnestness in his voice she had not heard before.

"Look here, Brenda! I do think
