KELLOGG TO DEFEND HIS POLICY SOON

Declares Big Interests Are Rushing America Into War With Mexico

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The administration policy toward Nicaragua and Mexico was bitterly attacked in both houses of congress today, as a course of action pending toward war.

Representative Huddleston and Senator Heflin, both democrats, of Alabama took the floor in their respective houses to protest what they called war like action taken at the behest of "big interests."

Huddleston demanded that President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg join the first troops going over and aided. "I am not willing that any single American boy be sent to Mexico, so that the oil companies here may pay dividends."

Representative Curtis, Kansas, announced Secretary Kellogg would appear before the senatorial foreign relation committee next week to defend his foreign policy.

The United States is driving deliberately toward war with Mexico, Representative George Huddleston, democrat, Alabama, charged in the house today.

After reading the Mexican Nicaraguan statement yesterday of the president's spokesman, Huddleston charged that the president was yielding to those who are agitating war.

Huddleston condemned the administration for the Nicaraguan and Mexican policies, and charged that the United States is being pushed into war because of business interests.

"There are some men who have business interests," Huddleston declared, "who want the United States to go to war to protect their own interests; they think only of the clink of gold."

HIJACKERS CUT THROAT OF VICTIM

By United Press.
BRADLEY, Ark., Jan. 8.—Martin Bell Burkes, 21, Walnut Hill, Arkansas youth, was in a serious condition today after being hi-jacked and having his throat cut, and left for dead on a lonely road near here last night.

Burkes was thrown from his car by highwaymen and his pockets rifled. The boy is a cousin of Speaker Clark W. Hughes of the Louisiana legislature. Doctors believe he will recover.

Ex-Service Man Held in Jail On Forgery Charge

A man giving the names of G. R. Chapman and E. F. Mitchell, and believed to be an ex-service man, was being held in the Eastland county jail late Friday on a charge of forgery, according to Milton Newman, deputy sheriff. The offense for which the man was being held is alleged to have been committed at Cisco, where it is stated he gave a forged check for some gasoline.

Together with a woman and one or two children, the man was traveling through the county in an old rundown Ford. Then he was brought to jail at Eastland after having had a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace J. H. McDonald at Cisco, the woman and children, penniless, and without friends, were sent to the county farm.

Friday morning, according to the officers, the woman told them that she was not married to the man; that she did not know his name, but that he was an ex-service man and had been gassed in service. She also told the officers that the man was not responsible for his acts.

Officers stated that the man was in a serious condition and was at that time under the observation of a physician. They gave it as their opinion that he did not know, at least at all times, what his real name was.

STATE RESTS IN BARNES BOYS MURDER TRIAL

DEFENSE TRIES TO BREAK DOWN STATE'S CASE

Bush and Dr. Earnest Testimony Attacked by The Several Witnesses

Special Correspondence.
STEPHENSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 8.—At the conclusion of the testimony of Dr. T. J. Earnest of Ranger, the state rested in the trial of Cleve and Luke Barnes on trial here for murder in connection with the death of Jim Daniels, a Ranger policeman last February.

The defense opened its case and so far the testimony introduced seeks to break down the statements made by Dr. Earnest and Bush who testified early in the case.

In his testimony, Dr. Earnest said that Cleve Barnes had confessed to him that he had killed Jim Daniels. On the cross examination, the defense tried to elicit from the witness that he was to have the cases against him dismissed. Dr. Earnest is under indictment for a statutory offense.

"Ted" Hamilton.
Bud Faircloth, Constable Ted Hamilton, Bill Pickering and Pete Record were put on the stand by the defense. It appears from the testimony adduced from them that an effort will be made to break down the testimony of the state's two star witnesses, Dr. Earnest and Bush.

The reputation of Dr. Earnest was attacked by several of the witnesses. In his testimony Faircloth said that Dr. Earnest told him that former County Attorney W. J. Barnes, Frank Sparks and others had promised him that if he, Earnest, testified that Cleve Barnes killed Jim Daniel they would see that the cases against him were dismissed.

The testimony of Ted Hamilton was along the same lines as that of Faircloth.

Franklin.
Jim Franklin, who was brought to court by Hamilton and who has been much sought after as a witness, testified that he and Bush were cell mates in jail, and that Bush told him that he, Bush, was going to get $1,750 and a pardon if he swore against the Barnes boys in the trial. That on one occasion Bush showed the witness, Franklin, a check for $1,750, which Bush was to cash after the Barnes boys were convicted.

MEXICO PLANS TO PROSECUTE

By United Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 8.—The Mexican government through the legal department of the consulate here will help to prosecute eight men, including county officials, charged in connection with the slaying of Thomas Neoz and four others at Raymondville, in September, Consul General A. B. Carrillo, said Saturday.

Manuel C. Gonzales, special attorney for the Mexican government, who has been one of the chief investigators of the alleged ambush in which men declared to be Mexican nationalists were slain, Saturday was still in Wilkey county.

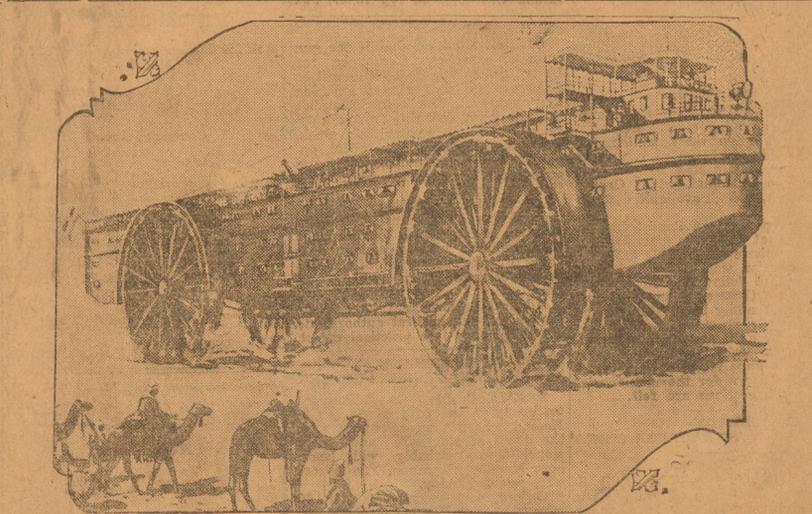

He probably will attend the preliminary trial of Sheriff Raymond Teller and seven co-defendants who are at liberty on $1,500 bond.

Eight Accused Men Released on Bond

RAYMONDVILLE, Texas, Jan. 8.—The examining trial of Sheriff Raymond and seven others arrested in connection with the death last September of five persons, will be held Monday. Bonds of $1,500 each were set by District Judge Cunningham, until the examining trial which will be held here next Monday.

Eight men named in the warrant, excepting deputy game warden Frank Calvert, who is in Austin, were here. They were all arrested on the charge filed by Pressa Nunez, wife of Thomas Nunez, one of the men killed. It is claimed that four of the slain men were Mexicans, and the Mexican government is investigating the slaying.

Greyhound of the Sahara

A real ship of the desert is this motorized camel, as pictured by its inventor, Johann C. Bishoff, of Kiel, Germany. An inkling of its size may be gained by comparison with the camels whose chief competitor Bishoff hopes it will become. It is to be 300 feet long, will accommodate 300 passengers and fifty tons of cargo and on its 40-foot wheels will be driven over the sands by gasoline engines at about 20 miles an hour.

35 BUSINESS MEN WILL TAKE SCOUT COURSE

Thirty-five Ranger business men enrolled in the scout master's training course, on Friday night, when they met for the first session at the American Legion hall.

Three patrols were organized, J. E. Matthews was made patrol leader of the Owl Patrol; W. W. Paschall, leader of the Bulldog Patrol and C. C. Patterson of the Cat Patrol.

B. F. Peacock was elected scribe of the troop and W. W. Housewright acted as scout master of the troop.

E. E. Voss regional deputy executive was present and was well-pleased with the way that the work got under headway.

The business men who are taking this training come from many and various vocations, but they all shed their coats and dived right in to learn the art of being a scout leader.

Mr. Voss remarked that he had never seen a group of men get right into work as they did on Friday night.

It is expected that more members will join next Friday night as each patrol expects to recruit members during the week. Members coming in at that time will have an opportunity of securing certificates in the work by attending the next four meetings.

Rev. O. Hamblen made a talk on the "Opportunities of the Scout Leader" which was greatly enjoyed.

The training school will start in Eastland on Monday night, with Alex Clarke as scout master. The session will be held in the Wright building.

On Thursday night, the first session will be held in Cisco, at the Rotary building, with Chas. Gray as scout master. Then on Friday night the Ranger aspirants will meet again.

Mr. Quill is in charge of the movement in Eastland county, and has headquarters at the Ranger chamber of commerce.

Claude Pollard Assumes Duties, Succeeds Moody

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 8.—Claude Pollard of Houston today was sworn in as attorney general of Texas succeeding Dan Moody who will on January 18 be inaugurated as governor of Texas. For ten days Mr. Moody will be a private citizen. He returned from Washington where he represented Texas in the Mexico-Texas boundary suit before the U. S. Supreme court and attended the administering of oath of office to Judge Pollard by Chief Justice C. M. Cureton of the Texas supreme court and was the first to extend congratulations to the new attorney general.

DARING ATTEMPT TO ROB SAFE IN COURT HOUSE

By United Press.
BEAUMONT, Jan. 8.—A daring attempt to burglarize the safe at the Jefferson county tax collector's office, containing $3,000 in cash, was thwarted today and one of the alleged robbers arrested after he had been trapped in the corridor of the court house. The other burglar escaped after leaping twenty feet through a window.

Frank Vaughn, discovered the robbers at about 2 a. m., while on his way home, notified the police and they surrounded the court house within a few minutes. The combination of the safe had been shattered, but the burglars did not succeed in getting into the strong box.

Officers Reopen Investigation Of Old Tragedy

That one of the boldest murders ever committed was perpetrated in Eastland county where it was witnessed by a large number of people, who did not realize at the time that a murder was being committed before their eyes, is the belief of certain Eastland county officers who are re-opening the investigation of the death of a certain person, which occurred several months ago.

The name of the party believed to be guilty of the crime nor that of the person believed to have been murdered were divulged by the officers.

At the time of the death of the person there were those who said that murder had been committed, and officers made some investigation from this standpoint, but abandoned the theory of murder. Parties who witnessed the tragedy, however, insisted that it was nothing more or less than murder of the very boldest kind and have given the officers enough evidence to warrant them in again investigating the case.

One of the officers, who has been making investigation of the facts concerning the case, made the statement that he was convinced that it was murder, and that while he did not yet have sufficient evidence to sustain a conviction of murder, he was sure that he knew just where such evidence could be obtained and said that it would be given the grand jury for their investigation.

Plot to Poison Aimee Under Investigation

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 8.—A suspected poison plot against the life of Aimee Semple McPherson on the eve of her departure on an evangelistic tour over the country was under investigation by detectives here tonight.

A box of figs, first believed to be an omnibus left in a messenger office to be delivered to the evangelist at Angelus Temple, will probably be analyzed for traces of poison by city chemists, authorities said.

MA TURNS LOOSE ANOTHER BATCH TOTAL NOW 3,130

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—A second installment of pardons granted today by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, brought the grand total up to 3,130 clemency proclamations.

This morning the governor granted 27 full pardons and three restorations of citizenship and in the afternoon she granted 29 additional full pardons, making a total of 59 proclamations.

D. H. Harrison of Eastland county was granted a full pardon. He was under sentence of two years for manslaughter.

A. L. (Lee) Price, who holds the record of holding the longest sentence of any convict in the Texas state penitentiary, outside of life terms, was granted a full pardon late today by Governor Ferguson. He was under sentence for 127 years from Bowie county in 9 cases of criminal assault and incest. He had served 18 years in the pen.

Before the house committee investigating state prison conditions last November, Price was charged repeatedly with manufacturing liquor in the Easton state farm. Several witnesses testified the liquor was manufactured by Price, with the knowledge and consent of S. E. Grandberry, at that time, manager of the farm and now a prison commissioner appointee of Governor Ferguson.

These allegations were denied by Grandberry. Price was summoned before the committee as a witness but refused to testify, saying he expected to be granted a pardon by the governor.

EASTLAND MAN DRAWS A FARDON

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—Governor "Ma" Ferguson's clemency proclamations jumped to a grand total of 3,101 today when 27 additional pardons were issued and three restoration of citizenship, covering all classes of crime. One restoration of citizenship was granted to Lute Beach, Eastland, liquor, one year, having served his sentence.

Texarkana Man Claims Reward For Bootlegger

By United Press.
TEXARKANA, Jan. 8.—Officers today wired Governor Miriam A. Ferguson claim for a $500 reward offered by the governor over a year ago for the conviction of a bootlegger worth as much as $5,000.

W. O. Caldwell, sent up from here more than a year ago on violation of the prohibition law, has more than $5,000 in banks, it was reported here.

SELF DEFENSE WILL BE PLEA GIRL SLAYER

Justin Walling Khalbua Released on Bond Sum Of $1,000; Body Held

Mrs. Justine Walling Khalbua, of Grant Town, who is charged with murder in connection with the death of Marion F. Green, in the front yard of her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Walling, late Thursday afternoon, has been released from custody on $1,000 bond.

Palo Pinto court does not convene until April and the date for her trial has not been set.

Her defense probably will be self defense and an insult to a female relative.

Her husband and mother were with her while she was held at Palo Pinto until her bond was made.

Married Two Months.
Green's body is being held at Killingsworth-Cox Undertaking parlor, Ranger, awaiting the arrival of his mother from Newark, N. J., where she has been on a visit. She is expected to arrive today and it is probable that the funeral services will be held Monday at a cemetery near Mineral Wells.

Justine Walling Khalbua had been married two months to Larry Khalbua, and they were preparing to move out west when the shooting occurred. Green and Mrs. Khalbua had been sweethearts before her marriage but had broken up prior to that time, but according to reports Green had never gotten over his disappointment of having her marry another.

Green was a friend of the family and had Christmas dinner with them and remarked at the time that some of them might not be present when they ate Christmas dinner next year.

One Other at Home.
Mrs. Khalbua and a little seven year old sister were at home when the tragedy that cost Green his life occurred. Mrs. Walling and another married daughter had gone to Stephenville on legal business and Green came to the house while they were gone.

Green himself taught the girl to shoot, back in the days when they were sweethearts and she was said to have been a crack shot. Some Mexicans living in the rear of the Walling home heard some of the words that were passed between the two before the fatal shot, as did the little sister.

A warrant was out from Erath county for Green's arrest on charge of assault on a relative of Mrs. Khalbua.

Norris Murder Trial to Be Called Monday Sure

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—Texas most noted gospel minister, Dr. J. Frank Norris, tonight was separated by but a few hours until time his trial will be called in the district court here.

The pastor is charged in connection with the murder of D. E. Chipps, wealthy Fort Worth lumberman.

Reports from Fort Worth, however, indicated there is a remote possibility of delay on account of the physical condition of the pastor, which forced him to abandon his regular church schedule for Sunday.

It was said he was suffering from an acute case of tonsillitis and his wife and close friend J. J. Mickle, director of public relations in the First Baptist church, will substitute for him in the pulpit.

Norris is expected to arrive here Monday morning a few hours before his case is called. Meantime preparations for the trial are going forward with nearly a score of attorneys here, representing both the defense and the state.

The state's counsel was planning to go in conference tomorrow to decide to ask what penalty they shall ask to be passed on Norris should he be convicted.

BRITTON AND GORDON HIT GOOD PAY GASSER

Gholson Pool Producer Is Holding Up; Some After Grass Root Stuff

Texas Fidelity Pratt No. 5, one mile north of Lacasa and eight miles north of Ranger, came in late Saturday afternoon for approximately 225 barrels of oil per day at 2,020 feet. The well also is making 2,500,000 cubic feet of gas. The well which has been on top of the sand for two days had been retarded on account of the heavy pressure of gas. It offers the week end sensation in oil circles in this county.

Texas Fidelity Caraway is drilling at 1,200 feet, Pratt No. 6 at 600 feet and Pratt No. 7 is being rigged up.

Chastain and Donley are drilling on the New Hope church lot near the Pratt lease at 1,500 feet.

W. K. Gordon and Ed Britton, pioneer operators in the Eastland county field, have just brought in a gasser four miles north of Gordon. The well is drilling at 3,540 feet and is showing two or three million feet of gas and some oil. If oil is not produced in paying quantities, the gas is sufficient to open up a new wildcat gas field in that sector. They have 6,000 acres blocked and will proceed to develop it right along.

J. M. White and Associates of Ranger, last year brought in some "grass roots" wells not far from where this acreage is located. They have seen (Continued on page five)

DEMOCRATS TO CONTEST VARE'S SEAT

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Democrats have decided to institute an official contest to seat William D. Williams as senator from Pennsylvania, instead of William S. Vare, republican.

Announcement was made today, the United Press was informed, that the contest is to be sponsored in an effort to show fraud in Vare's election. The decision is a vital point in determining the control of the next senate, which now stands 48 republicans, 47 democrats, and one farmer-laborite.

Up to this time the attack against Vare was based on the $300,000 primary expenditure, and if he should be barred from the senate on these grounds, a republican would be appointed to fill the vacancy left by him.

Filing of the contest was announced by Senator Joseph T. Robinson, democrat, floor leader.

FROM THE HOLY WRIT.
The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long suffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.—11 Peter 3:9.

Prayer: O Lord, give us strength to overcome them.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX.

Pay your poll tax and be a citizen. This is poll and other tax paying time. Don't say that you are an alien and now is the time to pay your poll American citizen if you do not pay your poll tax. Those who do not pay poll taxes are not citizens, they have no right to vote and should be classed as either aliens or non compos mentis. Don't get yourself in the class of aliens. There may not be a state election, but you can't tell what will come up in other lines. There will be city elections held in Eastland county. You want to express your opinion on who will be your mayor and who will be on the board of your city commission.

You must have a poll tax receipt to be able to express yourself.

You do not know the value of a poll tax receipt, if you haven't one. The poll tax receipt that costs you $1.75 gives you the right of franchise that was bought with blood on many hard fought battle fields. The forefathers of the United States shed their blood at Guilford Courthouse, at Lexington, at Bunker Hill, and suffered at Valley Forge so that you may be allowed to vote. A poll tax receipt is a badge of honor.

The builders and pioneers of Texas, Sam Houston, Davy Crockett, Bowie and others who fought and bled at the Alamo and San Jacinto did so to obtain the right to vote. The ballot of the poor man counts as much as the wealthiest. All votes count the same and are worth the same. The poll tax receipt is a badge of honor and stamps you as a 100 per cent American.

You have no right to kick about what is being done or what is being left undone if you have not paid your poll tax. You have a right to take part in the government when you pay your poll tax, but if you have not paid your poll tax you can be classed with the paupers, who are not allowed to vote. Be a man, and before you let the sun go down on you see that you have a poll tax receipt in your pocket.

In addition to making a man or woman of yourself, even though you are not a property holder, you are giving your mite to support the government, the grandest of them all in the world today.

There remains 18 more days in which you can qualify as a citizen and be a man. A man without a poll tax is not a man, and may be likened unto the man without a country. The man without a country has no right to vote. The men without a poll tax receipt in his pocket can't say that he is either an American, or Texan. Because true dyed-in-the-wool Americans or Texans do their part to support the government and place themselves in position to oust undesirable officials by use of the ballot.

GOOD STREETS ARE MAGNETS TO NEW CITIZENS.

Towns are usually judged by its paved street, street lights and other civic improvements. Good paved or gravelled streets and well lighted streets are assets as much as good schools and churches.

A town with paved streets, if not paved gravelled and well kept streets will attract a new comer as quick as good schools and churches. Paved and well lighted streets encourage home ownership and building. Prospective home owners will not build on a muddy street. Towns in the oil belt should do more paving. Eastland is setting a precedent for Ranger and other towns to follow. Every residential street in Ranger and Eastland should be either paved, gravelled or macadamized. Paving and lights help the town.

LAREDO MAN SURE TO BE SPEAKER

AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—Robert L. Bobbitt of Laredo, was given a clear track for the speakership of the house of the fortieth legislature, which convenes next Tuesday, when Representative S. A. Dale of Bonham, who had for some time considered making the race, announced positively today that he had decided not to enter the contest. Bobbitt will be elected without opposition.

Horse Breeding And Racing Is Taking on Life

LONDON.—So great is the demand for fashionable stallions among breeders in this country nowadays that nominations in advance are sought long before a horse is taken out of training.

In the early part of 1926, Diomedes, the champion sprinter was booked up for 1927 his first season at the stud, at a fee of $1,575. It is stated Solario is full for several years ahead at a fee of $2,625. According to an advertisement in the "Racing Calendar" Coronach, the derby winner of 1926, is full for 1928 at a fee of $2,100. Such is the keen competition among breeders in these days.

The Tetrach has for some time now held sway as the most expensive stallion in the world at a fee of $2,625, but in recent years he has been getting fewer foals, and so has lost his old predominance. Today the two most popular are Hurry On, who is head of the list of winning sires for the season of 1926, and Phalaris, who is second after being first last year. Lord Woolavington bought a fortune when he gave $1,500 for Hurry On as a yearling. This horse was never beaten, and he afterwards sired two derby winners—Captain Cuttle and Coronach.

WOMEN OUTNUMBER MEN IN RUSSIAN MEDICAL SCHOOLS

MOSCOW.—Sixty percent of all the students in the Moscow Medical school are women. Medicine has developed into one of the most attractive fields for women enjoying their new freedom.

In many cases, women physicians have returned to their old villages after acquiring a medical training and have engaged in practice there. The power of the untrained healers in rural parts of Russia is still great, though the influx of capable graduates of medical school is slowly making headway against the crude treatment of the unskilled practitioners.

Foreigners Flee To Vessels From Dangerous Zones

SHANGHAI, China, Jan. 8.—Practically all the vessels on the Yangtze river were pressed into service today to convey foreign refugees from Hankow and other dangerous zones to Shanghai.

Fifty Americans and 500 British women and children were due here today. Chinese troops and strikers today surrounded and picketed the British consul. The Asiatic building, and the Hong Kong-Shanghai bank, at Hankow to prevent arrival and departure of employees.

Most all the men among the foreign colony were held in the bank building. The Chinese maritime customs house was also surrounded and had ceased functioning.

Asiatic Fleet Is Ordered To Sail for China

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Alarmed over spreading anti-foreign riots in Central China, the administration ordered Admiral Williams, commander of the Asiatic fleet to go from Manila to Shanghai, with Cruiser Pittsburgh, and all available destroyers.

Last reports from Consul General Lockhart at Hankow, described the situation there as critical, with all the American women and children prepared to follow the fifty others who joined those at Shanghai. Naval officials standing by at Hankow, on the Yangtze river have orders to use force for the protection of American lives. Officials here fearing fire from guns might start reprisal. Special concern for the missionaries in isolated sections are felt.

FLEET IS READY TO SAIL FOR CHINA

MANILA, Jan. 8.—The U. S. S. Pittsburgh, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, prepared to leave here today for Shanghai, with a full contingent of sailors and accompanied by several destroyers.

U. S. VESSELS ARE AFTER MEXICANS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—With two U. S. war vessels reported chasing alleged Mexican gun runners off the Nicaraguan coast, the administration anxiously waited today to see if there would be an open break between Mexico and the United States, over the Central American revolution.

After statements authorized by President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg, defending armed occupation and alleged intervention in favor of the Nicaraguan conservative regime, officials believed that Congress's opposition, which was led by Senator Borah, chairman of the Foreign Relations committee, cannot force a change in the policy.

Officials think the fifteen war vessels and 4200 blue-jackets and marines now in, or enroute to Nicaragua, will frighten the rebels and their alleged Mexican supporters and end the revolution.

Officials admitted that if the gun runners, or rebels, fire upon the United States forces, the fire will be returned and then almost anything may happen. The administration's attitude today differing from the defensive attitude earlier this week, was aggressive toward its critics, apparently on the assumption that this government has gone too far into the fight to retreat.

As President Coolidge puts it, through his spokesman, the administration is determined to discourage the revolution in Nicaragua and is going to make recognition of the conservatives more than "empty gesture."

TRIAL OF HASSELL IS UNDERWAY; 5 JURORS CHOSEN

FARWELL, Jan. 8.—Taking of testimony in the trial of George J. Hassell, charged in connection with the death of his wife and eight stepchildren, probably will begin here Monday afternoon. Five jurors were selected today.

Orders for a second venire of 80 men to answer Monday morning was given by Judge Reese Tatum, after the first venire of 108 men had been exhausted late today.

Methodists Plan Song Services At Both Sessions

Special song services have been arranged for the Eastland Methodist Church for both the morning and evening services today. The new concert grand piano, purchased for the church by the Women's Missionary Society, has arrived and will be used for the first time Sunday.

Included in the program at the morning service will be an anthem, "Thou Art My Rock and Fortress," by the choir; "Hold Thou My Hand," solo by B. M. Collie.

At the night service there will be an old fashioned hymn singing. A Pearce, who recently came to Eastland from California, where he sang in some of the largest churches in the cities of that state, will sign a special song, "Peace, Be Still."

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8.—Rather than to become embroiled in war with the United States in the current disputes over the new Mexican oil laws, President Calles told a group of American visitors today that Mexico would be willing to submit the entire proposition to the world court at the Hague. SPECIAL NOTE:

The figures above do not include the great Revenue derived from the cattle, sheep, swine and poultry industries for which Texas is famous. Nor does it include such important items as truck, citrus fruits, nuts, wool and such like, which industries bring millions of dollars more annually. The 1926 output of the above important items far exceeds that of last year.

CROPS DIVERSIFIED

Texas crop values, according to government estimates, are more than a HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS GREATER for 1926 than for 1925. The cotton crop which is about twice the normal yield will have about the same money value, and because of the growth of diversified farming, other crops have a far greater value this year than ever before.

And in spite of the low price on cotton more money will be left in the South this year from this crop than ever before; for though the producer has not made the usual profits, twice the normal amount of money is being paid to pickers, twice the normal amount to ginners, to compressors, to warehousemen; and there is twice the normal cotton tonnage for Texas railways.

But even greater than the advance made by Texas' agricultural interests has been the progress made by Texas' industries. Textile mills are being erected at many points. Hundreds of manufacturers of products from pins and pills to motor cars have recently opened factories in Texas or are seeking locations. New railroads are being built. New oil fields are being developed. The giant is awakening. As great a state as Texas is agriculturally, it will soon be an even greater state industrially.

INDUSTRIAL DENISON

Twelfth in size and one of the liveliest industrial cities of the state is Denison—the Gate City. Located in the Red River valley in North Central Texas, Denison is a great railway center and terminal. The M-K-T operates at this point the largest railway switching yards in the entire Southwest. Other large locomotive and machine shops are here. Six railways and an inter-urban line connect Denison with all sections in all directions.

The largest cotton mill west of the Mississippi River is here, spinning and weaving seven thousand bales of cotton per annum; seventeen wholesale houses; overall factory; peanut and pecan mill; wood and cabinet work mills; flour mill; ice cream factories; candy factories, etc.

DENISON'S ANNUAL PAY-ROLL

The fact that Denison, a city of 25,000, has an annual pay-roll of more than four million dollars—not including the salaries of clerks, store managers, teachers, etc., attests the prosperous condition of its industrial enterprises.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be big days at the Lamb Theatre, Ranger, for on those days, Douglas Fairbanks in "The Black Pirate," will be the attraction.

"The Black Pirate" is not only one of the best pictures that Fairbanks has ever appeared in, but it is a technicolor. That is, it was photographed in such a way that everything is shown on the screen in its natural colors.

This is the first complete picture in technicolor ever to be presented, although the prologue in Gloria Swanson's "Stage Struck" was said to have been in technicolor.

Doug in the role of a brave buccaner, who sails the seven seas as a black bird of prey—is supported by Billie Dove, who is said to have been Fairbanks' selection as the most beautiful woman of the screen.

For those who have not been initiated in the art of technicolor films it might be interesting to know that a technicolor film is coated with the emulsion on both sides of the celluloid instead of one side as in ordinary films and special instructions are given the operators because of its delicacy and it is necessary to depart from some of the usual customs in film handling in order to get the desired results from technicolor films.

New Marriage Code of Soviets Makes it Severe

MOSCOW.—Getting married in Russia is easier now than it was, but the state of being married has been made very much more burdensome. Russian men are thinking hard now before plunging into matrimony.

The new Soviet marriage code belied entirely the first reports that the Russians had abolished marriage. They have made common law marriages legal so that registration is no longer essential. But in this form they have only written into formal the decisions of Soviet judges everywhere in the past four years. The judges, exercising what is known as the "freedom of their revolutionary conscience" which enables them to fit the words of the laws to what they seem fair and reasonable, had made common-law marriages binding already. Now they are so in the words of the law as well.

So getting married is simpler than before. There is no longer the fuss and slight expense of registration. Instead a mode of life suggesting wedlock is enough to prove a marriage and to entitle a wife to the various benefits of the married state. Registration now is only desirable because it is the simplest proof of marriage. It does not need the support of witnesses nor of documentary evidence.

But being married is more arduous on account of the new law. A father is saddled with the cost of maintaining his children until they are 18 years old and this responsibility remains with him even though he may be divorced. It is operating as a restraint on too impetuous experiments in wedlock. Not many Russians nowadays can support children for 18 years.

The new law, however, has laid on this burden both ways. The obligation of adult children to take care of their aged parents has been imposed on them, chiefly to free the state of the burden.

And the advantage of matrimony which in other countries often leads to marriages for money, has also been abolished in the new Soviet code. In its clauses respecting property, the law now provides that those who marry keep as their own whatever possessions they had before abandoning their single state. Only what is earned after the marriage is common property, and if a union breaks up through divorce, each of the separated parties take away what he, or she, possessed before the union.

CARD OF THANKS.

BRITTON AND GARDNER PAY GASSER

(Continued from page one.) eral hundred acres in that vicinity and while not drilling there just now, probably will open up developments there in the spring.

On the Harrell lease about eight miles northwest of Ranger the Panting Oil company and Livingstone and Chestnut & Smith brought in a well earlier in the week, which has been put on the pump and is making about 20 barrels a day. The sand was found at 2,200 feet. The operators own some 800 acres in that sector and probably will drill more wells very soon. This well is off the Pleasant Grove road, about seven miles out from Ranger.

Gas Retards Work. The Mook-Texas near Frankel which encouraged a heavy flow of gas has not yet been drilled in, as it has been necessary to get the gas under control before drilling can be consummated. This well is in the shallow belt, and is drilling around 2,000 feet.

Production in the Gholson pool, south of Ranger shows no sign of decreasing. It remains the center of much interest and has stepped into the real producer's class.

Watching. The oil fraternity is watching with much interest developments in the T. H. B. McAllister well, which is on the pay, in the south portion of Eastland county. This well is being drilled by Thomas & Reynolds. The present depth is reported as around 3,000 feet. Little gas but considerable oil is reported. Drilling, which was shut down for a few days awaiting orders, has been resumed.

The McAllister, located four miles southwest of Carbon and about two miles northwest of Long Branch, will open up much unproven territory should it prove to be a good producer.

RUSSIA IS PERILED BY MAD WOLF ATTACKS

MOSCOW.—The mad wolf problem is assuming most alarming proportions in Russia. From all parts of the Soviet Union, appeals for assistance and reports of desperate conditions are daily pouring in to the seat of government at Moscow.

The danger is made greater because wolves are peculiarly susceptible to rabies. Wolf-bites upon domestic animals are apt to infect the farm stock.

The Moscow newspapers announced recently that a international conference for developing cooperation between nations for extermination of rabies will be held in Paris next year. Russia will be represented.

Good Business Is Forecast For Chevrolet 1927

By ROY C. HAYES. Increasing good business for the first half of 1927, is forecast by R. E. Grant, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor company, who declared today that there is every reason to believe that the country will continue to enjoy the even prosperity that has attended general business in the last 12 months.

"There is no evidence on the industrial horizon that would indicate anything but a promising outlook for the early months of the new year," Mr. Grant declared. "Labor continues to be well employed, the national per capita wealth is the greatest on record, the agricultural outlook is improving and banks are acknowledging more cash than ever. "The motor industry is preparing for an unusually active year. The recognized advantages of automobile ownership and the fact that today's motor car offers the greatest dollar value in the history of the industry, are giving a constant impetus to sales. As a result, production this year should compare favorably with the output of 1926.

"Replacement of old cars in the United States will require approximately 2,000,000 units in 1927. Export markets bid fair to take close to one million cars and trucks of American manufacture. New owners coming into the market in this country during the next 12 months, will require a million cars or more. In addition, there is a rapidly growing tendency toward the ownership of two or more cars in the same family.

"Reports from the Chevrolet dealer and field organizations, from all parts of the United States, reflect the optimism, which we at home, hold for the early new year. Acting on the belief that the year will be a highly profitable one for American business, the Chevrolet Motor company is planning a further increase over the record production of 1926, which exceeded the company's best previous performance by more than 40 per cent.

"Extended plans, which the organization has arranged for the year, are based not on enthusiasm alone but on the well founded conviction that the new Chevrolet car will make a very strong appeal to the public and that conditions will remain stabilized and show a steady upward movement in the first six months of 1927."

Gilda Gray and Tom Moore are preparing to start filming of "Cabaret" shortly. Robert Vignola will direct.

Bearcats Defeat Midgets in One Sided Game, 28-0

Ranger Bulldogs will have some husky followers unless the drove of Bearcats that hooked into the Times office, Ranger, Saturday to report a game, between themselves and the Midgets, all come to an untimely end. Out of the babel that arose by each one giving his version of the game, it was deduced that the Bearcats made the Midgets look smaller than their name indicates in a score of 28 to 0 in the Bearcats' favor—in fact they alleged that the Midgets quit in the last half of a game played at Nitro Park Saturday. In all fairness to the Bearcats, the reporter had only the Bearcats' version of it—but they were such a clean cut looking lot of boys that they could not give an unfair report. The line ups:

Tunney Signs Up To Fight for Tex, Gets Half Million

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—A former Greenwich Village clerk, whose ascendancy to the top rung of the heavyweight circles has been meteoric, today finds himself on the borderland of the near millionaire class. For Gene Tunney, ex-marine and now the heavyweight boxing champion of the world, has signed to fight for Tex Rickard only for one year, beginning July 1.

The first fight will be late this summer, probably, and Tunney's first defending bout will net him close to $1,000,000. His guarantee is $450,000 and he will receive 50 percent of all the gate receipts after $1,000,000 has been collected.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

Year's Greatest Feat
"What do you regard as the greatest athletic feat of 1926?" writes a sport enthusiast, who, it seems, would have my opinion on the subject.

When one sees, talks, and writes sports for 265 days of each year, he becomes rather blasé to thrills. Yet, 1926 was so unusual in many respects that it several times caused me to get unduly excited.

I must admit that Gertrude Ederle compelled me to considerable cheering for the fair sex when she swam the English Channel. No doubt many of the experts will rate it as the master sport achievement of the year.

It was unfortunate that so many others should have accomplished the feat after Miss Ederle's successful attempt. It took some of the kick out of the performance.

Channel Was Facile
I am told that swimming the channel is a gamble as much on the weather as on the athletic prowess of the man or woman making the attempt.

I also am told that 1925 was an ideal summer for channel swimming; that never in the history of that body of water has it been quite so docile. However, it would seem that some one must have worn a smooth path through the water, so easily was the channel conquered after Miss Ederle's triumph.

How the swimmers got over is of no great moment. Those who turned the trick and conformed to the rules of sportsmanship are deserving of great credit.

You will recall that some of Miss Ederle's critics insisted she was helped by the tugs that accompanied her across the body of water.

Courage of Sweetest
For sheer courage, the palm must be passed to Jesse Sweetser in winning the British amateur, the first time by an American-born golfer.

Sweetser played through the entire tournament a very sick man. As a matter of fact, he almost ruined his health by his insistence on playing. He is still recuperating as Asheville, N. C., as a result.

Gene Tunney's defeat of Jack Dempsey was a terrific shock rather than a great thrill. I didn't think Tunney had a chance.

The remarkable golfing feats of Bobby Jones must not be overlooked when considering the big sport thrills of 1926. Jones was the outstanding golfer of the year.

While Bill Hiden's defeat at tennis was a surprise, his play had forecasted the possibility of such a happening.

Those Three Homers
When Grover Cleveland Alexander, after working a game on Saturday, was brought back in the final game of the 1926 series, with the bases filled, two out, and his team one run behind, I suffered several attacks of gorse fitch.

When Alexander proceeded to strike out Tony Lazzeri and save the game and the pennant for St. Louis, I was forced to loudly applaud and let out a couple of yells, although I hated to see Tony set down. It was a great feat for a fading veteran.

However, those three home runs that Babe Ruth hit in the 1926 series with the Cardinals constituted, to my way of thinking, the greatest thrill producer of the year.

I still can get a real kick out of the final drive that went into the center field bleachers. No one ever had hit a ball there before. I doubt if any one ever will again.

Well, the least we can do is to hope that MCMXXVII is no worse to use than MCMXXVI.

Weatherford Collegians Win From Ranger

The Texas Rangers were pulled from their saddles Friday night in the first official game of the season by Weatherford College at Weatherford. A large crowd saw the Rangers go down in defeat by the score of 39 to 17. The Rangers were handicapped in a respect of being unaccustomed to playing on a 90 foot court, the Ranger court being only 64 feet. They are offering ro alibis, however, as the Weatherford team plays a return game January 24.

The Junior College will play Randolph here next Friday night. A large crowd is expected to see the game as it has been the looked-for game of the season.

The Ranger College line-up was as follows, at Weatherford: Captain Hamblen, Davenport, Killingsworth, Grubbs, Shipp, Collins and Foote.

HOW TO BECOME A VAMP IN ONE HOUR

Greta Nissen, beautiful stage actress who will be remembered as the siren in "The Wanderer," demonstrates the gentle art in all its branches for one sequence of "The Lucky Lady," which Raoul Walsh directed for Paramount.

In order that the man she is to marry will break their engagement Miss Nissen masquerades as a beautiful coquette of the Monte Carlo casino. In this manner she succeeds in making him fall in love with the coquette and break the engagement to her real self. To do this she resorts to every known feminine tactic since the time of Cleopatra.

"The Lucky Lady" was written especially for Paramount by Robert E. Sherwood and Bertram Bloch. Featured players in the cast are William Collier Jr., Miss Nissen, Lionel Barrymore and Marc MacDermott. It comes to the Connelley on Monday.

BULLDOGS WIN BOTH BIG GAMES

The Ranger Bulldogs made it two straight from the Abilene Eagles when the Bulldogs copped the big end of the score Saturday night and won hands down, 33 to 16. On Friday night, the Bulldogs defeated the Eagles, 18 to 10. Lemley and Taylor starred for the Bulldogs. Taylor was high score man last night again.

The Eagles were unable to solve the bewildering attack of the Bulldogs who seemed to be working like a well oiled clock in passing and at the same time doing as fine piece of guarding as has been seen on this court so far this season.

Ranger Building And Loan Shows Profit for Year

Ranger Building and Loan association, closing its first year's work, is justly proud of its record. Increasing their capital stock from $100,000 to $45,000 is one of its achievements. Paying a ten percent dividend for the year, is another one. Placing $500 in the reserve fund is still another, and last but not least, starting the new year with a surplus of $576 is greatly to its credit. J. H. P. Jones, secretary-treasurer of the association which was chartered in November, 1925, but began its business as of January 1, 1926, has had a number of the semi-annual reports of the association printed which gives a semi-annual statement of the association's business, at close of business December 31, 1926. This statement is certified to by Morris Bendix and B. V. Bollinger auditors, and shows the association to be in a most healthy condition. Through the medium of the association many have bought or improved homes during the past year, and the association has been of inestimable benefit to Ranger citizens. It is rightly called the "Home of Thrift," for no where do dollars grow like they do when invested in building and loan associations.

GEORGE WRIGHT FARM HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

GORMAN, Jan. 8.—The farm home of George Wright, known as the Pompey Wyatt place, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Origin of the fire is unknown as no one was at home. Famous January lines: "Thirty days after date, I, we, or either of us, promise to pay—"

Poultry Raisers Add Another Truck, Business Good

The business of the Bankhead Poultry Raisers' association, which is a marketing concern, had a wonderful growth during the year just passed and promises even more for the year just starting. So much has the business increased that the board of directors, at their regular monthly meeting in Cisco Friday afternoon, were asked to put on an additional truck and driver, which was done. J. B. Chandler, recently appointed manager of the association, is very enthusiastic with the prospects for this year. He is having the very best of co-operation from the directors, officers and individual members of the association.

While the poultry industry is really just beginning in Eastland county, so widely has the County and the Bankhead association become known, that literally dozens of people, either by letter, telegram or in person, make inquiries daily as to the possibilities of getting locations for poultry ranches of various sizes and types in the county. Of course many who make inquiries do not locate in this section, but many of them do with the result that Eastland county is rapidly becoming the home of the poultryman.

"COMB-IDOL" FAD SWEEPS HOLLYWOOD

To Dolores Del Rio, beautiful First National star, who comes to the Connelley Theatre here in "Pals First," goes the credit for the introduction of a new fad that is now sweeping Hollywood. The new fad is called the Comb-Idol and consists of an ornamental head-comb in which are placed miniatures of movie favorites. As many as three or four miniatures may be worn in the comb. The fad originated in Spain and Mexico, according to Miss Del Rio. "In Spain and Mexico," says Dolores, "the girls have many movie idols. They like each other to know who their favorite film stars are. The easiest way is to show them in the large hair combs they wear. The center position in the comb is always reserved for the one to whom the wearer is most partial. That is the favored spot, and the lucky screen hero who has his likeness placed there should know that the owner of the comb holds fond thoughts for him always."

CONCESSION OF BRITISH ATTACKED

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Chinese rioters in Kiukiang, on the Yangtse river, 130 miles southeast of Hankow, smashed down the gates of the British concession there, Sir Percy Phillips cabled the Evening News today, and British sailors went ashore to protect the area. The women and children had been evacuated from Kiukiang before the Chinese attacked it, according to Phillips. He said it was reported that the nationalists intended to seize the concession.

SAFETY DEVICE SIGNALS TRAINS; SHORT RADIO WAVE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A safety device by which signals between trains may be sent by short-length radio waves has been invented in Germany, the department of commerce announced today. Under the new system, each train would be equipped with sending and receiving sets. Warning signals would be sent whenever the train reduces its speed or stands still, by means of a direct connection with the air brake system. Another train following on the same track would receive the signal, its reception automatically reducing the speed as long as the radio warning continued.

Brunks Portray Old Marriage Question Play

Brunk's comedians will open the week in the tent theatre at Olden with the "Marriage Question" tonight. This is one of those heart-stirring true to life dramas that grips its audience from the rise of the curtain in the first act to the drop when finis is written. The drama reflects the life of today and portrays the "Marriage Question" that has never yet been solved. The company has been playing to record breaking houses the past week and expect to duplicate the business this week. The management has obtained some new vaudeville talent that will furnish entertainment between the acts. The plays put on by the company since opening their winter engagement have been clean and wholesome.

YOUNG MATRONS S. S. CLASS MAKES REPORT.

The Young Matrons Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church, taught by Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, while not in anyway totting their own horn, give out the figures below which tell the story of what they have done with funds received from various sources during the year. Inasmuch as the public has contributed to these funds largely, it is only fair that they should know how well these funds have been expended.

$294.50 was their pledge to the Orphans home at Waco. In addition to this amount, a Christmas offering of $55.00 was sent. $30.00 was given on the conference collection and $5.00 on the superannuated fund. The bazaar netted the class $128.13, the general collection was $79.62. The balance of the amount was given personally by members. Then during the year the class had remembered its sick members with flowers and done many other things to bring sunshine into the lives of others.

Ostrich Trimmings Latest Decree of America's Paris

Margaret Morris Wears 'em

Ostrich trimming has appeared again this season and has found immediate favor in the feminine world. The new field of invasion leads to the intimate articles of feminine apparel, namely negligees and lounging robes, which are delicately decorated by this fastidious touch. Ostrich, introduces in novel and effective ways, makes these garments daintier. Simple robes are given a note of elegance by a band about the neck-line. Mules are also gaily trimmed with bits of ostrich trimming and proclaim themselves the latest word in feminine dress.

Dinner frocks and gowns for formal evening wear are also decorated with ostrich. On the simpler gowns this is done by just a touch, perhaps at the shoulder or waist. Many of the more elaborate models, however, are generously trimmed with quantities of either the curled or uncurled variety. Evening wraps are heavily bordered with wide bands of this popular adornment. Odd conceits in bags and fans are consistently in demand and have come to be regarded as an established part of a woman's wardrobe.

These interesting innovations are happily and smartly interpreted in the wardrobe of Margaret Morris, beautiful film star, who is shown wearing a chic evening wrap of hyacinth-colored velvet trimmed in ostrich of the same shade. Miss Morris wears this bewitching creation in her latest picture, "The Magic Garden," an E. B. O. production from the novel of the late Gene Stratton-Porter.

I. A. McCaslin, C. B. Pruett, A. Anderson, C. M. Edwards, J. A. Martin, Walter Cash, H. E. Durrham, he next meeting will be with Mrs. Wilfred Cooze.

MARION TALLEY TO SING IN FORT WORTH.

America's prima donna, Marion Talley, will sing in the auditorium of the First Baptist church, in Fort Worth on January 23, and it is expected that music lovers for miles around the Pantier city will flock there to hear the young Kansas City girl, who stepped into fame in one night of singing.

The rise of Marion Talley from a choir girl in a Kansas City church to a leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House, all without the influence of wealth, is a striking example of American pluck and perseverance. Fresh and unspoiled this naive school girl has staged a triumph equal to that of Jenny Lind and Adeline Patti.

NEWS ITEMS FROM T. C. OF M. AND P. T. A.

The year, 1927, began auspiciously for the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations. Word has been received from the National Summer Round-Up Campaign that a Texas Parent-Teacher association, that of Del Rio, had won first place in the 1926 campaign. The Delinquent, realizing the great possibilities for good in this campaign, offered this year, as last, prizes that amount to $500. $150 of this will go to Del Rio to be used to further the child welfare work in that locality.

The summer round-up of the children is an endeavor on the part of the parent-teacher associations to enter a class of children in first grade as nearly one hundred percent free from remediable physical defects as possible. This entails examinations by competent physicians and then the correction of such defects as may have been found. Some parents, already awake to their responsibility for the physical, mental and spiritual welfare of the children, eagerly welcome the clinic and have defects corrected at once, while others have to be tactfully instructed by parent-teacher association committees and gradually led to assume responsibility along this line. Not only is the child benefited, but the community at large is saved unnecessary expense for many absences are prevented by vaccinating children before school begins, by removing handicaps such as diseased tonsils, adenoids, and other remediable troubles that cause unnecessary delay in the progress of classes. Last year of the hundreds of associations that entered from 35 states, only twenty-five associations from Texas entered the round-up, and Baker school, Austin, was one of the prize winners, taking third place ($100), while this year of the 1285 local associations in 44 states, one hundred associations entered from Texas with the above announced result. Complete records of the standing of the other 99 associations will be available soon and as fourteen associations were on the honor roll as having carried through successfully last year, it is believed that other Texas clubs will receive honorable mention.

A CALL TO THE FAITHFUL

The board of directors of the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs will be called to order at nine o'clock, Tuesday morning, February 8, at the Womens Club, Fort Worth, Texas, by the State President Mrs. J. U. Fields.

A report from the president's counsel, from the finance chairman, and from the director to the general federation, Mrs. Mills, will be submitted.

The official route to the Council meeting in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and plans for the Texas biennial will be formed.

The selection of the city for the convention in 1927 will be made. The plan of work outlined by department chairmen will be submitted, and a conference of state chairmen with district chairmen will be held.

District chairmen are invited by the president to attend this conference meeting.

Those intending to go by train, are urged to secure a receipt, as these will, in all probability, be arranged a rebate.

The Little Theatre of Fort Worth will compliment the visitors with a play Monday evening, February 7, "Anna Shelton Hall," and following the play, the Womens Club will entertain with a reception.

The state chairmen are instructed to bring eight copies of their plans of work, one for each of the district chairmen, and one for the state president.

A BIG OPPORTUNITY

Mrs. D. L. Stephens, program chairman of the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs is greatly interested in the wonderful work of Charles Brandon Booth, of New York City, the National Field Secretary for the Big Brother and Big Sister Federation, who spoke before the T. F. W. C. in Dallas last November, and made such an impression on the convention, that a large number of delegates requested he return to Texas in the near future.

Mrs. Stephens advises that he will come at his own expense for $50.00 an address, much less than his usual fee, but he is giving these terms because he expects to fill a number of engagements here in Texas. This includes also a free lecture for the high school students if desired. He has already been asked to deliver the graduating address for one little city.

This is an unusual opportunity to secure a wonderful speaker at a very small cost.

Mrs. Stephens expresses herself, that he is so dynamic that all the people should be given the opportunity to hear him.

She is putting a lot of work behind the movement as she feels that Mr. Booth and his work is worth much to the state.

Solution Found

By Woman to Aid World War Vets

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A solution for the present inability of many world war veterans to obtain loans from banks on their adjusted compensation certificates, was proposed in a bill introduced into the senate by Representative Edith Rogers, republican, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Rogers' bill amends the bonus laws so as to give authority to the director of veterans' bureaus, to advance loans to veterans who post their certificates as security.

"It is very apparent," Mrs. Rogers said, "that in refusing the loans, the banks do not want this business and I have introduced this bill, which would clarify the situation."

PIANO LOST IN FOG; MUSICIANS CAN'T PLAY

LONDON.—The fog was so thick at Burton-on-Trent that M. Leff Poutishoff, famous Russian pianist, was prevented from giving his scheduled recital in the town hall. The large audience of music lovers heard nothing but the distracted voice of the artist explain that the van carrying his piano to the building had gone astray in the fog and could not be found.

"I am bound by contract not to play on any other make," he said "and I cannot now obtain one of my required make. I am ready to play to you, but alas, your fog is too thick."

What with the rainy days and all, and the ladies going out without umbrellas, water on the knee is becoming very common.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE
To the home of PROF and MOL-LIE ELWELL in Camdenville, Ind., one night in October, 1898, comes MARTHA DALTON, a nurse, bearing a woman who had been traveling Elwell is an artist. He has a son JIM, aged 5. Late that night twin girls are born to the woman who dies without revealing her identity. Her attire indicates she is a person of wealth and refinement. The Elwells adopt the girls.
The story then moves forward 12 years. The twins, now growing to beautiful womanhood, have been named MARGARET and ELIZABETH and nicknamed RUSTY and BETTY.
The United States enters the World War and Jim Elwell enlists with the first and awaits his call. The Elwells get a contract to turn out scenery for two Chicago theatres and Jim writes DICK CANFIELD, a friend, to come to help them.
Canfield comes, helps them turn out the job and after three weeks goes to join an aviation unit. Mobilization now begins in Camdenville.

NOW BEGIN THE STORY
CHAPTER VII
It was early in June when the call was issued to Camdenville's enlisted men.
During the days that followed time didn't just jog along by any means. It flew with a speed that fairly took the breath and gripped the hearts of the Elwell family.
And on the twins fell a sort of tragic calm, as if they had just awakened to the tragedy at hand and were resolved to bear it like the Spartan maidens of old.
The next to the last evening before Jim was to go away found him and Rusty and Betty in the Elwell parlor. Jim was stretched out in his customary pose on the sofa. But Rusty and Betty, both dressed alike in lavender-colored frocks, occupied a big leather chair, Betty half hidden in its depth and Rusty sitting on its cushioned arm.
It was reminiscent of that other evening in June, just a short year ago, when Jim had come in with the Beefsteak dressing on his eye and had demanded music to ease his sufferings.
This was the setting tonight when Prof and Mollie Elwell entered the room as the darkening shadows were falling. But gone was all the happy, joyous spirit of that other June evening. The hearts that then beat in the peaceful breasts of that little assemblage now were gripped with foreboding. In truth, from appearances, it might have been the night after a funeral in the house.

It was Rusty who broke the pall of silence with a low-spoken request. "Oh, sister," she began, with a little catch in her voice that was half a sob, "get your harp, will you, dear, and sing 'When Other Tongues and Other Hearts?' My heart is going to break anyhow, and it might as well break tonight!"
Ordinarily optimistic people, it has been said, can on occasion get a sort of morbid enjoyment out of the most dolorous prospect. Perhaps Rusty was of that nature. And that, perhaps was the reason why Prof Elwell brought Betty's harp from its place in the corner and stood it up in front of her. Probably, like Rusty, he felt that they might as well get the agony over with.
Mollie Elwell, in a darkened corner of the room, was silent, and Jim on his couch was in agony of spirit.
Elizabeth Elwell began to play. Softly, like the breathing tones of fairy music, the low notes of the little prelude to the old song fell on their ears. Then:
"When other tongues and other hearts Their tales of love shall tell, In the language whose excess imparts The power they feel so well; There may, perhaps, in such a scene, Some recollection be Of days that have as happy been, Then you'll remember me, you'll remember, remember me."
A sweet contralto voice died away in a low cadence of drifting melody. Silence fell on the little group. Then suddenly from out of the shadowy forms in lavender came a stifled, tearing sob.
Jim Elwell arose from the sofa and left the room. He walked blindly, feeling his way along out through the kitchen. At the door he paused and lifted his eyes toward the sky. "God!" he said, and then he walked to the woodshed, where he dropped down in a chair in a dark corner and cupped his chin in his hands. He sat there for some minutes, then the sound of a footstep fell on his ear.
It failed to stir him at first, but another sound brought him to his ing up into his and he saw there the light "never seen on land or sea." He read there the old, old story of the things that are—the revelation of life, of nature itself. In their humid depths he saw revealed the great underlying secret, the immortal story of the universe. Jim Elwell was awake at last. He loved and was loved. With a fervent exclamation, he kissed her again and again.

"Dear," he said, "and I was so blind..."
Her arms tightened around his neck. "I love you, Jim. I can't bear to see you go away to war. It will kill me."
He tried to comfort her, tried to tell her that he was coming back safe and sound. "With America in the war, dear, it can't last long. Why—" he laughed bravely—"those fellows will be ready to quit the minute we land in France. You know that, honey. Don't worry. Jim doesn't want you to. It would make him feel badly if he thought you were worrying about him. Be brave sweetheart."

He held her close until her sob-shaken body was still. Thirty minutes later she left him to go into the house. But before she went she had confided to him another secret and given to him the promise he had exacted.
"Yes, Jim," was the answer she made to his question. "I promise. Not until you come back shall anyone except sister learn from me our secret. And if—" her arms tightened around his neck... she was still for a moment... and then went on, fighting bravely to keep her voice from breaking—"if you don't don't come back we'll—she and I—will keep it secret always. But come back, Jim."
He would, he told her, and kissed her hands.
"All right," she whispered. "And now, my big pal—my sweetheart—I'm going in and tell sister."
She was gone, and once more, as she moved from the shade of the trees the moonbeams fell across her lavender frock. Jim Elwell's eyes were brimming.
He turned back into the shadow of the maples. He wanted to think—to be alone for a while—out there in the splendor of the Indiana night where he had found this sweet and wonderful thing, this fragrant rose of love's young dream, that had so suddenly bloomed in his life.

How could it be possible, he thought, that he had gone on all these years without seeing it before? And to discover it on the eve, almost, of his going away, perhaps never to return... The irony of it...
And as he stood there thinking, there came to Jim Elwell remembrance of many little incidents which at the time of their occurrence had seemed of no importance to him.
But now in the light of what he had learned this night he told himself he would rather cut off his right hand than take a chance of his other little pal being hurt. He was fully convinced now that he had done the right thing in exacting the promise.
The three of them would catch the morning train for Chicago... he would telegraph Dick to meet them and—
The voice of his mother broke in on him. She stood just a few feet away.
(To be continued)
Jim can't tell his mother why he can't tell his mother why. Read the next chapter.

Chrysler Brings Out New Fashions In Bodies for 1927

With their new appearance, new smartness, new comfort, new richness of upholstery and fittings, the Chrysler "70" cars now on display at the annual automobile show, apparently will inaugurate distinctly new vogues in automobile body design, judging from the comment of show visitors.

Innovations are evident in all the various body types shown in this model. Even the Chrysler "70" roadster, which was the leader of the revived popularity for the open car when it created a sensation on its original presentation, has its novelties this year in the form of long grained leather upholstery in striking color combinations to harmonize with body colors, the latter also setting a new style in that body color is sued on the running board splash guard. Leather hinged seat backs, which move with the occupants' bodies and add much to riding ease, offer still another novelty in the roadster.

The smart brougham, with its trunk and two door roominess; the fleet new coupe and the two sedans—the gracefully Royal and the Crown—"the finest of the line"—all the closed cars of the new, finer Chrysler "70" model this year present that swager air of snappy alertness conferred by the new military front and cadet visor which has attracted general admiration.

Yet with the striking individuality of the cars, the Chrysler "70" models of this year unite in impressing upon the observer the realization that Chrysler engineers in the body lines of 1927 have achieved the exact mean in size and balance, line and color distribution, comfort and compactness, that art and efficiency could demand.

MUTTON-SLEEVE OF 1900 REVIVED BY BRITISH

By United Press.
LONDON.—Acting on the theory that if shoulders are made broad hips will look slimmer, British fashion designers have dug dusty fashion sheets out of the archives of 1900 and are creating for this winter a new version of the leg-of-mutton sleeve, in vogue at the beginning of this century.

Style shows reveal that the medium length skirt is back again for evening wear. Another revival of fashion of twenty years ago is the wearing of a short cape which falls just below the shoulder blades, a concession, it is intimated, to the chilly ballrooms this autumn consequent upon the local shortage brought about by the mines dispute.

Wichita Falls Preparing For Big Convention

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 8.—W. B. Hamilton, well-known oil man and city builder of Wichita Falls, has been appointed general chairman for the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held here May 16 and 17. Appointment was made by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce with the approval of the West Texas chamber.

Hubert Harrison, secretary of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, is now on route for New York and Washington where he will do work in the interest of the convention. He will visit the headquarters of the National Geographic Magazine and will undertake to interest that national publication in devoting an issue of the magazine to the convention. The great pageant planned, "The Congress of Nations," is considered an event of sufficient importance to attract the attention of the National Geographic society and Mr. Harrison hopes to secure a staff representative and photographer for the event.

Harrison will also confer with members of the cabinet of President Calvin Coolidge and it is expected that one of the cabinet officers will attend the convention. Preliminary steps have been taken to secure a cabinet official and prominent party leaders feel hopeful that a dignitary will respond to the invitation.

R. R. Ellis, head of the West Southern Division of the chamber of commerce of the United States at Memphis, Tennessee, and who is in line for the next presidency of the organization, has already accepted an invitation to be present and speak at the convention, thus assuring the presence of one national figure at the meeting.

King of England May Get a New Title in Future

By United Press.
LONDON.—Although the Imperial conference concluded that the king must have a new title, it will probably be many months before the change becomes legal.

The king's title cannot be changed except by act of parliament, but in this case an act of the British Parliament will not be sufficient. An identical act must be passed by the parliament of every dominion and of the Irish Free State before the new title can become effective.

George V is now King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British dominions beyond the seas. He is to be the king of Great Britain, Ireland and the British dominions Beyond the Seas.

The new title will better suit Ireland, but the very slight modification entails considerable trouble.

JULIA DEBORAH ALEXANDER JOINS INNUMERABLE THROUGH PIONEER WORKER

Mrs. Julia Deborah Alexander, pioneer Eastland county woman and prominent in state and national women's affairs is dead. Death came late Thursday at the home of her niece, Mrs. V. T. Lochhead at East Wilton, Me., where Mrs. Alexander went last summer to attend a family reunion. Funeral services were held in East Wilton Saturday and the body started on its long ride to Cisco, which will require four or five days, to be buried by the side of Mrs. Alexander's husband, the late Jacob Alexander, who died in 1924. The time of the burial will be determined upon the time of the arrival of the body in Cisco. On Nov. 5, while at her niece's home in Maine, Mrs. Alexander suffered an attack of appendicitis as she was preparing to start home to Cisco. An operation was performed in an effort to save her life. For a while it appeared that this would be accomplished as the patient rallied and for weeks showed signs of improvement. A turn for the worse came suddenly, however, and in her weakened condition Mrs. Alexander was unable to hold out longer against death.

Well Known.

Mrs. Alexander was perhaps Cisco's and Eastland county's best known woman. Born in Farmingham, Me., July 23, 1854, she came to Eastland 45 years ago following her marriage to Jacob Alexander at Meridian, Texas, while there on a visit to a cousin. Her marriage took place March 6, 1881.

Immediately following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Alexander came to Eastland where Mr. Alexander opened a general mercantile business, which he conducted for a number of years and moved to Cisco when the Texas & Pacific and Texas Central railroads built into Cisco, making that city what was then the railroad center of this section.

Rebekah Official. For more than 25 years Mrs. Alexander was secretary of the state Rebekah lodge. She also served the Rebekahs as state president. A member of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Alexander devoted much of her time to church and club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander had no children. An adopted son, Clinton Alexander, died in France during the world war. Survivors are three sisters: Mrs. Abbie Tabot, East Wilton, Me.; Mrs. Romantha Gore, Goodland, Kan.; and Mrs. Margie Fogg, Gray, Me.

Road Builders Association Meet In Chicago Monday

By United Press. CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Highway makers from all parts of the world were arriving in Chicago today for the twenty-fifth annual convention of the American Road Builders' association, which opens here Monday for a four-day session. Reservations have been made for 40,000 guests at the gathering and it is expected to be the largest affair ever held by the organization.

Representatives of seven foreign countries will be present. At the Wednesday session delegates from South American countries will discuss their road problems. Papers will also be presented by engineers from other countries in the western hemisphere. Francisco Diaz Local, member of the federal highway commission of Mexico, will preside.

"Governor's Day" will be observed at the opening session. A number of present and past state executives have signified their intention of being present. State engineers and highway officials will be guests of honor at the Thursday meeting.

Road building machinery will be exhibited as a part of the convention. There will also be state exhibitions and a display by the United States bureau of public roads. Other exhibits will be presented by the American Association of State Highway Officials, the highway research board and the department of commerce.

WHEN THE BOYS CAME BACK

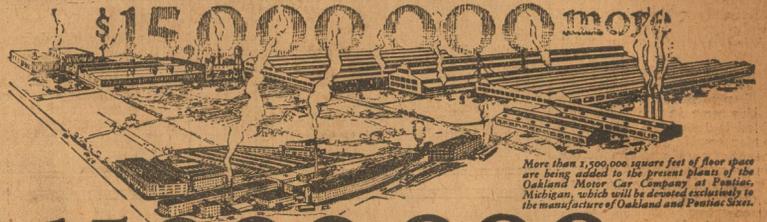

In "Private Izzy Murphy," the Warner picture starring George Jessel, featuring Vera Gordon and Patsy Ruth Miller, and directed by Lloyd Bacon and coming to the Lamb Theatre next Monday for a two days' run, the actual parade of the returning "Old Sixty-Ninth" up Fifth avenue is shown with Jimmie Walker, Governor Smith, Mayor Hylan, William Randolph Hearst and other notables in the reviewing stand. Private Izzy Goldberg had taken the name of "Murphy" for business reasons and when assigned to the Irish regiment he still kept the name, thinking the thorny path might be a bit easier. The boys accepted him as "Private Izzy Murphy," a name which he never disgraced.

His parents come from the Ghetto to witness the big parade, but with broken hearts, for word has come that their boy has been killed in action. Then they see him, proud in his O. D., helmet, gun, hobnails, puttees and all!

It's a hale, heart-winning picture, "Private Izzy Murphy." It is a breeder of tolerance. A story of youth, bravery, love and honor with many a chuckle and an occasional tear, and the inference that it's a pretty good old world after all!

Ford Sterling is to appear with Wallace Beery in "Louie the Fourteenth," Leon Errol's stage hit. Sterling recently signed a new contract with Paramount.

More than 1,500,000 square feet of floor space are being added to the present plants of the Oakland Motor Car Company at Pontiac, Michigan, which will be devoted exclusively to the manufacture of Oakland and Pontiac Sixes.

$15,000,000 more to meet the demand for Oakland and Pontiac Sixes

Scarcely twelve months ago Oakland was only one of many manufacturers striving for preeminence. Today it ranks among the largest builders of motor cars in the world. Responsible for this tremendous growth have been a continuous series of triumphs resulting in a record-breaking 212% increase in business over 1925.

Now, with its position securely established, Oakland-Pontiac bids for new and greater heights—for over fifteen millions of dollars are being invested to provide for greater production.

In the strictest sense, this huge investment represents more than an expression of confidence by General Motors in Oakland principles of design, manufacture and distribution.

It stands as a tangible pledge to the public at large that in fundamental goodness and fundamental value Oakland Six and Pontiac Six will continue supreme in their fields!

Celebrating the Most Significant Record in Motor Car History

When public opinion takes hold of a product like the Chrysler and in three years' time lifts it over the heads of twenty-three other long established cars—from twenty-seventh place in volume in the industry to fourth place—the significance of the act is almost too plain to require analysis.

It can only mean, of course, that people have found in the Chrysler qualities and values they did not find elsewhere. No other explanation is even remotely possible.

In the four great quality car fields, they have preferred Chrysler to long established cars of both lower and higher price, sensing in Chrysler engineering, design, beauty, performance and long life, elements of progressiveness which inspired them to invest in Chrysler products the staggering total of five hundred and thirty millions of dollars ($530,000,000) in three years' time.

It is an inspiring tribute of public confidence—one which fills Walter P. Chrysler and his organization with a deep and serious sense of responsibility for the future.

It is their determination so rigidly to apply the Chrysler principle of Standardized Quality that fourth place in the industry will be merely a temporary stopping place—a momentary pause on the way to the higher place they will earnestly try to deserve in public esteem.

ANNUAL APPEAL FOR ARMY WILL OPEN JAN. 17

Committee Expects To Raise $3,500 in Week To Support Activities

The Salvation Army annual appeal in Ranger will start on January 17 and end on January 22, according to plans made Friday when members of the advisory board met with H. N. Sapp, campaign manager from divisional headquarters, at a splendid luncheon at the Gholson Hotel.

$3,500 was the amount set for the appeal proper, but the total budget for Ranger for 1927 is $4,959.81, and it is estimated that this amount will be made up during the year from various sources.

The chamber of commerce will be headquarters for appeal officers but larger meetings of the board will be held at the Gholson through courtesy of the management.

Officers.
A. F. Hartman was unanimously elected president of the advisory board and also chairman of the 1927 appeal.

Judge L. R. Pearson's election as vice president was also unanimous as was the re-election of Housewright as secretary and treasurer.

Advance gifts committee appointed by the president are: L. R. Pearson, Rev. H. B. Johnson, B. A. Tunnell, John M. Gholson, S. A. Lillard, Jr., Walter Murray, Hall Walker, J. C. Smith, Dr. Harry Logsdon, J. T. Killingsworth and Ed Maher.

Publicity committee consists of H. N. Sapp, C. C. Paterson, Chopie Welsch and Mrs. Rena B. Campbell, chairman.

Woman's chairman of the appeal will be Mrs. John M. Gholson who served in the same capacity last year. Mrs. Gholson will appoint her own aides during the week.

Items Explained.
Mr. Sapp explained the items on the budget and went into detail in regard to the work done here during the past year, setting forth that Captain Tom Gano had had to live on less than $11 a week the past year, and out of this had to pay for uniform, food and other incidentals. The local work in its relation to state work was also explained, the work of the maternity home was gone into, the cost of issuing the War Cry explained.

Preparations.
The week beginning today will be spent in getting ready for the whirlwind campaign of Appeal Week. Mr. Sapp will remain in the city and aid wherever his aid is needed. The president and various chairmen will line up their committees, the advance gift committee will line up their donations, so that nothing will interfere with the work of the appeal.

Advisory board for 1927 consists of: John M. Gholson, Mrs. John M. Gholson, M. E. Hazaman, A. F. Hartman, R. F. Holloway, W. C. Hickey, W. W. Housewright, Rev. H. B. Johnson, J. T. Killingsworth, S. Pontiac Engines Are Converted To Use In Boats

A decided tribute has been paid the Pontiac Six engine in its conversion to marine use by the Gray Marine Motor company, Detroit, Mich.

Specially converted Pontiac motors are being sold to the Gray Marine Motor company less manifold, transmission, carburetor, distributor and clutch, as these parts must be replaced by specially designed parts essential to marine usage.

The Pontiac Six engine was selected because it made a particularly efficient power plant for motor boat use. Marine engines must be heavily constructed throughout—capable of running at top speed for long periods of time. Oiling systems must be full force feed, bearings, crankshafts and cylinder parts must be of heavy, durable construction so as to withstand the intense heat and terrific vibration encountered in such use. It is because the Pontiac Six engine fulfilled these requirements that it was adopted for marine use.

Burglars Loot Tailoring Shop Get $500 in Stuff

More than $500 worth of clothing, consisting of men's suit and women's dresses, were taken from the shop of the Bills Tailoring company in Eastland, Thursday night. The burglars entered the building from the rear, where they broke in the door.

It is believed that the thieves took all that they had the means to carry as several new suits of men's clothes that had never been worn, were not taken.

It is believed that those responsible for the Bills burglary are members of a gang of thieves that have been working for some time throughout the oil belt. Only a few weeks ago four business houses in Eastland were entered on the same night and more than $3,000 worth of goods stolen. Officers recovered a part of these goods, but have been unable to apprehend any of the guilty parties.

WANT CUSTOMS BARRIERS TORN DOWN IN EUROPE

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
GENEVA.—The Inter-Parliamentary Union, composed of official representatives of the parliaments of thirty-five of the leading nations of the world is the latest organization to throw its weight behind the movement for the breaking down of European customs barriers and the building up of "The United Economic States of Europe."

The central bureau of the Inter-Parliamentary Union which has its headquarters at Geneva has just announced that the next congress of the union, to be held in August, will be devoted largely to this question. In the meantime questionnaires have been sent out to all of the parliamentary groups affiliated with the Union for a thorough study with the preparation of the question for this year's discussion.

Free Trade
The action of Inter-Parliamentary Union, following the recent free trade manifest, the corresponding declaration of the International Chamber of Commerce and the convention and agenda of the League's International Economic Conference for this year, means that virtually every great international organization and force in Europe is now behind the movement for creating a single European economic block, similar to that of the United States of America.

The question, it is now generally recognized, has become the most urgent and paramount one in Europe, far exceeding in importance that of military and naval disarmament.

In its manifesto in favor of the movement, the Inter-Parliamentary Union goes a step further than some of the other organizations in declaring its convictions that the League of Nations constitutes the best instrument and organization for the attainment of this end.

Political
According to the thesis adopted by the Inter-Parliamentary Union the obstacles in the way of greater commercial freedom are political rather than economic and it is for this reason that the Union is convinced the League of Nations constitutes the best means for overcoming these difficulties.

Political thought, the Union declares, which is always slow in evolution, has yet to be won over to a general acceptance of the idea of greater freedom in trade and of the commercial interdependence of the modern world. The Union will join with the League of Nations in the effort to educate the political leaders up to this necessity.

The world-wide inquiry which the Union has instituted in preparation for this Congress aims first to ascertain a clearer vision of the general trend of opinion in political circles on the subject. It has already ascertained that as far as international commercial and economic circles is concerned opinion is virtually unanimous for the breaking down of the trade barriers that will enable Europe to attain an economic unity.

Convinced
The Union is convinced that two fundamental principles must first be universally accepted before any real progress can be made. The first of these is the recognition of economic solidarity between nations and the second is the necessity of stabilizing currencies.

Sivalls Opens Branch House In Rising Star

On account of the growth of its business, Sivalls Motor company finds it necessary to expand and has opened up a new house in Rising Star. This gives them complete sales and service in three oil belt towns, Ranger, Cisco and Rising Star, with headquarters at Ranger.

Fred Cook of Rising Star will manage the new branch house. Jack Sivalls, president of the corporation, Don C. Sivalls is vice president, and W. B. Wallace is secretary and treasurer. The company has grown rapidly in the past year and contributes its success to service, fair dealing and the popularity of the Buick car.

Jack Muirhead is now in charge of the Ranger service department. He is a most capable man and has had a long experience with Buick cars. The mechanics have been employed to assist him with a view of giving the satisfactory and efficient service that Sivalls Motor company has always stressed.

what there must be brought about the abolition of import and export restrictions, the simplification of customs formalities and the general ratification of the Barcelona transit conventions. In all of these fields the League of Nations is already working. Finally, there will be the problem of compensating the treasuries for the loss of revenue resulting from the suppression of customs.

Experiments Show Elastic Qualities Found in Concrete

By United Press.
FRESNO, Cal.—Big dam construction may be revolutionized as a result of experiments just completed in the mountains east of Fresno, and proving, it is believed, that concrete has twice the elasticity generally supposed.

The experiments, conducted by government experts and members of the Engineering Foundation of New York, involved the construction of a dam for the sole purpose of breaking it down.

The experiments are concluded, the concrete is exhausted, the dam many feet higher than was originally intended, still stands, and the engineers have returned to New York to study their data. Behind the dam is impounded almost twice as much water as the engineers believed it could resist.

"The experts are amazed at the result of their investigations," said L. J. Moore, president of the Fresno chapter, American Association of Engineers. "From all reports they have found the elasticity of concrete to be about twice as great as previously estimated."

It is expected that as a result of these findings, engineers in figuring construction of dams will be enabled to make great reductions in the amounts of concrete and thus offset the saving of millions of dollars.

1000 Deported By Facists As Undesirables

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
ROME.—More than 1,000 persons were deported from Italy during the first six weeks of the operation of the police code, which was adopted after the last attempt was made to murder Premier Mussolini. Under the new regulations the police powers have been greatly extended and anybody considered dangerous to the welfare of the Fascist may be punished, either by deportation or otherwise.

Underlying the laws is what is now considered the fundamental doctrine of Fascism, namely that every person in the country from the highest to the lowest, is a servant of the state rather than an individual ruled by a government. The code, considered Minister Federzoni's contribution to the Fascist system.

The principle regulations of the new code are those regarding "dangerous persons," the carrying of arms, public meetings, licenses for armorers, registration of all guns and revolvers, fireworks, control of printing establishments, betting, control of private detective agencies and commercial agencies, alcoholism, drug-taking, beggars, public subscriptions and charities.

Two of the most important provisions of the new law regard the issue of "identity cards" and the notice restriction of domicile, whereby suspected persons can be ordered to live in a certain district and forbidden to move out of it.

Three days notice must be given to the police before any public meeting can be held, and it cannot take place without the permission of the police.

Even private collections of antique arms must be declared to the police and a permit to keep them obtained. Commercial travelers of armory houses, and even peddlers selling knives for domestic or agricultural purposes must have special licenses which are to be renewed every year.

Kills His Teacher Who Orders Him To Cut His Hair

By United Press.
WARSAW.—Because his professor demanded that he cut his hair, Jaroslaff Lampin, 18, student in a local commercial school, shot the instructor dead and then killed himself.

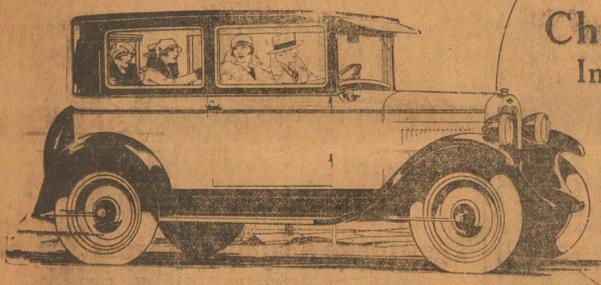

Lampin was so proud of his hair that he let it grow long. The professor suspended him for two weeks because he refused to have it cut. When the two weeks were up the youth returned to school with a revolver in his pocket. The professor again ordered him to leave and to remain away until his hair was cut. Rather than part with his hair Lampin shot the professor and then himself.
