WATER COURSES IN WEST TEXAS HAVE RUN DRY

Many Streams Now Arid Except After Rain Ran Bank Full

BY W. HAMILTON WRIGHT, Times Staff Correspondent. ABILENE, June 11.—"Before this country was tilled many of the streams which now are dry except after a rain ran copiously," declared W. T. Clarke, pioneer, now in the hardware business here.

"A phenomenon was that some of the streams which did not run throughout the year began suddenly to flow good streams as soon as the long summer with its torrid weather had passed," continued Mr. Clarke. "It was not uncommon forty years ago on Elm creek, near Buffalo Gap, to find the stream practically dry save for deep holes well into the summer, but about Sept. 1, they would begin to increase their flow and gradually increase until the latter part of the winter."

"Why Elm creek used to be one of the best fishing streams in this country. Water trickled from the hills and ran into the deep holes in which schools of fish were easy to begeth with hook and bait." "Uncle Tom, as he is familiarly called in Abilene, explained that in those days when rain fell it percolated through the gravel beds and reappeared as springs along the small water courses of the Abilene country. Since the country has been settled and the plow has filled almost all of the arable lands the rains that come leave their waters in the porous, spongy soils preventing its running into the gravel beds and becoming springs.

FORT WORTH MARVELS AT MYSTERY HOUSE

Fashionable Home Cluttered With Tin Cans and Potato Peelings Upstairs and Down.

FORT WORTH, June 11.—Potato peelings in the bathroom, tin cans in the parlor, milk bottles scattered throughout the house. That was what health and police authorities discovered Friday in a sumptuously furnished house in the center of the fashionable Hemphill street residence section.

Two women, the wife and daughter of a cattleman, formerly wealthy, lived in the house, and though the neighbors said they had not been out for three years nor seen a light in the house for that period, there were drawers and cedar chests filled with silk dresses and expensive furs. In one of the upstairs baths was found in a large pile of potato peelings. On an upper gallery were a large number of small chickens in a coop and two canary birds with plenty of food in cages.

630 BUSINESS MEN PROTEST TAX ON TRUCKS

Sign Petition Demanding Repeal of Bill Considered Hardship on Interests.

Six hundred and thirty business men of Ranger and Eastland county, through petitions, have demanded that the senate bill 101, known as the "truck tax bill," be repealed. Fifteen other petitions are being circulated and it is thought that probably 2,000 persons in this county will demand that the law be repealed in toto. The law, which becomes effective in July, places a tax on motor trucks of from one to eight cents a mile and the correct mileage in each county the truck travels must be kept by the driver. Every oil company in this field is interested in the fight, as well as bankers and business men. The headquarters of the Continental Supply company in St. Louis instructed its local office to do everything it could to have the law repealed and Reese Blizard, local manager, has been instrumental in getting many of the petitions into circulation. The Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company has also been leaders in the fight.

Text of Petition. The petition sent out by Mr. Blizard reads: Ranger, Texas, June 7, 1921. To the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Texas. We, the undersigned resident citizens and tax payers of Eastland county, Texas, do hereby petition you to forthwith bring about and cause the repeal of Senate Bill No. 101, commonly known as the Truck Tax or License Law.

This bill, if permitted to stand, practically puts this section of the state on the bum and is an outrage, and destroys one of the strong and necessary industries, not only of this section, but of the entire state of Texas. We ask and demand the repeal of this law in toto.

A letter from Joe Burkett to Mr. Blizard states that he is in favor of repealing the law until it will place a reasonable mileage tax on four and five-ton trucks only, and if this cannot be done then he was in favor of repealing the law altogether. Many indignants. Throughout the state it is said indignation is running high because of the unreasonableness of the measure, and it is also said that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the Texas chamber will join forces to gain its repeal at the special session of the legislature this summer.

It is estimated by truck owners that if the measure is allowed to stand, it will force a burden of not less than $2000 a year on all five-ton trucks and proportionate burdens on trucks of lesser capacity. Among other things it is certain that concerns operating even a small fleet of trucks must maintain an auditing department for the sole purpose of seeing that the state receives its proper mileage.

The measure provides a fine for drivers of trucks who do not keep each mile traveled in each county separately. This is to be done through a register furnished by the state. This burden would also fall on truck owners. The object of the law is to provide a fund for the upkeep of roads.

KIZZIAR'S BINGLE IN TENTH GIVES GAME TO ABILENE, 6 TO 5

Both Teams Smack Freely and Are Generous With Bobbles.

Special to the Times.

ABILENE, Texas, June 11.—It was a hefty battle, that matinee staged on the local lot Friday afternoon, and up to the time that Kizziar smacked the leather for a cafe blow and brought in Hollis for the run that broke the tie and won the entertainment in the tenth, it was just anybody's game. Hollis, lead-off, singled and when Comstock hit to Etz, who appeared in the Nitro line-up here for the first time, messed up Comstock's knock, the big Eagle hurler went to second. White smashed a high fly to Hamilton in right. Bechtol, who played the entire game for the first time in several weeks, swatted the leather an awful wallop, sending it almost up against the flagpole, upon which the 1920 title pennant was flowing to the breeze, and Singleton made the stellar catch of the day when he ran about a mile and grabbed the ball over his shoulder. With two down, Kizziar cracked the second one over and Hollis came scampering home with the bacon.

Water Hot.

Time and again Hollis was in hot water and the big Jones county hurler came near booting his own game away. The Nitros took the lead easily in the second, when Lovelace walked, York went to first when Lewis and Hollis tangled in his slow one down the third base line. Etz advanced Lovelace and York when he was thrown out at first by White. Allen bunted, scoring Lovelace. Adkins sacrificed and York scored when Kizziar heaved it wild to catch him at the plate. Clapp followed with a single that brought in Allen and went out trying to steal second.

The Eagles counted for one in the second on a double, chalked up another in the fourth, and tied the count in the fifth on a combination of two singles, and two errors by Tate.

Big Sixth.

The Nitros took the lead in their half of the sixth only to lose it when the locals came to bat. Tate led off with a single to left and went to second when Hollis heaved it wild of the plate. Lovelace was safe when Hollis booted it, and when York hit to Hollis, he booted it and Tate scored. The ball rolled past first and White chased it down and threw Lovelace out at the plate, the Nitro right grandener in the interim having been speeding around the sacks. Etz was thrown out at first by Hollis, and York too third. Allen binged to right and brought in York, Adkins retiring the side when he whiffed. A triple by Milam, who came home when York hurled wild to third trying to cut him off at that station, the three-ple knock also bringing in Kizziar who had walked, tied the count again.

The Nitros threatened in the seventh when Murphy and Singleton binged, but Hollis was successful in holding the other knocks to the infield. Two Nitros got on in the ninth when they fell on Hollis for two safeties but could not count, and in the tenth York was the sole Nitro to get on as the result of a single, but went out trying to steal second, Lewis to White.

Pennant day was observed here today, and the postman given the Abilene club by the league for annexing the title last season from Ranger, was raised at the park with appropriate ceremony. The largest crowd of the season saw Friday's game. Clapp was chased from the game in the seventh when he threw his bat into the diamond. Lovey moved over to left and Red Hill went to right. Red gave way to Hamilton in the ninth.

Many lives and much property are lost every year because of accidents due to venereal diseases, says the U. S. Public Health Service. So great in fact are these losses that the National Safety Council has issued a bulletin on them. For instance, four serious recent railway wrecks were traced to employees who failed because they were suffering from paresis, which is a form of syphilis.

These are hard days for Georges Carpentier, the French champion, for he has started real fighting and training for the big engagement with Dempsey. He is here shown mixing it up with Paul Journee, the French heavyweight, at his training camp in Manhasset, L. I.

NEW SHORTSTOP

Who and what this new shortstop is, will be known tomorrow when the Nitros return home. Etz is his name, which is short and to the point and fits well in "doubled-up" box scores. Manager Allen has not said whether he is intended as a permanent acquisition, or put in to fill an emergency. He has not said where he came from or what his record is. He has not said what happened to Hamilton. He has not said whether the new Nitro uses the long or short "E" in pronouncing his name. In other words, he said nothing. However, here's hoping Mr. Etz etz 'em up.

BABE GETS 17TH HOMER IN GAME WITH CLEVELAND

NEW YORK, June 10.—Babe Ruth made his seventeenth home run today in the third inning of the Yankees' game with Cleveland. There was none on bases.

Babe's 1920 record caught up with him on June 2. That is to say, on that date he had slowed up in home run hitting until he had no more this season than he had last. June 2 of 1920 was a big day for Ruth, for he made three homers in a double header that day. Since Ruth has now failed to keep up with his 1920 record those bugs who bet he would make seventy-five homers this year are keeping very still. Babe's failure to do better may be due to the fact that he has to sit up nights "writing" those articles that a newspaper syndicate is sending out under his signature.

BRONCS BEAT SCOUTS IN 11TH; FIVE STRAIGHT

Special to the Times.

SAN ANGELO, June 10.—Manager Robinson's Texas leaguer into right field, scoring Williamson, who had tripled in the eleventh inning with one out, gave an Angelo a 2 to 1 victory over Cisco today. Weber, though wild, walking eight men, was invincible in the pinches, fanning fourteen Scouts and allowing only two hits. Both were by King, whose triple in the third following Philpot's walk and Flagg's sacrifice tallied Cisco's only run. Manager Flagg kicked when called out at first and was put out of the park, where he viewed the stubborn fight of his disorganized club from a boxcar roof. Singles by Conkrite, Lewis and Weber tied the count in the seventh. King opened the eighth with a double but was nabbed trying to stretch it into a triple. Cruse allowed ten scattered hits for fifteen bases. Today's game was the first extra inning affair here and was the Broncs' fifth straight win.

LOOT MAILS IN BOOTLEGGING FRAUD, CHARGE

"Higher-Ups" May Be Involved in Operations of Giant Liquor Ring.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The story of one of the biggest and most successful bootlegging plots unearthed since federal prohibition went into effect was revealed yesterday when two men were held in jail by United States Commissioner Samuel M. Hitchcock. The daring of these plotters far exceeds any exposed in the past, as their operations reached into the main postoffice of this city where the mails are alleged to have been tampered with and letters placed in the hands of the plotters bearing upon the removal of liquor from distilleries and bonded warehouses throughout the country.

The letters were addressed to Chas. R. O'Connor, federal director of prohibition for New York state, and were alleged to have been taken out of the mails through the bribery of a postal clerk, whose name has not been made public, owing to the fact that he may give important information.

The communications were from distillers and wholesale liquor firms scattered throughout the East making inquiries as to the genuineness of withdrawal permits calling for the removal of unlimited quantities of whisky to be sold for medicinal purposes as required by law. The permits bore the forged signature of Mr. O'Connor, who retired from office last week.

Trapped in Postoffice. John Bonifore, alias George Burns, and Thomas Malone, alias Harry Brown, were arrested yesterday morning in the general postoffice in Eighth avenue by Mr. Reilly and three other inspectors just after Bonifore had pocketed four special delivery letters addressed to the prohibition director from distillers in Pennsylvania for which he had signed after they had been handed him by the clerk involved.

Arrest of "Higher-Ups" Hinted. Assistant Federal District Attorney David V. Cahill, who has charge of the case, hinted that other arrests will take place within a few days, followed by sensational developments which may involve men well known in public and political life of the city and state.

CHICAGO DETECTIVE ROBBED IN HOME TOWN

By International News Service. KENOSHA, Wis., June 10.—W. Scott Johnson, for forty years a Chicago detective, declares that Kenosha pickpockets have been guilty of "lese majesty." Johnson visited a cousin here. Ten minutes after he stepped off the train he discovered his wallet, containing $500, had been taken from an inside coat pocket. He had never been robbed in Chicago. Now Johnson is "gunning" for pickpockets.

FUEL SHORTAGE STOPS TORREON'S STREET CARS

TORREON, Coahuila, Mex., June 10.—Torreon is without electric lights and street car service for the first time in many years on account of the shortage of fuel. Seven cars of fuel are said to be enroute to the light and power company, but the railroads are unable to deliver it. Electric cars between Torreon and Gomez Palacio and Lerdo are being operated by the Gomez Palacio plant which still has a considerable supply of fuel.

GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS SENTENCED AT LEIPZIG

A remarkable photograph of the interior of the supreme court at Leipzig, made during the examination of a German ex-noncommissioned officer, Karl Heynen, alleged to have been guilty of cruelty to British prisoners at Recklinghausen Camp Westphalia. The defendant, Heynen, is standing in the center. This is one of the first photographs to reach this country picturing incidents in connection with the trials of German war criminals at Leipzig.

SQUARE-RIGGED WINDJAMMERS WILL NOT STAGE A 'COME-BACK'

Of late there have been here and there some "pieces in the paper" about the widespread return of the sailing ship. It is true that, although the smoke trail has almost hidden the canvas cloud, the latter has never totally vanished. But now, some people are hazarding the clipper is going to replace the fuel-driven voyager, or largely so, because the price of coal and oil has soared higher than the tallest funnels and because sea labor is demanding a formidable wage scale.

Now if you propound this prediction to an American sea captain he will meet you with a smile on his mouth and a question in his eye. His eye question regards whether he is confronting a marine (but no offense is intended to the marines), and his smile is a courteous form of an assured negative.

If the automatic is going to be abandoned for the revolver, the rifle for the smoothbore, the automobile for the horse, the plane for the balloon, then—but no sooner—the mechanical ship is going to retire before the square-rigger and windjammer.

Good for Coasters. In certain special circumstances, whose conjunction is infrequent, sailing vessels have their advantage. In these exceptional conditions they have held their own, perhaps always will. As a coaster carrying cargo with regular schedule delivery, such as lumber, the schooner is very available. So is the square-rigger for an offshore voyage without an exacting time limit, like a ship loaded with agricultural implements and miscellaneous machinery from New York to Argentina. But in general these or any sail craft will never supersede oil or coal propelled steamers.

Such is the undivided verdict in the Neptune association on Park row. And its members are people who know whereon they pronounce. For American master mariners are not only the ablest of merchant seamen, they are keen, clear minds in all outlooks from their profession, of which maritime economics is one.

The Skippers Talk. "High labor driving owners to sailing ships for the smaller crews?" said one. "That's ridiculous. Why, he labor costs only 7 per cent of steam operation."

"And admitting that coal does cost like other diamonds," said another, "what about your auxiliary and donkey engines on sail vessels? In the same proportion that you mechanize the handling of their canvas, to save man-power, you have got to pack 'em with oil tanks or coal bunkers from the engines, till they might as well be steamers out and out. So you hardly save on fuel, and you've still got a slower and uncertain ship."

"Right there," put in the first captain, "is one of the principal considerations. Most cargoes have to be delivered on time. By steam they can be—by sail it is a gamble. Here is an illustration: once I sailed from England in a full-rigged ship and we made our Australian port in seventy days; but immediate conditions vary with every voyage, and another ship which had sailed before us—and she was as fast a craft—reached the same port later than we, 120 days from her leaving England. Merchants can't venture most cargoes on such uncertain deliveries. Even if a cargo is not perishable it is often expected, sometimes contracted for, by a stated date, which a steam carrier can keep."

Hard Work to Find Sailormen. "Then," a third captain offered, "don't be misled about any easy get-arrangement simply breaks the huge schooner sails into two. The lower sail has the usual boom and stretches up to a midway gaff—this spar becoming the boom of the upper half-sail, which is surmounted by an up-holding gaff of its own. The captains clustered over the diagram with great interest, pronouncing this foreign proposal intelligent, though not new among seamen.

"What are the names," asked Mr. Globular, "of these long schooners' masts?" "On a six-sticker, the yare the foremast, the main, and the mizzen, as immemorially established, followed by the jiggermast, the driver, and the spanker."

Another amended: "With seven masts, we have a pusher between the driver and the spanker." So numerous have been the requests from charitable institutions for hand-karchofs from Mrs. Harding, wife of the president, that she has been compelled to lay in large stocks in order to supply the demand.

The captains all laughed, or shook their heads, at the idea. "Well, what is the best rig, gentlemen, in those unusual conditions where the sail ship is profitable?" "For the long ocean voyage, the square-rigger," from Captain Two. "She is broader than the slim fore-and-aft, and best for the great variety of long-run experiences."

"A schooner is the thing for coasting," said Captain Three. "Of course," his first colleague assented. "Yet I believe I'd combine the two rigs. I think a barkentine—square-rigged forward and fore-and-aft on the main and mizzen—can negotiate both coast and off shore business better than any other figure under sail."

Most of the group concurred in this, though some moderately considered the barkentine discussible as the best all-round rig. Incidentally, all of them love the sail ship, merely valuing steamers for their practical convenience, such as up and doing landmen love horse-flesh and somewhat despise the automobile.

The caller showed a Scotch or Scandinavian design which has been suggested to reduce the over-heaviness of the fore-and-aft sails. This

L. W. W. RADICAL WHO LED MOB INTO CHURCH IS NOW A COLLEGE 'GRAD'

Frank Tannenbaum Goes Through Columbia With High Honors—Served Time for Radical Activities During War. Headed Revolt Against Prison Warden.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Frank Tannenbaum, radical, L. W. W., reformed and leader of a mob of unemployed which invaded the Roman Catholic church of St. Alphonsus in the early spring of 1914, was one of the graduates at Columbia university this week. He not only graduated, but did so with high honors in several subjects, among them history and economics.

Tannenbaum sprang into the limelight when at the head of the mob he entered St. Alphonsus's and, in reply to a query by the Rev. J. G. Schneider, demanded food, clothing and shelter for his "army." His request refused, Tannenbaum ordered his followers to remain where they were. After a long trial, in which numerous witnesses were heard, Tannenbaum, upon being fined $500 and sentenced to a year's imprisonment, delivered a scathing arraignment of the judge, jury, district attorney, and police. Tannenbaum was released after serving about a year on Blackwell's Island. His fine had been remitted. Friends and followers gathered at the pier to give a demonstration in his honor, but the proposed welcome-back party was broken up by the police. Shortly after being committed to the island, Tannenbaum headed a miniature "revolt" against Warden Hayes, but after solitary confinement for a day or two promised to "be good." He came in for more notoriety in April, 1915, when he interrupted a speech by Thomas Mott Osborne at Cooper Union with a recital of fifteen charges against Blackwell's Island. Later Tannenbaum had himself admitted to Sing Sing for a week to study conditions there. The former prisoner entered Columbia in 1916 and worked his way through the university, taking great interest in economics and history. Although he had not more than five years of schooling before entering college, hard "plugging," combined with ability to grasp things quickly, enabled to go through Columbia with honor. On entering college Tannenbaum stated that he wished to gain a foundation for future radical work. Efforts to find him today to discover whether his theories have changed in the course of his four years of study were fruitless.

EL PASO, Texas.—El Paso has passed what is known among the citizens as the "cow act." The ordinance provides that a family within the city limits cannot keep more than one cow, that the pen must be twenty feet from the neighbor's house and must not be within seventy-five feet of a hospital, restaurant or bakery. The same rule applies to chickens.

"SOULLESS CORPORATION" USES PSYCHOLOGY TO PROTECT ITS GRASS

"Please," when uttered by a child or a pretty woman has an irresistible appeal. But it has been found to be just as appealing even in cold, painted letters.

The Hamon railroad has planted the space around its office to grass, leaving only an open space to its office. No signs flout their own demand that the public "keep off the grass. Someone is far too subtle for that. Along the edge of the lawn are well painted signs bearing only one word—"Please." Just that and nothing more.

It is thought that it would be a careless individual indeed who could resist that appeal.

OIL MEN UP IN ARMS AGAINST HARDING PLAN

President Transferred Naval Petroleum Reserves to Secretary of Interior.

By BASCOM N. TIMMONS, Times Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A first step in the action of President Harding in transferring to executive order the administration of all naval petroleum reserves from the secretary of the navy to the secretary of interior, was predicted here today.

Oklahoma oil men are lined up on both sides of the question and ugly charges have been made. The first step in the case was taken today when James Beller, Washington attorney, representing oil men, sent a letter of protest to President Harding.

The Beller letter was looked upon only as the kick off with the real action to come later. One of the charges being made is that F. J. McMurray, of McAlester, Okla., a personal friend of Secretary Fall and a representative of the Midway Oil company, had several years of effort crowned with success by getting the case into the interior department where his chance of getting a favorable decision on an old claim is good.

Beller in his letter asserted that President Harding exceeded his authority in making the transfer and cited the naval appropriation act, approved June 4, 1920, directing the secretary of navy to take possession of all property within the naval reserves. Beller asked the President whether he did not think his action was "in contravention of the act."

Injunction Planned.

It also became known that C. J. Wrightman of Tulsa is considering the advisability of instituting injunction proceedings to prevent the transfer of the reserves to the navy department.

The McMurray claim, which by the transfer, comes under the interior department, involves 473 acres of land in naval petroleum reserve No. 1 in Kern county, Calif. It was selected by Secretaries of Interior Lane and Payne and by Secretary of Navy Daniels.

After the claim had been decided in favor of the government the secretary of the navy on April 15 advised for bids for drilling twenty-two offset wells on the border of the reserve to prevent the loss of approximately 30,000 barrels of oil daily which was being drawn out by adjacent leaseholders.

Something like fifty bids were submitted together with bonds for $10,000 for drilling the wells but they were never opened. The secretary of interior in the proceeding argued upon secretary of navy the three denied claims of the Midway Oil Land company.

Harding's Authority.

According to Beller's letter to the president, the secretary of the navy then asked the attorney general for an opinion as to whether or not the authority of the president under the oil land leasing act was limited to twelve months, ending Feb. 21, 1921, whereupon Secretary Fall objected to the attorney general giving any opinion in the matter.

As the result of the objection, the latter set forth the request of the navy department was referred to the White House to decide whether or not the attorney general should render an opinion.

"In the meantime," the letter stated, "I am advised, negotiations were undertaken looking to the transfer of the administration of the naval reserves from the navy department to the interior department, and that, as the result of these negotiations, an executive order issued by you on the 31st of May, transferring to the interior department jurisdiction over the naval petroleum reserves."

The present stockholders of the United Midway Oil Land company are California business men but the bidders for drilling the twenty-two offset wells, included a number of Oklahoma oil operators.

SOLDIER DIGS WITH SPADE, FILLS WITH SPOON AS PUNISHMENT

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, June 10.—A Texas soldier, arrested yesterday for accosting a girl on the street, today began digging a deep trench at Fair Park, where his troop is awaiting orders to move to the annual encampment of the Texas national guard near Austin.

When the trench is finished the soldier will begin putting the dirt back into the hole with a tablespoon. The punishment was designated by Capt. E. W. Spradley, commander of the troops.

MOSLAH OFFICIALS HERE. J. E. Scott of Cleburne and D. W. Brownson of Fort Worth were guests of W. R. Jarvis and James Davenport last night. The two were on their way home from Breckenridge, where they had aided in the organization of a Shrine club. Mr. Scott is ceremonial master of Moslah temple and Mr. Brownson is editor of the temple's magazine.

STUDEBAKER MANAGER HERE. H. M. Russell, branch manager for Texas of the Studebaker company, was here Saturday with officials of the Oilbelt Motor company. This was Mr. Russell's first trip to the oil fields and he and Mr. Newnham visited the Frankel pool during the afternoon.

Mr. Russell has just returned from the company's annual meeting at South Bend, Ind., and says it was the unanimous opinion of business men that conditions are improving all over the country. The Ranger district, he added, is now comparatively better off than most other sections of the country.

WORLD'S BIGGEST AIRSHIP GARAGE NOW BEING BUILT IN NEW JERSEY

First Well Gives Frtm 1,000 to 1,500 Barrels a Day—Tremendous Rush for Leases Follows the Discovery—Area Seems a Proven Field.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 9.—America's first great terminal for giant airships is nearing completion at Lakehurst, N. J.

This structure, the largest of its kind on earth, is 803 feet long, 264 feet wide, and 195 feet high. Some idea of its immense size may be gleaned from the fact that if set down in a city the hangar would occupy three solid blocks. Its doors at each end stand more than 175 feet high and are 264 feet wide. A 16-story skyscraper could be pushed through the space disclosed by the doors when they are opened.

The hangar is officially known as the United States Navy Airship hangar, and represents the latest word in construction for buildings of this type. It is planned to have it ready in the early summer to house the two giant dirigibles now under construction, the Z-R-1 building at League Island navy yard, Philadelphia, and the Z-R-2, nearing completion in England. The trans-Atlantic flight of the latter is scheduled for late in July or early in August and the United States navy department plans to have the hangar completed for service before the airships are ready to sail.

Incidental to the hangar is a gigantic mooring mast to which great dirigibles may be tied when it is impracticable to house them inside the hangar. The mast is so constructed that the giants of the air will be moored, how on, and will swing in the direction of the wind, thus avoiding the dangerous force exerted by high winds. The result of experiments with the Lakehurst mooring mast will determine the policy of the navy department in erecting similar mooring masts at various air stations throughout the country, such as St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago, Denver, San Francisco, Seattle, New Orleans, Atlanta, Columbus, O., and San Diego.

The new airships nearing completion are of such large proportions, each being 700 feet long and 85 feet in diameter, as large as many of the great ocean liners, that the manner of "docking" them presented serious problems in engineering, but it is believed that the Lakehurst hangar will go far toward solving many of these problems.

Huge Steel Doors. First in importance came the question of doors to the hangar. Each leaf of the two doors, there being two leaves to a door, is made of 800 tons of steel and corrugated asbestos. These leaves are supported on concrete trucks which in turn rest on wheels the size of those on a freight car. The leaves are rolled apart by

 "The Taste Will Tell"

TRENTON, TEX., DISOWNS BOY WANDERER IN STRICKEN EUROPE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—One American small "boy," his only known name being "Mike," is waiting at Liege, Belgium, for the huge machinery of the United States government to find a home for him. He was found with worn clothes and without money on a road near the city last January and told the American consul he had lived in Trenton, Texas, but was sent on a cattle ship by an older brother because he had fought with another boy.

"Mike" traveled to Paris with cowboys from the ship, the consul's report to the state department said, and fell asleep at a table in a cafe while the cowboys went out "to see the town." They never came back and Paris gendarmes turned "Mike" over to the American army of occupation on the Rhine as a mascot.

An order forbidding mascots deprived "Mike" of that refuge. He trudged away to Belgium as an international waif.

Now Trenton, Texas, has disowned him. The consul wrote the postmaster there, who said the young traveler was unknown.

SIX NEGROES WIN STAY OF EXECUTION

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 10.—Last minute efforts to block a writ of habeas corpus preventing the execution today of six negroes for complicity in the 1919 Elaine race riots were frustrated early today by the Arkansas supreme court.

The supreme court upheld the temporarily injunction granted yesterday by J. E. Martineau of the Pulaski county chancery court. The habeas corpus proceeding which brought the injunction alleges the condemned negroes did not obtain a fair trial at Helena inasmuch as race prejudice was the dominating factor in the trial.

ADMINISTRATOR OF HAMON ESTATE TO VISIT RANGER

Frank L. Ketch, administrator for the Jake Hamon estate, was scheduled to arrive in Ranger Saturday afternoon to look after business matters.

J. P. GREIN INJURED.

J. P. Grein, an employe of W. R. Fleming, was painfully bruised yesterday afternoon when run down by an automobile at the corner of Elm and Austin. While not seriously injured, Mr. Grein will be laid up for several days.

"MAYOR" NEW YORK'S CHINATOWN "RECALLED" AFTER BIG SWINDLE

NEW YORK, June 10.—Chinatown's mayor is out of a job, Charley Boston, for 6 years unofficial burgomaster of the strange polygon bounded by Doyers and Pell streets and Park Row, has been recalled. And all on account of the liberation of China.

When China recently underwent a new birth of freedom the local Chinese decided, in their patriotic fervor, to forget Lichee nuts and chicken chow mein, and to hold a state banquet. With the great seal of Charley Boston's Restaurant, chop suey joint de luxe, was engaged for the function and five slick young Celestials, homesick for Canton and T'sien Tsin, collected the modest sum of $50 per plate from 200 compatriots eager for a feast of sheep's eyes and bird's nest soup. Whereupon they decamped to China with the proceeds and the banquet didn't come off.

And when his irate "constituents" demanded an explanation the "mayor" could make no answer but "search me," or its Chinese equivalent.

Indignation waxed high, meetings were held and Charley Boston returned to private life. So low is his estate that he didn't even go on the On Leong Tong's annual excursion to Bear Mountain. He couldn't be in closer retirement if he had been mentioned in a divorce case.

Ten years ago such an occurrence would have started a bloody Tong war. Today nothing but loud words comes of it, and the barber of Chinese merchandise goes on unabated while tourists from the hinter side of the Alleghenies continue to fatten the purses of the curio dealers. "They're too busy selling souvenirs and making money to be bothered," declared Acting Detective Sergeant

Snydecker, of the Chinatown precinct. "The biggest thrill a Chinaman gets nowadays is when his little girl comes home from school with three As on her card. Once in a while he takes a flyer at fan-tan, but that's all. Times have changed."

FORT WORTH WILL BE MADE PORT OF ENTRY

FORT WORTH, June 11.—The bill designating Fort Worth a customs port of entry passed the senate Friday afternoon, according to dispatches received from Washington by the Fort Worth chamber of commerce Friday.

With the signature of President Harding the bill becomes a law, after which a customs collector's office will be established here by the United States treasury department.

CHARGES HUSBAND RAN CAR OVER HER FOOT

CHICAGO, June 10.—Something new in the way of connubial cruelties was offered by Mrs. Louise L. Allen in bringing suit for divorce from Ray Allen, a steamship captain.

Mrs. Allen charged her husband had run his automobile over her feet in a "fit of cruelty." The automobile was a Ford, and the incident happened in Des Moines, she said.

Last Christmas, Mrs. Allen said, her husband gave her a series of slaps for Christmas presents in return for gifts she had given him. She won a decree.

TEXAS LEADS ALL STATES IN CATTLE HERDS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With a total of 6,249,443 cattle of both the dairy and beef type on its farms, Texas leads all other cattle states in the total number of cattle by more than a million. Ranking next to the Lone Star state is Iowa, which has, roughly, 4,500,000 cattle. These figures were shown today in a statement released by the bureau of the census.

Texas has 4,767,572 head of cattle raised mainly for their beef, and 1,481,871 head of cattle raised for their dairy products. These figures make Texas far and away the most important cattle raising state in the country.

Texas' beef cattle are made up as follows: Calves under one year, 906,738; heifers under two years old and more than a year old, 400,737; cows and heifers, two years old and over, 2,198,525; steers, two years old and over, 692,764; steers, one year old and under two years, 444,320; bulls, one year old and over, 125,476.

The Lone Star's dairy cattle are listed: Calves, under one year, 439,456; heifers, one year old and under two years, 109,028; cows and heifers, two years old and over, 844,545; bulls, one year old and over, 28,482.

In 1910 Texas had 6,934,586 cattle on its farms, showing a slight decrease in the 1920 census.

If treated promptly by reliable doctors or at clinics, venereal diseases can be cured, says the U. S. Public Health Service. Patent medicines bought without competent advice often do great harm. The same is true of the work of most doctors who advertise that they cure "mens" diseases.

YEGGS FRIGHTENED IN ATTEMPT TO ROB EXPRESS COMPANY

What is believed to have been an attempt to rob the American Express office on Marston street was frustrated last night.

A service car driver, stopping at the alley entrance about 1:30 o'clock, was challenged by three men, all of whom were armed, he said. "Beat it," one said. "Hold him," the other two ordered. But the driver was on his way. He promptly phoned for officers, but when Deputy Constable John Barnes and policemen arrived, no one was in sight. However, the sliding door opening on an alley were battered up as if with a jimmy, and it seems certain that an attempt at entry was prevented only by the yeggmen being surprised.

TRYING TO "PLACE" ROBBERS THROUGH HOTEL REGISTER

TOLEDO, June 10.—The register of the Hotel McAlpin, New York, will be an important bit of evidence in the trial of the Toledo million dollar post-office robbery suspects, which starts Monday in federal court.

It is alleged that Harry Fisher, who has pleaded guilty to conspiracy in connection with the robbery; Harry Oppenheimer and Jacob Cohen used the McAlpin as their headquarters in negotiating in New York for the sale of $280,000 worth of the Liberty bonds stolen in the Toledo robbery.

LUBBOCK, Texas.—An additional motor unit has been installed in the municipal light and water plant of Lubbock, at a cost of about $17,500. The plant now has four units, totaling 200 horsepower.

Some people say that sanitation doesn't pay. Well, it doesn't pay doctors and grave-diggers, says the U. S. Public Health Service. Be sanitary; seek health before you need it.

MINERS IN ILLINOIS ESCAPE FROM FIRE IN SHAFT OF COAL MINE

PERU, Ill., June 10.—Six hundred miners at work in a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad mine at Mark, ten miles south of here, when fire started half a mile from the shaft shortly before noon, are believed to have escaped through emergency shafts.

The state rescue crew has sealed the burning tunnel.

Whether all the men have escaped will not be known until company officials check the rescued with the payroll lists, James Steel, superintendent, announced.

The rescue crew made one attempt to enter the tunnel but was unable to get within half a mile of the fire.

The inspections numbered 799. Twenty-one pleas of guilty were entered and $932.45 in fines collected. In one city 22,000 pounds of damaged foodstuffs were destroyed.

AZOA (Rat Virus) A Scientific Means of Destroying RATS, MICE and FIELD MICE. One pair of rats may not do much damage, but they will increase by breeding to 890 rats in one year. You can easily understand that the amount of damage they will do to food, stuffs, grain and buildings would cost a large amount of money if they are not killed. Poisons kill only the rats that eat it, but AZOA gives the rat a fatal disease which spreads to other rats and kills off the whole brood. This disease makes them seek air and water, and they do not die in the building. It does not harm persons, poultry, or any animals, except rats and mice. It is very easy to use, and we will be glad to mail you, free of charge, circulars giving you full information, also letters from people who have used it. FOR SALE BY OIL CITY PHARMACY.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

MR. RANGERITE: If the church house doors should be closed in Ranger today for all time, would you immediately decide to make this your permanent home? If you are a man with a family, would you want to keep your wife and children here under such conditions? There are many people in the city who never go to church. There are yet others who go so seldom they are at a loss to know how to act in church because of changing customs. There are others who are commonly called irregular attendants. And, then we have the class upon whom we may always rely. Check up in your circle of acquaintances. Who among them have the best businesses and best homes? Who make the best citizens? The church people or the non-church people? View the facts and start the upward trend. Go to Church Sunday. J. W. MCKINNEY, Minister Church of Christ.
