

HOOVER SEES NO GOOD IN NORRIS BILL

Favors Support of Cotton-Sugar Crops But Not to Supply Europe.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Secretary Hoover today told a senate committee efforts are being made by the administration to mobilize banking credits for carrying over surpluses of the country's cotton and sugar crops. He said the object is to prevent forced liquidation of these commodities. The plan is identical with that which was carried out in the cattle industry.

Hoover was called upon to give his views on the Norris bill to create a $100,000,000 government farm export corporation. He told the committee he does not favor this measure.

"I don't want to appear to deprecate any proposal intended to assist the agricultural industry," he told the committee. "Because the situation today, which has reduced the purchasing power of the American farmer 67 per cent, has put him in the most serious duress agriculture has ever had to face. The situation is most acute and dangerous in the country at the present moment. Yet I cannot feel that extension of further credit facilities for the supply of food products to Europe would give any adequate remedy."

Gompers, "Grand Old Man of Labor," Wins Over Lewis of Miners' Union and Heads Labor Federation for His Fortieth Term

DENVER, June 25.—Sam Gompers, overcoming bitter opposition, was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor for his fortieth term.

The veteran labor leader won over John L. Lewis of the coal miners' union who put up a strenuous fight for leadership.

Lewis was unable to overcome the handicap of the strong sentimental hold which Gompers obtained on the labor movement by nearly two score years of administration.

The vote was taken amid dramatic scenes in the auditorium. The galleries were packed with supporters of both factions. The floor of the convention hall was crowded with spectators. Delegates applauded every vote as it was announced.

It was the first time that Gompers has been strenuously opposed since 1894 when he was defeated for the presidency by another miner. Gompers won the position back the next year, however.

SIMS DOESN'T FEEL "PUT OUT" BY REPRIMAND

Admiral Hasn't Changed His Mind About Sinn Fein, He's Sure.

By A. L. BRADFORD.
United Press Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Rear Admiral Sims regards as the incident his public reprimand by secretary of the navy Denby for his now famous "jackass" speech in London, it was indicated today.

Sims' reaction was described by close personal friends as follows: He has no intention of resigning from the navy because of anger at the official rebuke.

He is not bothered in the least at the reprimand, nor does he feel "squashed."

He is sorry that he embarrassed the administration, but he still feels the same about Great Britain and the Sinn Fein as he stated in his speech, despite the reprimand.

Admiral Sims has left for Newport, R. I., where he will resume his station as president of the war college.

WON'T PUSH PROBE.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Acting Chairman Denby of the senate naval committee said today that in view of the reprimand administered by Denby, the senate naval committee probably will not conduct an independent investigation of the London speech of the admiral.

The inquiry committee was proposed in a resolution by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, Democrat, adopted recently.

CONGRESS IS WRANGLING OVER PROGRAM

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The legislative record of the special session of Congress is now in the balance, congressmen admitted today.

The fate of many pieces of important legislation is uncertain, and unless a change of sentiment occurs, more wrangling and new delays will develop, it was indicated.

"I am unalterably opposed to this plan," Chairman Fordney of the House ways and means committee said. "Nearly three months have been devoted to the framing of the tariff bill, and it would be a big mistake to cast it aside now. I feel sure such action will not be made."

WOMAN TELLS HOW SHE SLEW HER STEPSON

By United Press.
CARLINVILLE, Ill., June 25.—Under the grilling cross examination of McCoupin county authorities and clasp her 14 months old baby tightly to her breast, Mrs. Katherine Harmon early this morning sobbed out the story of how she had killed her 10-year-old stepson, Roy Harmon.

She killed Harmon by striking him three times over the head with an axe, Mrs. Harmon said, during an argument Sunday morning over an assault he had committed upon her the previous night.

Mrs. Harmon and her husband quarreled often, according to the testimony of neighbors, and the murdered man's father left home two weeks ago. Mrs. Harmon declared in her confession that young Harmon returned home Saturday night, crazed with liquor, broke into her room, beat and assaulted her and threatened to kill her if she told his father of the assault.

Sunday morning she buried the body near her home but dug it up Wednesday and threw it into the farm well.

Mrs. Harmon went to Gallistie, Montana, and mailed a letter to the boy's grandmother saying he had been kidnapped and was being held for ransom. She then scrubbed the kitchen with lye until her hands were burned to remove the gruesome stains.

FATHER, MOTHER, TWO BABIES TO BE BURIED TODAY

Victims of Gas Explosion Will Sleep in Adjoining Graves at Evergreen.

A family, mother, father, son and baby daughter, all of whom died from the effects of the gas explosion fire on the Caddo road Wednesday morning, will be buried this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Evergreen cemetery. The Rev. W. H. Johnson will preach the service. One by one and without the knowledge of the other, the family have died on succeeding days since the fire. The baby, Katherine, died Wednesday. The son, Everett, died Thursday. The father, Oliver Laurence, gave up the fight Friday afternoon, and this morning at 8 o'clock the mother went to join her babies.

It was planned to bury the boy and the girl yesterday afternoon, but because of the death of the father it was postponed until today. With the death of the mother it was decided to hold a single funeral service for all.

Side by side, brother and sister will be buried, and near them their mother and father will find their last resting place.

Unusual Case.
This is the first time in the memory of citizens and at least one newspaper man whose memory runs far back that an entire family was buried at the same time. It is remembered that families have been wiped out by disaster but in those cases they were buried one by one.

In dying, Oliver Laurence, the father, reached a height few men can reach. He had a choice. He could have saved himself when he lit the match that fired the gas-filled tent in which he was living. With those with whom he had lived and whom he had brought into the world and loved, he chose to die. His efforts saved his wife and babies from being charred and blackened in the flaming tent. They are dead, but not because of any failure of duty on the part of Oliver Laurence. His body with scarcely an inch free from burns mutely but eloquently testifies to that.

At 5:30 o'clock the funeral cortege will leave for Ford Undertaking company's establishment where the bodies are being held.

UNCLE SAM IS PLANNING TO 'FIND' STORMS

GALVESTON, Texas, June 25.—Uncle Sam is not going to let any more tropical storms get into the Gulf coast without his before-hand knowledge, according to plans now being formulated. An observation net, with additional stations along the coast and co-operation of ships between Galveston and Tampico in reporting on-coming storms, will be the method of "finding" the storm before it reaches the coast, as outlined by E. H. Bowie, weather bureau supervisor, today.

All ships will be in flashing whereabouts of any storm that may be "lost" in the wide expanse of the Gulf.

The proposed plan will serve to keep residents of the coast country in closer touch with the threatened storm, Bowie said.

SOUTH BEND WILL GET RAIL CONNECTION BY END OF MONTH

SOUTH BEND, June 25.—Chief Engineer H. F. McFarland believes in action and he is rushing work on the new railroad bridge across the Brazos. Cement has been poured in the coffer-dam and the pile driver has driven piles from the south shore into the stream toward the main structure and it is quite probable that trains will run by June 27. It will only require about two days' time to lay the rails from the bridge to the town of South Bend.

"Yes, we will run a construction train into South Bend on the morning of the 23rd," said Capt. McFarland today. "And your towns people are at liberty to complete arrangements for the celebration on July 1 and 2 a.s. railroad days."

Great preparations are being made by the company for the Railroad day's celebration and the first train will arrive in South Bend at noon on July 1.

Race Is Close Between Lewis and Present Incumbent for Leadership.

By JOHN L. O'SULLIVAN.
United Press Correspondent.
DENVER, June 25.—The "show-down" staged for leadership in the American Federation of Labor came today at the end of a tense two weeks campaign. With nerves on edge from a sleepless night, given to campaigning, delegates started a red gathering early for the vote on officials of the organization.

There is a close race for the presidency between Samuel Gompers and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

The federation, after a stormy debate, lasting until early today, went on record condemning the third international, the Soviet Russian labor organization. The convention practically unanimously endorsed the executive committee's report, disapproving of Bolshevik Russia, but expressing sympathy with the Russian people, and declaring also that they soon will have an organization through which American workers can co-operate with the Russian toilers.

The debate was marked by a tilt between Gompers and D. C. Short, representing the telegraphers' union of Chicago.

Short, unable to get the floor to speak in favor of a milder declaration, accused Gompers of "machine rule." Gompers shouted that Short must withdraw that remark, or face charges. After a moment of hesitation, Short withdrew the statement.

Woman's Last-Minute Marriage to Avoid Testifying Against Husband Fails to Save Him From Conviction for Murder

By United Press.
LUBBOCK, Texas, June 25.—Mrs. Mary Cates will have to wait fourteen years for her honeymoon.

Her husband, Sam Cates, whom she married fifteen minutes before she was called to appear as the prosecution's star witness in his trial for murder, was found guilty of killing Judge Burton, of Crosbyton, and sentenced to fourteen years by a jury here last night.

The jury deliberated for eighteen hours.

Although stunned by the blow, the newly married couple at once made plans for their attorneys to appeal the case, and get bond for Cates, pending action on the appeal, which would mean a honeymoon.

Judge Burton was killed in 1920. Sam Cates was charged with the murder, and sentenced to ninety-nine years imprisonment at the first trial. The court of appeals ordered a new trial, which was started last Wednesday.

Married Him Quick.
Mrs. Cates, nee Mary Steffins, was considered the state's star witness at the first trial. A few minutes before she was called to testify at the second trial, she gained admittance to an ante-room adjoining the court room, where Cates was being held. They were married by Justice Smith. When she was called to the stand, a dramatic pause ensued, until she said, "I am Mrs. Cates."

A wife cannot testify against her husband. Her testimony was therefore ruled out. It was believed her action would result in an acquittal for Cates at the time.

Today Mrs. Cates, who is only twenty-two, is leading the fight for her husband's release on an appeal. She is allowed to see him only when a deputy sheriff accompanies her to the cell. Cates is also twenty-two.

SOLDIER BILL HITS A SNAG IN SENATE

Leaders Say Action on Measure May Be Delayed Several Months.

By FRAZER EDWARDS.
United Press Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Unexpected obstacles to the veterans' adjusted compensation bill have arisen, which senate leaders declared today may delay passage of the measure for several months. Republican leaders were reticent in discussing the change in the legislative program. Several senators simply said it was indeed unwise to push the legislation at this time.

Settlement of the refunding of the allied war debts to this country is said to be one of the obstacles in the way of the so-called bonus bill.

It is expected by Senator McComber, of North Dakota, who is handling the bill in the senate, and other advocates, that funds for paying the veterans' compensation, would not begin until after July, 1922, would be derived from interest on the foreign loan.

The unexpected attack of Senator Borah on the bonus bill is also said to have some bearing on the change in plans. If the bill were passed at this time, leaders fear that continued attacks might do much to make the legislation unpopular with the country.

While the president has taken no definite position on the legislation, he is said to favor the plan of compensating the war veterans.

TEXAS HEIRESS IN PARIS SAID TO BE MISSING

By United Press.
PARIS, June 25.—Frances Quinn Belaris, reputed to be a young Texas heiress, has mysteriously disappeared with her three-weeks-old baby, it was learned today.

The Paris police yesterday visited the Hotel Bristol, trying to trace her husband, Austin Belaris, a British aviator. Paris newspapers assert that Mrs. Belaris suddenly left the hospital Monday with her baby, ostensibly in reply to a telephone call from her husband. He later went there to see her, and was overcome at her disappearance.

The mother of the heiress, Mrs. Florence Quinn, who had opposed the match, had left for New York several days before the girl's disappearance. The press hinted that the girl fled on the advice of her mother.

LET'S HAVE ROADS.

One thing the baseball boosters' trip did. It served notice on all who made it that if Ranger expects visitors from other towns, it must have roads. Over "in Texas," folk think nothing of running into Forth Worth and Dallas or Waco or Austin to see a show or attend a festivity. A little trip of fifty miles or so for that purpose means nothing, provided the road is smooth and one can roll along.

But who would do it in the oil fields. In the first place, that fifty miles would require nearer five hours than it would an hour and a half, and there would be no pleasurable sensation of restful smoothness and the exhilaration that comes from movement.

Theoretically, these things will come in time with the completion of Eastland county's highway system which is said to be under construction.

But how about the immediate needs of the next two or three years. Desdemona and DeLeon are only about twenty-five and thirty-five miles from Ranger. Dublin and Gorman are about the same distance. Thurber and Strawn are even less and so are Eastland, Cisco and other towns. Yet mountain ranges and grand canyons and other obstacles would not isolate Ranger much more than present roads do. No one travels except on business and not on that if it can be helped.

That kind of roads mean stagnation, not alone to Ranger but to other towns. And it is stagnation due simply to lack of work. The present road system does not interfere with the building of the paved highways. Dirt roads can be kept in good smooth shape by working. Let's have these roads manieured or find out why it is not done—and then see that it is done, anyway.

Ranger must have roads. Ranger is entitled to roads.

TINKER BOB STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB.

"RAP, RAP, RAP, WHO'S THERE?"

Tinker Bob decided to wait a while before he made himself known to Jack, the Rabbit, and Chief Porky. They didn't know that the King was anywhere about. And you must understand that Redwing is not like Jerry, the Jay bird, for Redwing can keep his tongue quiet, which is very hard for Jerry to do. So neither of these forest dwellers knew that the King was near.

Jack the Rabbit, waited a long time in the hole of Willie Chuck. Then when he heard Redwing singing so sweetly again he knew that Red Fox had gone. He could depend on Red "Rap, rap, rap," came the sound. It ka-ree" he knew that the danger was over, and he crept slowly out.

But before he thrust his head out of the hole he heard a hammering sound which caused him to hesitate. "Rap, rap, rap," came the sound. It was on the tree right above him. "Rap, rap, rap," the sound came again. He knew it was not Red Fox but was not quite sure just who it was. He decided however, that one peep would do no harm, and he thrust his nose out of the hole and raised one ear to see if he might hear more clearly. "Rap, rap, rap," it was the same as before. Then he ventured out a little farther only to see Chief Porky looking up into the tree.

He was startled at first for he didn't know that the Forest Chief was about. "Is it you making so much noise pounding on this tree?" Chief Porky was also astonished to see Jack, the Rabbit. "I was just going to ask if it was you when I saw you peek out of the hole."

"Rap, rap, rap," came the sound more distinct than ever. "It must be the Chuck himself who is making that noise," said the Chief. "No, it isn't him, for I was all over his house and there is no one at home.

Chief Porky was also astonished to see Jack, the Rabbit.

Anyway his home is under the tree and not up in it." Jack stretched his neck but could not locate the sound. "I'll find out who it is," said Chief Porky, and he started up the tree. When he was half way to the first limb there was a small head popped out of a hole in the crotch. "There he is," cried Jack. "It's Hammer the Flicker. My goodness, Hammer, you startled me with that rapping of yours."

Then Mr. Flicker came out of the house he was preparing. "Hello, Jack," said he, "What are you doing here?"

"Nothing," replied Jack. "But I want to know what you are doing?" "I'm fixing up this old house of mine," answered Hammer. "It wasn't quite deep enough."

Then he suddenly spied Chief Porky on the side of the tree. (To be continued)

RANGER ROTARIANS TO HAVE BASKET PICNIC ON "GLORIOUS FOURTH"

Ranger Rotarians and their families will celebrate the Fourth of July with a basket picnic, to be held at one of the beauty spots of the surrounding country, yet to be selected. That was decided at Friday's luncheon, and H. S. Cole, Ralph Stockman, Jelks F. Castellaw and O. D. Dillingham were appointed as the committee in charge.

Cars will assemble at the Chamber of Commerce on the day of the picnic. A fat and lean baseball game, races and games for the women and children will be included in the program of the day.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 25.—Eleven of thirteen defendants in Toledo's million-dollar postoffice robbery were convicted by a federal jury here today. The sentence in each case will be deferred until the trials on other indictments are completed. This will be between August 1 and 15.

FROG SHOWER!

GIBRALTAR, June 25.—During a thunderstorm here recently a shower of frogs fell on the North Front. Thousands of these small hopping creatures were to be seen in the hedges and aroused much curiosity. Seven years ago a similar phenomenon occurred and later a shower of sand covered everything with a pink deposit.

Holes in the street are warnings against more holes. So are holes in the graveyard. Repairs in time will delay both.

CHANCE FOR SETTLING BRITISH STRIKE SEEN

LONDON, June 25.—Both striking coal miners and mine owners have accepted the invitation today of Prime Minister Lloyd George to confer with him at the Board of Trade Monday, with a view to endeavoring to reach a settlement of the coal strike, which has been in progress almost three months.

GERMAN HORSE RACES CALLED HUGE FRAUD

BERLIN, June 24.—Horse races in Germany generally were honest affairs before the war, but scandals are the rule nowadays. Typical of the rest were the recent Carlsruhe races, under the auspices of the Strausberg Racing society, which so arranged matters as to keep not only all the purses but also the amounts of the totalization and registration fees.

Four horses ran in the so-called Frederdorff race. When the jockeys had galloped over more than three-quarters of the distance they began trotting, so that the first horse arrived at the starting point seven and one-half minutes after the agreed maximum time.

AFRAID OF A LION? NO, NOT THIS WOMAN

TURIN, Italy, June 24.—An Italian film concern sent a cage containing six lions from Turin to Pallone, Scared by a tractor plough, the horses ran away and the truck with the cage was hurled against a tree and overturned. The cage rolled down a slope beside the road and the lions escaped.

Five of the six beasts were soon recaptured by tamers, but of the sixth lion no trace was found until the searching party was attracted to a farm house by a loud and indignant

TOGGERY TO STAY

"The Toggery" ad in Friday's paper carried the statement that, "The Toggery will not be here much longer." This is in error, as it is not the intention of the proprietors to leave and the statement should have read, "The Toggery WILL be here much longer."

feminine voice. The tamers went back of the house and laughed.

A peasant woman was belaboring the sixth lion with an umbrella, cursing the "yellow dog" which had killed a hog. The woman was paid 350 lire damages and the "hands" of the moving picture concern fed on roasted pork for three days.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

MR. RANGERITE: If the church house doors should be closed in Ranger today for all time, would you immediately decide to make this your permanent home? If you are a man with a family, would you want to keep your wife and children here under such conditions?

There are many people in the city who never go to church. There are yet others who go so seldom they are at a loss to know how to act in church because of changing customs. There are others who are commonly called irregular attendants. And, then we have the class upon whom we may always rely.

Check up in your circle of acquaintances. Who among them have the best businesses and best homes? Who make the best citizens? The church people or the non-church people? View the facts and start the upward trend. Go to Church Sunday.

ALLEN'S HOMER IN NINTH GIVES GAME TO NITROS

Final Score 9 to 8, After Saw Battle and "Crime Wave."

BALLINGER, June 25.—Dumb work cost Ballinger Friday's game with the Nitros by a score of 9 to 8. Ranger registered first in the initial inning on hits by York and Singleton. Tate's walk and Knight's error, Ballinger retaliated in the last half with a home run by King.

Ranger scored another in the third when Clapp doubled and was advanced on York's and Singleton's outs and scored on White's error. Ballinger went crazy in the fourth and allowed the Nitros to bat around and over, scoring four runs. Lovelace was out, pitcher to first; Robertson walked, Allen singled, Hill was out, pitcher to first, and Clapp walked, filling the bases. York singled, scoring Robertson. Briscoe, King and Fuller held a debate over Singleton's fly ball of second, allowing it to fall between them while Allen scored. King and Fuller renewed the argument when Tate popped back of second and Clapp and York scored. Hamilton walked and Lovelace flew out to right.

The Bears got four back in the fifth on a double by White, Robertson's error, and singles by Fuller and Briscoe, coupled with King's squeeze. Ranger made it 8 to 5 in the seventh on a two-ply blow by Lovelace, a single by Robertson, Allen's sacrifice and Hill's single. Ballinger tied the score in their half of the seventh on Robertson's second error, a double by Briscoe, King's single, sacrifice by Brown and Penn and Burch's single. Ends "Crime."

Allen waddled up to the plate in the first half of the ninth with two down, and having decided that enough crime had been committed for one afternoon, smashed Edgar's first offering over the right-field fence. Ballinger offered to tie in their half but the rally was too short lived.

EAGLES AND SWATTERS SPLIT MUTT AND JEFF DOUBLE-HEADER BILL

Sweetwater, Texas, June 25.—Sweetwater and Abilene divided a double-header here Friday, the visitors winning the first game, 11 to 8, in thirteen hard-fought innings, and the locals taking the second game, a five-inning affair, when Timmie Thrash hit a home run with two on bases. The final score was 5 to 1.

NITROS HOME SUNDAY, WILL PLAY SWATTERS

The Nitros will be home again tomorrow, opening a four-day series with Sweetwater which will have an important bearing on that team's chances for the first-half flag. After that, San Angelo comes for a three-day series, also "crucial" so far as the Brones are concerned.

If the Nitros' expected new talent arrives, it is quite likely that there will be some interesting pastime and the two series will be indeed "crucial" so far as the hopes of these two teams go.

BRONCS OUTSLUG ORPHANS IN SECOND GAME AT BROWNWOOD

BROWNWOOD, June 25.—Another large score game between the Brones and the Orphans went to the league leaders Friday, 19 to 13. A rough playing field and short fences added to the scoring. Weber, pitching behind a ten-run lead acquired in the early innings, went all the way through but Cruse gave way to Earnshaw, who held the Brones fairly close after the fourth. The Orphans, though short of pitchers and overworked, kept up their pep.

Score by innings: San Angelo 282 131 101-19 Orphans 011 038 000-18 Batteries: Weber and Kelly; Cruse, Earnshaw and Lyall.

BUSINESS MEN WIN TWO; DENY QUANTITY OF SCORE AT CADDO

The Business Men in two games this week have turned in a 1,000 per cent average, beating the T. & P. Railroaders Thursday, 7 to 3, and turning back the "Red Devils," a new team headed by Jels F. Castellaw, 18 to 9 in a game played yesterday. Feature of the fray was a running-rolling catch made by Fred Hodge, so 'tis said.

The Business Men also enter an official denial that they got beat at Caddo last Sunday by any such score as 41 to 5. It was only 24 to 3, they say.

GIRL SAYS ATTACKER THREATENED TO "CUT OFF HEAD IF SHE TOLD"

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 25.—Louis Kokos, 37 years old, threatened to "cut off my head, if I told," a 9-year-old girl testified in police court here at the examining trial of Kokos, a local restaurant keeper, charged with having attacked her when in his place of business June 5. Kokos was held to the grand jury without bail. Kokos is alleged to have invited the child into his place of business to look at cats and dogs in the rear yard. She testified that she escaped through a rear window of the store when a customer entered.

FIVE NEGRESSES FACE CHARGES OF ROBBERY

ELKS DISPORT THEMSELVES AT SHAMROCK

Elks and future Elks to the estimated number of 250 foregathered last night at Shamrock park to eat and make merry. They did both. The food was all food could possibly be and those who were not merry had the safety valve on their laugh chests. Visitors were present from many out-of-town points. The food consisted of barbecue, cheese, pickles, onions, bread and almost beer that flowed from a keg and somehow brought up sweet memories of the days that are fast receding into dim and distant mirages. Onions were there for those brave and fearless men who face irate wives with calm and dignified courage.

To many the meal recalled the Elks. One man present said that he had taken an oath that never again would he line up with plate and cup in hand to secure his slum but the smell of that barbecue broke down all resistance. He just had to have some of it and the only method was to follow the army style as everyone else was doing.

Torture Begins. After the feast the candidates—poor suckers—were led into the torture room which in this case was the dance hall at the park. They were given the regular Elk work and then the fun began. It lasted until the sad hour of twelve—sad for those furnishing the merriment. Nelson Hemman, dressed in tunic and trousers, that his efforts might not be hampered, was the major-domo. His methods of inflicting torture were both original and sufficiently subtle to forever promote him to head ax-man in the Elks.

Much of the regalia of the lodge was moved out to the park for the occasion and never since the opening of the lodge rooms has such an elaborate program been attempted.
