

HEADLESS AND NUDE BODIES OF WOMEN FOUND

Horrible Crime Unearthed at Jonesboro, Ark., Baffles Authorities.

JONESBORO, Ark., July 21.—The mystery surrounding the murder of an unidentified woman and girl about 11 years old, whose nude and headless bodies were found here last night, was to be probed by a coroner's jury here today.

Hunters, stumbling through dense undergrowth on the banks of a bayou came upon the bodies. The head of the little girl was completely severed, and lay some distance from the body. The woman's head was nearly severed, and knife wounds pierced her body. The underbrush showed signs of a struggle.

Owing to the condition of the bodies positive identification is believed impossible. Townfolks of Webb's Mills say the woman and girl may have been a mother and daughter named Calhoun, who lived there until three months ago, and then moved to Paragould, Ark. The scene of the crime yielded no clue to the slayers.

OWNERS INTER CARS AND GRAB THE INSURANCE

CHICAGO, July 21.—"Eighty per cent of the automobiles stolen in Chicago are ditched or burned with the consent of the owners," said Sergeant Neary of the police automobile detail, Sunday. He made the statement after two of his men had found a machine in an abandoned stone quarry at Palos park. This car had been reported stolen June 8 and the owner is said to have applied for his insurance. The police have been unable to locate him.

"This practice of victimizing the insurance companies has been going on for some time," said Sergeant Neary. "The insurance companies do not make proper investigation of cars reported stolen.

"We believe there are fifty cars in the stone quarry at Elgin and have employed a diver to investigate. The quarries at Blue Island and Lyons are also the graveyards of many 'stolen' automobiles.

"I know of several instances in which machines insured as 1920 models, but in reality 1915 or 1916 models, were reported stolen."

INTEREST ON INTEREST OF ALLIES DEBT TO U. S. MAY NOT BE COLLECTED

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Whether the United States will forgive its European debtors the "interest on the interest" of the $10,000,000,000 owed this government is a question upon which no decision has been reached, secretary of the treasury Mellon today told the senate finance committee, in resuming his testimony regarding the funding of the debt.

He intimated that the United States, in agreement to defer for three years the collection of all interest on the debt, might also have been put under obligation not to charge any interest on the deferred interest.

KILLS FARMER; FIRES HOME; SOUGHT BY FOSSE OF 500

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 21.—A posse of 500 men is scouring Buchanan county in search of an unidentified man who early today entered the home of George Myers, a farmer near Kaskville, 12 miles south of here, drove Myers and his wife from their home, shot Myers to death and then set fire to his house.

Governor and Other High Officials of Illinois State Indicted for Embezzlement

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 21.—The greatest legal battle in the history of Illinois will take place when Governor Lin Small, Lieutenant Governor Fred Sterling and Vernon Curtis, Grand Park banker, are tried on indictments charging embezzlement, conspiracy and confidence game returned by the Sangamon county grand jury late yesterday.

Already the two sides are lining up their counsels, and will be represented by the greatest legal minds in the state. It has been announced that included in the state executive's legal staff will be Warner Schroeder, of Kankakee, secretary of the legislative reference bureau, Attorney Schuyler of Chicago, George B. Gillespie and James M. Graham, of Springfield.

The prosecution, which will be directed in charge of Attorney General Edward J. Brundage, probably will TREATS THRU MAIL PROBED AT DALLAS P. O.

State Authorities Willing to Co-operate if Government Takes Hand.

DALLAS, July 21.—The United States government may take action against the alleged operations in Texas by bodies of masked men, it was learned authoritatively today.

Federal authorities declared today that the whipping of persons by masked hands may be a violation of a federal statute enacted in 1911.

Scores of complaints have been received by the federal authorities against the activities of masked men. From the same source it was learned that the alleged activities of the masked bands have been under investigation by the federal authorities for several weeks.

Federal agents were divided as to whether the United States should take an active part. Some believe it is purely a state matter, while others insist the federal law has been violated in some instances. It is known that the postoffice authorities are investigating several cases where threatening letters have been sent through the mails. Some of these letters are said to have been sent by persons who later committed violence.

Local authorities have indicated their desire to co-operate in every way should the United States take action.

'SQUEALER' IN BALL SCANDAL IS SWEATED

CHICAGO, July 21.—"Bill" Burns, baseball plotter, was put through the third degree, but did not falter in his story of fixing the 1919 world's series.

Attorney Thomas Nash, one of the counsel for the "Black Sox," charged with selling out to gamblers, cross examined Burns when court opened.

Early questioning brought out no additional disclosures of the ball scandal, other than those already aired.

Nash's questions were evidently designed to get Burns "rattled."

DECKS CLEARED FOR PARLEY ON DISARMAMENT

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The great nations of the earth were today "clearing decks" for the Washington disarmament and Pacific conference.

Within the last twenty-four hours there has been renewed confidence that Japan will give complete acceptance to coming into the parleys and the arrangements for the dates and discussions are ready to proceed.

ARMY MAN ACCUSED BY MRS. BERGDOLL IS CALLED TO WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Bruce E. Campbell, army officer of Camp Pike, Ark., who is accused by the mother of Grover Bergdoll of accepting $100,000 to "fix higher-ups" at the time Bergdoll made his escape, arrived in Washington today where he was called to answer charges before the house investigating committee.

depend mainly upon James T. Wilkerson, chief assistant attorney general, and Fred Mortimer, state attorney of Sangamon county, who is rated as one of the best criminal lawyers in Illinois.

The four indictments returned charged:

1. Governor Small, Lieutenant Governor Sterling and Vernon Curtis, with embezzling $700,000 of state funds.
2. Lin Small with embezzling $500,000 of state funds.
3. Fred Sterling with embezzling $700,000 of state funds.
4. Lin Small, Fred Sterling and Vernon Curtis with conspiracy and confidence games to misappropriate $2,000,000 of state funds, alleged to have been obtained by drafts, orders and warrants.

The total amount involved is $3,900,000.

HUSBAND 'ESCAPED'

"If you can find my husband I will pay his transportation home," is the message contained in a letter to Chief of Police Reynolds from a woman in an Easter state. One who has the earmarks of being an experienced husband read it and muttered half to himself, "that the poor devil evidently had escaped." It might be said for those present that no one inquired, "whaddya' mean escaped?"

91 JOINTS OF STOLEN CASING ARE RECOVERED

R. M. Phillips Sought as Initial Seller of Pipe Belonging to E. H. Kelly.

Three men are under a $1,000 bond each, made yesterday, and a warrant has been issued for a fourth in connection with the alleged theft of ninety-one joints of six-inch casing said to have been stolen from E. H. Kelly. The pipe was taken from a lease five miles north of Ranger and delivered to Olden, where a portion of it is said to have been underground when discovered. Bonds were made by Robert J. Norman, W. A. Huckaby and Alfred Crosbie. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of R. M. Phillips, who is alleged to have taken the casing from the lease.

Phillips sold the pipe to Norman and gave him a bill of sale for it signed C. E. Kelly, by R. M. Phillips, as agent. Norman in turn sold the pipe and passed a bill of sale to Crosbie at Olden. Norman stated to The Times that he was innocent of any wrong doing, that he was on an innocent purchaser of the casing. He declared that he had had no intention of mixing up in a crooked deal. In that case, Crosbie would naturally not be involved, since he purchased the pipe from Norman. Huckaby was Norman's partner in the deal, according to officers.

The discovery of the stolen pipe was made by Mrs. Kelly, and she wired her husband, who is in Oklahoma. His reply was that the casing had not been sold. The warrants and arrests followed.

Officers are still seeking Phillips.

'KIDNAP VICTIM' CHARGED WITH $50,000 FRAUD

SHARON, Pa., July 21.—Thomas Randolph, alleged "self-abductor," was offered a chance today to deny in court that he plotted to obtain a ransom of $50,000 from his father.

With the entire surrounding country excited over the sensational "kidnapping" the ensuing demand for $50,000 ransom, the "victim's" pleas that the money be sent to save his life, and finally, Randolph's sensational flight and surrender late yesterday, Randolph lies listless and exhausted on a jail cot.

The district attorney will ask his detention in connection with the police report that he and a Pittsburgh woman registered at a hotel under assumed names. A charge of conspiracy is also being considered, it was learned.

Randolph's defense is expected to be temporary insanity.

DESDEMONA MAY GET HAMON LINE STATION

DESDEMONA, July 20.—J. M. Strupper, chief engineer, and General Manager Fraser of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railway, were in Desdemona today with a view to selecting a site for a railway station for their road at this place. Several proposed sites were considered.

The nearest railway point to Desdemona is Jakehamon, two miles south.

A station at Desdemona, or rather, where the railroad passes, about half a mile away, is a possibility, although not positively decided upon, Vice-President and General Manager J. H. Fraser said this morning. "A very pleasant visit," he said, was made Tuesday, with Desdemona business men and the proposition was talked over. Three sites for the depot were selected as feasible, Mr. Fraser added, but the entire proposition hinges upon future negotiations.

MEXICO CITY, July 21.—Spain and Japan have given the Obregon government de jure recognition, according to the foreign office today.

It was announced that autograph letters have been received from the two countries which will constitute such recognition.

BIDS ON T. & P. STATION TO BE OPENED MONDAY

Ranger Firm Will Bid; Contract Expected to Be Let Immediately.

On Monday, July 25, at its offices in Dallas, the Texas & Pacific railroad company will open sealed bids for the erection of a new passenger station at Ranger. Oscar Quisile, of the firm of Quisile & Andrews, will go to Dallas tonight to submit his firm's bid in person. The railway company is expected to award the contract at the time of opening bids. However, it reserves the right to reject all offers. It is the opinion of Mr. Quisile, based on plans sent out by the engineering offices of the company, that the new building will cost between $75,000 and $100,000.

While the company has not expressed itself in the matter recently, it is believed, locally, that it will start construction on the building in a short time after awarding the contract.

The new station when built will occupy much of the space on Commerce street between Pine and Main streets. The city commission donated seventeen feet of ground on Commerce street as a part of the site. Because it is of the utmost importance to Ranger folks, Mr. Quisile has promised to wire The Times the name of the contractor, if the contract is let, and the price of the building, provided he secures this information before leaving Dallas.

CITY PAY AND FORCE CUTS IN EFFECT AUG. 1

The Times yesterday, in stating the present salaries of the various officials and department heads, after the action of the city commission in cutting salaries, gave those of the chiefs of the fire and police departments as $200. The amounts officially agreed upon by the commission were $175.

The cuts become effective Aug. 1. The release of five city employees becomes effective on the same date. Three of the men dropped will come from the police department. Chief of Police Reynolds has not yet said who the men will be. It is thought, however, that either the office of chief of detectives or that of assistant chief will be abolished.

One fireman will be cut from the regular payroll but two substitutes will be allowed sleeping quarters and $40 a month.

FIVE AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION TO BE VOTED ON SATURDAY

Five constitutional amendments will be voted upon in a state election to be held Saturday, July 25. The ballots for the election in Ranger will be received by E. H. Mills and Sam Davenport, election judges.

The proposed amendments are:

- To abolish the board of prison commissioners.
- To increase compensation of state executive officers, including the governor and department heads.
- Aid for Confederate veterans and sailors or their widows who have lived in the state since Jan. 1, 1910.
- Raise in pay of members of the state legislature and an increase in mileage.
- To allow only native-born or naturalized citizens to vote in state elections and providing that husbands and wives may pay each other's poll tax and secure receipts for payment.

It is sought to raise the pay of members of the state legislature to $10 a day for regular sessions and $5 a day for extra sessions. The amendment also provides that the regular session shall, if necessary, run 120 days instead of sixty days. The present pay is $5 a day for regular sessions and $2 for extra sessions.

NO PEACE YET

LONDON, July 21.—"The basis for a formal conference has not been found," declared the official government communication issued today after Premier Lloyd George had conferred on the Irish situation. The two were closed for an hour. De Valera will go to Dublin tomorrow morning, it was stated, and will confer with Lloyd George later.

MAN ENACTED DUAL HUSBAND ROLE 27 YEARS

Diamond Career of Arthur Irwin Eclipsed by Thriller in Game of Life.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Two widows and two families today are mourning the loss of a husband and father in Arthur Irwin, veteran ball player, manager and scout.

Irwin, told by physicians after an operation that he had only a few days to live, is thought to have committed suicide last week by jumping off a steamer on his way to Boston.

Investigation into his disappearance led to the discovery that he had two families, one in New York and the other in Boston.

His New York family consisted of a wife and a 24-year-old married son, F. Harold Irwin. The Boston family numbered a wife, a 37-year-old son, Herbert Irwin, two daughters, and nine grandchildren.

Neither wife knew of the other's existence, and both maintained that he had been a devoted father and husband.

The Boston widow, who was his first wife, said they were married in 1882. She said that she had never suspected him, although her relatives years ago had insisted that he had another woman in his life. Harold Irwin, the New York son, said that his father and mother were married twenty-seven years ago, in Philadelphia.

The New York widow was slow to believe the revelations. She said that in the twenty-seven years he had never been away from home more than a few days at a time, when he would make trips to look at young ball players on college teams and in minor leagues.

Both widows asserted that their husband wanted to die in their arms. The Boston widow pointed to the fact that Irwin went first to his New York family, divided his personal possessions among them, and started for Boston to be with her, when he was overcome with pain on the steamer, and jumped overboard.

The New York widow said that Irwin left her to bid goodbye to friends in Boston, and was going to return to her.

NEGRO KNIFES CONDUCTOR ON DALLAS CAR

DALLAS, July 21.—H. Newbill, negro, is being held at the county jail today, charged with assault to murder, and H. W. Ellis, street car conductor, is nursing a badly slashed wrist as the result of a fracas which started when the negro broke the Jim Crow laws here last night.

Newbill boarded Ellis' car, sat down in a seat in front of the race sign, and turned the sign to the wall, according to Ellis. Ellis ordered the negro to the rear of the sign. After some argument and considerable profanity, which caused embarrassment to several white women, the negro complied.

As the negro alighted from the car, he cursed Ellis. Ellis sprang to the ground and slapped Newbill, and the negro slashed at him with a knife, making a deep gash in Ellis' wrist. The negro ran, but was arrested later.

DEATH BLOW TO BEER AS MEDICINE AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Beer for medicinal purposes can only be stopped by quick action by the senate on the Willis-Campbell anti-beer bill.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair announced he will sign regulations for the sale of beer of medicinal purposes before the end of the week unless he is given definite assurances by senate leaders of immediate action on the pending bill.

WOMAN MOTORIST IS ROBBED OF CASING ON ROAD NEAR BALLINGER

BALLINGER, Texas, July 21.—An unusual case of "hi-jacking" today was called to the attention of officers here, who are on the lookout for a young man who robbed a woman on the road between Ballinger and San Angelo, according to Grady Stokes, a truck driver, who appeared on the scene just as the bandit fled.

As told by Stokes, a woman driving a Ford car, with three small children in the car, stopped to repair a puncture, when a clean looking young man in a Ford came up and offered assistance. The young man jacked up the lady's car and removed a casing, a new one, and placed it in his automobile and drove away, leaving the woman and children helpless.

LEGISLATORS WILL FAVOR LAW AGAINST KLAN

Forty-Nine Representatives Ask Governor to Submit Matter for Action.

AUSTIN, July 21.—Representative Patman of Cass county today presented to Governor Neff a petition bearing the signatures of forty-nine members of the house, requesting that the executive submit a bill at the special session prescribing penalties upon persons discharging themselves and violating laws of the state by inflicting punishment upon persons against whom no legal complaint has been filed. After presenting the petition Patman said the governor did not commit himself upon the matter.

At the same time Patman showed the governor what was purported to be an application blank for membership in the "Invisible Empire, Knights of Ku Klux Klan." He said the governor remarked that the requirements of the application were "more stringent than he had thought."

Representative Patman said the application for membership in the order requires that the prospective member remit $10 and guarantee on his honor to conform to the organization's constitution and by-laws. "If I prove untrue as a Klansman I willingly accept whatever penalty your authority may impose," is one of the alleged obligations, Patman declared.

Patman received a telegram today from District Attorney C. H. Cain, of Liberty county, commending him upon the stand taken.

TWO WELLS MAKE NEWELL LEASE BIG PRODUCER

The Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company, with two big wells in the last ten days, has established the Newell lease as one of the most prolific in Stephens county. The tract is between Ivan and Eliasville.

The new completions are the Nos. 3 and 4, the No. 4 coming in Tuesday with a production of 1,200 barrels. No. 3, in last week, is making between 1,200 and 1,500, while the older wells, Nos. 1 and 2 are doing 1,200 and 900 respectively, it is reliably reported.

This gives the lease a daily production of around 4,500 barrels, which probably leads any figures in the district for one lease.

DESDEMONA BECOMES BANKLESS TOWN WHEN STATE BANK CLOSSES

Desdemona is without a bank today.

The Desdemona State Bank & Trust company, the last of three banks there, closed its doors at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon and is now in charge of State Bank Examiner O. L. Thomas.

The bank had deposits of about $420,000, according to Arthur Mauldin, its vice-president, who was in Ranger last night. Every cent of this under the guarantee fund, as the bank did not have a single interest-bearing deposit. He has some hopes that arrangements will be made to reopen the institution in a few days.

Until March of this year, Desdemona had three banks. In that month the First National closed and in May the Desdemona State and the Guaranty State consolidated, leaving only one bank.

A run, believed to be a reflection of the Ranger troubles, weakened the bank on June 30, Mr. Mauldin said, and although it was able to stave off closing at that time, yesterday's action is laid to the excitement then.

The nearest banks to Desdemona are at DeLeon and Gorman.

SAWYER WANTS HARDING TO RIDE ON HORSEBACK

WASHINGTON, July 21.—President Harding may take to the saddle for exercise when cool weather comes again, riding through the parks of Washington as a variation from golf, his only present outdoor diversion.

Brigadier General Sawyer, his physician, has recommended the change. The president, though fond of riding when younger, has not been in the saddle for some years.

WOULD DROWN THEIR DOG; HE GUARDS THEIR BODIES

CLINTON, Ia., July 21.—With a dog they had planned to drown in the Mississippi river standing guard over them, the bodies of two boys, Clark Waldorf and Frank Hayden, were found on the river bank, following an electric train storm.

They had been killed by a bolt of lightning.

GUARANTY BANK CLAIMS MUST BE FILED BY OCT. 20

Those Made Afterward Not Considered; May Be Made Here or at Austin.

Claims made after October 20, against guaranteed accounts in the closed Guaranty State bank will not receive consideration, according to a notice filed by Ed Hall, commissioner of insurance and banking. This means that all claims for guaranteed accounts in the bank must be made and proven by that date. Claims may be made either to Special Liquidation Agent Dodson at the bank or to Mr. Hall at Austin.

The notice does not state the last date at which interest-bearing and secured claims have to be proven. They do not come under the protection of the guaranty fund of the state. The amount of such deposits in the closed bank is only about $13,000. Such deposits are unprotected because legally they are a loan and not a deposit for safe keeping, and these agreements were refused protection when the guaranty fund law was passed.

FORMER RANGER MAN INDICTED IN BANK CLOSE

GRAHAM, Texas, July 21.—J. P. Scott, president, formerly of Ranger, and R. H. Vick, vice president, formerly of Pennsylvania, were arrested on complaints charging embezzlement of funds of the Coleman Banking company at South Bend, which closed its doors last Friday.

They were arrested Wednesday morning and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for appearance at September term of court.

The Coleman Banking company was unincorporated. It is said the failure of a correspondent bank with $15,000 of the Coleman bank's funds caused a steady withdrawal of funds, but that all depositors will be paid in full.

PRIZE FIGHTER NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF K. O.

BULGARIAN GOVT HAS ADOPTED 'AMERICAN' STYLE OF TAXATION

SOFIA, July 21.—The peasants are now firmly established in power in Bulgaria and legislative bodies, both state and provincial, in which their representatives are in the majority, are engaged in transferring the burden of taxation to the shoulders of the despised city folk.

The district council of Roustchouk has evolved the following taxes which it styles "American."

Carrying a parcel, 50 leva yearly (nominally worth 19 cents each); skirts more than 11 inches above the ground or wearing silk stockings, 500 leva; wearing gloves between April 15 and September 15 without a doctor's certificate, 200 leva; wearing jewelry 300 leva; keeping pet dogs, 500 leva; use of walking canes by persons under 50 years of age in good health, 100 leva; wearing shoes with tops exceeding 11 inches in height, 200 leva; fur tippets or muffers, 500 leva; and using baby carriage in cities, 200 leva.

NEWLY-WEDS HONEYMOON A LA BOX CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—One thousand miles in a "honey-moon box car," westbound, to make a fortune, chaperoned by train crews, with "knights" of the road for traveling companions! This is the experience of Mrs. Phyllis Hunter, 18, bride of eight months, and her youthful husband, Harold Hunter, 21, both of Farmington, Utah.

The couple was picked up by the police of Oakland at Ninth and Webster streets last night while searching for lodgings. A cautious patrolman conducted them to police headquarters "for investigation."

Romantic Story.

The inquiry brought forth a romantic tale of world-wide faith in the lure of adventure, the call of the open field and the freedom of travel. They are free again today and on their way, the law having stepped aside for the greater claim of Romance.

The young pair were married "before a large crowd," according to clippings from their home town paper which they carried. The wedding over, the honeymoon appeared above the horizon.

"Let's go West and make our fortunes!" said young Hunter.

"Let's go on the brakebeams!" suggested the bride, assuming the burden of home economics. And so they went.

It was a long trip—1000 miles—rocking and swaying, loitering and hurrying in wayward freights. Their honeymoon coach was a box-car; their attendants, "hardened hoboes who chuckled at romance, dropped suddenly among them, and aided the young couple with suggestions and advice.

"The train crews were wonderfully nice to us," said the bride today, telling of her experiences. "They helped us get food and told us which trains to take and did all they could.

Love Grew Cold.

"We had to travel in a refrigerator car in one place. My goodness, but it was cold, but it wasn't cool enough to chill my enthusiasm to get to California. We just put the honeymoon in cold storage for awhile and traveled with the ice cakes. It was like eloping to Greenland."

The girl showed little of the ravages of her trip as she stood in police headquarters, dressed in boy's clothing, and answered the questions of detectives.

"Married? Of course." She produced a marriage license. "We brought it along in case of questions. It's good in this state, isn't it?" The police said it was, shook the bride and groom by the hand, and apologized for the delay.

The couple were detained when a policeman noticed that one of the two supposed young men walked like a woman, and investigated.

"We are going to make our fortune here in California," said Mrs. Hunter. "Harold can do lots of things and I am young and strong and we shall succeed."

They went forth at noon today carrying a police blessing with them.

'JOHN WILKES BOOTH'S BODY' JONAH'S SHOW

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 21.—A mummy, advertised as that of John Wilkes Booth, who assassinated Abraham Lincoln, proved a jinx for a large carnival show company, which left the Black Hills for Eastern South Dakota after a strange series of mishaps here. On entering the Black Hills the train was wrecked and one or two persons were killed. While the company was in the Black Hills a tent was blown down during a storm, injuring several show attaches and members of the audience, and when it was leaving the Black Hills in the midst of heavy rains, another wreck was narrowly averted.

The story of the jinx as related by a member of the carnival show company is like this:

About eight months ago a new attraction joined the caravan. It was supposed to be the mummified body of John Wilkes Booth. When the carnival was on the Pacific Coast last winter the crowds paid their money to enter the tent and gaze upon the leathery, raisin-like face of what was once a man and purported to be the body of the assassin.

Then one day, after the series of misfortunes in the Black Hills, someone mentioned that there had been more wrecks, more accidents, more bad luck happening to the whole company since the mummy had joined the show than before. Gradually the feeling spread, like the Bible story of Jonah, and the mummy was finally publicly branded as the "Jonah" of the shows.

A committee waited on the management, declaring a strike unless his mummyship was ousted. The committee had the backing of nearly the entire personnel and so the management yielded. Out went the mummy, bag and baggage. Now the members of the company are waiting to see if good fortune will return.

TARIFF BILL WILL BE SENT SENATE TODAY

By HERBERT W. WALKER, United Press Correspondent. WASHINGTON, July 21.—Passage of the Fordney protective tariff bill and the dumping of it on the senate doorstep was expected in the house today. The net result of two weeks' stormy debate on the measure has been the adoption of nearly 300 amendments, all proposed by Republican members of the house ways and means committee.

The house increased the duty on laces from 42 to 45 per cent ad valorem and inserted a retaliatory tariff on calcium acetate, the provision being that a duty on these imports shall be applied on the shipments from any country which exacts a duty on exports from the United States.

MOMENTOS OF DAYS BEFORE PROHIBITION WILL GET THE AXE

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—Wisconsin has taken upon itself the task of getting rid of all bars, fixtures, screens, stalls and all other accoutrements which have gone to make up a saloon atmosphere. The order for their extermination is carried in a prohibition enforcement bill recently passed by the legislature.

The law requires that "no person having a license for the sale of non-intoxicating beverages to be sold for consumption upon the premises shall maintain a standing bar or counter of any description at which any such drinks or beverages are consumed.

"No booth, stall, or other enclosure of any kind in or connected with such place or room shall be maintained," the law further provides. It orders in addition that "the windows and doors of any such place or room shall be unobstructed by screens, blinds, paint, or other article so that a clear and unobstructed view of the interior of said place or room from the outside may at all times be had."

Thousands of Wisconsin saloons, 1,000 or more in Milwaukee alone, will be affected.

All must go this month, according to edict of the prohibition commissioner, who has given the saloon keepers 30 days to comply with the law. He says he intends to enforce every feature of it.

A series of livestock shows, participated in by girls' and boys' clubs, will soon begin. Aggregate returns from the efforts of these numerous clubs in Western Canada will mount to huge figures.

LEGAL LEAP-FROGGING

One negro girl under charge of vagrancy, but released, brought on a hot argument in police court this morning. L. R. Pearson represented the defendant. Beverly S. Dudley appeared for the city. Judge Flew-ellen was on the bench. The conversation ran something like this:

Judge: "I will have to find the prisoner not guilty as charged."

Dudley: "But Judge, the state has made out a prima facie case of vagrancy. The woman has paid fines in this court for the charge several times before this."

Pearson: (In a hurried voice): "Girl, you can go."

Judge: "I can't help it, you did not make a case today."

Chief of Police Reynolds: "I think it's a 'hell of a note we get a woman down here and can't get a conviction. I'll bet we get a conviction tomorrow."

Pearson: "As a citizen of this town, I object to the chief of police reprimanding the judge in public."

With all four men talking at once the reporter prided himself on glean- ing the above conversation.

BRECKENRIDGE DRILLER HAS LAPSE OF MEMORY

Special to the Times

BRECKENRIDGE, July 21.—Mid-summer's sweltering heat has chalked twelve hours from the life of J. F. Frye, a driller of the Sun company. He left the lease where he was working, twelve miles from here Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and awoke yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a local hotel, with the question, "How did I get here?"

Mr. Frye is a total abstainer and has enjoyed excellent health. He has no recollection of events which transpired between the time he walked away from the Sun company lease and the time he yawned and opened his eyes in the hotel here.

He is now trying to figure the matter out and account for the fact that he awoke with several dollars more than he had at the start of his jaunt into shadowland.

RETAILERS OF NATION START BUYING BOOM

By United Press

NEW YORK, July 21.—Retailers throughout the country staking thousands that business will take a shoot in the fall are laying in big stocks for the first time in years.

"Business is bound to take a leap upward," Alfred Sampl, buyer for large department stores from San Francisco to Boston, told the United Press today.

"Garment retailers I represent are placing huge orders. The demand has taken such a sudden upward trend in the last few weeks that we have been forced to double our staff."

"It is a different kind of buying from the pre-war days. The demand is for staple goods, not frills. People are going to buy socks and shirts, not earrings and fancy vests. All they want are utilities and necessities."

"There is no doubt that the public will make a big demand for necessities in September and October. For the last few years, many merchants have feared to lay in new stocks in huge quantities, and have been selling what they have on hand. But now they are convinced that we have traversed a few more miles on the road to normalcy, and are preparing for a rush."

"It has been a long time coming, but now it is here. There is going to be a business jubilation in the fall, and it is time the boys were getting on the band wagon."

WIRELESS ON PATROL WAGONS, POLICE PLAN

DETROIT, July 21.—Police patrol wagons in Detroit will be equipped with radio telephone sets if experiments being carried on prove satisfactory, officials of the department announced.

One patrol has been equipped with radio apparatus, and officers in the machine talked with the operator at the central station without difficulty while the automobile was traveling at a high rate of speed.

The proposed trip to this country of Queen Marie, of Roumania, has been postponed.

INVESTIGATION OF RANGERS IN STATE LIKELY

By United Press

AUSTIN, July 21.—Senator Joe Burckett of Eastland today requested Adjutant General Barton that he transmit to the senate a list of all Texas rangers that have been in service under Barton during his administration, with data as to their ages, previous avocation and whether or not they are at present on the ranger force. This may be the forerunner of another ranger investigation, it is thought.

ELIASVILLE PLANS BIG CELEBRATION OVER NEW RAILWAY

Special to the Times

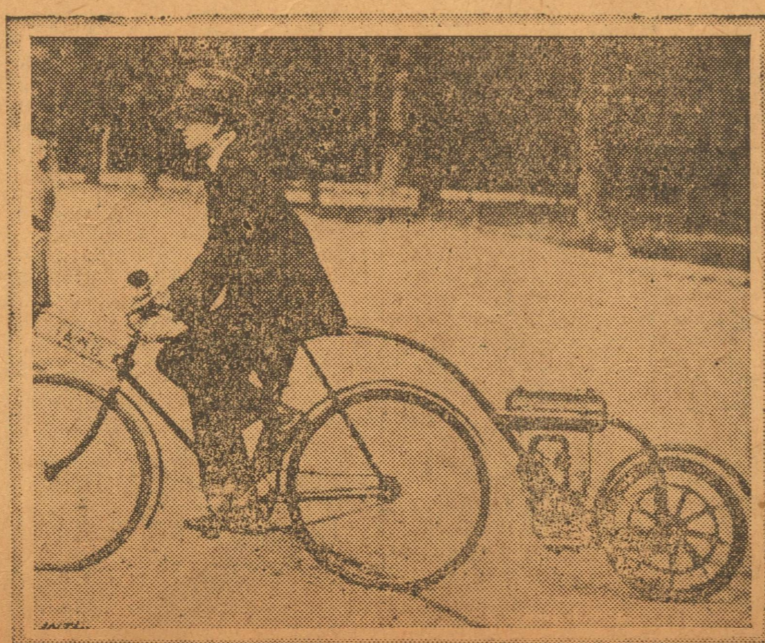

ELIASVILLE, July 21.—With the Kell railroad expected to be completed into town by Saturday, Eliasville is making big preparations for the celebration to be staged here on Tuesday, June 26. Although Chief Engineer McFarland says the road will be completed before that time, no trains will be run into town until Tuesday, when a special will arrive from Wichita Falls. Regular passenger service is expected to start the next day.

Plans for an extensive program, to include a barbecue, field sports and other entertainment have been made. The delegations from Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and other Texas cities will be taken on a tour of the oil fields by the Eliasville Chamber of Commerce.

CONCORDIA, Kan., July 21.—Cloudy county wheat raisers refused to pay $5 and $6 demanded by transient workers and women volunteered to shock wheat.

The women were paid $2.50 a day and there was bitter complaint. Several quit, saying they did as much work as men and should receive as much pay.

NOW COMES THE MOTOR-DRIVEN BICYCLE

No need to buy a new wheel to utilize this invention, as the motor car, easily be attached to any bicycle. It can also be operated at a very small cost, one gallon of gas being enough to drive the wheel thirty miles. Anybody able to ride a bicycle can use one of these attachments. A speed of thirty miles an hour can be obtained. The attachment of the motor to the rear of the bike saves the clothes of the rider from getting soiled. The photo shows a motor-driven bicycle in actual use.

BAMBINO BABE MAY MOVE IN FROM COUNTRY

Yanks After Fast Stepping Outfielder, Regardless of Hitting Ability.

NEW YORK, July 21.—In the not improbable event that a trade which is now in contemplation goes through, it is not at all unlikely that the Great Bambino will finish the season as the Yankee's regular first baseman. The deal in question has been hanging fire for the past several weeks and it looked for a time as though it would peter out. It has come to life again, however, and there is at least an even chance that it will be consummated within the next few days.

The player sought by the Yanks is an outfielder of proven ability as a picket man. He is fast enough to cover a lot of ground, judges fly balls well, handles grounders skillfully and possesses a strong and accurate throwing arm. He has had considerable experience and would add to the defensive strength of almost any club. Whether he can hit or not is another proposition. It is not exactly essential that he should, for the Yankees could afford to carry one light hitter provided he enabled them to reinforce the only soggy sector of their battle front.

This is located at and around first base. There may have been a time when Pipp was entitled to a place with the leaders, but that time, it seems, has passed. Wallie can handle a throw with the best, but is pitifully weak on batted balls and is missing many plays that a good first baseman would make. Balls are going through him for hits that should be handled for outs, and more than one of them has proven mighty costly to the Yanks.

If there were an experienced first baseman and a utility man, Manager Miller Huggins doubtless would have benched Walling. Wallie long since, if only to give him a chance to pull himself together for a fresh start, but it just so happens that Babe Ruth and Bobbie Meusel are the only players on the club who could qualify for the job, and to play either of these at first would necessitate playing Chicken Hawks, Tommy Connolly, or Ping Bodie in the outfield, which Huggins doesn't want to do.

It therefore becomes necessary to acquire a new outfielder. This the Yanks are now attempting to do and with some hope of landing one. In the event that the deal now in process of contemplation is made, it is likely that the Babe will be brought in from the picket line and stationed on first.

Ruth played first for the Boston Red Sox and played it well. Some folks say that the Sultan of Swat is weak on grounders, but there is vast difference in playing such balls in the outfield, where they are likely to take all sorts of funny hops, than playing them on a smooth, carefully manicured infield.

DEFENSE OF BRONCHOS CRUMBLES, BALLINGER WINNING FIVE TO ONE

SAN ANGELO, July 20.—Baugh's support was pitiful in today's game and what might otherwise have been a real pitchers' battle was turned to a 5 to 1 victory for Ballinger. Every man in the Bronchos line-up made an error with the exception of Cocke and Lewis. Five hits were allowed by each pitcher.

BRECKENRIDGE TEAM PLAYS HERE SUNDAY

Wet grounds and gloomy skies yesterday caused cancellation of the scheduled game between the Business Men and the Eastland Independents. Breckenridge will be here Sunday for the next game of the semi-pro exhibitions.

CALL 'EM 'SHIMMY'

NEW YORK, July 21.—"Say it with—showers!"
The first time an American tennis player tries to wrap his tongue around the unaccustomed consonants of Zena Shimizu's name he achieves a result like a cross between a roman candle and a soda fountain. The next time he may get as far as something like "Susan Zed-ins-s—" and the third he roars down for the last time (glub-glub) with a despairing gurgle of:
"Well, you know—that Japanese Davis Cup player."
But it really isn't as bad as that. The public has already achieved Kamague and Kashio. These names aren't all mixed up with Z's and S's, so they are fairly easy if you take the letters as they come. The same rule will help with the name of the latest arrival from Japan. "Z-e-n-z-a" will work out all right if you say it just as it is spelled, pronouncing it with a short "e."
Then draw a long breath and try the next—"S-h-i-m-i-d-z-u." Pronounce that just as it is spelled, both "i's" being short as in "Piki."

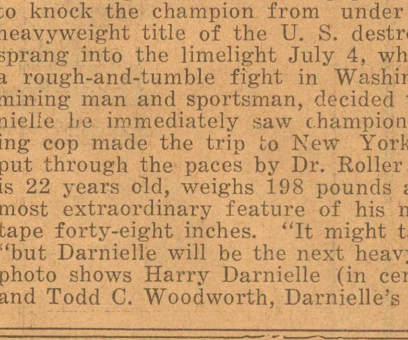

YANKS PULL SPEAKER'S TRIBE FROM TOP RUNG IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

CLEVELAND, July 21.—Bob Shawkey pitched the Yankees into first place in the American league race here on Wednesday. Twenty thousand fans watched the Indians fall before the curve ball hurling of the veteran right-hander by a score of 7 to 1. In taking the lead by a margin of 3 points, the Yankees drove Stanley Coveleskie, Cleveland pitching ace, to cover in the seventh inning. It was the New Yorker's ninth consecutive victory and their seventeenth triumph in the last twenty games.

PITCHER 'CANNED' FOR BEING 'TOO GOOD' HAS WON HIMSELF A HOME

CASPER, Wyo., July 21.—Big Dave Davenport a pitcher recently acquired by the Casper team lost his first game of the season when Denver won a pitchers' battle by a score of 1 to 0. Davenport stuck out sixteen of the Denverites but his teammates were unable to cross the rubber.
The story of Davenport is one of the most unique in the history of baseball. Released from two American league teams because he was "too bad," the slim hurler drew a pink slip from the Ogden team of the Northern Utah league last Friday because he was "too good."
Davenport pitched seven games for Ogden, winning them all. He pitched one no-hit game and one three-hit game. He averaged sixteen men per game by the strike-out route. Then the other teams rose in revolt. If Davenport continued to pitch for Ogden they'd bust up the circuit, they said. He outlasted the league and was released.
Back in 1914 and 1915 Davenport was a Federal league star. In the latter year he almost won a pennant for St. Louis single handed. He pitched in forty games, winning twenty-two. Then he went with the Browns, but couldn't behave, was suspended half a dozen times, and finally given up because he was "too bad."
The last big league manager to try him was Clark Griffith. But he couldn't be good there, and finally Griff let him go.

This shows a trio of timber toppers trying out for second place on the team that will compete against the combined Oxford-Cambridge forces in the international athletic meet at Harvard stadium next Saturday. Sheddou, Yale; Whitney, Harvard, and Hulman, Yale, shown left to right in the photo, are battling every day for the other place. If this trio is as well matched as the picture shows, the committee has a hard task naming a teammate for Krogness.

WASHINGTON COP WHO CLEANED UP TOWN BEING GROOMED FOR JACK DEMPSEY

Jack Dempsey had better watch out, for Harry Darnielle, Washington, D. C., policeman, is being groomed by Dr. B. F. Koller of New York, to knock the champion from under his crown. Darnielle, who held the heavyweight title of the U. S. destroyer fleet at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, sprang into the limelight July 4, when he knocked out twenty ruffians in a rough-and-tumble fight in Washington. Todd C. Woodworth, Arizona mining man and sportsman, decided to look the wonder cop over. In Darnielle he immediately saw championship timber, and Todd and the fighting cop made the trip to New York, where Darnielle was examined and put through the paces by Dr. Rolles former champion wrestler. Darnielle is 22 years old, weighs 198 pounds and is lightning fast on his feet. The most extraordinary feature of his makeup is his chest, which stretches a tape forty-eight inches. "It might take a year or two," says his admirers, "but Darnielle will be the next heavyweight champion of the world." The photo shows Harry Darnielle (in center), with C. E. "CHANGE" ON SCRIP?

Some criticism has arisen because some merchants have refused to give change when purchases are made with scrip, giving instead their own I O U's or credit for the difference. At first glance, it would appear that this is an unfair practice. The scrip is supposed to be real money, so why shouldn't change be given, just the same as if one presented a dollar bill, is the comment that naturally arises in one's mind. That it is not done seems an outrage.

But consider a moment. Scrip is NOT real money, however much we may so pretend. It is a symbol of real money, it is true, and is accepted as such, in trade. But there are various reasons why it may prove impossible to put it in a par in every way with legal tender.

Ranger scrip was issued by the merchants' association, not for the purpose of inducing an orgy of spending, but rather, to prevent suffering. Its primary purpose was to see that depositors obtained sufficient food and shelter and other necessities, and to so distribute the burden of this that little hardship would be worked upon anyone. It was not issued in order that cold drinks, cigars, silk socks and other things could be purchased with it, although there is no objection to it being thus spent if the owner wishes.

The merchant who takes scrip—and practically all of them do—is performing a community service by so doing. What he takes in is not money, but notes; notes that he must carry without interest for a month or, except for that portion he can pass along to the wholesaler. He takes it cheerfully, but some of them cannot see their way clear to pass out silver in exchange for it, for the simple reason that they would run out of change. They cannot take scrip to the bank or elsewhere and say: "Give me nickles and dimes and quarters for this." Therefore, whatever silver is taken in making change would be that much more taken from his business and tied up for the period. IN MANY CASES IT WOULD BE EQUIVALENT TO THEIR PAYING OUT MORE THAN THEY TAKE IN. Many of the business houses cannot do this, on account of the obligations they must meet in cash.

That is the case for the merchant: He is assisting the community commerce by exchanging goods for scrip; to give a considerable amount of cash in exchange for it might be more strain than he could bear.

The depositor, on the other hand, is entitled to some relief from the necessity of spending a dollar every time he wants to spend a nickle. Conceivably, he is entitled to buy a few of the things purchasable with small coins, just the same as the man not forced to scrip. If means can be found, he should have it.

It does not seem probable that scrip can be passed to the average man on the street. It will be time to redeem it before he is educated up to the stage of accepting it without question. How then, is this relief to be obtained?

Two ways have been suggested. One is that merchants will become less chary with their silver as liquidation of the scrip approaches nearer. The other is, that residents other than business men buy a certain amount of scrip for cash, and a reasonable amount of the cash money to be issued with each batch of scrip, to be used for change purposes. There are hundreds of wage earners here who could afford to buy $50 worth and hold it for the six or eight weeks, and would be put to no hardship in so doing. If 100 were willing, it would appear that enough cash would be raised to make this plan possible. Whether 100 or more salaried persons could be interested in such a move, and whether its benefits would be worth the additional trouble are questions that as yet cannot be answered.

RELIEF NURSE RISKS LIFE TO SAVE BATH TUB

NEW YORK, July 21.—Bathtubs have risen in esteem since the American expeditionary force sojourned in France, but the first case on record of anyone's risking his life for one came to light when a dispatch from Constantinople to the Near East Relief announced that Miss Fannie Strowger, an American girl, of Rochester, N. Y., had braved fire and shell to capture the village tub in a little town in Asia Minor. Miss Strowger has been doing relief work just back of the Greek front in Ismid, but when the news came that her prize possession was in jeopardy, she dropped her work and departed at once for the firing line.

"Miss Strowger heard that there would be fighting around Rahmiekey," the letter said. "It was the refugee village where her sacred and only tub was located. She at once ordered a truck and rode off through the rain to the rescue of the bathtub. She seemed to feel that the Greeks and Nationalists had no right to fight in the vicinity of that tub, as it was the only tub in which to wash her children."

Didn't Relish the Trip.
"The Armenian chauffeur did not relish the trip. They went down to the drapery factory, which is a Greek station. Here Miss Strowger hunted around for the Colonel to obtain permission to proceed, but could not find him, and she stated she could not waste her whole day waiting for him—besides, they might break her bathtub. So on she went, Colonels or no Colonels."

"But she did not go unaided. In a burst of gratitude for the priceless gift of a pair of shoes apiece bestowed on them that morning by Miss Strowger, a group of bedraggled refugees volunteered to accompany her. Up the hill they charged. She was at the front line trenches and the fighting had barely stopped, but she took up her bathtub and supplies, piled them on the backs of the refugees and placed them safely in the truck."

Entered Like a Conqueror.
"No conqueror ever made a grander entrance into the conquered city than Miss Strowger into the city of Nicomedia. Seated on top of her precious tub, she rode in glorious state in a one-horse truck, surrounded by

CLEWS BUILDING STUDIO ON MEDITERRANEAN FOR WIFE

Society has learned that Henry Clews Jr., is building for his wife, Mrs. Elsie Clews, a gorgeous studio on the shore of the Mediterranean, near Capri. Its equipment and appointments have won the amazed praise of leaders of Florence, Rome and Venice. Here Mrs. Clews, who formerly was Mrs. Robert Goelet, will practice her vocal art. A wireless outfit is also being installed. Reports from Italy have set at rest rumors that were being spread of discord between the couple.

ALIMONY MONGERS.

Between the professional alimony monger and the type of woman that belongs to "the oldest profession in the world" there is scarcely difference enough to be seen with a microscope. The legalized variety may be admitted into supposedly good circles, and may get its picture in the newspapers, but that is merely because public opinion has not been educated up to a proper understanding of a menace to the life of the community. The erring sister, recognized as such, is shunned because she is recognized, whereas the professional alimony monger escapes censure because her profession is concealed by legal forms.

There is a serious side to the subject of alimony, now being discussed with considerable levity because certain conspicuous victims have not aroused any measure of public sympathy. When a millionaire, overburdened with money and undersupplied with morals and sense, goes about the globe flaunting his wealth and proclaiming his ability to buy whatever he wants, whether it be automobiles, yachts or pretty women, he is not to be pitied if played for a fool by a crook or a vampire.

Affection is not to be bought, and when a man buys a wife—particularly if she happens to be somebody else's wife—he must not be surprised to discover that she has appraised him solely with an alimony eye. Women that are in the market to be bought are very likely to turn round and sell the man who has bought them. They calculate everything, from the elaborate gifts of a whirlwind courtship to substantial settlements and a divorce with alimony as soon as the limit of the money-squeezing process has been reached.

The public is apt to smile when it reads of a millionaire profiting by being stung for substantial alimony, but though there is no room for sympathy with the victim, there is grave danger in encouraging the vampires that prey upon him.

Other women of similar morals but hitherto insufficient temptation begin to look around for wealthy victims, and to them it makes no difference if the man they are vamping is a decent citizen prepared to give a good woman a good home.

There are not enough millionaires for all the vamps, but there are plenty of comfortably circumstanced men that may be preyed upon by women that make a business of marrying for the purpose of collecting alimony.

As a matter of public morals, because it is a matter of public morals, and if there were a stronger public opinion on the subject courts might be more inclined to fix alimony on the basis of no more than the necessities of a decent living, or on the standard of living to which the vampire was accustomed before she became a professional alimony monger.

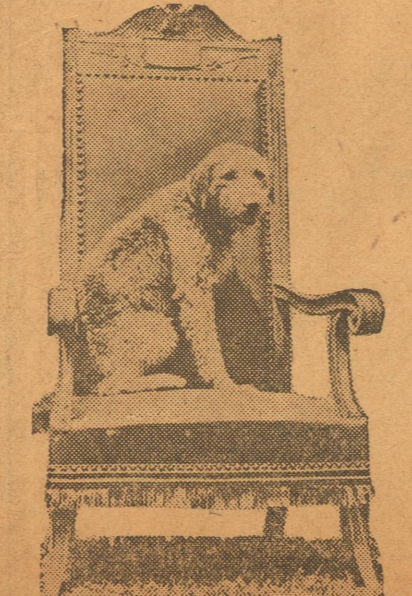

There may be no law to reach the profligate or the foolish millionaire, but the law can correct the evil of the vampires that fatten upon the decent, honorable citizens. What the law fails to do public opinion should help to perform.—San Francisco Bulletin.

her refugee followers, each loaded with all the equipment and supplies that he could carry."
Miss Strowger has served for more than a year in the Near East, and she has acquired a sense of values. Without a tub, refugee children aren't much better than dead children. Disease has followed in the wake of hunger and exposure and only a proper cleaning up administered immediately on arrival can save these homeless little waifs from the fatal results of suffering and neglect. Wherefore Miss Strowger, who has been helping to look after 20,000 refugees in Ismid, believes that a tub is easily worth at least one life, even an American one.

KLUMPH KIDS KING

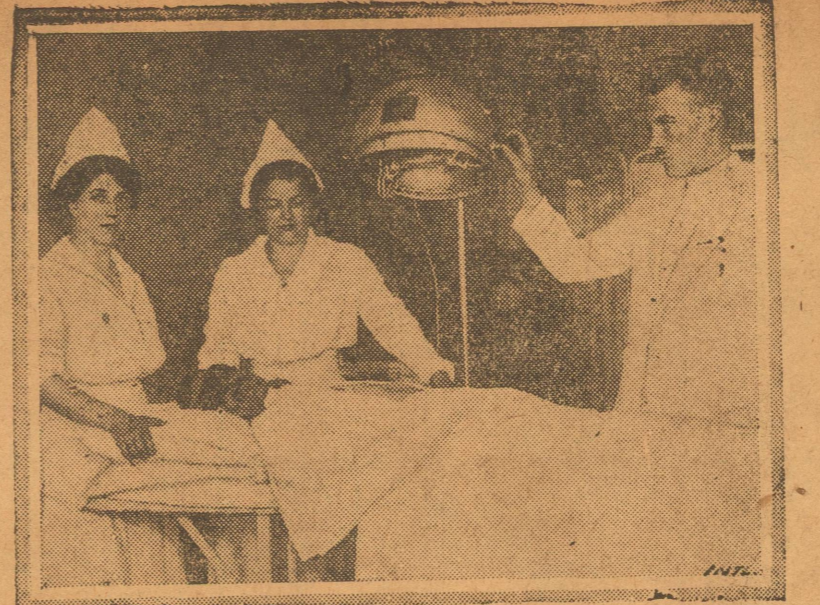

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 21.—The reputation which Americans have of blunt speaking even in the face of royalty, is likely to be enhanced by a remark that passed between King George and Mr. Klumph, of Cleveland, O., on the occasion of the Rotarians' reception at Buckingham Palace, the other day.
King George affably said to Mr. Klumph that he, too, would like to become a Rotarian.
"I don't see what is to stop you," said Mr. Klumph.

"LADDIE BOY" TRIES OUT HIS MASTER'S CHAIR

President Harding was presented with an editorial chair the other day as a gift of 600 fellow editors throughout the country. The presentation ceremonies were hardly finished before "Laddie Boy," the White House Airedale, jumped into the chair and tried it out. "Laddie Boy" decided the chair would do.

ULTRA VIOLET RAYS USED TO CURE SUNBURN

Acting on the theory "like cures like," physicians at the Broad Street (New York) hospital claim to have got encouraging results through the use of the equivalent for sunlight in treating sunburns. The properties of sunlight, according to Dr. A. J. Barker Savage, superintendent of the hospital, are virtually reproduced in the rays of what is known as the Alpin lamp. It throws off ultra violet rays that kill bacteria and gradually heal the injured tissues. The photo shows Dr. W. J. Gibson of the Broad Street hospital staff, using the Alpin violet ray lamp in treating a sunburn victim.

Confidence
—Without confidence there would be no undertakings—Confidence is the magic that pushed men forward, it built the Panama Canal, the Brooklyn bridge, the tunnel under the Hudson river—it was confidence that made it possible for men to shoot through space on land, sea and in the air. Wireless telegraphy is one of the greatest advances in modern science made possible by confidence—but above all these, confidence won the great war, we had confidence in every man that crossed the ocean, they had confidence in those left behind—therefore CONFIDENCE was the main factor in the world war.
—So it is with the Farmers and Merchants State Bank, which recently consolidated with the Texas Bank & Trust Co., we have confidence in ourselves and our bank, people soon learned this, therefore we have won their confidence in US, and we mean to retain this confidence.
The Farmers & Merchants State Bank combined with the Texas Bank & Trust Co. is one of the strongest in the state of Texas

PASTOR'S WIFE ELOPES WITH NEIGHBOR

The little town of Monticello, N. Y., received quite a shock recently when it learned that Mrs. Emily Duryea, wife of Clark Duryea, a preacher, convalescing for his health had eloped with Earl Vernoy, a neighbor, and married man. Duryea conducted a little mission at Monticello. The Vernoy family attended, and soon Mrs. Duryea and Mr. Vernoy worked up a strong friendship. "I haven't sanctioned or condoned the elopement of my wife with Earl Vernoy," said Preacher Duryea. "I was helpless to prevent it, the end of her rope. If I had a home to live in I would forgive her. Mine is perfect love; I love her with all my heart."

If anyone knows the whereabouts of young Harris they could greatly relieve the mind of his mother by communicating with the police department.

WOMEN'S MORALS LOWER THAN EVER, SAYS COPPETE

MILWAUKEE, July 21.—Clara Burnside, of Indianapolis, the only woman captain of police in the country, told the Social Work conference that woman's morals are lower than ever.

"Women have demanded equal rights with men," she said. "Instead of men coming up to women's moral standards women have come down to men's but the condition will not last and the future will be better for it."

The government has been giving attention to the demands of sportsmen that something must be done to preserve the wild ducks. Saving the lame ducks is a much more difficult matter.—Washington Star.

FILM SMILES -and so forth- By Hi Speed~

FILM TITLES SAVE HUSBANDS' INCOME TAX

An oncoming film boasts King Solomon as hero of "Too Many Wives." The plot glorifies the ancient fallacy that "two can live as cheaply as one."

Restaurant scenes will, of course, be essential to "When Women Wait."

Despite many unbelievers, "Justice" will be done—even in the movies.

"Big Town Ideas" are about all we get in too many photoplays. They don't always fit into small town situations.

"Your Home Comes First" says a new film title. It was not always thus in pre-Volstead days.

"When Youth Rebels" will come to the screen about the time school begins again.

"You Can't Fool Your Wife" is a lesson in film-titles some husbands will never learn.

Soaring on "Borrowed Wings" is considered a venturesome undertaking for most everyone except Elaine Hammerstein—and she does it in the safety of the movies.

On the chance that they will remember to attend, Owen Moore is turning out a photoplay for "The Forgetters."

Life may be a gamble for some folks but the film-titlers seem to play only moral inches.

As a movie subject, "A Man of Stone" would seem to be hard to please. Nevertheless Selznick is going to try it.
