In explanation, the statement is made that this is done purely for protection against loss to the association. It does not keep the remaining 25 per cent, but only holds it until the state banking board pays off. At that time, the depositor will receive the balance of his deposit in cash.

The 25 per cent is retained as insurance against errors in accounts, which might be later uncovered. For instance, suppose the books now show a man has $100 in the bank and it a man has $100 in the bank and the later develops that a check had been incorrectly charged and he really has only $80. In that case, if the man has been issued $100 in scrip, the merchants' association would lose $20 on the transaction. WHITES MAKE MEXICAN LABORERS LEAVE JOBS; PRONTO! THEY'RE CANNED

Three Mexicans, who were employed by the Chestnut-Smith interests, Wednesday failed to make a day. A gang of white laborers whispered in their ear that the atmosphere was enticing over towards town and that comfort and well-being lay in that direction. No arguments ensued. The Mexicans evidently agreed with the whispered words.

Last night five men of the white gang had it without whispers that their services could be dispensed with very easily by Chestnut and Smith. Thus the story of the affair was told to the Times. The white men, with work growing scarcer, felt that the labor being done by the Mexicans should have been saved for them, so

FLEWELLEN DEFENDS
EASTLAND HILL ROUTE
AND ANSWERS MR. BLACK

In yesterday's Ranger Times there "Before oil," Eastland county supported a population of 25,000 with the products of its farms. Despite the fact that there is a considerable stretch of territory southwest of Ranger which is fairly well cultivated, and the Gorman territory never "laid out" through the lure of oil, it is doubtful if there are more than half that number today.

In yesterday's Ranger Times there appeared an article by my good friend, Mr. L. S. Black, in which he protests the Eastland Hill route for the Pleasant Grove highway, and undertakes to correct some misleading statements which he alleges were made at the meeting of the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce, held the day before. In attempting to do so, however, Mr. Black falls into error, and makes misleading statements himself.

CHARITY CLUB FINDS NEEDED BED; CAN NOW USE SOME CLOTHING

The Charity club yesterday through the Times asked for a baby's bed to be used by a seven-month-old child who is suffering from spinal meningitis and whose mother is a widow. In less than an hour after the Times was on the street the want had been filled. Mrs. J. W. Walker, on Eastland Hill telephoned that she had such a bed and would be glad to tender it to the suffering child.

The club can use serviceable garments suitable for children.
