BANDITS STAGE MAIL ROBBERY AT HOUSTON

Robbers Miss Connection With Most Valuable Letter Shipment.

HOUSTON, Texas, July 16.—A registered mail sack, believed to contain only a small amount of money, was stolen last night when three white bandits with faces and hands charcoaled, held up five clerks in a Houston and Texas Central mail car as the train stood at the station, preparatory to pulling out for Dallas.

The bandits missed a heavier shipment of registered mail, postoffice wagons arriving with several registered pouches a few minutes after the robbers had escaped in an automobile. A gun was taken from the only armed clerk in the car by the bandits, when he attempted to resist the hold-up. The bandits, entering the car when the clerks were busy sorting mail, backed the men against the walls, took the only registered mail back in sight and escaped through the car door on the side away from the lighted station. Police early today had arrested one suspect.

DEPUTIES FIND STOLEN CARS; CHARGES FILED

Under a charge of having stolen an automobile in Dallas, Dave Garrett was yesterday remanded to the Eastland county jail by Justice of the Peace McFatter, after failing to make bond in the sum of $2,500. Al Shockley, under the same charge, was this morning delivered to officers from Oklahoma.

The man was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs John Barnes and W. H. Edmondson Thursday night. They have both the cars said to have been stolen in their possession. The Oklahoma car has been positively identified, according to Barnes who yesterday took it from a man to whom it had been sold for $250. Both machines are Ford roadsters, and new. The Dallas car has, according to the officers, been identified by its numbers.

Though the theft is said to have occurred in Dallas, under a state law, charges can be filed in Eastland county and the trial held at Eastland.

FORT WORTH Y. W. C. A. SECRETARY IS KILLED AT YELLOWSTONE PARK

Special to the Times.
FORT WORTH, July 16.—Miss Emma Childers, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association in this city, was killed late Friday evening in an automobile accident at Yellowstone Park in Colorado, where she was spending her vacation.

Miss Childers was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Childers of Wichita Falls and has been general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. here for the past five years. No details of the accident have been received in Fort Worth.

DENISON BANK CLOSES

By Associated Press.
DENISON, July 16.—The Denison Bank and Trust company, which closed its doors Friday when withdrawal deposits developed a run was unable to resume business today. The president of the board of directors told the crowd partially blocking traffic near the bank today that the institution would probably open Tuesday and depositors would receive their money.

Ranger Steam Laundry... $5.00
"If you hadn't come today my children would have suffered from hunger," a mother told the women who are disbursing the milk and ice fund this week. She has three little children. They are the victims of circumstances—nothing more. Only a mother can feel with understanding the misery of this woman as she saw hunger gripping the bodies of her babies, and only a mother can feel with understanding the sublime happiness that was hers when she knew they would be cared for.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—Governor Harding of the federal reserve board today summoned governors of the reserve banks of the south to a conference to discuss the financing of the growing cotton crop.

HARDING PLANS TO RE-ARRANGE GOVT. BUREAUS

Pro Enforcement Will Likely Be Transferred to Justice Department.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Harding is about ready to submit to his cabinet plans for a re-grouping of the government bureaus. Tentative plans are said to provide: Creation of a department of public welfare.
Transfer of the prohibition enforcement bureau from the treasury department to the department of justice.
Consolidation of all secret service activities under the department of justice.
Relocation or a possible splitting up of the department of fisheries.
The plan, which is being worked out by Walter F. Brown, will be revised by the cabinet and submitted to a joint congressional committee of reorganization which in turn will make other changes and submit it to congress for further consideration.

The committee is giving serious consideration to the proposal to create a secretary of national defense, who would head both the army and navy departments, but because of expected opposition the plan is being held in abeyance until a later date.

LEAGUE LAUDS HARDING'S PLAN FOR DISARMING

PARIS, July 16.—Tribute was paid to President Harding as a leader in the movement for world disarmament, as the League of Nations disarmament commission convened here today.

Rene Viviani, former premier of France, presided. In his opening speech he praised Harding's initiative, and declared the commission would be able to prepare valuable data for the proposed Washington conference. Contrary to expectation, Viviani, however, did not suggest an immediate adjournment on account of the Washington conference. Twenty delegates, from fourteen nations, met in the Luxembourg palace for the first session. They do not officially represent their governments, and still discuss the disarmament problem along broad, general lines.

OVERALLS IN POPULAR BLUE AND TAN SHADES REGAIN LOST POSITION

CHICAGO, July 16.—More evidence that the war is over. Overalls are coming into style again. Oscar Bergman, chairman of the executive board of Union Garment Manufacturers association, in session here said Tuesday that the demand for overalls is growing. Suits that cost $100 and silk shirts that cost $25 are going out of style, he said. "Overalls will be worn in conventional shades of blue and tan," he said. "And they will be cheaper. They will retail at about 40 per cent of what they did last year, when the demand was not nearly so heavy."

MRS. EVA KABER SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

Convicted Woman Carried From Courtroom After Verdict Is Announced.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 16.—Mrs. Catharine Eva Kaber today was found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the killing of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber, by a jury in common pleas court here.

The jury recommended mercy. The penalty is life imprisonment.

Mrs. Kaber was immediately sentenced to Marysville reformatory for women for life. At 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Kaber had sufficiently recovered from her collapse in the courtroom to be carried into the court room to hear the verdict.

Mrs. Kaber took the sentence very calmly, never saying a word. She was carried out of the court room in the arms of a deputy sheriff.

The jury reached its verdict shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. The delay in rendering it in the court room was due to the collapse of Mrs. Kaber. The jury started its deliberation at 7 p. m. last night. Shortly after 10 o'clock last night they were locked up for the night, when the foreman reported they had reached no verdict.

At that time it was reported that ten jurors stood for the death chair, while two were holding out for mercy.

The jury resumed deliberations at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Kaber, pale and haggard as the result of her collapse during the period of her trial, was carried into the court and propped up in a chair. She sat motionless as the foreman read the verdict of the jury.

SCRIP WILL CLOSED TODAY; WILL OPEN AGAIN ON MONDAY

"The Mint" in the offices of the Retail Merchants' association is closed today. No scrip will be issued or application for scrip will be accepted because the men attending to the details of the matter must give their time to their private affairs. The office will be open again Monday.

STATE OFFICIAL RESIGNS TO GO TO BRECK BANK

AUSTIN, July 16.—John W. Baker, Texas state treasurer, resigned today. Mr. Baker authorizes the statement that he will become first acting vice-president of the Breckenridge State bank at Breckenridge, Texas. He was serving his second term as treasurer of Texas.

Following the acceptance of state Treasurer Baker's resignation this morning, Governor Neff announced he had appointed G. N. Holton, present chief clerk in the treasury department, to succeed Baker.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The Bergdoll investigation will be reopened Tuesday the special congressional investigation committee decided today.

JAPS OPPOSE TALK ON FAR EAST PROBLEM

Rambling Discussion Preferred to Conference on Specific Questions.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Japan opposes the discussion of specific Far Eastern questions in the forthcoming Washington disarmament conference, it developed today.

She agrees to a discussion of Far Eastern questions from the standpoint of broad general principles, it was made clear to the United Press.

The attitude of Japan was reflected in her reply to the American invitation to the conference, which asked in effect whether the Far Eastern questions were to be taken up specifically or in a general way.

Together with an exclusive interview by Premier Hara to the United Press offered the key to the heretofore unexplained action of Japan in welcoming disarmament discussion in the coming conference, but withholding full acceptance of discussion of Pacific affairs. It was noted that the statement of the Japanese premier, which was furnished to secretary of State Hughes, did not mention the Pacific phase of the coming conference.

IMPORT EMPHASIZED

HONOLULU, July 16.—"Japan's future depends upon the Washington disarmament conference," former Prime Minister Okuma is quoted as saying in an interview printed by the newspaper Jiji.

MANY VOTERS SHOW INTEREST IN ELECTION

A representative from this district to fill the unexpired term of Joe Burgett will be elected today.

In Ranger more interest is being evinced than was thought would develop. At 12 o'clock about 100 votes had been cast. It is thought from this that perhaps 200 ballots will be cast. In Ranger the election is being held in the Texas Bank & Trust company building on Main street. It is presided over by J. F. Connel, assisted by V. V. Cooper Jr., and A. E. Ringold.

The district in which the election is being held is composed of Eastland and Callahan counties. Three candidates are in the race. They are: Jim Grisham of Eastland, D. J. Neill of Gorman, and B. L. Russell of Baird.

GUNMEN KILL THREE PERSONS IN KENTUCKY

HARLAN, Ky., July 16.—Two men, said to be brothers, were guarded in a hospital here today and two other men were being sought because of the killing of three men at the United States Coal and Coke company mine late yesterday.

The dead are: William Holcomb, chief of police of Lynch, Ky.; Carl Fulton, mine foreman; James C. Coldiron, deputy sheriff.

The wounded are two brothers, named Striver.

The two said to have done the shooting were rushed here by special train to avoid threatened lynching. They were employed at the mine.

According to the story told here, Fulton was told that one of the men had entered the mine with a pistol. He reported it to Holcomb and Coldiron. They accompanied Fulton to the mine and four men were apprehended in the bath house. They immediately opened fire as the officers approached.

PASTOR OF CHURCH AT DRUMRIGHT, OKLAHOMA, MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING

DRUMRIGHT, Okla., July 16.—A posse of American Legion men today searched the surrounding countryside for B. F. Montelius, 32 years old, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of Drumright, and secretary of the local post, who mysteriously disappeared here Thursday.

Montelius' clothes were found under a bridge near here. Authorities believe he was murdered, and that robbery was the motive for the crime. He had about $200 on his person when he disappeared, according to relatives.

BIRTHPLACE OF SPURIOUS WHISKEY LABELS SOUGHT IN DALLAS BY OFFICERS

DALLAS, July 16.—Federal officials were today trying to locate a new printing plant here, that plant which has been turning out thousands of counterfeit whisky labels. Labels, counterfeit revenue stamps and quantities of coloring matter were discovered when police raided a house here. The whisky labels bear the well-known trade marks of many of the most popular brands of the ancient beverage.

CHICAGO, July 16.—The American Legion's fight for the soldier bonus will be continued with renewed vigor, declared Major John G. Emery, of Grand Rapids, Mich., the national commander, in commenting today on the "side tracking" of the bonus bill by the senate.

SINN FEINERS AND ULSTERITES IGNORE TRUCE

Deaths Since Saturday Total 20 and Street Fighting Is Unchecked.

BELFAST, July 16.—Warfare between Orangemen and Sinn Feiners continued in Ulster today, despite the truce.

One man was killed here and five seriously wounded before dawn, in street fighting. Sharpshooters fired from windows and roofs. Military patrols searched houses for these snipers.

Deaths since Saturday total 20, and there are scores of wounded in hospitals. A number of grocery stores and saloons were in flames this morning, due to work of incendiary gangs, and others were completely demolished by wrecking crews that broke into them.

TALKATIVE KU KLUX KID GETS SORGHUM COAT

WHARTON, Texas, July 16.—Severe penalty for breaking the vows of the Ku Klux Kids, a juvenile unofficial branch of the Southland organization, was reported administered here today.

Using sorghum syrup and cotton seed pills, instead of the proverbial tar and feathers, members of the Wharton local rolled one alleged miscreant of kidland morals in the mixture, according to a report to parents.

"This guy onct was a member of the Ku Klux Kids, but he wouldn't keep his mouth shut," declared one of the alleged members. "We gotta keep this here thing secret."

TRIBE OF MENNONITES DESERT SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY FOR PARAGUAY

BUENOS AIRES, July 16.—The greatest religious exodus since the children of Israel fled from Egypt is getting under way today.

Sixty thousand Mennonites, members of a religious sect which does not believe in war, are fleeing to Paraguay from the United States and Canada. They propose to establish their own nation within Paraguay, of the manufacture and sell goods. United States capital is said to back them.

Members of this sect had trouble during the war with Germany when they objected on going into the American and Canadian armies. So they propose to move to Paraguay.

Erad Egan, a Minnesotan, representing the Mennonites, today obtained an option from the Paraguayan government on 3,000,000 acres. The Paraguayan government yesterday passed a law exempting sons of the Mennonites from military service.

Six representatives of the sect have just completed a tour of several weeks through the territory they propose to settle on. At present it is only inhabited by the Indians and some portions of it have not been visited since 1835.

The Mennonites representatives say they intend to build railroads and secure an outlet for their products through the Paraguay river. It is reported they are backed by the National City Bank of New York.

HUSBAND OF CHICAGO'S WEALTHY MAID THIEF TO FILE DIVORCE SUIT

CHICAGO, July 16.—Mrs. Etta Heil, wife of a wealthy broker, recently arrested for posing as a servant and robbing her wealthy employer of diamonds, rugs and furs, will lose her husband as a result of her latest escapade. Joseph Heil, the husband, returned all the stolen property he could find and paid $60,000 in settling other claims against his wife. She was spared a sentence in jail, but was sent to a sanitarium. Monday night she returned and kidnapped her two small children. He immediately offered a reward of $5,000 for them and policemen found Mrs. Heil and the babies in a nearby vacant flat.

IRISH PEACE NOW HINGING ON ULSTERITES

North Ireland Must Join Sinn Fein in Concessions, Says Lloyd George.

LONDON, July 16.—Members of the Ulster cabinet were en route here today to be informed by Premier Lloyd George to the Sinn Feiners so peace may be permanently restored in Ireland. Sir James Craig, head of the Ulster government, summoned his cabinet to London after Lloyd George had informed him yesterday that both sides must make concessions, and had outlined to him the concessions Ulster was expected to agree to.

Craig, it is understood, would not give a definite answer without first consulting his cabinet members.

As soon as Lloyd George has obtained the agreement of both Eamonn de Valera and Craig to the proposed mutual concessions, so that a basis for permanent settlement has been reached, regular business conferences among representatives of the British government, Sinn Feiners and the Ulster government will be started, probably early next week.

Ulster, it is understood, has proven more obstinate than the Sinn Fein section of Ireland thus far. Lloyd George has had no trouble getting together with de Valera, but the Ulster men are determined not to be put in the attitude of surrendering to the Sinn Feiners. In this connection, it is pointed out that, while southern Ireland has been calm ever since the truce went into effect, there have been several clashes in Ulster, where the population does not like the idea of a truce.

DENTON DEPUTY MARSHAL SHOT IN GUN FIGHT

DENTON, Texas, July 16.—In a running gun fight with two men in the railroad yards here today, Deputy City Marshal W. A. Neal was wounded in the leg by a bullet fired by one of the bandits.

Neal was searching for the men who broke into the Boren Stewart wholesale house during the night, and looted the place of a quantity of cigarettes. Officers believe the two men who committed this robbery were planning another in the railroad yards when Neal surprised them. The men escaped after an exchange of shots.

'HELL AND MARIA' DAWES ALREADY HAS BOOMLET AS HARDING'S SUCCESSOR

By L. C. MARTIN,
United Press Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, July 16.—The July sun is hot here. But it is never too hot to discourage political hopes from setting out little political boomlets. The hope that the ardent rays will help give them a sturdy growth.

Such a boomlet has been planted, with the quadrennial exhibition of hand-raised booms some four years hence in mind. Right now it is a spindling tenacious plant, but its planters are tenderly caring for it, and have great hopes.

"Hell-and-Maria Dawes" for president is the name of the boomlet. Hell-and-Maria, you'll remember, is director of the budget, otherwise known as business manager of the government. He's been told to make Uncle Sam economical, to keep congress from going on appropriation sprees, and the federal departments from acting like drunken sailors with their pockets full of gold.

You'll remember, too, how "Hell-and-Maria" got his sobriquet. He coined it himself in testifying about war conditions before a congressional committee, he used language more pungent than elegant. Now what he's gone into action on the budget, some of his friends are predicting he will make himself the biggest figure in the country in a few years, and will be the logical man for the G. O. P. nomination one of these days, after Warren G. Harding has no further use for said nomination.

Dawes, they'll tell you, is a composite of Billy Sunday and T. R., in action. He's full of pep, vim and vigor. He loves plain talk, and is withal a two-fisted chap when he meets opposition. He'll talk back to congressmen, senators, cabinet members and presidents, without regard for consequences, when he thinks they need talking back to. He is an up-and-coming person who should be watched, for he's going to land somewhere, his earnest boosters say.

SETTLE IT QUICK.

Obviously, sentiment is divided on the alternatives routes for the Pleasant Grove road. Property owners on Eastland Hill and along Mirror Lake naturally have their views, which are firmly fixed and unalterable. To each side has rallied a number of persons who have no direct interest at stake and who are influenced merely by their theories as to what is proper and just. These latter naturally have merely an academic interest in the discussion. Their only concern is the good of Ranger as a whole and they would not be put out by either routing. But their numbers add importance to the final decision.

The Times believes that there are merits to both contentions. But more than that, it is anxious that construction of the Pleasant Grove road be expedited, and that certainly cannot be done so long as the routing is up in the air. There must some day be some final decision, which will be to the advantage of one faction as against the other.

That being true, why not have it now, next week, instead of next year or the year after. It is not probable that a solution can be found satisfactory to all concerned. Why not, then, pick the route which will most nearly approximate the many factors of perfection? These would include length of road, steepness of grade, cost of construction, ease of obtaining right of way, scenic advantages and easy ingress to and egress from the city. Some of these considerations favor one route, some another, but it would appear that by rating them in their proper value and totaling the points in favor of each, the totals would give the relative desirability of the two.

It seems certain that Ranger in general would be satisfied with a verdict thus arrived at. For Ranger, if she is looking after her own interests, will want that road completed at the earliest possible moment, and will not want it tied up for months or years. The reason for haste—well, there are two: Eastland and Cisco.

"By fall, if no unforeseen obstacles arise, roads will be completed from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger to the Stephens county line," says Judge Starnes. The road from Cisco will most certainly be completed, because work on it is being rushed. It is highly probable that the road from Eastland also will be completed. What then, if Ranger is still fussing about Eastland Hill or Mirror Lake?

The answer is easy. Breckenridge travelers are going where they can get to the quickest and smoothest. And under those conditions, that will not be Ranger.

Let's settle the issue one way or the other—forever—and get a start on the all-important highway to the west and north.

TEAL AND FLEMING
SEEK COMMUNION WITH NATURE'S CHILDREN

At a point on the Concho river, near Paint Rock, the river spreads to a wide expanse and trickles over a dam. Below the dam are shoals where the frisky bass lie in wait to laugh at the lures of intrepid fishermen. They never bite, those bass; they have been angled for too often.

On the bank of the river are spreading elms that cast deep shades where one may rest in comfort from the glare of the noon-day sun. Also on the banks is the cute little chigger that wends its inquisitive way into the soft anatomy of man. There, also, when the evening sun sends its last slanting rays through the shade of the elms, the mosquitos come forth from their lairs seeking playmates. The game they play is to sting, bite and very cleverly dodge a slap.

In this ideal spot Raymond Teal and W. R. Fleming will spend some days communing with the solitudes and listening to the bull frogs sing their dirge to the dying night. Always a bull frog does that. After the vacationists have furnished amusement for the mosquitos for most of the night, with a corresponding lack of sleep, the bull frogs go into action. In their best bass voices they defy humanity to slumber.

Mr. Fleming and Mr. Teal left today. While away the Times will keep them informed as to how the town is being run in their absence. They will join a party that have gone on before.

COUNTRY DOCTOR, HEIR TO TITLE AND FORTUNE,
STICKS TO UNCLE SAM

AURORA, Ill., July 16.—Neighbors learned Monday that the hard-working country doctor they knew as F. Tretbar-Drosten had fallen heir to a Swiss barony and a fortune of 3,000,000 francs. Some of the more forward folk asked the doctor, when he was going back.

"Never," he said. "My lawyer will go after the money, but as for me, I stay in America. It is my country. Rather a citizen here than a nobleman over there. The money can be used to do good. I don't want you to think, however, that I have any dislike for the Old World. I wasn't born there and I haven't any conception of it except from reading. But the United States and its people suit me. I was born in Mexico when my father was stationed there as the ambassador from Switzerland."

Baron Dr. Tretbar-Drosten is 45 years old and married. The wealth which he has been left was made in a steamship line in which his father was the principal owner.

SHERIFFS HAD GRAND

EASTLAND, July 16.—Sheriff Sam Nolley has returned from Amarillo where he was in attendance upon the sheriffs' convention. He reported a splendid meeting, and said the association went on record as favoring the return of the passes to the officers, or else the giving of a cheap rate, as many times it worked a hardship on an officer to go after prisoners. He said the Panhandle city tendered the officers a big barbecue and wolf chase that was much enjoyed.

YO HO, MATES!
MORE PIRATE
GOLD DUG UP

By Associated Press
PAPEETE, Tahiti, July 13.—Romance is not yet dead. Tales of buccaneering, murder on the high seas, buried gold on lonely, uncharted islands and charts and cryptograms of hidden treasure-trove are not all inventions of imaginative minds or legends of a day which is long past.

Such a tale is the story of the treasure of the island of Pinaki, whose hiding place, after a patient search of over seven years, has at last been discovered. And now a schooner from Tahiti has been dispatched to bring away the gold.

A half century ago, four sailors, deserters from a coastwise vessel, joined revolutionists in Peru and learned of a vast treasure of jewels, plate and ingots, the property of the church, which had been hidden in Peru to prevent it from falling into the hands of one of the warring factions. Secretly the sailors searched for the treasure, found it concealed in a church building and moved it to another hiding place on the coast.

Going to Panama, the seafarers, at night, boarded a small schooner, murdered the crew, and, after putting the treasure aboard, set sail across the Pacific, intending to take some European port later to dispose of their wealth. Recalling that they had no clearance papers and probably could not enter a European port safely, they decided to hide the gold on some far island and then return it later in a vessel they would charter at Sydney, N. S. W., for trading purposes.

Across their path lay the island of Pinaki, in the Paumotu Archipelago of the South Seas, and at the uncharted spot they stopped and hid their loot. One native, who observed them from a neighboring island and rowed across to see what the men from the strange schooner were doing, was killed and his tribal brothers, who crossed later, found only his empty canoe and strange markings on the trees.

Sailing on to Australia, the four scouted their vessel when a few miles from shore and, rowing to land, told of a storm at sea which opened the seams of their ship. Not all believed them, for some residents had seen the ship approaching and had witnessed its mysterious sinking. There were no police, however, in that section and as the four men looked desperate, they were permitted to strike out overland for Sydney, unmolested.

Years later, in about 1914, a Mr. Howe was accosted on a Sydney street by an aged beggar. When Howe gave the man a few shillings he was surprised to hear the beggar ask his name and address. Some time later Howe received an urgent summons to go to a Sydney hospital. There he found the beggar, who told of how he and three others had buried their treasure, had sailed on to Australia and had set out overland for Sydney. On their way, blacks attacked them and killed two of the sailors. The beggar and his surviving companion, Brown, tried for years to get a ship to go for the treasure but never obtained money enough. Brown finally disappeared and he, Kilrain, had fallen into misfortune and knew his end was near. Therefore he gave Howe the map of the island, begged him to believe the story true and to search for the treasure. The following day the beggar died.

Since then Howe has been searching for the treasure and lately announced that he had found it in a shallow lagoon on Pinaki. Later he chartered a schooner at Papeete to go to lift the gold, after making a contract with the colonial government as to his rights in the matter. It is said the treasure is worth several million dollars.

TEXAS MAY GET LOOK AT GIANT DIRIGIBLE

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Senator Sheppard has filed with the navy department a request from the Texarkana, Texas, Chamber of Commerce, that the ZR-2, known in England as the R-35, the largest dirigible balloon in the world, recently purchased by the United States, be permitted to stop at Texarkana in its transcontinental flight proposed by Secretary of the Navy Denby.

The Chamber of Commerce declared that such a move would create interest among the people of that section that would revert to the benefit of the naval air service. Texarkana is located at a juncture of four states, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas, the letter said, and people from those states would come for miles to see the huge dreadnaught of the air.

The ZR-2 is expected to arrive in this country, after a trans-Atlantic flight, about Sept. 1, landing at Lakehurst, N. J., the navy department has announced. If the plans of Secretary Denby are carried out, the dirigible will then fly across country to the Pacific coast.

JOIN FORCES TO WAGE
WAR ON THE SKEETER

EASTLAND, July 16.—War is being waged on mosquitoes in Eastland through the instrumentality of the Civic league, the Chamber of Commerce, the city management and other agencies.

The matter was first taken up by the ladies of the Civic league in a general clean-up, campaign, and they were joined later by the city management, which passed an ordinance declaring that all weeds and grass must be cut by Aug. 1, and Manager O. M. Crenshaw of the Chamber of Commerce has declared that his organization will co-operate in every possible way to the end that the pests be put out of commission.

SPECIAL JUDGES NAMED TO ACT IN ABSENCE OF HILL AND DAVENPORT

EASTLAND, July 16.—At a special meeting of the members of the bar of Eastland county held in this city Friday afternoon, Claud P. Chastain and H. L. McCune were elected special judges of the Eighty-eighth and Ninety-first district courts respectively to preside in the absence of Judges Ed A. Hill and Geo. L. Davenport, who are away on their vacations.

County Judge Joe Jones, John W. Turner and John Sayles were appointed a committee to see that the proper entries in the minutes of the court were made.

BAVARIANS ANNUALLY CELEBRATE HISTORICAL WINE GUZZLING EVENT

By Associated Press. ROTHENBURG, Bavaria, July 16.—Thousands of visitors gathered at Rothenburg this year to attend the historical festival, "The Master Draught," which is given annually in celebration of the preservation of the historic old town from destruction when Tilly captured it in 1631, after the surrender and retirement of Gustavus Adolphus' forces which co-operated with the villagers.

After the Passion Play, which is given every ten years at Oberammergau, the Rothenburg festival is probably the best known of all the Bavarian folkplays. Nearly all the 7,000 inhabitants of the picturesque walled town participate in the brilliant festival, which continues throughout most of the day.

The play opens in the valleys surrounding the fortified city. By degrees the actors make their way to the city gates, enter the narrow streets and finally terminate the performance in the city hall, where Burgomaster Nusch saved the town from destruction by taking three liters of wine at one draught in response to the challenge of Tilly.

Every day at noon the residents of Rothenburg are reminded of Burgomaster Nusch's feat. When the great town clock in the city hall square sounds 12, doors beside the timepiece open and lifesized figures of Tilly and Nusch appear. The burgomaster lifts a goblet to his lips and when it is emptied the two figures disappear.

Cincinnati announced contract with Pat Moran, manager, for 1921 and 1922.

Rice, Washington, failed to hit after getting a hit in twenty-eight consecutive games. Faber, White Sox, stopped him.

Frisch, Kelly and King tripled in succession off Hamilton, Pittsburgh, the Giants making seven runs in the seventeenth inning and winning 7 to 0. The Giants went into fifth place, the highest point of the season to date.

Even Catastrophe to Headgear Can Be Made Occasion for Copious Flow of Tactful Words

A man stood on the deck of a barge plying over the lake at Austin, Texas. His eyes were turned fixedly and longingly on a white object that was fast falling astern. It went farther and farther into the distance and the face of the man became set in lines of pessimism that should never be on the face of a city builder. But he was thinking of all the other misfortunes that had come into his young life; and then fate had dealt him this last blow.

It was almost too much. He gazed at the rippling waters until the object sank in the mists of the horizon. There with a heavy heart, but remembering that he was a city builder and should continue to smile even in the face of tragedy, he turned to a companion and made a light remark. That man was J. E. T. Peters, Chamber of Commerce manager. The object was his new straw kelly that some uncouth person had accidentally knocked into the lake while the city builders, gathered in Austin in convention, were out for a ride.

YEGGMEN ARRESTED FOLLOWING ROBBERY

BEAVER CITY, Neb., July 16.—Two men who gave their names as George White and P. T. Yerrud, and their homes as Cedar Rapids, Iowa, were arrested here today charged with robbing a bank at Nora, Neb., Sunday night. Two hundred dollars in silver, wrapped in Nora State bank containers, and $5,200 in war savings stamps were found in their possession.

curd at this moment to cover my head without having to be so crude as to have to ask someone for the loan of a kelly." Understand, one could imagine him doing that thing. The records do not show whether he did or not.

This tale has a sequel; there are little moments of happiness even for managers of Chamber of Commerce. When our hero returned to the offices of the owners of the boat upon which he was riding, he mentioned again—though it was evident that he had had no hat.

Then spoke the voice of an angel:

"Mister," it said, "did you lose a hat on the lake?" It is feared here that Mr. Peters for a moment forgot the dignity for which he is noted. He quotes himself as saying "I shore did" in a voice both eager and unnecessarily emphatic. That is the end of the tale except Mr. Peters is wearing that straw kelly to this day. It had been rescued by a passing boatman.

STORY OF WOODROW WILSON BY TUMULTY IS NEARLY COMPLETED

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Only a few more chapters, it was learned yesterday, remain to be added to the story of Woodrow Wilson's public career, which Joseph P. Tumulty, his former secretary, has been engaged in writing since March 4.

Publication of the book, which deals intimately with Wilson as governor of New Jersey and as president, is awaited here with keen interest. In its preparation, Tumulty has had the advantage of consultation with Wilson and of access to private papers in the former president's files at his S street home.

The book is expected to contain a great deal of hitherto unpublished information regarding the historic events of the two Wilson administrations. A foretaste of the contents was given in the eulogy of Wilson which Tumulty delivered as a speech during the last campaign.

HOBO AVIATOR ROUSES IRE OF ARMY FLYERS

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Merrill K. Riddick, "air tramp," son of Representative Riddick, Montana, is resting at the home of his father in Washington after a flight that carried him all over the United States, while army officers are chagrined because they cannot have him prosecuted for flying an alleged un-air-worthy plane.

Unavailing efforts were made by Maj. M. E. Scanlon, commanding officer of Bolling field, to have Maj. Harry Gessford, chief of police, arrest the young man, but the chief said he had no jurisdiction over aviation and Riddick went free.

Riddick, after oiling up a day or two, will be ready to start on another trip. His father, who stands close to inner councils of the Republican party, admitted his son is a sort of "vagrant" so far as the air is concerned.

Young Riddick was one of the first Montana boys to volunteer, his father said. He went to France and on his return entered the air mail service.

"He never had an accident—not even a finger bruised," his father said.

Upon leaving the air mail service he bought a Curtiss plane and started out to make a living. He made it a point to pass over towns low enough to see if the people were interested. If they gathered in the street he took it that an airplane was strange and landed, taking people up at $5 a ride.

"And he makes more money than I do right now," Mr. Riddick said. Young Riddick bought his plane last August by paying nothing down and $250 a week.

MYSTERY SHIP PLAYS TAG WITH ENGLISH LINER

NEW YORK, July 16.—An unidentified ship, which was violating international maritime regulations by running without proper lights and which refused to respond to signals asking her identity, was sighted last week 750 miles southeast from Halifax, N. S., by the British steamship Croxeth Hall, which arrived today from Hull and Antwerp.

According to the report made by Captain Spence, of the Croxeth Hall, to Sanderson & Sons, agents, the ship apparently a small freighter, first was observed ahead of him, showing a stern light. The Croxeth Hall caught up with the vessel, which suddenly swerved in her course and then came right at the British vessel.

The stranger passed astern, went around and came up again on the opposite side. The red and green running lights indicating the port and starboard sides of the ship were not lighted. Captain Spence reported, and as soon as the Croxeth Hall came up the single stern light disappeared.

Repeated efforts to signal the stranger by flashlight code and by wireless brought no answer. The vessel, after running with the Croxeth Hall a short time, turned away and disappeared.

When the stranger was sighted the weather was rough, but not so thick that the vessel could not be seen clearly by the British Captain. His first thought was that it might be one of the ice patrol ships, but failure to answer signals and absence of regulation lights disproved this theory.

Agents of the line, while admitting they were puzzled at the unusual occurrence, said they did not connect it with recent unverified reports that a mysterious ship, with piratical intent was operating off the Atlantic coast.

BALLY BRITISH ARE HOTTER THAN THEY'VE BEEN IN FORTY YEARS

LONDON, July 16.—The whole United Kingdom is sweltering in heat almost tropical in its intensity. The extraordinarily high temperatures registered during the week have made this month the hottest July in the last forty years.

The unenviable distinction of experiencing the greatest heat in the United Kingdom falls to Nottingham, where screened thermometers registered 92 degrees Sunday. This reading at Nottingham is the highest in this country for July since 1881, when the mercury climbed to 95 degrees at Brixton, London. Temperatures of 90 to 92 degrees have been registered in London and other cities during this month.

The maximum temperature, in absolute shade, ever recorded in the British Isles, was 100 degrees at Greenwich, in August, 1911.

SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

MOTHERS' CLUB RECEPTION. On Tuesday afternoon the Mothers' club of the Young school gave a farewell reception honoring Mrs. Deffenbach, who is leaving for Denison. A very enjoyable program was presented.

A duet by Meses. Maddocks and Homlesley, "Sweet and Low," accompanied by Miss Vera McNew at the piano, was sweetly rendered. Mrs. Milford next gave a reading into which she instilled much pathos and feeling. Little Mary McNeill gave "Humoresque" as a piano solo. This little 8-year-old girl shows much talent, and if cultivated will have a promising future as a pianist.

The next number was a vocal solo, "An Irish Love Song," by Miss Vera McNew. She played her own accompaniment. Miss McNew has a voice of unusual sweetness and clearness, and the prolonged applause caused her to give "Who Knows?" as an encore. Miss McNew is indeed an artist, and it was a rare treat to hear her. Mrs. Chaney, in her inimitable way, gave a humorous reading. In a fitting address, Mrs. Taylor, the president of the club, made a short summary of the good work the departing member, Mrs. Deffenbach, had done in the club, to which Mrs. Deffenbach replied with a short talk.

After the refreshments were served, there was a short discussion of the children's story hour.

ZION, Ill., July 16.—Mrs. Sarah Johnson was fined $5 and costs Tuesday for violation of the town's dress ordinance. She was charged with exposing the neck lower than the juncture of the pit of the neck with the collar bone, and the shoulders more than a third part from the neck to the shoulder tip, with exposing the arms above the middle of the forearm and with wearing a "peek-a-boo" or mosquito net blouse.

DREADFUL EXPOSURE OF ARMS BRINGS FINE TO WOMAN IN ZION CITY

Mrs. Johnson on the witness stand contended it was a pink corset cover that officers saw through her waist and offered to go home and get it. City Attorney Theodore Forby complained that peek-a-boo waists have a tendency to make men curious and are conducive to low public morals.

"Women ride through town in automobiles with not enough clothes on to fill a quill toothpick," he asserted.

Mrs. Johnson announced she would appeal the case.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

MR. RANGERITE:

If the church house doors should be closed in Ranger today for all time, would you immediately decide to make this your permanent home?

If you are a man with a family, would you want to keep your wife and children here under such conditions?

There are many people in the city who never go to church. There are yet others who go so seldom they are at a loss to know how to act in church because of changing customs. There are others who are commonly called irregular attendants. And, then we have the class upon whom we may always rely.

Check up in your circle of acquaintances. Who among them have the best businesses and best homes? Who make the best citizens? The church people or the non-church people? View the facts and start the upward trend. Go to Church Sunday. J. W. McKINNEY, Minister Church of Christ.
