SPURGIN'S BANK LOOT IN HANDS OF FRIEND. DOLED OUT DAY BY DAY

By International News Service MARFA, Aug. 27.—Operatives for nationally known detective agency are exerting every effort to run down the go-between used by Warren G. Spurgin, absconding head of the Michigan Avenue Trust company bank of Chicago, and shut off his money sup-

The detective agency received code reports from his operative in Chihuahua City today saying that Spurgin was still at the hacienda of his American friend on the outskirts of the Mexican city and had been there with the exception of two or three days, when he visited Uriachia, a city in the same state. The effort to locate the go-between for the absconding financier is being made in the hope that without money he can more easily be persuaded to give himself up in case the negotiations with the Obregon regime to I have him declared an "undesirable and expelled from Mexico fail.

There have ben many reports that Spurgin had about $50,000 with him when he fled," said the manager of the detective agency. "We know positively that he got away with twice that much cash and that he does not carry it with him. It is in keeping with some friend who doles it out to him as he needs it. If we can locate the go-between we can soon bring Spurgin to time. The transactions are all hand to hand."
