U. S. OPERATORS WILL PAY TAXES, MEXICANS SAY

Petroleum Heads Now En Route to Conference at Mexico City.

By Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, April 22.—Edward Doheny, president of the Mexican Petroleum company; Harry Sinclair of the Shell Oil company, and other prominent oil men who own property in Mexico, passed through San Antonio last night en route to Mexico City for a conference with officials of the Mexican government relative to the oil situation in that country. The Doheny party is due to reach the Mexican capital tonight.

La Prensa, a Spanish newspaper published in San Antonio, today carried a dispatch from Mexico City saying that a conference has been arranged with Adolfo De La Huerta, minister of finance, for Monday morning. The same dispatch said it is rumored in the Mexican capital that the American oil interests have changed their attitude on the Mexican government's proposal relative to the taxes on oil and are prepared to accept the proposals, with the object of getting the matter definitely settled. Several months ago a delegation headed by Walter Teagle, president of the Standard Oil company, conferred with the Mexican officials and the agreement was reached to suspend for a time the new export and production taxes on oil.

OVER FOUR-FIFTHS OF SALVATION ARMY FUND SPENT IN RELIEF WORK

Out of the fund of $1070 raised here last fall to carry on the work of the Salvation Army the sum of $862 was spent in relief of needy residents of the city during the winter months and $75 was spent in rescue work. Ensign W. T. George stated last night in explaining why the organization is now without funds and is obliged to depend on street collections for maintenance of the corps here. These collections seldom exceed $10 per week and additional funds must be raised if the Salvation Army is to carry on the work here, he said.

Under the regulations of the Salvation Army, the heads of the army corps in various towns and cities must work under the Salvation Army advisory board made up of citizens of the respective towns and cities.

DRIVE FOR NEW C. OF C. STARTS DURING WEEK

Thirty Business Men Will Enter Campaign for Large Membership.

The membership drive of the New Chamber of Commerce, the tentative organization of which was announced several days ago following the disbanding of the old organization, will start this week, it was announced yesterday afternoon by H. S. Cole, temporary chairman. All merchants and business men of the city will be solicited for monthly subscriptions according to the size of the respective businesses and their ability to give, the subscriptions being of a much lower figure than sought heretofore.

Furthermore the Bolshevik statesman was photographed in the act of shaking hands with Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, who has been particularly active in taking exception to Russian proposals in the conference. When M. Barthou discovered that he had been photographed in the act of exchanging greetings with the soviet delegate, he demanded in explosive French that the film be destroyed. The thought of such a film being shown in the picture places along the Champs Elysees was too much for the French delegate, but the hard hearted movie man ignored his expostives and continued filming the rest of the notables who were the king's guests at the luncheon.

M. Tchitcherin was accompanied by Leonid Krassin, Russian soviet trade expert, who also was clad in approved Downing street style. In fact, the representatives of the Russian proletariat was the most bourgeois-looking guest on the Italian battleship. M. Tchitcherin sat dur-

Crisis Not Settled.

The crisis in the economic conference raised today by the French objection to the ten-power note, suggesting that the German delegation refrain from discussions relating to Russian affairs, had not passed satisfactorily up to a late hour this evening.

At a meeting of representatives of the entente powers late this afternoon it was agreed that another note be sent to the Germans stating it was assumed that the Germans had agreed to refrain from all Russian discussions in the political commission.

French Suspicious.

In fact, the British and most of the other delegates so interpreted the German reply, but the French expressed fear that the reply left a loophole through which the Germans might enter discussions of German questions not included in the Russo-German treaty signed at Rapallo last Sunday. The ten-power delegates are meeting tomorrow to draft the supplementary note to the Germans but it was not certain tonight whether the French would agree to this document, as they are suspicious of the German plans.

The French also raised objections to the voluminous Bolshevik document which became public yesterday, in which Russia made a long reply

GENOA, April 22.—George Tchitcherin, head of the Russian soviet delegation to the economic conference, not only went to luncheon today with King Emmanuel d'Audoubert-Dante, but also for the occasion an immaculate morning coat and a high hat of latest style and was filmed by motion picture photographers as he was shaking hands with the Italian monarch.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY INUNDATED FROM ILLINOIS DOWN TO THE GULF

By Associated Press.
NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—Approximately 600 men are battling tonight to close a seventy foot break in the Mississippi levee at Myrtle Grove, thirty miles south of this city. Reports indicated the workers had good prospects for success. After the break early today the river rapidly cut away a section of the levee which was almost submerged, about seventy feet wide. Reports from Myrtle Grove indicate that approximately 10,000 acres of plantation land already seeded for rice, sugar and truck garden products had been inundated. The Mississippi now registers higher than ever before in history at all points where records are kept, from Greenville, Miss., to the gulf, with the single exception of Baton Rouge. Probably the largest area now covered by the water is in the lower Yazoo river basin, where more than 1,300 square miles of the best farming land in the delta are inundated.

More than 1,000 refugees from this section are being cared for at Vicksburg. Another large area is in Phillips county, Ark., where refugees have been taken to Selena.

Ranger voted to stand pat on the percentage, but she bowed to the will of the league. However, the local club will insist on being given a 500 exemption on Sunday crowds.

Arrest Follows Searching Probe of Asphyxiation at Mathis Home.

HOUSTON, April 22.—W. S. Mathis, grandfather of the three children found in their beds asphyxiated early Thursday morning, was charged with murder late Saturday. Filing of charges followed an intensive investigation by police since the tragedy.

The children, ages 6, 8 and 9 years, were discovered Wednesday in a gas-filled bedroom adjoining the kitchen in their home here. Three gas burners were going full blast and the door between the rooms was open. Officers investigating found the windows had been fastened and a broken window pane stopped up, affording no outlet for the gas.

The children's father was at work and the mother in Port Arthur, where she had been since last Saturday. The children were alone with their grandfather, who reported the matter to the police early Wednesday.

When told Saturday afternoon that it was a deplorable incident in the life of an old man to face trial on such a charge, Mathis said:

"I have never done anything in my life that would make me want to take a life. Very few fights have I ever had even when a boy."

Saturday morning detectives took Mathis to the scene of the tragedy, where he was compelled to see several small children wandering about the rooms of the home. Officers watched him closely and said he would not look at the children for a considerable time.

Authorities also are of the opinion that the gas jets of the stove were opened and later closed and then opened again when it was found that all the children were not dead. Those closely associated with the case are of the opinion that a man could not have slept in the adjoining room without receiving some of the effects of the poisonous gas.

TWO HELD AT BRECKENRIDGE FOR TAKING RIG IRONS FROM TEE PEE LEASE

Special to the Times
BRECKENRIDGE, April 22.—V. Wilcox and P. G. Stack, charged with stealing the rig irons from the well of W. W. Poe near Gainsight on April 13, were arrested here today, following the discovery of the rig irons in a junk yard, where it is alleged the two men sold them. The irons were recovered just before they were sold to a drilling contractor.

Following the discovery of the theft, the irons were trailed to Breckenridge by the number of the truck in which they were hauled away from the lease by B. S. Via, company attorney.

BROWNWOOD MAN HEADS TEXAS KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

FORT WORTH, April 22.—Thomas C. Yantis of Brownwood, was elected grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Texas, Knights Templar, at the closing session of the sixty-ninth annual convocation here today.

Grand Prelate Joseph Sherrin of Dallas, Grand Treasurer Austin E. Clarkson of Houston, and Grand Recorder John Carson Kidd of Galveston, were re-elected to their respective offices, the grand recorder having served continuously since 1897. Other officers were each moved up one place and N. K. Tracy elected to fill the post of captain of the guard that was vacated. Dallas was chosen as the convention city for next year and the date for the next convocation set for April 4, 1923. A number of knights left this afternoon for New Orleans to attend the triennial convocation of Knights Templar there.

MINNESOTA INDIAN FIGHTS GIFT OF LAND TO STATE

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Injunction proceedings were instituted today in the District of Columbia supreme court by John A. Morrison, Jr., a Chippewa Indian of Minnesota, against Secretaries Fall and Mellon, Indian Commissioner Burke and Commissioner Spry of the general land office.

The Indian seeks to prevent the classification of any portion of the White Earth reservation as swamp and overflow land and the issuance of 600 acres of land without consideration of his tribe.

BONUS BILL IS BUYING OFFICE, BORAH'S STAND

Tells Idaho Legion It's Using Public Money for Political Gain.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, states in a letter to the Pocatello, Idaho, post of the American Legion that if he voted for the soldier bonus bill "it would be a simple matter of barter in which I use the people's money to buy somebody's vote." The letter was in response to a telegram received by the senator from the Pocatello post and was made public by him tonight.

"But one thing neither you nor anyone else will be able to say," the letter says, "and that is that I ever sought to purchase political power by drafts upon the public treasury or that I chose to buy a continuation in office by putting $4,000,000,000 upon the bended backs of the American taxpayers. I haven't much respect for the man who buys office, even though he pays for it with his own money, but the most sly creature which disgraces American politics is the man who pays for it out of the public treasury and charges his political obligations to the public."

At the outset, Senator Borah said that he had reached his decision "after great consideration and with much reluctance." He added that he understood perfectly the criticism it would invite but believing that his position was a righteous one, he could not change.

CHICAGO COURTS ADOPT 'SINGLE STANDARD' CODE

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 22.—The single standard of morality has been put into effect by the city health department, it was announced Friday by Dr. H. N. Bundesen, health commissioner. Hereafter, Dr. Bundesen announced, men and women brought to the department through violations of the moral code will be treated alike—isolated in the city hospital until they are physically well. Heretofore only women have been isolated, the men being released.

The first instance of the new rule came Thursday when the father of a girl was permitted to pass sentence on a boy who was believed to have communicated a disease to her. The girl had been isolated in the hospital, but the boy was released. Dr. Bundesen called in the young man and the girl's father decided that the boy should be treated the same as the girl—forced to remain in the hospital until cured despite the fact that this upset his plans to keep his trouble secret from his family.

The boy's father, when he learned of the case, volunteered to pay the maximum fine under the charges on which the couple were arrested, but Bundesen refused to permit this.

AIRMAIL PILOTS BREAK FORMER SPEED RECORDS

By Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 22.—Eight airmail pilots on the four divisions of the Western division established a record yesterday for the total flying time consumed in making the four round trips between Salt Lake and Rock Springs, Wyo., Salt Lake and Elko, Nev., Reno, Nev., and Elko, and San Francisco and Reno, it was announced today.

The total flying time including takeoffs and circling of fields for altitude, it was reported, was 15 hours 23 minutes for the total flying distance of 1,570 miles. This beats the former best record of 15 hours and 36 minutes.

The average speed maintained by each pilot was more than 100 miles per hour.

N. Y. DRY AGENTS PULL SOME NEW STUFF IN RAIDS

Pose as Tourists and Round Up $30,000 Worth of Hooch.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Disguised as tourists, their motor car covered with mud and dirt, and their faces smeared with dust, Izzy Einstein and Moe Smith, New York's most versatile prohibition agents, today raided nearly two score cafes, arresting twenty-six proprietors, and employees and seizing liquor valued by them at $30,000.

Seven nationalities were represented in the list of prisoners, who were rounded up after many hours work.

The biggest haul was made in a former saloon at 335 Amsterdam avenue.

Izzy and Moe breezed into the place early this morning.

"Did you enjoy the speech last night?" asked Izzy of Moe as they approached the bar.

"I did not," replied Moe, disgustedly, "there was too much prohibition in it."

"What Will You Have?"

"What will you have, boys?" asked the proprietor, smiling.

"A little hooch," brazenly replied Izzy.

The proprietor poured the liquor into a glass and the two agents poured it into tubes, which they carried in their best pockets. The owner stunned by surprise, then was placed under arrest.

A search of the place, Einstein said, revealed fifty-five cases of champagne and other imported wines, many cases of gin and whisky and scores of bottles of assorted liquors.

Before proceeding to the Bronx, Einstein and Smith changed their disguises, assuming that of coach drivers, high hats and all.

"I don't like these Sunday funerals," complained Izzy as they walked into the first Bronx saloon.

"Neither do I," replied Moe, "I hate to work on Sunday."

Bartender Is Sympathetic.

The bartender who served them with the liquor agreed with them, saying:

"I'd like to go to the Polo Grounds this afternoon, but the boss won't let me off."

"Sure he will," replied Izzy. "Come along with me," and he flashed his shield. A summons was left for the owner.

They had no difficulty in obtaining liquor, the agents said, except in one place, where the bartender, who was serving beer, told them to "beat it," and picked up an empty bottle. Izzy and Moe walked out, satisfied, they said, that there was no chance of "getting anything" on the bartender today. "But we may go back," Moe said.

The average price of a drink, Einstein said, was 50 cents.

"And it is terrible stuff, worse than furniture polish," he added.

A bootleggers' quarrel in a West Side garage today, in which several shots were fired, brought police reserves to the place, where they confiscated 36,000 quarts of wine, whisky and brandy.

WANT BOOTLEGGERS FINED BUT NOT FED ANY MORE

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., April 22.—Because "bootleggers are eating Teller county out of house and home," County Commissioner Richard Quinn wants the courts to assess fines against liquor law violators instead of giving them jail sentences.

Quinn declared that filling the jails with bootleggers and moonshiners is too costly a proposition. He expressed the belief that some of the counties in Colorado will spend all their available funds boarding and lodging violators of the dry law.

A "National Society for Temperance Without Prohibition" has been formed in Sweden.

LADY ASTOR GETS TOO NOISY AND MRS. CATT BOUNCES HER FROM MEET

BALTIMORE, April 22.—Almost all the young women and older women attending the Pan-American conference of women seemed to quit listening attentively to the speakers as soon as Lady Astor appeared on the platform this evening. The vivacious Virginia girl who became the first woman member of the house of commons had hardly taken her seat when she began making short comments on the statements made by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the suffrage leader, who was then addressing the delegates.

"Hear, hear!" or "That's right," Lady Astor would say from time to time, and nearly everyone appeared to be interested more in her remarks than those of the speaker.

Oh Lady, Lady! Finally Mrs. Catt thumped vigorously with the gavel, and said: "Lady Astor, I've presided over many a meeting, but I never had so much trouble in my life as I have since you came into this one. None of these reporters seem to be paying attention to anyone but you, so I'll have to let you talk, and then you can leave and give the reporters their interview. And I want everybody to remain in their seats."

Women Are Curious! After addressing the conference Lady Astor went to the press room to see the correspondents. Immediately 300 women posed as reporters and circled about her with the several score of newspaper representatives, asking all sorts of questions.

"Is that your house of commons dress?" one young girl asked.

"Lord, no, child; this is the best dress I've got," Lady Astor replied.

Monday, Lady Astor will address the convention. Tuesday she will go to New York to address the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, returning immediately to Baltimore.

to the London experts' report on the rehabilitation of Russia. M. Barthelemy said the French could not sit with the Russian delegates until the document was discussed. The soviet explained that this document comprised merely their own arguments and was superseded by M. Tchitcherine's note of yesterday, setting forth their position exactly.

Annays Lloyd George. Premier Lloyd George appeared much annoyed over the French quibble. He declared he had only read three lines of the document, which had never been officially presented to the conference and was patently Bolshevik propaganda. He added that he was getting tired of crises, which were being foisted upon the conference to the great detriment of work, and wished to say on behalf of the delegation of the British empire that if these crises and constant delays continued he would be forced to explain who was responsible for them.

The British delegation has not received as yet the protest which the French government is reported to have sent out from Paris to the powers signatory to the Versailles treaty, in which France is said to have maintained that the Russo-German treaty is in violation of the Versailles treaty.

PORTUGAL'S LAST NUN IS DEAD AT AGE OF 89

LISBON, April 22.—Mother Maria Rosa de Jesus, a Carmelite nun who has just died at Braga at the age of 89, is said to have been the last nun in Portugal.

She belonged to the Convent of St. Theresa until the liberal monarchy extinguished religious communities. The other Carmelite nuns, her companions, left the country, but "Madre" Rose Marie obtained leave of her order to remain in Braga where she lived in retirement ever since, always carrying out the rules of her order as if she were still in the convent.

Mr. Squirrel climbed one of the hydro-electric towers. He reached the top and jumped on to the line. The power was grounded and the line thrown out of commission for more than a minute.

Don't worry.

These are the rules followed by Mrs. F. F. Huberty-James of No. 409 East Adams street, this city. Years ago she lived in New York.

"I was a tutor in the family of August Belmont until I concluded that pampering of children of rich men wasn't right, and quit," she said. "I made the acquaintance of the Belmonts in Paris, where, later, I met my husband, the late Prof. F. F. James, an instructor in the University of Hong Kong, China. He died in 1891."

Mrs. James, who was born in Liege, Belgium, has been all over the world.

"I took to eating peanuts for breakfast about ten years ago when I felt that old age was beginning to tell on me," she said. "I concluded that the older we get the less we need of substantial food; that all that the system requires is the essential. This essential I found in the peanuts, which contains all the fat and everything else that we need."

Starts Peanuts.

"At about the same time I began eating peanuts for breakfast, I started taking gymnastic exercises upon getting up in the morning and walking at least five miles a day.

"As soon as I got into the routine I began feeling fine, and here I am today at almost 79, feeling like a woman in her late forties, or at least in her early fifties."

Mrs. Huberty-James looks to be all that she says she is. Her cheeks glow with the bloom of youth that many under twenty often have to find in the cosmetic box. She is always in good spirits and active and spry.

"If the women, and men, who constantly feel 'dopey' and down-in-the-mouth, if not actually ill—if these unfortunates would only do as I am doing and have been doing, I know they would get real enjoyment out of life," she said. "I don't enjoy notoriety, but if having my picture and my statement in the paper is going to help someone to real life I'll be satisfied."

She says she eats "100 peanuts a week."

"But by 'peanuts,' she explained, "I mean the kernels and not the shells and kernels together, as the word 'peanut' is generally understood."

For lunch and dinner she eats rice, wheat products and fruits and vegetables in salads.

"I seldom eat meats," she says, "in fact, never unless I happen to be invited out to dinner and the hostess serves meat, in which event it would ill become me not to partake of a little."

"I used to drink milk, but I decided that milk is only for children and invalids and I 'cut it out,' I drink only water."

BRITISH ISLAND SCORNS MONEY; HAS NO GOVERNMENT OR TAXES

LONDON, April 22.—Persons who hold that the love of money is the root of all evil will find support for that belief in the Isle of Tristan da Cunha. For, the 113 white folk inhabit that tiny speck of an island in the South Atlantic, there is no money in circulation among them and, significantly enough, there is also no wrongdoing of any description.

This island, the tiniest of all British possessions, has no laws. It has no jail. Crime among the inhabitants being unknown, such an institution would be a superfluity.

There is no form of government and no taxes to pay—heavenly to the poor mortals who are struggling with income tax reports.

Minister and Bride on Way
To this Arcadia, the loneliest spot in the world, the Rev. Henry Rogers and his 19-year-old bride embarked from London the other day in search of the "great adventure."

Cut off from civilization as completely as if they were on Mars or in the spirit world—and with infinitely fewer persons attempting to communicate with them—it is their aim to improve the religious and secular life of the 119 British subjects of polygot origin who live there.

When this pair arrive they will find three mountains jutting up from the sea—Tristan, Inaccessible and Nightingale—with the inhabitants on the first, Tristan, containing sixteen square miles, rises 7,640 feet above the sea, its extinct volcano bearing a cap of perpetual snows.

Garrison of One
Tristan da Cunha was discovered in 1506 by the Portuguese navigator whose name it bears. Great Britain took possession some three hundred years later, and while Napoleon was imprisoned on St. Helan, some three hundred miles distant, placed a detachment of British soldiers as sort of an outpost garrison.

On the death of Napoleon in 1821 the soldiers were withdrawn, but a certain Corporal Glass, with his wife and family and a few other men, were permitted to remain. In 1833 the population numbered forty persons, and in 1852 it had increased to eighty. Shipwrecked mariners swelled the colony, wives being imported from Africa for some of them.

Thus the settlement grew, until now there is a curious mixture of Anglo-Saxons, Asiatics, Dutchmen, Italians, Portuguese, Hottentots and Africans. There is a strain of American blood in some of the inhabitants, for Confederate privateers in the Civil war put several Northern prisoners ashore and they were assimilated into the colony.

Disaster Befell in 1885
In 1885 a great disaster befell the islanders. Fifteen men, comprising a great part of the adult masculine population, were lost in a boat wreck, making Tristan, as one of the survivors expressed it, "an island of widows and children."

But the women and children stuck it out and slowly, as other men sought its lonely shores, it was repopulated.

But as they embarked on the Kinfauns Castle for South Africa, Rogers, who has twice traveled around the world and has been a missionary in New Zealand, declared:

"It is a glorious adventure. I welcome the chance of serving on the firing line of foreign missions. The isolation of the people of Tristan appeals to me. They seem to me to call for Christian comradeship."

Quality Product—Quantity Price

Chevrolet is the chief quantity product of the world's largest producer of quality automobiles.

Only great engineering, research, manufacturing and financing capacity make possible so fine and complete an automobile for so small a price.

Chevrolet now leads all standard fully equipped cars in volume of sales, proving that it makes good in service and represents today's greatest motoring value.

Cost Least Per Mile and Per Year

Chevrolet costs least per mile in consumption of gasoline, oil and tires. It costs least per year because of small price and lowest repair bills.

It delivers the most economical transportation available in motoring, yet in construction and appearance it is a credit to its builders and its owners. It has standard 3-speed transmission.

Before buying any car at any price it will pay you to investigate Chevrolet.

TOURIST CAMPS PAY.

That tourist camps pay is not "new" news. But repetitions of the story reciting their value to various communities cannot but be interesting to any town which has as yet no enterprise of that description and therefore cannot say what it would be worth to it.

Last year there was considerable auto tourist traffic through Ranger. This year there will be more. Next year, with the Bankhead highway completed, there will be a constant stream of such traffic.

Ranger should reread the story in yesterday's Times, and then decide a tourist camp will be an asset. Establishing one would cost a few hundred dollars, but the money thus expended would be an investment, and not a contribution, if the camp were well located.

As to location, what place would be better than Shamrock park, with its dance hall and swimming pool for recreation; with its nearness for those who like downtown attractions? Chances are that this ground could be obtained at a reasonable price.

Why not start now? Such camps must have advertising. If Ranger's is in operation this year, every tourist will advertise it. And next year, there will be ten cars coming through Ranger to one this year.

First Picture From Illinois Flood Territory

Many homes were washed away, railroad tracks swept from their moorings and thousands of acres of land inundated by the flood that swept through parts of Illinois and Indiana, entailing a loss of nearly fifty lives. Here is the first picture of the flood crest as it swept away railroad tracks at Beardstown, Ill. A thirty-foot levee in the Mississippi valley gave way and the maelstrom of gurgling waters rushed madly into the little city. The mound from where this remarkable picture was taken was swept away five minutes after the camera man had completed taking the picture.

VOLSTEAD ACT CHANGE FORECAST BY DEFEAT OF DRY CANDIDATES

WASHINGTON, April 22.—For the first time since the Anti-Saloon league blew its hot, dry breath across the United States, sweeping everything before it, the small "liberal" element in congress seriously believes that the tide of popular favor is turning against the Volstead law so strongly that something can soon be done toward modifying the law—probably along the lines of light wines and beer.

The anti-Volsteaders have said before that sentiment was turning against Volsteadism, but they said it as a matter of principle and were not sure of their ground. This time they sincerely believe it and their belief is shared by a surprisingly large number of dry congressmen.

Three notable "liberal" victories scored at the polls last week, have contributed largely to this belief. They are:

1.—In the thirty-seventh congressional district of New York, Judge Frank Irvine, Democrat, running on a wet platform, came within 3,000 votes of being elected to congress over Louis Henry, Republican, in a district that is normally overwhelming Republican.

2.—In the twelfth congressional district of Illinois: Representative Ira C. Copley, Republican, of Aurora, one of the oldest members of the Illinois delegation, was defeated by Frank R. Reid, who campaigned on a liberalization and taxation platform.

3.—In the sixteenth congressional district of Illinois: Representative Clifford Ireland, Republican, of Peoria, was defeated in the primaries by William E. Hull on a straight wet and dry issue.

The defeat of the two veteran Illinois members in the primaries created a situation in the house Thursday that is not far removed from panic.

Copley is serving his sixth term, is a member of the all-powerful ways and means committee, and was looked upon as a certain victor. He has consistently voted dry.

Ireland is serving his third term, is chairman of the committee on accounts and has also voted dry at every opportunity.

"Fixture" Beaten Both were beaten by Liberal candidates. It is not "ordinary" when a six-termer is beaten. When a man has served six terms they regard him as a fixture in the house.

W. Bourke Cockran, Democrat, of New York, spokesman for the liberal element in congress, was one of those to characterize these political results Thursday as the "turning point."

BRITISH MINISTER WILL ACCEPT AMERICAN CALL

The Rev. F. W. Norwood, minister of the City Temple, in London, has accepted an American call and will become pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle, in New York City. His London pulpit will be occupied by Rev. C. E. Jefferson, pastor of the American church of which he will assume the pastorate.

"It is the awakening," said Representative Cockran. "It is indicative of the awakening of the commonsense of America, which has been asleep since the passage of the Volstead law."

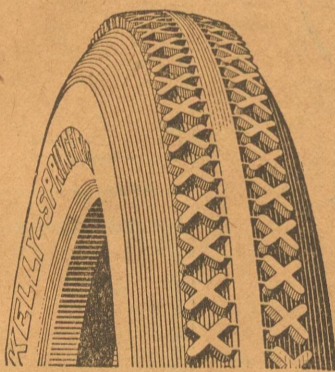

"Volsteadism was imposed at a time when the country was not mentally normal. Even I myself did not realize just what Volsteadism meant, that things would come to such a pass where drunkenness is increased, where lawbreaking, even by reputable citizens, is the accepted thing. It cannot continue. This thing must stop. And I believe this is the turning point."

POOR FISH LOSE THEIR MORALE IN HATCHERY, IS PROTEST IN CANADA

OTTAWA, April 22.—Government fish hatcheries have ruined the "morale" of the salmon of British Columbia, according to the story told to the house of commons by A. W. Neill, independent.

It seems that when the wee salmon come into the world at the fish hatchery they are guarded against all enemies and lose their protective instinct. So when the salmon has come to age and is sent out in the cold world he is as "fame as a cat," to use Mr. Neill's expression, and when he meets an enemy he "stands with his mouth open and accepts murder as if such a thing was foreordained."

KILL INCURABLE INSANE IS ADVICE OF PREACHER

WORCESTER, Mass., April 22.—Kill the hopelessly insane to make room for curable patients in public institutions, is the proposal of Rev. R. S. Winn, a member of the house committee on public institutions, that has shocked many who have heard it.

Winn declares himself in favor of mercifully ending the sufferings of the more violently and hopelessly insane. He has also attracted considerable notice by his arraignment of dancing, which, he says, is responsible for the presence of many of the young women now confined to institutions for tuberculosis patients.

SHERIFF SAM NOLLEY ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

I wish to announce my candidacy for re-election to the voters of Eastland County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary next July.

I feel that I need no introduction to the people of Eastland County. I was born in Texas and have spent all my life in this great state. For the past twenty-nine years I have resided in Eastland County and feel that during that time I have made a host of friends.

After serving as a deputy sheriff for about a year, and before that for five or six years as an officer of the law, I entered the race for Sheriff in 1920, and was elected to that office, entering into the duties of the position in December of that year. Since becoming sheriff my department has placed 608 prisoners in the county jail. In addition to this big total there were hundreds of other arrests made where a bond was given and the prisoner was released without being placed in jail. In all probability a total number of arrests thus far during my term of office is equal to 1,000. These figures will give the public an idea of the activities of my department.

One thing of which I am proud is that I have never placed a pair of handcuffs on any prisoner and have never mistreated a prisoner.

I ask the voters in making their decision to take into consideration the record and qualifications made by me and my department during my first term of office.

SAM E. NOLLEY.

To turn out quality printing, it costs money; both in equipment and salaries paid. We have discarded all old type and are replacing it with new and up-to-date faces. We have one of the best printers in the state in charge of the department. All of this costs money, but such is not considered when the aim is to turn out the best work. EASTER BRILLIANCE PASSES

Society has certainly paid tribute to the Easter season the past week. The yellow of the downy chicken, the brown of the rabbit and the varicolored eggs, ran riot at every social function. Society with its fondness for brilliant coloring and Easter suggestions in gay decorative schemes, decked its receiving rooms with streamers of yellow, placed rabbits and chickens in every nook and corner, and scattered other Easter symbols broadcast in celebration of the beginning of the post-Easter season.

Now, May Day approaches, and it is rumored that the private dance at the Gholson tomorrow night will have a crowning of a May Queen and possibly other old-time May first festivities.

The Gholson, as usual, will be the mecca for most of the spring parties, starting with this dance Monday night, continuing on Tuesday with probably the largest private party ever given in Ranger, when Mrs. A. G. Jury entertains at bridge, and gaining greater impetus the next week when Mrs. Wm. Clegg, Gifford Clegg, L. L. Rector and R. C. McCoy entertain with a May Day party. On next Saturday, four matrons will honor a June bride with an April shower, at the same place, which will be the first bride's shower given at the Gholson.

Mmes. Lytton R. and Earl Taylor will entertain on Friday afternoon at the former's home, in honor of Mrs. R. B. Waggoman, which will be the most elaborate home party of the week.

MUSIC CLUB PROGRAM.

The members of the Music club will please note that the program will begin at 1:15 instead of the usual hour, so as to allow those who desire to attend the bridge party at the Gholson, Tuesday afternoon, ample time to do so. The program will begin promptly and all members are requested to be on time. It will be a musical program:

Roll call, musical events; Toreador Song, from "Carmen" (Bizet), Mrs. Clyde Gorman; story of "Madam Butterfly," Mrs. C. H. Moffett; duet from "Madam Butterfly" (Puccini), Mmes. R. C. McCoy and Vincent Wakefield; paraphrase, Rigoletto (Verdi-Liszt), Mrs. R. C. McCoy; Synopsis of "Louise," Mrs. William Conway; Dupuis Le Jour, "Louise" (Charpentier), Mrs. T. J. Holmsley; Sextette from Lucia (Donizetti), Mmes. McCoy, Maddocks, Wakefield, Holmsley.

A NEW CLUB.

On next Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haden, the Pastime Bridge club will hold its first meeting. This is a brand new club, but old enough to have been christened, and is composed of a number of the most socially prominent men and women. It will meet every other week, on Thursday night. There are sixteen tables; and bridge will be the diversion at the meetings. This club is organized under the most favorable circumstances and bids fair to be among the liveliest.

T. O. M. CLUB.

The club of the mysterious initials met with Marguerite Novakovich at her home on Walnut street Friday evening. The time was spent very pleasantly in dancing and playing games, and ice cream and cake were served to the following club members: Nannie and Clara Haden, Esther Yonker, Eleanor Alworth, Evelyn West, Oreta Smith, Thelma Collins, Katherine Shea, Maurine Bowman.

NOTICE, 1920 CLUB MEMBERS.

The call meeting of the 1920 club that was scheduled for Wednesday, has been postponed on account of the Red Cross health conference at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m. The next meeting of the 1920 club will be on May 4, which is the regular meeting day.

FRIDAY BRIDGE WITH MRS. LANGSTON.

Mrs. F. E. Langston entertained the Friday Bridge club this week at her home in Hodges Oak park. The high score prize, a pair of hand-embroidered pillow cases, went to Mrs. J. B. Haden, while the low score prize, a box of dainty talcum powder, was awarded Mrs. Pop Endicott. Chicken salad, potato chips, pickles, macaroni and coffee were served after the awarding of the prizes. Mrs. Langston was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Mayme Ruth.

The players were: Mmes. S. W. Bobo, Frank Champion, Harry Logsdon, O. L. Chastain, Walter West, Ira Nourse, Pop Endicott, John Moyer, J. A. Martin, Harold Whitbeck, J. B. Haden, Mises Douschka Bobo and Mayme Ruth Langston. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. A. Martin.

YOUNG MATRONS MEET.

The Young Matrons' club met for the first time in several weeks Friday afternoon, and was charmingly entertained at the home of Mrs. E. E. Crawford. Mrs. A. J. Orth was the successful contestant for the high score club prize, a pair of hand-embroidered pillow slips, while Mrs. F. A. Brown was the lucky one in the contest for the guest high score prize, receiving a pair of lovely silk hose. The consolation prize, a set of hand-painted card table numbers and bell, went to Mrs. Karl Jones.

WILL ENTERTAIN FATHERS.

The High School Parent-Teachers' association will entertain the fathers Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, at the old Methodist church, where the business department of the High school is now located. A program has been arranged, as given below, and refreshments will be served. This will be a very interesting meeting and all fathers and mothers interested in the High school are requested to be present.

Miss Mavis Douglas will sing and Mr. Yonker and Mrs. Huffman will talk on "How I Should Like My Son to Conduct Himself Downtown." Miss Eppie Jean Groves will read.

ELDEEN CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. E. M. Huffman was hostess to the Eldeen club Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. The home was very attractively decorated in cut flowers and a dainty luncheon added further charm to the afternoon's pleasure. The guests busied themselves with their needlework until it was laid aside for refreshments.

Those present were: Mmes. C. L. Webb, H. L. Heydon, W. F. Bigbee, A. W. Townsend, D. E. Klinger, White, Nova Little and the hostess. The next meeting will be Thursday evening at Mrs. Little's home, at which time she and Mrs. Huffman will entertain the club members and their husbands.

CHURCH RECEPTION AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

The new members of the Methodist Church were made to feel very welcome Friday night when the church members, sponsored by the social service committee of that church, gave an informal reception and extended to them the "glad hand."

The church was very artistically decorated with green and white crepe paper, which was brought from the supporting middle pillars to a central point above the altar, and also carried out in the same way in the League room. Potted plants were dispersed to an advantage throughout the auditorium, while a basket of cut flowers and vines was used as a centerpiece on the serving table. The new members were met by a reception committee of the church stewards at the door, and were tagged with their own names so that it was no trouble to identify them, nor to become acquainted. The following interesting program was rendered:

Song, "America," by assembly; invocation, Rev. L. A. Webb; reading, Blanche Niver; piano duet, Mrs. Cole and Mary McNeal; reading, Mrs. Chaney; vocal solo, Miss Douglas, accompanied by Miss Armer, reading, Mayme Ruth Langston; reading, Mrs. Sanford Berrell.

After the program the guests were invited into the league room, where they were served ice cream, cakes and coffee by the members of Mrs. J. B. Stackable's class, who are the Young Matrons' Class of the Methodist Sunday School. This class was also responsible for the decorations.

Mrs. Roger Fenslow, in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. O. L. Phillips, acted as general chairman for the evening, and Mmes. C. D. Woods, M. K. Collie and Mills Davenport were the program committee. A social hour followed the program, in which everybody had a good time.

TASTE NOT INSANITY

By United Press.
LONDON, April 22.—Relatives failed in their attempt to break the will of Baron Russell, who left $100,000 to his chauffeur-companion and, during his life, hang dolls on his bedstead and discharged a trained nurse because her pink cheeks clashed with the orange wallpaper. Commenting on the wall-paper incident, the judge said: "I sympathize with him. I dislike a violent clash of colors. I do not think that is the letter of a man whose mind is unbalanced. I rather regard it as proof of sanity."

Spring Suits Include Flare Types

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE Fashion Service

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

OFTEN we hear in spring or fall of a resolution to try to get along without a suit for the season, but the American woman knows too well the becomingness, the convenience, and the satisfaction of a smart suit to go long without one.

The soft, wool fabrics so exquisite in color and texture that adorn the counters in the up-to-date stores lend themselves admirably to suit-making, especially when decorated with attractive braid. And the making of suits is no longer tedious. To develop the one pictured here, for instance, is not difficult. The soft, easy lines, the drape sleeves and the collar are as easy to develop as those for a dress, especially when one first bastes up a guide model coat of muslin and determines whether the length and fullness are exactly right for individual becomingness.

The skirts of the spring suits are a bit narrower, that is, they measure from 52 to 60 inches at the lower edge. This, of course, is inevitable with the added length, which is not much but is noticeable, considering the extremely short skirts of last season.

Pretty, well-kept hands are required with the plain wrist finish or peasant influence that is evident in many of the sleeves. The hat shown is of black, shiny braid with satin trimmings.

THE VERY LATEST THING IN SPRING MILLINERY

Your British sisters, ladies, here show you the very latest thing in new spring hats. At top (right) is shown a hat of pillar box red straw, with georgette crown to match. The model at top (left) is of navy blue straw trimmed with quilted red ribbon. A dainty design from plaited orange ribbon is shown at the bottom (left), while at the right is a black shining straw toque, with a beige colored ribbon around the brim.

HER FIRST AND SECOND SUE EACH OTHER FOR STEALING WOMAN'S LOVE

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 22.—William J. Lester Seattle, theatre manager, is suing George T. Williams, Wall street steamship operator, for $100,000 and Williams is suing Lester for $150,000, all over the affections of Mrs. Amanda Lester, who has been the wife of both men. And now, according to the two men, she is living with neither.

Williams married her in 1900 at Camden, N. J., and they lived happily until 1914, when, according to his complaint today, Lester came along and won her affections. Then Williams obtained a divorce and Lester married her.

Lester's suit alleges that in 1920 Williams went to Seattle with a second wife, dropped her there and again wooing his first wife, took her away from Lester and brought her back East. Lester charged that Williams and Mrs. Lester now were living together in New York.

This allegation Williams denied today in an answer.

AGED WOMAN MAYOR QUITS IN DISGUST

MAGNETIC SPRINGS, O., April 22.—The oldest woman mayor in the United States—Mrs. Mary McFadden, 80—has retired to private life, thoroughly disgusted with politics and politicians. She's "through" forever. "Coffee and doughnuts" couldn't keep up the morale of village councilmen.

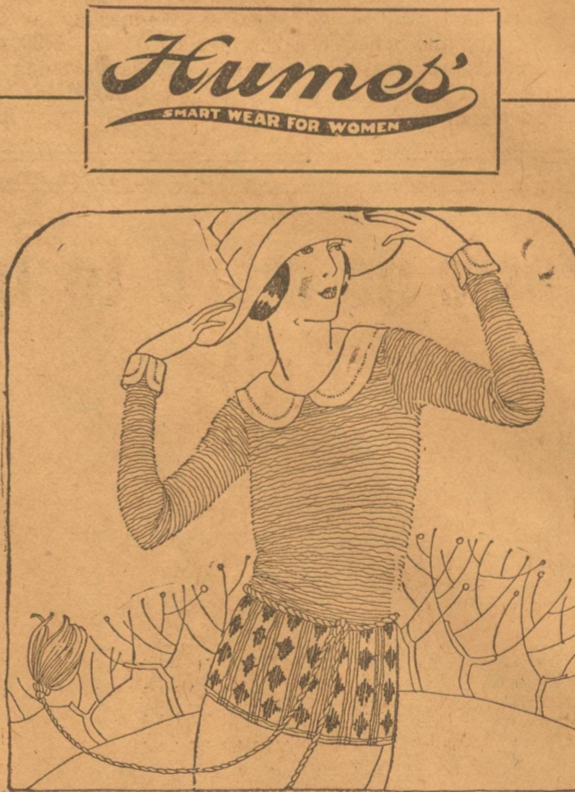

The legislators lost interest in her program to plug leaks in prohibition and war on vamps, speeders and other offenders. They were A. W. O. L. at council meetings and thereby upset the "administration."

The Ascent of The Sports Idea in Springtime Apparel

Sports togs and colors are no longer relegated to sports alone. The gay colorings, comfortable freedom and exhilarating expression has induced madame to adopt and accept them for practically every occasion preceding sundown.

Knowing the trend, our designers have employed the sports idea in a most captivating way—creating dresses, wraps and suits, retaining the "sports swing," but adding "dressy" and distinctive traits as well.

It's a wish fulfilled—and Humes' feel justly proud in being the store where it is best fulfilled in such numerous and winsome ways.

ed mayor by Mayor Brown when he went to Florida for his health, assumed her duties Jan. 16, announcing she would serve doughnuts and coffee to the councilmen to get them out to meetings.

Her policies included a crusade on traffic violators, bootleggers, enforcement of the curfew law and good roads. She said today: "Everything went well for a few weeks and then everything went to sticks. The councilmen grew tired of meeting and I just decided to 'retire.' I wrote to former Mayor Brown in Florida and told him to come back and take the job. I told him to hurry back, too."

Mayor Brown returned last week and, with other village officials, prevailed upon the aged woman to stay on the job. Councilmen promised to "reform," eat more doughnuts—anything to keep peace in the official family. But the lure of the kitchen was too strong, Mrs. McFadden went home Saturday, turning the reins of government over to Brown with "all best wishes."

KEY WEST, Fla., April 22.—Pilot C. A. Schiller, employed by a company operating commercial seaplanes between Key West and Nassau, Bahama Islands, was mobbed and severely beaten on his arrival at Nassau Tuesday, in the belief that he was a prohibition officer, according to a report received here at the company headquarters.

The metric system is now used all over Europe, with the exception of Russia and Great Britain.

MAJESTIC.

Elaine Hammerstein in a new Selznick picture, "Why Announce Your Marriage?" is announced as the featured attraction at the Majestic theatre today and Monday. Unlike most of the picture in which this charming star has recently appeared, "Why Announce Your Marriage?" is a comedy of the lighted type which is said to afford the star new opportunities of which she makes the most at all times.

The story deals with the determination of a young married couple to keep their wedding secret from their friends and public. In doing so they involve themselves in a mire of scandal that grows deeper and deeper all the while, finally resulting in a situation that threatens them both with lasting disgrace. Then, of course, the truth comes out and it is learned that their seeming discretions were but the natural deeds of a man and wife who considered their marriage of importance to themselves alone.

In the picture a notable supporting cast is seen with Niles Welch at its head. Arthur Houseman and Florence Billings also have important parts and others in the cast are Frank Currier, Huntley Gordon, Marie Burke, Elizabeth Woodmere, James Harrison, and George Lessey.

LAMB.

When Wallace Reid, Paramount star, agreed to do the title role of "The World's Champion" from the successful play by Thomas Loudon and A. E. Thomas, as his new starring vehicle, which will be shown at the Lamb theatre today and Monday, he drew a large order, for to portray a prizefight champion and to show the pugilist in action in the bout in which he grabs the prize belt, is a stunt that cannot be "faked" before the camera.

Although Reid was no novice with the gloves, having been for a long time a boxing enthusiast there were nevertheless many tricks for him to master, and to perfect his role he went through a daily course of rigid training for several weeks prior to the filming of the fight scenes.

Under the clever direction of Philip E. Rosen, the scenes of "The World's Champion" are most realistic and the picture is declared to be highly diverting. J. E. Nash adapted the play to the screen and Mr. Reid is supported by Lois Wilson, Lionel Belmore, Henry Miller Jr., Helen Dunbar, and other players.

The new Pope Pius XI is described as a great linguist, being credited with knowing 26 languages. He has written more than 300 books.

Falstaff of Movies Smiles Again

"Fatty" Arbuckle's famous smile has been chiefly conspicuous by its absence since he was accused of causing the death of Virginia Kappel. He recuperated quickly and revived the smile as shown here when the jury acquitted him. You can't miss "Fatty" in the right center. Minta Durfee (Mrs. Arbuckle) stands at the lower left hand, while her mother, Mrs. Durfee, appears between "Fatty" and his wife.

SON OF EX-EMPEROR IS NAMED AUSTRIAN KING

Crown Prince Otto, son of the late ex-Emperor Charles of Austria, has been named "king" of that country by the Legitimist party, declare reports from Vienna. Prince Otto is 10 years old. He is at Madeira, where his exiled father died. The naming of Otto as king is not taken seriously, inasmuch as the royal family was de-throned during the war. But the child is said to have royal rights in Hungary and Prince Otto may yet become involved in Europe's politics.

CAVEMAN-LOVER IS HUMILIATED BY COURT TRIAL

KANSAS CITY, April 22.—George Kieslich, 16-year-old "caveman lover," was humiliated by being held for trial in juvenile court here.

Police said the boy, who styled himself as a "graduate of the Boonville (Mo.) reformatory," admitted stealing a car. He drove the car around to the home of Luella Starnes, 14, crawled into her room through a window, compelled her to dress and with her in the car started for Joplin, where he said he intended to marry her.

George made the big mistake of stopping and asking two patrolmen the way to Joplin. The policemen became curious.

Luella recovered her courage along with the sight of the uniforms and told the policemen George flourished a good-sized gun when he got her out of bed in the wee small hours and informed her she was going to be a bride.

The youth declared that the girl, who was released, "was just like all other women, trying to blame the whole thing onto a man."

Fillim admitted, after his practical demonstration, that he did not know much about driving the car.

NITROS TUSSLE HARD, BUT DROP THIRD STRAIGHT TO LUBBOCK

Praises be, the Lubbock gang has won! They're all nice boys, but their cheerful way of pestling the home pitchers and stopping all the home boys' rallies with graceful nonchalance hasn't endeared them to Ranger hearts. They won again yesterday, 6 to 4, but had more of a tussle doing it. The Nitros once even had the impudence to go out in front. But that only lasted until Lubbock found out what had happened. Then the bluejeans were tuned up, with the usual result.

Hubbard No Sharpshooter. Hubbard served the slants for the Hubbers and if his careless way of floating the ball up to the plate is anything to go by, it wouldn't do for him to be a waiter. Boy, he'd pour gravy down a man's neck until the clothes slid off. And after he'd got through handling the soup, the ladies would wash their face every time they used their powder puff.

In other words, he just slung the ball around promiscuous like. He walked eight men during his five innings on the mound, and if the Nitros had just bumped the few he got over the plate, there would have been scores a-plenty.

But they didn't, except in two innings. Once was in the third, when Foudree, a youngster from McAlester who broke in at second, slapped a grounder just beyond Battle's clutching fingers, scoring one man. Again in the fifth, there was a knock—a real he one—which Craig placed against the right-center boards. The pillows were packed at the time, due to sundry circumstances, and three rolled home, putting the Nitros ahead of the game for the first time this season. That made tumult in the city, or that part of it situated down by the creek on the west side.

A Gruesome Sixth. That finished the Nitros' labors for the day, though a gorgeous opportunity went glimmering in the sixth when Hubbard again started his walking tactics with Albright and yielded a hit to Plumlee, putting two on. That finished him, and Swenson promptly walked Delane, filling the bases with nary an out. Bu-Duckworth let the third one go by, Albright was caught at the plate when York hit to Speegle, and Johnny King gathered in Foudree's fly.

That was Ranger's last chance to count, except in the seventh, when Bellah slashed a double to left to open the inning, but went on farther.

York Looks Good. York was the pitching selection for the Nitros and pitched the best game yet exhibited. He was nipped for two scores in the first, when Earnshaw bumped a triple to left which could possibly have been caught, and King and Langford followed with singles. Singles by King and Gober, with Brown's sacrifice sandwiched between, put over another in the third. In the sixth a Speegle's triple and a squeeze play added two more, and an error by Craig allowed the final marker in the eighth.

The Nitro play showed some improvement yesterday, but there was some work in the outfield and by Albright at first and on the bases which would be complimentary to call amateurish. All of the outfielders failed lamentably on ground balls and it certainly seems that they could learn to play the bounce off the fence, and not make a long U-shaped run in its wake. Albright made a catch of a short fly that would have been circus stuff if he hadn't had plenty of time to get under it. He also was caught off first when a pop fly was hit back of the box. How come? We dunno. Also there was a squeeze play, early in the game, which was worked like somebody had read about it in a book, and thought they'd try it.

But Clovis is here today. It's a new deal. There's strength in the Nitros, if it is just put to work. The score: Lubbock—AB. R. H. PO. A. E. RANGER HIGH BEATS GORMAN IN FIRST GAME

A home run eluded by Anderson and the consistent good pitching of Pellerin throughout the game yesterday afternoon resulted in the defeat of Gorman at the hands of Ranger High in the first game of the season, at Gorman. Score, 6 to 4.

Ranger led off with three runs in the third inning, when Anderson's home run brought in two men on bases. Gorman checked Ranger in the seventh inning after three more runs had been brought in, and staged a rally, scoring three runs. Another run was brought in by Gorman in the eighth inning. Gorman had two men on bases in the ninth and no outs when Pellerin pulled out of a bad hole by fanning the next three men up. Huffman caught like a veteran in his first game behind the bat.

The Ranger lineup was: Ramage, lf.; Anderson, ss.; Hoffman, c.; Phillips, 3b.; Russell, cf.; B. Mills, 1b.; Simpson, 2b.; Pellerin, p.

SPORTITORIAL

It's Clovis today. Ranger has met Lubbock and we are theirs, for the time being, at least. But Clovis can easily be a different story. It's a first-year team, just like Ranger's.

One series does not prove that things have gone to smash. There's strength in the Nitros, if they'll just lose that over-cagerness and play ball as it should be played.

Ranger wants good baseball, it is true. But the best way to have it is to support the boys who are playing. That will induce them to do their best. If the best is not good enough, then there must be changes; and those changes will be made. But to fail to stand behind the team now means to run the risk of blowing up, which Ranger did not have in mind when starting out. Strengthening will require shekels, and most of the shekels must be taken in at the gate.

ENTERS SENATE HANDICAP

Mrs. Peter Olesen is not appalled at the idea of competition so she has entered the lists against Senator Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota. Somehow she thinks the seat he occupies is desirable for a woman who also is a Democrat. He will be renominated by the Republicans, while it is certain that she will oppose him for election.

SWEETWATER, April 22.—San Angelo took the odd game of the series from the Swatters here today in ten innings by a score of 7 to 6, in a ragged fielding game with many errors of commission and omission. Rain halted the game twice. The Swatters left tonight for Abilene, where they play Monday.

DEATH REVEALS STRANGE STORY; MAN VAINLY LOVED WOMAN, THEN HER DAUGHTER, FOR FIFTY YEARS

NEW YORK, April 22.—An unusual romance is brought to light as a result of the death of John Reiners, who recently leaped or fell to his death from the eleventh floor of the Pulitzer building.

Reiners left a suit case in the care of a clerk in the offices of the Editor and Publisher Magazine. When the valise was opened it was found to contain securities the face value of which was about $250,000. However, on expert appraisal they were found to be almost worthless.

Reiners came to America from Germany fifty years ago. He took up his residence with the keeper of a general store in Jersey City. The family had an infant daughter, two years of age, whom Reiners became very much attached to. When the little girl had grown into young womanhood, Reiners asked her to marry him, but she refused, telling him that she could never care for him in that way.

The young woman subsequently married a man named Ludwig. A little girl was born to the Ludwigs and Reiners became her inseparable companion. As the little girl, Helen Ludwig, grew into young womanhood Reiners would often remark that she was the image of her mother, and Mrs. Ludwig said yesterday: "I could see that the love Henry had had for me, he now gave to Helen. On her nineteenth birthday we received word from George that he could not be with us on account of the serious illness of his employer."

Reiners left a will bestowing his securities jointly on his sister, Maude Reiners, of No. 148 Cator avenue, Jersey City, and Miss Ludwig.

Punshon, now a broken old man of 81, an inmate of the Bridewell, has finally seen the light. He says his own ambition now is to "go straight."

SLAMS WIFE IN THE EYE AS SHE SHOUTS 'RUMMY'

DENVER, April 22.—A fight over a game of "rummy" that resulted in Mrs. Alexander Mitch, 4747 Sherman street, receiving a black eye from her husband, was aired today in police court.

Mitch testified his wife and he were playing the game Tuesday night and every time he would overlook a card his wife would shout "rummy."

"I think my wife call me names," declared Mitch, a Lithuanian. "Time after time, I tell her stop call me 'rummy' but she go right on doing it. So I get mad and hit her in eye. Then I am so excited I go out and get a few drinks."

Mitch asserted he did not know the calling of "rummy" was part of the game.

Neighbors called the police when the disturbance was at its height and Motorcycle Policeman Quinlan went to the home and found Mrs. Mitch stretched out on the floor, one eye badly blackened. She was still in a daze from the shock. Mitch had disappeared.

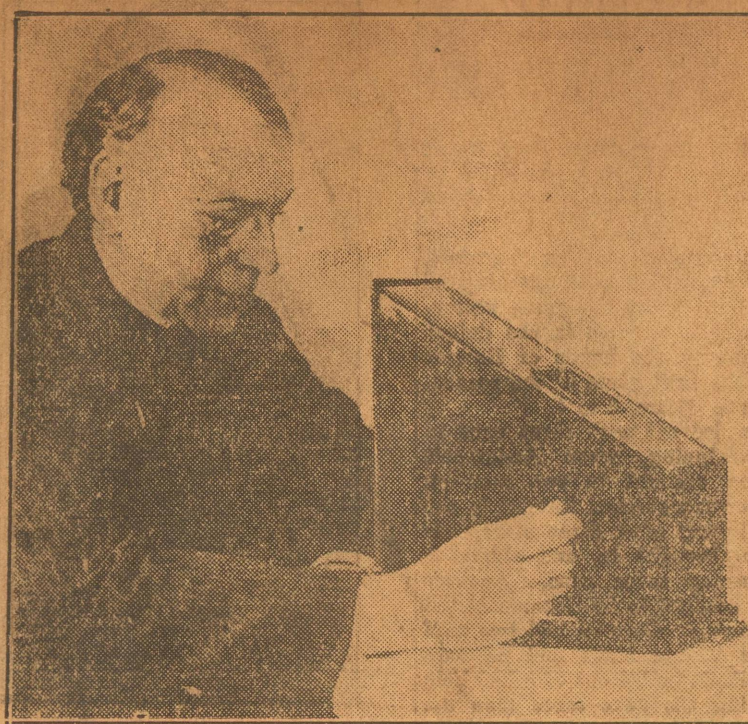

He was arrested later and charged with drunkenness and disturbance.

'SHOULD HAVE PUSHED BOTTLE BACK IN POCKET' JUDGE REBUKES N. Y. COP

NEW YORK, April 22.—Magistrate Geismar, in the Fifth avenue court here, dismissed a complaint of violation of the liquor law against Joseph Pryer, 45, a seaman of Chicago, and rebuked Policeman Otto Tietjen, who arrested him.

Pryer was specifically charged with having a bottle of liquor in his overcoat pocket.

"Don't you know, officer," said the magistrate, "that you are not permitted to search a man without a warrant?"

"Yes," replied Tietjen. "I didn't have to search him. I saw it sticking out of his pocket."

"Why didn't you push it back?" the magistrate countered. "This case would be dismissed by the grand jury, so I am going to discharge the man myself."

'SHE PAWNED MY PANTS TO HAVE HER HAIR BOBBED,' WAILS HUBBY

TEST RIGHT TO MAKE LIQUOR APPARATUS

CHICAGO, April 22.—Federal prohibitive agents raided the Home Manufacturing Company here and confiscated copper tubing, stills, malt and hops and flavoring extracts valued at $50,000.

According to Guy W. Ginders, Chief Field Agent, the raid is in the nature of a test case.

If upheld by the courts no place selling stills and other paraphernalia applicable to the manufacture of distilled liquor and home-brewed beer will be free from Federal prosecution, he said.

DETROIT, Mich., April 22.—"She pawned my pants to have her hair bobbed, judge."

With this plaintive lament, George A. Richter opposed the motion of his wife, Jeanette, for $25 a week alimony.

"I've suffered enough a ready," he declared.

Judge Barton, despite Mrs. Richter's denial of the charge, refused the award.
