Negro Uprising Threatened at Kirvin

STATE RANGERS SENT THERE TO RESTORE ORDER

Armed Men Lie in Wait for Band Reported Marching From Corsicana.

AUSTIN, May 8.—Governor Neff has ordered two detachments of state rangers to proceed to Fairfield, the county seat of Freestone county, to prevent an uprising of negroes which Sheriff Mayo of Freestone county said was imminent. The sheriff requested that the rangers be sent immediately and explained that the negroes of the county were plotting to avenge the burning of three negroes at Kirvin Saturday morning.

One detachment of rangers under Captain Frank Hamilton will leave from Austin and a second detachment will be sent from Fort Worth.

The information was given out by the governor's secretary, who said that the rangers were being sent to work in connection with Sheriff Mayo in suppressing any uprising or trouble, and not to investigate the lynching.

Situation Critical.

The situation in Freestone county is becoming critical according to a telephone message received by Adjutant General Barton from a deputy sheriff of Freestone county. The adjutant general replied that a sufficient force of rangers was being sent to handle the situation.

Last night citizens of Kirvin, reinforced by 150 armed men from Wortham, lay in wait expecting an attack from 300 negroes reported en route from Corsicana with the expressed intention of "wiping out Kirvin" in reprisal for the burning of three negroes there Saturday. The burned negroes were accused of the assault and murder of a 17-year-old white girl.

Another assembly of about 300 negroes, from the country surrounding Kirvin dispersed Sunday afternoon without giving any reason for gathering. The negroes were unarmed.

U. S. AND MEXICO TO NEGOTIATE RECOGNITION

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Although the United States still maintains its position for guarantees against confiscation of American property provided under the Mexican constitution of 1917 before extending recognition, it was intimated here today that a commission would be named to continue negotiations toward this end.

The appointment of an international commission to consider all the questions involved and suggest some solution to recognition problems between the United States and Mexico has also been suggested.

FOUR-DAY FAST CURES NEGRO'S DESIRE TO DIE FOR BLIGHTED LOVE

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 8.—Julien L. Dale, negro convict, who had been missing for four days, heard that his girl had been married to another fellow rather than wait until he had completed his five-year sentence for robbery, and "just wanted to go and die," he told H. V. Bastin, superintendent of the state reformatory here.

Hunger, however, caused Dale to change his mind after four days of fasting and he ventured out to seek food and was seen by a guard. He was recaptured.

Dale told the superintendent he was excused from the breakfast table last Friday morning before the line he usually left with filed out. He went at once to the shoe shop and hid. He said he had no food or water during the four days. The superintendent said he did not doubt that the man had no food, but that there was plenty of water in the shop.

CLAIM TOO MUCH!

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Analysis of the report of Director Dawes on the governmental budget as transmitted by President Harding to the house appropriations committee, is declared by Representative Byrns of Tennessee to show the figures are plainly deceptive.

A saving of $1,600,000,000 is claimed for the fiscal year 1922, of which $907,000,000 is in routine government expenses. Of the latter sum, $250,000,000 is declared to have been effected through economies in operation.

COTTON BROKER AT WACO FOUND SLAIN WITH AX

WACO, May 8.—W. P. Driscoll, 55, well known cotton man of this city, was found dead this morning in the garage in the rear of his residence with his head split open by an ax.

The body was found wrapped in a quilt which had been taken from his residence. No members of the family except Driscoll was at home last night and it is believed that the murderer after killing Driscoll wrapped his body in the quilt, carried it to the garage and drove away in Driscoll's automobile. The car was found this morning in a ditch near the old army camp, three miles from the city. A claw was obtained at the nearest here and an arrest is expected shortly.

Driscoll's skull was literally chopped to pieces. At least six blows of the ax pierced the skull.

Driscoll had been a resident of Waco for thirty years. He is survived by four children and two sisters.

BROTHERS OF DEAD MAN CONFESS TO HIDING BODY

CINCINNATI, May 8.—Two brothers of Stephen Solderidge of Bevis, Ohio, today confessed to authorities that they had thrown his body into the Ohio river to hide clues of a payroll robbery, police announce.

HOTEL MAN KILLS YOUNG WOMAN SECRETARY WHO QUITS

JOLIET, Ill., May 8.—Robert McRoberts, wealthy real estate operator, shot and killed Miss Mabel Kerwin, 25, in an apartment here today and then committed suicide.

The girl died instantly. McRoberts lived half an hour after he shot himself.

McRoberts was owner of Woodruff Inn, Joliet's best hotel. Miss Kerwin was his private secretary. She resigned last week following a quarrel.

OUSTED ATTORNEY WINS IN APPEAL OF FORT WORTH CASE

FORT WORTH, May 8.—Chief Justice J. H. Connor of the Second court of civil appeals Saturday reversed the decision of Judge Bruce Young of the Forty-eighth district court in the R. Donna Ridgway mandamus suit.

Ridgway was ousted by Mayor E. R. Cockrell and the board of city commissioners July 9 last, upon charges of incompetency. He appealed to the Forty-eighth district court for a mandamus to compel the city to reinstate him pending a public hearing on the case. His petition was denied by Judge Bruce Young.

Judge Connor's decision did not go into the testimony of the trial court, but took up the law points of the case and found that Ridgway had been unlawfully removed from office and directed the trial court to issue the writ of mandamus. The city is found liable for cost of the trial.

BROTHER OF BURNED NEGRO FOUND HANGED

His Remarks Led to Belief He Was Connected With Girl's Murder.

FORT WORTH, May 8.—The body of a negro, Tom Cornish, brother of John Cornish, one of the three negroes burned at Kirvin Saturday morning, was found hanging to a tree between Kirvin and Fairfield this morning.

It is said that Tom Cornish had been making certain statements which led people to believe that he was connected with the assault and murder of Miss Eula Osley.

Sheriff Mayo of Freestone county said this morning that his office knew nothing of the hanging of the negro other than notification had been received that the body of the negro was hanging to a tree, whereupon officers were set out and cut it down.

HAD ANOTHER NAME.

CORSICANA, May 8.—The negro found hanging to the tree this morning between Kirvin and Fairfield was known as Shadrack Green, according to information received here from Freestone county. Several shots were fired into the body.

HIGH SCHOOL CAST HARD AT WORK ON PLAY

Rapid progress is being made by the High school cast, rehearsing for the senior play, "Much Ado About Betty," to be presented at the Majestic theatre Thursday night. Miss Eppie Jean Grove, expression teacher in the Ranger schools, who is directing the play is especially pleased with the enthusiasm manifested by the twenty-three students taking part and feels that it will be the best ever presented by a senior class. The lines of the comedy are new, clever and full of fun, and an ideal vehicle for the student cast, it is pointed out.

All proceeds of the play will be donated to the library fund of the school, which is needed in view of the additional space that will be available for the library when the new High school building is completed next fall.

SAYS KLAN WILL GUARD TRIAL OF OKLA. GOVERNOR

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 8.—Governor J. B. A. Robertson has no knowledge of plans of the Ku Klux Klan to have 200 klansmen guard him during his trial at Okmulgee, when he faces charges of accepting a bribe in June, he stated today.

"I know nothing about this," Governor Robertson told the United Press. "I would not dignify the report by a formal answer to it."

Harry Graham of Boston, an organizer of the Klan, is reported to have said in Kansas City last night that 200 members of the Klan will act as guard for the governor when he comes to trial in June.

FOUNDER OF NATIONAL CASH REGISTER CO. DEAD

ATLANTIC CITY, May 8.—John H. Patterson, founder and chairman of the board of directors of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, died suddenly yesterday aboard a train bound for this city.

Arrangements were made today to take the body back to his home in Dayton for burial.

THAT BANKHEAD HIGHWAY'S ALWAYS SWITCHING AROUND!

The recent action taken at the Phoenix, Ariz., meeting of the Bankhead Highway association, changing the southern routing of the highway to the northern route through Breckenridge, is not by any means final and is just a pleasant method of the director in obtaining subscriptions or annual memberships, according to a friend of the paper who is in touch with the situation. His letter says:

"I noticed your article calling attention to our friend Leach's slipping over on the southern branch of the Bankhead highway. The facts of the matter are that in the national convention of the highway held in 1920, we changed the routing from Breckenridge to Strawn, Ranger, etc. This is really a method the director general of the Bankhead highway has of getting annual memberships of $10 each.

NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL ELECT OFFICERS TOMORROW EVE

Every Citizen Urged to Come to Smoker at Gholson and Bring a Friend; All Nominations to Be Made From Floor; Refreshments and Music Have Place on Program.

The new Chamber of Commerce will be turned over to the citizens of Ranger for permanent organization at the smoker tomorrow night in the ball room of the Gholson hotel. Each subscriber signed up in the membership drive is urged to be present and bring at least one new member. Those whom the committees have been unable to solicit are asked to come and enroll as members.

Directors and officers of the organization will be nominated and elected from the floor. It is stressed that the organization is for the entire citizenship of the city and that its future, as a vital factor in the up-

U. S. SOLDIERS GUARD CHINESE OIL PROPERTY

LONDON, May 8.—A company of American infantry has been ordered to Conchu, China, to protect a Standard Oil installation there against Chang Tso Lin troops, according to a dispatch to the London Daily Times today.

According to the same dispatch, Chang's losses in the battle with Wu Pei Fu's forces were 5,000 killed and wounded and 20,000 captured. Chang's losses in the battle with Wu Pei Fu's forces were 5,000 killed and wounded and 20,000 captured. Chang's favorite son is reported to have been killed in action. The dispatch was from Tien Tsin.

BUD BALLEW BURIED NEAR GRAVE OF FATHER

ARDMORE, Okla., May 8.—The funeral of Bud Ballew, one of the last of the famed Oklahoma gunmen, who was shot to death at Wichita Falls Friday, was held today. The services were conducted at Lone Grove cemetery, ten miles from here, and Ballew was buried at the side of his father. The services were postponed from yesterday because of bad weather.

THE WEATHER.

West Texas—Tonight and Tuesday, partly cloudy, somewhat unsettled.

JUST WON'T LEAVE

WASHINGTON, May 8.—President Harding declined to see the children's crusaders who called at the White House today in line with their announced campaign. Secretary Christian told them he would inform the President of the call and would let them know if the President desired to see them. Mrs. Kate O'Hare, who led the band to the White House, said on leaving today that they would continue their daily visits until the President saw them.

LOVE FOR MISS CULBERSON LED TO KIDNAPPING?

British War Hero Claims Detectives Tried to "Railroad" Him.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., May 8.—Alex A. Robertson, British war hero—one of the "first 100,000"—who says strong efforts have been made to kidnap him and deport him from the United States since he confessed his love for Miss Mary Culbertson, 21, only daughter of Senator Culbertson of Texas, today applied to the British embassy for a guard to escort him to Washington. In Washington, Robertson, 29, wants to present the kidnapping charges to M. D. Peterson, secretary of the British embassy. He has been staying here with his aunt for some time since he told Senator Culbertson of his love for the senator's daughter.

Met at University.

Both Robertson and Miss Culbertson were attending the University of Texas, and Robertson charges that after he told Senator Culbertson of his love for his daughter, that private detectives had been hired to deport him from the country. On the night of April 20, he declares, two men called and asked him to accompany them to a hotel in Newark. The men, showing badges, represented themselves to be federal agents, and asserted that Robertson was wanted on theft charges, according to the story told by the war hero.

Then, he says, two proposals were made him:

Face larceny charges or go to Boston and take ship for South America. Believing the men were federal agents, Robertson accompanied them to Boston, he said, where arrangements were made for him to sail for South America. His passage was to be paid and two notes negotiated by him in Texas were to be taken up, Robertson declared.

Embassy Intervened.

Intervention by the British embassy is believed to have resulted in the withdrawal of the two detectives from Boston. Robertson, when the men left, canceled his passage to South America and returned to the home of his aunt in Bloomfield.

Robertson seeks to have the embassy assist him in obtaining the arrest of John Rhuland and T. G. Anderson on charges of impersonating federal officers. He already has caused the arrest of John F. Ellis, another detective, on a charge of kidnapping.

NO COERCION, SAYS BURNS.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Denial that attempts had been made to drive Alexander A. Robertson, British war veteran, out of the country because of a love affair with the daughter of Senator Culbertson was made today by the Burns detective agency, which the senator had retained to gather information about the character and standing of the young man. Robertson's movements have been made of his own accord, the agency officials said.

LIGHTNING STRIKES CHURCH AT DENISON

DENISON, May 8.—A steeple of the Waples Memorial church was struck by lightning at an early hour Sunday morning during the severest electrical storm ever prevailing at Denison, according to the oldest residents here. Several hundred dollars damage was done the steeples and the church was roped off, fearing additional bricks torn loose would fall and injure pedestrians. At the time the steeple was damaged several trees near the church were struck, but no residences in Denison were damaged.

MUCH TRACK UNDER WATER NEAR BENNETT

Cribbing at Aledo May Go; Katy Has Washouts Both Sides of Cisco.

Traffic over the Texas & Pacific from Fort Worth west is again tied up as the result of the washing out of tracks and threatened destruction of bridges in the Weatherford vicinity. Traffic over the Katy road is also reported tied up by washouts south of Eastland and at Stamford and in Hamilton county. Resumption of traffic cut off by the high waters will be delayed until the flood recedes sufficiently to allow repair gangs to restore the damage.

Texas & Pacific bridge 291-8, between Bennett and Millsap, was reported a foot under water at 12:30 this afternoon and the eastern approach to the bridge washing. More than 150 feet of track in the vicinity of mile post No. 292, in the same vicinity, has been washed out and more than five miles of track is under water. The extent of damage to most of the track is unknown.

Trains Tied Up.

Westbound train No. 23 is standing on the east side of the bridge at Lambert, which is likewise under water, and cannot reach here before late this afternoon or night at the very earliest. Reports at 12:30 stated that the flood waters show no signs of receding.

The eastbound Sunshine Special, due here at 11:47, was reported at 12:30 as an hour behind schedule. No. 4, eastbound, and due here at 1 p. m. is likewise running behind schedule. It is thought that neither train will be able to proceed further than Mingo.

South of Ranger, eight inches of rain is reported to have fallen at Mangum, six miles south of Eastland, in an hour and a half, washing out the Katy track on both sides of Mangum. Heavy rain was reported in the Cisco vicinity.

NEW HIGH MARKS SET BY RIVERS IN SOUTH TEXAS

HOUSTON, May 8.—Millions of dollars worth of damage has been done by flood waters on the Colorado and Brazos rivers, which late Saturday were reaching new high levels.

At Wharton, Texas, a stage of forty feet was reported in the Colorado river Saturday, while Rosenberg, Texas, reported a stage of forty-six feet, which was higher than the flood in 1915, which was the former record, it was reported.

The levee at Bay City broke Saturday morning at 2 o'clock and thousands of acres are covered, many places as high as fifteen feet. In the city proper, water stood two and four feet deep.

"Worse than the 1915 flood," was word received from Fort Bend county, regarding the Brazos river. Miles upon miles of farms are under water.

Train service is hampered by continuous flood waters in Southwest Texas, according to railroad officials. No loss of life has been reported, but it is feared many families will be forced to seek high ground unless flood waters recede within the next twenty-four hours.

FUNERAL BURGLAR POSED AS UNDERTAKER BUT GETS CHASED OUT

NEW YORK, May 8.—When the corpse is carried out the front door the "funeral burglar" goes in the back door.

As the body of the late Mrs. Aaron Deutsch was being carried out of her home on the upper East side, Joseph Harris, 33 years old, the "funeral burglar," entered and started to work.

But he encountered the maid who asked his name.

"I'm the undertaker," Harris told her.

"Oh, you're not; I know him," said the maid.

After a chase the maid cried: "Stop thief!" and Harris was overtaken. He is held in $5,000 bail. In a notebook were found the address of families where funerals are scheduled for Saturday.

ONE NEGRO'S EXAMPLE.

Out of the horrible details that surround the Kirven affair, stands one fact that is worthy of commemoration:

Harry Spence, negro, came upon the fugitive when he was near escape, and accomplished his capture. That act denotes a respect for law and a detestation of the crime which causes practically all the race trouble in the South. When Spence's act becomes that of the typical negro, and the would-be offender knows that he has been cast without the pale of his own people, then those crimes will cease; cease because the negro will have gained control over the ruthless passion and cruelty of the beast.

Harry Spence is an example of the fact that the negro race is progressing, and that through this progress, the threats that hangs at all times over southern womanhood may in time fade away.

The northern papers will make their usual howl over the barbarity of the South. The Society for the Advancement of Colored People will do the same. And both will ignore the even more barbarous crime—without provocation except hellish lusts—which spurred the Kirven people to reprisal on the perpetrators of the deed. They, at least, had an incentive in minds wracked by frenzy over a dastardly deed that is a constant menace to the womanfolk of the South's rural districts.

And they acted just as the people of the North would act under the same conditions.

Mob rule should not be. But there is seldom a mob which is not crazed by a crime, the horrors of which language will not express.

WHERE'S THAT
$187,000,000
HUGHES ASKED

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Secretary of State Hughes was called on today by Senator Borah to throw light on the advance of $187,000,000
made by this government to Boris Bakhtmetoff, ambassador of the Russian Kerensky government of Russia.
Borah read a list of seventeen questions in the senate today, designed to show what had become of the money.
He gave as his reasons for asking the questions in the open senate, the apparent desire of Secretary Hughes to have all dealings with Bakhtmetoff go through diplomatic channels.

CITY ADVERTISES
FOR DEPOSITORY BIDS

Sealed bids for the depository of city funds, have been advertised for by City Secretary George Hemmingson. Bids will be received until 3 p. m. Tuesday, May 16, it is stated.
They should be addressed to the city
secretary and marked "depository bids." It is explained that the city reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

ABILENE BANKER DIES

ABILENE, May 8.—Oscar Parker, president of the First State bank of Abilene, and one of the most widely popular young business leaders in this part of the state, died at his home here Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks. He was 40 years old and is survived by a widow and several children. He had taken a prominent part in the development of this section for the last several years, and was recognized as one of the leading bankers of this section. The funeral will be held today, the exact hour not having been announced.

MRS. BRYAN REPORTED
VERY ILL AT SAN ANTONIO

SAN ANTONIO, May 8.—En route to the Pacific coast, where they were hurrying on account of Mrs. Bryan's health, William Jennings Bryan and his wife have stopped in San Antonio for an indefinite period, owing to the seriousness of the latter's condition,
it became known today.
Mrs. Bryan is not registered at the hotel and it was said she was at the home of friends here. Persons connected with the hotel declined to reveal the identity of the family in whose home Mrs. Bryan is staying.
A close friend of the Bryans this morning confirmed the report that Mrs. Bryan was seriously ill. He declared that Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were en route to California, but were forced to postpone the journey for an indefinite length of time.

POLITICAL PERQUISITES.

Blanton of Texas, is trying to get back. He charges that Garner, of his own state, who accused him last week of making improper purchases through his stationery account, has his wife on the official pay roll as his secretary at $3,200 a year. Various members are accused of drawing their stationery allowance of $125 in cash.
Let there be an investigation to bring out all the facts. It may explain the anxiety of some men to be elected to congress on salaries on which they protest they cannot live in Washington. It may even shame some of them into more honorable ways for a time.—Buffalo Express.

INARTISTIC HUSBANDS
OF ARTISTIC WIVES
TO PROTECT SELVES

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, Cal., May 8.—"The Husbands' Protective League" has been started here by the inartistic husbands of artistic wives.
William L. Maxwell, former naval officer, is president of the league,
which, he it said, is serious in purpose.
Maxwell headed the recent "Newberry ticket," which swept Perry Newberry into the office of mayor
on a platform of "unimprovement," and "let nature have her way," as against the "business ticket," which wanted paved streets, street lights and a chamber of commerce. Maxwell was elected to the "artistic"
board of trustees.
The slogan of the new league,
which includes the most inconspicuous husbands of the noted women in Carmel, is "50-50, or fight."
"Our object is to let the artistic women of Carmel woo the muse all they want to in spare time, but to put them squarely and firmly back in the kitchen at meal time," declared Maxwell. Too many Carmelites are forgetting the dustpan and broom,
and are trying to stuff this part of their work onto their husbands.

materially increased. The well is now estimated to be making around 1,000 barrels daily. The well has been producing for a week, making a few hundred barrels daily.

BANK CALL ISSUED.

AUSTIN, May 8.—A call for a statement of the condition of all state banks at the close of business Friday,
May 5, was issued today by Commissioner of Banking and Insurance Ed Hall. There are 988 state banks and trust companies.

SPIRITS HAVE TAKEN UP RADIO
FAD, DOYLE SAYS

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Some highly technical spirit is trying to get in touch with us by radio in a code and over a wave length not used by mortal operators, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle says.
In reply to a question as to whether the spirit world is taking up the fad which has become so popular in the mundane sphere the famous British exponent of spiritism said:
"We may expect much through radio-communication eventually. An air operator in Birmingham (England) tells me he has detected a call in an unknown code and on a wave length beyond that used by earthly operators. It has not yet been solved.
"Radio-communication is essentially an etheral function, operating as it does through the ether, and so we may expect spirits which themselves are of the ether, to communicate with us through that medium."

I.C.C. VACATES ORDERS IN SHREVEPORT RATE CASE

WASHINGTON, May 8.—As a further step in harmony of action between the interstate commerce commission and the state regulating bodies, the federal commission announced today that it had formally vacated all orders against the Texas railroad commission in what is known as the Shreveport rate case. The noted Shreveport case, instituted eleven years ago, developed the federal agency into the field of controlling state rates.

MISS MARGUERITE K.
O'LEARY, of Reading, Pa., who says she has gained eight pounds and can hardly find words to express her praise for Tanlac
for the good the medicine did her.

"I am so happy over what Tanlac has done for me—I can hardly find words to express my praise," said Miss Marguerite K. O'Leary, who lives with her parents at 1223 Chestnut Street, Reading, Pa. "I wasn't exactly what would be called sick,
but for a year I had been all run down and sometimes felt so weak and miserable I could hardly hold up my head. I was so nervous the telephone bell or a door closing would startle me so I would tremble like a leaf.
"I needed something to build me up and give me strength and energy, and that is exactly what Tanlac did. It gave me a fine appetite and improved my digestion. I gained eight pounds, the color came back to my face, my nerves became normal and I soon felt as well as I ever did in my life. It is simply wonderful that medicine could make such a big change in any one. My friends and neighbors are surprised when they see me now, and no wonder, for I look like a different person. Tanlac is grand and I never intend to miss a chance to say a good word about it."
Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

COW IS LATEST BOOZE SLEUTH IN W. VIRGINIA

But Because She Always Eats Mash and Dies, Farmers Are Wrathful.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 8.—The flaccid-brained cow, placidly chewing her cud on a hillside, the picture of everything serene, with her huge eyelids blinking occasionally like a toad in a hall-storm, never has been accused of being keen-witted.

However, the cud-chewing bossy at last is coming forward in a battle of wits, and, according to West Virginia state police, is one of the best aids they have in their war on the moonshiners of the Little Mountain state.

Cows have the greatest noses for stills of any creatures that range the hills, according to Lieutenant Mack B. Lilly, one of the most diligent still detectors of Colonel Jackson Arnold's staff.

Long Range Smell. The animals can scent the mash fumes for miles, and by a freak of nature are lured to the mash pots and eat greedily of the still refuse, which is fatal to them. The gaseous substances in the cooked mash work havoc among the cattle, and many of the creatures' bones are left to bleach on the hillside after quaffing too freely of the illicit fluid.

Farmers, soon to learn of the ineptitude of their herds, were not long in losing all sympathy for the men who manufacture "white lightning" and began "turning up" moonshiners whenever they trespassed on their properties or placed stills where their cattle were liable to get to the mash.

Dozens of stills have been located by reports received from these farmers, who come in every few days to report cases to Corporal Armstrong or Sergeant W. W. Driver, of the state police staff, in Charleston. April 20 a report of this nature was received, although the farmer reporting it was so angry that he provoked laughter.

"My cattle ran up there around Lick branch," he told Sergeant Driver. "Yesterday I was rounding them up when those pesky 'shiners started shooting. I didn't want them and didn't care much about their stills, providing they were not near my cows. Then they kept shooting and some of the bullets whizzed by me so close they almost grazed my hide. Now I want 'em chased."

WHITE FLAG IS RAISED BY MICH. STUDENT WHO SPURNED FRESHMAN CAP

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 8.—Louis T. Orr, of Chicago, freshman at the University of Michigan, who was banished from student activities by members of his class, and who persistently had refused to conform to tradition and wear the freshman cap, has surrendered.

Orr appeared today wearing the toque. He explained that last night a dozen of his classmates took him from his boarding house to a secret hiding place, shaved his head, and asked him to sign a pledge to wear the gray cap, proclaiming him to be a "first-year" man. Orr signed the pledge.

The freshman class, at the request of the president of the literary class, is scheduled to meet to consider an application for reinstatement made by Orr and the advisability of rescinding the resolution that virtually made him an outcast among the students.

GETTING DIVORCED IS SIMPLE IN BURMA

Chicago, Rhode Island, Reno and all other American divorce resorts must yield the palm to Burma for the facility, economy and expedition with which matrimonial knots can be unfastened.

When, "on the road to Mandalay," a Burmese couple have agreed to separate, they simply light two candles, one for each, and watch and wait to see whose candle first burns down. The one whose fate has thus been decided leaves forever the common home; the unfortunate one cannot take away anything but the clothes on his or her person. The other becomes the sole proprietor of the entire common property—Argonaut.

BUFFALO HERD PILED UP LIKE FREIGHT CARS

Centenarian's Greatest Adventure Was Escape From Stampede in Texas.

EUREKA, Kan., May 8.—George A. Gordon, 102 years old, says the greatest adventure in his life was a trip during which a stampeding herd of buffalo charged a tree in which he had taken refuge.

"Alone," said Mr. Gordon in telling the story, "far from civilization, in a hostile Indian country, with my last bullet in my rifle, I was in a position in which a braver man than I might have despaired. The center of the immense herd struck my clump of trees and the animals were heaped up by the pressure of the stampede until those on top of the struggling pile were higher than the fork of the tree in which I crouched. It appeared that in a few minutes that pile would engulf me. In any case it seemed certain that the horse that I left near the tree would be destroyed.

Buzzed Like Bees. "It happened in 1846, when I was 26 years old. In those days adventure ran in the blood of men, young and old. I had joined a party which had no particular purpose except adventure in the wilderness. One day in Texas I became separated from my companions. I was puzzled by a sound like the buzzing of bees, though there were no winged insects there on the open plain. When the roar became deafening I knew the sound was caused by approaching buffalo, and made for the clump of trees that I have mentioned.

"When the buffalo had come within about 100 feet, those in front for a width of about forty or fifty feet saw my horse and attempted to halt, but in the twinkling of an eye they were overwhelmed by the pressure from behind. One who has seen railroad cars piled up after a wreck can imagine how the buffalo were heaped up. But this did not in the least check the progress of the great host, for they swept by me on either side like a great torrent. It did, however, make an open place for my horse.

Like Military Parade. "I could now enjoy a spectacle which I fancied neither white man or Indian had ever before seen. The front rank as they passed was as straight as a regiment of soldiers on dress parade. The regularity of their movement was as admirable as though they had been trained to keep step. "But as I was gazing, the open space had grown narrower, and I was alarmed to see how close the animals were getting to my horse. The buffalo were constantly dropping from the big pile into the open space, and though they were doing their best by crowding to keep a respectable distance from my horse, their efforts availed little and the lane was rapidly filling up. I now could have lashed the buffalo on either side with a buggy whip, and the heap itself was approaching me. If the open space filled up my horse would be lost.

There's a Fisk Tire of extra value in every size, for car, truck or speed wagon

Crawford Made Nitro Manager

EAGLES BALK EFFORT TO GET GRADY WHITE

Several New Players Make Team Look Like Ball Club.

Moses Yellowhorse Crawford will continue as Nitro manager, he agreed yesterday afternoon at a conference in Abilene, President J. C. Smith said this morning. His appointment was made in view of the splendid progress shown by the team in the last two games, and after the Abilene management had professed a willingness to part with Grady White only in exchange for the Guaranty bank building, or a corresponding amount in coin of the realm.

The Nitros, with one or two additions, looked like a ball team yesterday, according to all reports. Downs, a second baseman fresh from a tryout with the Pacific Coast League, is holding down second base in fine fashion, despite a costly bobble Saturday, and is wielding a large sized stick. Hoffman has found his batting eye, to all appearances, crashing out six blows in the last two games. One of his raps was that delight of every fan—a homer with the bases loaded.

The list was further culled yesterday by the release of Hardgrove, second baseman, and Pitchers Gordon and Bean. In their places are Downs and Pyle and H. Baldridge, pitchers. Pyle, obtained from the Three-I league—a class B circuit—broke in with a fine game yesterday, holding the Eagles to four hits. Baldridge is a veteran in the West Texas jungles.

With these additions and subtractions, fourteen men are now enrolled under the Nitro colors, to wit as follows: Duckworth, Clayton, Alfred, Downs, Bellah, Plumlee, Hoffman, Craig and Clayton, ball players, and Robertson, York, Zapalac, Pyle, Baldridge and Crawford, pitchers. Several of the hurlers also come under the ball-playing classification when a pinch arises.

The Nitros haven't done so badly on the trip. True, they lost five straight games, but three of them were by close scores and after tight battles. They played Abilene to a standstill. The morale is fine and the team looking better every day, is the report of several who saw yesterday's game.

League President Northern went so far as to say we had a ball team, for the first time since the season opened.

There's going to be a payroll to meet on the 15th. Money will be needed, and those who have not so far sent in their check are urged to do so at once. The call is necessitated by the bad weather of the two-weeks' stay at home, which ruined the chance of making the payroll. With the strengthening process which has been under way for the last few days, the Nitros are believed to be "right." If they are not, still more changes will be made until they are. Meanwhile, since the ball team is a community enterprise and a community asset, all should kick in with that check. Those for $100 and up look best, but $50, $25 or $10 will bring a smile. Make them out to the Ranger Baseball club and slip to C. C. Chenoweth, treasurer, or J. C. Smith, president.

PRISONER'S MAIL CAN'T BE SEIZED, COURT HOLDS

SAN ANTONIO, May 8.—State prosecutors have not the legal right to seize and withhold a letter, written by a prisoner in jail to his attorney, under a ruling of Judge S. G. A prisoner has the right at all times under the law to confide in his counsel, the court held.

ENGINEERS' BROTHERHOODS CONSIDERING AMALGAMATION

HOUSTON, May 8.—Probably the most pressing question to come before the triennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, which opened here today, is that of the proposed amalgamation with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The latter brotherhood passed a resolution favoring such amalgamation at its Cleveland convention last year, and the decision now devolves upon the firemen.

NEW PITCHER HURLS NITROS INTO VICTORY

Abilene, May 8.—Pyle, a hurler from the Three-I league, broke into the West Texas circuit yesterday in a Nitro uniform. So far as Abilene was concerned, he smashed in, for he held the Eagles to four hits and came through with a 4 to 3 victory—the first for the Nitros in eight days of battling. Only one could the Eagles connect effectively, when Burch and Etheridge rapped out doubles and with a bit of faulty backing by the Nitros, three men crossed the plate—just enough to tie up the count. Ranger had opened the second by taking advantage of errors, counted three.

Eagles Get Only Four Raps in 4-3 Game at Abilene.

Then the game rocked along, with the hitters handicapped by a high wind, until the sixth, when Downs put a Texas leaguer just beyond second, scoring Bellah with the deciding run.
