CHICAGO MADE ARMED CAMP BY LABOR WARFARE

Three Fires Last Night Inaugurate Campaign of "Incendiary Terrorism."

CHICAGO, May 17.—A cordon of police with orders to shoot any suspicious appearing persons who refused to obey all orders of the police was thrown over the city today to combat the attempt of "convict labor leaders to rule the city by murder, fires and terrorism."

The city is said by the police to be what is known in army terms as an occupied area, with all public buildings and most of the buildings under construction guarded against murder, fires and bombing, which, it is said, certain labor leaders are using in their fight against the Landis building trade wage awards.

BIG APARTMENT SET ON FIRE IN CHICAGO LABOR WAR

CHICAGO, May 17.—Police today are searching for unexploded bombs believed to have been placed in a $500,000 apartment building in North Chicago, which was damaged by fire late last night and which police say was started by terrorists in connection with the so-called labor war.

Another development on which the police are working is the confession said to have been obtained from Mrs. Margaret Miller, wife of John Miller, now under arrest as the alleged driver of the death car from which the shots were fired that killed two policemen last week.

Police connect the firing of the building with the labor disorders through a man who warned two women in an adjoining building to escape before their building caught fire.

Gang terrorism was held responsible by the police for the outbreak of incendiary during the night, in which three fires caused $250,000 damage.

"We were warned that incendiaryism would be next. It has arrived," said Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris.

Three at Once.
The fires broke out in three places simultaneously. Police said all were "set." The most destructive blaze was in the North Side apartment house, where $200,000 damage was done. The building was being completed by labor working under the Landis wage scale.

Shortly before the fire was discovered a man knocked on the door of James Corbett, living next door, and shouted, "Get out quick. There will be an explosion in a minute. To hell with the Landis award!"

Authorities declared the outbreak was the direct result of the arrest of the "Big Three" at the top of the Chicago building trades organization—"Big Tim" Murphy, Con Shea and Fred Mader, who are held in connection with the murder of two policemen.

OUSTER SUIT UP TOMORROW, WEATHERFORD

EASTLAND, May 17.—The ouster suit filed last October against County Judge C. R. Starnes and Commissioners Webb, Camp and Robertson, in which a change of venue was granted several weeks ago, is set for hearing tomorrow morning in the Parker county district court at Weatherford. It was claimed by the defendants in the suit on seeking a change of venue that the bitter partisan feeling in Eastland county would prevent them from obtaining a fair and impartial trial in the courts here.

PINCHOT VICTORY IN PENNSYLVANIA CONCEDED

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—W. Harry Baker, secretary of the republican state central committee, today conceded the nomination of Gifford Pinchot, independent candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, over George E. Alter, the organization candidate. Baker's admission of defeat was a surprise to other organization leaders here, who reiterated Alter would win out on the final count. Baker declined to make any formal statement but said simply that "on a basis of returns thus far received Pinchot had been nominated."

Baker's concession of the nomination came on the heels of an announcement from Alter headquarters that he would win by 15,000.

Rexroat, prominent oil man and father of the bride, brought suit against J. J. Kinney, charging that Kinney and two other men sought to obtain possession of Miss Rexroat's property through the marriage.

Rexroat is seeking court action for possession of the property, which includes rich oil lands. He left here several days ago in company with a deputy sheriff on receipt of what he thought was reliable information that the couple were on the New Mexico ranch.

Marlin Mayor Among Dead In Brazos Bridge Disaster

Sudden Collapse Throws Score Into Stream; Widely Known Methodist Minister Has Thrilling Experience; Four Are Dead

WACO, May 17.—Four dead or missing comprises the list of victims in the collapse of the bridge over the Brazos river yesterday afternoon between Marlin and Belton, according to reports received here from the scene of the tragedy. The list comprises: Mayor Frank Stallworth of Marlin, Dr. W. H. Allen of Marlin, Mrs. Clara Moseley of Beaumont and B. J. Briggs, 7, son of Clay Briggs of Marlin. The swift action of the rescuers in organizing saved all other persons, it is stated.

More than a score of persons were standing on the bridge, directly over the surging waters, when it collapsed, precipitating them into the stream. Many were women and children. The collapse came without warning and the spectators had no time to scramble to safety. Eyewitnesses declared they could not tell just what had occurred, though it seemed that the west span moved outward and then fell.

Rescuers Save Many.
The Brazos, although falling, was still at a twenty-foot flood stage, and the shrieking men, women and children were immediately swept down stream. Rescuers ran along the bank and plunged into the waters, dragging many to safety. Others clutched bits of driftwood and saved themselves temporarily, while still others sank into the tumbling waters.

R. V. McClain of Waco, is credited with rescuing eight persons just above the falls, three miles from the bridge.

A call was immediately sent to Calvert, Hearne and other points down the river, and all through the night watchers scanned the river by the aid of lanterns and fires, in hopes of rescuing some of the victims.

Two automobiles—a truck and a touring car—were on the bridge at the time of the collapse. In the touring car the 7-year-old son of Clayton Briggs of Marlin lay asleep. Reports that the body of the boy had been found are denied by Briggs, who expresses the opinion that he is imprisoned in the car.

Five thousand dollars is needed immediately to feed the flood sufferers, according to a call for help. A fund of $3,500 left from the Corpus Christi relief money raised three years ago has already been used in relief work along the Brazos, it is announced.

Relief workers in the devastated area are working day and night. Fever broke out yesterday, a report said, and medical aid is being rushed to the affected area.

ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT CARNIVALS

City Decides They Bring Nothing Here, Take Much Away.

An ordinance to prevent the exhibition of carnivals in Ranger as undesirable from every standpoint, will be up for passage at the meeting of the city commission next week. Following a discussion at yesterday's meeting it was decided that the carnivals as a class brought only undesirable persons and shows to the city, existed on gambling devices that were prohibited in Ranger stores and while adding nothing to the city, carried away large sums. A motion was passed to have an ordinance drawn up by the city attorneys to prevent such exhibitions. It was explained that the ordinance would not interfere with tent shows or circuses. A resolution requesting such action be taken by the city was passed several days ago by the Rotary club and has been requested by a number of citizens.

Depository Bids Rejected.
The commission yesterday afternoon rejected the city depository bids of the Ranger banks as being too low. It is understood that the funds of the city will be carried in open accounts, non-interest bearing but fully protected by the guaranty law, until satisfactory arrangements can be made.

The commission took official action in closing Pecan street for one block north of Hamilton street, containing a strip of ground which the city traded to the Texas & Pacific railroad several years ago for a strip of the same size in the same block, now being used as the Tiffin highway outlet into Clay street.

A resolution was also passed closing certain streets and alleys in a section at the far end of Hodges Central addition, in order that it might be returned to cultivation.

HAMON ROAD TO RUN ONE TRAIN EACH WAY DAILY

The Hamon road schedule of four trains daily between Breckenridge and Dublin will be cut to two trains daily in the near future, it was stated in dispatches from Austin this morning announcing the railroad commission's approval of the plan.

While no official notice of the commission's approval had been received at the general offices here this morning, it was stated that such an application for reduced train service had been made and that the revised schedule would be announced later. Under the present schedule, it was explained, the road is losing money by running all four of the trains. J. A. Hillis, general manager of the road, was in Fort Worth today but is expected here shortly with full plans for the new schedule.

Under the authority granted by the railroad commission, the Hamon line will discontinue the two south-bound trains leaving here at 8:25 a. m. and 11:15 p. m., and the two north-bound trains leaving at 4 p. m. and 5:50 a. m. and substituting two other trains daily, running on a schedule yet to be worked out.

THE POLITICAL MAP The political campaign is warming up, with numerous contestants for state and district offices making their way over the country.

Many voters enjoy hearing these speakers, in order to obtain their views and make what they conceive to be a proper choice in balloting. But voters are not going miles and miles for any such purpose.

Ranger, with more than 2,000 votes to be won, offers an opportunity to candidates who have something to say. Likewise, it will be to Ranger's benefit and prestige to have prominent candidates speak here.

But unless this is done, it is probable that the candidates will follow their usual course and select their speaking dates from the map. And on the map, county seats always loom largest.

That in most cases is the proper thing, for the population centers in the county seat. It is not improper in this county, for Eastland is a nice town, with a lot of residents who enjoy political speakings, and with a spacious hall in which aspirants to office may express their views.

But the candidates do not win many Ranger votes by speaking at Eastland, and Ranger gets absolutely no publicity out of it. Why shouldn't some civic body invite all candidates for state and national offices to speak in Ranger, and point out to them why they should do so?

Bring $1,000 for Elopement, Miss Culberson Told?

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Revelment of plans for an elopement, for which the bride to be was asked to provide $1,000 expense money, was what caused Senator and Mrs. Charles A. Culberson to forbid the marriage of their daughter Mary, 21 years old, to Alexander Robertson, British war veteran.

This has been revealed by friends of the family in discussing Robertson's charge that detectives employed by the millionaire Texas senator attempted to spirit him out of the country. It was this financial arrangement that caused the girl's parents to regard Robertson in the light of an adventurer, it was said.

"When they told me about Tanlac it seemed almost too good to be true, but since taking the medicine I know for myself that all they said about it was so," said J. Bertram Simon, 1031 E. 46th St., Tacoma, Wash., a well-known photographer.

"I suffered from rheumatism in my shoulders for ten years and at one time had to go to the hospital. I was down in bed for months and hardly able to turn from side to side. "In a very short time after I started taking Tanlac I actually felt like a new man. I am now entirely rid of rheumatism and my stomach is in first-class condition, while I have gained ten pounds and never felt better. I have recommended Tanlac to a number of people and I am always glad to say a good word for this remarkable medicine." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

"Fort Worth does not know what a flood is," said Rev. J. G. Winsett of Ranger, who stopped over in Fort Worth on his way home after a visit to New Orleans. "The Mississippi river has provided the greatest flood I ever saw. At Shreveport, the Red river was five miles wide when I came through. It was slow work getting out of New Orleans and there was enough danger in it to furnish a thrill." Rev. Mr. Winsett is pastor of First Christian church at Ranger and has recently been made a traveling evangelist, his territory covering twelve states.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

IRISH FACTIONS SEEM NOT TO BE RECONCILED

DUBLIN, May 17.—The impression prevalent in Dublin following the announcement that the peace committee of the Dail Eireann had concluded its deliberations and would report to the Dail Wednesday was that the conference had failed to agree on any plan and that Wednesday's meeting would have to face a final breakdown of the attempts to reconcile the two factions.

FACULTY ENTERTAINS THE SENIOR CLASS.

The seniors of the Ranger High school have been dated up so much this week that they need a social secretary to keep up with their engagements, as there has been something given in their honor practically every night since last Friday.

Last night they were guests of the High school faculty at the Teacherage. Young trees and great branches of greenery brought from Eastland hill converted the Teacherage into a veritable forest grove as the big living room and dining room were fairly filled with them. The lights were covered over with Jap lanterns in green and white, diffusing a light which further suggested the long, cool aisles of some deep wood.

A number of contests were enjoyed during the evening, among them being the ever-popular game of "Bunco" and in this Bill Mills was the winner for the boys, receiving as a prize a gold penknife, and Miss Ella Dreinhofer was the winner for the girls, receiving a vanity case as a prize. Another game that made much fun was a fictional name contest. In this the young people paired off in couples and were named by fictitious names, such as Mutt and Mrs. Mutt, and the contest was based on the one who could guess the greatest number of names from a take off on the names of the members of the class, for instance "a son of a nut" was Phil Simpson's name. In this contest George Henshaw and Miss Emily Dreinhofer won a joint prize, an incense burner. There was also a geographical contest which was formed from suggestions for the abbreviation of states, such as "A young girl," answer, "Miss." In this contest Miss Marion Stubblebine was lucky, receiving a bottle of perfume as a prize, while a book by Mrs. Rinehardt went to Phil Simpson.

Refreshments of brick ice cream, served with angel's food cake, iced in green, were served. Tiny baskets shaped to simulate the class flower, a white carnation, and filled with candy, were given as favors.

If this party is an indication of what the High school faculty thinks of its senior class then they must be "plum crazy" about them, for there was nothing left undone, every detail was perfect and the gracious welcome accorded each one indicated the spirit in which the party was given.

The hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Woods, Misses Douglas, Garrett, Davis, Winklers; Messrs. Hart, Branch, and Mmes. Garrett of Fort Worth and Robinson of the Teacherage.

Seniors present were: Misses Marie Armer, Frances Bunch, Myrtle Clemmer, Blanche De Bolt, Beatrice Dreby, Ella Dreinhofer, Emily Dreinhofer, Nannie Haden, Mabel Knight, Rose McEver, Julia Owens, Marion Stubblebine, Mabel Tucker, Eulalia Wolfe, George Henshaw, Perry Jones, William Mills, Leland Pellerin, Phil Simpson, Joe Terry, Glenn Tucker.

RANGER HAS BIGGEST BABY.

Last week while Mrs. Karl Jones and her children were visiting in Fort Worth, there was a "Better Baby Contest" at Sanger's store, and in this contest Karl Jones Jr. was judged as being the biggest 3-months-old baby boy. Karl Jr. tipped the scales at seventeen pounds, incidentally putting Ranger on the map as raising something else besides oil wells.

KU KLUX ELECTED CONGRESSMAN, SAYS REPUBLICAN CHIEF

DALLAS, May 17.—That Guinn Williams, elected Saturday in the Thirteenth congressional district to fill the unexpired term of Lucian W. Parrish, deceased, was elected by the Ku Klux Klan, and that some of his support was taken from the Republican ranks is the opinion of Col. W. E. Talbot, director of organization of the state Republican party. Williams received about 12,000 votes; his nearest opponent received about 6,000. Miss Annie Webb Blanton, third, received about 4,000 and Orville Bullington about 2,400.

MISSING GIRL FOUND ON STAGE AT BRECK

BRECKENRIDGE, May 17.—While a 14-year-old girl was dancing here on a stage at a carnival, Sheriff L. D. Head, who was looking for her at the request of her mother in Brownwood, walked up on the stage and took her in charge. Her mother was wired and she came on the first train for the girl.

WATCHMAN FOR BANK KILLED BY BANDITS

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—Henry Ahrling, watchman of the Bremen bank, was shot fatally in the forehead by one of several bandits who boarded a street car Tuesday and robbed a messenger of the bank, whom Ahrling was accompanying, of a satchel containing $2,000. It was the ninth robbery of a bank messenger on a street car in the last year. Ahrling died several hours later.

To the Purchasers of a 30 x 3 1/2 Usco for $10.90

WHEN the "Usco" Tire announced its new price of $10.90 it carried this understood contract with the buyer—
• A price reduction made in good faith—using all the U. S. advanced art of tire making, not only to get the price down, but to keep the quality up.

A quality tire with definite performance standards to live up to.

Better if anything than when it was sold at higher prices.

Because in carrying out the "Usco" price reduction in good faith, we learned something about raising the quality, too.

Now let us say this to you as a tire user:

Today $10.90 is not the uncommon price it was last November.

But the "Usco" tire is still the uncommon tire value it always has been.

WEST TEXAS GAMES LUBBOCK 7, SAN ANGELO 4. LUBBOCK, May 17.—Although San Angelo outfit Lubbock, Swenson kept the safeties scattered and allowed fewer extra-base swats than did the San Angelo hurlers, so the Hubbers won again, 7 to 4. The field was heavy from a rain Monday night, and the slow going made possible four double plays. Gober's home run drove in three scores. Score by innings: R. H. E.
