FAIRCLOTH AND NOLLEY CASES UP NEXT WEEK

Charges of Drunkenness and Assault Face Constable and Sheriff in County Court.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, May 19.—The misdemeanor cases against two county officers, Sheriff Sam Nolley and Constable R. L. Faircloth of Ranger, have been set for hearing in the county court at law next week. Nolley was indicted by the grand jury for aggravated assault following the attack on L. J. Starkey at Cisco last February, in connection with which Newt Mahaney was later sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. The sheriff's case is set for hearing on Tuesday, May 23.

Constable Faircloth is charged with aggravated assault, abusive language and two cases of drunkenness. Three of the cases resulted from the alleged encounter between the constable and an employee of the Prairie company several months ago, in which it was claimed that the constable while drinking had stopped the Prairie man, held a gun on him and cursed him. Constable Faircloth's case is set for Thursday, May 25.

Both cases were formerly set for trial in March but continued. The case of J. B. Ames of Ranger, charged with aggravated assault in connection with a visit of himself and several companions at the Times office last December, is set for hearing on Tuesday, May 23.

His body was riddled with bullets and then burned.

METHODISTS WORK ON UNIFICATION OF TWO BRANCHES

By United Press.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 19.—Steps to be taken toward unification of the North and South Methodist churches were definitely determined today by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at the beginning of what was expected to be the final lap of the sessions here.

The question of unification was disposed of in the conference late last night, with the adoption of the majority report recommending further negotiations with the northern branch of the church through a joint commission, the southern commissioners to have liberty of action in arriving at a plan.

If the plan is ratified by the northern convention's commissioners and general conference, the college of bishops of the southern church will be empowered to call a special general session.

HOUSTON REFUSED CUSTOMS DISTRICT

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The treasury department has definitely turned down the appeal of the city of Houston for creation there of a separate customs district and port of entry.

Houston asked to be taken out of the Galveston district on the ground that the city was equally as important as Galveston and did a sufficient amount of business.

Hearings were granted several weeks ago and an investigation made by the customs service. All reports were unfavorable, it was stated officially, and the matter is closed.

ANDY HURLS DEFI AT WETS

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Any attempt of congressmen to weaken the Volstead act to permit the manufacture of beer and wine "will be battered down and beaten," Representative Andrew Volstead of Minnesota, author of the prohibition law, declared to the United Press today.

Volstead challenged the liberals in the house to do their worst in the campaign to give local option on the wet and dry issue in the different congressional districts. He regarded the attempt, it was made known, as "knowingly futile."

By Associated Press.

MANY FIRES IN BELFAST.

By United Press.

BELFAST, May 19.—Belfast's reign of terror continued uncontrolled today. Incendiary fires broke out in many parts of the city. A clothing factory was burned to the ground. Six warehouses in widely separated parts of the Ulster capital were destroyed. A gang of armed men attempted an attack on the headquarters of a platoon of constables early this morning but were beaten off by heavy fire and fled. There were no casualties among the police.

Mountain Girl Outwits Searchers In Bandit Hunt

By United Press.

LINN CREEK, Mo., May 19.—An Ozark mountain girl today pitted her strategy against posses of 200 civilian guardsmen and aviators who combed the wild Hahatonka mountain country for bandits who robbed a Frisco payroll messenger at Springfield and escaped with $20,500 after wounding two men.

The girl, said to be the wife of one of the robbers, is responsible for failure to catch the three of five men still known to be in the mountains. She is said to know the hiding place of the men and is providing them with food.

The searchers today began a "hunger campaign" against the bandits, throwing lines of pickets around the Hahatonka district along the Nianqua river, in an effort to starve their quarry out.

By United Press.

CHARLESTON, W. The suit was filed in federal court. It is expected that property belonging to the union in Charleston and other places, valued at $1,000,000 will be attached.

In view of the department's action, Mrs. O'Hare again put the releasing of the prisoners up to Harding.

By United Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 19.—Following the death of Richard Keese, 53, who was shot Sunday by Mrs. J. H. Massey, because, she alleged, Keese was picking roses on her property after she had warned him to keep away, the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon was changed to that of murder by County Attorney Forrest L. Hughes today.

Mrs. Massey has a 6-months-old baby which she will be allowed to entrust to some one's care before she is placed in jail on the murder charge.

BRYAN PASSES UP TEXAS HOSPITALITY

By United Press.

JUNCTION, May 19.—Citizens can now sympathize with the host who prepared a sumptuous meal and the guests failed to arrive. Here's the reason: Word was received that William Jennings Bryan and Mrs. Bryan were en route to California and would pass through this town. A big dinner was ordered prepared at the hotel and a committee of citizens drove forty miles across the divide to welcome the Commoner and his wife. When the party arrived here Bryan decided the weather indications were bad, expressed his regrets and drove on.

Bryan commented upon the wonderful scenery in this part of the state and expressed a desire to visit here later.

THREE MOVIE STARS WEDDED TOO HASTILY

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 19.—The federal government, through department of justice bureau of investigations agents here, will investigate the marriage of Rudolph Valentino, screen actor, to Miss Winifred Hudnut of New York at Mexicali, Mexico, it became known here Thursday.

Frank M. Sturgis, in charge of the department of justice bureau here, said that the investigation into the Valentino marriage was prompted by reports made to his office that Valentino had violated the Mann white slave act.

Investigation of the marriages of two other prominent motion picture actors who took this step after obtaining an interlocutory decree of divorce, and without waiting for a final decree, is under way, in addition to the probe of the marriage of Rudolph Valentino, it was announced at the district attorney's offices here today.

These actors are Frank Mayo and Henry B. Walthall, according to the district attorney's announcement. Mayo was married at Tia Juana, Mexico, after the granting of an interlocutory decree of divorce here. The bride of the second marriage at Tia Juana was Dagmar Godowsky, daughter of Dr. Leopold Godowsky, noted pianist.

ATTORNEY INVESTIGATING.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 19.—Investigation of the marriage of Rudolph Valentino, film actor, to Winifred Hudnut while, according to California laws, he was still the husband of Jean Acker, film actress, was to be carried today to Mexicali, Lower California, where the ceremony was performed Saturday.

District Attorney Woolwine and one of his assistants plan to go to the Mexican border town and determine whether to proceed against Valentino with charges on the ground of bigamy.

On the way to Mexico they will stop at Palm Springs and El Centro, where the couple spent some time after the ceremony.

Valentino is reported to be in Los Angeles, while Miss Hudnut passed through Salt Lake City this morning en route to New York, where she will meet her father, Richard Hudnut, perfume manufacturer.

Propaganda Warfare Is Started on Cleanup

KU KLUX KLAN IS MAIN ISSUE IN ORE. ELECTION

Lines Strictly Drawn Between Republican Stand Patters and Progressives.

By United Press.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 19.—The Ku Klux Klan and "progressiveism" constituted the two main issues in today's state primary in Oregon. The race for republican nominations has turned largely into a battle over the alleged activities and policies of the Klan. The issue of progressive vs. stand-pat republicans centers in the fight for selection of Oregon's republican national committee representative.

Charles Hall of Marshfield has support of the Klansmen, who have entered spiritedly into the campaign since the recent statements of Governor Lynn Oleott denouncing the Klan. Oleott is the anti-Klan candidate.

Ralph E. Williams, vice-chairman of the republican committee, who is up for re-election as national committeeman, has been hotly attacked as a standpatter by the progressive faction, which has O. H. Pithian of Portland as its candidate.

There are no issues in the democratic primary.

KU KLUX COUNSEL GOES TO SCENE OF 'ANTI' ACTION

By Associated Press.

HOUSTON, May 19.—Judge Erwin Clark, general counsel in Texas for the Ku Klux Klan, left this morning for Beaumont. It is not known whether or not he will be connected in the ouster suit against the sheriff at Beaumont on the grounds of membership in the Klan.

THOUSANDS OF GUNS STOLEN AT CAMP MABRY

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, May 19.—A regular epidemic of theft of guns and other property of the government was charged today by Colonel Stockman, commander of Camp Mabry, the national guard encampment. The guns are being gradually recovered by the officers and state rangers, he said.

Col. Stockman declared that the list of stolen guns included 2,300 pistols. All of the stolen guns, he explained, are forbidden by federal law to be carried by civilians.

WIDOW OF BUD BALLEW TO INVESTIGATE SHOOTING

By Associated Press.

WICHITA FALLS, May 19.—The shooting of Bud Ballew will be privately investigated by his widow, according to a private dispatch received here by the Record-News. James Mathers, former county attorney of Carter county, and former Attorney General Freeling have been retained by Mrs. Ballew for the investigation, it is stated. Mathers is reported on his way here.

Ballew, noted deputy and gunman of the Southwest, was shot and killed by Chief of Police McCormick, who is now under bond of $10,000.

CHAMP BOND THIEF NOT TO BE PUNISHED

By United Press.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Freedom loomed today for William Dalton, 17-year-old bank clerk who walked out of the Northern Trust company offices with $772,000 worth of Liberty bonds last year.

The second jury to sit in judgment on the lad reported itself hopelessly deadlocked after a day and night deliberation. Eleven were for acquittal and one for conviction. In case an agreement is not reached, the state will not again try to convict Dalton.

Ranger "Extra Dry" Last Night; Steps Against Commissioner Being Considered.

Ranger was drier last night than it has been in a long while, the police and Rotary committee reported this morning. To all intents and purposes, the ultimatum of the police department, backed by the Rotary club, the Ku Klux Klan, the Lions club, the majority of the city commission and the good citizenship of Ranger was heeded for the time being at least. None of the places where corn and "bottled in bond" had been sold in practically open defiance of the law and where gambling had been conducted more or less openly were doing business last night, it was reported. No general or other exodus of persons known to the police is reported, however. Several reports were turned in that faces once familiar on the dealer's side of the green cloth in Oklahoma oil fields and other boom towns had been seen on the streets here recently.

Committee Meets Officers.

The Rotary committee yesterday morning met with the entire police force to assure each individual policeman that they were being backed by the last by the best citizenship of Ranger and they could feel that they were carrying out the wishes of the majority of Ranger people in making the city a fit place to live. The situation was discussed in detail and each officer showed plainly his enthusiasm in the new order of things. The committee left assured that the police were prepared, ready and pleased with the opportunity offered them by the pledged support of Ranger. The remark was freely heard that "there were more of the right kind of citizens present at the station than there had been in several years."

Chief Davenport told the committee that Wade Swift, city sanitary officer, was now serving with the police department in the clean-up and that two other special officers were in readiness. Beside the Rotary committee and the police department, City Attorney Beverly Dudley and City Judge L. H. Flewelling were present at the conference, which was called by Chief Davenport in order that the committee might lay the situation before each of the policemen personally.

Several courses of action were being discussed this morning as the result of Commissioner Lon Davenport refusing to resign, as demanded by the Rotary and Lions club at their meetings Wednesday and Thursday. No definite decision had been reached, however, on the particular course of action to be pursued.

One of the outstanding features of the Ranger vice war today was the circulation of propaganda over the city against the police department, and the outcome of the campaign launched to wipe out organized lawlessness, it being predicted in certain quarters that the movement would die out as in the past.

Following the publication of the launching of the vice war in the Times yesterday, in which names used in the report of the Rotary investigation Wednesday afternoon were printed in full, the opinion was expressed in one part of the opposition territory that "there will be some killings yet before this thing is over."

The wholehearted support of all the good citizens of Ranger is solicited by the Rotary club and all the other organizations and individual citizens in the drive, who have assured the public that the business men of Ranger "have put their hands to the plow and there will be no turning back." The Rotary club committee was instructed by the club Wednesday to announce that in order to enforce the law in Ranger that the membership will support the police "morally and physically" and that by "physically" it was meant they would go with them, armed, to render all assistance necessary—and further that "they were prepared to go any limit legally or physically."

The Lions club unanimously backed the decision of the Rotary club "morally and physically." The Ku Klux Klan assures the police of the support of every member.

Several members of the city commission were organizing for personal support of the police when it was decided to join the movement launched by the Rotary club.

SELECTING JURY IN BEAUMONT OUSTER CASE

By Associated Press.

BEAUMONT, May 19.—The selection of a jury in the Garner impeachment case is expected to begin this afternoon. Garner appeared before a notary public yesterday and answered seventy-three questions relating to the Ku Klux Klan and produced by the citizens committee for use as evidence in the case.

DYAR BROTHERS' TOWNSITE WELL IN AT PIONEER

Humble Also Gets Producer; Big Bryson Well Making 4,800.

Special to the Times.

PIONEER, May 19.—The well of Dyar Bros. Ranger operators, in block 3 of the Pioneer townsite came in this morning with a production estimated between 500 and 600 barrels. The sand was encountered at 2,471 feet and the bit penetrated ten feet in the sand. The firm plans to drill deeper with every expectation of materially increasing the production. The Baptist church of Pioneer owns part of the block on which the well was drilled. It is located a short distance away from the Duquesne Oil Corporation's Hill No. 2 and in the same vicinity of the Lucky 13.

The Humble company's McClure No. 1 was brought in yesterday, following a shot, with estimated production of 150 barrels from five feet in the sand and the company's McClure No. 2 is at present reported on top of the sand and expected to be brought in today.

Slick's Aiken No. 3, offsetting the Bryson well, which came in Saturday with an estimated production of 7,500, is soon to be drilled in. The Bryson well is reported to be holding up well at 4,800.

TEXAS READY TO PROBE PRICE OF GASOLINE

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, May 19.—The attorney general has started action looking toward an investigation of the fluctuation of gasoline prices in Texas, to see if the anti-trust laws have been violated.

Attorney General Keeling has directed Special Agent Taber to investigate at once the gasoline prices in Dallas, San Antonio and Fort Worth and other of the larger cities of the state. The investigation will be thorough, the attorney general said.

INDICTMENT SOUGHT FOR DEATH CAR DRIVER

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Indictment of John Miller, alleged driver of the death car from which the shots were fired that killed two policemen in disorders attributed by the police to labor leaders, was asked today by States Attorney Crowe.

Police today continued the questioning of suspects arrested yesterday in an effort to locate Charles Daudzauksis and "Floater" Stanley, named by Miller as the other occupant of the car, in a confession police claim to have obtained from Miller.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES HELD FOR MILLION-DOLLAR THEFT FROM MAIIS

By United Press.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Rounded up in raids by postoffice inspectors, two former postal employees and one other man who had never been in government service were arraigned today charged with stealing $40,000 in Liberty bonds.

Chief Postoffice Inspector Doran, who presented the charges, said he hoped to connect the men with a $1,000,000 bond theft last summer.

The big robbery of which these men are suspected occurred last July when a package containing $1,540,000 was stolen while enroute from New York to Washington.

STATE BANK OF WANN, OKLA., FAILS TO OPEN DOORS TODAY

By Associated Press.

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., May 19.—The Bank of Wann, a state bank at Wann, in Novata county, near here, failed to open its doors this morning. State Bank Examiner Patton, who has been in charge of the affairs of the defunct bank of Bartlesville, said that the condition of the Wann bank had no connection with that of the Bartlesville bank.

BIGGEST ELEPHANT SPREADS TERROR ON WASHINGTON FARMS

TACOMA, Wash., May 19.—"Tusko," described as the largest elephant in captivity, was reported in a special dispatch to the Ledger today as peacefully consuming his fodder at Bellington, Wash., after an afternoon, night and morning of rampage that stretched for thirty miles from Cedro Valley, Wash.

Tusko, hurled his keeper, H. Hendrickson, thirty feet in the air. Several of Hendrickson's ribs were broken. Tusko proceeded through the streets of Cedro Valley, capsizing three automobiles and turning a dance into a riot. He then headed for the hills.

Flattened fences and orchards told the story and reports from excited farmers and loggers along the line of flight added details.

At one logging camp Tusko uprooted three telephone poles. Looking out of an upper story window, a farmer and his family gazed upon the elephant's mighty back, hunched in a fortunately unsuccessful effort to overturn the structure.

A barn proved less staunch and after breaking it Tusko ate his fill and then proceeded onward.

At dark Monday several hundred pursuers were forced to halt and spend the night in the woods, taking up the trail at daybreak yesterday. Sauntering up to two other elephants that had been included among his pursuers Tusko later meekly permitted his recapture.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RECEIPTS
LAST YEAR LARGEST ON RECORD

By Associated Press.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 19.—Despite the economic depression that has characterized the nation for the last year and a half, larger receipts than ever before in the history of the Sunday school of the Southern Baptist convention were noted in the report of that board, which was presented to the convention here this morning by Dr. I. J. VenNess of Nashville, corresponding secretary.

French War Vet Able to Talk With Rubber Tongue

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 19.—Modern surgery has accomplished another uncanny feat. Insertion of an artificial tongue, enabling Sergeant Violla, a Verdun wounded war veteran, to talk, has just been reported at the Val De Grace hospital.

Sergeant Violla lost his lower jaw in the war and it was reconstructed with a complete set of teeth. When the surgeons had finished this job there was only the base of the tongue left and Dr. Eugene Quenolle set to work to fix up a rubber tongue for the palate, and now it is reported he is able to converse and even sing.

NEW YORK JURY READY TO HEAR BUCKETING CASE

By Associated Press.

SEMENOFF FREED!

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 19.—General Semenov, the former Russian Cossack leader, was ordered released from arrest today by the appellate division of the supreme court, which overruled the decision of Supreme Judge Delehanty.

Semenov was arrested in an effort to force payment for American goods alleged to have been confiscated in Siberia. Following his arrest, efforts were made to deport him as an undesirable alien, because of brutality charges preferred by Americans who had served in Siberia.

DIVORCE ASKED BECAUSE HE DROPS SHOES ON FLOOR

DALLAS, May 19.—One East Dallas woman grew weary of hearing her husband's shoes hit the floor when he removed them on coming home from work evenings, so she has sued him for a divorce, alleging that the dropping of his shoes on the floor with a heavy thud had made her a nervous wreck.

She further alleged that he placed his unshod nether extremities on the foot of the bed and giggled about it, "just to irritate her," she says.

Oklahoma Frogs Attack Chickens Residents Swear

By Associated Press.

BLACKWELL, Okla., May 19.—The Blackwell Tribune has investigated a report that carnivorous frogs were menacing chickens in the south portion of the city and found two residents of that section who declared they had been attracted by cackles of distress from the fowls to a nearby pond and found a large bull frog dragging a frying size hen into the water.

The chicken was promptly rescued but the people now say they are afraid the animals will "enter their homes and attack their children."

CALVES' SHINS AND HOOF'S PUT KICK IN MOONSHINE

AVELLA, Pa., May 19.—Just what qualities the shin bone and hoof of a calf have when permitted to ferment with rye or corn mash is unknown to butchers here, but the fact that buyers are eager to pay $1 per shin bone and hoof is proof that that part of a calf works to some purpose for moonshiners.

Avella butchers are bringing shin bones from Pittsburgh to meet the demand. In pre-Volstead days a leg of veal was of no value below the knee joint.

LONGVIEW MAN SHOT; MISTAKEN FOR PEEPER

HILL COUNTY COMMISSIONER GETS 6 YEARS

HILLSBORO, Texas, May 19.—The jury in the case of E. F. Stovall, former county commissioner, on trial on a charge of bribery in connection with the sale of $904,000 district road bonds and the letting of road contracts, brought in a verdict Thursday, assessing punishment at six years in the penitentiary.

The Stovall case was called on Monday, May 1, when various motions were introduced by attorneys for defense and overruled.

Stovall is the second man convicted in connection with the Hill county cases, W. S. Bibb Jr., having been found guilty and given a two-year term some time ago. He was granted a new trial in consideration that he give testimony in other cases pending. Two more men await trial, F. A. Stanford, former county commissioner, and L. S. Bryant, former county engineer. These cases probably will not be tried until after the Stovall case has been decided on appeal, which will be taken in event the court does not grant a new trial, which Stovall's attorneys say will be asked.

GANG RULE

Ranger is roused again—not for the first time, by any means—by open defiance of the law on the part of the bootlegging and gambling clique which has for the last several years done as it pleased in Ranger—which has been virtually ignored while independent distillers and liquor peddlers have been sternly rounded up, while participants in private poker parties and crap games have been given reminders that they have offended the majesty of the law.

Several times the citizenship has been roused. Several times this element has put the soft pedal on its activities while the citizenship was lulled to sleep. Then it has reopened in the old brazen way, secure in the knowledge that what was the public's business was nobody's business, and, seemingly, holding the sleuthing ability of peace officers in contempt.

This time Ranger is roused more than ever before, because of effrontery on the part of this element which passes all bounds. Temporary results will certainly be obtained. But a permanent rectification will only be brought about by keeping persistently on the job, and showing the officers that results are watched for and demanded. That is a hard task, for a citizen has much to do besides attend to the business that officers are hired to do.

The quick and simple remedy is for Police Commissioner Davenport to resign. The past is past. Whether or not the policies of the commissioner were approved in the past, it is a certainty that they are not now. And since it is not likely that Alonzo Davenport will change his policies, the proper thing to do is to put someone in his place who is in accord with the wishes of the citizenship.

When that is done the police department will have backing. It will know that prevention of law violations will be praised and failure to stop them will be condemned. But only with a commissioner who firmly points the way and who in turn is firmly backed by reputable citizens, will it know that it will be supported in its suppression of illegal activity. Come across, Mr. Davenport, be a citizen.

Conditions along the "Ranger front" have been officially denominated as "quiet" for several months. There has been no law violations here worthy of note, inquirers were informed.

But when Police Chief Davenport, who frankly admits that he has been a "good fellow" in the past, judged that certain women should change their ways or leave town, he was laughed at, and a party was held to celebrate the defiance. When the chief told certain places to close—operated by men generally accredited with bootlegging and gambling activities—and raided the places to see that his orders were carried out, he was defied in his own office.

That then, throws the situation squarely up to Ranger. It is not a question of whether Ranger believes in prohibition or not. It is a question of whether bootleggers and gamblers can do as they please, if goes farther than that. It is a question of whether an organized gang can hold a community in fear of interfering with it. It is a question of whether crimes committed by that gang and its hangers-on shall go unpunished. Whether all reputable persons shall bow the neck and submit to any outrages this gang sees fit to inflict on the community and its citizens.

Ranger must not submit to any such state of affairs. It will have all the bootlegging it needs without open saloons. It must force the officers to do their duty and co-operate with those who are trying to do it. Rigorous prosecution of the "key cases" will tumble the superstructure of crime that now hangs over Eastland county. Persistent trailing and prosecution of men who are generally accredited with continual violations of the law will put them in the penitentiary or elsewhere, where their activities will contribute more to this country's well being. And if the officers will not do these things, then decent citizens must.

MINE WAR WAS 'COMIC OPERA,' OFFICER SAYS

Workers Ignorant of What They Were Fighting For, Blizzard Disarmed Them.

Special to the Times CHARLES OWEN, W. Va., May 19.—A concise description of what federal troops found when they entered the Southwestern Virginia coal fields last September to disperse battling miners and the combined forces that opposed them on the Logan county border was the feature of an otherwise monotonous day's testimony in circuit court.

Captain John J. Wilson, commander of the first troops to enter the trouble area, gave the description as witness for the state in the trial of its charge that William Blizzard was guilty of treason. Testimony of ten other witnesses mainly was in corroboration of details of the march and fighting formerly told.

Captain Williams said he made it his duty to learn what was in the minds of the miners, whom he declared did not know what they were fighting for. From the point of view of the regular army officer he described the fighting as a "comic opera war," but in relating the activities of the company he commanded, said he found Blizzard to be highest in authority of the men he met among the miners.

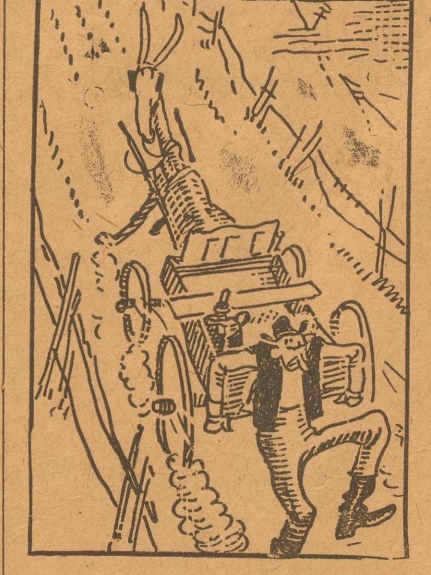

Among other witnesses were Adjutant General John H. Charnock, West Virginia and a number of residents of towns close behind the irregular 15-mile line along which contending forces met.

In his description of the "comic opera war" the officer said the miners went up in the hills after breakfast for an hour or two, came back for confabs and wasted thousands of rounds of ammunition, while hitting nobody.

Under cross-examination the Captain said Blizzard showed no antagonism toward federal troops and that "without him it would have been a ticklish job" to disarm them. Speaking of his inquiries as to the causes of the disorder and the attitude of the men, Captain Wilson said it was the general impression that they were "glad the game was up."

"They were obsessed," he said, "with the thought that thugs from Logan were bent upon destroying their homes and killing their women and children," and "thugs," he added, was the predominant word along the line. When State's Attorneys asked who spread the "propaganda" among the miners, Captain Wilson testified they obtained it from their unions.

8,000 BARRELS DAILY GAIN IN OIL PRODUCTION

WICHITA FALLS, May 19.—With an average daily gain of nearly 4,000 barrels in the Stephens county fields and substantial gains in other districts, the production for the North Central Texas oil fields for the week shows a gain of a little more than 8,000 barrels over the runs of a week ago. Practically every pool in the district showed increased runs with the exception of Burkburnett, Iowa Park and the Eastland-Ranger district. Total runs from the field for the week show an average daily production of 137,000 barrels compared with an average daily production a week ago of 129,000 barrels.

The exact gain in Stephens county was 3,520 barrels daily over that of a week ago. Electra showed an increase of 760 barrels daily and Young county showed a gain of 820 barrels. Smaller gains in other fields boosted the production to 8,039 barrels above the runs of last week.

Mitchell county has been added to the producing columns recently, runs from that district showing a daily production of 175 barrels. All this is from one well, the Morrison No. 2 of the Underwriters company, west of Colorado and near the town of Westbrook.

Table showing oil production by field for the week compared with that of a week ago. Fields include Electra, Burkburnett, Iowa Park, Holiday, Petrolia, Young county, Strawn, Stephens county, Moran, Eastland-Ranger, Coleman county, Brown county, Desdemona-Pioneer, and Mitchell county.

NITROS LOSE HURLING DUEL BY ONE RUN

Crawford Pitches Splendidly in Spite of Eight Miscues Behind Him.

SWEETWATER, May 19.—Moses Yellowhorse Crawford held the Swatters to four hits yesterday, but lost, 1 to 0. The reason of the 0 was that Kevpie Fleharty also was doing a nice brand of hurling, yielding only six knocks to the Nitros, of which Pyle amassed three and Clayton—back in the game after an absence of nearly two weeks—collected two. The reason of the 1 lies in one of the numerous Ranger errors. The Nitros were badly off their feed and showed it in eight boots and muffs. That the Swatters did not score a million or so was due to the scintillating exhibition put on by Crawford, and a steadiness of the Nitros at critical moments. However, the misplays kept Swatter fans in a fever of expectancy at all times, for they had many men roosting on the sacks, and the score was tight, very tight. The lone score of the game came in the second round, when Jimmy Thrash hit safely to right field, took second when Pyle let the bouncing pellet get by him, and counted on Shaw's in-field hit. NITRO NOTES

Nitro hitting is standing up far better than results indicate, it is shown by unofficial figures compiled by the Times from the opening on May 20 through the Amarillo series ending Wednesday. Eight men are pasting the ball at a rate of 300 or above. Downs leading with the handsome average of .393. Hoffman, who has played in every game, is knocking the apple at a .329 gait, while Plumlee and Bellah, the only others to play every game, are at the bottom of the list, with .180 and .145, respectively.

The team average is .277, not counting the records of Faudree, Hardgrove, Holden and others who have lost their grip on the payroll. It should be raised a little, for winning teams these days hit from .285 up. Chief surprise in the list is the showing of Bellah, who has at various times shown an ability to rap the apple solidly. Nearly half his eleven raps have been for two bases.

Following are the averages: G. AB. H. Pct. Downs.....10 33 13 .393 Roberts.....9 27 10 .370 Clayton.....6 22 8 .363 Allred.....17 57 20 .350 Craig.....18 69 24 .348 Hoffman.....21 76 25 .329 Crawford.....13 43 14 .325 Zapalac.....7 20 6 .300 Pyle.....9 35 9 .257 Baldridge.....1 4 1 .250 Duckworth.....19 58 13 .224 Plumlee.....21 72 13 .180 Bellah.....21 76 11 .145 York.....4 15 1 .061

President Smith, in a telephone talk with Manager Crawford, was informed that Downs and York were ill while at Amarillo and Pyle has been suffering with a sore arm. The weather in the Plains towns was anything but tropical, he declared, and since all the Nitros were wearing their summer length so forths, they didn't have a pleasant trip and none were in good condition.

Clayton rejoined the nine yesterday after an absence of eleven days on account of illness of a sister at Sherman. He made his presence felt by contributing two bingles to the Nitros' fairly slim total.

You'll have to hand it to the Nitros—and Crawford. When a team makes eight errors and the opposition gets only one run, there's some powerful sitting on the lid at times.

Word is listed with playing right field yesterday for the Swatters and getting thirteen putouts, while Pipkin at first is credited with only one put out. The reporter fails to mention the circumstances, so perhaps the positions should have been reversed. However, if Word, playing right field, made thirteen putouts, he must have just about established a record for that position.

CHEEVES HAS PERFECT RECORD AGAINST GIANTS

CHICAGO, May 19.—If the world champion New York Giants were the only team the Chicago Cubs had to contend with, Pitcher Virgil Cheeves would be assured of a pitching average of 1.000. When the Giants see Virgil out on the mound they know the game's as good as lost, but on the other hand, when any other of the six National league teams see who's hurling they can be reasonably sure of a win. Cheeves came to the Cubs last year and of the seven games he pitched against the Giants, he lost not one. He added two more Giant victories to his string in the recent series. Virgil's failure to taste defeat at the hands of the Giants is a distinction not possessed by any other National league pitcher. The Cubs never had a pitcher hurling against an opposing team with such consistent success, and Cheeves has become the

TONIGHT.

Senior party given by Miss Nannie Haden.
Sunday school class party at the Methodist church.

SATURDAY.

Mrs. Chaney's recital in the evening at Young school at 8 o'clock.
Saturday Night Bridge club meets with Mrs. R. D. Lavery.

MRS. MCCOY'S PUPILS' RECITAL.

At the Presbyterian church last night when Mrs. McCoy's pupils appeared in a recital, an enthusiastic audience were unanimous in agreeing that Mrs. McCoy can teach as well as she can sing, as each number was a bit of perfection in itself. Mrs. McCoy was accompanist for the evening's program.

Miss Laura Schmuck sang "Until" and "If No One Ever Marries Me" in her very sweetest way, and the difference in the style of the two songs displayed the variety of the range of her voice.

"The Light of the World," sung by Mmes. Roy Jameson, Suits, T. J. Holmsley, Harry Reed and Misses Schmuck and Douglas, was very beautifully rendered and exquisite in its melody.

Mrs. Eben Finney's first number was a French song, "Maman, dit-moi," which she sang with all the coquetry of a French maid, and with the same perfection of pronunciation. Her "Jean" song was a Scotch song, while her "Daddy and Babsy" was all American. All three songs showing her versatility in range and dialect.

Mrs. Harry Reed sang a lovely song called "Rose of the World" with all the sweetness that the title suggests.

Mrs. T. J. Holmsley's numbers were "Italian Air," "Spring," and "All For You," and it would be hard for the average critic to say which one received the most applause, as they were all beautifully rendered.

In the "Banjo Song," sung by Mrs. Finney and Miss Schmuck, one could almost imagine the thrumming of the strings, so sweetly mooted were their notes.

The closing number, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," was sung by Miss Mavis Douglas, with the perfection of tone and note that one expects from Miss Douglas' renditions. Each number on the program received hearty applause and gave one an insight into the work that has been accomplished by both teacher and pupils during the year.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS PARTY TONIGHT.

Mrs. Little's class of the Methodist Sunday school will give a party tonight at the church, beginning at 8 o'clock. All members of the class are invited to be present and are assured of a good time.

1920 CLUB HAS INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

At the meeting of the 1920 club yesterday afternoon at the Methodist church, the officers elected in January for the ensuing year were formally installed. Mrs. O. L. Phillips, president, presiding and introducing each officer.

The officers for the year are: President, Mrs. M. H. Hagaman; first vice president, Mrs. Vincent Wakefield; recording secretary, Mrs. C. D. Woods; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. P. Boon; treasurer, Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort; parliamentarian, Mrs. A. N. Stubblebine; press reporter, Mrs. Lytton R. Taylor.

The regular program for the afternoon was on child welfare and a number of interesting papers were given on this subject. There was a discussion on "How Best to Improve Child Life in Ranger." Mrs. C. O. Terrell discussed "Parks and Playgrounds," showing how essential they are in promoting child welfare. Mrs. C. D. Woods told of the part that "Libraries and Story Hours" play in the work of developing and improving child life, while Mrs. Lytton R. Taylor explained the "Texas Laws Regulating the Delinquent Child." Other than the installation of officers and the regular program there was a lot of other matters attended to, among these being the appointing of committees on advertising and arrangement for the benefit picture show at the Lamb theatre on Tuesday, which will be sponsored by the club, details of which will follow later.

This was the last program for the year in retrospect the club feels that they have accomplished a good work and laid the plans for another year's good work.

EXPRESSION RECITAL.

The expression pupils of Mrs. E. L. Chaney will appear in a recital Saturday night at the Young school at 8 o'clock. The program promises to be a very interesting one. The public is extended a cordial invitation to be present.

CHARITY CARD PARTY A SUCCESS.

The charity card party given by Mmes. Fred Yonker and George Jennings at Mrs. Yonker's home Thursday afternoon, for the benefit of the charity fund of the Catholic church, was a wonderful success. There were nine tables at bridge and one at 500, and the free will offering from the guests was very gratifying.

The high score prize, a mayonnaise set, went to Mrs. Leo Parr. The low score prize, a box of home-made fudge, was awarded to Mrs. E. E. Crawford, while the cut prize, a corsage bouquet, went to Mrs. Walter Burden. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and ice tea were served.

SENIORS ENJOY AL FRESCO PARTY.

Mrs. William Clegg entertained the seniors with an al fresco party at her home near Mirror lake on Wednesday evening. Immediately on their arrival at the Clegg home, a swimming party was planned and it was not long before they were drawn irresistibly to the "ol' swimmin' hole." It was a lovely evening, just warm enough for a swim.

Since the colors of the class are green and white, nature herself supplied a large part of the decorations, as one had only to open their eyes to see the green of the hills back of the home, and the white of the clouds above. After the swim a picnic lunch was served on the terrace. In this also class colors played a prominent part, as the girls were given butterfly bows for their hair, made of green tulle, and on the baskets and trays that the food was brought from the house in, where frills and bows of the green and white. A basket of white eggs in a nest of green was a very clever and pretty bit of serving.

The garage of the Clegg home had been converted into a conservatory, propped by the use of greenery from the hillside, and in there was a punch bowl, filled with delicious punch, which was served throughout the evening.

After the guests had loitered on the terrace, admiring the view and consuming the picnic, they were invited into the house, where several contests were enjoyed, among these being one called "My Ambition," in which Miss Marion Stubblebine and Bill Mills were the lucky contestants. Another fun maker was "My Most Embarrassing Moment," in which Miss Emily Dreinhof and George Henshaw were the winners.

In spite of a diploma looming in sight, the seniors had not lost their appetites, for Mrs. Clegg, remembering that they were just boys and girls grown up, served them again, this time with green and white brick cream and tiny cakes iced in white and embossed with "1922" in the green. It could not help but be a lovely party—the hostess was gracious, the setting was perfect and the seniors are entering into their own this week. Only Mrs. Clegg and the senior class was present.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. John Thurman has returned home from a two weeks' visit to friends in Big Spring, her former home.

Mr. Cribble of the Phillips Petroleum company is moving his family here from Oklahoma and will be located in one of the company's houses on Vitalious street.

Was Unable to Hit a Lick of Work When He Began Taking Tanlac But Is on Job Every Day Now Feeling Fine.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was all in and couldn't work, but I never miss a day from the job now and feel fine all the time," said Samuel Preffer, 121 Tyler street, Topeka, Kans., a well-known railroad man.

"Not only was my stomach out of order, but my whole system seemed to be going away. I don't believe anybody ever had such awful headaches as I did. I shudder even now when I think of them.

"I can say for Tanlac it has made me feel like a new man and I am enjoying better health than in years. I would go a long way to recommend Tanlac."

STABILIZING AN ESSENTIAL INDUSTRY

Before the war, 75 per cent of the ice plants were wrecks at the end of 15 years because unwise operators indulged in practices that were demoralizing to the business—they had ice fights.

These tactics have caused the impression to be prevalent that the ice business is all profit and that any price is too high, but, worse than that, it left the plant to run its life time without the proper repairs and when it was worn out no money had been reserved to rebuild it.

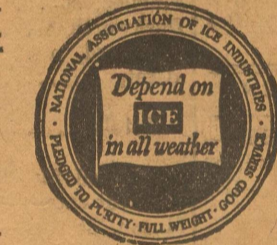

Consequently, the ice industry has had no financial standing in the security markets.

We want to be in a stable condition, and to do it we must have a sufficient income from the investment to keep our plant and delivery equipment in good shape.

If ice cost $2 a hundred, that would be about one-tenth the cost of doing without it.
