Humble Raises Quotations In All Fields Where It Purchases

HOUSTON (AP)—A majority of crude oil purchasing companies with headquarters here Friday met the advance in crude prices initiated Thursday by the Humble Oil and Refining company. Humble posted a flat ten-cent advance in all Texas fields in which it buys crude.

The Humble's price for West Texas was posted at 40 cents, an increase of 10 cents. All other purchasers were expected to follow the price.

William G. McAdoo Expresses Hope For Repeal On Visit Here; Senator Asks Citizens Numerous Questions

Famous Californian Enroute To Home Via Airplane

William G. McAdoo, long recognized as a dry, who received never-say-die support of Texas' 40 dry delegates in the democratic convention of 1924 in which the McAdoo and Al Smith forces stood deadlocked for more than 100 ballots stood on a sidewalk here Friday morning and in an informal chat with citizens, declared he hoped the eighteenth amendment to the constitution would be repealed.

Mr. McAdoo stopped here more than an hour en route to California by plane. He drove into town, stopped at the Herald office for a visit then got a shave and stood around on the street some time, telling stories of his days as Secretary of the Treasury, asking questions about how the people feel about the principal points in the administration's program and answering questions of citizens.

He was told by those with him that they believed the state would go wet Saturday. One in the group, an ardent, uncompromising dry said "not with my vote."

"I opposed writing the eighteenth amendment into the constitution. So did President Wilson. We talked about it when it was introduced in congress," he said.

"I wish intoxicants could be eliminated from the human race," he continued. "But it is very obvious that the present system is no good. I would even rather have the licensed and regulated saloons than to have present conditions. I felt when the eighteenth amendment was adopted it would be impractical. I felt then, it now, that congress should have power to regulate the liquor traffic, and that regulation should be made more responsive to public opinion. That is why I consented, as a member of the platform committee at the Chicago convention to submit repeal and place the decision back with the states, where it belongs," he declared.

Mr. McAdoo said he had no idea when William H. Woodin would resign as secretary of the treasury. Asked if he would consider the place, he declared emphatically he would NOT.

"I promised the people of California that if they sent me to the senate I would stay there as long as they wanted me to," he said.

The senator declared states must not be so jealous of their prerogatives in maintaining state banking system that are poorly organized, poorly directed and poorly financed.

"The most important thing is to have all banks under one federal system, and under that system only," he declared.

Help The Poor Speakers Urge At Rally Here

Support Of Relief Bond Issue Sought By Thursday Speakers

A crowd of several hundred heard Martelle McDonald, Judge J. T. Brooks, Homer McNew, Clyde E. Thomas and Judge H. R. Debenport speak on the lawn of the courthouse Thursday night in support of the twenty-million dollar relief bond issue to be voted on Saturday for the relief of the destitute.

Judge Brooks stressed the point that the bonds will not be a tax or lien on property as in other bonds, but shall be paid by a sales tax of some kind on luxuries, not necessities of life. He brought out the fact that the bond issue links in with the president's plan to rout unemployment.

"The situation is congested," he said, "and the measure must not fail to pass. We can do nothing grander or nobler than helping."

Figures Prepared To Enable Housewives To Know Cheaters

Formula Proposed To Show Whether Fair Price, After Adding New Labor Costs, Is Charged For Merchandise

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Copyright, 1933, by the United Press
WASHINGTON (UP)—Figures were prepared by the administration to tell housewives whether they are being cheated by blue eagle profiteers.

Officials were worried over a rapid rise in retail commodity prices. They intended to issue within the next few days reports showing definitely how much retail costs have advanced from the lows the last winter.

The figures will give comparative prices of 50 articles ranging from hairpins to handkerchiefs. The prices will be averaged from 50 cities representing the entire nation.

Also available will be information making it possible to compute with reasonable accuracy how much the increases costs may be laid to production taxes, how much to increased labor costs, and how much to greed on the part of the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

The United Press obtained a formula, designed to tell the housewife to the last penny how much the cotton processing tax has cost her, whether she buys shirts, or socks or sheets. She needs merely to weigh

Watch For The DAILY HERALD'S Election Extra SATURDAY NIGHT

Three Official Ballots Will Be Used In Saturday Election

Howard counties in voting Saturday will mark three ballots:

- (1) A proposed amendment to the United States constitution, ratification of which would repeal the 18th amendment.
- (2) Four proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas.
- (3) A local option ballot for Howard county.

For convenience of readers who may wish to study the ballots before going to the polls, the Herald reproduces each in full.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States

The Congress has proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which reads as follows:

Section 1: The Eighteenth Article of Amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2: The transportation or importation into any state, territory or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Sec. 3: This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several states, a local option ballot for Howard county, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the Congress.

Instructions to the Voter

In the columns below are printed the names of persons duly nominated as delegates and alternates to the convention to be held in accordance with law for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting the above amendment. In the column headed "For Ratification of the Above Amendment" are printed the names of nominees for delegates, and alternates nominated as in favor of ratification; in the column headed "Against Ratification of the Above Amendment" are printed the names of nominees for delegates and alternates nominated as opposed to ratification of the above amendment. Each voter is entitled to vote for any number of candidates whose names appear upon this ballot, not to exceed thirty-one (31) delegates and thirty-one (31) alternates. Each voter shall indicate his choice by drawing a line through or striking out all the names of such candidates other than the ones for whom he desires to cast his vote.

(NOTE—Those voting FOR REPEAL will scratch the names in the right-hand column).

Floods imperiled parts of the east Friday as at least 47 dead were counted in the path of the hurricane that whirled away into the St. Lawrence valley.

Property damage probably never will be known accurately. Some published estimates said ten million dollars. Coast guard cutters sought the motorship Solarina, 1225-ton craft missing somewhere off the Carolinas with twelve persons aboard.

Hundreds were homeless in southwest Philadelphia as waters inundated an area of ten square miles.

New Deal Is Old Declares Lubbock Man

Judge Clark Mullican Addresses Kiwanis Club Thursday

Clark M. Mullican, judge of the 90th district court, Lubbock, and well-known civic, American Legion, service club and political figure of the South Plains, speaking before the Big Spring Kiwanis club Thursday at the Crawford hotel, analyzed the preamble to the constitution of the United States to show that the "new deal" is not new at all.

Drawing a background from medieval as well as modern history, Judge Mullican contended that America is today striving for the very things set down in the preamble to the constitution as the aims and objectives of those who wrote that document—their aim for themselves and for posterity.

"Men and nations always have been striving to reach the things now sought in the 'New Deal,'" he declared. "They seek happiness and contentment."

"Wherever men have sought wealth and fame they have found them entirely inadequate for realization of happiness and contentment," he continued.

He read the Preamble to the Constitution, as follows:

"We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity. Do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America."

Judge Mullican took up each phrase of the preamble to show that just as the "New Deal" today strives for happiness and contentment, the founders of the Republic were 146 years ago striving toward the same goal.

"The constitution did not guarantee to a few, but to the people, the blessings of liberty, justice and do-

Cotton Men Appeal For Farm Agent

Community Control Committees To Ask Retention Of Office Here

Community committees and the county control committee drafted into service for the cotton acreage retirement plan moved Thursday to petition the county commissioners court for a county agent.

A committee to carry the plea of the committees, composed almost entirely of farmers, before the court.

Recently at a public hearing on the county budget only three local bankers appeared with a request that the county agent be retained in this county.

C. T. Watson, who called the meeting of the committees, steered clear of the issue saying, "whether you want a county agent is up to you."

Only a few failed to stand when a vote sanctioning appointment of a committee to meet with the court was taken.

County Agent O. P. Griffin, just back from a wheat conference at Mineral Wells, addressed the group on the wheat benefit payment plans.

He said a meeting was scheduled for Tuesday at Vincent. All wheat farmers are urged to attend. Farmers who planted wheat for the 1933 harvest (regardless of whether it made) and who threshed wheat off their acreage in 1931 and 1932 will be eligible for participation in the

Legalization Of Beer Here To Be Decided

2,300 Qualified Voters In County, Exemption Facts Given

After a pre-election period amazingly devoid of unusual interest, Big Spring, Howard county and the state of Texas will march to the polls Saturday to decide the fate of beer and four constitutional amendments and to express the state's attitude toward national prohibition.

Other than a discussion in which Joseph Weldon Bailey Jr., and J. H. "Cyclone" Davis figured, there has been little or no wet or dry campaigning in this section, except in group meetings the drys have held to solidify their forces.

While vets are claiming Texas and this section for repeal, drys are silently hoping that Texas will be the first state to vote for retention of the eighteenth amendment.

Howard county is an uncertainty, but most observers are inclined to believe it would be in the wet column by slight majorities.

In the past, the rural vote has overcome the slight wet lead piled up in Big Spring.

This year Big Spring decidedly holds the whip hand for all rural boxes have only 695 of 2,300 potential votes, and one of the rural boxes containing 126 votes is believed decidedly for beer and repeal.

In three previous prohibition elections, Howard county has gone dry, although the last time was by the smallest margin of the three.

It is a prevalent opinion that the constitutional amendment authorizing the sale of beer will carry in Howard county by a substantial majority.

Fate of two others is more conjecture and not one of five voters know that they concern home rule counties above 52,000 in population, and the exemption of 45,000 assessed valuation of all residence homesteads from state taxes.

The remaining constitutional amendment, that of legalizing the sale of 22 beverages, will likely follow the trend of repeal, although there are many who may vote for beer and against repeal, it is indicated.

County Judge Debenport Friday issued a minute comment on exemption certificates. It is understood, of course, that to vote in any of the four Big Spring boxes, one must present his poll tax or exemption certificate, provided he lives within the city limits.

Judge Debenport's comments follow:

Under Article 2906 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, every person more than sixty years old, or who is blind, or deaf or dumb, or permanently disabled, or who has lost one hand or foot, is entitled to vote without paying a poll tax, and is entitled to an exemption certificate. Under Article 2908 of said statutes, he is entitled to a permanent exemption certificate, and he need not go back each year to get another certificate, provided he does not change his voting precinct. If you are entitled to a permanent exemption certificate, and your exemption certificate is in full of your own, and I shall advise at election judges here in Big Spring to permit all persons to vote, who come under the above classification and who present an exemption certificate heretofore issued, whether marked "permanent" or not, if he has not changed his voting precinct.

If you have lost your certificate, you would have to get a new one from the Tax Collector. If you have changed your voting precinct, here in the County, you will have to take your exemption certificate to the Tax Collector and have him endorse thereon the date of removal from the original voting precinct, and the date of his endorsement, the new address and precinct to which you have moved. This will have to be under his seal and signed by him. If you are entitled to the exemption certificate, but do not have to secure it, as when you vote in the county here, but you move here into Big Spring, and attempt to vote here, you will have to secure an exemption certificate before you can vote under the law.

Those who have secured their exemption certificates for this year, of course will not be affected, as they are entitled to vote anyway.

Mrs. Modesta Gooda has been invited to act as Miss Big Spring in a radio to be held in Abilene. She was an outstanding performer in the Cowboys' reunion at Stamford.

Early-Day Rio Grande Valley Law Firm's Records Add New Field To Research Into History Of Texas

AUSTIN—A new field of research into Texas history has been opened by the recent presentation to the University of Texas library of the papers of Judge Stephen Powers and Judge James B. Wells, law firm of Brownsville, by Wells' son Joseph K. Wells of Brownsville. This is the first major collection of material pertaining to the Lower Rio Grande Valley that has come to the University's possession, according to E. V. Hales, collector of research in the social sciences, and it makes an invaluable addition to the University archives.

Powers and Wells were closely tied with the development of the lower Rio Grande Valley, and had a major part in the political and economic life of that region. Judge Powers was possessed of considerable influence and prestige at the time he took Wells' partnership with him in 1878, and both his practice and his influence were extended by the younger man until he became tremendous in scope. It was this firm that cleared many of the clouded titles to land grants obtained from the Spanish and Mexican governments long before Texas became a republic, and collected the original holders and their heirs from unscrupulous land speculators who did not hesitate to incorporate into the Texas Constitution provisions which disregarded and set aside the recognition given such grants under the treaty between Mexico and Texas. The private and firm files of both these men are included in the large collection which has just come to the University library. It is comprised of nearly a ton and a half of manuscript material.

Under The Dome At Austin

By GORDON K. SHEARER

AUSTIN (UP)—General Adrian Pool of El Paso will quit the state board of control September 1, it is reliably reported here.

He will take up his duties as United States Customs Collector and the scramble will be on for his place on the state board.

Roy Tenant of Temple, was for a long time thought to be first choice for the place. Now two others are mentioned more frequently.

One is F. J. Chudej, pronounced "hoo-doo," with the accent on the first syllable. Chudej was made a member of the state board of education by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson in her former administration.

The other mentioned is former Mayor George Meyers of Rockdale. He was an aspirant for the highway commission.

One report is that Chudej is to serve until January and that a permanent commission will be made. Another is that Frank Denison of Temple, will be named. Denison was appointed chairman of the state highway commission succeeding the late Cone Johnson of Tyler. The senate did not confirm the appointment.

J. E. McDonald, state agricultural commissioner, has plowed up per cent of his cotton to aid the movement for higher prices.

are told of the recent visit of former Governor James E. Ferguson to Washington.

One has Amos G. Carter, long a Ferguson foe, cooling his heels in an outer room when "Governor Jim" and C. C. McDonald were in conference with Postmaster General James A. Farley.

The other has Farley laughing over the Ferguson Forum report of a conference.

R. A. Thompson of Dallas, is another of the men associated with the "legal foe of Governor Ferguson."

As engineer for federal reclamation projects his approval is necessary.

A former railroad civil engineer, he was made state highway engineer when Governor Ferguson was in office.

The term of State Auditor Moore Lynn expires on September 17.

He was appointed by Gov. Dan Moody, under whose administration the office was established, and re-appointed by Gov. Ross S. Sterling.

If the special session of the legislature is in progress when Lynn's term expires, Gov. Ferguson may permit him to remain.

As sessions always call for a great amount of data from the auditor's department and a chance at such a time would temper the legislature.

This recovery spirit of the country has reached a pitch bordering on a religion. A few cold-blooded individuals decry this as runaway emotionalism. The same kind that bungled the war.

It is true that women, seeing no Blue Eagle in the window of shops they have patronized for years, desert them. Thirty-five million women organize a do-orbail campaign to see that Eagle shops are patronized and no others.

Even this manufactured hysteria for General Johnson isn't unanimous. Some New England manufacturers have taken to balking. Codes take thought, they argue, and administrators in NRA itself agree with them.

These New Yorkers believe so and think about like this: The Recovery Act is all wrong to begin with. It cures a man of brain concussion by getting after his heart. NRA takes the consumer to be the king and shapes itself solely about him and sounds his heart.

Following these critics further, NRA has run into stupendous luck. "Accident is making it go," they say. Such an "accident" as going off the gold standard, for example, it raised prices. And that, not the heavy thinking put into the Recovery Act, is bringing recovery.

At midnight, after his spokesmen concluded six hours of plain talk with steel's representatives, the agreement was read to the president over the telephone.

Man To Be Placed Here Soon; Farmers May Apply Immediately

First objective of a committee appointed recently at a meeting in Stratton to obtain emergency drought relief for farmers of this section has apparently been reached.

Owen W. Sherrill, regional manager of the crop production loan office, informed C. T. Watson here Saturday that fourteen West Texas counties would be placed in line for immediate crop production loans.

The same committee as served last year for the farm credit administration will serve again, announced Sherrill.

Farmers may make application immediately to their respective committees. Serving in the county are Ben Carpenter, Willie Satterwhite, and A. W. Thompson of Coahoma.

Money will be loaned for feed and food stuff. A first lien on the 1934 crop will be required for the loan.

Unpaid crop production loans, it is understood, will not bar farmers from participation in this year's loans.

What the Blue Eagle means to you and how you can get it

The President's Reemployment Program is advancing to complete success. No such sweeping demonstration of the unity of a whole people against a national danger has ever been made. • In this vast surge of patriotism it is necessary to keep our common purpose always clear. When 125,000,000 people attempt to act as one man there are sure to be some misunderstandings. It is time to restate as clearly as possible the aim of the whole endeavor and the duty of each individual. • That is the purpose of this message—to state officially, briefly and clearly the simple rules for common guidance. • It is an evidence of the self-sacrificing service of the whole country that this newspaper has donated this space. In that spirit the whole country is acting. • This plan depends wholly on united action. That unity is almost complete. In the next few days let us close up every gap in the ranks and nail the flag of the Blue Eagle on the door of every man who works another man.

OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF THE PRESIDENT'S REEMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (Sometimes miscalled "The Blanket Code")

This Agreement binds you to put its terms into effect from the time you sign the Certificate of Compliance until December 31, 1933, but when the President has approved a Code for your trade or industry, that Code takes the place of this Agreement.

You agree:

Child Labor

(1) After August 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 16 years of age, except the persons between 14 and 16 may be employed (but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries) for not to exceed 3 hours per day and those hours between 7 A. M. and 7 P. M. in such work as will not interfere with hours of day school.

This means that after August 31, 1933, you agree not to employ any children under 14 years old in any kind of business. You may employ children between 14 and 16 years old, but only for three hours a day and those hours must be between 7 in the morning and 7 at night, and arranged so as not to interfere with school. You agree not to employ any children under 16 years old in a manufacturing or mechanical industry, at any time.

Maximum Hours

(2) Not to work any accounting, clerical, banking, office, service, or sales employee (except outside salesmen) in any store, office, department, establishment, or public utility, or on any automobile or horse-drawn passenger, express, delivery, or freight service, or in any other place or manner, for more than 40 hours in any 1 week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any 1 week, unless such hours were less than 52 hours per week before July 1, 1933, and in the latter case not to reduce such hours at all.

This means that you agree not to work any of the kinds of employees listed in this paragraph (except outside salesmen) for more than 40 hours a week. This paragraph covers all employees except factory workers, mechanical workers and artisans. However, no limit on hours and no minimum wage applies to purely agricultural labor, domestic servants, or persons working for you solely on a commission basis; but, if you have persons working for you who are guaranteed a base pay in addition to their commission, then their base pay plus commissions must equal the minimum wage.

This Agreement sets no maximum on the number of hours you may keep your business open. You agree not to keep your wholesale, retail, or service establishment open less than 52 hours a week unless it was open less than 52 hours a week before July 1, 1933. Even then you agree to keep it open as long as you used to keep it open before July 1. Of course, if you have always kept your store open shorter hours in the summer months you can continue to do so this summer, but you should pay your employees the same amount each week that they will get when you keep your store open full time.

The stores with more than two employees which remain open the longest are contributing the most to carrying out the purpose of the Agreement. The stores with two or less employees which can be open only the minimum number of hours required, are doing the most to fulfill their part.

(3) Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1933, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any 6 weeks within this period; and not to employ any worker more than 8 hours in any one day.

This means that if you are employing factory or mechanical workers or artisans, you agree not to work them more than 35 hours a week and not more than 8 hours in any one day.

(4) The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one-third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 Federal census.

This means that there are certain employees whom you may work longer hours than are allowed by paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

If your business is in a small town (population less than 2,500 by the 1930 census) and you do not employ more than two persons, the limit on hours does not apply to these employees. If your town is really a part of a larger business community, the limit on hours does apply to these employees.

The limit on hours does not apply to your employees who are wholly or primarily managers or executives, as long as they receive $35 a week. Professional persons, like doctors, lawyers, registered pharmacists and nurses, may be employed without any limit on hours.

Where employees are doing emergency jobs of maintenance or repair work, they may be kept on the job for longer hours, but you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for hours worked over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

There are a few very special cases where highly skilled workers must be allowed to work more than the limit of hours in order to keep up output on continuous processes, but, here again, you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for the hours they work over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

Minimum Wages

(5) Not to pay any of the classes of employees mentioned in paragraph (2) less than $15 per week in any city of over 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14.50 per week in any city of between 250,000 and 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city and in towns of less than 2,500 population to increase all wages by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require wages in excess of $12 per week.

This sets out the schedule of minimum wages which you agree to pay all employees, except factory or mechanical workers or artisans. The wages are set out in terms of dollars per week, but if your employees are paid by the hour, you may use the following schedule:

Place of Business: (Population by 1930 Census)	Minimum Wage:
In cities of 500,000 or over.....	37½ cents per hour
In cities of between 250,000 and 500,000 .....	36¼ cents per hour
In cities of between 2,500 and 250,000 .....	85 cents per hour

If your business is in a town of less than 2,500 population, you agree to raise all wages at least 20%. If raising all wages 20% causes you to pay over $12 per week, then you need only pay the $12 per week.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to whether your business is in the "immediate trade area" of a city, you should ask your local Chamber of Commerce or other similar organization for a decision on the matter. The general rule is that the "immediate trade area" is the area in which there is direct retail competition.

(6) Not to pay any employee of the classes mentioned in paragraph (3) less than 40 cents per hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents per hour, in which latter case not to pay less than the hourly rate on July 15, 1929, and in no event less than 30 cents per hour. It is agreed that this paragraph establishes a guaranteed minimum rate of pay regardless of whether the employee is compensated on the basis of a time rate or on a piece-work performance.

This fixes the minimum wage which you agree to pay factory and mechanical workers and artisans. The following schedule may help you to find out the proper rates:

If the rate for the same kind of work in the same community on July 15, 1929, was:	The minimum rate which you agree to pay is:
More than 40c an hour.....	40c an hour
30c to 40c an hour.....	The July 15, 1929 hourly rate
Less than 30c an hour.....	30c an hour

Instead of paying by the hour, you may pay by the week at a rate which gives the same weekly earnings for a week of 35 hours. For example, instead of 40c an hour, you may pay $14 per week.

If you had a contract on or before August 1, 1933, with a learner or apprentice, you do not have to pay him the minimum wage, but no one should be classed as a learner or an apprentice who has ever been employed as a regular worker in your industry.

(7) Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages hereby agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable readjustment of all pay schedules.

Two official interpretations—No. 1 and No. 20—have been issued, explaining this paragraph. You can get copies of these at your local Chamber of Commerce or from the nearest N. R. A. representative.

Anti-Subterfuge

(8) Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement which is, among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant, to remove obstructions to commerce, and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis.

This is the heart of the whole Agreement. The President's Plan is to cure this depression by increasing purchasing power. You can help him put this plan over by voluntarily signing this Agreement to shorten hours and raise wages. There is no force to compel you to sign this Agreement. It is not law. It is a personal agreement between you and the President. The President expects you to do everything in your power to carry out the spirit of the Agreement after you sign it. This means whole-hearted cooperation by really turning the Blue Eagle—not by just getting it and then not doing your part.

It would be a "subterfuge" to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement to sign it and then put all of your employees on a straight commission basis—or any other trick to avoid doing what you promise to do.

HOW TO EARN THE BLUE EAGLE

1. Sign the President's Reemployment Agreement (P.R.A.).
2. Shorten Hours of factory workers to 35 hours per week, and of all other employees to 40 hours per week. (See paragraphs 2, 3 and 4, P.R.A.)
3. Raise Wages. (See paragraphs 5, 6, and 7, P.R.A.)
4. Don't Employ Child Labor. (See paragraph 1, P.R.A.)
5. Cooperate with the President. To do this:
  - (a) Live Up to the Agreement. (See paragraph 8, P.R.A.)
  - (b) Don't Profit. (See paragraph 9, P.R.A.)
  - (c) Deal Only with Others "Under the Blue Eagle." (See paragraphs 10 and 12.)
  - (d) Get a Code in by September 1st. (See paragraphs 11 and 13, P.R.A.)

HOW TO GET THE BLUE EAGLE

1. Sign the President's Reemployment Agreement.
2. Mail the Signed Agreement to your District Office of the Department of Commerce.
3. Put the Agreement into Effect (as outlined above in "How to Earn the Blue Eagle").
4. Sign a Certificate of Compliance. This is a slip distributed with the Agreement. It says: "I/We certify that we have adjusted the hours of labor and the wages of our employees to accord with the President's Reemployment Agreement, which we have signed."
5. Deliver the Certificate of Compliance to Your Post Office. The Postmaster will give you your Blue Eagle.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES

1. Where a Code Has Been Submitted. (See paragraph 13, President's Reemployment Agreement.) If your whole Trade or Industry is unable to live up to the President's Agreement, you should get together at once, with other employers in your Trade or Industry and, in a group, submit a Code of Fair Competition to N. R. A. in Washington.

Since it takes some time after a Code has been submitted for it to be finally approved, your group may petition N. R. A. to substitute the wages and hours provisions of your Code for the wages and hours provisions of the President's Reemployment Agreement.

If N. R. A. finds that the Code provisions are within the spirit of the President's Reemployment Agreement, it will consent to such substitutions. If N. R. A. does consent there will be an official notice in all the papers. You may then put the substituted provisions into effect in place of the indicated paragraphs of the President's Reemployment Agreement. In this case you should add to your Certificate of Compliance the following clause: "To the extent of N. R. A. consent as announced, we have complied with the President's Agreement by complying with the substituted provisions of the Code submitted by the Trade/Industry."

If the substitution is consented to after you have already put the President's Reemployment Agreement into full effect, and after you have already gotten your Blue Eagle, you may still put the substituted provisions into effect without signing another Certificate of Compliance.

2. Where a Code Has Been Approved. If a Code of Fair Competition for your Trade or Industry has already been finally approved by the President, you need not sign the President's Reemployment Agreement in order to get the Blue Eagle. The same is true if you are subject to a Code which has been put into effect temporarily by agreement between the President and representatives of your Trade or Industry; but in either of these cases, you must sign a Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following statement: "We have complied with the operative provisions of the Code for the Trade/Industry."

3. Cases of Individual Hardship. (Paragraph 14, President's Reemployment Agreement.) If there are some peculiar reasons why a particular provision of the President's Agreement will cause you, individually, a great and unavoidable hardship, you may still get the Blue Eagle by taking the following steps:

(a) Sign the Agreement and mail it to your District Office of the Department of Commerce.

(b) Prepare a petition to N. R. A. setting out the reasons why you cannot comply with certain provisions, and requesting that an exception be made in your case.

(c) Have this petition approved by your Trade Association. If there is no Trade Association for your business, have your petition approved by your local Chamber of Commerce or other representative organization designated by N. R. A.

(d) If the Trade Association, or other organization, approves your petition, send it to N. R. A. in Washington with this approval.

(e) Comply with all the provisions of the Agreement except the one you are petitioning to have excepted.

(f) Sign the Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following clause: "Except for those interim provisions regarding wages and hours which have been approved by the Trade Association, I/We certify that we have adjusted the hours of labor and the wages of our employees to accord with the President's Reemployment Agreement, which we have signed."

4. Union Contracts. If you have a contract with a labor organization calling for longer hours than the President's Agreement allows, and this contract was made in good faith by collective bargaining and cannot be changed by you alone, try to get the labor organization to agree to a reduction to the maximum hours allowed by the President's Agreement. If the labor organization will not agree, you may apply to N. R. A. for permission to work your employees as many hours a week as the contract calls for. Send to N. R. A. a request for this permission, with a certified copy of the labor contract and any statement of fact you desire. This application will be handled by N. R. A. in the same manner as an application for relief in cases of individual hardship, filed under paragraph (14) P. R. A., but it will not be necessary to obtain the approval of a trade association or other organization. If N. R. A. approves your application or is able to bring about any modification of the contract, you will then be granted permission to work employees in accordance with the contract as originally written or modified, and can then sign the Certificate of Compliance adding to it the following: "Except as required to comply with the terms of the Agreement in effect between the undersigned and the (Name of Labor Organization)."

Anti-Profiteering

(9) Not to increase the price of any merchandise after the date thereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement, or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such prices, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

The object of this paragraph is to prevent profiteering or speculation, so that prices will not rise faster than purchasing power, and destroy the President's plan. The danger to be avoided was pointed out by the President on June 16, 1933, in the statement which he made on signing the Recovery Act. He said, then:

"If we now inflate prices as fast and as far as we increase wages, the whole project will be at naught. We cannot hope for the full effect of this plan unless, in these first critical months, and, even at the expense of full initial profits, we defer price increases as long as possible. If we can thus start a strong, sound upward spiral of business activity our industries will have little doubt of block-operations in the last quarter of this year. The pent-up demand of this people is very great, and if we can release it on so broad a front, we need not fear a lagging recovery. There is greater danger of too much feverish speed."

If you were selling your merchandise on July 1, 1933, below cost, you may take your cost price on that date as the basis for determining the allowable increase under this paragraph.

Cooperation

(10) To support and patronize establishments which also have signed this Agreement and are listed as members of N. R. A. (National Recovery Administration).

The success of the President's Reemployment Agreement depends upon public support going to those who raise wages and shorten hours in accordance with this Agreement, in order to repay them for the extra expense which they have incurred in doing their part.

Codes

(11) To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a Code of Fair Competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date, and in any event before September 1, 1933.

This Agreement is a temporary measure to tide over the time from now until all employers and employees can cooperate under Codes of Fair Competition under the National Industrial Recovery Act. You agree, in this paragraph, to do all you can to have a Code submitted for your trade or industry before September 1, 1933.

Appropriate Adjustments

(12) Where, before June 16, 1933, the undersigned had contracted to purchase goods at a fixed price for delivery during the period of this Agreement, the undersigned will make an appropriate adjustment of said fixed price to meet any increase in cost caused by the seller having signed this President's Reemployment Agreement or having become bound by any Code of Fair Competition approved by the President.

This Agreement will, usually, increase the costs of those who sign it. The purpose of this paragraph is to pass any such increased costs along from one signer to another, and so on to the consumer.

If you have a contract made before June 16, 1933, to buy goods at a fixed price, you agree to make an arrangement with your seller so that you pay him for the extra cost to him caused by his having signed this Agreement, or having come under a Code approved by the President.

In some cases the final buyer is the Government, which, under existing law, is generally not allowed to pay more than the contract price. The President has announced that he will recommend to Congress that appropriations be made to allow the Government to pay its part by paying Government contractors who have signed the Agreement for their increased costs. The President has also appealed to the States and cities to take action permitting them to do likewise.

You should have no fear that, because your buyer has not signed, you will be left with the increased cost on you alone. The President expects every employer to sign this Agreement.

Substitutions

(13) This Agreement shall cease upon approval by the President of a Code to which the undersigned is subject; or, if the N. R. A. so elects, upon submission of a Code to which the undersigned is subject and substitution of any of its provisions for any of the terms of this Agreement.

As pointed out in the explanation of paragraph (11) P. R. A. above, the President plans to have all business governed under Codes, and therefore Codes should be promptly submitted. If N. R. A. finds that the wages and hours provisions of a Code which has been submitted are within the spirit of this Agreement, N. R. A. will authorize your industry to operate under those provisions rather than under the wages and hours provisions of this Agreement.

Exceptions

(14) It is agreed that any person who wishes to do his part in the President's Reemployment Drive by signing this Agreement, but who asserts that some particular provision hereof, because of peculiar circumstances, will cause great and unavoidable hardship, may obtain the benefits hereof by signing this Agreement and putting it into effect and then, in a petition approved by a trade association of his industry, or other representative organization designated by N. R. A., may apply for a stay of such provisions pending a summary investigation by N. R. A., if he agrees in such application to abide by the decision of such investigation. This Agreement is entered into pursuant to section 4 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act and subject to all the terms and conditions required by sections 7 (a) and 10 (b) of that act.

If you really want to do your part in the President's Reemployment Program, sign this Agreement. If some particular part of this Agreement causes you, as an individual employer, great and unavoidable hardship, you may obtain relief by taking the steps outlined under the heading "Cases of Individual Hardship."

Save this sheet as your official source of information. If there are any problems in your mind which are not cleared up by this explanation, get in touch with the official N. R. A. representative in your community.

Woodward Believes Legislature Will Protect Bond Issue Funds

Coleman Senator Sees Revision Of Anti-Trust Laws As Big Job Of Special Session, Doubt Local Option Election Validity

SAN ANGELO.—Advocating passage of the $20,000,000 state-wide relief bond issue in Saturday's election, state Senator Walter C. Woodward of Coleman, here this week, said he believed the coming special session of the Legislature would result in passage of regulatory measures to protect the fund from any possible dissipation, misappropriation, fraud or corruption.

He went further to say that he would be on hand in the Senate early and late to do his part in pushing such legislation through. The $20,000,000 figure is the maximum which would be authorized if the issue carries, the senator said. He believes only the amount needed should be issued—and that when it is needed.

There is serious doubt that the Legislature could appropriate relief funds under the calamity clause in the constitution, the senator said. In urging passage of the state-wide bond issue, the senator said, "Governor Miriam A. Ferguson has announced the special session but has set no date. Senator Woodward was here on private legal business, thinks the date will be September 5."

Important Session
"This special session will be confronted with problems of great importance," the Coleman man said, "one of which will be to deal with our anti-trust laws." He continued, "Inquestionably the business interests of Texas can not fully cooperate with the president's program under the NRA without violating our anti-trust laws, especially those prohibitions against combinations of capital and skill which create or tend to create restrictions in trade or to create or carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of any business or to fix, maintain, increase or reduce the price of merchandise or commodities or to prevent or lessen the competition in the manufacture, sale or purchase of merchandise, or to fix or maintain any standard whereby the price of any article or commodity of merchandise shall in any manner be affected, controlled or established or to regulate, fix or limit the output of any article or commodity manufactured, mined, produced or sold," the senator said.

Codes Now Conflict
"There is no question in my mind but that many of the code agreements, strictly speaking, are at this time expressly prohibited by our anti-trust laws and come within the definition of trusts, monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade. In order to cooperate with the

First And Third Place Team Win Toss For Texas Play-Off

DALLAS.—Arrangements for the Texas league pennant play-off under the Shaughnessy plan were completed Thursday in the office of President J. Alvin Gardner where delegates from Houston, San Antonio, Galveston, Beaumont and Dallas attended.

The round-robin play-off between the four clubs finishing in the first and third place, and the team finishing second will battle the third place team in series of best three out of five games.

Fire vs Fourth
The team finishing in first place will meet the team finishing in fourth place, and the team finishing second will battle the third place team in series of best three out of five games.

At the meeting, a coin was tossed to determine sites for the first two games of each series. First and third place teams won. This means that the team finishing first will play at home the first two games and then the next two on the foe's field. The same arrangement goes for third place and second.

Taken on tonight's standing, Houston and Dallas would get the first two games of each series. If a fifth game is necessary in either series the site must be determined by the flip of a coin prior to the playing of the fourth game.

The coin flipped by Bill Parker, Associated Press sports writer, fell both times at the calling of President Fred Ankenman of the Houston Buffaloes and vice-president Bob Tarleton of the Dallas Steers.

The delegates voted a limit of 16 players for the entire play-off. Each club must certify eligible players by midnight, Tuesday, September 5, to President J. Alvin Gardner. Should Beaumont get into the play-off, Art Herring, pitcher, recently acquired from Detroit, will not be eligible because he reported too late under a league ruling.

The two winners of the first round series will meet in a best four out of seven game series for the league championship and the right to represent the Texas league in the annual Dixie series against the Southern association champion.

Prices for the entire play-off were announced by Gardner as follows: Grandstand seats $1.00. Bleacher seats 75c. These prices include the government tax.

Mrs. Ferguson Appeals To Woman For Passage Of Relief Bond Issue
AUSTIN (UP)—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson today issued an appeal to the women of Texas to support the proposed $20,000,000 state relief bonds in Saturday's election.

Her husband and adviser, former Governor James E. Ferguson, has been stumping the state for the bonds since last Saturday night.

Today she added her voice to his in an effort to have the bonds authorized.

The first woman ever elected governor made her appeal on behalf of "500,000 underprivileged children directly dependent on relief and 200,000 mothers."

Picturing the effects of hardship and undernourishment on adolescents, Governor Ferguson appealed to the mothers of more fortunate children. "It is fair," she asked, "that such a child shall be asked later to compete with your child and mine, with our neighbors' children who never have known the lack of wholesome food and proper medical care."

"Pride in race, an outstanding characteristic of the Anglo-Saxon race, makes inactivity in this emergency a crime," she said.

El Paso Teachers Get Letters Urging Repeal
EL PASO, (UP)—Letters mailed to city school teachers by R. L. Holliday, county repeal chairman, urging them to vote for 22 beer Saturday resulted in protests from some teachers and dry leaders.

Mr. Holliday's letter urged teachers to support President Roosevelt's repeal platform and modification of state dry laws.

"If modification carries, one-half the revenue will become a part of the available school fund," Mr. Holliday's letter says. "This will insure employment of more teachers and payment of their warrants in cash."

Texan, Envoy To Chile, Close Home, Prepare To Embark

AUSTIN (UP)—Laguna Gloria, beautiful summer home of Ambassador and Mrs. Henry Ume Sevier, will be kept closed during their residence in Santiago, Chile, the newly appointed ambassador announced here as he began preparations for his diplomatic mission.

Laguna Gloria is an Italian type country residence erected on the exact Colorado river site Stephen P. Austin selected for his home when he established the colony from which Texas has grown.

"Hal" Sevier, as he is more generally known, stopped in Austin at his appointment en route to Corpus Christi where he and Mrs. Sevier now reside.

The Seviers are a noted Southwestern family. Originally they were known as Xavier. That was when their ancestors were persons in the part of Navarre now in Spain.

Forced by political changes to become refugees in England, they anglicized their name to Sevier. From London members of the family emigrated to the Maryland colony. Since they have become prominent in affairs of the South. They furnished a governor to Tennessee, a member of the congress of the Republic of Texas and a noted colonel of the Confederacy.

The last two were grandfather and father of Ambassador Sevier. His father, broken in health, moved to Sabin, Tex., from Columbia, Tenn., when the boy Hal was 10 years old. There he rode the range, became a newspaper correspondent and took an interest in politics.

Twice he was a member of the Texas house of representatives. Going to New York he became a member of the financial news staff of the New York Sun in the days of the late "Boss" Lord. Later he published the Austin American.

Mrs. Sevier known throughout the state as "Savior of the Alamo" also had a grandfather active in the founding of the Republic of Texas. Grandfathers of both Ambassador and Mrs. Sevier fought at San Jacinto.

Mrs. Sevier was Clara Driscoll before her marriage. Returning to Texas after many years spent in Eastern schools and abroad she found the Alamo at San Antonio about to be sold to provide a site for a modern hotel.

She at once set about to save it. Securing an option she time and again personally put up the funds to keep the grounds of the mission intact. Finally it was established as a state shrine of patriotism. Her part in saving the Alamo was recognized by the hanging of her portrait in the Texas senate.

Long active in club work, in recent years she has also been active in politics. Since 1928 she has been Democratic national committee woman from Texas. Her share in the broad Driscoll aches along the Gulf Coast of Texas, enriched by oil and gas discoveries, makes them amply able to undergo the financial strain of American diplomatic service.

Mrs. Sevier has acquired fame as an author. "The Girl of Gloria" and "In the Shadow of the Alamo" were written by her—both tales with a Texas setting. "Mexicans" a light opera by Mrs. Sevier, was produced with much success.

$5 Permanents Too High Says Beautician As Others Hiss Him
EL PASO, (UP)—Hisses and cat-calls greeted Jack Ridenhour, self-styled champion of the "forgotten woman" at the El Paso beauticians' meeting, when he refused to agree to $5 and $8 minimum charges for permanent waves.

Backed by his horn-rimmed spectacles, an aggressive jaw and curly hair, Ridenhour arose as minority leader to assert that $5 permanent waves would come under the head of profiteering.

Washington Writer Describes Garner As "The Forgotten Man"

Vice-President Fishes While Chief And His Administrators Work Feverishly With New Deal Program

By RAYMOND CLAPPER United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, (UP)—Some-where in Texas a ruddy-faced white haired man with small twinkling blue eyes is fishing. He is the number one "forgotten man" of the Roosevelt administration. He is Vice-President of the United States. The name, it may be recalled, is John N. Garner.

When congress adjourned and he no longer had to preside over the senate, Vice-President Garner went back home to Texas. He has been fishing ever since. Texas is waging a prohibition repeal fight which comes to a climax with a state-wide election Saturday. The fight drew the father of prohibition, Senator Morris Sheppard, back home to stump the state. But Vice-President Garner has retired so completely from public activity that he contented himself with issuing, at the behest of friends, a statement appealing to the voters to stand by the Democratic platform and vote for repeal.

President Roosevelt has not called upon Garner for advice, so far as is known, since he began the gigantic administrative task of applying the recovery legislation. Garner has not been called to Washington or to Hyde Park.

When here he attended regular meetings as a routine matter, but otherwise he has been practically effaced from the national picture. Compared with the usual role of a vice-presidential candidate, Garner was largely inactive during the presidential campaign though he was called into conference with Mr. Roosevelt several times.

The present obscurity of the second ranking officer of the federal government has directed attention again to the problem of what should be done with vice-presidents. In 1920 when he was a candidate for the presidency, Garner was largely inactive during the presidential campaign though he was called into conference with Mr. Roosevelt several times.

Garner's passive role now is in contrast to the active part he played for so many years in the house. As democratic minority leader he fought the Mellon tax bills and was a most aggressive and effective critic of the Hoover administration. As Speaker after 1930 he ran the house with a whip hand and was dominant in shaping party issues leading up to the 1932 presidential fight. Mr. Hoover summoned him to the white house often as a spokesman for the democrats in congress.

Now he will go down in the history books and be remembered as a vice-president long after many of the influential figures of the period are forgotten. But until then he has to ride along as a forgotten man.

But the theory has broken down in practice because of the varying qualities of vice-presidents. Usually they get on the party ticket through a deal. Roosevelt took Garner to get the Texas and California delegations. In 1928 Hoover took Curtis to pacify the anti-Hoover senatorial bloc. After the vice-president is not in close enough sympathy with the president to constitute an effective working partner. That is the main reason nothing has ever been done toward making the vice-presidency a job worth a live man's time.

Garner's passive role now is in contrast to the active part he played

Prohibition Issue Opened Here By Drys

Exhibits Placed In Downtown Section Saturday

First semblance of a wet-dry campaign developed here Saturday when W. T. C. U. placed two exhibits in the downtown section pleading the cause of prohibition.

Wets, content with forcing a local option election on 32 per cent beer and beverages August 28, have made no move to further their fight.

The exhibits housed in the Douglas and Read hotels, graphically depicted channels into which money could be turned other than beer.

A good supply of groceries was laid out under the banner of better use of money than for drink.

Neither wets nor drys have announced speakers as the last week of the pre-election campaign begins. Balloting will get under way Saturday at the courthouse and eleven rural voting boxes.

Observers predict Big Spring for the wet column and the rural boxes for the dry side. None hazard handicaps.

Campaigning before the general balloting on August 28 has been confined in Howard county to addresses favoring the constitutional amendment which would allow issuance of $20,000,000 relief bonds.

Political observers believe the amendment will carry here.

Wily Texon Oilers Lose

Odessa Tromps Touted Big Lake Team 7-2

ODESSA—With the biggest game of the season at stake, the Odessa Oilers came through with a well earned victory over the famous Texon Oilers, from Big Lake. The score was 7 to 2.

For five innings it was a pitched battle, each team collecting only one hit. Texon scored one run in the second, and one in the sixth, each after the runner had been put on by an error. Odessa came to life in the last of the sixth, scoring four runs on four hits and two errors.

Two doubles, by Brooks Travolta and Red Brown, a sacrifice by Watson and a single by Harris produced three more runs for Odessa in the seventh. Ed Hava pitched the best ball for Texon, while Lefty Briggs pitched his usual steady game for Odessa.

ROOSEVELT TO HEAD OIL ADMINISTRATION

West Texas Fields Now Receiving Forty Per Cent Lower Than Others

WASHINGTON (AP)—Recovery administration officials Saturday told newspapersmen they felt there were adequate provisions in the price-control section of the oil code to prevent unfair discrimination between prices for oil of like quality in the different fields.

The question of discrimination brought to their attention by Attorney General Alfred M. Brown, who advised the administration that oil was being bought from the West Texas fields at forty per cent less than paid for the same oil in East Texas, and asked the inclusion of a provision in the code to prohibit this.

It was expected the revised code would reach the White House before nightfall.

Coconut Is Housewife's Friend In Keeping Family Interested In Food

By FRANCES LEE BARTON
Coconut is a friend in need to every housewife who wants to keep the family interested in its food. It adds a new and welcome texture and increased appetite appeal to the simplest dish.

Toasted Coconut Ice Cream
One tablespoon flour; 1-2 cup sugar; 1-2 teaspoon salt; 1 egg, slightly beaten; 2 cups milk, scalded; 1 cup cream; 1 tablespoon vanilla; 1 cup shredded coconut, toasted.

Combine flour, sugar and salt. Add to egg. Pour small amount of milk over egg mixture, stirring vigorously. Return to double boiler and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Cool. Add cream and vanilla. Freeze, using 2 parts ice and 1 part salt. When partly frozen, add coconut and continue freezing until firm. Serves 6.

Orange Coconut Filling
Three one-half tablespoons flour; 1 cup sugar; grated rind of 1 orange; 1-2 cup orange juice; 3 tablespoons lemon juice; 2 tablespoons water; 1 egg, slightly beaten; 2 teaspoons butter; 1-2 can moist, sweetened coconut, chopped.

Combine flour, sugar, orange rind fruit juice, water, egg and butter. Cook in double boiler 1 minute, stirring constantly. Add coconut. Cool before spreading. Makes enough filling for two 9-inch layers.

Coconut Salad Delicious
2 cups cabbage, finely shredded;

1 cup shredded pineapple, drained; 1 cup shredded coconut; 3-4 cup mayonnaise; dash of salt.

Crisp cabbage by allowing it to stand in ice water. Drain and dry thoroughly. Toss lightly together with remaining ingredients. Serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with strips of pimiento. Serves 6.

Coconut Peach Dreams
Fill peach halves (fresh or canned) with mixture of sweetened whipped cream and moist, sweetened coconut, flavored with almond extract. Sprinkle additional coconut over top.

Toasted Coconut Squares
One loaf white bread; 1-1 1/2 cups sweetened condensed milk; 1 can moist, sweetened coconut.

Cut bread into 2-inch squares, 1-4 inch thick. Dip each square in milk and drain slightly. Then dip in coconut, covering all sides well. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F) 25 minutes, or until golden brown. Makes 3 1/2 dozen squares.

Coconut Cup Custard
Three eggs or 6 egg yolks, slightly beaten; 6 tablespoons sugar; 1-4 teaspoon salt; 1-8 teaspoon nutmeg; 3-4 cup shredded coconut; 3 cups milk, scalded.

Combine eggs, sugar, salt, nutmeg and coconut. Add milk gradually, stirring vigorously. Pour into custard cups, place in pan of hot water and bake in slow oven (325 degrees F) 25 to 40 minutes, or until knife inserted comes out clean. Chill. Serves 6.

Home Made Mayonnaise Made Easily

These are salad days . . . and salads make one think of smooth, creamy mayonnaise . . . real home made mayonnaise, with that fresh, delicate flavor you just can't buy.

Making mayonnaise used to be a lot of trouble. It took any more. For there is a brand new mayonnaise maker, as shown above, on the market . . . a simple little glass jar with a top that screws on and a dasher that goes down through a hole in this top. It has revolutionized the making of mayonnaise. No more slow pouring of oil, then beating, then pouring oil, then beating, wondering all the time whether the mayonnaise will "go back." With this new mayonnaise maker, you simply put the egg and the seasoning, and the lemon juice or vinegar (whichever you prefer), in the bottom of the jar; jiggle the dasher a few times to stir them up; then put the top on and buyers as well as retailers should be urged to promote the use of sugar products made under the NRA seal, rather than sugar from insular possessions where there is no control of labor costs.

While some retailers and jobbers have quantities of Imperial sugar in stock at the present time which does not bear the NRA emblem, this is due to the fact that it was shipped prior to the signing of the code.

Bottled Fruit Pectin, Used In Short Boil Method Of Jellies

By FRANCES LEE BARTON
My grandmother's jams and jellies were delicious but limited in variety to the few fruits which would "jell." My cupboard is filled with every kind of fruit jelly, made the modern way with bottled fruit pectin by the short-boil method, which gives me more glasses of jelly from the same quantity of fruit and jelly of a better color and flavor.

Ripe Peach Jelly
Three cups (1 1/2 lbs) juice; 6 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs) sugar; 1 bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare juice, remove pits from about 3 1/2 pounds peaches. Do not peel. Crush peaches thoroughly. Add 1 1/2 cup water, bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 5 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth of bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 9 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Ripe Plum Jelly
Four cups (2 lbs.) juice; 7 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs) sugar; 1 1/2 bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare juice, crush thoroughly about 4 pounds fully ripe fruit. Do not peel or pit. Add 1 cup water. Bring to a boil cover and simmer 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Ginger Pear Jam
Four cups (2 lbs.) prepared fruit; 1-2 to 1 cup diced crystallized ginger; 7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs) sugar; 1 bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, peel, core and crush completely or grind about 3 pounds fully ripe pears. Dice about 1-2 pounds crystallized ginger.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit tightly packed, into large kettle. Add ginger, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Spiced Plum Jam
Four cups (2 lbs) prepared fruit; 7 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs) sugar; 1-2 bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, pit about 2 1/2 pounds fully ripe plums. Do not peel. Cut into small pieces and crush thoroughly. Add 1 teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, and allspice or any desired combination of spices.

Measure sugar into large kettle. Add prepared fruit. Mix and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Piggly Wiggly Store Operators To Meet In Chicago Sept. 6-8

A two hundred million dollar industry serving more than 2,500,000 persons will be represented when the Piggly Wiggly operators meet in Chicago, Sept. 6, 7, 8.

The operators own their own Piggly Wiggly stores and maintain the mander franchises issued by the Piggly Wiggly Corporation, of which Albert H. Morrill is president.

These food merchants will hold their convention at the Del Prado Hotel. A general program for the convention was outlined recently by E. A. Basse, who heads a chain of Piggly Wiggly stores in Texas. Mr. Basse is president of the National Piggly Wiggly Operators' association.

One of the highlights of the convention will be an address by G. C. Corbaley, advisor to Charles J. Brand, food administrator of the National Recovery Administration. Mr. Corbaley is also president of the American Institute of Food Distribution.

In addition to the speech of Mr. Corbaley, there will be an address by Mr. Morrill. Because of the close relationship of the corporation and the store owners and because of rapidly changing conditions in the food industry, the address is looked forward to with interest. Mr. Morrill is also president of the Kroger Grocery and Baking company.

Speakers of national prominence in the food distribution and manufacturing industry will be on the program. The meeting promises to be one of the great interest not only to those attending the convention but to the general public as well, for one of the principal objectives will be the fostering of economical processes of distribution to lower the costs of foodstuff to the consumers.

At the present time, approximately three thousand stores are operated under the Piggly Wiggly system by 300 owners.

It's great to feel fit!

Everybody has days when every waking hour is packed with rest of living. Why not make every day like this!

A frequent drawback to fitness is constipation. It may dull your energy, steal your appetite, lower your vitality. Yet it is so easy to overcome.

Try eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Science shows this delicious cereal supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to promote appetite, and tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than taking patent medicines—so often harmful.

Two tablespoons daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN has iron for the blood. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Imperial Sugar Adds $3,500 To Payroll On NRA Basis Of Wages

The Imperial Sugar company at Sugarland, Tex., is one of the first of the Southwest's leading industries to announce the signing of the NRA code. This concern has added 150 men to its payroll representing an addition of $3,500 per week, assuring the citizens of Sugarland, Tex., that much more money weekly for things they may need for their homes or to wear and will, no doubt, result in better business conditions in Sugarland and the surrounding communities.

Mr. I. H. Kempner, president of the concern said, "We are wholeheartedly in favor of everything being undertaken by the government. We have signed the code and will cooperate with the government in every possible way. All manufacturers in all lines should cooperate with one another in using only products manufactured by companies who are operating under the NRA.

Mr. Kempner brought out the fact that the cooperation of all the

REAL STATESMEN NEEDED IN U. S. AND JAPAN.

The clang of the hammers in American shipyards is about to sound at a louder, faster pitch than we have heard in years. Across the Pacific in the shipyards of Japan an equally accelerated clanking is about to begin; and unless all signs fail these two nations will presently be embarked upon a naval building race of the traditional type, in spite of treaties, gentlemen's agreements or any other forms of restraint.

It is very easy for an American to deplore this trend. No one who remembers the outcome of the world's last great naval building race—between England and Germany—can be blamed for dreading the advent of a new one. But it is not nearly so easy to say just how this race is to be avoided.

Your pacifist, of course, will remark that the way to avert a race of this kind is to build no more warships under any circumstances; to let the other chap lay down as many keels as he chooses and to pare your own establishment down year after year, secure in the knowledge that you yourself aren't going to war no matter what happens.

But it isn't likely that many Americans will endorse this plan. The world is still a seriously disturbed and suspicion-racked planet; international policies still have a way of colliding head-on, in spite of all we can do to prevent it; and while war may be a most costly and wasteful way of settling disputes, the world does not yet seem to have reached the point at which it can assure itself that war will be no more.

In short, America has very solid reasons for maintaining a strong navy, and a government which failed to do so could properly be called short-sighted. And the same thing doubtless can be said of the Japanese.

Which leaves us, perhaps, right where we started—except that it all underlines the heavy responsibility which rests on the shoulders of the statesmen of the two nations.

There are, after all, more reasons for the United States and Japan to be friendly than there are for them to be enemies.

This country is Japan's best customer; Japan, in turn, buys heavily from the United States, and the development of Japan's Asiatic conquests should logically open still larger markets to American manufacturers.

As both nations prepare for trouble, it should be possible for their statesmen to work out a way whereby they could continue to live in peace.

Self-interest on both sides of the Pacific dictates such a course.

THE VAST JOB OF THE NRA.

The more one studies the program now under way via the NRA, the more does it become clear that a tremendous amount of patience, good sense and straightforward executive ability are going to be required of the host of officials responsible for the program's success.

The sheer bulk of work to be done, to begin with, is appalling. The blue eagles' lieutenants at Washington are tackling one of the most complex jobs ever undertaken by any group of men on earth. Not least of the dangers facing these men is the chance that they may simply get tangled up in red tape.

Furthermore, in working out a way of beating the depression it is quite likely that policies will be laid down which will affect the life of the nation for many years after the depression has passed. The NRA must not only find a workable program for the present; it must find one that will head us in some direction that we are willing to follow more or less permanently.

All in all, it is an almost overwhelming task. That the work so far has been done so well is a good testimonial to the caliber of the men who are on the job.

American Legion Auxiliary Does Much Welfare Work In Community

The American Legion Auxiliary has been busy in Big Spring for the past year according to facts from the records of Miss Elizabeth Owen, secretary.

During the year the Auxiliary helped sixteen local and seven transient families. There were forty-eight children in the local families and nine in the transient. Fifty cans of canned goods were given to the Mexican school children last winter.

One box of men's clothes was sent to the hospital at Legion, Texas. Two boxes were sent to the Legion hospital at Christmas.

When much canning was being done last fall, the Auxiliary had 50 cans of foodstuff put up for charity.

Four charity dances at the Casino have been sponsored during the year by the Auxiliary. These dances were all very successful.

It conducted a poppy poster contest in the schools and the poppy sale in Big Spring. They were both successes.

A rummage sale was sponsored by the Auxiliary. The sale was successful. It was here that most of the needy list was gathered.

YOU feel a little embarrassed and sorry for her. She looks so admiring and helpless, so envious, and so—so—ineffective!

Her clothes are always so bad, poor little thing. And she pays too much for them. Her home is furnished with all the wrong things. She seems to have a genius for wasting money. When she goes out to buy anything, soap or silverware, or lingerie or lamps, she's sure to turn up with something nobody ever heard of before and doesn't want to hear of again.

She is that eager, but not very bright, little woman who, "my dear, doesn't ever read advertisements." Who doesn't know what to buy, or where to find it, or what to pay for it. Who doesn't know values and can't compare them. Who doesn't know that when a new style, or a new convenience, or a new anything arrives, one sees it first in the advertisements.

One really gets a little vexed with her—
But let's not waste too much time on her. It's about time for you, dear lady, to have your daily look through the advertisements.

Campaign Against 'Chiseling' And 'Cheating' Opened By NRA

Unjustified Hiking Of Prices Subject Of Stern Warning By Johnson; Miners' Leader Says Administration Is 'Holding Back'

WASHINGTON—The beginning of a nation-wide campaign to prevent skyrocketing prices and to wipe out "chiseling and cheating" practices in business was outlined Tuesday by Hugh S. Johnson, the NRA chief.

Turning momentarily from his fast-moving negotiations to bring the bituminous coal and automobile industries under codes of fair competition, the recovery administrator went before the national retailers with a stern warning against flouting the blue eagle.

He urged them, in opening a hearing upon their proposed code, to be on guard against unjustified increases in merchandise costs. Then, rushing back to the long series of conferences with spokesmen for the coal industry, Johnson expressed satisfaction that the "code will issue presently."

Pointing to the "obstacles inseparable from arranging a process for an industry of such diversified character in its operation," Johnson said "both employees and employers are cooperating in good spirit." He declined, however, to predict when a final agreement upon the charter would be reached between the widely differing coal operators and the labor spokesmen.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, said after a meeting of district leaders, the recovery administrator had not yet "laid its cards on the table."

Under the less direct guidance of Johnson, conferences were going forward looking to an agreement upon the automobile code. The administrator is anxious to get that and the bituminous coal code in shape simultaneously for submission to President Roosevelt before the end of the week.

Particularly vexing in the trade plan for the automobile industry—outside of the doubts surrounding the next move by Henry Ford, who has been silent on his attitude—was the labor question. There were indications that Donald R. Richberg, general counsel of the NRA and Johnson had not yet reconciled their views upon whether an interpretative clause should follow the statement of the law guaranteeing collective bargaining to labor.

After giving informal approval to the section as included in the code stating that the industry "may continue its open shop operations," the administrator was confronted with the view of Richberg that it should be stricken out.

Richberg said with the coal negotiations occupying most of Johnson's time, he had not been able to take the question up for final settlement. In addition to these two major codes, Johnson was represented as desirous, also, of pushing through the retail code within a few days, since it will affect some $5,000,000 persons—more than are employed in any other industry.

As it lacked the controversial differences between labor and capital, which have delayed other important codes, the administrator was of the opinion that an agreement upon the retailers' "constitution" could be reached within a few days. With these out of the way, he planned to turn to the actual enforcement of the by-laws which have been laid down for those business houses displaying the Blue Eagle of the NRA.

"The meeting there would be no 'big win' like the NRA bird, he said. "I know there is a lot of it now." But, he added that where violations of agreements were found "we are going to move in there and take that eagle off that window."

"We are going to do it under such circumstances that the whole world will know why we have taken it off," Johnson said, "and that we have taken it off fairly."

It was disclosed that the administration was turning its attention to the possibility of tariff boosts being necessitated by the rising costs of production in this country under the codes.

Franklin O. Billings, formerly assistant director of valuations in the New York customs office, was established at the NRA headquarters to receive complaints of manufacturers of imports flowing in harmful to their business.

While Billings has been designated to keep abreast of the developments, it was said, President Roosevelt had not yet delegated to him or the administration the authority provided in the recovery act for increasing duties or clipping on an embargo if an investigation shows the need.

Under The Dome

At Austin

By GORDON K. SHEARER

AUSTIN, (UP)—The Texas state government is not without its own

GLASSES
That Suit Your Eyes Are a Pleasure
DR. AMOS H. WOOD
Optometrist
Retractor, Oculist
205 Westmoreland Bldg. Ph. 282

and discovered Texas is pretty well off.

"The figures that have been quoted by state officials are OK," Professor Hester says, "but the conclusions reached from them are not right."

When it was announced the maximum tax rate, which was fixed by the automatic tax board, would only be half enough to meet the real needs, Prof. Hester took issue.

Taking up the state school fund he said:

"Its income during the next year will be $18,044, according to the comptroller's report to the board of education. This estimate is based on the low revenue returns of the last 12 months and does not include the possibilities of a business upturn, nor the possibility of a beer tax to bring about $1 per capita, nor the collections to be made from the $20,000,000 of delinquent taxes now due this fund. In short it is probable that the school fund will have an income of $19 or $20 during the year with which to pay off the deficit and operate. A part of the deficit could be carried over to the following year which makes its payment still easier.

"As to the general fund the prospective deficit August 31 will be $9,044,752.21, by the same report. This represents accumulated deficits over several years, plus nearly $3,000,000 in claims which the legislature voted, which had also accumulated over several years. To assume that this entire indebtedness must be paid in one year is absurd. If $10,000,000 of new revenues were levied to liquidate it in one year, it would mean that the same revenues would create a treasury surplus of $10,000,000 the second year. What an indictment this would be for squandering."

One state office in Texas can be held only by a married man. It is that of oculist for the state institute for the blind.

Adrian Pool, board of control member, said he understood the provision had been put in the act by friends of an aspirant to the position. He was married and his leading opponent for the place was single.

The cleverly designed plan did not work. The unmarried applicant married, qualified and got the position.

While this is the only office requiring a married person by stature, there are a number of places that are given to married couples. The board of control has placed a man and wife at the Waco school for dependent children.

Efforts were made several times to disqualify the late S. M. N. Marrs state school superintendent. Time and again it was proposed to place qualifications about the office that would automatically bar him. Legislators defeated the plans. One proposal was to require a master's degree for the state superintendent. Marrs, despite his long years in educational work, never had this college degree.

Placed on the state industrial accident board are restricted so that one must be held by an attorney, one by an employer and one by a person who was an employee when appointed. Former governor Pat M. Neff held his secretary, Miss Keppa Stanford, was an employee within the meaning of the law and made her the employee-member. Industrial workers have no member on the board, strictly speaking.

Speaking of legal qualifications, few know that all judges need not be lawyers. A county judge in Texas need never have practiced law.

Featherweight Team In Prospect For The Bulldogs

MIDLAND—Approximately forty candidates, including only one letterman and 14 squadmen from last year, will report to Coach L. K. Barry for practice August 28.

The squad will be the lightest, youngest and most inexperienced that Midland High school has had in more than seven years, but it is expected that a team will be developed which will play creditable Class B football.

A number of light but fast backs are in prospect but the Bulldogs will be handicapped by a featherweight line.

Midland will play in the north section of Class B, playing conference games with Stanton, Odessa, Wink, Pecos and possibly Marfa.

EL PASO (UP)—There may be some fancy riding at the rodeo here September 2, 3 and 4, but if there is it will be done by amateurs. Only novices in the saddle will be permitted to enter the show, directors of the Citizens' athletic Association have decreed.

Mrs. W. Z. White, Mrs. C. L. Bowman and son, Skeet Bowman of Cleveland, Okla., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Black.

Midland Netters Win East Half Of Permian Basin Tennis League

Joe Davis Wins All Matches To Take Singles Crown In Loop

MIDLAND—Midland racketeers volleyed their way through Odessa opposition Sunday to earn by a narrow margin the right to represent the eastern division of the Permian Basin Tennis League in a play-off, winning 4-3 on the Ector counties' court.

Both clubs won three matches, but Midland's No. 1 doubles team commanded more points and was enabled to contribute a margin of one point.

By virtue of the win, a three-way tie was broken, leaving the clubs of this division in the following order: Midland 14, Odessa 13, Big Spring 10.

Through a freak arrangement of wins and losses, however, the No. 2 doubles team of Odessa will meet the No. 1 doubles team of Midland this week for a play-off, the winner to meet in extra-play the doubles team of the most consistent play in the western division. This decision will not affect play of Midland's No. 1 doubles team in the final play-off of Midland and the club that wins the western division, however. Theo Ferguson and Louis Levinson are the Midland players affected.

To Joe Davis of Big Spring goes the honor of winning the eastern division's singles crown. The Howard county flash has not lost a match this season.

In singles matches played at Odessa, Ferguson won from Turner 2-6, 6-3, 6-4; Levinson lost to Dr. Woods, 6-3, 6-0; James Walton of Midland won from Frame of Odessa, 5-7, 10-8, 6-3; J. S. Schow of Midland lost to Wright of Odessa, 10-8, 6-3.

In doubles, Levinson and Ferguson won from Woods and Turner, 6-2, 6-4; and Walton and Schow lost to Frame and Wright, 10-3, 6-4.

The play-off between the two divisions is tentatively slated for Sept. 3, with Midland officials of the league attempting to get the matches played here. At the same time, it is likely a meeting will be held for the purpose of reorganizing the league for next season, with a view to getting in four more clubs for the eastern division, and election of officers.

Crane Oilers In Top Notch Crane Defeats Odessa To Take Lead In The Permian Loop

MCCAMEY—By defeating the Odessa club, 5 to 3, in Crane Sunday afternoon, the Crane Oilers advanced to the top position of the Permian Basin league percentage column and broke the Odessa club's perfect record, which until last Sunday, was unmarred by league defeats.

With only two more Sundays in which to play, the championship of the second half apparently lies between Crane and Odessa, although the third-place Iran team has a chance at the title. The winner will play the Wink team, winner of the first half, for the league championship.

McCamey defeated Big Lake, 9 to 0, here Sunday in the other league game. The Iran-Wink tilt was postponed and the Midland club was idle.

Next Sunday will find the Wink club playing in McCamey, Odessa in Iran and Midland in Crane.

The league standing: Team—P. W. L. Ave. Crane 5 5 1 .833 Odessa 5 4 1 .800 Iran 5 3 2 .600 McCamey 6 3 3 .500 Wink 4 2 2 .500 Midland 5 1 4 .200 Big Lake 5 0 5 .000

One Veteran Remains For Eagle Eleven

Two Workouts Daily Program Of Maybew Beginning Monday

ABILENE—Next Monday afternoon at 3:30 sweat shirts, pants and other equipment needed for early training will be issued to dozens of boys at Abilene high school. Coach Dewey Maybew will say a few words. The Eagles' practice season will be officially inaugurated.

As the days and weeks wear on, more business-like paraphernalia will be shown across the counter to the favored candidates. Coach Dewey Maybew will say more words, and say them more convincingly.

He will probably be saying that he wished a Smith, Barber, Wyatt or Blackmon were present. They will be absent and so will be nearly every other player of experience. If Abilene high school ever had a greener team, from the standpoint of service on the field or backfield, and, therefore, may prove each of the "Big Four" Abilene, who goes his way in the line, it is that element will lay you out the field never reaches this line this autumn.

To lay the groundwork for establishing this important connection, the Eagles will toil twice daily after 3:30 p. m. This program will continue until September 11, when the opening of school is scheduled to handicap the drill.

The schedule of games definitely arranged comprises nine contests and lasts close resemblance to that of last year. Winters, the opening competition, is now on the card while Cleve returns to the slate after a year's absence.

The program: September 22—Winters at Abilene. September 29—Sweetwater at Abilene.

October 6—Abilene at San Angelo. October 14—Lubbock at Abilene. October 28—Ranger at Abilene.

November 4—Brownwood at Abilene. November 11—Abilene at Breckenridge. November 18—Abilene at Eastland. November 30—Cisco at Abilene.

Coahoma Bulldogs Blank Forsan Oilers In Sunday Scrap

Handicapped by the loss of several good players, the Forsan Oilers were shut-out by the Coahoma Bulldogs 10 to 0 Sunday.

Both teams were scoreless until the fourth inning when Waldon let in three runs and three men on base. White took his place and allowed three more to score in the same frame.

Wacker, Coahoma short-stop, scored three runs out of five times at bat.

Tulsa Beats Houston 4-3

Oklahoma City Makes It Two In Row Off Galveston

TULSA, Okla.—After spotting the Houston Buffaloes to a three-run lead in the third inning, the lowly Tulsa Oilers came back to pound "Bear Tracks" Greer all over the lot and nose out a 4 to 3 victory Wednesday night.

Bill Posedel, who relieved Jim Bivin after a five hit batting spree, let the Buffs down without trouble. Houston.....003 000 000—3 8 2 Tulsa.....000 030 11—4 10 1 Greer and O'Dea; Bivin, Posedel and Powers.

INDIANS 4, PIRATES 1 OKLAHOMA CITY—The surprising Oklahoma City Indians made it two consecutive over-whelming victories Wednesday night by winning 4-1.

Matusak allowed the Bucs only eight scattered hits, while the Indians pounded their former mate, "Wash" Tubbs for eleven. Galveston.....000 100 000—1 8 1 Okla. City.....010 100 00—4 11 1 Tubbs and Mealey; Matusak and Pant.

STEEERS 4, MISSIONS 1 DALLAS—Manager Fred Brainard's Dallas Steers gained undisputed right to third place Wednesday by defeating the San Antonio Steers by a score of 4 to 1.

Missions, 3 to 1. It was the Steers' second consecutive over-whelming victory over the Missions.

Stetly, cross-fire southpaw hurler, limited the Missions to six hits and held "Pid" Purdy, the league's leading batter, hitless in four times at bat. The Steers rampaged for

Three Arrested, Six Automobiles Returned To Owners

SWEETWATER — Three men have been arrested and six stolen automobiles have been returned to their owners as officers of three West Texas counties uncovered what they described as a highly organized auto theft ring extending from Fort Worth to a half dozen West Texas counties.

At least two more cars, now in the hands of innocent Nolan County purchasers, are known to be stolen but their original owners have not yet been found, officers said.

The cars, in each instance, were found in the hands of innocent purchasers and have been returned to the following owners: R. B. Hill of Dallas, stolen at Fort Worth; Mrs. Edith Monnie, Fort Worth; Ted Casner, Stamford; H. O. Wooten Grocery Company, Wichita Falls; Ellis Boyd Motor Company, Fort Worth; O. T. Smith, Fort Worth.

Some of the cars were found in possession of prominent Sweetwater persons who had bought them through a man who operated as a used car dealer and who is now under $1,000 bond in connection with the case. Two other men were jailed at Haskell.

Motor numbers of the cars had been changed, and registration papers and bills of sale had been forged or obtained under false pretense to make the deals appear legal to prospective buyers, officers said.

The operations of the ring first came to light with arrest of a man in Stamford in connection with a car theft there. Questioning of him led to two more arrests and recovery of the six cars in this county.

Texas Hog Raisers To Receive Less Than Chicago Area

FORT WORTH—When the buying of hogs under the agricultural adjustment administration emergency plans begins at Fort Worth August 28, producers of hogs in Texas and Oklahoma will not receive as much for pigs as producers in the Chicago area.

Table with 2 columns: Pounds and Per 100 Lbs. It lists various weight ranges and their corresponding prices per 100 lbs.

These differentials are subject to change at any time on agreement between the government and the Institute of American Meat Packers.

These prices are applicable to pigs that are in good health, show normal growth and no body deformities at the time of delivery.

Inferior pigs will take a $3 per hundred discount under the Chicago price wherever they are marketed.
