BARNEY CARTER PLANS TO MAKE GASOLINE CASINGHEAD PLANT BEING CONSTRUCTED

FOURTH OF JULY IN RANGER TO BE FEATURED BY EXHIBITION OF FIREWORKS BEYOND COMPARE

Under Direction of Electrical Expert James A. Boze, It Will Be One of the Finest Programs Ever Given In Texas; Boxing Exhibition, Baseball and Other Attractions Promised.

The Fourth of July in Ranger this year will be a memorable occasion. Coming on Saturday, the generally accepted day for farmers and their families to visit the city, it is certain that large numbers of the rural population will come in to be entertained. The ball game in the afternoon will attract many; the boxing exhibition at night is certain to attract a large number of enthusiasts, and the music and dancing will have its votaries.

The commanding feature of the celebration, however, will be the exhibition of fireworks, which is scheduled to take place just after dark in the ball park, where grandstand and bleacher seats will be provided for an audience of between 4,000 and 5,000.

James A. Boze, electrical expert with the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Gulf railroad, and during the war connected with the United States and during the war connected with the United States bureau of high explosives and chemicals, has arranged the fireworks program and will have entire charge of it. It includes 73 members, each a gem in itself, and will be a program that would be creditable in any city. It is probable that no finer program has ever been given anywhere in Texas and it should attract several thousand visitors. Because of the recent oil activity that has brought so many strangers to Ranger, Mr. Boze is determined the July Fourth fireworks exhibition shall be in keeping with Ranger's added dignity.

Introductory Features.
Grand salute of aerial guns. These salutes are fired at intervals of a few minutes before the display takes place as an intimation to the public that the fireworks display is about to commence. They explode high in the air with tremendous reports and will attract the people to the grounds and grandstand.

Military Calls.—There will be six buglers that will appear in front of the grandstand and blow the various military calls.

Star Shells.—Everything becomes very calm. Star shells will break high in mid-air that will light "No Man's Land."

Roar of Guns.—The break of 21 French 75's will ring out. These shells will be controlled electrically by mechanical devices.

CASINGHEAD PLANT BEING CONSTRUCTED

Ample Gas Supply Assured; Oil Production From Carter Pool Holding Steady.

Construction work on the casing-head gasoline plant to be erected by Barney Carter near the scene of his operations in the Carter pool is progressing rapidly under the supervision of R. W. Thomas, engineer in charge of affairs.

The plant is being built on the Pritchard farm near the McLester-Carter Pritchard No. 1. Cost of the plant will be about $400,000 and it will have a capacity of about 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily, it is stated. The gas from the producing wells in the Carter pool is rich in gasoline and will average one and one-half to two and one-half gallons per 1,000 feet of gas. Plenty of gas is assured to the operators of the plant from the field.

Production in the Carter pool now aggregates about 11,000 barrels of oil daily from the five producing wells, Carter-Thomson's Langford Nos. 1, 2 and 3, McLester-Carter's Pritchard No. 1 and Barkley et al.'s Pritchard No. 1.

The Langford No. 1 is still averaging 350 barrels, Langford No. 2 is proving to be the best produced of the field, maintaining a production of about 3,200 barrels a day. Langford No. 3 has dropped to around 2,000 barrels. McLester-Carter's Pritchard No. 1 is doing about 2,700 barrels while Barkley's Pritchard No. 1, the first big well of the pool, is now making around 1,500 barrels a day.

Oil men are confident that the pay sand extends south, but with the results from the wells are beginning to think the pool proper lies to the east of the Langford No. 2, pointing out that it was the second big producer to be drilled in and is maintaining its flow. It may be this is due to the fact that no other wells are close to the location and are not draining the sand around it, while the Pritchard No. 1 of Barkley's is offset on the east a distance of 600 feet, by the McLester-Carter Pritchard No. 1 and on the north by the Langford No. 3.

A good pay sand extends southward, according to indications of the structure, operators claim, and evidence that many believe in is proven by the large number of rigs that are up and the active campaign to drill in as soon as possible south of the Langford and Pritchard wells.

Eyes of the oil fraternity are now turned towards the Spicer No. 1 being drilled by Corzelli brothers, lying southeast of the pool. Reports Saturday were that the well would be drilled in some time Monday. Many expect that the Spicer is good for about 1,500 barrels and others are keeping still waiting for developments.

Several wells are due for completion in a week or 10 days and the drilling is going ahead night and day, all rushing for the pay sand in order to obtain their share of the liquid gold before neighboring wells tap the sands from the first rich flush production. According to operators the wells now drilled in the deep sand will make splendid pumps when put on the pump.

Reports from the field are that the Abilene-Cisco Oil corporation and Barney Carter's Pritchard No. 3 is down about 2,300 feet, the Pritchard No. 2 about 900 feet and the third Pritchard No. 1 about 2,500 feet.

BRECKENRIDGE MAN NAMED CHAIRMAN OF IRRIGATION BRECKENRIDGE, June 6.—J. E. Thompson of Breckenridge was named chairman of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce irrigation committee today by R. Q. Lee of Cisco, president.

AND THE ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN IN RANGER

Mrs. R. B. Campbell, Editor
 Telephone 224

Greetings. It's good to be back on the society page. It's good to be once again in close touch with the comings and goings of those friends who have meant so much to me during my years of living in Ranger. It's good to be able to be the first one to announce the coming of a dear baby, the graduation of some boy or girl, the marriage of some young man or woman. It's all so vitally interesting, just the very fabric of life itself, for after all, it is these episodes that make up the daily chronicle of existence.

Things promise to pick up socially in Ranger. There is a rumor or two of some large parties, and lots of lesser affairs. It is hoped that all these things will be given in for this page. It's the contributions that make it. If you are glad that the former editor of this page is back on the job "say it with news."

A BRIDGE TEA.
 The mellowness of a "rare day in June," the natural beauty of the Country club, the sincere cordiality of the three hostesses, the colorful gowns of the many guests, the beauty and exquisiteness of each detail combined in making the bridge tea, given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. T. Gullahorn, Mrs. Marvin K. Collier and Howard R. Gholson, one of the outstanding events of the spring season.

The Country club reception room was lavishly decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Its wide flung windows brought a vista of the great outdoors to vie with the interior decorations. It was an ideal setting for an ideal party. Tables were arranged for bridge, there being at least 18 tables attractively arranged around the spacious clubroom. The prizes were especially attractive, being pieces of handsome Italian drawn work on finest linen. Mrs. D. L. Jameson won the high score, a card table cover; Mrs. R. J. Bates of Eastland, the second prize, a set of napkins, and Miss Sue Dean the low score prize, a towel of the same lovely work and material. After the game the tables were pushed back and the bridge playing guests were then joined by a number of incoming guests in a delicious tea.

A color scheme of red, yellow and lavender predominated. The prizes were wrapped in yellow crepe paper, tied with lavender ribbon and topped with a red rose. Cut flowers in these pleasing spring colors also accentuated the general color motif. The guest list was very large, there being present about 130 ladies, including a number of out of town guests.

MRS. CRUTSINGER ENTERTAINS
 Mrs. Crutsinger, of Young addition, gave a picnic to a crowd of young people, Thursday morning at Winsett springs, from 9 to 1 o'clock. Schmuck entertained with an informal dance in honor of her daughter, Miss Christina, and her guest Miss Madge Kent of Denton, Texas. It is inevitable that Ed's Studio should attract a degree of public interest accorded, no other studio since the beginning of time in Ranger never has an artist came here who has turned the people's mind so much to the interest of photography as Mr. Newcomb. For his pictures not only portray in an artistic way, all the pleasing characters, but at the same time they have that marked distinction of class and quality, usually priced much higher at other studios. Hundreds of Ranger people today are pointing with pride at the photos made by Ed, and every one is surprised and delighted with the finished portrait in the up-to-date mountings which seems so incredible consistent with the low price paid for them. Never before was it possible to get real photographs that were right at the low prices you pay at Ed's Studio. Ed's one slogan:

"Nobody Makes 'Em Like Ed."

Gorman Organizing Community Fair

County agent, R. H. Gush, and Secretary George W. Briggs of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, went to Gorman, Friday, and assisted the business men and farmers of that section in organizing a community fair to be held in Gorman, September 1 and 2. This is the fifth community fair of this kind that has been organized in the county under the direction of Mr. Bush. The others are at Carbon, Rising Star, Dothan and Dan Horn.

The community fairs, according to Secretary Briggs, will all be held prior to the county-wide fair to be held in Eastland, Oct. 1, 2 and 3, and most of them, if not all of them, will have exhibits at the Eastland show. From the exhibits at the Eastland fair material will be selected to make up the Eastland county exhibit for the state fair in Dallas.

On the way back to Eastland from Gorman, Mr. Briggs and Mr. Bush stopped at Flatwoods and talked with a number of the club boys and girls there and found them eager to work up an exhibit of products from that community for the Eastland county-wide fair.

MOOTED POINT IS PASSED OVER BY THE COURT

District Judge Ely of the Forty-second judicial district at Abilene Friday rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the case of the state of Texas vs. the estate of F. B. Gillette et al. in which the constitutionality of the Eastland county court-at-law, so far as its jurisdiction over probate matters is concerned, was an issue. The court's decision is made, however, without reference to this question.

The suit, which was filed by District Attorney Long of Taylor county, was to recover for the state certain real property situated in Taylor county belonging to the estate of F. B. Gillette, which was sold under order of the court by H. E. Lawrence, administrator, appointed by Judge Joe H. Jones as judge of the Eastland county court-at-law. State's attorneys, in their petition, alleged there had been no administration of the estate because the Eastland county court-at-law had no jurisdiction over probate matters and therefore had no authority to appoint an administrator. It was further alleged by state's attorneys that if the Eastland county court-at-law did have jurisdiction over probate matters, held that the court has no jurisdiction over probate matters many valuable estates in Eastland county would be thrown into litigation.

The court in rendering his decision did not state that he held that the act creating the Eastland county court-at-law was unconstitutional, but he held that the law was with the plaintiff. It is thought by defense attorneys that when the court writes his findings of facts he will show he held for the plaintiff on the ground that the sale of the property was irregular and that the Eastland county court did have jurisdiction over the matter.

The Eastland county court-at-law was created by an act of the thirty-sixth legislature in 1919 and since that time has handled a large volume of business, much of which has been probate matters and should it be held that the court has no jurisdiction over probate matters many valuable estates in Eastland county would be thrown into litigation.

SOLOMON

Knew a Little About Ice

HE SAYS: (Proverbs 11:1)

"A false balance is abomination to the Lord; but a just weight is his delight."

In the days of Solomon it was regarded as "good business" by some to give a little short weight provided the buyer was not too wise.

If Solomon could have seen a piece of Scored Ice he probably would have said:

"How evenly are those pieces of ice marked, and, having been checked with true balances, they surely cannot vary.

"Soft Soap," and "Banana Oil" were once used in vouching for the weight of a piece of ice; but the saw-mark of the scoring machine enables this piece of ice to be accepted and that without question." Selah.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Knocked out for the first time since he started boxing 15 years ago, Tom Gibbons has given up his ambition for the heavyweight championship and will retire from the ring. Gibbons, who was floored twice by Gene Tunney, the former A. E. He took his defeat philosophically.

Americans Seeing Paris Divided Into Three Distinctive Tourist Classes

By MINOTT SAUNDERS (United Press Staff Correspondent) PARIS.—Tourists in France are classified in one of three categories, and Paris is now busy classifying and satisfying them. First is the type that might fairly be represented by a certain popular movie actress who recently got off the train at the Gare St. Lazare on her first trip abroad and exclaimed to her friends: "So this is Paris—where are the nude women?" This is the sucker class that comes here for shocks and thrills. Though tourists of this category may walk in mindful ways at home, they cast off restraint here and condone their behavior with the excuse that this is Paris. They are finding again this season that it is Paris in a way, and that there are those here ready to receive them and show them and take their money.

Restless Tourists. Secondly, there is the class of tourist that might be represented by the hardboiled doughbox some years ago whose eastbound train stopped outside of Harve and he noticed on a siding opposite a train full of British soldiers being invalidated home from the front, so he opened the window and shouted:

"Hey, Tommy, where is this—shootin' gallery, anyway?"

This is the restless, impatient class, that makes a very serious business of getting to sights of interest, and they don't want to spend too much time about it. One accosted us the other afternoon, an American girl, probably a young school teacher, who asked us if we would interpret her wishes to the French chauffeur. She said: "We've hired the car for the afternoon and we want to see Versailles and the battlefields." We obligingly told the man to drive to Versailles and point out the art galleries.

Intelligent Class. Thirdly, there is the unobtrusive class. These come to see and learn and profit, to broaden themselves by contact with a people in some respects different than they, to study strange surroundings and try to understand another point of view. These, though by no means ashamed of their own nationality, yet do not try to flaunt it before natives and they are rarely heard to remark that this and that are not done like they do it in Main Street back home.

Paris has a welcome for all. Business is booming and the people are characteristically laughing with the spring. The Tuileries are in bloom and the Bois de Boulogne has come into its verdant glory. Along both sides of the Seine downstream from the Concorde bridge there is the International Exposition of Decorative and Industrial Arts, to which tourists are flocking to study the development of the arts since the war and to enjoy the amusements. The races are attracting unusually large crowds, and at Auteuil and Longchamps American and English visitors always seem to outnumber the French.

Along the boulevards Americans are finding that prices are not as low as they expected. Restaurants which cater to tourists have boosted their prices, a policy which is serving as a boomerang, for visitors are seeking out small and interesting places to eat located off the beaten path. Two or three restaurants in the heart of town are making a specialty of English and American dishes, but Anglo-Saxons are finding that they cost more than at home.

To nearly all Americans Paris is hailed as an oasis. The so-called American bars are highly crowded with visitors. Too many Americans, however, see the broad mirror, with the rows of glasses reflected, feel again that restful touch of the brass rail at their feet and imagine themselves back in "the good old days at home." Forthwith, they drink as they did in those days, but alas, many of them have got out of practice and the results are astonishing quick and dire. Many an American who used to carry his six cocktails to dinner now finds that number a crushing burden.

The pestiferous guides are in full

WAYLAND COLLEGE GETS DONATION OF $50,000

By United Press. PLAINVIEW, June 6.—A donation of $50,000 was made to Wayland college here today by Mrs. Jack Hefflin of Plainview. The fund will be used for the construction of a girls' dormitory, according to terms of the award.

DALLAS—University club building clubhouse on roof of Santa Fe terminal, to cost $130,000.

phalanx along the boulevards, and are as obnoxious as ever with their "Want a guide, Sir?" Many Americans thoroughly resent this insinuation that because they are Americans they are expected to be piloted among low places in dark streets. And yet the guides prosper. Paris is as wide open as ever, and this aspect of the city's life, which counts strongly upon tourist business, is flourishing.

The theatres are better than they have been at any time since pre-war days, and most Americans see one or two shows, usually a revue because of the language difficulty in a serious theatre. The Casino de Paris and Folies Bergere are always crowded after a boat comes in.

But from Montmartre comes a mournful wail. Proprietors of all-night dancing places complain that while Americans come to visit, they are not spending anything. They explain this by an analysis that the early tourist is not their sort. They hope soon to do better.

FOURTH OF JULY IN RANGER

Simultaneous Ascent of Three Huge "9-Break" Spreading Bombshells—A wonderful effect as spread after spread of golden-tailed comets eclipse the heavens.

Flight of Four 15-inch Weeping Willow Bombshells—Presenting a beautiful aerial picture and breaking at a great altitude. The branches and leaves reach the ground.

Set Device Transformation Fountain—First appears as a beautiful, double-tiered fountain, studded with ruby and emerald gems, then a wonderful golden spray issues forth from each bowl and as the glowing flows recede a sparkling silvery torrent gushes forth dazzling in its brilliancy from tier to tier.

Explosion of Bombs. Special Aerial Exhibit of Bombshells—Showing all the latest novelties and effects from the smaller high flyers to the largest bombs made with one, two, three, four, five and six shots with beautiful color and effects.

Fired in rapid succession: Nine-inch, one-shot shells, "red"; nine-inch, one-shot shells, "gold"; nine-inch, two-shot shells, "variegated"; nine-inch three-shot shells, "red, white and blue"; 15-inch, five-shot shells, "prize exhibition"; 15-inch, three-shot shells, "triple flashlight"; 15-inch, six-shot shells, "pink buds"; 18-inch, one-shot shells, "shell of shells"; 18-inch, three-shot shells, "the Dolphins"; 18-inch, one-shot challenge shell, "gold"; 18-inch, one-shot challenger shell, "silver".

Ascent of Fiery Whirlwinds—These magical aerolites rise from the ground with a roar emitting a shower of golden fire and descending in the form of an open umbrella.

The Six Phantoms—A new aerial shell effect which always causes laughter by their weird contortions as they repeatedly appear and disappear.

The Night Shows a Silver Radiance—By the aerial discharge of three 18-inch shells, disclosing floating hemispheres, hanging, waving and sparkling, gradually spreading till they cover the heavens with their lines of delicate tracing, from which constantly flash the shades of the opal sapphire, emerald and ruby. The Saxon Square—A combination of gold shower tubes and rainbow wheels that are assembled so as to form a wonderful fiery design of a Saxon square, covering 600 square feet and studded with whirlers of varied colors.

Blues Go Wandering. The Comical Crazy Wheel—Hesitating Blues—A new mechanical device surmounting a high pole starts revolving and throwing out comet-like tails and giving forth weird creaks. Suddenly an eccentric whirler sends forth a beautiful golden shower, turning first one way, then another; then all is dark. Suddenly it starts again and the same performance is gone through again—another bell and all seems dead—then another blazing starts, etc. The audience becomes greatly interested.

The Night Shows a Silver Radiance—An aerial illumination with a new aluminum light, intensely dazzling effects, accompanied by prismatic colors, lasting several minutes.

Special Bombshell Number, Golden Comet Shell of Shells—For gigantic spreads, astounding effect and grandeur of display these shells have no equal. Opening at a great height, they break forth with evenly-spaced comet-light tails which spread to a great distance. Each comet again breaks forth with myriads of smaller shells, producing the same effect and spreading in all directions until the zenith is completely covered with trails of golden spray crossing and recrossing in majestic splendor.

Living Fire Bombs, Four 22-inch Special Shells—These bombs discharge a large quantity of peculiar compounds that rush through space like living demons, leaving a most brilliant trail of liquid fire, spreading over 2,000 feet, shimmering and blazing like fiery demons.

Exhibition of Six Colored Asteroid Rockets—Showing several floating lights changing color continually while sailing through the air.

Second Firing of Celebrated Hanging Chains—Each rocket releasing long chains of colored lights, which float in mid-air changing into various colors until out of sight.

Grove of Jeweled Palms—Four in number, throwing columns of fiery spray high in the air and emitting clouds of jeweled stars.

Device, the Chromothorpe of blazing Sun—A beautiful design in fire with revolving rainbow wheel, 20 by 20 feet, in action 60 by 60 feet.

Ascent of Fiery Whirlwinds—The aeromagic aerolites rise from the ground with a roar emitting a shower of golden fire and descending in the form of an open umbrella. Four four-pound aerolites.

Flight of a Thousand Monster Glow Worms—A beautiful new conceit displayed by a discharge of glowworm bombshells, showing thousands of glow worms darting to and fro.

Grand Display of Carnival of Imps—Produced by four mammoth imp battery shells, covering an immense area with flying, fiery dragons, terminating in a loud fusillade.

Dream of Wealth. The Miser's Dream—Special firing of immense five-pound rockets, after reaching a great height they burst into magnificent cascades that represent falling golden nuggets.

Field of the Cloth of Gold—Produced by the discharge of two immense shells exhibiting golden stars which emit glittering spangles.

The Salvo of Wisteria Shells—Displaying the green and blue of the wisteria blossoms. This number consists of three assorted shells, electrically discharged.

Chasing the Bolshevik—A most amusing piece of pyrotechnic caused by the simultaneous discharge of four special succession bombshells, which throw into the sky numerous gyrating, squirming figures darting about as if in terror. As they fade into space, a burst of beautiful brilliant light is thrown over the sky, followed by rolls of thunder and violent explosions.

Display of Six Twentieth Century Fiery Aeroplanes, a French Novelty—Great umbrellas of fire ascending to a height of 45 to 50 feet.

Flowering Aloe Tree—A beautiful set device showing the branches in a golden spray, interspersed with colored flowers, 24 by 24 feet—800 square feet when in action. The fluttering leaves and glowing branches make a most beautiful number.

Searchlights—The famous searchlight shells used so extensively during the war for lighting "No Man's Land"; illuminates the entire surroundings—can be seen for a great distance.

Swarms of Fireflies and Lightning Bugs—Dashing through the air in brilliant flashes and creating explosions of giant flashlights. Four mammoth Sauticion bombshells used. The crazy action of these bug-like effects creates roars of laughter.

The Music of the Sphere—Produced in the sky after the explosion of specially headed safety rockets in a series of explosions that follow one another so rapidly that they sound to the human ear like the pitched tones of bells.

Cataract of Gold. A Magic Splendor Device, the Victory Wheel and Liberty Star—An eight-wheel cataract of brilliant golden showers, rapidly revolving around a base of changeable colors, which mutates to a vertically double revolving, composed of Jasmine fires, which variegated center changes its effect four times. Size of frame 250 square feet. It displays over 800 square feet.

An Aerial Surprise—Two double ascending girrodalas from the ground, a whirling mass of colors, leaving a trail of silvery spray. Just after it reaches a height of several hundred feet and starts slowly descending, a new force again carries it upward amid a new burst of color, and it fades away in the distance.

Silver Rain—Flight of three four-pound special display rockets that release great showers of sparkling silver rain that spreads and slowly falls toward the ground.

Flight of a Thousand Glow-worms

—A beautiful new conceit. Displayed by the discharge of three glow-worm bombshells, showing thousands of glow-worms darting to and fro. Japanese Chrysanthemums—Three mammoth 18-inch special Japanese shells ascend to a great height and burst forth into golden chrysanthemums covering the sky with gorgeous feathery petals.

Niagara Falls, the Weird White Walls—In line of fire 100 feet long and 400 feet in height. This is one of the most beautiful creations of the pyrotechnic art.

Beautiful Patriotic Set Piece—A Mammoth American Flag—Showing the stars and stripes in brilliant colored fires, flanked upon each side with saluting batteries, paying honor to the Flag of Our Country, which is so arranged as to appear waving in the breeze.

Band to play "Star-Spangled Banner," grand salute to Old Glory—Creating by aerial batteries each discharging, the reports of the guns may be heard on a clear night for two or three miles, and with their blinding flashlights creates a vivid battle scene.

Final Solo of Bombshells—Another battery of shells fired simultaneously and filling the heavens with their magnificent burst of color. Good-Night—A beautiful set piece of 24-inch letters of colored fire.

IN MEMORIAM

The sand in the hour-glass has again run its course. Brother Leon D. Stallings, who died June 1, 1925, is in truth not dead; "He is only called from life to life, from labor unto rest, from turmoil unto peace."

"Loved long since and lost awhile," he will greet us again in fraternal fellowship on the Golden Shore of Eternal Bliss. As he lived, he died, for who lives well dies well. A Pythian Knight, he walked among us as a devoted exponent of the great principles of our order, ever cherishing as a precious heritage the friendship, charity and benevolence he learned at our sacred altar.

To him friendship represented the untarnished gold of human life; to him charity rose as the towering peak in the mountain ranges of the hearts of men; to him benevolence was the surging tide of the sea of human emotions, which sweep the spirit and soul of him who is created in the image of God. We doubt not that the Father of all, in the plenitude of His mercy, will cause the light to shine in the darkness, and in the silent watches of the night will speak to loved and aching hearts comfort that soothes and courage that sustains.

Resolved, that Ranger Lodge No. 457, Knights of Pythias, of Ranger, Texas, extend to the bereaved family our sincere condolence and deepest sympathy; and that a copy of these reflections and resolutions be sent to the family.

Court and Jury Show Mercy to Young Lad On First Offense

Special Correspondence. FORT WORTH, June 6.—Archie Mohler, 17-year-old son of Bob Mohler, who was convicted for the murder of Hugh Maples in Eastland county and was sentenced to death at his first trial but given a 99-year sentence in the second trial and now serving time in the state penitentiary, was given a five-year suspended sentence on charges of automobile theft in Fort Worth Friday in the criminal district court.

ler again found some solace for the wounds her loved one had inflicted upon her in becoming involved with the law. She smiled through her tears and clasped her son's hand tighter as she heard the jury's recommendation of a five-year suspended sentence. Then Judge Hoesy told young Mohler that the law was giving him another chance, another chance to spare his mother further suffering. Judge Hoesy warned him that another conviction within five years would revive the suspended sentence and cause him to serve it in prison.

Mrs. Mohler, her son and the other three children stood in line and shook hands with each one of the jurymen as they filed out. Nitrate Workers In Chile Make Trouble

By United Press.
SANTIAGO, Chile, June 6.—Following the storming of the building, nitrate workers are in control of Chilean Nitrate company at Coruna and Potevedra, and have forced other plants to suspend work, according to advices today. Three trains with troops and field artillery have been sent to the scene of trouble. Storming of the plant came as a climax to last week's agitation in nitrate fields where authorities started a cleanup of the communistic element. Martial law has been proclaimed in Antofagasta and Parapaca.
 An earlier Buenos Aires message reported that machine guns had been landed from a cruiser to proceed against the rioters. Leaders of the general strike out of which the storming arose, are reported to have been arrested, this however, only stirred strikers to outbursts against the plant.

Clears Complexion

"Oh! how clear and beautiful your complexion is today, my dear!"
THERE is a certain joy—a certain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.
 Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps, wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that craved for attractiveness—that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates beauty. Pure, clean blood means a clear skin.
S.S.S. is waiting to help you. It will rid your blood of its impurities and give you that clear complexion. Since 1826 S.S.S. has been riding people of blood impurities, from pimples, from blackheads, boils, eczema and from rheumatism, too. ### JUBILEE SINGING AT COLORED BAPTIST CHURCH

Jubilee singing is announced for next Sunday at St. Paul's Baptist church, colored, in Ranger. At the Sunday afternoon service, at 3:30 o'clock, a white friend of the colored folks, the Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Ranger, is to preach. All white friends in the city are invited to attend and seats will be reserved for them.

The old plantation melodies will be sung by a choral club of 30 voices. Among the number will be: "Rock of Ages," "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "Stead Away," "Rise and Shine," "I Know the Lord Has Laid His Hand on Me," "I'm Going to Sit at the Welcome Table," "Praise God, I'm Satisfied."

The St. Paul's Baptist church is trying to raise $100 that is badly needed for church debt and expenses. The membership is small and "this is a Macedonia cry to our white friends to come and help us," said the pastor, Rev. A. G. Morgan.

HOW TO GET

on your money

Invest Your Savings In Southwestern Power & Light Co.

Do not confuse "investing" with "speculating." Lots of folks don't realize the difference. "Speculating" means taking chances; running risks; subjecting your hard-earned dollars to perils and hazards—what many people call "stock gambling." INVESTING does not consist of plunging or blindly taking chances.

Investing means putting your money to work in some firmly established business where your dollars will be SAFE and where they will steadily and surely earn more dollars for you. And that is just what happens when you buy shares of SOUTHWESTERN POWER & LIGHT COMPANY.

CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK

Consider the man who invested in 10 shares of this stock when the first shares were sold to the public over 12 years ago. It meant an outlay of about $1000.00. Since then his shares have earned dividends for him amounting to $880.00.

That amount would have been his loss if he had let his savings remain idle instead of investing them.

How much will YOU stand to lose in 1 year, in 2 years, in 10 years if you do not invest the money you have saved?

The question is NOT, "can you afford to invest?" but "can you afford NOT to invest?" Can you afford to stand by and LOSE the money your saved dollars can earn for you?

This stock has NEVER FAILED to pay dividends, in HARD times as well as good times, ever since the first shares were sold to the public OVER TWELVE YEARS AGO.

The dividends amount to 7 per cent a year on each dollar you invest if you buy the stock at the present price.

The dates for paying dividends are March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1.

Cumulative. This stock is cumulative, therefore, the Company must pay the dividends in full, before one penny of dividends can be paid to the Common Stockholders.

Preferred Stock Of Public Utility Is Placed on Sale

Preferred stock of the Southwestern Power & Light Company, a large public utility corporation, will be offered tomorrow by J. E. Lewis and employees of the Oil Cities Electric Company, which operates in Eastland, DeLeon, Gorman, Ranger, Breckenridge and Graham, Texas.

Because of its unusual record of prompt dividend payments the stock is considered one of the most attractive investments offered to the local public in some time. In order to make it possible for every consumer to become a preferred stockholder and thus share in the money paid out in dividends every three months, shares are being sold on a liberal Partial Payment Plan as well as for cash.

Many employees invested during the last meetings of employees of the Oil Cities Electric Company have been held at all the Company offices and the merits of the stock explained to the men and women who today offer it to the general public. Most of the employees have already invested in the Preferred Stock, realizing that it offers great safety and a substantial return on the money. Many of these men and women took advantage of the Partial Payment Plan while others purchased the stock outright.

Sale of the stock was started Saturday and encouraging receptions were given to the salesmen by virtually all those approached. While the results have not yet been fully tabulated it is known that a large number of shares were sold.

Selling for $100 a share the stock pays dividends every three months amounting to seven per cent a year. Its safety is shown both by the character of the business of its subsidiaries and its unusual record of prompt and uninterrupted dividend payments extending over more than 12 years.

Eleven Companies
The Southwestern Power & Light Company owns the entire outstanding securities of 11 public utility companies and a substantial interest in two others.

All serve necessities every-day life and are situated in one of the most prosperous and substantial sections of the Lone Star State. These Companies serve more than 144,876 customers and without their service the communities in which they do business could hardly exist.

The 11 Companies are: The Oil Belt Power Company of Eastland, the Oil Cities Electric Company of Eastland, DeLeon, Gorman, Ranger, Breckenridge and Graham; the International Electric Company, and the Eagle Pass Water Company, both of Eagle Pass; the West Texas Electric Company, operating in Sweetwater, Big Springs, Colorado, Rosepe, O'Donnell, Lorraine, Lamasa, Westbrook and Comoma; the Sweetwater Ice and Cold Storage Company, serving Sweetwater and adjacent territory; the Wichita Falls Electric Company, which serves Wichita Falls, Electra, Burk Burnett, Iowa Park, H. Grietta, Bellevue, Halliday, Seymour and Bomarton; El Paso Gas Company, which sells gas in El Paso, Texas, and Juarez, Mexico; the Galveston Gas Company of Galveston; the Texas Public Utilities Company, which operates in Annona, Lufkin, Bowie, Clarksville, Cooper, Crockett, Lamasa, Seymour, Sulphur Springs, Smithville, Lockhart and Eagle Pass, and Paris Transit Company of Paris.

The Southwestern Power & Light Company also owns a substantial interest in the securities of the Fort Worth Power & Light Company and the Texas Power & Light Company. Shares of the stock may be bought for time payments of as little as $10 a month. For the benefit of stockholders who may later wish to sell their shares a resale department will be maintained.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. D. N. Waggoner died Sunday, May 24, 1925, beloved and mourned by all who knew her. She would have been 33 years of age had she lived until June 2. She was one of the most beautiful characters Ranger has ever known. As a wife and mother she was a model, tender, sweet and thoughtful. As a neighbor and friend she had no superior, often sacrificing her own pleasures for those she loved. Her church misses her sorely; her pastor feels that her place cannot be filled. Only time can heal the broken hearts of those who loved her most. Let us emulate her virtues and imitate her good example as a true Christian.

Studebaker Financial Statement For May Is Wonderful Showing

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 6.—President A. R. Erskine of the Studebaker Corporation of America today made the following statement:

"Studebaker's May cash collections were $19,600,000 and exceeded disbursements by $4,200,000. Receipts for March, April and May were $54,000,000 and exceeded disbursements by $14,000,000 (bank balances June 1 were $10,700,000, and with no bank loans outstanding, May production was 14,492 cars.) Demand continues to exceed production, and all plants are operating at capacity, with total employees numbering about 21,000."

In April Mr. Erskine announced that all corporation bank loans would be retired July 1. The foregoing statement shows that this has been accomplished a month earlier than expected. It marks a new high spot in the corporation's financial history.

J. M. Crisman, Once Of Eastland County, Dies In Fort Worth

Special Correspondence.

FORT WORTH, June 6.—J. M. Crisman, aged 78, a pioneer of Eastland county, died in Fort Worth at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Grace Darrill, 1014 East Weatherford street.

Decedent came to Eastland county in 1873 and was the first county surveyor of Eastland county. He was a Confederate veteran, and a thirty-second degree Mason. His membership was in the Masonic lodge at Eastland, although he had not been to Eastland county in the last 11 years.

The E. E. Lee post of the Confederate Veterans attended the funeral in a body and sang a farewell song. The Fort Worth Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy draped the casket with the Confederate flag. He is survived by his wife, six daughters, Mrs. M. G. Wilkes, of Ranger; Mrs. C. P. Coomer of Garland, Texas; Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mrs. Grace Durrill, Mrs. Harry Duncan, and one son, Ed Crisman of Fort Worth, 19 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Monk of the First Methodist church of Mineral Wells, with a beautiful tribute to his memory to his matience and cheerfulness in his long illness and his loyalty to God and his church and his fellow men, as he never lost interest in life, although he had been helpless for 40 years. Judge Truman Conner, formerly of Eastland, also delivered a fitting tribute.

Among the many beautiful floral offerings, the one from the Masonic lodge at Eastland was said to be one of the most beautiful.
