Home Influence Has Lasting Effect On Boys

BOYS' EVENING AT HOME TO BE MODEL OF MANY

Parents Urged to Do Their Part to Help Boys Form Right Habits.

Boys' week will be ushered in on Sunday, April 26, with appropriate services in the churches and Monday will be a special day for boys in school with an evening at home. This will be a wonderful time for parents as well as boys, a time when fathers and mothers can get closer to their children than they have ever done before. A happy evening in the home will mean better citizenship for the boy and joyful recollections which will always remain with him when he goes out from the home into the world to activity which claims everyone.

There can never be a substitute to the boy for happy evenings spent in the home when father and mother and other children of the family gather together for games, music, or radio entertainment. The last named may not be within the reach of all, though many boys have made their own inexpensive instruments and thus brought to their families enough of what is going on outside, within a small radius, to keep many hours filled with enjoyment and uplifting entertainment.

Influence of Parents.
As a rule boys whose parents are willing to give some of their own time and thought to their entertainment when growing up, make fine citizens and are a credit to their homes, their community and the nation. Selfish parents, too much occupied with their own affairs and amusements to take an interest in the children and give them advice and assistance in their games and studies, seldom give to the world outstanding citizens.

Children are like mirrors; they picture to the world the environment and home life in which they have been reared. If this were more often realized, many parents would give more attention to their children if only for the selfish reason of having themselves well represented outside the home, but too often this fact is entirely lost sight of and the child grows up without the loving companionship and guidance of other parents.

Best in the World.
No companionship pays so richly as that of parent and child when a full and free understanding exists between them. Children who are taught from infancy to respect the rights of others, to be courteous to all, no matter what their walk in life, to observe "noblesse oblige" and to remember that the world is full of people with rights equal to their own, will get more happiness in life and radiate joy to all around them. Acquaintance with good books, the study of nature and her wondrous stores, of birds, of beasts and of flowers, to say nothing of science with its marvellous mysteries, will fill evening after evening with delight which will build for the future men of character and ability.

Those who have no children of their own can enrich their lives by caring for a homeless child, remembering when doing so that every child born into the world has a right to the best that the world can offer. Boys who have homes can celebrate their home evening in no better way than in sharing it with some less fortunate boys, and should even be encouraged to give material and friendly assistance in every way to boys who need their help. Boys are responsive creatures who yield readily to a kindly influence, and the responsibility of fathers and mothers for the welfare of their boys should be as great as for their daughters.

Home evening on Monday, April 27, will give every father and mother a splendid opportunity to get on better terms with their own boys and in case they have none to do something for some other homeless boys.

Wheeler Defense Counsel Attacking Witness For State

GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 22.—Pounding at the prosecutor's star witness in the trial of Senator Burton K. Wheeler for alleged misuse of his office, the defense set out with the sole purpose today of breaking down the testimony of George B. Hayes, an eastern lawyer, who says Wheeler tried to involve him in a deal to make millions out of oil permits.

Wheeler himself will go on the witness stand to tell the complete story of his employment by Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, and to deny that he ever saw Hayes in regard to any deal. It is expected the case will go to the jury about next Tuesday.

COMMUNISTS UNDER BAN IN SOUTH EUROPE

Bulgaria Arresting Russians on Sight, Assuming Them Guilty.

VIENNA, April 22.—The Bankoff government is arresting Russians throughout Bulgaria, whether communists or not, according to advices from Sofia. The writ of habeas corpus has been suspended for the moment. Officials are assuming that Russians in Bulgaria are guilty unless proven innocent.

Virtually all Central Europe and the Balkan countries are rushing their diplomatic agents between the several capitals by train, airplanes and motor cars, the United Press is informed today, the purpose being to reach a unanimous decision on action to smash communists in the Balkans. Meanwhile the wires are burning with secret messages between the diplomats of the countries involved.

It is indicated that wholesale arrests of communists in many countries will result. The narrow escape of the Bankoff government, if it has escaped, has struck fear into other capitals and convinced Southern Europe that concerted action will be necessary to prevent one government after another from toppling into ruin. Universal efforts against communism are now looked upon as necessary.

Lower Taxes Being Urged in Britain

LONDON, April 22.—The British cabinet met today and heard Winston Churchill's proposals for reduced taxation. With Premier Stanley Baldwin presiding, the chancellor of the exchequer outlined the budget proposal which will be made public in parliament next Tuesday. Reductions of at least one shilling on the pound in the income tax is understood to be under consideration.

As the cabinet met it was evident that pressure was being exerted from all parts of the nation for reduction from the present rates of taxation, which are held to be exorbitant. Churchill and members of the cabinet are understood to be firmly opposed to additional appropriations to build new warships and replace obsolete ships.

Punishment Must Fit the Crime In Opinion of Court

CINCINNATI, April 22.—Fairly battling their way through crowds which jammed the way to the courtroom, 50 policemen and dry agents entered the court room of Federal Judge Hickenlopper today to be sentenced as gangsters.

His promise of leniency for the 59 men who pleaded guilty did not mean anything to Lewis Sunderman a rising squad detective. Sunderman was given 18 months in prison and a fine of $2,000, as stiff a punishment as was received by the three who were convicted. The flying squad detective confessed that he had received more than $17,000 in bribes for permitting whiskey to flow in his district.

Seventeen-year-Old Palo Pinto Youth Sentenced To Die

MINERAL WELLS, April 22.—Doy Arnold, 17, alleged "masked marauder," was found guilty of rape in the Twenty-ninth district court at Palo Pinto, in his trial before Judge J. B. Keith, and sentenced to death.

Arnold was charged, together with another bandit, with holding the escort of a Mineral Wells girl at the pistol's point and attacking the girl. The bandits robbed and beat the young man and made off with the car in which the two were riding. The car was later found several miles from the scene of the crime completely wrecked.

The companion of Arnold has not yet been apprehended. Arnold pleaded guilty to the charge of criminal assault and threw himself on the mercy of the court. The jury was out one hour and 10 minutes.

Arnold's apprehension by local officers was expedited by clues furnished by Fort Worth police.

Folly Points Way To Spend Money In Artless Manner

A western newspaper, checking up expenditures, finds that the average American spends $5.02 a year for jewelry and 15 cents for art; he spends $27 for joy riding and $1.28 for the work of the church. He is blowing in $3. for ice cream and 98 cents for books. He spends $45 for fancy foods and 8 cents for the salaries of professors. He gives up 4.15 for soda water and 6 cents for ink.

He isn't entirely wild; he spends 11 cents for health service and 65 cents for coffins without turning a hair.

Fire Makes Many Homeless In Town Of Northern Mexico

NOGALES, Ariz., April 22.—Hundreds are homeless and the little mining camp of Cananea Viejo, in Sonora, Mexico, is a mass of ruins following one of the most disastrous fires on the Mexican-American border. The flames were brought under control early today after raging 24 hours and causing property damage of more than $1,000,000. Relief parties are being organized here and food supplies for the needy and homeless Mexicans are being rushed across the border.

Approximately a score of homes were destroyed or burning over a four-block area, but firemen believe they have the situation in hand. Three persons sustained no major injuries and property damage may exceed $300,000. Sixteen homes were destroyed.

Partisans of the two young ladies were combing Ranger last night and today in an effort to put their candidate in the lead for the honor of representing Ranger at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Mineral Wells, May 4-6.

Big Liner Stands Helplessly By While Death Claims Crew of Wrecked Ship

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP HOMERIC, April 22.—The White Star liner Homeric, which yesterday finished a spectacular race with death just too late to aid the crew of the sinking Japanese freighter Raisenku Maru, is speeding today toward New York, while boats from Nova Scotia ports are en route to the scene of the disaster to search for bodies of members of the crew.

Cutting through mountainous seas at full speed while frantic SOS calls incited to best efforts, this ocean-going palace won the race only to be forced to stand helplessly by and watch the ship it had come to save go down with all on board. The great liner, difficult to handle in heavy seas, could not be maneuvered into a strategic position in time to be of any assistance.

The Japanese sailors, overjoyed with aid in sight, had greeted the Homeric by waving their arms as they stood on that part of the deck yet above water, but their jubilation turned abruptly into trepidation when they realized the futility of the liner's race against death. The sailors had done everything possible in their own behalf, apparently, but were handicapped by the lack of lifeboats, although it is doubtful if these could have been utilized with success in the condition of the weather and seas. They did attempt to launch a life raft, but this proved disastrous. Most members of the Japanese crew remained on the point deck.

"One by one we saw the Japanese sailors slip into the water," one of the passengers on the liner said. "The time the ship went down most of the crew had been drowned. Because of the excessive cold it is probable they were at the point of death when they became engulfed."

MERCHANTS OF EASTLAND LOOK INTO FUTURE

Big Attendance at Annual Banquet, When Lewis of Waco Makes Address

Notwithstanding the fact that there were two other banquets in the city at the same hour, the spacious dining hall at the Eastland Elks' club was filled almost to capacity last night for the annual banquet and get-together meeting of the Eastland Retail Merchants' association.

In the absence of C. J. Rhodes, president of the association, T. L. Fagg, former president, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers. Music for the meeting was furnished by the Eastland High school orchestra, "The Bunch with a Punch."

C. C. Lewis, secretary of the Retail Merchants' association at Waco, was the principal speaker using the subject, "How the Retail Merchants' Association Can Help." Miss Mamie Tom Matthews of Eastland and Mrs. Alice B. True, secretary of the Ranger Retail Merchants' association, gave readings. Mrs. A. G. Barnard sang two numbers. T. B. Watson, secretary of Breckenridge association; J. S. Davis, secretary of the Carbon association, and Secretary Longacre of the Cisco association, made short talks.

Right Up-to-Date

Mr. Lewis said that he had hoped to be able to bring the Eastland members of the association some new ideas, but after talking with the Eastland secretary, Miss Marie Stevens, and Secretary Briggs of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, he found that they were keeping abreast of the times in methods used and that Miss Stevens had the files and records of her office strictly up-to-date.

"Co-operation is needed and is just as necessary in retail merchant association work as it is in anything else; in fact, it is one of the main things in the work," Mr. Lewis said. He urged his hearers to do more "you and me" work for each other's benefit.

The business of the commercial world, Mr. Lewis said, is done on a basis of about 10 per cent cash, 30 per cent open account and 60 per cent installment. "This condition, especially with reference to the installment, is regrettable but cannot at present be helped and must be faced," he said. "The members of the associations in most of the towns have learned that when a man purchases an automobile on the installment plan it is usually time for the merchant who is selling him groceries and dry goods on credit to begin to tighten down on him," the speaker said.

Mr. Lewis devoted considerable time to a discussion of the mail-order and catalogue houses and the house-to-house canvassers that the merchants in the average city or town have to contend with. He gave as a very successful method of combating this evil, an educational campaign among the citizens from an economical and patriotic standpoint.

Best Advertising

In speaking of advertising done by merchants Mr. Lewis said that he believed that the average advertiser failed to sufficiently describe his article he was placing before the public through the medium of the printed advertisement. The mail-order houses, he said, gave special attention to this feature in their catalogues.

Advertising, the speaker said, is like casting bread upon the water and will return to you multiplied many fold. "You can never tell just how much good comes from advertising," he added.

Advertising schemes presented by "drifters" and which have no commercial value, should not be used, the speaker said, but the people offering to sell them should be referred to the secretary of the retail merchants' association, where they will be dealt with according to the merits of their propositions.

The various methods in use by retail merchants' associations to impress upon the buying public the value and necessity of a good credit, were discussed at some length by the speaker.

Mr. Lewis spoke very complimentarily of Eastland and the good roads of Eastland county. "We thought I find that you have better roads here," he said. "Before the banquet Mr. Lewis was taken for an automobile ride over the city and surrounding country by Secretary Briggs of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce."

CISCO ELKS TO BUILD

CISCO, April 22.—The Cisco Elks lodge are planning the erection of a new modern club within the near future.

ONE THOUSAND BARRELL WELL IS BROUGHT IN

Barkley and Associates Get Splendid Producer Northwest of Ranger.

G. C. Barkley and associates' Fritchard No. 1, located about eight miles northwest of Ranger, came in this morning about 8:30 o'clock with an unexpected rush that compelled workers to run for their lives. The well is running wild and about 1,000 barrels of oil have already been wasted over the surrounding land as the workers are trying to cap it. Tools for putting the well under control were being rushed out to the location this morning by Mr. Barkley. His partners, Croft, John Six of Ranger and Bill Little of Breckenridge are associated with him.

Early this morning with the well down about 3,534 feet the drill touched the top of the pay unexpectedly and the well blew in of its own accord. Oil shot up to the crown block and the workmen made a mad dash to the boiler to extinguish the fire as a strong wind blowing from the south forced the oil directly over and on the boiler. The well is spraying steady with a heavy head, lasting about 30 minutes flowing regularly. Its estimated flow is more than 1,000 barrels daily.

Production in the Barkley well extends the proven territory of the wildcat area in which it is located about a half mile. The first well in that pool, the Barney Carter well, brought in about eight months ago, has flowed steadily by heads ever since for an average production of 350 barrels per day. Oil men of Ranger are jubilant over the bringing in of the well and say that it is the best one drilled in Ranger territory since the boom.

Pay Formation Sought.
The original pay sand struck by Carter was about 2,100 feet and the pay on the Barkley well was struck at 3,534 feet. It is believed that a pay formation of some kind exists with a depth of from 40 to 50 feet. It is not known, according to operators, whether or not the structure is sand or limestone.

Operators who own leases in that territory are preparing to drill and one rig is already up, located about one-quarter of a mile further south of the Barkley well. Barney Carter who brought in the discovery well is now drilling on a well between the Barkley well and the discovery well with preparations going forward to drill two more just to the west of Barkley's lease.

Gas Well at Chaney.
The fourth gas well of the Chaney district was brought in yesterday afternoon by Parsons, Delaney & George and the Lone Star Gas company when the Motes No. 2 came naturally for an estimated 16,000,000 feet of dry gas.

The Motes No. 2 makes the fourth dry gas well to be brought in making a total production of about 40,000,000 cubic feet of dry gas. Although the wells were first drilled for oil the dry gas was struck and indications are that a gas field sufficient to supply the needs of many towns has been uncovered.

Competition To Reach North Pole Again Very Eager

By HERBERT LITTLE, United Press Staff Correspondent. (Copyright, 1925, by United Press.) WASHINGTON, April 22.—

American aviators with the MacMillan expedition this summer probably will find the land they seek in the icy Polar wastes, but they will have hot competition, Maj. Gen. A. W. Greely, retired, leader and one of the two survivors of the ill-fated Greely expedition of the early 80's predicted in an interview with the United Press today.

No less than seven expeditions are preparing for the contest, recalling the bitter races for the Pole before 1909. Greely said he had been informed. They are the American, Russian, French, English, Norwegian, and two private ventures.

Amundsen, the Norwegian, has only 700 miles to fly to get to the Pole from Spitzbergen and he should make it. "He has to make it going to get an early start, probably within a month," the old explorer said.

BIBLE THOUGHT.
And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and my seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee and to thy seed after thee.—Genesis 17:7.

ERA OF CONSOLIDATION.
According to leading financiers, the creation of corporations with assets, which heretofore have seemed out of the question because of their size is in prospect during the next 10 years on a scale that will make the pre-war history of American industry seem beggarly.

Consolidations under the General Electric organization now include, it is claimed, over 90 per cent of all the electrical business both in energy and appliances, in this country. The Muscle Shoals power, unless controlled by the government, will be one of the greatest institutions of the kind in the world.

The acquisition by the Standard Oil company of Indiana of the Mexican oil properties of E. L. Doheny was a gigantic deal.

The Van Swearingen merger surpasses all others in the railroad field, and while this deal still has some distance to go before it can be completed, much headway has been made. Other systems are preparing to follow this example. A number of smaller deals include the acquisition by the Illinois Central of two smaller lines spanning Mississippi and Louisiana; in the public utility field the series of rapid absorptions of smaller operating companies by some of the larger power concerns and—again in the industrial field—the plan now under contemplation for consolidating a group of companies that manufacture ice cream. Thousands of retail stores have come under one head and others are falling in line.

In the automobile business, concerns such as Ford and Dodge, are expecting to continue as such. But in the organization known as the General Motors corporation there is a large company representing a consolidation of a number of units. The underlying purpose is to eliminate competition, cutting production costs to levels so low that only the fittest can survive—and the control of prices.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin works, who piloted the big United States dirigible ZR-3 to this country, has presented an estimate of costs for ocean airship service. He fixes the estimate of costs for ocean airship service at $50,000 per trip. Thirty passengers, would pay about $650 each. Baggage, express and mail would bring an income of about $60,000 per trip. This would leave a profit of about $30,000 per trip. He believes that as soon as the general public acquires a feeling of safety there would be a great scramble for bookings at these rates.

In their application for an injunction against the sale of the President line of government ships to the Dollar interests, the Pacific Mail company intimates "juggling" on the part of the shipping board in that insufficient and incomplete information was furnished to them, and that their bid provided for a larger cash payment and a better offer.

The government owned and operated Panama Railroad company, running across the Isthmus of Panama, has sent the treasury department a check for $350,000 being 5 per cent annual dividend. This will never do. Somebody should do something instanter to put an end to such precedents!

Less Carbon

Humble Motor Oil is an unblended oil. The range between its light and heavy fractions is very short; it does not vaporize as quickly, decompose as readily, or leave as much residue in the form of accumulated carbon as do blended oils.

Even under the most trying heat conditions, Humble Motor Oil retains enough of its lubricating body to protect against abrasion and consequent overheating of the bearing surfaces. Recent tests have shown that blended oils deposit more carbon, by weight, than do unblended oils; and that the deposit from blended oil is of a heavier, flintier character—the kind that causes trouble in the motor.

Humble Motor Oil is the safe and efficient lubricant for your motor. You can get it wherever you see the Humble Oil Signs.

Conditions In Germany Disheartening Says Julius Krause, Just Returned

Julius Krause, of the Globe, returned yesterday from a four-month visit with his mother and relatives at Brunswick and Berlin, Germany. Conditions in Germany today are worse than at any previous time, according to Mr. Krause.

"Living conditions are terrible in Germany today," said Mr. Krause. "Families are crowded into half enough space and everything is high, with the exception of salaries. Wages in Germany today are exceedingly low. In fact, the only people really getting enough to eat today are the wealthy class, who own businesses. The laboring class are barely existing and are crowded into a meagre living space where they should have twice the amount of room they now have."

"The territory formerly occupied by Germany, now belonging to France and Poland, is virtually destitute of German people, as they are all moving back into Germany. This caused a shortage of houses and living quarters and the government was forced to take a hand. Families who had five or six rooms were forced to live in four, and give two of them up to the incoming people.

"Work in Germany today is very scarce, there being from 3,000 to 5,000 idle men in a town of 50,000 population. These men are taken care of by the government, which allow them so much for each member of their families. Laborers who receive from $3 to $4 a day for work in the United States receive about $6 a week in Germany for the same work.

"Clothes are high, in fact, everything is high and out of proportion with the living conditions. For instance, I stopped at a hotel in Berlin and was given a room that would cost about $1.50 in the United States. Next morning when I started to leave my bill was about twice what I expected it to be. When an explanation was asked from the clerk, I learned that 20 per cent was added because of the scarcity of rooms and 10 per cent more for breakfast. Such is the case in everything, eating, rooming or buying clothes.

"The strangest thing I encountered was the fact that all the cafes and cabarets were crowded continually. Before the war Germany was known as a thrifty nation, but now the Germans apparently spend their money as fast as they make it, inasmuch as the morning may find them without a home or money. The German people of today lack confidence in the various parties attempting to control the government, and are milling around like lost sheep with nowhere to go and no thought for the tomorrow."

IRVING LETTERS THROW LIGHT ON U. S. HISTORY

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—A remarkable collection of early Americana, in the form of letters and manuscripts of Washington Irving, has just been acquired by Yale University.

The collection was given to the university by Starling W. Childs, '91, of New York, in memory of his father, Albert H. Childs, '61. It is considered one of the most valuable gifts the university has received in years.

The letters, most of which have never been published, number 211 and contain a record of Irving's life from 1816 to 1858. Many of them are to his niece, Mrs. Storow, while others are addressed to his sister, Mrs. Paris. They describe with detail and characteristic charm Irving's life in Madrid while he was United States ambassador.

Arthur Oliverira, a Brazilian living in Rio de Janeiro has learned English by listening to the broadcasting stations of the United States and by using American radio magazines for his text-books.

PALE, NERVOUS

West Virginia Lady Says That She Was in a Serious Condition, But Is Stronger After Taking Cardui.

Huntington, W. Va.—"I was in a very weak and run-down condition—in fact, was in a serious condition," says Mrs. Fannie C. Bloss, of 1964 Madison Avenue, this city.

"In my left side the pain was very severe. It would start in my back and sides. Part of the time I was in bed and when up I didn't feel like doing anything or going anywhere.

"Life wasn't any pleasure. I was very pale. I was nervous and thin, and so tired all the time.

"My druggist told me that Cardui was a good tonic for women and I bought a couple of bottles. I took two bottles, then I noticed an improvement. I kept on and found it was helping me. I have taken nine bottles. I'm stronger now than I have been in a long time."

Cardui is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general.

FRANK B. STREECHER
Texas field secretary for the American Legion endowment fund for disabled men and the orphans of veterans.

With the start of organization for the American Legion endowment fund in Texas, Frank B. Streecher has been named the field secretary for the campaign and will visit as many of the larger communities in the state as possible to aid the committees of public spirited citizens and legion workers in systematizing the detailed work of the endowment raising.

The endowment raising effort is in the hands of a state committee composed jointly of prominent citizens and legion leaders, and corresponding city committees are being organized in each community. The field secretary will handle the details of the state committee work and advise with and assist the local workers with a view to so cooperating the many committees that the whole state may go "over the top" as a unit with its quota of the national fund for the care of disabled men and orphans of those who fell in the world war.

GIRLS NEED HELP OF ST. JOSEPH'S P. F. P.

Their Health and Happiness in After Life Depends on Successful Change From Girlhood to Womanhood.

The time when girls are developing into womanhood is one of the most important periods in their lives, because of the bearing it has on their future years. It is at this time that girls should be happiest, and the lasting friendships of life are made which so often ripen into love.

Irregularity, cramping spells, headaches, backaches, and that awful feeling of depression and listlessness at this time are sure signs that the delicate female organs are not coming into their function as nature intends they should.

If something is not done to restore these organs to the proper condition, the unfortunate girl will certainly suffer much unnecessary pain and embarrassment, besides the loss of much valuable time from school and other duties. In addition there is real danger that the state of weakness, bad health and pain which starts at this time will continue through many years of her after life.

A condition known now as catarrh of the generative organs has fastened itself on the delicate organs of the girl and is slowly but surely dragging her into a miserable life.

That is the reason for the phenomenal success G. F. P. is having in building up women and restoring them to health, with plenty of vitality, energy and youthful buoyancy. It quickly and surely overcomes and stamps out that dreaded enemy of women—catarrh of the generative organs.

Women Now Depend on St. Joseph's G.F.P. To Restore Their Vitality

Ranger Band Concert At Rotary Park Is Enjoyable Success

The first open-air concert of the Ranger Texas Ranger's band, given last night at Rotary park, on West Main street, was a great success and was attended by a large crowd. Automobiles were parked in every street around the bandstand and the concert was thoroughly enjoyed by all. In spite of the difficulties under which the musicians played, because of high winds which blew over music racks and disarranged their music, as well as blowing dust into their eyes, the musicians gave a splendid concert under the direction of Bandmaster Leo M. Underwood.

Announcement had been made that the band would parade from the station up Main street to the park, but the high winds prevented this plan being carried out. Instead a few selections were played at the corner of Main and Austin streets before going to the park.

The Ranger Boy Scouts served drinks and ice cream cones during the evening and treated the band to a case of ice cold drinks in appreciation of their efforts. Another concert will be given as soon as the weather permits.

Charlie Admits That He Is Funny

Billy Evans Says

SPRING SERIES
By breaking even in the spring series with the Giants, the Washington club relieved considerable tension in American League circles.

When the series was arranged it wasn't regarded with favor. Had the world champs been vanquished it would have reacted strongly.

Certain magnates didn't like the idea of a club putting at stake the prestige that goes with winning baseball's highest honors.

Others entertained the thought that it savored a bit of the "bunk." That it was against the best interests of the game for two pennant winning clubs to barnstorm in the spring.

As a matter of fact, a rule was later passed by the American League owners forbidding any such series in the future.

BIG GAMBLE

When I was in Augusta I discussed the meeting between the Giants and the Nationals with Ty Cobb.

"If I ever win a pennant and a world championship," said Cobb, "I wouldn't care to risk losing much of the prestige I had won by a spring series with the same team."

"The Giants are a corking good ball club and there is a chance for them to reverse the decision of last fall in an even more decisive fashion."

"If McGraw does, it will take much of the glamour from the Nats' great victory of last fall, and to a certain extent will keep Washington from capitalizing in a financial way on that prestige."

"Incidentally, if Washington should be decisively defeated it isn't going to help the morale of the club in its battle to repeat."

"The world series is decided in the fall," was the way Manager Harris put it when I discussed the series with him. "I want to win the spring meeting but regardless of the outcome, Washington is still the champ."

Unidentified Woman Cruelly Murdered

LOS ANGELES, April 22.—The body of an unidentified woman about 35 years old was found today in a clump of weeds in the fashionable Culver City roadhouse. The woman's skull had been crushed and most of the clothing had been torn from her body. Discovery was made by a workman here shortly after 6 o'clock. She had apparently been beaten with a club and her body dragged to the weeds in an effort to conceal it.

Police Find Body Of Woman Killed About Year Ago

CHICAGO, April 22.—A moron was hunted today for what the police termed "one of the most diabolical murders" in the history of Chicago. Police and coroner agreed that the deed was committed by a moron when the torso of a woman who had been killed last year was hacked to pieces and found in a cache basin of the Budlong golf links late yesterday. The head, arms and legs had been cut and chopped off. Dr. Thomas Foley, coroner's physician, who made the examination, declared that none but a moron would have performed such a gruesome operation as was revealed by the examination. A deep incision into the stomach had been made. The victim was probably killed a year ago. A certain amount of skill was evident. Belief that a moron assaulted and then murdered the woman and then attempted to conceal his crime is expressed by the authorities.

CONVICT MAKES ESCAPE.

CANYON CITY, Colo., April 22. No trace has been found of George Marquette, convict who escaped from the Colorado state penitentiary last night while other convicts and guards were watching the ku klux klan parade through Canyon City. Marquette escaped over the prison wall by sliding down an improvised rope of bedclothes.

UNIDENTIFIED BODY FOUND.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, April 22.—Authorities are awaiting word from Fort Smith, Ark., police in an effort to identify the body of a man found in a boxcar here late yesterday. A union card bearing the name of T. A. Martin, Fort Smith, was found on the body.

Painleve Finds Going Rough Even From the Start

PARIS, April 22.—A rough and tumble battle royal broke out in the chamber of deputies this afternoon during the election of a speaker. They struck and kicked one another in a shouting mass around the president's chair, until the session was suspended and the chamber cleared. Today's affair followed yesterday's session, when Premier Painleve rode down a fierce storm of opposition and won his vote of confidence, 304 to 218.

For a time it looked as though the presence among the ministers of Joseph Caillaux might prove a Jonah to the government—but although the usually suave finance minister reddened under the bitter personal attack until the veins stood out on his bald head, he kept calm.

Painleve must face the senate tomorrow, where the opposition, if less spectacular, is likely to be more severe. Here again, it is expected that the interpellation will consist largely of attacks upon Caillaux, who a few months ago was an exile.

ECZEMA You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!

MANY people imagine that eczema or tetter needs only some external application on the skin in order to get relief. This is because the attention of the sufferer is so violently directed to the intense burning and itching which accompanies this disease. Try as they may—permanent relief will never be theirs until the disease laden blood is thoroughly cleansed. We know there is one thing that stops eczema and that is more red-blood-cells! S.S.S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it. Skin eruptions, eczema, with all its fiery, skin digging torture, and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting giants of Nature! S.S.S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826. S.S.S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body-strengtheners known to us mortals! When you put these facts together—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. S.S.S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S.S.S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs eczema, clears the skin, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, and gives you that more up and going appearance.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical. S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine

CORN PLASTERS GIFTS TO COMMONS' MEMBERS. LONDON (By mail to United Press).—Members of the house of commons were dumfounded the other day to receive by registered post envelopes containing Hashish corn plasters. Strangely enough the distribution of this gift had its significance and was not intended to alleviate the corn-growing propensities of elderly members. Research elicited the fact that the plasters were made of Hashish, or Indian hemp, and that the propagators originated the idea of a general distribution as a protest against the scheduling of Indian hemp as a poison by the home office. OREGON MAN HAS RAT NAMED IN HIS HONOR. PORTLAND, Ore.—Ira N. culiar to the Bogue river valley in Oregon "Gabrielson's kangaroo rat." Gabe hasn't objected to the humorous elements of his official recognition, while his fellow workers declare the naming of the creature was a real reward for the Portland biologist. He received the distinction because of a large amount of research work he did in studying the rat. It appears to be a combination of a rat and a kangaroo. The rat has small fore legs, like other rats, but well developed and powerful hind legs, which are used to hop about, much as an Australian kangaroo does.

PIMPLES AND BUMPS ARE AWFUL PESTS. Girls and women of the most even dispositions are quick to resent direct attacks on their character, or bold advances. But it is hardly explainable why these same folks tolerate disfiguring pimples, blotches, bumps, "breaking out," etc., which are even worse pests than that. These skin diseases quit annoying people quickly after first few applications of the wonderful Black and White Ointment, and the regular use of Black and White Soap. The cost is so small none need hesitate because they "can't afford it." The 50c size of the Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both Black and White Soap, and Ointment.—Adv.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK. By E. R. Waite, Secretary Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce. That there are a whole lot of people who spend their life time wishing for a home. They keep paying rent and never start to buy or build one. That to a few people, home is just a place to go when they have no other place to go, but to most people it is the happiest place to go. That the desire of every worthwhile citizen is to own a home; one that is attractive and well built. That people who haven't a home of their own are missing one of the greatest things in life. People who live in a rented house have no home; they just have a place to live as long as they can pay rent. That now is the time to buy or build a home. Being a home owner not only gives personal satisfaction, but is the best possible recommendation as to stability. People who own their own homes have invested their money in something that brings sure dividends to themselves, their family and their home city. Lions and Legion May Ring in League Players For Game. In preparing for the big baseball game between the Legion and the Lions' club next Tuesday for the benefit of the Texas Ranger band, the Lions have accused the Legion of conspiring to ring in two or three experts and big leaguers, including a crack pitcher. The "buddies" answer the charge by offering the Lions the privilege of doing likewise, so it is rumored that the latter are investigating some "hot tips" on diamond artists that promise to humble the proudest offerings of the veterans. The Lions' ball club will meet at 5:30 this evening in Nitro park for practice and every prospective player is urged to be present with plenty of pep to meet the challenge of the legionnaires. Baseball fans are reminded to keep in mind the day of the big game, Tuesday, April 28, as this will be for the benefit of the band and its trip to Mineral Wells. The United States continues to lead the world in the manufacture of artificial silk, the production last year being estimated at 38,850,000 pounds.
