COMMITTEE IN FAVOR BUYING WATERWORKS

C. of C. and City Commissioners Recommend City Buy Hagaman Plant.

The water committee of the Chamber of Commerce and two members of the city commission at a meeting held Friday afternoon in the city offices recommended that the purchase of the Ranger Waterworks, owned by M. H. Hagaman and associates, would be a good business investment for the city. The total price submitted by Mr. Hagaman at which the system could be made complete was $550,000, which would include a five-foot addition to the present dam at Hagaman lake, a filtration plant and a new twelve-inch line into the city. Of this amount $250,000 would be for the lake with the remaining $300,000 for the distribution system and the improvements.

The recommendations were based on the fact that during last year the water company had a gross earning of $106,000, $21,000 of which was paid out for overhead and upkeep expenses. It was shown that with only half that business the city could pay interest and keep up its sinking fund if bonds were voted to buy the property. The committee was composed of H. S. Cole, Raymond Teal, M. H. Smith and J. E. T. Peters from the Chamber of Commerce, and M. R. Newham and A. Davenport from the city commission.

Committee Reports.

The following written report was made of the meeting:

The committee from the Chamber of Commerce, together with two members of the city commission, met in the commission rooms at 2 o'clock on May 27th, 1921, and after a thorough discussion of the business phases of the proposition with reference to the water works system made by Mr. M. H. Hagaman, the following resolution was proposed and adopted:

Resolved, that in the opinion of the above committee, the proposition made by Mr. Hagaman, copy of which is attached hereto, would be a good business investment for the city of Ranger, and in order that the proposition may be brought more definitely before us from its technical angle, request that the city commission appoint a competent engineer at a reasonable cost to investigate and report on the following items:

1. To check up the value and adequacy of the present distribution pipe system.
2. To pass on the type and adequacy of the proposed filtering plant.
3. To pass on the necessity of the recent suggestions made by the insurance inspectors.
4. To pass on the adequacy of the proposed new twelve-inch pipe line.
5. To check up the estimated storage capacity of Hagaman lake and advise whether or not this would be sufficient for Ranger's needs for the next ten years, based upon a population of 15,000 people.
6. To report upon the five-foot raise of the dam, with reference to its strength and permanency.

That these recommendations be referred back when completed to the present committee for definite approval and recommendation.

"KISSING BLONDE" IN ZEIGLER CASE SURRENDERS TO POLICE

CHICAGO, May 28.—Mrs. Cora Isabelle Orthwein, waiting trial for the murder of Herbert P. Zeigler in her apartment several weeks ago, today met the "kissing blonde" whose presence on a cabaret party with Zeigler is said to have prompted the quarrel which led to the shooting.

Mrs. Orthwein for the first time discovered the mysterious blonde is a close friend, Mrs. Charlotte Lewinsky, an artist's model. The two women were brought together in a hotel lobby after Mrs. Lewinsky, who has been sought since the murder as a state's witness, had surrendered to detectives. After exchanging kisses, Mrs. Lewinsky pledged her support to Mrs. Orthwein in her coming trial.

2 WOMEN HELD FOR MURDER WITHOUT BAIL

Mrs. Jesse James and Miss Goldie Gordon of Tulsa, Face Charge.

TULSA, Okla., May 28.—The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Jesse James and Miss Goldie Gordon, charged with the murder of John Devereux, closed at 10 o'clock last night. The women were held for trial in the district court, and were denied bail.

No witnesses for the defense were placed on the stand and the expected sensational testimony of the two women was denied the hundreds that packed the court room to capacity. "Everything that has developed in this case has been unfavorable to these women and it is my duty to hold them for trial in the district court," Justice of the Peace H. J. Gray said and after a dramatic pause, added "without bail."

Thunderous applause greeted this statement and the spectators rushed forward to congratulate the prosecuting attorneys and commend the justice for his decision.

MAN BURNS IN HOTEL FIRE AT FORT WORTH

Number of Others Injured When Grammer Hotel Is Destroyed Early Saturday.

FORT WORTH, May 28.—One man, Frank Brown, 55 years old, also known throughout Texas as "Dusty Rhodes," of Fort Worth, was burned to death and four or five others were injured when fire early today destroyed the Grammer hotel, a two-story structure on Main street near the union station.

Dr. D. J. Plunkett, Duncan, Okla., was believed fatally injured as the result of jumping from a second-story window. His worst injuries were sustained when he hit a sign when jumping. J. W. Ford, 23 years old, Flat Rock, Ill., was among those injured, but it was believed his hurts are not serious. Others injured included Frank Handlan, 70 years old, of Fort Worth, and J. C. Lacy, Fort Worth. Police are seeking a woman and child whose names appeared on the register, and who are missing but at headquarters authorities said they believe the two were not in the fire.

The fire was believed to have started in one of the rooms, cause not yet determined. A taxi driver passing gave the alarm. Guests who escaped had barely time to rush to the street in their night clothes and most of these injured were burned before they could get out. The damage is estimated at about $30,000.

GIRLS' SLAYER IDENTIFIED BY HER FIANCE

KANSAS CITY, May 28.—Howard Winter, fiance of the slain Denise Chester, is trying to help the jury, which is trying Daniel Chester on a charge of first-degree murder in connection with the death of Miss Florence Barton, who Chester was the man who killed Miss Barton.

I. M. Bell, special prosecutor, asked Winter: "Is the man who did the killing in the court?" "That is the man," Winter answered, pointing to Chester. Spectators were again admitted to the court room today, after having first been searched for weapons. Mrs. Mae Chester, who yesterday attacked Mrs. Blanche Ryan, a witness in the court room, was present today.

Sheriff V. C. Talbot of Guston county, Neb., testified to finding Chester, half strangled in his cell at Broken Bow following his capture Nov. 15. Strips of a blanket and a puttee strap were bound tightly around Chester's neck, the sheriff said, and he identified blood-stained strips of blanket and a strap as being those used.

Dr. W. E. Talbot, brother of the sheriff testified that he had been called to treat Chester following an attempt made by the defendant to strangle himself with strips of blanket and later following a dive from his bunk to the concrete floor of the cell Chester occupied. He said he found no bruises on Chester's body or evidence of him having been struck with a blackjack or revolver. It has been the defense's contention that Chester was beaten by officers bringing him from Great Falls to Kansas City and then thrown off the train shortly before the train reached Broken Bow.

RANGER ASKED FOR $1,000 FOR ORPHANS' HOME

Dr. Collins Seeks 100 Friends Who Will Give $10 Each for Homeless Children.

Ranger is asked to donate $1,000 to help relieve the congested condition of the Albany orphanage at Albany and also to erect new buildings to help care for the applications coming to the institution each day. The Rev. Charles M. Collins former pastor of the Presbyterian church, but now financial agent for the orphanage, is now in Ranger for that purpose.

"I think I have 100 friends in this city who will give me $10 each for this purpose," he said Saturday morning. At the time of making the remark forty of those friends had been found.

The following facts concerning the institution are being set out by Dr. Collins: Last August fire destroyed the girls' dormitory. The entire building with its contents, including the children's clothing, was destroyed. The private library and personal belongings of the superintendent and family were also a total loss.

The orphanage today is taking care of 120 children—sixty-six girls and fifty-four boys. The home is turning down applications every week because of lack of room.

The institution needs: 1, a girls' dormitory large enough to accommodate 150 girls; 2, a boys' dormitory for 150 boys; 3, a dining room; 4, a heating plant; 5, a laundry; 6, a home for the superintendent and teachers.

These buildings must be of fire-proof construction and they are desperately needed now. The estimated cost of these buildings is $150,000. The management of the institution plans to erect these much needed buildings in 1921.

Dr. Collins' plea for cash does not take the usual course. He has pictures in his possession of groups of the children at Albany and back of them the charred remains of the girls' dormitory. He simply says "these children need a home," and it is usually enough. He does not doubt that he will find his 100 friends in Ranger, and more for it is well known that almost everyone in Ranger is his friend.

NURSE FINDS TRACHOMA IN THE SCHOOLS

Miss Meyer Reports Six Cases and Many With Bad Teeth and Adenoids.

In the three schools in which the children were examined by Miss Jean Meyer, Red Cross nurse, six cases of trachoma were discovered all of which are now under treatment, according to Miss Meyer. Fifteen percent of the children were found with the "keystone tooth," known as the "six-year-molar" in some stages of decay. Seventy percent were found either with adenoids or tonsillitis. In each case recommendations were made to the parents of the children.

While her report has only been out a few days many of the parents had notified her that their children were or would shortly be under treatment Miss Meyer said.

The health nurse stated that trachoma is a dangerous disease which attacks the eyes and which led to blindness unless cured. It is a contagious disease. Through error in making reports several of the cards sent out by the health nurse stated that the children were affected with tonsillitis when in reality the tonsils had been removed. These errors Miss Meyer said occurred in making records.

The nurse has returned to Eastland but will be in Ranger almost every week during the summer months.

EASTLAND CO. TO CUT COTTON NEARLY HALF

DALLAS, May 28.—Reduction of one-third or about 4,000,000 acres in Texas cotton acreage this year was estimated today by reports compiled from 2,000 bankers, county judges, agents and agricultural organizations by E. F. Shropshire director of the cotton division of the Texas Farm Bureau of Federation. The reports place the crop in Texas largest producer among southern states, at 8,000,000 acres against 12,000,000 last year. Price reduction was responsible for the decrease.

A reduction in commercial fertilizers of about sixty-five per cent which will also reduce the yield was shown by the report. Shropshire urged that the reduction campaign be continued until planting is over in all parts of the state.

The reductions in various counties included Eastland; forty-five per cent.

It will serve a greater number of persons than any other international bridge on the continent, Mr. Fowler said. Present plans call for a bridge of the suspension type that will cost

United Press Correspondent. WASHINGTON, May 28.—Chas. P. Summerlin has assumed charge of the American embassy at Mexico City and is now in communication with President Obregon on the question of recognition by the United States, it was announced today at the state department.

Whether Summerlin has actually presented Obregon with the American note outlining the attitude of this government towards recognition of Mexico is not yet known.

Officials said that Summerlin would confer with Obregon, present him with the American communication, and learn his reaction to it. The state department it was said, authoritatively today expect soon to receive advice from Summerlin on which the next step by this government will be made.

ROADS DON'T HAVE TO PUT FANS IN CARS

AUSTIN, May 28.—The Texas railroad commission has no power to enforce the railroads of the state to place electric fans in all or part of their rolling stock for the convenience and comfort of the passengers, according to a ruling given today by Allison Mayfield, chairman of the commission, by Assistant Attorney General Hawkins. The ruling was given at the request of Mayfield who was seeking to prohibit the Texas & Pacific from removing electric fans from passenger cars. The fans were being removed as a matter of economy and the chairman claimed this was not a sufficient reason for removal. Hawkins ruled the commission had no power to force the railroads to place "accommodations usually designated as 'desirable' or 'luxurious' in cars."

Guards Patrol Threatened Town After Justice of Peace Roughly Handled by Mob.

BEAUMONT, May 28.—The towns of Sour Lake and Liberty, west of here, were quieter today following threats yesterday of civil strife between citizens of the two towns.

Citizens of Sour Lake, however, still patrolled the streets and roads leading into their city, ready to repel the threatened attack of Liberty citizens, who formed into a mob, were reported on their way to Sour Lake to avenge the whipping and tarring and feathering of Justice of the Peace Joe J. Devere, former Liberty resident, at Sour Lake last Saturday.

"We'll wipe out the town if necessary," was the warning given Sour Lake by the reported Liberty mob. Sheriff Nelson had twenty-five deputies stationed in Sour Lake today to watch for "visitors from Liberty."

The case is now before the state supreme court.

He dragged Bertha into shallow water. He then swam out and attempted to swim to shore with the Hobson girl, but became exhausted.

Their bodies were found locked in each others arms. The tragedy was not known until the body of Bertha Howard was seen floating on the water by a fisherman. Four bodies were recovered.

TRADE TRIP TO MEXICO WON'T BE TOO WARM

Weather Few Hundred Miles South No Hotter Than in Texas, Les Said.

STAMFORD, May 28.—"How hot is it in Mexico?" is a question that has been asked hundreds of times by prospective members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce trade tour to Old Mexico. As one stands on the streets in Fort Worth or any other Texas city with the thermometer hovering around 95 to 100 degrees, he is apt to think that seven or eight hundred miles further south the heat is still greater, but this is not the case. The average temperature in Mexico City for June is 63 degrees. This is due to the fact that the city is over 7,300 feet above the sea-level and applies to all that section of Mexico known as the central plateau. The air is dry and bracing, and especially favorable to those affected with bronchial or pulmonary troubles. The rainfall varies from 8 to 40 inches. The climate is even, variations from maximum to minimum temperature are not great and sudden changes are very rare.

Warmest Part.
The warmest part of the trip will be across South Texas and as far as Monterey in Mexico, at which point the railroad ascends the mountains reaching the central plains. From Monterey to Mexico City the altitude gradually increases so that the days and nights become more trifling cooler as the trip southward is made.

Field representatives of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce report that many West Texas towns are going to send official delegates to represent their interests and to report on conditions as found in Mexico upon their return.
F. W. Malley, of Laredo, reports that arrangements have been completed by the Mexican officials with the railroads of Mexico to handle the West Texas special train without delay and it is believed that the details necessary in crossing the border and presentation of passports, will not require more than an hour. The Laredo Chamber of Commerce has arranged to take the party on a short sight-seeing trip around the city and to see several of the irrigation projects nearby. A special car of Laredo boosters may be hooked on to the special train at this point for the trip.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—An expedition from the University of Pennsylvania here plans to go to Palestine in June to extend excavation work on the biblical city of Beth-shan, or Beisan, as it is now known. The party expects to uncover relics of several ancient cities which are supposed to have stood on this same site.

THREE JUVENILES ARE CHARGED WITH FELONY

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, May 28.—The cases of three juveniles, charged with entering the store of the L. B. Wright Hardware company, at Olden, with felonious intent, were set on the docket of the county-court-at-law for Saturday, May 28. These youngsters, all under the age of 17, Jesse Casey, Herman Davis and Bennie Sapulver, it seems were bent on excitement and it is alleged secured some explosives, in the way of dynamite caps, and repaired to the creek, where they were bent on throwing same into a bonfire when apprehended, seemingly not realizing the danger in the sport in which they were engaged. Now they are called upon to appease the wrath of an offended law, and in all probability may be called upon to serve the state for a time at Gatesville in the state school for juveniles.

The Difference of 150 Years
YOU'VE heard the story of Paul Revere—how he clattered out of Boston and spread the alarm to every Middlesex village, etc. That was in April, 1775. It was an all night job. Today the Boston papers would slap extras on their presses and in the shake of a little lamb's tail the whole thrilling message would be in each home of the well known county.
This represents the advance of 150 years in the important business of spreading news.
The cry of "Extra—Extra" on the midnight air brings startled folks to their doors as once did the pound of a horse's hoofs and the breathless shout of the rider. Papers have supplanted the courier—multiplied his effectiveness many times—increased his speed a hundred fold.
How far back we would go without newspapers! We would remain in ignorance not only of events at home and abroad—but also of much that concerns us just as vitally—news of the very things that have to do with the personal, every-day life of each one of us.
Somebody might be selling a new, better and more economical food; or a utensil that would add immeasurably to our comfort and well-being or some better material for making shoes or clothing—but we would never know it.

CISCO, May 28.—Yesterday's game here was called in the eighth inning, with Cisco at bat, only one out, and two runs to the good. The score was Ranger 5, Cisco 7.

Boyer made a bad start the first inning, walking two men and being touched for two hits upon which Cisco scored two. The Scouts' second score came in the second inning when Philpot, with two out and none on bases, hit for a home run.

The Nitros scored their first run in the first inning, when, after Clapp and York had made easy outs, Hamilton hit for four bases.

In the next three innings it was three up, three down with the Nitros. Cisco started the eighth with King at bat, who was walked by Boyer for the third time in the game.

King stole second, and Beard got on when Howell muffed up a grounder. Earnshaw then got a hit through the pitcher's box, and King and Beard were scored. Westfall then flew out to Boyer in an attempt to hunt. E. Brooks dropped a pretty one over second base and Earnshaw scored.

Pitching here were about evenly divided between Boyer and Anderson, each having one bad inning. However, Anderson had a shade over his opponent as regarded support.

SAN ANGELO, May 28.—In a slugfest in which long hits and errors were numerous, San Angelo Friday afternoon defeated Ballinger 13 to 11 in a see-saw contest and thereby went into first place in the West Texas League.

Charles Johnson, field umpire, banished Brown from the game in the eighth and C. S. Guin, president of the Ballinger club, wired Walter Morris, league president, that Ballinger would play in no games hereafter in which Johnson officiates.

GULF AT THURBER BUSINESS MEN TO PLAY EASTLAND

Two Ranger teams go a-visiting Sunday.

The Gul Production, which last Sunday mopped up the Eastland team, 6 to 3, in a nice game, will motor over to Thurber and take on the Miners. They expect to keep their record unmarred as well as show their uniforms. The Gulf outfit not only has the finest uniforms in town, but in games to date has shown it has men to fill them.

The Business Men will play the Eastland team. Manager Summers asks that all men who propose to make the trip to be at his store, in uniform, at 1 o'clock. They will motor over, and it will be more convenient to climb into the unies here than at Eastland.

HOW THEY STAND

The Times' standing of the West Texas league is guaranteed to be correct. It has been correct all along, and last night it was checked over, from the beginning of the season to date, in order to be absolutely certain that there was no error.

SO, REGARDLESS OF WHAT OTHER PAPERS CARRY, ALL FANS MAY KNOW JUST WHERE ALL TEAMS IN THE LEAGUE STAND BY READING THE TIMES.

Those who add up the won and lost columns may not believe this, because they will not balance. But there's a reason. On May 19, Ballinger took Mineral Wells' place and was given the same standing as Cisco—won 12, lost 16, pct. .429. On that date they were entitled to a percentage of 10-18-.357, which throws the columns out of balance. That will continue until the first half of the season ends on July 4.

OIL STARS TAKE TWO GAMES FROM BRECK TIGERS

The "Oil Stars" took a double-header from the Breckridge Tigers yesterday at Nitro park. The first game was a painful melee finally won in the tenth, 7 to 6, when the Tigers got to throwing the ball around with a man on first.

The second was a five-inning affair, played in a dust storm, which drove away most of the spectators. But it was a vociferous combat, just the same. Harris was pitching and the Breckridge negroes nipped him for solid wallops. Beside which, he didn't get along very well with Speedy of the Gholson, who essayed to do some catching. His caustic remarks resulted in Speedy's voluntary retirement in the third, after the Tigers had piled up a 7 to 4 lead. Then Manager Berry Strawder went into the box and mowed 'em down, while the Oil Stars breezed across four runs and nosed out the visitors.

The colored teams play here again this afternoon and at Breckridge Sunday. Monday, the "Oil Stars" will be back for a three-game series with Mineral Wells.

MITCHELL NOT TO QUIT GAME OF FIGHTING

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 27.—Richie Mitchell, whose gameness against overwhelming odds has made him the prize fight idol of the central West, has no intention of retiring from the ring despite recent reverses.

Following his sensational losing fight against Champion Benny Leonard in New York, Mitchell met defeat twice at the hands of Rocky Kansas and lost a newspaper decision to Johnny Mendelsohn. The defeat caused reports that the Milwaukee fighter would retire, but Mitchell insists that he is far from through and after a short rest will be back facing the top-notchers.

EASTLAND GOLF CLUB ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

EASTLAND, May 27.—The board of directors of the Eastland Golf and Country club met last night in the office of Judge J. D. McEae and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Senator H. P. Brelsford, president; P. S. Wolfe, vice-president; W. B. Smith, treasurer, and O. M. Crenshaw, secretary.

After the election of officers a ground committee and a club committee were selected. The ground committee will have supervision of the golf links and grounds, and the club committee will have charge of the erection and beautification of the club building. W. F. Kelly was elected chairman of the grounds committee with W. T. Garrett and W. R. Clark, while the club committee consists of J. E. Lewis, chairman, Joseph M. Weaver, Earl Conner, George E. Casey and W. Lander. It is expected that work will start on the club house within a short time.

Roush made four singles in four times at bat off Pittsburgh. Cleveland went back into first place in the American League when the Yanks beat the Red Sox.

LEGION PICKS EDDIE COLLINS AS THEIR HERO

CHICAGO, May 27.—Eddie Collins, captain of the Chicago White Sox, and nationally famous ballplayer, has been selected by Chicago American Legion posts as typifying the real American baseball hero.

The legion posts recently decided to select some one representing true Americanism as well as athletic proficiency to autograph a baseball which would be auctioned to raise funds for disabled soldiers. Collins was chosen and Commander John G. Little, Jr., of the Roosevelt post, in making the announcement, said: "We are admirers of the ball player of the Collins type. He was past the draft age in 1917. Even had he been within the draft age, he had a family dependent on him, and easily could have gained exemption. On the other hand he could have obtained any number of swivel chair jobs in Washington or he could have become a camp athletic instructor. Instead, he enlisted as a private in the marines and was promoted to the rank of corporal for loyal service. He passed up the soft jobs to endure the hardships of the toughest jobs in a real man's army and never murmured."

NEGRO HANGED FOR SLAYING OF TWO WOMEN

PARIS, Texas, May 27.—Virgil Sampson, negro convict convicted of assault several weeks ago on an 11-year-old white girl near Honeygrove, Texas, was legally hanged here at 11:05 a. m. today.

Sampson immediately after his conviction was taken for safekeeping to Dallas where he confessed to killing Mrs. Blanche Walford, a white woman, and her daughter, near Honeygrove, previous to the Honeygrove assault. Sampson said he attacked the woman and then killed her and the child to keep her from informing the husband. The husband, who was arrested for the death of his wife and child and held in jail for about a year was released following the confession.

SAN BENITO AGAIN ON HAND WITH FIRST BALE MARKETER AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, May 27.—The first bale of 1921 cotton brought $1,300 on the Houston cotton exchange today.

Last year the first bale arriving in Houston, June 9, was auctioned for $1,575. Both bales were from San Benito, with Ernest Matz, Rio Grande valley farmer, as the raiser. The bale this year weighs 630 pounds. There is romance in getting the first bale to market. San Benito citizens chartered a special train last year to beat an Edinburg bale to the Houston exchange. Raymondville tried to beat San Benito this year but by operating the gin all Wednesday night the San Benito bale was completed.

World cotton production not up to consumption may cause England who imports 65 per cent of United States products to increase Egyptian production.

A REAL CIVIC BODY.
The Retail Merchants' association celebrated its first "birthday" Thursday. The event, perhaps, was of no special significance on its own account, though it was an expression of the cordial fellowship and co-operation existing between business men.

It was, however, a milestone in the life of Ranger, an anniversary which calls attention to this virile association and the work it has done during its one year of life.

The merchants' association has been more than a credit-rating organization, as so many similar associations are. It has been a city builder, a doer of things, a stimulator of sentiment for public improvement, and a willing co-laborer in civic development.

Some say it has gone beyond its sphere, but this can hardly be true, because it has never gone far enough to create jealousy in other bodies, and one is a formalist who says a civic organization should be bound to hard and fast lines in working for the general good; always provided its acts do not cause others to withdraw support from a project. And that has been the stand of the Merchants' association during the past year; to do things because they needed doing, and not for any glory that might be derived from getting them done.

First, perhaps, in the list of the association's achievements is the rebuilding of the Caddo road. When this project appeared to have failed, the merchants, who had led the campaign, built the road themselves; built it more expeditiously than the most hopeful had dared to wish; built it better than the most optimistic had dreamed, and built it so cheaply that the road future of Ranger is virtually assured, if Ranger wants them badly enough to reach down into the change pocket.

That, however, has not been all the merchants have done. They have conceived project after project, many of which, 'tis true, lie dormant because of the general financial depression which has affected Ranger. But the sentiment has been established for them and when the times comes, these projects, such as a home building association, a white way, and the like, will more easily come to fruition.

No town is dead which has live civic bodies, it is doubtful if such an association anywhere in Texas has ever approached the Ranger Retail Merchants in activity and usefulness.

SHERIFFS AND STATE POLICE TO GUARD MINES

Martial Law in W. Virginia to Be Enforced in This Manner, Governor Says.

By Associated Press
CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 28.—Martial law, declared by Governor Morgan in an effort to restore order in the disturbed mining region of Mingo County, is to be enforced for the present by deputy sheriffs and the state police, the Governor said. Should the situation become more acute, the Governor added, he has power under the law to create an emergency military organization.

The West Virginia National Guard, as such, passed out of existence when this country entered the war, and, although the legislation necessary for its reorganization has been enacted, the money appropriated will not be available until July 1. Preliminary steps have been taken, it is understood, and recruiting will be commenced within the next few months.

The state also has a force of police which at present numbers about 94 officers and men. Under a new law, effective July 1, this is to be increased to 289 officers and men, divided into four companies. Two of these will be mounted.

Prefer Service Men.
Preference will be given to men who have seen service in the army, navy or marines, the qualifications as announced by Colonel Jackson Arnold, commander of the force, being: "If you are a young man between the ages of 21 and 45 years; if you desire to have a clean, moral life in God's great out doors; if you are intelligent, honest, and law abiding; if your name is engraved on the honor roll of your country; if you are strong and healthy and willing to enforce the law of the land without thought of personal sacrifice, then you possess all the desired qualifications of a West Virginia state policeman, and you will be more than welcome to cast your lot with the other splendid young men of this organization."

WILSON SAYS WAR'S DUTIES MUST BE MET

Ex-President Declares Until This Is Done Memorial Day Can't Be Enjoyed.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 28.—Woodrow Wilson broke today the silence he has maintained since he retired from the White House on March 4.

In a Memorial Day letter to the editor of "The Stars and Stripes," which was published today in that soldierly periodical, he declared that the American people "shall not be able to enjoy the full pride of the Day's recollections until we have made sure that the duties that grew out of the war have been fulfilled to the utmost."

"Are we sure?" he asked. "If we are not shall we not soon take steps to do what has not been omitted?" The full text of the former President's letter follows: "Memorial Day has always been one of our most solemn and thoughtful anniversaries when we recalled great memories and dedicated ourselves again to the maintenance and purification of the Nation, but this year it has an added and tremendous significance because the memories and sacrifices of the great world war are now among the most stimulating of the recollections of the day.

"We celebrate the immortal achievements of the men who died in France on the field and in the trenches, far away from home, in order that both our own people and the peoples across the seas might be delivered from the night peril of all history. It is our privilege not only to indulge a high and solemn pride and grief for the heroes of that great struggle but also to rededicate ourselves to the achievement of the great objects for which that war was fought. We shall not be happy; we shall not be able to enjoy the full pride of the Day's recollections until we have made sure that the duties that grew out of the war have been fulfilled to the utmost.

"Are we sure? If we are not shall we not soon take steps to do what has been omitted?"

TEXAS FEVER FEARED AMONG COWS SENT TO GERMANY FROM THE U. S.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, May 28.—Cows donated to Germany by American farmers are being held in quarantine at Bremen. Experts say that blood tests have disclosed bacteriological bodies capable of transmitting Texas fever but that the animals "are otherwise in good health."

The Bureau of Animal Industry in Washington has held that the mosquito which transmits Texas fever infection does not exist in Germany, but the experts here have decided there is a possibility that mosquitoes were brought over with the cows and have recommended that the entire shipment be kept in communal stables in the large cities.

The German Red Cross, which is directing the distribution of the gift cows, has consented to this arrangement and milk from the cows is being distributed among the poor children of Bremen.

TINKER BOB STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB.

ONE'S FRIENDS ARE EVERYWHERE.

Silky, the Monkey, was beginning to love Tinker Bob more and more as he saw the many kind things that the King did for the Creatures of the Forest. "I can't see how anyone in the whole forest could keep from loving you," he said, as he threw his arms about the King's neck and hugged him tighter than ever. "Even Long Horns the Deer thinks you are the most wonderful being in the world. Isn't that right, Long Horns?"

Long Horns pawed and snorted, affirming what Silky had said. "Here comes another creature who also loves the King."

Silky took his arms from about the King's neck to see who might be molesting them at this time. Not a creature could he see. They were in front of the King's Palace and had a wonderful chance to see all of the Creatures of the Forest who might be calling to see the King. "I don't think there's a soul about any place. I can't see anyone, nor hear anyone. Your nose is wrong this time, Mr. Long Horns. I'm right here where I can see all who would approach, and you will not fool me this time."

"But I tell you, Mr. Monkey, if this fellow was a Bear he would eat you alive for saying there was no one around. This is one of the King's very best friends, and when the King is lonesome he comes and drives the lonesome spirit away. I say, Mr. Monkey, he is looking at you this minute."

Silky began to take notice of what Long Horns was saying. "I beg to be pardoned if I said anything that would offend any of the King's friends, but I can't see anyone about anywhere. O King, is there anyone of your friends near as Mr. Long Horns says, if so where could he be?" Silky waited silently for the King to answer him.

"So many are my friends that it would be difficult for me to tell you who they are that watch me all the time. It is true that the Giant Ant or some of his tribe are watching me constantly. Also the Beetle and the Fire Bug are ever near my Palace, to speak if some unseen enemy should arrive unexpectedly, to do me harm. Then there's the Adirer and the Locust, and my friend, the Bumble Bee. They are ever mindful of their King. And their eyes are always watching the actions of the Forest Dwellers from some secret hiding place. Again there is little Timothy Hedge Mouse and all of his relations. I could not venture forth by day or night without being seen by these little fellows. My friends are everywhere, and so are yours but you do not know it."

I say, Mr. Monkey, he is looking at you this minute.

"But I haven't seen that creature you said was near," said Silky to Long Horns.

"Put, put, put," came the sound from the roof of the Forest Palace. And who should stand there looking right down at Silky but little Mr. Wren.

FOX FARMING GIVES WEALTH TO 'SOURDOUGH'

By International News Service

PORTLAND, Ore., May 27.—A former "sourdough" miner and a shipwrecked sailor are proprietors of one of the most unique "farms" in the north country, raising silver grey foxes on the Island of Ugak, six miles off Kodiak Island, in the Pacific ocean, near the Alaskan coast.

T. Hafferty went to Alaska during the gold rush of '97, and after experiencing various shades of fortune decided that fox farming is a better method of making money than mining. Gus Olsen, his partner, arrived at Ugak Island on a bit of driftwood after being shipwrecked in 1898, and has never left the north land.

The two bought the entire island, consisting of about 50,000 acres, seven years ago and "planted" three pairs of silver grey foxes. These have multiplied until sixty pairs now roam their land, and within two years the two "old timers" expect to sell fifty pelts each spring.

Hafferty arrived in Portland a short time ago with sixteen pelts to be disposed of, and will return to Alaska in a few weeks. They expect to make their permanent home in Ugak.

Hafferty is United States commissioner at Kodiak, and Olsen now does most of the work on the ranch.

"For ten months of the year he is the only human inhabitant of the island," said Hafferty. "But it is a life he loves.

Acts as Policeman.
"Our main trouble is with eagles," Hafferty continued. "They swoop down and carry away the fox pups when they are too young and small to protect themselves. Olsen devotes most of his time in the spring and early summer to killing these eagles. This spring we shipped sixty-five pairs of eagle claws to Juneau, for which we receive fifty cents each in bounty. Olsen spends the rest of his time patrolling the island against native hunters who attempt to land and trap the animals we are farming."

One Pair Worth $1,500.
"We hired two native trappers during the winter," Hafferty explained, "paying them $50 a month and $5 a pelt bonus, in addition to their board. Thus far we have not been compelled to feed the foxes, as the island is well stocked with game and fish drift into shore with the cross currents. When a large whale goes ashore it provides food for the foxes for at least six months."

At present market quotations a pair of silver grey foxes, alive, are worth $1,500, Hafferty said. Native Indians capture the fox pups and raise them from spring until fall when they are old enough to sell and place on the farm. The animals mate during February and the young are born in May.

There is only one other fox farm in Alaska, on Middleton Island, near Valdez. It is the larger of the two, but Hafferty hopes within a few years to raise as many bearers of Milady's furs as the Middleton Island farm.

BILL FOR BUDGET SYSTEM APPROVED

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The bill establishing a federal budget system was sent to the President today by action of the house today. It approves the conference report on the measure.

MRS. BERGDOLL RAISED HER BOY TO BE PRESIDENT, NOT SLACKER

Snaps Finger of Contempt at House Committee and Says They've No Business Sticking Their Noses Into Her Personal Affairs.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The special house committee investigating the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll came off a bad second in a lively tilt with the draft dodger's mother, Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll. To add to its discomfort the committee was compelled to reject a demand of Representative Ben Johnson, (Dem., Ky.) that Mrs. Bergdoll be held in contempt of the house.

In Mrs. Bergdoll the members found a Tartar. She snapped at them, flouted them, told them they were busybodies and finally wound up by declaring, "I am tired of you sticking your noses into my personal business and I'll answer no more questions."

At that time she was being questioned by Johnson and he immediately demanded that Chairman Peters prepare the necessary papers to have her held in contempt. Mrs. Bergdoll laughed "Ha! ha!" as Peters stated that the demand would have to be considered in executive session. Mrs. Bergdoll was told that she could go home and the committee announced that no further action would be taken in the contempt move.

Mrs. Bergdoll had proved a tractable witness regarding financial matters until the committee attempted to find where she had buried the $105,000 "pot of gold" Bergdoll was supposed to be looking for when he was released from prison. Then she became stubborn.

She stated flatly that she would not show the gold to anyone, not even her sons and merely laughed when asked if she would show it to a member of the committee.

"It's nobody's business but my own, I won't bring it into court and I won't show it to anybody," and again she laughed when Representative Luring expressed doubt as to her having the money at all.

This seemed to anger Representative Luring and he began a harsh cross-examination that resulted chiefly in getting himself laughed at by Mrs. Bergdoll, the committee and the spectators.

"Will you say why you named your son after our most warlike president?" he asked. "Grover Cleveland was not warlike," replied Mrs. Bergdoll. "He dodged the draft in the civil war and paid a fine of $200 for doing it."

Replying to questions as to whether Grover was brought up to be a draft dodger, Mrs. Bergdoll said: "I brought my son up to be a president, may be, some day."

"What your boy Bergdoll be President?" exclaimed Luring. "Yes, he's got just as good chance as you," was the reply, and Luring subsided as everybody laughed.

"Ma," Bergdoll, as she is familiarly called, showed that she possesses a keen business sense. She gave the committee a ledger containing an account of the expenditure of every cent since Grover and his brother Lewin fled to escape the draft. The ledger shows that "Ma" did not count pennies in helping her sons.

Spent Many Thousands.
It showed hundreds given to Grover while he was in jail—in all more than $700, hundreds given when she merely thought she was helping him and many thousands to lawyers, stenographers, doctors and others. She took $500 to an army officer to buy Grover razors, neckties and other comforts and candy, books and other things for his fellow prisoners.

In all she spent in this way nearly $50,000 and she still has a $10,000 judgment obtained by a lawyer hanging over her. Among those, according to the ledger, who shared in this sum, was D. Clarence Gibbons, now a doctor, who, in addition to receiving various large sums, was loaned $10,000; Harry Wenberger of New York, to whom she claims to have paid $5,000 in fees; Burns' detectives, $500; James E. Romig, several thousands; Frank Harrigan, $250.

A loan of $50,000 to her other son, Charles A. Braun, two weeks before Grover's escape, excited the attention of the committee and brought another tilt. This stub in her check book showed a check for $5,000 to Braun marked with an "XX and Y" and a rude picture. General Sherbourne, counsel for the committee, tried to make her admit that this picture was supposed to represent an automobile for use in the escape of Grover, but Mrs. Bergdoll insisted that it was a house that Charles was going to buy.

Mr. Luring asked her if she could explain why she drew a picture in this particular case. Mrs. Bergdoll started to say something and Luring interrupted with the demand that she explain to the satisfaction of the committee.

Mrs. Bergdoll promptly shot back, "I don't care whether the committee is satisfied or not." She finally explained, however, that it was her personal system of shorthand.

The committee was startled during its questioning as to the $105,000 when Mrs. Bergdoll said that she was thinking of asking the committee to get Irwin out of prison on parole so that he can work his farm. She added that she was seriously thinking of leaving the country.

HORRORS! SHAKESPEARE MEMORIAL THEATER TO BE A "MOVIE" SHOW

By Associated Press.

STRATFORD-ON-AVEN, May 28.—Astonishment has been caused here by the announcement that the Shakespeare Memorial Theater is to be used as a movie picture theater when the building is not needed for the production of Shakespearean plays.

The governors of the Memorial association made the decision on the recommendation of the executive committee who urged that only high-class films be shown.

It is understood that financial considerations led the association to take the step which in some quarters is regarded as a desecration.

It is said that diamonds have been discovered in fallen meteors.

BELGIUM NOW PROSPERING AS IN PREWAR DAYS

BRUSSELS, May 28.—Belgium is proving as triumphant in the arts of peace as she was in the arts of war. From all quarters reports are being received testifying to the almost incredible progress made since the armistice in the reconstruction of devastated areas, restarting of industries and the revival of trade that was stagnated.

Before 1914 there were 140,099 inhabitants in the districts now partially destroyed and 123,225 in the totally destroyed area. In 1919, 127,404 persons had returned to the first, and 57,612 persons to the second district. In 1920 there were 135,739 persons in the first and 96,508 in the second. Now over the whole area there are only 30,000 fewer inhabitants than before the war.

In 1914 there were 66,450 agricultural dwellings. At the time of the armistice 16,902 had been partially destroyed, 26,955 completely destroyed and only 10,983 left intact. In 1920, 27,178 dwellings were registered as definitely reconstructed, 18,903 in the course of reconstruction, and 12,628 huts or temporary dwellings had been erected.

Agricultural figures show that in 1914 there were 126,715 hectares of land under cultivation; in 1919 46, 300 hectares were put back into cultivation and in 1920, 51,475 hectares. The work of restoration has therefore now only 28,336 hectares to restore, and 97,779 are in a condition to be cultivated. As the reconstruction services are able to put into order about 6,000 per month, it will only be a few months before the whole of the agricultural restoration will be complete.

The country is now taking considerable interest in overseas enterprise, and the growing shipping, in conjunction with the increasing Congo prosperity, adds to this interest and keeps it well alive. It is reported that the government will shortly issue a Colonial loan for 500,000,000 francs in connection with important public works to be carried out in the Congo.

Not all of Belgium's industries are prosperous. Like other European countries she is feeling the pinch of the abnormal economic situation. There is a continuance in the drop of iron and glass prices. Glass makers are apprehensive, reporting that current prices are below the cost of production. But taking Belgium's industries as a whole, she is enjoying far more prosperity than most of her European neighbors.

CAN JUDGE ANNUL MARRIAGE THAT IS NOT A MARRIAGE?

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND May 28.—Can a judge annul a marriage that is not a marriage? The question will come before Judge E. A. Hill shortly in the case of Katherin Bailey, who prays that her marriage with Charles C. Stinnett be set aside. Her petition alleges that she married Stinnett Jan. 23 and at the time believed she was legally free from Lee C. Bailey who is now her legal husband.

She states that she had been informed that Bailey had secured a divorce and accepting the information as the truth married Stinnett.

Stinnett is a legal resident of Lincoln, Neb., and is given as defendant in the suit.

The plaintiff asks that the marriage be annulled and she receive other relief that the judge may see fit to grant her.

EASTLAND CAFE OWNER RUNS AFOUL OF LAW FOR WORKING WOMEN

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, May 27.—County Attorney W. V. Dummam has sworn out a complaint against a cafe owner in Eastland for working his female employes for more than nine hours in one day, which is a violation of what is known as the fifty-four-hour law for females. It is alleged the manager worked two women for longer than nine hours in one calendar day, having worked one for ten and one-half and the other for thirteen hours. The statute provides that an employer or his agent shall not permit a female employe to work longer than nine hours in his place of business, and provides a penalty of not more than $200 for an infraction of this law. County Attorney Dummam says the statute will be strictly adhered to and those violating it will be punished to the full extent of the law.

CHARGES OF GRAFT AGAINST VETERANS

BY HERBERT W. WALKER, United Press Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Investigation of charges that several so-called service men's organizations are collecting large sums of money for private gain under the guise of helping veterans was started today by the house rules committee. PRETTY LEGS SHOULD VIE WITH PRETTY FACES, CLUB WOMAN DECLARES

WINCHESTER, Va., May 28.—Immodesty is something far worse than showing a leg a little below the knee, according to Mrs. E. Virginia Smith, a Winchester club woman and prominent in suffragist councils in Virginia.

Mrs. Smith's philosophy on morals was evoked by publication of a statement attributed to Rev. Carter J. Jenkins, pastor of the Baptist church in Richmond, Va., to the effect that members of his church must quit dancing and certain "movies" or quit the church.

"Give these so-called reformers enough rope," said Mrs. Smith, "and I think they will have some left from the tying of others to hang themselves with. The majority of people do not dance immorally. The styles of today are not immodest unless the wearers make them so. Immodesty is something far worse than showing a leg a little below the knee. A pretty leg is almost as desirable as a pretty face. Why should there be anything more immodest about a leg than an arm?"

"The fellows that are doing the most lamenting must be doing a good deal of looking at our legs and dancing. These so-called soul-preservers have been accusing women of immodesty ever since clothing has been worn."

"What they call bad is often not bad, and what they term good is often not good, but bad. I wish they would make their own personalities more pleasing."

UNIT MAY SET NEW RECORD FOR DRILLING

CRYSTAL FALLS, May 28.—The Unit Oil Syndicate will break the drilling record in this field should they complete their No. 1 well on the Sloan tract three miles south of here within the next week. Go to Church Sunday

The responsibility of the moral welfare is generally "put up" to the churches and the clergy. But is this a fair conclusion. The morals of a community are not only a part of the church and clergy but all citizens, organizations and families, are equally responsible. The church and the clergy are leaders in developing and sustaining moral sentiment and conviction. The higher the moral conviction the safer is the city. "Righteousness exalteth a city; sin is a reproach unto any people." If the citizens of Ranger will go to church, support the efforts of the clergy, nothing but good can result.

Go to church Sunday; satisfy conscience, enjoy good fellowship, and gain vision and help for next week—and see if you will not enjoy life better.
