BABY BOY IS SON OF INDIAN, LAWYER SAYS

Stillman's Counsel Says Banker's Wife Took Guide for Lover.

International News Service
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. March 23.—Alleging that Mrs. James A. Stillman had taken as her lover, an Indian guide who became the father of her son Guy, Delancy Nicoll, chief counsel for the millionaire banker in his divorce suit today made a sensational fight in the supreme court here against Mrs. Stillman's demands for $120,000 annual alimony and $25,000 counsel fees. Counsel for the president of the great National City bank of New York city presented figures showing that Stillman's income for last year was $536,000, which he said, is not sufficient to meet his wife's demands. The hearing was brief, and expectations of sensational revelations were not realized. When the case was ended at 10:35 o'clock, Justice Morschauser reserved his decision on Mrs. Stillman's alimony motion. A plan that Mrs. Stillman be granted $20,000 yearly and $5,000 counsel fees instead of the larger sum sought, was made by Nicoll, who argued that was the sum granted in the famous Gould case, and which set a new high record, and he did not believe it should be surpassed in the present case. The justice ruled that the question was affected by that of the legitimacy of Guy, the infant son of Mrs. Stillman, and gave the lawyer until Saturday to file additional papers bearing on this issue.

Dry Law Forces Stirred to Action by Loss of Three Officers in the Past Two Weeks

2-YEAR-OLD BOY WHO IS BIG FIGURE IN STILLMAN DIVORCE CASE

Guy Stillman, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, millionaire bank president of New York, who is the principal figure in Mr. Stillman's suit against his wife. In his action, Mr. Stillman names Fred Beauvais, French-Canadian Indian guide as co-responder. In a counter suit, Mrs. Stillman names Mrs. Florence H. Leeds.

TEXAS STILL TO BE ARID THOUGH SOME GET BEER

Won't Benefit by Ruling Granting Some Citizens Sixty Gallons Yearly.

By Associated Press
FORT WORTH, March 23.—A. E. Turner, district prohibition enforcement officer, today received orders to immediately mobilize his forces, indicating a drive against all bootleggers and whiskey runners in this territory, following the killing of three enforcement officers in the last two weeks. Turner said he thought liquor runners in the El Paso territory have had agents in Fort Worth and Dallas and the new plan is devised to stop this traffic.

OUTA LUCK!
International News Service
WASHINGTON, March 23.—Texas will continue to be dry, despite the tentative ruling of the government allowing beer to be prescribed for ailing citizens.

The ruling of former Attorney General Palmer, it was learned today, allows approximately sixty gallons a year to each patient. This is about one and one-eighth gallons per week. The beer may be retailed only by licensed druggists. The ruling is of course subject to the approval of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon before it becomes effective. Despite Mellon's expected approval of the ruling, Texas will remain dry on account of the state dry laws. In fact, there are only ten beer states, eight in the East, and Louisiana and California.

U. S., ENGLAND AND FRANCE MAY BE UNITED

International News Service
PARIS, March 23.—The corner stone of a "triple association of nations"—The United States, France and England—may be laid at Washington by former Premier Rene Viviani, now en route to America on a special mission to see President Harding. Viviani is due to arrive in New York Sunday.

The view of a possible new society of powers was set forth today by Henry Franklin Bouillon, former member of the French cabinet, who declared that he feels that under no circumstances will the United States enter the league of nations or link herself with her military allies of the recent war. He does believe, however, that three powers can cooperate in other ways in such manner as to insure the peace of the world.

HUGHES WANTS NEFF TO INVESTIGATE MEXICAN'S DEATH

AUSTIN, March 23.—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes has asked Governor Neff to conduct an investigation into the death of Salvador Lazaro Sucedo, a Mexican, who was shot to death near San Benito a month ago, following his arrest in connection with the murder of Marie Schroeder. Sucedo, officers declare, was shot when attempting to escape. Secretary Hughes also asked Governor Neff to investigate the imprisonment in Cimarron county of six Mexican citizens. He said the Mexican government required it.

ARKANSAS TOWN IS QUIET AFTER LYNCHING

International News Service
MONTICELLO, Ark., March 23.—This city is quiet today following exciting scenes last night, when 1,000 persons stormed the county jail and lynched Phil Slater, 50-year-old negro, who had confessed to assaulting a white woman near Wilmer, Ark., last week. The negro was hanged to a telephone pole in the town square. When he confessed Slater is alleged to have pleaded, "I did it, but please give me a trial."

UNCLE SAM GETS SUM OF $228,000,000 TO DATE
International News Service
WASHINGTON, March 23.—The first installment of income tax and excess profits taxes for the year 1920, payable March 15, has thus far served the government $228,000,000. Attendance is said to be obligatory.

FRENCH WOULD GIVE POLAND UPPER SILESIA

By Associated Press
OPPELN, Upper Silesia, March 23.—Indications in official quarters today pointed to the probability that the French section of the Inter-Allied commission is seeking to convince the council of ambassadors at Paris that Poland won virtually the entire industrial section of Upper Silesia, despite the German majority in the plebiscite held Sunday.

KIDNAPPERS OF BERGDOLL SENTENCED

Zimmer and Neaf Must Serve Terms in German Prison.

International News Service
MOSSBACH, Germany, March 23.—Frank Zimmer and Carl Neaf, American detectives of the United States army of occupation on the Rhine, who were arrested in connection with the attempt to seize Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, American millionaire draft evader, were found guilty today by a German court and sentenced to serve prison terms. Neaf was sentenced to fifteen and Zimmer to six months' imprisonment. The three German accomplices were sentenced to eleven, ten and six months respectively.

U. S. ASKS RELEASE

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Representations have been made by the United States to Germany for the release of Carl Neaf and Frank Zimmer, two Americans who were arrested and convicted by German authorities for their attempt to arrest Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the Philadelphia millionaire draft dodger. It is understood the representations went forward today, although officials declined to say what form they took.

MORGAN USED STATE FUNDS, IS CHARGED

International News Service
AUSTIN, March 23.—Lon D. Morgan, former clerk of the Texas state treasury, was charged in nine complaints here today with conversion to his own use of $14,774.75 in state funds. Morgan was arrested in Mexico two days ago and returned to Texas officers through the amicable relations existing between President Obregon and Governor Neff.

EARLY CONSIDERATION OF U. S. RELATIONS WITH SOVIET RUSSIA COMING

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The state department today indicated early consideration will be given the relations of the United States with Soviet Russia. Formal announcement of any change in relations of the two countries or in the rulings of the Wilson administration may not be made for some time but it was made clear that already certain modifications of these rulings are either under consideration or have been made. Decisions were reached on an independent appeal by the Soviet government to President Harding and American government for resumption of trade relations. That appeal reached the state department today from the White House.

In the event of an agreement between the United States and Soviet Russia, it was indicated no technical bars will be placed against entry into the United States of a delegation which a Moscow wireless to London said the Soviets proposed to send here to negotiate a trade agreement.

32ND DEGREE MASONS TO MEET.
All thirty-second degree Masons are expected to meet Thursday from 5 to 7 p. m. at Masonic hall, to observe the Maundy Thursday feast. Attendance is said to be obligatory.

GERMAN WON'T PAY BILLION MARKS DUE NOW

Disputes Commission's Figures Showing 12,000,000,000 Due May 1.

By Associated Press
PARIS, March 23.—Germany refuses to pay 12,000,000,000 marks due this date and disputes the reparations commission's figures showing a balance of 12,000,000,000 marks due May 1, in a reply today to the recent ultimatum of the allies. The reply maintained that 20,000,000,000 marks which the peace treaty provided must be handed over by May 1, has been more than paid. The note asks that the joint commission on exports fix the value of German deliveries but declares that in any event it will be impossible for Germany to pay 12,000,000,000 marks by the first of May.

BANDITS GET BIG LOOT ON KATY SPECIAL

International News Service
MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 23. Police and railroad officers today continued a search for three bandits who held up the Texas Special of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway three miles south of McAlester, last night. The men, masked, went through the cars and at the point of revolvers robbed the passengers of their jewelry and cash. The loot is said to be near $3,000.

DAUGHERTY WILL SCRAP A BUNCH OF PRE-WAR MACHINERY

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Attorney General Daugherty has decided to reduce the department of justice to a "peace footing." War agencies built up as part of the legal machinery are to be abolished. Justice Vernon N. Fleet, designated by Mr. Daugherty as department reorganizer, today began the task of dismantling some of the routine agencies created for war work.

FERTILIZER PRICES SMASH DOWN AGAIN

LANSING, Michigan, March 23.—A second smash in fertilizer prices, supposed to be an impossibility, has been accomplished by the purchasing department of the Michigan Farm bureau through its special fertilizer connection. This, together with the reduction obtained in January, will save Michigan farmers more than half a million dollars this spring, based on an average saving of about $9 a ton on the estimated annual requirement of 60,000 tons.

EGGS TWO BITS!

International News Service
FORT WORTH, March 23.—Eggs were retailing here today for 25 cents a dozen, five cents a dozen more than the pre-war price.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RE-EMPLOYS MEN

International News Service
HOUSTON, March 23.—Eighty per cent of skilled and unskilled labor on the Southern Pacific lines, including 1,700 men in the Houston shops who had been notified of a layoff on March 21, appeared for work today. "It has been decided we will continue the present forces at the present time," offices of the company announced.

DEATH OF MEMBER, ANOTHER'S INSANITY, ROUSES UNIONS IRE

Asks Officers, Citizens and Candidates to Line Up for Fight on Mercenary Traffic in Poisonous Beverages.

War has been declared on "jake joints" and alleged drug stores whose main business is selling this high powered beverage by the Carpenters' and Joiners' union of Ranger. This action followed the death several days ago of James Lewers, one of its members, which is said by them to be the direct result of drinking an excessive amount of this drug and other poisons. The carpenters not only have declared war on the sellers of the concoction but they have called upon officers of the law to suppress the traffic and have thrown out a challenge to them to do it. They also have asked candidates for city offices where they stand on this issue, and ask the co-operation of all good citizens. In a communication to the public they have this to say:

Insane From This Poison.
"Only a few weeks ago a carpenter, who was a member of our local union, was committed to the hospital for the insane, the direct cause being alcoholic poisoning."
"This man had bought his liquor under several guises, but containing enough poisons to do the work."
"These various brands of booze are sold in Ranger in places known as "drug stores" and by persons "in and out" of business known as bootleggers."
"Drug stores which do not sell illegally are not included herein."
"The Ranger Times of March 19 records the death of James Lewers on Thursday at the Ranger hospital. He is survived by a wife and two daughters, living at Hanna, Okla."

OPERA RECITAL SATURDAY TO BE AT M. E. CHURCH

The opera recital in Ranger Saturday night under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce will be given at the First Methodist church auditorium, it was decided last night. On this occasion, the Leiter Light Opera company, of five members, a contralto, soprano, tenor, baritone, and pianist, will render selections from the best known operas, including "The Mikado," "La Boheme," "Robin Hood," and "Il Trovatore," and also will present a light, catchy musical farce, "The Philosopher and the Lady," which was accorded an enthusiastic reception when they appeared in it last summer. Tickets for this event are now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce. The prices are 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for school children. The Leiter Light Opera company comes here as one of the series of entertaining yet instructive and educational attractions which the chamber is sponsoring.

SUCH STYLES! MOST AWFUL! UN-LAWFUL!

LONDON, March 23.—The British government, shocked at the styles of women's clothes for 1921, has decided on censorship. Government control of women's bathing suits has been approved by Dr. Addison, minister of the public health, who has been appointed bathing costume controller. A circular letter has been sent to authorities at seaside towns making it an offense for persons of either sex to wear garments which do not extend from the neck to within four inches of the knee.

BOOTLEG PROSECUTOR HAD 'D. T.' IN COURT

By Associated Press
LINCOLN, Neb., March 23.—Gov. S. R. McKelvie has ordered the suspension of County Attorney Richard J. Millard of Cedar county on a mass of evidence, including a statement from State Deputy Sheriff R. N. Fulton that Millard was suffering from delirium tremens last Tuesday while trying bootlegging cases. The charges were supported by affidavits from a number of Hartington, Neb., citizens.

Governor McKelvie has ordered Attorney General Clarence A. Davis to file removal proceedings in the district court. Before the proceedings are filed, the county attorney will be given an opportunity to resign, it was said at the attorney general's office. The suspension order becomes effective immediately. Supporting affidavits were furnished the governor by Sheriff E. E. McFadden of Cedar county, State Sheriff Guss Hyers and Secretary H. H. Antles of the state department of public welfare.

STEEL FURNACE COLLAPSES; THREE MEN ARE KILLED

International News Service
HARRISBURG Pa., March 23.—Three laborers were killed and three seriously injured at the Steelton plant of the Bethlehem Steel company when a furnace collapsed today. The men were buried under huge masses of hot brick and heated metal. Their bodies were so badly burned that identification was altogether impossible. One man is still missing. The cause of the collapse is not known.

WITNESSES IN 'EMPTY GRAVE' CASE TESTIFY

BY W. HAMILTON WRIGHT.
Times Staff Correspondent.
ASPERMONT, Texas, March 23.—The case of the state against E. J. Cochran, charged with swindling the Southwestern Life Insurance company of Dallas out of $5,000 in connection with the "empty grave mystery," in which the defendant was supposed to have died, being buried and later his grave being opened, revealing no coffin, was resumed this forenoon after the court recessed yesterday when one of the jurymen, became ill. V. K. Mather and P. C. Creamer, officials of the Southwestern Life Insurance company, testified to the application made for policy in the company, of its payment upon prospective evidence of death and of later finding that Cochran was not dead. Judge J. L. Chenault, former justice of the peace, testified as to signing certain papers in the case, on which the widow of the defendant is purported to have received the premium on the policy. Roy Riddle, Cashier of the First National bank and notary public, testified as to paying for the wife of the defendant the premium on the policy. Dr. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the Methodist church, testified to preaching the funeral sermon for the defendant, as well as reading the ritual. Dr. William Jordan, physician, stated that he gave the defendant medical attention several hours before his "death" was reported and learned the following morning that he was dead when he had prepared some medicine for him. He said that Cochran had suffered from influenza and appeared not to be in bad condition when examined. Pat Anderson, the man who hauled the coffin to the Cochran place, testified as to seeing the defendant as he lay upon the cooling board, presumably dead. At the time he believed him dead.

CLASH IN IRELAND RESULTS IN EIGHT SINN FEINERS DEAD

By Associated Press
DUBLIN, March 23.—Official announcements were made here today that a state police inspector and eight men were ambushed near Dingle Tuesday. A fight ensued which lasted three hours and ended disastrously for the attacking party, eight of whom were killed and twenty wounded. Three policemen were slightly wounded, it was stated.

HARVESTER CO. WAGE CUT AFFECTS 45,000 EMPLOYEES

International News Service
CHICAGO, March 23.—Wage cuts ranging from 5 to 20 per cent and affecting every one of its 45,000 men and women, including executives and office force as well as workers, were announced today by the International Harvester company under a program of reconstruction based upon "an expert analysis of living costs, business possibilities and workers' incomes."

CLARA'S UPLIFT PLANS OPPOSED

By Associated Press
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The Allied Amusement industries of California, composed of representatives of motion picture theatres, went on record today opposing the appearance in the films of Clara Hamon. Following her acquittal by a jury in Ardmore, Okla., on a charge of murder in connection with the shooting of Jake L. Hamon in that city, Clara announced that she had signed a contract with a concern backed by Oklahoma parties, and would be paid the sum of $25,000 down. She declared it was her ambition to carry a moral lesson to the young women of the country through the medium of motion pictures.

CITY WILL BUY CAR LOAD OF SEWER PIPE

A car load of sewer pipe will be ordered by the city commission for the purpose of extending dead ends of the sewer lines and otherwise making extensions. This action was decided upon at a regular meeting yesterday of the board of city commissioners. An ordinance was presented making it unlawful for anyone to dump trash in the city limits at any place other than the city dumping grounds. The ordinance was not passed because it set out that a fee of 50 cents should be charged for each load of trash that was accepted at the disposal plant. This fee was considered too much by the board since it would apply equally to a small load as to a large one. It recommended that the price be based on a sliding scale with the maximum of 50 cents.

MAN ESCAPES DEATH IN TRAIN-AUTO CRASH

ALAMEDA, Cal., March 23.—J. B. Richardson had a narrow escape from death late last night when an automobile in which he was riding at Lincoln avenue and Everett street was struck and demolished by a Southern Pacific train. Richardson was thrown clear of the wreckage and escaped with minor injuries.

RANGER GIRLS BARGAINS AT $1.50 TO $12.50

The Home Missionary society at its auction sale of girls last night realized $75 through the brilliant efforts of Col. Rufus Lackland, auctioneer. Because of the inclemency of the weather only seventeen girls were present; however, there was a girl for every man with seventeen of that species present and accounted for.

In every sale the auctioneer was careful to explain that his wares had never been sold before. At least he qualified himself by saying he had never sold them before. Under the hammer they brought from $1.50 to $12.50 and were said to be worth the price.

Perhaps from his years of experience the auctioneer saved the best until the last and she brought the highest price of all. With every sale went a bunch of good things to eat which was later spread in the Methodist church auditorium, where the sale was held, in picnic style. The ladies of the society expect to repeat the sale at some future date when the weather is more favorable.

"You admit writing these letters to that young lady of the chorus?"

"Yes," said the millionaire defendant in a breath of promise suit.

"Ah! And these hieroglyphics at the bottom of each letter are kiss marks, no doubt?"

"No," said the millionaire, with a grim smile, "what you see is merely Chinese for 'Yours sincerely.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

SNAPPY STUFF!

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Congressional authorities agree that Charles G. Dawes of Chicago is the author of the government printer's "Best Seller." The supply of copies of his testimony before the House war investigating committee, it was reported today, long has been exhausted, yet demands still pour in by every mail.

Everybody, including dignified members of the Senate, sought to read the lurid remarks of General John F. Pershing's former purchasing chief in the original.

They were unaware, apparently, that the official blue pencil had operated on the "Jamms" and "hell-and-Marias" and similar illustrations General Dawes employed. A new edition may be necessary, it was said.

PROGRAM

TEMPLE—"The Furnace," all-star cast and Universal Comedy. LIBERTY—Owen Moore in "The Great Accident," also "Love's False Faces," Mack Sennett comedy, and "The Double Adventure."

Barney Couldn't Pass Up a Chance Like That—

By BILLY DE BECK

TEMPLE. In point of story, cast, costuming, setting and atmosphere "The Furnace," produced by Wm. D. Taylor for Keaton, which will be the feature attraction at the Temple theatre today only, contains all the fundamental quantities which point to an unusual picture, it is unquestionably one of the most spectacular, both in theme and in scene, that has been released for sometime.

Some magnificent settings have been reproduced. These include an exterior replica of the famous church of St. Mary's of London, where the wedding of the picture takes place. There is a large and rich setting representing the interior of the hotel at Monte Carlo. Some of the social functions show elaborate homes and ball-room scenes.

The cast is all-star, and in it are numbered some of the most popular players on the screen. Agnes Ayres plays the role of Polly Vallance with exquisite charm. She is a stunning woman and wears some wonderful gowns. Jerome Patrick carries the leading male role. Others are Betty Francisco, late of the Follies, Theodore Roberts, Milton Sills, Helen Dunbar and others.

The title, "The Furnace," refers to the strife, unhappiness and suspicion that are inevitable in marriages which are based on selfish motives instead of love. Anthony Bond and Polly Vallance, on the occasion of their marriage, which is one of the most gorgeous affairs in London society, are perhaps the most envied couple in England. She is a favorite actress and he is a wealthy Canadian and social lion.

On the very night of their wedding, however, a barrier is raised between them when Anthony tells his bride that she had heard before the marriage that she said if he jilted her she would sue him for breach of promise and she thought it would be cheaper to marry her. The complications that arise from this situation make a gripping drama.

POLAND IS TRYING TO BUILD MERCHANT FLEET

WARSAW, March 23.—Polish statesmen are trying to find a way to build up a fleet of merchant vessels to ply the seven seas. Pushed back from the salt water when Poland lost her independence and was partitioned by Prussia, Russia and Austria, the new republic, by the treaty of Versailles, was granted an outlet to the Baltic.

The Polish government is aiding the private concerns to finance the operation of several vessels plying chiefly between England, French and Holland ports. Other firms are extending the service to America.

Poland's ministry of war has just purchased four monitors as the foundation of the Vistula fleet. Six torpedo boats, assigned to Poland by the council of ambassadors, formerly having been a part of Germany's naval forces, are now undergoing repairs in England.

A navy bureau of the ministry of trade and industry has been formed by the Polish government and a naval school has been established at Tcheff, or Tezew (Polish spelling) on the Vistula, just outside the limits of the free city of Danzig. The course of the academy is to be conducted along lines of modern English naval

FARMERS OF PARKER COUNTY SAVE BIG SUM ON CAR OF CHICKENS

WEATHERFORD, Texas, March 23.—Although the Parker County Farm bureau is a new organization, its first co-operation deals have amounted to a saving of hundreds of dollars, according to C. E. Holtzclaw, secretary-manager. The two successful deals negotiated were the purchase of Irish potato seed which resulted in a big saving to the members, and the sale of a car of hens at prices that amounted to $1,200 more than the price that would have been received for the hens in small lots.

"To further substantiate our statement about the sale of the hens," Mr. Holtzclaw said, "I will say that when we began getting up our car, hens were selling on the local market for 14 to 16 cents per pound in small lots. Notwithstanding a decline in the general markets of the North and East at the time we sold our car, we got 22 cents a pound clear for our members, and a sufficient margin above that price went to the bureau to take care of the extra expense of the deal. In this transaction, we had the hearty support of our county agent, Robert C. Withers, and the State Warehouse and Marketing department.

COURTED GRASS WIDOW; EX-HUSBAND OBJECTED; CASE IN COURT RESULTS

EASTLAND, March 23.—The case of the State of Texas vs. Enoch Kimbrough, on trial in the county court, resulted in a verdict of not guilty for the defendant. Kimbrough, who lives at Cisco, was charged with carrying a pistol, the charge growing out of a case in which Kimbrough had been paying attention to a grass widow, and her former husband objected, resulting in a wordy war, and a charge against Kimbrough as above noted. Kimbrough proved that he was not armed at the time as charged and was acquitted.

HAD SUFFERED 15 LONG YEARS STATES JOYNER

Tar Heel Farmer Says It's Nothing Less Than Wonderful Way Tanlac Has Helped Him. "It's a fact two bottles of Tanlac have done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in fifteen years," said A. B. Joyner, a well-known farmer of Walnut Cave, N. C., R. F. D. No. 4.

"Up to the time I began taking Tanlac I had not been able to eat a square meal in fifteen years without suffering afterwards. After eating I would have an awful stuffed-up, bloated feeling, and at times my breath seemed to be almost cut off. Sometimes I had such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I would nearly double up, and I was so restless I could never get a night's sound sleep.

"I just tried nearly everything, but kept going from bad to worse until my farm work got to be an awful drag to me. I finally got to reading about Tanlac, and decided to try it. "What two bottles of this medicine have done for me is nothing less than wonderful. My appetite is splendid already and I never feel a touch of indigestion. I sleep like a log every night and am feeling just fine." Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by Butler Drug Co.—Adv.

HOLY LAND POLICE MAKING EFFORT TO EXTERMINATE BANDITS

JERUSALEM, March 23.—Bandits have flourished in the Holy Land as well as in other parts of the world since the beginning of the war. The police are now trying to put an end to their activities. Abdul Hadi Kaha, the notorious outlaw leader, who is said to have several murders to his own personal credit, was shot and killed at Zichron Jacob recently while attempting with several companions to escape arrest. The Galilee district police, in cooperation with the authorities of Ajlun, successfully attacked the Speitan section of the Mudeira's gang of bandits at Kafr Abil and captured several of them. Mudeira himself is a fugitive on the other side of the Jordan and it is believed that his followers are scattered.

THANKS.

Mr. C. R. Knight, discoverer of the shale deposit from which the little vase at the Chamber of Commerce was made, sends us a miniature flower pot of the same material, for which we are duly appreciative. It will make a fine paper weight and at the same time give loquacious visitors from Eastland and elsewhere something to admire.

Seriously speaking, it is something of a shock to have someone express appreciation of our utterance of opinion—or comment of any sort. It happens so seldom. It is a pleasant shock, of course, for everyone likes occasionally to know that he pleases at least a portion of the people whom he is working to please. We thank Mr. Knight, and if he will call around after the weather gets warmer, we'll reciprocate with a cold drink of the very soft variety.

Of course, newspapers of today are business institutions and not mediums of expression for the editor's opinions. We would hate to be absolutely buried under loads and loads of bouquets because we have said something that folks agreed with. That would tend to turn a man's mind from the main business, which is purveying news as quickly and accurately as it can be obtained, in order that the reader can form his own opinions.

However, it is nice at times to hear from somebody who agrees or even disagrees with the efforts in this column, even occasionally. It proves to us it is read, which we had been sometimes inclined to doubt, because of the choice gems of literature with which it has been favored and which have passed by apparently unnoticed and unsung. We wish unwept could be added to the above sentence, but have doubts as to its accuracy.

Having something to say about something every day is a somewhat trying task, about like lying under harassing fire. Just as sometimes there were no dupoints in which to hide from one, there are sometimes no ideas to cover the other. The reader who has read this far may well suspect this is one of those occasions.

However, every once in a while the Times does have something to say in these columns; some expressions which it believes will be good for the city and the territory of which it is a part. Therefore we have it with us every day. Otherwise, it might well give way to a comic "strip" or something else of daily importance.

In this connection, it might again be pointed out that the columns of the Times are open to all readers who feel moved to comment upon conditions or plans or anything like that. Unfortunately, most communications are not printable for one reason or another. There are a few rules which the paper feels must and should be observed in these communications. One of these is the fact that they must be clothed in printable language, which is frequently not the case; persons and organizations are often denounced in terms which the writer certainly would not send through the mails over his own signature. He should not expect the Times to print them.

And we like to print communications verbatim, if at all. To edit them, it would often be necessary to destroy the sense of the argument, and really misrepresent the writer's opinion. This the paper does not desire to do. It seeks to suppress no man's opinion if it is clothed in sensible language.

Lastly, why will not contributors sign their names? Is it modesty, or do they fear to be responsible for their opinions? Whatever the cause, nine-tenths of such communications are unsigned and we cannot print them, as we need the signature for our own protection or information. It will in no case be used if the writer does not desire it, but the Times feels it is entitled to know.

RIPPLING RHYMES By WALT MASON

THE WHALE. The other day I saw a whale, the first my old eyes ever viewed; It frolicked on the waters pale, and made me think I must be stewed. For I was gazing out to sea, my mind concerned with fancies light, a book of verses on my knee, and not prepared for such a sight. It seemed a gay and happy fish, a very optimistic whale, and made the water go ker-swish, whenever it flapped its giant tail. An ancient seaman at my side looked on, with trouble on his brow; "The whales are getting scarce," he cried, "we do not often see them now. The whale you see may be the last, where countless thousands used to lurk; they're killing off the poor things fast—machinery now does the work. The risky life seemed good to me when I fought whales, in bygone years, but now they butcher whales at sea as K. C. packers butcher steers. The good old monsters of the deep don't have a chance to keep their goats; the harvesters go forth to reap the whales as farmers harvest oats." They used to haunt this sunny coast, you'd see them any winter day; but they have yielded up the ghost, they're killed and canned and shipped away." And still the whale seemed void of care, from every dread and trouble free; it stood on end and leaped in air, and gambled in a silver sea.

KILL TIMBER WOLF NEAR KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, March 23.—A great gray timber wolf, who came down out of the rolling western plains to prey upon sheep in Jackson county, has been slain on the edge of Kansas City. The wolf, which roamed through farmyards and poultry pens over a space of forty square miles for three weeks, was shot to death by Ernest Carey, a coon hunter.

The wolf, according to William Rob, whose farm adjoins the eastern city limits, had even invaded the eastern edge of the city in its search for food. The animal had killed several sheep on Rob's farm when the latter appealed to Carey.

Carey set loose a pack of eight coon hounds on the wolf's trail. The hounds chased the wolf out of a timber hiding place and ran him to earth a mile from a street-car line. Carey, who followed the hounds, easily shot the wolf.

He received $10 in scalp rewards, the first paid here for a wolf in five years.

Tinker Bob Stories by Carlyle H. Holcomb

SILKY LOOKS FOR MR. ANT BEAR

"Well," said Tinker Bob, "is there anyone in the Forest of the South that you want to see before we go on the long journey?" "O King, there is someone I want to see very much before we go to the Great Forest of the North. It is my friend Mr. Ant Bear, but I don't know where in the world to find him. I know he is where the ants are. I do want to see him so badly. Will we have time to find him, O King?"

"Here comes a fellow who might tell us where he is. I know this much, he will be the one to know more about Mr. Ant Bear than anyone I know." "But I don't see anyone coming O King, where is he?" "Well don't you hear him?" Silky listened to see what he could hear.

"Thief, thief," that's the cry he heard and he knew at once that Jerry the Jay was coming near. "Come here, Jerry," cried Silky at the very top of his voice. You see Silky and Jerry could get along very well for Silky knew just how to get Jerry to tell everything he knew.

Jerry came and sat on a limb not far away from the place where the King and Silky were eating their breakfast. "I'll give you something where my friend Mr. Ant Bear is this morning." "Thief, thief, I'm nearly starved to death," said Jerry. "Let me have something to eat first, for I can't talk very good till after I eat." Silky knew all about that and he wouldn't give Jerry anything to eat. "I know all about you, Jerry and I know you must be very hungry but I must know where my friend is before you can have anything to eat from our table." And it was a real table too, for Tinker Bob had found a smooth log and he was on one side while Silky the Monkey was on the other. They had coconuts and oranges, and bananas for breakfast for the fellow who had tried to harm poor Silky gave them a supply of food that would last a long time. All of this looked very good to Jerry and he wanted some. "I'll have to think," said he, "for I don't just remember where I saw Mr. Ant Bear the last time." Then Mr. Ant Bear thought of something "Thief, thief," he cried, "look there, that looks like him. I'm not sure but it seems to be a fellow that resembles him, at least."

Now Silky was so anxious to see Mr. Ant Bear that he didn't wait for anything, but at once started away in the direction that Jerry pointed with his wing. You know that was just the thing Jerry wanted him to do, and he at once started to eat the food that Silky left on the log. He surely did eat fast. I think he knew it would be wise to eat rapidly for Silky would soon return, for when he had searched about for Mr. Ant Bear there was no one to be found. When he came back to find Jerry eating his food there was trouble.

LOOKS LIKE NOBODY GETS A VOTE IN JAPAN

TOKIO, March 23.—Commenting on the movement to give women the right to attend political meetings the Yozudzu says it has been frequently asked how long the Japanese are going to treat half-heartedly those questions having for their object the elevation of the social and political position of women. There are some who argue that the enfranchisement of women in Japan is premature, considering that even manhood suffrage has not become an accomplished fact. It should be remembered, however, that the withholding of manhood suffrage is as unreasonable as denying it to women.

The newspaper continues: "There are a large number of women in this country who as their heads of business houses, employ many men and women and pay a large share of the taxes; but suffrage is withheld from them simply because they are women. This is especially unfair in a country like Japan, where the qualifications of voters are determined by the amount of taxes paid. That all the bills regarding women meet with indifferent treatment in the Diet, must be due to the fact that many

BAD LANDS OF SOUTH DAKOTA WORLD FAMOUS

RAPIDS CITY, S. D., March 23.—That the "badlands" of South Dakota are the most famous deposits of their kind in the world is attested to by President Cleophas C. O'Hara of the State School of Mines here, who has made an extensive study of the region in his geological research work.

Aside from their picturesque topography, their wonderful array of towers, pinnacles and precipitous gulches, they tell a marvelous nature story, according to the professor. There is a story of strange climate, strange geography and strange animals; of jungles and marshes, and tranquil rivers; of fierce contests for food and life and supremacy and of a series of events through which ages of well-laid plans which no human being helped or interfered in the ages of time showing the working out making.

Most people know infinitely little about the Dakotan "badlands," Professor O'Hara avers, in comparison with what there is to be known. He claims there were camels in the Black Hills years before there were camels in Egypt; that horses, at first only a little larger than ordinary American cottontail once dwelt there, starting in life with five toes on each foot and gradually lost all but one, while growing into the animal of today. Professor O'Hara contends his research discloses that rhinoceroses, tigers, giant pigs, crocodiles and countless thousands of turtles once roamed the swammy country now known as western South Dakota.

THE WOMAN WHO SAW

"Parlez-Vous?"

It has been some years since the Woman saw Paris last, but wistful memories of Rumpelmeyer's at tea time, of gala nights at the Comedie Francaise, of groups loitering in the Luxembourg Gardens, linger still and prompt her now and again to mount a north bound bus to take advantage of the French lectures at Columbia. The lecturer's topic matters not at all, for whether it be French politics or Gallic folklore, is there not the same charm of syllable, the delicately turned phrase, and subtle wooing of the ear that are themselves of the spirit of France? Then, too, there is the additional pleasure of the audience. How many elderly ladies, accompanied by gallant, white haired escorts, lean forward in their chair to miss none of the fine flavor of the speaker's wit. The tired teacher of languages relaxed slowly as her mother tongue becomes no longer a torture of misunderstood idioms but a dearly loved voice out of the past. Here and there is a student, notebook in hand.

But the two young girls who occupied the seats at the Woman's left one afternoon not long ago were not students. Gray Touque and Henna Tam spoke more clearly of the Plaza tea room than of college halls, and as the lecturer waxed didactic on the subject of French communism she could not fail to notice their absorbed interest and to wonder.

The possibility dawned on her that they might be daughters of one of the French consuls, ardent young feminists of the new France that has sprung into being since the war, and she eyed them with increased interest as they sat sharply attentive while the lecturer darted off into a maze of irregular verbs where the Woman floundered.

The white-whiskered old gentleman on her right was frowning and shaking his head in despair. As for the students, they were lost beyond recall. But Gray Touque and Henna Tam leaned forward entranced.

The Woman looked at them with a twinge of humorous envy, remembering Mark Twain's comment that "in Paris even the dogs understood French." Then, as the lecturer paused to take breath, Gray Touque turned to her confidently: "Would you mind telling me," she whispered, "what language he is speaking?" And the Woman still wonders.

THE WHEREFORE OF IT.

The methods of marketing in a Long Island town which the Woman often visits have proved a source of delight. Here the housewife does not follow the prevailing New York custom of dashing to market when it is time to prepare a meal. Indeed, she does not go to market at all; market comes to her. Daily the butcher's wagon stops at the door offering meat and fish for sale; tri-weekly the vegetable man makes his rounds; and more or less irregularly the butter-and-egg man drives up to offer his wares. And each and every one of these merchants transforms the prosaic process of buying food into an affair of leisurely jest and repartee, somewhat rural, it is true, but none the less keen.

Often the Woman proves herself a treacherous guest by marveling openly at the discrepancy between prices here and in New York. Apparently no rumor of the mounting cost of living has reached this little town. On one particular morning it was the low price of eggs that evoked her comment: "How can you sell eggs so much cheaper than we can buy them in New York?"

The old man gave a satisfied chuckle. "I can sell 'em cheaper than any one in this town. You see, ma'am, I don't have to pay anything for feed for my chickens. I got the contract for all the grabbage of the town."

THE MEAL'S THE THING.

The Woman was lurching alone one Monday noon in the Village at an almost clean place where a myriad of passe partout pictures littered the coffee colored walls.

To her right was a slender window that looked out on a crooked street where shop windows showed purple and tangerine against a background of red and brown and green. To her left at the bare table sat two young men and two young women. One wore a pout of discontent.

"I'm disappointed, Walter," she said. "You talked so much about this place that I really expected something. It isn't nearly as nice as the other place." Her voice dropped to a whisper, a stage whisper. "There was atmosphere there," she said dramatically.

"But there's food here," said Walter, grinning appreciably, as he fell to.

"NOBODY CARES"

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Prohibition Enforcement Bureau is likely to be "The Orphan Annie" of the government reorganization. No one apparently wants it and the treasury, under which it is now, is anxious for its transfer.

Asked this afternoon concerning rumors that the bureau was slated to be transferred to the Department of Justice, Attorney General Daugherty admitted that there has been some such discussion. "This happened outside the Cabinet meeting today, so I can tell you about it," he said. "Mr. Hoover and I had a little discussion, and I told him that the prohibition bureau was transferred to my department, I would swap it to him for the shipping board. I believe he is inclined to look favorably on such a trade," the attorney-general added.

MEN NOT HELD IN CASE OF NEW YORK EXPLOSION

International News Service. NEW ORLEANS, March 23.—United States department of justice officers declared today that the five men taken off of the United States shipping steamer Russville are being held on a charge of mutiny on the high seas, and not in connection with the explosion in Wall street, which caused the death of 35 persons and injury of a number of others last September.

The quintet, officers declared, will be questioned in an effort to find out what they know of the New York disaster, but they said, this is a proceeding which would naturally follow the arrest.

'FLUKE' IS KILLING SHEEP IN ENGLAND

By Associated Press. CARDIFF, March 23.—Nearly 20,000 sheep have been killed recently in the Vale of Clwyd by a disease known as "fluke" according to a report to the Welsh Agricultural Council. Experts say the point of attack is in a certain class of snail, and that better drainage of the land is the best precaution against the disease.

THE MEANEST MEAN MAN.

President Edward L. Doheny of the Mexican Petroleum Co. was talking in New York about a mean man. He said: "Like all mean men, he can't help his meanness. Sometimes he tries to be generous, to loose up, but it's no use."

"They tell a story about him. It seems that once, in the bad old days, before the blessing of prohibition descended on us, he invited two men into a saloon. He lined them up at the bar, gave them each a jovial slap on the back and said heartily: "Now, then, which of you fellows is going to have a drink on me?"—Los Angeles Times.

KIPLING'S WILD BOY 'MOWGLI,' FOUND IN JUNGLES OF INDIA

This One Captured by Leopard and Lived With Cubs.

By Associated Press. LONDON, March 23.—A wild boy, resembling in some respects Kipling's character "Mowgli," who was suckled by a she-wolf and grew up to be leader of the pack, has been found in a remote section of India, according to a story told in the Times. In this case, however, the boy is reputed to have been kidnapped by a leopard. He has been recaptured and his father is now keeping a sharp eye on him to see that he does not run away to the woods.

The Times credits the tale to Stewart Baker, who was recently in the undeveloped country round the Cachar hills on the northeast frontier of India where he was in charge of road-mending. It is customary in that region for the villagers to mend roads instead of paying taxes. Mr. Baker asked a villager why he did not do his share of road mending. The man replied that he was afraid to leave his village. His wife having died a short time previously, he had no one to take care of his little "wild son" who, in his absence, might run into the jungle and get lost. Mr. Baker paid the villager a visit and found with him a child about seven years of age, with innumerable white scars of tiny cuts and scratches all over its body. The child's father told him that five years before, the villagers of Cachar had killed two leopard cubs. The mother leopard had prowled about the jungle bordering on the village. A few days later the mother of the child left it lying on a cloth while she went away to reap rice. In her absence the mother leopard carried the child off. The villagers searched for it but could find no trace of it. Some three years later, a sportsman killed a leopard in the jungle. He told the villagers that the leopard had two cubs. They searched the jungle and found the two cubs and with them the missing child. It ran on all fours quite fast, dodged and hid in bushes with great agility and skill and bit and fought with everyone who tried to lay hold of it. It tore to pieces and ate with extraordinary quickness any village fowl that came its way.

mittee has been appointed and has called a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday night, March 24, for the purpose of organizing. The board of directors at a recent meeting authorized the secretary to take the initial step in this direction. It is pointed out that the junior Chamber of Commerce is a national organization and is devoted to problems affecting the young business men of a city. The junior Chamber of Commerce will be a part of the parent body, but will elect its own officers and board of directors, and work out its own destiny. The National Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet in Dallas in May, and it is planned to send a strong delegation from Eastland to the convention. The general organization committee of the new body is as follows: S. L. Bagby, chairman; K. A. Crowley, J. R. Carlisle, A. A. Garrett, Bernard Goldstone, Val Horn, Donald Kinard, S. O. Pottorff, G. P. Parker, Ben J. Reinking and A. W. Russell. The River Moselle, tributary of the Rhine, is known as the "Bride of the Rhine."

BATHTUB CENSUS SHOWS TEXAS FOLKS CLEANER THAN THEY USED TO BE

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, March 23.—Bath tub census returns came to light today. In 1883 information shows there were 58.3 persons for each bathtub in Texas, according to Dr. Manton M. Carrick, state health officer. Latest figures, he said, show that tubs have increased until the average is 6.7 persons for each.

"This increase in the number of bathtubs is a good indication of the advances that have been made in matters of personal hygiene," said Dr. Carrick. "Bathing used to be a weekly chore, something to be endured. With in the memory of many people still living is the recollection of what happened when the bathtub was first introduced. It was lambasted as a menace to democratic simplicity and a danger to health. An ordinance was introduced in Philadelphia—and almost passed to prohibit bathing between November and March. Boston made bathing unlawful except on medical advice. Virginia imposed a tax on bathtub owners of $30 a year. All because the bathtub was new and the public resents a novelty."

UNCOVER SKELETON SAID TO BE THAT OF GUNMAN

International News Service. KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 23.—A skeleton believed to be that of Pete Mankus, killed in a gun battle over a year ago with a posse, has been uncovered here. Three men, at that time, engaged in a running gun fight with a Jackson county marshal and his deputies near the place where the skeleton was found. The bandits were apprehended while they were breaking into a box car and fled, pursued by the posse. The three men hid behind great piles of brush and engaged in a fierce gun battle with members of the posse. Hundreds of shots were fired. After several men had been wounded, two of the thieves surrendered. One of the men was seriously wounded and died a short time later. The other one received a sentence of two years in the penitentiary.

LAYING OF WATER LINE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

CRYSTAL FALLS, March 23.—Fast time is being made by the contractors engaged in laying the pipe line from the Clear Fork of the Brazos at this point to Breckenridge, which will supply the latter city with its much needed water. The line, which is 16 inches in diameter, at the intake station will be slightly reduced every three miles until connected with the 8-inch main line that will supply the Breckenridge townsite.

WOMEN WANT MORE LIBERTY IN CHURCH

International News Service. LONDON, March 23.—Many church dignitaries are alarmed at women's demands for a larger share in church services. At the Convocation of York held recently this fear was voiced by the Bishop of Dunham, who said they would not be content with a career in holy orders which limited their sphere to the functions of deacons. Though the bishop did not say so, he may have had a vision of women aspiring to be bishops. By the decision of the upper house of the Convocation of Canterbury, women are only to be allowed to preach and pray in consecrated buildings to a very limited extent. The Bishop of Bristol made a spirited but vain attack against the limitation to women's liberty. It was not a declaration of principle, he said, but a confession of prejudice.

VOTE FOR W. R. Fleming

NON-PARTISAN CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

TO THE CITIZENS OF RANGER: DO YOU KNOW that Mr. Fleming is President of the Fleming Road Building Co., which company has the largest road building contract ever awarded to any individual, employing approximately 3,500 men and 2,500 teams and having an average monthly payroll of $115,000? DO YOU KNOW that Mr. Fleming is President of the Ranger Baseball Club and that he advanced the money which moved the Baseball Park to a more suitable location, and made it possible for Ranger to maintain a Ball Team this season? DO YOU KNOW Mr. Fleming is a large property owner in Ranger and paid taxes for 1920 to the amount of over $2,000? DO YOU KNOW that Mr. Fleming on his present road building contracts spends from $30,000 to $50,000 monthly with Merchants of Ranger, making him the largest individual buyer in Ranger? DO YOU KNOW that Mr. Fleming promises, if elected, to give an accounting of the expenditures of the people's money at regular intervals DO YOU KNOW that Mr. Fleming is in favor of a cleaner city, morally and otherwise? DO YOU KNOW that Ranger NEEDS a MAN of Mr. Fleming's qualifications at the head of its administration? IF YOU are in favor of a MAN who possesses exceptional business and executive ability, free from any political ties or obligations; a MAN who will refuse to be dictated to by any clique or faction within his party and who has the BACKBONE to give Ranger the class of government it justly needs, VOTE FOR W. R. FLEMING FOR MAYOR, Tuesday, April 5th, 1921.

RANGER POLICE SAY OLD TOWN IS QUIET

The best city in the state and sometimes said by its enemies to be the wildest—passed through the last twenty-four hours without an arrest and no reports of any law-breaking, and for weeks practically the only names that have appeared on the police docket are those who will flirt with death by drinking high-powered concoctions, seeking a kick.
Beyond the usual number of automobiles stolen—and this method of theft has been strangely quiet during the past few days—burglaries have been few and hi-jacking none.

STAUNCH DOMESTIC CRAFT GO TO PIECES ON ROCKS OF OIL FIELD TOWNS, POLICE RECORDS REVEAL

Digging through the archives of the local police station one is amazed at the number of letters from husbands seeking wives; wives seeking husbands; mothers trying to trace lost sons and daughters and sons and daughters seeking lost mothers and fathers. They tell sordid tales of infidelity; tales of lost ambitions; tales of wanderlust and other vagaries to which the human mind is a prey.
Of them all, however, the most pathetic perhaps is one from a 14-year-old daughter seeking her mother. One swiftly passes over the story of how the mother deserted her husband and children and ran away with another man. It is an account too often told; even its sordidness becomes commonplace. But the reader lingers a moment over the pathos of the appeal of the child that she wants to see her mother.
"Please, Mr. Chief—"
"She ran away and left me," the letter recites, "and I want to see her, oh, so badly. Please, Mr. Chief of Police, try and find her for me. I know that she is somewhere in Ranger."
The reader reads no farther. The heart of a child is a sacred thing.

After Thorough Trial a Detroit, Mich., Man Endorses Pe-ru-na

The following letter written from Detroit, Michigan is no snap judgment expressed on the merits of Pe-ru-na, the well-known catarrh remedy, but rather a mature, sober opinion formed after a full year's trial.
This is the way Mr. Michael Fako of 936 East Palmer Avenue, in the Michigan Metropolis, writes: "After using PE-RU-NA for about one year will say I have found it a very good medicine for catarrh. It has helped me a great deal and I am very well satisfied. I have gained in weight, eat and sleep well, my bowels are regular and better color in my face.

"PE-RU-NA has done wonders and to me is worth its weight in gold. I shall continue to use PE-RU-NA as long as I live and recommend it to my friends who are troubled with catarrh."
Nothing can be more convincing than an endorsement of this nature from an actual user. There are many people in every community whose experience, in using Pe-ru-na, has been identical with Mr. Fako's. It is the standby for coughs, colds, catarrh, stomach and bowel disorders and all catarrhal conditions.
Put up in both tablet and liquid form. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

senses for a moment the utter utility of things as felt by the husband of which he writes, and the majestic faith of a woman in "her man" comes over one almost like a benediction.
The letter tells the chief of police that the husband has failed in business and that he has an idea that he is an utter failure in life and he no longer has faith in his ability.
Her Faith Endures.
"Because of this obsession," she writes, "he left home in a despondent mood and I have not heard from him. Because he failed once he has lost faith in himself and thinks that I have, but I know that he can come to the front against all odds. Please find him if you can and tell him to come home to me."
So the appeals run in an unending stream. Each day brings its quota, and in many the heart of humanity is laid bare.

NITRO CANDIDATES START WORK AT BALL PARK WHEN SKIES ARE CLEAR; ALL ON JOBBY APRIL 1ST.

Mooney, Harding, Lovelace and Flock of New Men Already in Town; Pitchers Get First Crack at Getting into Shape; Hamilton Won't Be Here for Six Weeks.

When this dismal brand of weather decides to leave us—maybe this afternoon (being a new comer thirty-odd years ago)—Ranger's own Nitros will be out at the ball park putting the muscles to the test. Training officially starts about the 1st. That is, that is the date on which the ball players' union lays aside its regular hours and puts in a lot of overtime, discovering who has priority. However, a number of the boys are now on hand, and Manager Sled intends to have them out there getting oiled up, at such periods as will not interfere with the Senators. Pitchers, especially, will be on the job, but there are some outfielders and infielders already on the ground, and they also will start in.

"Dude" Mooney, who was the roof on centerfield last year, came in yesterday, ready to go. Dude has been wintering at his home up in Iowa, on the banks of the Mississippi, as Jokesmith O'Brien puts it, and he said yesterday this weather made him feel right at home. "I traveled 1,500 miles to get away from home," he said. Tommy Harding, who has been here for some months, is another member of last year's crew ready to go. Tommy Lovelace and his cousin, a first baseman, blew in last night. Other arrivals are: Keck, last year with Houston, a lad with big shoulders and a fighting grin; Boston of Goldsboro, Texas; Batingfield of Mineral Wells, and Mitchell of El Paso, all pitchers. Singleton, an outfielder from the "Sally" and another league or so, also is here. These men, with two Ranger players, Felker and Wallace, infielder and catcher, will form the first squad. In all, there are four Ranger men who will try out.

Red Hill of last year's moundsmen, is due. The complete list of men signed with the Nitros follows: Pitchers. Harding, Atlantic, Iowa; Keck, Kirkwood, Mo.; Boston, Goldsboro, Texas; Batingfield, Mineral Wells; Hill, Emory, Texas; Mitchell, El Paso, Texas. All these except Red are now on the job. Infielders. Hale, Altus, Okla.; Morris, Fort Worth; Thomas, Geary, Okla.; P. Lovelace, Wolfe City, Texas; Hamilton, Stillwater, Okla.; Little, Cope and Pel-ker, Ranger; Teet Tolar, Ennis. Hamilton, who is coaching Oklahoma A. & M., will not report until after the season opens. Morris, Little, Cope and Tolar will report on the 1st; the others are due in any day. Tolar is really a Ranger boy. He played last year on the Prairie team of the City league.

Outfielders. Charley Clopp, Greensboro, N. C.; Cawthorn, Houston; Kavanagh, El Paso; T. Lovelace, Wolfe City, Texas; Singleton, Oklahoma City; Mooney, Rock Island, Iowa. Singleton, Mooney and Lovelace are here. Clopp will be here on the 1st. Cawthorn, a Houston boy who played at Southwestern U., is helping coach Rice institute, and will not be until May.

Catchers. Cohn, Delhi, La.; Wallace, Ranger, and, of course, Sled himself. Cohn will be here before the 1st. Wallace is ready to step.

With all but two in the fold by May 1, Sled believes he will have the team pretty well lined up by the time the season opens on April 20. There are two Sunday dates in between, and several exhibition games will give the bugs a chance to see what the Nitros can do.

JIM GALLOWAY DAY AT THE BALL PARK SATURDAY

Ex-Nitro Boss Brings Dallas Team Here; Ty Cobb and Tigers Next.

Saturday, the 26th, will be "Jim Galloway day" out at the ball park. On that date the ex-boss of the Nitros will lead his Marines out here from Dallas to match themselves against the Columbus Senators in the last Saturday-Sunday series of the latter's stay. There'll probably be flowers and everything that makes an occasion. Yes, you're right, there'll be something to drink. Pop. Anyway, it's going to be a regular baseball occasion, with a real game and everything. Everybody is going to want to see Jim and Jedy Tate in action again, and will want to form an opinion as to the Marines' chances, as indicated by their play. To date, the Marines have been showing pretty well in the exhibitions, including one 4-2 trimming handed the world's champions. It was a three-bagger by Galloway at a "crossial" moment that accomplished this. Anyway, the team will be a lot stronger than the Fort Worth reverts who were here last Sunday.

Then on Tuesday and Wednesday, Ty Cobb will be out here with his Detroit Tigers for a couple of games to wind up the most brilliant pre-season series ever played in West Texas. The baseball directors are laying plans for even larger crowds on this occasion than when Cincinnati played here on the 13th. Advertising will be spread all through the oil fields and it is probable that special trains will again be run to Breckenridge, to carry fans back to that metropolis.

It is probable that at least one day will be declared a half holiday in order that everybody in the Ranger sector may have a chance to go out and view the big-time ball tossing.

On Wednesday night, the 29th, the Rotary club will honor Rowland and his men with a banquet at Lone Star hall, as an indication of the pleasure their stay has given oldtimers. Cobb and the Tigers also will be guests.

That will be the finale of Ranger's first dip into spring training. The present opinion is that it will not be the last.

Back for Another. "You did me a favor 10 years ago," said the stranger, "and I have never forgotten it."

"Ah," replied the good man with a grateful expression on his face, "and you have come back to repay me."

"Not exactly," replied the stranger, "I've just got into town and need another favor, and I thought of you right away."—Detroit Free Press.

Oh, How Glorious to Be Free From Rheumatism's Tortures!

Just suppose you could be free from your deep-seated, agonizing rheumatic aches and pains, your stiff joints and unsightly swellings! Wouldn't you give anything to get rid of them?

You have doubtless rubbed on outside treatments; most rheumatism sufferers have. Some of these take the edge off the terrible pains for a few hours, but they do not strike at the cause, which nearly always lies in the poisoned, impoverished blood.

When this is so, you need an internal remedy, one that will take out the impurities that are torturing you, one like famous S.S.S., which has relieved thousands of cases of rheumatism all over the country just this way.

Get S.S.S. from your druggist today, and after starting with it write us a history of your case, addressing Chief Medical Advisor, 877 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

TENNESSEE TO KEEP JOHNSON'S MEMORY GREEN

Will Buy and Preserve Building Which Was Once His Tailor Shop.

By Associated Press
NASHVILLE, March 23.—A delapidated little building at Greenville, in Eastern Tennessee, upon the front of which once hung the sign: "A. Johnson, Tailor," and which was the place where Andrew Johnson, the man who succeeded Lincoln as president of the United States, began his business career, probably will be bought and preserved by the state of Tennessee.

A bill now is pending in the Tennessee legislature providing for the purchase of the building and its maintenance as a state relic. Its picture has adorned Tennessee histories for years but the commonwealth has been slow to take steps to preserve the building.

The little tailor shop stands at the corner of East Depot and College streets in the sleepy little town where Johnson, who was born in Raleigh, N. C., emigrated at the age of eighteen. Having served his apprenticeship to a tailor, Johnson opened his first shop in Greenville. After a year he was married to Miss Eliza McCordell to whom lot it fell to teach her young husband to write and undertake other educational preliminaries as Johnson knew only his letters when he became head of his own house, having never attended school a day in his life.

Johnson's political career began as alderman of Greenville. He then served as mayor, was elected to the lower house of the legislature, then state senator, after which to congress, became governor of Tennessee serving two terms, United States senator, military governor of Tennessee, was elected as vice president of the United States and became president upon the death of Lincoln. His final political office was that as United States senator from Tennessee.

Johnson, while governor of Tennessee, once resumed his vocational implements. He had formed a strong friendship in Tennessee legislature for W. W. Pepper of Springfield, a staunch Whig and once a blacksmith. Despite their irreconcilable political creeds the personal relations of Johnson and Pepper were extremely cordial. Pepper became judge of the Seventh judicial district in 1854 and after a visit to Johnson, then governor, set about making a present to his friend, fashioning a shovel which he sent with a note explaining it was intended as a memento of a friendship that was proof against all political differences.

Johnson, to show his appreciation of the token, took up his scissors and needle and made a handsome beaver cloth coat which he pressed and sent to Pepper. It was a splendid piece of workmanship, probably the last of that kind of work Johnson ever did and exists to this day, the property of W. W. Pepper of Springfield, Judge Pepper's only surviving son. The coat was made about eleven years before Johnson entered the White House and the movement to preserve his old tailor shop in Greenville by legislative enactment has revived that story of the tailor president.

OUR JOE MILLER CONTEST.

A Boston reader claims that the oldest joke is the one about the Englishman who took dinner with a Chinese merchant in Canton. The Chinaman could speak little English and the Englishman could speak no Chinese. One of the dishes was a delicious stew made out of mushrooms, onions and a dark, tender well-flavored meat that tasted like duck. The Englishman ate heartily of this stew and then closed his eyes and rubbed his stomach with an air of ecstasy. After this pantomimic tribute to the dish the Englishman said, interrogatively as he pointed to the dish: "Quack, quack?"

The Chinaman shook his head negatively. "No," said he, "Bow-wow!"—Nashville Tennessean.

HAD DONE THAT.

THE SEA CASTS UP ITS SPOILS OF WAR.

A most remarkable after-war incident was the washing up on the rocks at Falmouth, England, recently of two German U-boats. Almost simultaneously the two U-boats were washed up on the rocks a few feet apart. Both had been sunk in some manner during the war.

DOHENY LIKENS ACTIVITY IN MEXICO'S OIL FIELDS TO OLD LEADVILLE DAYS

By Associated Press
GALVESTON, March 23.—Boom days of Leadville, Tonopah and the Klondyke pale into insignificance compared with the activity now being manifested in the oil producing regions of Mexico, declared Edward L. Doheny, president of the Mexican Petroleum corporation, in an interview granted the Associated Press. Mr. Doheny has just returned from an inspection of properties of his corporation, his sixty-ninth visit to the southern republic in the last twenty-one years.

Scenes in the district between Casimiro hill and Tuxpam, Mr. Doheny said, are comparable only to the activity of a huge army. Such scenes were manifest on the great battle line from Switzerland to the sea, where allied troops struggled for four years to bring Germany to her knees.

"But this army is an army on construction, not of destruction," Mr. Doheny pointed out. "Its activities are all designed toward betterment of the human race instead of its destruction."

Describing the change which had come over that portion of Mexico now under development by the great American oil companies, the veteran oil man declared that modern methods and modern sanitation is being taken into primitive towns ranging from a thousand to two thousand years in age. Where jungle fastness were only a few years ago, Mr. Doheny said, the land is now cleared and great windrows of ashes in parallel lines testify to the industry of the army of construction.

Roads to assist in transporting materials and supplies so far flung scenes of activity criss-cross these tracts, and upon them all classes of vehicles are seen. Huge caterpillar tractors, big trucks of the type used by the A. E. F., freight wagons with many span of mules attached and all kinds of lighter cars lend assistance to the railroads in moving materials, food and other supplies to the oil regions.

According to the estimate of Mr.

Doheny, more than 100,000 people are employed by American interests in Mexico. Of these, roughly 95 per cent being native born Americans, with a sprinkling of British, French, Germans and Latin Americans. The capital which is developing this rich coastal oil region, Mr. Doheny said, is in inverse proportion to the figures regarding workers. Ninety-five per cent of the capital invested is American, and virtually 100 per cent of the supplies are shipped from the United States.

In regard to production, Mr. Doheny estimated that the present average is roughly a half million barrels of crude oil daily. This means, in his opinion, that the years 1921 and 1922 will be the banner periods for oil production in Mexico.

The pioneer in Mexican oil development displayed enthusiasm in describing the change that had come with the advent of American initiative and industry. Throughout the districts in which the companies are operating pipe lines costing millions of dollars each, scores of storage tanks, pumping stations, drilling rigs, residences, boarding houses, office buildings, club houses and even school houses and churches are being erected to accommodate the workers in the army of construction.

Asked regarding the future of the Mexican republic, Mr. Doheny said: "A motor trip through the oil region wipes out the question mark in regard to Mexico's future."

ESPERANTO ADDED TO PARIS SCHOOL SYSTEM

By Associated Press
PARIS, March 23.—Esperanto, the artificial language, has been ordered introduced as an elective course in the commercial schools controlled by the Paris chamber of commerce.

The language was studied by a commission whose members reported favorably upon it after several tests. One test was the translation of three complicated documents into French and then translation of the esperanto texts back into French. It was found there was no change in the sense.

The introduction of esperanto in all schools was recommended, not as a substitute for any other language but as a means of communication.

CRYSTAL FALLS DISCOVERS DEPOSIT OF BRICK CLAY

Special to the Times.
CRYSTAL FALLS, March 23.—Although boasting a number of natural resources, Crystal Falls yesterday had another added to her list, this being in the form of a large deposit of excellent brick clay. The deposit, which apparently covers numerous acres, immediately south of the town, was tapped by workmen who are engaged in laying the 16-inch water main from Crystal Falls to Breckenridge. So impressed were the contractors with the fine grade found that immediate steps will be taken to put in a brick making plant.

SCENARIO THEFT BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED
By Associated Press
SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 23.—Assemblyman Baker's bill designed to prevent theft of motion picture scenarios, was favorably reported last night by the senate judiciary committee. It provides a plan for filing copies of scenarios, stories, lectures and sermons with the secretary of state, such copies to be used as prima facie evidence in civil actions to recover damages.

SUCH A RELIEF.

Two American women, one of whom carried an infant of surprising ugliness, entered a London bus. A man who sat opposite them seemed fascinated by the ugliness of the baby, and could not keep his eyes off it. At length the mother, annoyed by the prolonged stare, leaned forward and said, "Rubber!"

The man, unaware that this is the Yankee expression of staring, gave a sigh of relief and replied:
"Thank heaven! I thought it was real!"—Houston Post.

GERMANY HAS ONLY ONE GRAM OF RADIUM

By Associated Press
BERLIN, March 23.—Once the chief producer of radium, Germany now has barely enough to meet the medical needs of the great universities. There is only one gram of radium in all Berlin, and proportionately even less at Heidelberg and other university cities. The shortage is said to be due to the fact that karnothit, used in the manufacture of radium, is no longer imported from America. The Germans say the United States could supply plenty of karnothit, but in view of the low purchasing power of the mark the Germans cannot afford to buy it.
