

INSURGENTS ACT TO END RAILROAD STRIKE

JUDGE TRIES TO SOLVE ROAD COST PROBLEM

Contractors Insist County Estimates on Work Are Too Low.

Road contractors insist that the county estimates of the cost of highway construction are too low.

This has presented a situation which is engaging the attention of County Judge C. R. Starnes. In a letter to the Ranger Daily Times from Eastland, dated April 15, Judge Starnes asks the question: "Shall we change the class of construction or shorten the mileage?"

Judge Starnes' letter follows: "I hand you herewith a copy of a letter which I today received from the contracting firm of Bates & Rodgers. These people are one of the largest contracting firms in the United States and are unusually well qualified to make estimates of costs. They are now doing approximately 100 miles of cement roads for the state of Illinois and about the same amount for the state of Ohio, besides various other contracts in other states.

"We have known for some time that the estimates for our roads were too low, but I was in hopes that they would not be anything like the prices that this letter indicates the bids would be. Nevertheless, we are forced to face squarely the fact that regardless of what we might indefinitely do the roads should cost as we cannot build them for less money than the contractors are willing to work for.

Wants People to Know. "I want the people to be apprised fully of all the facts with reference to the roads, that they may assist us in deciding what should be done. Shall we change the class of construction or shorten the mileage?"

The letter referred to by Judge Starnes was written by E. P. Leatham, vice president of the Bates & Rodgers Construction company. The letter follows:

"After spending several days going over and investigating the conditions which prevail in your county for the building of the various classes of roads which you have in your present program, we have taken what we believe to be your estimated costs of these various roads, estimated cost of 18-foot concrete road, about $42,000 per mile; for 18-foot bituminous road, $25,000.

"We would be very glad to do all this work for the county, but we find, after looking into the source of supply of materials—such as sand and stone, water and the handling of materials—we feel that the estimate costs are far too low.

Contractors' Estimates. "We have gone into the quantities presented and worked up what we feel to be a conservatively estimated cost of the various classes of roads proposed, and we find that your 18-foot concrete road will cost between $80,000 and $65,000 per mile; your 18-foot bituminous road will cost between $40,000 and $45,000 per mile.

"After comparing your estimated costs with what we have found we feel these roads will cost, we are not in a position to make you a proposition to do this work, but if you find after investigating further that you must have the roads and that the county will pay more per mile of road, we will be glad to submit you a proposition to do the work."

State Charities Cost Cut in Half Under New Rule

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, April 17.—Cost of operation and maintenance of the state eleemosynary institutions has decreased from $193,989 to $97,109 per month since the state board of control took charge of these institutions of January 1. The reduction was the result of the co-operation of superintendents of institutions who were called into conference with the board of control during January and asked to reduce purchases to absolute necessities, according to Chairman S. P. Cowell, who has written a letter of commendation to the superintendents.

In this letter Chairman Cowell declared that the total appropriations for support and maintenance of the eleemosynary institutions for the fiscal year are $1,408,900 and that for the first four months of the year, when the board of control assuming management, there has been expended $774,758, or 55 per cent of the entire appropriation. From January 1 to March 1 the expenditures were $194,219, or only 14 per cent of the amount appropriated.

The board urges further economies in view of extraordinary conditions and the advance in prices of all supplies used by the state. The appropriation was based on conditions that prevailed a year ago. In conclusion, the letter says:

"We have no desire to impair the efficiency of any institution, but we trust you will see the wisdom of complete application of the policy so successfully begun, and continue with even greater vigilance to confine your purchases to absolute necessities, and avoid, if possible, applications for deficiencies."

Those Saving Cash Now Will Profit, Says Bank Expert

DALLAS, April 17.—The necessity for "work and save" was never greater than at the present time, K. L. Van Zandt, governor of the Dallas Federal Reserve bank declares. Mr. Van Zandt has just returned from a trip to Washington, where he conferred with treasury department officials.

"Members of the treasury department are concerned over the decreased production and increased credits," Mr. Van Zandt said.

"Money saved now will be worth much more later," he declared, adding that 100-cent debts can now be paid with 50-cent dollars.

"The purchasing power of the dollar is low," Mr. Van Zandt said, "but its ability to pay a debt is as big as ever it was."

COUNTS JAPANESE WOMEN IN HAWAII WHO WILL VOTE

HONOLULU, April 17.—To ascertain how many island-born Japanese women will be entitled to vote when suffrage becomes an accomplished fact, Eben Cushing, chief clerk in the territorial secretary's office, has started revising his index of birth certificates for the past twenty years, and he expects to be six months at least at the task.

Since the territorial government began issuing birth certificates in 1900 there have been 10,642 signed, a great majority by Orientals. Certificates of birth are also issued by the Japanese consulate here, while the registrar of vital statistics in the board of health office records all births reported to the board, or otherwise discoverable within six months of the date of birth. No central repository exists where information recorded in the offices is collected.

SAN REMO, Italy, April 17.—The allied nations will be called upon to maintain a force of 300,000 men in Turkey to insure the execution of the treaty terms recently framed in London, it is understood here.

The Turkish treaty will be considered by the allied supreme council here on Monday.

Greece is willing to send troops into Asia Minor but is understood that there has been considerable objection to Greek participation in Turkish affairs.

PURCHASERS TO ENLARGE LIBERTY ROOMING HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells have purchased the Liberty rooming house, the postoffice building on Rusk street. The property belonged to Mrs. McNutt, who is now manager of the Hotel Bernardo. A seventeen-room addition will be added to the rooming house, Mrs. Wells stated today, making twenty-seven rooms in all. The deal was made through the Crawford Realty company.

TICKET DEMAND ASSURES CROWD TUESDAY DINNER

Delegations From Other Cities Expected—No Fees Solicited.

Arrangements were made today to seat in addition 100 men and women for the Greater Ranger Dinner on Tuesday evening, next, in the Mission Garage at 144 Main street. This was necessary because of the unexpected demand for the tickets.

It was said at the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce campaign today that the certainty of a capacity attendance made it highly desirable that those who wish to be present secure their reservations without delay, for when the tickets for the comfortable seating of the garage have been disposed of the committee will stop their sale. About 500 are already out. The reservations may be made at the Chamber of Commerce and at the campaign headquarters.

The dinner, aside from being the formal launching of the expansion and reorganization movement of the Chamber of Commerce, will be notable from the character of the attendance. Men and women prominent in Ranger will have opportunity to meet and entertain a considerable number of the leading men in this whole section.

Proud of Ranger and its advancement in a year, the Chamber of Commerce has sent special invitations to attend the dinner and see Ranger in action, to the officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the presidents and prominent men in the chambers of commerce in all West Texas cities.

In addition to assurances that many of these men are coming, the committee has received acceptances from delegations from Eastland, Cisco, Necessity, Breckenridge, Caddo, Abilene and Baird. Ranger has never had so favorable an opportunity to show its neighbors that it has both a social life of the finest type and a highly developed spirit of business enterprise. The dinner therefore, in the opinion of the men who have worked hard for its success, will mark a notable night in Ranger's history.

There will be "community singing" under the leadership of Rev. Charles M. Collins of the Presbytery church. Those who attended the civic conference a week ago and saw the success which attended the efforts of Mr. Collins to break down the early formality of the meeting will agree with the members of the committee who believe that singing "by the crowd" is going to become an appreciated feature of the meetings of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Leave your fountain pen at home," is the word of the campaign committee, "for there will be absolutely no solicitation of memberships in the new Chamber of Commerce at the dinner." This will be reserved for the following day and the two next, when the team organization will make a systematic canvass of the citizens.

D'ANNUNZIO MAKES BOLD HEADS POPULAR IN THE ITALIAN ARMY

FIUME, April 17.—(By Mail.)—Gabriele d'Annunzio's bald head has set the fashion for the officers of his little army, many of whom have shaved their craniums and are endeavoring to grow miniature Vandike beards as copies of the poet's hair adornment.

The Fiume aviators have adopted the craze with greater zeal than other branches and call themselves "Iron Heads." Youthful officers in their teens and early twenties have shaved their heads and are wearing little pointed beards in an effort to look as much like the poet as they can.

FIGHTING CONTINUES BETWEEN RUSSIAN AND JAP FORCES

VLADIVOSTOK, April 17.—Heavy fighting between Russian and Japanese forces continues at Khabarovsk, on the Amur river. Both sides are suffering heavy casualties.

Arrests of Russians by Japanese in Vladivostok continue, but the government buildings are being returned to the Russians and the red flag is reappearing.

RAILROAD STRIKE HITS COUNTRY HARD

THE pictures illustrate the out-of-law railroad strike which is tying up the great traffic centers of the country. The strike started when John Grunau was replaced as conductor of a Milwaukee road train carrying workmen to Chicago. The walkout began as a protest against Grunau's removal.

The upper picture shows how the strike has overwhelmed the parcel post division of the Chicago post-office. Because of the express tie-up caused by the railroad strike packages formerly shipped by express are now being sent by mail.

Other county officers receive payment of their fees under convict bonds upon the approval of the county auditor and without consent of the

CHICAGO, April 17.—Just when it seemed that the insurgent strike was to be declared at an end at a meeting here this afternoon, a new and serious deadlock came. The striking switchmen were called together for the purpose of receiving advice to return to work. Instead the demand of the insurgent unions were reiterated. This brought proceedings to a standstill.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The railroad strike here will be called off, it was reported today at the headquarters of the Chicago Yardmen's association, the insurgents' union.

A mass meeting of the strikers was called for this afternoon, when their officers, it was said, will advise them regarding return to work.

The men will be told, it was said, that their objective had been attained and that wage demands will receive prompt attention by the new railroad labor board. They will also be told, it was said, that the new union would continue, with or without the sanction of the railroads.

CHICAGO, April 13.—An ultimatum issued by the four big railway brotherhoods to the insurgent switchmen, yardmen and other railway employes who have joined in the unauthorized strike gives them until midnight tonight to return to work to avoid penalties which will be imposed by the brotherhoods.

LIBERTY—William Farnum in "HEART STRINGS."

LONE STAR—Dorothy Dalton in "BLACK IS WHITE."

LAMB—"THE VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL."

HIPPODROME—"THE BOSS OF BAR Z."

OPERA HOUSE—"THE HOUSE OF INTRIGUE."

LIBERTY.

Gabrielle and Pierre are brother and sister living in the Ville-Louis in Canada. Gabrielle is tricked into a false marriage by a man who mistreats her shamefully.

Pierre, who is a natural violinist and composer has a wonderful chance to go to New York and make a career. To save his sister Gabrielle's husband, he donates his savings to keep him from prison, thus sacrificing his own ambitions.

Later his dreams are realized.

There are many dramatic points in the play that arouse a responsive chord in the audience. There are others where emotion is overdone.

Little Pierre, the son of Gabrielle by her false marriage, features from the time he makes his appearance until the curtain falls.

The natural actions of the child, from deep grief to his happiest movements, have been photographed and shown in the picture.

THE LAMB.

Gareth Hughes in "The Red Viper." The activities of radicals furnish the theme for many stories and moving pictures now. "The Red Viper," which played at the Lamb yesterday, is of this type. It is a Tyrard picture and Gareth Hughes plays the leading part.

The plot of "The Red Viper" is weak in places and the action sometimes drags. The appeal to the patriotism of the audience lacks spontaneity, and there is too much waving of flags, delivering orations, and wattering circulars pro and anti-Red. Certain bits of acting, however, are good.

LONE STAR.

Dorothy Dalton in "Black Is White." Mother love as a more potent force than years-old determination for revenge furnish Dorothy Dalton with the dramatic motive in "Black Is White," showing at the Lone Star. The interest in the picture arises from the contrast which she draws as an avenging genius and as a mother. She is better fitted to the former role, but shows careful repression in the second.

She is Margaret Brood, loving wife who is the victim of an insanely jealous husband. His jealousy leads to the events which threaten to wreck her life, his own and that of their son.

The story opens with Jim Brood in the African jungle, in a futile flight from pain; Margaret Brood, as Yvonne Strakosch, in Paris, seeking to destroy all trace of her personality as the wronged wife, the son, in New York.

Brood's love of his wife, never overcome by his blind mismanagement, brings the three together, and his jealousy, and doubt of his wife and son, threatens again. But the climax of revenge planned by Yvonne Strakosch is altered by circumstance.

In sharp contrast to this serious story.

OPERA HOUSE.

Would You Take Some Easy Money? At some time in the life of every individual who is struggling for existence, comes the temptation to grab off some easy money, even if the manner of acquiring the coin is not exactly straight and according to the ethics of law and honesty.

In "The House of Intrigue" now playing at the Opera House, just this situation is brought up in the case of a girl who is battling to keep body and soul together in a legitimate way. The opportunity to acquire enough money to make her self-respecting was offered Barbara Preflow, and she jumped at it. She didn't know she was allying herself with a gang of light-fingered crooks and that they were using her as a "chicken-stall."

She couldn't know that the sympathetic girl with the tician locks was "Copperhead Kate," a notorious show-biter, or that the dapper Bud Griswold had his photo hung in the official red series of every police organization in the country. What Barbara did know was that she was hungry, couldn't get work and had been thrown out of her room by a flint-hearted landlady.

When she had a fortune thrust into her hands by Bud and realized that she was party to a theft, she threw away the fortune and the opportunity to grab off the easy money, and then went back to the old battle with the world to try and earn an honest living.

"The House of Intrigue" is a thrilling mystery story produced by Haworth for Robertson-Cole and distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, with a cast including Peggy May, Mignon Anderson and Donald McDonald.

HIPPODROME. Lytell in "Lombardi" Novel Screen Feature. As its special feature attraction, the Hippo will present "Lombardi, Ltd.," the Screen Classics, Inc., super-production, with Bert Lytell as the star, on Sunday. "Lombardi, Ltd." is variously described as a fashion show, a girl show and a highly diverting comedy drama of the screen, with the star in the unusual and interesting role of a male model.

Frederic and Fanny Hatton, most gifted of American collaborators, were responsible for the original stage play of "Lombardi, Ltd.," from which the photoplay was made. On the stage it was presented by Oliver Morosco and ran for a season in New York and more than a year on the road.

Most of the action transpires in the swapper Fifth avenue dress-making establishment of Tito Lombardi, an eccentric Italian genius whose artistic tendencies exceed his business acumen, and who finds himself in dire straits and facing bankruptcy because his faith in human nature has made him too "easy" with defrauding customers.

Alice Lake, Juanita Hansen and Vera Lewis have leading feminine roles in the production. Other beautiful young women in the cast are Thon Talbot, Ann May, Jean Acker, Virginia Caldwell, Golda Madden and Patricia Hannan, the last three being gown models of the "perfect 36" variety. Joseph Kilgour, George McDaniel and Joan Stepping have the remaining supporting parts in the male contingent.

June Mathis adapted the Hattons' play to the screen. Jack Conway directed the production, which was made under the personal supervision of Maxwell Zarger, Screen Classics, Inc., director general. The art interiors were designed and executed by M. P. Stoleim, special technical director for the production.

QUEEN. The Story of Texas Ryan. Jack Parker (Tom Mix), is a devil-may-care "cowpuncher" on the largest ranch in the Lone Star state, owned by Colonel Ryan (George Fawcett). Jack came to the Ryan ranch from "nowhere," a man without a country, but proved himself one of the best fellows in the state of Texas.

Texas Ryan (Bessie Eyton), daughter of Colonel Ryan, has graduated from an eastern college and is on her way to the ranch in Texas. Parker has seen the photograph of a girl he suspects he loves, but whom he has never seen. The day that Texas arrives, the cowpunchers are in town celebrating. It is payday, the one big event in the life of cowpunchers. Parker is gazing intently at the picture of the girl he loves, when a stranger approaches and says: "I reckon the female party you're looking for is the one who just came in on No. 9. You'll find her over at the depot."

Parker makes for the depot and is seen by a band of rustlers whose leader, Antonio Moreno, is an enemy of Parker. Parker is warned that his unkin' hit with the rancher's daughter is not welcomed by the stranger. Parker tells Moreno that unless he leaves the name of Texas Ryan alone there will be one less rustler in Texas.

This movie is all that we can tell you. The picture is showing today only, so if you wish to know the whole story—see it at the Queen.

MRS. CALHOUN WINS IN EASTLAND SUIT. EASTLAND, April 15.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Jennie Calhoun against J. F. McWilliams and the Eugene Wood Land and Oil company brought in a verdict for the plaintiff yesterday, awarding her in effect the possession of the Calhoun building on the northeast corner of the court house square in Eastland, and $750.

The plaintiff claimed that this brick building was her personal property and that she had made no rental contract with the defendants or either of them. The defendants claimed to be holding over on a former contract and thus had a legal right to continue in possession of the building another year.

MANICURIST SUES RICH NEW YORKER FOR $100,000 BALM. When she had a fortune thrust into her hands by Bud and realized that she was party to a theft, she threw away the fortune and the opportunity to grab off the easy money, and then went back to the old battle with the world to try and earn an honest living.

Miss Harriet Hearn, twenty-eight, manicurist formerly employed at the Grand Central terminal, has filed suit for $100,000 for breach of promise against Hector Havemeyer, wealthy manufacturer well known in New York society circles. She alleges that, though he is married, he promised to wed her and also promised her gifts which she did not receive. Havemeyer says the manicurist was married at the time they were friendly.

THINK ROOMS COLORS AFFECT ONE'S TEMPER. DALLAS, April 16.—The color schemes in our rooms have a tremendous influence on us," Henry J. Davidson, recognized as an authority on interior decorating, told a local art association.

"We react to any room in which we remain any length of time, whether it be in a hospital, an office or in our own home," Mr. Davidson declared. "Some rooms give us an air of contentment, while others are prone to produce restlessness and discomfort.

"Blue is the color favored by thinking men, while red often causes irritation and anger."

FURTHER TEXAS ASSETS.

Although Texas produces more than one-fifth of the cotton of the United States, there are in this state only eighteen cotton mills, with 140,054 spindles, the industrial opportunity bulletin of the Texas Chamber of Commerce points out. This amount is insignificant compared with 39,330,934 spindles in the United States.

Labor conditions for this industry in this state are just as satisfactory, comparatively, as those in other sections. With a population of approximately 5,000,000 people, cotton mills and associated industries, such as the manufacture of clothing, automobile tires, wire insulating materials and the like, offer exceptionally attractive opportunities.

This state produces more than fifty per cent of the mohair produced in the United States and in round numbers, 15,000,000 pounds of wool. All this is shipped to eastern manufacturers, where it is made into cloth and returned in part for our 5,000,000 people. There is not a single wool mill in Texas and only one mill utilizing mohair.

So far as the industrial survey of the Texas Chamber of Commerce has been able to determine, there are no plants in Texas manufacturing corn products, such as glucose and starch; yet in 1919 this state ranked third in corn production, the yield for that year being more than 200,000,000.

By far the greater part of the farm machinery used in Texas is purchased from out-of-state manufacturers. With the establishment of steel mills for utilizing the Texas iron ore deposits, an attractive field for machinery manufacture will be opened.

STEPPING OUT.

Ranger has completed a sewer system comprising thirty-five miles of lines and a disposal plant capable of caring for the needs of a city of 50,000 inhabitants. The cost of the work has been $220,000.

In its expenditure of funds in the neighborhood of a quarter million dollars for sewer lines and disposal, the administration has taken a step that none but the erping economist can criticize. Ranger's growth as a modern city cannot be better laid than on such foundations.

The disposal plant, according to the statement of the company installing it, is second only to one recently completed at Dallas in size and is identical in equipment and operation with that plant.

The work of building a city, Rome or Ranger, is not done in a day. Residents of a newly established trade and home center are prone to impatience in securing all the things necessary to their comfort and the conviction that their city officials are doing all that should be done.

But the fact that Ranger leaders, who have received much criticism, have been active is again brought home by the announcement of the completion of this work.

POLICE DEPARTMENT BUSY ENFORCING LAW REGARDING HITCHING

The police department was busy this morning explaining to folks why they were transgressing the law by leaving their teams standing without being tied to something substantial or, having a weight attached to them.

The law is that any team left standing must be in charge of some one or else be secured to a post or have a weight of not less than twenty pounds attached to it in such manner as to keep it from running in case they become frightened. It is also unlawful to hitch teams to either telephone poles or trees.

The police department is rigidly enforcing this law.

EDUCATION IS HELPING IN CURE OF TUBERCULOSIS

EL PASO, Tex., April 16.—Educational courses as an aid in curing tuberculosis have been inaugurated at two El Paso sanitariums where nearly one hundred former soldiers are under treatment.

The plan is a distinct innovation, according to Charles B. Brooks, co-ordinator for the federal board of vocational training here. Courses selected are of a nature tending to take the minds of tuberculosis victims from the malady, he said, and include public speaking, mechanical drawing, Spanish and elementary subjects. The work is to be of an elementary and pre-vocational nature designed to be followed by regular vocational training when the men become physically able to take it.

POSTOFFICE EMPLOYEES WILL MEET IN WACO

WACO, Texas, April 16.—Postoffice employees of Texas are scheduled to send representatives here to attend a meeting at which recommendations for salary legislation will be drafted and to devise ways and means for co-operating with the national association in the securing of salary legislation for postal employees.

The congressional commission on re-classification of postal salaries appointed a committee of postal employees who met in Washington on March 29 to consider salary legislation. This committee is expected to report soon.

Why You Should Get Behind Chamber of Commerce Drive

Equality of representation, a definite program of work embodying the suggestions of all of the members and a members' forum are three of the important elements which will enable the new Ranger Chamber of Commerce to serve individual needs and promote the welfare of the community, according to those familiar with the plans for the membership campaign next week.

"The man who holds one membership will have one vote in all chamber meetings; the holder of plural memberships, no matter how many, will also have one vote only," it was explained today at the campaign headquarters. "This insures democracy not only in elections, but in shaping the policies of the organization, for the little grocer will have just as much voice as the biggest oil operator, provided he makes as good an argument."

"The making of the program of work will be the most important step immediately following the close of the membership campaign. Every member will be required to make written answers to two questions:

"1. What can the Chamber of Commerce do for the promotion of your business or occupation?"

"2. What, in your opinion as a citizen, should the Chamber of Commerce undertake first for the good of Ranger?"

The answers will be classified, grouped and written into concrete paragraphs, which will then be arranged in the order of their importance as indicated by the members themselves. Thus the directors will be furnished with a definite group of recommendations representing the best thought of the 2,000 members, which suggestions will compose the platform of the Chamber of Commerce.

"It will be as if the members had instructed the directors to set about the doing of certain things and to the doing of those things the citizen members will be committed. The actual execution of the projects will be placed in the hands of special committees, as has been explained at other times since the campaign was undertaken.

"The members' forum, which will be set up at the same time, will be an organization with a double function, to check up progress on the accomplishment of the program of work and to initiate new projects as they come to light in the advancement of the community.

"The chamber invites the opportunity to serve any civic or commercial need; if it has not the information or facilities it knows where to find them and will. One of the best things coming out of the membership campaign will be more general use of the chamber and its facilities by members and citizens for their own good and that of the whole community."

WILL CHANGE THE NAMES OF NINETY DALLAS STREETS

DALLAS, Texas, April 16.—The city commission will act on the suggestion that names of ninety streets in Dallas be changed. The streets changed would be those whose names are confusing with those of other streets.

The committee drawing up the plan suggested that many of the new names be taken after Dallas soldiers who were killed in the world war.

WANTS MEXICANS USED ON FARMS OF TEXAS

WACO, Texas, April 16.—Forest Goodman, in an address before the Young Men's Business league urged that steps be taken to import Mexican labor to work on McClellan county farms. Goodman has just returned from a trip to El Paso and declares that there are plenty of Mexicans willing to accept work in the interior of Texas.

Marrying Parson Vows He's Tired of His Old Job

MUSKEGON, Mich.—Adjutant William John Pesque, Salvation Army leader, who gained some reputation as a marrying parson, says that he will beg for a living before he will take money in the future for marriages.

"I am through," said Adjutant Pesque. "Marriage conditions have been going from bad to worse for months now, and I am heartily sick with moral conditions as they apply to marriages.

"The climax came recently when a woman arrived with her fifth husband and wanted me to perform the ceremony. I refused and I gave her a lecture which caused her to leave quickly for another minister. Then a few days later a girl not yet twenty-one who had divorced her third husband in the local courts, applied for marriage.

"Marriages today is to a man people a juggling game. They change husbands and wives as they would change automobile in the spring. They want the latest model and when the paint is worn they think it is time to discard.

"Women are the worst offenders of the marriage vows. They get married on a dare in the morning and are separated in the afternoon. Dress is considered an important factor today with women. They want to dress, even if it is without food.

"The modern life may be fascinating, but it is disgusting. Infant mortality rates are increasing and more boys and girls are finding their way into the juvenile courts.

"We talk much about sodomy, and it pays us to guard our country and our flag, but we overlook the most important danger to our civilization today, and that is in the home and moral conditions.

"In the future I will marry only personal friends and not until I am satisfied that it isn't creating more work for the lawyers.

"Hell today is being paved with trial marriages. Let us stop and listen a minute without drawing out the course by singing 'Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here.'"

"I notice that a Chicago judge just a few days ago because he was tired of hearing divorces. He is right. Divorce is becoming an asset to the average woman of today. The other day a local justice obtained a divorce for a couple and then came back to his court

FOUND ON TEXAS RANCH

By Associated Press.

THREE RIVERS, Texas, April 17.—The finding of large petrified mastodon tusks weighing fifteen and one-half pounds on a ranch near here promises to open a new field for scientific exploration, according to Ed Mattison, the geologist who discovered it.

Last fall, he said, two other tusks were found nine miles from this ranch, and the importance of these finds comes from the fact that they show the country to be much older formation than accredited by most geological maps.

Belgium, Free From Serious Strikes, Gains

By Associated Press.

GALVESTON, April 17.—A total of Belgium has made progress toward industrial recovery since the armistice largely owing to the fact that the country has had no serious strikes, says M. Jaspers, minister of economic affairs. He estimates that the nation's industrial output one now attained perhaps 70 per cent of its pre-war record and that its mines are producing as much coal as in the year before the war.

"About 70 per cent of our material which was taken out by the Germans has been returned to us," added M. Jaspers. "The money taken by the Germans from the Belgian treasury has been returned but Belgium has thus far received no indemnity from Germany. At the beginning of the armistice 800,000 of our people were without work. Our recovery has been made in spite of the fact that more than one-half of the Belgians who had to flee before the Germans are still in France unable to return because they have no homes here."

Belgian villages destroyed in the war are being rebuilt, said M. Jaspers. In the district of Ypres eighteen villages have been restored to such an extent that local administration has been resumed.

"If the United States would do for Belgium what she has just done for Poland, establish a credit for her most of our problems would be solved," declared the minister of economics.

AUSTRALIA IS BUYING TEXAS CRUDE SULPHUR

By Associated Press.

GALVESTON, April 17.—Because Japan has established, at least temporarily, an embargo on crude sulphur, Australia is looking to America to supply her needs. This statement, given out in shipping circles followed the departure from this port of the British tanker Paer Melbourne with a cargo of 4,500 tons of Texas crude sulphur. The vessel cleared for New Zealand.

Heretofore, according to the shippers New Zealand and Australia have secured this product from Japanese mines. No reason for the Japanese embargo on this product is known by shipping officials.

FOUND ON TEXAS RANCH

By Associated Press.

THREE RIVERS, Texas, April 17.—The finding of large petrified mastodon tusks weighing fifteen and one-half pounds on a ranch near here promises to open a new field for scientific exploration, according to Ed Mattison, the geologist who discovered it.

Last fall, he said, two other tusks were found nine miles from this ranch, and the importance of these finds comes from the fact that they show the country to be much older formation than accredited by most geological maps.

BRITISH EMPIRE UNION FIGHTS INDUSTRIAL UNREST

International News Service.
 LONDON.—The British Empire union is trying to raise 250,000 pounds to fight "industrial unrest" and "Bolshevism," which it declares to be due to teaching false economics at labor colleges. The union believes the vast majority of workers are not revolutionary, and that if Bolshevism propaganda is met with counter-attacks of truth, the menace will disappear.
 The co-operation of employers and similar organizations are asked to cooperate with labor in "removal of grievances, by promoting profit-sharing schemes, by encouragement of high wages based on production and in other ways, as is done in America." Movies will be used.

BROTHERS USE FISTS THEN GUNS IN QUARREL

International News Service.
 TLAQUEAR, Okla., April 17.—George and Carlton Mandkiller, brothers, had an argument here the other day as to whether or not a "jackpot" in a card game had been opened.
 Letting behind a horn they tried to settle it with their fists. At the end of half hour each man bruised and bleeding went his way.
 Meeting on a downtown street a few hours later each man drew a revolver and emptied it at the other. All of the shots went wild.
 Friends say it has not yet been decided whether or not the "jackpot" was opened.
NORTHWESTERN KANSAS FACES PREACHER FAMINE
 International News Service.
 CONCORDIA, Kan., April 17.—A preacher famine threatens in northwestern Kansas as five churches in Phillips county are without pastors. The same condition prevails in Osborne. Church boards are unable to find young preachers who will accept country charges made vacant by the resignations of many pastors. Services in many large churches have been discontinued on account of the preacher shortage.

Colors With Yell Now Win Favor in London Town

LONDON, April 17.—Clothes shrieking with extraordinary colors, adorned by designs of wild tigers, galloping horses or flying birds, everything unconventional and ornate, will be worn by men and women this spring. The Bradford textile merchants are bewildered at the demands for extraordinary clothing designs that the being made of them.
 There is evidence of a violent reaction from the comparatively somber shades which have characterized both men's and women's dress during the dark days of the war. Men who have worn khaki for years are evincing a desire for something brighter, and with the necessity for wearing mourning imposed on almost every family in the land, the womenfolk have remained under painful restraint in regard to the use of the brighter and more becoming shades of material.
 At a recent meeting of the Bradford Textile society, which includes all the experts in the trade, some remarkable prophecies were made about coming fashions. It was declared by one expert that the signs pointed to a reaction to the opposite extreme of the prevailing styles already there were in process of manufacture clothes designed in jazz stripes, cubist checks, and post-impressionist figures.
 While some examples of these remarkable clothes provide a not unpleasant impression, there are others it would be difficult to appreciate adequately except by some people with a highly developed sense of the "artistic."
 One manufacturer of dress goods, when questioned on the subject, said there was no doubt that a violent reaction in taste was developing in regard to textile materials.
 "Up to the present a large part of designs in textiles has been stationary and found in the sale of the past.
 "Every designer formerly obtained his effects from something still—a bird sitting on a bough, a column or some other conventional device. The tendency of the post-impressionist movement, which has its votaries among the creators of materials for clothes, is to create in their designs a feeling of movement.
 "This," he declared, "is only in keeping with the peculiar restlessness which appears to be the result of the war. We live in an age devoted to speed rather than rest; we are in a vortex in which everything is dynamic and nothing static."
 "It is the most complete era of unrest that the world has ever known, and it is quite proper that art should catch something of that spirit and express itself in a new way. Hence the tendency to produce jazz stripes, cubist checks, post-impressionist, cubist and other striking effects in the materials for clothes."

Bluxon's Retrial Set for Thursday in Abilene Court

EASTLAND, April 17.—The case of the State vs. John Bluxon, on a charge of the murder of E. W. Richburn at Ranger in January, 1919, is set for trial Thursday, April 22, at Abilene.
 This case was tried and the defendant given a term in the penitentiary. Upon appeal, the court of criminal appeals reversed the case and ordered a new trial. The first trial was in Abilene on a charge of venue and the case will again come up there for a second trial.
 This case is a companion one to that of the State vs. Berg Nalls, who was tried here and given three years in the penitentiary. Nalls' case was also reversed a few weeks ago and this case was also reversed a few weeks ago and this case will be set for trial during the May term of the Eastland district court.
 Most enviable of mankind is the unpretentious person, without a scrap of originality, who has every temptation to enjoy and none to create. He is the little heir to treasures greater than India's mines can yield; the bee that seeks at every flower is not even asked to make honey.—Israel Zangwill.

Wives of Jewett's City Officials, Thinking Rule "Not Worth Pinch Salt," Capture All Offices in the Town But One

JEWETT, Texas, April 17.—The women of Jewett did not like the way the municipal government was being managed and they began to mutter. Then they criticized, according to the city officials. Since Jewett was incorporated the men had been the leaders. They had held the offices and governed the municipality and not until recently were their way disputed.
 Chief among the critics of the administration of Jewett were the wives of the mayor and aldermen.
 When election time came around recently, Mayor J. T. Adkisson told his wife to run to succeed him. Alderman R. H. Evans, Conkey Evans, Rob. Peterson, Frank Harrison and J. L. Barron also decline to stand for re-election and asked their wives to follow the course suggested by Adkisson.
 The women were elected unanimously and are now installed as heads of the city government.
 One man is left on office. He is the town marshal.
 In explaining the change in government, Mrs. Martin Adkisson, the mayor who succeeded her husband, said:
 "Jewett is a small place with only 800 inhabitants. It has had municipal officers for some time. But they never did anything that amounted to a pinch of salt and we women finally became tired of it and told them so."
 "They got their backs up as men will do when you disturb their business and come back at us with the statement: 'All right, if you think you can run the town, we'll let you do it.'
 "So they elected the ticket led by the women."
 A paving and civic improvement campaign has been outlined by the new city officials. They were elected on a platform providing for these improvements.

IMPROVEMENTS GO FORWARD RAPIDLY IN PARK CEMETERY

Six teams have been employed building driveways at the Evergreen cemetery, located on the Wayland road a mile from town, for the last four days. Surveyors are at work today plotting the cemetery and staking lots. Walks will be located between plots and all lots are large enough to permit shrubbery and flowers around the graves.
 Lots will be offered for sale at a very low price for a perpetual upkeep cemetery.
 More than $5,000 will be spent in beautifying the ground in the next two months. The work is under the supervision of experts.
 A. B. Poe of Ranger, is owner of the cemetery, which is fifteen acres in extent. Ten per cent of the receipts from all lot sales will be turned over to trustees appointed by lot owners. The money is to be invested and the interest used to keep the cemetery in good shape after all lots are sold and the regular revenue ceases. The perpetual upkeep plan has found favor all over the country.

LOS ANGELES WOMAN GRATEFUL TO TANLAC

Mrs. M. E. Proctor Saves Her Complete Recovery After So Many Years Of Suffering Seems Too Good To Be True—Was Invalid for Years.

MRS. M. E. PROCTOR, of Los Angeles, California.

"I am so grateful for what Tanlac has done for me that I want to tell the whole world about it," said Mrs. M. E. Proctor of 717 W. First street, Los Angeles, Calif. when speaking of the splendid results she had obtained from the medicine. "To think that I should have suffered for so many years, and spent hundreds of dollars in vain efforts to get relief and then find complete relief after taking only four bottles of Tanlac, seems too good to be true."

"Yes, indeed; for years and years I suffered terribly from stomach trouble. Everything I ate seemed to form gas and so affected my heart and breathing that I would have palpitation and could turn purple in the face in my efforts to get my breath. These attacks caused me intense suffering and were so bad that I was frequently confined to my bed and would have to be attended by some member of the family for fear I should succumb during one of the attacks.
 "I got awfully thin and was so weak that I had to give up all household duties. I often went for two weeks at a time without getting a good night's sleep and as a consequence became very nervous and low-spirited. In fact, I was a confirmed invalid and my friends did not expect me to live very long.
 "When I sat reading the paper one evening when my eye caught the statement of a lady who had suffered from similar trouble to my own and telling how she had been wonderfully helped by Tanlac, I sent for a bottle and started taking it and the results have been most surprising.

"My appetite is splendid now and I can eat most anything without any distress afterward. The gas has stopped forming and I no longer have palpitation or that smothering feeling. I sleep sound all night long and get up feeling rested. I am in better health today than I have been for forty years and I feel years younger."
 "I don't believe there ever was as good a medicine made as Tanlac."
 Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros and in Eastland by Butler Drug Co.—Adv.

Jazz Is Grilled When Teachers of Music Meet

TOPEKA, Kan., April 17.—Jazz music was given a severe grilling by Kansas music instructors attending the convention of the State Music Teachers' association here.

"Jazz is degenerated ragtime. Ragtime was endurable; jazz is impossible," Frank A. Beach, head of the music department of the state normal school, Emporia, said.

But among the professions, the jazz step found one defender. "Jazz is fascinating to me," confessed Harriet Prutzman, piano instructor at the Emporia state normal. "I play it and when I hear others play it I find it irresistible."

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jones entertained a party of friends at their home in Burger addition Thursday evening. Dancing and cards provided entertainment and refreshments were served.

EXPRESS EMBARGO LIFTED AND GOODS MOVING NORMALLY

Freight and express embargoes against Fort Worth were lifted last night and all classes of shipments will be received as heretofore, with the exception of goods billed for shipment to points in the north where the switchmen's strike is still in progress.

The Texas & Pacific railroad made special efforts to keep supplies moving to this city during the embargo, and as a result Ranger fared much better than some other points on the Texas & Pacific line.

The embargo caused a heavy increase in per cent post shipments to Ranger and postoffice officials are happy to see express business resumed.
