WRESTLING AND BOXING BOUT TO AID BALL TEAM

September 14, 15, and 16 to Be Bright Days for the Snappers.

A boxing and wrestling show probably on Sept. 14, the day on which Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo fight, and two games, Sept. 15 and 16, with a field day on the latter day, are planned in the interests of the Ranger Snappers. A committee was appointed last night to see after the arrangements for the boxing show, of which Pug Seale, local boxer and wrestler, will be chairman.

Not many baseball fans turned out for the announced meeting last night in the Gholson hotel improvised auditorium, but those who did brought along suggestions as to how the deficit of $800 could be wiped out. It was agreed unanimously that the financial slate must be wiped clean this season, and that it could be done if good attractions and fair weather were on deck.

GOVERNOR WALTON NOW WILLING TO ACCEDE TO WAR DEPARTMENT RULING

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 7.—Belief that the war department will not take unfavorable action on Governor Walton's establishment of martial law in Tulsa and would uphold the executive's action was expressed here today by Blake Aldrich, councillor to the governor, in commenting upon Congressman Howard's communication to Secretary Weeks, advising that a state of insurrection does not exist in Tulsa and martial law should not exist.

"Governor Walton is willing to leave the case to the war department," Aldrich said. "The record will show that he was right in establishing martial law and a federal investigation will sustain the governor's action."

HEAVIEST RAIN IN SEVERAL YEARS FALLS TODAY IN LAREDO

LAREDO, Sept. 7.—The heaviest rain in several years fell here for two hours this morning, flooding the streets for some time before the water drained.

The rainfall amounted to 7.2 inches, according to the rain gauge at Fort McIntosh. It was the first rain of any consequence since last March.

TEXANS IN JAPAN NOT HEARD FROM SINCE DISASTER

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—No word has been received from W. D. Hornaday, director of publicity of the University of Texas, who is on leave of absence on a tour of Japan and China, since the earthquake in Tokio. The last letter received from him was sent from Tokio, and considerable anxiety has been felt by his relatives and friends since the news of the catastrophe in that city. According to his plans as stated in letters, however, he should have left Tokio on Aug. 8 for Shanghai, China.

Wallace J. Davis, a journalism student, who accompanied him on the trip, was planning to remain in Tokio for several months on the staff of the Japan Advertiser. His relatives who reside in Austin are concerned for his safety.

GIANT WATERMELONS PUT ON EXHIBITION AT CORSICANA

CORSICANA, Sept. 7.—Eleven watermelons weighing 650 pounds were exhibited here yesterday by W. H. Thorne of the Navarro Mills community, who makes a specialty of watermelon raising. Thorne refused $55 for the 11 melons, saying he will keep the melons for their seed.

Thorne said his family and a number of visitors ate two last Sunday that weighed 141 pounds.

COTTON COMING IN FAST

More Than 100 Bales Already Ginned Here and More Than 1,000 Bales Expected to Be Brought Here This Season.

The one hundred and seventh bale of cotton was ginned shortly before noon today at the Moss cotton gin. There was enough cotton in the yard to bale five more, it was said at the gin. The one hundredth bale was ginned last night.

Out of town buyers are reported in the city. A buyer from Cisco is reported to have contracted for seven bales today.

Some cotton men estimated that upwards of 1,000 bales of cotton would be ginned here this year.

MOB WILLING TO ACT BUT NO OUTLET FOUND

Beaumont Police Unable to Get Clew to Murderer of Girl and Youth.

By United Press.

BEAUMONT, Sept. 7.—An ex-convict, who is believed to have been near the scene of the slaying of Miss Bessie Carl, 16, and T. O. Rial, 22, was hunted throughout the marshes near this city today by officers, helped by groups of citizens.

Fear of mob violence if the ex-convict is caught is expressed. Feeling is running high and an arrest may prove to be the spark to fan the feeling into violence. An arrest may be made before evening, officers believe.

The two negroes arrested in connection with the double murder have proved an alibi. They are expected to be released today.

PHYSICIANS DISAGREE ON NATURE OF THE WOUNDS

BEAUMONT, Sept. 7.—E. F. Bell, brother-in-law of the murdered girl, came suddenly upon the slain pair Wednesday. He told his first story of the discovery Thursday.

"We formed a party at home in Beaumont early Wednesday morning and went back to the spot where the car had been found," he said.

"Arriving there, we spread out and kept within a short distance of one another intent upon covering the ground thoroughly.

Guided By Odor. "It was just about 9:45. I was approaching the secluded knoll on the side west of the Voth road, and I could smell a horrible odor which seemed to resemble the aroma of decaying flesh. I pushed myself through some underbrush and there on the ground, their heads a few feet apart, their arms outstretched, their feet pointing in opposite directions, forming an angle, face upward, lay the bodies of my sister-in-law and her companion."

Bell said it was a most gruesome sight, horrible to behold. Their clothing was rotting and torn; their flesh was made sallow by incessant rains which had beat upon them; clots of blood here and there about their heads showed the cruel death both had suffered.

Bodies Buried Hurriedly. Immediately after the coroner's inquest, the bodies were removed to Beaumont, it being necessary to bury both at once because of their condition. Rial's body was placed in Magnolia cemetery, while that of Miss Carl was shipped to the home of her mother, Mrs. Fritz Schultz, of 34 Crites street, in Houston.

Physicians who examined both bodies differed in opinion as to whether the couple had been slain with some kind of a gun, or whether a blunt instrument had been used upon them. Numerous indentations were found on the heads of both, two wounds penetrating Miss Carl's skull, while at least four penetrated the skull of Rial.

DENTON BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT NOT BADLY HURT

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—Physicians at Baylor hospital here say the condition of Carl Ganzer, 17, of Denton, who was accidentally shot in the left hip while hunting with a comrade near his home, is not serious. The boy was brought to Dallas yesterday.

Cities In Holland Have Dry Week To Honor Their Queen

THE HAGUE, Sept. 7.—How prohibition is making headway in Holland was shown by the decision of The Hague municipal council stipulating that during the week of festivities, in honor of Queen Wilhelmina's 25 years' reign, the selling of spirits would be completely prohibited. The motion toward this end was moved by the Socialists and supported by the Conservatives.

Other cities followed this gratifying example.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—First steps were taken today by the interior department towards settling the claims of 160 applicants for leases in the Red river oil and gas district bordering Oklahoma and Texas.

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—Austin D. In addition to his work as associate field secretary, Bryan will become assistant editor of the Texas Christian Endeavor News, published by the state union. The new directory shows a net gain of 1,600 telephones for the city over the last directory published six months ago. The large gain indicates a rapid increase in the population of the city.

COMPTROLLER TO HELP ENFORCE PROHIBITION

Wishes to Co-operate With Officers in Making Dry Laws Effective.

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—Lon A. Smith, state comptroller, will spend some time within the near future in investigating the operation of the Dean liquor law in Texas' largest cities.

Under the new appropriation by the recent legislature the comptroller now has a fund which he can use to take care of the expenses of investigations in those places where violations are suspected of being carried on.

Since his incumbency as comptroller, permits of a number of physicians and druggists have been cancelled, because of misuse of their privileges.

Comptroller Smith has assured federal and state prohibition enforcement officers of his desire to co-operate with them in every way in the enforcement of the liquor laws.

CREDITORS AND NOT STOCKHOLDERS WILL RECEIVE DIVIDEND

The application granted by Judge E. A. Hill of the Eighty-eighth district court to pay a dividend of 4 per cent will benefit creditors of the old Farmers & Merchants bank of Ranger and the Farmers State Bank & Trust company of Gorman and not former stockholders of the bank as stated in yesterday's issue. R. G. Powell, liquidating agent of the defunct bank, said today that the former stockholders will not receive a penny from the collections made.

The $48,000 to be paid as a result of the court order, will reach the creditors as soon as the checks have been made out in Austin and checked off as being due in full to the creditor at the office of the local liquidating agent, Powell said.

COLORED COUPLE'S PLANS TO GET DIVORCE UPSET

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 7.—W. M. Parger, negro, had it all arranged between himself and his wife, Lela, to agree to disagree, and get a divorce. Accordingly, Bill saved enough money to undo the knot, and went to meet Lela to go to court and have it over with.

Before they got to court, however, Lela and Bill had an argument. As a result, Bill was fined $25 and costs in police court—all the money he had saved to cast off matrimonial bonds.

CINCINNATI NATIONALS TO FILE LIBEL SUIT

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati Nationals announced that suit for $50,000 damages would be filed by the club on behalf of Players Duncan and Bohne against "Collyer's Eye" in the United States district court at Chicago today.

Herrmann said suit would be filed as a result of charges by Collyer's Eye that Duncan and Bohne had been approached by gamblers during the New York series in Cincinnati.

Drilling On Two New Wells To Be Begun Right Away

Drilling in on the B. C. Lacy et al. well on the R. Q. Lee lease, 15 miles north of Ranger, was to start today, according to a Ranger man, who has occasion to be in the field almost every day.

Workers are moving in tools for the Lee Evans et al. well on the Allen ranch, which will be started soon.

The Donley brothers and Johnson well on the Allen ranch is shut down at 3,100 feet, while 6 5/8-inch pipe is being moved in. The well is about one-half mile southwest of an old well drilled by the Sun company and which is said to have made 800 barrels. The owners, it is reported, expect the well to make 500 barrels.

MUSSOLINI INSISTS NATIONAL HONOR OF ITALY IS INVOLVED

By United Press.

ROME, Sept. 7.—"Nothing could make us recede when our national prestige is involved," Premier Mussolini declared today in an interview.

"The crime against Italy's honor, the crime against Italian officers must not be submitted to the Geneva assembly," he said. "The rights of small nations does not carry with it the right to assassinate officers of a large nation."

"Our inquiry has revealed sensational circumstances in connection with the murder of Italian officers."

DEVOTION TO FLAG CAUSES GIRL TO SUFFER INJURIES

HOUSTON, Sept. 7.—The flag had been entrusted to her and it must fly.

But for her devotion to her country, little Iris May Sample probably would be playing with children in her neighborhood instead of lying in bed with one of her legs badly torn from bites of a vicious dog.

Iris May is 11 years old and a member of the Girl Scouts. She was elected to keep the flag at the city park playground at half mast in reverence to the late President Harding. It was while performing this duty that she was hurt.

Early one morning she left her home to raise the flag at sun rise. On her way to the park she was attacked by a dog and before she could escape was bitten five times.

The dog was captured and examined for rabies.

EL PASO, Sept. 7.—An aged couple were re-united here after an all night separation, due to the fact that the two became confused and lost while stopping here en route to Los Angeles.

In the confusion at the Union station, W. B. Bittles, 60, and his wife became separated. Unable to find each other, Mrs. Bittle went to a hotel and reported the matter to the police.

The next morning Bittle was found at the Santa Fe freight depot, dazed and bewildered. He said he had spent the night in the Juarez jail.

TOKIO CONTINUES ALMOST CUT OFF FROM WORLD

OSAKA, Sept. 7.—Tokio is practically cut off from the world and communication between the capital and Osaka remains difficult.

RELIEF WORK IN JAPAN MOST IMPORTANT NOW

Deaths Run Into Thousands, But First Estimates Were Too Large; Banks Reopening.

By United Press.

Relief measures on an unprecedented scale are under way in Japan today. The government agencies and relief organizations are hastening to return the area Yokohama and Tokio to a semblance of order.

With the casualties placed at 50,000 by Tokio relief agencies, two-thirds of Tokio destroyed and the greater part of Yokohama razed, the specter of starvation and disease urged the military to redouble its efforts. Cholera is reported in dispatches from Kobe to have broken out in Yokohama, probably due to drinking muddy water. The waterworks has been put out of order.

Japan's financial system is standing the strain. A temporary moratorium may be declared, but the banks are paying off.

The Japanese cabinet is meeting twice daily and is utilizing the army, navy and all governmental branches in relief work. Shipping companies are furnishing free passage to America to all foreigners who may desire to leave.

Secretary Hoover, who brought to the organization his experiences from the vast purchasing of supplies for the Belgian relief and the American relief committee, personally worked out plans to ship food, clothes, underwear, shoes, galvanized iron and lumber for temporary shelter.

MANY JAPANESE KILLED BUT EARLY REPORTS EXAGGERATED

SHANGHAI, Sept. 7.—All of today's reports from Japan indicate the first estimates of lives lost in the earthquake, fire and flood were much exaggerated. An Associated Press radiogram intercepted here fixes the loss in Yokohama at 50,000. An Eastern telegram says that 30,000 were killed in Tokio.

Reuters announces that all banks in Japan are reopening and the Bank of Japan is intact, according to the dispatch. It is difficult to get a correct picture of the situation because of the various reports that come out.

FORMER BRITISH PREMIER SHOUTS STRONG PROTEST

Declares France and Italy Bluffing Great Britain in League of Nations.

By United Press.

LLANDRIDDOD, Wales, Sept. 7.—"France now is kneeling on the prostrate form of Germany while Italy is attacking Greece," former Premier David Lloyd George declared in a speech here today.

Lloyd George launched an attack against the passive attitude of the government in permitting itself to be "bluffed" in the sessions of the council of the League of Nations.

"From Geneva we have met with a serious rebuff," he said, referring to the fact that France and Italy had overridden Great Britain in her efforts to get justice for Greece.

"What happened yesterday when the League of Nations declined to assert its authority amounts to a practical acceptance of the Mussolini rebuff," he said. "I do not like the idea of my nation being snubbed out of Europe. A nation that depends upon credit cannot afford to be made a footstool before the world."

Jap Relief Fund Near Two Million and Mounting Fast

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Early reports today at Red Cross headquarters indicated that the subscriptions to the $5,000,000 Japanese relief fund were nearing the $2,000,000 mark.

Encouraged by the reports of big subscriptions, the executive committee moved swiftly to meet the immediate relief needs, as they had been outlined in official advices from the Orient.

Secretary Hoover, who brought to the organization his experiences from the vast purchasing of supplies for the Belgian relief and the American relief committee, personally worked out plans to ship food, clothes, underwear, shoes, galvanized iron and lumber for temporary shelter.

The first claim provides for the creation of a convention to have jurisdiction on American claims against Mexico as a result of revolution.

The second provides for a mixed claim convention, which will have jurisdiction over all claims against Mexico and Mexicans against the United States.

Some of the claims go back as far as 1868. The umpire of each commission will be appointed by the president of the permanent board of arbitration at The Hague. United States and Mexico will have one delegate each on the commission.

BIBLE THOUGHT.

BEGIN THE DAY RIGHT.—Cause me to hear thy loving kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust; cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.—Psalm 143:8.

THE POINT OF VIEW.

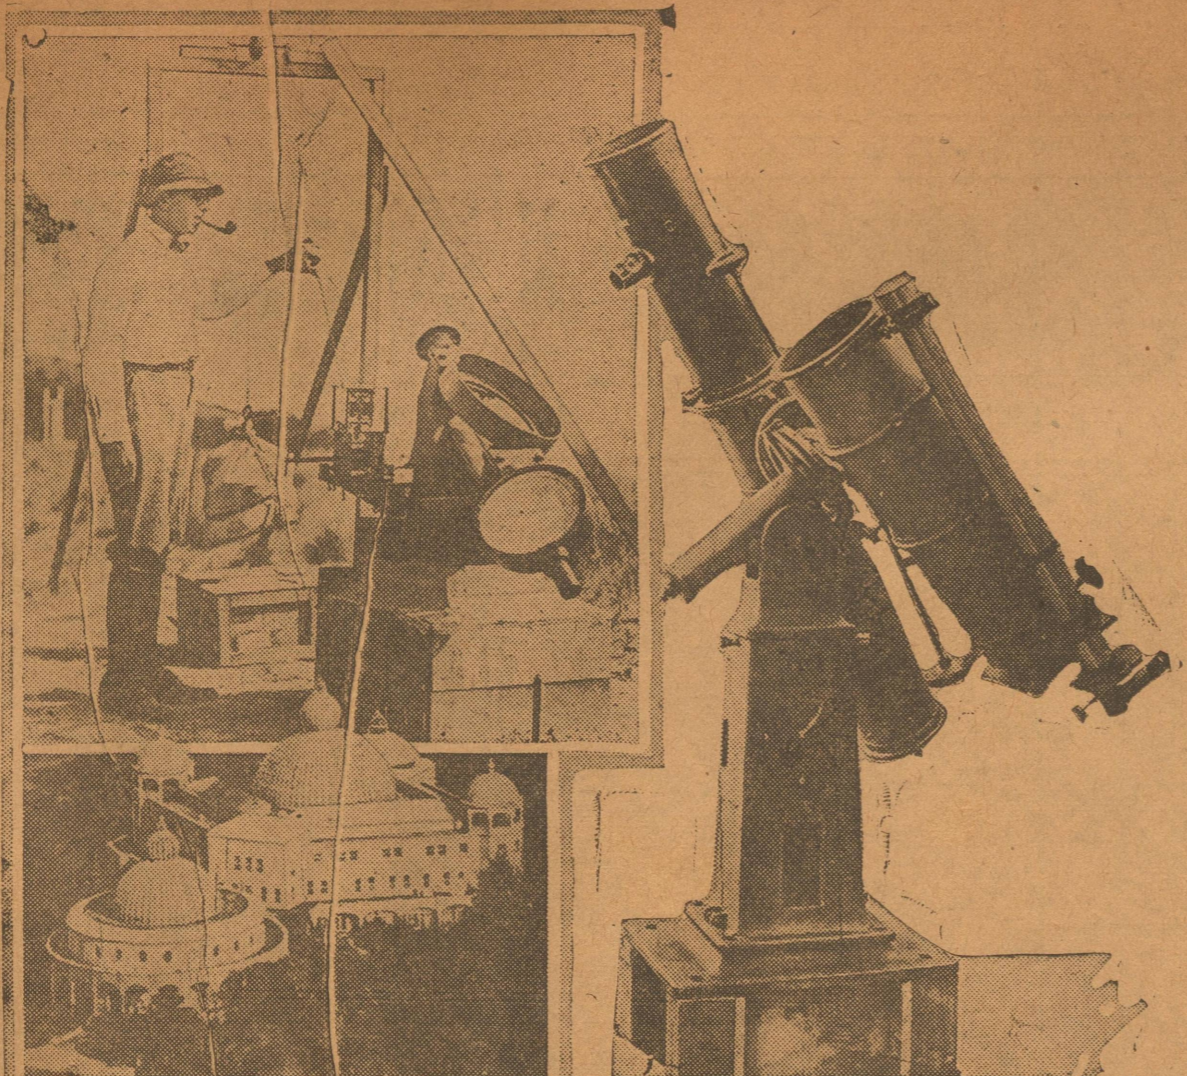

It all depends on whether you are in the inside or on the outside. An observer, no matter how shrewd, cannot properly appraise the value of any organization; and if he be naturally unsympathetic, fond of satire, and looking for material suited for his talents, he may be able to construct an interesting story, and yet one that is as remote from truth as a dream. To report even accurately certain aspects of life is not to report life.

Even if he attended what is an average day, he would still know really little of legislative procedure. He would be ignorant of the work of committees, of the study given to public questions by public men, and of all the hard work done by members which does not appear on the surface.

Testimony of the mere observer on almost anything has small value. He does not really know what he is talking about. Take the conventional figure of the Christian minister as he usually appears on the stage. He is represented as a slimy, mealy-mouthed, affected hypocrite, lacking both manliness and knowledge of the world. The average minister as his congregation knows him is unrecognizable in such a portrait.

Black pepper contains piperine, an alkaloid poison. Grain sowing by airplane is proposed.

WAR LIKE PREPARATIONS

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Every hour brings forth new warlike preparations by Italy and the increase of Greece territory occupied by Italians. The League of Nations today took the first step to prevent war. Corfu is well under the control of the invading forces.

The league officially requested Italy and Greece to refrain from hostilities pending the receipt of instructions from their representatives in Geneva. Italy's representatives are not empowered to accept proposals until instructed from Rome. The hope is expressed that the intervention of the League of Nations will result in a breathing spell, during which the passions of the contending nations will subside.

Brother Complains Because Sister Has Her Barber Bill Put on His Slate; Great Detective Meets His Waterloo.

By P. G. T.

Slowly but surely woman are edging their way into the places of men. One drug store cowboy complains to us that his sister is having her barber work done and putting it on his ticket.

The sister went into the barber shop and took everything on the menu, even a shave. This lady had a hair cut, shampoo, face massage, shoe shine and many other demonstrations of the barber's art too grievous to mention. We forgot to say that the shave was a neck shave after the 'bob.' Then she said "charge it to my brother," and waltzed away.

In the days when beauty shops catered to all the female fripperies, a barber shop was as sacred to a man as a pool room. He would saunter in and take off coat and collar, unafraid to expose a dirty shirt, red suspenders or an active Adams apple. A barber shop was his club and he held spitting contests with drillers' licorice for a lubricant or told smoking room stories to his comrades.

To put a barber pole in front of a store room was an invitation for women to stay out. If ma did come in to see Willie have his hair cut a death-like hush went over the whole establishment. Men swallowed their tobacco, put on their coats, and kept their Adams apples under cover until ma and Willie left.

At the present writing they are getting shaved with their coats on, hair trimmed with collars and ties in place, and chewing gum like a lot of stenographers getting ready for a hard day's work. The joke the preacher told in his sermon last Sunday is popular and jazz versus opera is discussed. The refining influence of women is unquestionable, but, gosh, ain't it uncomfortable sometimes.

The night was picked especially by Jaillin Croox, the great detective, for our desperate venture. He had rewritten the calendar that day and entered this night in it as one on which murder might be committed with impunity. The atmosphere was cold and foggy. A norther was coming up and the wind from the south made us bend our backs as we trudged against it toward the Pto-mainie house. (Sneak and burglar music from the orchestra.)

True to her word, Mrs. Talkbunkovitch had lured her husband to the picture show. Croox pulled a map from his pocket and, by its guidance, we came, immediately, if not sooner, to the many barred door under the stairway.

Suddenly there was an explosion that seemed to shake the whole house, followed by a crash of broken glass. The door trembled and seemed on the verge of bursting outward.

"Here," said I in a whisper to Croox, "is the dynamite and the fuse."

"We don't need it," answered Croox, "with the aid of these explosions on the inside and our united strength pulling on these locks and chains, I believe we can open the door."

At his direction I grasped a chain and Croox laid hold of the large door knob. "When I give the signal, pull," he said, "cast yourself away from the opening as much as possible."

Suddenly there was an explosion gave the signal. We both pulled with from behind the door and Croox all our might and a shower of glass followed by a malodorous liquid flew from where the door had been.

"Just as I expected," said Croox.

"Here are two suits of chain mail. You get into one and I'll put on the other."

We donned these to protect us from flying glass scattered about by intermittent explosions that still continued.

"Choco Talkbunkovitch's home brew closet," yelled Croox excitedly. "The bottles are blowing up."

Then he looked at me hopelessly. "I cannot violate my oath as an officer by not arresting this stuff and I have not the heart to let it be used as evidence against the Talkbunkovitchs. What can we do?"

"We must drink it all," I said.

All of the work of the home will be done by the girls, who will pay only the exact expense of maintenance. It is estimated that the monthly cost per girl will be from $12 to $15. Only girls who are willing to abide by the rules and regulations of the home and to take their share of the work will be allowed to stay in the home.—Advertisement.

AMERICAN'S IN PERIL AT CORFU BOMBARDMENT

News dispatches from Corfu, Island of Corfu, which has just been bombarded by the Italian fleet, under orders from Premier Mussolini, report that Americans were imperilled by the artillery fire. The ex-Kaiser Wilhelm long maintained this wonderful palace at Corfu, and it has lately been turned over to the American Near East Relief commission by the Greeks, to care for the Greek and Armenian refugees from Turkey. Shells are supposed to have struck it.

TEAL RECALLS YOKOHAMA TWELVE YEARS AGO

Eleven years ago or Sept. 12, 1912, Raymond Teal was in Yokohama, Japan, said by a news despatch Friday to have been annihilated by the earthquake and fire last week, according to a statement issued by the Japanese home office. Teal was traveling in the Orient with his show company. He said he had delightful recollections of Yokohama and Tokio.

SOAP WILL EXTERMINATE LEPROSY, SAYS SCIENTIST

By Associated Press CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Soap is the greatest enemy of leprosy and if economic conditions could be changed so that everyone could afford to be clean, and education create in them the desire and knowledge of hygiene, leprosy would soon cease to be a great scourge and become one of the rare diseases, Dr. Arthur W. Stillians, professor of dermatology at Northwestern university, announced in an article just published.

WHAT THE DOCTOR TOOK.

An old darkey was taken ill and called in a physician of his own race. After a time, as there were no signs of improvement, he called in a white doctor, who soon felt the old man's pulse and then examined his tongue. "Did your other doctor take your temperature?" he asked. "I don't know, boss," replied the sick negro. "I ain't missed nothin' but my watch as yet."—From Everybody's Magazine for September.

Texas Will, In Time, Become Big Citrus Fruit State

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 5. Over two million citrus trees are growing in the lower Rio Grande valley of Texas, according to a report recently issued by the agricultural agent of Cameron county, who has completed a survey of the citrus industry in the three valley counties—Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy.

Less than a million citrus trees had been planted in the valley up to June 1, 1921, but during the following year almost 400,000 trees were planted, and during the planting season of 1922-23 approximately 700,000 trees were added to the valley's orchards, bringing the total to over two million.

Sixty per cent of all the citrus trees planted in the valley are grapefruit, 35 per cent are oranges and the remainder are lemon trees, tangerines, limes, kumquats, loquats and various other citrus fruits, most of which are seldom marketed outside of the Rio Grande valley.

Citrus trees in the valley commence bearing when they are four years old and after six year planting are in full bearing. Only a small per cent of the trees were bearing last year, when the valley shipped 140 car loads of citrus fruit, but this season sufficient trees will come into bearing to increase the shipments to at least 500 cars. Almost a million trees will be in full bearing for the 1925-26 season. Growers estimate that during the planting season this year at least a million trees will be set out. The plantings last season would have attained that mark had sufficient nursery stock been available, growers say. This year nurseries will have sufficient stock on hand to supply the demand.

BLACK OR GREEN RATTLE SNAKES RARE IN THE REPTILE WORLD

EL PASO, Sept. 4.—Capt. Martin I. Crimmins has caught a black tailed rattle snake in McKelligon's canyon, near this place, and has sent the snake to the American Museum of Natural History to place among the rare collection of this noted museum. The specimen sent by Captain Crimmins is said to be a rare one. It had a black tail, and had no diamonds on its skin, as most rattlers have.

Besides the rare snake, Captain Crimmins caught a zebra lizard, and a leopard lizard—these very rare specimens were also sent to the museum.

Captain Crimmins is a naturalist of long experience and has furnished the American Museum of Natural History with a number of very rare specimens. While he was with General Pershing in Mexico during 1916, the captain caught two green rattle snakes. He sent these to the museum and was informed that they were the first of their kind ever received there. When the reptiles reach the museum, they are frozen and models made in the natural colors, the captain explained. When thus frozen, the colors remain natural for many days.

DEMPSEY HAS BIG EDGE OVER FIRPO SAYS H. FARRELL

Greater Experience and More Knowledge of Fighting in Jack's Favor.

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Jack Dempsey will have several advantages over Luis Firpo when they meet in New York Sept. 14 for the world's heavyweight championship.

The champions physical advantages consist of greater experience, more knowledge of fighting as it is followed in the orthodox way and superior boxing skill. These are known assets.

Dempsey may and may not be as strong as Firpo. Perhaps he is not as strong in brute power. Dempsey may be able to hit harder than Firpo, but that is open to doubt.

The champion is better with his left hand than the South American and he is a faster puncher, but if he hasn't the strength to topple over Firpo, the one right hand of the South American will be better than his two.

When it comes to mental qualifications, as mentality is applied to fighting, the champion has all the edge by a big margin. Champions, as a rule, have that mental edge, because the opponent is bound to get into the brain trap that he is fighting the champion.

Dempsey has no doubts as far as it is possible to discern, that he can beat any fighter in the world. Firpo cannot feel the same way, as he must know, down deep within himself, that he is carrying the big handicap of a comparative novice against a skilled artist.

Firpo has given unmistakable evidence that he feels he is not sure to walk out of the ring after he walks in. Perhaps he had reasons for wanting Tex Rickard to postpone the fight for another year. With 12 more months to capitalize his standing as the next opponent for Dempsey, he could have picked up at least a quarter of a million dollars and the Angel sure does love his money.

It might be that Firpo really believes he can whip Dempsey and that his desire for more time was inspired purely by mercenary motives. Mentally alert as he is, however, Firpo could not help but be affected by the statements of his trainer and his friends that he faced a sure defeat if he fought Dempsey before another year's training.

Crowds surrounding the average fighter, even among second raters, as a rule, sound nothing but his praises. When Dempsey was training for Carpenter, he heard nothing but: "He's a setup for you. One round."

Dempsey became so aggravated with the rosy prospects painted for him that he asked to have Carpenter's name left out of the conversation.

On the other hand Firpo's friends and advisers have not missed an opportunity to hold up, with all its hazards, the prospects of his fight with Dempsey. It is but natural that confidence in an athlete cannot be increased by having it constantly called to mind that he has a great task ahead of him. A keen-brained fighter in not in danger of over-confidence by hearing others express faith in him, but a smart fighter is injured when his best friends hesitate to assure him that he is a sure winner.

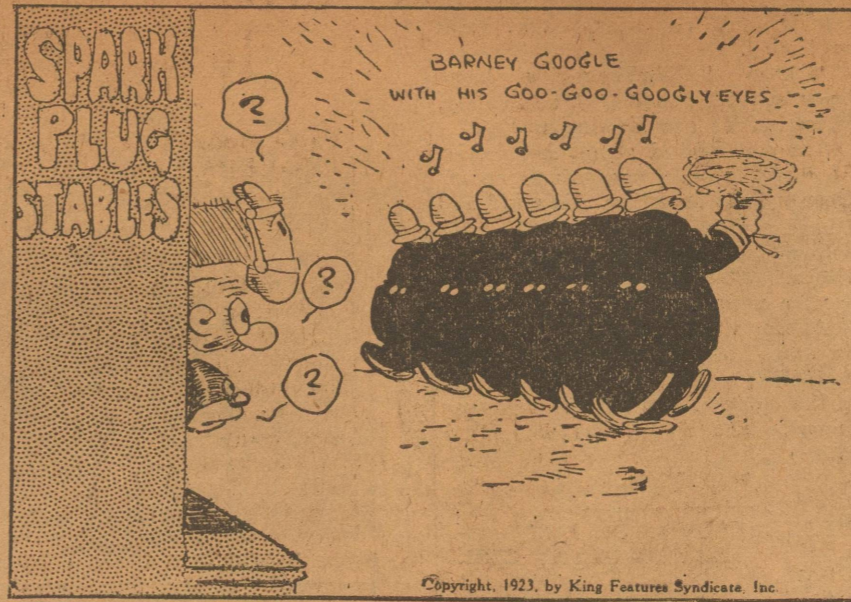

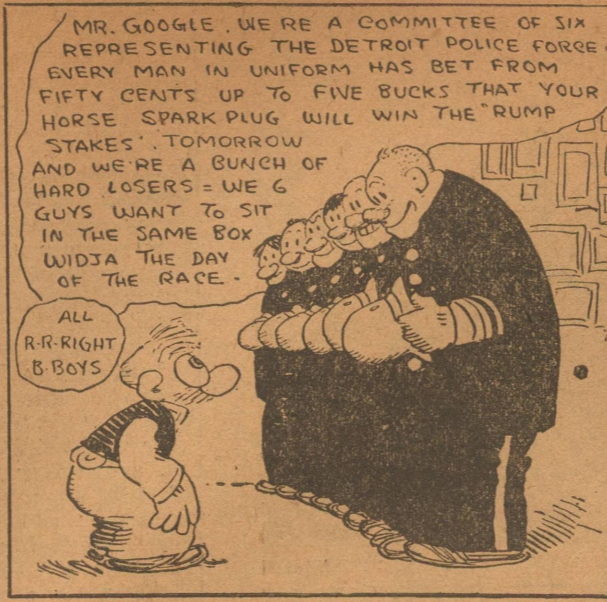

In their training camps, the difference in the mental edge of the two fighters is very apparent.

In every word and action Dempsey displays the utmost confidence that he will come out of the fight as the champion. He is a very sensible young man, and he is in no danger of falling a victim to over confidence.

When he was training for his fight with Carpenter, at Atlantic City, he told those who kept insisting that the Frenchman was a second-rater:

"He can't be with that record of his."

CHARLIE KOCH HOLDS BRECKENRIDGE TO FIVE SCATTERED HITS

Charlie Koch, loaned to the Olden club yesterday by the Snapper management, held the Breckenridge Dynamos to five scattered hits at Breckenridge. Not a Dynamo crossed the plate until the seventh inning and the first tally was the result of two errors in succession. The Dynamos made another run in the eighth. The score was 5 to 2 in favor of Olden.

Koch seems to be the nemesis of the Dynamos. Two weeks ago tomorrow he held the Dynamos to four hits in eight innings after getting a bad start in the first frame.

JACK DEMPSEY ATTENDS STRICTLY TO BUSINESS OF MAKING SELF FIT

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Jack Dempsey's hobbies in his training camp are not so many or varied. The champion most of the time attends strictly to the business of getting himself into shape. But when he does "let go," he plays cards with his sparring partners or favored visitors, romps around the place like a school kid, plays with the many dogs he owns, or puts in his spare time attempting to train some newcomer to his menagerie.

At Great Falls, Mont., where Dempsey conditioned himself for his Shelby match with Tommy Gibbons, a wolf cub was the recipient of most of the title holder's attention. At his present training camp he is attempting to win the affection of a leopard cub that was recently sent him. His collection of dogs ranges from toy bulls to German police dogs. These canines are scattered all about the country. Many of them are in Dempsey's Los Angeles home, some are at Salt Lake City, and others on a Utah ranch the champion owns. His manager, Jack Jack Kearns, also finds kennel space in his Oakland, Calif., home for several of Dempsey's dogs.

Dempsey loves music. He carries a portable phonograph with him everywhere he goes and puts it to constant use. On one of his trips to New York this year he arrived at his hotel without a hangbag, but with a phonograph in his hand. The champion's music tastes run to "blues" and jazz numbers.

ANNIE LAURIE'S OLD HOME SOON IS TO BE SOLD

British Fear Some Rich American May Acquire House of Burns' Heroine.

"Will some American millionaire soon be installed in the home of Annie Laurie?" asks the New York Times, and answers its own question thus:

The house of Craighdaroch, in the County of Dumfriesshire, Scotland, largely built by the heroine of the famous ballad, and the surrounding estate of 2,700 acres are to be sold at public auction. Britain fears that some newly rich American will acquire it, since nobody in the United Kingdom seems able to afford the price. The estate comprises seven farms, grouse shooting fields and trout streams. The formal Georgian garden near the house was laid out by Annie Laurie herself, and the years have only added to its beauty.

Annie Laurie married Alexander Ferguson of Craighdaroch and lived to the ripe old age of 79. She died in 1761 and was buried in the family cemetery near her home. Craighdaroch is famous for another reason. It has as one of its treasures "The Whistle," which inspired Robert Burns' ballad of that name. The whistle is made of light-colored wood, and the story is that it was brought from Denmark by a Dane of gigantic stature who came to Scotland in the train of Queen Anne of Denmark.

This Dane was a lover of the flowing bowl, and at the beginning of the orgies he used to lay the whistle on the table, announcing that the last man to blow it might carry it off as a trophy of victory.

For years the Dane retained the trophy, and then at last he met his match. This was one of the Lauries of "Maxwellton's braes," who, after three days and nights of incessant potations, left the Scandinavian under the table. A descendant lost the whistle to one Walter Riddell, a wheedler of Robert Riddell, the friend and patron of the poet Burns.

Robert Riddell offered it as a trophy in competition between himself and two other descendants of the master of the Dane, Alexander Ferguson, who became the husband of Annie, and Sir Robert Laurie of Maxwellton. The contest took place on Oct. 16, 1789, and was won by the redoubtable Ferguson, whom afterward no one dared to challenge.

VILLA MIGHT HAVE BEEN GREAT LANDHOLDER

By Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 7.—Had not the bullets of unknown assassins cut short the life of Francisco Villa at Parral on July 20, the former bandit leader had fair to become one of the greatest landholders of the republic. In addition to the huge ranch at Canutillo, Durango, which the government ceded to Villa and his followers, another rich property, the Poblito hacienda, south of Ojinaga on the banks of the river Conchos in Chihuahua, had been added to his holdings by the government.

Villa was also on the point of being given control of the San Isidro ranch, situated in the Jimenez district of Chihuahua, and the Carrizna property, in northern Durango.

To Bob or Not To Bob—Which?

False Bobs Now Made to Try Out Effect Before Actually Cutting Hair.

By HEDDA HOYT, Fashion Editor of the United Press. (Written for the United Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Not all women look well with bobbed hair and those who have shorn their locks only to discover this fact too late, have many sources for readjusting the hair so that it will not look bobbed.

Before bobbing the hair it is a very wise plan to purchase one of the false "bobs" and wear it several days before cutting your own hair. This will prove to you whether or not you are the type for short hair.

Faces that are over-fat seldom look well with the bobbed head-dress, as the broad "bob" has a tendency to broaden the face. Persons with high cheekbones also find short hair unbecoming.

The best way to disguise the "bob," providing one is youthful, is to part the hair from forehead to the neckline and twist it in little knots over the ears. Braided switches held firmly to these little knots of your own hair may then be added, forming the new braided ear-bun effect. Often a fringe of bang gives a coquettish effect to this hair-do and takes away the harsh line of the center part, which so few can wear. Those who hesitate to cut the hair in bangs can have adjustable bangs attached to ribbon head-bands. This is particularly attractive for evening wear.

Sports jackets have had such a run this season that the ordinary types are no longer desirable. However, the jacket is not to be cast aside for fall wear. Little jackets of suede, made of mannish lines, are among the newest of fall's sport-wear. Most of these use wood shades and are unbelted, with either double-breasted or single-breasted fronts.

Again we see the sports jacket in the heavy homespun worked in wool cross-stitching. These, of course, are more colorful than the suede effects, since they are usually embroidered in three or more colors on pockets, cuffs and collars. Straight, unbelted lines are preferable to the tie-at-the-side models, as fall predicts tailored effects. Small head-shaped hats of homespun worked in colors to correspond with the jacquette are smart. Fall sports shoes made of crocodile leathers and lizard skins are to be seen before long. They are especially desirable for golf and country wear.

DALLAS.—Judge P. D. Crawford wrote a check for $3 to pay his wife's fine for violating a parking ordinance here. Mrs. Crawford parked the car in a restricted zone while she went shopping. She gave the red tag to her husband, who, instead of dismissing the case, pled guilty and paid the fine.

WICHITA FALLS.—That citizens of Wichita Falls are following examples of those other cities by investing in local public utilities is shown by the fact that 200 local customers of the Wichita Electric company own stock in the company.

SAN ANTONIO.—Thieves who stole a box of sample shoes from George D. Moyer here a week ago, were no doubt somewhat put out when they found the shoes were all for the right foot. The shoes were found recently in San Pedro creek.

SURE IT DOES GOOD

Theford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine (Vegetable) Praised by the Head of a Louisiana Family.

Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family uses it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine."

"We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

If your liver gets out of fix, take Black-Draught. It will help to drive the bile poisons and other unwholesome matters out of your system. Sold everywhere. NC-148

WACO.—The extension of the ornamental lighting system to the Cotton Palace has been completed and illumination of this additional section of the city will begin at once.

FOR TWORTH.—Construction of city water main extensions to five suburbs of Fort Worth is to be started soon. Extensions will supply Seminary Hill, University, Polytechnic, Riverside and Sycamore Heights.

ADVANCING years should not mean the approach of a period of dependency—of crutches and canes—of worry, care and fatigue! Don't dread the days ahead! Be prepared to grapple with the handicaps of Old Age—with rheumatism—with undetermined health—with feebleness. The system that is free from impurities—through which rich red blood tingles need not worry about advancing years. Enlist the aid of S. S. S.—the builder of red blood cells—to fight off the infirmities of Old Age.

With the aid of S. S. S. when you reach this stage of life the nerve power that has been built up by ever increasing blood cells—the vim and vigor of youth that you possess will capably enable you to enjoy the advantages of passing years, while others less fortunate are feeble and dependent.

S. S. S. for nearly a century has been serving as a valuable and time-honored assistant in the fight for hale and hearty Old Age. It is made only of pure vegetable ingredients and is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is the more economical.

THE REV. FRANK STEDMAN TO PREACH HERE SUNDAY

The Rev. Frank Stedman, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, will be in Ranger Sunday to conduct morning services and celebrate the Holy Communion. As he gets to Ranger only about once each month, a large congregation, especially of the church members, is expected to attend the service.

Since the Rev. Mr. Stedman was here last to conduct services, new pews have been put in the church and an organ purchased to replace the piano.

The Ranger Christian Sunday school recently won in a contest, and the Strawn Christian Sunday school is to be the host at the Sunday picnic, which is to be featured by singing and out-door services.

No morning service will be held Sunday in the Ranger Christian church, but services will be held Sunday night as usual.

AUSTIN. — Railroads of Texas operated at a net revenue of $10,244,570 during the first six months of 1923, a report compiled by the railroad commission shows. Operating revenues totaled $89,576,097 and operating expenses totaled $78,931,527.

YOUNG COUPLES IMITATE DOUBLE SUICIDE PACT OF FAMOUS JAPANESE

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Sept. 7.—The recent double suicide of Mr. Arishima, one of Japan's foremost novelists and of Akiko Hatano, a young married woman magazine writer as a result of a love affair and death pact continues to hold the attention of the Japanese public. This is due not merely to the prominence of the pair or to their tragic deaths, for suicides of prominent persons in this country are not unusual.

It is the imitators of the famous couple that are keeping interest alive. Many couples, for the most part obscure, are seeking reflected glory from the main event by imitating the writers' example.

The growth of western philosophy, however, is gradually turning the public against suicide under any circumstances.

The earliest type of oil stoves were simply large lamps with a fixture on top for supporting a cooking or heating utensil.

TEXAS LEADS STATES IN FUEL OIL ELECTRIC ENERGY

By United Press.

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—Users of coal in large quantities are apprehensive as to the supply during the coming winter. The labor situation in the coal fields is uncertain. A memorandum from the National Electric Light associations urges members to act at once to protect their fuel supplies in order that the industry may be able to maintain its record of last year in keeping up their service in spite of extraordinary difficulties due to hazards of the fuel supply.

In Texas the electric power and light companies are less disturbed by the threatened coal shortage than in most other states. Fuel oil and natural gas are the fuels most used by Texas electric power and light companies. This state leads all others in the amount of electric energy produced by fuel oil and is fourth in the list of users of natural gas by electric stations, says the Texas Public Service information bureau. Twenty states use more coal for this purpose than Texas.

In June this year, Texas electric generating stations used 237,646 barrels of fuel oil, 378,040 thousand cubic feet of natural gas, and only 19,724 tons of coal.
