THE WEATHER.

ALLEYS MUST NOT BE USED FOR PARKING

Ranger Fire Chief Issues Warning to Motor Car Drivers, Stating Penalty.

Motorists who have been using the alleys of the business district of Ranger for parking places are warned by Fire Chief Murphy that they are creating a fire hazard and their cars will be hauled in to the police station from now on unless a "hint to the wise is sufficient" and the cars are parked on the streets.

"Alleyways in the business district of Ranger are dedicated to the city of Ranger and are for use of trucks loading and unloading merchandise for the Ranger merchants and not for parking places for individuals," said Fire Chief Murphy. All business houses having an alley entrance are supposed to load and unload at the rear entrance, it is said, and with automobiles of private parties parked in the entrance ways trucks cannot get through, necessitating blocking of Main street as they load and unload.

A fire hazard is also created through the blocking of the alleys as the fire trucks make their downtown runs when the fire is an office building to the plugs that are at the entrance of each alley. In the event the fire chief ordered one of his trucks to hook up on the other block, a blocked alley would necessitate going clear around the block before the plug could be reached.

Refractory owners of automobiles who continue the practice of parking in the alley will find their cars resting comfortably at the city hall one of these days, the chief said. A fine of $11.70 or more will be imposed for each violation.

LIONS DISCUSS LIGHT AFFAIRS AT LUNCHEON

"For it's jolly good weather, when good fellows get together," is the rule of the Lions' club of Ranger when the members gather each week at the Lions' hall in the DeGroof hotel for luncheon and temporarily forget business cares. Business is strictly taboo at the luncheon except when it pertains to the Lions' club and its affairs. Light talk is in vogue until after the lunch.

Following the luncheon a business session of the club as a whole was filled with reports of the various committees. Many committee chairmen were out of town. A brief resume of the Lions' club work during the ex-Texas Ranger convention was given by C. C. Patterson, secretary of the club.

Strength of the Lions' organization in northern states, especially Wyoming, was the message brought to Ranger Lions' club by B. S. Decker, district manager of the Kansas Lee Newton.

A watermelon feast for members of the Lions' club and their ladies was decided on, the idea being suggested by W. C. Hickey, chairman of the committee. The date is to be fixed. Civic pride in Ranger was furthermore demonstrated and the work of the Lions' organization in furthering the growth of the town through civic improvements stood the test when members of the club volunteered for service again on Monday night to repaint the streets and mark off the parking spaces that are growing somewhat dim through service. J. T. Killingsworth reported through President Murray that he still has five gallons of white paint left and plenty of brushes. Frank Brown, leader of the white wing crew last month, challenged any group of Lions to beat the original "white wings" of the Lions' club. All members volunteering for service are to meet at Killingsworth-Cox & Co. next Monday night at 10 o'clock ready for service.

Boy Loses His Life Trying to Save His Father From Drowning

Special Correspondence.

PORT WORTH, Aug. 20.—A 17-year-old boy lost his life probably in a vain effort to save his father from drowning Tuesday night at one of the concrete reservoirs of the Pierce Petroleum corporation in Postepco Heights.

Henry A. Reece, 47, and his son, Paul Reece, 17, were found dead about 10 p. m. Tuesday, an hour after they had plunged into the reservoir for a swim. Andrew Nelson, watchman, was first to discover the tragedy.

Although the bodies were not interlocked when found and no definite indications of a struggle were detected by the coroner, the general opinion is that the father was seized with cramps and that the boy, in trying to save him, was pulled under.

BARBECUE WILL BRING OIL MEN INTO HARMONY

Cisco Meeting Friday Night Intended to Be First of Number of Similar Events.

Secretary C. C. Patterson of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce has received from Omar Burkett, who is making arrangements for the affair, tickets for the barbecue and get-together meeting of oil men of Eastland, Stephens, Callahan, Shackelford, Brown, Palo Pinto and Comanche counties with members of the Texas railroad commission and Judge Bell, chief oil and gas supervisor, at Lake Cisco, Friday night. The tickets are $1 each and the oil men have been urged to procure tickets for themselves and their families and attend.

The purpose of the meeting, as outlined in a letter from the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, is to effect an organization of the fraternity of oil men of Central West Texas, and to bring about closer co-operation between the oil operators and the railroad commission. It is stated that Mr. Burkett expects to have meetings from time to time in different cities of the oil belt. Mr. Carden and Mr. Killough are said to be working with Mr. Burkett for the success of the meeting. The Cisco Chamber of Commerce has arranged for all visitors to be given the freedom of Lake Cisco. Oil men and their families are to be taken for a short ride over the lake and given free swims at the bathing beach.

It is stated that both chicken and fish will be served at the barbecue tomorrow night and a program has been arranged which, it is believed, will please all.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Matcha Rembova, who in private life is Mrs. Rudolph Valentino, is in New York on her way to Paris, where, according to rumor, she may seek legal separation from the "sheik of filmdom."

Mrs. Valentino, who is the daughter of Richard Hudnut, machine manufacturer, has been keeping her own counsel, since her arrival here. She came ostensibly to complete arrangements for filming and booking contracts, and then will go abroad to visit her parents.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 20.—Rudolph Valentino, idol of the flappers, is about to lose his second wife, Matcha Rembova. The screen sheik admitted today that his Sheba had deserted him. He denied, however, that a divorce was contemplated.

"It's just one of those friendly separations, a marital separation," he said. "There has been no violent quarrel and we are still friends."

SALES COUNSELOR REVEALS UNDERWEAR TRADE SECRETS

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 20.—In some American colleges girls have ceased to wear underwear, Bryon G. Moon, head of the firm of Sales Counselors, New York, told the Southern Retail Merchants convention here.

Surveys made by the firm disclosed this fact, Moon said.

Other disclosures, he said, were that in some communities, cases were found where mothers sewed a suit of underwear on a child in the fall and removed it in the following spring.

BOOTLEGGERS PEDDLE BEER IN MOST OPEN MANNER

DALLAS, Aug. 20.—A Dallas negro, doing a bootlegging business just as a huckster peddles his vegetables, was arrested in north Dallas recently, and officers marveled at the nerve and courage of the black to be so open with distributing the forbidden beverage.

He had two galvanized tubs in a truck, both full of pint bottles of beer, packed down in cracked ice. He was soliciting business in dozen bottle lots.

When he left the booze truck parked in front of a residence to make a call, it was discovered

STEAM SCALDED VICTIMS WANT DEATH TO COME

Death Toll of Forty Steamboat Mackinac Disaster Is Increasing Steadily.

NEWPORT, Aug. 20.—New victims were added almost hourly today to the mounting list of the dead in the steamship Mackinac disaster. The toll of lives taken when the boiler of the crowded excursion steamer exploded late Tuesday was augmented early this morning by the death of Miss Bernice Wildenstein and Miss Pauline Stephens, and later by the death of Jean McCarthy, 15-months old daughter of James McCarthy of Pawtucket, bringing the total to 40 dead and two missing.

The death of Jean McCarthy was the fourth fatality in the McCarthy family, while the one remaining member, the father, is on the danger list in the Newport general hospital.

Twenty-two persons, many blinded and suffering and begging to be permitted to die, are on the danger list at the naval hospital. Many are unable to take sustenance because of having inhaled scalding steam.

TAKES LIFE AFTER LOSING MONEY IN OIL VENTURES

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 20.—The body of Charles Borene, 65 years old, of Fort Worth, was found on the lawn of the Wichita county courthouse Wednesday with a bullet hole over the heart. A revolver rested in the grass about eighteen inches from his right hand. His shirt was power-burned.

Hundreds of persons had passed along the street within a few feet of the body not suspecting the man dead. Finally a caretaker went to arouse what he believed a sleeping man and discovered him dead.

A letter found on the body told of the loss of lifetime savings in oil investments. Mr. Borene came to Wichita Falls from Fort Worth Sunday.

CHINA'S CONFERENCE TO HAVE WIDE POWERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The United States government and the powers have agreed to concede China's request for a discussion of all the unequal treaties, involving possible customs and autonomy and conditions of extra-territoriality.

This authority indicated that the conference at Peking, opening Sept. 26, would not be limited by the terms of the Washington treaty, but would have authority to make new treaties. Appointment of a commission from the powers to study conditions and extra-territoriality as urged by the Washington conference, has been agreed to in principle by the other powers, it was said.

There was no sign of any disorder, for the striking miners are anxious to keep the peace.

Adjutant General Barrett said today the state troops would remain on duty here for a while.

Because of the breaking instruments, Professor Bendandi said he thought it probable the force of the earthquake must have been appalling.

Kelly confessed Herrall's auto, the latter said, and forced Herrall at the point of a gun to drive him to Portland.

A reward of $500 for the capture, dead or alive, of Kelly and his companions, Tom Murray and James Willos, was announced by Chief of Police Jenkins.

RAILWAY WILL OPERATE OWN BUS SYSTEM

Santa Fe Announces First of These Lines in New Mexico For Next Summer.

By United Press.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 20.—A widespread system of busses operated by railway companies was foreseen in the southwest today, following announcement by W. J. Black, Santa Fe general passenger agent, that the Santa Fe will operate a 300-mile bus route in New Mexico next summer.

While Black would not admit this was the first step to establish bus lines to meet the competition of scores of privately owned busses, it is understood that the southwestern railways have for some time been studying the problem with a view to operating their own busses. The privately owned lines have dug deeply into the railway passenger business and many roads have been forced to offer excursion rates to meet the competition.

It is said the Santa Fe will offer side trips in connection with its bus line travel on which meals and lodgings will be furnished.

The owner of the Chicago News and a director of the Associated Press, died last night at the age of 75. He was born in Chicago, September 9, 1850. He virtually grew up in the publishing business in Chicago. His father owned a Scandinavian paper and it was in the office of that paper that Melville E. Stone, past president of the Associated Press, started the Daily News. Later, when Larsen's father had died, he bought an interest and eventually became its owner.

Tom Clark of Bridgeport brought Wallace to Fort Worth in an automobile. They arrived at the hospital at 9 p. m. and Wallace died four and a half hours later.

County Judge's Office Girl on Vacation and Files Inaccessible

Headlights in use throughout the state of Texas must be inspected before September 1. Although information has been sought several times, it has never been possible to obtain the names of the authorized headlight inspectors in Ranger and it is doubtful if the names of the inspectors in Cisco are known to many. Another effort at the office of County Judge Prichard today resulted in the reply that while the names of the headlight inspectors were all on file in his office they were inaccessible until his office girl returns and she is at present away on her vacation.

BARBERS DESERT MEN TO CUT WOMEN'S HAIR

LONDON, Aug. 20.—London is threatened with a dearth of barbers for men owing to their wholesale desertion to shops catering exclusively to the bobbing and shingling of women's heads.

The deserters say they find working on women's hair not only much more profitable, but that it also affords a more interesting field for the display of their artistic talents.

A good job of shingling and bobbing a woman's crowning glory, it seems, leaves the artistically minded barber with a feeling of personal satisfaction infinitely greater than he can derive from the unromantic shearing of a male dome.

PADEREWSKI FORCED BY HOOVER TO STOP MASSACRES

Mutual misunderstandings between Herbert Hoover, then the de facto "World Food Commissioner," and Paderewski, the musician, then premier of Poland, almost wrecked the government of Poland in 1919. This passage of diplomatic history is revealed by Herman Bernstein in his article upon Hoover in the September issue of Time's Magazine.

The misunderstanding arose over a massacre of Jews in Pinsk, where 37 were executed by a firing squad, commanded by a major in the Polish army.

Lewis L. Strauss is the authority for the story which Bernstein quoted. "I took the telegram telling of the execution to Mr. Hoover and read it to him. His face seemed to grow older as he listened. Mr. Hoover wrote at once to M. Paderewski and the premier came at once to our office. I was present at the interview. Paderewski insisted that nothing had occurred except a routine execution of bolsheviks. Mr. Hoover was in a most delicate position. With tact at which I shall always marvel, yet with a bluntness that carried conviction, he told the premier that his government would find it impossible and unwise to palliate such executions."

The FLAPPER WIFE

By Beatrice Burton © 1925 REA SERVICE INC.

THE STORY SO FAR:

Gloria Gordon, beautiful flapper, married Dick Gregory, a struggling lawyer. Her idea of marriage is fun and fine clothes—but no work or children.

Dick borrows Maggie, his mother's maid, to teach Gloria to cook. But she refuses to learn. Later Maggie leaves, disgusted with Gloria's "wild" parties and her jazzy friends.

Then Gloria hires Ranghild Swanson, although Dick tells her they can't afford a maid. She swamps Dick with debts for new clothes, and insists upon a new automobile.

Gloria goes riding in it with Stanley Wayburn, an actor with whom she is infatuated. They are seen by Mother Gregory, who begs Gloria to mend her ways.

Next day Gloria asks Wayburn, May Seymour, wife of Dr. John Seymour, and May's lover, Jim Carewe, to the house. Dick returns and puts the guests out.

Because of her silly affair with Carewe, May is shunned by her women friends. But that doesn't stop Gloria from seeing Wayburn.

Dick is dangerously ill with pneumonia. He is nursed by Mrs. O'Hara, whose sister, Susan Briggs, is Dick's secretary.

Toward the end of Dick's illness, Wayburn tells Gloria he is going to New York to get a job on the stage there. He needs money. Gloria promises to get $200 for him.

She is left in charge of Dick one day when he asks her to mail a letter for him. It is sealed and addressed to "Miss Susan Briggs."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Gloria went into her own room after her wraps to go out and mail Dick's letter.

The day was cold and there was a tiny jet of steam hissing out from the radiator beside her dressing table. It gave Gloria a sudden idea.

She picked up the envelope and held it against the little jet of steam. The edges of the gummed flap began to curl back slowly.

She would just open that letter and read what was in it!

She would find out what Dick was writing to Miss Briggs about! He had no business to be writing to her anyway.

Didn't Miss Briggs telephone him every morning from the office to tell him how things were going there? If he had anything important to say to her, why didn't he say it then instead of putting it into a letter, for goodness sake?—Unless it was something that he didn't want anyone to hear. Ah, that must be it!

Gloria picked up her nail file from her tray of toilet things. She slipped its sharp point under the loosened flap of the envelope.

Then she stood still, looking down at the sedate syllables of Susan Briggs' name.

She was filled with sudden self-dignity.

What a sneaking thing she was doing! Opening another person's letter!

Gloria flung the envelope down on her dresser as if it had been a live coal. She pressed the flap down tight.

Then she snatched it up and went back into Dick's bedroom.

"Looky here, Rikky," she began. "Do you think it's fair of you to write a letter to Miss Briggs and ask me to mail it for you? Particularly when you give it to me all sealed up for fear I might take a peek at it—Here it is! I'm not going to post it for you!"

She tossed it down onto the covers of Dick's bed.

"As if I care a snap of my fingers what you've written to your old Miss Briggs!" she added scornfully. "You flatter yourself!"

Dick threw back his head and laughed.

"By Jove, I believe you do care, at that!" he said. "I believe you do!" The thought that she might be pealous of Miss Briggs seemed to please him immensely.

He ripped open the envelope.

"Here's the letter I wrote to her, Glory," he said. "Want to see it?" Gloria took the two sheets of paper that he handed to her.

One was a bill for a hat that Glory

the window so that Dick shouldn't see her face.

"I'll never cheat," he had said to her. What an ugly word "cheat" was!

Gloria saw now that she ought to have told Dick how she felt about Stanley Wayburn from the moment when he had kissed her in his dressing-room. That would have been the square thing to do!

But the whole affair had happened so gradually—that she hadn't realized that it had completely separated her from Dick until it was too late.

But was it too late, after all, to put Wayburn out of her life? Couldn't she forget him and try to be a good wife to Dick?

After all, what were a few kisses, a few automobile rides with Wayburn? There had been no real harm in them—and Stan was going away soon.

Gloria started out into the street, thinly veiled by gray April rain.

"I'll try to get that money and give it to Stan and then I'll never see him again—I'll never think of him again!" she said defiantly. It was as if she disputed something with herself.

She put her handkerchief up to her eyes and brushed the welling tears away.

The telephone buzzed loudly in the quiet room.

Gloria glanced at her wrist watch. It was 2:30. And 2 o'clock was the time that she usually met Stan at the corner for a drive or a hike! He was probably phoning to ask why she had failed him!

"Shall I answer the phone, honey?" Dick asked.

NEW YORK-NEW JERSEY AIR LINE IS PROPOSED

By United Press.
AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 20.—The Goodyear-Zeppelin corporation here is working on plans for Zeppelins ranging in size from 1,000,000 to 10,000,000 cubic feet capacity and the corporation may be awarded contracts soon for building a 1,000,000 cubic foot dirigible for coastwise service between New York and Atlantic City, N. J. The corporation has been asked to quote figures on the cost of such a dirigible by the eastern company which is to operate the line. Further details of the proposed line will be revealed when more definite information is obtained from the east, W. C. Young, chief of the aeronautical sales division of the local corporation, said today. Capt. Anton Heinen, late of the German Zeppelin organization, and one of the veterans of Zeppelin building, is said to be interested in the corporation behind the line. Mayor Edward L. Bader, of Atlantic City, is also said to be connected with the new venture. The airship proposed for the route would be larger than the famous Bodensee, German passenger dirigible, which was built six months ago and which carries 30 passengers at a cruising speed of 75 miles an hour.

BARNUM AS MAYOR STOLE ONLY AWAY

P. T. Barnum, the circus owner closed his term as Mayor of Bridgeport, Conn., by this address to the common council. He was entertaining a motion to adjourn sin die. "Now, gentlemen, let us fold our tents like the Arabs and silently steal away, congratulating ourselves that this is the only stealing which has been done by this honorable body." Barnum's gavel fell and he turned and winked at the councilmen. "Now you are all dead backs in the pit," he remarked. Harvey W. Root has discovered this and other forgotten incidents of Barnum's term as mayor, which he has included in an article upon the great showman in the September McClure's.

DALLAS PUBLIC PARTICULAR ABOUT MONEY IT ACCEPTS

DALLAS, Aug. 20.—W. J. Evans, assistant federal reserve agent in Dallas, says that the Dallas banks have a hard time pushing off $2 bills on the superstitious public. Tellers declare that nearly every customer will turn down a $2 bill if it is offered to him through a window, and call for two "ones." Evans says that the bank cannot work off $10,000 notes either. Most people are not willing to have that much money in one piece. $10,000 bills are most generally used by banks in making returns to the clearing house.

SAME FINE STUDEBAKERS Prices Reduced—Quality Maintained

THESE low prices are not for new cars built to sell at new prices. They are for Studebaker cars identical with those which have been in tremendous demand at higher prices during the past eleven months.

They are for Studebaker cars so well built of such high quality materials that net profits during the past six months have averaged only $140.64 per car. The rest of the money the public paid us went into making a car with scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation.

These earnings are a triumph for the one-profit basis of manufacture. No manufacturer on a less efficient basis could have made a dollar selling cars of Studebaker quality at Studebaker prices.

Studebaker is the only one-profit car in the fine car field. Only Ford and Studebaker make for all their cars all bodies, all engines, all gear sets, clutches, springs, differentials, axles, steering gears, gray iron castings and drop forgings.

Thus we save and pass on to purchasers profits which many other manufacturers must pay to outside parts and body makers.

No "yearly models" makes sales jump
Thus we were able last January to reduce prices already low.

Then we announced that Studebaker would have no more "yearly models" to artificially depreciate cars in the hands of owners.

Sales instantly started to soar and have forced the vast Studebaker plants to maintain peak production throughout the summer, in the face of declining production for the industry in general.

To one-profit savings we thus add savings due to long continued peak production. These savings we share with customers in the price reduction announced August 1st.

We still use genuine leather, mohair upholstery, fine northern white ash and hard maple, tough extra gauge steel for which we pay premiums, plate glass, walnut inlaid with holly and other refinements. In short, these are the same fine cars in every particular—only the price has been reduced. You can't appreciate what a bargain Studebaker cars are at these new prices until you compare them point by point with others. Remember that Studebaker cars have been kept constantly up to date. Improvements have been made as soon as developed—not saved up for spectacular announcements under the guise of "new yearly models" designed to depreciate cars already in the hands of owners.

Superiorities—both hidden and obvious

Many of the most important superiorities of Studebaker are hidden until revealed by thousands of miles of usage, but here are some you can check to prove our statement that every Studebaker is more up to date than the newest "yearly model."

On all present Studebaker models, you'll find an automatic spark control, safety lighting control on the steering wheel, 8-day clock and gasoline gauge on the dash, improved one-piece windshield, special coincidental lock of ignition and steering gear, fully machined crankshaft, coil ventilator, water-proof ignition and oil drain valve beside the engine.

Studebaker pioneered the steel-framed Duplex Top with roller side enclosures which gives enclosed car protection to open car models—in 30 seconds.

Studebaker pioneered the use of full-size balloon tires, for which steering mechanism, fenders and body lines have been especially designed.

Come in and see these sturdy, dependable "one-profit" cars. Today, more than ever before, every Studebaker is a big money's worth.

Ask about our liberal Budget Payment Plan.
