Women in Court When Pup Digs Up the Lawn

International News Service.
 CHICAGO, April 23.—A Pomeranian pup's opinion that nature's elements had not sufficiently cared for a front lawn and his attempt to remedy that deficiency led to a police court squabble between two society women here.

Mrs. Cyrus Edson Manierre, a daughter of former Mayor Carter H. Harrison, and owner of the pup, was one of the contestants. The other was Mrs. George Ceiga, the owner of the lawn, which fronts on one of the most fashionable thoroughfares of the city.

Mrs. Manierre testified that while she was out for a constitutional with "Fluff," the diminutive cause of the row, she was pursued by Mrs. Ceiga, who charged that the dog had trampled unduly on her lawn. Shethy called Mrs. Manierre various names, the latter declared. Mrs. Manierre had Mrs. Ceiga arrested.

Mrs. Ceiga alleged that "Fluff" was in the habit of trespassing on her lawn every time he went walking with his mistress, and that she had merely called Mrs. Manierre's attention to the fact. A policeman's testimony that she abused him when he was called by Mrs. Manierre, however, cost Mrs. Ceiga the case. She was fined $5.

A. Johnson, just before he left for his home at Memphis, Hall county.

Ranger Man Sued for $50,000 on Alienation Charge

EASTLAND, April 24.—Samuel L. Barbour of Cisco has filed suit in the district court again W. L. Benson of Ranger for $50,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained because of the alienation of the affections of plaintiff's wife.

The petition sets up that during September of last year, while plaintiff and his wife, Martha A. Barbour, were living happily together, the defendant, intending thereby to injure plaintiff, gained the affections of Mrs. Barbour and offered her money and other inducements to leave the plaintiff.

It is asserted in the petition that Mrs. Barbour was induced by the defendant, Benson, to leave her husband and to file a suit for divorce against him, so that after the divorce is granted she may marry Benson.

In her suit for divorce Mrs. Barbour alleges that on August 25, last year, her husband struck her, causing great mental and physical pain and anguish, and later forced her to do work when she was too ill to work and then forced her to leave her home.

House Shortage Knotty Problem in New England

By Associated Press

BOSTON, April 23.—Massachusetts has not yet been able to make up for its shortage of homes and keep from skyrocketing. A state commission on the necessities of life is struggling with the problem but meanwhile tenants in this city and elsewhere have obtained little relief. Several tenant groups recently refused to pay advances in rent demanded of them and by joint action avoided eviction which would have been legal upon thirty days' notice.

Two hundred tenants at Revere have formed a corporation known as the Tenants' league to combat rent increases and have announced that they will tolerate no more advances in rent and requested aid from the city's local department. The issue there is still in doubt. An attempt to solve the problem by arbitration has been made in Brockton, a shoe manufacturing center. A board composed of two tenants, two landlords and a fifth member to be selected by the others is to decide whether rents have been unduly advanced when disputes arise between landlords and tenants.

The commission on the necessities of life has investigated the housing and rent problems and has contributed a number of suggestions for their solution but as yet has made no formal report. It has urged the cities to form housing corporations and take over and improve abandoned tenements by workmen who had moved to better ones. The commission was unopposed because the landlords found there were 3,000 tenements which would not remodel them so as to make them fit for occupancy.

At the suggestion of the commission a bill has been introduced into the legislature that would limit the return from investments in dwelling houses to 8 per cent. The purpose of it is to prevent speculation in homes. The commissioners found that many builders had stopped construction because of the high cost of labor and materials and had gone to speculating in real estate. The result was that frequent sales of property were followed by advances in rent. In many cases tenants were forced out of their homes so that the landlords might de-Massachusetts' corporations have attempted to relieve the housing shortage by erecting community houses. Whole villages of attractive houses are being erected in New Bedford, Lawrence, Lowell and other mill cities, and will be rented or sold to employees on easy terms.

LAMB THEATER

Bert Lytell in "The Right of Way"

At the Lamb theater today Bert Lytell plays the part of Steele, the lawyer, in "The Right of Way," a Screen Classics, Inc. release filmed from the famous novel by Sir Gilbert Parker. The play deals with Canada and the life of Montreal and of the Canadian wilds. There is action enough to appeal to the most red-blooded, stirring drama set in the amphitheater of the great outdoors. But through the picture runs a deeper note, a spiritual battle which tries the soul of the brilliant, haughty lawyer in a crucible.

Steele is one of the brightest legal stars in Canada, admired and feared by members of his profession. Withal he is a cynic of the worst type, a mocker and a doubter of all that is good. Successive misfortunes brought on by his own careless habits and egotism befall him. Finally he seeks refuge in the wilds.

The struggle he undergoes in the primitive outdoors while searching for some sort of spiritual ballast form a fascinating story. He meets a girl whose eyes hold a message of faith and love and religion of a very real type. The picture will prove especially enjoyable to those who have read the story.

VALE THE 'BO.

Reports from various regions where the species once flourished indicate that the hobo will soon join the dinosaurs, buffalo and other specimens which once reamed in herds throughout our country. As the horse is rapidly disappearing from the streets, so the hobo is vanishing from his accustomed haunts until he may become as great a curiosity as the family mare pacing along with a two-seated buggy. The railroad centers are almost bare of Weary Willies and along the nearby highways the "beware of the dog" signs are not justifying a fresh coat of paint.

No tragedy lurks in the background and no pathos marks the passing of the once familiar knight of the road. He has been transformed, that is all, and converted into an industrial citizen. While formerly he beat his way from town to town, working only when impelled by the craving for food, doing his period of days in the town lockup occasionally, he is now traveling first-class and putting up at a hotel. Instead of huddling around a flickering blaze in the jungles of the railroad yards he is well clad, in comfortable surroundings and living on the fat of the land.

The war has been chiefly responsible for the passing of the old American tramp. Many enlisted in the army, emerging with self-respect and initiative they had never known before. Others were put to work in various factories and the enforced habit of industry soon proved attractive, especially the con-forts which high wages brought. If the hobo who still survives is compelled by circumstances to seek temporary employment, he no longer slouches up to the farmer's door and bargains for a week's labor, but applies at some industrial plant where he gets big wages. His passing has made the brakeman's life a care-free existence. In New York a hobo hotel was closed for lack of patronage. If the present prosperity remains unchecked he will probably exist only in the columns of the comic magazines—Indianapolis Star.

AMERICANS IN PERIL.

The fact that appeals from Mexico, urging the United States government to send warships to the east and west coast of the southern republic, come from American government representatives leaves no doubt that a serious situation exists in Mexico.

It may mean that Americans in Mexico are threatened with merciless oppression.

A repetition of such conditions, in which many Americans lost their lives and many others were forced to flee, after the loss of their property, would be intolerable.

It may be true that the state department at Washington has received appeals in the past from persons who called for help too hastily, but this should not lull the government into inactivity. Alert attention should be paid to what is going on in Mexico, so that prompt and effective action may be taken if Americans in that country need the protection of the strong arm of Uncle Sam.

The fact that warships have been sent to Mexico indicates that Washington is not asleep and that the record of the United States navy in emergencies is a promise that if there is occasion for vigorous measures in Mexico there will be brave and vigorous men there to act.

The old story of killing, oppressing and robbing Americans in Mexico must not be repeated.

We protect the Mexicans who come here to seek work or go into business, and we must see that peaceful Americans who go into Mexico are protected, no matter what sort of political tempests blow in that weird, distracted land.

BLACK-DRAUGHT AS A PREVENTIVE

When You Begin Feeling Bad With Feverishness, Headache, Cold, or Constipation, Give Your Liver a Tonic—Take Black-Draught.

Candler, N. C.—"I don't believe there is a better medicine made than Black-Draught; I have used it and my mother's folks used it for colds, feverishness, headache and deranged liver." This statement recently was made by Mr. C. B. Trull, a well-known farmer on Route 3, this place.

"I have, before now, begun feeling dull, a headache would come on, and I would feel all full of cold, and take a few doses of Black-Draught and get all right," adds Mr. Trull.

"Last year my brother had measles, flu and pneumonia. They wired us; I went to Camp Jackson to look him up. Down there different ones were using preventatives. I stayed with him. The only thing I used was Black-Draught. It kept my system cleansed and I kept well and strong."

By keeping your liver and stomach in good order, you stand in little danger of catching serious ills that occasionally spread through town and country. Get a package of Black-Draught and have it ready for the first symptom of a disordered liver. Most druggists sell Black-Draught.

Prizes Offered for the Best Work in Clean-Up Wed.

In the clean-up campaign which is to be staged next Wednesday three prizes will be given to the school districts securing the cleanest area.

The first prize, which comes from the Chamber of Commerce, is $100 in cash and is to be applied by the winning school upon a piano fund. The second prize of a complete baseball outfit will be given by the Business and Working Men's club. The third prize is a volley ball outfit.

The clean-up campaign, which is inaugurated by the B. & W. M. club, is now in the hands of a central committee representing the Chamber of Commerce, the B. & W. M. club, the American Legion, the Central Labor council and the Parents and Teachers clubs of the three schools.

Plans are being perfected whereby the entire town will be organized by districts. The districts will be under organization down to their smallest units, which is a city block.

The three schools will be districts, with the business section the fourth. Boundaries will be sharply defined. Each area will have its own organization and will not conflict with any other.

The Parent and Teacher club of each school will appoint the general committees for their respective districts. These committees will be for general supervision. Their chairman will appoint other committees who will in turn be general supervisors of the sub-divisions into which the districts will be divided.

On Thursday district committees will make a survey and report to the central committees at a place designated later, and on Friday the judges who are to be chosen will go over the ground and make awards of the prizes. Mayor Hagaman will by a proclamation declare Wednesday a half holiday and call upon everyone to help make Ranger a "spotless town."

RANGER MEN BUY INTEREST IN STORE IN WEATHERFORD

WEATHERFORD, April 24.—The hardware firm of Love & Co., has changed hands, selling their interests to Messrs. Frank Milburn and N. J. Tate of this city and Jordan Brown and Lee Blackwell of Ranger. This is the oldest hardware business in this city. Its establishment dating back about thirty years when the late R. P. Love settled in Weatherford. The new firm is composed of Weatherford men, Mr. Brown and Mr. Blackwell having formerly resided here. This is a strong firm and their business success is assured.

Dr. Austin F. Leach is now in New Orleans attending the meeting of the American Medical association. Dr. Leach will take a post-graduate course in Tulane university before returning home.

The business district of Weatherford is taking on different air since the street paving has commenced. Two banks of the city have just completed remodeling their fronts and other business houses are undergoing a coat of paint or otherwise being put in shape to conform to the new dress of our streets. Now that we have something real to be proud of it is putting more pride into our citizens and they are beginning to "dress up" their places of business.

CHARGES SMUGGLING OF ARMS TO TURKS UNDER KEMEL PASHA

NEW YORK, April 24.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha's Turkish Nationalist army, which has been a disturbing factor in the efforts of the allies to solve the Turkish peace problem, is being regularly supplied with arms and ammunition from Constantinople through Trebizond, a Black Sea port, according to information received here from J. P. Ryan of Muncie, Ind., a Near East relief worker in that district.

"Arms are smuggled in regularly, and with almost no attempt at concealment," writes Mr. Ryan. "A Turkish schooner makes a trip every few days from Constantinople, and anchors right here in Trebizond. The cargo is discharged at night, and loaded into Turkish army wagons that you can see almost any night following the same road out of town that the lines of Greek refugees were driven to their death in 1915 and 1916. They pass right by the Near East Relief organization on their way to the interior."

"I have no way of being certain where they go but most probably to Erzingan and Sivas, where Mustapha Kemal, in spite of the French mission, is very strong. There is a British control officer here of course, but he would not believe that arms were being shipped into the country until he happened to be out here one night, and I showed him the wagons passing. He has stopped a few of them, but the smuggling still goes on, just the same.

"The Turks realize that most of the hinterland of this country, if not Trebizond itself, is bound to go to Armenia, sooner or later, and they are preparing to resist Armenian rule, and to try to discredit the Armenian government by inspiring disorder just as soon as the Armenians take charge.

"It is a pity that Admiral Bristol and the American navy are not charged with the duty of patrolling the coast, and that from Batum to Beyrouth. The trouble with France and England is that the Mohammedans have been bluffed, on account of their Mohammedan colonies, and the Turks are putting it over on them right along. The only nation the Turks respect is the U. S. A."

RANGER'S BIRTHDAY

WILL BE CELEBRATED

at the

First Presbyterian Church

SUNDAY EVENING, 8 O'CLOCK

Bell Well leases cause J. R. Miller to offer his fine Marston street property directly in front of post-office at $18,000.00 less than he was formerly offered.

Money is very scarce and hard to get and in order to get the cash to invest in Reeves and Culberson county leases will sacrifice my property on Marston street between Main and Walnut for $7,000 net cash to me.
