RANGER MAN IS NAMED ON PRISON BOARD

KU KLUX KLAN IS UPHELD IN DALLAS SPEECH

Order Stands for Law and Order and Opposes Violence, Asserts Speaker.

DALLAS, Aug. 12.—Speaking to nearly 3,000 persons here last night, the Rev. Caleb A. Ridley of Atlanta, Ga., defended the Ku Klux Klan. Ridley, who was formerly pastor of a church at Beaumont, Texas, declared that the Klan had been accused of everything in the last two months, "from taking a crutch from under a cripple to stealing the butter from a blind man's bread."

"But the Klan stands first, last and always for law and order," Dr. Ridley declared. "They say we are anti-Jew, anti-negro, anti-Catholic, anti-foreigner, that we don't stand for anything positive, but are just 'agin' something.' We can no more be called anti-Catholic than the Catholics can be called anti-Ku Klux. They can't join us, but we can't join the Knights of Columbus."

The Atlanta minister declared that every time someone went out to do something he did not want the people to know about, he would get a few companions to put on masks, and they would leave notes or brands, or tell the victim they were "K. K.'s."

He reiterated the defense of the Klan as given in recent statements by the imperial wizard and heads of local organizations. Morning papers today carried full page advertisements signed by Imperial Wizard Simmons of Atlanta, in which he again outlined the purpose for which the Klan is organized, and denies the fact that "there appears to be a concerted effort to discredit the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in the eyes of the public."

PANAMA CANAL TONNAGE INCREASES 23 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—A total of 11,539,214 tons of commercial cargo was carried through the Panama canal during the last fiscal year, or 23 1-2 per cent more than in any preceding year, while the tolls amounted to $11,276,890, or 32 1-2 per cent more than any preceding year, according to the Panama canal record.

STARNES HOLDS CONTRACT FOR COUNTY ROAD WORK A BARGAIN

List of Comparative Bids Is Submitted in Proof of Assertion.

That Eastland county's road contract was let at a lower figure than the contracts of twelve other Texas counties, entered into about the same time, is the statement of County Judge C. R. Starnes in a letter to the Times. The letter is accompanied by a statement of comparative prices to bear out the judge's contentions.

STARNES' STATEMENT.

EASTLAND, Aug. 12.—Inasmuch as the prices paid the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company by the county for the construction of the highways have been discussed more or less in public meetings throughout the county, I am enclosing herewith tabulation of bids of contracts awarded as received in ten counties and the bid of the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company on most of the items of their contract.

The bids shown in the tabulation were on the basis of a cash payment, with the exception of three counties and the Fleming & Stitzer bid. From this tabulation it will be seen that Eastland county's contract is at a lower average price than the other counties, with the exception of two items, namely, borrow and earth excavation. These items appear to be slightly higher than the average, but they are made on a basis of 500-foot free haul. Practically all other counties in the state are paid on a basis of 200 feet free haul. Taking this into consideration, the Fleming & Stitzer prices on excavation are lower than the average prices of the other twelve counties. Especial attention is called to the item of clearing and grubbing, the average price being $150.65 for the twelve contracts. Tarrant county in September awarded a contract for clearing and grubbing at $150 per acre in cash as against Eastland county's contract for $125 in bonds three months previous to this.

At Peak of Prices. It should also be borne in mind that Eastland county, being in the heart of the oil district, prices were then and still are higher than else-

Will Add Merriman to School District

DUNNAM TO STARNES

Special to the Times. EASTLAND, Aug. 12.—"I am determined to continue the investigation into the affairs of Eastland county," was the reply of County Attorney Dunnam to the open letter of Judge C. R. Starnes, printed in yesterday's Times.

Dunnam referred to Starnes' letter as a "nonsensical and silly article." He made no reply to the Starnes' questions, beyond his statement as to the investigation. His letter minced no words in expressing his opinion of the judge.

PREACHER IS CHARGED WITH KILLING PRIEST

Rage Because Daughter Was Wedded to Catholic Believed Motive.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 12.—Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, itinerant minister, was held in the city jail today on charges of murder, following the slaying of Father James E. Coyle, dean of the Catholic church in Northern Alabama, and pastor of St. Paul's church in Birmingham.

Stephenson in a statement made following his arrest, made it apparent that he will claim self-defense. Father Coyle was shot to death as he sat on the front porch of the parish house. The minister surrendered immediately following the shooting. Father Coyle died an hour later.

Grief over the fact that his daughter had married a Catholic, the ceremony having been performed yesterday by Father Coyle, was the cause of the shooting, police said today.

Both Districts Benefit. Merriman will benefit by the consolidation in at least two ways: A new building, modeled after the Tiffin building, will be erected there at an early date, and a bus line will be operated by the Ranger board, to carry advanced students to and from the high school here. This bus line probably will run to Tiffin, also. This advantage of high school facilities, together with the refusal of the county school board to allow construction of a school building there, were the principal reasons for Merriman favoring the consolidation. That school, which is one of the richest in the state, due to oil royalties, has perhaps $100,000 in the treasury but the county board refused to allow the use of this money in constructing a new and modern building. The Merriman fund can be used for this purpose under the new jurisdiction, as it passes from control of the county board.

Ranger's chief benefit is in the addition of taxable values. These amount to probably $5,000,000 and will bring the valuation of the district up to about $23,000,000. The increase in size is a fraction more than two square miles, making a district embracing thirty-one square miles. The plant, when contemplated buildings are completed will consist of seven modern brick school houses.

Backbone Needed. The meeting was opened by Mr. McKinney, who stated that forty-three invitations to the meeting had been sent out, with a few personal invitations given by word of mouth. At the last meeting, he said, seven had been present. He declared some men who would be expected to be in attendance at such a meeting were so connected they could not attend. The gist of his talk was that if the men present had the backbone to stand up to an open fight which would have to be made, the time to let it be known was then. But he said if the support was only half-hearted it had better not be given and the move had better die where it was. The object of this meeting, he said, was to see if that support is here. Every man present declared himself squarely behind the move.

Both Rev. Mr. Stubblebine and the Rev. J. G. Winsett made speeches. Mr. Stubblebine said they had to be prepared to go as far as a recall, if necessary to gain their ends. E. E. Crawford, V. V. Cooper, B. Lipman, L. J. Parker, H. J. Wheatley, R. T. Page, F. A. Butcher, C. C. Barrett, W. C. Barrett, P. P. Palmer, W. G. Lindsay, J. F. Hill, John Black, J. E. Maroney, E. George, Clyde Thacker, Captain Mullins, H. E. Clewell, F. S. Owens, Dr. A. K. Weir, J. C. McElroy, S. N. Shell, Sam K. Wasaff, the Rev. Stubblebine, Rev. J. G. Winsett, J. W. McKinney, Willis Cude and Fred Hall were present.

The resolutions adopted read: "Be it resolved, that we, as law-respecting people of the city of Ranger in mass meeting assembled, pledge ourselves and our united and combined effort to the accomplishment of the following purpose, to-wit: "To secure and encourage harmony and co-operation among the officers of our city and county.

"To co-operate in every way possible with the legally constituted authorities in the suppression of crime of every character and in apprehending and bringing to justice of the lawmakers will probably determine today whether there will be a second session of the legislature. The appropriation bills, now in free conference, furnish the only stumbling block to adjournment next Tuesday.

There is a strong movement to bring about an adjustment in the bills either today and tomorrow and if it is not accomplished in this time it is probable a second session will be held.

The house started to work at 8 o'clock this morning, the earliest hour of the session. Speaker Thomas appointed the new conference committee to meet the senate committee on the eleemosynary appropriation bill. It is composed of Representatives Cummings, Morris, Miller, Henderson and Wallace. The committee is unrestricted.

The free conference committee on the senatorial redistricting bill reached an agreement by recommending enactment of the senate bill. A fight may result in the house on the measure.

OPTOMETRY BILL PASSED.

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—The senate today finally passed the bill recognizing and regulating the practice of optometry in Texas. The vote was 18 to 8.

SUGGESTS COMPROMISE ON EDUCATIONAL TANGLE

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—Restoration of salaries, even with retention, Pope amendment would prove a satisfactory compromise on differences between the house and senate on the educational appropriation, announced Dr. Bizzell, of A. & M., today. Bizzell said "with sufficient funds, with or without the Pope amendment, we can run educational institutions."

He further stated that he is receiving an average of two resignations of faculty members a week, because of the cut in salaries made by the legislature.

The situation has become serious he said. A few days ago a member of the teaching staff of nine years' service, resigned to become associate professor in the University of Louisiana.

This teacher, according to Dr. Bizzell, received $2,100 at A. & M. He was cut by the legislature to $1,600. He goes to Louisiana for $2,400. Resignation of faculty members at the University of Texas also are reported almost daily.

CONSOLIDATION BILL EXPECTED TO PASS TODAY

Will Give That Community Building and Bus; Adds to Ranger Taxable Values.

Passage by tonight of a bill consolidating the Ranger and Merriman school districts was promised M. H. Smith at Austin yesterday by both Senator Burkett and Representative Russell. When Mr. Smith left the capital, the bill had been engrossed in one house and had a favorable committee report in the other. It was billed for plain sailing, as both representatives gave it their cordial support after the governor had submitted it. Submission was an appreciated favor on the part of the governor, Mr. Smith said, as he was not approached until late in the session. The lateness was occasioned by making certain that Merriman would approve the consolidation, after which Mr. Smith and Commissioner Sanford Dean spent considerable time in obtaining the support of officials.

The consolidation will benefit both districts, it is believed and had the unanimous support of the Merriman school board and a large majority of the patrons. Some opposition was encountered from Eastland, where a number of Merriman land owners reside, and the statement was wired to Austin that a large majority of the patrons had signed a petition against the consolidation. This was refuted by telegrams from members of the Merriman board, and after that the bill had the hearty co-operation of the Eastland county representatives in both houses.

Both Districts Benefit. Merriman will benefit by the consolidation in at least two ways: A new building, modeled after the Tiffin building, will be erected there at an early date, and a bus line will be operated by the Ranger board, to carry advanced students to and from the high school here. This bus line probably will run to Tiffin, also. ### LET 'EM LIVE

HAVRE, Aug. 12.—"The fox trot and shimmy are excellent aids to training for lawn tennis," Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen blithely declared just before sailing on the steamer Paris for New York. She volunteered the information that she was taking along a number of pretty Parisian dancing frocks.

REFORM, OR OFFICIALS' RECALL, AIM OF LAW ENFORCEMENT BODY

Mass Meeting Will Be Held Tuesday Night for Purpose of Enlisting Support; Vice, Liquor and Gambling Condemned; Blue Laws Not Sought.

After many statements that vice conditions in Ranger are worse today in proportion than they have been in its history, twenty-eight citizens last night formed themselves into a Law Enforcement bureau, elected officers, adopted a set of resolutions and called a mass meeting for next Tuesday night. The object of the meeting is to enlist aid in the fight it proposes to make.

On a tally vote taken of those in the meeting last night, it was found the majority were strongly in favor of enforcing all laws against liquor selling, gambling and immorality but were against Sunday blue laws.

At the rally to be held Tuesday night it is expected twenty men will be appointed to form a vigilance committee, which will work in conjunction with officers to see that the laws are enforced. The committee is called for in the resolutions adopted. The resolutions also set out that the enforcement bureau will seek to remove from office any officer "who disregards his official duty and laughs to scorn the rights of decent society in order to secure unlawful gain," and it will "point out to the world and prosecute the hotel and inn keepers who permit immorality on their premises and profit from the sale of human flesh and human souls."

Similar resolutions drawn several weeks ago were said to have been given premature publication at that time, thus defeating the ends for which they had been drafted.

Permanent Officers. The Rev. A. N. Stubblebine, who had been elected temporary chairman at a former meeting of the bureau, presided last night until H. E. Clewell was elected permanent chairman. Sam K. Wasaff, who was acting as temporary secretary, was displaced by E. George as permanent secretary.

At one point in the meeting, a motion was made that a committee of ten be appointed to go before the city commission with tangible evidence and demand that something be done about conditions. However, it was withdrawn in favor of a motion to hold a mass meeting before the city commission was called upon.

A committee to enlist members for the bureau was appointed and is composed of the Rev. A. N. Stubblebine, Sam Wasaff, the Rev. J. G. Winsett, J. C. McElroy, and Dr. A. K. Weir.

A publicity committee appointed is composed of the Rev. J. W. McKinney, V. V. Cooper and W. G. Lindsay.

Backbone Needed. The meeting was opened by Mr. McKinney, who stated that forty-three invitations to the meeting had been sent out, with a few personal invitations given by word of mouth. ## CONWAY-KELLEY RIG GOING UP IN EDGE OF TOWN

Test Is on Hagaman Tract, Where Shot Once Ruined Good Well.

W. D. Conway and Sam Kelley have begun putting up a rig and will spud in a well next week on the M. H. Hagaman tract one mile northeast of the T. & P. depot. They have eighty-three acres of undeveloped acreage upon which they will put down a number of wells if the result of the first test is satisfactory. This is the first close-in well in more than a year, and is a highly important test.

Only one well has ever been drilled upon this farm, that one having been drilled by the T. & P. Coal & Oil company in the early days of the field. It made 350 barrels daily for thirty days and was then lost by a misplaced shot in an effort to shoot it into big production. Only wells of production running into the thousands were in feverish demand at that time and drilling these and necessary offsets and those required by lease contracts engaged the energies of the Tee-Pee company until the drop in price of crude made further development unattractive to them as well as to other large operators. On this account they have released the tract to Conway and Kelley for development. They are confident that, on account of the various items of economy which will enter into their operations, it can be drilled profitably.

The first well will be located just seventy-five feet from the original well, and if it is a success will permit the drilling of several others to the eastward. A mile to the east big wells were found and good production in almost every direction.

SOLONS SPEED UP TO AVOID NEW SESSION

New Tree Conference Committee Appointed With No Instructions.

HOPE FOR PASSAGE OF R. R. RELIEF SLIGHT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The administration railroad relief bill will be reported out of committee next week without the slightest hope of its passage this session, leaders announced today. President Harding has been notified that the measure has no show of immediate passage either in its suggested form or with compromising amendments that will be offered.

Dallas Jailer of Form Divine, Sends Answering Bleat to Appeal of Noted Artists' Model for Perfect Man Mate

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 12.—The cry of Audrey Munson, world famous sculptor's model, for a perfect man mate to be the father of her ideal perfect family, has not been uttered in vain. T. R. Wood, night jailer at the city jail here, has sent back an answering bleat, offering himself as the perfect husband Audrey seeks.

The United Press flashed over the country Audrey's appeal for a perfect man. "He may be a butcher, a baker, or a candlestick maker," said Audrey. "The only qualification that will get him by is physical perfection."

Wood is neither of these. He was a cowboy before he went overseas in the world war, and was wounded going over the top. He came back and was made a city detective, and recently was appointed night jailer.

The following telegram was sent Miss Munson at her home in Syracuse, N. Y., today:

"Offer myself perfect man mate for what you advertise through the United Press. (Signed) C. R. Wood, night city jailer."

In physical perfection Wood is there with the goods. He stands five feet eleven and a half inches tall, and weighs even two hundred pounds. He is as strong as a bull, figuratively speaking, and is one of the handsomest men on the force. "I will forward my physical measurements if Miss Munson desires them," Wood said.

"I am proud of my cowboy record," said Wood. "It is my belief that Miss Munson will choose a cowboy of all her perfect men offered." Wood is 30 years old. He said he had never married because he had never found the perfect woman.

"I have read a great deal of Miss

COMMISSIONER DEAN HONORED BY GOV. NEFF

Confirmation, Expected Today, Will Mean Vacancy on City Commission.

An Associated Press dispatch to the Times late yesterday afternoon announced the appointment of Sanford J. Dean, finance commissioner of Ranger, to be a member of the state prison commission. His name was submitted by Governor Neff to the senate, in place of W. H. Rand of Sulphur Springs, whom the senate had refused to confirm.

Mr. Dean has been in Austin for several weeks, and no word has been received from him relative to the appointment. However, confirmation of his nomination will make necessary his resignation as city commissioner, it is believed, on account of the state law against holding two offices and because the duties of his position will require his residence at Huntsville. This confirmation is expected today.

Election in September. In the event Mr. Dean's resignation is received before next Tuesday, it probably will be acted upon at the next regular meeting of the commission, and a special election ordered to fill the vacancy. Thirty days' notice of election is required, and it is not probable that the vacancy in the commission will be filled before Sept. 20.

Mr. Dean is one of the original old-timers of Ranger. He has lived here for thirty-odd years, coming soon after his graduation from the State university. He has always been prominently identified with business interests. During the last few years the family has been at Austin most of the time, several children attending the university there.

BOY IS KILLED WHILE ASLEEP ON R. R. TRACK

DALLAS, Aug. 12.—Maddock Day, 15, was killed while sleeping on a railroad right of way near here early today.

Three boys, Maddock, his brother Jean, and Erwin Birdsall, went to the crossing to meet a milk driver and aid him in his deliveries.

They missed the wagon and lay down to sleep. Maddock, who complained of burrs along the right of way, is believed to have sought the tracks as a resting place.

Munson," Wood said. "I believe she will suit me exactly. She is intelligent, beautiful and perfectly formed. She sings and plays the piano. I believe she loves home life or she would never have advertised for a perfect man to be the father of her ideal family. If Miss Munson accepts me we will build a little home in the West. I've got a little money saved and I'll buy a part interest in a ranch. We'll spend the rest of our lives riding the ranges of Arizona watching the sunsets."

AUDREY WOULD CHOOSE HER HUSBAND BY TAPE LINE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Audrey Munson, world-famous sculptor's model, is looking for the "perfect man to be her mate and father of her ideal family."

It is physical perfection that Miss Munson is seeking, as she is popularly regarded as being near that point herself. It doesn't make the least difference to her whether her ideal is a butcher, baker or candlestick maker; whether he eats with his knife, or says "ain't," so long as he measures up to her standard.

Whatever his faults, she believes she and her soulmate would be supremely happy.

Miss Munson coyly admitted Tuesday that she had rejected seven suitors because of some slight physical imperfection. One had an abnormally long chin.

When the model's attention was called to the fact that Jack Dempsey came the nearest of any public character to being her "perfect man" physically, she readily replied that she was willing to marry him or any other who attained her standard.

U. S. VALUATION PLAN ADOPTED TARIFF BASIS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The American valuation plan with modifications was adopted by the senate finance committee today as the basis of the tariff bill. Republican members present voted unanimously for it. Republican members of the house ways and means committee present at the meeting agreed to the modifications.

TAX REVISION BILL TO BE COMPLETED MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The house ways and means committee will complete the tax revision bill Monday, Republican Leader Mondell stated definitely today.

AMERICAN FREED FROM SOVIET PRISON TELLS OF MOSCOW HORRORS

REVAL, Aug. 12.—America should co-operate to effect the release of soviet prisoners of other nations, slowly dying in unspeakable misery and torture, Emmett Kilpatrick, just released from Moscow, declared in an interview today.

"Prison conditions are unspeakable," declared Kilpatrick. "The prisoners are wasting away, their existence forgotten."

Kilpatrick, whose home is in Uniontown, Ala., spoke for the other five, whose release was brought about by Secretary Hoover, as a condition for famine relief services.

"Even many communists are doomed to die if quick relief is not sent into Russia," he said. "Communist leaders urge that food shall go only to the fittest, that the weak shall be allowed to perish."

"That is what is bound to happen, too, if the soviet leaders are allowed to control the distribution of American supplies."

Kilpatrick said that it was not the drought which brought on the famine, but resentment against the soviet confiscation of crops in preceding years.

GENERATOR INVENTED THAT TAKES ELECTRICITY FROM AIR AND PROPELS AUTOMOBILE

DENVER, Aug. 12.—Has an invention been made that will revolutionize the electrical world? Will the apparatus conceived by a Denver man light buildings, run automobiles, bathtubs, power plants by the unlimited supply of electricity in the air? Denver electrical experts say "yes," and the young inventor, C. E. Ammann, Monday demonstrated his invention by attaching it to an old automobile and running it about the city.

An atmospheric generator is the name of Ammann's apparatus. It is a compact, cylindrical object with two small brass spheres protruding from the top. Inside, Ammann says, is an arrangement of steel wires and minerals, so fixed as to draw the electricity from the air, condense it and utilize it for driving power.

The automobile which Ammann used for his demonstration Monday was the body and chassis of an electric vehicle. There are said to be no batteries in the car. It propelled itself with remarkable speed at a touch of the foot, climbed hills and glided through a maze of traffic under easy control.

Careful to Conceal His Invention. When asked by skeptical persons if he had a storage battery concealed inside the power cylinder, Ammann said:

"As badly as I would like to show the inside of my invention I can't, for I have not yet obtained the patent rights. It would be exposing the result of seven years of work to open the cylinder. I leave for Washington this week to obtain the patent rights. When I return I will gladly show everything and I can only say, wait until then and time will tell."

"I have bucked every law of the textbooks to perfect the invention. It appears on the order of the wireless telephone but it is decidedly different, except that the electricity is derived from the air. It will run anywhere except under water."

"The automobile is only a simple test. The generator will light buildings, furnish an inexhaustible supply of power for airplanes, do away with steam turbines, and, in fact, propel any kind of an engine."

J. N. Davis, the proprietor of the Davis Electric Garage company, at 921 East Fourteenth avenue, and one of the oldest electrical men in Denver, made a thorough study of the generator.

"Electrical Man Has Faith in It. I believe that Mr. Ammann has at last made the invention which will revolutionize power," Mr. Davis said. "Of course, we don't know what is inside of the generator and the inventor would be foolish to show us. We have long known that certain minerals exist, which, if properly arranged together, would furnish power. That, in substance, according to the blueprints of the invention, is the basis of the whole thing."

"If the generator has been perfected to the extent that it will propel an automobile, the rest of its work is assured. It will be the greatest invention of the age. The electricity obtained from the air, first passing through the generator, would be available for any use."

So impressed was Mr. Davis that he offered the use of his building for Mr. Ammann's headquarters. Ammann, who is but 28 years old, came to Denver from Spokane, Wash. He is an electrical engineer and lives at the Argonaut hotel.

AMERICA PREFERS TO SHUN EUROPEAN ROWS HARVEY TELLS COUNCIL

PARIS, Aug. 12.—Colonel George Harvey today declared that the United States prefers to sit aloof from strictly European questions. Replying to a question during the allied supreme council session today, he declared that it was with a sense of relief he saw the Silesian problem "referred to a body with which the United States is not associated."

The council had just decided to ask the League of Nations to solve the Silesian situation. Harvey declared that the same view was held by President Harding.

PETRIFIED GIANT IS CAUSE OF SENSATION IN TENNESSEE TOWN

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 12.—Workmen of the Keene-Strunk Coal company at Helenwood, Scott county, have found buried in the earth and petrified, a giant six feet four inches tall. Imbedded in the one-time flesh about its neck is a beautiful chain. The fingers were perfect, with long tapering nails. The hands are folded across the breast. On either side of its head are two horns each about four inches in length. Its weight is about 450 pounds.

The miners removed it from the earth and carried it to Helenwood, where it was cleaned and presented on exhibition. It is being visited by thousands of persons.

Miss Olive P. Stone, Cincinnati nurse, photographed in the Brooklyn, N. Y. police court while being arraigned on the charge of murdering Ellis Guy Kinkead, prominent New York lawyer. Miss Stone shot and killed Kinkead as he was about to enter his home in Brooklyn, where he was living with his bride of a year. "He lured me into a common-law marriage and then deserted me," said Miss Stone, following her arrest. "Regret killing him? No I'm glad of it! I'm the happiest woman in the world!" The nurse said she met the slain man in Cincinnati in 1918 and went to Atlantic City, where they lived as man and wife. Kinkead, who was 54 years old married Miss Marie Gormley, of Cincinnati, last year.

MISS FARRAR FELL FOR CAVE MAN STUFF LIKE MATINEE GIRL

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—California moonlight and slippery music from the bosom of a sentimental ukulele were very pronounced around Geraldine Farrar's Los Angeles bungalow on the night when she designed to meet, then slipped and fell for the man who had made stage love to Sarah Bernhardt—Lou Tellegen. Mr. Tellegen is the handsome gentleman whose marital status is now in a state of litigation in consequence of an incident on his house boat at Long Beach, N. Y.

The house boat episode is yet to be recounted in court—if Lou Tellegen goes through with his separation action or Geraldine with her counterplans. But the party in the bungalow is still a merry memory to some of the guests who were there on the night that Geraldine thought she was meeting a la-de-da drawing-room Romeo and met, instead, a suitor of such direct address that she herself was calling him her cave man before the party broke up.

Had Heard of Him. Before she met Lou Tellegen in the moonlight Miss Farrar had heard much about him, but, taking one consideration with another, she had preferred to struggle along without his acquaintance. Then Morris Gest, the producer, who knew them both, told her that Lou really wasn't such a bad fellow, take him by and large. He had played opposite Mme. Bernhardt, too, Gest suggested, and wasn't Geraldine, herself, an ardent admirer of the divine one?

The result was an invitation for Lou to attend a select little party at the bungalow. Moonlight music, and whatever it is in the California air that makes people that way, did the rest. And the guests who studied Lou's technique in the art of making real love that night were astonished to note the enthusiasm with which Geraldine responded.

Love Is Art. "Why this was art—this love?" said one of the guests, a man known from Cos Cob, Conn., to Sausalito, Calif., for his remarkable blendings of love and art in great stage spectacles. "She fell for Lou like a matinee girl. And if Tellegen says the courtship and marriage were cold and platonic, he must have forgotten that night."

Tellegen's lament Wednesday was that the marriage had been a cold and loveless union for four years. Then she called on him at the house boat and he thought to win back her love

SLAIN CALIFORNIAN VICTIM OF VAMPIRE WOMAN, HOLDS STATE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—A "vampire woman" who sought to force one of her victims to give a name to her unborn child is the picture the state will draw of Mrs. Madelyne Obenchain in asking her indictment on a charge of complicity in the murder of J. Delton Kennedy, insurance broker.

The authorities will attempt to show that Mrs. Obenchain is to become a mother as the result of her relations with Kennedy, that Kennedy refused to marry her, and was shot by Arthur C. Burch, whose indictment also will be sought.

As evidence of the woman's great magnetism, will be presented the fact that Burch, whom she referred to as only a "platonic friend" of her college days, scurried across continent in response to a telegram, which Under-sheriff Manning says read: "Things look bad here. Please come at once, Madelyne."

The state will contend that Kennedy, who was strangled while then Burch, attempted to extricate himself from the web Mrs. Obenchain had woven about him, and was shot by Burch during an altercation when he refused to listen to Burch's pleadings that he marry Mrs. Obenchain.

PROFESSIONAL RAINMAKERS OFFER SERVICE TO KANSAS

EMPORIA, Kan., Aug. 12.—Professional rainmakers have offered their services as a solution to conditions in parts of Kansas where crops need moisture, it was announced here today.

By reverting to the old tactics of his courtship—the technique of the cave man. This made Geraldine so angry that she returned to New York, sent his shirts to storage and locked him out of the house, according to Tellegen's story.

Miss Farrar will have quite a different version of the house boat incident, according to her acquaintances on Broadway, should it be necessary for her to take court action. She has refrained, however, from taking any legal steps as yet and it is said to be out of consideration for Lou Tellegen that she has withheld her side of the case.

"RAGGED STRANGER" OF CARL WANDERER CASE IS "AGAIN" IDENTIFIED

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The "ragged stranger" slain by Carl Wanderer at last has been identified by his mother. Mrs. Nelly Ryan a hospital nurse, admitted the man was her son Edward, from whom she was parted by poverty eighteen years ago.

Wanderer used the "ragged stranger" to stage a fake hold-up that he might make it appear he killed his wife in shooting at the bandit. He confessed his crime and is under sentence to hang in October.

Mrs. Ryan told the authorities she identified the body as that of her son several months ago.

"I hadn't seen him since he was a little boy until I came upon him in the county morgue," she said. "Eddie Anglin, of Redfield, S. D., and the other boys went to other places when my husband died and I could not support them."

"When he was 15 he left the farm, and I heard he came to Chicago, but never could find him here. Then I read about the strange man being killed and determined to go to the morgue and look at the murdered boy. I recognized him immediately."

MAN PLANS TO GIVE U. S. INVENTIONS IF SENTENCED TO CHAIR

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 12.—Although awaiting pronouncement of the sentence which may mean his death in the Rockview penitentiary, John Shurilla of Wickhaven spends his time with inventions, which, he declares, in the event of his electrocution, he will give to the United States government, as he did a listening device to detect the appearance and location of submarines during the world war.

Shurilla's latest invention is an instrument which he is perfecting in the Fayette county jail that can be used to gauge the heat of the most distant stars and other planetary bodies by the extreme sensitivity to light and radiation. Recently Shurilla perfected an unusual storage battery for which patent is now pending. The doomed man refuses to give any details of his invention for the measuring of heat of the heavenly bodies, except to declare that it has already been tried in its incomplete state and found to be efficient.

Interested in Inventions. Shurilla has been in communication with United States officials with a view of obtaining clemency for services rendered during the war, and seems unconcerned over his impending fate. Motion for a new trial has been refused and the death sentence has been mysteriously postponed from week to week, due, it is now believed, to intervention of Government representatives. Shurilla declares that he is more interested in his inventions than in his life, and his work and mental condition appear to bear out his claim.

Since his incarceration in the Fayette county jail Shurilla has kept the jail officials constantly under a strain, due to the fear that he would find some way of escape.

Some of the electrical contrivances he has rigged up in his cell has dumfounded electrical engineers hereabouts, and for that reason jail officials have closely guarded him, fearing he might utilize one of his many inventions in opening a way to liberty.

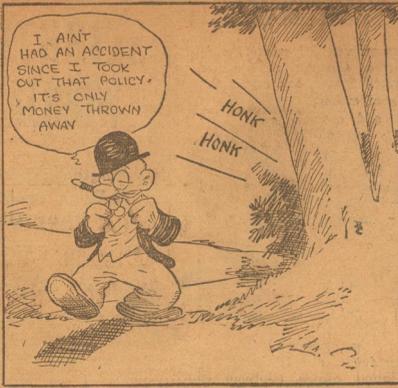

Takes no Hand in Plot. However, several weeks ago when a jail delivery plot which nearly succeeded was broken up, it was found that Shurilla had been offered a chance to get away by the leaders, but had refused to have anything to do with the plot.

Shurilla was convicted of killing John Churga of Wickhaven while the latter was on his way to a nearby town to deposit a large sum of money belonging to his employer, a proprietor of a general store in Wickhaven. The crime was a cold blooded one, carefully planned and executed. Shurilla was captured in Pittsburgh a short time later.

H. V. Bybee was placed under a $1,500 bond yesterday, charged with car theft, by County Attorney Dunnam. The bond was made. Bybee is charged with being implicated in the theft of an automobile stolen from R. A. Green several nights ago and recovered in Fort Worth yesterday. An arrest is said to have also been made in Fort Worth in connection with the theft of the car.

Green left for Fort Worth last night to establish the identity of his property.

U. S. RAPIDLY LOSING BUSINESS OF SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 12.—"Most Argentine firms have only a small stock of American goods left, and when that is gone no more will be ordered."

This opinion on American trade with South America was given to the United Press by W. K. Ackley, head of the American Foreign Banking corporation here.

"In general," said Ackley, "it is the old story of the laxity of some American concerns who have not yet learned that the great essential in foreign trade is that orders received must be filled with exacting care."

"The United States manufacturer must realize that if he promised to fulfill an order within a certain length of time, and the goods do not arrive at their destination until long after the period agreed upon, the South American customer will not give another order to that house, but will turn in preference to some other concern—probably English, German or other European—upon which experience has taught him he can depend, and right now these European houses are doing everything they can to satisfy with good service, constant supply, low prices, etc., for the purpose of regaining their pre-war business.

"During the war while the European nations were helpless to defend their commerce in South America, the United States, without effort, secured a brilliant and imposing position in South American trade. It might have been better if she had had to struggle harder for the victory and so realize the value of her triumph. She would thus be less likely to allow her easily-obtained position to slip from her simply through lack of care.

"It is a regrettable fact," continued Ackley, "that of the American business men who have come to the Argentine up to the present time, few have come with the idea of remaining permanently, but rather intending to remain a short time, make a certain amount of money, and then leave. The English and Germans come here with their families or marry into Argentine families. They remain permanently, or their children grow up here as Argentines. British and Germans, as well as French and Italians, abound in this country, whose grandfathers came here when young men.

"The interests of these four nationalities are interwoven with the natives for generations. British capital built the railroads in Argentina fifty years ago. The French, Germans and Italians also own most of the public service corporations throughout South America.

"Americans cannot hope to 'capture' South American trade overnight. It is a long job which must be undertaken, not as an adventure, or looked upon as a quick road to wealth, but with the idea of building constructively over long periods of years."

CAMP SITE NEEDED.

One of the most popular innovations this year, in many Texas towns, is a free camping place for tourists, equipped with water, in some instances with gas fires for cooking, and with other conveniences for the thousands of people who put in part of the summer trekking across the country.

Such a camping place, to those places which desire to cater to tourist trade, is just as necessary as is a national highway itself, or soon will be, it appears from the indications this summer. Panhandle towns have them, and thousands of tourists have stopped from one night to several days, because stopping was made convenient. Fort Worth has one, and the result has been the same. It would be true of any other considerable town, if the same consideration for visitors were shown.

Ranger in respect to distance is fairly well situated for an attractive camp. It is a little close to Fort Worth to make stopping here unanimous, but a desirable camping place would induce many tourists to waive mileage for convenience. Travelers leaving Dallas would find the distance just about right. There is a world of pleasing scenery hereabouts and the oil fields would be a source of interest to thousands who have never seen them.

Let's look about, pick a camp site, prepare it for occupancy and have it in readiness by the time the next tourist season rolls around.

The cost would be nominal, the benefits would be imposing in the aggregate.

PUBLIC FORUM

DIDN'T CLOSE ELKHORN, COOKS AND WAITERS SAY

Ranger, Texas, Aug. 11. Ranger Daily Times: With reference to your article in yesterday's paper in which you state that "G. M. Harper, brother of Curley Harper, was in town yesterday settling bills left unpaid by Curley Harper when he closed the Elkhorn cafe several days ago," we wish to state that this article is misleading, inasmuch as Mr. Harper still owes members of the local Cooks and Waiters' union about $170 for services rendered.

Also, it is rumored on the streets that the Cooks and Waiters' union was the cause of Mr. Harper's establishment closing. Please advise the public that this report is unfounded and untrue as a full crew of members of our union were on duty at the time Mr. Harper closed his place.

We would also like to have it known that most of Mr. Harper's help came to Ranger on his solicitation and promise of employment, and his failure to pay them their earnings leaves a number of them stranded here in Ranger.

Publication of this letter will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly, Z. L. WILLIAMS, Secretary Local No. 399.

CARUSO DIDN'T SAY IT.

We shall join the phonograph record makers in their doubtless prompt refusal to believe that Caruso sent word back from the spirit world that his singing on earth was "miserable noise." It may be that a genuine spiritualistic seance gave out the report; perhaps it came from a cunningly contrived meeting of talking-machine tradesmen who have not the privilege of handling Caruso records. In either case, we await better proof. There is no reason why possessors of discs containing the late premier tenor's recorded voice should now look upon those erstwhile treasures with misgiving; neither is there good basis for wouldbe buyers of similar supplies holding off on the strength of Mr. Caruso's alleged criticism of his own earthly achievements.

The phonograph folk should look into the matter, however—that is, the phase of it which offers possibility of jealous rivals having sought to put a shrewd trick over on them. Of course, if the reported seance proves to have been a bona fide gathering of inquiring minds, the case is a little different. It is not more convincing as to assertions, however.

Mr. Caruso was a genial spirit in life—kindly disposed and anxious to please. We do not believe he would become greatly changed in these respects as a spirit in the beyond. For why, even were he hearing better harmonies than he ever before supposed could be produced, would he wish to dishearten the great army of buyers of his singing records here on earth—where that sort of music still affords immense satisfaction?

No, we are confident that Mr. Caruso has been incorrectly quoted—not by the newspaper reporters, but the folk purporting to have been in communication with him through the veil separating two worlds. The great tenor was an artist and a business man. In neither guise could he find excuse for poking fun at his own singing—to the depressing of his living admirers and the phonograph record market.—St. Louis Times.

Applicants for admission to New York's policemen's school must possess not only physical and mental qualifications for their jobs, but they must bring to them the spiritual quality which is indispensable.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

By GEORGE BINGHAM

Sile Kildew ran out from under his derby while crossing the street at Tickville Tuesday.

When he was over at Luke Mathews's house last Sunday, Raz Barlow found an old almanac in the attic, and he is now regaling his friends with a lot of brand-new jokes.

As soon as he got through with his sermon last Sunday the Dog Hill preacher went back to the door and smiled at the people so that they would tell him how well they liked his sermon, as they went out.

TOWN ODESSA HARD PICKING FOR CROOKS

"Welcome" Isn't on the Door-mat and Sheriff's Name Is "Go-Get-'Em."

By International News Service ODESSA, Texas, Aug. 12.—Out here on the Pecos Valley range, where buckaroos "draw lightning fast," shoot from the hip and never miss, Chicago "second story men" haven't much of a chance to successfully ply their illicit trade.

Four Chicago youths, awaiting trial under indictment charging them with burglary, have learned this. They bucked up against "Go-Get-'Em" Johnson, lanky western sheriff of Ector county, known far and wide as "the fastest draw in the West."

Burglars who robbed the Odessa Mercantile company—and burglaries are few and far between out here—got a four-hour start on Johnson. With characteristic determination, the picturesque "Go-Get-'Em" buckled on his "six-guns" and started down the road toward Barstow. Twenty miles out on the lonely road he met the four Chicago youths.

"Going far boys?" he drawled, stopping his car.

With no suspicion in their minds and having odds of four to one, the youths eagerly scrambled aboard Sheriff Johnson's car. They had gone quite a distance before they discovered they were again nearing Odessa. They protested they were going in the wrong direction.

"Nope," said Johnson. "You're going right. I'm the sheriff and wanted to have a little talk with you."

At the examining trial next day, there is something openly magnetic about this grim-visaged sheriff of the West. Most of all there is an impelling honesty of purpose in his face—the "go-get-it-iveness" of the man.

The finding of potash in this section has brought many strangers to this little city. The strangers all pass under the close scrutiny of "Go-Get-'Em" Johnson.

"Folks that seem undesirable," says Johnson, "are invited to 'mosey.' We don't want our population to increase by the coming of crooks by virtue of the discovery of potash in Ector county. There's no room here for crooks, bootleggers and hijackers. If Odessa is going to be a boom town you c'n bet your last dime it'll be different from the other boom towns."

Thirty Mexicans were pulled from the "blinds" of a freight train here recently when the brakeman discovered them. The brakeman forced the Mexicans to line up in front of the depot. "Go-Get-'Em" Johnson was notified. Within three minutes he was at the station.

"The Mexies can't stop here," he told the brakeman.

"Well, they can't ride," replied the man in charge of the train.

"You brought 'em in," drawled "Go-Get-'Em" Johnson. "I guess you'll have to get 'em out."

The Mexicans "moseyed."

RETIRES IN ENGLAND, AWAKES AT SEA AND LANDS IN GALVESTON

GALVESTON, Aug. 12.—To wake up one fine morning and find yourself at sea on a cargo boat and with no opportunity for getting ashore until she had crossed the Atlantic, despite the fact that your pockets were filled with money and you had a business to look after and then to find yourself regarded as a stowaway by authorities at the port you finally did reach has been the experience of a man who arrived here a few days ago on the steamship Indian City from Brixham.

The man in question is an Arabian, who conducts a ship chandlery business in Brixham. He had a number of friends aboard the Indian City and on the night before she was scheduled to depart from that port, went aboard to visit some friends of them. He was persuaded to remain aboard all night, with the assurance that he could return ashore by the pilot boat on awakening.

But—the master of the Indian City is an old salt far who knows harbors and channels the world over and whose was particularly familiar with Brixham. So, without waiting for a pilot, he slipped out of the harbor before daylight and the vessel was at sea when the visitor came on deck to look about for the pilot boat. The pilot boat just wasn't there and there was no way to get ashore.

Several other vessels, heading into Brixham, were spoken to at sea, but none of them would stop for the transfer of a passenger. So he had to come on into Galveston, where the Indian City was bound.

And now that he's here, he's just as anxious to get away again, for he has a business in Brixham and his people didn't know where he was until he arrived here and cabled to them.

Siberia is largely made up of non-Russian peoples.

MME. BERNSTORFF RE-GAINS $1,100,000 FROM ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN

Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the former German ambassador to the United States, has regained possession of stocks, bonds and cash totaling $1,100,000, which were seized from her by the alien property custodian at the beginning of the war. The victory of the countess ended a fight she began on September 25, 1920, when she filed a claim for the return of the property. This action proving futile, she filed suit before the United States supreme court, which entered a decree in her favor and directed that the Bankers' Trust company, as depository of the alien property custodian, deliver the property to her. This was done.

HISTORIC PAINTING IS CAUSE OF MURDER AND INSANITY OF WOMAN

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—A miniature of George Washington, painted on a bit of ivory—the cause of a man's murder and a lonely woman's insanity—is for sale.

The painting which was Exhibit "A" in the murder trial of Mrs. Vera Trepagnier, later sentenced to the Joliet penitentiary for from one year to life for the murder of Paul F. Volland, wealthy art publisher, here in 1919, is to be sold by court order. It must bring $5,000, the order stipulates, but it was easy to do that, according to art critics.

When Mrs. Trepagnier, a sweet-faced old lady, who had about her an air of dignity befitting even an impoverished gentlewoman of the Southland, took the stand during the trial she made the following statement:

"I had an heirloom, all that was left of the family fortunes. It was a miniature of General George Washington. I asked Mr. Volland to sell it for me. He kept it. I went into his office time after time to get it back. When the last of my money gave out I went again. I had a revolver with me. Just to scare him, you know. I—I don't understand how it was discharged.

"My only regret is about the picture," was her sole remark when the sentence was read to her. Later she was taken to the asylum at Dunning, Ill. The loss of her heirloom had affected her mind. To everyone who would listen she talked about the George Washington miniature.

And now Exhibit "A"—the Washington miniature which has wrought so much sadness—is going to be sold. Art connoisseurs and art institutes are seeking to buy it.

"It's a beautiful thing," said Michael F. Looby, a Chicago attorney, who has been commissioned to dispose of Vera Trepagnier's "estate," which is the bit of art. "It was painted by John Trumbull, who died in 1843. He was a soldier as well as a great portrait painter. This was his painting on a bit of ivory of his idol—General Washington. Trumbull sent the miniature as a wedding gift to a Virginia bride. When the family moved westward the miniature was carried along. It changed hands again and again and finally vanishing. Mrs. Trepagnier's folks must have unearthed it somewhere."

It will easily bring $5,000 but the money will not do Vera Trepagnier much good.

MRS. SWITZER STATES SHE IS OVER TROUBLE

"I don't believe anybody who knows me ever expected to see me strong again, but here I am in the best of health, thanks to Tanlac," said Mrs. Mary Switzer, 2305 Terry St., Houston, Texas.

"About four years ago I was taken down with a serious illness and have never really recovered up to the time I took Tanlac. I was awfully nervous and sometimes would even get hysterical. My digestion was poor, my blood was thin and I kept getting weaker and thinner. I had an awful pain across the small of my back that hurt me night and day. I lost weight until I got to where I only weighed about ninety pounds. I was about as blue and despondent as a person could be and didn't know where to turn for relief, as everything I had tried had failed.

"Tanlac suited my case exactly and today I am in perfect health. I not only have gained back all the weight I lost but I seem to have more strength than I have ever had in my life before. The pain in my back is gone. I eat heartily and never have a sign of indigestion. Only the grandest medicine in the world could do what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by the Palace Drug Store.—Advertisement.

LID TO RAISE SLIGHTLY AT WORLD MEET

Washington Expects Delegates to Bring Something on Their Hips.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The national capital, in view of the forthcoming armament conference, anticipates a fall and winter of social splendor unequalled in its history. With the prospect of entertaining distinguished guests from the leading capitals of the world, preparations already are under way by those in the van of local society for dinners, dances and other entertainment, the like of which have not been seen here in many years. And, in addition, prominent social leaders in other cities, who have maintained magnificent homes here in which ten years ago they were wont to entertain lavishly, are now having their residence put in order and plan to spend considerable time during the fall and winter here.

Contest in Social Diplomacy. All indications point to a contest in social diplomacy which will rival in intensity the diplomatic engagements at the armament conference itself. Already those who maintain more than one palatial home in Washington are dying for the privilege of "putting up" visiting statesmen at one of their residences. Such hospitality, of course, would serve as a social card of admittance to all functions given by and most of those for the delegations thus housed. Charles Lee Cook, ceremonial chief of the state department, responsible for arranging accommodations for the foreign visitors, is not suffering the dubious responsibility of satisfying conflicting groups of social leaders here.

No Ban on Spirits. And, not only will Washington be socially gayer than in many years, but it also will be "wetter" from a Volsteadian standpoint, than it has since prohibition was clamped down on the capital. Visiting armament delegation will have the standing and therefore enjoy the immunity of foreign ambassadors and ministers.

And, further, the places where the visiting delegations are housed will have the same standing as "foreign soil" that embassies, legations, etc., enjoy, thus making them proof against overzealous prohibition enforcement agents.

There will be no bar placed on armament delegates bringing in all the liquid refreshments they can carry in their hand bags, trunks and other luggage and, once safely delivered to their quarters in Washington, they will be free to dispense it as they wish.

Small wonder, all in all, that Washington is socially in a highly developed stage of acute anticipation.

SPAIN SEEMS TO HAVE LOST AFRICA POWER

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Spanish disaster in Morocco is, in the opinion of military observers here, of such a nature as to preclude the Spaniards from regaining military control of the lost territory except after a long and costly campaign. According to the meager reports which are now passing the Spanish censorship, the Spaniards retain now virtually no territory in the Eastern Moroccan area with the exception of the fortified city of Melilla on the coast.

Melilla with its citadel is in a strong position and the experts say the Spaniards should be able to maintain themselves there.

The question of reconquering the lost territory, however, is another matter. It is recalled that it took Spain several years originally to subdue the warlike tribesmen and she is now faced with a similar problem, which means guerrilla warfare of a desperate type over a difficult desert country to which the tribesmen are accustomed. Great waterless tracts must be covered under a terrific heat.

Virtually all the native irregular troops are reported to have gone over to the rebels.

According to a letter from a Spanish army officer in Melilla, the recent disaster originated with an attempt by Gen. Silvestre to deal a blow at the native tribesmen with an insufficient force at his command and with lack of accurate information as to the Moorish strength.

MAKING HOME RUN MAKING HARD FOR 'EM

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Babe Ruth should be able to break his 1920 home run record this season, but if he does he will not get the credit that the feat deserves.

Because he has done so much in making long distance hitting records, the fans expect it of him. If he should make seventy homers this year, the fans will accept it with a "Well, he ought to. He's the greatest hitter that ever lived."

Outside of the fortunate few who have a chance to sit in most of the games in which the Babe performs, it is not realized what a real greatness it requires in the king swatter to get a home run.

Possessed of a good eye and a strong pair of arms or shoulders, it is no great feat for an ordinary batter to hit one out of the park, especially in these days of the lively ball. The majority of home runs result from a crack at a good ball in the groove. Ruth, however, seldom gets a swing at a good ball. He had to get hold of the bad ones, and therein lies his greatness.

In the recent Yankee-Brown series, Ruth was passed twice by Urban Shocker. That, of course, is nothing unusual, but the comment of Lee Fohl, manager of the Browns, after the game, throws light on what the Bambino is up against.

"Sure, I ordered him passed," Ford said. "Any manager is crazy who gives that fellow a chance to hit in a tight place."

With runners on bases in a close game, Ruth usually gets four served up to him that he couldn't reach with a fence post. Some pitchers, knowing the Babe's propensity to slam the bad ones as well as the good ones, go almost to the extremity of rolling them down like a bowling ball.

This in large part explains why Ruth hasn't run away from his 1920 record. It was only fair to assume early in the season, when batters of an occasional single calibre were knocking the ball out of the lot with great regularity, that Ruth would get about seventy-five this year. However, at the first of August he was just about even with the count of 1920.

Many of the fans are trying to figure why George Kelly, the giant first baseman, who started out like he was going to push Ruth for the season's honors, fizzled.

It is not hard to explain. Kelly was not a flash. He has the ability to become a great home run hitter, not as great, perhaps, as Ruth. Kelly plays on a club where team-play, above everything else, is demanded by the management. Ruth goes to the plate with a standing order to slug. Kelly has to do just what John McGraw tells him to do. If the situation calls for a sacrifice, Kelly has to lay one down. If a long fly is needed, he has to deliver. Except in cases where he is first up, or where there are two down and none on, he seldom gets a chance to take a good swing at the ball.

The giant club owners apparently believe that the glory of a pennant and the money resulting from a world's series mean more to the team than the money that would result from an exploitation of home run hitting.

STOWAWAY IS FOUND RIDING THE BLINDS OF GERMAN ZEPPELIN

By Associated Press. ROME, Aug. 12.—The German Zeppelin "Bodensee," sister ship of the "Nordstern," ceded to France as a war prize, has arrived in Italy after an air voyage from Friedrichshafen direct to Rome, a distance of 600 miles which she covered in twelve hours. A stowaway in the form of a German tourist, begoggled, carrying the customary German camera and binoculars strapped over his shoulders, succeeded in making a cheap trip to Italy air-wise.

The German's name was Walter Kron and when discovered by the Italian crew who had charge of the Zeppelin, he explained that his purpose was to get a free trip to Italy. He was thereupon placed under arrest in mid-air and when he arrived in Rome was handed over to the military police.

The "Bodensee" before landing at the hanger at Ciampino, just outside the city, circled around Rome where all the inhabitants would get a good glimpse of the latest Italian prize of war. It glided gracefully in its course and made less noise than its type generally does. It is 400 feet long and is driven by four motors of 260 horsepower each. It has a lifting capacity of ten tons and can make eighty miles an hour. The machine was built for commercial purposes and is equipped to carry twenty-two passengers.

SPORT GOSSIP

By JACK VEIOCK, International News Service.

A Dempsey-Willard shindig is just in the offing at this writing. Tex Rickard is feeling the big Kansas out and seeking to draw out the public as well. Tex is a shrewd bird. He pays more attention to public opinion than he does to the fighters, and Willard's chances of getting a match promoted by Texas will depend largely on what the boxing public and the press say of it.

From this distance a Willard-Dempsey match, providing Willard really can and honestly will get into condition, looks like the only logical one in the near future and it will probably be made in due time. But we also believe that Willard should prove his fitness in a physical way by taking on at least one big husky before he meets Dempsey. A good many boxing fans have often speculated on what a Willard-Fulton match would be like, and it appears that such a match ought to be a good primer for Willard if he can get into shape. Dempsey beat Faxon in one round.

BABE'S 43RD

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Babe Ruth's hitting overcame the Athletics Thursday and gave New York a 7-to-3 victory, thereby tightening the Yankees' hold on first place. Ruth was responsible for four of the Yankees' seven runs. His forty-third home run came in the fourth when he drove the ball into the left field bleachers, scoring Sehng and Peckinpah ahead of him.

HARNESS IS DESIGNED FOR ARMY OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—A new type of Sam Brown belt for wear by army officers, with two straps, one over each shoulder, has been designed by the quartermaster general and approved by General Pershing. A war department announcement today described the belt as having two straps, removable pistol slides, first aid pouch, canteen, double magazine pocket and saber attachment, thus differing distinctly from the belt now being worn.

If Willard cannot beat the big plasterer he has no right to a return match with Dempsey. In the event of a Willard-Fulton match Dempsey should agree to take the winner.

Larry Hansen, the Durable Dane, has had 256 fights, but there's many a durable husband who has him beaten to a frazzle.

The more we hear of that Downey Wilson imbroglio the more we are convinced that they don't make all the cheese in Holland.

Ain't It the Truth? The big league stars pull many thrilling plays, They crash into the spotlight every day, Yet, after a'l, their grandstand stuff is dull, Compared to plays that savor of the skull.

A shoestrapping catch brings thousands to their feet, A wallop in a pinch is hard to beat, Yet such plays die with momentary cheers, While bonehead stunts live on for years and years.

Michigan athletics are going to hurry up in all departments from now on. Sports at Ann Arbor will be given a new shot of ginger and it will be well for all rivals to look out for the Wolverines. Why?

Well, old man "Hurly Up" Fielding H. Yost is at the head of everything athletic at Michigan. We could have answered the question with just one word—"Yost"—a word that speaks volumes to readers of the sport pages.

For twenty long years he has been the boss of Michigan football. In that time he has turned out some of the greatest gridiron teams and stars the country has ever known and his record is emblazoned with success after success. He has won his reward—the dictatorship of all athletics at Michigan—and no man was ever more deserving. Good luck to you, ole "Hurly Up."

It may be a cruel cut, but we are prompted to remark that Jack Johnson will probably feel natural in every state where he is barred.

Georges Carpentier is studying the pictures of his fight with Champ Jack Dempsey. No doubt he gets groggy every time he looks at the fourth round.

"DEMPSEY AND LEONARD ONLY FIGHT CHAMPIONS WHO ARE WILLING TO CHANCE TITLES"

FLOTO, Denver Post.

Champions! It's enough to make one laugh. Out of the whole bunch there are only two labeled in that manner who are willing to take a chance with their titles. They either refuse to battle unless it's a state where the "no-decision" clause prevails, or they carry their own referees around with them. Yet they insist on large guarantees and taxing the dear "sucker" public a high price of admission to come and see them do their thing. (Tony Denier was one of the world's greatest pantomimists.) But as long as the boobs (the public) are willing and stand for it, why blame the fistic profiteers? So we find only Jack Dempsey and Benny Leonard always willing to risk the title with a worthy foe. Fine commentary on the sportsmanship of our fighting gentry.

Take our featherweight champion, Johnny Kilbane. He's got to have an ace somewhere all the time or he won't go. Either it's a no-decision affair or a purse out of all proportions that can get him to take a chance. The idea of handing him $60,000 to meet Danny Frush, a second-rater at best, only illustrates this statement as being true. Ask the average fight fans who Frush is and they can't tell you a thing about him. Ever since Kilbane won the title he entered into "no-decision" bouts and one of the few times he forgot to do this was when Benny Leonard knocked him kicking in the Philadelphia park ball in four rounds.

Britton Careful.

Here's Jack Britton, the welterweight champion—well, I defy anyone to get Jack into the ring where a decision hangs in the balance. Britton is clever and knows the game and figures himself able to "stall" six or eight rounds against any opponent, so no matter how severely he's beaten, unless knocked out he retains his coveted title. But the public falls for this kind of stuff, so you can't blame Britton much. The public alone is responsible for the perpetual champions.

Benny Leonard covets the welterweight title, that's why he is so anxious to meet Jack Britton. Leonard feels that after he has disposed of Low Tendler there are no more opponents in the lightweight ranks for him to master, and, as he is getting heavier himself, he wants to step into the welterweight division and start afresh with a lot of new faces in front of him. We believe that Low Tendler will let us know just how good Benny Leonard is. None of the lightweights has as yet been able to extend him and none know just how great a champion the Bronx boy is. If he disposes of Tendler by a knockout he must be ranked with Jack McAuliffe, Kid Lavigne and Joe Gans and a wonder with the padded mittens. He can rightfully take his place alongside this marvelous trio.

Carpentier Rumor.

The rumor that Georges Carpentier will not return to fulfill his engagement with Tommy Gibbons must be taken with a grain of salt. They said the same thing about the Frenchman regarding the Dempsey bout. When he sailed after his circus engagement they said: "He'll never come back." Yet he did and will do so again in the Gibbons case. He would lose as much prestige by refusing to come back as he would by a defeat. Also remember Carpentier is after the money. He has learned his little financial bible by heart and money is the one thing that Carpentier wants. He proved this when he charged promoters so much every time he attended one of the bouts around New York. There's a big chunk of money in the balance when he meets Gibbons, and he intends to add that to the bankroll he now has and enjoy life in its fullest sense. He has bought a little estate outside of Paris where he is going to make his home.

The injury to Carpentier's hand is much more serious than at first supposed, and perhaps there will be a postponement of his battle with Gibbons, but that he'll come over and fight seems assured. Gus Wilson, his American representative, has retained Manhasset as a training camp, and surely if Georges had any idea of chucking the Gibbons match he would not keep up the expense of maintaining an exclusive training camp. If the fight is postponed to the end of October or early in November, it will be staged in Madison Square Garden instead of New Jersey.

RICKARD WILL STAGE WILSON-DOWNEY BOUT AT JERSEY CITY ARENA

By United Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Johnny Wilson and Bryan Downey will start training here late next week for the middleweight championship fight, Tex Rickard said today. The battle, which is to be staged in Rickard's Jersey City arena, will be staged at popular prices, $2, $3, $5 and $10. Rickard expects a $200,000 gate.

"Twelve rounds will be sufficient. The bout will not go the limit," Rickard said.

NERVY BOXER

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12. Lew Tendler, challenger for the world's lightweight boxing crown, who was to have met Benny Leonard in a bout for the title here tonight, which was called off when the champion dislocated his thumb, has announced he would appear at the promoters' headquarters at the scheduled weighing time and claim the forfeit of $5,000 posted by Leonard with a local sporting writer. Tendler also announces he will claim the title, declaring he was ready to carry out his part of the contract.

HOTEL WOMEN DIDN'T KNOW JOHN BARLEYCORN WAS REGISTERED THERE

County Attorney Dunnam, Assistant County Attorney Barnes, Deputy Sheriff John Barnes and Justice of the Peace Fenlaw yesterday went into the by-ways and pinched 170 bottles of choc beer and half a gallon of corn liquor. Through some underground channel known only to the officers, they learned that the goods were hidden at the Dulin rooms, on North Austin street. The liquor was found under a loose board in the floor which was covered with a rug.

Two women, Ella Lucas and Bertha Potter, in spite of their protestations that they had no knowledge of the liquor, were charged with having intoxicating liquor in their possession. The officers did not disclose how they received the information that the illicit goods were hidden almost in the heart of the city. The very boldness of the act, however, is thought to have led to the discovery.

$40,000,000 IN FARM BONDS MAY BE ISSUED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The federal farm loan board is considering a new bond issue of from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000, with interest at about 5 1/2 per cent, it has been disclosed at the treasury department.

A bill authorizing the advance in interest rate from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent was enacted this week.

Operations of the New York and Chicago bankers' pool for financing cattle loans have been practically completed, Secretary Mellon declared today, loans aggregating about $20,000,000 having been advanced to livestock growers.

Reports indicated, he said, that the financial relief necessary for the industry has been afforded. When the pool was formed it was estimated that about $35,000,000 would be required for cattle loans, Mellon said.

Farmers have suffered most from the recent price collapse, Governor Strong of the New York federal reserve board said before a joint congressional commission. Resumption of prosperity for agricultural producers, he added, depended upon reduction of retail costs and lower wages.

"Great surpluses of commodities, such as food, copper, oil, all raw materials, pile up largely because high prices eventually break the consuming power of the great army of people with fixed incomes," Strong said.

STOLEN CAR FOUND HERE.

A Buick touring car, said to have been stolen in Dallas, was recovered here by William H. Hodde, insurance adjuster, with the assistance of Captain Tom Weeks. The car was in the possession of a Ranger man, who was an innocent purchaser, it is said. Its numbers had been changed throughout.

EMMA GOLDMAN FED UP ON RUSSIA AND IS LONGING FOR AMERICA

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Emma Goldman, deported with Alexander Berkman and 247 other convicted radicals in the "Soviet ark," to Russia is on the verge of a mental collapse and longs for her American home, according to Joseph Kucera, in a signed article in the New York World, Monday morning.

Kucera in 1920 went to Russia as a convert to Bolshevism, and spent four months there with Mrs. Kucera. Since his return he has been an active anti-Bolshevist.

In his article, published in the World, Kucera, a Bohemian of more or less renown as a radical, tells of several visits to Berkman and Emma Goldman in Petrograd.

"I shall not soon forget Emma's eyes," he writes. "They were haunted with the animal fear of death. The only 'happy Americans' in Russia are those engaged in the well-paying business of putting the United States on the 'red map.'"

According to Kucera the Reds want to "get rid" of Emma Goldman. He writes:

"We had heard of this in Moscow, where a communist said to me: 'If we could only get rid of her in some way, perhaps we could do something with Berkman. We have tried in every way to separate them, but they stick together like glue. If we should do it forcibly the whole thing would be used against us in the capitalistic press.'"

RATES ON SHIPMENTS TO TEXAS DECREASED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Freight rates charged on shipments of sash, door, doors and window screens and other mill work from Dubuque, Clinton and Muscatine, Iowa, to Texas common territory and to El Paso group points was found unreasonable in an order of the interstate commerce commission.

Rates from Dubuque and Clinton not exceeding 56 cents to Texas common points and 69 cents to the El Paso group points and from Muscatine not exceeding 53 cents to Texas common points and 66 cents to El Paso group points were established for the future, and reparation was ordered paid on past shipments.

PERSONALS

A. Joseph of the Boston store has returned from an extended buying trip to Eastern markets, visiting St. Louis, Chicago and New York while away. Mr. Joseph said the financial condition in the East was fair, but he believed that except for the aftermath of the bank closings, Ranger would be in better shape than any of them. The boxcars will soon be rolling in with evidence of his faith in the future, he added.

F. R. Morgan and family, who have been visiting friends in Fisher county, returned home yesterday. Fisher and adjacent counties, according to their report, have one of the finest feed crops ever grown in that section. This, in addition to a good wheat crop already harvested and sold, places that section in a good financial condition.

Mrs. J. Strief and sons, J. Jr., and Robert, returned home yesterday from a two months' vacation in Kansas City. Mr. Strief accompanied them from Dallas.

Saunders Gregg, who went to Dallas on a two-day visit with a brother, who is suffering from typhoid fever, returned home yesterday.

Mayor John M. Gholson and Police Commissioner A. Davenport left last night for a business visit to points in West Texas. They expect to return about Monday.

M. R. Newnham, street commissioner, is in Ardmore, Okla., on a business visit. He expects to return home Sunday.

Ove Overson, who has been in Chicago for several weeks on business of a legal nature connected with the oil interests of Ranger, returned home yesterday.

Miss Fay Levy, of Chicago, is in the city for a visit with the family of S. Romick. She expects to be here for several days.

Joe Foster of the Pantaze Sweet shop is spending a few days in Fort Worth on business.
