A Dramatization of Arthur Chandler's Widely Read Story

"THE LOVE TEST" is a comedy drama of our every day

American life, in which is unfolded a romantic love story that is for all the world like a Spring day at dawnfresh, clean and fragrant—the sort of story that sends folks home from the theatre with their faith in humanity revivified. It's characters are those we enjoy meeting, one of them being a really old-fashioned Mother. This Mother has a spiritual vision which enables her to see farther and deeper than anyone whose life she touches, and her beautiful influence pervades the story of "THE LOVE TEST" like a radiant beam of sunlight. Everybody likes this play because of the tenderness of its romance, the wholesomeness of its humor, and the

RANGER LIONS

Winning Team . Has Perfect Record; Losers Must Pay Penalty

Finishing their trip around the United States with a perfect record, car No. 4 of the Ranger Lions club, was awarded first prize in the contest, at the weekly luncheon held yesterday at the DeGroff hotel. The tourists trip started three months ago and the members were divided into six cars with five mer alloted to each car. Attendance a the luncheons was the means by which each car advanced. Perfect attendance for each luncheon gave the car 500 miles on their trip. Car No. 4, C. E. Madocks, driver, Valliant, Murray, Perlstein, and Pat-terson, occupants, finished the three months trip with a record of perfect attendance. Car No. 3, Rev. A. Hall, driver, Larson, Logsdon, Kill-ingsworth and Jackson as occupants finished second with a record of one absence during the three months

Prizes for the two winning cars were awarded. First prize was a silver pencil with the Lions international insignia stamped on the head, awarded to each occupant of the car. Second car was small bulldogs as emblematic of the tenacity with which they hung on to the leaders. A committee of two, F. A. Brown and C. E. Maddocks, were appointed to make arrangements for the pen alty to be imposed on the two losing arry to be imposed on the two losing cars, No. 5 and No. 6. They announced that the penalty would be a parade, members of the losing cars wearing straw hats and carrying parasols, up Main street from the depot to the Peoples State bank.

When the prizes were awarded considerable excitement was caused when they could not be found.

when they could not be found. After a hurried search the missing article were found peacefully reposing in the pocket of C. E. Maddocks, driver of the winning car. Mr. Maddocks said that he was just making sure his car got the prize.

Many knew the building as the old opera house. An adjacent building, formerly a hotel, goes too.

STAMFORD.—The Stamford Inn, destroyed recently by fire, is to be rebuilt.

"I have owned the buildings for the last two years," said Mr. Ringold, "and they have been a dead loss as well as detrimental to the skyline of the business district." Mr. Ringold plans to build on or move in some rent houses to the site occupied by the old auditorium and a two-story frame hotel that was at the corner of Austin and Walnut streets.

With the passing of the old opera house, old timers who were in Ran-ger during the boom recall the days when they paid two, three and four dollars for 10 and 25-cent shows that stopped over in Ranger for the

The opera house was practically the only amusement place in Ranger at that time where vaudeville was held and the hall was crowded when ever a performance was scheduled.

Clears Complexion

"Oh! how clear and beautiful your complexion is today, my dear!" THERE is a certain joy—a certain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.

Men are fascinated by the charms Men are tascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with entry, secretly jealous, perhaps, wondering —hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering — the hoping — the praying for that craved for attractiveness, that clear skin—that heavtiveness—that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer ty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates beauty. Pure, clean blood means a clear skin.

S.S.S. is waiting to help you. It will rid your blood of its impurities and give you that clear complexion. Since 1826 S.S.S. has been ridding people of blood impurities, from pimples, from blackheads, boils, eczema and from rheumatism, too. Because S.S.S. is made from fresh herbs and barks, it may be taken with perfect safety. Try it yourself. You will not only look better, but you will feel better, too.

Sick headaches are caused by constipation-Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings relief

Constipation can wreck your health in over forty different

Sick headaches, sallow skin, blotchy complexion, gray hair, spots before the eyes, unpleasant breath—these are a few of the outward effects of constipation. Over forty serious diseases can be traced to it.

Don't let this insidious disease send its poisons into your body one day longer. Thousands have found health by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, after suffering for years.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings permanent relief in the most chronic cases if eaten regularly. It is guarcases if eaten regularly. It is guaranteed to do so or your grocer returns the purchase price.

Kellogg's is 100 per cent effective because it is ALL BRAN. Doctors recommend it—they know that it takes ALL BRAN to bring sure results. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Ready-to-eat with milk or gream. Try the many delicious recipes on every package.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made in Battle Creek, Michigan, and sold by grocers everywhere. Served by leading hotels and restaurants. Order a package from your grocer
