

Showdown Fails To Materialize In Dock Strike

Tieup Continues As Pickets Are Stopping Workers

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—A threatened showdown in New York's waterfront strike failed to develop today and miles and miles of dock remained closed tight after morning work whistles blew.

Reinforced lines of pickets marched in front of many piers. Announced plans of AFL longshore boss Joseph Ryan to send men "through or over" pickets didn't materialize.

Police, expecting a possible violent climax to the 15-day dock strike, increased waterfront patrols to about 400 men along the Manhattan docks.

But as the morning advanced, the docks remained quiet while pickets plodded to and fro.

There was no sign of the non-strikers Ryan had threatened to send out.

John J. Sampson, leader of the strikers' revolt against a new contract, said of Ryan's threat to send in non-strikers to crash picket lines:

"He said that two weeks ago, the men will stay out as long as we are on strike."

He also scoffed at Ryan's charge that "strangers" were among the strikers.

At an early morning meeting of strikers, a Jesuit priest, the Rev. John Corridan, led a group of about 150 in a prayer, in which he said in part:

"God grant that our government may order us back to work in honor. May God protect and preserve us this day. God bless you all."

Ryan, lifetime president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, wired President Truman Sunday, promising his followers will not be kept from work by picket lines.

Rebel longshoremen are demanding a 25-cent-an-hour wage boost and other changes in the contract ratified four days before the walk-out started. The pact provides a 10-cent boost, bringing wages to $2.10 an hour.

Arraignment Of Newsmen Off

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 29. (AP)—Arraignment of five newsmen on charges that they defamed 18 public officials and three admitted gamblers during an anti-gambling crusade was postponed in District Court today.

The newsmen had appealed to the Louisiana Supreme Court from a decision by Special Judge Bernard Cocks of New Orleans that he was qualified to try the case and Assistant Attorney General M. E. Culligan was qualified to prosecute.

The defendants are: Thomas Shearman, publisher of the Lake Charles American Press; Hugh Shearman, his son and co-publisher; Kenneth Dixon, managing editor James Norton, city editor, and Carter George, police reporter.

The American Press is the only daily newspaper in this Southwest Louisiana city of 30,000.

The five were indicted Aug. 27. The indictments were based on stories appearing in the American Press that allegedly defamed District Attorney Griffin Hawkins; Melvin Wetherill, assistant district attorney; Sheriff Henry Reid, and the parish police jury — governing body of the parish (county).

Pro-Egyptian Party Speaks Out Against Saturday Declaration

KHARTOUM, Sudan, Oct. 29. (AP)—The pro-Egyptian Ashigga Party declared today the Sudan Constituent Commission has no authority to speak for the Sudan's 8,000,000 people.

A statement in Mutamar, official party organ, assailed the British-appointed commission for asking the United Nations to set up an international commission to supervise steps toward self-government in the Sudan.

DiSalle Thinks U.S. Consumers Have Had Break Via Controls

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Director Michael V. DiSalle says the government, through "a good stabilization job," has freed U. S. consumers from four to six billion dollars.

"All of these things are relative and it is very hard to measure" the effect of price controls, he said in a radio interview Sunday, but he believes consumers have been saved that much.

Hot Debate Seen Next Year Over Long-Range UMT Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Lawmakers predicted today hot debate in Congress next year over a government commission's call for universal military training (UMT) as long range protection in the "moral struggle with Soviet Communism."

The new national security training commission's blueprint for UMT envisions eventual training of 800,000 youths annually at a cost which could run to more than $4 billion the first year.

The commission's recommendations, made public Sunday night, were submitted under a 1951 law which extended the draft and approved the broad idea of UMT. That law, enacted last June, requires further action to put UMT into effect.

The commission urged that the implementing legislation it recommended be approved "without delay" when Congress reconvenes next January. It added that uncertainty over UMT — notably in Korea — make it impossible to forecast when the training program could be started.

A start at the earliest practicable time is imperative, the commission declared, because "the clear prospect is that the present generation must live in danger for many years."

An enemy today can strike directly at the United States by sea or air, so "the American people must be prepared, like their forefathers who pushed the frontier westward, to meet a savage and deadly attack at any moment." The law provides that the Senate and House Armed Services Committees will have 45 working days to study and act on the commission's recommendations, after Congress reconvenes.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate committee, and Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), who heads the House armed services unit, favor of putting UMT into effect swiftly.

Rep. Acrey (R-Ill.), member of the House committee, said he is "not convinced that the country wants peacetime military conscription."

Sen. Cain (R-Wash.) and Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo.), also members of the Armed Services Committee, predicted stormy debate.

GOOD FOR CROPS Area Finally Gets Into State Rainbelt

The Big Spring area finally got into the shower belt on Sunday, with new moisture of approximately half an inch covering most of the territory.

The fall was somewhat heavier to the east, with a total of 1.23 inches reported in Colorado City. The U. S. Weather Bureau at the Big Spring Municipal Airport, measured exactly half an inch. A similar fall was reported in the Coahoma area and in the southwest part of the county.

Heavy Sunday showers were reported in the Ackerly vicinity of southeast Dawson county and northwest Howard county.

Reports from Glasscock county to the south told of showers ranging from .3 of an inch to .65.

GARDEN CITY, Oct. 29. (AP)—A half inch of rainfall was measured at the W. L. Lemmons place east of Garden City as a slow drizzle continued late Sunday.

The Shell station west of town got .41, while the Jim Ratliff ranch northwest of Garden City reported .3 of an inch. Gobby Gison who lives at the outskirts of Garden City gauged .65 of an inch.

Although no measurements were reported, showers in the St. Lawrence area in south Glasscock county were somewhat lighter.

By The Associated Press Slow, soaking rains over much of the state brought increased optimism today for good winter grazing and abundant winter grain crops. It was dry, dreary weather for city people but farmers and ranchers loved it.

The Weather Bureau forecast continued light rains, mist and fog through Tuesday morning at least. A wet front which moved slowly downstate was stationary just above Brownsville early today. Rain fell in the early hours in Corpus Christi, Mineral Wells, Wichita Falls, San Angelo, Texarkana, San Antonio and Alice.

Heavy rains ranging up to six inches fell at Brackettville Sunday.

UN Gains In West As Cease-Fire Talk Fails

Sixth Meeting Is Scheduled For Tonight

Reds Seek Hard Won Allied Gains In North Korea

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN MUNSAN, Korea, Oct. 29.

(AP)—Allied and Communist negotiators failed again today to make progress toward agreement on location of an armistice buffer zone in Korea.

"Today's discussions were completely inconclusive," a U.N. spokesman said.

Subcommittees of the main armistice delegations met 1 1/2 hours in Panmunjom. They scheduled their sixth meeting for 11 a.m. Tuesday (8 p.m. Monday CST).

Each side has proposed a demarcation line. The U.N. wants it generally to follow the current battle line, mostly in North Korea.

The Reds want the Allies to pull back as much as 15 miles, giving up such hard won positions as the Iron Triangle, the Punchbowl and Heartbreak Ridge. In exchange, they offered the Ongjin Peninsula in the West. The U.N. says that has little military value.

Allied negotiators rejected the Communist plan and said it could not be considered "any further."

Brig. Gen. William F. Nuckols, the U.N. spokesman, described Monday talks as "a fruitless effort to arrive at a solution."

He said subcommittee members acted "unofficially" but in a "completely impersonal atmosphere" on the two conflicting proposals.

The Allies and Communists disagreed even on location of the actual battle contact line at some points, as well as location of a cease-fire line.

Nuckols added: "Very little news came out of today's meeting. This afternoon, the delegates discussed the line of contact, discrepancies in the line of contact, the United Nations counterproposal and the Communist counterproposal."

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, senior Allied envoy, returned to this Advance Headquarters from Tokyo. Major Gen. Howard M. Turner, new member of the five-man truce delegation, accompanied him.

The subcommittees discussed the military significance of the Yonsu and Ongjin Peninsula in western Korea.

The Reds would retain them under the Allied plan.

Nuckols said one Red complaint was that the Allied plan called for a 2 1/2-mile demilitarized zone. This would be too narrow, the Communists said.

Nuckols said the U.N. offered to double the width. He said this would come under the Allied offer to make "minor modifications" in its cease-fire line.

Allied artillery thunder could be heard in Panmunjom. U.N. big guns were pounding Red positions about three miles from the site. Puffs of dust and smoke were visible from Panmunjom as shells exploded.

If and when the issue of a buffer zone is settled, it doesn't mean fighting will be stopped. Three other tough issues must be settled first. They are:

Supervision of the truce. Prisoner exchange. Recommendation to the involved governments, including the Communist demand that all foreign troops be withdrawn from Korea.

Pope Speaks Out On Birth Control

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 29. (AP)—Pope Plus XII spoke out at length today on birth control, extending his remarks to warn Catholics against possible misuse of the so-called "rhythm theory" of marital relations.

The Pontiff's address was made to a special audience for delegates to the National Congress of Italian Obstetricians. His words obviously were directed to Catholics throughout the world.

Defining the primary objective of marriage as "procreation of new life and its education," the Pope spoke out against birth control, and warned against "blind slavery" to nature's impulses. Vatican sources described the 10,000-word address as "very important" message.

The Pontiff spoke of the "constantly more diffused recourse (to the sexual act) to ties of natural sterility — the so-called periods of non-fertility in the woman."

The Pope urged his listeners to have their instructions concerning this theory upon authoritative judgement and publications, and not upon "simple popular publications."

Above all, he said, two hypotheses must be considered: Married persons, he counseled, can make use of their matrimonial right in the days of natural sterility.

"But," he added, "it instead (one) goes beyond that, permitting, that is, the conjugal act exclusively in those days (of natural sterility), then the conduct of the spouses must be examined more attentively."

BRITISH REPORT KILLING WOMAN TRYING TO CROSS SUEZ BARRIER

CAIRO, Oct. 29. (AP)—A British military spokesman said today an Egyptian woman was killed and her male companion wounded by British troops who fired on their automobile as they tried to crash a British roadblock in the embattled Suez Canal Zone.

An Egyptian officer immediately made an official protest against the shooting, which occurred Sunday night after a weekend lull in the canal zone.

Egypt moved toward a war footing. The Egyptian State Council, which has the status of a supreme court, approved Sunday general mobilization of manpower and drafting of all Egyptians between 18 and 50 "in case of war or threat of war."

It also provided for setting up a high council of war headed by Prime Minister Mustapha el Nahas Basha.

This latest move in the British-Egyptian squabble over the Suez and the Sudan needs only formal cabinet approval to become law.

Egypt officially informed Britain of her parliamentary act two weeks ago junking the two treaties providing for British sharing in the defense of Suez and in the rule of the vast cotton-growing Sudan.

Medium A-Bomb Now In Family

By BILL BECKER LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 29. (AP)

The United States now has at least three arrows to its atomic strong bow.

Joining the select company of the large A-bombs and the baby B-bomb Sunday was a medium sized weapon which gave off a brief, brilliant flash and perhaps the most freakish cloud effect yet seen in any nuclear test by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The moderate, by comparison, bomb was dropped by a B-29 plane in a daylight demonstration Sunday morning.

It was the second after-dawn nuclear test put on by the AEC after much delay because of weather and various operational difficulties.

Unlike the pallid baby blast last Monday, Sunday's detonation caused a rumble heard as far away as Big Bear, Calif., 225 miles away, and St. George, Utah, 125 miles off. An aviator flying at about 11,000 feet over Kaibab Forest, Utah, reported seeing the flash 200 miles distant. It also was widely seen in Las Vegas and other Southern Nevada communities, but was felt by comparatively few persons.

There was no damage reported. The AEC reported finding a small amount of radiation in the Beatty-Lathrop Wells area, about 35 miles southwest of the Yucca Flat test site, but it was termed negligible.

Sunday's bomb — the 19th major nuclear explosion by the U. S. — flashed white, then glowed red for perhaps two seconds before sending up a column of smoke and the familiar atomic mushroom.

Changing through various colors from grey to purple to brown to pink, the nuclear cloud assumed a "Y" shape which stretched widely across the sky before finally disintegrating three hours after the blast. At its peak the cloud rose to probably 16,000 feet and attained a width of nearly 50 miles. The bomb exploded at about 1,500 feet.

With no nuclear test slated for today, conjecture centered on when the atomic war games designed to test 5,000 troops will begin. The soldiers probably will swing into exercise Desert Rock with nuclear weapons support Thursday, after undergoing one more dry-run test with standard explosives tomorrow.

U. S. URGES ACTION Tory Decisions On Iran Oil Case Due

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Decisions anticipated from Britain's new Conservative government may determine this week whether there is to be an early settlement of the British-Iranian oil dispute.

The United States is believed urging action by both parties on an agreement while Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadeq is still in Washington.

The question before the British is whether to negotiate on terms which Mossadeq has indicated are acceptable.

While conversations of top American officials with the Iranian leader here have been conducted in secret, the Iranians are reported insisting that any settlement must provide for complete Iranian control of their oil production. They are understood willing to negotiate with the British for an arrangement which would permit British marketing of the oil.

One plan which has been studied would use the Royal Dutch Shell Corp., in which Britain has a part interest, as marketing agent. The Iranians are insisting that the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., should have no

Red Attacks Near Kumsong Thrown Back

Jet Air Fights Rage For Eighth Consecutive Day

By ROBERT EUNSON EIGHTH ARMY, Korea, Oct. 29. (AP)

Screaming Chinese Communists three times today charged an Allied-held hill mass southeast of Kumsong but failed to regain the positions Allied forces took three days ago.

A dispatch said the pre-dawn attacks started in company strength and built up to battalion size three hours later.

Whooshing mortar fire pounded Allied infantrymen as the Reds rolled down a slope facing the U. N. held hills on the Central Front.

On the Western Front Allied forces stood firm against a Red charge as steep as 1,200 yards.

In the east they scaled a hill and gained up to 1,000 yards after turning back three night attacks.

In the air Sunday, Allied and Russian-made jets battled for the eighth straight day. The Fifth Air Force shot one Red MIG was shot down and another destroyed in three battles involving 64 U. S. Sabre jets and 18 enemy jets.

Pilots Sunday night pounded on heavy enemy traffic columns and destroyed 235 vehicles. Pilots estimated they sighted more than 2,100.

Kumsong, 15 miles north of Frenchie, was under Communist attack. Allied troops have been in and out of the rubble city for days but have not occupied it because of heavy enemy traffic columns and destroyed 235 vehicles.

It was the same gun which engaged Allied tanks in a knockdown battle Sunday. Four tanks were damaged but all were retrieved.

U. N. tank guns knocked out 30 Communist bunkers and killed 43 Reds as the Communists poured 530 rounds of fire on the column.

The Eighth Army said another tank force raided the city again Monday but ran into only a moderate concentration of enemy fire.

In the west, infantrymen pushed ahead 500 to 1,000 yards in hilly terrain northwest of Yongsu. The Eighth Army said no resistance was met at some points and only moderate resistance at others.

Legal Battle Over Martin Water Opens

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—Need for a planned water conservation project in the dry Big Spring-Odessa area was outlined in 128th District Court today in a legal battle over ground water control in Martin County.

Robert T. Piner, Big Spring banker and president of the board of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, told the court the area is faced with a serious shortage of water and a rising population curve.

The water district's efforts to pipe water temporarily from Martin County wells to the water-short area were blocked recently by spacing regulations set up by Martin County's Water Conservation District No. 1.

The Colorado district was granted a temporary restraining order pending today's hearing on its application for a temporary injunction to invalidate Martin County control of the ground water in the well area.

The Colorado district presented signed contracts with land owners granting the Colorado district water well drilling authority in the Martin County area.

Eventually the district plans construction of a Colorado River dam to serve its water needs.

W. E. Rowland, superintendent of a Midland water drilling concern, testified he had drilled three water wells and 16 test holes in the Martin County well area.

All indicated desirable wells, he said.

The Martin County district was represented by Judge James Morris. The Colorado river district counsel is Houston Attorney Victor Bouldin.

TREATING NO TRICK, BY GUM!

It's doorbell ringing time for hungry Halloween ghosts and goblins Wednesday, so better have plenty of 1951 goblin fare handy. The spoons and spirts who'll be out in force won't be looking for traditional goblin dishes like root of hemlock and slips of yew. Today's ghosts and goblins are a two-listed, gum-chewing, candy-eating species who'll reward you by flitting off to other happy haunting grounds if you make with the chewing gum and candy. There will be plenty of them around Halloween night, so it may call for a trip to the gum and candy counter — but be of good-spirit, neighbor, it's worth it!

SOIL CONSERVATION

Blue Panic Grass Furnishes Grazing

Blue panic grass on the Cecil Hyden farm has furnished grazing for Hyden's cattle since last April. Hyden, a Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District cooperator who lives four miles northwest of the Luther post office, has pastured 20 head of cattle on 15 acres of blue panic for the past seven months with no supplementary feeding. Keith Birkhead, whose farm is located four miles north of Coahoma, plans to rebuild his terrace this winter if conditions are favorable. Birkhead says he thinks most of the soil in this part of the county needs organic matter added. This, he says, could be done by cropping methods. In addition to feed stubble, summer or winter peas, clover, rye, and vetch are some of the crops that help improve the soil structure by adding organic matter. These crops serve a dual purpose for, besides the soil improving qualities, they provide a protective cover for the land to guard against wind erosion during the critical winter and spring months. S. T. Johnson has 40 acres of summer peas on his farm at Knott, Johnson, a district cooperator, planted the peas for a soil improving crop as a part of his coordinated soil and water conservation program. Plans have been made to plant about 15 acres of abuzzi rye this fall on the Smith Bros. Ranch. The Smith Bros. are district cooperators on their ranch at Luther where they are carrying out their soil and water saving program. The rye will be used for a winter and spring grazing crop and for a cover crop to protect the land during this period.

Connally Doesn't See Opposition To Jap Treaty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (U.S.)—Sen. Connally (D-Texas) says he doesn't foresee any serious opposition to ratification of the Japanese peace treaty, "although some senators will want to talk about it." U. S. approval is necessary before the treaty can become effective. Connally predicted Sunday the Senate will ratify it early next year. Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said he will propose a reservation stipulating that approval of the treaty does not indicate this country okayes Russian concessions in Manchuria, Sakhalin and the Kurile Islands, obtained in the Yalta agreement. Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said his group probably will take up early next year a proposal to admit Greece and Turkey to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Two local service stations were the objects of thievery over the weekend, police reported. Two tires and wheels and approximately $100 in cash were missing from the McClain Service Station, 1624 E. 3rd street, Floyd Bacon, manager, told police. The loss was discovered Sunday but there was no evidence of a break-in. The tires were mounted on wheels for 1948 Plymouth and Hudson automobiles. An outside soft drink box was broken into at the Yarbrough Service station, 1001 E. 3rd, police said. Approximately $3.50 was taken from the box.

PAD Official Warns Drivers Over Knocking

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (U.S. E. Davies, director of the refining division of the Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD), had this advice for motorists today: "Get ready to clean up your engines, retard the spark setting, and prepare for knocking on the hills."

In an address, Davies said the anti-knock octane rating of automobile gasolines has been reduced to make more of the anti-knock ingredient, tetraethyl lead, available for aviation gasoline.

Davies told the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) this month issued regulations which both helped and harmed the tetraethyl lead position. He noted that OPS had raised the ceiling price for primary domestic lead from 17 cents to 19 cents a pound, thus helping to increase production.

Delivered "what may be a knock-out to the foreign supply" by imposing a ceiling of 19 cents a pound where no ceiling price had existed before. Foreign purchases had been averaging about 22 cents a pound.

Raised the ceiling price on scrap lead from 17 cents to 19 cents a pound, "which should stroke more scrap out of the junkyards."

What! No Boat

The Army paratrooper, above, makes like a sailboat without a boat, as he scuds across the ocean near the shore of Japan. He was one of five paratroopers who landed in water during a practice drop. A helicopter lowered hooks to pick up four men. But the pilot had no hook for this fellow. So he dropped down and blew him ashore with the blast from the helicopter rotors. (U. S. Businessmen Think Churchill Expensive

By SAM DAWSON. NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (U.S. American businessmen got a psychological shot in the arm before the Churchill election. But many say: "Churchill will be more expensive to us than Attlee."

The United States is likely to be called upon soon to give more aid—both in money and materials—to England.

And among the 2,000 businessmen attending the convention sponsored here today by the National Foreign Trade Council there is a widely held belief that Congress will be willing to grant it. They argue that Congress, often reluctant to aid Socialist England, will be willing to help Conservative England.

The psychological lift may also help the fight from the pound sterling which in the last few months has fed on rumors that the pound might be devalued again. Some bankers attending the convention believe Churchill is less likely to cheapen the pound—at least not right away.

Foreign traders meeting here believe Churchill is more likely to tighten the curbs on imports into England from dollar areas. They also look for him to

A Statement To The Public

Here's What YOU Should Know About The New Texas "Safety Responsibility" Law

- 1. Enforcement Begins Jan., 1, 1952
- 2. WHAT MUST YOU DO AFTER AN ACCIDENT? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3. YOU DON'T HAVE TO CARRY LIABILITY INSURANCE, BUT... If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4. IT'S EASY TO ESTABLISH FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5. SELECT AN ESTABLISHED INSURANCE AGENT. The agents listed below know the insurance business and represent well-known dependable capital stock insurance companies. These agents are not of the kind that are here today and gone tomorrow. Their names are listed in the telephone directory. A telephone call will find them ready to serve you—not only NOW—but YEARS from now. Call the one of your choice.

A Bible Thought For Today—

Our land is rich in treasures beyond the imagination of former generations. It is washed by a sea full of available wealth. Wisdom tells us it is wrong to waste God's gifts. Freedom is the greatest gift of all. "The Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land." — Deut. 8:7.

Report Indicates King Cotton Is Far From Being Down And Out

That was an interesting report on the cotton situation made by the Department of Agriculture Thursday, and it rather blasted the theory that synthetics and other factors had just about got old King Cotton down.

Nothing of the sort. USDA reports that this year's big crop will be virtually used up to supply domestic and export demands before the 1952 harvest. The reserve supply of cotton dropped on August 1 to 2,200,000 bales, one of the lowest in two decades.

Observer Lists Series Of Red Non-Successes During The Year

Roscoe Drummond, chief of the Washington Bureau of the Christian Science Monitor, lists some impressive facts to bolster his thesis that the West is winning the cold war in that "Soviet imperialism has not advanced one centimeter anywhere in the world in the last 12 months."

Germany, it failed to break up the North Atlantic Alliance, it failed to block the Japanese peace treaty, it failed to halt the new Pacific defense alliance, and it is finding it impossible to veto the new Italian peace treaty.

Majority Of Editors Fear That Egypt Seeks Full Canal Control

Editorial comment on Egypt's efforts to break her Suez Canal and Sudan treaties with Britain is principally concerned now with the Suez treaty. A large minority of editors feels that Egypt's rejection of the Western plan for international protection of the Suez may not be final, but only to improve her bargaining position.

Immediate threats to her sovereignty. The United States will have to stand by Britain, since the Middle East must be held. But the Egyptian troubles ought to teach us—as Greece and Iran apparently have—because of those British "ghosts of the past."

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) GLOBE-DEMOCRAT (Ind.): "The action (rejection of the security pact), inspired by Premier Pasha, strongly suggests that the rejection is not final, but is rather an attempt to make political capital at home and to stake out his country a strong bargaining position."

LEXINGTON (Ky.) LEADER (Rep.): "While the Suez Canal is in Egyptian territory, it was not built by Egyptian engineers or with Egyptian capital, and has proved enormously beneficial to that country while costing her nothing. The waterway is an international one. It should not, in theory or practice, be under the control of any particular country."

Vacation-Minded Congressmen Find "Business" Is Elsewhere

WASHINGTON. — With Congress taking the rest of the year off, vacation-minded congressmen have suddenly discovered "official business" in South America, the Pacific Islands, the Mediterranean and other faraway places.

Another House Foreign Affairs group will leave for Europe at the same time. They will include Representatives Clement Zablocki of Wisconsin, A. S. Carnahan of Missouri and Edna Kelly of Brooklyn, N. Y., Democrats, and Jacob Javits of New York, Republican.

While some of these trips are pure junkets, this columnist is of the opinion that some make worthwhile additions to a congressman's store of knowledge at a time when the American defense lines extend from Korea to the Rhine.

Congressman Porter Hardy Jr., Virginia Democrat, has scheduled a trip to Europe for the House Armed Services Committee November 7. A Joint Senate-House group is also planning to tour Europe, North Africa, and the Middle East, beginning November 6.

Mary Ellen Newman Weds Sunday In First Methodist Church Rites

Mary Ellen Newman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Newman, was united in marriage to Ervin Darrell Edgington of Odessa at the First Methodist Church Sunday afternoon.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Edgington, San Angelo.

Rev. Alste Carlton read the informal double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli. Ferns outlined the altar on both sides.

Joyce Howard sang "Always" and "Because." Mrs. Champ Rainwater accompanied Miss Howard and played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, L. A. Newman, wore a white corduroy street length dress with a small military collar, cap sleeves, tight fitting bodice and flaring skirt. The bodice and the yoke of the skirt were set in rhinestones. She wore a locket belonging to her mother as something old, something new was her wedding dress, something borrowed was her Bible and something blue a garter. She wore a penny in her shoe.

The bride's bouquet was an arrangement of gardenias on a white ribbon.

Edna Merle Gaskins was maid of honor. She wore a open blue velvet dress with black accessories and carried a huge yellow chrysanthemum with yellow satin streamers.

Coy Young of San Angelo was best man.

Ushers were Carl Bradley and Bob Vaughn.

The couple left immediately after the wedding for a short trip. Mrs. Edgington wore for travelling a gray faille two-piece dress with navy accessories.

They will make their home here at 405 E. 11th Street.

The bride attended Stanton High School and formerly was employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Lakeview School and now works for Roger's Food Market.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.

In the receiving line were the bride and bridegroom, L. A. Newman, the bridegroom's parents, Edna Merle Gaskins and Coy Young.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of large white chrysanthemums, with spider chrysanthemums used at each side.

Mrs. Weldon Wood served the traditional three-tiered cake topped by a miniature bride and groom, and Laverne Whiteside, Odessa, served punch. Registering guests was Oneta Chapman.

Other members of the house party included Fern Bedell, Mrs. Ina McGowan, Mrs. Ben Whiteside, of Odessa, Mrs. T. E. Newman, Mrs. R. R. Newman, Lucille Hester and Billie Webb.

Prior to the wedding several pre-nuptial courtesies were given for the bride.

Tuesday evening Mrs. T. J. Walker entertained with a gift tea in her home. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Weldon Wood, Edna Merle Gaskins, Oneta Chapman, Billie Webb, Fern Bedell and Mrs. Ina McGowan.

Mrs. McGowan met the guests at the door.

In the receiving line were the honoree, her sister, Mrs. R. D. Harp of Odessa; and her sisters-in-law, Mrs. T. E. Newman and Mrs. R. R. Newman.

The refreshment table was centered with white chrysanthemums sprinkled with silver. Mrs. Wood and Miss Gaskins presided at the table, Miss Chapman was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Walker, Miss Webb and Miss Bedell displayed the gifts.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ben Whiteside and Laverne Whiteside of Odessa. Approximately 75 guests called.

Friday night Miss Newman was honored at a spinster dinner at the Wagon Wheel. A lingerie gift marked her place at the table.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. E. W. Lomax, Mrs. Jimmy Stallings, Mrs. Lawrence Adkins, Mrs. Harold Warren and Mrs. Ray Russell.

Coffee Table May Well Be Preferred To Bedside Stand

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

There's no hard and fast rule that says the piece of furniture beside a bed must be a nightstand, or a table that's labelled a bedside table. A simple coffee table that's lightweight and not too large may be much more convenient. For one thing, you needn't sit bolt upright to reach anything on the top of it, as you must to reach anything on a taller nightstand, and certainly the coffee table's top surface will hold much more.

There's room for a stack of magazines, piles of books, a bedtime beauty shop, smooth rolling casters or wheels are a good idea because the table then can be pulled up very close to the bed and pushed easily away. And on wheels, the table can be used anywhere else in the room during the day. A drawer is handy and a long one holds as much as several small ones. This is another break away from the idea that only bedroom furniture belongs in a bedroom. The new bedroom is furnished with the individual pieces of furniture that serve the purpose best, rather than with stand-pat sets.

Second Fine Arts Program To Be Nov. 5

Amparo Iturbi, the distinguished pianist who will appear here Nov. 5 in the City Auditorium, is a product of Valencia, Spain, of a family where music was considered an integral part of the cultural aspect of daily life. Like her famous brother, Jose, she showed signs early of musical genius, which was carefully nurtured by loving parents.

Studying with Maria Jordan, she gave her first concert in Valencia, moved on to Barcelona for study with Chavarri, who introduced her to Granados. The great Spanish musician was enthusiastically impressed with her musical artistry and Amparo Iturbi soon joined her brother in Paris.

Successful appearances with many of the leading orchestras of Europe led to a concert career in America where she has been heard with the New York Philharmonic, the New York Symphony, the Rochester Philharmonic, the Los Angeles Philharmonic and others. With her brother, she helped to develop the famous "Iturbi Technique," and their two-piano recitals are major musical events.

During the war, Madame Iturbi flew nearly 50,000 miles, from the Caribbean to the Persian Gulf, playing for the men and women of the armed forces. In addition to her concert work, she has been featured on the radio and in the movies and with her brother has made numerous brilliant "two-piano" recordings.
