

around and stuffed all of the currency in the pockets of his clothes. They did not offer to harm me, and when they had finished their work they turned and went out. I did not get a glimpse of the woman, who was waiting in the car outside.

Going Toward Leeroy.
Mr. Trower said he feels satisfied that had his pistol not missed fire Mr. Price would have succeeded in finding a mark in the occupants of the fleeing car.

"My pistol had been loaded for two weeks or more," he said, "and the ammunition must have become defective. The fact that the back of the car was punctured with shot shows that the robbers' car could not have been more than 65 or 75 yards away when I shot."

"From the location of the abandoned car and the fact that the robbers kept on ahead of us along the trail in the timber it was evident they were headed in the general direction of Gunsight and Leeroy."

WOODROW WILSON CAN PRACTICE LAW IN N Y

By Associated Press
ALBANY, N. Y., April 16.—Former President Woodrow Wilson was given the right to practice law in the state of New York by a special bill passed in the closing hours of the legislature today.

The act was passed after an emergency message from Governor Miller, who wrote that: "This distinguished citizen has a just title to a privilege the conferring of which I believe would be an eminently grateful act and one universally approved."

SAMUEL M'COY SAYS QUAKERS REPORT MANY SUFFER IN IRELAND

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, April 16.—The American committee of relief in Ireland tonight made public a report of an investigation of conditions in Ireland by a unit of the Society of Friends, in which the "Quakers" asserted that material damage inflicted by the British forces within the past twelve months amounted to approximately $20,000,000.

The unit, which was sent to Ireland by the relief organization in February, also reported that there were 25,000 families in Ireland, numbering 100,000 men, women and children, in pitiful need of instant help from the American people.

These 100,000 people, said the report signed by Samuel McCoy, head of the unit, were composed "entirely of men and women whose pursuits have been peaceful all their lives and who have steadfastly refrained from taking part in armed rebellion."

MEXICO'S WAR OFFICE NOT WORRIED OVER GONZALEZ REVOLT

By Associated Press
MEXICO CITY, April 16.—The war office has declared that the activity of General Pablo Gonzalez, former provisional president, is unimportant and that the federal troops would be able to thwart a real attempt at a revolution.

General Gonzalez yesterday was reported as having crossed the border into Mexico near Matamoros for the purpose of heading a revolution, but the Mexican secretary of war intimates that Gonzalez is still in Laredo or in that neighborhood with no indication of his plans.

SA NANTONIO, April 16.—General

Pablo Gonzalez, former Carranza army officer and once candidate for the presidency, who is said to have crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico, was in San Antonio last night, it was learned here, according to reports reaching government agents here tonight. General Gonzalez left San Antonio last night, presumably for Laredo, it was stated.

Information reaching government agents tonight was that Gonzalez was in Madero today. The nature of Gonzalez's visit here is not known.

There are twenty-five former Mexican generals living in San Antonio, eight of them were on Carranza's staff, or in the federal army, United States agents report.

The latest formal government official to join the Mexican colony here is Estaban Cantu, former governor of Lower California, who had trouble with the Mexican federal government during the closing days of the de la Huerta regime.

Spring Is Here Again Clothed in New Garments

—This is the season when dreary scenes of landscape change to colored glory with foliage and flowers placed on trees and earth by Mother Nature.

—Birds build new nests or remodel old ones and add song to the gladness of the season.

—Certainly mankind should keep in harmony with such surroundings. After exposure to the ravaging elements of winter we find most every building in need of some repairing and painting. Now is the time to make a survey of your property and start to clean it up.

—You clean up and paint up your home, rebuild the fence, place a rose trellis here and there and possibly a pergola over the drive and a flower box under the front window. Your neighbor next door and across the street will do likewise and soon the whole neighborhood and the entire city will take on a new appearance.

Let's all join this movement now and make such improvements as we need or can afford. It will elevate our civic attractiveness and make Ranger a better place, in which to live.

—Further, it will add to your own happiness and pride and will actually enhance the value of our property beyond all proportion to the cost of such improvements.

ONLY LADYLIKE CHEERS AT GALVESTON PARK

GALVESTON, April 16.—Abusive rooters will be ejected from Gulf-view park here, according to an announcement by N. E. Leopold, president of the Galveston club of the Texas league. The new owners of the Sandarabs declared that he intended to protect both his players and visiting athletes from personal abuses by fans.
Fair cheering and boosting of either team, Mr. Leopold said, will not be hampered.
The "no gambling" rule also will be strictly enforced in the island city, according to Mr. Leopold, who added that he believed the season of 1921 would be a crucial one in baseball and that it behooved all persons interested in the game to throw their influence for the traditional cleanliness of the sport.

BABE'S FIRST.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Babe Ruth made his first home run of the season today. The long drive came in the sixth, in which he drove the ball over the fence in the New York-Philadelphia game at the Polo Grounds. Harris was pitching for the Athletics.

NITROS SHOW WARES TODAY AT BALL PARK

Play Fort Worth Amateurs Unless Weather Stays Unpleasant.

Saturday was rest day for the Nitros. The high wind made real training out of the question, so Boss Allen called it a day before they started, and the armchairs in the hotel lobbies got one of the best workouts they have had this season.

Today, if the temperature moderates and the wind becomes fatigued, the Nitros take on the Texas & Pacific team of Fort Worth in the only pre-season game the leaguers play here this year.

The railroaders come here with a good amateur reputation, but chief interest will lie in the opportunity to see Sled's gang in action. The bugs want to look it over and decide for themselves how it stacks up with the one Jim Galloway had here last year.

It will look considerably like Jim's gang, and yet not so much. Enough of the old men are back to make the team look natural, and enough new ones to make it look a bit unfamiliar. Something like the change in Willie's appearance when he shaves his mustache, to be exact.

The pasting starts at 4 o'clock.

RAILROADERS AND BULL CREEK TIE SWATFEST

Nine innings to a tie, 12 and 12, was the net result of a clash Friday afternoon between the T. & P. railway team and an aggregation known as the Bull Creek Colony team. The affair occurred on the Nitro lot. It is the declared intention of the bel-ligerents to go to the mat again upon the first auspicious opportunity, and determine which should have the long end of the score for championship honors. The game which was to have been played Sunday was called off.

GRAND COMMANDERY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO MEET IN W. FALLS

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, April 16.—The 68th Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Texas, which convenes in Wichita Falls Tuesday, April 19, will be the first session ever held by that body in northwest Texas, the nearest session heretofore having been at Fort Worth. Vernon Commandery No. 33, the oldest in northwest Texas, is joining Wichita Falls Commandery No. 59, in the entertainment of the Commandery and an attendance of between 800 and 1000 is indicated in reservations already made. The sessions will continue through Wednesday and Thursday.

At its coming session, the Grand Commandery will accept more applications for new charters than at any previous session. It is also expected to act upon a proposal to increase its charitable works.

Entertainment features will include theatre parties, a garden party, a reception for visiting Sir Knights, reception by the Waco Commandery for eminent grand commander, reception for the incoming grand commander, and a drive to the oil fields.

ITALY WILL NOT GO BROKE, SAYS WEEKLY PAPER

By Associated Press

ROME, April 16.—There is no longer any doubt that Italy will remain solvent even though her wealth has been terribly undermined by the expenses of the war, says the Marquis de Johannes, editor of the Economist, the most important financial weekly here. The editor pointed out that if the Italian government could avoid adding to the paper currency, this would create confidence which would improve the rates and that if the next two or three seasons were favorable the Italian treasury might hope for an early return of annual surpluses.

The necessity for further emissions of paper money has been eliminated by the new law authorizing an increase in the price of bread. This also has reduced the annual deficit in the state budget to less than 4,000,000,000 of lire, instead of the 14,000,000,000 of last year.

Many new taxes also will be applied this year and these are expected to provide a continued increase in the national receipts, since the Italian taxpayer seems inexhaustible in his contributions to the restoration of his country's finances.

Other numerous signs of economic revival in Italy are pointed out by Italian economists. These include a decrease in the number and extent of strikes, increased railway earnings and an increase in the amount of capital invested in hydro-electric plants.

Imports of manufactured articles from abroad are slowly decreasing, while Italian exports, chiefly to Med-

Also Called Tetter, Salt Rheum, Puritus, Milk Crust, Weeping Skin, Etc.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY, and when I say cured, I mean just what I say—CURED, and not merely patched for a while, to return worse than before. Remember, I make this broad statement after putting ten years of my time on this one disease and handling in the meantime a quarter of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, I do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—I ask is just a chance to show you that I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TODAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild soothing guaranteed cure that will convince you more in a day than I or any one else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. By writing me today you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see. I am telling you the truth.

The Heart of Maryland—Famous Comedian Returns to Screen—"The Great Moment"—Chaplin's Leading Woman—Borrows His Friend's Wife.

Edna Purviance, the screen adaptation of this old drama, all the beloved characters and incidents of the play have been preserved in addition, President Lincoln and General Robert E. Lee are included in events of a character of the heart of Maryland, the devotion to the south leads her engagement to Alan Lee, a loyal officer of the union when the Civil war starts. During the war, Maryland becomes the "fiercest little Southern" and her relief work wins a personal commendation of Lee.

Alan is captured and denounces as a spy. Maryland in her despair and grief, and not knowing it is she is accusing, denunciations of the prisoner as a spy. There is a treacherous, with Alan in an adjoining room, Maryland's friends as she unwittingly and unjustly damns him. Finally, when Maryland reaches the pitch of her actions Alan, pale as death, steps in overhearing Maryland's denunciations at him—"Alan! Alan! I don't know!" Maryland swoons at his feet, Alan is quickly court-martialed and sentenced to death. But afterwards escapes and finally he and Maryland renew their troth.

Max Linder hasn't been seen on the screen for some time and he has been sadly missed. When the Hun guns began to blaze away at Liege, the famous comedian jumped into uniform in response to the French eagle. He showed himself to take on fighting and he did one equally as well as the other.

"Seven Years Bad Luck." Ever break a mirror? If you haven't, don't! You have no idea how a busted reflector will mar the daily diary for seven years, until you have seen what happens to Max in his new picture, "Seven Years Bad Luck." The comedian's trouble really begins at his last bachelor dinner, when he manages to consume enough of the beverage prohibited by the eighteenth amendment, to make his homeward course a "shimmy."

The next morning he breaks the mirror. His fiancée gives him the cold paw. He must take a trip—a restful trip to steady his nerves and shake the seven year jinx. Just exactly what Max has to put up with from the moment he is ousted by his sweetheart, until the moment he finds himself again in her arms, with the mirror jinx a mere myth, represents a series of hilarious comedy situations.

Edna Purviance, leading woman

Max Linder in "Seven Years Bad Luck"

for Charlie Chaplin, is considered one of the most beautiful young women of the screen. This fact is being recognized now more than ever before because of the part she plays in Chaplin's masterpiece, "The Kid," which allows her every opportunity to show herself off. That she also possesses great talent and dramatic ability is displayed in this production, it having been declared that she surpasses all of her previous efforts by a big margin.

Miss Purviance started her screen career with Chaplin. Although it has been stated many times that she was previously a stenographer in San Francisco, this fact is untrue. She and has its scenes laid in Russia, the hills of Nevada and against the background of diplomatic life in Washington.

The Chicken in the Case. Steve Perkins had a bright idea. He would borrow Percy Jones' wife. The inspiration back of this happy thought was caused by the fact that in order for Steve to acquire his inheritance he had to be either forty-four or married, and Steve was neither. So the plan was hatched and Winnie Jones introduced to Steve's Aunt Sarah, the guardian of the family treasury, as Mrs. Stephen Perkins. So far, so good. In fact, it was immense—but Aunt Sarah took a great liking to Winnie, and derailed her and her "hubby" off to a little cottage in the country. Of course Percy Jones had to wait until the woman went to let his new bride out of his sight if he knew it.

Then, to make matters even more interesting, it developed that living right next door was Major Whitman and his daughter Ruth, the latter being the young lady that Steve was violently in love with. Aunt Sarah thinks she suspects an "affair" between Percy Jones and Winnie; in fact, she is sure of it, and she makes up her mind—and when Aunt Sarah's mind is made up—good night! The more Auntie tries to straighten out matters, the more mixed up things become, until at the end the only way out is to tell the truth.

Vivian Osborne, the sympathetic role of the sweetheart, bella Strong, patient and "Over the Hill." Hers is a characterization that will long be remembered.

INTERNATIONAL REFORM BUREAU SAYS OFFER OF MORE ADVERTISING PATRONAGE IS KEY TO "AMAZING BLIZZARD OF FALSEHOODS" IN THE NEWSPAPERS.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Declaring that the newspapers have been subsidized by the motion picture producers in the censorship fight, the International Reform Bureau is sending out a copy of a circular which it says is the key to the most amazing and long-continued blizzard of falsehoods and unjust attacks on reformers and reform societies to which the press of any land ever lent themselves.

The bureau, which is credited with being behind the "blue laws" agitation, does not vouch for the authenticity of the circular, but states that it has been informed by Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, superintendent of the bureau, that "he has the original."

Purpose of Circular.

The purpose of the circular is to show that motion picture producers have brought pressure on the newspaper publishers to force them, through fear of loss of screen advertising, to oppose official censorship. It reads as follows:

TO NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS, BUSINESS MANAGERS, AND ADVERTISING MANAGERS.

The business office of every newspaper is vitally, directly interested in the censorship and blue Sunday fight against motion pictures.

LOCAL ADVERTISING of picture theatres has grown already to be a large item in your revenues.

GENERAL ADVERTISING has merely started. I am confident that GENERAL ADVERTISING can be increased steadily to the volume of automobile advertising.

Every newspaper is justified editorially and commercially in assisting the picture industry in fighting against censorship and blue Sunday laws.

The National Association of the Motion Picture Industry denies any knowledge of such a circular. So do the various producing companies which have offices in New York and it was not possible to find an advertising manager, business manager or managing editor of a New York newspaper who recalls having received such a circular.

Would Have Antagonized.

It is believed that the newspaper-reading public in this city has sufficient confidence in the better class of publications to know that if such a circular had been sent out by any of the producers or their organizations it would have had the effect of antagonizing the newspapers, rather than enlisting their support. The alleged circular, however, serves the purpose of Dr. Crafts' organization in attempting to discredit the opposition of the newspapers which have taken a stand against censorship.

Commenting upon the alleged circular, the news bureau of the publicity department of the International Reform Bureau says:

"Since Nov. 22, 1920, and especially since Dec. 14, the motion picture interest has put pressure on newspapers to furnish editorials and news reports favorable to the film interests and against the wishes of churches and welfare forces, as a rebate on photograph advertising, seemingly oblivious of the sacred obligations of an editor to give news impartially, and speak in editorials sincerely, unbiased by advertising patronage."

Worried About the Press.

"The main question is not whether one favors a cleanup of motion pictures and a maintenance of the uncommercialized American Sabbath—the chief issue is whether DEMOCRACY IS TO LOSE JOURNALISM AS A PROFESSION, AND HAVE IT BECOME A TRADE—A MERE BARGAIN COUNTER. And the booming of political candidates in motion pictures in return for promised legislative favors is another menace to democracy."

The statement accuses the motion picture interests of having started the "blue laws" agitation "to clear the way for Sunday shows," adding:

"It seems impossible that such absurd falsehoods could have been foisted on thousands of reputable journals, at the behest of advertisers, who also played upon newspaper fears of losing the profits of their baseball pools and race gambling news. No such unfounded delusion was ever put over on a civilized people since the days when the belief in witchcraft swept the world."

Another Wicked Possibility.

The International Reform bureau even scents the possibility of the press and the "movies" combining for some other wicked purpose. The statement concludes with this:

"What if such a coalition government of movies and newspapers should undertake government by scareheads again at some great national or international crisis?"

The earth has actually passed through the tails of big comets, but no one was a penny the worse.

Flooding the mines and burning the factories are like cutting off the nose to spite the face.—Indianapolis Star.

Gillett Sworn in as Sixty-seventh Congress Meets.

Responding to the call of President Harding, the Sixty-seventh congress met in special session, with the Republicans strongly in control in both branches. In the house Frederick H. Gillett, of Massachusetts, was duly elected speaker of the body and sworn in by former Speaker "Uncle Joe" Cannon, of Wyoming, was chosen Republican floor leader and Representative Claude Kitchin, of North Carolina, became Democratic leader, succeeding the late Champ Clark. Nearly all of the 435 members were present for the opening session. The photograph shows Representative Cannon swearing in Speaker Gillett.

LITTLE KNOWN DRUG SHOULD BE REGULATED

EL PASO, April 16.—Marihuana is a drug not included under the Harrison anti-narcotic act, which should be placed under its provisions, according to federal officers here.

The drug was omitted from the list of narcotics regulated by the law because little was known of it, except in border towns, the officers said. To probation officers and to police, county and federal officers who deal with culprits in border towns, especially with the foreign element, marihuana is well known. The drug grows wild in Mexico and is smoked extensively there. Some of it grows on the American side of the Rio Grande.

Recently an officer was passing a house and saw the weed, which is not unlike Johnson grass, growing in a front yard. The owner of the place protested that he did not know what

3 VACANCIES ON R. R. LABOR BOARD FILLED

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The president today filled three vacancies on the railway labor board. The following nominations: Walter MacMillon, Massachusetts; deputy resident Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, representing the labor group; Samuel Higgins of New York, former general manager of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway, representing the management group, and Ben Hooper, former governor of Tennessee, representing the public group.

The attitude of the members of this association of Russian business men on the subject of trade with Russia was set forth by Mr. Berline as follows: "Realizing fully that the re-establishment of the world's economic equilibrium is impossible without Russia, we feel at the same time that trade with the Bolsheviks will not, in the least, hasten Russian re-entry into world economics. On the contrary, it would only render the world economic crisis more acute, since it would tend to prolong the Bolshevik rule in Russia, and the country would continue in a state of political and economic anarchy."

"We join all the other elements of the Russian people in greeting the splendid attitude of the government and of the people of the United States towards the Bolshevik overtures. There is no possibility for any considerable trade with Russia, until Russia returns to normal political and economic conditions. In order to be able to buy, Russia must sell. If

RUSS BUSINESS MEN EXPECT TO AID COUNTRY'S RESTORATION

By Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 16.—Russian business men under the old regime, now scattered in other countries, are looking forward to being called back to take part in the regeneration of Russia. This is the view stated by Mr. Berline, formerly head of the rector of an association of Russian Bank of Petrograd and now a dis-business men and financiers who were prominent before the revolution. The organization has its headquarters in Paris, and Mr. Berline is here to advance its interests in this country.

Mr. Berline said the association embraced about 80 per cent of Russia's business men and financial interests, including representatives of all the important Russian banks, as well as captains of Russian industry and commerce.

Among the members of the association named by Mr. Berline are the Nobel brothers, who controlled the greater part of the Russian petroleum industry; and Count A. A. Bobrinsky and L. I. Brodsky, leaders of the Russian sugar industry. The association is headed by N. K. Denisov, a Russian financier.

Protest Trade Agreement.

Mr. Berline said that the association has protested to the British prime minister, Lloyd George, against the trade agreement afterward made by Great Britain and "the so-called Soviet government" of Russia. In doing so, President Denisov informed the British premier that the power of the Bolsheviks was waning before the rising wave of popular indignation although it might be prolonged for a brief period by terror and bloodshed. No future legitimate Russian government will recognize and feel bound by any agreement with the Bolsheviks, Mr. Denisov told the premier.

The attitude of the members of this association of Russian business men on the subject of trade with Russia was set forth by Mr. Berline as follows: "Realizing fully that the re-establishment of the world's economic equilibrium is impossible without Russia, we feel at the same time that trade with the Bolsheviks will not, in the least, hasten Russian re-entry into world economics. On the contrary, it would only render the world economic crisis more acute, since it would tend to prolong the Bolshevik rule in Russia, and the country would continue in a state of political and economic anarchy."

HARDING WILL ATTEND PARENT TEACHER MEET

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 16.—Mrs. Harding will receive delegates to the annual child welfare conference of the National Parent Teachers' Association, to be held in Washington April 25, according to an announcement from Mrs. W. H. Sawyer, Columbus, chairman of the publicity committee.

Delegates will attend a reception at the White House the afternoon of April 27.

More than forty state organizations are expected to send delegates to the meeting. Custom of the national organization is to hold the annual convention in Washington every third year.

"RED" ORATOR FINED IN LONDON UNDER NEW RULES

LONDON, April 16.—The first case in London under the strike emergency regulations promulgated by the government was heard in police court today, when James Matthews was sentenced to serve two months in prison and to pay a fine of twenty pounds. He was charged with committing an attack calculated to cause disaffection among the civil population.

Matthews, speaking from a Bolshevik platform in Hyde Park, was alleged to have declared: "Now is the time to overthrow the rotten government system and the capitalist class." The prosecution of the man was unusual because of the customary tolerance of the authorities toward radicals, including Bolsheviks, who use Hyde Park for their violent oratory.

UNIVERSITY GIVES 207 LOANS TO WORTHY PUPILS.

Madison, Wis., April 16.—To aid needy students in earning their way through college 207 loans, totalling $11,141 were made last year by the regents of the University of Wisconsin, from loan funds at their disposal. The loans averaged $53 per person, and many were just in time to save students from giving up their college course because of financial difficulties. Lack of funds prevented loans to many other needy students.

The university has twenty loan funds for this purpose, many of them self-supporting students. Fifteen of them, totalling $15,000, may be loaned out entirely and then be reloaned as the money is repaid by the recipients. Five of the loan funds, totalling $20,454 are trust funds whose income may be loaned out. One of these, the John A. Johnson fund, produced last year an income of $885 for student loans.

Because of the increasing number of needy and worthy students who apply for small loans to aid in earning their way, the funds are at present far from adequate, and further funds are being sought from the alumni and friends of the university to endow new funds to add to the principal of existing funds.

The railroad problem seems to have no terminal facilities whatever—

CARDS, "WIFE" AND "MADONNA" ARE ALL JACKIE CARES TO TALK ABOUT

Jackie Coogan, 9-year-old screen wizard, is in New York and is viewing the big town with a critical eye.

The little fellow has drawn a salary exceeding $64,000 since he was four years old. Jackie has dark brown eyes, whose innocent depths glitter with the light of inordinate talent. Jackie's proclivities lean toward cards and Robert Service's poems. He recently recited Service's "The Madonna" for the benefit of a wondering audience. The expression that attended its recitation seemed strange, coming from this speck of manhood—strange, in view of the poem he recited. Jackie is every bit a regular boy. He is democratic to the nth degree, regarding Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks as just pals, the same as "Patsy" Marks, his 5-year-old "wife" back in his Hollywood home. The prodigy will spend a month in New York with his father before returning to Los Angeles. He expects to amuse himself during his stay by playing golf in the hotel corridor.

PRETTY MEXICAN BRIDE OF AMERICAN DIES BY OWN HAND

By International News Service
CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, April 16.—Socorro Molina de Weiss, beautiful 21-year-old bride of Robert Weiss, an American, of San Bernardino, Cal., committed suicide in the Hotel Palacio here following a trivial quarrel with her husband. Weiss, who is connected with an American oil company at Tampico, won Senorita Molina after a whirlwind courtship and she eloped with him in defiance of her parents' wishes. They were spending their honeymoon in Chihuahua. When Weiss informed his bride that he was going to a downtown cafe she became despondent; and upon his return to the hotel she was dead.

An image of Christ was clasped in her hands, an empty bottle of arsenic by her side and three letters she had written were on a table nearby. One, addressed to the public, exonerated her husband of all blame. Another to her mother, begged forgiveness for eloping. A third, to Weiss, bade him farewell. Weiss was arrested, but

BANKS IN COLORADO, TEXAS, CONSOLIDATE

Special to the Times

COLORADO, Texas, April 16.—Consolidation of the First State bank with the Colorado National bank of Colorado has been perfected, J. M. Thomas, active vice president of the Colorado National, stated today. Negotiations to form a coalition of the two institutions were entered into several days ago. Mr. Thomas stated that the transfer would be complete by Monday.

Consolidation of these two banks gives to Colorado two of the strongest banks in central West Texas, the Colorado National and City National banks. The Colorado National bank will receive an increase of $200,000 in assets through the consolidation. The City National bank co-operated with the other two banks in arranging details of the consolidation.

MAJESTIC.

Alice Joyce, starred in Vitagraph's special production, "The Vice of Fools," sprang an innovation on members of her supporting cast as well as her director, Edwin Griffith, when she appeared at the studio, clad in a beautiful sport suit, which she declared with some pride, she had made herself.

Anticipating the scene, Mr. Griffith had asked Miss Joyce to select from her wardrobe her prettiest and most becoming outfit for afternoon outdoor wear. When Miss Joyce appeared even the staid Mr. Griffith was moved to compliment Miss Joyce upon her good taste.

"You are beautiful in it," he declared, and ordered that "shooting" start immediately.

"The funny thing was," commented Miss Joyce afterwards, "it was a suit I had made almost all myself. It was my design, and I was so afraid that my dressmaker would not complete it as I had dreamed it that I decided to do it myself. But as far as that is concerned, it is not the first thing of the sort I have made for myself. I like to sew and make all sorts of frills and frivolous things."

"The Vice of Fools" is to be presented at the Majestic theatre on Sunday.

LAMB.

A comedy of undisputed excellence is the feature attraction at the Lamb theatre today. This latest Hodkinson release, called "The Truant Husband," was written by Albert Payson Terhune, and recently appeared in the Cosmopolitan magazine. The story opens with the ideally happy home life of Billy Sayre, a successful young business man who has loved his wife devotedly during the six years of their married life. Upon the scene comes Vera Delaunay, a very beautiful and alluring girl who was Billy's sweet heart before she married an old man for his money. Finding herself a widow, she has a great desire to see the man whom she once loved. And from the moment that she persuades him to take her to lunch, she tries all her wiles to lure him from his happy hearthside. It looks for awhile as though she would be successful, but she makes the fatal mistake of taking him to the places where they "used to be so happy." Instead of the beauty of a rose-covered Inn, they find a common public dance hall, and the same disappointing experience awaits them at every turn. The real tragedy attending this process is turned into an extraordinarily funny comedy, and the "truant husband," after a well-deserved lesson returns gladly and eagerly to his dutiful little wife.

TEMPLE.

Charles Ray is the very proud owner of a oxy-looking, wiry haired fox terrier named "Whiskers." By a singular coincidence the script for Charles Ray's new screen vehicle, "Peaceful Valley," adapted from Sol Smith Russell's famous stage success, which will be shown at the Temple theatre, beginning today, calls for a canine with a strong cognomen. Thus, it is not so strange that Charles g gives his own dog a part in the photoplay.

One of the most amusing situations in the photoplay arises when Whiskers, dangling a heavy rope around his neck, comes trotting up the aisle of a country church to his master, Hosiiah Howe, who is seated beside Virginia Reed, a beautiful girl from the city. Hosiiah, who has been greatly impressed and embarrassed by the presence of the pretty girl at his side, is aghast at the unexpected appearance of the dog. The congregation glances at Hosiiah, but Virginia helps him make the dog comfortable between them.

Charles Ray plays the part of Hosiiah, while Ann May has the leading feminine role. Ray selected his own dog for the part of Whiskers because he knew from experience that he would have no difficulty in getting his pet to follow him to church or anywhere else for that matter. As a matter of fact Charlie's main difficulty at times lies in his inability to keep Whiskers away from him.

HOW EUGENIE ESCAPED TOLD FIRST TIME

By Associated Press

LONDON, April 16.—The recent death of Sir John Montagu Burgoyne, famous for his rescue of the late Empress Eugenie at the fall of the second French Empire in 1870, has brought to light a letter written by Sir John to Sir Henry Ponsonby ten days after the dramatic voyage across the English channel. The letter relates the details of the escape in which Dr. Evans, an American dentist, was instrumental.

Sir John's yacht happened to be lying in the harbor of Deauville on Sept. 6, 1870, waiting favorable weather for sailing. At 2 p. m. two strangers came aboard and asked for audience with the owner. They appeared to trust Sir John and confided to him that the empress was concealed in Deauville. He agreed to convey her to safety in England and it was decided that Lady Burgoyne should remain on board in order not to arouse suspicion.

It was arranged that her majesty should come aboard at five minutes past midnight. Meanwhile, at 11:30 p. m., Sir John had a visit from a young Russian, to whom he had only been introduced. This gentleman had brought a friend who "wished to look over the yacht." They were shown over the craft, although Sir John said he was convinced the men were spies.

The visitors were conducted by Sir John personally into the town and had scarcely gone when Dr. Evans, the empress and Mme. le Breton came up and were taken on board without baggage.

Empress Eugenie was said to have been greatly agitated and to have

AUSTRIANS WHO SAW NO WAR SERVICE WILL PAY A SPECIAL TAX

BUDAPEST, April 16.—Austrians who did not see service in the war are to be compelled to pay a special tax, the proceeds of which is to be devoted to the care of disabled Hungarian soldiers or the dependents of those who were killed in the war.

Hungary has about 250,000 disabled fighting men and, including the orphans, widows and refugees, the government has to provide for more than 1,000,000 persons.

More than 4,000 families who fled from Transylvania when that section of Hungary was annexed to Rumania by the peace treaty, still are in railway cars in the various yards in this city.

Through the efforts of American welfare missions, about 75,000 children are being fed in Budapest alone. Complete outfits of clothing have been distributed to them many times.

OBREGON PLANS TO STOP GAMBLING. MEXICO CITY, April 16.—Gambling throughout the republic of Mexico will be stopped if a bill introduced in Congress at the instance of President Obregon becomes a law.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Secretary of the Navy Denby announced today that naval oil reserve land in California will be opened immediately for drilling by private interests.

BUSINESS MEN SEEK CAUSES OF SOCIAL ILLS

CHICAGO, April 16.—A committee of Chicago business men, in an effort to get at the root of the causes of social disorder, crime, industrial anarchy and other present day ills, has established the Middle West division of the Boys' Club federation.

International headquarters of the federation are in New York. Its aim is the promotion of supervised club work among boys, especially those of the under-privileged class, as a means of laying foundations of intelligent Americanism and building character for useful citizenship.

The movement is strongly developed in the East, but the Middle West and other sections of the country have been rarely touched by it.

It is claimed by those interested in the movement that the supervised boys' club is the best method yet devised for getting at the boys from ten to twenty years of age and counteracting the influence of demoralizing agencies to be found in city life.

Plans are being made to strengthen existing boys' club work and to encourage the organization of new clubs in communities where opportunity presents itself.

The typical boys' club, approved by the federation, provides for recreational, physical and vocational activities, frequently under some form of supervised self-government modeled upon the constitution of the United States.

A former newspaper man, S. J. Duncan-Clark, for seven years chief editorial writer on the Chicago Evening Post, has been appointed managing director of the Middle West division.

MOVING SIDEWALKS PROPOSED IN PARIS

PARIS, April 15.—To relieve congestion on the sidewalks of the Paris boulevards it is proposed to construct a moving sidewalk under the street level and along the side of a new subway about to be built.

Emile Desvaux, the engineer who constructed the moving sidewalk at the world's fair in Paris, presented the idea to the municipal council.

Desvaux's plan is to have a sidewalk moving at about five miles an hour with railings on which the "pedestrians" might rest while being transported along forty feet underground.

The scheme is being given serious attention.

ATLANTIC FARMERS FORM CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZATIONS

International News Service. NEW YORK, April 16.—Organization of co-operative marketing associations under the same plans adopted by the growers of the Pacific coast is being undertaken by farmers of the Atlantic coast states, according to J. F. Langner, adviser to many of the larger farmers' co-operative marketing associations on both coasts.

Nine different groups of New York state farmers are now effecting organizations, while the Potato Growers of New Jersey are well advanced in organization work.

The Pacific coast system of co-operative farm marketing has been adopted by the egg producers of New Jersey in an effort, according to Langner, to compete successfully with the California, Oregon and Washington poultrymen who are shipping their goods to New York and commanding a premium in the markets because of the quality and grading of their products.

The New Jersey organization plans a non-capital, non-profit stock association and is retaining Aaron Sapiro, San Francisco attorney, as counsel.

Commenting on the necessity for the formation of Atlantic co-operative organizations for farmers, Langner said: "The farmers in nearby points to the New York market are now facing conditions of a more serious character than any that have previously confronted them."

They formerly had first call on the New York, Philadelphia and Boston markets. Now the Pacific coast is challenging, not in any casual way, but with the finest type of farmer organizations ever conceived, and with the highest principles of merchandizing developed.

The Pacific coast is shipping apples, eggs, oranges and a thousand different farm products to the East and is selling its products in competition with local growers. Such a condition, of course, cannot last. The growers either have to abandon their farms or meet this competition.

REPORTER DISCOVERS WAY TO SAFELY TRANSPORT 'HOOC'H'

Just Walk Around the Streets With Two Bottles Exposed, Chat With All the Policemen You See and Try to Get Arrested.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A reporter has discovered a way in which all those desirous of transporting anti-Volstead liquor about the city may do so with impunity, despite the activities of the plainclothes sleuths, federal prohibition agents, and the uniformed force of New York. The secret is this: Carry only two bottles at a time; put one in the right-hand pocket of your coat and carry the other half-revealed, half-concealed, under your left arm; hold frequent conversations with policemen and proceed merrily and safely on your way.

This procedure is not guaranteed but merely recommended, and follows as a consequence of what happened to the reporter yesterday. Starting out at 10:30 in the morning he carried a "square-face gin bottle," wrapped "re-vealingly," in his overcoat pocket. He started on Broadway close to the Battery and walked up to Park Row. At Park Row and Ann street, with the bottle in view, he asked a policeman low to get to the Brooklyn bridge. Reaching the Bowery he walked as far as Division street and up the latter about two blocks and back. Turning up the Bowery he walked to Grand street where another obliging policeman told him how to get to Broadway. On his way over Grand street a police sergeant at the Mulberry street corner gave him further directions: the bottle all this time seemingly escaped official notice.

Acquires Whiskey Bottle. A stroll up Broadway took the reporter to Prince street, where he boarded a B. R. T. subway to Twenty-eighth. Up Broadway to Twenty-ninth, through to Sixth avenue, down Sixth to Twenty-fourth street, over to Seventh avenue and back to Twenty-eighth street. Here the reporter, wishing to "play fair," procured an old whiskey bottle wrapped in the same way as the gin container. He then loafed over to Twenty-seventh street near Sixth avenue, about 60 feet from prohibition headquarters, and loitered there for ten minutes, with the second bottle under his arm. Still no action!

Discouraged but not "licked," he proceeded to Broadway and up to Thirty-sixth street, over to Seventh avenue, and to the corner of Thirty-seventh, where he and a "cop" stood for about five minutes gazing in rapt admiration at each other. While standing on this corner an unknown and jocular pedestrian burst forth with: "Sal, how's chances for a little out of that bottle?" But still the intrepid policeman stood his ground!

Grand Central Terminal. With faith by the minute, the reporter went up to Thirty-ninth street and down to where Broadway was by an old policeman. To Broadway and thence to Forty-second street, east there, and to the Grand Central terminal, where he loitered for several minutes, and then retraced his way to Fifth avenue. Here another obliging officer told him minutely how to get to the Pennsylvania terminal "if you want to walk." Proceeding to Times square, the reporter walked to Thirty-fourth street and Seventh avenue, where, after loafing for a while, he gave up the hunt for the lynx-eyed policeman of fiction.

During this trip he saw, and was seen, by thirty-one policemen, excluding traffic officers. He asked questions and conversed with fourteen of them, one even going so far as to ac-

EARTHQUAKES COST THOUSANDS OF LIVES IN CHINA'S PROVINCES

By Associated Press. SHANGHAI, April 16.—Added reports that found their way to the coast in February concerning the extent of the destruction done by earthquakes through the month of December in the province of Shensi reveal that the loss of life probably was far greater than at first estimated. It is officially estimated that no less than 40,000 persons lost their lives in the sub-prefecture of Kuyuan and in the city of Pingliang 600 were killed, the reports state. The first shocks which continued intermittently through December were felt in the Pingliang district on Dec. 16.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS WILL CONTROL AIR

By Associated Press. GENEVA, April 16.—International aerial agreements are beginning to come into the League of Nations, Secretariat for registration. Franco-British and German-Swiss air conventions have been received. They are almost identical in their principal provisions. Both apply only to private and commercial craft.

The governments interested reserve the right to prohibit circulation in certain areas for military reasons and the agreements provide that any aircraft finding itself accidentally over such areas must at once give the signal of distress provided for in the air navigation regulations of the country over which it is flying.

Passengers are required to have the usual papers for international travel and all goods carried must be accompanied by bills of lading. Certain aerodromes are specified as the only points from which aircraft may start and land. Machines must carry certificates of "airworthiness," and marks of identification must be sufficiently plain to be easily recognized during flight.

One hundred million barrels of Portland cement were made in 1920 with approximately 80 mills manufacturing it.

AUTO THIEVES PROVE FASTIDIOUS PARTIES

By International News Service. CHICAGO, April 16.—Chicago automobile thieves like fine cars, but in a pinch will take what they can get until they can acquire a better one. P. J. Murray, an automobile salesman, missed his machine and found a note saying: "Have borrowed your car for a little while." A few nights later he saw his car standing at the curb. This time he found another note, which read: "Much obliged—we have a better car now."

PROPOSAL TO DIVIDE STATE RECALLS WAY IT WAS ADMITTED

AUSTIN, April 16.—The recent agitation for division of Texas, brought up in West Texas over Governor Neff's veto of the West Texas A. & M. college bill and the legislature's refusal to pass the redistricting measures giving that section of the state more representatives in the law making body, recalls the provisions under which Texas was admitted into the union in 1845. In the convention of the people of Texas held in Austin on July 4, 1845, the joint resolution adopted, annexing Texas to the United States included the following provision: "New states of convenient size, not exceeding four in number, in addition to said state of Texas, and having sufficient population, may hereafter by the consent of said state, be formed out of the territory thereof which shall be entitled to admission under the provisions of the federal constitution."

Under this clause, Texas could be divided into five states. However, no certain number is prescribed and it could be divided into only two states. The constitutional convention held in Austin in 1868 and 1869 also brought up the state division question. A resolution "expressing the opinion of the convention respecting the division of the state of Texas" provided for the appointment of four commissioners to go to Washington to lay the matter before congress. The convention held that the extent of Texas was too great for the proper well-being and administration of the affairs of state and the establishment of law and order; that in the opinion of the convention the state should be divided into states of more convenient size, the number not being mentioned. The resolution was adopted on Jan. 29, 1869.

Brig. General Clarence Edwards

Brigadier-General Clarence Edwards, who commanded the Twenty-sixth division in France, stands first on the list of new major-generals which has been completed by Secretary of War Weeks, according to reports from Washington. There are twelve major-generals and twenty-five brigadier-generals on the new list.

Purina Chows Save Baby Chicks

DON'T try to raise these tender chicks on grains, stale bread, meal and such grain products, any more than you'd feed a baby cornbread. Such rations, being deficient in protein and minerals, result in bowel trouble, slow feathering and scrawny development.

Chicks Saved Pay Feed Bill

Suppose Purina Chows saved just two more chicks out of every dozen hatched. That alone would pay your feed bill. But Purina Chows do more than just save chicks.

Double Development Guaranteed

Purina Chows are guaranteed to make your chicks grow twice as fast as grain feeds or you get your money back. Don't you owe it to yourself and chicks to call us up or drop in?

The massive Kelly-Springfield Caterpillar Tire for Trucks represents the greatest advance in truck tire construction since the beginning of the industry. Its elephant-footed sureness and lasting economy have made an immediate appeal to the heaviest truck users in the world. By a series of side air-pockets—a new construction fully patented—it gives maximum traction, road contact and resiliency, with minimum vibration and vehicle depreciation. The pockets permit the rubber to flow under load, take up the traction wave, reduce internal tire strain and keep the tire cooler at all times.
