

US Assumes Reds Linked With Moscow

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—Despite Russia's wartime dissolution of the Comintern, the United States still takes it for granted that there is a firm link between the Kremlin and communists everywhere.

Hence diplomatic authorities say this government is aware of the possibility that the Soviet Union might seek to bring about strong communist agitation within the United States should the tensions between Moscow and Washington continue to build up.

Serving to highlight this phase of American foreign policy thinking is the speech Dmitri Manuilsky made before the United Nations Security Council on Tuesday. Manuilsky, foreign minister of the Soviet Ukraine and one-time head of the Comintern, declared it is time to "put an end" to the idea that Communists have no influence through the world.

He said "the masses in all countries" had an opportunity to look the Communists over during the war and now are "expressing to them their confidence."

Officials here regard this defense of non-Russian Communists as an extraordinarily frank statement from a Soviet official talking about individuals with whom Moscow officially disavows any connection.

White Marshal Stalin's 1943 action in dissolving the Comintern was widely hailed as a goodwill gesture toward the Western powers, there appears to be no official inclination here to regard Communists anywhere as anything except essential instruments of Soviet policy under either direct or indirect control from Moscow.

Thus authorities say it seems that if and when relations between Moscow and Washington might make it desirable to do so, Russia would not hesitate to use American Communists for any foreign policy purpose they might desire.

Mitchell Test Ready For Acid

G. R. Beavers No. 1 S. R. Coleman, northwest Mitchell wildcat above the Westbrook pool, pumped 97 barrels of 27 gravity oil on intermittent pumping runs Wednesday and Thursday prepared to acidize.

The test had stains to saturation from 2,660-2,700 and saturation from 2,700-2,750, oil rising from 200 to 1,500 feet in the hole after balling. Bottom of hole is 3,965 feet and elevation is 2,222 feet. Location is 2,310 feet out of the northeast corner of section 70-97, H&C.

Drilling on the Santa Fe No. 1 M. J. Christian, northeastern Howard wildcat, progressed to 3,070 feet in lime Thursday. Top of the Grayburg in this exploration was picked at 2,868' and elevation is listed as 2,628'. Contract is for 4-500 feet with option to leave large enough bottom hole for deepening. Location is 2,310 feet out of the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 48032-2n, T&P.

Brisk Showers Spot County

Thundershowers dotted sections of the county Wednesday afternoon with beneficial results in limited areas.

Powell creek lake caught two feet of runoff from the effects of a brisk shower which was estimated at an inch or more in the Foran area. Range land in that section was materially benefited.

Most of Big Spring got a good shower, ranging upwards of an inch, but at the US weather bureau at the airport the fall was measured at only .18 of an inch. The US Experiment Farm gauged .61 of an inch.

Showers continued for about a mile above the experiment farm and then abruptly ceased. Immediately north of the city some terraces broke and fields were soaked, but the territory was limited.

Coahoma reported about a third of an inch with little moisture to the north. South and east in the oilfield area around an inch fell. Northwest of Coahoma the picture was mostly dry but the Morgan area got around half an inch.

Southwest of Big Spring the showers were generally too light to be of great benefit except to maintain strength of better rains a week ago.

Cloudburst In Borger

BORGER, Sept. 12 (AP)—A near cloudburst in this area early today sent Rock Creek on a rain page causing widespread damage to highways and industrial properties.

In the three-hour period between midnight and 3 a. m. the fall measured .385 inches.

Police Jail Negro Soldiers After Disorder

Blacks Charge MP's In Railway Station Affray

FLORENCE, S. C., Sept. 12 (AP)—A railway station melee in which military police were reported to have swung their blackjacks freely landed 135 negro soldiers in jail here on charges of "disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and interfering with an officer."

Police Chief J. A. Price said the negro soldiers, most of them just back from overseas, charged six MP's last night in an attempt to free five of their number arrested on a troop train for disorderly conduct.

The soldiers, with whom the MP's were traveling, left the train in the wake of the MP's and the five under arrest, and after a brief consultation among themselves, charged the smaller group, Price said.

The MP's, Price added, began wielding blackjacks to ward off the surge of the soldiers. Several men were knocked down but no one was hurt seriously, the police chief said, before the MP's brought the situation under control by summoning civilian peace officers armed with riot guns.

Price reported the unruly soldiers then were lined up and marched single file through the streets for about a mile to two separate jails to await a hearing before a city recorder.

Many of the soldiers already had received their discharge papers and others were headed for separation centers, their records showed. Practically all of them are from the South.

Bone Awaits Jury Decision

Luther Calvert Bone awaited Thursday afternoon a decision from a 70th district court jury on a charge he burglarized a liquor store here Feb. 27.

Bone entered a plea of guilty before the jury and only testimony in the case was an introduction of part of the statement attributed to Bone. Chief of Police A. G. Mitchell was on the stand to tell of having taken a statement. Defense Attorney James Little introduced no witnesses.

Three others, Mertz E. Daran, John Q. Hancock and H. J. Carney previously had entered pleas of guilty before Judge Cecil Collins. District Attorney Martelle McDonald represented the state.

Jurors were H. F. Taylor, Ray Wilson, Harold Talbot, Alvin Bates, L. Z. Shaffer, Melvin Choate, Worth Peeler, D. S. Riley, H. A. Reid, H. E. Laws, Herman Jefferson, E. C. Sewell.

Clean-Up Drive Progresses Steadily

The volume of trash picked-up Wednesday in the clean-up campaign kept pace with Tuesday's standard, with city trucks hauling 29 loads, B. J. McDaniel, chairman of the chamber of commerce health and recreation department, reported today.

If current response continues for the remainder of the week, the total for the drive will surpass last spring's volume. A total of 61 loads has been handled since Monday morning by the city's free pick-up service.

Italy Would Increase Army

PARIS, Sept. 12 (AP)—Italy sought permission of the 21-nation peace conference today to increase the effective strength of her projected peace-time Navy from 22,500 officers and men — the figure fixed by the Big Four — to 35,000.

The Italian delegation prepared to present the Military Commission — which approved the Big Four recommendation on Sept. 3 — request for the increase of 12,500 in a final plea today for "defensive armaments," together with a plea that the excessive shipping which the victor nations demand Italy destroy, be converted to scrap iron rather than become a total loss.

At the same time, Dr. Ales Beller of Yugoslavia was scheduled to wind up Yugoslav demands on Italy before the Italian Political and Territorial Commission with a demand that the Italian City of Monfalcone, which lies about 17 miles northwest of Trieste and about the same distance southwest of Gorizia, be turned over to Yugoslavia.

Beller was prepared to ask for that city, which he calls Trzin, on the ground that the city's population had increased by 8,000 Slovenes since it became Italian and that even the Italian population now wants to become part of Yugoslavia.

On another phase of the Italian treaty, a nine-nations sub-commission worked into the early hours of this morning on reparations claims against Italy and invited Ethiopia, France, Britain, Yugoslavia, Egypt and Holland to state their cases before it. The United States yesterday renounced all claims for reparations from Italy.

Donkey, Lions, Legionnaires Battle Tonight

The battle of the oat bin — Lions versus the Legion of Legion and Lions versus a truckload of burros — gets underway at 8 p. m. under the lights at the rodeo grounds today.

Ostensibly, the contest is a donkey ball game between the Lions and the Legion. Actually, the jockeys are hinting darkly it may develop into a battle of wits between the Lions and Legionnaires against the donkeys. In that event, the mules are favored to win.

Both Jack Y. Smith, manager of the Lions team, and Bud Tucker, Legion manager, were sticking by their line-ups but feared last minute shifts might be necessary. Smith attributed this to a drastic drop in temperature that the phenomenon was held to a low strata no higher than the ankles.

There were counter charges of meddling with the stock, but an interview with Atomic Bomb, one of the top doctile base runners, failed of verbal confirmation. Confronted with a charge the Legion had slipped him a peck of oats, Atomic Bomb merely said "Sniff," and kept on chomping his oats.

The interview was significantly terminated with a vocal display which had it come from a less refined character, might have been characterized as a bray.

Under rules of the game, players must be in an orthodox manner. Fielders, however, are mounted on nimble-footed beasts completely allergic to speed. They can field dismounted only in an area circumscribed by the reins. Balls must be thrown from aboard the hurricane deck. Batters must mount the baserunning specialists for acrobatic attempts at circling the paths. These baserunners, it is rumored, have been known to buck.

A second game is billed for 8 p. m. Friday at the rodeo grounds.

UN Nations Favor Delaying Session

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 12 (AP)—Frygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, announced today that postponement of the general assembly meeting until Oct. 23 had been authorized by more than a majority of the 51 nations. Thirty-seven had replied as of today and none objected.

The 51 member nations were polled by the secretary general on Sept. 9 with a request that they reply by Sept. 13.

OPA Charged With Wrecking Meat Industry

CHICAGO, Sept. 12 (AP)—The OPA in the last two weeks has "almost wrecked" the nation's meat industry, say officials of a national meat workers union, threatening 25,000 workers and making it difficult to add another 25,000 to the ranks of the unemployed in another week.

The officials, E. W. Jimerson, president, and Patrick E. Gorman, secretary-treasurer, of the AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, said in a statement, "the whole OPA program is a dismal failure. It has been successful only in the control of rents."

In a telegram to President Truman the union leaders urged immediate removal of ceilings and controls, which went back into effect Tuesday. They proposed the President "demand that Congress chuck it (the OPA program) completely out of the window" with the exception of rent controls.

In their statement, they said "that in many communities no slaughtering whatever is being engaged in and market owners by the hundreds are closing their doors."

Meanwhile Chicago, the nation's largest meat packing center, has become a whistle stop for cattle on their way from ranges and farms to the east—Boston, New York, Philadelphia.

The situation is a repetition of conditions which existed under previous OPA price ceilings and which led to charges there was a rampant "black market" in the eastern section of the country.

Jester Will Lead Corsicana Parade

CORSICANA, Sept. 12 (AP)—Beauford Jester, nominee for governor, will lead a parade Tuesday opening the 1946 Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Exposition, Col. John J. Garner, parade chairman, said today.

Navarro county schools will observe a holiday. A rodeo will be held each night.

Jester is scheduled to speak at a Lions club meeting Tuesday and the Fair association will be host at open house Tuesday afternoon at the country club.

A feature of the exposition will be exhibits from approximately 40 industrial companies in the Corsicana area.

More Vets Apply For Surplus Locally

Response to the certifying service being offered veterans here by the War Assets Administration has increased, the local veterans contact office reported today, as Walter Wellborne, WAA representative, arrived for his regularly scheduled stop here.

Wellborne certifies veterans in this area as surplus property purchasers from the WAA. His next visit to Big Spring will be on Sept. 26.

Board Approves School Budget Provisionally

School board members Wednesday night provisionally approved the budget for the 1946-47 school year, adjusted pay schedules for custodians and attended to a variety of other matters.

The budget outlay called for expenditures of $372,692.50, against estimated revenues of $310,534. The deficit of $62,158, however, would be overcome by a carry-over of $78,981 from the past year.

Pending a stabilization of the tax picture, trustees made approval of the budget and inclusion of additional teachers for double-day sessions contingent, on the final total of the tax rolls.

Budget figures were higher than those presented at the public hearing meeting, chiefly due to the fact that a $200 per annum temporary raise had been granted all teachers in the system. Another substantial change was provision in the budget, contingent upon tax roll appraising estimates, for seven additional teachers to handle double-day sessions. This item would approximate $15,000 for the year.

Board members voted a $10 per month raise across the board to building custodians.

Merle J. Stewart was named to conduct the annual audit of a minor tax matter. Installation of sidewalks at College Heights was approved, and the board read a letter of commendation from Lawrence J. Wells, city-county sanitarian, on new sanitary facilities at the Lakeview (colored) school. Matter of painting the stadium was tabled indefinitely.

Superintendent W. C. Blankenship reported on enrollment and crowded conditions, declaring that at the present time eight glass rooms had in excess of 40 pupils, one ranging up to 52. These were the conditions which prompted the double-day session proposals.

Stocker Run Heavy, Markets Strong

A heavy run of stockers, greeted promptly by a strong market, boosted receipts to 1250 head at the weekly sale of the Big Spring Livestock Auction company Wednesday.

Few fat animals were available, but stockers were in greater demand, and cattlemen are forecasting a continued strong market due to recent showers.

Cows and calves of varying flesh and quality commanded from $105 to $135 a pair Wednesday, while stocker calves hit 17.00 per cwt. Heifer calves brought 13.50 to 16.00; fat bulls, 12.00; and fat butcher cattle, 12.00 to 16.00, depending on quality.

Post Office Gets Refurbishing Job

Refurbishing of the US post-office building was well underway Thursday.

Lobby of the building has been painted and currently the interior of the offices and workroom is being refinished. Hairline cracks are being treated before painting.

Floor of the offices and workroom are to be refinished before the job is completed, said Postmaster Nat Shick. He estimated that from two to three weeks will be required to complete the job.

More Unions Asked To Join Seamen Strike

By The Associated Press
Hopes revived for solution of the strike of AFL maritime workers today with a White House announcement that the president has ordered Reconversion Director John R. Steelman to try to work out a settlement.

The strike, which New York City authorities said had delayed movement of nearly $200,000,000 worth of shipping in that harbor alone, is going into its eighth day.

"It's up to Dr. Steelman to make a decision, probably in the course of the day," the president's press secretary, Charles G. Ross, told newsmen.

The Wage Stabilization Board — which last night refused to yield to high pressure from the shipping industry and a half-million strike-bound Maritime workers — went into conference with Steelman to explain its position.

Leaders of striking AFL seamen today denounced as a "threat to the entire labor movement of the United States" the decision of the Wage Stabilization Board in standing pat on its earlier ruling denying them wage hikes above those won by CIO seamen.

Pledging a "fight to the bitter end," they promised to carry out "plans to secure the support of the entire US labor movement — including AFL, CIO and independent unions — to aid us in our fight to retain the right of free collective bargaining which the WSB action has denied us."

In an earlier telegram to the WSB, the strike leaders termed the board's action as "criminal and union-busting," and added: "The further continuance of the greatest general Maritime strike in the history of the United States rests squarely on your shoulders and the shoulders of those individuals who voted to deny our hard fought-for wage gains."

The WSB decision brought immediate repercussions along the strike-torn coastal ports of the nation where the world's greatest Maritime fleet lay virtually immobilized behind a chain of picketing seamen.

The Marine, Firemen, Oilers, Wipers and Water-tenders Union, an independent organization, announced its 15,000 members throughout the nation would join the AFL strike today.

Big Spring Cut Short Of Meat

Big Spring was beginning to bring into a sharp cut in meat supplies Thursday.

This resulted largely from the withdrawal of supplies by the Sewell Wholesale Meat company on instructions of OPA due to excess of slaughtering quota in the months of May and June.

At a hearing in San Angelo Tuesday, Sewell said quotas had been exceeded through absence of key personnel and slaughter of two truck loads of cattle, ticketed for July slaughter, the last few days of June.

While no order was entered by the hearing commission, the OPA that "excesses would have to be made up by under-killing in September. Since there had been some slaughter prior to the hearing, Marvin Sewell, operator of the company which supplies approximately one-third of the local volume, said he would not kill or deliver for the company pending further instructions from OPA.

Immediate effect of the action was to deprive a number of retail outlets and food establishments of their regular source of supply.

Four Men Enlist For Army Service

Four men, one with prior service, were enlisted through the Big Spring office of the army recruiting service this week.

They are Arnold A. Adams, Midland, veteran, who enlisted three years in the AAF, Leroy Cumble, Rising Star, three years with the engineers; and Kenneth D. Stark, Comanche, and Edward Lee Allen, O'Donnell, both for three years with the AAF.

West Texas Sand And Gravel Gives Area Complete, Ready Service

For beautification, convenience, durability, the West Texas Sand and Gravel company offers the people of Big Spring and area complete and ready service. One service, particularly important at this season of the year, which is offered by the company, is rich topsoil. Many new home owners, with locations on rocky or caliche soil, may be assured of good soil for lawns, flower beds, garden plots, etc. by calling West Texas Sand & Gravel.

The company stresses the fact that it delivers orders of any quantity. From the stock piles come the best in concrete sand, concrete gravel, remix (the proper mixture of sand and gravel ready for concrete and water), plaster sand, brick sand, driveway gravel, etc. Besides these, there is an abundance of coarse rock aggregates or overzoned materials which are excellent for fill or durable basic material.

West Texas Sand & Gravel is the only producer of processed materials in the county. The difference between a producer and processed producer is great, for every ounce of material that comes from West Texas Sand & Gravel is washed and screened to exact specifications. It is all dirt, which that repeatedly state and federal agencies have come back to West Texas Sand & Gravel for additional orders.

All this service is as near to the people of this vicinity as their telephone.

Runyan's Have More Plumbing Fixtures Now

One of the scarcest items for the past several years has been plumbing fixtures, but now according to Mrs. R. L. Trappell at Runyan Plumbing company, prospects are looking brighter.

Hard-to-get bathtubs are slowly trickling back to the market, although a priority system has been employed to get the equipment to those who need it most. The customer fills out an application which is sent to the Federal Housing Administration for approval. Mrs. Trappell said, and on that approval Runyan's may release the fixtures. Other bathroom and kitchen equipment is less difficult to obtain, she said.

Runyan's has a full force of eight experienced plumbers, capable of handling any type of installation or repair work. If the new equipment is unobtainable Runyan men are able to repair old plumbing for years of future service. During the war years plumbing repair supplies were made of less durable materials, but now, Mrs. Trappell said, the parts are being manufactured of better, more long lasting quality. The supply of parts is complete for any type of repair work.

Runyan's supply of hot water heaters is increasing and Mrs. Trappell declared that to be assured of plenty of hot water for all purposes homeowners should call them for installing a new gas operated heater. For the best in repair, and most serviceable Crane, Kohler and Standard fixtures call Runyan plumbing at 535, or drop by 508 East 6th street.

IRON, METAL BOSS—Isadore Weiner, above, is owner and operator of the Big Spring Iron & Metal company. Experienced in the business, Weiner takes care to see that as complete a stock of materials as possible to meet private and commercial needs of the area. Not only do oil industries find pipes, fittings, metal to help solve production problems, but farmers, ranchers and others needing supplies for wells and machines frequently call the firm at Big Spring Iron and Metal, where welding and machine service also are available. US Royal Air Ride, A Modern Tire, On Display At Phillips Tire Co.

The newest, most modern tire in America, the US Royal Air Ride, is being shown at the Phillips Tire Co., 211 East 3rd, and as soon as production volume will warrant, Phillips will have the new tire for sale.

Something entirely new in automobile tire designing and engineering, the US Royal Air Ride is better balanced and gives easier control and better performance than any tire ever produced heretofore.

Based on the principle of "putting more air where it does the most good" the new tire provides the advantages of greatly increased air volume, but with a lower pressure, for air cushioned riding and unexcelled driving ease.

Motorists can travel with a new feeling of safety and confidence and learn just what smooth riding really means with the new US Royal Air Ride Phillips said. Although available only for display now, the new tire will be offered for sale as soon as possible. The Phillips Tire Co. still is offering motorists a complete tire service, which includes the highest grade of recapping. In order to give local motorists the best type of service available, the firm is sending an employee to Detroit for a two-weeks factory training course in recapping.

Phillips also is featuring puncture-proof tubes, which already have been recognized as one of the greatest safety developments in motoring history.

Armless Skeleton Found In Woods

BALTIMORE, Sept. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hildreth of Baltimore said today she was "convinced" that the armless skeleton of a girl found in a thicket on the city's outskirts was that of her long-missing daughter.

The daughter, Jane N. Hildreth, 17, disappeared the week before Christmas, 1944, leaving a note saying she was going to visit her father and that her mother would never see her again.

A hunter found the skeleton on a wooded estate yesterday. William S. Hildreth, Charlottesville, Va., banker, the girl's father, was en route to Baltimore today.

Shortage Eases To Meet Demands At Big Spring, Iron Metal Works

Now that production of metal and metal materials is on the upswing after critically short years, the Big Spring Iron and Metal company can promise quicker and better service and delivery on orders of metal and metal supplies to construction and oil field projects.

I. Weiner, owner and operator, admits that it was a struggle to meet orders during the last few years and to keep his business running, but now says he is geared to meet any demands.

The metal works, which supplies pipe casing, drilling supplies, water well material and structural steel, also operates a welding plant where all kinds of metal welding, pipe threading and like jobs are done.

At the present time, due to the coming of winter in a few weeks and the heavy amount of construction projects underway locally, the metal works is handling much business with a staff of eight salesmen and welders. Weiner is capable of taking on as much work as customers can find for him to do.

For expert service requiring the use of metals or metal products, inquire at 1413 W. Third, and be assured of prompt, courteous treatment. The Big Spring Iron and Metal company has had eight years serving Big Spring and Howard County.

City Collects $1,107 In Fines

Police department activity during August accounted for $1,107 in fines collected in city court, according to the regular report submitted by Chief A. G. Mitchell.

Eighty-five fines were assessed for drunkenness, ranging from $15 to $100 each, while two assessments of $100 each were made for violations of the city milk ordinance.

Local officers also made four arrests on charges of automobile theft during the month, releasing one each to sheriff departments in Abilene, Odessa and Big Spring, and one to the police department in Dallas.

A total of 185 traffic tickets were issued by patrolmen, with 79 paying fines, 45 pending and 61 excused. The police radio made 908 calls to local units and received 248 from other stations, while 62 messages originated from the local station.

Two Killed In Crash

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 12 (AP)—A collision of a heavy cattle van and a light truck last night on the highway 7 miles west of Jacksboro proved fatal to Jessie C. Parker, 34, and his eleven-year-old son, Jessie Bird Parker, of Glen Rose.

Texans Urge Truman To Halt Ship Strike

HOUSTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—The Texas Manufacturers' association has sent a telegram to President Truman urging immediate executive action to end the SIU-SUP strike.

Signed by C. K. Stillwagon, president of the association, the telegram said, "The Second War Powers Act enables you as president to use the power of government to meet national emergencies. Neither you nor congress has declared the wartime emergency at an end. You have used the power to seize the coal mines to end an emergency of no greater consequence than the current maritime strike.

"The maritime strike is against the rulings of the government, which they refused to accept. Our soldiers overseas, our allies and many citizens on our continent are affected; therefore the current maritime strike should no longer be tolerated.

"We urge you to act now and end this strike or else declare the emergency at an end and remove wartime shackles from all segments of society, employees and employers alike."

Strikers Take Time To Give Transfusion

HOUSTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—Seven striking seamen have left their picket lines here to give blood for a transfusion for thirteen year old Betty Jo Tharp, one of five children in the Tharp family who were badly injured when a Spanish-American war shell exploded. The seamen were walking picket duty in the ship channel area where Betty Jo lives. Hearing of her need, they went to the hospital and volunteered to supply the blood.

Governors Of Texas

Sterling, Humble Oil Builder, Had Stormy Tenure In Office

(This is the 29th in a series of stories based on the lives of governors of Texas.)

By PAUL BOLTON

Friends of Ross Shaw Sterling say that his brief tenure in the office of Texas' governor was due largely to a perverse public psychology. He was unfortunate enough to be governor in those years when the great depression was at its height: in 1931 and 1932.

Sterling stepped up to the office of governor from the chairmanship of the highway commission. Cleaning up the highway commission had been one of the issues upon which Dan Moody had defeated Miriam A. Ferguson; and the man he selected to do it was Ross S. Sterling, a successful Houston business man.

Sterling's claim to fame undoubtedly will rest upon the fact that he first built one of the state's greatest oil companies, Humble Oil and Refining Company. It started out as a small independent company called the Humble Company, and for 18 years Sterling built it until, when sold, it was well on the way to becoming a giant.

Today the Humble Company is Texas' biggest purchaser of crude oil; and is affiliated with one of the largest companies, Standard Oil of New Jersey. Sterling's monuments include the great Baytown refinery of the Humble Company and the Humble Building in Houston. He also was the builder of a railroad (The Dayton and Goose Creek), and was one of the guiding spirits behind the construction of the Houston ship channel.

ROSS SHAW STERLING

No great shakes as a stump speaker, Sterling had a hard time in campaign years. The first time was not too difficult, with a major share of the campaigning burden on that seasoned forensic specialist, Dan Moody. But the second time he was more largely on his own; and despite the circulation of some of the most sensational charges ever seen in a state noteworthy for sensationalism in politics, he was defeated after two years by Mrs. Ferguson.

His two years in office were likewise stormy. Sterling wanted to build many great highways. He wanted to issue bonds to pay for them—Two hundred million dollars worth of them. His wishes precipitated a fight which kept his legislature in turmoil. Time after time the measure was brought to a vote, and time after time it was beaten down.

Then, he was unfortunate enough to be governor when the price of oil collapsed under the impact of East Texas, the world's greatest oil field. He called out the troops, declared martial law, and laid himself open to lots of political criticism.

The then agricultural commissioner, J. E. McDonald, matched a scheme with notables from other states—including the then commissioner in Georgia, Eugene Talmadge—for a south-wide reduction of cotton acreage. They prevailed upon Sterling to get a law passed cutting the Texas production 50 percent. But farmers attacked it in the courts, and the courts declared the Texas law unconstitutional.

They were, as Sterling said in campaign documents, "perilous eccentric times." The times swept him out of office after another bitter double-primary.

So bitter was the campaign that in the fall of 1932, Sterling issued a statement as governor, saying—

"There is but one thing left for Texans who love their state and Democrats who love their party to do; and that is to throw the weight of their influence and their votes behind Orville Bullington for governor." Bullington was the Republican candidate.

Sterling said he went out of office a poor man. "When I became governor I was well to do and now I return to the ranks of the poor from which I sprang."

Sterling took little active part in politics after his defeat. He went back into the oil business, and found the time to build up his country home on the Bayshore at La Porte, raising fine-hogs as a hobby. Just a few weeks ago he made a gift of this property to the Optimists Club of Houston.

Picketing Prohibited On Channel Lands

HOUSTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—A temporary injunction has been granted by Special Judge Wilmer B. Hunt enjoining striking AFL seamen from picketing ship channel properties of two terminal operators.

The court order will prohibit picketing by members of the Seafarers International Union and the Sailors Union of the Pacific at the waterfront properties of the Gulf Atlantic Warehouse company and the Manchester Terminal Corporation.

The order will be effective until the case is tried on its merits or until a contrary decision is taken by an appeals court.

The attorney for the striking unions, Sewell Myer, filed notice of appeal.

Mrs. Church Rites Held In Merkel

Rites were to be held at 3 p. m. Thursday at the Merkel Methodist church for Mrs. F. E. Church, 50, mother of Mrs. Noel Bryant, wife of a former Methodist pastor at Coahoma and Stanton.

Mrs. Church died at 5:35 p. m. at her home in Merkel Wednesday following a long illness.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters and one son. Her mother, Mrs. W. U. Beene, Merkel, and one sister and two grandchildren also survive. Burial was to be in the Merkel cemetery.

Rural mail carriers were authorized to receive and deliver registered mail on April 12, 1900.

Suit Charges Heavy Damage To Cemetery

DALLAS, Sept. 12 (AP)—A suit seeking damages of nearly a quarter of a million dollars and alleging desecration of graves in the Lagow cemetery here has been filed in 95th district court by J. T. Reese, his wife and 109 other plaintiffs against C. C. McLaughlin, Jr., Sidney Mary Langley Kent and A. H. Kent.

The petition alleges that lumber and debris were piled on cemetery lots and that automobiles and bulldozers had run over the land, breaking some of the tombstones.

Junior Girls Auxiliary Has Initial Meeting

The first meeting of the newly organized Junior Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the church with a special program followed by a social hour with the girls' mothers as guests. Mrs. M. B. Beam led the group in singing "Arise and Shine," following which Mrs. P. D. O'Brien led in prayer. Mrs. G. L. Brooks, GA counselor, extended the welcome, and explained the work of the organization. A program on "A Crown for the King's Daughters" was introduced by Marilyn Carpenter, who told of the background. A golden crown was placed on a satin pillow, and as each girl taking part told of the five star ideals of the GA she added a jewel to the crown. Participating were Barbara Greer, "Abiding in Him Through Prayer"; Doris Ann McDonald, "Advancing in Wisdom by Bible Study"; Mary Norman, "Acknowledging My Stewardship"; Glenna Coffey, "Adorned with Good Work"; Margaret McDonald, "Accepting the Challenge of the

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel, more alive, youthful appearing and active.

Mrs. Mason Selected P-TA Council President

At a called meeting of the Lloyd, Presbyterian minister, will executive board Wednesday afternoon at the high school, Mrs. Jimmie Mason was named to head the Big Spring Parent-Teacher Council after Mrs. Will P. Edwards' resignation as president was accepted. Mrs. Boone Horne was elected as council secretary to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Mason. The meeting, presided over by Mrs. Charles Creighton, was opened with a prayer by Mrs. J. E. Brigham. Plans were completed for the fall P-TA school of instruction which has been scheduled to begin at 10 a. m. on September 19 at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. T. R. Rodell, state health chairman from Haskell, will conduct the school, and Mrs. Phillip Thompson, district president from San Angelo, will take part. Rev. Gage

Football Season Tickets On Sale

Season tickets for six home football games go on sale Friday and Saturday at the chamber of commerce office, Walter Reed high school principal, announced Thursday.

Currently, and after the weekend, the tickets will be available at the school administrative office.

The tickets cover these games: Cisco, Sept. 20; Lubbock Sept. 27; Odessa Oct. 4; North Side (Fort Worth), Oct. 25; San Angelo, Nov. 8; and Abilene, Nov. 15. All games are against class "AA" opposition. Odessa, San Angelo, and Abilene, of course, are district games. Lubbock is reputed to be a close choice for honors in district 1-AA with Amarillo. North Side was beaten only by the finalist in the state class last year.

Reed pointed out that the season tickets ($5.40) offered the advantage of choice seats for every game. Tickets on sale now are among the best in the entire stadium, he said.

Henderson Takes ET League Lead

By The Associated Press

The Henderson Oilers are out in front today in the chase for the playoff championship of the East Texas League.

The Oilers last night came from behind to defeat Greenville, 6-5, from the majors.

Tyler, Trojans, playing before an unexpected small crowd of 1,530 hometown fans, came back to square their series with Texarkana, defeating the Bears, 6-2.

Henderson and Greenville move to Greenville tonight for their third game, while the other two clubs continue their series at Tyler.

Winners of the two series, four out of seven games, will meet next week in the final round, with the winner to go into a post-season playoff with the West Texas-New Mexico League champion.

Good pitching and heavy hitting staged repeat performances to give Fort Worth and Dallas decided edges over Tulsa and San Antonio in the semi-final round of the play-off for the Texas League championship.

Fort Worth's Cats shutout Tulsa, 1-0, last night to blank the Oilers twice in a row, while the Dallas Rebels, for the second straight night, hit a ninth inning homer to break a 3-3 tie and win, 4-3.

The repeat victories for the Cats and Rebels place them two games out in front as the clubs move out to Tulsa and San Antonio tonight to open three-game stands. If the two series are not determined by then the club will return to the North Texas ball parks for games next Sunday and Tuesday.

Eddie Chandler, who won twenty games over the regular season schedule, released only four singles to the Oilers. The Fort Worth ace struck out six Tulsa hitters and issued only one pass.

Tuesday night, John Van Cuyk had set the Tulsa club down with only two hits in turning in a 5-0 victory in the series opener.

Chandler bested Eddie Hanyzewski in a spectacular duel that saw the Cats get only five hits. Only one, however, was enough to clinch the game. In the fourth inning, Lou Wejaj walked and stole second and Lou Ruscher drove him home with Fort Worth's first hit of the game.

Dallas collected three home runs in taking the San Antonio game and in handing the Missions' veteran Sig Jakucki his second defeat in two nights.

Jakucki entered the game in the eighth to relieve Eddie Cole after the Rebels had tied the score at 3-3 on a homer by Catcher Harvey Riebe, a double by Eddie Borom and a long fly by Gene Markland.

In the ninth, with two away, Hal Hirshon sent a four-bagger over the left-centerfield fence to break the deadlock and break up the game.

Dallas' first score came in the fifth on a homer by Red Davis after the San Antonio club had taken a 3-0 lead.

The Missions scored once in the second on a double by Jess Newman, a sacrifice by Ken Wood and a fly by Ken Sears.

Cole started a two-run Mission inning in the fifth with a single. He scored on a single by Ray Coleman after Stan Galle had walked. Galle crossed the plate on a slow roller to first.

Ex-paratrooper Tom Pullig went the route for the Rebels, giving up seven hits. The Rebels took six off Chandler and Jakucki.

Tuesday night, Center Fielder Clint Conaster hit a ninth inning homer to give the Rebels a 4-3 win over the Missions.

Dodgers Seeking Replay Of Tie Game With Reds

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Like the 1938 Pittsburgh Pirates, the Brooklyn Dodgers could lose the National League pennant because of inability to play their full schedule.

The Pirates of '38, who finished in second place, 13 percentage points behind the Champion Chicago Cubs, were rained out of four games that year, but the Dodgers' situation came from yesterday's record-breaking 19-inning scoreless tie with the Cincinnati Reds.

The scoreless deadlock, coupled with the St. Louis defeat by the Phils in Philadelphia, cut the Cardinals' first place margin to a game and a half. Both teams are all even on the losing side of the ledger but the Cards have won three more games.

Branch Rickey, head of the Dodgers, planned to confer with Ford Frick, president of the National League today, on the replay Sept. 20 or 25. He would like to move back to Dodger-Pirate game, only scheduled league tilt on Sept. 20, to make a double header with the Bucs Sept. 19. Sept. 26th is an open date for both teams.

Frick pointed out that Rickey would need the consent of the Reds, the Pirates, who might be unwilling to play two games on the 19th; the Cards; the Phils, who are waging a battle with the Reds for fifth place; and the Cubs and Boston Braves, who might want the same concession in order to play off their 17-inning tie of yesterday.

The Dodgers, however, were occupied with their all-important series with the Cardinals, starting today. They realize, as do the Cards, that this three-game set may decide the pennant race.

Yesterday's marathon game, called because of darkness, bettered by one the previous longest scoreless tie games, played July 16, 1909 between Detroit and Washington.

Johnny Vander Meer pitched the first 15 innings, gave up only seven hits and struck out 14 while walking only two. Harry Gumbert pitched the last four innings for the Reds allowing only four hits. Starter Hal Gregg going 10 innings, Hugh Casey, five; Art Herrings, three; and Hank Behrman, one. They gave up 10 hits.

Oscar Judd, 36-year-old southpaw, pitched the Phils to a 9-4 victory over the Cards.

For the second straight day, the Tigers forced postponement of Boston's pennant celebration by handing the American League leading Red Sox a 7-3 setback. Hank Greenberg highlighted a five-run first inning against Dave (Boo) Ferris, with his 33rd homerun with two on.

The Cubs and Braves battled through 17 innings before darkness halted their game with the score tied at 3-3. Emil Kush and Hank Borowy held the Braves to one hit in the last 12 1-3 innings.

The Indians hammered four New York Yankee pitchers for 16 hits as Allie Reynolds went the route for his 11th win with an 11-2 triumph. The Chicago White Sox climbed on Bobo Newsom for five runs in the sixth inning to defeat the Senators 6-1, and the St. Louis Browns shut out the Philadelphia Athletics 4-0 in a night game at Sportman's Park.

The Pirates went into seventh place in the National League and dumped the New York Giants into the cellar by besting the New Yorkers twice 7-6 and 7-5 at the Polo Grounds.

called for Monday at 8 p.m. in the office of County Superintendent Walker Bailey for the purpose of organizing a six-man football coaches and officials association.

Bailey said that in addition to coaches being present, particular emphasis was being placed on a good representation by those who have served or who intend to serve as game officials in the district this year.

SA Series Even After Two Games

By The Associated Press

Right back where they started—all square after two games—the Southern Association's first Division clubs changed sites today to continue their Shaughnessy playoffs for the right to meet the Texas League winner in a resumption of the Dixie Series.

Chattanooga blasted second-place Memphis last night, 15-6, largely on a nine-run uprising in the sixth inning and behind the splendid relief pitching of Al Toenes. New Orleans swamped the pennant-winning Atlanta Crockers, 12-2.

Atlanta and New Orleans are idle today, resuming play at New Orleans Friday night, but Memphis and Chattanooga play after tonight at Chattanooga.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(Mark Wentz is guest columnist today)

Some encouraging news has leaked through from the football stadium recently. In the past, high school football has been our pet peeve, but now it seems possible that the long drought of victories is about at an end. Let's hope so.

Boxing has been mentioned several times recently and that is a sport wherein our boys have not fared so badly against competition from surrounding towns. Last winter the Big Spring Athletic association conducted one of the finest Golden Gloves tournaments put on anywhere in the state. In fact, we think that it was much better than the Fort Worth state meet.

During the summer several organizations have kept boxing alive and now it is time for the Athletic association to get down to business and develop a team that will give every competitive team in the district plenty to worry about.

Big Spring has a wealth of fine material, too. Jimmy Eppler is a natural and should go far in boxing circles with proper training. Darrell Webb is a steady, plodding fighter with a dangerous punch in either hand, and all he needs to enable him to give a good account of himself in any Golden Gloves ring is training and coaching.

Billy White has the prettiest "sock" we have seen outside of a professional ring, and we'll bet the lieutenant from Midland, who was on the business end of that "sock" in last winter's tournament, still remembers it.

In fact, Big Spring has a lot of boys above the average. The Athletic association has all the equipment necessary but some big-hearted landlord will have to furnish a suitable place to train.

Just an idea that hit us. Think it over for what it may be worth. We believe that if all the organizations, who are half heartedly sponsoring some particular sport as a side line to their regular purposes, would be willing to support one central organization and let that organization co-ordinate all efforts along sports lines, Big Spring could get a much better job done in an athletic way.

There is room for all school athletics, and every sport fan should support them to the limit, but there is a definite need for ad-

Layne Induction May Be Delayed

AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—Bobby Layne will likely be available to the Texas Longhorns at least for their first three non-conference and two conference games.

Under a new Selective Service order, Layne will not report for induction, Sept. 19 as had been scheduled, and very likely will not be called up before Nov. 1.

Layne had been classified 1-A by his draft board and had been scheduled to report at Fort Sam Houston Sept. 19.

Under the new order, dated Aug. 28 and which local draft board officials said they learned of only a few days ago, the Longhorn passing star will likely miss the October call. He has to stand another pre-induction physical examination and be reclassified.

The new national regulation applicable to Layne says: "A registrant who upon pre-induction physical examination was found acceptable for general military service or for military service, and who is not forwarded for induction within 90 days from the time of his physical examination, will not be forwarded unless he volunteers."

"If 90 days of more have elapsed since the pre-induction physical examination, he will be forwarded for another preinduction physical examination in the same manner in which he was originally forwarded for pre-induction physical examination."

Postmaster Resigns

MELVIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—Alex Ables, postmaster here for 13 years, has resigned, effective Sept. 30. Odell Gainer, ex-serviceman, has been named acting postmaster.

Beauteous Helen of Troy, the face that launched a thousand ships, was among other jewelry, a ring decorated with the figure of a fish—for luck.

Another Medalist Falls In National Amateur Tourney

SPRINGFIELD, N. J., Sept. 12. (AP)—About the only thing certain today in the current running of the National Amateur Golf Championship was that Skeg Riegel of Upper Darby, Pa., had joined the large rank of the tournament's medal winners who failed to make the grade in match play.

Since the championship was started in 1895, only six persons have won the medal outright and gone on to walk off with the title.

Walter J. Travis turned the trick twice, in 1900 and 1901, while the last to win both was Dick Chapman of Mamaroneck, N. Y., whose 140 at the Winged Foot Club in 1940 took qualifying honors and spurred him on to the winner's throne.

The fortune of a draw that matched outstanding contenders in the early rounds of the 46th annual tournament at the Baltusrol Golf Club's picturesque layout as the match play whittled the field to 16 yesterday.

Courtney Depends On Six Lettermen

COURTNEY, Sept. 12.—Courtney high school's hope for a championship in the District nine six-man conference rests on the shoulders of six lettermen and several newcomers.

The season opener, which is a conference game, brings Garden City to the home gridiron for a conflict Sept. 20.

Returning lettermen include Billy Smith, 160-pound back; Durward Smith, 187, center; Taylor Cross, 145, end; Kenneth Snodgrass, 135, end; J. W. Smith, 175, back; and Jackie Wise, 135, back.

Newcomers on the squad are George Anderson, 160, back; W. D. Chandler, 154, end; Benny Kelly, 149, end; Eldon Welch, 129, back; Hayward Womack, 225, center; J. V. Hopper, 140, end; Sam Rhodes, 130, end; Howard Woods, 135, end; Clifton Hazelwood, 130, back.

Hubbers Going Home With Two-Game Lead

By The Associated Press

Pampa and Lubbock hold two-game advantages over Amarillo and Abilene today in the West Texas-New Mexico League semi-final playoffs.

The Lubbock Hubbers, behind the one-hit pitching of Lennie Heitz, last night defeated the Abilene Blue Sox, 2-0, to sweep the two-game stand at Abilene, while the Pampa Oilers pleased a home crowd for the second straight night by taking the Amarillo Gold Sox, 3-3. The clubs will obtain changes of scenery tonight as they move to Lubbock and Amarillo to open three-game stands.

Heitz allowed only three players of the Blue Sox club, which finished the regular season in first place, to reach base. Catcher Kenneth Quexreaux received Abilene's only hit, a fifth inning single. Heitz passed one man in the ninth and another man reached first on an error.

Lubbock scored in the first and ninth innings, the first driven home on a double by Gene Hodge, left fielder after Jackie Sullivan, short stop, had reached base on a fielder's choice. The final inning tally came on successive singles by Pay Rooney and Phil Kuykendall.

Southpaw Bill Garland gave up six hits to the Amarillo Club in defeating Lefty Loneragan who allowed the Oilers ten hits, including a homer by Virgil Richardson.

Harry Lamprich, Gold Sox catcher also smashed a homer.

Point In Need Of Clarification

The recent address of Secretary Byrnes at Stuttgart has been commented upon widely. No doubt, this is a significant speech.

In many quarters it has been hailed as a positive declaration of policy, particularly as concerns Russia. There is a growing feeling that the United States has too long and too often yielded to the Soviet in an effort to placate that nation in a futile hope of an eventual compromise.

Certainly the United States should have a positive and firm policy. Certainly we are in a position to state our purposes and objectives and not be easily dissuaded from our course by any power or combination of powers.

But our course should be one based upon our conception of right. There is danger in permitting this to degenerate into a negative policy.

Perhaps one flaw in the Byrnes speech is that it indicated the first symptoms toward this inclination. There is a hint in his statements that tend to the suspicion that the address was not only a statement of policy, but also a bid to the German people to accept US leadership in preference to that of Russia.

Obviously, if we believe in our democratic form of government, we are anxious that other nations embrace it. However, this choice should be for sound reasons and not based upon expediency.

Any other reason for accepting our ideas on government would be deceptive and doomed for trouble.

While we certainly hold no brief for Russia, except an admiration for the heroic fight of that people for its life, neither do we hold any particular brief for Germany. If Mr. Byrnes speech can be taken as a bid to Germany to accept a more lenient paternalistic policy from the US in exchange for becoming a buffer against Russia, we may be taking the first steps back to where we started after World War I. Germany was whipped after World War I, but other powers playing her as a buffer nourished her to where she again plunged the world into a holocaust. This point needs to be clarified in subsequent foreign policy declarations.

NOW THE GREEKS HAVE A DEFINITION FOR IT

Drugstore Redecorated

NEW YORK — Hanson's drugstore is a soda and medicine mart at 51st St. and Seventh Ave. right in the thumping cardiac region, where every strata of Broadway society meets on the same social plane, where one fellow's coffee cash is as good as the rest and no one seems the least impressed with the next guy's importance, financially or otherwise.

Therefore, the news that Hanson's was undergoing a change in decor had a good many of the regulars (might shakily for fear some fancy decorating dream of proprietor Neils Hanson, the Billingsley of the short order set, might change things to such a shattering degree that the rich and gamey tone of the place would disappear).

When the canvas was removed from the windows and the painters chased up Seventh Ave. by irate customers who are sticklers for the dustier drugstore traditions, fears were set to rest, for while the new decor is highly admirable, it hasn't changed things into a dizzy designers' nightmare, by any means you still can find the two booths, the three telephones, the drug counter and the stools on which normally are perched some of the best lookers and best talents of the immediate area, meaning Broadway.

THERE is a new juke box, considerably larger, which plays twice as many records as the old one. The new color scheme features a sky blue ceiling effect with the only slightly fashionable note a few gilt stars—applied thereon. Something which made the regulars cluster about in fascinated interest is a mural which all but the oldest habitués have leaved had just been painted. It was painted out, however, that the artistic note was not a recent addition but had simply appeared again on the surface after a generous use of wall cleaner. It depicts an old-fashioned drugstore with the hangars-on clustered

CIO Votes To Eliminate Major Strikes

WASHINGTON — It is no accident that the AFL, not the CIO, is in the strike headlines today.

In the first place, CIO Chief Phil Murray held a secret meeting with his cohorts recently in which it was decided to postpone all major strikes for the time being. In the second place, certain AFL leaders (throughout the majority) are not averse to a little labor trouble right now in order to defeat the Democrats at the polls in November.

John L. Lewis is the leader of this group, with George Meany and Matt Woll tagging along behind. They are playing close to the Republicans.

Embarrassment of the Truman administration was behind Lewis' telegram to striking Maritime Leader Harry Lundeberg, offering United Mine Workers' cash to support AFL sailors. With Congress in recess, many AFL leaders also feel there is no danger of reviving the case bill or passing other restrictive labor legislation. Incidentally, it used to be the other way round; namely that labor wanted Congress in session to keep a weather eye on big business. Now strikes have a better chance with Congress out of session.

CIO leaders have just the opposite view about strikes at this time. In various conferences, Phil Murray has pointed out to his men that unfortunately the public has been sold on the National Association of Manufacturers' propaganda that labor is responsible for current price increases. While this propaganda, Murray said, is untrue, the best policy for intelligent labor leaders is to cut out major strikes for the time being and attempt to educate the public on the real facts.

publican party against the "sit tight" policy of the new GOP national chairman, Carroll Reece, former congressman from Tennessee.

GOP followers of the late Wendell Willkie have been protesting none-too-privately in Washington and elsewhere that the dignified GOP chairman is taking a Republican victory in the congressional elections this November too much for granted. They want him to begin showing better results or get out.

The Willkies, who backed form er treasury under-secretary John Hanes against Reece for the chairmanship, are now shouting "I told you so" at Reece's old guard supporters.

They contend that instead of being content to sit back and point the finger of guilt at the Democratic administration, Reece should be on the firing line, creating live issues, shaking the voting public out of the apathy so noticeable in this year's primary.

So don't be surprised if Chairman Reece is called on the carpet by dissatisfied party leaders to give an account of his stewardship.

Expired Licenses May Be Renewed Without Examination

AUSTIN, Sept. 12 (AP)—Out of date drivers' licenses may now be renewed without examination because of the overload on license examiners.

Director Homer Garrison of the Department of Public Safety announced this change in policy today, noting that it was on a temporary basis only, to permit examiners to catch up on their work.

Eighty examiners gave 308,488 examinations in the first seven months of this year, compared with 180,261 examinations in the same period last year. This 81 per cent increase in work was handled without any increase in personnel.

"The situation has become utterly impossible," Drivers License Chief A. F. Temple said. "In Dallas and Houston there are enough applicants by 10 a. m. each day to keep the examiners busy until 6 p. m. For the entire state, there is a daily average of twice the number of applicants the examiners can handle. The examiners are working an average of 22 hours overtime each day, without pay."

College Registration Advisable

E. C. Dodd, president of the Howard County Junior college has urged those contemplating enrollment in the college to make preliminary contacts in advance of the starting of actual enrollment on Monday.

This information will be extremely helpful to the administration in mapping plans. At the moment the college is rushing conversion plans for the hospital buildings at the bombardier school. Supplies are being purchased, and other arrangements are being made. Naturally, certain financial benefits can be had by a fair knowledge of demand. Aside from this, the work of faculty members can be more adequately forecast and the basis established for effective schedules which will serve maximum needs.

This marks the first time the college will open its doors. There are no records or experience on which to proceed. Prospective students, by prompt action, can help overcome part of this difficulty and at the same time do themselves a favor.

UNRRA OK's Rails To Yugoslavia

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Protests have been made by Longshoremen and Congressmen—against sending steel rails at UNRRA relief to Yugoslavia.

The reason: Five American airplanes in an American plane were shot down over Yugoslavia in mid-August, ten days after another plane had been forced to crash land. The Longshoremen want "proper action" against Yugoslavia before it gets relief.

But UNRRA—the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration has approved shipping the rails to Marshal Tito's government. So has the State Department which is demanding satisfaction for the shooting from the Yugoslavs.

Here is UNRRA's explanation: The rails are worth about $357,000. About $100,000 worth already have been shipped.

They had been set aside for China, but on July UNRRA decided not to send any more supplies there for a while, except food, because China's ports are jammed with freight.

UNRRA ordered the rails sent instead to Yugoslavia—which also had asked for them. It needs them now to get them laid before winter's snows.

UNRRA's decision to switch the rails to Yugoslavia was made early in July, several weeks before the American planes were shot down there.

Here is UNRRA's further explanation of how UNRRA decisions are made:

There are 48 nations in UNRRA. Thirteen—Greece, Yugoslavia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, White Russia, the Soviet Union, Albania, Italy, Austria, China, Finland, Hungary, the Philippines—received help from the others.

Those others, including the United States, contribute funds to UNRRA to buy supplies for the needy nations. The US puts up about 72 per cent of the total. It has contributed $2,700,000,000.

There is—in each country receiving aid—an UNRRA mission

You don't always expect political warnings from the Army, but last week Army intelligence gave the joint chiefs of staff a complete analysis of the Allied occupation of Greece. Significantly the report stated that the British are defeating Greece more and more like a colony. The Army warned that unless the British withdraw, Greece will be plunged into civil war.

Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson opposed sending the carrier FDR to Greece. However, Mrs. Roosevelt's nephew, US Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh, insisted, and Acheson finally yielded.

Senator Vandenberg, now in Paris, peppered the state department and White House with cables that the United Nations' importance in the eyes of the world would be tragically reduced by postponement, that the preliminary four to six weeks of the UN assembly would be devoted to non-conventional matters anyway, would in no way hamper or be hampered by the Paris Conference. Van, however, was vetoed by the Russians.

Murray Gets Tough

How deadly in earnest Murray is indicated by a verbal battle he had with Harry Bridges of the West Coast Longshoremen during last June's threatened CIO Maritime strike. Bridges was determined to call his men out Joe Curran of the National Maritime Union thought an agreement could be worked out without a strike. Murray sat as arbitrator.

"I will not have a Maritime strike at this time," Murray told Bridges. "If you succeed in staging a strike, I'll disown you publicly, Harry Bridges. And I'll do my best to throw you out of the CIO."

Ball Fan Eisenhower

One night during the Yugoslav crisis, General Eisenhower was at the ball park in Washington watching his favorite team, the Senators, when an adult newboy came by and dropped a Washington Post in his lap. An eight-column headline across the front page read: "United States Sends Ultimatum to Yugoslavia."

"No paper now," said the chief of staff, engrossed in the ball game and scarcely glancing at the headline.

"Take it with my compliments, General," said the newboy. "It looks as if you're going to be my boss again."

Flour Goes To Waste

Small flour mills and flour distributors all over the country are facing serious trouble because of the agriculture department's sudden reversal of its policy on flour.

Last spring when food famine talk was at its highest, the department ordered darker flour. Many mills went to work, turned out as much as a year's supply of the darker flour. Then, without warning, the department permitted a return to real white bread.

Now dark flour is beginning to rot in mills and warehouses.

some behind false walls in houses, in barns and in sealed salt mines.

Capt. Regan's part in this vast hunt is not a traveling job. She sits in a small office in military government headquarters here, surrounded by packing boxes and an occasional minor masterpiece. One of her field workers shares the cramped quarters with her as she keeps an organized network of activity going over the continent.

Capt. Regan advises her department chiefs of particulars of missing objects and classifies clues as to their whereabouts. She works with the Army's G-2, the Counter Intelligence Corps, and maintains liaison with representatives of United occupying powers, with United Nations military missions here and with art intelligence in occupied Austria.

The culprits on whom she helps get the lowdown are not all big Nazi looters. She also helps prepare cases against accused members of the American forces.

The lot sleuth had admirable training for her job. She majored in fine arts at Radcliffe and studied art at Harvard. Painting is one of her hobbies. When she was graduated in 1937, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Regan of West Roxbury, Mass., took her on an art tour of Europe and the Orient. On their 15,000-mile trip the family saw nearly every important museum in the world and visited countless monuments and churches.

Loot Sleuth Likes Job

By RICHARD KASISCHKE (For Hal Boyle)

BERLIN, (AP)—It's a question whether any person in the American occupation forces in Germany enjoys his work more than does Capt. Mollie J. Regan, formerly of Boston, Mass., and now a loot sleuth.

That's a clipped version of her formal title—art intelligence research officer in the restitution branch of the Monuments, Fine Arts and Archives section of the economics division of the Office of Military Government for Germany (US).

Her job is to help track down works of art and other valuables looted by the Nazis from countries they formerly occupied, and classify them for restitution to their rightful owners.

The department in which Capt. Regan works—headed for 13 months by Major L. Bancel LaFarge of Mt. Carmel, Conn., and now by Richard F. Howard of Hopewell, N. J., has recovered many millions of dollars worth of stolen art in its search through the nooks and crannies of occupied Germany and beyond.

Recoveries and restitutions in a year have included more than a million books and nearly 50,000 works of art, some of them priceless masterpieces. France alone has received 40,000 cultural pieces.

Some of these recoveries have been made in museum basements,

Just received a shipment of selected Colorado Blue Spruce; set yours while available; may not have any more this season since we were all summer getting these. Also, we have nice lot of Arizona Cypress, ready to plant. We will have big lot of new shrubs in few days. Plant early. It is better.
