KIRVIN FOLK QUIT PACKING GUNS AROUND

Slain Negroes Not Connected With Girl's Murder, Sheriff Says.

By Associated Press.

KIRVIN, Texas, June 3.—Practically normal conditions had returned in and near Kirvin tonight. The excited rumors of possible race riots and clashes of whites and negroes were discussed more or less but the reports had been dispelled and discounted. Many men who were armed this morning had laid aside their weapons tonight and most of the crowds which rushed here from adjoining counties and nearby cities had gone home.

So far as could be observed, what danger of trouble continued was rapidly disappearing. Many of the negroes were reported to have left their homes in order to keep out of possible trouble zones.

Relatives Conceal Bodies.

The bodies of Allie and Leroy Gibson, the two negroes killed in a fight with officers yesterday, are in possession of relatives, it was said tonight. The bodies had been taken during the night from where they fell and one report today was they had been burned. This was denied by county officials.

Only one other negro besides the two killed was involved in the shooting, according to the story told today, and search for him continues.

Sheriff Mayo denied today that the negroes were taken into custody because of alleged connection with the murder of 17-year-old Eula Ousley, which resulted in the lynching of four negroes. The sheriff declared there was no formal charge against the Gibsons and deputies sought them to investigate an alleged attempt by white men to whip Leroy. The intentions of the officers evidently were misunderstood, he declared, and shots were fired at the deputies, who returned the fire.

DOCTORS MEET AT EASTLAND TUESDAY WEEK

The monthly meeting of the Eastland County Medical Association will be held at the city hall in Eastland at 2 p. m., June 13, it is announced by Dr. Thomas L. Lauderdale of Ranger, president.

In line with the suggestion of many members that the association give more attention to internal medicine, two well known authorities on the subject will read papers:

BOARD WON'T DISMISS
EDUCATOR WHO SMOKES

TOPEKA, Kan., June 3.—The school board of Cimarron has backed that famous dictum of Kipling's, "A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke."

It has refused to heed the demands of Miss Lorraine E. Wooster, state superintendent of schools, that it discharge W. N. Peck, Cimarron's superintendent of school, because he smoked cigars, and, most horrible of all, belonged to a club where bridge whist is played.

SUNDAY CLOSING IS ISSUE FOR EVERY CITIZEN TO DECIDE

Do you want Sunday motion pictures in Ranger?

Twenty-seven men and women out of twenty-eight casting ballots in the Times' Straw Vote yesterday afternoon say that they do.

All those voting but one, thought that Ranger was a better town without open saloons and professional gambling.

If you want Sunday movies, now is the time to say so. If you want the picture shows closed on Sunday, now is the time to say so.

Sunday picture shows has been made an issue in Ranger and petitions are being circulated demanding their closing. It is up to the people to express a preference.

If you have a preference and do not express it, it is probable that a majority will be ruled by an active minority.

The Times' Straw Vote gives both sides a chance to make known their desires on Sunday motion picture shows. This paper does not ask you to vote any certain way, but simply to vote one way or the other in order to make known the preference of Ranger.

It was announced yesterday that petitions demanding the closing of the picture shows on Sunday would be started in two of the Ranger churches today. There are no petitions being circulated in favor of the shows remaining open on Sunday. If you want them open as places of recreation you will have to express your opinion as individuals.

Vote on this question and send it to the Times office with your name and address. Names will be used. If the ballot is convenient, use it—if not, write your own ballot on a plain sheet of paper, using only one side.

Clip this ballot, vote as you wish, sign and mail or bring it to the Times office. All ballots must be signed, but the signatures will not be published. The result will be announced.

NEFF FORMALLY ANNOUNCES AS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, June 3.—Governor Neff announced today that he was candidate for re-election. In a statement to "the Democracy of Texas," he tells of the experience of his first term.

The statement follows: "Sixteen months ago, I was inducted into the office of governor of Texas. At that time the detailed working affairs of the state government were new to me, I therefore proceeded with my work cautiously and carefully. By constant thought and conscientious work I have become reasonably familiar with the various departments. I have also visited numerous educational and eleemosynary institutions and know something of their wants and necessities.

In Touch With People. "While gaining an intimate knowledge of the government and institutions, I have at the same time kept in close touch with the people and their conditions and know their thoughts concerning the state's affairs. Believing that the work and thought given by me to the duties of the office of governor in the past will enable me better to serve in solving some of the pressing problems now pending for consideration and having an ambition thus to serve, I hereby announce my candidacy for re-election for a second term to the office of governor.

"In public office and in private life the distinguishing trait and the priceless principle to which all right-thinking people pay homage and respect is unaltered fidelity to truth and unswerving devotion to duty. Those virtues I have faithfully followed as your governor, in so far as He who rules in the councils of men has given me light and wisdom to see. Perhaps I have made mistakes in the past. I doubt not that I shall make mistakes in the future.

Conscience Is Clear. "However, I have tried to serve the citizenship of the state in the highest and truest sense and at all times through good and evil reports I have had as a constant companion a clear conscience. If the Democratic voters of Texas feel that they can in full justice to their state honor me with a second term as their governor, I shall greatly appreciate it and shall continue my efforts in behalf of the welfare of our people with a sincere ambition to fulfill their expectations and to justify their confidence."

SUCH A RUSH TO SING SING,
IT CANNOT HOLD THEM ALL

NEW YORK, June 3.—So many new guests have registered with Landlord Lawes of Sing Sing this week that no more accommodations could be had at the prison.

Seldom in recent years has Sing Sing lacked bunks enough to accommodate every prisoner. But as a result of the influx of prisoners recently sent from this city there were 1,216 prisoners in Sing Sing yesterday. There are sleeping quarters for only 1,200. Forty or more will be transferred to an up-state prison at once.

SHOT LOVER BECAUSE HE COULD NOT MARRY HER

KANSAS CITY, June 3.—Before Peggy Beal fired the fatal shot this morning which killed Frank Anderson, department head of a local store, she wrote a note telling why she was going to commit the act.

The note follows: "My name is Peggy Beal. I am 29 years of age. I live in Springfield, Ill. I came to Kansas City with the intention of marrying Frank Warren Anderson. When I arrived I met him and we went to the Midwest hotel together.

"He told me he was married and that he was not divorced yet. Therefore he could not marry me. "There is nothing more to tell. I shot him because he brought me here and could not marry me." (Signed) "PEGGY BEAL."

MAKES BOOZE A LAW WITHOUT HEARING OF LAW

By Associated Press.

PETERSBURG, W. Va., June 3.—"I've been making whisky for nigh on 40 years, and this is the first time I knew there was any law agin' it," said Henry Hours, patriarch of the Smokehole district, located in Grant and Pendleton counties, when he was visited by state police and arrested today.

A native of the district proffered information to the troopers that "Old Man" Hours was running a still and had done so every since he could remember.

Corporal Briner, who led the state policemen, said that the episode was the beginning of an educational campaign in the Smokehole district.

BEWARE OF THE HOT DOG THAT HAS NO UNION LABEL!

NEW YORK, June 3.—Union labels for hot dogs! This is the slogan of Bologna Butchers' Local Union No. 174, which has decided to try to unionize the local hot dog industry, especially in the vicinity of Coney Island. Every person who pays his nickel for a frankfurter will be urged to eat only those bearing the union stamp. Non-union dogs will be chased out of Coney, the butchers say, and outlaw wienies will soon be hard to find.

170 GET DEGREES AT W. T. N. C. GRADUATION

CANYON, June 3.—Charles G. Thomas, speaker of the house of representatives, delivered the commencement services at West Texas Normal college here Saturday morning.

President J. A. Hill conferred degrees and granted diplomas and certificates to 170 students.

WICHITA FALLS, June 3.—Mike Tucker, automobile mechanic, was found guilty of criminal assault on Ethel Ellidge, 18, and given a sentence of six years in the penitentiary by a jury in the Eighty-ninth district court here last night.

School Tax Must Be Raised, Trustees Say

$1 Assessment or Four Months' School Alternates That Face City.

The Ranger independent school district will have difficulty in maintaining even four months of free school next year unless the tax is raised from 50 cents to $1 on the $100 valuation, it was announced by the school trustees yesterday afternoon in a statement calling attention to the importance of the school tax election next Saturday.

Notwithstanding the fact that every salary has been reduced from 10 to 15 per cent for next year and that the number of teachers has been cut from fifty-three to forty-six, it will still require more than $6,500 a month to maintain the schools, the statement points out.

Up to Voters Upon the decision of this issue next Saturday, rests the question whether Ranger is to have in the future a nine months free school or a four months free school, the statement declares.

"The taxable valuation of the school district has decreased from more than $17,000,000 in 1920 to less than $10,000,000 in 1922. The state per capita has likewise decreased from $14.50 in 1920 to an estimated $10 in 1922. Meantime, because of the issuance of high school bonds, the interest and sinking fund which the district must pay every year have increased from $15,000 in 1920 to $33,375 in 1922.

State Apportionment Cut "A 50-cent tax on a $10,000,000 valuation, with an 80 per cent collection will produce $40,000 as a local school fund. From this there must be paid the $33,375 in interest and sinking fund, leaving a balance in the local fund for school maintenance of $6,630. To this will be added the state fund of $10 per capita on 2,026 scholars, or $20,260. The latter when added to the balance from the local fund will give a total of $26,890 with which to maintain the schools.

NAVY OFFICER'S BALLOON LANDS IN OZARK HILLS

By Associated Press.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 3.—Lieutenant W. F. Reed, navy pilot, and the last of the thirteen airmen to leave Milwaukee last Wednesday, landed Friday in the Ozark mountains in South Missouri. Lieutenant Reed placed his distance from Milwaukee at only 445 miles. Officials of the weather bureau and aero club estimated the distance variously at from 475 to 550 miles tonight. Unofficial announcement of the distances made by the various contenders is made, local aero club men said they would do nothing to distribute the prize money to the flyers.

If Lieutenant Reed's own estimate of his distance is correct, it was pointed out he will be placed fourth, after Victor Orman.

PILOT CAN SMOKE, ONLY ADVANTAGE IN HELIUM'S USE

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Lieutenant Commander Joseph P. Norfleet, who piloted a navy balloon, but not as a contestant, today said the use of helium gas for balloons, as suggested by him gave no great advantage over the coal gas balloon. Commander Norfleet landed at Hancock, about 150 miles southwest of St. Louis. The use of helium in the bag piloted by Commander Norfleet was a navy experiment. The rules requiring coal gas for balloons participating in the race barred him as a contestant. Describing the peacetime advantages, he said the pilot could smoke, helium being non-inflammable. The wartime advantage, he said, would result in the reduction of danger from any leaks.

The bag for helium had been rushed to completion, he said, and leaked as a result, making it necessary to throw overboard 1,500 pounds of sand ballast last Wednesday night. He started with 2,500 pounds and had 300 left at the end of his journey. Norfleet asserted he would have remained up last night if the leaks had not affected the bag.

WOMAN "BLUEBEARD" IS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., June 3.—Mrs. Clara Carl, branded a "feminine bluebeard," today was found guilty of murder in the second degree for the poisoning of her second husband, Frank Carl, by a jury in the Shelby circuit court.

The verdict carried with it a recommendation of life imprisonment.

HONEYMOON PAJAMAS EVIDENCE IN MOVIE MAN'S BIGAMY HEARING

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Dainty silk garments—two suits, one of white and one of purple—were introduced today as exhibits in the preliminary hearing of Rudolf Valentino, actor, on a charge of bigamy. They were presented as the attire in which Valentino and his second bride, Miss Winifred Hudnut, whom he married at Mexicali, Mexico, May 13, appeared in public during their honeymoon a few days after their marriage at Palm Springs, Cal., a desert oasis.

It was left to jurisdictional determination as to what the articles were, the prosecution contending that they were pajamas while the attorneys for Valentino declared they were Chinese silk suits. They were identified, however, by Mrs. Alva Hicks of Palm Springs, as the apparel in which the honeymooners appeared.

Dr. Floretta White of Palm Springs, testified of having attended the Mexicali wedding ceremony and of the bridal couple arriving at Palm Springs shortly after midnight. He said they went to a cottage occupied by Madame Alla Nazimova, Russian dancer and screen actress, but later returned to the doctor's cottage, where they spent the night. Valentino occupied a room with Douglas Gerard, motion picture actor, who was best man at the wedding, and the bride occupied a separate room, according to the doctor. He explained that the bride was ill and occupied a room by herself.

Following identification of the silk garments by Mrs. Hicks, the prosecution submitted the case and arguments were started by Frank James, attorney for the Famous Players-Lasky studio, employers of Valentino, who asked dismissal of the charge. When the arguments of counsel were completed, Judge Hanby announced he would take the case under advisement and would announce his decision at 9:45 Monday morning.

WASHOUT FOR NEGRO PARADE

NEW YORK, June 3.—A demonstration against lynching, starting 4,000 strong beneath the sunny skies of Harlem, today welled up on Fifth avenue in a downpour of rain, a straggling line of taxicabs and umbrellas which shielded 600 bedraggled negroes.

The parade was sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to gain support for the Dyer anti-lynching bill now held up in the senate.

STATE BANKERS CALLED TO MEETING AT WACO

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, June 3.—A call for a conference of state bankers to be held at Waco on June 15 and 16 was announced by Commissioner of Insurance and Banking Ed Hall today. Hall said that the conference is for the purpose of correcting false impressions that have gone forth regarding the state bank situation.

"This meeting is not called for the purpose of organizing a separate state association, because I believe the best interests of all banks can be more efficiently served by one association," Hall said.

"The meeting is also for planning an aggressive campaign in behalf of the state banking system, to offset the propaganda that is being spread broadcast by the opponents of the system and especially the guarantee fund," Hall said.

REED IS CONDEMNED BY WOMEN VOTERS

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—A resolution opposing the candidacy of United States Senator James A. Reed for re-election was adopted in a meeting here yesterday of the executive board of the Missouri League of Women Voters. This action came as ratification of the stand taken by the St. Louis League of Women Voters, condemning the senior Missouri senator for his attitude against certain Wilson policies.

OKLAHOMA BROTHERS IN DUEL, ONE SHOT FOUR TIMES

DURANT, Okla., June 3.—Jim Cook, 43, is near death at his home at Caney, near here, following a gun duel with his brother, George Cook, there late Friday.

Jim Cook was shot four times, once in the mouth, shattering his lower jaw, once in the stomach, back and a slight flesh wound.

George Cook is under arrest.

THROWN OVER FLY WHEEL; ARM BROKEN

GOLDTHWAITE, June 3.—Lee Berry, night engineer at the light plant, sustained a broken arm and bruises about the head while trying to start one of the large oil engines. In some way he lost his balance and was thrown over the fly wheel.

BITTER FIGHT ERE FORD GETS MUSCLE SHOALS

Favorable Committee Report Is Just First Skirmish, Con- gressmen Say.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Henry Ford's proposal to develop the government's vast power and nitrate project at Muscle Shoals, Ala., was given conditional approval by the house military committee today and ordered reported to the house, with a recommendation that it be accepted in the form agreed to in committee. The action was taken by a vote of 12 to 9 in executive session and was regarded by committee members generally as being in effect but the preliminary skirmish of what promises to become a bitterly contested battle between the proponents and opponents of the Ford offer in the house.

In arriving at its final decision the committee decided to eliminate from the properties covered in the Ford offer the steam plant of Gorgas, Ala., and agreed with W. B. Mayo and J. W. Worthington, representatives of the Detroit manufacturer, upon new language regulating the manufacture of fertilizer. In all other respects the Ford offer was fully approved.

"Victory for Ford." Mayo declared when advised of the committee action that except for elimination of the Gorgas plant, he regarded the results announced as a decisive victory for Ford and that a more determined effort than ever before now would be made to obtain the property.

Two other developments in congress affecting Muscle Shoals occurred while the committee was in session. The house appropriations conferees were ordered to report back to it what decision they reached with the senate on the amendment providing $7,500,000 for continuation of work on the Wilson dam, so that a separate vote might be had.

In the senate agricultural committee, Oscar G. Merrill, executive officer of the federal power commission, testified that the Muscle Shoals projects should be completed and put in operation, preferably by private enterprise. If the government decided to operate the properties, Merrill said, he believed the bill by Senator Norris of Nebraska, chairman of the committee, probably offered the best method of dealing with the projects.

RAILROAD MEN WILL NOT STRIKE BEFORE AUGUST

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Strike votes affecting 1,200,000 of America's railroad workers, returnable on the same date, probably about Aug. 3, will be decided upon at the railway labor conference in Cincinnati next week, in the opinion of B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department, American Federation of Labor.

The employees expected to vote are those affected by new wage reductions announced or pending from the railroad labor board. Eleven standard railway union heads will gather in Cincinnati Tuesday to take some definite steps regarding the board's new wage cuts. Jewell said, however, that strike action would be taken individually by the organizations but that undoubtedly if a strike was voted there would be concerted action by all the organizations as to the date of the walkout and other general matters.

BILL TO RESTORE STATE RATE-MAKING SHELVED IN SENATE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Action on bills by Senator Capper of Kansas, and others to restore rate-making and other powers to the state railway commissions was postponed indefinitely today by the senate interstate commerce committee. Senator LaFollette, however, gave notice that he would endeavor to have the legislation brought before the senate soon through a motion to discharge the committee from its consideration.

MURDER IS CHARGED TO FATHER AND SON

By Associated Press.

BARSTOW, June 3.—Ande Meador and his son, William, are charged by indictment in Andrews county for the murder of a man named Ragsdale, and the serious injury of his wife. For immediate trial this case has been transferred to Ward county.

WOMEN'S PRESS ASSOCIATION MEETS AT WICHITA FALLS

By Associated Press.

WHARTON, Texas, June 3.—The annual meeting of the Texas Women's Press association will be held at Fort Worth June 14, 15 and 16, according to announcement today by Mrs. F. M. Hughs, president.

CO-ED VAMPIRES FIND EASY PREY IN PROFESSORS

From Classroom to Church via "Flapper Flyer" Is Popular Trip Along Pacific Coast.

From classroom to church by the flapper flyer is the latest and most direct route, as well as the one most traveled by young college professors, according to many college girls at the University of Washington and other colleges, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Personally conducted courtships carefully planned and scientifically executed by the seeker of higher education are the pitfalls that make it difficult for a professor to remain unmarried.

"Young women students in American universities no longer study for degrees; they get them by the simple process of 'vamping' their instructors," says Miss Eileen Eyre, a third-year student at the University of California. "Whenever a personable and unmarried man instructor is in charge of a personable girl pupil, there is bound to be vamping."

The southern university campus recently was turned topsy-turvy and the professors driven to wearing dark glasses and a scowl by the publication of a one-act farce by Miss Eyre, in which she made a subtle but unmistakable expose of the methods employed by the typical vamping co-eds.

Anger and consternation enveloped the campus at the thought of the learned professors turning Lochinvars to the Educated Ellens. "If I had made it as bad as it really is," coolly remarks Miss Eyre, "they would never have stopped talking about it."

Student Editor Has to Retract.
A similar charge recently was directed at college vampires and "impossible" professors by Lawrence Blochman, a student editor at the university, but faculty pressure forced a retraction from him by threatening expulsion.

Eunice Morris, a third-year student of the University of Washington, declared: "Our classrooms, many of them, fairly bulge with sentiment. I have seen more pretty romances develop in an atmosphere of Greek and philosophy than under an Hawaiian moon or at a seaside resort."

It follows well-defined lines, this process of luring professors to the tulle-draped aisle. First, the ambitious co-ed manages to register for a class under a chosen victim. The next thing is to select a seat in the front row. These excellent steps she flanks with the most flattering attention to his words.

The Way of a Maid With a Professor!
The next move is to happen into class at the exact moment that he is approaching, and saunter up the aisle with him. The wily co-ed has learned by this time the pet hobbies of the professor, and it is only a step to an invitation to attend with him a scholarly lecture on "The Posture Tendency of the Greek Sculptors of the Selenidae Era."

After the second lecture the wedding invitations may be safely selected, in secret, by the designing co-ed and her adoring mother.

Miss Helen Olsen, prominent and popular member of a University of Washington society, agrees that the young professor is distinctly at the mercy of the flapper who chooses to make him her husband. She says:

"You know, 'tis said that a girl with ambition can marry whom she will. The professors are not such special victims; they are just a part of all masculine humanity, and if a co-ed occasionally decides to marry a professor it is not more startling than a pretty stenographer smiling a proposal from her employer."

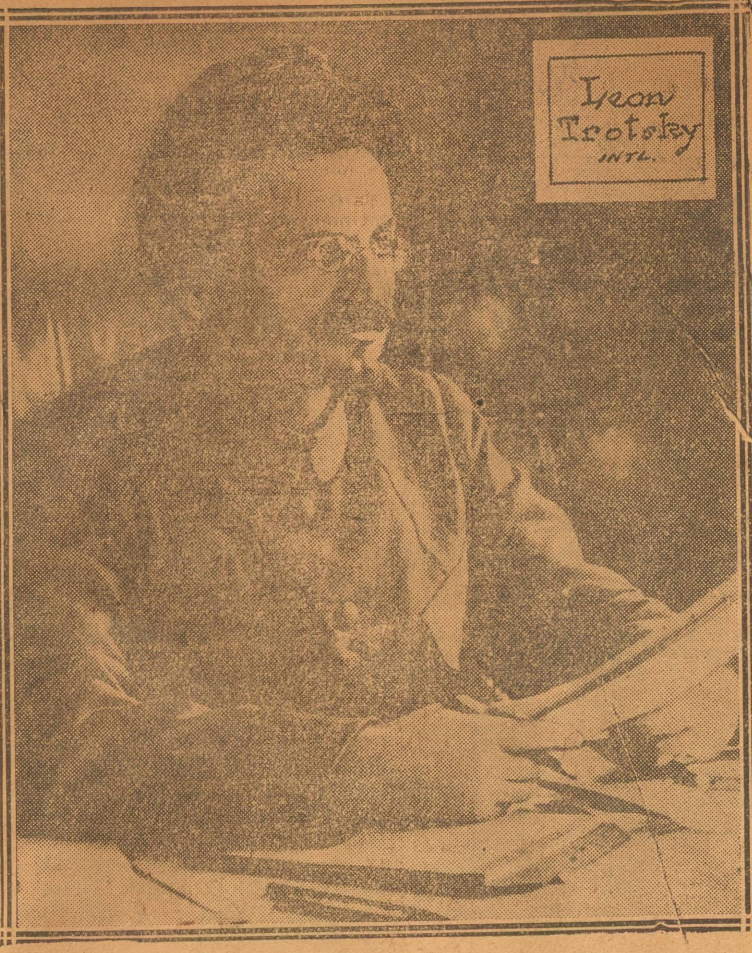

A little over a year ago Miss Ruth Norton, one of the most popular girls at the university, was married to Dr. Stevenson Smith, head of the department of psychology and collaborative author of the text now being used at the university, "General Psychology, in Terms of Behavior." The romance began in the classroom.

Prof. C. J. Ducasse, member of the philosophy department at the University of Washington, married a co-ed a few months ago.

CIVIC RIGHT GRANTED TO WOMEN OF GREECE

ATHENS, June 3.—Greece added an article to her constitution granting civic rights to women.

TROTSKY THREATENS PEACE OF THE WORLD

Leon Trotsky, Russian soviet war minister, addressing a class of Communist cadet officers, said: "Trust only in your bayonets and your batteries. We can have what we want only by having the red flag cross the frontiers of capitalism and the red flag wave over the whole of Europe. Perhaps during the summer the red army will be called upon to give proof of its fighting qualities."

ABILENE EVANGELIST AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Evangelist E. A. Bedichek of Abilene, will have charge of the services at the Church of Christ today in the absence of Local Evangelist N. W. Alphin, who left yesterday to conduct services at Alford for W. F. Ledlow of Austin.

Evangelist Bedichek is a former minister of this section and is well known here.

GHOLSON HOTEL CLASSED AMONG FINEST ON T. & P.

The Gholson hotel of Ranger is declared one of the finest hostleries along the Texas & Pacific line, in an article in this month's Texas Hotel News, dealing with Arthur G. Jury's success as manager. Mr. Jury, the article states, attributes his success to the splendid co-operation received from the citizens of Ranger, who realize the value of such a hotel and back it to the limit.

The hotel as the popular rendezvous of the oil fraternity and the popular meeting place for gatherings of all sorts and as the civic and social center of Ranger's many activities is commented on in the article, which praises the manager's methods as productive of results.

NEGRO WOMEN HELD ON SHOPLIFTING CHARGE

Two negro women charged with shoplifting were arrested by the police last night and lodged in the police station for investigation. The women are said to have stolen three silk sweaters from a downtown store. No charges have been filed against them pending the recovery of the stolen articles.

NO TROUBLE IN YAQUI REGION, AMERICANS SAY

NOGALES, Ariz., June 3.—More troops have been sent by the Mexican government from the Guaymas garrison at Estevanza, in the Yaqui Indian territory, it was learned today from arrivals from the Yaqui valley. Several days ago the first detachment, consisting of sixty Mexican cavalrymen, was sent to Estevanza. American arrivals from the Yaqui country in the state of Sonora, Mexico, report that no trouble has occurred during the past week and that they understood the additional troops were ordered there because Mexican residents are unduly alarmed.

AMERICAN WIFE WOULD DEPORT FRENCH RIVAL

N. Y. Woman Wants Husband Placed Under Bond to Keep Him.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Mme. Loretta Frantegelle, beautiful war-bride, and Arthur Lewis, ex-Y. M. C. A. overseas man, yesterday left No. 59 West Ninety-third street, where they had lived since their arrival here two years ago.

The fleeing couple, of spring and autumn ages, went into hiding, it is said, with friends who sympathize with them in their battle against Mrs. Ellen Lewis. In the West Side court Wednesday she insisted she was Lewis' only wife, but the case was dismissed.

Mrs. Lewis, a little English woman of 50 years, gray, slender and wiry, with sad, dim, blue eyes, collapsed yesterday when she heard that her husband vanished with "the other woman." She said she had lived with her husband thirty-one years and that she still loved him and always would, because she could not change. If he came back to her she would forgive him gladly, but she said she knew he never would leave the French girl.

At the Ninety-third street house, friends of Lewis and Mme. Frantegelle said:

"The couple were very happy here during the last two years. We have seen their marriage certificate, which shows they were married in France or England. We always thought that Mr. Lewis and his first wife were divorced in England.

"She came here every week to get money that Mr. Lewis gave her. He seemed to do the best he could by his family. Mrs. Lewis had everybody in the house crazy about her. She was so pretty and sweet to them all."

The little wife of 50, seven years younger than her straying husband, told the New York American in her apartment at No. 30 Convent avenue, of her trip to England to find him in the war, when letters and money ceased to come. She found that the "terrible accident" which she feared had happened to her husband was another love, instead of a wounding by a shell. Her story went on:

"The Y. M. C. A. helped me to

FRAUD IS CHARGED TO BRITISH M. P.

Horatio Bottomley, member of the British parliament and former publisher of John Bull, a noted British paper, has gone to trial in London for alleged fraud. The charges arose in connection with the investigation of the Victory Bond club, whose fund Bottomley is alleged to have wrongfully converted. Bottomley acted as his own attorney and was permitted to sit at the counsellors' table instead of in the prisoner's dock.

trace him. I found him with the French girl. At first he said he would come home with me. Then he changed his mind, but when the organization threatened him he decided to come home with the stipulation that the girl sail too.

"I journeyed with my husband and the girl alone. This made her angry and she beat me with an umbrella. My husband didn't stop her or say a word.

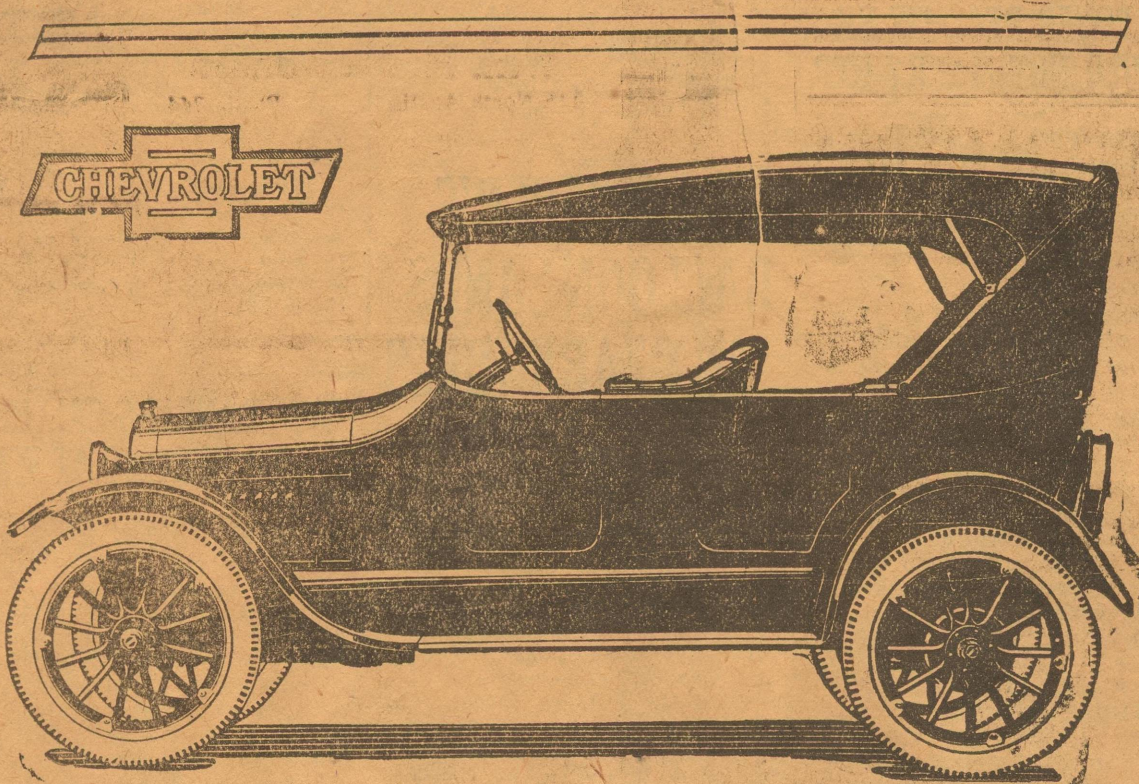

"She is a widow, has two children and must be about 27, though every-

CROOK'S LIFE DOESN'T PAY, SAYS MAN WHO'S DONE TIME ALL BUT 33 MONTHS IN LAST 25 YEARS

OMAHA, Neb., June 3.—With only thirty-three months of freedom to his credit in the last twenty-five years and even these months spent as a fugitive from justice, Otto Cole, burglar, "con" man, booze runner and murderer, has just been sent to prison for the balance of his life by an Omaha court. Cole is 42 years old now. He became a criminal at the age of 17 years.

"But crookedness don't pay. It don't pay," Cole told the Omaha court when he was sent up for life.

Cole has seen the inside of many jail's and penitentiaries. He has served time in Minnesota, Maryland, Ohio, Illinois and elsewhere. He escaped from the Baltimore city jail, from the Joliet penitentiary and from other prisons. He has been paroled, pardoned and released on "good time," in addition to serving out his sentences. But he never kept out of trouble and no sooner was he released from a prison than he immediately went back into crime.

"But crookedness don't pay," he told the court. "I ought to know."

In Many Courts. Cole had appeared before so many different courts that he has picked up a smattering of legal terms and methods. When arrested in Omaha and charged with the murder of Harry Hahn, a pawnbroker, he refused the assistance of the public defender and asked permission of the court to conduct his own defense. This was granted, and throughout the trial Cole carried on his end of the case like a veteran attorney.

Cole posed as a "man of mystery" until the Bertillon experts got on his trail. He was a man of "good family" gone temporarily wrong, and was shielding his family by withholding his name, although the family would come to his assistance with sums of money if he but appealed to them, he intimated. But the Bertillon experts soon solved all the "mystery" except that of his true name.

He was just 17 years of age when he broke into the criminal limelight in Columbus, Ohio, where, under the name of Richard Procter, he was sent to prison for three years for burglary. He served his time and was released June 28, 1898.

It took Cole just eight days to get in trouble again. On July 6, 1898, he was arrested in Baltimore; was caught red-handed while committing a burglary. A month later, before he could be tried, he escaped from the Baltimore city jail and says he has never seen the city since that day. In Baltimore he used the name of Vanscourt.

This time Cole stayed out of trouble for two months. At least, he was not arrested again until Oct. 8, 1898. On that date, in Chicago, he was sentenced to Joliet prison for burglary. "James Rennett" was his name in Chicago. But the Bertillon measurements show he was the same man as Procter and Vanscourt. He was paroled early in March, 1905.

Soon in Trouble Again. In ten days he was in trouble again, this time at Red Wing, Minn., for burglary. He was known as "E.

E. English" in that trial. He served out his time in the Minnesota state prison, and at the expiration of his term was taken back to Joliet to serve the remainder of his sentence in the Illinois prison. From Joliet he was paroled in January, 1910.

But he couldn't keep straight. In a month or so he was back in the Joliet prison, where he was sent from Chicago on a robbery charge. He was discharged in September, 1916. This time he was using the name of Edwin English.

For a year and a month after his release from Joliet there is no Bertillon record of his arrest anywhere, although the police believe he must have been in trouble in smaller towns in which the Bertillon methods are unknown. But in October, 1917, as "Ed English" he was sent back to Joliet as a "confidence man" from Chicago. He escaped from Joliet in 1920.

Another Name. Under the name of "Otto Cole" he came to Omaha two months ago and, according to numerous identifications at the police station, he committed a series of holdups and robberies of various kinds. Then, three weeks ago, it is charged, he entered Harry Hahn's pawnshop, and while attempting to rob the place, shot and killed the proprietor. He was caught red-handed after attempting to shoot officers who captured him.

Cole's trial drew the largest crowds to an Omaha court since Pat Crowe was tried for kidnapping Eddie Cudahy.

Following his sentence to life imprisonment, Cole announced he intended devoting himself while in prison to the study of mechanical engineering, in which he claims to already be pretty well educated.

"When I get out I will be an expert," he said.

"When you get out? You are in for life," he was reminded.

"Yes, but I'll get out some day," he answered.

Under the Nebraska law Cole will not be eligible for a pardon or parole until he has served at least twenty years of his life term. He will then be 62 years old.

WINNING 'GOOD ENGLISH' ESSAY

The following composition on "The Value of Good English," written by Miss Dorothy Owens of the Ranger High school, won first place in the recent contest held by the 1920 club. A handsome gold medal was awarded Miss Owens.

The Value of Good English.

Since the dawn of history, it has been man's custom to communicate with his fellow-man, although with the development of civilization, this communication has taken different forms. Language, therefore, is so essential that we should be utterly helpless and uncompanionable without it, and only little less essential is the fact that it should be pure.

Since we are Americans and the official language of our country is English, we are more interested in it than in any other. However, many of our most ambitious and enthusiastic students apply themselves to the study of foreign languages, which, while some are really closely related to our own, are not as practical to us.

Lack of sufficient study of English gradually brings a corrupt form into existence, which mars the former purity. To a great extent, a standing of high refinement and culture can be attained through the channels of good English. Not only to the nation as a whole is this quality important, but also to each individual. The manner and the words used in expressing one's self leave a great impression on his associates whether his presence most agreeable to his companions.

In one's business education this is one of the most important points. It is an art to express one's thoughts forcefully and convincingly, and there is always a demand for efficient employees who possess this faculty. The employer will give the highest office to the most competent official, and with very few exceptions, he will choose the one who has mastered his language. Letters of application or introduction give the recipient his first impression, and it is necessary to the writer that this impression be favorable. In the practice of law, medicine, or any other profession, in following which one must needs mingle with the public and be subject to criticism, this is his greatest asset. He is judged and patronized according to his influence in public, and there is nothing which adds more to his perceivable merits than his use of English.

Good English, therefore, forms the basis of the vicinity, the state, the national standing of our citizens, and the universal standing of our nation.

SUNDAY CLOSING AGITATION.

Shall law and order be menaced by blue law agitation, is a question that is before Ranger people today.

Well founded reports have it that the Sunday closing petitions now being circulated were designed to start a backfire, and distract attention from the war on open liquor selling and gambling—recently opened so successfully by the leading business men of the city and indorsed by practically every reputable citizen.

Whether or not the report is true, that will unquestionably be the result of continued agitation of the subject. For with the "liberal" tendency of mind Ranger has heretofore shown, the city will unquestionably be split into factions and the main issues will be obscured.

IT IS A DETERMINED GROUP OF MEN WHO ARE AFTER THE PROFITS OF ILLEGAL LIQUOR SALES IN THIS COMMUNITY. ONLY CONSTANT VIGILANCE WILL EVEN HAMPER THEIR OPERATIONS. AND WITH ATTENTION DISTRACTED AND PREJUDICES AROUSED BY LESS GRAVE ISSUES, THIS VIGILANCE CANNOT BE MAINTAINED.

Conscientious persons who join in this movement may not realize it, but they are but aiding the efforts of shrewd and designing men who hope to bring about a revulsion of sentiment that will again permit public acquiescence in their operations. Those shrewd and designing men are spreading propaganda: "Now that we have stopped the liquor selling, let's stop ALL law violations," is the shibboleth. They have the effrontery to class the motion picture houses, the drug stores and the filling stations with their own nefarious operations! Those who do not know better, think!

Liquor selling is a felony, punishable by imprisonment, if the laws are enforced. Sunday law "violation" is a mere misdemeanor, not a crime in the real sense of the term at all. And yet this movement seeks to place the two on the same footing!

Laws, after all, are but an expression of the public opinion of the day. The Sunday closing laws were passed to close theatres in a period when saloons ran wide open, as a necessary institution. Since then, opinion has changed on the saloon, and it is no longer legally in existence. And as public opinion has changed on the saloon, it has changed toward the theatres, and there is at least a considerable proportion of the populace who see no harm in Sunday amusements. Yet despite this change, inertia and conservatism have combined to keep the law on the statute books. The change has been so great, however, that it is ignored to a greater or less degree in every community, and the so-called violations are not considered a crime.

The merits of Sunday closing are debatable, and vary with conditions. But regardless of their views upon it, it is difficult to see how conscientious persons can aid and abet a movement which at this time promises more harm than good.

If Sunday closing is desirable, it will come in time. But meanwhile, open liquor selling and gambling here are not stopped, ONLY SUSPENDED until the public relaxes its vigilance or has its attention turned to other issues. One step at a time is the only sure progress.

PROHIBITION WON'T LAST AMBASSADOR DECLARES

CHICAGO, June 3.—Vittorio Rolandi Ricci, Italian ambassador to the United States, expresses himself as not being in favor of prohibition.

"Prohibition is a law that Americans have given to themselves," he said, "but I feel that they will modify, suppress or abolish it as soon as sentiment becomes greater. I certainly wish that no country in the world should be dry—you see, last fall Italy produced 48,000,000 quintals (one tenth ton) of wine, and we would like to find a market for such a great production.

"My feelings would be like those of the meat packing interests of America would be if this country should become vegetarian.

"As to short skirts, I am in favor of a short skirt if the limbs are beautiful and a long one if not."

PUBLIC FORUM

APPROVES LIQUOR RAID.

Editor Daily Times: It was a wonderful step in the right direction when that brave and determined group of men went forth and destroyed $18,000 worth of unlawful stuff that had been concealed right in the business section of Ranger for an indefinite time, and its baleful influence was slowly yet surely undermining the fair name and good reputation of our beautiful little city. Go forward, be determined, be ever watchful, be courageous and conservative, but do not be radical, for therein lie breakers. Conservative measures have and always will build institutions and cities. Extreme methods never, therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. You have crossed the "Rubicon;" you have nothing to fear. The press of the city, with all of its civic clubs and other noted organizations are wholeheartedly and fearlessly for a clean and wholesome town. Business men have invested their capital and have planned and built homes, schools and churches that they might have a safe and sane place in which to rear their children and by all the rules of logic they shall have. And also by all the rules of will power they intend to. The edict has gone forth that never again shall lawlessness and vice reign unchecked in her environments. On that memorable Sabbath of May 21, 1922, when the sun sank behind the western hills Ranger had gone on record for a clean city.

NEITA RUDOLF.

AGAINST SUNDAY CLOSING.

Editor Daily Times: A law, in order to be a successful one must of necessity meet with the popular public opinion. Our legislatures and congress can load our statute books with laws of many kinds, but the enforcement thereof must meet with the public popular opinion. A successful law must express the sentiment as well as the will of the community; that law must have the sanction and backing as well as the popular support of the people. The Sunday closing law is the mixing of church with the institutions and tribunals of state government and is fundamentally wrong.

Sunday, it is true, is a day of rest. It is equally a day of recreation. The laboring man is busily engaged during the week days in an effort to earn his bread and butter. Sunday is a day of rest and recreation to him. The merchant is busily engaged during the week days in an effort to make a profit on his goods, wares and merchandise. Sunday is his day of rest and recreation. We have the doctor, the lawyer and many others that have the same application. How often do we hear "I wish Sunday would come"? How often do we hear "I wish I had a little recreation"?

To deprive a man of some means of recreation by depriving him or his family of picture shows is in my opinion a wrong. The moving picture show is one of the most educational institutions in the United States. Some of the less fortunate ones cannot go to the shows but on Sundays. Take that right away from them and we deprive them of this advantage. The picture shows serves in the place of a newspaper. It vividly impresses on the minds of those who attend many educational advantages and features. Let the voice of the people speak and I am safe to say that the closing of the picture shows will not meet with their approval. The picture show keeps many youngsters out of mischief, it prevents many an accident by keeping young and old off the streets, it educates us, it enlightens our minds, and it has a soothing effect on many tired brains. But some of us cannot take advantage of this wonderful privilege if the shows are closed on Sundays. Personally I get fidgety if I have no place to go to on that day and there are many others in the same situation. Opening a picture show is not a flagrant violation of the law, and furthermore they have been conducted honorably as far as I have been able to ascertain. Surely if running a picture was a serious violation of the law our legislature would unquestionably abolish them altogether and not on Sundays only. I want to go on record as being opposed to the so-called blue laws for the reason said laws do not express the popular will of the people and should be repealed. The blue laws are a joke on the statutes of the Lone Star State of Texas.

OHIO NEGROES LOSE LEGAL FIGHT TO STOP KU KLUX GATHERING

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 3.—Notwithstanding frantic efforts of Columbus negroes to prevent a meeting of the Ku Klux Klan at an open air amusement park, the meeting was conducted. The negroes had endeavored to stop the meeting by application of the injunction process that stopped a similar meeting scheduled at Dayton, but the courts refused to act. Early in the day Judge Henry L. Scarlett refused an order, and later Judge C. M. Rogers refused. Judge D. H. Sowers was ill at home and would not take up the matter. The orators of the night were William Parker, of Missouri, and Dr. C. L. Harrod, of Columbus, defendants in the petition filed. "If this meeting is conducted tonight a crowd of curiosity seekers and persons of known and avowed racial hatred will attend," said the petition. The park was thronged early in the evening.

FEDERAL SPIES PLACED IN RANKS OF BOOTLEGGERS

Many Hoosier Dry Raiders in Disguise, Report Says; Take Life in Hand

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Purchasers of bootleg whisky visiting the haunts of bootleggers may be buying from government agents.

The answer is that the government is "planting" its enforcement operatives in the bootleg headquarters.

Federal agents are adopting varied disguises. They appear as buyers, entering some strange town. They are taken in by the bootlegs, who are moved not by pity, but by the selfish purpose to use the alleged "bum" as a tool to palm off their wares.

The "bum" later turns up in the headquarters of the state prohibition director, with records and charts that offer the key to the bootlegging industry in the sections covered by their operations.

Curb On Hotels

Hotel bootlegging has been curtailed by another very shrewd method of the enforcers. Government agents, skilled in the art of crime detection and wise to the ways of the bootlegs, suddenly show up in the most fashionable hosteleries. They are for the time being gentlemen of leisure, with lots of money to spend and with lavish programmes of entertainment for their friends.

A hotel guest, on the law of averages, can muster a big flock of guests, without much advance notice, by a pronouncement that he is to have a "rum party." The "boys" fall over each other getting in on the big time. The alleged wealthy host, who has blown in from some more or less indistinct "manufacturing centre," is none other than a rum-raider. He gains the confidence of the bell boys, the porters and the waiters by his profligate demeanor. He flashes rolls of banknotes with reckless abandon. The tip goes around the hotel that a new "sucker" has arrived. He's the "fall guy," think these smart young fellows who are lying around waiting to make a coin on the liquor clean-ups.

The prosperous gent, who idles around with lots of cash, buying dynamic drinks for the crowds gathered about him in his suite of ornate rooms, stays long enough to get the goods and soon disappears amid a lot of kowtowing, but with the stuff that will be used as a basis for indictments.

In the war on illicit distilling in rural districts operatives have been put to their wit's ends. The rural dwellers may look the unsuspecting part, but agents have found him the wisest type of "bird" yet encountered. It's a joke among government agents themselves that the "corn liker" expert would rather take a shot at them with his musket than go to a festival.

Raider Grows a Beard

Your prohibition raider therefore adopts the simplest ways known to men? He migrates suddenly to the country, with a two weeks' growth of beard, and seeks an humble job in a region suspected of being a moonshine centre. He will do any handy thing and is not quarrelsome about the pay. He appears as an honest looking man wanting work and needing it badly. Sometimes he ventures into the dangerous fastnesses of the mountain districts. Sometimes he does not come out alive. But that is another story. The odds are in his favor that with caution he will eventually emerge with the proof that the government wants.

The disguises adopted in the hunt for liquor makers and vendors are as numerous as the brands of concoctions that are being peddled under the name of "whisky." The net result is that illicit liquor making is growing to be a highly precarious pastime. It is not doubted that its profits for liquor distillers are great while the going is good, but when the hands of the law fall upon the unwary, the quickly amassed profits begin to dwindle in lawyers' fees and other court costs which may exhaust the quickly-made fortunes of moonshiners, besides a collection of other reverses that may fall in the path of those arraigned before the court.

POLICEMAN CHARGED WITH LOOTING STORES

DAYTON, Ohio, June 3.—William A. Gant, alleged burglar policeman, who is credited with thirty or more robberies, according to police to whom he is said to have confessed, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in police court. He was placed under $5,000 bond.

Officer Herman W. Jackson, who patrolled the downtown beat with Gant and who was arrested on the charge of petit larceny, was fined $100, and costs and sentenced to serve sixty days in the workhouse by Judge William A. Powell.

A fellow officer testified against Jackson. He said Jackson admitted the theft of twelve pairs of hose and a suit of underwear, valued at $14, from a wholesale establishment.

A number of merchants have identified certain articles of merchandise taken from their stores, as alleged, by Officer Gant who possessed passkeys to their places of business and was supposed to be protecting their goods against thievery.

$32,077 Is Paid For British Guiana Stamp That Originally Cost Cent

For a little scrap of paper, about an inch square, with job office printing on one side, blank and gummed with mucilage on the other—$32,077 cash, writes Charles Phelps Cushing, in Leslie's Weekly.

That is the news the cables flashed from Paris the other day when the only known copy in existence of a postage stamp which cost the original purchaser one cent in the South American colony of British Guiana, in 1856, was sold at auction by the French government for 300,000 francs plus a luxury tax of 52,000 francs. Who paid the money is only a guess, but stamp experts declare they have reason to believe that it may have been King George of England.

Hawaiian Stamp Sold for $14,150. Another scrap of paper of about the same dimensions, a blue Hawaiian adhesive which cost two cents in 1851, was earlier auctioned off by the same agents of the French republic for $14,150.

It, too, was printed from type set up in a little job office. No sentimental or historical associations about either of these stamps enhanced their value. Nor was there anything strikingly artistic about their designs. All that made these stamps so precious to collectors was rarity.

The British Guiana one-cent, dark rose in color, bears a cancellation in initials, "E. D. W.," and has an indistinct date, "April 1, 1856." A few who have seen the stamp say it is badly rubbed, so that the year can scarcely be made out; and these experts in philately speak of it technically as "a poor copy." A few cynics even doubt if it is genuine.

Ship Picture Was Used in Ads.

The picture of a ship in the center of the design was printed from a small line cut borrowed for the occasion from the Official Gazette of the colony, which used it as a heading over shipping advertisements in the newspapers.

A shipment of stamps expected from England was late in arriving at the British Guiana capital, and the colony had to get out an emergency issue. As soon as the engraved stamps arrived, the forms from which the type-set issue were printed were broken up and the "provisional issue" promptly withdrawn. Thence came about the rarity of this, the most precious stamp in the world.

A short forehead with prominent brows, belongs to the man of action; high, well developed temples to the man of thought.

MINISTER'S NOSE LEADS OWNER TO BIG STILL

DENVER, June 3.—The Rev. Frank G. Brainerd's prohibition nose landed F. L. Howard, 27 years old, in the municipal hoosegow Monday.

Dr. Brainerd, who is pastor of the Boulevard Congregational church, was taking the air in his automobile Monday forenoon. Breezing along Federal boulevard, near West Twenty-seventh avenue, his olfactory nerves suddenly recorded an odor that resembled neither Colorado ozone nor gasoline. "Strange," muttered Dr. Brainerd to himself. "But for the fact that this is prohibition Colorado, I might think I was on the windward side of a distillery."

He stopped his car and backed up, meanwhile sniffing the air as would a

PENNSYLVANIA RADIO MASHER PEEVES WOMAN

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Enter the radio masher.

His initial appearance in the ether was related by Governor Sprout of Pennsylvania, at a recent banquet here.

"I received a letter the other day," said the governor, "from a very outraged and indignant woman who had just purchased a radio set. 'I was enjoying a lovely concert,' the letter read, 'when suddenly a coarse voice broke in the middle of it and shouted:

"Is there any good looking dame listening to this? Because if there is I want her to meet me at the corner of the Friend's graveyard in Quakertown tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. I've got a bottle of hooch in my car, and if I like her I'll take her to Atlantic City!"

"In order to 'pass the buck' to the federal government," the governor remarked, chuckling, "I wrote that the development of radio has come so suddenly that we have not had time yet to become conversant with the peculiar conditions it creates, but that I trusted due action would be taken to prevent this form of outlaw broadcast from inflicting his personality on the world at large."

BOMB ON DUMBWAITER KILLS MOTHER

Mrs. Adelina Hahn, of Milwaukee, opened the dumbwaiter in her apartment to receive the morning's milk and was blown to pieces by a bomb. The family had received threatening letters, and three women are under surveillance as having possible knowledge of the crime. Mrs. Hahn was the mother of two children.

POLICE CALLED WHEN ACTOR PANS AUDIENCE

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Employees at the Palace theatre sent in a hurry call to police headquarters to quell a disturbance between the audience and actors during the show when Billy Dooley, comedian, subjected from the stage to the loud laughter of a group of young girls in the front part of the house. Many in the audience took sides with the girls and the feeling ran high until the arrival of the police. No arrests were made.

Shortly after coming on the stage Dooley was annoyed by the laughter of the girls. The girls took offense at a remark of the actor concerning their conduct and there followed a heated exchange of words between them and the comedian. Dooley remarked that if the girls did not like the show they should get out of the theatre, threatening to have them arrested.

As the girls got up to leave several in the audience stood in their seats and protested. They went to the rear to defend the girls and the employees, then fearing violence, called police.

HONORING TULSA VISITORS.

On Thursday evening at their home on Pine street, Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings entertained informally at bridge, in honor of Mrs. Leo Parr's guests, Meses. Theron Bynum and Jack Hilditch, of Tulsa, Okla. Guests for the evening included only the personal friends of the honorees and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, who were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Parr last winter. Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Bradley were schoolmates, and the friendship has been extended on to the daughters.

Five tables were laid for bridge and the high score ladies' prize, a pair of sixteen-button kid gloves, went to Mrs. Bynum. J. B. Haden won the gentlemen's high score prize, a silver belt buckle. Mrs. M. H. Clark was awarded the ladies' consolation prize, a metal girdle, and Wilbourne Collier the gentlemen's consolation, a fancy shaving soap. The cut prize was literally a cut prize, being a tiny pearl-handled pen knife, which was won by Mrs. J. B. Haden.

Sandwiches, cloves, coffee, ice cream and cake were served late in the evening to the following ladies and gentlemen: Messrs. and Meses. Leo Parr, Charles Conley, J. B. Haden, J. C. Pullen, Fred Yonker, E. E. Crawford, Frank Branhany, R. D. Lavery; Meses. Theron Bynum, Jack Hilditch, William Conway, M. H. Clark, P. E. Nicol, Wilbourne Collier, Miss Peggy Lawler.

YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB.

Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort was hostess to the Young Matrons' club Friday afternoon at her home in the Gholson addition. Mrs. C. C. Craig made high score and Mrs. Chas. Conley low.

A dainty salad course was served to the following club members and guests: Meses. E. E. Crawford, C. C. Craig, D. M. Steele, J. E. T. Peters, A. J. Orth, Ed Maher, Charles Conley, Frank Branhany, L. L. Rector, Karl Jones, Jack Gullahorn, M. K. Collier and Miss Peggy Lawler. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. E. T. Peters.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. John Thurman entertained the Twentieth Century club Friday afternoon at her home in the Cooper addition. Prizes were awarded to club members and guests as follows: Club high score, a hand-embroidered lunch set, went to Mrs. Frank Champion. The club consolation, a hand-embroidered lunch cloth and napkins, went to Mrs. E. L. McMillen. Mrs. George Taggart won the guest high score prize, hand-made handkerchiefs. Mrs. Thurman favored her guests with a delicious salad course.

Those present were: Meses. Frank Champion, J. Scott Blair, Mary C. Blair, E. J. Wiss, E. L. McMillen, Saunders Gregg, William Denning, George Taggart, J. M. Dodson, George Armer, Walter Burden, A. G. Jury.

The next meeting will be Friday with Mrs. J. S. Blair.

MISS MARY LOUISE BENTON HONOREE.

Miss Mary Louise Benton, the premier graduate of St. Rita's school, was the honoree of a very delightful party given Friday night at the home of Mrs. N. J. Novakovich. It was one of these affairs which usually follow a graduation and the friends of Miss Benton saw to it that the party was of much merriment and enjoyment. The house was especially decorated for the occasion and the color scheme of blue and white was carried out in cut flowers and in the refreshments. Various games were played, which were heartily enjoyed.

Following the games refreshments of cakes, brick ice cream and Manhattan punch were served. After the refreshments there was dancing, which lasted until a late hour.

Among those present were Meses. Mary Louise Benton, Esther Yonker, Katherine O'Shea, Oreta Smith, Eleanor Alworth, Maurine Bowman, Phyllis Williams, Evelyn West, Mary McKinnis, Margaret Yonker, Marguerite Novakovich; Messrs. Ted Hummage, Bill Mills, Tom Yonker, Howell Gullahorn, Paul Chirminise, Ivo Novakovich and the hostess, Mrs. N. J. Novakovich.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Abney were hostesses at a birthday party for their daughter, Miss Mary, Friday.

On entering the room the guests were conducted to the guest book, where many wishes and witty verses were written. The house was decorated with vases of sweet peas and nasturtiums and ferns. Contests were the chief diversion of the evening. The prizes were boxes of delicious home-made candy, which was awarded by couples. Other games also were played. Punch was served throughout the evening. The refreshments consisted of fruit jello topped with whipped cream and devil's food cake. When the birthday cake was cut it was found that Beatrice Dreby got the dime, Blanche DeBolt got the thimble, Marion Stubblebine got the ring and Ted Alexander got the button.

Those invited were: Meses. Genevieve and Marie Armer, Blanche and Stella DeBolt, Lucy Belle and Mabel Baker, Ruby Carlyle, Beatrice Dreby, Hilda Frasier, Anna Holland, Mabel Knight, Ruth and Grace Reeves, ELDEEN CLUB HAS EVENING MEETING.

The Eldeen club met with Meses. Walter Harwell and V. E. Ashford Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ashford. It was one of the loveliest parties of the week and one that will be pleasantly remembered by all present. Six tables were arranged for progressive forty-two and at the close of the game very beautiful prizes were awarded. Meses. Walter West and A. W. Townsend tied for the ladies' high score and received lovely bon-bon baskets decorated with sweet peas, the club flower, and tied with pink and green, the club colors. These baskets were filled with dates stuffed with walnut meats. Mrs. J. L. Hayden made ladies' low score. A. W. Townsend made men's high score and Walter West men's low score. Miniature baskets decorated with the club flowers and colors, and filled with stuffed dates, were given the ladies present for favors, while the men received "smokes."

Following the awarding of prizes a delicious luncheon was served the following members: Messrs. and Meses. A. W. Townsend, Bigbee, C. C. Cheno-weth, Walter West, C. L. Webb, J. C. Guyton, D. E. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bigbee in Cooper addition, next Thursday afternoon.

PICNIC AT SINCLAIR LAKE.

The intermediate class of girls of the First Baptist church held a picnic at Sinclair lake last Tuesday. Owing to the doubtful weather only the most faithful turned out for the event. The day was spent in swimming and a general good time. Mr. Patterson, who is in charge, helped to make the day delightful by donating the use of the lake and soft drinks. A picnic lunch was spread at noon.

Those enjoying this outing were: Merkel Mills, Edna Brashiere, Gertrude Hemstead, Audrey Cornell, and the Sunday school teacher, Mrs. B. C. Bloodworth.

AMUSU CLUB WITH MRS. CARROLL CLARKE.

Mrs. Carroll Clarke was hostess to the Amusu club at the home of Mrs. Ira Nourse on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. T. Lander.

MISS WILKINS HONOR GUEST.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Wilkins entertained a few friends Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Via at the McCleskey camp, in honor of Miss Alfreda Wilkins. Miss Wilkins is the guest of her brother and his wife, and will return to Springfield, Mo., where she will resume her college course at Drury college. Bridge and dancing were the diversion for the evening, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. A two-course luncheon was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weber, Ira Nourse, Carroll S. Clarke, B. S. Via, Hilsendorf, Harold Via; Meses. Audrey Cornell, Marjorie Clarke, the honoree, Miss Wilkins, and the host and hostess.

FRIDAY BRIDGE WITH MRS. WEST.

Mrs. Walter West entertained the Friday Bridge club this week at her home in the Gholson addition. Mrs. J. B. Haden made high score and won a set of six etched glass sherbet glasses. Mrs. Fred Yonker won the consolation prize, a two-toned tea pot.

Those present were: Meses. F. E. Langston, Fred Yonker, S. W. Bobo, Ira Nourse, Harold Whitbeck, M. O. Burt, W. J. McFarland, Pop Endicott, John Moyer, J. B. Haden, Clark of Mineral Wells, and Miss Evelyn West. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harold Whitbeck.

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the board that said petition is signed by at least twenty paying voters of this district and that the election petitioned for should be ordered;

Therefore, be it ordered by the board of trustees of Ranger Independent School District that an election be held at the First National Bank building, in the town of Ranger, in said Ranger Independent School District, on the 10th day of June, 1922, to determine whether the board of trustees of said district shall have power to annually levy and collect a tax upon all taxable property in said district, for the support and maintenance of public free schools in said Ranger Independent School District of and at the rate not exceeding $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation of taxable property in the district; such tax, if voted, to be levied and collected for the year 1922 and annually thereafter, unless it be discontinued as provided by law.

C. A. Bobo is hereby appointed manager of said election, and he shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding same. None but property taxpayers who are qualified voters in said Ranger Independent School District shall vote at said election.

A copy of this order signed by the president and attested by the secretary of this board shall serve as proper notice of said election, and the president shall cause notice of said election to be given in accordance with law. V. V. COOPER, President Board of Trustees of Ranger Independent School District.

SPORTS

NITRO 'OFF DAY' GIVES BRONCOS EASY VICTORY

Crawford Hit Hard After Errors Allow Visitors Big Lead.

The Broncos kicked over the traces yesterday afternoon at the ball park, threw our Nitros, trampled over them outrageously and when the cavoring had ceased, had scored a 10 to 2 victory, evening up the series.

Nitro errors were as numerous as the bolts on Job and Angelo hits were strung along like broken bottles on the Thurber road, so all told, it wasn't a pleasant afternoon for Moses Yellowhorse Crawford (et al).

Ranger's offense was again the story of a good pitcher having the Nitros on the hip. One Muns, it was this time, with a wicked fast ball that made our athletes very very coy about snuggling up to the plate. And just as the diffident young man most generally doesn't make any great headway with the girl, so most certainly did the Nitros fail to dent Mr. Muns to any considerable extent.

Only Duckworth and Pyle, with two safeties each, were able to brashly buff the altitudinous hurler's offerings. Twice Ducky smote briskly and slammed out long two-ply raps. Pyle got to him for a double and a single. Each opened an inning with a two-base rap and was unable to advance.

One troublesome inning came to Muns, due entirely to himself. That was the third, when he opened up by walking Duckworth and Crawford and allowed the ball to slip from his hand in an effort to tag White, filling the bases with none down. There they stayed while Flagg lifted a short fly to center and Hoffman fouled out to Alexander. One run, which temporarily tied the score, came across the plate when Scoggins couldn't quite get his mitts wrapped around Pyle's grounder. The Nitros' only other run came in the fourth, when a walk to Clayton was followed by Duckworth's first two-bagger and Butler's miff of Crawford's fly.

Stavelike Support. Moses Crawford was lost in the bur-rushes from the start. His spittle was given a day of rest, for some unknown reason, and he confined himself to the unmassaged and unimpadoured twirling devices which do not give the infielders the alibi of a slippery ball. It worked out fine. Last time Moses pitched, there were eight leaks in his support. This time there were only six. That's improvement. Those six, however, were ganged at just the proper intervals to spill the beans for Moses.

Jack Gober gave an inkling of what was to come in the opening round when he messed up Downs' throw, with two on and two out, allowing Butler to count the first run. The real party, however, was pulled in the third. Jimmy Flagg led off by juggling Alexander's grounder. White let Duckworth's none too perfect throw get away from him as the BRONCOS STEAMED DOWN TO SECOND, and Alex took third. Robertson followed with a drive to left, counting Alexander and came all the way home from first when Dean's drive bounded past Clayton. Dean went to third and scored the third run in the inning on Muns' infield out.

Throws Self Down. Crawford presented another run in the sixth, following Dean's hit with a wild pitch and an equally wild throw. After that, the Nitros tightened up, with several rattling good plays, Downs on the starting end of most of them. By that time, though, the Broncos were chuk full of confidence and started biffing Crawford at a merry rate. It was all off with that ball game.

Lefty Richburg also hurled a wonderful game but his defense crumbled miserably in the last round, when Manager Allen got his third hit and reached second when Bupp dropped a throw on Woodridge's attempted sacrifice. Speegle fanned, but Gober hit to right and Shaw let Frierson's throw get away from him. Allen scoring. Earnshaw then hit for King and rolled to Pipkin who errored in attempting to force Woodridge at the plate. Woodridge and Gober tallying. Earnshaw scored the fourth run on a fielder's choice.

Those things are going to happen every once in a while. When they do, boosting fans will back the boys just the same, and yell encouragement. Some of the fans want their money's worth, however, and not getting it in action, take it out in riding. That, after all, is their privilege. The ball player gets cheers for good playing, so if he gets a few jeers for poor work, he's still far ahead. Nobody likes to see games tossed off. When it happens, the players responsible must either stand some riding or put cotton in his ears.

The Nitros have a left-handed pitcher at last. He's Torby (Lefty) Lybrand, from San Antonio. Lybrand came in in the Sunshine yesterday and is in shape to perform. RADIO ROMANCE OF TEXAS GIRL ENDS IN WEDDING. By Associated Press. OKLAHOMA CITY, June 3.—Radio love is the latest development in wireless telephony.

It all began when Miss Dolly L. Smithson of Gainesville, Texas, became enamored of the voice of Frank Bird of Oklahoma City, as it came to her over scores of miles of ether. Through the microphone of a radio receiving set Miss Smithson first heard the voice of her future husband seven days ago.

Bird is director of an orchestra here, which has been giving concerts broadcast by a local newspaper and a radio concern. Just before the orchestra swung into each bit of jazz music the director looked squarely in to the unemotional chasm of the transmitter and announced the name of the selection.

In a Gainesville drug store, Miss Smithson and a number of friends listened in. "I don't know why," she confessed today, "but right away I fell in love with that voice."

Came a letter on its way to this city. Then an answer southbound. Then an exchange of less than a dozen missives and Miss Smithson came to Oklahoma City.

A minister sealed the radio romance. The highest trees have the most pointed leaves.

FLIVERS VAMP TEN OF ELEVEN FIRE PLUGS

Ten automobiles were found in close communion with as many fire plugs last night in the downtown section by Fire Chief George Murphy and Motorcade Officer Adair, in violation of the city ordinance against parking within ten feet of a fire plug.

There was only one fire plug out of eleven in the downtown district without its flivver, the officers state. Nine of the drivers of the cars were found and notified of the infraction of the city ordinance and let off with a warning. The owner of one car could not be found and it was removed to the police station.

The fire plug parking ordinance, here as elsewhere over the country, was designed to prevent parked cars from blocking the fire department trucks from the plugs in case of fire.

A Four Months or a Nine Months School—Which?

Next Saturday, June 10, there will be presented to the property tax-paying voters of Ranger the most important issue that has come before them in a long time. The question is whether the Ranger School Board will be authorized to levy a tax for school purposes not to exceed $1 on the $100 valuation of taxable property of the district. Upon the decision of this issue rests the question whether Ranger is to have in future a nine months public free school or a four months public free school.

The taxable valuations of the school district have decreased from more than seventeen million dollars in 1920 to less than ten million dollars in 1922. The state per capita has likewise decreased from fourteen dollars and a half in 1920 to an estimated ten dollars in 1922. Meantime, because of the issuance of high school bonds, the interest and sinking funds, which the district must pay every year, have increased from fifteen thousand dollars in 1920 to thirty-three thousand three hundred seventy dollars in 1922.

A fifty-cent tax on a ten million dollar valuation with an eighty per cent collection will produce forty thousand dollars as a local school fund. From this there must be paid the thirty-three thousand three hundred and seventy dollars interest and sinking funds, leaving a balance in the local fund for school maintenance six thousand six hundred thirty dollars. To this will be added the state fund of ten dollars per capita on two thousand twenty-six scholars, or twenty thousand two hundred sixty dollars. The latter, when added to the balance from local fund, will give a total of twenty-six thousand eight hundred ninety dollars with which to maintain the schools.

Notwithstanding the fact that every salary paid either to teachers or janitors has been cut for next year from ten to fifteen per cent, and the further fact that the number of teachers has been reduced from fifty-three to forty-six, it will still require more than six thousand five hundred dollars a month to maintain the schools. From this it can be seen that the school board will find difficulty in maintaining over four months free school next year unless the tax is raised. It is, therefore, squarely up to the people of Ranger to choose which they want. It is either a fifty-cent tax and a four months school or a dollar tax and a nine months school. Which will you choose?

Respectfully, V. V. COOPER, M. H. HAGAMAN, E. H. MILLS, LEE WILLIAMS, H. E. CLEWELL, MRS. C. E. MADDOCKS. (Advertisement)

13-MONTH YEAR AGAIN IS URGED ON ALL NATIONS

Canadian's Plan May Be Indorsed Soon By Astronomers.

According to Dr. Moses B. Cotsworth, F. G. S., of Vancouver, B. C., the proposed new thirteen-month calendar, of which he is the father, will bring this old world more luck and summer happiness than it has ever had under the twelve-month system, writes F. E. McGillicuddy, in Leslie's Weekly. He does not believe in the "13" superstition.

He believes, instead, that since there are thirteen lunar months in every year, whether we like it or not, it would greatly simplify matters if there were thirteen calendar months also, and a great many persons of importance agree with him.

The new calendar, which has been under consideration for some time, is expected to receive the indorsement of the International Conference of Astronomers which meets in Rome this month, following an important conference of Roman Catholic church dignitaries, which is also expected to approve the change. Other scientific societies have already given unqualified approval to the proposal.

Canada indorsed 13-Month Year. The "Yearal Calendar," which was indorsed by the Canadian government in 1912, was under consideration by the British government in 1914, but the outbreak of war made the international conference, which was to have been held in that year, impossible. The original plan was to have had the calendar in general use by 1917.

Instead of ending on the day we now designate as Dec. 21, the "Yearal" will close on Dec. 22—the day after the shortest day of the year, and the natural end of the year. With thirteen months in the year every week will begin with a Sunday and every month end with a Saturday. Every Saturday will be a seventh, fourteenth, twenty-first, or twenty-eighth, while every Sunday will be a first, eighth, fifteenth, or twenty-second, and so on with the other days continually.

Extra Month Called "Sol." The extra month which the "Yearal Calendar" gains is inserted between June and July and will be known as "Sol," for the reason that heretofore the sun has been overlooked in the nomenclature of the year.

While thirteen months of twenty-eight days each total only 364 days and a year, scientifically speaking, totals 365 and a quarter days, provision is made for the extra day by inserting it between the last day of the old year and the first day of the new. This day has no day name and is designated simply as "New Year's Day." It will be indicated on the model calendar by a star and, of course, would be a general world-wide holiday, recognized as such by all nations.

In the same way every fourth year an extra day will be inserted at midsummer, which will be simply known as "Leap day." This, it is contended, will make for greater balance and a more scientific partition of the year. It also will be an extra world-wide holiday without a day name, because it would be the only way in which a dislocation of the perfect calendar could be avoided.

Calendar Printed in Advance. One of the principal reasons why the "Yearal" cannot come into general use until some time after 1927 is because all nautical almanacs are printed three or more years in advance.

It is also anticipated that it will take fully three years after the perfect calendar has been approved by the astronomers, church dignitaries and the congress of nations, before such a change can be ratified by the various representative governments of the different nations. Changes in calendars are not made overnight.

Should the "Yearal calendar," as perfected by Mr. Cotsworth, be generally adopted by the nations of the world, every month of the year would

DOG WILL GET MEDAL FOR TRYING TO SAVE ANOTHER

MANCHESTER, N. Y., June 3.—Jack, a dog owned by Miss Ruth Lair Legeze, is to be awarded a medal for his heroism in attempting to save the life of another dog, the Animal Rescue League announced.

Jack swam to the rescue of the other dog as it was overcome by a heavy current in a brook, but failed to reach the animal before it went down.

AMERICAN FIFTEEN YEARS IN BRITISH JAIL

Charles Smith, an American, who loved "Chicago May," a notorious international thief, was sentenced to life imprisonment in London in 1907 for attempting to kill Eddie Guerin, the only man who ever escaped from Devil's island. Guerin had stolen the woman's love. Through the efforts of the American consul in London, John M. Savage, and of Lady Astor, Smith has been pardoned and has returned to America to begin life anew on a farm.

YOUTH SLAYS BOY ACCUSED BY HIS SISTER

NEW YORK, June 3.—"When my father told me of how my little sister had been wronged, I saw red and vowed vengeance."

Thus Thomas Harrison, eighteen, explained to the police his reason for killing James Tierney, seventeen. Rose right away, but he only snarled. Tierney's body was found in a hallway at No. 420 West Sixteenth street, and for several hours the killing remained a mystery.

The Unwritten Law Invoking the unwritten law as his defense, young Harrison said he had killed Tierney after the latter had refused to wed sixteen-year-old Rose Harrison and right an alleged wrong. Harrison, small for his age and blind in one eye, denied positively that anyone else had been connected with the slaying. He said: "My father told me about Rose on Thursday. I became enraged and hunted up Tierney, whom I found in a hallway at the National Biscuit Co. factory. I demanded that he marry Rose right away, but he only snarled. 'What, do you think I'm going to marry a girl like that?'"

He Shot Tierney "That set me beside myself. I reached over into the gutter to get a stone. I felt something pressed to my hip. I turned around and saw that it was a revolver which a stranger was handing me. I used it. I shot Tierney through the chest."

Harrison practically surrendered himself to the police, but it was said they already had decided, by a process of elimination, that he was the slayer. He is being held at headquarters.
