RANGERS COMING TO SEE RANGER

Annual Meeting of Famous Organization, Aug. 12-14, will Bring Many Visitors.

Ranger will be host to a famous organization, Aug. 12 to 14 inclusive, when the ex-Texas Rangers' association holds its annual convention in Ranger. Old-timers who were stationed at Ranger when the town was nothing but a ranger post will be in town and many tales of the past, when the days of the sixgun and daring deeds were in force and the conquering of the west was going forward, will be told and retold.

Better Protection

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—America's demand for a responsible central Chinese government strong enough for protection of American property and lives, following the killing of Morgan Palmer and the seizure of Dr. Harvey Howard, is expected. Official confirmation of the United Press reports of the killing by Chinese bandits of Morgan Palmer and the capture of Dr. Howard in the Sungari river district of Manchuria was received at the state of the Chinese State of the Chinese State of the Chinese State of Morgan Palmer and the capture of Dr. Howard in the Sungari river district of Manchuria was received at the state of State o Palmer and the capture of Dr. Howard in the Sungari river district of Manchuria was received at the state department here today at 10:30 a.m. Officials were inclined to absolve the Pekin government from any direct responsibility as they have only nominal control over the district.

This demand will be included in the answer which the United States and powers are about to make to the recent Chinese note asking for abolition of extra-territoriality and satisfaction for the Shanghai killings.

Retail Merchants Urged to Buy From Ranger Jobbers So to Help Community

Road building, agricultural development and industrial matters were discussed by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce directors, meeting last night for the first time within two weeks. The extension of improved streets within the city of Ranger was noted with approval, with words of commendation for Mayor Hodges, Street Commissioner Teal and other city officials who have been pushing street betterments, and in line with this it was suggested that this, more than any other one thing, would contribute to home building and home owning. While little new home building has been reported, it is noticed that the building has been reported, it is noticed to be the suggestion of the sugges ticeable there has been quite a large amount of home buying in Ranger during the summer, and it was said the number of home owners in Ranger is increasing so fast that soon any freeholder not owning his own home will be entirely out of fashion and a real back number. Improving Homes.

With home ownership, it was said, omes the desire for the home beautiful, and more trees, shrubs and flowers have been set out in Ranger this year, and more grass planted in the making of lawns than in any

THE STORY SO FAR: Gloria Gordon, 20-year-old beau-ty, marries, Dick Gregory for the money she thinks he has. She has made up her mind that marriage for her will mean clothes and good times—but no children. She scorns Bill Hough's wife, Lola, who works hard to bring up three bables.

Dick tells her he can't afford a maid, and borrows Maggie, his mother's maid, to teach Glory to cook.

Glory refuses to learn,
Stanley Wayburn, an actor whom Glory once loved, calls on her. Dick sees him leaving the house, and Glory tells Dick that he is an interior decorator. Dick is confined to the house with a cold. His secretary, Miss Briggs, comes there to work with him. While they are busy Gloria plans a housewarming. When the party is at its height Stan Wayburn comes. And Dick recognizes in the actor the man he saw leaving his house. He is sure Gloria lied to him.

Later Gloria finds Stan making love to Myra Gail, a married friend. the recklessly takes too many drinks d, while she is dancing with Dr. shn Seymour, the husband of May is in love with Jim Carewe, Glory faints away.
