Mrs. Cushing Succumbs To Long Illness

Pioneer Succumbs At Family Home At 812 W. 18th

Mrs. Daisy Mann Cushing, 63, wife of W. F. Cushing and a pioneer resident of this section, succumbed to a long illness at 1 p. m. today in the family home at 812 W. 18th street.

She had been confined to her home for the past five weeks.

Prominent in church, civic and club work, Mrs. Cushing had made her home here for the past 35 years. She was an active worker in the Presbyterian church, of which she was a life-long member, had been a leader in the Federated club work in the days when the organization was an extremely active one, and shared in many other civic activities including school units, libraries and worthwhile institutions.

Born in Fort Springs, W. Va., as Daisy Mann, Mrs. Cushing moved with her family to Comanche county in 1886. Not long afterwards the family moved to Colorado City, then known as the "Queen City" of West Texas. When the family moved to a ranch in Sterling county, she went to Stanton college in Virginia and was graduated while only 17 years of age.

After teaching school in Arizona for a year, she returned to Texas and was married to William F. Cushing in 1905. Since then Mr. Cushing has lived in and near Big Spring.

Survivors include her husband; one son, William F. Cushing; three daughters, Mrs. H. C. Stipp, Big Spring, Mrs. Constance McIntyre, Big Spring, and Mrs. Franklin P. Holmes, Jacksonville; three brothers, W. J. Mann, Sterling City, E. C. Mann, San Angelo, and W. T. Mann, Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. Hoxie Y. Smith of California and Mrs. T. R. Walters of Michigan.

Services will be held at the First Presbyterian church at 4 p. m. Tuesday with the minister, the Rev. Mr. O. L. Savage, officiating. Burial will be in the family lot of Mount Olive cemetery. Pallbearers will be Bill Reed of Sterling City, T. C. Currie, Will Currie, Jake Bishop, V. Van Gieson and Shine Phillips.

Occupations Students Step Into Jobs

Eight young men who finished their high school courses last week have stepped into jobs they made for themselves.

They are graduates who finished with their diversified occupations certificates. An unofficial report showed them working in regular places with the firms where they have trained for the past two years.

They are: Keith Cass, Hester's Office Supply; Lesley Christensen, Christensen Boot Co.; Elton Counts, Richards Gro.; Raymond Hamby, Big Spring Motor Co.; Marlin Hayworth, Empire Southern Service Co.; Omar Jones, S. F. Jones Lumber Co.; Preston Senter, Montgomery Ward & Co.; Jimmie Warren, United Dry Goods Co.

The program through which the young men passed embraces four semesters of part-time cooperative training under which students attend school during the morning and work in the afternoon on the particular job they are studying.

A cooperative method, the plan works on the joint support of school and employer. It is an extensive program which requires over 2,500 hours on the job for the students as well as 540 class hours on theory and book work fundamental to the occupation.

Crete Survivors Say — 'It Was The Bombers That Got Us'

CAIRO, Egypt, June 2 (AP)—British and Greek survivors of the lost fight for Crete declare they were beaten by the sting of Germany's air force, not by the parachute troops showered onto the island.

"The parachutists were nothing," one soldier summed it up, "but dive bombing all day long and continual machine-gun fire was terrible. We hardly ever saw any of our own fighters. If we had had a few squadrons of them it would have been different."

Thousands of British and imperial soldiers, along with many of their Greek allies, had poured into Egypt, exhausted from hand-to-hand fighting and flight over mountains 8,000-foot high, since late last week.

By Saturday night 10,000 had been landed—British, Austrian, New Zealanders and Greeks. Others, bombed all the way from Crete, have trickled in since aboard small boats.

They disclosed that the decision to give up Crete was reached last Thursday afternoon. It had become apparent by then, it was said, that the naval command of the air over the island, from which the RAF was forced to withdraw for lack of adequate bases, would enable the Nazis to land as many troops as they required and prevent the British from bringing up reinforcements.

The parachutists employed some new tricks in Crete.

"We saw one batch of parachutists coming down and we opened fire on them heavily and thought we killed them," one soldier related. "But when they landed we found they were dummies to attract our attention while real parachutists were coming down nearby. We went after the real ones and cleaned them up."

Nazi Troops Land In Syria

By The Associated Press
German motorized infantry troops were reported today to have landed at the port of Latakia, Syria, and the British announced the removal of British women and children from the island of Cyprus, off the coast of Syria, in anticipation of a quick axis assault there following the conquest of Crete.

A British Crown colony since 1914, Cyprus is the third largest island in the Mediterranean after Sicily and Sardinia.

Dispatches from Ankara, Turkey, said the German troops landed on the Syrian coast May 20, arriving by freighters.

Trucks, armored cars and mobile field guns accompanied the Nazi contingent, it was reported.

Latakia is due east of the eastern tip of Cyprus.

Co-Op Rejects Bids On Line

Bids will be opened here on June 12 for a 25-mile extension of the Caprock Electric Cooperative lines into Midland county, it was announced here Monday.

Three bids received for a projected letting here last Friday were rejected as being too high. The re-setting followed as a result. The cooperative has an allotment up to $16,000 for the work of extending its original lines.

Next meeting of the REA board of directors for the tri-county unit has been set for June 10 when Kathryn Harris, Fort Worth, district operations representative, will appear before the board. Other matters pertaining to maintenance and operations will be considered by the directors who are postponing their regular first Thursday meeting date in order to hear Miss Harris.

Questionnaires Nearly All Out

Questionnaires filed with the Howard County Selective Service board are due to have been mailed to all registrants by June 16, Bruce Frasier, chief clerk of the board, said Monday.

At the rate of 50 a day, questionnaires are going out to men who registered last September and currently the total dispatched stands through 2,300.

The board, said Frasier, is making every effort to continue its classification of registrants as soon as the forms are returned. Between June 16 and July 1 all classifications will be cleared so that the board will have its slate clean for the registration of the new crop of 21-year-olds on July 1.

Warehousemen On West Coast May Strike

Promise of Break Appears In Pacific Lumber Tie-Up

By The Associated Press
A strike of freight handlers and warehousemen threatened the San Francisco bay area today, Pittsburgh was hit by a walkout of truck drivers and helpers, and the first promise of a break appeared in the disputes which have crippled lumber production in the Pacific Northwest.

In San Francisco some 4,500 CIO warehousemen waited for a deadline to halt work in an effort to enforce demands for a 10 cents an hour wage increase for women workers who now receive 50 and 55 cents.

Neither the union nor the Association of San Francisco Distributors were optimistic about the chances of a last minute settlement. Union and association officials previously had agreed on other wage increase issues, but deadlocked on the 10 cents wage increase. The association offered 5 cents more an hour, but the union rejected this as "discriminatory" and "a union splitting" tactic.

The Pittsburgh strike brought out 2,300 truck drivers and helpers working for 178 concerns, officials of the AFL Teamsters' Union said. Truck shipments of a wide variety of defense materials were at once restricted. Union and management officials said that the curtailed shipments would affect not only the great around Pittsburgh but also the flow of materials to eastern states.

The strike began yesterday, following the collapse of negotiations for a new contract between the union and members of the Motor Truck Association. The union asked a basic 10 cents an hour increase over the existing 85 cent rate, paid vacations and maintenance of a 48 hour week. Employers said the wage demand exceeded "our ability to pay" and proposed a 54 hour week.

Some CIO lumber workers at Seattle—the boom men—offered to go back to work if employers would give them 7 1/2 cents more per hour, making the daily minimum $8.15, and make it retroactive to April 1. They made this contingent upon the submission to arbitrators of their demands for a one week annual vacation with pay, adjustment of overtime pay and settlement of the call-time issue. Although the boom men's union has only 87 members, the strike tied up mills employing 4,000.

The defense mediation board called a conference tomorrow at Washington in an effort to iron out differences in another Pacific Northwest lumber dispute between the Woodworkers of America and employees of the CIO Union's 12,000 members. The union struck for a 7 1/2 cents per hour wage increase to 75 cents, a week's annual vacation with pay, a union shop and hiring provisions and guaranteed against piecework rates.

Officials of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding company and the Bay Cities Metal Trades Council agreed to resume negotiations over contract differences which were a main issue in a CIO-AFL machinists strike against 11 shipyards and repair shops in the San Francisco Bay area.

Government May Fix Gas Prices

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Government action to control the prices of gasoline and fuel oil in all sections of the country is being considered by defense officials, it was learned today.

Because of the varied price structure in the oil business it is unlikely that price ceilings such as have been imposed on some commodities will be invoked even if action is found desirable. Instead, it was learned, companies might be required to submit their cost records to justify any increases.

Leading oil companies operating in the Mid-Atlantic and New England areas already have agreed to a request of Leon Henderson, price administrator, that they not raise prices without first consulting him. In some quarters, it was said that any such notification to Henderson would result in a thorough study of the company's books before the increase was approved.

City Paving Work Rushed

City operations centered around street and road work Monday as the task of revising the airport project was reported nearing its final phases.

Utilizing WPA labor before it is diverted to the airport job, the city was rushing work on two blocks on 10th street between Johnson and Main. The stretch fronts on the high school campus and involves a steep hill between Runnels and Main street.

City graders have been assigned to the Moss Creek lake property to shape up the road from the end of the county's paved lateral road to the dam. This distance is approximately one mile.

Axis Leaders Confer On U.S. Intervention

Further Actions In Near East Planned

ROME, June 2 (AP)—Informed fascists said that plans for meeting any move by the United States presumably formed at least part of the conversations between Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini at the Brenner Pass today.

Observers said the axis leaders probably were concerned with the prospect for further action by the United States in line with President Roosevelt's program to defend the western hemisphere with the navy, involving French West Africa, the Azores and other Atlantic islands.

A terse announcement made no mention of specific topics, but said merely that Hitler and Mussolini were fully agreed on the "political situation."

Informed sources predicted that Italian forces would use Crete as a springboard for new attacks by air on British positions in a triangle formed by the island of Cyprus, the Egyptian port of Alexandria, and the Palestine port of Haifa.

But they said greater questions must have brought the two war leaders together and cited, besides United States policy, such major Middle East objectives as the oil fields of Iraq, with their pipeline through Palestine, and French-mandated Syria and the Suez Canal.

Fascists said the axis forces certainly would not remain idle after the conquest of Crete, and Virginio Gayda, often the editorial spokesman for fascist policy, wrote in Il Giornale d'Italia that "new developments in the Mediterranean war will be seen soon as a consequence of the new axis victory."

Irish Identify Bombs As German

DUBLIN, June 2 (AP)—Four bombs which fell Saturday on neutral Dublin, leaving at least 30 and perhaps 61 dead, "were of German origin," the government of Eire declared today as it instructed its courts to identify the bombs.

The known death toll stood at 30, but 31 other persons were missing and a formal announcement said that "in all probability the final death toll will be 61" since little hope was held that any of the missing would be found alive.

Student Pilot Tells Of Fall From Airplane

SAN MARCOS, June 2 (AP)—Elliott Falls, advanced CAA flying student, says he fell from the cockpit of his training plane, caught a strut and managed to fight his way back into the ship and land safely.

Falls said that while he was making routine slow rolls yesterday his safety belt broke from its moorings. When the ship became inverted, he fell and his arm jammed in a strut.

Burglars Enter Welfare Office

Burglars broke into the Howard County Welfare association warehouse on E. 1st street sometime during the weekend, police reported Monday.

Gaining entrance through a window, the burglars took a small quantity of flour, some pajamas and boys trousers. Officers were investigating.

Greene Goes To CC Convention

J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, left Sunday for San Antonio to participate in the annual meeting of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers association.

He is to appear on the program of the convention Tuesday.

Before returning to Big Spring he and Mrs. Greene plan on taking a short vacation trip.

Wheat Growers Vote Quotas

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Growers of wheat joined producers of cotton and tobacco today in granting the agriculture department authority to control the sales of their crops this year.

In a nation-wide referendum Saturday, wheat farmers voted decisively for a departmental proposal to invoke the rigid marketing quota provisions of the 1938 farm act to keep the surplus production of this year's bread grain crop off the market until it might be needed.

Virtually complete returns from the wheat referendum gave 397,509 votes for and 96,223 against quotas. This was slightly over 80 per cent, or far in excess of the necessary two-thirds.

By approving quotas, wheat farmers were virtually assured a government wheat loan of 85 per cent of parity—or about 97 cents a bushel. The loans were contingent upon approval of quotas and the availability of funds. Legislation providing loan funds is now pending in congress.

Local Wheat Men Endorse Quotas

The percentage voting in favor of wheat marketing quotas in Howard county was not exceeded anywhere in the country.

The vote here was 18 to 0 in favor of quotas. Only 23 farmers in the county were eligible to vote. Throughout the nation, the favorable vote ran about 80 per cent.

Cheerios Ring Out—British Air Students Come To Texas

DALLAS, June 2 (AP)—Thumbs up in a gesture of defiance to "Jerry," 50 young men from England arrived in Dallas today aboard a train from Canada to begin the training that will earn them their wings in the Royal Air Force.

Some were attired in traditional English tweeds, some in flat-topped "pork pie" hats, others smoked pipes—and all were wide-eyed as they alighted from the coach that had brought them to a strange country for lessons in war.

A few minutes later the train pulled out with 50 more bound for another R. A. F. detachment in California.

"Cheerios" rang strangely through the big terminal. As the observation car of the train disappeared, the Britons were ordered to form in line by Wing Commander F. W. Hillier, an Squadron Commander. A Rever-

Hobby Club To Give Play Soon

Plans for an all day meeting June 11th at the home of Mrs. Stewart Thomas were made by the Hobby Home Demonstration club members at a session recently in the home of Mrs. Frank Fryar. The club voted to give a play, "The Old Maids Convention" sometime in the future and a Mother's Day program was held.

New Restrictions Made At Airfields

SAN ANTONIO, June 2 (AP)—Officials at Randolph and Kelly fields, U. S. army air corps training fields, have placed new restrictions on visitors.
 Col. Hubert R. Harmon, Kelly field commandant, said the new rules were to establish a reasonable control over visitors.
 They require that civilians either identify themselves as to business at the field, or be identified by some member of the personnel of the field before admission is granted.
 At Duncan field, site of the huge San Antonio air depot which services planes from Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Louisiana, Arkansas and Arizona, it was announced that further precautions are being contemplated.

German Bombs Hit Manchester

MANCHESTER, England, June 2 (AP)—German planes poured thousands of incendiaries and high-explosive bombs on this manufacturing city early today.
 Rescue crews were handicapped by a heavy pall of smoke as they dug for victims buried under the wreckage, but although several fires were started by the bombs, none got out of control.
 A number of nurses were feared to have been buried in the wreckage of a direct high-explosive hit. Two hospitals were damaged in other areas and three churches and several shelters were hit, in addition to numerous homes.
 Three hotels and a movie theatre also were hit.

Miss 'Laneous' Notes

By MARY WHALEY
 This time of year when mercury does a jitterbug up the thermometer, there is a great mystery in life to be solved. What did we wear this time last year?
 Reason assures us that we were bound to have worn something but we can't find it. Looking over the stock of summer whites and cottons left from last year, we think surely we wouldn't have worn those things!
 That hat we knew made a glamour girl of us, is droopy and lifeless and reminds one of a costume get-up at a tacky party. Those shoes we danced a hundred miles in and were the epitome of comfort, now dangle on our feet, out of shape and worn.
 And that suit that we lived in because it was so pretty, is too short, too tight, definitely faded—looking like it was—lived in.
 We are positive that we had something else that we wore, but there is the little pile and no more to be found. Sometimes we wonder if we didn't throw things away. But it hardly seems logical to have thrown other things away and kept that pile of stuff!
 But then the thought suddenly occurs to us that this same scene has happened before. Last summer and the summer before that. Unless we are awfully fooled, it will happen again next year. Ain't it sad?

American Business Club Holds Fishing Trip Over Weekend

Still talking about the one that got away, members of the American Business club and guests returned home Sunday night from a two day fishing trip near Halls ranch.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Whittington, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Carnett, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cluck, Mr. and Mrs. Vorda Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Dunlap, Maurine Womack, and Billy Thomas.

No Vacancy For Pets Advertised

KANSAS CITY—Mrs. Leonard Painter's kindness to dumb animals has become a growing problem.
 She had one dog, but adopted another that strayed to her home with a hungry expression.
 Three tiny robins fell from their nest—they were nursed to full size and now refuse to leave.
 An alley cat wandered in and had a fine litter of kittens.
 Mrs. Painter has hung out the no vacancy sign.

Crane Used To Lift Hurt Man Off Roof

CHICAGO—Nicholas Callabrese, 19, a workman, fell on the roof of a foundry fracturing his pelvis.
 Fearful that carrying him down a ladder would add to his injuries, firemen employed the foundry's traveling crane with a 30 foot beam to lower him gently to an ambulance.

Friends of the Bride

—please note!

She'll get half a houseful of wedding presents, of course! Silver and glassware and blankets and home-making helps of all sorts. Grand gifts—just what she wanted!

But, she'll get some "white elephants," too—things she doesn't like and won't ever use. Don't let your gifts be in that group. Choose them with her needs and wants and interests in mind. Ask her for suggestions if you want to be certain sure to please.

You'll find other good suggestions right in this newspaper—in the advertisements. The stores are eager to help you find just the right thing, always—whether you're buying for the bride, for your family, for the house, or for yourself

It pays to follow the advertisements closely, every time you pick up this paper. They're here to help you make the right selections at a real money saving!

O'Daniel Attempts To Draw Voters From Both Camps

By ALEX LOUIS Herald Austin Bureau AUSTIN, June 2. — Will Mr. O'Daniel go to Washington?

Everybody here is asking that question—and wondering. Many are asking it in a spirit of levity, apparently not overly concerned whether or not the governor is promoted to the United States senate.

A surprisingly large number of legislators and other state officials assert in private conversation they want Mr. O'Daniel to go to Washington—to get rid of him.

One or two have dropped hints in capital circles that when he leaves Austin they will try to undo some of his "foolishness."

Only a few serious-minded observers are studying the vital question which one day may take the national spotlight while this country faces the threat of war.

That question is— "Will Mr. O'Daniel, if he goes to Washington, undertake to lead the appeasers, or will he accept the Roosevelt foreign policy?"

The question arises because Mr. O'Daniel is unpredictable no matter how many solemn promises he makes.

He promised to fight the sales tax, only to become its most ardent advocate in the form of a transaction tax.

He criticized deficit-spending, then sought a $28,000,000 appropriation from the deficit-ridden general revenue fund which would have bankrupted the state.

He condemned office-holders who run for other offices without resigning, suggested a bill to outlaw the practice, only to adopt the practice himself.

His record is filled with many other inconsistencies. All of which has prompted his critics to charge:

"Like Hitler, O'Daniel never keeps a promise and never fails to carry out a threat."

They say his promise to support the president is not worth the airwaves on which it floats.

They are afraid he will become the leader of the appeasers and use his magic radio voice to bewilder and confuse the people on the issue of war.

As for threats, Mr. O'Daniel has made two:

1. To purge members of congress who don't vote for his anti-violence bill. "If it isn't passed, friends, I'll call the honor roll of congress, like I called the honor roll in Texas, and there will be a lot more new faces in congress after the next election."

2. To break up the playhouse of the "petty politicians" in Washington. "I wonder," he said in a recent broadcast, "what it is they have covered up there that they don't want us common citizens to know about. . . . It looks suspicious to us."

Who will pay for his threat.

ened radio broadcasts to purge the congress? Certainly no friend of the president, because the president has pleaded for unity and is trying to dispel any reasons for doubt in the government.

But there are enough people in this country with money who would like to discredit Roosevelt and who would be willing to put up any amount necessary for Mr. O'Daniel to pursue his strategy of confusion to his heart's content.

And, as a U. S. senator, he could not be restrained.

The governor's attack on Cong. Lyndon Johnson, President Roosevelt's choice in the senate race, is bound to develop into personal animosity against the whole national administration before election day.

He has already charged that a combination of federal and state political machines are trying to keep him from going to Washington.

By the use of honeyed words for Roosevelt, at the same time kicking the president's friends in the pants, Mr. O'Daniel apparently is trying to draw votes from both camps.

That he is succeeding at least in lining up the anti-Roosevelt voters in Texas was borne out in the mail of Senator Joe Hill of Henderson shortly after he first accused O'Daniel of being an appeaser.

Senator Hill read two letters to the senate which he said were typical of the mail he is receiving. The first was from a man in Harlingen.

It said: "Permit me to thank you very kindly for the very high compliment you paid my friend, and my governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, when you placed him in the category of Wheeler, Nye and Lindbergh. . . . If we had had more of such men in our congress, they would not have tied our country to that wild jackass and then took the bridle off. . . ."

The other, from Dallas, was in similar vein. It said: "You handed our governor a great tribute in classing him with these men. . . . We need more Wheelers, Nyes and Lindberghs."

Senator Hill, arch critic of the governor, acknowledged that "very many excellent people" are supporting O'Daniel.

"Yet in his ranks today we find ardently supporting him and active on his behalf every appeaser, every pacifist, every un-American element in Texas," he said.

The English House of Lords has a red-bordered carpet marking the limits where a member may stand when addressing the gathering. It is believed to have been set in the days when men carried swords so that a safe distance would be allowed in case of altercations.

Weygand Talks Legislature With Petain

VICHY, UNOCCUPIED FRANCE, June 2. (AP)—General Maxime Weygand arrived here unexpectedly today by special plane from his command in North Africa to confer with Chief of State Marshal Petain.

The French military commander in North Africa rushed from the Vichy airport to Petain's headquarters at the Parc hotel.

After a wait of only a few minutes in an anteroom, he was greeted by General Laure, the marshal's chief personal aide, and ushered at once into Petain's private office.

Legislature Seems Stuck In Capitol

AUSTIN, June 2. (AP)—Shady lawns and cool patios at home apparently hold little weight with members of the 47th legislature.

As the general session which convened in January overcast weather entered its 140th day adjournment or recess plans had not crystallized.

Senate and house approved different ideas on the subject but neither saw fit to accept the other's.

The house voted to recess today and reconvene July 15. The senate followed with a June 3 sine die adjournment proposal.

Final approval of either plan, unless altered considerably, has become virtually impossible.

Much primary legislation remains unacted on. This includes major appropriation bills, all provision proposals and disposition of surplus money in the county and road district indebtedness fund.

None of these measures would become effective before Sept. 1 and they could be disposed of if the lawmakers voted to recess several weeks and return to the capitol a few days before the next fiscal year begins.

However, an immediate recess would be blocked by a wide range of purely mechanical details which await completion.

Unlike many preceding legis-

tures the 47th disposed of its most vexing problems relatively early in the session. With normal adjournment time at hand work slowed measurably but interest in final adjournment never reached a show-down stage.

There are several probable reasons behind the apparent indifference to adjournment and recess suggestions.

Some members contend there is no need to quit. Others point to numerous vetoes by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, some of which have been overridden by the legislature. They suggest more vetoes might be in the offing and unless the legislature stays in session there can be no review of the governor's disapprovals.

Further, several important appointments are pending in the senate which has the privilege of rejecting or confirming the governor's nominees. If the senate refused to confirm any or all of these the governor would have to submit others and the business could go on indefinitely.

STEEERS RATES CHEERS—Some 25,000 fans cheered tow-headed Les Steers (above) of Oregon when he broke the world's high jump record by belly-rolling over the bar at 6 feet 10 1/2 inches at Los Angeles coliseum recently. His former mark was 6 feet 10-25/32 inches made at Seattle the previous month. How simple it looks, done by an expert.

IT DIDN'T COUNT—Though his friend below strained, too, Cornelius Warmerdam failed to clear the bar set at 15'4" at the Los Angeles coliseum. Last year Warmerdam of the Olympic club soared over the bar at 15 feet 1 1/2 inches.

TRAVELS, TOO—Almost as much traveled as the First Lady is Malvina Cynthia Thompson (above), secretary to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and a com-panion on most of her many trips. She has long been called "Tommy" by Roosevelt family.

CAME TO RIGHT PLACE—After two years of yearn-ing for a wad of chewing gum, these refugees from Europe arrived in New York and had no trouble gratifying their want. ## Local Riders Trim Lamesa Blacks, 9-4

Big Spring's poloists went back into action with a bang yesterday at Lamesa, defeating that city's Blacks, 9-4.

Local riders had the affair pretty much their own way throughout, high light of the game being put on by Big Spring's Lloyd Wasson's red-hot-minded mount.

All the Big Spring club took a scoring ring. Doctor M. H. Bennett backed up two, Lloyd Wasson grabbed off three, Lewis Rix chalked up one, and Gus White, Jr., Lamesa player competing under Big Spring colors, put across three shots.

On the Lamesa scoring sheet, Spencer Barron marked a pair of tallies, Sol Cleveland and Lyn Parkinson took one each.

Next Sunday the Big Springers are slated to vie with a Lubbock quartet. Monday morning, Dr. Bennett said he did not know definitely where the contest would be handled but he had an idea Lubbock would be the site of battle.

Lookin' 'em Over

WITH JACK DOUGLAS

"On again, off again, on again Finnigan"—so goes the jingle and so goes the Big Spring Bombers. Having dropped into second-place in West Texas-New Mexico baseball league standing by a mere fractional part of a game, the Bombers took a hitch in their pants, said to heek with these bruises, aches, pains, etc. and played themselves one whole of a ball game to top their especial Nemesis, Lamesa's Loboes.

Borger's 7-4 loss to Amarillo gave Bomber stock a boost to its previous standing, and, if nothing happens today, the local crew is scheduled to stay atop the heap—by a shaky part of a game.

Al Zigelman, Bomber catcher, is scheduled to take a rest for a few days to give his right wing a chance to get over its ailing spell. Having jerked a muscle near the outside peak of his upper arm, Al has been having a bit of trouble pegging the ball to second and third when a bit of larceny is on the hook.

Sunday morning the stocky Bombardier had his arm mangled up under a lamp and the one treatment seemed to do part of the job.

"With this arm of mine like it is, they can steal my eyes out," was Ziggy's complaint.

Manager Jodie Tate affirmed Sunday that he was trying to get a lad to take Ziggy's place on the roster for a few days. Right now, he has two prospects but nothing definite.

As yet, nothing definite has been done about getting summer tennis competition underway, although a bit of groundwork has already been indicated. With the return of all college students, net business is slated to start booming.

Who says this West Texas-New Mexico league doesn't have its high spots. Clovis, the club that tangles with Big Spring tonight in the opening of a two-game series, lost yesterday to Pampa, 1-0, but only after 13 long, hard stanzas had been put on the boards.

Sammy Sain Beats M. K. House, 2-up To Win 1st Flight

Herman Stewart led Jake Morgan 2 and 1 at the end of the first 18 of a scheduled 36 holes Sunday for championship of Big Spring's first annual city golf tournament at the Muny course. The match is scheduled to be brought to a close today, Harold Akey, Munny pro, said Monday morning.

In the first flight division, Sammy Sain ruled supreme, having rolled over M. K. House, 2 up, in yesterday's finale.

Third flight competition has yet to be completed. Sunday, Dr. R. O. Beadles, rapped Bill Tate, 4 and 3, and Bernard Lamun trimmed Ray Godfrey, 4 and 2.

Opening tussle of championship consolation rounds was taken Sunday by Shirley Robbins when he triumphed over Gene Gardner, 3 and 1.

In the second flight consolation listings, Novis Womack beat Matt Harrington, 4 and 3, and C. W. Cunningham nudged Speedy Nugent, 4 and 2. Cunningham and Womack are matched for a bit of divotting this week.

With the completion of the meet, all entrants, losers and winners, will be guests at a trophy-awarding dinner, Akey announced. As yet, trophies have not appeared on the scene, but Akey said he expected them without too much delay.

Homer Garrison Recognized For Police Work

AUSTIN, June 2—Rapidly gaining recognition as a leader in Texas' efforts to assist in national defense, State Police Director Homer Garrison, Jr. today had undertaken two new internal security tasks.

As chairman of the state advisory committee of the Highway Traffic Advisory Committee to the War Department, he announced that a statewide survey of commercial vehicles and buses is underway to provide immediate facilities for the movement of troops and materials should an acute emergency occur.

L. S. Harris, secretary of the highway traffic advisory committee to the war department, made him chairman of the national enforcement committee of the motor vehicle administrators association, and immediately Garrison began contacting state police heads throughout the nation to lay the groundwork for a national plan of controlling traffic, both military and civilian, in case of an all-out war effort.

In addition Garrison has been cooperating closely with FBI men in organizing against fifth column activities and recently won national recognition for drastically cutting down traffic tolls around Abilene and Mineral Wells during army camp construction.

Major Loops Have Mix-up Of Top Clubs

Dodgers Nip Cards, 3-2, To Move Into First Place Tie

By The Associated Press

Miss Secretary, when you finish figuring out how the top of both big leagues got so scrambled during the week-end, please take a letter to Mr. James Joseph Dykes, sere of the Chicago White Sox, first place, American baseball league:

"Dear Jimmy: We see by the papers you're right up there at the head of the parade today. Nice going, pal, but you better give those old legs of yours a shot in the arm and come back to work. That is, if you want that American league pennant, you'd better come off that retired lid and try to put a cork in your infield.

"You split with the Senators yesterday, blowing the first, 3-2, and taking the nightcap, 4-3, in 11 innings. Except for some extra-special stuff by those Fancy Dams in your infield, you might have won both ends to really take a toe-hold on first place, instead of barely getting a grip on a one-percentage-point edge."

Having disposed of that business, we can turn our undivided attention to the celebration over on the banks of the Gowanus in Brooklyn. The Dodgers nipped the collapsing Cardinals, 3-2, yesterday to climb into a first-place tie with St. Louis in the National league.

The Tride absorbed 2-0 and 5-3 thumpings from the Yankees to run their losing streak to four straight. The Boston Red Sox moved into fourth place and dropped Detroit all the way to sixth by trouncing the Tigers twice. Jimmy Fox's two-run homer went a long way toward winning the opener, 7-6. A run in the ninth decided the free-for-all nightcap, 6-5. The amazing Athletics turned in 5-2 and 5-3 victories over the Browns behind steady hurrying by Bump Hadley and Phil Marchland.

The 400th homer of Mel Ott's 17-year career led the New York Giants to a 3-2 win over the Cincinnati Reds in the first game of their double bill, but Junior Thompson's eight-hit fling gave the Rhinelanders the after-piece by an identical score.

The Chicago Cubs bounced the Phillies, 9-5 in their opener, and then took the nightcap, 1-0.

Sea Scouts Meet ABC, NYA Tonight To Close Regular Half Of Loop

First part of the deciding phase in Minor city softball competition is scheduled for tonight as the last game of the first half is played. The Sea Scouts, currently number three in the standings, with the Lions first and American Business Club second, have a chance to either turn the show into a deadlock between them and the Lions or to give ABC undisputed claim to a draw with the Felines. Either way it is figured, the loop is deadlocked for first place.

British Ships Must All Go Around Cape

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—War developments of the past week, notably the fall of Crete and Vice Premier Admiral Darlan's alignment of France with the axis, have virtually eliminated the Mediterranean as a link between Britain and the Middle East, qualified observers here said today.

Yet Britain, counting on United States help, must dispatch vast tonnage in munitions to the Middle East to bolster the defenses of the Suez Canal, they said. Suez has become primarily an outlet for British ships in the eastern Mediterranean.

To reach Suez now, they went on, British shipping, to the virtual exclusion of the Mediterranean route, must go around Africa's Cape of Good Hope. This route has been used more and more in recent times as the battle of the Mediterranean developed.

Even fast warships, observers here said, likely are to find transit of the 1,900-mile length of the land sea hazardous. There are two dangerous bottlenecks in the middle.

Both of these danger zones, the 200-mile wide stretch between Crete and Libya and the 100-mile expanse between Sicily and Tunisia, clearly are vulnerable to attacks from swarms of axis planes, particularly the German dive-bombers.

A quick German attempt to invade Britain's easternmost Mediterranean island stronghold of Cyprus and demands for Turkey either to join the axis pact or permit the passage of naval armored divisions were predicted today by the British as they counted the cost of their 12-day defeat in Crete.

"Slightly more than 15,000 empire forces were declared officially yesterday to have been withdrawn from Crete to Egypt to fight again in the steadily-unfolding battle for the Suez Canal.

Surplus Food List For June Is Announced

Surplus foods which will be available during the June 1 through 30 period to families taking part in the food stamp plan in the Big Spring, Howard county area, were announced today by Robert M. Moss, stamp plan representative.

These are the surplus foods available at local stores in exchange for the blue surplus food stamps.

Fresh cabbage and snap beans have been added to the list of foods which will be available nationally during June, while butter and fresh carrots, obtainable during May in all areas, are not included on the June list.

With these revisions, the complete list of blue stamp foods for June in all stamp plan areas, is as follows: fresh grapefruit, oranges, apples, cabbage, snap beans, Irish potatoes, raisins, pork lard, all pork (except that cooked or packed in metal or glass containers), corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, wheat flour, and whole wheat (graham) flour.

Lamesa Shaded, 3-2, In Series Finale Sunday

Big Spring's Bombers returned to the rarified air atop the West Texas-New Mexico baseball league here Sunday afternoon, hammering out a 3-2 victory over Lamesa's Loboes, the team that knocked them off the top of the perch Saturday night. Big Spring now has half-game lead on its nearest rival, Borger, 7 to 4 losers to Amarillo Sunday.

Willard Ramsdell had knucks on the Lamesa sluggers' but not until four hits had been chalked on the board. Arroyo Bombers blasted D. B. Trees from the mound in the fourth but not until four hits had been chalked on the board. Arroyo and his hopping curve chunk kept the proceedings pretty well in hand during the remainder of the fracas, although Al Zigelman, catcher, tripled in the fourth on a centerfield shot.

Tonight is Ladies' Night as Big Spring opens a two game series against the Clovis Pioneers here at 8:30. All women will be admitted free of charge although they will be required to pay the nominal federal tax. Manager Jodie Tate said he would likely bill each Monday and Saturday night for on-the-house attendance by the women.

Bob Kobout takes the mound tonight for the first time since he ran into a bunch of trouble in the closeout game in Lamesa Thursday night. Bob is moving nearer to super-company with a string of strikeouts that is slated to be listed in the top bracket.

Grover Selts, known as Big Spring baseball follows as one of the old heads who performed in the old West Texas league, has just recently taken the helm of Clovis' storm-ridden circuit waza Selts played for Big Spring in 1929.

Playing before a near capacity crowd, Big Spring's J. L. Haney, left field, and first man at bat in the Bombers' initial trip to the plate, ripped out a two-base hit into the right field area. Haney romped for the tally on a throwout of Hayden Greer, short stop, from second-baseman Eddie Guynez to first-baseman and Pilot Sam Sealing.

On the Lamesa side of the ledger, Marshall Brown, centerfielder, grabbed a flitful single in the opening frame but the side was retired on a putout by Greer.

With Hank Poltras, third-base man, killed off at first, Pete Zmitrovich, centerfielder, turned on an extraordinary burst of speed to beat out a short infield wallop and land on first with a hit to his credit. Pete advanced on a single by Art Shilling, second, second baseman, swiped third and stroled across for the Bombers' second count when Areea gave Ramsdell and Haney passes in succession.

Third and last score was marked up for the Big Springers in the third stanza when Greer walked to first, moved to second on a pass given Mel Reeves, Bombers' new West Coast outfielder recruit, and charged across for the tally on a single by Poltras.

After Zigelman's triple in the fourth canto, Big Spring finished up the course without getting another hit.

Ramsdell did a first-class bit of runner watching in the fourth inning when he shot the ball to Eddie Stevens as first to kill off Kirby Jordan, on with a base hit.

Record Score Predicted For Nat'l Open

FORT WORTH, June 2 (AP)—The Colonial club course, over which the 48th U. S. Open golf championship will begin on Thursday, is the "youngest" course on which the oldest open tourney in the country ever has been played.

To the advance forces of the 178-man field which will seek the title, it also appears to be somewhat of an enigma.

There could be no sharper cleavage in opinion than there is on the question of how this 7,088-yard course, is going to play.

Half of the experts, including Horton Smith, Paul Runyan, and Dick Metz, say a final score of 285, five over par, will look very good. The other half, including Defending Champion Lawson Little, Craig Wood and Jug McSpaden, feel that a man who hits a hot streak for four rounds is going to better Ralph Guldahl's championship record of 281 and may do it by as much as six or seven strokes.

Each side has potent arguments. The 285 contingent points to the narrow fairways and the matted rough, clumped trees, ravines and gullies which border them. They stress the toughness of the four par-3 holes, two of almost 300 yards, all carry over bends of the Trinity River, the others 237 and 250) and the fact that there of the par 4's are 469, 468, 465 yards— "overgrown par 4's" as Horton Smith calls them.

The boys who say the winner will be an all-time record-breaker argue that narrow fairways never stopped a good pro when he's in stride and that, while the above holes are tough, there are at least seven on which birdies shouldn't be hard to get.

O'Daniel To Take Stump This Week

By The Associated Press

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel will make his first "stump speech" of the general campaign at Waco tonight with only 26 days left to appeal for votes which other major candidates have been seeking for weeks.

Since O'Daniel belatedly announced his bid in the ring with 26 others aspiring to the U. S. senate seat of the late Morris Sheppard, he has held his campaign to a week of what he called "pre-campaigning" over the radio.

There was the prospect that O'Daniel's starting his rally speeches might set off some fireworks. There was already some name-calling. Attorney General Gerald Mann said at Tyler Saturday that now is "no time for Americans to fiddle while London burns."

Cong. Lyndon Johnson has challenged a statement by O'Daniel that the governor is a Roosevelt supporter. Johnson claims administration support.

The candidates mapped a strenuous week.

Air Blows Tools Up In Mitchell Well

Roaring with a force that hurled tools up the hole and damaged derrick and machinery, a new and heavier volume of air estimated up to 50,000,000 cubic feet daily, was encountered in a wildcat test six miles west of Colorado City Sunday.

The test, Lockhart, Robbins & Dockrey Willbanks Bros. No. 1 Core Hoyt Brown, logged the big air at 985 feet after going through a shell strata in solid rock salt which had held from 640 feet where first air and some inflammable gas had been checked.

Operators said force of the air blew 6,000 pounds of tools up the hole and at times they bobbed at the mouth of the surface pipe. The line was parted, arms broken off the spudder, and the crown-block damaged.

It appeared Monday that there was no choice but to wait until the volume decreased before resuming operations. The air current was comparable to that of the Westbrook & Graham No. 6 Great West, just east of Coan's refinery near Big Spring, some five years ago.

Location of the wildcat is about seven miles southeast of the old Westbrook pool in western Mitchell county. It is 995 feet from the north and 467 feet from the east line of section 45-37, T&P.

Baylor Graduates Hear John Lee Smith

WACO, June 2 (AP)—State Senator John Lee Smith today told Baylor University's largest graduating class that "nothing that you and I have been taught to regard as sacred and holy has been free from the violence of these mad fiends of hell that flaunt the false cross of Nazism upon the horizon of history."

Senator Smith then challenged the class to be Americans—"The noblest and perhaps the hardest task ever given to the hands of youth."

Three hundred and forty-nine seniors were given diplomas by President Pat M. Neff in the Waco Hall exercises. One hundred and thirty-five others will receive degrees at the Dallas schools of the university tonight.

County Can Make Investment Encouraging Conservation

Roads and fields are two vital problems for any county. Although they seemingly are in two different spheres as concerns their solution, in reality they are closely knit. The solving of the field problem may be the means of alleviating the pressure on the road situation.

Chapter 34 Too Much Money Eileen only said, "I don't understand." Martin said sharply, his face and eyes still brilliant with excitement, "Because crazy chances are the only adventures I have left to me. My father and grandfather spent their lives in the biggest excitement of their times, the fight up through industry. My money's carefully earned in a sound trust, turn the handle and the income pours out. They want to save me trouble! My mother look one of the few ways a high-powered executive's wife had to keep from being swept under by his sheer drive. She went in for causes. She's copped 'em all off, suffrage, pacifism. I could trail round as her lieutenant, but I'm like the man in the musical comedy. I don't take orders well."

Dorothy Thompson Says— Roosevelt Fireside Chat Was Masterpiece Of Style, Proving To Be Entirely Effective

Much will have been written about the president's address before this column appears. I should like to call attention, therefore, to only one aspect of it: Its style. In the last decade we have been treated, or subjected, to floods of oratorical, stirring orations, denunciations, rancorous debate. We have listened to the roars and the menaces. Across the oceans Hitler's blare has sounded, and Churchill's silver scorn.

Mexican Found Dead In Jail

COLORADO CITY, June 2 (Sp) Dorio Preto, 56-year-old Mexican, who was charged at Colorado City with incest and at Stanton with murder of his 15-year-old daughter's infant, was found dead in his cell in the Mitchell county jail early Saturday morning. Balded strips from his blanket had been used to fashion a noose, which was fastened to the window bars.

A grid of comic strips including 'Blondie', 'Barney Google', 'Little Annie', and 'O.K. Doaks'. Each strip contains several panels with dialogue and illustrations. For example, in 'Blondie', Blondie says 'MAMA TOLD ME TO KEEP TRACK OF THE NUMBER OF TIMES YOU PUSHED THE BABY AROUND THE BLOCK' and 'HOW MANY TIMES SO FAR?'.

For Martin's sake she mustn't make a scene. Get it over and go. She sat down. "You can't plan to waste much time on Martin," Caroline pursued quietly, "you must want to get back that that Greek florist who's your sweetie." Eileen said, "If you know Aristotle liked me, you must know too that I didn't like him." "That's very true, Eileen, Martin took a chance with you, and lost. You began, being bright, by picking up what I said, that a woman has a chance to court a man and have him take it, just like the other way about. I'd heard the Bible have been printed.

Edith Willason say it a dozen times, of course, Martin fell for it. Just one more crazy sporting proposition to amuse the door little rich boy. He's a pushover for them, however you know it. And dumb luck, and being small enough to be able to, made you take the only other line he was a pushover for. You took the kind of risk he takes himself. And I, all knocked out, the fool, weeping into a tree instead of registering heroism! Well, skip that. Didn't mean to get excited. Here's the nub. You want out, with enough to make your time worth while. I want you out, so does Martin. So for goodness sake let's out the conventional line and get at it."

Eileen tried to speak, but Caroline interrupted her. "You're getting me wrong. I'm not blaming you. Any hard-up girl with wits would have done what you did—with a rick-off out of nine millions that means a night-club spot, and prosperity for life with your good-looking Greek boy. But I don't want to wait. You might consider my side of it; it's simply rotten publicity under the circumstances. You might be decent and not stall any longer."

"Apparently nothing can make you believe I'm in love with Martin and want to stay married to him, so I won't try," Eileen said. "But the answer is No, and never dare to speak to me about it again. Now scream if you like," Eileen said, smiling as conventionally as Caroline had. "Thanks for the party."

"But it took all she had to thread her way through the tables, down and out to where the car waited. To Be Continued."

Texas Citizens Rush To Aid When Bomber Needs To Land

PARIS, June 2. —Three U. S. army fliers are thankful that citizens of this northeast Texas town have a certain amount of curiosity and can put two and two together.

Major R. W. Holderness, Capt. E. R. Plummer and Sgt. R. D. Bowman, returning from Denver to Barkdale Field, La., in their B10 bomber, wanted to get out of heavy weather last night but they needed a spot to land.

It was raining and the ceiling was low. They circled above the town for above 15 minutes and dropped two flares.

Lloyd Darmon, manager of the Municipal airport, spotted a flare from his bedroom window, rushed to the field, which is not equipped with landing lights. He started blinking lights in an effort to attract the fliers' attention.

Darmon said there was no organized effort to summon automobile owners but that from 80 to 100 drivers who heard the plan and saw the flares knew something was up and headed for the airport.

The automobiles were parked so the lights outlined the field, the bomber circled, then came in with one motor throttled back due to vibration. The ship shot across the short field and ripped down a wire fence.

The fliers were not injured and Major Holderness said the plane was not damaged.

Chrysler dealers and distributors and their employees in sales, office and service departments chipped in and bought the first M3 28-ton medium tank turned out by Chrysler Corporation as a gift to the United States Army. Presentation ceremonies at the Chrysler Tank Arsenal, Detroit, were attended by a large number of civilian and army leaders. K. T. Keller, president of Chrysler Corporation, introduced Harry Somers, of Atlanta, chairman of the contributors' committee, who presented the tank to Major General C. M. Wescom, Chief of Ordnance, U. S. Army. Here are members of the committee and officials of the Chrysler Sales Division, Chrysler Corporation, grouped around the gift tank. Standing on the ground, left to right—Whitney Leary, Washington; President David A. Wallace, Harry Somers, Atlanta; Earl E. Wilson, Sales Director; Mark Feder, Cleveland. Left to right above—Walter E. Moran, Garfield, N. J.; K. B. Brown, Detroit; L. M. Stewart, St. Louis; Arthur H. Jones, Hastings, Nebraska; O. D. Wearley, Toledo; Ernest Dowd, Cleveland; Al DeCosen, Newark, N. J.; Walter Shirley, Minneapolis, and Charles L. Jacobson, vice-president in charge of sales.

Christian Science Board Asks Church To Defend Democracy

BOSTON, June 2.—Some 6,000 Christian Scientists from many parts of the world gathered in annual meeting today in Boston were called upon by The Christian Science Board of Directors to consecrate themselves to the defense of the democratic system of government as the best human instrument for preserving the basic rights of mankind to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

In thus definitely allying this world-wide religious movement with the defenders of democracy everywhere, the directors stated that it was their conviction that if social and political freedom is to be preserved "democratic forms of government must be maintained."

The occasion for the stirring message of the directors was the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The directors stated: "We are moved not by a desire to voice our own views, but to let the world know that we share with our leader, Mary Baker Eddy, her confidence in the immortality of the sentiment expressed in the Declaration of Independence that 'man is endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'"

Continuing the directors said: "The preservation and incorporation of these fundamental elements of true democracy in the basic law of every nation is a cause to which all Christians are morally committed, and which we as Christian Scientists are determined to defend."

"This cause, it must be understood, is primarily religious in character and involves something more, much more, than a mere political question. It is, in fact, nothing less than the sacred cause of religious freedom and individual salvation to which the Master himself committed all believers in the Christian faith almost two thousand years ago. In the fulfillment of that obligation we must not and we will not falter."

Referring to the aggressive forces in action today throughout the world, the directors pointed out that "history plainly teaches that when a nation chooses to ignore God and to make matter the foundation stone of its government, such nation commits its cause to failure, and at the same time provides the means for its ultimate defeat and undoing."

Incoming President
The directors also announced the election of John Randall Dunn of Boston and Centerville, Mass., as president of The Mother Church for the ensuing year. The chief duty of the president is to preside at the annual meeting.

The new president is the son of James Randall Dunn, long identified with the United States immigration service. He is a native of Massillon, Ohio, receiving his schooling there and in San Francisco and from private tutors. For a few years he was in the service of the government, but gave up his work for the healing ministry of Christian Science. He has served this movement many years in a large variety of positions including First Reader of The Mother Church and as a Christian Science lecturer, during which he carried the message of Christian Science into all parts of the world.

Cotton Congress Will Study New Uses Of Lint

WACO, June 2. (Sp.)—Acting to end the sad spectacle of a declining cotton economy, the second annual cotton research congress, to be held here June 26 to 28 at the Roosevelt hotel, will be designated to focus attention upon the new uses for Texas' greatest agricultural product, Burris C. Jackson, of Hillsboro, chairman of the state-wide cotton committee of Texas, said here today.

The present uses and future expanded utilization of cotton in the national defense program will be the theme of the congress. Eight years of cotton confusion, lost markets and disappointing cash income may be alleviated to a great extent by the introduction of new uses for cotton, Jackson said, adding that the congress is calculated to focus wide-spread attention upon the new uses of cotton.

At the congress, Jackson pointed out, the entire cotton situation will receive critical attention by competent students of its problems to the end that the industry may be reoriented in the direction of solvency and stability. Some of the most eminent scientists and researchers in the United States are scheduled to deliver addresses and lead discussions at the congress.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK, June 2. (AP)—Lack of any real stock market liquidation today, in the face of a generally cheerless war news budget, combined with a little bidding here and there to hearten bullish forces.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, and Republic Steel did fairly well as this week's mill operations bounded from a mild holiday let-down. Ahead most of the time were N. Y. Shipbuilding, Newport News Shipbuilding, Cerro De Pasco, Chesapeake & Ohio, American Telephone, Chrysler, Phillips Petroleum, Westinghouse, Eastman Kodak and Montgomery Ward.

Consolidated Edison, Pacific Gas and Atlantic Refining slipped to new 1941 lows. Consolidated Aircraft touched a new year's high.

Wool Market

BOSTON, June 2. (USDA)—Very few inquiries were received for wool by Boston houses today. Asking prices were unchanged compared with last week and they were firm despite the quiet demand. Some houses were asking 48 cents in the grease, for combing 3-8ths and one quarter blood average bright fleece wools but demand was very slow at 48 to 47 cents, in the grease. Nominal quotations ranged approximately one dollar to $1.05 for scoured basis. Fine territory wools in original bags.

From the American Institute of Laundering comes a little note that Effie the Moth, annually consumes wool mufflers, blankets, sweaters, etc., to the tune of $200,000,000 annually. While the institute proposes doing something about Effie, we propose they teach her to eat cotton goods. The National Cotton Council would give a pretty far her.
