CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ELECTION TO GIVE STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION CONTROL OF ROADS IN TEXAS MAY YET BE HELD

BRYAN SOUNDS BATTLE CRY OF NEXT CAMPAIGN

Declares Certain Issues, Domestic and International, Will Be in Foreground.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 7.—William J. Bryan, “dean of Bourbon,” today sounded what many political leaders regard as the initial democratic battle cry for the 1924 political campaign.

Bryan, in an exclusive interview with the United Press, declared that the coming congress must eliminate rum with an effective remedy and that other issues will be the deplorable conditions of the farmers, a tribunal to settle differences between capital and labor and suppression of the profiteers, who are the chief obstacles to prosperity.

Besides these, he said, there will be matters of law enforcement and legislation of international scope that are entirely outside the domestic situation and are becoming so acute it will be impossible to ignore them.

Will Ask 25 Firms for $50.00 Each to Finance Ball Club

J. C. Smith, chairman of the committee to raise $1,500 for the financial operation of the Ranger Snappers for the rest of the season, said yesterday that he was delayed in getting started the committee plans for subscribing the money as Gus Coleman, a member of the committee, has been out of the city. He expects to get started Monday.

The plan is to seek 25 firms and individuals who will contribute $50 each. Fans, who may want to contribute a small amount, say $5 or $10, will be called upon if the committee is not able to raise the amount expected from business firms.

It will be collected at one time. Smith believes in finding out at the start if a club will have the support of the public.

He was president of the Ranger (West Texas league) baseball club last year, which at the conclusion of the season had $1,000 in the treasury. The club, while not self-supporting, taking in about enough while home to meet current expenses for the 15-day stay at home, was supported to the extent of about $1,000 each month for the 15-day stay away from home.

GERMAN PHYSICIANS PROTEST AGAINST THE NATIONAL RESTRICTIONS

BY CARL D. GROAT,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, July 7.—German physicians and surgeons are angered at the national restrictions against passes for foreigners desirous of having treatment here.

The have registered with the foreign office serious objection to the restrictions, saying that their profession is suffering from this discrimination, while many foreigners are gathering an unfavorable impression of the government methods.

They likewise complain that export taxes on medical and other books are harming the reputation of the once highly regarded German medical world. Instead, France and England are now selling medical works to foreign customers, say doctors, and in this way Germany is losing a source of proper propaganda.

The walls of the doctors are in line with other similar regrets from other sources, namely, Germany is beginning to rue its impolite and grasping treatment of the stranger within its gates the past summer.

Leaders in Movement to Effect Change in Law Insist That Plans for Special Election on Fourth Saturday in July Will Not Be Abandoned.

Plans for holding a special election the fourth Saturday in July to decide a constitutional amendment providing for a state system of roads will be carried out despite the ruling of Attorney General Keeling made at Austin Saturday that the election would be unconstitutional. This statement was made Saturday afternoon by W. T. Wheeler, manager of the Texas Highway association, and one of the leaders in the effort to carry the amendment.

Keeling held that failure to publish the proposed amendment within the constitutionally required time is fatal to its adoption and that an election on the subject would be null and void.

Acting Governor Davidson will be advised by the legal department to recall the proclamation issued by Governor Neff calling the special election, according to dispatches received from Austin.

“The governor has called the election and his proclamation directing that counties make preparations for the voting has been carried out,” Wheeler declared. “The matter will be referred to attorneys for the highway association and we are going right ahead—working in interest of the amendment. I don’t believe the attorney general’s decision will halt the election.”

The amendment if it carries in an election, would give the legislature authority to create, operate, and maintain a state highway system.

Attorney General Keeling held that the provision of the constitution requiring that a proposed amendment to the constitution shall be duly published once a week for four weeks commencing at least three months before an election is mandatory and can not be ignored and the required notice can not be dispensed with. It is also pointed out that the time can not be extended because the date for the election as fixed in the proposed highway amendment had not been published as required by the constitution.

The opinion was given to the secretary of state and state highway commission.

AVIATOR DEFERS HIS COAST-TO-COAST FLIGHT

MINEOLA, N. Y., July 7.—Bad weather in the Rocky mountain region today caused Lieut. Russell L. Maughan, army aviator, again to postpone the “hop-off” of his proposed coast-to-coast one-day flight.

“The ‘hop-off’ will be made the first day of perfect coast-to-coast weather next week,” Lieutenant Maughan said.

SALVATION ARMY CAPTAIN MISSING; SEARCH STARTED

SHERMAN, July 7.—A search was started today for Capt. L. H. Crossland, in charge of the Salvation Army post in Sherman. He disappeared from his home in this city last Saturday afternoon at 2 o’clock.

OFFICIAL FAILS TO DO HIS DUTY SAYS CRAWFORD

President of Texas Highway Association Blames Special Election Muddle on State.

WACO, July 7.—Failure to advertise the election on the constitutional amendment, ruled by the attorney general today as making that election null and void, is no fault of the Texas Highway association or of the state highway department, W. W. Crawford, president of the Texas Highway association, said today when he read the attorney general’s ruling.

“If the provisions of this law have not been complied with,” he said, “it is the fault of the machinery of the government charged with carrying out the mandate of the legislature. The date of the election is fixed by the legislature for July 28 and it was the duty of somebody in official position to track the law.”

Mr. Crawford said that the meeting of the Texas Highway association Monday and Tuesday would in no wise be affected by later developments; that the program would be carried out as scheduled.

French Deputies Vote Approval of Naval Holiday Pact

PARIS, July 7.—The Chamber of Deputies tonight gave formal approval to the 5-5-3 naval holiday pact drawn up 20 months ago after a debate that at times reached fever heat, the vote being 460 to 106.

France was the last of the five nations to ratify the treaty of the arms limitation conference, but the ratification will not be complete until the senate has also voted on the question.

By this action France aligns itself with other signatories to the treaty, the United States, Great Britain, Italy and Japan having already signified approval of the naval pact.

‘WHIPPING BOSS’ FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE

LAKE CITY, Fla., July 7.—T. W. Higginbotham, “whipping boss” in the convict camp at Clara, late tonight by a jury here was found guilty of the murder of Martin Tabert of North Dakota.

The jury, after deliberating 25 minutes, found Higginbotham guilty of murder in the second degree, which carries a sentence of 20 years in the state penitentiary.

WOMAN HELD ON CHARGE OF KILLING HER HUSBAND

ANNISTON, La., July 7.—Mrs. Evelyn Mae Ricker collapsed today when ordered held on a charge of murdering her husband at the close of a preliminary hearing. She was still unconscious when the court fixed her bond at $3,000.

SPAIN DEFEATS JOHNSON AND WILL MEET TILDEN

CHICAGO, July 7.—Manuel Alonso Spain this afternoon defeated Wallace F. Johnson, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2, and will meet William D. Tilden, the present champion, tomorrow in the final go for the Illinois singles tennis championship. The Spaniard outplayed his adversary in every way.

Home Builders, Home Owners Needed in Ranger to Place This City in Forerank Among West Texas Cities; Churches, Schools and Business Are Here, the Pleasure of Home Ownership Will Enhance Their Value.

BY HARRY B. BOLTON
Own your own home.
To people of limited means—Do you want to possess something better than money in the bank, where it is always ready to be spent?
Do you want to improve your credit, financial position, self confidence and comfort.
Do you want to create the means to get, at any time, the money to start some business and be in position to ask for it as a business proposition and not as a humiliating favor?
Do you want to be independent, and give your family and friends a great example that some of them will follow after you do what they thought impossible to be done?
Do you want to show the earning capacity of a man combined with the investing ability of a good, sensible husband and father?
A rich man always owns a home.
Then buy a home.

Much praise is due the business men of Ranger who are behind a movement which will endeavor to encourage more home-owners. A city of home-owners is a city of prosperity that is bound to grow and keep right on growing.

It is the opinion of the majority of business men of Ranger, that if a plan can be worked out whereby the man of average means can own his own home, it will meet with tremendous success.

“There is no greater measure of good citizenship,” is the strong manner in which J. W. Sanders expressed his beliefs.

In discussing the advantages of home building and owning it must be remembered that the word home means more than just a lot with a house on it. The advantages of building and owning your own home are numerous, but in my judgment one of the important benefits is the stability home ownership adds to the community.

The home owner is usually more permanent in his neighborhood than one who rents. He takes a more active interest in all civic affairs; he is more solicitous for the peace, health and safety of his community. His influence for good is felt in society, in business, in religion and in public affairs.

When the lot is purchased and the young wife and husband spend hour after hour planning the details of the home, the happiness brought by the days of planning must be experienced to be realized. When the house is completed and the furniture moved in, the paint removed from the window panes, the polish burned off the new stove and the new broom broken in, then the work of “home building” begins in earnest.

Every day brings a new sense of joy, happiness and security.
There is a story of love and devotion twined around every tree, every vine and every porch post. Upon the home cherished by kindly deeds of self-denial the blessings of peace, happiness and contentment are sure to come. From the vine-covered doorway happy children with beaming countenances go tripping off to school in the morning and romping back in the evening. They, too, have an important place in the community, for in the happy years of childhood

ARMY OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO A. & M. COLLEGE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas July 7.—Changes in the military instructional staff of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college, together with unofficial information received here, indicates that a larger staff of regular army officers will be on duty at the college next year.

Five transfers from the staff have been ordered and four new assignments have been made to fill the vacancies. One other assignment is certain to be made and a sixth is expected.

New assignments here are Lieut. Col. F. T. Turner, Capt. J. T. Besse, Capt. Ralph Ware and Capt. M. M. Montgomery. The officers will report for duty in September.

The officers transferred from the college are: Maj. W. H. H. Morris, Jr., infantry, to Columbus Barracks, Ohio; Capt. L. A. Kurtz, field artillery, to Fort Sill School of Fire; Captains J. O. Tarbox and F. J. deRohan to Hawaii.

Two Officers of Navy Drown In Lake Erie

Lieut. L. J. Roth and His Aide, Lieut. T. D. Null, Contestants In Balloon Race, Lose Lives When Storm Drives Them Down Into Water. Their Bodies Are Not Recovered.

By Associated Press.
CLEVELAND, Ohio., July 7.—All hope that Lieut. John Roth and his aide, Lieut. T. D. Null or the navy balloon A-6098, which left Indianapolis on July 4 in the national elimination air race contest, were living, was abandoned today.

The crew of the tug Frank Stanley found the ill-fated aviators’ complete uniforms, leather coats, logs of the trip and charts entangled in the drifting, half-inflated balloon about 22 miles southwest of Port Arthur, Ont., about noon today.

On all sides the crew of the tug found mute evidence of the heroic struggle of the two men in mid-air. Evidently over-taken by terrific winds and electrical storms, Roth and Null fought desperately to throw off ballast and rise above the gale, but somehow the basket was ripped from the buffeted bag, which was found by the crew of the Stanley.

The log showed the aviators to have been sailing at a height of 800 and 900 feet before the storm engulfed them. Then comes the significant item:
“Forty pounds of ballast overboard and arose from 1,200 to 2,500 feet.” Later, there is just one word: “Broken.”

Entangled in the ropes attached to the basket was found the complete outfit of the aviators uniforms they must have doffed before they were separated from the bag.

A letter addressed by Roth and penciled on newspaper clippings was found.
“I’m headed for ———.” It was too blurred to decipher further, and scribbled on a newspaper found with the uniforms.

The tug came upon the wrecked balloon today after Capt. John J. Haskins of the steamer Colonial had notified parties at Port Arthur of its presence in the lake.

A clock that was a part of the balloon equipment was found with the aviators’ clothes. It had stopped at 2:44. Roth’s watch also found with the clothing, had stopped at 4:30 o’clock.

GIBBONS GIVEN GREAT OVATION IN HOME CITY; WILL GET BIG PURSE

ST. PAUL, July 7.—Tom Gibbons did not face Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship in vain, for his homefolks planned tonight to give him a purse of $20,000. The gift will probably be raised by popular subscription, according to the intentions of the committee. He will be tendered a banquet next week.

No president, king or other dignitary was ever accorded a greater welcome home than that which St. Paul gave Gibbons today. After 10,000 persons met him at the railroad station, he visited Governor Press at the state capitol, where 40,000 persons paid him a personal tribute.

It was during this demonstration that Gibbons told the United Press that James Daugherty would never be a referee again in a contest in which he fought. He said that Daugherty said nothing to Dempsey but cautioned Gibbons when either man violated the ring rules.

He said that if he met the “Colorado pile-driver” again he would win.

I. W. W. ORGANIZER IS REPORTED ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

AUSTIN, July 7.—Reports surrounding the alleged kidnaping and beating of James Holland, alleged I. W. W. organizer, at Port Arthur several days ago, has been asked by Acting Governor Davidson of Port Arthur officials as requested by the secretary of the Transport Workers’ organization in New York.

Holland is reported to have just left the hospital at Galveston, following treatment given him by Port Arthur citizens, it was said.

GOOD FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER AND GIVEN LONG PENITENTIARY SENTENCE

LUBBOCK, July 7.—Milt Good was found guilty of the murder of W. D. Allison, cattle inspector, by a jury this evening and given the penalty of 26 years in the state penitentiary.

The jury was out nearly 24 hours. Motion for a new trial will be filed, Good’s counsel announced. If this is overruled, the case will be appealed.

Goldfield All But Wiped From Map By Disastrous Fire

TONAPAH, Nev., July 7.—Smoking ruins are all that is left of Goldfield, Nev., the place where fortunes were made and lost, the scene of the last rush to the West. Reports reaching here today through persons who had visited the ruined city and refugees from the place show that it has all but been wiped from the map. Six business houses are all that are left in the business district.

Aid was sent today from Tonapah. Men went to help clear away the debris and search for the body of the woman believed to have been burned to death, the only person missing. Food, too, was sent for the relief of those who were burned out.

One of the first steps to encourage home building in Ranger will be the organization of a building and loan association, J. W. Sanders, chairman of the home ownership committee, which came into being Thursday night, said yesterday.

“We’re going to try and interest men from out of town to come here and help in its organization,” he said. The loan society will be given every opportunity to flourish and will be amply protected, he further said.

“Every person or nearly every one needs financial help to build his home,” he continued, “and we believe when we have such an organization here, there’ll be more houses going up.”

Sanders Saturday started mailing out letters to women’s clubs, churches and civic bodies of Ranger, in which he is asking for the opportunity to have one of his committee appear before their organization at the next meeting to explain what the committee wants to do.

One paragraph of the letter says: “We can not expect our home town to grow and prosper unless we build more homes and have more home owners. It is the purpose of the men behind this movement to work out some proposition whereby any man may become his own landlord by owning his own home and on a basis that will represent no more outlay than he is now spending for rent money.”

The letter closes with a familiar saying: “It takes a heap o’ living in a house to make it a home.”

When the first club sends in an acceptance of the request, a speaker will be detailed to address the organization and at his conclusion, he will call on the president to appoint a “live wire” to serve on the committee.

Sanders, who is a member of the firm of Sanders-Colegrove, hardware dealers, has a window display of framed pictures of numerous model homes. The firm has contracted for the service of the National Builders’ bureau at considerable expense.

National Builders’ bureau will furnish plans and specifications to the builder at a much lower cost than can be secured otherwise. An estimated cost of the lumber, paint and hardware is furnished the builder. Every item that enters into the construction of a house chosen by the prospective home owner is mentioned specifically in each building plan. The system has been worked out by experts in their lines, including contractors, architects and men who have construction material to sell.

STAR.—The $150,000 Starr county road bond issue has been sold and the money placed ready for early beginning on the work of building a road from the Hidalgo county line to the Zapata county line.

HUTCHISON, Kan., July 7.—The Fourth State bank, closed after Walter Grundy, its president, disappeared, may be reorganized, directors of the institution said today. A meeting of stockholders to discuss the situation has been called for July 17.

ELLIS COUNTY MAN HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, July 7.—A formal charge of murder was filed today in Justice of the Peace E. J. Moore’s court against J. F. Moore, a local furniture dealer, charging him with shooting C. M. Rowell of Fort Worth at a point in this county near Italy, at 2 o’clock Saturday morning.

HALL.—The county commissioners’ court has ordered road bond elections in two districts. The Estelline district will vote on $200,000 for the construction of roads, while the Turkey district is to vote on a $100,000 issue for the same purpose. The contemplated improvements will include work on the Colorado-Gulf highway in the southern part of the county.

Chief of Police Davenport Wearing Bright New Badge

Police Chief O. V. Davenport is resting easier these hot days. Yesterday he received his new badge with the words "chief of police, Ranger, Texas" on it. Upon receiving it, he immediately discarded a badge, which he has been wearing since becoming head of the police department.

"I'm glad to get this badge off," he explained to some visitors at the police station when the new badge arrived. "It was worn by Jordan the night he was killed."

"You're superstitious," said someone with a laugh.

"No, I'm not," the chief said sharply. "I don't care to wear it."

Alfred Jordan, a member of the Ranger police department, was killed in 1920 while making an arrest of a bunch of men who had been in a brawl. Jordan wore badge No. 17 on the fatal night.

SIX MEN CHARGED WITH TRYING TO LAND LIQUOR

GALVESTON, July 7.—Conspiracy to violate the United States prohibition act was charged in a complaint filed here today against four marine officers and two members of a boat crew, following seizure of three cases of liquor which local officers charged the men were trying to land from the steamship Invisible. Examining trial before U. S. Commissioner C. G. Gribbell has been fixed for next Monday.

According to local officers, an attempt was made early Friday to transfer the liquor from the steamer to a local pier, when officers surprised the men.

"RICHEST TOWN" MADE POOR BY ANNEXATION FIGHT

FORT WORTH, July 7.—Mayor W. S. Galloway of Niles City—"The Richest Town in the World"—admits the mayoralty job isn't the best in the land. Galloway is back at his old trade—druggist.

"You see, I'm still mayor of Niles City, but the city is so poor because of the annexation fight that we can't even burn the street lights. I haven't received my salary since the first of the year and I had to do something to get by," remarked Galloway as he bottled pills and served ice cream cones in his store.

The mayor formerly owned a drug store in his own Niles City.

He also expressed considerable relief at being out of politics for the present at least.

"Politics, you know, gets terrible sometimes," he confided.

BALKY MULE UNABLE TO RESIST TRACTOR PERSUASION

DALLAS, July 7.—As a self starter for balky mules modern science has gone old Dave Harum one better.

Recently on a construction job in the city one of the mules balked. His lack of progress held up the teams behind him.

After the driver of the team had exhausted his supply of expletives to no avail, a tractor was called into use and attaching a rope from the tractor to the tongue of the wagon the 40 horse-power was thrown into "high gear."

The mule braced and slid, but finding himself unable to resist this mechanical mule, finally gave in and trotted meekly along.

WILSON.—The commissioners' court has ordered a special election for July 15 to vote on a proposal to issue $200,000 bonds to construct a hard surfaced road from the Bexar to the Karnes county line.

ATTEMPT TO OVERCOME RADIO INTERFERENCE

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Interference by different radio transmitting stations, the bane of the radio operator's existence, may be largely eliminated as a result of a series of experiments conducted by physicians at the United States bureau of standards.

The experiments deal with two main factors, directional antennae for transmitting and receiving, and the use of exceedingly small wave lengths.

With few exceptions radio communication has been conducted on wave lengths of not less than 200 metres, and there has been comparatively little experimentation on shorter lengths. The bureau experimenters are using a wave length of only 10 metres.

The directional antennae used apply virtually the same principles involved in the searchlight. The waves from a small generating set are reflected by a parabolic reflector of hanging wires, and just as the searchlight sends a narrow beam of light in parallel lines for a long distance, so does the parabolic reflector collect and send out in almost parallel lines the radio impulses. At least 75 per cent of the radiated power is said to be confined to an angle of 40 degrees.

The apparatus as constructed is small, but strong signals have been received from it at a distance of two miles, using a single turn coil antenna six inches in diameter. The advantage of using short length waves is said to lie in the fact that short wave stations can be more easily "tuned out" than those employing lengths in the hundreds or thousands of metres.

COMIC OPERA DRAWING. BIGGEST BERLIN AUDIENCES

BERLIN, July 7.—Nettled by the epidemic of comic opera which is monopolizing Berlin theatres, the classic actors have organized a company and leased a theatre, which will be called the Actors' theatre and will present standard plays, the first of which will be Schillers "Robbers."

Twenty-four theatres in Berlin are now giving musical comedies, while scarcely half a dozen are presenting the spoken dramas; consequently there is great unemployment among the legitimate actors who cannot qualify for the musical productions.

Kelloggs Make One Million Packages of Cereals Daily

What would you think of a kitchen big enough to cook breakfasts for 10,000,000 good Americans every day? That's what you see when you visit the great factories of the Kellogg company at Battle Creek, Mich. In the summer season, when the demand is at its greatest height each day, more than 50 carloads of Kellogg products are shipped to every corner of the nation.

Kellogg company were the originators of toasted corn flakes and today the popularity of this wonderfully delicious cereal extends all over the civilized world.

Dainty and delicious cakes and cookies can be made with Kellogg cornflakes as follows:

CORN FLAKE COOKIES.
Two whites of eggs, beat stiff, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup cocoanut, 2 heaping cups Kellogg's cornflakes. Grease your pan and drop.

CORN FLAKE MACAROONS.
Three cups Kellogg's toasted corn flakes, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1-2 cup chopped nut meats. Whites of 2 eggs well beaten. Flavor with vanilla. Drop on greased, inverted tins and bake in a quick oven.

ON AND OFF STAGE MAKES BIG DIFFERENCE IN PARIS

PARIS, July 7.—Paris rarely offers objection to "atmosphere" as a costume for chorus girls, but some critics here recently have been generating large quantities of indignation over the appearance of young women in riding breeches along the Avenue du Bois.

"Self-respecting Parisians," protests one critic, "demand that the prefect of police put a stop to the brazen practice of women who want to attract attention. If the police do not interfere, the outraged public will."

The public, however, remains unmoved. "Crowds along the avenue watch amusedly the few women who prefer to ride astride in breeches and afterward get their 'land legs' back by a stroll along Paris' chief promenade."

Those who frown on the practice, its devotees retort, are usually very fat or very thin.

GREENVILLE.—Greenville motion picture shows are to be censored. The council has passed an ordinance providing for a censor board of five citizens who will inspect pictures before being displayed. Members must be 25 years old, citizens of Greenville five years, members of some established church and not opposed to motion pictures, under terms of the ordinance.

"HOME SWEET HOME."

ties of friendship are formed that last throughout a lifetime.

Improvements are made on the place from year to year, and in place of accumulating a great bundle of worthless rent receipts the homeowner usually finds that his property has increased in value and without any loss to himself he has enjoyed the satisfaction of living in peace and comfort in a real "Home, Sweet home."

Walt Mason had evidently just experienced the thrill of owning his own home, which inspired him to write the following lines:

I own my home, and life's a pome,
from outside to the center;
I'm full inside, of honest pride; I'm sorry for the renter.

I own my shack both front and back,
the kitchen and the porches;
And here I sit and feel I'm IT, and smoke my five-cent torches.

The tree and vines are strictly mine,
the concrete walks and hedges,
The elms and yews, old cans and shoes, the ax, the saw and wedges.

The house is old, the rooms are cold,
the roof is often leaking,
And in the night when men sleep tight, I hear the front gate creaking.

But it is mine, this shack of pine, and there's no mortgage on it;
And here I sit and do my bit at writing ode and sonnet.

My house is cheap, no footmen keep their vigils in the hallways;
No butler stern with pomp to burn here combs his auburn galways.

My house is punk, the doors are shrunken, the windows shake and rattle;

And on the stairs and under chairs
the cats and rats give battle.

It isn't fine, but it is mine; with smiles I bid you enter;
I am the king while here; by jing;
I'm sorry for the renter.

Tong War Averted When Widow Pleads For Wife of Rival

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Tradition, one of a coldly cruel sort, has been melted by the heart of a woman in San Francisco's Chinatown, and the word went out that the late Jung Due-Ching, tong leader, would not be avenged.

He will not be avenged in the old way of a life for a life, because his widow appeared at a meeting of his tong and pleaded for some unknown countryman, the symbolic rival tongman, of equal rank and prestige, whom Jung Due-Ching's tong had determined to call, as tradition demanded.

"You will but visit great sorrow upon some other woman," said the widow.

And so a settlement was reached with the rival tong. It was agreed to accept $4,000 indemnity to close the account. Thus Jung Due-Ching was buried, despite the tong law, which is said to dictate that a slain brother shall be avenged before his body is laid at rest.

TEXAS NEWSPAPER MAN GOES ON VISIT TO THE ORIENT

AUSTIN, July 7.—W. D. Hornaday, director of publicity and member of the instruction staff of the department of journalism of the University of Texas, has obtained a year's leave of absence from that institution. He left Saturday for the Orient, where he will spend several months as correspondent for a syndicate of leading American newspapers. His stay in the Far East will be about equally divided between Japan and China, he stated.

Mr. Hornaday will be joined in San Francisco by Wallace Davis of Sonora, Texas, who will accompany him on the trip. Mr. Davis is a student of journalism of the university and plans to do considerable writing while in the Orient.

DENTON.—Persons seeking permits to erect business buildings outside the business zone have been instructed to proceed with such construction, following repeal of the city zoning ordinance by the city commission.

FAGG USES FOOT BONES OF ONE-TIME NOTORIOUS BANDIT TO DEMONSTRATE

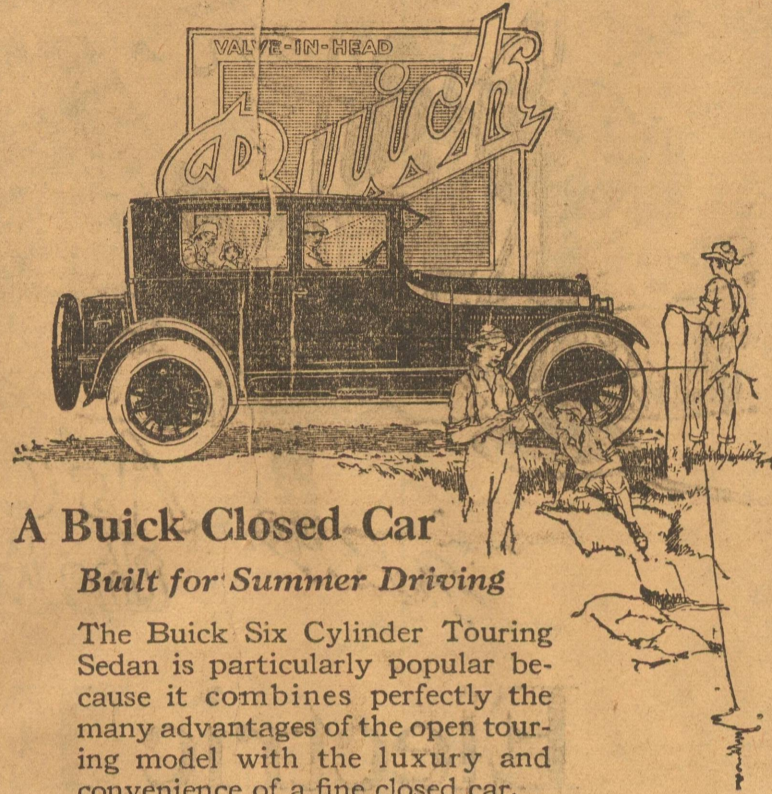

When J. W. Fagg, foot adjuster in the shoe department of the Boston store, picks up a bunch of bones, wired together, and representing the metatarsal, tarsal and ankle bones, to explain to a customer the anatomy of the foot, he uses the bones of a notorious bandit and bank robber to illustrate his point.

Ed Long, of Oklahoma banditry fame, "pulled" some of the most sensational bank robberies on record, but finally was captured and put to death by hanging for his crimes. The body was taken over by a medical college, which, after being used for dissection work, was useless, and the bones of the foot were by a standing agreement turned over to a St. Louis school of foot correction.

It was while at the Wizard Light-foot System of Foot Correction school at St. Louis that Fagg came into possession of the foot bones of Long. Every person getting a certificate from the school is given one entire set of foot bones. Fagg was at the school in 1920.

Fagg says that most foot troubles are due to weak ankles, which in turn effect the heel bone and eventually all of the foot ligaments are under stress.

A Buick Closed Car

Built for Summer Driving

The Buick Six Cylinder Touring Sedan is particularly popular because it combines perfectly the many advantages of the open touring model with the luxury and convenience of a fine closed car.

The wide windows provide touring car airiness; yet in case of a summer shower or dust storm, a turn of the hand instantly protects the occupants without obstructing their vision.

Buick traditional performance, power, dependability and riding comfort are worthily typified in this Touring Sedan.

WHERE IS WOMAN OF MYSTERY?

She Left Home in Cincinnati Eight Days Ago When Called by Phone to Side of Husband, Reported Injured, and Has Not Been Seen Since; Police Exhaust Every Clew.

Special to the Times

CINCINNATI, July 7.—For the third time police have resorted to the use of grappling hooks in an effort to locate Mrs. Anna Marie Bedinger, 38 years old, 2332 Chickasaw street, who has now been missing from her home for eight days. The Little Miami river, near Beechmont avenue, was dragged by Detectives Bell and Sweeney and Lewis E. Bedinger, traveling salesman. Mrs. Bedinger's husband. They had already dragged the lake in Burnet Woods and Inwood Park lake.

Police directed their search for the missing woman to the river when Arthur Williams, 1738 Main street, reported that when he was fishing his hook had become entangled in a tangle of light hair.

On receipt of this information Bedinger, Bell and Sweeney passed more than two hours dragging the river in the vicinity indicated by Williams. They failed to locate Mrs. Bedinger's body or any clue that would justify further search at that spot.

Mystery Deepens.

For seven days investigators have sifted a maze of information in the hope that they would find a clue pointing to Mrs. Bedinger's whereabouts, or the cause for her disappearance.

Mrs. Bedinger left her home at 9:30 o'clock Friday night after telling her mother, Mrs. Catherine Moeller, she had received a telephone call informing her that Bedinger had been injured in an automobile accident and was at Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Bedinger put on a white turban hat, took her purse, containing $35, and left, ostensibly to go to the hospital. She never reached the institution nor has she been seen since.

One of the scores of letters received by Bedinger from persons interested in the search for his wife caused him last night to direct his attention toward West Virginia.

The letter was from Ravenswood, W. Va. The writer stated a woman answering the description of Mrs. Bedinger had been seen in Ravenswood early Monday morning. The letter was signed "A Railroad Conductor."

According to the letter, the woman got off a Baltimore & Ohio railroad train in Ravenswood and said she was going to Pleasant View, W. Va., a small town about three miles from Ravenswood. The woman wore a hat, dress and shoes similar to those worn by Mrs. Bedinger when she disappeared, according to the letter.

Bedinger immediately wired a description of his wife to Ravenswood. He requested that authorities there interview the woman who went to Pleasant View.

Hopes that Mrs. Bedinger might have gone to the home of relatives in Evansville were abandoned yesterday when letters were received from Evansville containing information that she was not here.

Who Rode In Auto?

Detectives yesterday sought to learn the destination of the mystery automobile seen to pass through Owensville, Ohio, on the Chillicothe pike, traveling in the direction of Fayetteville, Ohio. They could obtain no trace of the car after it departed from Owensville.

The automobile was noticed Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dietz, of Owensville, whose attention was drawn to it by its occupants. It was a large touring car. A man was driving it. In the rear seat sat a woman clothed in the costume of a Sister of a Catholic order and a woman wearing a black veil that covered her face and clothing to her waist.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Deitz, the woman clothed as a Catholic Sister was sitting close to the other woman and appeared to be supporting her. The woman wearing the veil, Mr. and Mrs. Deitz said, weighed approximately 160 pounds.

Inquiries among priests and members of Catholic orders in the vicinity of Fayetteville disclosed the information that no car answering the description of that seen by Mr. and Mrs. Deitz had arrived at any institution in that neighborhood.

Notes Believed to be "Fake."

Police placed little credence in the genuineness of notes found in the hallway of the San Carlos apartments, 2200 Madison road. One of the notes was signed, "Anna Marie B." Police believe the notes were "planted."

Search for Mrs. Bedinger now has extended to all parts of Southern Ohio, and her description has been broadcast by radio. All Catholic organizations in Hamilton county are participating in the search. Boy Scouts also are participating in the search.

While the search for Mrs. Bedinger is well organized in Cincinnati and Hamilton county, Bedinger is not satisfied with its extent. He plans to have bulletins printed today bearing a description of Mrs. Bedinger. These bulletins will be sent to every city in the Central United States.

Impetus was added to the search Tuesday when a reward of $100 was offered by Archbishop Elder Council, Knights of Columbus. Bedinger is a member of the organization. The reward offer was announced by C. Frank Bielle, executive secretary of the council.

Bedinger yesterday conferred with members of the police department. Circumstances leading up to Mrs. Bedinger's disappearance were gone over carefully in the hope of finding a clue that might put the detectives on trail of the missing woman.

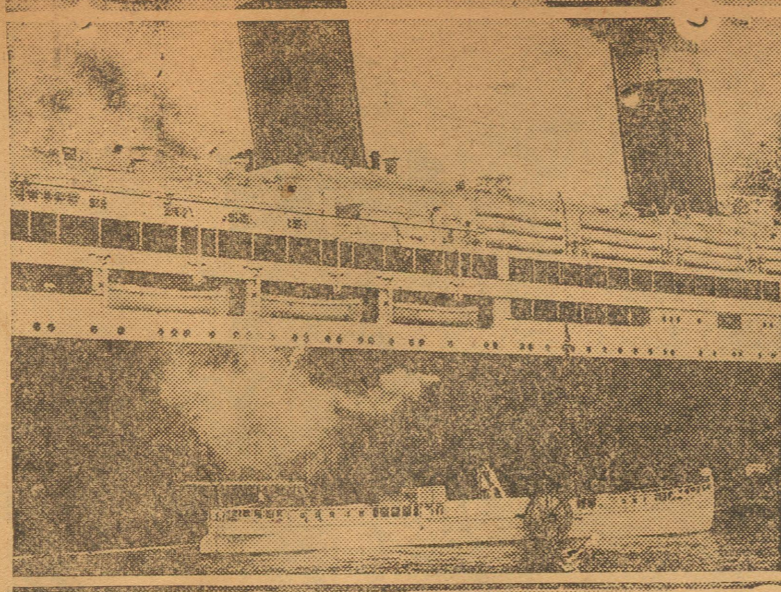

Police were to begin this morning to exhaust clues which they refuse to disclose in their search for Mrs. Bedinger. It is known that one of the clues will take them to a suburb of Cincinnati.

Police last night expressed the belief that Mrs. Bedinger is remaining in hiding of her own accord, and that she is not suffering from any hallucination. They did not develop the theory.

DIVORCE AND ALIMONY ARGUED PRO AND CON IN HOUSE OF LORDS

LONDON, July 7.—Alimony for injured husbands—if there is to be equality between the sexes—was urged before the house of lords by Lord Birkenhead during a debate on the second reading of a bill which would allow English women to obtain divorces on the single ground of misconduct.

Lord Birkenhead criticized the bill as unfair to the males and said that the tables were turned now. He did not see why the husband should be made to support the wife after divorced, or why guilty wives were not made to support their husbands. Lord Parmoor caused a sensation by saying that the high-minded women of England did not want divorce laws. This caused Lord Buckmaster, who introduced the measure, to jump to his feet with the retort that there were plenty of the best English women who had been glad to take advantage of the divorce code.

Brilliant Shoes Shown In Paris Almost Scream

PARIS, July 7.—Women's brilliant-colored shoes, such as appeared last summer in America, have blazed forth in Paris. So far, however, they have appeared only in show windows, at balls and at the races.
Baby blue, gray, pink, purple and orange, with an irregular border in a shrieking contrasting color, are most prominent. One style has a sewed seam in white running from the instep to the toe. The chief value of the new styles has been in attracting crowds to the shoe store windows and furnishing amusement to the "window shoppers."

Dress Notions for Vacation Outings

By HEDDA HOYT
Fashion Editor of the United Press

NEW YORK, July 7.—No girl wears her heart on her sleeve these days. But the practical tennis girl wears her cute little handkerchief on her sleeve. She has a tiny pocket made in the sleeve of her crepe de chine dress, a dress, whose chief attractions are color, short sleeves, bateau neck and full skirt gathered into an elastic waistband.

Color has taken possession of the tennis court, as white has been declared taboo because it soils so easily. The head bandeau matches the shade of the tennis frock this year and no hats are worn except now and then, a soft little affair of white felt. Yellow, tan, jade and old blue are favorite colors of the tennis girl.

Five years ago no one would have planned a trip without first planning the traveling suit and purchasing several white blouses. While the traveling suit is still worn by winter tourists it has no place in the wardrobe of the summer traveler.

Nothing could be more uncomfortable than a tailored suit with a white blouse for traveling in the summer months. One needs clothes with loose lines and with sleeves at the armpits and the dark one-piece dress has both of these qualifications. Of course there must be an accompanying jacquette, a short cape or a topcoat as the wearer prefers.

For an ocean voyage I should recommend a topcoat, two dark gowns, one of silk crepe and one of a light weight cloth material, two dinner dresses of lace or some equally uncrushable material, a dancing frock and two sport jacquettes with separate skirts for morning wear. This list can be augmented according to one's pocket book but it should prove adequate for any ocean voyage of 10 days.

Felt hats are considered quite as smart if not smarter than straw hats this summer, but if the warm days continue it is hoped that we will see less of them. Any hat that heats the head is undesirable as nothing does more toward making the hair fall out. We are all inclined to lose hair more freely in summer than in winter months and we should do all that we can to prevent unnecessary falling of the hair.

It is time to drop the handkerchief! Aren't we getting just a little weary of the handkerchief trim? Dresses with handkerchief collars, hats with handkerchief drapes, blouses made of handkerchiefs, sashes made of handkerchief, bathing suits made of them, bathing turbans made of them. Isn't it time to "drop the handkerchief"? Let it go back to its old original duty!

TOLERATE CADDY
"What!" said the indignant old gentleman, "you want to marry my daughter! Why it was only a few years ago that you were caddying for me."
"Yes, sir," the young man replied. "But I don't intend to let that stand in the way. I hope I have sense enough to realize that a very old golfer may make a fairly good father-in-law."

A Costume Which Makes Character its Own Reward

Problem for the day: How to be as demure as your frock. Given a vivid nature and scarlet lips, can you subdue them enough to be the quiet Quaker maiden that some of the Spring styles would have you?

From her kerchief collar to the long sleeves that tighten to the wrist and then flare out over a languid hand, the lady in the picture lives up to the precepts of the Faith, but one feels she begins to backslide in the splash of huge red rose that fastens the girdle. But perhaps it's the one bright spot in her life.

This simple afternoon frock comes from Paris as a welcome variation from the processions of camels and angular Egyptians who march so sternly among the pyramids of the Spring borders, and is an indication that the plain silks are still holding their own.

It is made of Gray Frostkrepe, gathered becomingly around the neck under the scarlet-edged Cheney kerchief. The fullness of the dress is brought all on one side and swings from beneath a very round scarlet velvet rose—to be made of folds of velvet. Down the sleeves march a line of buttons of the same Frostkrepe as the frock. The back is plain except for the graceful folds of the kerchief.

PUBLIC HEALTH CONSERVATION

An odd paradox reflecting the complicated interdependence of the various states in food and public health matters is pointed out by Dr. S. J. Crumrine, for 19 years state health officer of Kansas, and recently appointed associate director of medical service of the American Child Health association, Kansas, in point of ocean frontage, is behind even Bohemia, to which Shakespeare gave a seascent.

But, though it is the most inland of inland states, the exact geographical center of the union, Kansas may nevertheless boast of having been the first state to pass a law regulating the handling of oysters. This health-safeguarding statute, enacted in 1909, was responsible for the introduction of the "sealshipped" package, through its provision that oysters used in Kansas must come shucked and salted without dilution in sanitary sealed packages, with proper refrigeration on the outside of the container. This was to save the shore-dinner enthusiasts of Kansas from poisoning by oysters shipped loose without sanitary inspection for long distances across the country, with a consequent interval of many days from the time they were gathered till they reached the place of consumption.

Kansas also, Dr. Crumrine says, though it has no ocean bathing beaches to regulate, has realized the need of a compensating vigilance in the sanitation of swimming pools, which, from the very lack of natural waters in the state, are used to capacity. They present difficult problems in sterilization. Requirements for bathers in public pools in Kansas are stringent, according to Dr. Crumrine.

Dr. Crumrine in transferring his interests to the nation-wide field represented in the activities of the American Child Health association, a national organization working for the advancement of methods and standards of health care for children through stimulation of public interest by education and practical demonstration, hopes to work out on the basis of his long experience in state health work increasingly effective methods, by which the work of this voluntary educational agency may come vitally to the support of governmental public health functions. Herbert Hoover is president of the American Child Health association, which has headquarters at 532 Seventeenth street, Washington, and administration offices at 370 Seventh avenue, New York city.

"BABY FARM CAVARAN" MYSTERY TRAGEDY

Mrs. Anna Siewers and wards.

Above is shown Mrs. Anna Siewers, of Brooklyn, N. Y., with 15 of the 17 babies she took to Schenectady, N. Y., in one automobile to establish a "baby farm." She had been boarding the children in her home in Brooklyn, but her neighbors objected, and she bundled them all into a taxicab and took the long journey northward, in an effort to buy a farm where she could care for the infants. During the long automobile trip up the state, two of the children became seriously ill, while a third died. Mrs. Siewers was lodged in the county almshouse with her wards, and their parents were notified to come after them.

Trial Budget for Business Girl Who Lives in the City

Church and Charities Fare Badly in This Apportionment of Earnings.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A favorite sport is making budgets for the "poor working girl" to live on. When they are made, practically everyone else is budgeted. Fifty women, members of the New York Y. W. C. A., are making the latest experiment. They got an expert to prepare it for them and they have pledged themselves to give it a fair trial. It provides $25.00 per week.

The $16 a week salesgirl or factory worker will sneer at it and explain "Who couldn't live on that!" The pledges, however, say they are business women, must dress the part and that is what the budget provides. It is based on the supposition that the girl, or woman, live at home (or in a private home) and pays in either case $10 a week for her room and two meals a day. Here is the budget:

Board and room at home, $10 week	$50.00
Luncheons	150.00
CLOTHING
One suit every two years, at $40	20.00
One coat every two years, at $55	27.50

Sweater, lasting two years, $6	3.00
One "best dress," preferably dark silk, that can be used for business the second year	30.00

Wash dresses (report doesn't say how many)	16.00
One white skirt	6.00
Three pair leather shoes every two years, at $12, and three pair at $6	18.00
One pair canvas shoes	7.50
Gloves: One pair kid, at $3; three pair cloth, at $1; one pair silk, at $1.50	7.50
Five pair silk stockings at $2 and two pair wool, at $2.50.	15.00
Three corsets every two years, $4	6.00
Four vests, at 35c	1.40
Four Teddy bear suits or four bloomers and camisoles	7.00
Two gowns, at $2	4.00
One white undershirt	3.00
Bloomers or silk undershirts	10.00
One dozen handkerchiefs	2.40
One working apron	1.00

Shoe repairs	6.00
Neckwear	3.00
Miscellaneous (which might include fur or spring coat)	40.00
SUNDRIES
Sickness, dentists, oculist	50.00
Amusements	78.00
Vacation	50.00
Insurance and savings	75.00
Church and charities	15.00
Organizations	10.00
Self improvement	10.00
Carfare	30.00
Incidentals	7.20
TOTAL	$1,300.00

It is explained that the 50 cents a day provided for lunch should be expended for a salad and a nourishing soup. The allowance of $1.50 per week for recreation provides for a movie and one real theatre or concert per week.

The budget makers boast that this budget will allow the girl, or woman, to live in what many would call luxury—note the silk dresses and hose.

SCOTS AWAKEN TO BUSINESS ADVANTAGE OF SACRED GROTTO

LONDON, July 7.—The obscure little Scottish mining village of Carfin, which slept for many centuries among the thrifty towns of old Lanarkshire, has suddenly become a miniature Lourdes, to which daily thousands of devout Christians in search of the same blessings that bring pilgrims to Lourdes.

The fame of this village comes from the Grotto built there a year ago adjoining the Catholic church, in imitation of the Shrine at Lourdes. To this Grotto the village people went to offer prayers asking that the Shrine be given the powers which were bestowed upon its counterpart in France.

The first miracle said to have been wrought is the cure of an old Lanarkshire woman who hobbled to the Shrine with the aid of crutches, but who was able to leave her sticks before the altar and betake herself home without assistance.

FOURNIER LEADS BATTERS OF THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Averages of Leaders in National and American and Minor Ball Organizations.

CHICAGO, July 7.—An ambition, cherished in the mind of Jacques Fournier, of Brooklyn, for a number of years, has been realized. The big Frenchman, who since he broke into the major has lived in hopes of some day being at the head of the column is the new leader among the batters of the National league, according to averages released today and which include games of last Wednesday. By cracking out 19 hits, the happy son of France boosted his mark from .342 to .384, which tops the players who have participated in 45 or more games. In his collection of hits, Fournier made five home runs during the week, in addition to collecting four doubles. Zack Wheat dropped 10 points, and now is trailing Fournier with an average of .382. The wonderful spurt of Fournier has been one of the most sensational in some time. During his march Fournier made a record of six hits at six times at bat.

Jimmy Johnston also of Brooklyn has been keeping step with his teammate and had shot forward into fourth place, with Young of New York. They are tied with .366.

Ed Roush of Cincinnati is third with .374. George Grantham, of the Cubs, has lost none of his cunning on the base lines. He is showing the way to the base stealers with 20 thefts and is leading the two base hitters with 23.

"Cy" Williams, of the Phillies, has recovered sufficiently to take his regular position, and is back in his batting stride. In the past week "Cy" cracked out two home runs and now leads the major league players with 22.

During the last week his average dropped from .425 to .419. However he continues to lead. His closest rival is Charles Jamieson of Cleveland, who is the runner-up with .375. Babe Ruth has batted himself into a tie for third place with Eddie Collins, of the White Sox. Each has a mark of .363. Ruth bagged two more homers, and ran his string to 16. Collins is blazing the trail for the base stealers with 27 thefts. Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns smashed out a brace of four baggers and is trailing Babe for the honors with 12. Ruth has increased his total base record to 163 and has added a dozen runs to his scoring record, having tallied 68 times.

Tired feet, weak arches, callouses, run-over heels all are unnecessary. They wouldn't exist if every one of the twenty-six bones in your foot was in its proper position. More than likely you wore shoes that crowded some of the bones of your feet out of place and have played the mischief with the architecture of your feet. The devils you create are torturing you.
