REPUBLICAN FORECASTS FORD'S ELECTION

ACID Poured ON HER BODY, HAIR CUT BY 4 MEN

Tried to Force Woman to Tell of Oil Transaction Near Sapulpa.

By Associated Press
OKMULGEE, Okla., July 17.—A woman giving her name as Mrs. Geo. Petrop of Tulsa, who came to the police station last night with a story of abduction and mistreatment by four men left early today with her alleged experiences unsolved.

In company with three men, one of whom it was said was the husband of the woman, she was whisked out of town.

When she appeared at the police station last night her hair was disheveled and her hair had been cut, and she told of being kidnapped on a Tulsa street and afterwards of having acid poured on her breast, arms, and legs, in an effort to learn details of an oil transaction at Sapulpa.

The men, who came to the hotel this morning, were all heavily armed. Driving up to the hotel they sent word for her to come to town, which she did and she voluntarily got into the automobile.

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO THE SOLDIERS IN FRANCE IS RECALLED

By Associated Press
INDIANAPOLIS, July 17.—The only personal message of Theodore Roosevelt to America's soldiers in France, written five years ago today on the day he received word of the death of his son Quentin, is for the first time being delivered to World War fighters through 11,000 posts of the American Legion.

The message was given to Cass Conaway, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was a Y. M. C. A. worker in France, but did not come to the attention of the fighting men because Mr. Conaway's duties in France prevented him from attending to the matter. On July 15, 1918, Mr. Conaway requested a word from Roosevelt to the men at the front. Despite the fact that he had received word of Quentin's death that day, the message was written by Roosevelt, on July 17, and reads as follows:

"To the soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force overseas:
I send my heartiest greetings to you men at the front. You have made all of us who stayed behind lift our heads high with pride by what you are doing. It is you men, and only you men, who are doing the one vital work for the American people today. All good Americans at this time owe homage to the fighting men at the fighting front. What you are doing is vital for the honor and interest, for the future welfare and for the existence of our republic; and you are also battling for the liberty of every well-behaved, civilized nationality, big or little.

I congratulate you on the great good fortune that is yours in that you now have the chance to endure hardship and peril for a great ideal, and to render to our country the greatest of all services. I would give anything to be over with you.

Faithfully yours,
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

POLICE ARREST TWO MEN ON SUSPICION FOR QUESTIONING

Two men are being held in jail today for investigation of their connection, if any, with the theft of eight electric fans from the Lamb theatre on July 8. No formal charges had been made early this afternoon.

The two men, one who gave his occupation as that of a driller, the other as a laborer, were arrested about midnight in company with a 19-year-old girl on North Commerce street while they were riding in a Buick car which had been converted into a truck. Officers Floyd Daniels and Jim Ingram made the arrests.

In the truck were found two Cumberland cord tires. The wheels were equipped with Kelly-Springfields, Cumberland and Pennsylvania cord tires.

The young girl had a charge of vagrancy preferred against her and was remanded to jail on her failure to pay the fine.

The pair was questioned at length this morning.

Election in Minnesota Gives Added Strength to Group of Republican Radical Leaders

Mangus Johnson Goes to U. S. Senate Instead of Harding's Choice, Governor Preus. Expected to Be Aligned With La Follette-Brookhart Group.

By United Press
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 17.—The Harding administration fell today before a farmer revolt in Minnesota. Mangus Johnson, farmer-labor party candidate, was conceded the victory over Governor J. A. O. Preus, endorsed by Harding, by a substantial majority, returns indicating that it will run close to 40,000 votes.

The Johnson victory takes the Minnesota group out of the G. O. P. old guard and aligns it with the LaFollette-Brookhart faction. Johnson advocates repeal of the Esch-Cummings law, development of water power resources, national farm marketing preparedness, complete revision of the federal reserve system, abolition of the supreme court's decision by a majority vote in congress, opposition to the sales tax, restriction in the use of court injunctions in labor disputes, more stringent regulations for the packing industry and a new child labor law.

James Carley, democrat and a state senator, received only a small vote and was never in the contest.

JOHNSON'S ELECTION NOT LIKELY TO HELP HARDING

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The election of Mangus Johnson, farmer-laborite candidate from Minnesota, to the Nelson seat in the United States senate will make La Follette the biggest figure in the congressional halls and exert an adverse effect on Harding's strength on the eve of the national election, in the opinion of some of the republican leaders here.

ABILENE.—Opposition to any change in freight rates in common point territory has been voiced by the executive committee of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce. Applications for such a charge are pending.

GOVERNOR OF NEW MEXICO HEARD FROM

He Pardons Editor Sentenced for Showing Contempt of Court.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 17.—Gov. Hinkle Monday afternoon issued pardons to Carl C. Magee, editor of the New Mexico Tribune, convicted of the charge of criminal libel of Chief Justice Parker of the state supreme court and of the contempt of the Third judicial district court.

Magee was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year to eighteen months on the criminal libel charge and 360 days in the San Miguel county jail on the contempt charge.

The governor said Saturday he would take no action until Magee had exhausted means of redress in the courts and his action Monday came as a surprise.

In each case Magee was sentenced by Judge D. J. Leahy. A complete pardon was issued in each case by the governor.

The governor, in issuing a pardon on the libel sentence, declared the indictment on which Magee was tried was obtained "without the knowledge or consent of the party supposed to be libelled," that the trial was held in a district where neither Magee nor Parker lives, and that the bringing of Magee to the bar seemed to be a "conspiracy and more of a persecution than a prosecution."

In the contempt sentence pardon, the governor also remitted the fine and costs of $7, imposed on Magee on four citations, and also all fines imposed on the Magee Publishing company, aggregating $4,050.

In his pardon, Governor Hinkle said he was of the opinion that the contempt cases also were a persecution; that the sentences "are harsh and beyond reason, and that this whole procedure is a disgrace and a blot upon the name of New Mexico and the good people thereof."

Impeachment Of Oklahoma Governor Deemed Possible

WICHITA, Kan., July 17.—That Governor Walton of Oklahoma has delivered the Democratic party in that state into the hands of socialists and radicals is the opinion expressed by a number of Oklahoma wheat growers attending the price conference here.

H. A. Whitehurst, chairman of the Oklahoma state board of agriculture, said it was possible the Oklahoma legislature would call itself into special session to impeach the governor as was done in Texas in the case of former Governor James E. Ferguson.

"Folks are pretty mad in Oklahoma," Whitehurst said.

HEAVY RAINFALL FLOODS CITIES IN COLORADO

Cloudburst Hits Denver. Bridges Swept Away and Trains Tied Up.

By United Press
DENVER, Colo., July 17.—Railroads were tied up today following heavy rains that swept away bridges and tore up highways in several counties of Colorado. Denver, Portland and Pueblo were among the sufferers. A five-foot wall of water swept through Portland and water rose several feet deep in some of the streets of Denver. Hundreds of basements were flooded. Streams rose rapidly. Cherry creek, which penetrates the heart of Denver, was bank full and the storm sewers were taxed in some instances beyond their capacity. The storm, which partook of the nature of a cloudburst subsided quickly.

DENVER, Colo., July 17.—Rains which prevailed late yesterday over several counties assumed the importance of a cloudburst over Denver, Pueblo, Florence, Portland and other points reported heavy downpours, with highways and railroad bridges washed out and scores of homes and business houses damaged. Cherry creek, which runs through the heart of Denver, overflowed and drove many from their homes. The water was two to three feet deep in many parts of the city.

So far as known there was no loss of life, but the property loss was considerable.

WEALTHY PATRONS OF LAKEWOOD, N. J., HAVE THEIR PEACE DISTURBED

LAKEWOOD, N. J., July 17.—Liquors valued at $300,000 were seized in raids today by federal and county officers. Lakewood is a favorite resort of many wealthy people all the year and many of the patrons have their own places here. No arrest was made at any place raided.

Splitting a basement door at the Bartlett inn, the federal prohibition agents found a room fitted like a cafe with a sliding panel in the wall through which services might be had from an adjoining building.

M'ADOO TESTIFIES AT TRIAL OF CHARLES MORSE

WASHINGTON, July 17.—William Gibbs McAdoo, who was secretary of the treasury in the Wilson cabinet, took the witness stand today in the trial of Charles Morse, charged with defrauding the government on war time shipping contracts.

McAdoo was called to testify regarding his relations with the Morse ship building concern, while he was a member of the firm of McAdoo and Cotter, counsel for the Morse interests. He said he was never interested in the ship building firm.

MONEY DOES NOT COMPENSATE FOR INTERRUPTION

Weatherford Minister Preaching In Olden Admits Rebuke for Perturbation.

"I have no right to make on the klan. I don't know much about it. But I don't want my religious services disturbed."

This statement was said to have been made by Rev. E. S. Fitzgerald, the minister who was conducting services at the Church of Christ in Olden Sunday night, when his services were interrupted by the appearance of robed klansmen from Eastland to hand him an envelope containing $15. It was made to Postmaster John L. Andrew and his assistant, B. F. Casey of Olden, in the village postoffice Monday morning while he was waiting for a train to return to Weatherford.

The incident has attracted county wide attention. Yesterday, Allen D. Danby, acting for the elders and deacons of the Church of Christ of Eastland and Olden addressed a letter to the Order of the Ku Klux Klan at Eastland declaring the Church of Christ did "not believe in the practices and teachings of the Ku Klux Klan, therefore respectfully decline the offer and are herewith returning to you the $15. Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald had been handed the envelope containing $15 after one of the klansmen finished saying a prayer.

Ten klansmen, according to Casey, came into the church about 9 o'clock Sunday night, just after the congregation had finished singing a hymn. Five of the robed figures advanced up the north aisle and five up the south aisle. A prayer was said by the klan leader in the north aisle after which a robed figure at the head of the file in the south aisle advanced to the pulpit and handed the minister an envelope.

"Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald was completely at sea when the men appeared," Casey said. "He had his sermon in his mind and the proceedings dumfounded him. When he had collected himself, he said, 'I want it strictly understood this is a religious service and I don't care to be disturbed. He laid the envelope on the pulpit. He did not throw it down and was not impudent about it.

"The man who gave the prayer 'smuggled' his voice. He didn't talk natural. Some of our members said they recognized him.

"We don't believe in this kind of thing. The Church of Christ is not a political organization. There may be some of our members who believe in the klan but not the majority of them."

Postmaster Andrews said there would be services next Sunday at the church, but that he didn't anticipate any more interruptions.

Home Ownership Shows Confidence In City's Future

"Every community is dependent upon the person who intends to make the town his home and invests in property," said W. B. Palmer, manager of the Lamb and Liberty theatres in answer to a question of a Times reporter as to why he invested in a home in Ranger recently. He said that persons who buy a home are looked upon as substantial citizens.

"The person who lives in anything but a house of his own is not always looked upon as a permanent fixture in a town. The home owner is considered responsible.

"I believe things are going to be alright in Ranger, so I bought."

LONG DAYS IN ALASKA FATIGUE MRS. HARDING

President Gives Up His Cross-Country Trip and Starts Back to Coast.

ON BOARD PRESIDENT HARDING'S SPECIAL EN ROUTE FROM FAIRBANKS, ALASKA, TO SEWARD, Alaska, July 17.—Rest seemed today to have restored Mrs. Harding from the fatigue and indisposition that led the President to cancel his plan for a trip to the Tanana river and a 90-mile trip across the country by automobile.

The presidential party spent more than 24 hours in Fairbanks, leaving late yesterday on their return trip to the coast. The President attributed Mrs. Harding's fatigue to the long days at this time in the year in the far north where there is virtually no night. It was hot, too, in Fairbanks, the mercury standing at 96 degrees in the shade when the President addressed a crowd of people at the ball park.

Relative to the flour situation, B. M. Heidenberg, manager of the Southwestern Milling company, said there was practically no export demand, as Canada supplies England and South America.

Competition among American mills for business is so keen, he said, that flour is being sold at ridiculously low prices. The mills are not making money but are satisfied to break even, competition is so keen.

The bakers claim the reason they have not cut bread prices is that they are still using old flour, purchased a month ago at $5.50 to $6 a barrel. It is not indicated how long this high-priced flour supply will last.

Governor Neff To Return to Capital After Tropical Trip

AUSTIN, July 17.—Governor Pat M. Neff will assume his duties as chief executive of the state tonight, according to a message reaching his office from New Orleans today. Governor Neff has been away 17 days on a junketing trip to Cuba and the Panama canal zone as a guest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

One of the last official acts of Acting Governor T. W. Davidson will be to review the 71st infantry brigade of the 36th division Texas National Guard at Camp Mabry this afternoon.

WOULD VOTE DISABLED VETS GIVEN HOSPITALIZATION

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 17.—A legislative program calling for hospital care and insurance will be pressed upon congress by the Disabled American Veterans of the World War. Program is based on the recommendation of the third annual convention of disabled veterans held recently at Minneapolis, it was announced here yesterday.

Proposal provides a rating of veterans who have been given hospital care for 12 consecutive months, and all veterans at home shall receive the same allowance as those in institutions.

ACTING GOVERNOR ISSUES BATCH OF PARDONS

AUSTIN, July 17.—Acting Governor Davidson today issued his first pardon, since Governor Neff left for a Panama trip. Six were granted today and Davidson stated that two or three others would be granted today. One was because subsequent evidence proved the defendant innocent and others because they were recommended for pardon by district judges and prosecuting attorneys.

WILL WIN IN WALKOVER, SAYS IOWA SENATOR

Smith Brookhart Stabs Harding for Speeches, While Calling on Him for Aid.

By United Press
NEW YORK, July 17.—Demand that President Harding call an extra session of congress immediately in order to enact legislation that will bring relief to the farmers of the country is advocated by United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, Republican, who has just returned from a visit to soviet Russia.

Brookhart, who has been studying co-operative marketing and distribution methods abroad said the American government should buy the farmers' product and sell it.

The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator from Minnesota was declared by Brookhart to be a "sign to the Republican bosses that the people of this country mean to rule." He said it should be a warning to those in power.

"If President Harding makes three more speeches like those he has been making recently in the west, Henry Ford will be elected President of the United States in 1924 by a majority of 10,000,000 votes," said Brookhart.

Flour Goes Down, But Bread Prices Show No Weakness

KANSAS CITY, July 17.—Bakers' prices are unaffected by the recent decline in the prices of wheat and flour, millers here charged today. With flour selling at the lowest since 1912, the price being $4.50 a barrel, the prices of bread in many cities remain unchanged and the size of the loaf of bread has not been changed. Millers say they are selling flour at virtually the same price as the wheat that goes into it.

Relative to the flour situation, B. M. Heidenberg, manager of the Southwestern Milling company, said there was practically no export demand, as Canada supplies England and South America.

Competition among American mills for business is so keen, he said, that flour is being sold at ridiculously low prices. The mills are not making money but are satisfied to break even, competition is so keen.

The bakers claim the reason they have not cut bread prices is that they are still using old flour, purchased a month ago at $5.50 to $6 a barrel. It is not indicated how long this high-priced flour supply will last.

SURPRISE IN STORE FOR THOSE GATHERED AT BREAKFAST TABLE

Chamber of Commerce breakfast Wednesday morning at the Gholson hotel will furnish some surprises, it was said at the chamber offices today. What they are, chamber officials won't divulge, preferring to let the members who come, get the surprise at the breakfast table.

The first breakfast last Wednesday, held at the DeGroff hotel, was a success. M. B. Laseh, superintendent of the West Texas division of the Lone Star Gas company, told for the first time in Ranger, the big development plans of the company, which would vitally affect this city.

Patterson, former Chicago and Tyler, Texas, business man, whose body was found in his Hollywood residence, said that he believed it to be a case of suicide or death from natural causes. Physicians found no theory to support a homicide death and an autopsy would be necessary to learn the exact cause of his death.

Who Will Boost World's Marathon Whistling Record?

PARIS, July 17.—The world's whistling record is held by Jules Reynier, a young business man of Traus, near Marseilles.

Reynier whistled continuously for 10 hours and one minute.

A workman named Variois is in the contest with Reynier, whistled for eight hours.

Neither of them ate during the contest, but Reynier drank beer while he whistled 81 consecutive tunes, all different, ending with "Marseillaise."

New Chicken Spirit

Determination to Win Is Behind Eastland County Poultry Raisers Association, Which Has Adopted a Novel Method to Attract Farmers and Business People to Ecome Members.

Poultry raising in Eastland county is destined to become one of the leading industries in the county if not the greatest of all. The success of poultry raising in Ranger has been augmented by the co-operation given by the business people to those actually engaged in the business of producing chickens and chicken products. It may be largely because of this co-operation that poultry raising in and about Ranger has already assumed larger proportions. So it may be in the county.

The Eastland County Poultry Raisers' association, which draws its membership from all parts of the county and from the county's trade territory in adjoining counties, wants to enlist the co-operation of farmers and business people. Eastland county has approximately 60,000 population; the Eastland County Poultry Raisers' association wants at least 1,000 of these enrolled as members.

Saturday, Aug. 25, at noon, in Eastland, the association will serve a chicken barbecue for members and their families. Only members and their families may attend. Membership in the organization costs $1 a year, so that the father of a family of 18 children might attend with his wife, 20 in all, counting himself, and get a real chicken dinner for 5 cents a head. Of course, the association does not get much profit out of his dollar, but expects to reap a reward by obtaining the co-operation of all members. It is not expecting to make a fortune out of the barbecue, but if there be any profit it will be devoted to the purchase of coops and other equipment for the annual poultry show held each year in some part of the county and which this year will be held in Cisco.

At a meeting of chamber of commerce secretaries and newspaper men in Eastland yesterday afternoon it was decided to begin a campaign for membership right now and to make the campaign intensive between Tuesday, Aug. 14, and the day of the barbecue. Each newspaper, daily and weekly, in the county will give all the aid possible and in return will be given an opportunity to win a loving cup, which, as everyone knows, is something that every newspaper needs very much. Each new subscriber will be permitted to cast one vote for the newspaper he or she wishes to have the loving cup and the newspaper getting the largest number of votes will receive the cup. Here is an opportunity for the friends of the Ranger Times to help bring that loving cup to Ranger, both for local pride and also because the Times never has had a loving cup and if it does not get this may never have one.

Remember the chicken barbecue at noon, Saturday, Aug. 25. Real chicken with trimmings and watermelon will be served. Admission for the head of each family may be obtained on presentation of a membership ticket in the association and the family may go in with him. Those joining early may sometime be ranked as pioneer members.

TRIED AND PROVED—As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.— 2 Sam. 22:31.

ENCOURAGE INVESTMENT.

Narrow-minded individuals are inclined to fight the organization of labor banks and co-operative undertakings. This is wrong. These institutions should be encouraged, for the more laboring men go into business, the more they will understand some of the problems faced by an employer in the financing, operation and management of industrial and banking enterprises.

The laboring man who has his capital tied up in a bank, a sawmill, a gold mine, a shoe factory or a public utility plant, will be pretty sure to take an interest in maintaining safe and sound conditions in both state and nation, in order that the property may pay a fair rate of return on his money invested, which to him, the same as to any other investor, represents years of toil and saving.
One safeguard of the nation lies in educating our workmen to take a greater interest in, and become owners of, the securities of our various industrial undertakings.—Texas Industrial Review.

PROGRESSIVE FLORIDA.

Florida's legislature has submitted to the people a startling amendment to their state constitution. It proposes to prohibit the levy of income taxes on citizens or residents, for twenty-five years.

Evidently somebody in Florida recognizes the necessity of first creating capital before taxing it. Think of the inducement a measure such as this would be to the prospective investor and developer of industry, to locate in Florida.

The increased value in real estate and industries that would result from such a measure would undoubtedly furnish the state a great deal more revenue from the ordinary property tax than it can now collect through an income tax from a few citizens who are increasing numbers putting their money into tax-exempt securities.

The Florida proposition has more hard sense in it than the man who cries, "Tax wealth," would have us believe.—The Manufacturer.

DID RELIGIOUS FANATIC KILL HER TO SAVE HER SOUL?

Dorothy Kaufman

One of the strangest murder mysteries of recent years was the stabbing to death of Dorothy Kaufman, a beautiful governess in the home of Magruder Craighthead, near Scarsdale, N. Y. Born in a Mennonite colony, in Maryland, and given a college education, the girl became principal of the Mennonite school at Shelltown. But the restrictions of the Mennonite faith palled on her. She wanted pretty clothes, like other girls. So she left home and went to work as a servant—and the first thing she bought was a pretty dress. Officials, unable to solve the slaying, declare the belief that she was killed by a fanatical Mennonite, who thought thus to save her soul.

LIVE STOCK SALE MAY BE HELD NEXT MONTH

The advisability of holding a private live stock sale at Eastland on Aug. 25 in connection with the Poultry Raisers' association barbecue will be discussed at a meeting of the Tri-County Live Stock association Saturday at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce rooms. It will start at 2 o'clock. Other matters will be brought up, G. C. Richardson, secretary of the association, said in a letter sent to members of the association.

BIDDERS FOR BONDS OF CITY TO BE HEARD

Representatives of municipal security houses will meet the Ranger city commission this afternoon to again present their offers of buying city hall bonds. The deed and abstract to the property, which the city proposes to buy from the Republic Supply company and use as a city hall, arrived a few days ago and the city can now go ahead and deal with the bond salesmen.

Action was deferred last Tuesday, as the abstract to the property had not arrived here.

Barber of Waco Honored by Mayor and Gift Party

By Associated Press

WACO, July 17.—Waco's oldest barber, "Uncle" Frank Johnson, today celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday with a party given by his many friends, which came as a complete surprise to him.

This morning as Johnson was shaving Judge John C. West, his oldest customer, a large crowd of friends filled his shop, and headed by Mayor Ben C. Richards, the party presented a large loving cup engraved to the veteran barber. Following presentation of the cup came a huge cake bearing 75 candles.

Frank Johnson was born in Frederick's Hall, Va., July 17, 1848, and of his 75 years, 57 have been spent in the barber business. Forty-nine of these years have been spent in Waco. His customers have included Governors Coke and Ross.

When first established, Johnson's shop was located upstairs over the corner of Third street. A one-by-twelve plank wrapped in red, white and blue cloth, and extended out of the upstairs window, proclaimed to the town that here a man might be shaved or have his hair cut.

Judge John C. West, oldest male resident of the city of Waco, has been a regular customer of Uncle Frank Johnson's shop during the entire 49 years of his residence in this town.

Although Johnson owns considerable property in Waco, he feels he is too old to retire and stays by his razor because he knows no other trade.

SALVATION ARMY HAS MUCH NEED FOR SEWING MACHINE; WHO CAN HELP?

Have you a sewing machine you find you don't need any more? Have the children all grown up, or do you now buy your clothes for the family ready made to wear?

The Salvation Army Home league meets every Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to sew for children, who have no one to sew for them. The league, however, could do more and better work if it had the use of a sewing machine. The league can't afford to buy one, so Capt. Batson, new officer in charge of the Ranger post, is compelled to ask for a donation of the machine.

The army will continue as formerly to hold services on the street and at the hall on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

LAWS TO FORBID HORSE BETTING ARE A FARCE

By PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 17.—The cry is being set up by reformers for eradication of the "betting evil."

The "betting evil" is the gambling being done at racetracks throughout the country. In this age of civilization, no such condition should be tolerated, they say.

Maryland and Kentucky have recognized the betting evil and have government regulations. Betting is done openly and the state gets a substantial tax. In neither of these states is there any income tax levied on the salaries of workers. But there is in New York.

The politicians of New York and Illinois and some other states have sidestepped the issue. At tracks in and around New York there is in practice what is known as "oral betting." The state law prohibits any betting whatsoever, but it has been so long since a bookmaker was arrested for violating that law that nobody seems to recall it.

Recently, out in Chicago, police raided the Hawthorne track at the opening of the racing season there and "pinched" a dozen alleged gamblers.

Nobody in New York or Chicago believes that anyone is going to pay up to $5 entrance fee merely to watch a few ponies run around the track.

As long as there is horse racing there will be betting. The authorities of New York state, just as in some other states, know that "oral betting" is being openly conducted at the tracks every afternoon.

The politicians of New York are afraid to remedy the conditions of crookedness caused by failure to recognize betting and install pari-mutuel machines as they have in Maryland and Kentucky.

They tell the reformers: "See, we have a law prohibiting betting; we have wiped out the betting evil."

But they know that betting is going on and they could arrest hundreds every afternoon if they wished. But that would incite the race fans to vote against them.

Hence they permit the great farce to go on—playing both ends against the public.

If the reformers want to correct the "betting evil" they will have the backing of every race fan in the United States, except the bookmakers who are getting rich off the present condition.

If pari-mutuel machines were installed in New York tracks and the betting taken out of the hands of irresponsible bookmakers, the workers of New York state would not have to pay an income tax on their salaries.

If the reformers have an honest desire to correct the evil of betting on horse races, they can force the matter to an issue and make the politicians either abolish horse racing or conduct it properly.

FURNITURE WON'T GET ANY CHEAPER THIS YEAR

CHICAGO, July 17.—Furniture of the Tudor, Queen Ann and Louis XVI periods will continue to hold popular favor for American bedrooms, while that of Italian and Grecian periods will be used for living rooms, according to the Chicago furniture manufacturers' association, holding its summer show here.

The new year will bring out no changes in American furniture; no outstanding features are evident, as at most exhibitions in the past. Creation of "freak" furniture is also on the decline. The only contribution along this line is a "King Tut" table, made of mahogany with Egyptian lines and legs representing old Egyptian vases.

No decrease from the present price of furniture is in sight. The cost of plate glass and other materials caused an increase ranging in some lines as high as 25 per cent last spring, and there is little likelihood of a return to the old level within the next year, officials of the show said.

Chicago is now the leading furniture market in the world, value of the annual output totaling $50,000,000.

GETS DRUNK ON REWARD FOR HONESTY; JUDGE DISMISSES CHICAGO MAN

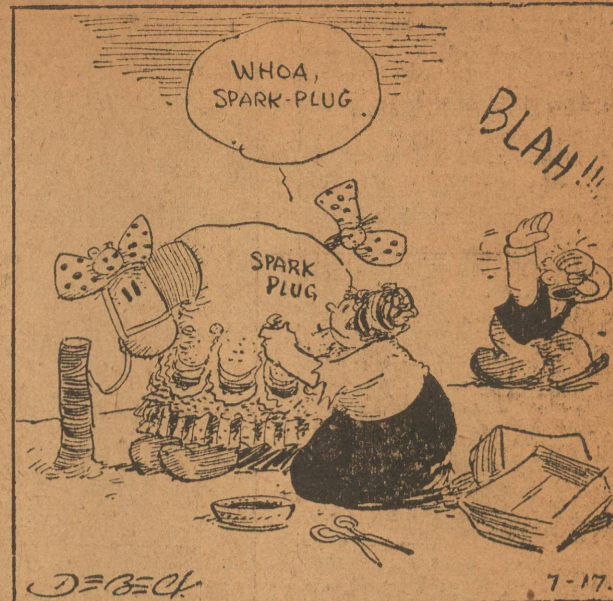

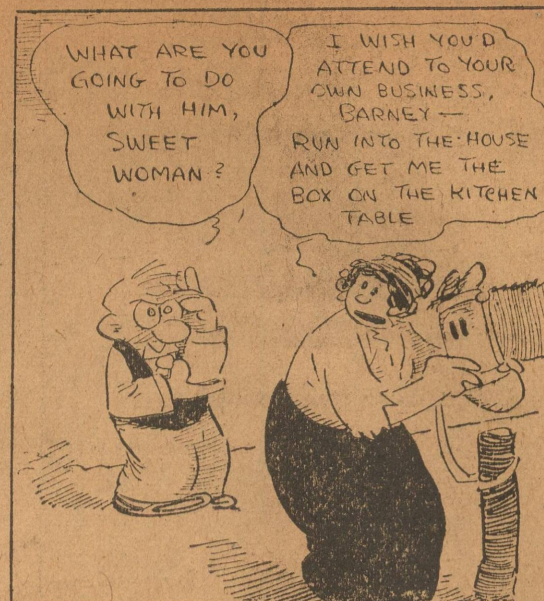

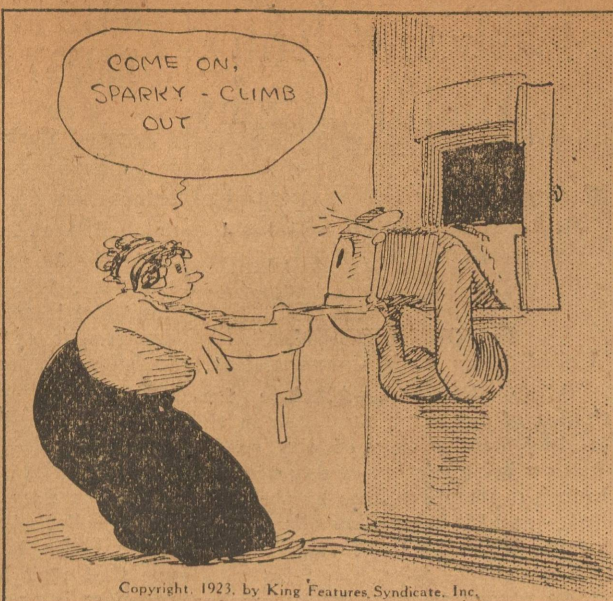

CHICAGO.—"A man may drink and still be honest, it seems," Judge Peter H. Schwaba said in a Chicago police court.

The comment was offered when Judge Schwaba discharged Mike Trotter for drunkenness, after he found the man had staged his carousal on a $25 reward for returning a diamond-studded municipal judge's star that the official had lost.

HENDERSON.—A musical cat is the novelty possessed by a local hotel owner, it is reported. The cat is said to delight in perching on a piano stool and strike the keys of the instrument.

Main Drag Stuff

By P. G. T.

Joe and Whiskers and their wives and Whiskers' new baby were in town today. Joe and Whiskers are two boys, stage hands by profession, who married two girls, stage beauties by profession, on the Majestic theatre stage in Ranger nearly two years ago. The two girls came to town with a musical show that played here for a week and Joe and Whiskers knew the ladies almost a week before they were married. That is, they met them back stage the first day the show blew into town and were married in front of an audience who wondered if it wasn't all a fake, the last night the show was in town. They have just returned from a successful season in the show game in the east and are taking their lay-off in Breckenridge. (That makes three successful stage hands I know who take their lay-offs in Breck. Will have to go over there some day and see what the attraction is.) Remember the old saw, "Marry in haste, repent at leisure," well that's all wrong in two cases. I saw 'em when they left and I saw 'em when they came back. Also it is generally understood that show people get married and divorced about four times a year and that is all wrong too. Beats all, the funny ideas us ordinary mortals grab off, don't it?

scop I'm going to scoot for parts unknown to keep from committing suicide in self-defense or getting shot by some good friend for telling the truth.

A bird dropped into the store the other day, whom we will call Zeke McGoofer because we don't know his real name. "I went into a bank," he said, "to get a fifty-dollar bill changed. Counted the long green over after leaving the window and noticed a mistake, returned to the window and notified the teller, who said very curtly, 'We don't rectify mistakes after the customer leaves the window.' 'Suits me great,' say I. 'I'm twenty bucks to the good.'"

Recently a man went to sleep on one of the park benches in one of our downtown municipal parks. Don't look surprised, we have two downtown parks in Ranger. One is in front of our street commissioners' confectionery and the other in front of Wade's cafe. They both have benches, one bench to each park, and some one is parked there all the time. That makes 'em parks, all except for the green grass. Let's see, what were we talking about? Oh, yes! A man lay asleep on a park bench. Now it doesn't look good to see people asleep on a park bench in any city, especially in day time, and the city comish, owning the bench in this park, considered it his duty to awake the sleeper. Various methods were discussed. In cities, policemen carry night sticks so they can slap the sleeper on the feet but no one had a night stick in his pocket. Finally we decided on fire crackers and sent for some and were all set to bombard the snoozer. Just as we almost lighted one of the sleep destroyers the man wiggled a little and woke up. There was another wonderful time all shot. Wouldn't that make you squirm?

Do You Know Who the Ten Richest Men In the World Are? Henry Ford Is Placed at the Head of the List

LONDON, June 28 (by mail)—Who are the ten richest men in the world? asks the Sunday Express. It answers the query itself by giving a list at the head of which is Henry Ford, whose fortune it estimates at $500,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller comes next with $450,000,000; Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, is third with $150,000,000, and then follow Duke of Westminster, Sir Basil Zaharoff, Hugo Stinnes, Percy Rockefeller, Baron H. Mitsui, Baron H. Iwasaki and the Gaekwar of Baroda, each with $100,000,000.

Indian Rulers Rich. James B. Duke, the tobacco king; George F. Baker, of the First National Bank of New York, and T. B. Walker of Minneapolis timber land-owner, the Express says, might be added to the list, since they all have fortunes estimated at $100,000,000, while there are at least three other gle industry, and his private fortune must still rank him second.

Sir Basil Zaharoff is Europe's mystery man, but it is no mystery that he is one of Europe's wealthiest men. He owns more than half of Monte Carlo, and his holdings in armament firms are even larger. He is in oil, finance, shipping; in fact, it is difficult to say what he is not interested in.

The Mitsuis and the Iwasakis are financiers, traders, and shippers. The Gaekwar of Baroda's wealth is almost impossible to estimate, but his diamonds alone are valued at $1,250,000, and he has a jeweled tapestry worth $1,500,000. Guns of gold weighing 400 pounds stand at his palace gate.

Well, income tax dodgers, scopolamin is here (don't try to pronounce it—I can't). Anyhow it is some juicy junk that the doc shoots in the arm like army anti-typhoid serum, and, boy! when ya got it in ya ya can't tell a lie, even if ya wanta. 'Tisn't likely that all income tax payers will be presented with a shot, not this year, but if they get the stuff working so they can put it in your soup it'll be an honest but hard old world. Imagine, "Scopolamin Breakfast Food," and if the law required that you eat it instead of corn flakes or straw stacks every mornin'. You couldn't say, "Doc, I have a bad cold and need a prescription," when you didn't have a bad cold. The "siek friend" excuse would be forgotten, when if wifey says, "Would you marry again if I should die?" you couldn't say, "No, sweetheart, never," and there'd be a battle right off the bat. When Mother-in-Law came to town and said, "Aren't you glad to see me?" you'd have to say, "No, and I'm darn sorry you came." Say! wouldn't there be lots of murders and things if everybody told the truth all the time! No scop-what-ever-it-is for yours truly. When they start to

Great Military Railroad To Be Built Across Sahara Desert

By JOHN O'BRIEN, United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS, July 17.—Construction of a great military railroad across the Sahara, something like the Arizona desert, only about 10 times as wide, is now being studied by experts of the French war office and a project calling for the expenditure of several hundred million dollars will shortly be laid before the chamber of deputies.

The importance of the railroad, apart from its commercial advantages, lies in the fact that south of the Sahara is the French Congo, inhabited by many millions of dusky sons of the jungle, from which the colonial contingent of the French army is for the most part recruited.

Airplanes and Caterpillars. Surveys made by Gen. Estienne and more recently by engineers who accompanied the "caterpillar" automobile expedition across the desert will be utilized. Gen. Estienne is about to undertake another expedition in the district of Kanada, in the Hoggar region, where coal mines have just been discovered.

A direct line across the Sahara would be about 200 miles long. In case certain regions which give fair promise of commercial advantages are taken in the road would be 500 miles or so longer.

Wire Photography Likely to Reform Wire Telegraphy

Messages May Be Transmitted in Original Script Quicker and at Less Cost.

By JOHN O'BRIEN, United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS, July 16.—Absolute facsimiles of telegraph messages in the original handwriting of the sender, are now being sent every day over the French government lines by the Belin system, which is an adaptation of the inventor's method of transmitting photographs by wire.

The sender of the telegram writes it on ordinary paper which is placed on a revolving cylinder and by the play of lights and mirrors, as in the case of transmission of photographs, the exact script is sent over the wire. It is much cheaper than the ordinary telegram at least for messages of more than one hundred words.

For instance in one case a stenographer sent from Lyons to Paris a message of 1,455 words, in shorthand notes, which was written on the cylinder of about the same size as an ordinary telegram blank. In this way about one column of a newspaper could be sent for about $1.25.

If the telegram had been written in ordinary script and sent by a fast telegrapher it would have required 25 minutes, at the rate of 60 words a minute, and the cost, at the current rate, would have been about $16. This method of automatic transmission of telegrams is now open to the public, the necessary apparatus having been installed in the government telegraph offices of the larger cities.

FARMERS' BULLETIN TELLS IN NUTSHELL OF BACK-YARD EGG MAKING

A small flock of hens instead of a large garbage can means a sizeable balance on the side of thrift. In a nutshell, that is the essence contained in the 20 pages of farmers' bulletin 1331, "Backyard Poultry Keeping," just issued by the United States department of agriculture.

Various uses are now made of the waste collected from homes in towns and suburbs, but practically the only use that may be made of it on the premises is as feed for chickens, and this use, according to the bulletin, can be made very profitable if the birds are properly selected for laying qualities and are given good housing and care.

The bulletin is really a handbook designed to answer any question that may come up in the mind of the owner of a small flock. It covers such subjects as the kind of fowls to keep, the size of the flock, procuring stock, housing, arrangement and sanitation of yards, feeding, lice and mites, hatching and raising chicks, culling the hens, preserving eggs, and practical pointers.

Plans and bills of materials are given for making houses of low cost and houses that will fit various conditions. Details are given on interior equipment such as roosts, dropping boards, nest boxes, and coops for broody hens. It is suggested, for instance, that an orange box can be made into two good nests simply by nailing a narrow strip of board along one side to hold in the straw. The advantages of a double yard are discussed, and one paragraph tells of the value of a mulberry tree in supplying succulent feed for three weeks. There is a description of an interesting device for providing fresh green feed by growing oats through 3-4-inch mesh poultry wire stretched on a frame a short distance from the ground to keep the hens from killing out the plants.

Copies of the bulletin may be obtained by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., as long as the supply lasts.
