Red Planes Bomb Berlin Says London

Berlin Says RAF Did It, But RAF Denies Feat

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP)-A reliable source with soviet contacts said today he had been informed that the red air force attacked Berlin last

Earlier the German high command had told of minor damage to Berlin buildings and the deaths of several civilians as the result of bombs dropped by a few planes. The British denied they had bombed Berlin, a communique limiting last night's German targets to Essen, Dortmund and Hamm. Subsequently, German spokesmen insisted the planes which bombed the reich's capital were British, and scoffed at the idea that they were Russian.

An air ministry communique is sued in London said the British raiders caused great damage and Dortmund and Hamm, in western Germany.

Adolf Hitler's high command re-ported today that German troops knifing deep into the lower Ukrains had annihilated a Red army force trapped southeast of Uman, 125 miles south of Kiev, capturing more than 30,000 prisoners and the supreme comm..nder of the Russian sixth army. Earlier, unofficial nazi reports said Kiev itself, the Ukraine capital had been surrounded. But the high command report indicated the main German thrust was directed at cutting off the Black sea port of Odessa. In the north, the nazi high command said German columns driv-ing toward Leningrad had cap-tured Wesenberg, 68 miles south-east of the old czarist capital, and penetrated to the Gulf of Finland. If true, this would indicate that the Russian-held capital of Estonia, Tallinn, is cut off by land. It would mean, too, that the Russian Baltic fleet was in jeopardy from German guns pressing toward its big base at Kronstadt.

Hitler's field headquarters also declared that German and Finnish troops driving on Leningrad from the north, in a giant squeeze maneuver, were "making further suc- as it opened seven hours of de-

Big Spring Takes 8-4 Victory In Series Opener With Clovis Pioneers

As Club Regains Loop Lead-

Cards' Mort Cooper Shows Old Form

By the Associated Press The St. Louis Cardinals are back on top of the National league seesaw today, but their position in the standings is not as important as the fact that Mort Cooper is back with his pitching magic, Until he developed elbow trouble in June, the 27-year-old righthander figured to be the ace of Billy Southworth's pitching corps. Then he had to have an operation.

Cooper returned to the lineup

July 17 and pitched part of the ninth inning against the Boston Braves. Then he was given a starting assignment against the poor Phillies last Sunday. He hurled a six-hit victory.

Yesterday came the real test when Cooper was sent out against the Cincinnati Reds and pitched and batted the Cardinals to a 3-2 11-inning victory that put St. Louis in front of the idle Brooklyn Dodgers again by just

It's being worded around that the Big Spring Bombers' ball park might be shifted to another part of town next year-perhaps to the Rodeo Grounds. Nothing definite has been said regarding the change, but some of those who may have a hand in the Bombers' future plans are of the opinion that added space and reachability might result from the move.

Except for a short period each summer, it can be said that, for all practical purposes, the Rodeo Grounds are open for use.

Other clubs may have more pow erful ball-tossers but the Clovis Pioneers are possessors of a lad Firstbaseman Hal Schoendienst, who has just about the prettiest chunking style in the league. He's a lefthander, but, unlike most southpaws, his serve is as smooth and loose as a swinging wet rope. In fact, translated loosely, his name means pretty server.

Starting back somewhere be tween his shoulder blades, this well-oiled heave of Schoendienst's picks up speed on the swing, then Sileaves his hand like a bullet out T of a gun.

Dick Ratliff, currently sharing catching duties with Al Zigelman showed his stuff for the homefolk for the first time last night. At one time in his West Texas-New Mex tco baseball history, Dick managed Clovis, Big Spring's opposition in yesterday's fracas. Last year, he performed on the Amarillo Gold Sox roster.

"They just don't seem to be around anymore," mused Doc. "A lot of boys who used to play baseball for a pastime are out caddving on the golf courses now. The auto's to blame, too. Kids seem to get more fun out of riding around in cars these days instead of playing ball. It makes them

Mentors To S'water Lad Revamp State

HOUSTON, Aug. 8 (AP)
The Texas High School
Coaches association, largest organization of its blocker organization of its kind in America, is ready to expand its scope of athletic activities. For nine years the association has functioned as a football unit, sponsoring a huge coaching school where all phases of the gridiron game are dealt with. Now it is prepared to add basketball, track and field and the other sports operated through the far-flung Texas interscholastic league.

That was made possible last night when the association voted to change its name by dropping the "football" and becoming the Texas High School Coaches Association. Thus, it opened the way for adding all other sports in its annual clinic.

The school entered its final in struction periods today with nothing left for tomorrow except the annual all-star game matching the cream of the crop from the upper regions of the Interscholastic league football plan against a sim-ilar squad from the lower brackets. This game, scheduled for 8 p. m. at Rice Field, is expected to at-tract between 8,000 and 10,000 spectators. And indications are that all the money realized from this classic will go into a fund to provide schoolboy athletes of the state. A committee headed by P. E. Shotwell, veteran Longview coach, is studying a plan whereby athletes in the schools represented in the association will have this insurance paid up for them, meaning some 12,000 boys will be protected without cost to their schools. But until the committee can confer with the insurance company offering a very attractive rate, nothing definite can be announced. It is understood that a rate of 50 cents per athlete is the basis of negotiation.

At the annual business meeting last night Eck Curtis of Breckenridge, a highly succe ful Oil Belt coach, was elected president for the ensuing year. Harry Stiteler of Corpus Christi was named vice president. Five directors, including two who were re-elected.

Clyde Park of Fort Stockton and Shotwell were the two renamed to the board. New directors elected were Clyde Gott, of Smithville, C. M. Flory of Harlingen and Mac Miller of Brownwood, Hold-over directors are Harold Dement Galena Park, Howard Lynch of Amarillo and W. C. O. Harris of Fort Worth.

The site of the 1942 coaching school will not be selected until January when the board meets at Athens.

A secretary-treasurer will be elected at a directors' meeting to-morrow. Bryan Schley of Nacogdoches has served in this position for five years but is expected to tender his resignation due to added duties at his school. He has been named head football coach, succeeding Maurice Baumgarten, who has become head coach of Stephen F. Austin college.

Stanton SCS Office Will Open Monday

E. A. Pittman, attached to the Soil Conservation Service office here, has been instructed to report to Stanton on Monday to assume charge of an office being opened

At a meeting of the board of supervisors in Stanton Tuesday, 20 applications and farm planning sheets were approved, bringing the number of applications and farm plannings passed to 50 each and covering around 40,000 acres diagonally across Howard county from Coahoma to Ackerly and in central eastern Martin county.

Grain Committee Ships 10 Cars

The Howard county grain committee has shipped 10 cars of wheat to a warehouse at Fort Worth for placing in government loan, and a few carloads are yet to be delivered.

Nine cars were classed as hard winter wheat and one car suffered a 2-cent per bushel deduction because it was a yellow va riety. The wheat ranged from No. 1 to No. 5. S. H. Puckett's shipment was graded No. 1.

We'll find out when he comes." We langed into silence. Carol dealing out hands of solitaire and playing them methodically. I stretched out on the studio couch and smoked cigarettes.

It was after four when Jeff arrived, looking tired and woebegone.
"Nothing new," he said in answer to our excited inquiries, nothing at all. Peterson says East 4th St. Church he'll do all that's in his power to trace Lee Gray through that phone call, but it's next to hopeless." "But what about Greeley Mor-ris?" I protested. "He knows something about her, I'm sure of it!"

"He says he doesn't. I tagged along with Peterson back to the Gotham. Morris still doesn't know Lee Gray, never saw her, has no idea why she should be calling him. That's his story and he's sticking to it like adhesive tape. What can they do?" Jinx

There was a rap at the door and I answered it. A thin individual in a pinkish tan camel's hair coat and a pearl-gray fedora stood there. It took me two looks to see that this individual was Jinx, almost unrecognizable in his civvies At his side was Crowley.

"Miss Rogers, tell this here gentleman," Jinx said, indicating Crowley, "who I am." "Mr. Crowley, this is Jinx."

"Jinx runs the elevator. Night shift." "Thanks, Miss Rogers. See, I gotta talk to Mr. Troy about important private business. Will you tell this here gentleman it's okay?" "Do you want to see him, Mr. Troy?" asked Crowley. "Sure," Jeff said. "Come on in,

Jinx triumphantly stepped in and closed the door in Crowley's 9:30 face, then said in a whisper, "Talk 10:00 News. low, he might be listenin' through 10:15 Sports. the keyhole."

"There isn't a keyhole," Jeff said.

"There ain't?" Jinx was disappointed. "What's on your mind, Jinx?"

"They been grillin' me, Mr. They was up to my house Troy. this mornin', they got me outs bed and grilled me."

"Who's been grilling you, Jinx?" "Mr. Peterson. And he had a Mr. Sullavan helpin' him. But I didn't crack, Mr. Troy," he added 10:00 reassuringly.

Jeff was amused. "What were 10:30 they grilling you about, Jinx?" "They was sweatin' me about 11:00 suspicious characters lurkin' 11:15 around the premises. I wanted to 11:30 tip you off, Mr. Troy, 'cause I 11:45 might crack under their constant 12:00 grillin'."

"What are you talking about?" 12:15 I asked. "Have there been any 12:30 suspicious characters around 12:45

"Only Mr. Troy. I wanted to warn him so he can beat the rap if they put the heat on him." "Jinx, talk English!" I said sharply. "Stop playing gangster."
