Ranger Style Show In Memory's Garden

ENTERT AINMENT FILLS THEATRE

People Attracted From Near and Far to Enjoy Unique and Delightful Program.

The second showing of the Style show on Thursday night was even better than the first evening. There was more freedom and occasional sparkles of fun. The models were less afraid, and the audience was splendidly responsive.

well with the audience which responded with hearty applause to the clever song and dance of Richard Edwards and the novelty dancing of Genevieve Lyons of Eastland and Audrey Connell of Ranger.

The Hawaiian troup of musicians and dancers took better than ever. Winston Holland, clever bird whistler and Jack Condell, Scotch comedian, won well deserved applause, and little Florence Alice Palmer was elegance personified in the classic dance she presented during the ballroom scene. Himself Has an Idea Which He Recognizes as Clever and Is Willing to Introduce With His Compliments: Would Have Ranger "In Style All the While."

By P. G. T.

Now that the style, show is over, we have thought up some suggestions for future style shows that may appeal to the chamber of commerce, retail merchants' association and the multitude of other fraternal organizations in town

This idea is offered free gratis to the city of Ranger and we shall ask no royalties or anything for the use of it but except, perhaps, we would wish free eats and sleeps during the non-style and style show which shall be explained.

What got us next to thinking up this clever idea was our intimate association with the beautiful lady models and handsome guy models in the latest and best style show of the

After that the local sign painting companies should order lots of gold leaf and put it on all the side walks, so the whole town will look like a swell stage setting. Also there should be no traffic allowed over the streets until the fatal day of the start, and then only automobiles, which should be required by the fatal officers for the new session.
