EVENTS IN OKLAHOMA NEARING CRISIS

Riot Guns Called into Play, by Police to Prevent Rioting at Funeral of Detroit Girl

THIRD DEGREE ALLEGED CAUSE OF GIRL'S DEATH

She Dies Soon After Arrest on Charge of Theft and Relatives Aroused.

By United Press.
DETROIT, Sept. 20.—Gladys Lorenz, 13, whose father charged that she died from third degree "torture" methods of the police, following her arrest on a charge of theft, will be buried this afternoon. To prevent possible rioting, riot guns will be issued to three squads and police have been instructed to be held in readiness in automobiles at stations near the home of the girl's father.

Police and 500 men fought a 20-minute battle last night in front of the father's home. Three officers were injured, 12 rioters were laid out by night sticks and seven persons arrested.

THREE PHYSICIANS NAMED TO EXAMINE DEAD GIRL'S BODY

By Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.— While three physicians appointed by the coroner's court were making an autopsy of the body of 13-year-old Gladys Lorenz, a Polish girl, whose father alleges that she died last Saturday as a result of mistreatment by police after they had arrested her on a charge of grand larceny, police were on duty in her home to prevent a demonstration there. Two riot calls were sent out during the night to prevent expected demonstrations.

John Lorenz, father of the girl, said his daughter told him the police had abused her and forced her to take ice baths in an effort to get from her a confession that she had committed a theft amounting to about $100. According to the assistant chief of police, the girl died as a result of an attack of acute pleurisy.

RANGER BOY SERVING WITH U. S. MARINES ON MANEUVERS IN VIRGINIA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Marching through the hills of Virginia with the East Coast Expeditionary force of the U. S. Marine corps, Esker Allen Singleton, formerly of Ranger, Tex., is now taking part in a series of maneuvers, which began Aug. 27, and will not be completed until Oct.
7, when the force returns to its base at Quantico, near here.

Many unusual features are being carried out in connection with the maneuvers, including visits to the Civil war fields at Waynesboro, Winchester and New Market. At the latter place a historic spectacle of the battle of New Market is being presented by the marines in conjunction with the cadets of the Virginia Military institute. Football and baseball games, moving pictures, athletic and educational features alternate between military marches and battle practice.

The marines are following a cir-cuitous trail to Waynesboro, in the Shenandoah valley, and will return over a northern route by way of Winchester, the entire journey being over 300 miles. They will reach Washington about Oct. 6, where another football game and a great military spectacle is scheduled to take place before the force returns to Quantico.

Singleton is a son of Allen N. Singleton of Ranger, and he joined the Marine corps at Fort Worth last March. He is now attached to the Third Signal company.

ST. MATHEWS, S. C., Sept. 20.— A call for a southern cotton convention to be held in Columbia, S. C., on Oct. 16 was issued today by J. S.
Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Growers' association.

Ranger Skies Present Scene of Wondrous Beauty

If there was a scenic painter in Ranger last evening, he would have had a sketch this morning of wondrous beauty.
The sky has seldom presented the natural beauties in so many forms as it did between 5:30 o'clock and sundown. Ranger people, who stopped long enough to look at the colors, odd shaped formations of crags and castles, as the poets say, reveled in the beauties.

As far as the naked eye could see, the sky was clouded, except for a thin line in the northwest. There was a rather sharp line of demarcation between the clear and unsullied portion of the horizon and the dark area. The distinction was unusual.

The sky seemed the darkest above the fast setting sun. But not for long. When the sun sank below Eastland hill there was a quick transformation from mellow darkness to a spectacle of golden radiance.

Casting the eye around, one could see in the south heavens, not a rift in the clouds, but a grayish green gleam. The picture it presented would have been worthy of an artists with the brush and palette. And for the poet, verses worthy of Joyce Kilmer.

WEDDING WILL BE SURPRISE TO MANY FRIENDS

Ranger Couple Will Have Cer- emony Performed at Elks' Circus.

Two young Ranger people, who have made their residence here for several years but whose identity must be kept a secret until the wedding day, have consented to have their matrimonial knot tied before an audience at the Elks' circus week after next, Dr. H. A. Logsdon, exalted ruler of the Ranger Elks, No.
1373, announced today. The couple have been engaged for some time, he said.

"The young woman has been in to see me," Dr. Logsdon said when asked if he had been assured of the good faith of the young couple, "and she said they had intended to be married last month, but on account of the uncertainty of his work at the time, they decided to wait. He has been assured of his work and now he is ready to go through with his wedding.

"I don't know the man personally, but the young woman I've known for three years. I'm sure she is sincere."

A. E. Waltrip, representative of the Bob Morton circus, which will exhibit here under the Elks' auspices, said today that his company, in consideration for the couple's willingness to be publicly married, will buy the ring, pay the license fee and also remunerate the officiating minister. Presents of a substantial nature will be given to the couple to help them get a good start in domestic life, he said.

has been declared throughout Bulgaria as a result of the belated counter revolutionary movement following the death of Premier Stamboulvealed.

Fighting is reported under way in several places and scores are reported to have been killed.

forts to Stop "Beer War" Killings.

imately 300 men were rounded up in Saloons, cafes and cabarets of Chicago's underworld during the night and early morning in Mayor Dever's campaign to rid the city of beer wars, following beer war killings.

city's history.

Ranger Hi Seniors Organize and Name Officers of Class

The senior class of the Ranger High school held its first meeting Monday morning at which time the organization of the class was completed, and officers were elected.
There are 40 members in all, the largest class in the history of the high school.

A very enthusiastic and co-operative spirit is shown by each senior, which predicts a successful year for the class as a whole. Class colors of green and white, and the class flower—a daisy—were selected.

Class officers were elected as follows:
Thurman Gholston, president.
Roy Wilson, vice president.
Evelyn West, secretary-treasurer.
Lawrence Lonsdale, sergeant-at-arms.

Virginia Brookes, class reporter.
At a later meeting, Wednesday, reports of the various committees were made, and the following annual staff was selected by the seniors: Editor-in-chief, Verner Mitchell; assistant editor-in-chief, Virginia Brookes; business manager, Octavia Tranham; assistant business manager, Thurman Gholston; society editor, Edna Brashier; art editor, Christina Schmuck; jester, Murtle Mills.

Full plans have not yet been made for the publication of the Hi Hub this year, but Evelyn West will be editor-in-chief and Phyllis Williams assistant editor. Other seniors on the staff will be Murray White, Norine Maxey and Maurine Bowman.

LAKE CISCO ALMOST READY TO RECEIVE WATER FOR STORAGE

CISCO, Tex., Sept. 20.—Lake Cisco was formally turned over to the city of Cisco, Monday night, when Mayor Williamson and Judge Lawther of Dallas, the latter acting for the Friestadt company of Chicago and Houston, signed the documents legally transferring the $1,250,000 dam. Dirt was broken three years ago for the dam.

Everything is completed save the installation of the sluice gates, which will be shipped from the factory today, according to advices received by Mayor Williamson. It will take about three weeks to place the gates and pour the concrete and after this is completed Lake Cisco will be in shape for the storage of water.

CALLS FROM VESSEL COME OUT OF FOG, THEN SILENCE

By United Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Nothing has been heard from the befogged vessel, whose mysterious calls last night stirred amateur radio fans and coastal stations to the belief that the boat calling was in danger off the coast of New Haven, Conn.

Hats on Display Next Saturday, the Official Hat Day

Official hat day may belong exclusively to Ranger, but it is, nevertheless, a very important occasion. The men and women of Ranger are known everywhere as very particular dressers, due largely to the fact that they have discriminating tastes and like to appear well dressed. Therefore an official hat day at the beginning of autumn, just after the summer straw has gone into the discard, is a significant event.

The merchants of Ranger have proclaimed next Saturday as official hat day. They propose to make a display of hats of all shapes, styles and colors, both for the men and the women. If the stranger in Ranger wonders at the big crowds he sees gathered before the show windows and entering the stores next Saturday, he may be enlightened if he notes the splendid new headwear adorning the people.

Those who want to get acquainted with the latest designs, the newest models, the most exclusive and attractive hats must be sure to spend Saturday in Ranger, for the display of hats will be well worth while.

Ranger Style Show Next Week Arouses Much Interest

Great interest is being shown in the coming style show and vaudeville entertainment which the Ranger merchants will give on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 26 and 27. Tickets which are on sale at the Crawford Pharmacy are going at a rapid rate, and reservations should be made at an early date in order to secure seats of advantage.

The opportunity to see the season's latest fashions in clothes for men, women and children, and also to enjoy a good vaudeville show, is one chance in a year, and Ranger people are showing their appreciation by ordering many reservations in advance of the date set for the show.

GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA HAS APPEAL FOR AID

Mass Meeting in Jackson Parish Charges "Super Government" There.

By Associated Press.
BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 20.— Governor Parker today made public the contents of a resolution adopted at a mass meeting of citizens of Jackson parish and forwarded to him, charging that "super government" had been established in Jackson parish to the extent of disrupting the judiciary and the machinery of the court in such a way as to cause the punishment of innocent persons while guilty ones were permitted to go free, and had practically disfranchised voters not in sympathy with the Ku Klux Klan.

The resolution was signed by W.
D. Jeffries, A. H. Colton and R. L.
Hardy, as a committee, appointed at the mass meeting to appeal to the governor for aid.

Governor Parker has not yet announced what action he proposes to take.

Riots Between Klan and anti-Klan Orders Feared In Illinois

By Associated Press.
MARION, Ill., Sept. 20.—The supervisors of Williamson county, scenes of the Herrin mine massacre, in a resolution adopted today, asserted the "people are becoming alarmed and serious trouble is imminent." The resolution was adopted in connection with the alleged laxity in law enforcement and the feeling said to exist between the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and the Knights of the Flaming Circle, an anti-klan organization.

brated here last night at a dinner known as "Advertising Headquarters," in honor of Dingee & Conard company, a client of 60 years' standing.

completion of 35 years' of service at Advertising Headquarters by Jarvis A. Wood. Mr. Wood, oldest

Lawmakers Gathering to Arraign Walton

By The Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.—Events in Oklahoma moved quickly today towards a showdown between Governor Walton and members of the legislature over the unusual exercise of executive authority and the governor's war on the Ku Klux Klan.

The call for the extra session of the lower house to consider charges that Governor Walton had taken unto himself the powers of a despot and supplanted constitutional government with despotic rule, was signed by W. D. McBeem, representative from Stephens county, and 45 other house members, and it was said that additional signatures bringing the total number to about 54 would be obtained today.

McBeem said he anticipated no attempt by the governor to carry out his threat of jailing members of the legislature if they sought to meet in special session. He asserted that Governor Walton and Murray Gibbons, speaker of the house, had contemplated the issuance of a call for a special session in a last desperate hope that "some of the boys" might be won over to the governor's cause by a show of his desire to remedy the situation he had created.

"Civil government in some counties of the state is under control of the klan and the only way to stop lawlessness in the state is by the use of the military," the governor declared in a proclamation last night, when he ordered the seizure and removal of all publicly displayed fiery crosses within the state.

To forestall the charge that the extra session of the Oklahoma legislature is a klan legislature (a committee of seven state representatives issued a statement that they will advocate laws that will prohibit the wearing of masks in assemblage or in parades and a severe penalty for flogging or mob violence of any form.

A signed statement by N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the klan of Oklahoma to the Associated Press, declared that Governor Walton is making the klan a "peg" on which a political bankrupt can hang his tattered habilliments. "A grotesque failure who is making his last bid for public favor," Jewett said in his statement.

"Despite his insidious insults to klansmen, who are offered protection if they would quit the organization, we have been enjoying a growth in membership," he asserted.

LAW PROPOSED TO TAKE MASKS OFF IN OKLAHOMA

By United Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.— Masks must come off in Oklahoma was the announcement of a state legislative committee in its reply to Governor Walton's charge that the prosecution of the klan can not be secured in civil courts. Six members who were authorized by some members of the house today pledged their efforts to securing legislation that will mean the abolition of the mask and unreserved efforts to curb mobs.

The statement declared: "We desire to go on record as favoring investigation of the charges of dereliction of duty by various county officials in law enforcement and we favor enactment of a law prohibiting mask parades, assemblages and rigid prohibition of flogging or mob violence in any form."

The military court of inquiry continued its investigation today. Findings of a severe nature have been uncovered thus far, it was indicated.
Prosecution of the men involved will follow, it is expected.

ADJUTANT GENERAL DENIES MORE TROOPS CALLED OUT

By Associated Press.
TULSA, Okla., Sept. 20.—Adjutant General Markham said today he had not been authorized by the governor to mobilize more troops for duty in Oklahoma City, when advised that such an order had been issued to prevent convening of the legislature next Wednesday.

BEAUMONT, Sept. 20.—Joe Cassara, negro, 45, sought since the slaying of T. O. Rial of Houston near here on Sept. 1, surrendered to the sheriff yesterday. He is being held for investigation.

AUSTIN, Sept. 20.—Seventy-five patients, 26 bitten by the same fox terrier puppy, have been treated in the past few weeks at the Pasteur institute. Nine persons from Eagle Pass were bitten by the same dog.
Others were attacked by cats and skunks.

ORDERS ISSUED TO SEIZE ALL FIERY CROSSES

Editors in Oklahoma Charge Governor With Misuse of Executive Power.

By United Press.
The house of representatives of the state legislature was preparing today for an extraordinary session to open here Sept. 26 to investigate charges relative to the misuse of the executive power by Governor Walton. The call was issued early today and representatives throughout the state are now reported to be hurrying to the capital.

The special call followed closely the meeting at Tulsa yesterday of the editors of leading state papers, when charges of misuse of the executive power, of libel against the state and defamation of the state by misuse of the military and general condemnation of the executive were made.

Governor Walton, when he declared war on the Ku Klux Klan, branded the fiery cross as an "emblem of fear, hatred and rebellion." The governor now charges that the widespread opposition in the state against his policy is an additional cause for removal of all klan emblems, and the militia officers have been instructed to take charge of all fiery crosses, Adjutant General Markham being instructed to supervise the work and see that it is done.

Purpose of Call.
The purpose of the legislative call, outlined in secret session, is to prefer charges against the governor on the following counts:

That he has refused to allow the laws of the state to be executed which are necessary to the public good.

That he has stated he will not permit the execution of laws providing for capital punishment when his wishes are carried out and has even incited to murder and given encouragement to the commission of crime, all in contravention of the laws of the state and his oath as governor.

Other causes are alleged abuse of the governor's pardon and parole power and the declaration of military rule over the state. It is further charged that the state's chief executive has excited class antagonism and has arrayed class against class and religion against religion for the purpose of advancing his own political and personal gains and desires.

Despotism Alleged.

It is charged that he has openly urged certain classes to kill others with a promise of pardon; that he has unlawfully mobilized the militia of the state without reason, bringing shame to and inflicting an unwarranted expense on the state; that he has set aside the writ of habeas corpus and has sought to perpetuate injustice and despotism, all in direct violation of the constitution of the nation and the state.

The legislative call is understood to take notice also of the governor's threat that the lawmakers would be arrested and thrown into jail, even though they sought to assemble peacefully, of his order censoring the state press and the movements of the military although no overt act was committed against the state forces.

WHY OPPOSE BOBBED HAIR?
 In the face of opposition by the conservatives who think their dignity is lowered by too ready acquiescence in departures from ancestral and venerated roles, the bobbed hair converts continue to gain in number. They are becoming quite an army and so strong they now can laugh almost with unconcern at those who frown on them.
 It is not long since the "call on the carpet" of a popular and hard-working Salvation Army worker because she had bobbed her hair caused a wave of sympathy for the girl which carried a host of bobbed hair converts along. The commander of the army may suspend her from working in the ranks until her hair grows long again, but this will merely negative the result that it is hoped to achieve.

From Manchester, England, comes word that a leading hospital there has ordered that no nurse with shorn locks will hereafter be permitted to look after patients. But if the rival hospitals encourage nurses to bob their hair, preferring those who rid themselves of a needless worry, it is quite possible the conservative hospital will soon lack patients or change its policy.

When the girls throughout this country persuaded their fond mothers, one after another, to consent to bobbed hair, the victory was won.
 The protests of the men availed nothing, and these protests have largely ceased since the men have become convinced that the women are as much entitled to comfort as the sterner sex. It is not many years since the men themselves wore their hair long, and the custom was observed for years in the courts by the wearing of wigs. How many men would willingly return to the discomfort of long hair?

For considerations of health, comfort and convenience the women are entitled to wear their hair short if they wish to do so. Long hair is said to add to their beauty, and perhaps it does, but this is largely a matter of custom. The mother puts off to the last moment the cutting of curls from her baby boy's head because they look so pretty, but few of them would willingly consent to an 18-year-old son wearing his hair in curls. It may look pretty, but out of place. So in time the long haired women may pass out of the category of pretty women in the eyes of generations that prefer practical short hair. It is quite possible that the women of the next century will wear their hair as short as do the men.

Women have long insisted upon having equal rights with the men and they will have their way. They have attained many rights for which they fought and they are certain to win others they yet strive for. If they want to bob their hair, even wear it cut very short, the men might as well acquiesce gracefully and cheerfully, for they will have to accept the custom, whatever it may be.

Everybody wants law for purposes of protection, but as a self-restraint they don't like it.—Toledo Blade.

One thing seems settled about anthracite—the price will stay up.—

 Today they mix it up to help pay a $300 bill on the football uniforms of the high squad.

UNEARTH ORNATE HAIRPINS OF PREHISTORIC WOMEN

 SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Sept.
 20.—Hairpins of bone, studded with tiny crystals, are among more than 2,500 prehistoric objects so far unearthed on the site of the former Ambassador hotel here, according to George G. Heye, founder and director of the Museum of the American Indian (Heye Foundation) of New York city, under whom the work is being carried on. Mr. Heye declares the ornate hairpins "show that the prehistoric woman had much the same traits as her modern sister."

NEARLY TWO MILLION.

Sounds like a big figure, and it is big. That many times during the year people go to their nearest store and ask for Black and White Ointment, because they have come to depend on this wonderful preparation to keep their skin free from pimples, blotches, bumps, eczema, rash, tetter, "breaking out," etc.

You won't know what real happiness and fun is until you make your-people who want to associate only

 Begin using Black and White Ointment and feel the thrills girls, women their ugly skin clearing up, feeling smooth and looking lovely.

It is economically priced, in lib-

SIX MEN ATTACK MAN AND WOMAN SEATED ON NEW YORK PARK BENCH

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Firemen and police joined forces today in a search through Central park and the adjoining fashionable apartment house district for six men who are said to have assaulted a young German who was sitting on a park bench with his sweetheart and, after knocking his unconscious, to have attacked the girl.

George Volund, the youth, when he regained consciousness, pulled an alarm that brought both firemen and police. In the ensuing search two men were routed from a brush clump. Martina Lachman, the girl, was found nearby in a dazed condition.
 Alfred Askness, 19, and Edward Hellett, 21, were captured by the police and identified by the girl as her assailants.

PRESSMEN'S STRIKE
 IN NEW YORK SEEMS
 NO NEARER CLOSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Additional police protection was provided today outside of the office of the New York Times, where a "combined" edition of all the New York City dailies is being published.

The lines of battle were tightened between the men and employers, both voting determined resistance to the other at meetings lasting until early morning.

Following the decision of the pressmen's union not to go back to work, the publishers called for a new union, asking that all strikers be outlawed.

ATHLETIC CLUB IN EASTLAND IS A 'PEACH'

Old Alhambra Theatre Building Found Adaptable for Gym and Accessories.

By HOWARD BARMAN Eastland can point to the American Legion Athletic club with pardonable pride. It is a "peach" as the fellow in the street puts it. Rangerites while in the county seat should take the first opportunity to visit this building and take a peek at the interior and equipment.

The Eastland legion bought the building from Tom Harrell, after the lessee of the Alhambra theatre closed it up. Singularly enough the building was naturally adapted for gym purposes. The auditorium has a ceiling easily 25 feet high. The dimensions are great enough for a regulation basketball court with side lines.

The front of the building inside is a two-story affair. The second floor was used as a balcony and for the motion picture operator's booth. The immediate front of the second floor has been converted into a gallery, and the space back of the gallery into a lounging room, which is prettily decorated and has a fire escape.

Offices in Front. The offices and check room are on the right of the main entrance and the steel lockers and showers on the left. The old auditorium has had the sloping floor levelled and it is used entirely for gym purposes. The floor is maple wood.

There are 14 shower baths and 900 steel lockers in the dressing room. N. H. McClamroch, physical director at the club, told the writer that he would be glad to be of any assistance to those who are interested in putting in a club in Ranger. McClamroch has had more than eight years experience in physical culture, a great part of it spent at Y. M. C. A. S.

"Sonny" Is at the Club. "If you boys haven't a place to go at nights, then it is time to install a club in your city," McClamroch said. "See these fellows out on the floor. They are all Boy Scouts. They are playing around like tadpoles now, but we send them through regular exercises every night they are here. If they weren't here tonight, they might be at home, and they might not be. This work develops their bodies."

"I take youngsters and study their weak points and see that they go through stunts that will develop their bodies. A fellow who doesn't make the athletic team has a chance here." McClamroch had a busy day at Wednesday. He had the high school boys at the gym in the morning for several hours. In the evening he had a business men's class between 5:30 and 7 o'clock. From 8 to 9:30 o'clock, he had the Boy Scouts under his wing.

His schedule keeps him at the gym daily. There are classes for the high school boys and girls, business men, young men, matrons, business women and certain hours for games. There are three vacant theatre buildings in Ranger, the Rex, Lone Star and Southland. The thought occurs that one of these three buildings may be adaptable for club purposes. The Lions committee might well inspect them.

NAME THE BEST 'FIND' IN THE BIG LEAGUES

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Picking the best young ball player of the season as the major league schedules thin down to the last few games of the year, is the opening of training for the Hot Stove league.

It is an old diversion of unending arguments and a question that is seldom settled. Ideas about ball players vary with the individuals. Infielders favor infielders, outfielders lean toward outfielders and pitchers apply the closest scrutiny to young hurlers.

Many competent critics regard young Tony Kauffman, the Chicago pitcher, as the best find of the season.

Christy Mathewson, now president of the Boston Braves, expressed the opinion recently that Kauffman is the finest looking pitcher he has seen in years.

The development of Kauffman has an interesting background, that is all the more interesting when applied to the praises sounded by Mathewson. Kauffman is the protege of the great Grover Alexander, the dean of the Cub pitchers and one of the finest pitchers of all times. Alex found Kauffman possessed of a lot of natural ability and the facility for learning. He took him in hand and made a pitcher out of him.

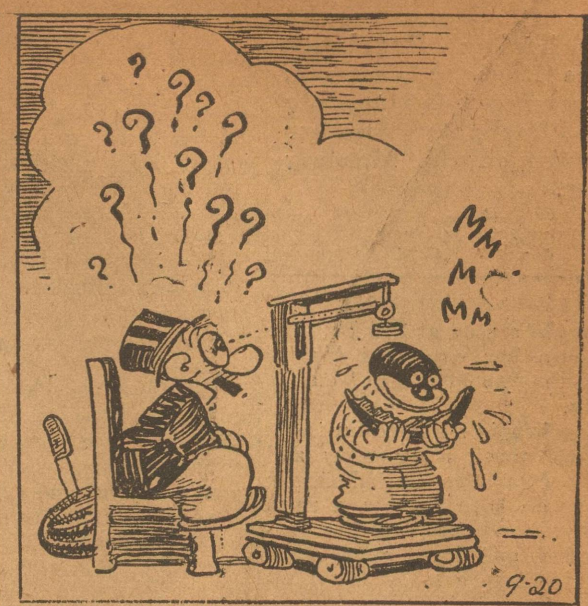

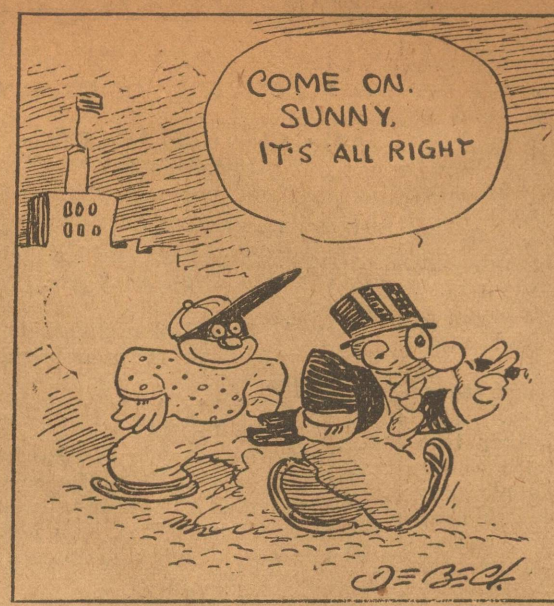

Not all great artists can teach.

Some of the best instructors in sports are those who were not wizards in the actual performance of their art. Many of the best managers and trainers in the boxing world were ham fighters, but they had ideas they were able to carry out and which they could impart to others.

Jimmy DeForrest was never a great fighter, and yet he is accepted as the greatest teacher of boxing and the most successful developer of fighters in the country.

Dan Morgan never was a fighter. He got out of politics to become a handler of boxers and he developed a number of great fighters, including Jack Britton, Battling Levinsky and Knockout Brown.

In contrast is the case of Mathewson, whom John McGraw and other qualified critics call the greatest pitcher of all times. Matty had everything and knew everything, but he could not teach.

He had in his fadeaway ball one of the most effective of all pitching deliveries, but he never was able to teach any pitcher to throw it. He only knew how to throw it himself.

It might have been, some thought, that Mathewson did not want to give up the secret, but it is certain that it would be greatly to his advantage to pass it along to his pitchers, and he has several youngsters with the Boston Braves who would become stars with the delivery.

Main Drag Stuff

New Traffic Regulation Saves Somebody's Car; Ranger Police Getting Into the Limelight; Another Chapter on the Morning After.

By P. G. T.

The boy who makes the pictures wiggle on the screen at Bill Palmer's movie house has expressed his ire regarding the "no left turns" on the main drag.

"Got my hoopie all fixed up to do battle with these other flivvs and autos," he complains. "Had fender braces put on both front and rear, also bumpers and then had the fender rounded and lined with steel. Figgered I'd have a lot of fun rammin' in to this car and that flivver on our down town corners, and then, dog nab it, they made this dern fool law and spoiled all my joy!"

"No, bud, you can't see your mama every night now," according to a news story in yesterday's Ranger Times. That is you can't meet the only girl on the street if she walks and you ride. If you don't succeed in attracting her attention first time you are entitled to a trip to our new city hall. You might get out of that.

If she is sore at you, all she has to do is to refuse to ride while one of our eagle-eyed policemen is hanging around and it's liable to cost you fifteen seventy. That's H. P. and we don't mean horse power either.

So hereafter, just to be on the safe side. Always meet a girl out walking or if you must ride go to her home and pick her up there.

John Remonte, city electrician, says he can furnish us with any number of naughty terms for "The Water Smugglers." We knew he was naughty all right but it's news to us that he is so well up on the terms.

CHAPTER 3RD.

I came to feeling faint and sick, my head was ringing—or at least I thought it was—but learned that it was the bell in the fo'castle was ringing eight bells on the dead watch. That Croox and I should almost die from excitement on the dead was, I deemed, a strange coincidence.

A grimy, grisley sailor was holding a bottle of smelling salts to my nose which was delicately flavored with attar of roses. Another man was pouring something both hot and cold between my lips and I arose to my feet immediately. I noticed that Croox was undergoing the same treatment, but he did not revive until he had embibed the whole of the contents of the bottle. He came to his feet and staggered drunkenly, at which I wondered not.

We were placed in the brig for half a day and given a gallon of pure, cold water and ordered to drink it within three hours time.

"How cooling this ice water is," I said to Croox. "Hush, not so loud, Grewsome," answered Croox, "we are being punished for neglecting duty. It is considered the greatest punishment on shipboard to make a hand drink water. Don't you know that in England the water is purposely made undrinkable? As a matter of fact it is against the law to drink water in that country, I have been reading 'Bunkum's English Law' and I know."

"Sixteen men on a dead man's chest." This horrible chant came to us again, this time from above.

Croox's face blanched, then turned blue, purple, bright red, lavender, mauve, scarlet and crab apple green consecutively. He trembled in every limb and grabbed his left ear between his teeth and bit it unmercifully. By these signs—always exhibited when he solved a mystery—I knew he was on the trail of the secret villainy of the Aquatankic.

"I feel that we have the secret," he gasped in a heavy, loud voice, "tomorrow we shall know, shall—sh—sh—sh—sh," his voice died away and he went into a stupor of thought.

Dear readers, remember the great bluefoot's last words. "Tomorrow we shall know."

The college registrar had registered 700 men students before formal registration started. It is expected there will be approximately 1,000 new students in the college and about 1,000 old students.

Four Years Ago In Ranger

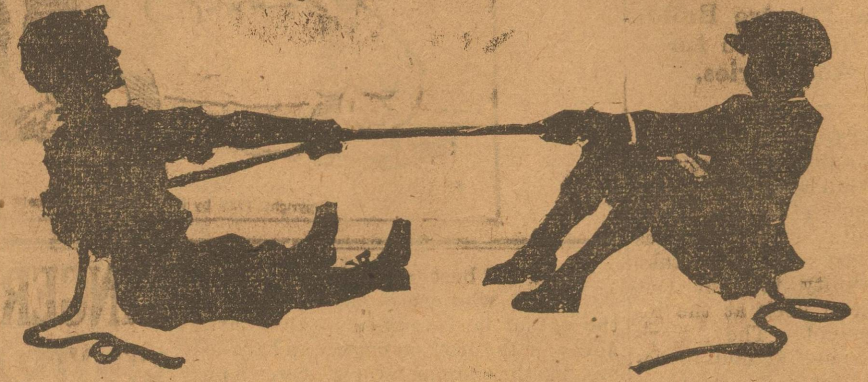

Taken from the files of the Ranger daily Times, Sept. 20, 1919:

The Drillers-Barnes well is a 5,000-barrel well. The well is located seven miles west of Ranger, less than a mile north of the Ranger-Eastland road.

The Tiffin Crushed Stone company, recently purchased by John King and associates after it had been idle for two years, is now ready to turn out enough crushed rock to materially relieve the acute shortage that is hampering city development, according to the new owner.

What Growing Children Need

EVERY mother knows that a growing family needs much nourishing food. Boys and girls need energy for their school-work and their play. Every member of the family must be kept in the best of condition.

One of the greatest of all energy-producing foods is Karo. One reason is that it contains a large proportion of Dextrose, the great energy food.

Also, Karo is one of the most economical of all foods. Not only does it cost so little but it can be used for so many purposes. Karo takes the place of high priced preserves.

You can use it for sweetening in all kinds of cooking and baking. It makes a palatable-tasting dessert with stewed prunes, or stewed fruit.

Ask your grocer for Blue Label Karo or Red Label Karo—both equal in nutrition.

FREE—A booklet about Dextrose every mother should read. Explains why children thrive on Dextrose. Sent free with beautifully illustrated 64 page Cook Book. Write
