PERSONAL
By John

The fall madness is not far away. The precursors are on the scene and are now being read by many an avid fan. A copy of the Top-O-Texas Football magazine has found its way to our desk via our friend, Joe Helton. This particular book is devoted to Class A and AA teams of the Panhandle and the low rolling plains of North Texas. Our interest of course is in the Class A teams.

We notice that in Districts 1A through 5A, our district has by far the most teams assigned. District 3A now boasts of eight schools; Districts 1A, 2A and 4A have six teams and District 5A has only five members.

In picking the top ten teams of this group, three are from 3A, two from 5A, 1A and 4A, respectively, and only one from 2A. This definitely puts District 3A as the tough row to hoe in High Plains Class A football.

Among these top ten teams from all districts, the Farwell Steers are given the bottom rung slot -- just barely making it as the number 10 team. Surprisingly enough, from our personal viewpoint, the Vega Longhorns are rated number four in this group and the top team in District 3A. The other district 3A teams in rated order are Springlake-Earth, Farwell, Sudan, Bovina, Kress, Happy and Hart.

We suspect that the entire Farwell community will have reservations on this rating, but at least it is a starting point for the Monday morning quarterbacks to begin to argue about. Come to think of it, some of these "experts" don't need a starting point; some can begin in the middle of a sentence.

Adding a few notes on the other half of the Twin Cities football madness, the Texico Wolverines began their workouts on Wednesday of this week. Texico, which only began football last year after a 30-year layoff, is in a new three-team league. Along with the Wolverines will be Melrose and Roy. Melrose is the district pre-season favorite. Texico will play a nine-game schedule this year, up several games from last season's abbreviated play.

The Green and Gold will have practically all of their boys back from last year's squad, and with their experience should hotly contest the district nod. Coach Jim Wynne will again direct the team with an able assistant who is also experienced in the football arts.

The sports capitol of the Golden Spread is about to launch into another spine-tingling athletic year. Aren't you glad you live in the Twin Cities?

The month of August sees the anniversary of a much criticized but vitally needed government agency. In August of 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the act creating a Social Security program. It originally began with a one per cent contribution by the employee and a like amount from the employer. This was based on a maximum wage of $3,000. This produced a $30,000 tax on wage earners and industry. Today the tax has risen to $374.00 maximum per year on earners and employers alike. As the benefits have been expanded, so has the tax bite; and the mushrooming amount extracted from the public apparently will continue to grow.

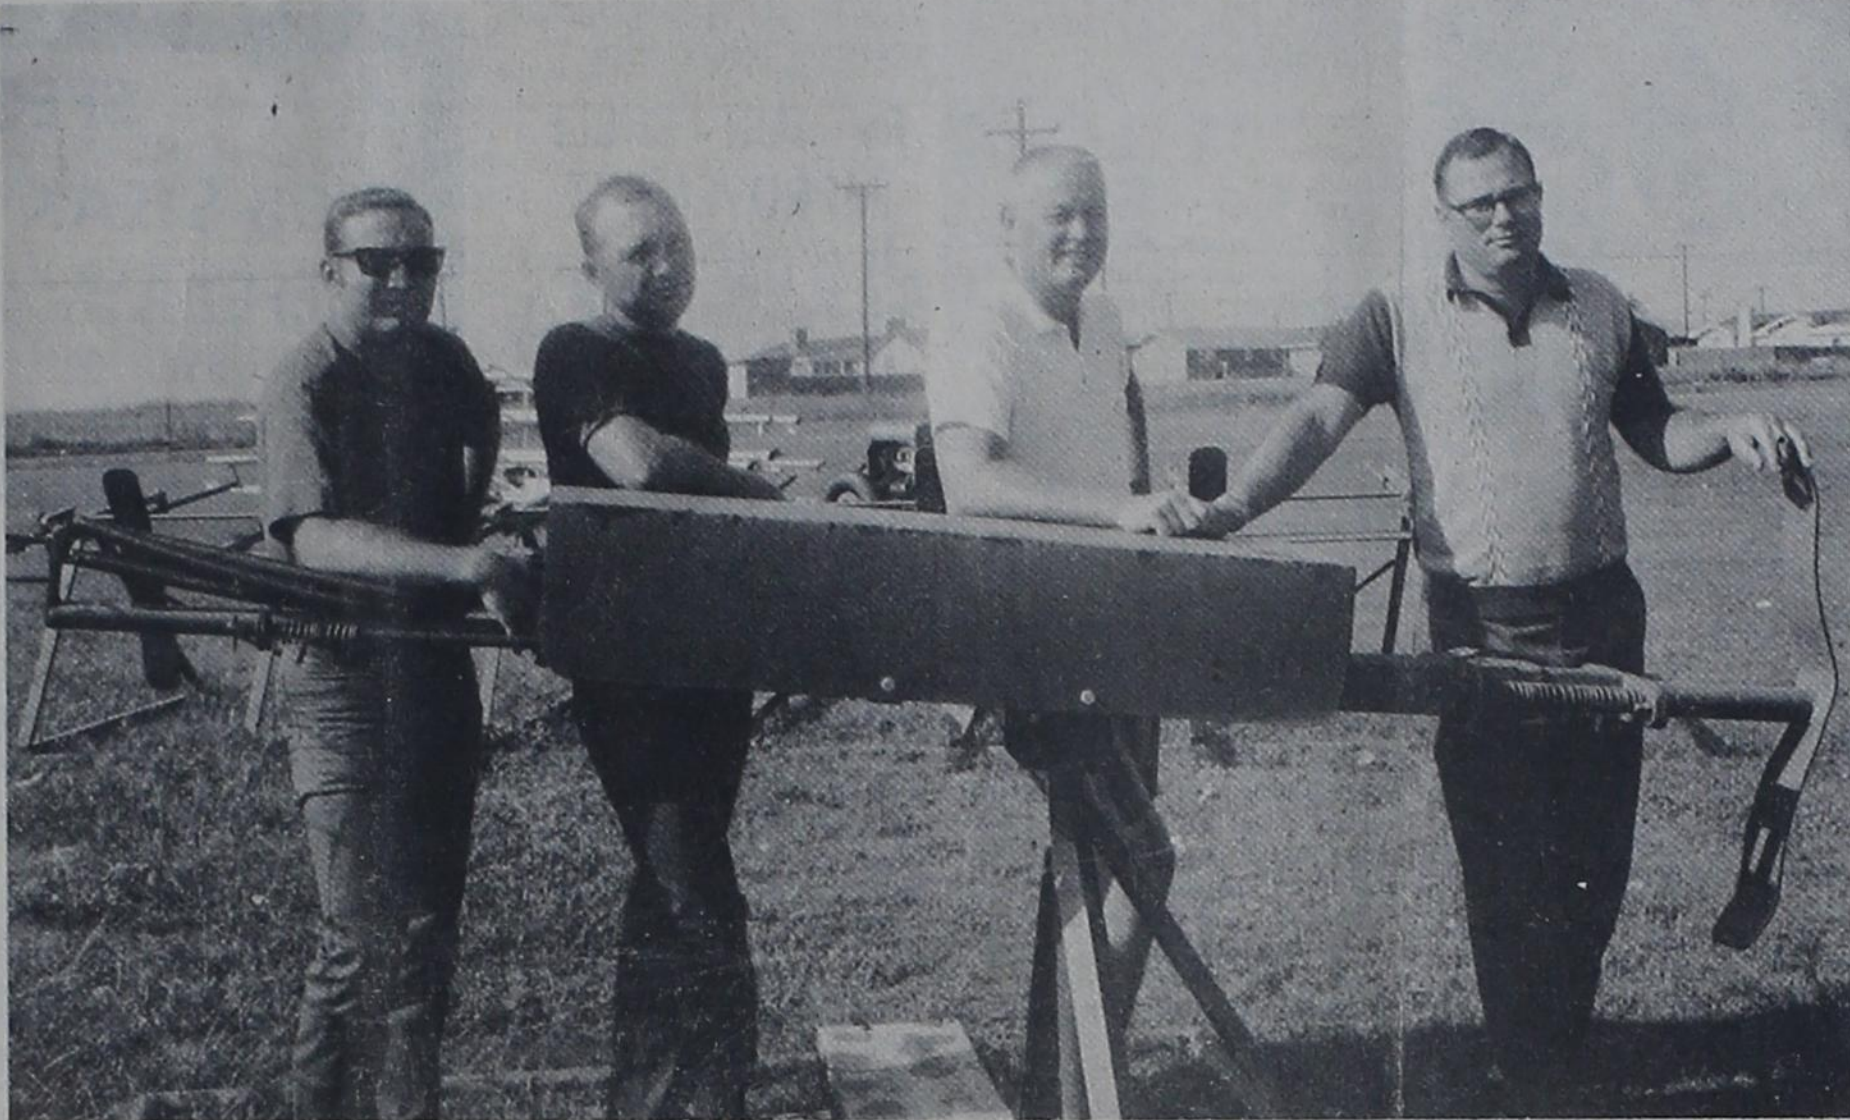

Under pending current federal legislation, Social Security taxes could be raised every two years until wage earners would be paying $1,365.00 a year, and this is based on the assumption that Congress does not add, increase, or make benefits easier to obtain.

This vast increase in the scope of Social Security could mean an eventual collapse of the system due to its tremendous cost to the tax payers, or it could mean the complete socialization of a significant part of our economy. We do not support either alternative but unless we as a nation elect legislators of prudence this is our unhappy destiny.

Speaking of legislators, we received a release that says the Texas Legislative Budget Board is urging all state agencies to hold all of their budget requests to minimums. Ben Barnes, the board chairman, warns that a "critical financial condition" looms which demands "economy-minded" government.

This is the same politician who only recently was favorably impressed with the idea of removing the Constitution ceiling on welfare spending.

Somewhere, somehow, my

GEAR--ING UP -- With football practice for Texas schools officially beginning next week, the Farwell School athletic coaches prepare the equipment for issue to the fall hopefuls. Helmets, uniforms, and other necessary gear must be made ready and issued for next week's practice sessions. Also being made ready are the "Monster Man" machines designed by Coach Toby Booth and Harry Sheets, local businessman. Left to right, are assistant football coaches, Larry Taylor, Jerry Dee Owen, and Vernon Scott, and head football coach, Toby Booth. The Farwell Steers play their first scrimmage game with Portales August 29. First game of the season is set for September 11 when the Steers meet the Friona Chieftains, their cross-county rivals, at Farwell.

At Texico --

Wolverines Plan Great Improvement

Football practice started on Wednesday, Aug. 12, for the Texico High School team, according to Jim Wynne, Wolverine head football coach. Practice for the junior high team will begin on the first day of school.

Texico varsity will have a nine game schedule this year. Their first game will be on Saturday, Sept. 5, against the Portales B team.

Returning lettermen this year are Terry Armstrong, Mike Casey, Wes Clark, Johnny Dane, Ken Farmer, Doug Harrison, Monte Lambert, Loren Gibbs, Randy Skaggs, Albert Steward, Terry Yell, Ricky Pace, and Jerry Askew. Ricky Ketcher-Jerry will be scholastically ineligible for the entire football season this year.

Boys who were out for football but didn't letter last year and planning to return this year are James Burford, Rayford Fitz, Danny Pearce, Marty White, Roy Arnold, Tim Ingram, and Frankie Tipton.

Coming out for football for the first time this year are Billy Baldridge, William Servatius, and Mitchell Turnbough, seniors, and Lynn Trimble, junior.

Coming up from the freshman team are Herman Ellicio, Alan Halle, Harold Hall, Domingo Rojas, Ronnie Winegart, and Gerald Whitener.

Steve Osborn and Dale Fought will serve as managers. The new assistant coach for this year is Bucky Walters who came to Texico from Oklahoma. He has previously worked in New Mexico at Melrose and Moriarty.

Wynne said that his quarterback prospects are Mike Casey, Monte Lambert, and Marty White, all seniors. White did not letter last year because of an injury.

The size of the team this year will average around 160 pounds, a little bigger than last year. They should have "good to excellent speed," Wynne said.

Texico played football for the first time last year after a 30-year layoff. Last season's record was 0-6, but it was an improved record, says Coach Wynne. They lost 54-0 in their first game and only 8-6 in the final game of the season.

"We expect a great improvement over last year," Coach Wynne emphatically stated.

Herb Potts, manager of Woreley Grain Company, sustained injuries in an accident last Wednesday afternoon. Potts was using a maintainer to remove blow sand from the vicinity of his horse barns east of Farwell when the machine hit a soft spot in the embankment and toppled over. Potts was thrown clear of the machine but was struck a glancing blow by the blade.

The injury required observation and hospitalization for several days, but he was released on Saturday and returned home. Potts reports that he is still sore and has a bruise on the back that requires drainage.

Mr. and Mrs. Potts left Wednesday morning of this week for a vacation at Ruidoso.

Texico Sets Registration

Registration for Texico Public Schools will be held on August 24 in conjunction with the first day of school, reports Superintendent A. D. McDonald. Students in grades seven through 12 will meet in general assembly at 9 a.m. Elementary students will meet in the elementary school building.

Registration will follow the assembly. Students will meet in short 30-minute class periods so that books can be issued and introductions made.

Superintendent McDonald also reports that the first general faculty meeting of the year will be held on Friday, Aug. 21, at 9 a.m. The annual dinner for faculty and staff will be held that evening at 8 o'clock in the cafeteria.

'Will' Anderson Is Showing Improvement

Robert William Anderson II, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. "Bob" Anderson of Farwell, is reported to be improving steadily but still in serious condition in the intensive care unit at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. He was taken to the Lubbock hospital following a two-car accident near Lariat. He is suffering with severe head, chest, and internal injuries.

The accident occurred about 11:15 a.m. last Friday 7.3 miles southeast of Farwell at the intersection of U. S. 84 and a county dirt road. Three other persons were involved in the accident. Mrs. Carla Henly Ethridge of Muleshoe, Route 5, and her seven-year-old daughter, Diana Fay, were both hospitalized in satisfactory condition. Another daughter, Debbie, age 8, was kept at West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe for observation, but was believed to be not seriously injured.

Investigating highway patrolman Robert Shedd said the 1970 Buick auto driven by Anderson was traveling east on the county road and the 1959 Chevrolet driven by Mrs. Ethridge was going southeast on U. S. 84 when the vehicles collided. Both vehicles were demolished.

Association Plans Playday

A Junior Playday has been planned for junior members of the Farwell Community Arena Association to be held Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the Farwell Arena.

Members will participate in barrel races, pole bending, potato races, cowhide races, flag races, and other horseback games.

All young people in the area are urged to attend the Playday activities. Refreshments will be served and the events will be adult sponsored.

Plans are being made to schedule the Playday as a weekly event. Announcements on this will be made at a later date, however.

Football Practice Begins Monday

Football practice for the Steers of Farwell High School will begin Monday at 7:30 p.m. and the boys will begin picking up their uniforms on Thursday and Friday of this week, Aug. 6 and 7, according to Toby Booth, head football coach. Freshmen will also get their uniforms this week.

In their first scrimmage game, Farwell will play Portales on August 29. Coach Booth said that Portales will have 19 of their 22 starters returning this year. They will scrimmage Clovis and Artesia prior to playing Farwell. A week later, the Farwell team will scrimmage Hereford.

In commenting on the team this year, Booth said, "We expect good things from Gary Erwin, Barry Williams, Gene Sheets, Randy Chandler, and Larry Erwin."

Linemen this year will be Mike Haseloff, Terry Craft,

Clint Deeds, and Mickey Lunsford. They should "give a very quick but small line," Booth said. Quarterback prospects this year will be Gene Sheets and Brett Hargrove. Sheets has varsity experience from last year and Hargrove has junior varsity experience.

There are eight teams in the district now that Hart and Happy have been added. "Springlake-Earth is capable of being the strongest team in the district," Booth said. Pre-season polls pick Springlake and Vega as the teams to beat in district this year. Other teams that will comprise the district are Bovina, Sudan and Kress. Booth said that, "Farwell will be a small but aggressive team."

Assisting Booth with the coaching duties will be Vernon Scott, also head basketball coach; Jerry Dee Owen, also junior high coach; and Larry Taylor, also junior varsity coach. All were on the coaching staff last year.

Lettermen returning to the squad this year are Gary Erwin, Larry Erwin, Barry Williams, Johnny Franse, Steve Franse, Gene Sheets, Larry Jones, Jackie Gilliam, Randy Chandler, and Mike Haseloff.

Some freshmen are expected to report for practice with the squad also.

Bruce Ayres Will Appear On Ted Mack Amateur Hour

Bruce Ayres, former choral director for Morton High School, will be featured on nationwide television Sunday, August 16. Ayres, 28, will appear on Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour on the CBS network along with other Texas talent.

The program may be seen in the Farwell area on KFDW-TV, channel 12, at 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Ayres will perform one of his own numbers.

Mrs. Bruce Ayres is the former Martha Blair of Farwell.

Ayres recently moved from Morton with his wife and son to Nashville, Tenn. He is promoting songs that he has written. In 1967 an Abilene group, The Brothers - In - Law, recorded Ayres' song, "Wanderlust." The record was cut in Houston and Ayres played guitar during the recording session. He has written about 35 songs and has performed several times on area television stations.

A 1960 graduate of Gruver High School, Ayres attended Hardin-Simmons University for three years before becoming engaged in farming and ranching in Hansford County. In 1967, he returned to HSU and received his degree in English and speech the following year.

Before moving to Morton, Ayres served as music and youth director of the First Baptist Church of Gruver. He served on the faculty of the Glorieta Baptist Assembly in New Mexico during the summer of 1969.

While at Morton, Ayres became well-known across the South Plains area as he performed at banquets and meetings.

His high school choir participated in area choral meetings. Their annual spring production, "Indian Capers," under Ayres' direction, was lauded as "one of the best ever" by area music fans. Ayres also taught English at Morton, and co-directed the 1970 junior play.

Ayres has been interested in music all his life and became acquainted with country and western music while a boy in junior high school. He learned to play the guitar before he entered high school and began entertaining during his teen years.

Globetrot With Rice

So much of today's entertaining centers around international party themes. And the perfect companion for so many dishes with foreign intrigue is rice. It's served in countries all around the world and it's a great go-with food.

For a rice dish with Mexican accents, you can simply cook rice with beef bouillon, onion, and chili accents. Just before serving toss it with diced avocado and pimiento.

The secret to the success of the dish is specially processed Uncle Ben's CONVERTED® Rice, which when cooked according to package directions results in perfect non-sticky rice every time you prepare it. The special process also assures you that you're getting twice the level of natural B vitamins.

Following is the recipe for Acapulco Rice, a great accompaniment to barbecued hamburgers, spit roasted beef or baked ham.

- ACAPULCO RICE
- 1/2 cup chopped green onion
 - 1 tablespoon butter
 - 1 can beef bouillon plus liquid
 - 1/4 teaspoon EACH chili powder and celery seed
 - 1 cup UNCLE BEN'S CONVERTED® Rice
 - 1 ripe avocado, peeled, pitted and cubed
 - 1 jar (2 oz.) diced pimiento

Cook onions in melted butter in a saucepan until soft. Add bouillon and water and heat to boiling. Stir in chili powder, celery seed and rice. Cover tightly and cook over low heat until liquid is absorbed and rice is tender, about 25 minutes. Mix in avocado and pimiento. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

At Home In Parmer County

By Janice Miller
 County HD Agent

The District 4-H Dress Reveal was Tuesday, August 4, at the Villa Inn in Amarillo. Parmer County was represented by four members. Coy Jamerson, Friona, served as an escort at the annual event. Deborah Harding competed in the senior division of the Reveal. Penny Norton represented the 9-11 year age group and Lee Ann Williams represented the 12-13 year age group. All of the girls are from Farwell.

For those of you who like cucumbers, try this way of serving them:

TOMATOES VINAIGRETTE

- 2 med. tomatoes, sliced
- 1 med. cucumber, thinly sliced
- 2 T, chopped parsley
- 1/2 onion, sliced separated in-to rings
- Lettuce, shredded

DRESSING:

- 1/2 c salad oil
- 1/4 c wine vinegar
- 1/2 t. salt
- 1/8 t. black pepper
- 1/4 t. each of Ground Savory Ground Tarragon Crumbled Bay Leaf Celery Salt

Alternate layers of tomato, cucumber and onion in shallow glass dish. Beat dressing ingredients together. Pour over vegetables and chill, covered, for at least 12 hours. Drain and serve on shredded lettuce. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Makes 6 servings.

For a tempting salad dish, thaw frozen lemon and lime concentrate. Mix with an equal amount of cold water. Chill well in refrigerator -- about one hour. Pour over cantaloupe balls in dessert dishes and garnish with sprigs of mint.

For those of you who are putting meat in the freezer, remember to wrap it in heavy aluminum foil or heavy freezer paper. This vapor-proof wrap prevents "freezer burn."

Rx FOR SHELF IMPROVEMENT

Does your bathroom suffer from a cabinet crisis? Is your medicine chest ill-equipped? Has protection against every-day emergencies not been put "on the shelf"? If the answer to any of these questions is "yes", you may be suffering from that dread disease "hypoprepaditis" (inadequate preparation).

To cope with this serious condition, a trip to your drug store to pick up a wide range of first-aid supplies is just what the doctor ordered. Many good products are available, and your pharmacist will happily help you choose the ones that will serve you best.

Regardless of what other products you decide on, the following--at the minimum--belong in every home. Check the boxes of those products you have, and the blanks will tell you what you need:

- Adhesive bandages, including large ones.
- A cream or lotion for abrasions.
- One pair of tweezers for removing splinters.
- A universal antidote in case of poisoning.
- Adult and children's thermometer.
- Rubalith, good for poison ivy, non-poisonous insect bites and other minor itches.
- A stomach upset remedy.
- Sterilized cotton and cotton-tipped sticks.
- Ointment or baking soda--for burns.
- Sterile dressing--to cover up wounds.
- Olive oil or mineral oil--a single drop to take objects out of the eye.

Konis Art Work To Be On Display

Ben Konis, who teaches art classes at Art 'N Such in Farwell, will have a showing of his work at Gallery 3 in Ruidoso, N.M., August 21 through September 7. A "Meet the Artist" hour will be held about 7 p.m. MDT on August 21.

Born in Perth Amboy, N.J., Konis worked as a commercial artist in his own firm in New York for 18 years before coming to Amarillo where he set up his own studio to devote his full time to art.

Overcoming the discovery that he was colorblind, Konis has been recognized as one of the most important and influential new painters in the Southwest.

Konis uses a strong pattern and light combined with rich color and bold brush strokes to create an impressionistic style in his vibrant landscapes and figures. It has been said that "his brush drips with the heat of our great Southwest." In his pastel work, Konis is said to reveal another facet of his rare insight into life. His feeling for the "little people" captures the secrets of the child's world, while his portraits of ancient Indian chieftains and Mexican peons unmask lifetimes of struggle, sorrow and despair.

The Ruidoso showing will include mixed media -- oils, pastels, charcoal, pen and inks and wood sculpture.

ART SHOWING SCHEDULED -- Ben Konis, who teaches art classes at Art 'N Such in Farwell, will have his art work shown at Gallery 3 in Ruidoso, N.M., August 21-September 7. Konis' brush is said to "drip with the heat of our great Southwest."

Cooking Will Reflect Visit To Alaska

By Drue Burt
"Cities are few and far between there," said Mrs. J. T. Lockhart after returning from a trip to Alaska with her daughter, Kathy, Mrs. Lockhart and Kathy visited Mrs. Lockhart's son, Dick, and his family in Anchorage, Alaska.

They visited in Alaska for two weeks. "The first week we were there the temperature was in the mid 50's during the day and in the 30's at night," Mrs. Lockhart reported. "It warmed up to the 70's before we left, however." She said that the 70's was about as warm as it ever gets there.

Another thing that seemed unusual to Mrs. Lockhart was the long hours of daylight. She said that it was about 11 p.m. before it began to get dark at night and that the sun rose again about 4 a.m. The reverse is true in the winter months; there are only around four hours of daylight. "My grandson, Ricky, goes to school and comes home in the dark," Mrs. Lockhart stated.

Although there are very few cities in Alaska, Mrs. Lockhart and Kathy did spend a lot of their time sightseeing. They went to see Portage Glacier about 50 miles from Anchorage

Most Americans agree that pollution is one of our most critical problems today. But few people seem to think there is anything they can do about it.

Actually we are all polluters. Every time we drive a car, flush wastes down a drain, or dispose of garbage and refuse, we are polluting the country.

Athelstan Spilhaus, dean of the Institute of Technology at the University of Minnesota, says, "Pollutants are the residues of the things we make use of and throw away... As the earth becomes more crowded, there is no away—one person's trash basket is another person's living space."

When we acknowledge that the struggle for a better environment takes place in the home as well as the lab, and in the marketplace as well as legislative chambers, we are on our way to helping solve the problem.

It may not seem so glamorous nor even so important to start in our own backyards, but one neat yard leads to yards of neatness. Efficient disposal of litter, trash and garbage has long-range implications.

Once a group starts to clean up their own neighborhood, they invariably march on to bigger community problems. They demand better sanitation departments, urge ordinances to control air pollution, join watershed associations that span out across the county to work for better water and the prevention of soil erosion. Anyone wanting to know more about the water shed associations can write for a free booklet to the National Association of Manufacturers, 277 Park Ave., N.Y., N.Y. 10017. Ask for "Our Native Land." The NAM also has a complete kit of material on "Save The Good Earth" for clubs that want to stage a program on the subject.

Go Western With Short Ribs

GO WEST YOUNG LADY, the saying goes...and why not? The aura of bright blue skies, wide open spaces, and the fragrance of meat roasting over a campfire, all so typically western, can be yours with little travel distance from your kitchen.

Arrangements for this western movement can be made at your nearest supermarket. Your only required ticket: beef short ribs and a package of Shake'n Bake Seasoned Coating Mix for Chicken that comes with its own shaker bag.

Ticketing done...now off to the "range," your kitchen range, that is. Here you can "round up" a world of flavor, reminiscent of the old western frontier days. Deviled Beef Short Ribs -- so devilishly western -- are much easier to prepare than you might imagine. Moisten meat with a mixture of sugar, dry mustard, water, lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce, and Tabasco; then shake the ribs, one at a time, in seasoned coating mix for chicken -- original or mild flavor. Place in a shallow pan and bake for about 40 minutes. The seasoned coating mix for chicken, with its special selection of herbs and spices, and even shortening, assures a crisp even brown coating and seals in all of the good beef flavor.

You'll find that your entire family will enjoy this western adventure in eating and this rib-sticking meat dish will be a favorite. Another family-pleasing beef dish, Brazilian Beefsteaks, makes use of cube steaks and seasoned coating mix for fish. When the man of the house arrives home at the end of that "lonesome trail" (or superhighway) to find that you've mastered up these mighty fine "vittles," he's sure to "brand" you...JUST GREAT!

-  Deviled Beef Short Ribs
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 dashes Tabasco sauce
- 3 pounds beef short ribs
- 1 envelope seasoned coating mix for chicken -- original or mild flavor
- Blend sugar, mustard, water, lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce, and Tabasco sauce together; use to moisten ribs. Then shake ribs in bag with seasoned

Vitamin B was first thought to be a single vitamin. It is now known to be made up of a number of different vitamins. All together they are referred to as the vitamin B complex -- riboflavin, niacin, and thiamin. Enriched loaf bread and cereals are good sources of the B complex vitamin.

Cheese is good for the diet. It helps build bones, strong teeth, and muscle. Cheese comes in many different varieties. Use cheese often -- make cheese toast for breakfast, add strips of cheese to a luncheon salad, use cottage cheese with fruit for supper, and use sliced cheese on crackers for snacks.

Fish is a good food for thrifty shoppers. Fry it, broil it, or serve it baked. Fish helps build muscle in our bodies. It's a good substitute for meat and chicken.

There are no simple rules for planning family meals. There are, however, several kinds of foods that should be included in every meal. Choose from each of these four food groups for all your meals: bread and cereals, fruits and vegetables, meats (fish and poultry), milk and milk products.

Eggs are an important food in the diet. Both the white and the yolk contain the important tissue building nutrient, protein.

coating mix, one at a time, as directed on package. Place in a shallow baking pan. Bake at 450 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes or until ribs are well browned on the outside and meat is rare or medium rare in center. Do not overcook or meat will be tough. Makes 6 servings.

Brazilian Beefsteaks
4 to 6 cube steaks (about 1 lb.)
1/2 clove garlic
1 envelope seasoned coating mix for fish
Rub the meat with garlic. Empty contents of envelope into the plastic shaker bag. Shake 1 steak at a time in the bag until evenly coated. Heat a lightly greased frying pan over high heat. Brown the coated cube steaks quickly on both sides. Garnish with lemon slices or parsley, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

The yolk is also a good source of the mineral iron and vitamins A and D.

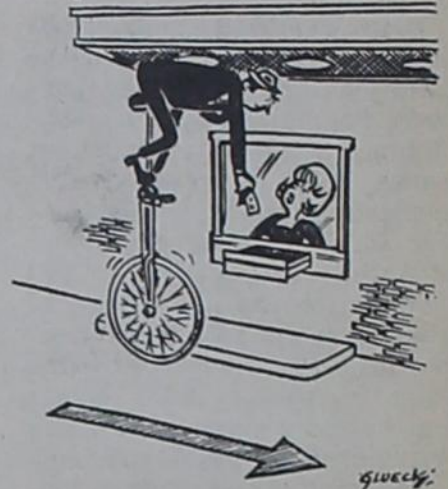

People need to eat a good breakfast every morning. Remember, it's been 12 to 14 hours since you ate the last meal and the body needs food for the next day's activities. Eat a good breakfast each morning. One that contains a citrus fruit or juice, cereal or toast, milk, and a spread -- how about peanut butter on toast?

One food that is always on the shelf is peanut butter. Do you know that peanut butter is high in energy, and helps build muscle and blood? Try peanut butter on toast and crackers, in stuffed celery, and in sandwiches.

Dark green vegetables like kale, spinach, green cabbage and collards, turnip and mustard greens have lots of vitamin A.

Have you heard about niacin? Niacin is needed for healthy skin and the digestive system. Meats are an important source of niacin. Foods that have been "enriched," like rice and breakfast cereals, are also excellent sources of niacin. Eat them regularly.

Busbice - Billington Vows Read In Sunday Ceremony

In an afternoon ceremony at First Baptist Church, Farwell, Sunday, August 9, Miss Sharron Busbice became the bride of Mike Billington. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Pershing Busbice and Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Billington, all of Farwell.

Rev. J. L. Bass officiated at the double ring service at an altar centered with a kneeling bench and a 15-branch half-moon brass candelabrum against a background of wood-rea fern trees. Brass 15-branch spiral candelabra entwined with daisies and fuji mums with blue satin bows flanked the center setting.

Mrs. Charles Aycock, organist, played nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. Jimmy Clements, soloist. Preceding the ceremony she sang "I Love Thee," and as the couple knelt at the kneeling bench, she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace. The Empire styled dress featured a stand-up collar and a bodice of lace over satin accentuated with a row of teardrop pearls at the top of the high waistline. Long bell sleeves of illusion ended in wide lace cuffs. Lace appliques were featured on the straight skirt. Her floor length veil of illusion was trimmed with a wide border of lace and was attached to a row of teardrop pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis accented with leaves of lace matching that of her dress and veil.

For something old she carried a handkerchief belonging to her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mae Busbice. Something new was her bridal ensemble; borrowed was an engagement ring which belonged to her Grandmother Elliott; and something blue was a garter, a gift from her maid of honor.

Miss Donna Kirk of Farwell, maid of honor, wore a dress of yellow satin styled identically to that of the bride. She carried a cascade arrangement of yellow and white daisies and fuji mums and wore yellow daisies in her hair.

Attending the groom as best man was his cousin, Bill Billington of Portales. Ushers were Mike Nelson of Arlington and Jimmy Clements of Portales.

Mrs. Busbice chose a dress of gray and white double knit and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Billington, wore a dress of purple with brown accessories. MARKETING IS KEY Marketing will be the key to all future growth in Texas agriculture. Markets for Texas food and fiber products must be strengthened and improved if the state's agricultural income program is to be a success. Production guidelines for each agricultural commodity will be prepared by the Extension Service based on the latest research information available for increasing production and marketing efficiency. Other agricultural agencies and organizations throughout the state will also be involved in this total effort.

Throughout Parmer County two weeks ago an outbreak of maize dwarf mosaic virus occurred in grain sorghum. Outbreaks were also reported in Bailey, Castro and Deaf Smith Counties. Although not new to the Panhandle-South Plains MDMV has not been this widespread over the entire grain sorghum producing area before. As you have seen, the symptoms vary from chlorotic mottle of light and dark green areas intermingled to a red leaf symptom under certain conditions. The type of symptoms will depend on the variety of the sorghum, the stage of infection and certain environmental conditions. The red leaf symptom usually appears when temperatures are cool for a period below 75 to 85 degrees F. Plants growing under the same conditions and not infected do not show the red leaf symptoms. Malformed heads, small seed and varying degrees of sterility are symptoms associated with disease development.

Several grass type plants, including Johnsongrass and Quack grass, are susceptible to the virus. The grasses are perennial and carry the virus through the winter. Virus particles become distributed throughout all parts of the plant except the seed. Greenbugs and corn leaf aphids feed on the grasses before transferring to the milo plants. They carry the virus in their mouthparts and transmit it to the milo. The amount of infection that develops within a given sorghum field depends upon the extent of occurrence of overwintering host plants in or around the field and population level of aphids.

Prevention of MDMV infections can best be accomplished by eradication of perennial host grasses such as Johnsongrass, in fields or near fields where sorghum is to be grown. It has been observed that losses are much greater where infected Johnsongrass is present in the sorghum field. The keys for control of the virus are sorghum variety selection, insect control and Johnsongrass control. For more information, contact the county extension office.

DECORATED BIKES -- A colorful feature of the Border Town Days parade was the many bicycles that were gaily decorated. Boys and girls of all ages from both Texico and Farwell participated in the bicycle contingent. Many bicycle entries carried a small American flag.

On The Farm In Parmer County
By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

NEW PROGRAM TO BOOST PANHANDLE'S FARM INCOME
Cash receipts from agricultural products in the Texas Panhandle are expected to total $682,250,840 by the end of 1976 with the present pace of the agricultural industry plus some innovations along the way. This would mean a boost in the area's agricultural income of some $229,716,740 over the next six years.

NEW PROGRAM LAUNCHED
These projections were made recently in conjunction with a statewide program designed to increase Texas' present agricultural income of $2.75 billion by $1 billion by 1976. Launched by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the massive program is appropriately titled, "3.76 in '76."

Estimates of farm income from each commodity produced in each of the 25 counties in the PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) area were prepared jointly by county agricultural agents and county program building committees.

PEP TO BOOST PROGRAM
PEP will play a key role in helping the Panhandle area carry its share of the load in this statewide effort. Since it is designed to boost the overall economy of the area through maximum as well as efficient utilization of human and natural resources, PEP will be a driving force to meet the goal of "3.76 in '76." This new program should provide the incentive for everyone in the area engaged in the agricultural industry to "put his best foot forward" to accomplish the state's objective.

CROP INCOME PROJECTED
Looking at the area picture as far as crops are concerned, grain sorghum leads the list with a projected increase of $24,978,000 during the next six years. With this 11 per cent addition to present cash receipts, grain sorghum income will total $125,113,100 and will account for more than 62 per cent of the total increase in income from crops in the area. Corn is another major cash crop for the area and is also expected to show a substantial increase in cash receipts -- $5,278,000. Projected 1976 cash receipts total $13,926,100 and account for more than 13 per cent of the total increase in crop income. Hay production is expected to show a cash increase of $3,272,600. Wheat is expected to add only $292,400 above its present total cash receipts of $49,167,900, while sugar beets should increase by $2,396,440 and fruits and vegetables by $2,234,900.

Total cash receipts from all crops in the Panhandle now total about $212,679,980. These are expected to increase by $40,086,160 by the target date. The increase from crops will account for more than 17 per cent of the total projected increase in cash receipts by 1976.

RETURNS FROM LIVESTOCK AIRED
The overall livestock industry in the Panhandle is really expected to boom. The present picture shows total income to be $239,836,120. This is expected to increase by $189,433,580 in the next six years. The increase will account for more than 82 per cent of the total projected increase from agriculture.

Income from fed beef is projected to lead the way with an increase of $155,219,300 from the present total of $148,609,000. This means that income from fed beef will more than double and will account for more than 82 per cent of the total projected increase from agriculture.

Income from fed feed is projected to lead the way with an increase of $155,219,300 from the present total of $148,609,000. This means that income from fed feed will more than double and will account for more than 67 per cent of the total increase in cash receipts from agriculture by the end of 1976. Income from other beef is expected to increase $27,185,800 while cash receipts from hogs are expected to more than double by the target date, up $6,548,400.

TOP COUNTIES LISTED
The projected agricultural income for Deaf Smith County tops the list with regards to the total estimated increase of $229,716,720 for the Panhandle. It boasts a projected increase of $39,798,300 with Hansford County ranking second with an increase of $36,158,000.

Among other counties in the area that are expected to add substantially to the overall agricultural income picture are Castro, $27,041,460; Parmer, $21,682,200; Gray $14,357,000; Moore, $11,086,500; Swisher, $10,272,000; Ochiltree, $9,938,500; Wheeler, $8,989,780; and Sherman, $7,992,000.
