Local FFA Chapters Involved With Projects

While no official activities were being planned by the local FFA chapters for observance of National Future Farmers of America Week February 20-27, members of both the Farwell and Texico chapters were continuing with projects and beginning new ones.

At Texico, FFA Advisor Eddie West said that his group will be observing the week only by putting up posters announcing the event and possibly by taking two field trips during the week.

They are also preparing for upcoming judging contests with teams planning to enter the livestock, crops, poultry, meats, and land judging contests. The first of these contests is to be at Melrose sometime in March, with another contest to follow at ENMU in Portales, and the state contests in Las Cruces later in the year.

Farwell FFA members are also preparing for judging contests, and some are getting their animals ready for exhibiting in the Houston Livestock Show. Two members of the chapter, Tyson Carpenter and Leonard Hillock, will also participate in the calf scramble at the Houston event.

At Farwell, many projects are in the process of being completed, says Richard Montgomery, FFA Advisor. Included in this list are activities at the ag farm that had to be left unfinished due to the recent snow and cold weather. Members will complete building some fences and will also complete a metal shed which is being attached to a box car.

Along with these building projects, FFA members will be updating and completing their project record books. These books are kept on the livestock or crop projects each FFA member must have, showing the price paid, care, and any other additional expenses, as well as whether or not the project shows a profit.

The upcoming judging contests will be the next main project for the organization, according to the advisor. The contests will include judging land, livestock, meats, poultry, and crops. Each team will consist of three members with as many teams present as possible.

The first contest for the judging teams will be April 9 at West Texas State University, with the next contest being April 15 at Texas Tech.

"In most of the judging categories, Texas Tech will be the deciding factor in whether or not the teams attend the state contest at Texas A&M. The land and pasture judging will be decided at West Texas and the state contest will be at Tarleton," said Montgomery.

Winners of the judging contests will be decided by having a group of experienced judges rate the items, then the FFA members will rate the same items. The ratings are then compared, and those nearest to the ratings of the experienced judges will be declared the best of the competition.

FFA members will enter a mechanics contest in May.

Categories in the contest will be small gas engines, electrical, tool identification, and welding.

Those entering the small gas engines division will be expected to do some type of analysis and repair on the engine; in electrical, they will be installing a switch or control box; in tool identification they will properly identify a number of tools by looking at them; and in the welding they are expected to weld two pieces of metal together, and the weld will then be judged on looks and strength.

Earlier in the school year, some FFA members entered a contest with three leadership teams. The first team was the radio broadcast team. They read a script pertaining to agriculture over a microphone, and were judged on their speech clarity and delivery of script.

The other two teams were entered in parliamentary procedure competition, the senior chapter conducting and the junior chapter conducting. The teams were given three problems to introduce, debate, and vote on, using the proper parliamentary procedure.

We will be having that competition again next year, with the addition of some type of farm skill," said Montgomery.

Montgomery also reports that some of the members have plans for using a back (Continued on Page 2)

In the papers that we have seen the silence has been deafening. What silence? Why, the complete lack of interest in why the Texas State Capitol building almost burned to the ground.

Here we have a fire that starts in the suite of the Lieutenant Governor in the State Capitol building that catches the building on fire and among the remains is the corpse of a young man with alcohol and a trace of marijuana in it and no questions are being asked.

The state Attorney General pontificated that there would be a thorough investigation and that it looked like the state would sue the manufacturer of the TV set. Quick, Henry, the upchuck bag.

According to a release by State Senator Bill Sarpalis he says, "The fire started in Lt. Governor Bill Hobby's apartment on the second floor of the East Wing. He has never lived in the Capitol apartment, but used it as guest quarters for visiting friends and dignitaries who stay overnight." Some dignitaries.

We do not know the history of the reasons for the apartment, but would suppose that the State originally provided such a place for the Lt. Governor because he is the presiding officer of the State Senate and would, or should, be very busy during the sessions of the legislature. It would seem only expedient for the state taxpayers to provide a place for the Lt. Governor to rest, refresh and otherwise attend to the business of the taxpayers.

We, for one, do not look upon the providing of this apartment at taxpayer's expense as giving the Lt. Governor carte blanche to use it as a private party preserve. Were a Republican to be exposed in such manner we think that the down-state press would be in full bay. We might mention, for your edification, that Hobby is a really big fuzzi in the Houston newspaper business.

We can assure you the moguls of the State Democratic Party are playing political hardball. The Democrats just wrestled the office of the Governor back from the Republicans and this prompted the new Governor to assure the National Democratic Party of the solidarity of the State for Democratic candidates in the future.

Well, ole Phil Gramm comes along with 55 percent of the vote in the special election to go to Washington as a Republican. This tended to let some of the hot air out of White's balloon. Hardball will be the name of the game and disclosures of any nature even tending to tarnish the image of any of the party faithful will be looked upon with disfavor.

We are surprised that Bill Clements, a body not really noted for tactfulness toward the opposition, hasn't made at least one public comment. Come on Bill, there has to be some loyal opposition someplace or we are perilously close to going back to the days of the Duke of Duval.

While we are on the Texas state capitol scene we wrote in our January 21, 1983 column that the State would have $4.1 billion MORE money to work with in the 1984-85 biennium than in 1982-83, and that a little fiscal restraint would see us through without more taxes. How naive could we be?

In the Texas Research League bulletin dated January 31, 1983 it says, "State appropriations for the 1984-85 biennium proposed by the Legislative Budget Board total $32.9 billion. At that level, state spending would increase 23.3 percent - $6.2 billion - over the current fiscal period. There you have it, the taxpayers are stuck again. P.S. This doesn't count refurbishing the Capitol Building.

GOD SAVE TEXAS
 The State Legislature
 is in session.

Farwell Youths To Compete In Houston Calf Scramble

Three Farwell youths will participate in the calf scramble at the 1983 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

Tyson Carpenter and Leonard Hillock, both FFA members, will "scramble" during the February 26th performance in the Astrodome; and Carl Hutchins, a 4-H member, will "scramble" during the March 5 evening performance. All three youths are freshmen students at Farwell High School.

Always a favorite with rodeo audiences, the calf scramble begins as an athletic event in the rodeo arena. However, for the contestants who manage to catch a calf, halter it, and drag it across a finish line, the scrambling is only the start of a year-long educational experience.

Each winner in the calf scramble receives a $600 calf purchase certificate which enables the winner to purchase a purebred, registered heifer that he or she agrees to feed, fit, groom and return to the Houston Livestock Show for special show ring competition the following year.

Calf purchase certificates are donated each year by businesses and individuals who believe in translating their support of the Show and its programs into action by sponsoring a calf.

Each winner also agrees to keep accurate monetary records, submit monthly progress reports both to the Livestock Show and to the individual sponsor, photographically chronicle the progress of the calf and prepare a 500-word essay on the project.

Every performance of the 1983 Rodeo will feature a calf scramble. At a given signal, 12 wild, young calves will be turned loose in the Astrodome arena to be chased by the 24 scramble contestants. Winners are chosen by being the first to catch, halter, and drag a calf over a finish line in the center of the Astrodome arena. For a few of those "hard luck" scramblers who fail to catch a calf, the 1983 Show promises some consolation.

As always, there are a few "hard luck calves," those specifically sponsored to be given to the scrambler who tries his or her best but just can't put a halter on a calf. Also, at each performance in 1983, Continental Airlines will be donating a trip for a hard luck scrambler and his or her parents. The trip, to any Continental Airlines destination in the Mainland United States or Mexico, will ease the dust of the Astrodome just a bit, as Continental Airlines shows its support for both the Show and the calf scramble.

Through the 1982 Show, winners in the calf scramble have received more than $1.9 million to purchase more than 9,000 quality beef or dairy (Continued on Page 2)

To Scramble For Calves

These three Farwell High students will be participating in the calf scrambles at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show trying to win a prize that will enable them to purchase a calf. Scramble winners then take the calf, raise it, and return it to exhibit in the Houston show the next year. From left are Carl Hutchins, Farwell 4-H; Leonard Hillock and Tyson Carpenter, both of Farwell FFA. FFA members will participate in the calf scramble February 26, and the 4-H'ers will scramble for their calves at the March 5 performance.

Hwy. Representative Meets With Council

A representative of the Texas Highway Department and Public Transportation, W.C. Powell, met with Farwell City Council at its regular meeting Monday night to make a recommendation for alleviating traffic problems at Ninth Street and Avenue A intersection.

Powell's recommendation was that a left-turn lane be designated from Third Street all the way to the city limits; that there be no on-street parking along all that area; and that if these criteria were met, the highway department would come in and widen the south side of the intersection.

In other business the council called for a city election to name a mayor and two councilmen. The election has been set for Saturday, April 2. Anyone wishing to have his name on the ballot must do so by March 2. Absentee voting will begin March 14, and persons who wish to vote absentee may make application for same now.

The council also hired Larry Haney as a full time employee in the sanitation department.

Farwell residents Jim and Margaret Coleman, Pat Owen, and Maizie Benfiel were present at the council meeting to discuss a mobile home variance request which had been received by the council. For those youngsters who decide not to continue their cattle program, the learning experience is invaluable and many times serves to stimulate a career in some other agricultural occupation.

Thoughts on Cold Weather and Lent

Let me begin this month by saying I missed our time together last month, but due to the flu 'bug' and other commitments I just did not get an opportunity to share with you.

In the column for this month, let's reflect together on the cold, icy, snowy, freezing winter, and about the suffering of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The last few weeks we have read, heard, and seen various accounts of some of the severe weather in different sections of the country. Ice and snow have closed down airports, stranding travelers enroute to be with their families or getting away for a time of recreation. Individuals have bundled up in cars and homes with blankets, and eaten cold soup from cans.

Some have overdone either from walking or shoveling snow. We know from experience when the weather is cold, snowy, and icy outside, that our individual lives seem harder.

In some respects it is the same way in our spiritual lives. It is easy to become cold and iced up spiritually. This spiritual icing in our lives makes it harder to cope in our daily living. At times we get out of touch with God - become spiritually cold - and we suffer.

As living becomes more forced, discouragement is given birth. We feel tense, irritable, out of sorts. Pressures have a way of building, and living becomes a hassle. We find little joy or purpose in living. In short, pardon the pun, but when we grow cold in spiritual things we have a spiritual power outage. We have cut ourselves off from God - the only real Power source for living.

I pray that this column will help you get heated up; to get on fire, spiritually for the Lord. Let me encourage you to use some of the time God entrusts to each of us for Bible reading and study, prayer, and in fellowship with other Christians in Sunday School and Worship. Plug in and get your spiritual batteries working at full charge once more. Life can and does have meaning, purpose, and direction when we let God be at the helm. Whatever hassles and problems you have in your life there is an answer in God's Word.

This week is the beginning of Lent. Lent is the season which leads Christians to re-examine the heart of God's fatherly love - love that lends to life through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, His Son.

In this Lenten season let us seek to be closer to the cross - the instrument of death for Christ Jesus. As we look at the cross, we can begin to grasp the great - the wonderful thing done for each of us. It was on the cross that the dearest and best that God could give bled and died for us.

Lent seeks to remind us in a fresh searching way that the Son of God went through a mock trial, was beaten and flogged, and finally nailed to a cross to die, because God saw this as a means of bringing humanity back to His love. It is beyond us to ever fathom fully what happened on the cross. Why the cross some say? Without the cross there would be no resurrection - no victory over the grave.

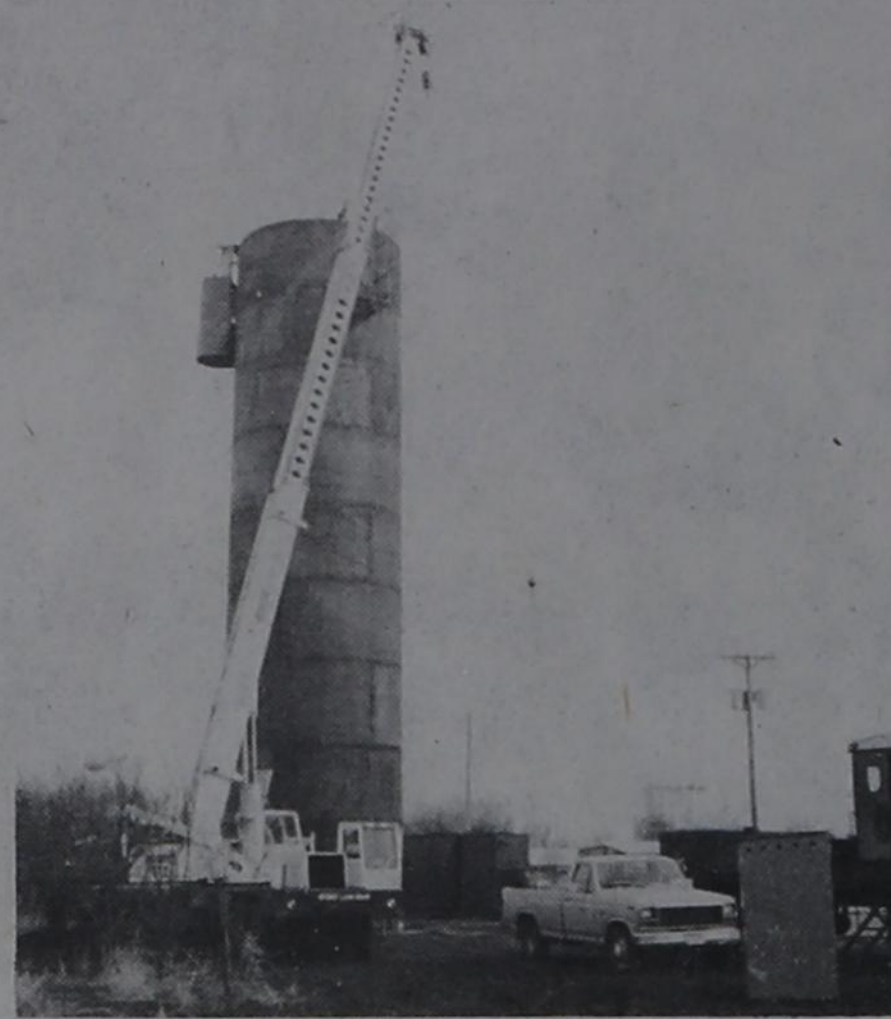

The cross where Jesus suffered and died reminds each of us that "God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him." (John 3:17, RSV) As a Christian - a concerned Christian - set in a world filled with good and evil - I need to be reminded at times of that basic fact.

In the 1983 Lenten season, may each of us remember Christ desires that we each be vessels of love, mercy, and peace where we are. Our individual witness and service can make a difference. May we so order our lives that we may season the world with love and hope, rather than be purveyors of doom and despair.

Call me if you need me.

Love and Peace,
Joel

Up She Goes

The new 114-foot tall water tower being built at the north side of KKR Memorial Park in Texico adds another dimension to the city skyline as workers add another ring to the structure this week. Thirteen of the proposed 14 rings of the tower had been completed this week.

Scheduled completion date for the tower, being built by Cooper-Scott of Lubbock, is April 4. The inclement weather has hampered the outdoor work; however, progress on the water improvement project has been steady.

Texico Water Project Nearing Completion

The municipal water improvement project for the city of Texico is nearing completion in spite of the fact that the recent prolonged bad weather made outdoor work impossible for many days.

According to Marie Christian, Texico city clerk, the new water tank being built at the north of the K.K. Runnels Memorial Park will have 14 rings and will be 114 feet tall when completed. Thirteen of the 14 rings had been completed on the structure, this week.

Cooper-Scott of Lubbock is under contract with the city to build the tower which is scheduled for completion on April 4.

Also in the project have been replacement and installation of new water lines, valves, and fire plugs in many parts of the city. This work has been done by Red Pierce for KNC, Inc. of Albuquerque. When finished, Pierce and his crew will have replaced more than half of the city's water lines and will have installed nine new fire plugs. His work is reported to be about 75 percent complete at this time with a scheduled completion date of March 26.

The water project was undertaken last year as part of a city improvement plan. Work was started on the water project about October 26 last year. Cost of the improvements will be $266,000.

Texico high school and junior high students will be having their annual Science Fair Tuesday, Feb. 22, during school hours in the old gym. Students will be entering their projects in the divisions of high school or junior high, with junior high exhibits being done by groups or individuals. High school participants will be constructing their projects individually for the Fair, and their work will be divided into the separate categories of science: behavioral and social sciences, biochemistry, chemistry, engineering, earth and space sciences, mathematics and computer, medicine and health, microbiology, physics, and zoology.

Entries in the sub-categories will be combined if too few in number to fill out the category properly, according to Nadine Maben, high school science instructor.

Junior high science instructors are Anna Southard and Carol Brock.

Development Corporation Slates Monday Meeting

The first committee was formed for resources and industry. They are to report on the law, financing, and governmental aid available to the community. Committee number two is for project priorities and this group will be reporting on the suggested projects from the community residents. The third committee is concerned with main street beautification. Their purpose is to survey and recommend projects to make Farwell more sightly from the highways. In addition to those three committees, there are two committees with sub-divisions for the purpose of suggesting projects for the beautification on the individual blocks in the city. Membership to the corporation has a one-time $25 fee and all Farwell residents are urged to join and to attend the meeting Monday.

Science Fair Project

Rusty McCormack, Texico High School student, shows off his science project which will be on display at the Texico Science Fair Tuesday, Feb. 22, in the old gym. This particular project, a still, has already been tested earlier in the week by distilling copper sulfate in the lab at the high school. The Science Fair will be divided into two general categories, junior high and high school, with the high school entries being subdivided into the different scientific fields.

Scout Troop 439 Report

by Jim Gump, Scoutmaster

Farwell-Texico Boy Scouts in Troop 439 have been busy during the first half of February, working to obtain several awards in an effort to gain the Tenderfoot badge. Three new members joining the group in February were Eddy Longley, Paul Longley, and Paul Meeks. Members Jimmy Gump, Frank Gump, Brian Coburn, Kevin Hogan, Sammy Herrera, David Rubio, and Daniel Terrazas, along with the new members, have been working on obtaining their swimming skill awards at the Portales YMCA pool. The boys have made three trips to Portales for this purpose since the last part of January. They are all doing very well. All they need is just a little time and they'll all earn this award. In addition to the swimming, the boys now need to compete and pass the citizenship skill award test and to learn the Boy Scout law and promise to fully earn Tenderfoot badges. The boys have also had instruction in fire arm safety and shooting, and are working on a merit badge for farm and ranch management. On Tuesday, Feb. 22, members of the troop along with their scoutmaster will attend a class on first aid at the Texico fire station under the instruction of EMT-IV fireman David Kube.

Balloon Banquet

Deana Resch, daughter of Harlan and Mary Ann Resch of Farwell, was pleased with the balloon bouquet which she received as a Valentine surprise from her dad on Valentine's Day. On Monday, Deana took her special surprise to Farwell Convalescent Center where the residents and staff who were being treated to a party could also enjoy seeing the arrangement. Deana's mom is administrator of the Center.

Fire Safety Tips By David Kube

DON'T USE GASOLINE IN KEROSENE HEATERS

A number of serious injuries and deaths have resulted recently from the use of gasoline in kerosene heaters.

Use only waterclear kerosene to operate these heating appliances. Gasoline is extremely volatile and will burn out of control if used in a kerosene heater.

Consumers may not yet be completely familiar with the operation of these relatively new products. It is critical that they heed this warning and follow up all recommended operating instructions to the letter.

The consumer may be unknowingly using gasoline, typically from confusion over fuel containers. Buy and store kerosene in metal containers clearly marked KEROSENE, and never use red cans for this purpose.

Some reports indicate that a red can or an old gasoline can used for kerosene could confuse service station attendants or family members who might fill the container with gasoline.

The Creative Woman

BY SHERYL BORDEN

Topics to be presented on "The Creative Woman" show on February 22 and 26 include low sodium stir-fry cooking, cake decorating basics, and information on fructose. "The Creative Woman" airs at 12:30 p.m. MST on Tuesdays and at 1 p.m. on Saturdays on KENW-TV.

Fructose is appearing in more foods and on more labels these days. Laura Jacobs, Parmer County Extension Agent from Farwell, will present this part of the program and explain what fructose is and what its uses are.

Stir-fry cooking is not only quick and easy but very much fun. Louise Erickson will demonstrate a stir-fried chicken and vegetable dish that's not only low in sodium but low in calories, too.

Mary Oates of Santa Fe will be another guest, and she will demonstrate the basics of cake decorating, showing how to do borders, make flowers, leaves and vines, and do lettering.

On February 24, the topics will be making continuous bias strips, information on medic alert, and a book review. "The Creative Woman" show airs at 12:30 p.m. on Thursdays on KENW-TV.

Jewell Limacher, Extension home economist from Roswell, will show how easy it is to make continuous bias strips, which are big time savers for making piping, cording and bias binding for many home sewing projects.

Sandy North, former director of nurses at Roosevelt General Hospital in Portales, will discuss the importance of medic alert emblems; and Len Walker, promotion director at KENW-TV, will present a book review on "A Rose in the Heart" by Edna O'Brien.

Sheriff's Report

Parmer County Sheriff Bill Morgan, Jr. reports that on Friday, Feb. 11, Bovina Gin reported a burglary which occurred sometime the night before. Taken in the robbery was an estimated $1900 in office equipment, including calculators, typewriters, and a microwave oven.

On Monday, Feb. 14, Beal Broyles, who farms south of Clay's Corner, reported that someone had taken his combine from the field and gotten it stuck on the road. The party or parties was apparently attempting to use the combine to pull their vehicle from the mud when the combine became stuck, according to Sheriff Morgan.

Students' Interests Told To Vocational Committees

All vocational advisory committees of Texico Municipal Schools met Tuesday, Feb. 8, in the high school library.

Present at the meeting were general advisory committee for vocational education members O.B. Coffey, Richard Hadley, Bob Lacy, Connie Moyers, and Kay Warmuth; advisory committee for vocational agriculture members Bill Christian and Gerald Whitener; and members of the advisory committee for business, Liz Ortiz, Wilma Nell Whitener, and Cindy Littlejohn.

The advisory committees were called together last week in recognition of National Vocational Week. Coffey gave an overview of the things being done for emphasis during the week.

Ann Liethen, vocational business teacher, Kendale Burch, vocational home economics teacher, and Eddie West, vocational agriculture teacher, each gave a brief talk on the courses they offer and the number of students enrolled in each.

Earlier in the year, the general committee had run a student interest survey of 1982 graduates, seniors, juniors, and sophomores that was of interest to all committees. James Harding, school counselor, was in charge of conducting the survey. Kay Warmuth gave the report of the survey findings during the meeting.

Of the 29 1982 graduates surveyed, 14 were interested in cooperative training, three were not interested, and five gave no response. Five felt that classroom training would benefit them, seven did not, and 10 gave no response. While 10 of the students were undecided about gaining further information, six asked for more information on cooperative training, and six felt it was unnecessary.

The survey of the current seniors covered 21 persons with 13 interested in cooperative training, six not interested, and three undecided. Six of the students felt that they would benefit from cooperative training, seven did not, and nine had no response. Seven of the students asked for further information, eight did not, and seven were undecided.

Of the 30 juniors surveyed, eight felt they would receive some benefit from cooperative training, seven did not, and 15 did not respond. Thirteen students surveyed showed an interest in the cooperative training, seven showed no interest, and 10 gave no response. Fifteen students asked for more information on the program, two wanted no information, and 13 gave no response.

Twenty-nine members of the sophomore class were surveyed with 17 showing an interest in the cooperative training, three showed no interest, and nine gave no response. Ten of those surveyed felt they would benefit from classroom training, five did not, and 14 gave no response; 19 students asked for more information and 10 gave no response.

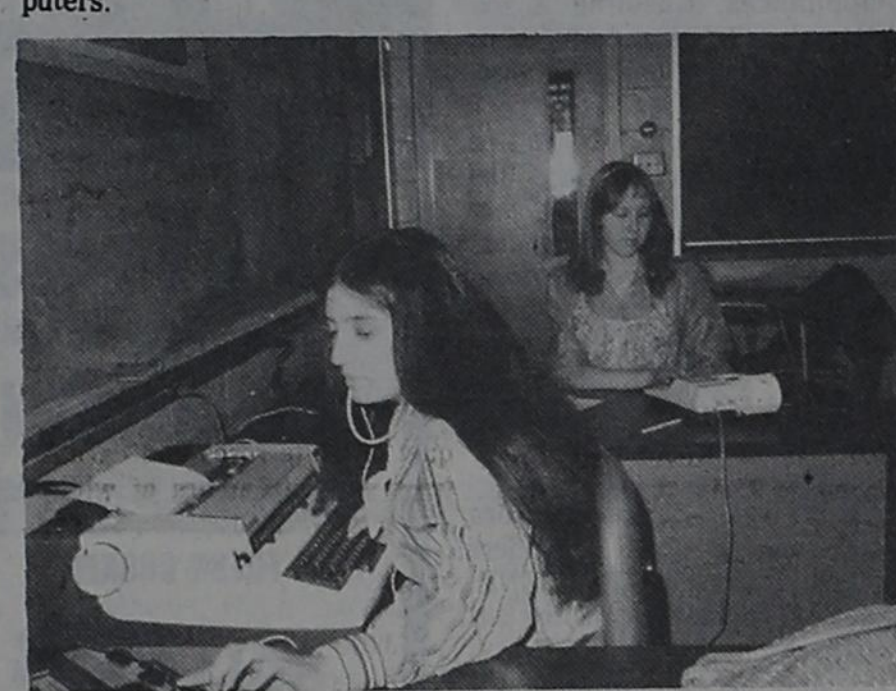

The graduated students of 1982 showed definite interest in the electrical, medical, business, secretarial, welding, diesel mechanics, marketing, and financial occupational fields.

Current seniors gave their interests in occupational fields as coaching, secretarial, forest and wildlife management, construction accounting, and law enforcement.

Texico juniors gave trucker, secretary, welder, and veterinarian as their occupational interests.

The sophomores showed an interest in ranching, truck maintenance, secretarial, welding, machinist, mechanics, electronics, teaching, and computers.

'God's Prison Gang' Film To Show At Texico Baptist Church

"God's Prison Gang," a newly released film featuring Al Capone's getaway driver, the last member of Bonnie and Clyde's gang, and two other notorious criminals who have become Christians will be shown at First Baptist Church, 224 Turner, Texico, on Wednesday, Feb. 23. The showing is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. MST.

The film, shot behind the walls of New York's Attica prison, is hosted by Art Linkletter. It tells the story of how the work of International Prison Ministry is accomplishing what more guards, higher prison walls, and greater financial expenditures have failed to do - keep released inmates from returning to lives of crime.

Telling their stories in the 44-minute film are George Meyer, Al Capone's favorite driver; Floyd Hamilton, (Public Enemy No. 1) the last of the Bonnie and Clyde Gang; Jerry Graham, the "robber king" of California; and Ted Jefferson, convicted of crimes from drugs and robbery to murder. Also featured is "Chaplain Ray," whose Dallas-based International Prison Ministry has changed the lives of thousands of inmates over the past 18 years.

Rev. Joel H. Horne, pastor of First Baptist Church, said he hopes all citizens concerned about the problem of rising crime will attend the free screening of the film.

A nursery will be provided.

Following the dinner, the table decorations were presented to the grandmothers in the group as St. Valentine's gifts.

The group then went to the First United Methodist Church in Clovis for a special program including Dean and Karen McIntire who led the entire congregation in singing some old love songs. They were then entertained by the Jubilate Bell Choir of that church as they performed several songs for the group.

McCully-Chambers Vows Exchanged In Odessa

Sherril Kathleen McCully and Randy Don Chambers, both of Odessa, were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m. in Temple Baptist Church in Odessa on Friday, Jan. 14. Claud Williams officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Hagler of Clovis, formerly of Farwell, and the bridegroom is the son of June Reid of Brownfield and Carl Chambers of Odessa.

The couple exchanged their vows before an altar setting of a 15-branch fan candelabra flanked by two 15-branch spiral candelabras all holding white tapers. Green plants were interspersed throughout the altar arrangement and around the candelabra stands. The couple stood before two white and brass kneeling benches as they repeated the vows. They then lit a unity candle. The aisles were marked with frosted votive cups holding pink candles and decorated with burgundy and pink bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Bill Hagler, and her grandfather, F.N. Conklin, chose a gown of French design fashioned after the A-line with cluny and venise lace. The high neckline and fitted bodice featured a yoke of sheer organza, embroidered with tiny daisies and seed pearls.

The full Bishop sleeves of lace and organza were caught at the wrists with lace cuffs. A narrow band of satin encompassed the waistline.

The back of the gown consisted of a continuous overlap of tiers of organza edged with tiny inserts of satin to give a glowing effect. The six ruffles of organza formed the princess line in front, meeting in the center. The front center of the gown was cluny and venise lace. The panel met a soft ruffle at the hemline.

Her imported English illusion walking veil was of silk organza with tiny seed pearls scattered over the creation which was edged with cluny lace.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations with streamers of white and a white Bible.

Following tradition, the bride's dress was something borrowed. Her garter was blue, something new was her white Bible, and something old was a gold brooch which belonged to her great-great-grandmother.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Rhonda Salmon. Bridesmaids were Deane Brown of Elkhart, Kans., Janet Hagler of Clovis, and Carol Snider of Farwell. They wore rose-colored floor length dresses with square necklines and full skirts. Candelighters were Len Markham and Laura Fleming who wore formal length dresses in burgundy.

The bridal attendants each carried a single red rose and wore sprays of baby's breath in their hair. The candelighters and flower girl wore rose-colored carnation corsages.

Best man was Steve Pettyjohn. Groomsmen were Ricky Chambers and Rick Jamison, both of Odessa, and Stacy Timmons of Brownfield.

Mason Conklin served as ring bearer, and LeEdna Jacobs was the flower girl.

Ushers were Mike McCully, Terri McCully, and Phillip

Hagler, all brothers of the bride. Danette Timmons of Brownfield registered the guests.

The bride's mother wore a rose-colored dress with a burgundy and rose carnation wrist corsage. The grandmother of the bride wore a long dress of burgundy with a burgundy and rose-colored carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve-colored long dress with burgundy and rose carnation corsage.

Jone Topper was pianist and Debbie Weaver was organist. They played "Evergreen," as the mothers and grandmothers were being seated.

As the candles were being lit, they played "You Light Up My Life." Just before the bride was escorted in, "Love" was sung by Lanell Madison. After the bride was given in marriage, Colleen Beeson and Joni Topper sang "The Wedding Song." And as the couple was lighting the unity candle, Jonie Topper sang "He Has Chosen You For Me."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held honoring the couple. The bride's table was covered with a mauve-colored cloth under white lace. The cloth was accented with white bows at each corner.

Clusters of burgundy and mauve blossoms and dainty bow garlands decorated the four-tiered strawberry majestic hexagon wedding cake. Lovebirds floated around the sides of the cake which was topped with petite heavenly bells.

The bridegroom's table was covered the same as the bride's, and held a chocolate cake shaped like wedding bells. A silver coffee service and mauve napkins completed the table decor.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso the bride changed to an ivory-colored suit accented with burgundy shoes.

The couple is now at home in Odessa.

Mrs. Randy Chambers Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Randy Chambers of Odessa, the former Sherril McCully, was honored at a bridal shower Saturday afternoon, Feb. 12, in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church in Farwell.

The honoree's colors of burgundy, pink, and mauve were featured in the decor of the room and on the refreshment table. She and her mother were presented corsages of rose and burgundy carnations.

Refreshments of assorted breads, hot spiced punch, and coffee were served from crystal and silver appointments from a table covered with white lace over white and centered with an arrangement of pink and burgundy carnations, greenery and eucalyptus. The arrangement was flanked by tall burgundy tapers in double holders of crystal. Mauve napkins with the couple's names imprinted in gold completed the table decor.

The honoree's mother, Mrs. Bill Hagler of Clovis, assisted in opening and registering the gifts.

Hostesses for the shower were Rubie Craft, Billie Caryl, Gladys Kaltwasser, Peggy Goettsch, June Magness, Alice Vinton, Carol Snider, Lennie Ingram, Sharron Hughes, Irene Jones, Annette Black, and Maxine Williams. Her stainless silverware was the gift from the hostesses to the honoree.

Janis Gast Honoree For Lullaby Shower

Mrs. Kent (Janis) Gast of Farwell was the guest of honor at a baby shower given for her in the home of Katherine White, Saturday, Feb. 12.

Hostesses for the shower were Katherine White, Joyce Armstrong, Dixie Jesko, Elizabeth Turner, Darlene Caldwell, Jean Travis, and Gia Hardage. They presented Mrs. Gast with a car seat as the hostess gift.

Decorations were centered around the chosen nursery colors of brown and yellow, and were carried out in a white sheet cake decorated by Lynne Mahaney of Farwell. The cake was decorated with a rock-a-bye baby and other baby trappings in yellow, brown, and orange. Also served were mints, nuts, coffee, and pineapple punch.

Special guests at the shower were Mrs. Gast's mother, Marilyn Chavez of Belen, N.M.; her step-mother, Mrs. Dwayne Thomas of Clovis; and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Karl Smokey Gast of Farwell.

Attendants spent the afternoon visiting following the opening of the gifts and serving of refreshments.

Steers End Season, Defeat Springlake

The Farwell Steers ended the 1982-83 basketball season with a big win over Springlake-Earth as they took the game 71-59 under the Farwell nets Friday night.

Farwell moved out to take the lead in the first half, ending the half with a score of 35-23. In the second half Springlake almost managed to tie the game as the third quarter ended with a score of 46-44, with the Steers barely ahead. As the fourth quarter progressed the Steers held on to win the game 71-59.

Manuel Cantu led the Steer scoring with 14 points; Johnny Daniel added 13; Jay Anderson and Alan Eubank made 11 each; Roger Robertson, 10; Paul Fulcher, 7; and Kevin Owen, 5.

Coach Mike Martin commented on the game and the season, "We shot the ball well from the field for a change. Our free throw shooting was terrible. The game would have been over with in the first half if we had made some free shots.

"We got our running game going a little bit better in this game than in the past. Jay Anderson got into foul trouble and did not score as he had in the past district games. Jay, the team's only senior, had a great year, averaging 21 points a game and about 16 rebounds in the district games.

"This bunch of young men have been the easiest to coach I've ever had, and I'm glad to have had the opportunity."

Purpose Of 4-H Livestock Projects Often Forgotten

Purpose of the 4-H livestock project, which is sometimes forgotten, is to build character and to teach responsibility and sportsmanship. "We should be concerned with raising blue ribbon youngsters rather than blue ribbon animals," reminds Parmer County Extension Agent for Agriculture Seth Ralston, who is advisor to the 4-H clubs in the county.

"If we do everything we can to be prepared and to prepare our animals, regardless of how we place, we are winners," stresses Ralston.

To emphasize this fact, Ralston submitted the following article entitled "The Importance of the Junior Livestock Project" which appeared in the Stock Show magazine in November 1982. The article was written by O'Dell G. Daniel, Extension Animal Science and Division Chairman at the University of Georgia. It was reprinted by permission of the American Landrace Association:

A junior livestock project is an exercise that tends to make youngsters grow up and keep parents young. If the right percentage of time, energy and decision making is done by youngsters and parents, the project is great and will really help develop better citizens throughout the state. If the percentage of time gets out of balance, we see a bunch of spoiled brats emerging as house apes, belonging to sorehead parents who want to buy a champion, win by a rule book, or blame the judge because their child didn't win.

I would be the first to admit that very few livestock projects are economically sound. Neither is having young'uns, paying for band lessons, dancing lessons, bicycles and all other fringes that go with raising kids. However, if your goal is to raise a group of youngsters that show an added improvement over their parents and do this in the most sensible economical way, then the economics of junior projects look much better because of the heavy dividends they pay in the future.

There will be shows as long as there are youngsters who have parents and grandparents. Let's not confuse the issue by saying we have steer shows, barrow shows, lamb shows, etc. We have kid shows where it is necessary to have an animal to be admitted through the gate.

Junior livestock projects are educational projects. They are the greatest teaching project known to man. If so, what do they teach?

1. They teach youngsters to get along with people. Those of you who left jobs or got fired did so because you could not get along with people, not because you didn't know your job. Showing livestock, winning, getting beat, etc., helps youngsters to get along with others.

2. Feeding teaches responsibility. If we shouldered our responsibilities like our top feeders, we would be doing our bit toward improving the world. I classify a top feeder as being one who hears and obeys their own alarm clock, takes ingredients and mixes a fresh batch of feed each meal. Self-feeders may have done a lot to help livestock, but they haven't added much in teaching a youngster responsibility.

3. Attend to details. Everybody takes care of the big things like keeping the fence fixed and water available. It is the smaller things that build winners - like breaking animals to show early, keeping troughs and water tanks clean, bedding dry and parasites removed.

4. Decision making. Decision making is tough whether it is choosing the right flavor in a sucker or picking a herdsire. The toughness starts early and the pain never leaves. When decision making starts as a youngster, it becomes less painful as they become adults. Things don't just happen - somebody has to do something and make decisions to make them happen.

5. For every winner in our spring livestock shows, there was a good plan - what to buy, when to buy, what to feed, how much to feed, etc. Most successful people in life have been good planners. Good feeders will become good planners.

6. Somewhere along the line, we hope these junior feeders will learn something about the livestock business. Youngsters feed steers for many different reasons. Some feed for fun, some for money and some for their parents. I'll take the fun feeder any day in the week. They get up by themselves, do their own work and never yell "foul play" about the judge. Their animals become a part of them. As you see them in alter life, they are the ones who can go out in life, take the hard knocks, pass on ideas, and make every day a bright spot in everyone's life.

Junior projects are family projects - at least the ones that are successful. The ones that fail are: (1) Parents aren't interested at all, (2) Parents take over and won't let the youngsters have any part other than go into the showing and show. I think sometimes we need a show just for the "jocks" where they can get it out of their systems.

These kids in the ring where you are judging a show are the most important kids in town that day. Let them be the last person on earth that you mistreat. It may not be necessary for you to handle a steer to determine finish and placing. However, most of these steer have been in the family 6-9 months and it's all important that they get looked at, handled and talked about. Class discussion won't change an animal, but it will have lasting effect on the exhibitor.

Are junior livestock projects important? They are a long way ahead of anything else that happens to be in second place.

Lady Wolverines Seeded 3rd In District Tourney

by Robert Meier
Texico Journalism Student

Texico High School Lady Wolverines ended their regular season by devouring the Lady Coyotes of Dora 54-21 and suffering a bitter loss to the Melrose Lady Buffs 49-48.

The split brought Texico's regular season record to 17-5, good enough to clinch the third seed in the district tournament.

In the Dora game, Texico took advantage of many Dora mistakes and turned them into quick points as the Wolverines took a 10-2 first quarter lead and outscored them again in the second quarter 11-6 to boast a 21-8 halftime lead.

The Wolverines took the game completely in the third quarter when they outscored Dora 16-7 and went on to finish off the Coyotes 54-21.

As a team, the Wolverines were good for 21 of 49 on the floor for 42.9 percent, and 12 of 23 from the charity stripe for a cool 52.2 percent. The Wolverines completely dominated rebounding, taking 32 rebounds and coming up with 22 steals.

Leading scorer for the Wolverines was Ruth Scott who led all scoring with 16. Cheryl Scott and Tammy Powell added 9 and 8 respectively, while Kathy Harrison pumped in 6. Karen Snodgrass, Valda Cavallero, and Dana Morris each put in 4 while Kelly Lynn scored 2. Lucia Jesko rounded out the scoring with 1.

Vicky Musick and Sharla Gardner paced Dora in scoring with 6 apiece.

Jumpin' Dana Morris took rebounding honors with 8 while Karen Snodgrass pulled 6 off the glass. Tammy Powell took 7 steals to lead in that category and she also led her team in assists with 6.

The Lady Wolverines dropped a heartbreaker to the hands of Melrose 49-48 in a game played Saturday night at Texico before a full house.

The Lady Wolverines were outscored 16-10 in the first quarter and fell back to an 8-point deficit before staging a slim comeback in the second quarter to go into the locker room at halftime trailing 30-26.

The first half of play showed that the second half would be very close, and did indeed come down to the final seconds of the game.

Texico and Melrose each scored 10 points in the third quarter.

Throughout the fourth quarter Texico was never down by more than 8 points and never closer than two points until Karen Snodgrass hit a pair of free throws to tie the game at 48 with just under a minute left to play.

Texico captured a rebound from a missed Melrose shot to handle the ball for the last shot of the game. When a Lady Wolverine missed the final shot, the rebound went out of bounds off Texico with just four seconds left.

On the inbound by Melrose, Wolverine Tammy Powell committed her 5th foul while attempting to steal and the clock stopped at one second while Melissa Misch of Melrose went to the line to shoot the one-and-one.

Before the Lady Buff could shoot her first free throw, Coach Roy King of Texico, and the Melrose coach, Bob Jama, called time out.

Finally she was able to shoot and made the first shot to give the Buffaloes a 49-48 lead, but her second shot went off the rim into the hands of Ruth Scott who quickly passed it to Karen Snodgrass who was 80 feet away from the goal. The shot was far short as the buzzer sounded and Texico fell short by one.

Texico hit 22 of 48 from the floor for 45.8 percent while hitting 4 of 7 free throw attempts for 57.1 percent. Texico pulled down 26 rebounds but made only 4 steals.

Another major factor in the game was the foul situation. Texico fouled 17 times giving Melrose 20 FT tries, while the Lady Buffs only fouled 10 times giving Texico 7 attempts to make single points.

Texico was led in scoring by Ruth Scott with 16 while Cheryl Scott hit 14. Tammy Powell scored 12; Karen Snodgrass had 4; and Valda Cavallero had 2.

Robin Bradley scored 18 points for the winners while Brenda Hightower and Rosa Rodich each scored 13.

The Lady Wolverines were to take on Floyd Wednesday night to begin play in the district tournament. The winner was to play Tatum, Dora or Elida Thursday in Melrose. Winner of the Thursday game will advance to play Melrose in the final round for the District 6-A championship in Melrose.

Both teams in the finals of the district tournament will advance to the regional tournament which is to be played in the gym of the winner of the district. The district finale is to be played February 19 at 7 p.m. in Melrose, with the regional tournament to begin the following Wednesday.

At Parents Night

along with all the parents of the junior varsity and varsity team members, were called to the center of the gym where the players presented their mothers with green carnations. Also honored and presented with carnations were wives of the teams' coaches.

Still Time To Soil Test Cultivated Land

Heavy snows, wet soils and cold weather has delayed soil sampling for High Plains and South Plains producers. Soil sampling and fertilizing was also delayed by the government finally establishing the PIK program. Do not let these delays raise your 1983 production cost this year, cautioned Seth Ralston, county Extension agent in Parmer County.

"Our farm economics is such that producers can not afford to blindly add fertilizer for the 1983 crop," Ralston said. "There is still time and the laboratories have computerized their reporting systems for faster sample turn around."

The best time for sampling is just before the field is dry enough to handle tractor traffic. Later, everyone will be in a dead run to get their land prepared, so be ready to start your PIK production acres on the right foot, he cautioned.

To get a good soil test, a good soil sample is essential. Obtain 10 to 15 samples taken from the surface down to six inches deep. Mix these samples in a plastic bucket. Then take about two-thirds to three-fourths of a pint of the sample soil and mail to the soil testing laboratory for testing.

Be sure to complete a crop information sheet on each soil sample, notes Ralston. This aids the soil chemist to generate a better fertilizer recommendation for your farm.

Information sheets, sample bags for mailing, and additional information on soil testing is available at the county Extension office.

WHAT IS SAVING FAITH?

"What saith the Scripture? ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS COUNTED TO HIM FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS" (Rom. 4:3).

The Apostle Paul uses the above quotation from Genesis 15:6 to prove that "to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness" (Rom. 4:5).

It is wonderful that God does not require—indeed, does not permit—human works for salvation, but only faith. But the question is: What is faith? What kind of believing saves?

There is no indication in Scripture that "the gospel of the grace of God" or "the preaching of the cross" was proclaimed to Abraham. We must go back to the passage which Paul quotes to see what Abraham believed. Genesis 15:5 says: "And [God] took [Abraham] forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell [count] the stars, if thou be able to count them: and He said unto him, So shall thy seed be." It is this simple, wonderful promise about the multiplication of Abraham's seed which is followed with the words: "And he believed in the Lord, and He counted it to him for righteousness" (Ver. 6). We do not mean to imply that this was the first expression of Abraham's faith, for in Hebrews 11:8 we read:

"By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went."

This took place considerably before the Genesis 15 incident and we are specifically told that through his faith he "obtained a good report" (Heb. 11:2).

From all this it is clear that Abraham believed what God told him and was counted righteous—as we now know, through a redemption still to be wrought by Christ. We, now, must believe what God tells us—and this is nothing less than the account of the all-sufficient finished work of Christ, wrought on our behalf, on Calvary's cross.

"[He] was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification" (Rom. 4:25).

Clint Kelley's Essay Wins Gilt

Clint Kelley, 10-year-old Farwell 4-H Club member, is the recipient of a registered Hampshire gilt as the result of submitting the winning essay to the Parmer County Gilt Project Committee, sponsor of the program.

Clint is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Kelley of Farwell. His essay was among five or six essays sent to the selection committee for review, and his was selected as the winner.

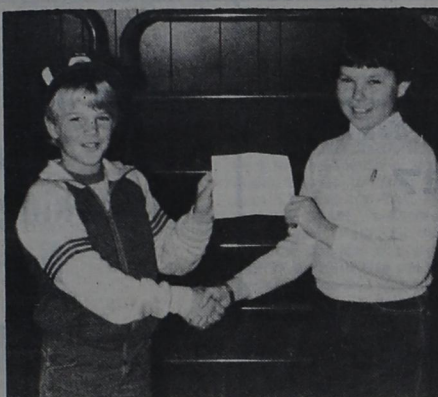

The project began in 1981 when the Parmer County Extension Service, in cooperation with area businesses, purchased a bred gilt from Danny Lewis of Curryville, Mo., for $600. The project was designed to get those youngsters in the swine business who might not otherwise be able to participate in the raising and showing of swine.

Each year, 4-H and FFA members with an interest in the project write essays telling why they want a gilt, what facilities they have, and how they would care for the animal.

The winner of the essay contest receives a registered gilt, and the recipient must present a gilt of equal kind and value to next year's contest winner. In this way, the chain will continue.

Last year's winner and this year's presenter of the gilt is Kendra Stephens, daughter of Darrell and Eva Dean Stephens of Farwell and a Farwell 4-H Club member.

Clint will have a full year to raise and breed the gilt, and then he will present another gilt to next year's contest winner.

Certificate Of Registration

Clint Kelley, left, this year's winner of a registered gilt, receives the certificate of registration from last year's winner, Kendra Stephens. Clint wrote the winning essay on why he wanted a registered gilt. Kendra's essay last year won a registered gilt for her, and in accordance with the project, she presented a registered gilt to Clint, thus continuing the chain.
