

The Barber Pole Cats

A new barber shop quartet, the Barber Pole Cats, will be making its first appearance in a Round Up of Harmony when the Big Spring chapter of SPEBSQSA presents its annual show next Saturday night. The "Cats" have been singing together only a few weeks, but they are rapidly becoming a local favorite. They are Kerry Kicklighter, tenor; Carl Morris, baritone; Rodney Rish, lead, and Keith Brady, bass. Several other quartets, as well as a chorus, will participate in the Round Up of Harmony at Municipal Auditorium. Tickets are available from the barbershoppers, sponsoring Kiwanians, or at the Record Shop.

France Orders Boycott Of U.N. Groups Following Probe Vote

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—The French government, bitter over a U. N. vote to debate the way France rules North African Algeria, ordered a boycott of the U. N. General Assembly and its committees today.

The whole delegation to the Assembly was ordered home in an overseas telephone call from Premier Edgar Faure in Paris to French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay, temporarily heading the Assembly group here.

was also preparing to fly to Paris, on call for consultations.

Pinay led the delegation walkout from the General Assembly hall yesterday after delegates voted 28-27, with five abstentions, to reverse a Steering Committee decision which would have barred an Algerian debate. France argued that Algeria is part of France and the U. N. must not intervene on domestic matters. Arab-Asian countries argued that the U. N. could properly discuss the question of human rights in Algeria.

Sultan Leaves Throne To Cousin, Headache To France

RABAT, French Morocco, Oct. 1 (AP)—Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa finally left the throne of Morocco today and handed France a new problem by delegating the seals of office to a cousin.

agenda despite French protests. Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay pulled his delegation out of the U. N. hall and today Faure recalled the whole group to Paris in protest against the U. N. action.

Pinay and his immediate party had been scheduled to leave anyway by plane tonight for Paris. Others were arranging transportation home.

The aging, white-robed sovereign rode through an early morning calm to a nearby airport. There he boarded a special French military plane while French guards rendered full honors. Two hours later he had landed in Tangier, in effect, a crownless exile. Technically, he was still Sultan and he was still on Moroccan soil, but both were legal fictions.

Members of the permanent delegation to the U. N. — as distinct from those sent here for the 10th Assembly session — were awaiting instructions on whether the withdrawal is total or partial and temporary.

Some diplomats here predicted a government crisis on the U. N. Algeria situation, atop one brewing on Faure's program for Morocco. Whether Faure and Pinay would still be in the government Oct. 14, when they were scheduled to make a pre-Geneva visit to Moscow, was one of the intriguing questions raised here.

His departure appeared to come just in time to save Premier Edgar Faure's coalition from a parliamentary upset next week, but it was about 12 hours too late to save France the embarrassment of an adverse vote by the United Nations Assembly in New York.

Pierre July, French minister for Moroccan and Tunisian affairs, told reporters in Paris that France would not necessarily uphold Resident-General Pierre Boyer de Latour du Moulin on this point. He said the government was awaiting a more complete report from Rabat on the circumstances of the Sultan's exit.

Alphand became president of the U. N. Security Council for October today. No Security Council meetings are in prospect. But his absence might be embarrassing.

TEXAS DEMOS

Conservatives Seek National Party OK

AUSTIN, Oct. 1 (AP)—Texas conservative Democrats make their bid this week to get back in good standing with the national party organization.

The State Executive Committee dominated by friends of Gov. Allan Shivers meets Thursday in Fort Worth to select a national committeeman to replace Wright Morrow of Houston.

The committee fired Morrow to satisfy one condition preliminary to a full return to national party councils. The other condition was finding a replacement who would be acceptable to such loyalist leaders as House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Shivers and Morrow fell out with the national party in 1952 when they repudiated Adlai Stevenson and supported the GOP nominee, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Mrs. H. H. Weinert of Seguin, the national committeewoman since 1944, supported Stevenson and has remained on a firm footing with the national committee.

The national committee refused to recognize Morrow, and earlier this year when Shivers began knocking at its door again, he was told that Morrow had to go. Shivers booted Morrow and incurred the wrath of many conservatives for this concession to the national party leadership.

There has been some talk that Shivers himself might be picked to replace Morrow. Half a dozen other names have been mentioned, but not with conviction.

Shivers is still very much at odds with Stevenson, one of the front runners among those mentioned as a presidential nominee of the Democrats whose hopes have skyrocketed since President Eisenhower's illness.

The Democrats figure if Mr. Eisenhower doesn't run, their man's chances of getting in the White House in 1956 are very bright.

Shivers has also indicated he doesn't care much for Gov. Harriman of New York as a Democratic nominee. That, plus his feeling about Stevenson, plus the new confidence the party has in view of Mr. Eisenhower's illness, give the Texas governor a tough assignment.

The chances are pretty good that the national party leadership will not feel the necessity of wooing Shivers and other rebellious Southerners if the President doesn't run again.

Stevenson's visit to Texas last week brought predictions from Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Rayburn that Texas would get back in the Democratic column next year. At this moment, there appears to be a trend among all gubernatorial candidates to assert their party loyalty and cash in on any nationwide sweep that would return the Democrats to full power not only in Congress, but in the White House.

Patricia McCormick Has Full Schedule Planned In October

Patricia McCormick, the vivacious Big Spring lass who broke tradition and almost started a trend of lady bullfighters, has a busy schedule laid out for her during October.

Today she is due to be fighting in Tijuana, Mexico, below San Diego, and then on Oct. 9 she is booked at Nogales, across from Nogales, Ariz. Her schedule calls for an appearance at Mexicali, below El Centro, on Oct. 16, provided the bull ring there can be repaired in time. The ring was damaged severely by a recent fire.

On Oct. 23 Pat comes fairly close to home with an engagement at Juarez, and then on Oct. 30 at Villa Acuna.

These dates, however, are tentative at this stage.

Pat, after a successful summer series of fights, returned to the interior of Mexico to put in much work while making the tinas. She may come here in mid-November to spend some time with her parents, Mr and Mrs. E. B. McCormick.

September Building Totals $221,245

Amount of building permits during September reached $221,245 to bring the total for the year to $1,688,805. There have been 701 permits issued this year, 89 in September.

In dollar value, September places fourth among the nine months. However, September places second in number of permits issued. The average amount per permit for September is $2,486 and the average permit for the year thus far is $2,409.

The number of permits and amount for each month are Jan., 54 permits, $67,325; Feb., 71, $144,150; March, 88, $119,490; April, 74, $256,480; May, 71, $120,730; June, 87, $410,205; July, 75, $124,610; Aug. 92, $224,570; and Sept., 89, $221,245.

Speaker Slated For United Fund Inter-Club Meet

Hulen A. Marshall, Jr., superintendent of industrial relations for Sheffield Steel division of Armco Steel at Houston, is to address a combined meeting of civic clubs and others here Tuesday noon.

In the midst of his own drive, he is flying here to speak on behalf of the United Fund.

Marshall attended Texas A&M and the University of Houston and has served as president of the Galena Park Chamber of Commerce and as chairman of the Harris County Community Chest. He also has served as chairman of the Texas Manufacturers' Industrial Relations Committee, as chairman of the channel division of the Houston & Harris County 1954 United Fund.

This year he is the chairman of the channel division and is laying aside the organization of his own campaign long enough to talk to Big Spring people about community responsibilities.

Workbench Converts Into Storage Chests

By BILL BAKER

If you have been attempting to build things in your home workshop without a proper workbench, you'll be pleased with the design I have for you today. I've developed a portable workbench-tool storage combination.

Just take a look at the above pictures and you'll see what I mean by portable. The "open" workbench, 48 inches long and 24 inches wide, stands at a just-right 36 inches high. And then, presto, it becomes two suitcase-like containers in the "closed" position and is ready for storage.

Once you've finished building the easy-to-make workbench, using my pattern package 140, you'll find that the handy drawer becomes your tool storage box. The strong legs of the bench, made even stronger with a lower shelf, fold neatly to form a second storage box.

If you have been passing up the fine hobby of working with wood because you haven't enough room in your home for a regular workbench, this portable unit will be ideal for you. And you'll especially like the ease with which you'll complete the job.

Even if you've never worked with wood before, and want to start this hobby by building your own bench, you'll find no problems at all in construction.

It's easy to get a workbench pattern package. Here's all you have to do: send your name and address (clearly printed), together with only one dollar ($1) in check, cash or money order to Bill Baker, Big Spring Herald, P. O. Box 1111, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Be sure to ask for pattern number 140.

bench, are included in the pattern package you'll be using. Much like a woman's dress pattern, all you'll have to do is place each pattern on the wood, trace and cut. An exact-size assures simple assembly.

A layout chart, showing where each pattern piece should be placed on the wood, is another feature of the pattern package. No waste of material when you use this system.

A full instruction sheet is another feature you'll find in the pattern package. Step-by-step procedures, written in easy-to-understand language, add to the simplicity of the job.

A complete material list is another feature you'll enjoy. You'll know before you visit the lumberyard exactly what you'll need. Everything, down to the last broad, is listed.

So here's your chance to get in to the woodworking hobby. Why not order your workbench pattern today?

OPEN . . . and your workbench is ready for use. This portable home workshop is Bill Baker's new easy-to-build design.

CLOSED . . . and now your portable workbench is folded into two suitcase-like containers. Unit is ideal for small home or apartment.

Guatemala Chief To Visit U.S.

DENVER, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Denver White House announced today that President Carlos Castillo Armas of Guatemala will pay a state visit to Washington, as scheduled, at the end of this month with Vice President Nixon as his host.

President Eisenhower earlier this year invited the Guatemalan to visit Washington. But his illness will prevent his serving as host.

Instead of spending the first night at the White House—the usual procedure for visiting dignitaries—Castillo Armas will stay at nearby Blair House.

The Guatemalan President, accompanied by his wife and an official party of seven, will arrive Oct. 31 and leave for New York Nov. 3. They will remain in New York for four days and then go to Detroit and St. Louis for a day each.

Single Province
KARACHI, Pakistan, Oct. 1 (AP)—It's official now, all West Pakistan is a single province. A bill merging the states and territories of this Moslem nation on India's west flank was adopted by the Constituent Assembly last night.

County 4-H Clubs Getting Year's Programs Started

The 4-H Club program in Howard County is getting under way for the current school year, according to Assistant County Agent Bill Sims, who is in charge of all 4-H Club work.

At present he has clubs located at Forsan, Elbow, Knott, Vealmoor, Gay Hill, Midway, Center Point, Coghoma and Big Spring. The one at Big Spring is not only for pupils in the Big Spring School District but for all the boys and girls in the county not belonging to other clubs.

Most of the members have feeding projects with capons, lambs and calves. A few are feeding out rabbits and one boy indicated he would buy guineas to raise.

The 4-H Clubs are different from the FFA chapters, says Sims, in that the club boys and girls may join at nine years of age and continue until they are 21. Many of them are not old enough to study agriculture in the schools.

Thus far, Sims has received an eager response from club members, and finds them enthusiastic as they start their new projects. He says the main benefit from club work is training in farm or ranch work, providing a way to

Cub Leader Training School Is Scheduled

A training school for Cub leaders has been set for Oct. 11 at Howard County Junior College.

Bill Horne, chairman for the Cub training activity, announced that he and George A. McAllister, co-chairman, were mapping a program to serve both current leaders and prospective leaders. It will be held to den mothers, cubmasters and the pack committee. Plans are to meet at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 11 and time for subsequent sessions will be fixed then.

Jesuit Top Student At Protestant Institute

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP)—A Jesuit priest was graduated at the top of his class at the Protestant Episcopal-sponsored marine school in the Seaman's Institute here.

Brother Joseph J. Boscain, described as a "sensational student," went to the school to learn how to navigate a 50-foot schooner which he will sail among the Marshall Islands in the Pacific. The work will be part of his duties as a Roman Catholic missionary.

Bobby Jim Holliman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Holliman, 210 Carey, has completed the course at the Navy aviation mechanic school in Norman, Okla. and is now stationed on a Naval Air Station in the Philippine Islands. He will be overseas for about 18 months.

BOB HOLLIMAN

Army Pvt. Charles T. Kilway, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartsis, 1104 Scurry, Big Spring, recently took part in battalion training tests held by the 25th Infantry Division on the island of Hawaii. The two-day test was divided into three phases—defense, night withdrawal and attack. The island is about 200 miles from the unit's home station at Schofield Barracks on Oahu.

Private Kilway, a message center clerk at 3rd Battalion Headquarters in the division's 14th Regiment, entered the Army last November. He was graduated from Big Spring High School in 1954.

wanted to furnish entries next year. The fair was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee.

Community and educational exhibits were unusually good as were other divisions such as the flower shows, sewing, individual agricultural and homemaking displays.

Good crowds were on hand Friday and Saturday afternoon. There was a big turnout, especially around the time merchandise prizes were given away.

The Stanton Futura Farmers of America chapter captured first place in the educational exhibits and the Stanton Schools and Martin County 4-H Clubs ranked next.

In the home demonstration exhibits, Valley View Club was first, followed by Courtney and Tarran. Saturday morning, in the dry lot class of calves, Craig Beckmeyer, Flower Grove 4-H, showed the top calf.

First two places in the milkfed division went to Bobby Sale of the Courtney 4-H Club, third place to Weems Williams, Stanton 4-H, and fourth to Delbert Donaldson, Stanton FFA.

Proudest Possession

The newest and proudest possession of Mrs. C. W. Hilliard, 1501-A Lexington, is this paper which signifies she is a citizen of the United States of America. She took the oath Friday-afternoon at Abilene. Looking on are Dorothy, 3, Charles Jr., 1, Mr. Hilliard, and Teresa Jean, 5. Mrs. Hilliard was Kiseko Miyai before her marriage to Hilliard, then a sergeant first class with the medicals at Osaka, Japan. Before he came here as a member of the Cosden lab staff, they were at Berkeley, Calif., where they attended UCLA and at Abilene, where he attended McMurry. Mrs. Hilliard also is a member of the First Methodist Church.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Says Teaching Of Bible Might Cure Difficulties

Dear Editor: In reading Mrs. Sorrel's letter concerning the problems of desegregation I felt as many members of both races felt, I am sure, like going off to weep. However, this does not help greatly. I remember how my mother used to solve problems and I venture to hold her up as an example for a few moments as we arrived in this town before most of its present citizens were born and as she had an interest in everything, especially in the schools.

She would look around to see the source of trouble and the solution usually came in a short while. Common people always listened to my mother. The bigger the leader, frequently, the less he listened. When we arrived, the schools were so crowded that soon my mother knew if her children were to be educated, she would have to do a good part of the work herself. There was nearly every reason why she could not do this but we were educated while we carried on other tasks. This lasted throughout most of her lifetime, her last teaching being with Negro children in a church which I believe was different from her denomination. My mother said little of hatred because she did not understand that subject.

In looking over recent rulings of the Supreme Court we find that first it removed the teachings of the Bible which is the source of education from the public schools, then it told all the people to get together presumably in peace, for an education. The court can hand down opinions. Congress must pass the laws. As even one race cannot live in peace for any length of time without these teachings, how are several going to be able to do this?

Looking around a little more, we find our neighbor to the west, Midland has solved a good deal of trouble before it started by recently employing eight new policewomen, one of whose duties it is to look after school traffic. It is my belief that if some Negro police were hired to look after this north side school traffic most of the trouble would be over. They are equipped to deal with their offenders as they have proved when given a chance. The people of Big Spring surely pay enough taxes to employ escorts for children when needed.

In case this is not done, mothers could take turns in going to school with them. I remember in another city, one mother who walked twelve blocks four times daily with her boy for two or three years. She gave up a good job in order to do this but there were no school fights in her neighborhood.

This is the beginning of a new age. These space-fliers who play around our doors possibly are the world's most important children. Education is an all-the-time job. If they grow up to be righteous (of the right judgments, attitudes, etc.) they may be included with those whom according to Isaiah "shall dwell on high" and those whose "eyes shall behold the land which is very far off!"

Now, in looking around a little more, we find in the early 1880's

25 Escape Dallas Fire

DALLAS (U.S.)—Twenty-five elderly persons hurried to safety when fire broke out early today in a 21-room rooming house in Dallas' Oak Cliff section.

The fire came while firemen from the nearest station already were fighting a garage fire some distance away.

Two firemen were injured in the rooming house blaze. Fireman W. B. Strickland suffered leg bruising when his leg slipped through the ceiling. Fireman J. E. Corbett was overcome by smoke while on the roof.

Methodists Slate Meetings For Area

More Potent Vaccine Seen

PITTSBURGH (U.S.)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk, discoverer of the polio vaccine, disclosed today plans for testing a more potent vaccine within the next few weeks. The young University of Pittsburgh bacteriologist said the tests will be made in certain selected Pittsburgh schools on children enrolled in kindergarten or the first three grades.

Dr. Salk said he wants to obtain information on antibody status in all children who were inoculated one or more times. He said blood will be drawn from the finger tip to determine the presence or absence of antibody for each type of polio strain.

Michigan Students Hold Panty Raid

ANN ARBOR (U.S.)—University of Michigan students overran three girls' dormitories in a panty raid Friday night.

The raiders, estimated at more than 1,000, broke from a campus pep rally on the eve of the Michigan-Michigan State football game. They spread havoc along a campus business district. Theater marquees were torn down and cars pushed on sidewalks.

Walter B. Rea, dean of men, commented "we'll have to organize better pep rallies."

Construction Bids Asked At Webb AB

Bids have been asked for Oct. 27 at 2 p.m. for construction of a fixed TAGAN facility at Webb AFB.

Details may be secured from the Installations Office at Webb, or information may be had by calling Bill G. Mims, director of engineering, at the office (4-2511, extension 349).

Toasts With Pop?

LONDON Oct. 1 (U.S.)—James Hudson, secretary of the National Temperance Federation, wants British diplomats to take a voluntary oath not to drink. He cited the government's white paper saying Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess, missing diplomats who served as Soviet agents, were heavy drinkers as well as early converts to communism.

Polio Survey Results Termed 'Encouraging'

WASHINGTON (U.S.)—The Department of Welfare said today, in the first official report of such scope, that preliminary reports from a nationwide polio survey "are very encouraging."

The announcement, by Secretary Marion B. Folsom, said: "Preliminary data, now being compiled, show that the incidence of polio among about seven million vaccinated children, most of whom have received only one injection, is running roughly 25 to 50 per cent below the rate among non-vaccinated children in the same age groups.

"These preliminary reports are very encouraging," Folsom said, "and more information is expected soon." There have been previous indications of the effectiveness of the vaccine, but these have been based on studies of only segments of the great number of children who have received shots. Today's report was the first to embrace the whole seven million and to give such percentages.

Some partial studies of children who received all three recommended shots have indicated preventive effectiveness of up to 100 per cent. When the vaccine was licensed last April, doctors said results from 1954 test studies indicated an effectiveness of 60-80 per cent. The Public Health Service said that since revised production and testing standards were adopted for the vaccine last May, there has been no association of polio with any vaccine released for use.

Permanent Status For Area Airports Is Recommended

WASHINGTON (U.S.)—Sixteen airports on the route acquired by Continental Airlines from Pioneer Airlines were recommended by the Civil Aeronautics Board examiner Friday to be authorized for permanent status. Seven remaining points were recommended for temporary service.

The "initial decision" of Examiner Ferdinand D. Moran will become the board's final decision if no objections are filed within 10 days. Moran recommended that Midland-Odessa and Abilene, Tex., be served as consecutive points of the route, but Continental urged that they be designated as alternates.

Continental objected to certification of Lamesa and Las Vegas, pointing out that it suspended service at both points several years ago because of inadequate airport facilities. Texas: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Big Spring, College Station, Bryan, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, Midland-Odessa, San Angelo, Temple and Waco. New Mexico: Albuquerque, Clovis and Santa Fe. Proposed for temporary three-year certificates were Las Vegas, N.M., and Breckenridge, Mineral Wells, Plainview, Snyder, Sweetwater and Lamesa, Tex.

Disaster Loans Available In Drought Areas

O. C. Jones, acting regional director of the Small Business Administration for the Southwest area, has announced that SPA is now prepared to make drought disaster business loans in officially designated drought areas.

Under the law enacted by the last session of Congress, the Small Business Administration is given authority to make drought disaster business loans at 3 per cent interest to firms able to show they have actually suffered economic injury attributable to the drought.

The loans may be made for a term of 10 years, and the proceeds must be for the most part, confined to working capital. However, refinancing of indebtedness (except bank loans) on which delinquencies are directly attributable to the drought, is permissible.

Make-up men were unable to get ready for shooting because of the tears, Dean, considered eccentric by some outsiders, was well liked by the people with whom he worked. A nonconformist in the Marlon Brando tradition, he was hard to get to know.

Arctic Radar Station Gets Supplies

U. S. Army personnel unload supplies on a beach in Canada's Eastern Arctic where the U. S. is spending 250 million dollars to outfit radar stations on the DEW (Distant Early Warning) Line which stretches 3,000 miles across the northern rim of North America.

Traffic Crash Kills James Dean, Young Star Of 'East Of Eden'

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 1 (AP)—James Dean, 24, the sensitive, young actor who could well become Hollywood's first posthumous Academy Award winner, will be buried back home in Indiana.

From Paso Robles, Calif., near where the star was killed in an accident last night in his 150 m.p.h. German sports car, his father announced these funeral arrangements:

Services will be at 2 p.m. next Saturday at Hunt's Funeral Home in Fairmount, Ind. Burial will be in Grant's Memorial Park in near-by Marion, Dean's birthplace.

Fairmount is the town where Dean was a farm boy and starred in basketball, track and debating at the local high school. In 1949, he won first place in the National Forensic League Contest.

Here at Warner Bros., the studio where Dean zoomed to stardom in "East of Eden," it was as if a hurricane had ravaged the lot. Everybody was stunned, especially on the set of "Giant," his last movie. Jimmy finished his scenes only the day before his death.

Four hours after the rest of the company had reported for work today, not a camera had turned. Elizabeth Taylor, his co-star, took it the hardest. Crying unashamedly, she said: "I can't believe it. I'm still stunned."

Not since the screen debut of Brando had any actor made such a bow as had Dean in "East of Eden." Many critics tabbed it the male Oscar performance to beat.

Dean, once a motorcycle enthusiast, had just recently paid $7,000 for the German Porsche Spyder. He was en route to Salinas for the road races there when killed.

Changes in appointments have affected two parishes in this area. The Rt. Rev. William C. Martin, bishop of the Dallas-Fort Worth area of the Methodist Church, has announced the assignment of the Rev. Hugh H. Hunt, Stanton, to be pastor of the Buchanan Street Church in Amarillo.

In addition to pupils, pictures will be taken of P-TA officers and faculty members. At a subsequent visit of the photographer, pictures of the scout troop, the basketball team, and any missed in the initial sittings, will be taken.

Texas has more antelope than antelope hunters, the State Game and Fish Commission says.

There are 1,106 surplus antelope ready for harvest west of the Pecos River, but the commission has only 437 applications for special permits to hunt. All the applying hunters were granted permits.

Meanwhile, there were 305 hunters disappointed when applications exceeded the supply of surplus antelope for the open season in the Panhandle area.

Vernon Skaggs, chief clerk of the commission, said it would give the excess Panhandle applicants an opportunity to hunt in the Trans-Pecos.

The antelope hunt west of the Pecos will be held in three phases beginning Oct. 1 and ending Oct. 10. The Panhandle hunt will be held in three phases beginning Oct. 12 through Oct. 21.

Skaggs said the law forbids reopening applications for west of the Pecos permits since the official deadline was midnight Aug. 31.

Two Big Springers had a lot of recent luck at Possum Kingdom, according to J. F. Winters, operator of Lefty's Ranch Camp at Graceland. Raymond Ware and Wayne Burleson got their crapple limits of 25 each, for a 3-day total of 150. Best fishing in a long time, the two anglers averred.

The Corps of Engineers district office in Fort Worth will begin issuing duck blind permits Oct. 13. The permits will be issued without charge for lakes created by these dams: Benbrook, Grapevine, Lavon, Lewisville, Whitney, Belton, San Angelo, Hords Creek, Dam "B."

Blinds may be placed on the lakes 20 days prior to the opening of the season and must be removed within 30 days after the season ends.

No blinds will be permitted near boat harbors and concessions or within 300 feet of the dams.

Nike Engine Blast Kills 1, Hurts 8

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. (AP)—One man was killed and eight injured Friday when a Nike engine exploded, blowing the roof off the building where it was being tested.

Clyde F. Welford, Las Cruces, died of injuries about two hours after the explosion. None of the injured was in serious condition. Most suffered acid burns.

The engine for the guided missile was being tested when, a spokesman said, "something went wrong."

Honor Graduate

Ray Weathers, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Weathers, 1102 N. Nolan, has finished his work in the Elkins School of Radio and Television in Dallas with the highest grade in the class. He will return soon to Big Spring to make his home.

GAS IS COOKING CLEANER

WHICH FUEL IS CLEANER?

Gas does not contain any soot or grease. The dirt which accumulates in a kitchen is the result of grease-laden steam particles escaping into the room from uncovered skillets or pans, vaporizing, and leaving a film to which lint and dust adhere. This occurs with any type of fuel, whether it comes from a pipe or from a wire. In normal day-to-day cooking and dishwashing, invisible soapy films and minute food particles accumulate on pots and pans. The burning of these films and particles results in brown stains on pots and pans regardless of the fuel or source of energy. Cooking on a gas range does offer these cleanliness advantages:

Gas ranges, and gas ranges only, feature smokeless broiling. You broil with the oven door closed—smoke is not allowed to pour into the kitchen. Gas flame, and flame only, consumes smoke which is created by the burning of fat or other foods while cooking. Both broiler and kitchen stay cleaner.

Gas range burners can be taken apart completely—every part of a gas burner can be put in the dishpan and washed—just like your dishes. Other ranges, as you know, are not made this way. On many of them, you can do nothing more than wipe off crusted food with a dry rag.

FLAME IS THE NATURAL METHOD OF COOKING, AND PERFECTLY CONTROLLED FLAME IS SUPERIOR FOR MODERN COOKING . . . ABSOLUTELY UNMATCHED BY ANY ARTIFICIAL COOKING METHOD.

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N. M., Oct. 1 (AP)—A special chartered Greyhound bus, carrying members of the Lionel Hampton band, swerved out of control and crashed down an embankment 22 miles south of Socorro this afternoon. At least five persons were seriously injured. These were taken to the Truth or Consequences Hospital. Another five or 10 believed to have suffered minor injuries were treated at the hospital. Reports said that others were taken to hospitals at Socorro and Belen. At least one person, so far unidentified, was believed to be seriously injured in the Socorro hospital.

Steers Spoil Palo Duro 1-AAA Debut

By TOMMY HART
AMARILLO, Oct. 1 (SC) — The Big Spring Steers sounded a warning to other District 1-AAA football teams by soundly spanking the willful but far-from-able Palo Duro Dons, 33-7, Friday night.

It would make a fight for it but the Steers methodically went to work after the intermission and helped themselves to two more six-pointers.

Left end and raced over from eight yards out to run the tab to 26-0. Davis again kicked the point.

TIME ELEMENT

Following is a chart showing how much time had elapsed in each quarter when the scoring plays occurred in the Big Spring-Palo Duro football game Friday night.

Eddie Mills and Jerry Cannon sparked a game Palo Duro to its lone TD four minutes deep in the fourth. Cannon culminated the 61-yard drive by barreling over from the one. Jimmy Cook kicked the point.

that for the past two years has shared the district championship with Breckenridge.

Sooners Extend Winning Streak To 21 Contests

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 1 (AP) — Speed and deception triumphed over raw power today as Oklahoma developed previously unbeaten Pittsburgh 26-14 in an intersectional thriller that extend college football's longest current winning streak to 21 games.

While a near capacity crowd of 58,000 looked on in approval the lighter but trickier Sooners stumped the Easterners with three first half touchdowns, then added the clincher in the dying moments after Pittsburgh had cut the margin to a mere five points in the second half.

R. H. Weaver Wins Forsan Tournament

FORSAN, Oct. 1 — R. H. Weaver of Big Spring captured the Forsan Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament here Saturday, defeating Charles Ellis 4-3 in the final.

Earlier he had taken out Medalist Wayne Monroey in the second round, 4-3. Just to prove he was in fine fettle, he also took the longball contest, driving 240 yards into the wind, and then the 100-yard ship shot event. He received a camp cook stove for the title and five golf balls for other contests.

Monroey posted a 38 to win the medalist title and a dozen golf balls.

C. C. Brunton, winner of the first flight, and runner-up Marvin Wingett, each received golf bags and Jack Wise, championship consolation winner, and L. T. Shoults, consolation pacer of the first flight, each received sport shirts.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 1 (AP) — Passing marvel Len Dawson connected nine times in 12 throws today but Purdue's vast Boilermakers needed his extra point conversion to subdue rallying Minnesota 7-6.

Playing with his jammed thumb tightly taped, Dawson directed the 13-point scoring Boilermakers on a 65-yard favorite drive in the third period, capped by fullback Bill Murrell's one yard smash into the end zone.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1 (AP) — Southern California knocked the Texas aerial weapon out of commission in the first five minutes of their intersectional football game Friday night and marched on to a 19-7 victory before 61,996 fans in Memorial Coliseum.

Sophomore quarterback Joe Clements, the nation's leading passer going into last night's game, was shaken up early in the first quarter and never did return to the game. The Trojans, favored by two touchdowns, gained a pair in the first half for a 13-0 lead.

Sophomore Walt Fondren scored twice and his substitute, C. R. Roberts, tallied the other. D. U. A. 11 snatched five yards for the first touchdown, ending a 76-yard parade downfield. Roberts contributed.

LAKEVIEW ROCKETS LOSE 12-7 TILT TO ODESSA

For Big Spring, Clarence Williams 42 and Alvin King and William Toles 17 each. Willie Roy English and Earl Green had 11 each.

LAMESA, Oct. 1 — The Lamesa Tornados got off on the right foot and raced three yards for a fourth Tornado TD. A short time later, he traveled 53 yards to pay dirt on the identical play and Zeek's boot made it 33-6.

Another Plainview bobble in the first quarter put the Tornados back in business on the opposition's 37. Chapman eventually made it all the way from the 35 and Zeek again came through with a conversion kick.

Fifteen seconds deep in the second period, Chapman passed long to Dwayne Powell for a score.

Stanford Upsets Touted Buckeyes By 6 To 0 Tally

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 1 (AP) — Stanford's upstart Indians, living up to their chief's blithe midweek prediction, clamped the shackles on All-America Hopalong Cassidy today and made a first-period touchdown stand up for a 6-0 upset victory over eighth-ranked Ohio State in an intersectional football game.

It was nationally televised. A slim crowd of 28,000 saw the Indians score the first time they had the ball. A sneaker pass from Jerry Gustafson to Paul Camera climaxed a 72-yard drive.

Stanford completely outplayed the bewildered Buckeyes throughout the first half.

Chunky Chuck Taylor, the optimistic Stanford coach and himself a former All-America guard for the Indians, said early in the week he felt Cassidy "could be had," and that he had devised a "gambling" defense which he figured would turn the trick. It did.

Cassidy, an All-America half-back as a junior last year, was held to only 11 yards in the first half and 26 in the second. The Indians hamstring him virtually every time he had the ball.

The Stanford touchdown came from the opening kickoff on a 12-yard play, 72-yard march. Gustafson, sharp as a razor with his passes, was masterful in his team direction. He used the bull-like rushes of fullback Bill Tarr, last year's Pacific Coast Conference running champion, to complement his aerial game with outstanding success.

Tarr, stocky 190-pound senior, tripped the Buckeye tackles and guards and Gustafson passed as though equipped with a bomb sight throughout the drive.

The payoff was a perfectly executed deceptive pass to Camera, all alone in the corner of the end zone, for the final yard. Tarr ripped through the middle of the line without the football, completely fooling the Bucks. The nearest defender was a good 15 yards away when Camera caught the ball.

Mike Raftery's conversion try was blocked.

Uclans Bombard State, 55 To 0

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 1 (AP) — The UCLA Bruins, with every back a hero, opened defense of their Pacific Coast Conference football title today with a massive 55-0 thumping of Washington State.

It was the Cougars' worst beating in 33 years and strengthened the Bruins' hold on their No. 7 spot in The Associated Press poll.

Braving Bob Davenport and speedy Sam Brown provided a one-two punch that left the Cougars groggy in the first half from the Bruin's grinding ground game.

Black Knights Win Over Penn State

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP) — Pat Uebel and Don Hollender, a pair of extremely versatile Army athletes, plus a lightning-fast defense crushed Penn State 35-6 today and put Army on top of the Eastern football heap.

Uebel, playing halfback most of the time instead of his 1954 fullback post, and Hollender, the end converted into a quarterback, were the big men in the Army offense that scored three touchdowns in the first half and two more in the final quarter. But it was the Army line on defense that did the biggest damage to a well-regarded Penn State team.

Yearlings Rip Odessa, 33-7

Charles Caraway's Eighth Grade Yearlings took a cue from their big brothers, the Steers, and vanquished the Bonham Junior High School Owls of Odessa here Saturday afternoon, 33-7.

The score was the same margin by which the Longhorns had belted Palo Duro Friday night.

James Harrington scored three touchdowns for the Yearlings, one of them on a 60-yard run. He benefited from great blocking in the line.

Harrington also went 45 and 25 yards for touchdowns. J. B. Davis scored the first Yearling TD on a short run.

Donnie Everett passed to Bobby Evans for still another tally.

Davis made two of Big Spring's extra points, Harrington one.

Coach Caraway cleaned his bench of substitutes in efforts to hold down the score. The Yearlings led at half time, 27-0.

Odessa averted a shutout in the last six seconds of play when Larry Tatum rammed over. Robert Thomas added the PAT on a run.

LCB Agents Suspend Cafe Beer License

A beer license issued to Sam Williams for Sam's Cafe, 504 NW days by local Liquor Control Board agents. The suspension becomes effective Sept. 30.

Reason for the suspension was given that the operator had allowed gambling on the licensed premises. Date the offense was alleged was Sept. 11 when police and LCB agents said they interrupted a dice game.

Buffalo Trail Council Ranks First In Region IX Scouts

The Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, composed of eighteen counties including Howard, ranks first among the 36 councils of Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico composing Region IX, according to reports received in the council office.

The gain in membership is 33 per cent over one year ago. The present boy membership is 6,064.

Texas Tops Nation In Cotton Ginning

DALLAS, Oct. 1 (AP)—Texas with 1,222,601 bales topped the nation in number of bales of cotton ginned from the 1955 growth prior to Sept. 16, the regional office of the U.S. Department of Commerce reported today.

The total was almost half of the nation's total for the period, 2,800,154 bales. Mississippi ranked second with 359,413 bales.

CRITIQUE

By Glenn Coates

THE PASSIONATE STATE OF MIND

By ERIC HOFFER

Several years ago, a longshoreman in San Francisco published a remarkable little book called "The True Believer," which has surprised almost everyone with its steady sales. In this book, the author described the fanatic, who despising himself, pledges a blind and certain allegiance to any cause, no matter how despicable, in order to obtain an identity and a purpose in life.

In this current volume (Harper and Bros., 151 pp., $2.50), Hoffer continues the thought. His books betray a keen observance of "Mr. Average" as he copes with life. Hoffer lays open the many things it is often thought best to keep hidden. Because of this, it is almost impossible to see why his books will sell.

The book is written in what has been described as epigrams and aphorism. It is not a book that should or could be swallowed whole. Two or three pages at a time are sufficient.

For example: "To know a person's religion we need not listen to his profession of faith but must find his brand of intolerance."

Or: "The taint hidden in selfishness is that selfishness is the only moral justification of ruthlessness." Hoffer has had no formal schooling. He was blind until the age of 15. Since regaining his sight, he has read everything in German and English he can lay his hands on. I read somewhere that he starts on a library shelf and reads each book as he comes to it, regardless of the subject matter.

He has been a gold miner, a field laborer, a railroad worker, and now a longshoreman. His ideal state of existence is one where he can be both poor and independent. Apparently he has found it.

This current book is more or less a companion volume to his first. Both of them are first choice material for any library.

Things are beginning to look up, culturally speaking. We have a concert association, plans are moving along for a concert orchestra and a "little theatre," and opening next Saturday, we will have an art gallery.

Mildred White will exhibit approximately 17 local, repeat "local," artists in her "House Of Art." Mrs. White said she expected to have about 75 paintings on display.

All area artists are invited to bring their works to the gallery. Mrs. White said. Sales will be handled on a commission basis. Also, you are invited to visit the galleries starting Saturday.

Del McComb's high school play, which will be presented Thursday and Friday, looks very interesting from here. The comedy drama, "Outward Bound," was first presented in 1923 and earned a revival last year on Broadway.

The action takes place on a ship that is making a voyage to Heaven and Hell. The voyagers discover one by one that they are dead. The play is climaxed by the arrival of the ship at its destination and the confrontation of the passengers with the Examiner. The play is an excellent choice and Del McComb is to be commended for a selection so much better than the general run of high school presentations in other cities.

Julie Rainwater is student director and the casting includes Gary Tidwell, Tom Guin, Tommy Pickle, Rodney Sheppard, Clara Freeman, Marilyn Morris, J. T. Baird, Leon Clark, and Eunice Freeman.

At only 60 cents per person, this play is a real bargain. The members of the junior class are selling tickets.

Authors, at least the better ones, spend a great deal of time developing a technique that will grasp the reader's attention early so that he will be enticed to finish it. Some of the attempts are rather crude but nonetheless effective.

My favorite along this line is Ambrose Bierce. Besides being a very good writer, he had a talent for invective that is rarely encountered in literature. It is more the political type writer who utilizes the acid wit and sharp tongue.

Bierce wrote many short stories and even more essays. Some of his work is little, more than fables. Here are examples of the first sen-

Konrad Adenauer

The chancellor of the new German Republic is the only leader of the Germans since the war. He was once mayor of Cologne and was an enemy of the Nazi who jailed him. He was almost purged after the attempt to assassinate Hitler failed in 1944. He is the father of six and has 13 grandchildren. He is author of "World Indivisible, with Liberty and Justice For All."

ences he used in two short stories: "Having murdered my mother under circumstances of singular atrocity. . ."

"Early one June morning in 1872, I murdered my father—an act which made a deep impression on me at the time."

Those are the best "literary fish-books" I have come across.

The Saturday Review of Literature made its annual poll among 25 leading book critics concerning the best fall reading. Most popular among the critics, in order, are: "Marjorie Morningstar," by Herman Wouk.

"Andersonville," by MacKinlay Kantor.

"Band Of Angels," by Robert Penn Warren.

"Inside Africa," by John Gunther.

"The Genius and The Goddess," by Aldous Huxley.

"Hiroshima Diary: The Journal of a Japanese Physician," by Michiko Hachiya.

"Jefferson Davis, American Patriot," by Hudson Strode.

"The Moon And The Stars: A Biography of Virginia Woolf," by Aileen Piperett.

VACATION BARGAIN

Hotel Takes Only 'Elite' Clientele

By HOUSTON HARTE
LAKE COMO, Italy (By mail)—One of the most attractive hotels in Europe is the 20-room Villa Magliana on the golf course at Magliana, near Lugano. It is not a Swiss lake but the Magliana river; a fine trout stream runs through the 18-hole golf course.

It is exquisitely furnished with antiques, rich Persian rugs and attractive Swiss and German oil landscapes. Its meals are superb and the clientele selected with care.

It is not more than a 15-minute drive from the Casino at Lugano, not more than an hour from the celebrated Villa D'Este, where you can dance every night to a fine orchestra in a glittering ballroom, and within two hours of Milan, the second largest city in Italy.

If you can convince Fritz Bortier, the owner, that you will fit into the life of his rather circumspect guests you can get a room with bath and veranda for 35 Swiss francs a day ($8.25), either double or single.

It is the biggest vacation bargain you'll likely encounter. The hottest temperatures registered at the Villa in recent years was 35 centigrade. The normal maximum temperature is 32.

Brown & Root, the Houston construction firm is building a 25-million-dollar butane rubber plant near Milan for the Italian government. Frank C. Kuick is in charge of the work with an office in Milan.

Italy has found both gas and oil in the Po Valley, and this plant is an effort to help Italy save on rubber which has been purchased in London and Amsterdam and does not help hold up the lira exchange rate. The Nocchi Sewing Machine plant near Milan, although an old building, has been modernized out of the proceeds of a prosperous business. It must give Italians a thrill to work in a plant that is playing so great a part in earning dollars, francs and pounds for exchange in poor Italy.

With all its water power the average homeowner in Switzerland pays a high price for electricity.

An economic official in the Swiss government who has spent the last five years in the United States says his electricity bill in Bern is greater here for fewer kilowatts than he paid in Washington, D. C. One of the reasons is that electric power is all owned either by the Federal Government, the canton or the municipality or commune. A high electric rate is a hidden tax on the average Swiss family, as the cost of Swiss power is certainly one of the lowest in the world.

Unlike most other European nations, Switzerland has plenty of local funds to provide the capital outlays to build dams and string power lines. Its interest rates are low. Power sites are available everywhere in narrow gorges between granite walls where a dam would cost a fraction of the outlay required in other parts of the earth. But still the rates are high.

Switzerland with less than 5 million people has an annual consumption of 2,000 kilowatt-hours per inhabitant. This is exceeded only by Canada and Norway. All its railroads are electrified with the exception of a few short, narrow-gauge lines which go to ski or other winter resorts in the high Alps.

The Swiss own more electrical appliances than any nation outside the United States. On the last census in 1951 the Swiss had 478,000 electric cooking ranges, 458,000 domestic electric water heaters and 150,000 electric washing machines and the same number of electric refrigerators. The estimate now is much higher. Electric heating is growing fast.

Navy Ends Hunt For Missing Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Navy today ended its organized search of the Caribbean Sea for a missing hurricane hunter plane and the 11 men who disappeared aboard it a week ago in Hurricane Janet.

Ships and planes which scoured many hundreds of square miles of sea south of Jamaica were recalled. Hereafter only investigative flights will be made when floating debris or other objects are reported by passing ships and airplanes, the Navy reported.

All results so far have been negative, searchers reported. The hurricane hunter, first ever to disappear on a storm mission, apparently was lost inside the area of Janet's heaviest winds.

Jury Frees Montgomery

ABILENE (AP)—John D. Montgomery was acquitted Thursday night of the bathtub drowning of his wife.

The jury spent 3 hours and 10 minutes in deliberation after Montgomery, who contended the death was accidental, spent 4 hours on the witness stand.

GEOGRAPHY — will enter into the course of study for members of The Woman's Forum, (at left), since their theme for the year is "Outstanding Women Of The Modern World." Mrs. Escot Compton, vice president, locates Greece, which is the locale for the study at the next meeting, when the club will discuss the life and work of Queen Fredericka of that country. Other officers are, left to right, Mrs. Lucien Jones, treasurer, Mrs. Leroy Tidwell, recording secretary, and Mrs. Joe Pickle, president.

ON THE SOCIAL SIDE — is the Hyperton Council, represented by Mrs. R. W. Thompson and Mrs. John Taylor, left to right. The six individual clubs in the Council have their own projects and courses of study, but twice a year all meet for a party. In the spring, it is a tea; in the fall, a luncheon. Reports are given as to work planned or accomplished, and members take time out for chatting. (Photos by Keith McMillin.)

SCRAPBOOKS MEAN A LOT — in an organization's history. Realizing this, members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority work toward having the very best publicity obtainable. They are prompt with reports of meetings, correct as to names and initials, and the reporter beats the paper's 10 a.m. deadline. It's no wonder, then, that their book is so pleasing to Barbara Ann Eye, treasurer, Kay Ming, president, Mrs. Fred Stitzell, vice-president (from left to right), and Bo Bowen, standing, recording secretary.

Federated Clubs Of City

Almost anything can be accomplished when a woman "sets her mind to it," and when a group decides on something, it's a cinch to get the job done.

Working together is not only more effective; it is more interesting, since new friends are made and new interests acquired.

Members of the Big Spring Federation of Clubs will agree to this fact, since through efforts of the garden clubs of the city, the town's appearance has been improved and beautified.

Social service work has come to be the regular project of the local study clubs and sororities, with needed supplies furnished, baskets of cheer given on holidays, and parties sponsored at various times. (See story, Page 2.)

FIRST YEAR GARDEN COUNCIL OFFICERS — are Mrs. C. M. Boles, secretary, Mrs. John Knox, treasurer, and Mrs. V. A. Whittington, president, front row. Standing are Mrs. Ennis Cochran, vice-president, and Mrs. Odie Wilson, publicity chairman for special events. The Council was organized in the spring of this year for the purpose of coordinating the work of all the local garden clubs. Several projects are planned by the group for the coming year.

Federated Clubs Work For House, Projects

By ANNE LEFEVER

"Never underestimate the power of a woman" was never more true than when applied to club women who band together with one purpose in view. Such is the case with the Big Spring City Federation of Women's Clubs, organized with the idea of securing a Civic Center which would also serve as a Women's Club Building. Groups are still working toward that goal as well as setting other projects for development during the club year.

Mrs. R. W. Whitkey is president of the Federation; Mrs. K. H. McGibbon is vice president, and Mrs. Don Newsom is secretary. Treasurer is Mrs. Gullford Jones.

The Woman's Forum, The Child Study Club and Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority make up the membership of the federation with the two councils of the Hyperion Clubs and the garden clubs of the city. Representatives from each club meet in homes of the members on the third Monday of the month.

Originating in Texas, the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority has spread to every state in the Union and now has headquarters in Loveland, Colo. The local chapter has chosen the name Alpha Chi.

With a motto, "Pursuit of Learning," the overall purpose of the sorority is threefold; cultural development of its members, to promote social activities and to give service to others.

The local group has adopted as its project for the coming year the Westside Recreation Center, for which they have already bought a television set. In past years, song books and toys were donated to the Center, and a needy Latin-American family was given assistance.

Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets containing food, clothing and toys are always given to families, and a contribution is made to the March of Dimes. Last year the sorority gave $100.

A current project of the Child Study Club is the furnishing of embroidery work for patients at the State Hospital, along with the study of mental health being outlined by the group.

During the past year, the club has paid the utilities for one month for the Westside Recreation Center and plans are now to prepare refreshments for a children's party one time for the year. Members bake cookies for the Servicemen's Center at various times.

cell-sponsored show to be staged in the HJCJ gym Nov. 3 from 3 to 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend, and tickets are priced at 50 cents.

Mrs. Fred Lurting will lead members of the five clubs in their project for extensive decorations of the courthouse lawn at Christmas time in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce. Finishing touches will be completed by Nov. 29 and definite plans will be announced later.

A three-day school for flower-arranging will be sponsored by the Garden Club Council in January. This, the second school to be given here, is open to all garden club members. Fee for the school is $4.50, and a baby sitting service is planned. Mrs. D. S. Riley is chairman of the school, and instructors will be Mrs. Jason Roberson and Mrs. J. A. Kendall, both of Amarillo.

Newest of the Hyperion Clubs is the Jubilee Club, so named because it was organized during the late spring of this year—the Jubilee Year of the mother club, the 1905 group. Since it is in the process of getting under way, this club has not announced a project, but several are being considered.

First year officers are Mrs. Albert Smith, president; Mrs. Richard Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. James E. Brooks, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert A. Pondrom, Mrs. Orland Johnson, treasurer.

Pilgrimage Of Tables Scheduled By Xi Mu

Xi Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has scheduled its sixth annual Pilgrimage of Beautiful Table Settings for Oct. 30, beginning from 3 to 5:30 and ending at 5 p.m. The affair is one of the means the sorority uses in financing one of their projects, the Muscular Dystrophy Fund, and it is open to the public. Tickets are priced at one dollar and may be bought from members of the sorority.

"Fireside Glow" will be the title for the first table to be shown, and it will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Womack, 1601 Tucson Rd. Receiving guests here will be Mrs. R. E. Dobbins, Mrs. L. D. Chrane and Mrs. Tommy Gage.

Sponsor of the next setting will be Mrs. W. D. McDonald 506 Washington Blvd., who will feature an "Autumn Tea." Mrs. James Underwood and Mrs. Tom South will be hostesses at this place.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tidwell, 906 Mountain Park Dr., will have a table laid for "Dinner at Eight," and as hostesses, Mrs. Paul Darrow and Mrs. Melvin Coleman.

At 103 Cedar Rd., Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser will arrange a table setting which might be used for a pre-theater snack. "Curtain Going Up" will be the theme as guests are welcomed by Mrs. George Elliott and Mrs. Harold Hall.

Just next door Mrs. Jimmy Beale's table arrangement will give the invitation, "Come On! My House," with Mrs. Harold Talbot and Mrs. Kent Morgan receiving. Tea will be served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. McGibbon, 108 Cedar Rd., from a table laid in the "Elegance of Tradition." Assisting will be Mrs. R. L. Heith, Mrs. Gene Nabors and Mrs. Charles Tompkins.

HI--TALK

By Mary Sue Hale

Nine BSHS Student Council officers and representatives attended the West Texas Student Council Forum at Kermit yesterday. J. T. Baird, Tom Henry Guin, Gary Tidwell, Rodney Sheppard, Bettie Anderson, Opal Hancock and Brenda Gordan represented Big Spring, and delegates from about 10 other surrounding schools attended.

Bettie Anderson is serving as secretary-treasurer of the district, and Gary Tidwell was in charge of a discussion group at Kermit. The main project of this forum, and others like it, is to pool suggestions for solutions to common school problems, and to exchange ideas.

A portion of the group attended the game in Amarillo Friday night, then went to Kermit from there Saturday morning. The remaining ones left Big Spring Saturday morning accompanied by Mrs. Betty Lou Ratliff and Mr. Donald Green, sponsors of our student council.

There was a pep rally at the field house Friday morning which was at 8:45, just before the Steer Football squad left for Amarillo. With the score of 33 to 7, the Steers defeated Amarillo Friday night. Kathy McRee, Annette Boykin, Barbara Shields, Carlene Coleman, Cecilia McDonald, Lona A. Coker, J. T. Baird, and Tom Henry Guin were among the estimated 125 Big Spring fans who witnessed first hand the victorious win at Amarillo.

The Shorthand Club met for the first time this year and completed the task of electing officers. Lorne Casey was named president; Janice Williamson, vice president; Bettie Anderson, secretary; and Sandra Webb, treasurer. "The Scratch," a newspaper printed in shorthand, is published by the Shorthand Department. Sandy Jennings was elected editor of this publication, with Leta Sampson to assist as co-editor.

The Ysleta High School, our football opponent last Friday, is to be commended for the courtesy they extended our cheerleaders. Upon arrival at Ysleta, they were invited to attend a pep rally and were presented black and gold mums. Nice, don't you agree. Another spirit booster that deserves mention is the full hour pep rally in the football stadium, a standard practice in Ysleta.

China Carroll, Margaret Fryar, LaVelle Wason, Sally Cowper, Kendra McGibson and Marilyn Morris, the six El Rodeo staff members who attended the Steer Yearbook clinic at Austin last week, report that they picked up many new ideas that can be applied to our yearbook. Not all work and no play, however — a dance on Monday night closed the four-day clinic, which was attended by about 200 students from all over the state.

Recently elected officers of Feta Tri-Hi-Y No. 2 the sophomore branch of the local organization, are: president, Mary Lane Edwards; vice president, Nita Beth Farquhar; second vice president, Sandy Sloan; secretary, Loretta Bennett; treasurer, Valjean La-Croix; chaplain, Brenda Barr; historian, Barbara Coffey; and parliamentarian, Sammie Sue McComb. Tommy Jo Williamson is having an extended stay at Amarillo. Going up for the game Friday night, she remained there as the house guest of Elizabeth Fields, a friend she met this summer at Camp Wa-Na-Ka, a girls' camp in Colorado. Tommy is expected to return home today.

What could be more pleasant than an evening hamburger fry in this crisp, fall weather? The East Fourth Baptist Young People had just that Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harmon, 405 Edwards Blvd. The occasion was to honor the incoming members of the department. About 35 attended.

If you were observant Wednesday, you would have noticed all the El Rodeo Staff members walking around the halls of BSHS with a mile-wide grin on their faces. The reason, which is a just one, is that on Wednesday Mrs. L. H. Steward, the yearbook sponsor, received a letter from the Steer Publishing Company, publishers of El Rodeo, awarding the annual with an A rating. This is indeed a big honor, since usually only college yearbooks receive this rating.

Two brand new BSHS students are Karen Terry and Mario Lara. Karen, a small blond from Brownwood, is especially interested in swimming and animals, especially dogs. She entered school here Thursday and is enthusiastic about getting acquainted. Mario, the second new student this week, hails from Brownsville, and has the pleasant features of a quick smile and friendly dark brown eyes. An avid sports fan, he enjoys doing many things. Mario entered school Tuesday and is a junior. Gay Bownds, and her mother Mrs. Ellen R. Bownds, who is an English instructor here in BSHS, spent last weekend in Dallas, their old home town. Besides visiting friends, they did quite a bit of shopping before returning here Sunday night.

The Big Spring Future Homemakers had their formal public installation Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. The Happy Homemakers Chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Nancy Annen, installed the officers of the Senior High Chapter 1, which is sponsored by Miss Edna McGregor. The Junior High Chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Roberta Wney, installed their officers. Approximately 122 girls attended, with an informal party held in the Foods Lab following the installation. The mothers joined the girls and sponsors. Rodney Sheppard, who occupies the position of senior-of-the-week, is well liked as well as known around BSHS. A holder of varied honors, his most recent one is that of being elected president of the senior class.

Rodney is a member of the Key Club, Hi-Y, and DeMolay, besides being an outstanding member of the Debate Club. Last year, he was named most handsome boy in a poll taken by the school paper, the "Corral." He is a two year member of the student council, being first vice president 54-55, and runner-up for president of the student body this year.

Besides being student director of "One Foot In Heaven" Rodney proved his acting ability in "Criminy Ghost," another school play. He has a leading role in the soon-to-be-presented "Outward Bound" and was part time eneece of the high school radio program, "Hi-School Headlines." Rodney was named last year's outstanding student in the Speech Department and was named Junior Who's Who last year.

Is Wed Saturday Morning

Mrs. Alton Lee Moore is the former Retta Lee Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens of Garden City. She was wed Saturday morning to Alton Lee Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moore of Sand Springs. The ceremony, read by Paul Keel, minister of the Church of Christ of Big Spring, took place at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Corpus Christi, the couple will make their home in Big Spring.

To Be October Bride

Mrs. L. E. Rosser, Rt. 2, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Claudette Moore, to Charles Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark. Miss Moore is the daughter of A. B. Moore of this city. The wedding will take place at the First Baptist Church Oct. 8.

Plans October Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Nile Bailey, 204 NE 12th, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mona, to Wayne Blackwell, son of Mrs. Thelma Blackwell, 305 Loria. The wedding vows will be said Oct. 15 in the chapel of the Wesley Methodist Church.

Robinson-Hicks Vows Repeated Here Friday

Friday at 7 p.m., Jane LaRue Robinson became the bride of Harold Eugene Hicks in an informal double ring ceremony.

Dr. Jordan Grooms, minister, read the vows in the First Methodist Church before an altar decorated with large white mums in altar vases and flanked by candelabra.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, 602 E. 17th, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hicks of Forsan.

Traditional wedding music was played by Kay King of Fort Worth at the piano.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Italian velvet street length dress fashioned princess style and with three quarter length push-up sleeves. Seed pearls accented the V neckline. Her hat was of white velvet and her shoes were also white.

For tradition, she wore a blue garter she borrowed from Mrs. Jimmy Smith, an old pin belonging to her paternal grandmother and a penny in her shoe; her dress was new.

She carried sweetheart roses and white gardenias on a Bible presented to her by the Rainbow girls.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Edward Hart, sister of the bride, was attired in a navy blue faille princess style dress with navy accessories.

Don Hayhurst served as best man.

The couple will make its home at 802 Douglas Street.

A graduate of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, the bride was a member of the Rainbow Girls, Spanish Club, home economics club and business club. She is presently employed with Estah's Flowers.

The groom is a graduate of Forsan High School where he was in the Athletic Club and Student Council. He is now attending Howard County Junior College and is employed with Phillips 66 Service Station on Gregg Street.

Quartet To Appear At Trinity Baptist

Well known gospel singers, the Ozark Quartet will present a program of music at the Trinity Baptist Church tonight at 7:45 p.m.

These radio and church workers are Glen Payne, Pat Garner, Henry Slaughter and Fred Bennett.

Afterward, the Rev. L. J. Power, pastor, will bring the evening message.

John Wajuns Reside In Big Spring

Now at home at 408 Donley following their wedding Sept. 16 are Mr. and Mrs. John Wajun, The Rev. W. J. Moore, OMI, performed the informal double ring ceremony at St. Thomas Catholic Church.

The bride is the former Jauneva Lee McIntosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Holden of Stephenville.

A blue jersey dress with a full skirt and scalloped neckline was chosen by the bride. She wore a small hat trimmed with sequins and rhinestones. Her accessories were white and her corsage was a white gardenia surrounded by tiny carnations.

Matron of honor, Mrs. W. E. McIntosh, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a navy blue faille dress with a full skirt and three quarter length sleeves. Her accessories and flowers were pink.

Brother of the bride, W. E. McIntosh, was best man.

The couple went on a wedding trip to visit her parents in Stephenville.

The bride is employed by the F. W. Woolworth Co. and the bridegroom is stationed at Webb Air Force Base.

Baby Pen

A new baby pen is round with an aluminum frame and white nylon net stretching taut from rim to bottom.

East Fourth Class Fetes New Members

The new members of the Winson and Gleaners Class of the East Fourth Baptist Church were honored with a get acquainted party Thursday night in the home of Mrs. L. R. Helms, 318 Princeton.

Devotion was brought by Mrs. T. N. Culwell from Psalms 23, followed by a prayer by Mr. W. D. Williams, the new class teacher.

In a brief business session, a nominating committee was appointed to select a slate of officers.

Refreshments were served to nine.

Ginger Is A Root

The spice ginger comes from the tuberous root of a tropical plant.

Starch Tip

A new starch method is said to be a time saver. Instead of starching new clothes the first time, use one tablespoon or more for added stiffness in a cup of sprinkling water, just before ironing. If clothes have been washed before, give them a real starching just once. When starch disappears, the sprinkling water method may be used. This method works best with starches that are supposed to keep clothes crisp from 6 to 12 launderings, after one application.

Color At The Wrist

Round-the-clock color accessories are available in watch bands now with an ensemble of four color straps. The straps range from a royal red alligator to two-tone midnight black suede with white edging.

Winners Announced In Stanton Flower Show

Sponsoring organizations are the Hub City Duplicate Bridge Club, Lubbock Duplicate Bridge Club, Lubbock Country Club, Duplicate Bridge Club and the Fort Western Division of the American Contract Bridge League.

Events will begin with open individual and the first session of team of four play at 2 p.m. Friday, followed by men's pair and women's pair at 8 p.m.

Early birds pair will open play Saturday, at 9:30 a.m. Open pair and the second session of team of four will be held at 1:30 p.m. and mixed pair play at 8 p.m. will conclude Saturday's activities.

Sunday, qualifying open pair play will be held at 1:30 p.m. The second session of open pair and consolation will close the tournament at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Trophies will be awarded to winners in all events and master points will be awarded by the American Contract Bridge League.

Coffee and soft drinks will be served during all sessions and refreshments will be served after each session while the scores are being tabulated. Other entertainment is being planned.

Elbow HD Club Elects Delegate

Mrs. E. B. Lowe was elected council delegate for the Elbow Home Demonstration Club for 1955 to fill the unexpired term vacated by Mrs. J. C. Ray, who is planning to move.

Elbow HD group met Wednesday afternoon in the school cafeteria with eleven members present. President, Mrs. B. J. Petty conducted the meeting, Mrs. Ray was hostess.

Council reports were given by Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Petty. For the program, Mrs. Ray told about U. S. naturalization requirements. The new committee recommendations for the club were studied.

The next meeting will be Oct. 12 at the same place.

Woman's Forum Urged To Take Interest In Politics

Speaking on "Americanism" at the Woman's Forum luncheon Friday, Mrs. Norman Reed urged the members to create an interest in local politics and the men and women who offer themselves for public offices.

The meeting was the first of the club year and was held at the Wagon Wheel. Mrs. Jack Y. Smith gave the invocation.

Americans were put into two classes — Americans at home and abroad. Mrs. Reed pointed out that the most important American is the Christian as the country was founded on the desire of a number of people to have freedom of worship. She said many Americans abroad were careless of their behavior and lent a bad impression of the country as a whole. Keeping informed of the happenings in the city, the state, the nation and the world is important to being a good American, according to the speaker.

She urged the members to seek out information concerning candidates for offices and to learn of their political beliefs before casting their votes. She also stressed the importance of women exercising their right to vote.

Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. E. B. Compton, Mrs. Gullford Jones, Mrs. LeRoy Tidwell, Mrs. Lucian

Jones, Mrs. Elvis McCrary, and Mrs. W. N. Norrod will work at the TB X-ray booth from 9 until 12 on Saturday morning Oct. 8.

Members voted to abandon plans for serving pre-game suppers at the high school cafeteria.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Tidwell at 2 p.m. on October 7 with Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. as co-hostess. Eighteen members attended the meeting in addition to the guest speaker.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Secretary

When the American Legion Auxiliary met for an executive session Friday night in the home of Mrs. Culin Grigsby, Mrs. T. A. Thigpen was elected secretary.

The group voted to order poppies to be used in the Nov. 5 Poppy Sale. They also agreed to buy a canteen book for a patient at the Veterans Hospital.

New Residents From Muleshoe

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Penna, 1500-A Lincoln, play with their seven-month-old daughter, Kathryn.

Newcomer Is Manager Of Farm Association

Cotton picking time is a very busy season for Benny P. Penna, newcomer for the week. He and Mrs. Penna and their seven-month-old daughter, Kathryn, moved to 1500A Lincoln recently from Muleshoe.

The manager for Howard County Farm Association, Mr. Penna explained that his job is placing Mexican laborers in agricultural work. He makes many trips to Eagle Pass, where the laborers are processed.

Workers are contracted for in Monterrey and then brought to Eagle Pass where they receive the physical examination and pass immigration requirements. They are then sent to various agriculture centers of Texas under the national immigration labor program. They work here any time from six weeks to years, according to the need and their work.

Before accepting this position in Big Spring, Mr. Penna did similar work in Muleshoe for three years where he was an interpreter.

"We are both natives of Fort Sumner, N. M.," Mrs. Penna explained, "but we like West Texas very much."

A graduate of the University of

New Mexico, Mrs. Penna has her degree in business. She has worked for Rural Electrification in Muleshoe and the Welfare Department in New Mexico. Next week she will be employed in the U.S. Department of Labor here in secretarial work.

The man of the family attended Highlands University in Las Vegas, N. M., for two years. "My hobby is calf roping, but I am just an amateur," he explained.

Mrs. Penna stated that their young daughter keeps her pretty occupied so she does not have much time for hobbies.

Officers' Wives To Elect Officers

At the monthly business meeting of the Officers' Wives' Club Thursday at 1:30 at Ellis Hall, the main item will be the election of officers.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made by Tuesday noon by calling Mrs. W. B. Booth at 4-8079.

Officers Elected By Gail 4-H Club

The 4-H Club in the Junior division of Borden County School, Gail, met Tuesday morning to elect officers and make plans for the coming year. The meeting was brought to order by Mrs. Dee Burris in the absence of Mrs. Oscar Telchich.

Paula Dupuy was elected president; Pamela Stephens was elected vice president; Sherry Barris secretary and Judy Kelly, reporter. The girls voted to take cooking for their project for this term. The meeting adjourned to meet again Oct. 25.

Girl Scout Troop Takes Nature Hunt

Girl Scout Troop No. 8 went on a Nature Hunt Wednesday afternoon. They found wild flowers, fossils and small animals.

In the business session, they decided to camp out Friday night, Oct. 7 on the vacant lot at 803 N. Gregg, belonging to Mrs. H. E. Bost.

Dues were collected and the meeting was ended with the forming of a Friendship Circle. The troop will meet next Wednesday at the Girl Scout Little House.

Guess Who!

This "King of the Wild Frontier," as portrayed by John L. Whitmire III of Gail, wears a suede jacket and cord trousers, both washable, leather moccasins and a rabbit hair cap, which is a good double for the well-known coonskin headgear. This outfit will make all the small-try drool at the style show to be given in Gail Monday evening.

For A Gay Evening

Mrs. Bob Beal chooses a waltz-length frock of net layers in orchid over lime over navy—a most unusual, but interesting combination. The shirred bodice is strapless and is accompanied by a net stole. Applied pansies, shading from mauve to deep purple, join with rhinestones to decorate the velvet sash, which ties in a bow in the back. This is one of the many fashions to be shown at the style show which will be presented Monday evening in Gail by the Borden County Belles, auxiliary of the Sheriff's Posse.

Local Firms To Have Styles In Gail Show

Fashions for the style show to be held at the high school in Gail Monday evening will be furnished by Hemphill-Wells, Little Shop, Margie's Dress Shop, Swartz's, Tot N' Teen Shop and Zack's. Hair-dos will be shown by the Youth Beauty Shop and Bon-Ette Beauty Shop. The show is sponsored by the Borden County Belles, an auxiliary of the Borden County Sheriff's Posse, for the purpose of raising funds for building a recreation center. Tickets are 25 cents for children from six to 12 years of age. Over that, the price is 50 cents. The public is urged to attend. Modelling clothes for the younger set will be Linda Ellen Dodd, Judy Dodd, Sidney Reeder and John L. Whitmire III. Other models will be Mrs. W. L. Wilson Jr., Mrs. Billy Hollis, Janice Earnest, Sue Stephens, Mrs. Skeet Porter and Cookie, Mrs. Bob Beal, Mrs. John Whitmire, Mrs. Hollis, Mrs. Porter, Miss Reader, Miss Stephens and Miss Earnest.

Bruntons Visit Son At College

FORSAN—Mrs. C. C. Brunton and Paul will return today from a visit with Clarke Brunton, a student at the University of Oklahoma in Norman. Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. ## THINK OF TOMORROW ...when you build or remodel

KEEP YOUR HOME UP-TO-DATE WITH Modern Wiring FOR MODERN LIVING

Make sure your home wiring is ample to take care of your electrical needs... and to assure you full convenience of good electric service... now and in the future.

MODERN WIRING MEANS:

1. Enough circuits of large enough wire to carry electricity at full power to all of your lights and appliances.
2. Enough electric outlets and switches, properly located, to assure maximum convenience and flexibility in the use of your electric service.

This means installing plenty of outlets and circuits for lighting and small appliances... plus individual circuits for such modern appliances as room air conditioners, laundry equipment, an electric range and others.

With properly-planned wiring, you can avoid the inconvenience of out-of-date electric wiring, save the expense of wiring changes later, and be ready to enjoy additional electrical conveniences when you want them.

Your electrical contractor, architect or builder will help you plan modern wiring for your home.

MRS. EDDIE MILLER (Photo by Barr)

Big Spring Housewife Receives Citizenship

By JOYCE CONNAWAY

A citizen of the United States of America—something you and I take for granted. But Mrs. Eddie Miller, a native of Germany, 1601 Vines, realizes the importance of a piece of paper that says that she is a U. S. citizen.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Miller went to Abilene where she was sworn in before the U. S. Department of Justice, of Immigration and Naturalization Service. For weeks she has studied three big books on the American Constitution, history and many other things. She passed the examination and then had to wait for notice to appear for the swearing-in process.

Achieving her citizenship rights has been one of the happiest moments in Mrs. Miller's life. To become a citizen, you must live in the United States for three years and be married to a citizen for three years. Mrs. Miller has been here nearly four years, but has been a wife for only three.

Two local witnesses had to appear for her. They are Mrs. Cecil Walker and Mrs. Tom Harris, two friends that helped the United States gain another member.

The attractive new citizen was born in Berlin, Germany, and lived there until she was 15. She and her family then moved to Westphalen in West Germany. There her father is what might be called the head waiter or manager of Spiedank, an exclusive gambling casino that is internationally known. He speaks six or seven different languages.

"In Germany, you can learn a trade by attending school or through practical experience where you work for a business man and therefore learn the profession from the ground up. I chose the practical method because I thought I could learn more," the red-haired housewife said.

For three years she studied the methods of photography and then received her diploma. She was working at a photo center at the Air Force Base in Germany when she met Eddie Miller.

They became engaged in Germany. She, through the assistance of some relatives in New York City, came to the United States in 1951, ten months before her fiance made it home. She lived with his family in Mississippi and worked at various jobs.

Although Mrs. Miller has never had any English lessons, she speaks the language remarkably well.

Mr. Miller returned to the states on May 26, 1952, and he and his German bride were married the same day at the home town of the bridegroom. He was then transferred to Webb Air Force Base in Big Spring.

"At first we didn't like here, but the town just grew on us and now we like it very much," she explained.

After his discharge, Miller became a car salesman for McEwen Motor Company.

They are the parents of a 15-month-old daughter, Karen DeLores, which keeps the lady of the house pretty busy now. Mrs. Miller said that her hobbies "come and go." She likes to work with ceramics and to paint some, but only when she feels like it.

The Millers plan to visit Germany in the near future for the grandparents are anxious to see their only grandchild. Mrs. Miller is their only child.

"I am very happy here, and would like to see my parents come over here to live, but they have worked hard to rebuild what they had after the war, and it would be difficult for them to leave it all," she stated.

More Juice Gained

Oranges and lemons yield more juice if soaked in warm water prior to their use.

There's nothing like being with good friends for a good time and MRS. BUEL FOX had the time of her life this past week when she spent three days with her sister and five of their mutual friends in Roscoe.

About 30 years ago when they were all newly married young people in Roscoe the seven women were close friends and as they left to make their home in other places, some contacted the others by mail, but most hadn't seen each other in more than 20 years. Mrs. W. R. Potter, Mrs. Fox's sister, who still lives in Roscoe decided on a house-party that would bring them all together again. Attending were Mrs. Jack Ward, Lubbock; Mrs. Frank Gerlach, Abilene; Mrs. W. E. Kirkland, Bridgeport; Mrs. Bob Steward and Mrs. Clyde McAdams, Fort Worth.

The latter two women were reared in Roscoe as were Mrs. Fox and her sister.

Thirty years ago they probably talked about their home-making chores, their church work and their clubs, but on this visit their conversations were stimulated by—as if you didn't know—pictures and talk about their grandbabies.

MR. AND MRS. GRANVILLE DAWSON are changing residence again. They are now looking for a place to live in Odessa. He has been made zone manager for International Harvester and has moved from Lubbock.

Away for a trip to Hagerstown, Md., is TOM COMPTON who flew to Dallas Thursday and was met by his son John C., with whom he will visit for several days in his Maryland home. He plans to return here by air Friday.

Planning to see the State Fair in Dallas and the Texas-OU game this weekend are MR. AND MRS. CHARLES TOMPKINS, MR. AND MRS. TOMMY GAGE, AND MR. AND MRS. HAROLD HALL.

J. GORDON BRISTOW and his son, GORDON, have returned from New York where they have seen the opening games of the World Series.

JOHN COFFEE is in Waco to visit with his son and his family and attended the Baylor-Maryland football game.

MR. AND MRS. C. M. BOLES and their family have been called to Tournon, Kan., by the illness of his father, Lloyd Boles, who suffered a heart attack Wednesday evening.

Instructors Named For Flower Clinic

Instructors have been announced for the Flower Arranging Clinic to be held at the Episcopal Parish House Tuesday morning under the guidance of the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs.

Beginning at 9:15 a.m. the clinic will end at 12 noon and will have instructions and demonstrations by Mrs. J. E. Hogan, Mrs. Obie Bristow, Mrs. Robert Stripling, Mrs. Clyde Anget, Mrs. John Knox and Mrs. W. T. Smith.

All garden club members are invited to attend this clinic, for which there is no charge, and which is given in preparation for the Fall Flower Show to be held in November.

No work will be required of those attending, but students are asked to bring containers, frogs, flowers, greenery, foliage and any other material to be used in the demonstrations.

Mrs. Hank Gwyn is in charge of the clinic.

Washable Woolens Are Campus Stars

It looks like a carefree winter for this year's school belles — and their hard working mothers. Washable woolens have arrived with a bang, and are available in quantity in shops throughout the country. While last year only eight mills were producing sanforized washable woolens, this year 22 mills are turning out the shrink-resistant wool fabrics, which are being made up into almost every conceivable type of garment.

Parents of both big and little school boys and girls will be glad to know that the new washable woolens can be tossed into the washing machine with the rest of the family laundry. In shopping for these woolens, here are a few things to remember:
 1. First look for the label which identifies the fabric as treated against shrinkage.
 2. Be sure the garment doesn't have a lot of interlinings and padding which might not be washable.
 When washing the new sudsable woolens, you may use an automatic washing machine, use warm (not hot) water and set the washing cycle to not more than two minutes for lightly soiled garments, three or four minutes for clothes which are heavily soiled. The spin-dry type of machine is all right for these woolens, but they should not be put through a wringer.
 When you take them from the machine, put on a hanger and pat into shape, to avoid a complicated pressing chore.
 If the clothes are washed by hand, they should be squeezed gently — not wrung — and again hung on a hanger to dry.

Ohio Teacher Is A Coed For 30 Years

MADISON Wis. — Mary Hutchinson has been a student at the University of Wisconsin for 30 years and still has to see her first football game or commencement exercise.
 How come? She's strictly a summer school student, and she's 75 years old.
 Miss Hutchinson retired in 1950 after teaching in Toledo, Ohio, for 53 years. But retirement has not dampened her enthusiasm for learning. She is continuing the summer school work at Wisconsin that she started in 1914.
 She takes the courses she likes. She took more than a dozen Spanish courses, all that the department offered, then branched over to Portuguese to absorb all available there.
 "I take whatever course I want, but I try courses under top teachers — I don't want anything from these young squirts," Miss Hutchinson says with a laugh.
 Retirement from teaching has not slowed her down one bit. She explains it this way:
 "Sometimes I think I'll go back to teaching so I'll have a little time to myself. I'm busier now than when I taught."
 Miss Hutchinson figures "practically everyone in Toledo has gone to school with me at one time or another."
 In her three decades of summer school Miss Hutchinson managed mostly A's.
 Once she got a C, it was in philosophy.
 "Never so mortified in all my life," she says.

Teach Your Children Bicycle Safety Rules

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE
 When can I have a two-wheeler? Almost every child loves a bike. It gives power to go places, freedom and independence. Bikes are good for youngsters for just these reasons.
 But bicycles are dangerous, too. Also, all of life is dangerous. We cannot forever protect our children from all danger. We must teach them to live as safely as possible surrounded by the multitude of things that might hurt them.
 Learning to use a bicycle safely and well is a good growing experience and one that will help a lot in the not too distant time when your youngster will want to drive your car.
 Before you get Bill or Mary that cherished bicycle, better understand yourself the rules and restrictions necessary for safety. Then you have a heart-to-heart talk about the responsibilities of being old enough for this quite grown-up means of transportation.
 The bicycle needs to be right for the child who is to use it. A bike that fits the child is safer than one on which he can't quite reach the pedals. Many models have adjustable pedals, handle bars and seats to allow for growing.
 Good running condition is essential for safety. The child must know how to tighten bolts, keep brakes even, bearings cleaned, chain lubricated, horn and lights in working order. Not only must he know how to do these things but he must remember to do them. Regular parental inspection is a great jog to the memory.
 No passengers on a bike. It's fun to take a pal on the handle bars, but it is not safe and must not be done — "even just this once."
 On city streets a bicyclist should stay close to the right side and if there is more than one bicycle they should be in single file. There should be no zigzagging through traffic.
 Never catch a ride by holding to a car or bus.
 Keep far enough behind other traffic to be able to stop should the other vehicle stop suddenly. Packages or school books should only be carried in a basket fastened to the bicycle.
 Both hands should be on the handle bars all the time except when making hand signals.
 Hand signals should be used when stopping, turning left or right.

Practice Of Pharmacy Goes Back 4,000 Years

Observance of National Pharmacy Week focuses attention upon a profession that sinks its roots in history of the ancient Egyptians. Approximately 4,000 years stand between today's highly specialized field with its antibiotics and the primitive earliest medicines. Wrapped in them is the story of struggle — but of progress.

These remedies are still used to some extent in either medical practice or folk medicine. Extensive directions may be found in old Egyptian records for the selection and preparation of medicines and for their use or application. Even then, some of our present dosage forms were in use, such as pills, suppositories and ointments.

A group of great scholars, including Aristotle, the biologist, Theophrastus, the botanist, Dioscorides, who wrote the first treatise on materia medica, the great systematizer Galen, and others. These men laid a foundation for the later scientific development of the health professions.

In 1820, and the current USP and the National Formulary provide official drug standards for the country. Pharmacists and physicians came to America with the early settlers, bringing with them the professional knowledge developed through the centuries, which we have just briefly discussed. The first pharmacist to settle in what later became the United States, is believed to have been Giles Firmin, who came to the Massachusetts Colony in 1630. Records also show that there was a pharmacy in Boston in 1648.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the pharmacists of our community play an indispensable part in safeguarding the health of our citizens, giving unselfishly of their time and talents in specialized service to the public; and

Whereas, the week commencing Oct. 2, 1955, has been set aside throughout the country as National Pharmacy Week to focus public attention on the importance of pharmacy in our lives; and

Whereas, our local pharmacists are participating in this annual observance, employing the meaningful slogan "Your Pharmacist Works for Better Community Health;" Now, therefore, I, George W. Dabney as mayor of Big Spring, Texas, do hereby proclaim this week of Oct. 2 to 8 as Pharmacy Week in our community and urge all our residents to observe during the week the vital role of the pharmacist upon whose skill and training the health and well being of our community so largely depends.

Given under my hand and seal this 1st day of October, 1955 A.D.

GEORGE W. DABNEY, Mayor

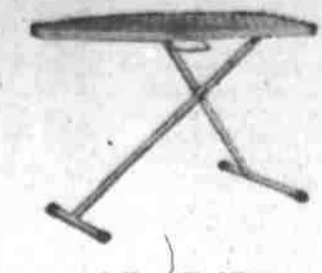

The first United States school of pharmacy was established in Philadelphia in 1821. From this beginning, pharmaceutical education developed rapidly until we now have seventy-four accredited colleges of pharmacy. A prospective pharmacist must have four years of college training in addition to an internship under a competent pharmacist before he takes the state examination for a license. A number of colleges require five-years of academic training and after 1960, students entering an accredited school of pharmacy will have to take a five-year course.

'Slow Globe' Of Ancient Drug Stores Is Making A Comeback

Civilization may be completing another cycle. A symbol that once was as popular as the barber's striped pole is again appearing on the scene. It is the pharmacist's "show globe," an ornate glass container filled with a colored liquid.

Before the advent of the electric light and neon sign, the show globe almost universally identified the chemist who later merged with the apothecary into what modern medicine knows as the pharmacist.

Now, after an absence of a half century, the show globe is again appearing in the pharmacist's window.

The graceful globe, filled with colored liquids used to hang or stand in the window of almost every pharmacy. In the dark nights before electricity, the apothecary, or pharmacist, would usually place a lamp behind a colorful globe to mark his shop. These show globes could be seen at a distance. They served to identify as well as decorate the pharmacy.

As modern pharmacy progressed along with other health professions — bringing new drugs and improved methods of practice — these intriguing show globes were discarded, along with the gold labeled bottles and ornate porcelain drug jars. Some of the pharmacist's older laboratory equipment and many of the older drugs were permanently discarded.

Antique show globes have become rare. They often bring prices that would amaze the original owners.

The show globe probably had its origin about 1550 in the shops of the "preparers of chemical medicines" in London. The alchemists, who were looked upon with suspicion and thus forced to work more or less underground in continental Europe, were practicing openly in England. They were known as "chymists," and they were officially recognized along with the apothecaries and druggists in 1553 by the Royal College of Physicians.

While the apothecaries and druggists specialized in the compounding and selling of herbal medicines, the chemists prepared and sold only chemical preparations for medicinal purposes, such as mercurials, anatomy, etc. Thus in order to differentiate their practice from the apothecary, the chemists adopted their peculiar shaped bottles and apparatus as symbols of their trade. All that was needed to fill these vessels was one of the brilliantly colored liquids which were their stock in trade, and a light behind the vessel.

The growing recognition of chemical therapy forced the apothecaries, first in London, and then in the whole of England, to make it known that not only the chemists, but they, too, were able and willing to prepare chemical medicines. The best way to do this was by adopting the chemists' symbol, the show globe. There seems to be little doubt but what the Great Plagues of London in 1665-66 popularized the adoption of the show globe as a sign of pharmacy in general.

It is known that the apothecaries of London gained a good deal of stature when they stuck by their posts during the plague. It is further recorded that the show globe was then widely employed to enable those seeking remedial agents to better locate the shop of the apothecary. The story is told of how the use of the show globe spread to other towns throughout England:

People in those days traveled by coach, city to city, town to town, and very often, travelers would reach a town late at night, after all stores were closed. News traveled equally slowly, the plague, cutting across the country like a river on a rampage, often struck whole towns. The show globes in the apothecary's window thus became the signal lights.

If the globe was red — it meant danger, plague was in the town, and the stage was to go on to the next town, where possibly the show globe would be green, the signal for health and safety.

The apothecary show globe of the seventeenth century was a simple globular vessel. The introduction of the "carboy," a vessel of a large globular shape made of greenish or blue glass, widely employed for shipping drugs and chemicals, was undoubtedly closely associated with and used as show globes.

The tall, beautiful, double or triple-decked show globes which were so common in the late nineteenth century, did not make their general appearance until about 1850, having been suggested by the glass percolator (a device for the cold extraction of crude drugs).

The use of the show globe did not spread to other than the Anglo-Saxon countries; thus the show globe remains as truly symbolic and representative of English and American Pharmacy.

Vacations Take Big Traffic Toll

CHICAGO (U.S.)—Heavy summer vacation travel has boosted the nation's traffic death toll to 1,000 more than it was at the same time last year.

The National Safety Council said today this year's death toll for eight months was 23,470, compared with 23,430 last year.

August deaths (3,600) alone jumped 10 per cent, nearly equaling the 11 per cent hike recorded for July.

The last quarter of the year, the council said, normally is the worst because of bad weather and earlier sundown. The council urged cautious driving and walking for the balance of 1955.

Viewed from a mileage standpoint, the council said, the accident picture is much more favorable. Travel figures are available for only seven months, but they show travel was up 7 per cent and deaths for the same period only 4. This produced a figure of 5.8 deaths for each 100 million miles, the lowest seven-month rate on record.

Model Plane Champ Stationed At Webb

S-Sgt. Bryant A. Thompson, an internationally-known builder of model airplanes, has checked in at Webb AFB, along with his trunk of model trophies won at various events.

Thompson came to Webb from Chitose AFB in northern Japan, where he was stationed when he constructed a model of the C-119 which won the base trophy, the Far East championship, and later the trophy for Air Force-wide competition.

His model also placed second in the world meet at Los Alamitos Naval Air Station, Calif.

Presbyterian Men Elect At Lamesa

LAMESA — New officers were installed at the meeting of the Homer Simpson chapter of Presbyterian Men at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening.

Dr. Douglas Black was made president, succeeding Dick Collins; Ray Renner succeeded Dr. Jack Alexander as vice president; and Cecil Speck took over as secretary-treasurer from Skeet Noret. The men were served dinner by the women's Morning Circle.

Postmaster Lists Suggestions For Fire Prevention

The Big Spring Post Office is getting into the national fire prevention campaign.

Postmaster E. C. Boatler has sent a list of fire prevention suggestions to the homes of all postal employees in Big Spring. His memorandum is directed principally to housewives.

The postmaster suggests that steps be taken to eliminate the following fire hazards:

1. Curtains near gas stoves and kitchen ranges; they may be blown into the flames by wind.
2. Rags soiled with furniture pol-

- ish, wax, etc. Spontaneous combustion may result if they are thrown carelessly in a closet or wadded together for storage.
3. Junk piled in the attic or garage.
4. Matches within the reach of small children.
5. Overloaded electrical circuits.
6. Extension cords or lamp, iron, toaster or other utility cords in frayed or rotted condition.
7. Paint or inflammable solvents stored about the house.

The safer car wins... and Chevrolet's the winning car

Every checkered flag signals a Chevrolet victory in official 1955 stock car competition — not only against its own field but against many American and foreign high-priced cars, too!

On the stock car tracks, this go-getting Chevrolet is making the high-priced jobs turn green with envy... and making the other low-priced cars wish they'd stayed home in the garage!

Let's translate this into your kind of driving. You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways. You've got to have better springing and suspension to nail you to the turns. Again, safer and happier motoring for you. You've got to have big brakes that act but fast and smooth... and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving more secure and more enjoyable. But it's more fun to try these things out than just to talk about them. So come in and let's take a ride.

Big Expansion Seen For Tech

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech must prepare for a student body of 15 to 16 thousand students by 1970, President E. N. Jones declared today. A $20 to $25 million Tech building program will be necessary to take care of them, Dr. Jones stated at the institution's first student convocation of the fall semester.

The estimates are based on studies of higher education's growth by national authorities, Dr. Jones said.

Tech's growth has been 5 to 7 per cent ahead of the national rate, he added. Enrollment for the 1955-56 year reached a new all-time high of 7,149, 14 per cent over last fall.

Tech must have 50 per cent more space to provide adequate facilities for a student body of 16-16 thousand, Dr. Jones declared.

The President stated that many of the present buildings can be enlarged but several new structures will be required.

Tech's most immediate need is a new library building costing between $2-2.5 million, he said.

The 2,008-acre campus currently has 49 permanent buildings. The 50th, a student infirmary, is under construction, and the 51st, a gymnasium is on architects' drawing boards.

YOUR PHARMACIST Works For Better Community Health

Code Of Ethics

Of The American Pharmaceutical Association

The Code of Ethics of the American Pharmaceutical Association is a statement of principles adopted by the profession for the self-government of its members.

The primary obligation of pharmacy is the service it can render to the public in safeguarding the preparation, compounding, and dispensing of drugs and the storage and handling of drugs and medical supplies.

The practice of pharmacy requires knowledge, skill, and integrity; therefore, the state laws restrict the practice of pharmacy to persons with special training and qualifications and license to them privileges which are denied to others. Accordingly, the pharmacist recognizes his responsibility to the state and to the community for their well-being, and fulfills his professional obligations honorably.

The Pharmacists and His Relations to the Public

The pharmacist upholds the approved legal standards of the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary, and encourages the use of official drugs and preparations. He purchases, compounds, and dispenses only drugs of good quality.

The pharmacist uses every precaution to safeguard the public when dispensing any drugs or preparations. Being legally entrusted with the dispensing and sale of these products, he assumes this responsibility by upholding and conforming to the laws and regulations governing the distribution of these substances.

The pharmacist seeks to enlist and to merit the confidence of his patrons. He zealously guards this confidence. He considers the knowledge and confidence which he gains of the ailments of his patrons as entrusted to his honor, and does not divulge such facts.

The pharmacist holds the health and safety of his patrons to be of first consideration; he makes no attempt to prescribe for or to treat disease or to offer for sale any drug or medical device merely for profit.

The pharmacist keeps his pharmacy clean, neat, and sanitary, and well equipped with accurate measuring and weighing devices and other apparatus suitable for the proper performance of his professional duties.

The pharmacist is a good citizen and upholds and defends the laws of the states and nation; he keeps informed concerning pharmacy and drug laws, and other laws pertaining to health and sanitation, and cooperates with the enforcement authorities.

The pharmacist supports constructive efforts in behalf of the public health and welfare. He seeks representation on public health committees and projects and offers to them his full cooperation.

The pharmacist at all times seeks only fair and honest remuneration for his services.

Cary Grant, Grace Kelly Star In 'To Catch A Thief'

A handsome jewel thief and a beautiful American girl provide the love interest in Alfred Hitchcock's newest suspense thriller, "To Catch A Thief." The VistaVision-Technicolor film starts today at the Ritz and will run through Wednesday.

'To Catch A Thief'

Cary Grant and Grace Kelly star in the Technicolor and Vista-Vision film "To Catch A Thief" at the Ritz today. The film will play through Wednesday.

Cary Grant plays the lead and co-stars with 1954 Academy Award winner Grace Kelly. Grant portrays a retired jewel thief known to police as the "cat." Grant is living a quiet retired life on the French Riviera when a series of thefts begin again, using a technique similar to that employed by Grant when he was still active. He is immediately suspected and the police start to arrest him.

But Grant escapes and goes to Cannes where he finds a friend of his who is now operating a restaurant. The friend worked with Grant during the war in the French underground. With the help of the friend, Grant is whisked away to Nice in a motorboat, driven by a beautiful girl, Brigitte Auber.

In Italy, Grant meets the insurance inspector who has the responsibility of the stolen jewels. He gives Grant a list of the wealthy jewel owners in the area

Miss Kelly assists Grant to escape the police, even though she suspects that he is guilty of the theft.

The two of them fall in love, but she threatens to expose him when her family's jewels are taken.

The next robbery by the thieves results in one of them being killed. The police immediately think that the dead man is the "cat." But Grant does not think so. At a forthcoming fashionable ball, Grant gets Miss Kelly and her mother to act as bait for the "cat."

Then, doing a little sleuthing on his own, he sets a trap for the thief. "It takes a thief to catch a thief." An exciting pursuit brings the picture to an end with Grace Kelly and Cary Grant reunited and happy.

Alfred Hitchcock, director of this picture, is perhaps best known for his films, "Notorious," or "Dial M For Murder." His pictures depend on the surprise ending after gradually leading up to the climax with suspenseful acting.

This picture is described as another in the same vein as his former successes. The two stars are also favorites of Hitchcock, each of them appearing in three of his former films.

'The Treasure Of Pancho Villa'

Rory Calhoun and Gilbert Roland prepare for battle in this scene from the Ritz offering Thursday through Saturday. The film is in Technicolor.

Features At Jet Offer Variety

Two comedies, a detective story, and a film on juvenile delinquency make up the offerings at the Jet Drive-in this week.

Playing tonight and Monday, "Mad At The World" is the feature. The film is the story of juvenile gangs in larger cities and their effect on the populace. It stars Frank Lovejoy and Keefe Braselle.

Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis star in "Living It Up" Tuesday and Wednesday nights. This comedy is followed by "The Seven Little Foys" Thursday and Friday nights. The latter picture stars Bob Hope and Milly Vitale.

Saturday night has "The Big Sleep" with Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall. The film is taken from the detective story by Raymond Chandler and was instrumental in getting Bogart on the road to success.

CHAMP BOUT

The Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore championship bout will be featured at the Jet Drive-in tonight and Monday as a co-feature with "Mad At The World."

'Prize Of Gold' Is State Film Today

Richard Widmark and Mal Zetterling star in "The Prize of Gold" at the State today through Tuesday. Filmed in Technicolor, Widmark is portrayed as an Air Force sergeant turned thief.

Stationed in occupied Berlin, Widmark falls in love with Mal Zetterling and the group of orphans she has taken under wing. She works to save money and takes it from any source possible to provide for the children.

Widmark gets wind of a fabulous fortune and attempts to hi-jack it for the children. It is two billion in gold bullion which was Nazi loot and it is being air-lifted to London. Widmark enlists the aid of three other men to assist him in the scheme. But the plot falls to come off when one of the men becomes too greedy. But Widmark arranges for the care of the war orphans before he is taken in by the police.

The film was taken from a novel by Max Catto and is lauded as a fair representation of the book. Miss Zetterling is a Swedish actress who made her Hollywood debut in "Knock on Wood" with Danny Kaye.

Widmark, of course, has been around Hollywood for quite a while. He started out with the role of a psychopathic killer in the film "Kiss of Death." His memorable performance won him other roles.

He made several other films, all who plays the Dan Duryea type of role. Finally he was given the lead in "Down To The Sea In Ships," which established him as an all-around actor. He now plays almost any kind of part.

Tarzan Returns Here At State

"Tarzan Escapes" makes a return run at the State this week and stars Johnny Weissmuller and Maureen O'Sullivan. Chestah, the almost human chimpanzee, also has a starring role in the picture.

Tarzan and his mate Jane rescue a party of white hunters which almost turn out to be a mistake. The hunters decide that Tarzan would be ideal material for a zoo. They plan to trap him and carry him back to the United States.

A fierce tribe of savages get to Tarzan first and they put him in a cage. He has a difficult time getting loose again and has a fight with pygmies and later wrestles a giant gorilla. A herd of elephants succeed in trampling down the native village and Tarzan manages to foil the plot of the white hunters and return to his tree-top paradise with Jane.

Terrace Offerings Include Twin Bill

"Three Coins in the Fountain" is the feature tonight and Monday at the Terrace Drive-in. Clifton Webb and Dorothy McGuire are starred. Doris Day and Frank Sinatra star in the Tuesday and Wednesday feature, "Young at Heart."

A double feature is scheduled for Thursday and Friday nights. "Rhubarb" starring Jan Sterling and Ray Milland is the first feature and "War Path" with Edmond O'Brien and Dean Jagger is the other one.

"Black Dakota" with Wanda Hendrix and Gary Merrill is the Saturday night offering

Doctors Give Tips On Care Of Heart

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you best care for your heart to minimize your chances of a heart attack?

Living a full, active, good and sensible life may be a main rule. No experts can lay down sure, hard-and-fast rules. Not enough is yet known about the fundamental cause of the heart attack process. But they do have tips. And some authorities are finding good reasons to doubt many of the beliefs most of us hold about heart attacks. Beliefs such as these:

That exercise is bad, after 40 you should slow way down.

That intense business executives are most likely to sudden death from heart seizures.

That most heart attacks follow exertion — golf, tennis, shoveling snow, the dramatic incidents you read or hear about. Instead, half of all attacks appear to come during sleep and resting.

That we should blindly follow the advice to "take it easy" to avoid heart attacks.

That playing golf on Friday had anything to do with President Eisenhower's heart attack the next day.

You can easily find differences of opinion among heart experts. Here are some of the challenging newer viewpoints:

Dr. Paul D. White, famous Boston heart specialist who attended Eisenhower:

Speaking of Ike's golfing: "My own feeling is that golf has been often wrongly blamed, that those who play golf and have an attack at 65 might have had an attack at 45 if they hadn't played golf. We don't think that exercise itself is responsible."

"In fact, I am of the impression that it really helped to delay the onset of this (attack) than to cause it. Of course, very severe accidents or strains may have a precipitating effect, but they aren't the fundamental cause, and we are still studying the question of cause."

In a talk a couple of years ago, Dr. White said: "The general warning to stop all vigorous exercise at 40 seems to me to be ridiculous and, more likely than not, actually lead to an increase of coronary arteriosclerosis." (This is the disease process in which fatty deposits form in the inner linings of arteries, narrowing them. Heart attacks usually come when a blood clot is trapped in such arteries and blocks the flow of nourishing blood to the heart muscle).

Heredity, Dr. White has said, plays a part. There's some evidence that too rich a diet can be involved. That question is not answered yet, but "Many of us believe that overeating is the most important faulty way of life in this country today."

Aggravating factors may include excessive, prolonged nervous tension, excessive overweight, excessive tobacco. As positive measures, he mentioned "conscious effort to acquire equanimity, habits of relaxation and repose, and a program of health exercise."

Dr. Arthur M. Master, well-known New York City cardiologist: As tips: Be your age. If you're 64, don't act 44. Avoid obesity. Avoid excessive smoking and drinking. Avoid infections, and if you get them, knock them out with wise drug treatments. Be physically active. After 40, take less strenuous exercise, but don't choose inactivity.

Studying 1,700 persons who had heart attacks, Dr. Master and his associates found 52 per cent of attackees were sleeping or resting; 21 per cent in ordinary mild activity; 9 per cent in moderate activity, except for walking; 16 per cent in walking; only 2 per cent during unusual or severe exertion. They concluded severe effort couldn't be much pinpointed as a cause of the timing of an attack.

As for occupation, the analysis showed attacks occurring "with equal frequency in all types of occupations and all types of society." Among 1,200 victims questioned, 36 per cent were manual workers and day laborers, 11 per cent businessmen, 8 1/2 per cent professional people — percentages paralleling the occupational distribution of the general population of New York.

Thus, "occupation, whether strenuous or not, did not play a role in coronary occlusion."

Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, president of the New York pharmaceutical firm of Winthrop-Stearns, Inc. who served as chairman of the Hoover Commission's medical services task force:

"We don't wear out. We rust out." To him it appears, "The major evil is the excessive decline of physical, mental and emotional activity in adult life in relation to what it was in youth."

A "great American neurosis" over heart attacks is "born of the false notion that hard work is killing us and causing heart attacks." His opinion is that common-sense activity to keep all body organs and glands working efficiently combats aging and combats development of the artery disease process.

He and others caution the amount of exercise for health should be based upon what you were accustomed to. Starting in again suddenly, or at something too strenuous, is foolish. It's also foolish not to have a heart checkup first if you suspect anything wrong with your heart.

Other physicians report fear and anxiety can lead a person to focus attention upon his heart, inducing "anxiety heart disease" — nothing wrong, but the person thinks there is. One estimate is that half the persons who go to see heart specialists really have anxiety heart disease.

A tip would seem to be: Get a checkup if you're worried, or if you have any signs that might indicate heart trouble of any kind. Get the facts, not your guesses.

Further, nobody knocks the idea of getting enough sleep and taking sensible care of yourself, being moderate, trying to be relaxed.

Ordnance Unit Stops Here

The 85th Ordnance Company, en route from its home station at Ft. Bliss to Camp Polk, La., for temporary duty in Exercise Sage Brush, spent Wednesday night at Webb Air Force Base.

Preceded several days ago by an advance party, the main body of troops left Ft. Bliss by motor convoy at 6 a.m., Wednesday. The stop at Big Spring was one of three overnight stops during the overland trek. Thursday night will be spent at Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, and Friday night at Barksdale Air Force Base, Shreveport, La.

The ordnance company, under command of Capt. Albert L. Brown, is slated to reach Camp Polk, La., early Saturday afternoon. It will spend more than three months on temporary duty, supporting the Army Maneuver Support Command during Exercise Sage Brush, the big Army-Air Force training exercise. Following completion of this duty, the unit will return to Ft. Bliss.

The 85th Ordnance is one of several Ft. Bliss units which will take part in Sage Brush.

Who's to Blame If Children Read Poorly?

MANY PARENTS are disturbed about the poor reading ability of their children. They blame the schools, the teachers, even the children, but few of them ever blame themselves.

As taxpayers, they demand that something be done about it. Yet they are the ones who can do something about it: they can pay higher school taxes; they can vote for the construction of more schools and libraries; they can encourage lower tuition in teachers' colleges.

With more teachers and less-crowded classrooms, each teacher could spend more time with the slow readers and give them such extra helps as reading charts, word games, and library activities.

It is up to the taxpayers to provide the dollars for improved school facilities. Our children need space, books, and other learning materials. They also need time—time for the teacher to sit down with them as individuals, not as a class, to put these tools to work.—H. G., Endicott, N. Y.

An Article Worth Re-Reading
The article, "I Hope We'll Never Be Rich" (Family Weekly) has made a deep impression on me. When I first looked at the title, I thought, "Now, who wouldn't want to be rich?" Then I read it, and it made me realize just how much I had to be thankful for: a kind and loving husband, two fine children, and a full chance to enjoy life with them.

I clipped the article out, and now, whenever I begin to get blue because I don't have everything I'd like to have, I just get the article out and read it. Then I'm thankful for what I have.—Mrs. T. G., Salisbury, N. C.

A Message from God in a Lonely Cemetery

Yesterday evening as I sat watching a glorious sunset, I was remembering a different sky years ago.

Our little boy had died suddenly at the age of three. The day after his funeral, my husband and I went out to the cemetery to be alone with him. The day was gloomy and overcast. We could not understand why such a tragedy should happen to us, and our hearts were filled with despair.

All at once, my husband and I looked up and saw, in the midst of all the gray, a single, beautiful ray of light shining from the heavens. Just as suddenly as it appeared, it disappeared. But in that instant, our faith was renewed and our hearts were made lighter, for it seemed as if God were saying, "I will neither leave thee nor forsake thee. Trust in Me, and someday thou shalt understand all things."—Mrs. M. H. Suggs, Port Arthur, Tex.

How to Befriend Lonely Boys

When my husband died, and I was left with two small boys, I realized how much my sons missed a man's companionship. Then I remarried, and my husband and I decided that when we took our boys on a trip or picnic, we would include some boy who had lost his own father or whose dad had little time to spend with his son. Among these boys were the busy doctor's son, the lad whose dad worked nights, and one whose parents were tied down by a sick brother.

We have found so much joy in this activity! The boys' warm thanks and happy faces more than repay us.—Mrs. E. C., Trenton, N. J.

Advice from an Amateur Gardener

I have always wanted a beautiful garden, but I just didn't have a "green thumb." I would read and follow planting directions carefully, but to no avail.

Then, one day, a strange thing happened. In a little neglected plot, I noticed some green spears shooting up. They turned out to be some choice caladium. But how could they be? I had planted the bulbs, and then forgotten even to water them. Yet these flowers had done better than those I had labored over so long. Then I suddenly realized that it wasn't anything I did that made the flowers grow. The power was in the soil, and God's hand pushed them through when the time came. This is a universal law that applies not only to plants, but to everything we attempt.

Now, when friends give me plants, I care for them the best I can and leave the rest to the law of nature; and I, too, have a "green thumb."—Leona Hamilton, Tyler, Tex.

I was just thinking...

... WE ALL had nicknames. Hoppy and Minnie and Harky.

And Maddy.

It was, and is, a part of college. The childish, grown-up world. I remember the time I stepped off the train wearing a poodle haircut and carrying a stuffed lamb under my arm. My father refused to recognize me.

We sat around the sorority house after dates and drank malts and ate hamburgers. Hoppy and Minnie and Harky.

And Maddy.

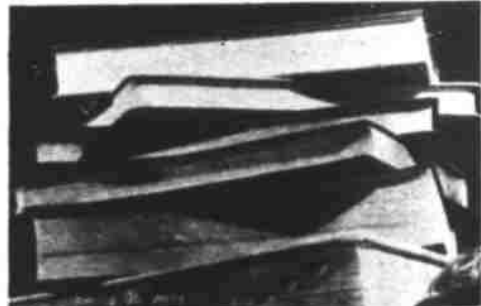

Everybody loved Maddy. There's probably a Maddy in every sorority or dormitory. The wide-smiling good sport. The wholesome happy-hearted confidante of the unloved and the sharer with the loved.

I roomed with Maddy for a while and it was a happy time. When she needed money, she washed sweaters for 50 cents apiece. Sometimes the room looked like a knitting mill.

It was hard to study with Maddy. Our beds faced each other. Whenever my eyes rose from the textbook, Maddy's eyes were waiting. We laughed until the tears came.

I couldn't abide Maddy's alarm clock. She hid it in her sweater drawer so the ticking wouldn't keep me awake. When it went off in the morning, Maddy had to sweep the contents of the drawer on the floor to shut it off.

It leaked grease, of course. Often Maddy had to spend more time washing her own sweaters than earning pin money from others. She never complained.

Maddy didn't come back the next year. The rest of us went on worrying about exams, going on picnics, and eating midnight hamburgers. They were carefree days and I remember them all. But I think all of us remember Maddy even better.

So it seems that, whenever I look back to the ringing phone and the poodle haircut and the hubbub and heartache of college, I think of Hoppy and Minnie and Harky with love.

And Maddy, dear Maddy, with longing.

A U. S. FAMILY VISITS THE FAMILY OF NATIONS

At the awe-inspiring U. N. Headquarters in New York, they feel the pulse of the world.

THE GROWING INTEREST of Americans in world affairs is reflected in the throngs of visitors to the United Nations headquarters on Manhattan's East Side. The crowds may be bigger during the week of Oct. 16, which is United Nations Week, but throughout the year they've been coming to look and to learn.

Among them one day was a family from Lakewood, New Jersey—Saul Morris, his wife, and their two children. They gazed in awe at the architectural splendor of the U.N. home, and were deeply impressed by the cathedral-like atmosphere of the General Assembly Building's entrance lobby and the Secretariat Building's magnificent glass facade which reflects the midtown skyline. Mrs. Morris exclaimed over the fine woods and expensive draperies that had been contributed by member nations. Young Billy tried to identify the delegates he knew.

But it was while listening to a General Assembly debate that the Morris family really felt the pulse of the world. When a delegate from halfway across the globe spoke of "people everywhere," the Morrisses felt a new kinship for families in far-off lands.

1. The Saul Morrisses of Lakewood, N. J., study the model of the United Nations site in New York City.

2. The family listens intently as the world's diplomats thresh out problems in the General Assembly.

3. From above the General Assembly building lobby, the Morrisses gaze down at other arriving visitors.

4. Billy Morris explains various national flags to his sister Susan as they browse in the UN bookshop.

5. Billy discovers that Security Council sessions are translated simultaneously into five languages.

6. Mr. Morris points out the UN emblem which dominates the dais in the General Assembly building.

Dare to be DIFFERENT!

Our national heritage is founded on independence of mind, not on blind conformity, says a noted American

by William Benton
former U. S. Senator from Connecticut

OUR ERA is being called the Age of Conformity. It has also been called the Age of Anxiety, and maybe there is a connection.

Some people say that America's younger generation is bright enough, but lacking in daring; that all it really wants is security, a safe job, and a ranch house out in the suburbs. But I am more disturbed by smaller clues.

There are signs which provoke uneasiness among those of us who believe the ideal American is an independent-minded American. In one Midwestern state, for instance, a newspaper interviews 100 passers-by and asks if they agree with those noble propositions set forth in our Declaration of Independence: "that all men are created equal, and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights . . . Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

The majority give qualified, skeptical answers. "Just propaganda, useful in its time," say several. Some think the propositions sound radical, even communistic.

One of the central differences between ourselves and our communist adversaries is that our traditions commit us to belief in the utility, indeed the sanctity, of dissent, while theirs do not. Ours is a democracy with faith in the freedom of men and faith that out of unfettered dissent and diversity will come progress.

To become as narrow-minded and inflexible as our adversaries is one sure path to defeat for the American way of life. Yet in this time of tension, we find that in some quarters dissent and diversity, challenge and disagreement, originality and creativeness, moral and intellectual courage, tend to be considered dangerous, controversial, even unpatriotic and a threat to national security.

What makes a good American?

A New York newspaper recently printed pictures of the 83 Americans enshrined in the Hall of Fame. These brave men and women were the makers and builders of America; if there was one trait they held in common, it was independence of mind.

Yet I wonder how many of these courageous spirits I would have honored if I had lived in their time. And I wonder if their spiritual successors would be recognized and honored in the America of today.

The right to dissent and diversity is the gift of an all-wise Creator. If you cherish this gift, your mind will stay youthful, no matter how many years pass. But if you fail to use it, you can be old at 20.

There is a particular paradox in the attitude of young people toward their God-given right to challenge the opinions of their elders. High-school and college students are in some ways the world's worst conformists. And dire can be the penalty inflicted on

Rules for the Maidenform Dream Contest

- Nothing to buy—no box tops to send in, just "dream up" as many suggestions as you wish. However, each entry must be submitted with an official entry blank. Additional entry blanks may be picked up at any Maidenform dealer. Each entry must also be accompanied by a different statement of twenty-five words or less which completes this sentence: "I prefer Maidenform, world's most popular bra, because..."
- All entries will be judged by The Hanes H. Donnelly Corporation on the basis of originality, aptness and general interest of the dream suggestion and statement which accompanies it. Fancy entries won't count extra. Judges' decisions will be final. No entries become the exclusive property of the sponsor, and all rights are given by the contestant without compensation, for use of all or any part of his entry in the sponsor's advertising. Duplicate prizes awarded in case of ties. The entry must be the original work of the contestant.
- Any person, residing in the United States, its possessions and Canada may enter the contest, except employees, or members of their immediate families, of the sponsor and its advertising agencies. All members of a family may enter, but only one prize will be awarded to a family. Contest is subject to government regulations.
- Send all entries to Maidenform Dream Contest, P. O. Box 57A, Mt. Vernon, New York. Entries must be postmarked no later than November 30th, 1956 to be eligible.
- All winners will be notified by mail within four weeks of closing date. Winners' list will be sent to all who request it with a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

"I dreamed I _____

Complete this sentence in 25 words or less: I prefer Maidenform, world's most popular bra, because _____ the classmate whose taste in clothes, music, poetry—or friends—departs from the formula of the moment. Nowhere is there such an intricate system of castes and cliques, except perhaps in primitive societies.

Recently I heard a college senior describe one of his classmates as a "luncher." I asked what he meant.

He replied: "That guy is always out to lunch, mentally and otherwise."

That recalled to my mind

the long, luxuriant terminology of derision which has flourished in our schools over the decades. In my time at Yale, a campus nonconformist was a "drip." At other times, the nonconformist was known as a "meatball," a "creep," or a "square."

Now I have spent at least 40 percent of my life in and around educational institutions. And I say that by and large the ex-"meatballs" who had good I.Q.'s have amounted to far more than their classmates who "belonged," who wore the right shoes, made the varsity if they were big enough and the glee club if they weren't, and were invited into the right parlors.

I wonder if Dr. Jonas Salk moved in the "right circles" when he was in college? I don't know, but somehow I'm inclined to doubt it.

The lonely road to truth

I once heard Chancellor Hutchins of the University of Chicago tell a graduating class: "You are closer to the truth than you will ever be again. Your friends will corrupt you, your wives will corrupt you, your ambitions will corrupt you. Resist the corruption as you can!"

Dr. Hutchins didn't mean the graduates had mastered truth with a capital T. He meant that the road to truth is lonely and difficult, and that the path of conformity is the road to corruption.

Certainly I am not urging Americans, young or old, to do their best to become "drips" and "meatballs." But I do urge you not to be afraid if such words are tossed at you. I do say that if the development of your own mind and character lead you in a lonely direction, don't be afraid to be different!

Perhaps you remember how the author and philosopher, Henry Thoreau, was put in jail for his dissent. When his close friend, Ralph Waldo Emerson, came to the jail to see him, Emerson stood before the barred door and said, "Why, Henry, what are you doing in there?"

Thoreau's answer was: "I'm in here because I asserted our rights. What are you doing out there, Ralph?"

Today, as in Thoreau's time, our democracy requires for its well-being that you be able to think for yourself and have the courage to say what you think. The argument for liberty and democracy ultimately rests on the proposition that thought makes the whole dignity of man and that the attempt to think well is the basic morality.

In this latter half of the 20th Century, our common goal should be to make the world safe for diversity. Each of us is a power for the well-being and peace of humankind as we have the courage to think and grow, as we feel concerned to speak forth the most honest product of our minds and hearts.

"And be not conformed to this world," it says in the 12th Chapter of Romans, "but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

THE MAGIC INGREDIENT

What wonderful foods are available today, and what delectable flavors! The trick is to combine unique flavors and fragrances to achieve a pinnacle of pleasure, the magic of fine eating.

Tuna Delight

Salad Mold

Lightly oil a 9½x5¼x2¼-in. loaf pan with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil); set it aside to drain.

For Pineapple Layer—Drain thoroughly, reserving sirup, contents of

1 9-oz. can crushed pineapple (about ½ cup, drained)

Add to the reserved pineapple sirup

Water (enough to make ½ cup liquid)

Set aside.

Empty into a bowl

1 pkg. lime-flavored gelatin

Add to bowl and stir until gelatin is completely dissolved

1 cup very hot water

Blend in the one-half cup reserved liquid and

2 tablespoons lemon juice

Chill mixture in refrigerator or in pan of ice and water until mixture is slightly thicker than consistency of thick, unbeaten egg white. If mixture is placed in refrigerator, stir occasionally; if placed over ice and water, stir frequently.

Wash, pare, chop, and set aside enough cucumber to yield

½ cup chopped cucumber

When gelatin is of desired consistency, blend in the drained crushed pineapple and chopped cucumber. Turn into the prepared pan and set in refrigerator to chill until partially set.

For Tuna Layer—Pour into a small bowl

½ cup cold water

Sprinkle evenly over cold water

2 tablespoons (2 env.) unflavored gelatin

Let stand about 5 min. to soften.

Beat slightly in top of a double boiler

2 eggs

Blend in thoroughly

1 cup undiluted evaporated milk

2 tablespoons lemon juice

1 tablespoon minced onion

½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

and

½ teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon Accent

Few grains cayenne pepper

Set over simmering water and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens slightly. Remove from heat and immediately add the softened gelatin; stir until the gelatin is completely dissolved.

Cool; chill mixture in refrigerator or in pan of ice and water until mixture begins to gel (gets slightly thicker). If mixture is placed in refrigerator, stir occasionally; if placed over ice and water, stir frequently.

Meanwhile, drain, flake (separate into thin, layerlike pieces with a fork), and set aside, contents of

1 7-oz. can tuna (about 1 cup, drained)

Finely chop enough celery and green pepper to yield

½ cup finely chopped celery

¼ cup finely chopped green pepper

When the second gelatin mixture is of desired consistency, add it gradually and blend it into

1 cup mayonnaise

Mix in the tuna, green pepper, and celery; set aside.

Beat until rounded peaks are formed

2 egg whites

Gently fold into the tuna mixture. If first layer in mold is partially set, immediately spoon the tuna mixture over the first layer. (Both layers should be of almost the same consistency to avoid separation of layers when unmolded.) Set salad in refrigerator to chill until firm.

To unmold, loosen top edge of mold with a knife. Invert mold onto a chilled serving platter. Wet a clean towel in hot water and wring it almost dry. Wrap hot towel around mold for a few seconds. (If mold does not loosen, repeat.) Garnish with

Lettuce

Cream-Cheese "Pineapples"

10 to 12 servings

Cream-Cheese "Pineapples"

Divide into six equal portions

8 oz. cream cheese

Using a knife or spatula, mold each portion in shape of a miniature pineapple. Set in refrigerator to chill.

Meanwhile, cut into thin slices enough pimiento-stuffed olives to yield

½ cup pimiento-stuffed olives

Gently press the olive slices onto sides of cream-cheese shapes in uneven rows. (as in photo).

Insert into tops of "pineapples"

Celery pieces

Arrange "pineapples" around mold as in photo and serve.

Corn-Bread Squares

BASE RECIPE
Grease bottom of an 8x8x2-in. pan.
Melt and set aside to cool
5 tablespoons shortening
Sift together into a bowl
1 cup sifted flour
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Mix in
1 cup yellow corn meal
Make a well in center of dry ingredients and set aside.
Blend together thoroughly the melted shortening and
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
Add all at one time to dry ingredients.

Beat with a beater until just smooth, being careful not to overmix. Turn into the prepared pan and spread to corners.

Bake at 425°F about 20 min., or until a wooden pick or cake tester inserted in center of bread comes out clean.

Cut into squares and serve. 9 servings

Crisp Corn Sticks

Heat corn-stick pans in oven about 5 min. Using a pastry brush, grease the heated corn-stick pan sections.

Meanwhile, follow Base Recipe. Spoon batter into the hot, greased pans, filling each section three-fourths full.

Bake at 425°F 10 to 15 min.

1 doz. corn sticks

Nutmeg Cake

Grease bottoms of two 9-in. round layer-cake pans. Line with waxed paper cut to fit pan bottoms. Grease waxed paper.

Sift together and set aside
2 cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons ground nutmeg
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon salt

Cream together until butter is softened
½ cup butter

1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Add gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition

1½ cups sugar
Add in thirds, beating thoroughly after each addition

3 eggs, well beaten (until thick and piled softly)

Set out
1 cup buttermilk
Beating only until smooth after each addition, alternately add the dry ingredients in fourths, buttermilk in thirds to the creamed mixture. Finally beat only until batter is smooth (do not overbeat).

Turn batter into the prepared pans; spread to edges. Tap bottoms of pans sharply with hand to release air bubbles.

Bake at 350°F about 30 min., or until a cake tester or wooden pick comes out clean when inserted in center of cake layer, or until cake layer springs back when touched lightly at center.

Cool cake layers 10 min. in pans on cooling racks. After cooling, run spatula gently around sides of pan. Cover with cooling rack. Invert and remove pan. Immediately peel off waxed paper and turn cake layer right-side up. Repeat for the second layer. Cool completely.

When cake layers are cooled, frost with your favorite frosting. Family Weekly thinks lemon is especially good.

Two 9-in. round cake layers

Liver Dumplings

Set out a skillet having a tight-fitting cover.

Prepare in a deep saucepan (and set aside) 1 qt. of quick chicken or meat broth by dissolving

4 chicken or beef bouillon cubes, or 2 teaspoons concentrated meat extract

in
1 qt. hot water

Combine and set aside
1 cup fine cracker crumbs
¼ cup milk

Wipe with a clean, damp cloth and, if necessary, remove tubes and outer membrane from

½ lb. liver (beef, lamb, veal, or calf's), sliced ¼ to ½ in. thick

Put liver in the skillet with
1 cup hot water
Cover skillet and simmer about 5 min. Drain. Cool liver slightly.

Meanwhile, cut off root end and a thin slice from the stem end of

1 small onion
Peel, rinse, and quarter the onion.

Put the liver and onion together through the medium blade of the food chopper. Using a fork, blend liver and onion with a mixture of

½ cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon crushed marjoram leaves

¼ teaspoon pepper
Set aside.

Mix cracker mixture with
1 egg, well beaten (until thick and piled softly)

Make a well in the meat mixture; add egg mixture all at one time. Mix with a fork until evenly blended.

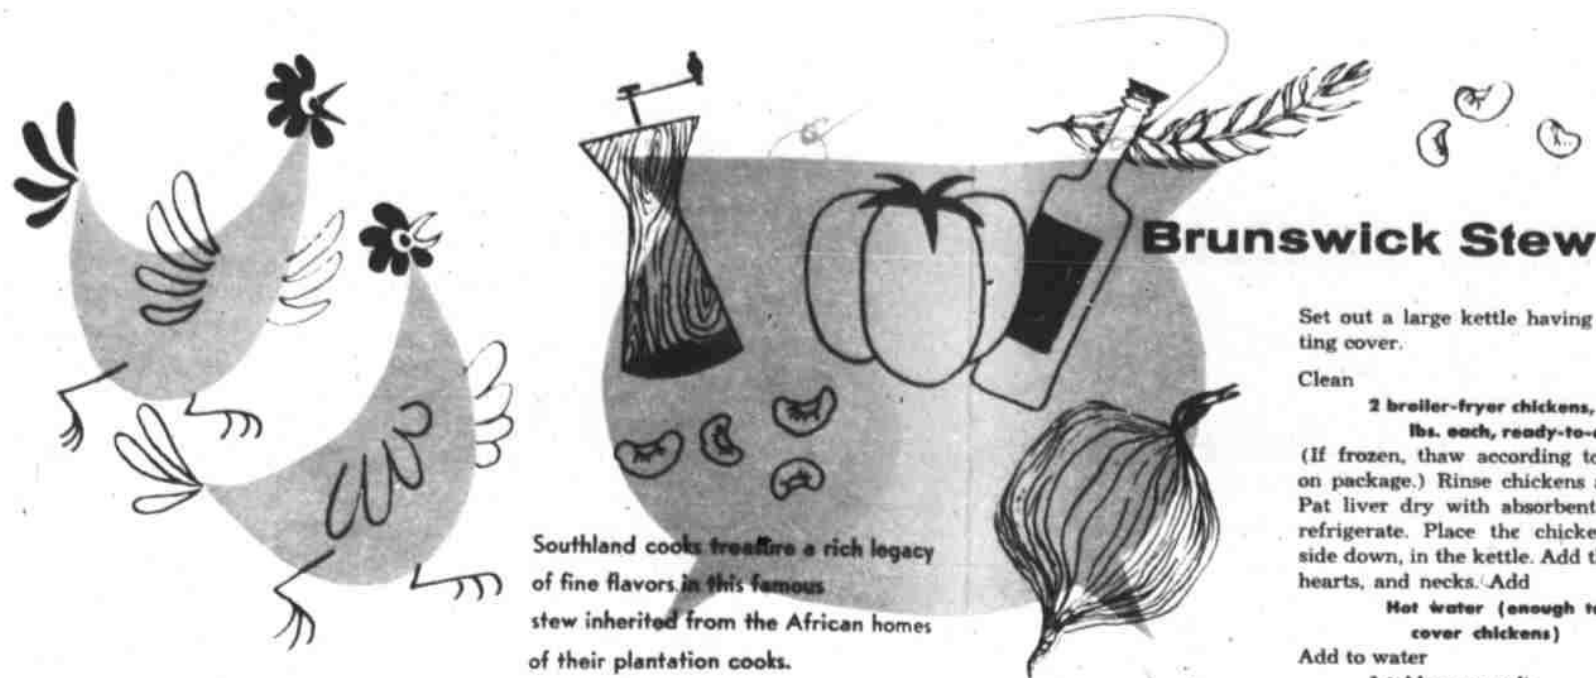

Bring the quick broth to boiling. Drop dumplings by rounded teaspoonfuls into broth. (Dumplings drop more readily from a moist spoon.) Drop only enough dumplings to lie uncrowded in the broth one layer deep. Cover and cook 3 to 5 min., or until dumplings rise to surface of broth.

Meanwhile, heat oven to 250°F.

When dumplings are done, remove with slotted spoon and place on a baking sheet. Set baking sheet in oven while cooking remaining dumplings.

Serve several of the dumplings in the meat broth or in any desired soup.

About 2 doz. dumplings

Southland cooks treasure a rich legacy of fine flavors in this famous stew inherited from the African homes of their plantation cooks.

Set out a large kettle having a tight-fitting cover.

Clean
2 broiler-fryer chickens, about 2½ lbs. each, ready-to-cook weight
(If frozen, thaw according to directions on package.) Rinse chickens and giblets. Pat liver dry with absorbent paper and refrigerate. Place the chickens, breast-side down, in the kettle. Add the gizzards, hearts, and necks. Add

Hot water (enough to barely cover chickens)

Add to water

1 tablespoon salt
1½ teaspoons Accent
Bring to boiling. Skim any foam from surface. Reduce heat, cover kettle, and simmer about 45 min., or until chicken meat is quite tender and will readily come from bones. About 15 min. before end of cooking time, add liver to the kettle.

While chickens are cooking, cut off root ends and a thin slice from stem ends of
2 medium-size onions
Peel, rinse, chop, and set aside.

Cut into pieces and set aside
¼ lb. ham, bacon, or salt pork

Set out

1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 8½-oz. can whole-kernel corn

When the chickens are tender, remove chickens and giblets from broth. Cool chickens slightly and remove meat from bones. Discard bones. Return chicken to broth. (Some chicken pieces should be large.) Add the onion, ham pieces, corn, tomatoes, and contents of

1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen lima beans
1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen okra

and

1¼ teaspoons tobacco sauce
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground thyme
½ teaspoon pepper

Set over low heat and simmer about 1 hr., stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, rinse and cut into quarters

1 small green pepper
Remove stem, all white fiber, and seeds with a spoon or knife. Rinse, finely chop, and set aside.

Melt in a small saucepan
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
Blend in

¼ cup flour
Heat, stirring constantly, until mixture bubbles and is lightly browned.

Add gradually to the stew and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until liquid of mixture is thickened slightly. Reduce heat and simmer about 10 min. longer.

Add the green pepper and serve very hot accompanied with

Corn-Bread Squares or Crisp Corn Sticks

About 16 servings

Freshness on the Pantry Shelf All the Year Round

There is freshness on the pantry shelf, and on the family's dinner table, if Mother takes a tip from her mother and cans the fresh vegetables which are on sale in the markets at such reasonable prices.

Select fresh vegetables of uniform size and ripeness to insure a uniform product. Plan to can as soon as possible after the vegetables come from the shop. Can in small quantities. Wash well and slice or leave whole, as you desire. Blanch all vegetables before packing in jars. Pre-cook or not, as you choose. And don't forget to spark the flavor by adding Ac'cent.

Two flavor friends combine to bring out the best in fresh vegetables

To bring fresh vegetables to their full glory of flavor and texture, use nature's own seasoner—Ac'cent—in a sauce.

Such a sauce is very simple to prepare. Melted butter and freshly squeezed lemon juice are combined. Salt, pepper and a generous shaking of the pure monosodium glutamate seasoner, Ac'cent, are added, the whole is heated and the flavorful sauce is then poured over the hot fresh or home-canned vegetables.

More elaborate sauces, such as hollandaise, should always include those two flavor friends, Ac'cent and fresh lemon juice. The wise homemaker is well aware that when she combines nature's own enhancer she is serving vegetables to her family at the very peak of perfection.

For delicious fresh vegetable dishes, keep lemons on hand . . . There's nothing fresher-tasting than fresh vegetables . . . and lemon juice . . . and Ac'cent!

TONIGHT, SERVE AT LEAST THREE VEGETABLES!

Accent makes every vegetable tastier, or double your money back!

Use Ac'cent generously on all those vegetables that are so good for you. Then taste! If you don't notice the increased natural flavor—if you don't agree that Ac'cent brings out the best in vegetables, mail us the container with a letter telling how you used Ac'cent and get double your money back.

Ac'cent is as easy to use and as necessary as salt and pepper. Shake on vegetables during cooking or seasoning and use on meats, fish, poultry—in soups, sauces and gravies.

Ac'cent enhances natural flavors yet adds no flavor of its own. Ac'cent is the only widely available brand of pure monosodium glutamate distributed in Canada and the United States. Look for the four-ounce size with handy pourer top. Send for FREE folder, "To Make Vegetables Tastier."

Master bedroom opens onto a secluded part of front terrace.

from Outer Space

by Ruth W. Lee, home-furnishings consultant

UNLESS YOU WENT about with a measuring tape or a keenly calculating eye, you'd never guess how compact this California house actually is. Counting the garage and carport-lanai, the floor plan covers 1,280 square feet, but the illusion of more space is created by many glass areas which give an indoor-outdoor feeling to the rooms. In addition, two outdoor terraces act as extensions of the interior. One is outside the living room and master bedroom, the other connects with the dining room and kitchen. In the L-shaped living-dining area, the open plan is enhanced by a sliding glass wall next to the fireplace and adjoining the outdoor living room. One side of the master bedroom is glass, with a door opening onto the terrace. The sloping roof with extended eaves provides extra protection and adds to the spacious feeling.

Throughout the house, which includes three bedrooms and a small corridor-type kitchen with built-in wall oven, plan desk, and counter range, simple contemporary furnishings are arranged to take advantage of the outdoor views.

Emphasizing comfortable living and efficiency, this house is filled with smart ideas.

Why we say,
"Choose from 100 brands of Sardines from Maine"

— because whatever your taste, there's a MAINE brand to suit you! Although your grocer may stock just a few, over 100 different brands of "Sardines from Maine" are distributed to markets everywhere! Look for the word MAINE on the label! Packed in delicious mustard, tomato sauce or easy-to-digest oils, Maine Sardines are plumper, heartier, lighter-flavored, never heavy or oily. Just pennies a can — with more protein per penny than costly steak, liver or eggs! Quick to fix so many ways: in a crisp garden salad, sandwiched between crunchy toast, with beans in a hot casserole, on flaky saltines or served like shrimp in a chili-sauce cocktail. Buy Sardines from Maine 6 cans at a time—children love 'em, so do women and men folk!

The OUTERJACKET Is in Again!

THE OUTERJACKET is back to make big fashion news. This city-slick version of the topper could be called the "tunic topper." The lines are long and lean and usually double-breasted, the choice of materials almost endless. Short rather than long and warmer than a regular jacket, it's a boon companion for the wool dress or casual costume.

Pueblo Strikes a NEW NOTE in Music

by Sally Snelling

Out in Colorado, a 26-year-old symphony orchestra has been rejuvenated by its dynamic new conductor, Walter Eisenberg.

Love of music begins early in the home of Walter Eisenberg, new conductor of the Pueblo orchestra.

BIG-TOWN MUSICIAN seeks a challenge . . . small-city orchestra struggles for leadership and new blood.

Put them together, and in a year's time you have the revitalized Pueblo, Colo., Symphony Orchestra, a promising, thriving musical group that compares favorably with many an orchestra in a much larger community.

An industrial city nestling in the foothills of the Rockies, Pueblo is a music-loving community. Its 26-year-old orchestra had flourished in earlier days under the gifted leadership of Raphael Cavallo, retired octogenarian. But by the end of the 1952-53 season, attendance had dwindled to a few hundred loyal die-hards. Then along came dynamic young Walter Eisenberg, who was given the challenging task of restoring the orchestra to its former eminence.

Eisenberg had an excellent background. For several years he had been concertmaster and assistant conductor of the Denver Symphony Orchestra. He also conducted the Denver University Symphony, played regularly with a string quartet, and performed frequently in solo concerts. But when he walked in to his first rehearsal as conductor of the Pueblo orchestra, many of the players were doubtful. They longed for a leader who would inspire them to new musical heights, and they were not convinced that Eisenberg was the man.

Their doubts were short-lived, however. Eisenberg won their respect and confidence almost immediately. Just six weeks after that first uncertain rehearsal, the orchestra had doubled in size and played a concert that brought tumultuous applause and repeated encores.

In the first season under Eisenberg a memorable record was made. Five concerts were given in the regular series and two special programs in a single day. One of the "bonus" performances was a "pops" concert sponsored by a local theater chain for children. The other was given to a standing-room-only audience in Canon City, some 40 miles away. The Canon City folks, hearing an orchestra in their home town for the first time in many years, were reluctant to let the musicians leave.

Today, Eisenberg is acclaimed throughout the area. Last Fall he was named conductor of the Colorado Springs Symphony Orchestra, in addition to his Pueblo post. The regular concert season in the Springs and a Summer series in the Garden of the Gods were met with standing ovations.

It is Eisenberg's emphatic belief that American musical culture should be nourished tenderly and steadily, not only in the great population centers but in small communities as well. And that's just what he's trying to do out West.

During the first season under Eisenberg's leadership, the Pueblo orchestra doubled in size and drew record crowds.

WHAT ANIMAL IS IT?

by Ruth Dixon

Sixteen thousand feet up in the air lives LAMA PAEOS! He lives in the Andes Mountains and his long woolly coat, curved-in toenails, camel-like neck, strong teeth, and water reservoir all help him to live there. He keeps warm, scampers sure-footedly over rocks, chews tough plants, and his coat makes shiny cloth like mohair.

What's his everyday name?

Rules for Contest

Dear Miss Barrows:
Here is a story I have written.

A Penguin in Texas

Once upon a time there was a penguin who lived at the North Pole. He wasn't like other penguins. He didn't play with them. All he did was sit in a tub of hot water. And every day he wished he were in Texas, where it was hot all day long and not freezing. His father finally said he could go to Texas, so he packed his suitcase and left the North Pole. He arrived in Texas two weeks later and thought it was wonderful there.

The first month was fine, but then it began to seem too hot. He thought of how nice and cold it was at the North Pole, but he said to himself, "If I go home, I'll like it for a while. Then I'll want to come back here."

After a week he decided to go back home. He made up his mind he would play with the other penguins. He did play, tried to forget the cold, and after a while he began to like it. And he still does!

planted them in the flower bed. Finally, I had so many that I had to make a special garden for them.

They are all blooming now and their beauty seems to outshine even our flowers. Some may think this is a funny hobby, but I enjoy it.

Aged 13 Abilene, Tex.

Dear Miss Barrows:

My girl friend and I have a system that makes sending and receiving letters more fun. First I send her an old button, and in her next letter to me she sends me something she made from the button. She also encloses something for me to make into something for her.

We also have a quiz. I send her questions and she sends me answers plus a quiz for me to do. We each draw a dress, too, and send it to the other to put a design on.

If your friend is sick or in the hospital, this might be a good idea to keep his or her mind occupied.

Sincerely,

Cheri White
Aged 12 Utica, N. Y.

DRIVE CAREFULLY—the life you save may be your own!

As a reward for their outstanding work, a group of newspaperboys get to visit the United Nations headquarters.

YOUNG CRUSADER

THERE IS a young man in your neighborhood who has the pitching arm of a Bob Feller and the business acumen of a J. P. Morgan. He and more than half a million other youthful enterprisers combine those talents daily to deliver 40,000,000 newspapers to as many front doors.

He might be just a freckle-faced youngster with a butch haircut, but when he has his carrier bag slung over his shoulder, he's an independent merchant with a title of his own—Newspaperboy.

And around his street that means something. He's got the admiration of the neighboring small fry, at home he's considered a junior breadwinner, and along his route he has a following of canine fans equaled only by the mailman.

Next Saturday—National Newspaperboy Day—an entire nation will pay tribute to him as the outstanding freshman in the American system of free enterprise.

But these tributes will not be merely vocal. Today's newspaperboy receives material rewards too, some so substantial that they dwarf his business profits. Newspaper publishers, who realize these little merchants are vital to bringing the news to your door, offer such "fringe" benefits as a trip to the "big city," picnics, parties, a big-league ball game, and a week at a Summer camp.

Ask the carriers of the Tri-City (Washington) Herald what they think about a week of outdoor living at a camp in Snoqualmie National Forest. They will tell you about swimming, campfires, and lizards. The newspaper sponsors the entire program.

While hundreds of these recreational activities are offered to newspaperboys in every state, the most important and fastest-growing program is unique, practical, and makes better citizens.

Last month, more than 500 former newspaperboys entered preparatory schools and colleges on scholarships given by newspapers. This year they will receive more than $500,000 toward tuition, books, and living expenses.

Many of the grants are not restricted to the United States. Don't be surprised if your carrier tells you he is going out of business because of a scholarship to France or England. Among the 50 annual scholarships offered by one Minnesota paper, two are for continental Europe.

Tops on the scholarship list is the program of the Gannett Newspapers and the Frank E. Gannett Newspaper Foundation, Inc., which together spend more than $100,000 annually to send 35 of the group's newspaperboys to college. The awards total $3,000 each for four years.

The Davenport (Ia.) Democrat-Times also has a liberal scholarship program. There is no limit on the number of scholarships offered, and every one of its carrier boys who meets certain standards can win a $200 grant.

Wherever such programs are offered, the supersalesman isn't necessarily the winner. In all awards, recreational or educational, newspapers stress scholastic achievement and citizenship as well as success as a junior businessman. Nor is financial need a factor. Rich or poor, if the boy has the incentive to stand out on his own, he is eligible.

The success of this scholarship program is proven by its growth. A few years ago money for educating newspaperboys was sparse. By next year, the total newspaper grants are expected to top the million-dollar mark.

The program has spread even to the schools themselves. This semester there are approximately 30 ex-newspaperboys attending Phillips Exeter Academy in New Hampshire. The school's Cordingley Newspaperboy Scholarships, named after an Iowa newspaper publisher, are available to any carrier boy in the United States.

But the street your newspaperboy lives on isn't marked "One Way." While he's building his own business he is also actively contributing to your community. These young merchants have been credited with saving lives and preventing crimes; and when it comes to charity dollars, they have an enviable record.

Community Chest, Red Cross, and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis have received numerous boosts toward quotas from these junior solicitors. And this year their charity work extended overseas. Carriers from 23 newspapers throughout the United States collected $90,000 in a two-day drive for Crusade for Freedom. More than 20,000 boys solicited money for this organization, which distributes the boys' own product—truth in print—to countries behind the Iron Curtain.

In Philadelphia alone, 6,000 newspaperboys raised $34,000. The champion dollar collector was ten-year-old Keith Dunningan, a Niles, O., carrier who presented Crusade for Freedom with a $1,000 check. His customers contributed $434 and a group of businessmen made up the difference.

So widespread was the campaign's success that it even brought a tribute from President Eisenhower. Speaking before a group of newspapermen last April, the President said: "Some 20,000 newspaperboys voluntarily conducted a fund-raising campaign for the Crusade for Freedom. That Crusade brings truth to those people behind the Iron Curtain who otherwise could not have it. Certainly, I am inspired by the knowledge that boys of this nation will freely give of their time and energy—and their hearts—to help bring information of today's world to those whose masters provide them only propaganda."

Other tributes have come from civic leaders, clergymen, and many governors. Only last year in a special proclamation declaring Newspaperboy Day in Maryland, Governor McKeldin, himself a former newspaperboy, said:

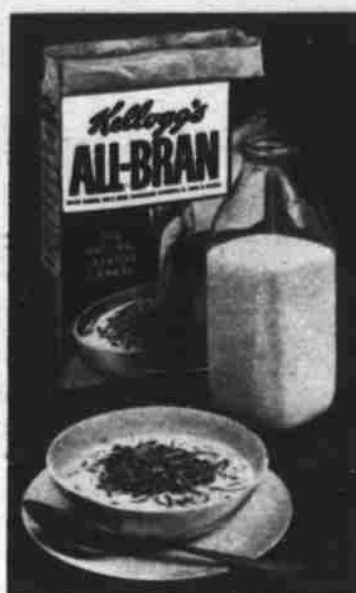

"There is more strength for America in those business lads than the totalitarians ever can develop in all their regimentation and control of the thinking of youth."

American carrier boys raised $90,000 to help send these truth balloons behind the Iron Curtain.

This 49½¢ Storm Window protects your family all winter!

New Trans-Kleer Storm Window Goes on In 5 Minutes Without Tools, Hooks, Screws or Nails

10.8 Sq. Ft. Window Costs only 49½¢

Used by U. S. Army in Iceland and Alaska — Now Available to Public

NOW . . . Storm Windows need not cost you up to $14.00 apiece. American industry has developed a lightweight flexible product that enables you to seal out wintry blasts for only 49½¢ a window! Imagine it! For pennies per window you can insulate EVERY ROOM in your home! This new material was developed by the Gary plant of a billion-dollar American manufacturing firm—for use by the U.S. Government during the last war. It looks like glass, yet can't peel off, never chips, shatters or rattles. Actually flexible like rubber. Has a tensile strength of over one ton per square inch. Crystal clear, not milky or yellowish like some plastic materials. Weighs less than 1/10th of the lightest glass windows ever developed. Even a large window comes to less than 8 oz. Not affected by snow, sleet, rain or dampness—because it's 100% waterproof. Won't crack even at 53 degrees BELOW FREEZING! Use and re-use it YEAR AFTER YEAR for winter comfort and protection.

LOW-COST HEALTH PROTECTION

You can hardly see this TRANS-KLEER storm window—it's wonderfully transparent, yet it protects your loved ones from winter's frigid blasts. And each window costs only 49½¢ each!

Sensational Discovery Used By Army To Fight Cold

One of the big problems of the last war was how to defend our troops and protect equipment against the ravages of Arctic winters. One of the world's greatest manufacturing companies was ordered to build a special plant and soon millions of yards of this new material was moving out to Alaska, the Aleutians, Iceland and Greenland. It was not available to the public because every inch went to protect our men, vehicles, planes and weapons. Finally, it was released to the public and ever since the demand has been greater than the supply! The Gary plant of famous REYNOLDS METALS COMPANY is working round-the-clock trying to supply it!

Use Year After Year—No Upkeep Cost!

At winter's end just fold away your Trans-Kleer like cloth for use next year. You can air the room anytime, too—lift the Adheso border to let in fresh air, then press back and it's sealed tight again! Cleans easily with a damp rag. It's no wonder so many home owners, hospitals, churches and public buildings use this tried and tested REYNOLDS product! TRANS-KLEER comes in kits 36 inches by 42 inches and costs you only $4.95 complete with Adheso border! That is enough for 10 windows—each measuring 10.8 sq. ft.—just 49½¢ each! In all you receive 108 SQUARE FEET for only $4.95! Good GLASS storm windows cost from $7.95 to $16.90—for ten you'd have to pay $79 to $160.00. With this remarkable REYNOLDS product you not only save a terrific amount in the purchase price, you also cut down enormously on your fuel bills!

Install Trans-Kleer Windows in 5 Minutes

Trans-Kleer storm windows require no nails, hooks, screws or tools. No back-breaking toil or broken glass to contend with. Cut off required amount, trim to fit the inside of your window, large or small, square, round, rectangular—it makes no difference! Then press on the special Adheso border supplied and your storm window is firmly in place. Simple, easy—a child can install them! And Trans-Kleer windows, because of the LOW CONDUCTIVITY development give you real winter protection, actually keep wintry blasts out of your home.

2,000,000 Windows Sold!

For years, demand for Trans-Kleer has outstripped the supply. Lucky buyers of the first windows told their neighbors and the word spread. Last year alone, over 2,000,000 were sold, yet thousands of folks were disappointed when the supply ran out. Advertising had to be curtailed and our huge supply was exhausted earlier than anticipated. There will be another wild scramble for them this year. Production has been planned for 2,500,000 windows this year—but even this huge total might not be enough unless you act FAST!

ADVICE TO READERS To Obtain Best Results From Storm Windows

All types of Storm Windows, glass, thermopane, plastic can save many dollars in fuel bills if used right. Follow these 5 rules for best results: 1.—Check all leaks. 2.—Make sure windows fit tight. 3.—Caulk aluminum type before installing. 4.—Store wooden frame type in dry place to prevent warping. 5.—Replace all cracked panes at once. Trans-Kleer ends storage, caulking problems, shattered glass, panes to replace, leaks to seal! No hard toil to put on or remove! Put on quick INSIDE regular window with new, improved ADHESO border. Lift Adheso border to let stale air out. Press back and you have perfect sealed-in insulation again! (See picture) Freezing weather is coming. Play safe! Order your TRANS-KLEER windows NOW!
