In New Mexico Territory --

Early Homesteaders Found Land Cheap

When New Mexico was still a territory and Roosevelt County covered what is now Curry County, the area around Texico had not been surveyed.

Several families from other parts of the United States heard about this land and the squatter's rights permits they could get from the government to claim it, so they came out west to look it over.

Although many people came in the early 1900's to live on the land, not very many people stayed. Could be the winters were too severe or loneliness caused them to leave, but the ones who stayed are the ones who helped build up this area.

Elijah Grissom, father of the late Roger Grissom of Farwell, brought his family to the area in 1907 to file for squatter's rights in Section 36, Township 5, Range 36 in what is now Curry County.

In 1910, Grissom traveled to Roswell for a homestead proof which gave him the right to buy the land on which he had spent three years.

The land was valued at 20 cents an acre. Grissom paid 40 cents in taxes for school district and 54 cents in county and territorial taxes.

Grissom purchased 160 acres, a quarter section, for $125 an acre.

Tom Randol, another early homesteader, came to this area in 1903. He laid claim to a place four miles south of Texico. Randol was the father of Ebb Randol of Ft. Sumner, formerly of Farwell.

Neighbors of the Randols during their early homesteading years were George Probasco, who lived near the state line; John Boss, who lived two miles from Texico; and R. A. Neely, one and a half miles from Texico. All of these families came during the years 1901-1902.

Ebb Randol recalls that the Boss family were neighbors of the Randol family in Taylor County, Tex., before they became neighbors in Curry County.

Randol's family came to their claim in a covered wagon and back. The children in the family attended Mid-Way School in 1907-1909 and then attended a school formed from the communities of Locust Grove, Fairfield and Union.

Randol says several families arrived in 1904-1905, but a lot of them didn't stay. Much illness was prevalent during the early 1900's which was hard to cure, especially since doctors were hard to find, so several persons died.

Randol also mentioned Frank Curry and his son, Claud, and Tom Grady of Clovis, who ran a drugstore in the early 1900's, when he reminisced about the early homesteaders.

Settlers coming to the territory of New Mexico at this time were offered a non-surveyed strip of land three miles wide which could be homesteaded.

First, a man had to get a squatter's permit and stay on the land until the government could survey it. After it had been surveyed, he could file on the land. Land was usually homesteaded three to five years before it was purchased.

Jimmy Daniels and family homesteaded a place adjoining Randol's family in 1904-1905 and W. A. Bell and family came to homestead next to the Randols in 1907.

Once the homesteaders came to stay on the land, they stayed for a long time. Dallas Brown, south of Texico, and his son, Dee J. Brown, own several pieces of land that were homesteaded in the early 1900's. The elder Brown took up a place when he came here in 1929 that had been homesteaded by Henry Burnett since 1910-11.

Not only entire families pulled up roots to come here, but one bachelor in particular came to make this area his home, find a wife and raise a family. Henry Curtis of Farwell arrived in 1904 at the age of 21 to file for squatter's rights on land six miles south and one and a half miles west of Texico.

He raised good crops of feed and corn and worked part-time for wages. Sometimes he hired work done on his farm, but most of it he did himself.

He married Grace Haynes when she was 16 in 1908. The Haynes family lived 12 miles southwest of Texico and four miles from the state line. She died several years ago.

Also homesteading near Curtis was the Harding family. Curtis can remember nursing members of that family when they contracted typhoid. The late Mrs. W. J. Matthews was a member of the Harding family.

PRESENTED PLAQUE -- Benny Haney, left, representing Capitol Foods, was presented with a plaque of appreciation by James Craig, Third Deputy District Governor of District 40X of New Mexico Lions Club and member of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club. Craig represented the local club in awarding the plaque to Capitol Foods for its assistance during the summer youth baseball program sponsored by the civic groups this past summer. The presentation was made during a meeting on Monday night, Oct. 11.

Rains Slow Harvest, Over Inch Reported

Rains, beginning Sunday night and continuing off and on through Tuesday, caused grain harvest to halt for a time. Area elevator operators predict that cutting will begin again anywhere from three or four days to a week, depending on the weather.

Skies cleared up Wednesday morning, but not before over an inch of rain had been recorded in the Twin Cities area. In Texico-Farwell reports of 1.2 to 1.3 inches were received in different parts of the two cities.

Other amounts ranged from approximately .8 inch near Lariat to 1.6 inches south of Texico. In other areas the amounts of rain were pretty much the same with 1.4 inches reported north of Texico, 1.25 inches south of Farwell and 1.5 inches in the Oklahoma Lane area.

MRS. JESS NEWTON

Fomer Resident Dies In Amarillo

Mrs. Jess (Kitty Morrow) Newton, 85, died Monday morning, Oct. 18, in an Amarillo hospital. She had been a resident of Amarillo for three years.

Mrs. Newton, born in 1886 in Kentucky, came to this area in 1907 and lived in Clovis with her mother and three sisters. For a time she was employed at the post office.

After her marriage, she and her husband homesteaded a mile and half north of Texico. They lived on the place until her husband's death in July, 1950. Mrs. Newton then moved to Farwell where she resided until moving to Amarillo.

Services were held Wednesday morning in Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church with Rev. W. T. Perry officiating. Burial was in Mission Garden of Memory Cemetery in Steed-Todd Funeral Home of Clovis.

Mrs. Newton became a member of the Methodist Church when she was 18 years old. She was a charter member of the Susanna Wesley Sunday School Class at the local Methodist church.

Pallbearers were Hugh Moseley, Charles Lovelace, W. D. (Dub) Howard, R. W. Anderson, Otis Huggins and M. A. Snider Jr.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Marie Hawkins of Albuquerque, Mrs. Helen London of Amarillo and Mrs. Frances Potter of Sudan; also five grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Engelking, Noland Gets Honors

Debbie Engelking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Engelking, and Jimmy Noland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Noland, received top honors during halftime festivities at Lazbuddie's homecoming game with New Home.

Miss Engelking was crowned Homecoming Queen by Cassandra Cargile, Student Council president. The queen was then presented with a bouquet of assorted flowers. Miss Cargile also crowned Noland as Football Hero and presented him with a football plaque.

Assisting in the crowning ceremony were Kerry Winders, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Winders, and Tresita Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moore. Candidates for homecoming queen were presented with sashes.

Mr. and Miss Flame titles were bestowed on Arella Moseley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Moseley, and Mike Fred, son of Mrs. Alton Morris at the homecoming bonfire Thursday night before the homecoming game on Friday.

Texico Sees Tatum Tonight At 8:30 P.M.

Texico Wolverines football team, fresh from an open date, will travel to Tatum tonight (Friday) to meet the Tatum Coyotes. The game will start at 8:30 p.m. CDT.

Head Coach Jim Wynne says Tatum is a throwing ball club which usually lets the ball fly 30 or 40 times a game. He predicted the match to be fairly even saying Texico has better than a 50-50 chance to win the game.

Wynne mentioned that Tatum has a fine quarterback in Pena and a good wide receiver in Castor. "We plan to play a good offensive game against Tatum. I hope to see some improvement in our defense. We'll have to play a good defensive game in order to stop their offense," he said.

Getz Named To NMPA Board Of Directors

John Getz, editor and publisher of the Curry County Times in Clovis and the State Line Tribune in Texico-Farwell, was elected to the board of directors of the New Mexico Press Association at its annual meeting last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Getz attended the three-day press meeting held in Ruidoso Downs, N.M. A special highlight of the session for the women was a visit and tour of the home and ranch of artists, Peter Hurd and his wife, Henriette Wyatt, at San Patricio, N.M.

New directors in addition to Getz are Paul Payton, publisher of the Lincoln County News at Carrizozo and outgoing president of the association; Howard Graves, Associated Press bureau chief; Bailey Anderson, publisher of the Las Cruces Sun News; and George Baldwin of the Albuquerque Tribune.

Stuart Beck, publisher of the Las Vegas Optic, was elected new president of the association. Robert Klipsch, publisher of the Socorro Defensor, is first vice-president; and Jack Sittion, editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican, was named second vice-president.

KING AND QUEEN of the Texico School Carnival named last Friday night were Richard Hadley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hadley, and Gia Crooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arley Crooks. Hadley, a seventh grader, and Miss Crooks, an eighth grader, were chosen by penny votes during the carnival sponsored by Texico High School Student Council. Dewayne Kelly, past King of the Carnival, and Debbie Tharp, president of Student Council, crowned the pair and gave Miss Crooks a bouquet of pink carnations and a white boutonniere to Hadley.

Feedlot Installs Equipment For Steam Flaking

Bovina Feeders, Inc. has announced the installation of new and additional mill facilities for the steam flaking process of feed grains for cattle feeding rations.

The feedlot, which has a capacity of 22,000 head, has been using high moisture grain, milo and corn, as the basic ingredient of its rations.

The new steam-flaking process insures area cattle feeders of scientific and efficient methods of feed manufacturing, according to Lee Hicks, general manager of the corporation.

Announcement of the new process is made in an advertisement in this issue of the paper.

The feedlot is located some 13 miles southeast of Bovina.

Farwell Woman Dies Sunday

Mrs. Mary Johnson of Farwell died Sunday night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tillie Williams of Clovis. She had lived in Farwell 50 years before she recently went to stay with her daughter.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in First Baptist Church in Texico with Rev. John Summers officiating, assisted by Rev. Melvin Sasse of First Assembly of God in Clovis.

Burial was in Bovina Cemetery under the direction of Steed-Todd Funeral Home of Clovis.

Mrs. Johnson, a native of Czechoslovakia, came to the United States when she was six years old. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Texico.

Survivors include a son, John Blake of Plainview; four daughters, Mrs. Della Carpenter of Texico, Mrs. Tillie Williams of Clovis, Mrs. Emma Minter of Bovina and Minnie Johnson of Farwell; also 13 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Charles Lovelace, Douglas Landrum, Myron Hillock, Murray White, Bud Pearce and Junior Foreman.

Mexican Dinner Set For Oct. 28

A Mexican meal with all the trimming can be purchased for $1.25 for a regular plate with drink included. Homemade pies will be extra.

Springlake-Earth, Farwell To Clash

Springlake-Earth will come up against the Farwell Steers in Steer stadium tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m. in a district game. Farwell, Springlake-Earth and Kress are tied for second place in the district. Each has a 2-1 record in district play.

Head Coach Toby Booth said the upcoming game was a must for the Steers. "We need a victory over Springlake to stay alive in the district," he said.

"They probably have the best ball club they've had in four years. They're big and strong. They have outstanding players in Clevinger, quarterback, and Glasscock, a 210-lb fullback. They have an adequate passer, good receivers and are excellent on defense," he said.

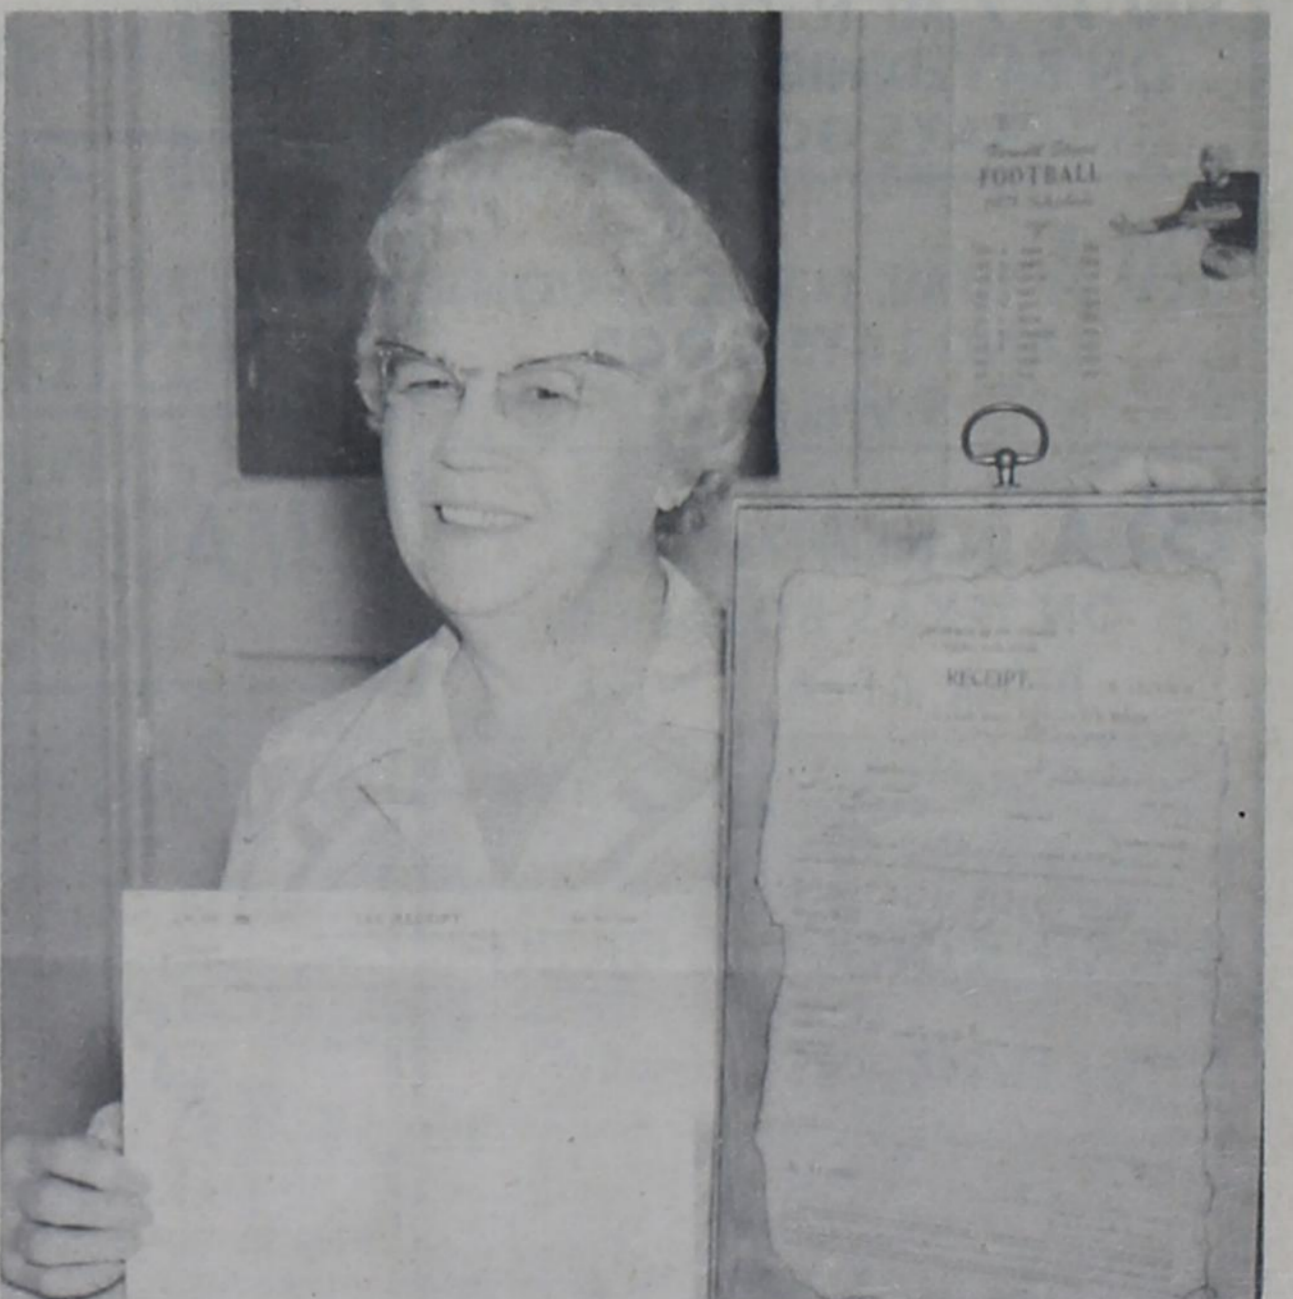

They average 180 lbs. both offensively and defensively, according to Booth.

Lazbuddie Hosts Nazareth Friday

Lazbuddie hosts Nazareth tonight (Friday) in a district tilt which starts Lazbuddie's conference play.

"They have a very strong defense, giving up only 13 points in five games," said Head Coach Buddy Brock. "Their record is 3-1-1. We feel like we will have to stop their triple option that is handled very well by quarterback Gordon Wilhelm," he said.

"To move the ball, we will have to block like we did last week against New Home, and we must block Stan Garber, a 193-lb. linebacker. Garber is All-State material. We must win this game to stay in the district race," the coach added.

SECTION 36, T5, R36 is the geographical location of a homestead on which Elijah Grissom settled in 1907. After living on the land three years on a squatter's right permit, he went to Roswell for a homestead proof which entitled him to buy a quarter section of land. He also received a tax receipt after paying 94 cents in taxes. Mrs. Roger Grissom, pictured, whose late husband was the son of Elijah Grissom, has both homestead proof and tax receipt from those early years. She has decoupage the homestead proof and will probably mount and decoupage the tax receipt so they will keep for future generations.

PURELY PERSONAL
By John

While we have never been accused of being a light eater, we have been pointed to as rather selective in our diet. Last weekend, we had the opportunity to expand our eating horizons at the New Mexico Press Association convention.

One of our noon luncheons was composed of "exotic" meats. For the meat dishes we had bear, venison and elk with kangaroo tail soup, or if you preferred, wild duck or pheasant soup.

The bear and venison was ground up and baked into a meat loaf dish. Well, to say the least, we are not fond of meat loaf anyway and to know that it was bear and deer combined did nothing to enhance its desirability in our eyes. We passed this delicacy but did hear from a few hardy souls who said that it was "fair" in the way of vittles.

Personally, we rather gingerly tried the barbecued elk and found it to be very delicious. That is not to say that we would prefer it to beef, but it was different and good. Again our imagination led us away from the kangaroo tail soup, and we gather we made a good decision for a change.

From the diners' reactions, the hopper from down under will be in no danger of extinction from lovers of his tall for soup. For all-around gastronomic excellence, we still vote for the fat steer. Especially one finished on good old Farmer County milo.

Did you know??? We had passenger train service, one time only, last week. According to Ed Farmer, the local Santa Fe agent, we had a passenger train from the northern route come down through the Twin Cities. Probably the result of a wreck or a wash-out on the northern line.

Ye ole editor had just begun to get over his mad at losing all of our passenger service when we get this reminder of the past glories of public transportation briefly flashed before our envious eyes. Pfoole!

You and I, old friends, may not again see regularly scheduled passenger train service through Texico and Farwell, but we are firmly convinced that our grandchildren will again see the revival of the art of hauling great numbers of people by means of the steel wheel on the steel rail. Say, dad, we don't know about you but we have a box of confederate money still stashed away.

It must get better. It can't get much worse. Last weekend, the Texas Longhorns, the Dallas Cowboys, the West Texas Buffaloes, the Farwell Steers and Texas A&M all lost at the game of football.

If you were a Tech fan from Bovina who pulled for the Pirates and had an uncle in Arkansas, it was your week. We envy you.

Oh yes, about our men versus women in the merchants football contest: It will be much simpler just to say congratulations to Willie, Don, Ron, Gene, Danny, Gilbert and Glenn. If your first name isn't in this select group, you have had it. What's that? You don't remember. Well cheer up, there are a lot in your category.

Enchilada Supper Set For Tonight

SWC Directors Attend Meeting

A. L. Black and Dick Rockey, directors of Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District, attended the annual statewide meeting of conservation district directors in McAllen this week.

Herb Evans, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation office at Friona, also attended the meeting.

Theme of this year's meeting was "District's Role in Environmental Improvement." Leon Grissom, chairman of the Parmer County district, said his group has been involved in environmental improvement years but is trying to step up such activities.

"Our district is involved in a wide range of activities which benefit the environment. Conservation measures reduced sediment, the state's biggest pollutant. Sediment fills lakes, streams, bays and estuaries; it kills fish and ruins their spawning grounds. Treatment of land subject to wind erosion cuts blowing dust, the state's worst air pollutant. We also try to tailor our work to enhance wildlife habitat, outdoor beauty and recreation," he said.

He also pointed out that upstream watershed protection projects sponsored by conservation districts, counties and cities have vast environmental benefits. Floods not only damage homes and other property, but they also kill people, wildlife and livestock.

Conservation districts are local sub-divisions of state government which utilize and coordinate assistance from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service and other local, state and federal sources. Their goal is to conserve and develop land, water, forests, wildlife and related resources for maximum benefit of all citizens.

Softball Teams Win Tournament

Texico junior high and senior high girls softball teams finished up their seasons by winning the Eastern Plains Athletic Conference Tournament held in Floyd last week. They are coached by Charles Stockton.

Texico junior high beat Floyd last Thursday with a 5-1 score. In the semi-finals, the junior high team topped House 6-3. Texico scalded Dora 11-1 in the finals to come up the winner. Sue Hall was the pitcher and Carol Steward, catcher, during the tournament.

Judy Yell pitched the last two games and Kim Pearce did the catching.

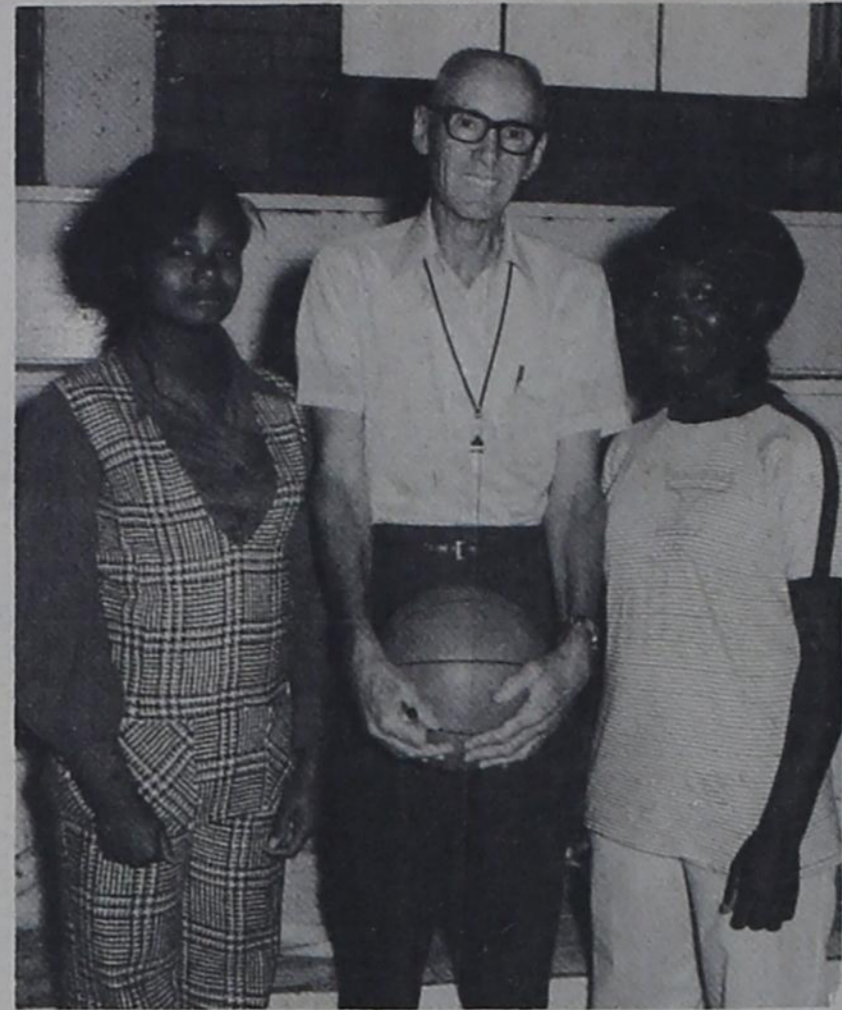

Texico senior girls slammed Floyd 15-2 last Thursday in the first tournament game. Vicki Richardson did the pitching with Kim Pearce catching. In the semi-finals on Saturday morning, Texico skunked House 12-1. The final victory came on Saturday afternoon when Texico won their game against Melrose 13-5.

Winner of the EPAC tournament claims the championship of the conference, according to Stockton. Although both junior high and senior high teams failed to win every game they played during the season, they still were eligible to be conference champions by winning the tournament.

Prior to the tournament, Texico Junior High girls won over Grady 21-4 on Oct. 7. On the same day, Grady Senior High girls handed Texico Senior High girls a 4-3 defeat.

Paralysis Victim Develops Hidden Talent for Career

Michael Smith suffered a broken neck in a water skiing accident that left him paralyzed from the waist down. His past interest in the outdoors brought new meaning to his life and the life of all America.

From his Raleigh, North Carolina, home he has become involved in the preservation of America's beauty. He is a professional artist, a painter of wildlife and waterfowl he knew so well before his tragic accident.

This former engineering student has made careful anatomical studies of all the beasts he draws, and his understanding of their shapes, habits, and attitudes makes his work of remarkable quality.

Duane Raver, Managing Editor of Wildlife in North Carolina, said, "His waterfowl drawings, I'd put up against any of the best flight artists in the country. Mike is a meticulous craftsman—a draftsman in his technique—yet a compassionate artist and a true admirer of the birds he portrays."

Michael Smith has taken his share of responsibility to keep the country beautiful without thinking twice about his wheelchair.

MIKE TRAVIS

RAY NORTON

TERRY CRAFT

Steers of the Week named by Head Coach Toby Booth for their outstanding efforts against Bovina last week were defensive secondaries, Kirk McFarland and David Dannheim; defensive linemen, Mike Travis; and Terry Craft and Ray Norton on offense. "All of these boys played a real good game last week against Bovina," said Coach Booth.

SPORTS

First In 16 Years --

Bovina Claims Victory Over Farwell Steers

by Will Anderson
For the first time in 16 years, the Bovina Mustangs defeated the Farwell Steers, The game, played in Bovina last Friday night, wound up 23-13, in favor of the Mustangs. The key to the game proved to be ball control, as the Steer offense simply could not maintain consistent control of the ball long enough to mount a paying attack.

The Steers got off 51 plays as compared to 81 for Bovina, and the Steers total offense of 194 yards could not match the 240 total yards compiled by the Mustang offense.

The Steers started out well, scoring in six plays. From their own 24, the Steers drove to the 37, where Ray Norton broke loose, and, under the protective blocking of Larry Erwin, dashed the 63 yards to paydirt. Andy Bowers' extra point boot made the score 7-0.

After a couple of fumble exchanges, the Mustangs took over possession on their own 38. Despite the grudging defense of Mike Travis, Ty Phillips, Mack McFarland and Harold Jones, the Mustangs drove from there to the tying TD. A pass from quarterback Bill Shelby to Bobby McMeans put the Mustangs the last six yards over the goal line. And so the half ended with the score 7-7. Bovina came back strong the second half scoring on their first possession from their own 13 yard-line. They drove to the one in nine plays where Eddie Pesch drove over for the Mustang score.

The try for two extra points was cut short to make the score 13-7. The Mustang defense seemed inspired also when they caught Steer Quarterback Brett Hargrove in the Steers' own endzone for a safety. This gave the Mustangs two additional points and possession of the ball again.

But when Ty Phillips recovered a Mustang fumble on the Steer 47, Farwell struck back. From there, on the first play, QB Hargrove put a pass aloft to the waiting arms of Kevin Hardage, who romped the remaining distance to the TD. A

Pee Wee Teams Play Lazbuddie Here Saturday

Farwell fifth and sixth grade teams will play Lazbuddie fifth and sixth graders this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. in Farwell.

Each of the four teams, Chiefs, Packers, Bears and Cowboys, will play offense and defense so that all the boys can play, according to Larry McDorman, junior high physical education teacher.

Rod Johnston, Larry LeFevre, Larry Erwin and McDorman are coaching the boys who have been learning how to play football during their P.E. periods. All parents are urged to attend the games.

All soups and stews freeze well, except those containing diced potatoes or macaroni (which are apt to be soggy when the dish defrosts). So omit them from your recipe... cook and add just before serving.

Homecoming Victory --

Longhorns Scalp NewHome Leopards

Lazbuddie Longhorns, coached by Buddy Brock, leaped over New Home last Friday night 39-0 for a homecoming victory. Arthur Graves, Loy Dale Clark and Ricky Seaton paced the offense by gaining two touchdowns each.

Lazbuddie, with a 4-1 record, led the scoring in the first quarter when Clark scored on a 67-yard run. Graves was credited with the second TD when he made a dash for the New Home goal line from 37 yards out. Mark Barnes booted the extra point.

Clark scored again in the second quarter on a 65-yard run to give the Longhorns a 19 point lead at halftime.

Seaton was the star of the third quarter with two touchdowns to his credit. One was scored from 25 yards out and the second was on a 40-yard run. Barnes again kicked the PAT.

Graves finished up an excellent night of football by scrambling over the goal line in a 40-yard run to add another six points to his team's tally. Barnes again was credited with a one point conversion.

Not only did the Longhorn offense have an outstanding night, the defense kept New Home from scoring. The defense held the Leopards within their own ten yard line several times during the night.

Ricky Seaton played on outstanding game on offense in his first start at fullback last week against New Home," said Head Coach Buddy Brock. "Clark was also outstanding in his first start at quarterback. I also want to mention Jimmy Noland, who was in on 35 tackles during the night," he added.

"We set a school record with 603 yards rushing in a single game. We were very pleased with the performance of both the offense and defense," concluded the coach.

Jeannie C. Riley Comes To Muleshoe

Jeannie C. Riley, country and western singing star, and her Harper Valley Express, will be in Muleshoe Monday, Nov. 8, for two performances. Her appearance is sponsored by the Business Activities Committee of Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Riley rocketed to stardom with the ballad "Harper Valley P-T-A" in 1968 and national recognition of her sparkling personality and singing talent. She made her debut as an amateur, in Anson, a small West Texas town, as a teenager. The popular, vivacious miss was always ready and willing to perform on charity, civic and social occasions, say the Muleshoe sponsors.

She will appear at 7 and 9 p.m. in the Muleshoe High School Auditorium. Tickets for the performances are $2.50 for general admission in advance and $3 at the door. Reserved seat tickets are selling for $4.

Reserved seats are numbered and holders of such tickets will be assured their seats will be vacant at the time of arrival. All tickets are sold on a first come, first served basis. Only 1,000 tickets will be sold for each performance.

Mail order tickets are available by writing Bob Stovall, 109 Ave. B, Muleshoe, Tex., 79347. Please enclose correct amount for tickets with order, says Stovall. Also state which performance, 7 or 9 p.m., is preferred. Tickets will be mailed by return mail.

Fashionique: Fashionable coordinate ensembles are a must for the woman on the go, whether the get-away is a long weekend, regular vacation or business trip, says a leading fashion co-ordinator.

The addition of a two- or three-piece ensemble to your wardrobe can mean fashion versatility as well as lighter luggage. A skirt teamed with a blouse, vest or jacket is ideal for traveling, shopping or business meetings, while a vest or sweater with slacks is perfect for casual wear.

Add a jacket to either the skirt or slacks for a smart look that goes everywhere, and you've created your own fashionable wardrobe for all occasions.

Many of the new weekend ensembles are available in a wide variety of mix-and-match colors and patterns, and are fashioned of versatile synthetic blends for easy care. They're hand washable and require no ironing, allowing for more time to enjoy those get-away days!

Fruits and Vegetables Make Better-Looking You: No one food will make you fat. No one food will make you thin. No one food will make you beautiful.

But fruits and vegetables, along with the other three food groups, do provide important nutrients to the diet that help make a better-looking you, says an extension nutrition specialist.

If weight control is part of your health program, look again to fruits and vegetables, she points out. They couple high nutritive value with low calorie content -- certainly another plus.

As a food group, fruits and vegetables provide you with important amounts of vitamins C and A and Iron. The body cannot store vitamin C; so it must be eaten every day. The citrus fruits along with tomatoes, melons, green pepper, broccoli, raw greens, raw cabbage and potatoes are good sources of vitamin C.

Vitamin A is found in tomatoes, deep yellow fruits and vegetables, and dark green leafy vegetables. In addition, four members of the fruits and vegetables group -- spinach, peas, greens, broccoli -- are important sources of iron.

It's recommended that you eat four or more servings of fruits and vegetables daily. And that's easy to do -- they fit into every meal and are also ideal snack foods, according to the nutrition specialist.

So help yourself to a fruit or vegetable; they provide nutrients that help to make a better-looking you.

Decorating to Suit Yourself: Most American homemakers are a little wary of the professional decorator, but also a little hesitant about embarking on a home-grown decorating plan.

For anyone who finds herself in this predicament, leading decorator magazines may well be the answer. Featuring explicit directions and diagrams for original decorating projects shown in full-color room settings, the current issues include everything from needle-point directions for an authentic Victorian chair cover to a frame for a very contemporary water bed!

You can reproduce whichever version suits your own decorating ideas; directions for many projects are given, and most of the other furniture and accessories are available nationally.

If Victoriana isn't your cup of tea, learn how to use traditional furniture in contemporary settings -- a decorating mix that results in sophisticated but comfortable rooms.

Whatever decorating style you prefer, you'll appreciate the ingenious ways shown of visually expanding space to make today's small rooms seem larger.

Senior Citizens Invited To L. A. Domino Contest

Bob Perry, brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billingsley of Farwell, brought some information recently from California about a Senior Citizens Domino and 42 Contest which will be sponsored by Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

The contest, which is tentatively scheduled for February, will be played at Simms Park in Bellflower or Ford Park in Bellgardens. The first contest will be open to all senior citizens of Los Angeles County and the state of California.

"If anyone from this area is in California at the time of the contest and wishes to play, they should get in touch with me at 11724 E 207th, Lakewood, Calif. 90715," said Perry.

Perry hopes the contest will go nationwide after 1872 with an invitation for all states to enter. He thinks this activity is especially enjoyable to senior citizens. He belongs to two clubs in California for senior citizens.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Janie Crane

Sharing plays a large part in the life of our area homemaker this week, Mrs. Leon (Julia) Langford. Mrs. Langford, her husband, and their three children live north of the Twin Cities.

The Langfords have been married for 15 years. Julia was a senior attending Bovina High School at the time of their marriage. She says she owes the fact that she graduated salutatorian of her class to Leon. "He was determined to get me through school," she said.

After their marriage, Leon farmed in and around the same area where they have always lived. Both have a love of raising cattle, so they made a business out of raising registered Herefords.

Cattle-raising and farming keep the Langfords busy during all seasons of the year. If Julia is not helping Leon with the calves, then she is driving a truck twice a year during harvest or showing cows.

Julia calls her family "an old-fashioned farm family" since they help each other instead of depending entirely on outside help. Both the farming and cattle business are family ventures.

Just recently, Julia mounted a horse to help her husband round up the cattle. She also runs errands which crop up during a normal day in the country.

"My kids call my friends 'city friends' because they don't always understand what it's like to live this type of life," she said.

"Friends who live in town are always calling out and asking what's happening on the Ponderosa," she added.

Jacquelyn, 14, Annette, 10, and Mac, 8, the three Langford children, are also proud of the fact they are farm children. Jacquelyn and Annette are both avid 4-H members and are presently raising club calves. Mac plans to join his sisters as a club member when he turns nine.

When all the children are in 4-H, Julia says she might try to help out as leader or in another capacity. She has already served as Foods and Nutrition leader for 4-H during the past year.

Although the Langfords do many things as a family group, including a camping trip this past summer, Julia and Leon feel it is important for them to have time for themselves.

Besides helping each other out with the farm work and cattle raising, Julia and Leon enjoy showing their cattle. They also enjoy taking short trips to such places as Las Vegas, Clouderoff or Ruidoso.

Julia says her children have been very understanding about their parents' interest in each other's activities. They realize that they will grow up one day and leave their home. Both Julia and Leon want to be able to maintain a full, active life after the children have gone and still be close to one another.

The Langfords belong to Farwell Country Club and every once in a while, Julia and Leon like to play golf. They also like to play bridge. Julia belongs to a once-a-month bridge club.

Neither Julia nor Leon belong to any organizations which take them away from their interest in the farm and cattle. They do attend Central Christian Church of Clovis.

Julia's favorite pastime is cooking. She has collected two kitchen drawers full of cookbooks. Most of the cookbooks she collects when she travels. Others have been sent to her by relatives and friends.

Her favorite cookbooks are those which include tested recipes submitted by homemakers, like herself, who come from different areas of the country. She has a cookbook from Fredericksburg containing old German recipes, a cookbook from Mississippi with pecan dishes made with vegetables, meats and just about anything else you can imagine, and a cartoonist's cookbook with favorite recipes and menus of famous cartoonists.

Julia is sharing with our readers three of her family's best loved recipes. The dessert, salad and meat will almost make a meal.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

WHAT GOD IS DOING

The distress and confusion which prevails in the world about us does not upset the instructed believer in the Word of God. He understands the divine plan and knows what God is doing. He does not expect peace on earth while the Prince of Peace remains an exile from His own world. He has no illusions about this age, or about what statesmen and politicians can accomplish in this age, for God calls it "this present evil age" (Gal. 1:4).

Meantime, the instructed Bible believer takes advantage of "the dispensation of grace," telling others how they may be "justified freely, by God's grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24).

AWARDED FIRST PLACE in the weekly Merchants Football Contest last week was J. D. Carson, left. He is being presented a check for $5 by Fred Chandler of Sherley-Anderson-Pitman elevators. Carson guessed nine games correctly and was only three points off on the score of the tiebreaker game. He was followed by Carolyn Davis and Randy Gerles who copped second and third place weekly prize money. They each had nine games correct and were 15 and 17 points off on the tiebreaker, respectively.

Three Points Off Tiebreaker --

Carson Chooses Nine To Win Weekly Contest

J. D. Carson proved himself worthy of a $5 first place prize in last week's Merchants Football Contest when he guessed nine games correctly and was only three points off on the tiebreaker game score.

Only two other persons correctly guessed nine games. Carolyn Davis did some valuable prognosticating to pick nine correct games as did Randy Gerles. Mrs. Davis was 15 points off on the tiebreaker to gather up second place weekly prize money of $3. Gerles was 17 points off on the tiebreaker game score which put him in third place and recipient of a $1 check.

Twelve persons picked eight correct games last week during one of the higher scoring weeks of the contest.

Terry Craft picked one more correct game than did Bunk Phillips which enabled him to tie the Phillips for the lead in the overall contest. They are in first place with 40 points each. Trailing close behind these two consistently accurate entrants are Carolyn Davis and Jerry Mathis, each with 39 points. In third place at this halfway point in the 12-week contest are Carl Davis, Mrs. Albert Johnson, Mrs. Bill Moss and Omata Scott, each with 38 points.

For those of you who have seen people busily studying their entry blanks over coffee or while watching television, pick up your pencil and join in the fun. Cut out the entry blank in each issue of the State Line Tribune and select your picks. Extra contest blanks are available at the Tribune office and at several local businesses. You too can be a winner.

One must be 12 years old or older to enter the contest. Entries should be taken to the Tribune office by 5 p.m. each Friday. Mailed entries should be postmarked by 5 p.m. Friday. A record of tabulations are kept in the Tribune office for inspection by the public.

Top winner at the end of the contest will receive two tickets to the Cotton Bowl football game in Dallas on New Year's Day and $50 expense money.

Girl Scouts To Help UNICEF

Cadette Troop #109 of Texico-Farwell Girl Scouts will be involved in the Treat of Life program for UNICEF in the near future, according to their leader, Mrs. Charles Aycock. Members of the troop will be collecting boxes, labels, panels, packages and wrappers from various products which will be used by UNICEF to buy food, vitamins, school supplies and thousands of other things for needy children.

Advertisements which tell the products used by UNICEF can be found in most family magazines. Residents of Texico-Farwell are asked to keep the required labels, wrappers, etc., for these particular products so that the Cadette Troop may collect them.

UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, is celebrating its 25th year of concern for the welfare of children and mothers around the world. UNICEF is currently assisting hundreds of projects in 112 countries and territories.

Last Halloween, over 3,600,000 went Trick or Treating for UNICEF. The $3,350,000 collected was turned into such things as vitamins, vaccines and school supplies for millions of children.

Second place winner will receive two tickets to the Sun Bowl game in El Paso and $25 expense money.

Offer Safety Tips --

Halloween-Holiday Or Horror? Insurance Group Urges Caution

What will it be this Halloween in Texas, trick-or-treat -- or tragedy?

If you're driving your car Oct. 30 or 31, the answer can be largely in your hands, says the Texas Insurance Advisory Association (TIAA).

Halloween is a popular holiday in the Lone Star State. Nearly all of the state's approximately 2,100,000 elementary school children will become trick-or-treaters for a few hours, romping through their neighborhoods with little on their minds but the next treat.

The TIAA reminds that while it can be a joyous time for kids, it is also potentially dangerous for them.

"At no one time in the year are more children wandering through the streets at night garbed in vision-impairing masks and dark, difficult-to-see costumes," said the TIAA. "We urge all motorists to think fast and drive slowly -- and carefully on All Hallow's Eve. The kids are bent on fun. Don't put a morgue in their merrymaking."

The TIAA offered the following safety tips to motorists and parents of trick-or-treaters:

To motorists -- Drive slowly and warily. Watch for children darting out between parked cars. Tap your horn occasionally on dimly-lighted residential streets. Be extremely cautious while backing out of driveways.

To parents -- Escort your littles ones. If your children are going as a group, give the oldest a flashlight. Dress the kids in bright clothing or stick reflective tape on their costumes or trick-or-treat bags.

Use a scissors to widen the eye holes in their masks. Urge them to look up and down before crossing.

Adults who do their own merrymaking at Halloween parties are reminded that drinking and driving don't mix.

"Remember," the TIAA said, "that Halloween is a fun time for children. In all the excitement, they're not likely to be thinking of safety. You -- the motorist -- have to do their thinking for them."

"If children's Halloween antics remind you that you were a kid once yourself, drive in a manner to ensure that some child will grow old enough to say the same."

Marriage Licenses Issued

Marriage licenses issued during this past week by the office of Parmer County clerk went to Thomas L. Pleasant and Doris L. Pleasant on Oct. 14 and Joe Raye Anaya and Mary Ellen Vale on Oct. 15.

Texico Man's Mother Dies

Mrs. Nora Lee Hudnall, 91, a former Lazbuddie resident, died last Monday morning, Oct. 11, in a Lubbock rest home. Services were held Wednesday, Oct. 13, in Lazbuddie Baptist Church with Rev. Dale Caine officiating.

Mrs. Hudnall, mother of Rev. Harvey Hudnall of Texico, had been a resident of the rest-home for five years. She moved to Lazbuddie from Earth in 1930. She was native of Morgantown, Ky.

Burial was in Castro Memorial Cemetery in Dimmitt with Singleton-Ellis Funeral Home of Muleshoe in charge.

Other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. George Poteet of Muleshoe and Mrs. Robert Johnston of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Therma Kemp of Morgantown; a brother, Murry Childress, also of Morgantown; 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

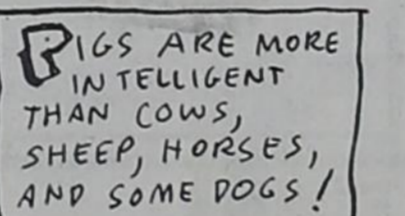

Report From The Sheriff's Office

Sheriff Charles Lovelace reported a light week for Parmer County police officials this past week. Three persons were fined in County Court and released.

They were Antonio Espinosa of Bovina, fined $25 for being drunk in public, Elicio Rivera of Bovina was fined $100 and court costs on a liquor law violation, Medland Walker of Friona was fined $100 and court costs for driving while intoxicated. All three men paid their fines and were released.

American colonists brought hourglasses with them from England, and colonial ministers timed their sermons with them.

PIGS ARE MORE INTELLIGENT THAN COWS, SHEEP, HORSES, AND SOME DOGS!

RECEIVES COMMENDATION -- Clifford Wade Meeks, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Meeks of Farwell, was presented last week with a letter received by Farwell school counselor Charles Turner, right, commending Meeks on his high performance on the 1971 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Meeks is a senior at Farwell High School. Turner will be giving the NSMQT again this week and winners will be announced in the spring.

* Two Clovis teachers went together on their first vacation to Europe. They were back in four days, and boasted how they had seen all the museums, palaces, and art galleries.

"You mean you saw all those places in just four days?"
"Yes, I'll admit we were in a hurry. So Becky would rush in and see the insides and I would take in the outsides."
