

Condemnation Suits Handled in Court

Condemnation suits involving right-of-way for a farm-to-market highway running east from Farwell to within two miles of the county line on the far eastern side of the county were taken up in county court in Farwell, Wednesday.

Judge A. D. Smith, on the bench, handed down judgments against the defendants in two instances, while three pending suits were settled out of court.

Judgments were given against Ernest Merriott; and Dewey Clark Jr., et al. Settled out of court were three suits involving Daniel Tartar and J. B. Glaze; Daniel Tartar and Alton Morris, and Daniel Tartar, individually.

Officials here are of the understanding that the contract for extension of the rural highway, now paved from Farwell to the Twin Houses in the Lazbuddie area, is to be let during November.

REGULAR CHECK-UPS REALLY PAY?

You hear a lot of arguments nowadays among car owners who wonder whether it pays them to make regular visits to a good garage, even though their cars seem to be running satisfactorily.

For those persons who have actually kept records on this matter, we find that it DOES save money to catch repairs when they are in a minor stage rather than awaiting the time for big, expensive jobs such as engine overhauls, new transmissions, or what-not.

Car owners who have really made a science of this matter of maintenance find that it is nearly always cheaper to have regular garage check-ups costing only a few dollars at a time than to wait until something big develops.

Besides, those who have tried both ways have found that when one knows his car is running well and is as safe as it is possible for human hands to make it, he has a constant sense of well being. And that can be important—as well as adding pleasure to every mile the motorist drives.

Santa's Visit Set For Twin Cities

In order that children of the Twin Cities—and surrounding community—will have plenty of time to get in their requests for Christmas gifts, the annual appearance of Santa has been set locally for December 11.
As usual, appearance of the man-with-the-whiskers will be sponsored by the ESA members, who announced that treats would be provided for all youngsters.
Tentative plans are to prepare some 1,000 sacks of treats for the little people, with Dardanella Helton, Nell Walling and Wilma Liner serving as the committee in charge of arrangements. Santa's helpers are due to meet at the Legion Hall at 3 o'clock on December 8th to prepare the goodies.
Jolly St. Nick, aware that this section of the Panhandle can be mighty "minus" when it comes to snow, is to make his run through the Twin Cities riding on the local fire department truck, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. He will remain in downtown Texico-Farwell until 5 o'clock, giving all the youngsters a chance to visit.

From TSCW
Miss Ann Whitley was home recently to visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitley. Ann is a student at TSCW in Denton.

So much comment was heard regarding those popular "dogs on sticks" sold at the school Halloween carnival that we have persuaded Loucille Foster to part with the recipe and secret sure-fire trick.
For 24 weiners combine 1/2 cup corn meal, 1/2 cup flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt and 6 tablespoons sugar, with enough milk for a thick batter. Heat approximately 2/3 cup of oil for frying. Insert sticks in weiners before dipping batter.
And here's the secret: Dip those weiners in cold water just before you duck them in the batter—that way the batter will stick all over.
Our young son, Ronny, is learning to climb and we are learning to move faster, to rescue him from perilous perches.
In the past three days, he has managed to beautifully mangle the little snub nose, and other parts of his face. He began this round of falls Saturday when he was visiting his little cousins in Hereford. Although he was the only one who thought he was big enough to go up the slide in their backyard—he managed to struggle to the top finally, with no one stopping him. He immediately fell, and managed to bite a hunk out of his tongue with those few sharp teeth.
We still don't know what happened Sunday, but he arrived at the back door from the yard, obviously injured, and in a few hours, a peeled lip was much in evidence. And Monday was the day he decided to take the skin off his nose by

Local Residents Enjoy "Swanee" Production
A number of local residents were on hand at Marshall auditorium in Clovis, Monday evening, to see the 1954 edition of "Swanee", presented by students of ENMU, Portales.
Included in the cast were Darlene Sprawls and Howard Jenkins, both former Farwell students, and Mark Charles, of Bovina.
Among those present were LaVerna Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Charles and family of Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham Jr., Mrs. W. H. Graham Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Miller, Jo Ann Williams and Mrs. Johnnie Williams.
Structural Steel Is Holding Up Work
Delay in shipment of structural steel is all that is holding up construction work on the Farwell gymnasium, according to Supt. Jack Williams, who said on Tuesday that manufacturers had been contacted and delivery of the steel is now promised by the latter part of this month.
On hand right now is the decking steel. "But," Williams pointed out, "you can't use that until you have the structural steel, so we're temporarily stymied."
Dirt fill-ins around the foundation are being completed this week.

Jerry Pool Named To Honor Group
Portales—Sixteen junior and senior students of Eastern New Mexico University have been approved for membership in Who's Who Among Students in American University and Colleges according to Dr. Jack W. Mears, dean of personnel.
Selected by an anonymous faculty committee and approved by a national committee, the students are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, qualities, participation in extra-curricular activities, citizenship, and promise of future usefulness to society.
The 16 honored included Jerry Pool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lenton Pool, Farwell.
Gypsy Theme Used For School Show
Students at Farwell schools were entertained with a Southern Schools assembly program Friday, when "The Bajans, Gypsy Troubadours", were billed for the students.
The program featured folk dances and songs, and was presented with a "gypsy" theme.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Lon Carpenter and Lucille visited in the home of Mrs. Raymond Matheson, a sister of the locals, in Hollis, Okla., over the weekend.

a well-placed dive into the ground—accidentally of course.
We were almost afraid of Tuesday, but it was uneventful, as far as injuries were concerned however.
All our friends predict that he is just a normal boy. He seems to take it pretty well, but what do you do about the parents who have to watch this 'growing up' process.
And while we are on the subject of Ronny—he was a very unpopular person in the George Hill household Sunday morning. We visited them briefly late Saturday evening—and chased Ronny away from their fascinating water heater. The next morning, the Hills had no hot water. Guess where they pointed the accusing finger?
We have one consolation—they have a little "Dennis the Menace" just a few months younger than Ronny—and we predict they will learn how these things happen.
We purchased a cake—angel food with orange icing—at the Town and Country Home Demonstration Club bake sale Saturday. It was one of these "melt in your mouth" concoctions.
We think Mrs. Rochelle Christian was the one who baked the lovely cake. We would certainly like to have the recipe for our column next week, Mrs. Christian.
There is nothing more helpless than a crew of females when these big lumbering machines have a breakdown. We realized this especially Monday morning when our husband was away, being not so willing, but a good citizen as a member of a jury panel called in Amarillo and leaving the ladies to run the place.
We didn't have the place open an hour when the linotype kicked up its heels and quit. Thanks to the assistance of our friend, George Prout, over at Clovis, the thing was back in working order before too much time was lost. Of course, after his drive over here, it was a very minor thing—but how should we know?

We three gals just looked at the mammoth piece of equipment, and felt inadequate.
There will probably be other quirks in the equipment before this paper is in the mails, so we suggest you read this issue with a "not too critical" eye.
The spooks and goblins were out Halloween night in large numbers and we saw some very original "ghosts" who stopped by our house for a handout.
Possibly the most unusual visitors, however, were two little clowns, who looked the part from the tips of their toes to the top of their pointed caps. But they had a different approach, bringing us a treat of homemade fudge, instead of asking for something for their sacks.
We recognized Mark and Barry Williams, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams, and they were very authentic clowns.
We rushed up to Farwell Schools Monday to get a news note, and noticed several girls obviously having a good time during recess. Know what they were playing—school!
The "teacher" was sternly reminding one little girl, and as we passed by, the young lady defended herself with "but I'm just a first grader." She couldn't have been higher than the third grade, herself.
Contrary to any conflicting rumors, there is a time when there was too much chicken for a group of preachers. Rev. C. C. Morgan, Texico Baptist pastor, told us that there was chicken left over, when the Brotherhood met in Clovis last week.

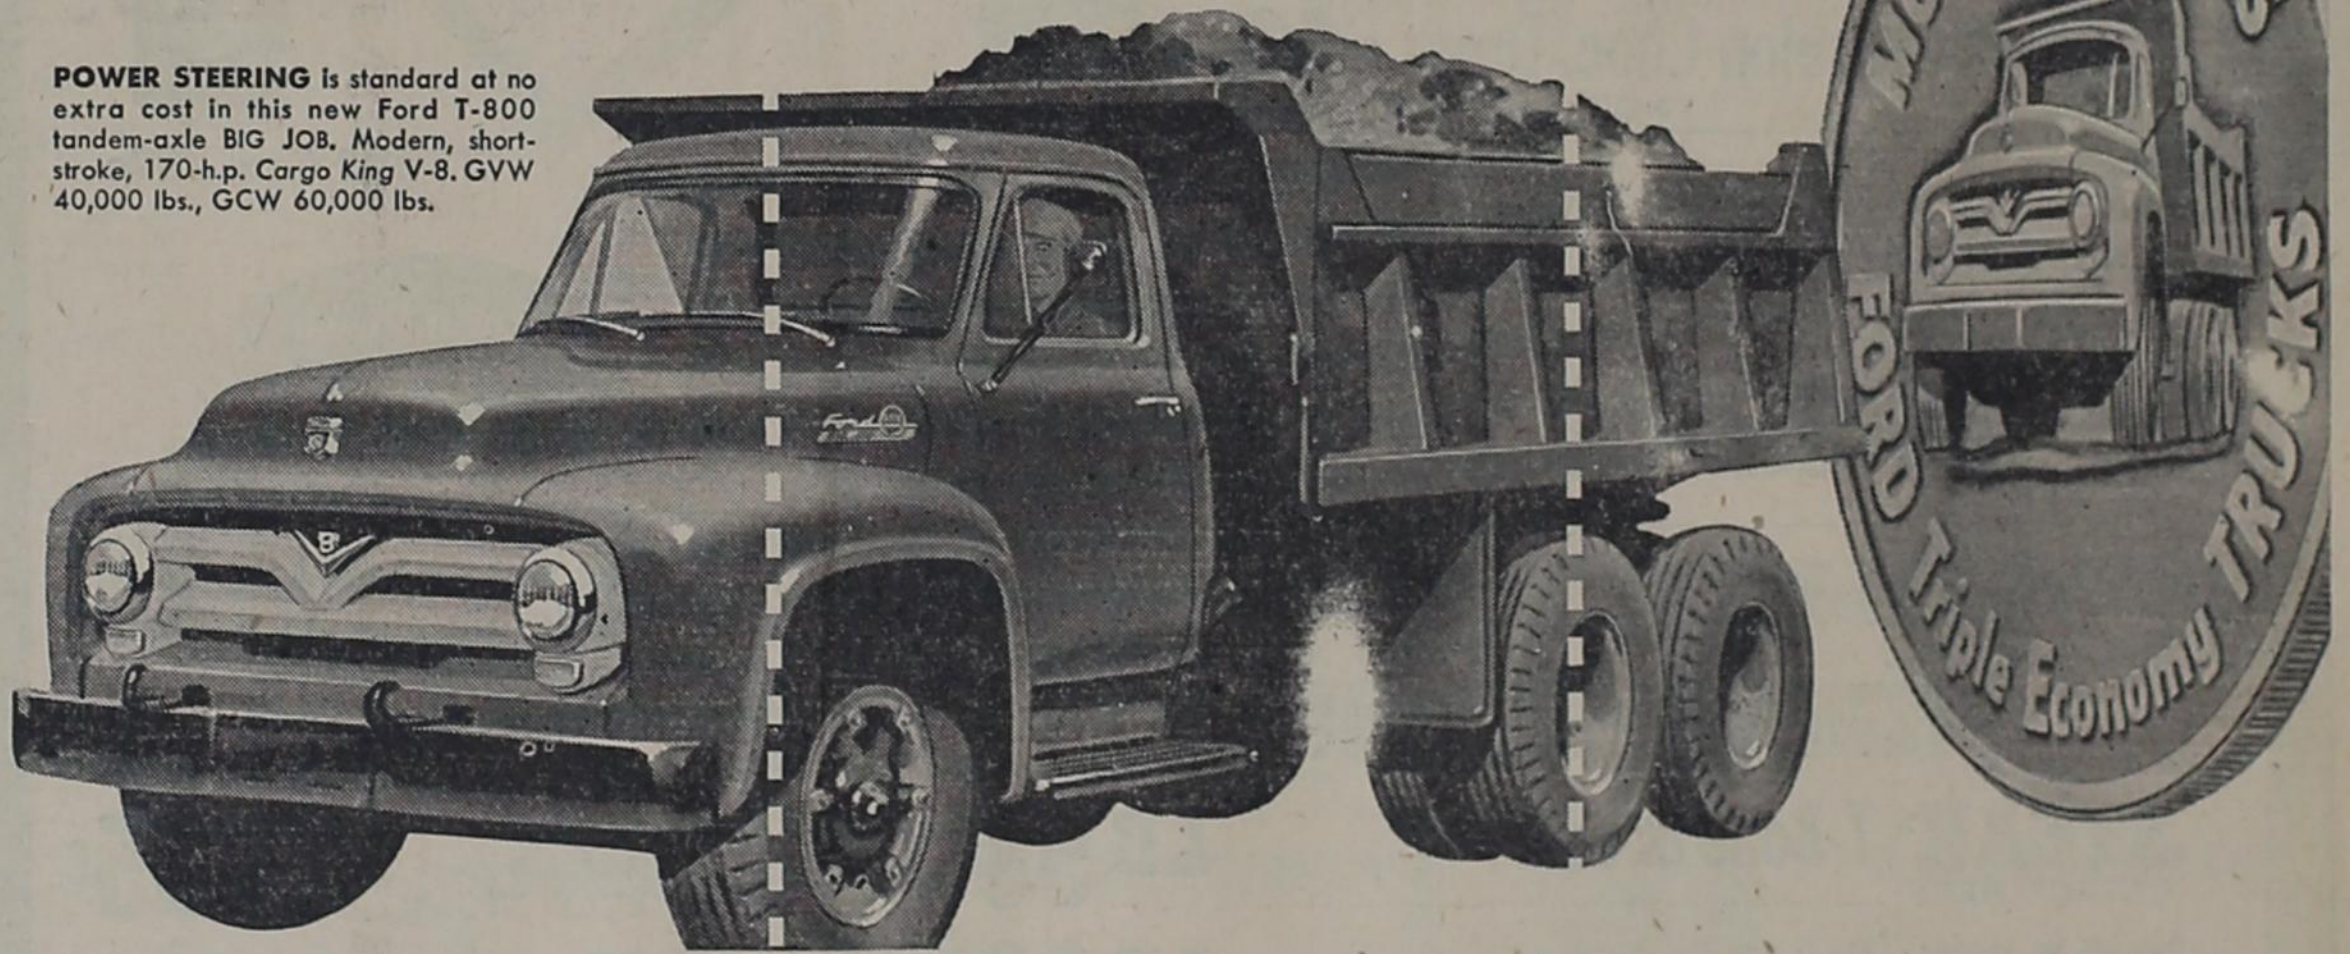

We remarked that we didn't think a group of men ever left any chicken—and he explained that "there were plenty of preachers there too."
We were flying around here Saturday trying desperately to get some stories written and set for this hectic, early, editor-less paper this week, when John Aldridge breezed in to give us some priceless advice.
"Wow, Jeanne, if you really work hard," he advised, "you can get about two weeks ahead of yourself and take a vacation."
Sounds wonderful, but the news doesn't happen that fast. It usually occurs about an hour before the papers are to be in the post office.

HAS NASAL SURGERY
Hal Ed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Helton, underwent a nasal operation at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo over the weekend. He was returned home Sunday night, and is doing fine.
IS RECUPERATING
Mrs. A. J. Glenn is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Blair, recuperating from a heart condition. She was returned home from the hospital Wednesday of last week.
FINED IN CO. COURT
Frank Galvin, farm worker, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of driving without a license in county court the past Saturday. He was fined $1 and costs by County Judge A. D. Smith.
HAVE GOOD SALE
Mrs. W. T. Magness reports good returns from the bake sale sponsored by Town and Country Home Demonstration Club Saturday, as a financial project. Women made $25.75 on the sale.
In Doshier Home
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harlow of Clovis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doshier, Sr., were dinner guests in the Doshier home Sunday.

thing except statistical information, proved to be interesting or amusing. One card with a Mule-shoe address listed "none" in the blank provided for the number or bales. "Rained out," was the cryptic comment which accompanied it.

A card postmarked Earth and signed O. O. Schade said "Good idea, a step in the right direction!"

One card from Muleshoe listed 775 bales produced, "none of which was gained in Parmer County." Now, that was the kind of information we were out after. The two largest returns were 885 and 820 bales, one postmarked Lazbuddie and the other one Farwell.

The "Okie Lane" issue is still with us, apparently. We received an anonymous communication from the Oklahoma Lane community this week, which only goes to show that some people think "Okies" are pretty nice folks, and don't mind being called one.

Would appreciate any further comment on this subject. It appears to have two sides, very definitely. Here's what the writer said:

TO THE HOPPER:

I have just been reading your article in your column about someone not liking to be called an Okie. I moved to this country two years ago from Oklahoma and think it is the best country that I have ever lived in. So, that would make me a full-blooded Okie. And should you take all the Okies out of West Texas, this sure would be an empty country.

I have no objection to being called an Okie as I feel at home when I am recognized as such.

I lived in the Oklahoma Lane community last year and the choice people of West Texas live there because they are Okies.

If the reader that called you thinks that is an insult, they should go to California sometime and then the names that they hear an Okie called out there will make the word Okie sound good.

So I will close this letter by saying that I am an Okie, most of my friends are Okies, and I will always be an Okie, but I like West Texas the best. If I didn't, I would move back to Oklahoma.

So, to the Okie that lives in Okie Lane, I am an Okie and you are an Okie. All our friends are Okies so what's bad about being an Okie? An Okie from Okie Lane

"Just fancy that," exclaimed the proud mother. "They've promoted our Herbert for hitting the Sergeant. They've made him a Court Martial."

ing News, one of the largest dailies in this part of the country, has consented to speak.

Charles Phillips and his musical group are to be featured for musical entertainment, and boys' quartet from Farwell Schools will also be on the program. Gast will serve as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Maude Brown and the cafeteria ladies will serve the chicken dinner, for $1.50 a plate. All the trimmings will be included in the meal. Wilma Liner is in charge of decorations for the evening.

Replies are to be mailed to the executive council by November 15. Joe Crume is vice-president and Irene Hardage is corresponding secretary of the ex-students.

A committee was to meet Tuesday evening to mail invitations and make further plans for the banquet. "You don't have to receive an invitation to come to the banquet" urges Gast. "Anyone who attended Oklahoma Lane, West Camp or Farwell schools are welcome." Since the list of exes is not complete, he adds that everyone will probably not be included in the invitation list.

DOGS—

They strayed for some distance onto adjoining farms, she said, and resulted in quite a chore for employees of the pens who had to pursue them and turn the cattle back into the pens.

Damage to the pens appeared to be considerable. Mrs. Castor explained that the crushing weight of the frightened cows bent over steel posts set in concrete and the cattle poured out.

No losses in animals were discovered the first of the week, although she believed that there "probably would be several crippled ones."

The management of the pens issued a warning to the general public that stray dogs found on the premises would be destroyed in the future.

NEW FORD—

announces Oliver Sikes, owner.

Ford's Fairlane series—six distinguished new passenger car models named after the late Henry Ford's home—set the style pace for the 1955 Ford cars which will be introduced November 12.

Styled like Ford's new Thunderbird, the six Fairlane models are easily recognized by a sweeping chrome trimline which starts at the top of each front fender at the headlamp and curves downward—then extends horizontally along the side to the tail lights.

Ford, for the first time, is offering a choice of three new engines in its 1955 cars:

A high-compression Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and an 8.5 to 1 compression ratio.

A powerful Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and a 7.6 to 1 compression ratio.

An improved 6 cylinder I-block engine of 223 cubic inch displacement and a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

Slight Injuries Result From Fall

Joe Conception Garcia, 30, a construction worker at the new Sheryl Grain Elevator in Farwell, suffered only minor injuries when he plunged some 35 feet from the head-house to the cement elevator roof, last Saturday afternoon.

Taken to Clovis Memorial by Steed ambulance, Garcia was reported by the attending physician to have suffered dislocation of the collarbone and fracture of one small bone in his right hand, although he was severely bruised and sustained lacerations about his body.

The accident apparently occurred when another worker accidentally hit the scaffold on which Garcia was working, knocking it from beneath the man. In his plunge downward, Garcia grabbed at protruding objects on the wall and apparently slowed his fall. Luckily, the 2x10 scaffold board hit the concrete below Garcia and he fell onto this, saving him from serious injury.

Happenings at Friona

MRS. OSCAR BAXTER, Correspondent

Another Try, Another Loss For Local Team

Friona's Chieftains, having one of their worst years in recent gridiron seasons, were roundly walloped last Friday night by the Happy Cowboys, who banged and pushed to a 53-0 score when the two teams squared off at Happy.

The Happy homecoming crowd of 1,500, strictly partisan, got its money's worth, as the Cowboys scored in every quarter of the game, via the air and on the ground. Halfback Joe Barrett scored on two end runs during the first quarter and Thurman Oler, fullback, converted through center. Moving into the second quarter, Gary Poage, QB, passed 27 yards to George Sheppard for a counter, then fired to Bob McDonald, end, for the extra. Billy Conway, half, toted some 14 yards to make another TD in the same period.

Poage went into paydirt in the third round, as did Wayne Cole on the conversion. With Friona in momentary possession of the ball, a pass play was attempted, and Ben Elliott intercepted on the Chief 35 and was off to glory. Billy Conway ran over the spare.

Things slowed down a bit in the finale, as Joe Barrett and Lesley Trimble, a freshman, put together touchdowns and conversions to round out the lop-sided count.

Crisp Nights Bring Cotton To Harvest

Crisp nights of the past ten days are pushing cotton in this area rapidly toward the stripping machines, in the opinion of both growers and ginners.

Right now, some cotton is being harvested, with hand-pickers at work in a number of fields. In the main, however, most growers are waiting for freezing weather which will defoliate the crop and allow the stripping-machine operators to move into the fields.

Wright Williams, at the North Plains Gin, said Monday that the yield, so far as his receipts have been concerned, continues to be both high in grade and quantity, with the average estimate for most fields being set at upwards of a bale an acre.

All gins in the area, both at Friona and elsewhere, have been receiving loads of the staple for the past several weeks, but none of them, up to Monday of this week, had been put in the position of "running behind."

No Special Program For Armistice Day

Surprisingly enough, this is one Armistice Day when Friona is not planning a special observance of the event, according to Joe Brummett, of the Friona Legion Post.

Contacted on Monday, Brummett stated that Legion members considered an appropriate program at the meeting held last week, but with the current harvest rush in full swing, were of the opinion that the affair would have to be "passed" this year.

The majority of local businesses are not planning to be closed on the 11th, and most indications the first of the week were that the day would pass quietly.

Misses Phyllis Hinds and Gladys Edna Baxter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anthony Sr. and Patsy.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Girl Scout Troop IV met at the Methodist annex Monday. Mrs. Russell O'Brian was leader and Frances McGlothlin, hostess. She served ice cream and cookies. The Scouts studied on personal health badges. Eleven Scouts and one leader attended.

Troop V, led by Mrs. Ralph Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Drake, met at the club house Monday. Hostess Jacquelyn Magness served cookies and lemonade to 13 Scouts and one guest, Martha Fowler. A business meeting was held, the girls learned to tie the square knots, and played games.

Brownie Troop IX met Monday at the Methodist basement. Leaders are Mrs. Olive Massey and Mrs. Mildred Guinn. Hostess was Patricia Hough. Pop and cookies were served to 11 Brownies. Judy Guinn and Patricia Hough called the roll. They are working on a Christmas play to be given in December.

Scout Troop VI met at the Baptist Church Monday with leaders Mrs. Rene Snead, Mrs. A. L. Black and Miss Ann McKee. Kitty Black, hostess, served cupcakes. The girls acted out plays and sang. Twelve attended. Next week the Scouts will meet with Brownie Troop VII and put on a play for them.

Mrs. Faye Reeve met with Troop VIII, Brownies, in the Congregational Church basement, Monday. Pop, candy and Brownie cookies were served by hostess Linda Gibson. The girls played games and sang songs, then hiked to Grandmother Thornton's home and sang "Happy Birthday" to her. They presented Grandmother Thornton, who is 104 years young, with a corsage and she treated the Brownies with candy.

Brownie Troop X had a meeting Monday at the Baptist educational building. Leaders are Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Ernest Osborn and Mrs. Bill Stewart. Jeanne Taylor and Helen Mahan were hostesses, serving cold drinks and cookies. After the Brownie promise and a business meeting they made brooms out of construction paper to be checked by the mothers to see if the girls help clean house. Dresses they had made, on which score for setting the table was marked, were returned for checking. The leaders taught the girls how to set the table properly, and led two games. A total of 21 Brownies attended.

Madrigal Singers To Appear Tuesday

A musical program will be given at the Friona Baptist Church next Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 8 p. m., presented by the Madrigal Singers of Texas Tech, Lubbock. Sponsors are members of the Friona Modern Study Club.

No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend. Joyce Ann Miller, Tech student, is one of the singers.

Grain Harvest Nears Final Wind-up Here

"Just about over" was the general consensus of opinion regarding the 1954 grain crop harvest, this week.

Despite the fact that combines are still working in a number of fields over the territory, things are slowing down to a snail's pace compared to recent weeks when trucks flooded elevators and clogged roads as they waited unloading.

Many custom combines were seen moving out of the area during the past weekend, and "this week should wind it up," believes Arthur Drake, at the Friona Wheat Growers.

Shipments to terminal points were continuing to be made from both local elevators, and indication were that with a few more cars going out daily, no grain would be dumped outside here.

City Officials Have Meeting Monday

Outhouses and open cesspools drew fire from the city's official body, Monday evening of last week, when a regular meeting of the group was held in the city office.

Officials, however, said today that no positive action was taken toward determining penalties for such health menaces, but warnings are to be issued by Dr. Paul A. Spring, health officer.

One local ordinance came in for some amending the past week, with officials tacking a change onto the electrical ordinance which will permit an owner to do his own electrical wiring, the minutes reveal.

Two petitions for street lights were received, for the corner of 7th and Columbia and the corner of 7th and Pierce, in the eastern residential area. Other petitions are being circulated at present, being primarily concerned with the north part of Main street.

Gross On Broom Sale Runs Close To $1,000

Gross receipts on the broom sale conducted the past Tuesday by members of the Friona Lions Club has been reported at $918.40, and a good portion of those proceeds will remain in the local club when expenses are deducted.

Primarily, the proceeds realized from the sale will be diverted into a "sight conservation fund" maintained by the Lions, which is used to provide glasses or treatment for youngsters not able to afford such services.

Steve Bavousett advises that books for the Negro minstrel, being planned by the Club, have arrived and practice is to begin soon.

Large Crowd Visits Club Rummage Sale

The Friona Modern Study Club held a very successful rummage sale Saturday at the Maurer Machinery Company.

A similar sale will be conducted next Saturday at the same place, and anyone wishing to contribute articles may call Mrs. Ralph Wilson or Mrs. Frank Spring.

All proceeds will go to the Parmer County Hospital building fund, sponsors said.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Day were shoppers in Clovis last Tuesday afternoon.

Comedy Slated By High School Class

"Finders Creepers", a three-act comedy, is slated to be presented in the Friona school auditorium on Friday night, Nov. 12, by the Thespians and speech class of the high school.

Admission will be 75c for adults, 50c for children and 25c for preschool youngsters. Curtain time is 8:00 p. m.

The Sophomores have done it again! Yep! Changed our minds about when we will go swimming. We'll make it sometime, probably when we are too old to swim and will have to sit on the edge of the pool and splash our feet in the water.

A nice thought taken from the "Arrow." "From the outside looking in, a school is just a building, but from the inside looking out, a school is a group of people with a loyal spirit, and a happy disposition, a group that works together and enjoys living."

The "Arrow" was published this week. There was sure a rush for it, but we had plenty, with 200 copies. The staff is really publishing good papers this year.

We heard from a former student, Jimmy Robason, who is lastusEE Jimmy Robason, who left us last year and moved to Siloam Springs, Ark. He was elected co-captain of their football team recently.

FHS seems to have the best faculty in this part, at least we haven't heard any complaints about our teachers.

The FHA boys went to see the new Chevrolet last week. They were served coffee and donuts. Some of them even got souvenirs.

FHA has had a full week. Last week was National FHA week. The following activities were done: Monday, tags with FHA written on them were worn; Tuesday, Christmas cards were brought for the medical institution; Wednesday, "Courtesy Day"; Thursday, cleanup day; Friday, school spirit; Saturday, hobo day; Sunday, all the FHA girls attended services at the Congregational Church.

A marching practice was held in the old school gym last Thursday. The group worked on formations for Friday night and had a very successful practice even though the gym was rather small for such a large group. They practiced on the football field Friday morning. The stunt was very clever. The band formed an "F", "H" and "Hi", and in that formation played "Hi, Neighbor!" They then doffed their hats and called out a friendly "Hi". The band reported a wonderful trip to Happy, Friday.

Band students who went to Canyon reported a lot of good music and a fine Navy band.

WHAT a tragic figure this man makes! But he never intended to make this picture. The first mile of this road did not look like this. But a great Teacher in the long ago warned him and us that we must choose the path on which we enter. There is one way that looks hard at the first but it "leads to life, and those who find it are few." So many are attracted to 'the other way' that is easy at first, but it leads to destruction, and those who enter it are many.

How necessary that we older folk shall guide wisely the young feet! Shall I "go to heaven" as the goal of my living? Look at my feet this very moment. Which way are they pointing? "Heaven is being on the way to heaven" and heavenly people are journeying there together now. Will my "last mile" be one of pathetic regrets and of sorrowful steps? Shall I leave grief and sorrow in the hearts of those who love me? Now is the time to answer that question. For "Despair is being on the way to despair." Which way did our feet move yesterday? What is the goal we have set before us this day? Your Church Can Help You.

THE last drink will not destroy us, if we had not taken the first. The 'last mile' of hatred and malice will not come to us if we do not allow unkindness and jealousy and envy to creep along with us through the first miles. The end of the way will not be vulgar and vicious unless we have forsaken the path of decency and of integrity further back. Every one of us is choosing this day the road we shall take. "But as for me and my house, we will serve 'he Lord" and do His will. May this be our resolve today.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Texico Seniors To Present Plays

Two one-act plays will be presented by the Texico High School seniors on November 12, at 8 o'clock p. m.

"Quiet Home Wedding" is a one-act drama for four men and seven women. When Connie Dodd (Shirley Stover) and her flighty, antique-loving mother (Georgina Weisler) decided on a quiet home wedding, many people and circumstances proceed to make the affair pretty close to an afternoon nightmare.

Chief offenders are Jody (Naomi Hapke) a spoiled younger sister, who gets into the cake with her arch enemy, Billy (Johnny Peterson); Gertie (Bobbie Richardson) the bridesmaid, whose hysterical giggles disrupt the more serious moments; Junior (Kenneth Reid) who gets thrown in jail for breaking speed laws, just when he should be rounding up the nervous and absent bridegroom, Horace (Allen Lockhart).

Even the helpful and gossiping neighbors, Mrs. Tweedy (Patricia Morgan) and Mrs. Gadwood (Nadine Thornton) prove none too helpful. But at last Horace appears, much the worse for wear, and had to be rushed into papa's (Rex Harris) spare trousers. And then— but come see the play. You will really be pleased with the outcome, say the seniors.

Also come and see what happens when two city slickers, Joan (Patricia Morgan) and Jack (Rex Harris) try to act as country hicks and two country hicks, Jill (Bobbie Richardson) and Darby (Marvin Pendergrass) try to be city people when they all meet on a farm for a vacation in "It Can't Be Done." It is really a hilarious situation.

A second set of senior plays is scheduled for Nov. 20. Included will be "Home To Mother," "Tobacco Road—With Detours" and "Nothing In Its Place."

Teachers Return From Convention

Texico students and teachers returned to classes Monday last week after being dismissed since last Tuesday afternoon, while instructors attended the annual convention of New Mexico Education Association in Albuquerque.

Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Agrie Jones, Mrs. LeRoy Faville, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stockton, Mrs. Frank Seale, Mrs. Avis Patterson, Mrs. N. W. Patterson, Mrs. N. W. Peyton, Mrs. B. A. Rogers, Mrs. Gretchen Wiesler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Danforth, John Adams, Curtis Miller, George Hill and Mrs. Jimmie Allman.

The theme of the convention was "Youth—The Future of American Ideals." Professional opportunities, fellowship and social life were provided for the attendants. Other than general assemblies, sectional meetings were also scheduled to give teachers assistance in specific subjects.

The Albuquerque High School band and the Las Vegas Town School band were featured attractions at the assemblies. Greetings were given by Gov. Edwin L. Mechem of New Mexico. Among speakers were Tom Popejoy, president of the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque; and Dr. Alexander Stoddard of Los Angeles, Calif., who discussed "Preparing American Youth for Life in their Day"; also Miss Waurine Walker, president of National Education Association of Austin.

The Artesia High School choir and the New Mexico Highlands University choir were other entertainment features.

Teachers were invited to hear the Albuquerque Civic Symphony and the U. S. Navy band, and to attend the Albuquerque-Las Cruces high school football game also.

Texico Men To Be Hosts 18th

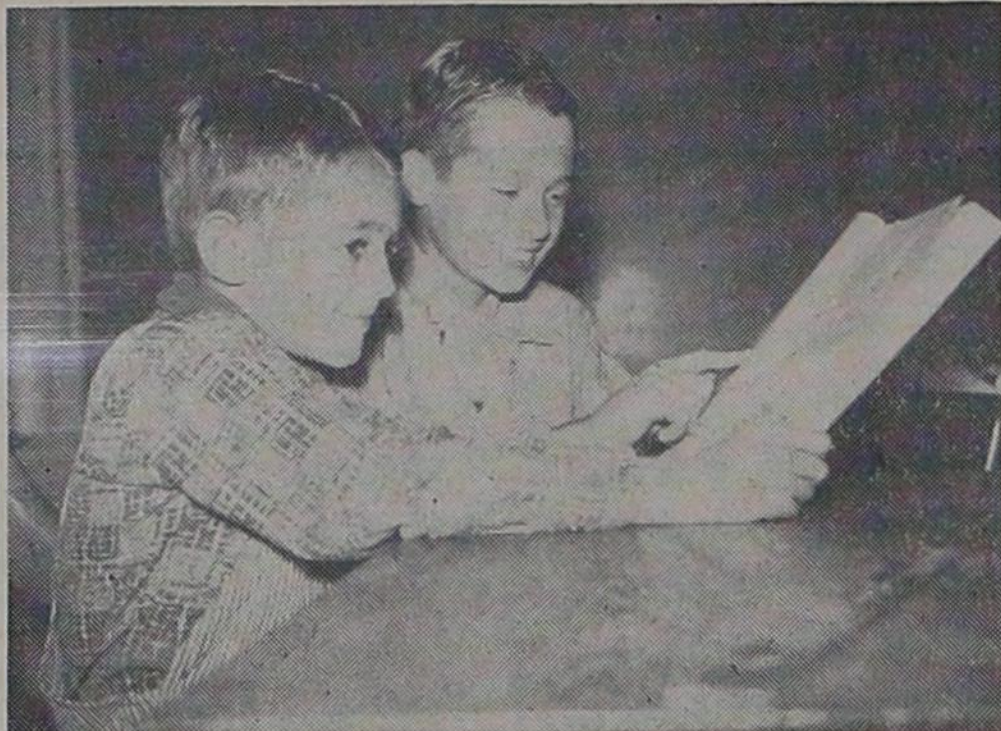

Texico Schoolmasters will be hosts to the county organization Thursday, November 18, in the Texico cafeteria, for a monthly session, says Agrie Jones, Texico superintendent.

Administrators and coaches from District 6 will be on hand to discuss plans for officiating for the coming basketball season, Jones states.

VACATION ENJOYED

The seventh graders were very glad to get a vacation from school although it was due to teachers' meeting. Wesley Engram and Travis Taylor have been sick recently.

"AND ENGLAND IS RIGHT HERE"

Leslie Dyer, right, who was born in England, shows his younger brother, Jackie, his birthplace. The boys are looking at a geography book at Texico grade school where both are students.

Leslie Dyer, Born In England, Enjoys Life In Texico

By Patricia Morgan

To Leslie Dyer, sixth grade student, England is more than just a place on the globe which he must study in geography. Unlike his classmates, Leslie has first-hand information about England, as that was the place of his birth and his home for three years.

Leslie was born in Evesham, England, on May 27, 1943 and came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dyer, to the United States in March of 1946.

As a lad of three years, Leslie can remember only one thing of his life in England, a bridge. Other than that, he remembers nothing of his former home.

Jackie, younger of the Dyer brothers, was born May 30, 1946, in Clovis, N. M. He is now a fourth grade student in the Texico school. Both boys are regular New Mexicans now, and seem to enjoy their life in Texico. Mrs. Dyer, who was an English war bride, became a naturalized citizen about three years ago.

Recently the boys and their mother took a trip back to England for a visit with relatives. Point of destination was Hampton, England, about 95 miles from London.

Upon leaving Texico, mother and sons traveled to New York City, where they boarded the Queen Mary for the week-long voyage to England. In New York, they went to the top of the Empire State building, viewed the Statue of Liberty, and various other things. Aboard ship, Leslie and Jackie enjoyed walking on deck and found the huge smoke funnels interesting.

When asked what impressed him most on the trip, Leslie replied, "Well, I liked it in London most of all." Sights viewed in London included Buckingham Palace, which Leslie described as being "old-fashioned looking." Here they also were privileged to see the palace guards. Windsor Castle and the Houses of Parliament, along with the well-known clock, "Big Ben" were other famous places seen by the group.

Transportation in England is slow, with only steam engines for the trains. Cars and other vehicles are smaller than those found in the U. S., according to the Dyers. They did have a chance to ride a double-decker bus, an enjoyable experience. They crossed over Waterloo Bridge, traveled to Bristol, and saw the Avon River.

Questioned about the differences between England and the U. S., Leslie answered that the language sounds quite different, the weather is damper, and travel much slower. In general, he prefers his "adopted" country to the country of his birth, although he found England quite interesting.

Texico School Negro Minstrel Plans Completed

"Blackface, long-tails, funny jokes"! Yes, fun galore is in store for you when the Texico Negro Minstrel comes to town!

Plans are being completed for the minstrel, which is to be staged November 16 in the Texico auditorium. Proceeds are to be used to finish paying for the choir robes which were purchased last year.

End men for the event will be Marvin Pendergrass, Jimmy Don Moss, Jerry Johnson, and Darrell Harris. Allen Kelley is to be Mr. Interlocuter. Several specialties are planned, including songs, band numbers, monologue, and tap dancing, as well as numbers by the entire chorus. Jokes given by the end men will provide "spice" for the evening.

Much work has gone into the presentation of the show, which is under the direction of Fred Danforth, and a good time is in store for everyone.

THANKSGIVING NOTED FOR SIXTH GRADE

Sixth grade students are putting up Thanksgiving pictures. They have a large turkey in the front of their room. Mrs. B. A. Rogers had the pattern, and her daughter, Jean Rogers, colored it.

Texico band saw the Navy Band Concert in Clovis Friday evening.

Texico School Enters Homemaker Contest

Seven lucky senior girls from Texico High are eligible to participate in an exciting new educational project, "The Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow."

Mrs. Jimmie Allman, home economics teacher, has entered the school in the contest and says, "I believe our girls have a good chance of being selected as State Homemaker of Tomorrow."

January 12, 1955, an examination will be given to the Texico girls. The one scoring the highest will be given a Betty Crocker American Homemaker of Tomorrow golden award pin. She will receive a Betty Crocker Picture Cook Book for herself and one for the home economics department.

In addition, her test will be entered with other school winners in New Mexico for the title of "State Homemaker."

The state winner will receive a golden jeweled state award pin and a complete set of the latest edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica will be given to her school library. In addition to all of this, she will receive an expense-paid five day trip for herself and instructor. A $1,500 college scholarship will be given to the state winner.

A $3,500 college scholarship is one of the awards promised to the girl among the 48 State Homemakers of Tomorrow who is named as All-American Homemaker. Besides the scholarship, she will be given the Betty Crocker diamond-studded gold homemaker's pin—plus the opportunity to make an expense-paid tour of the nation.

Those eligible to participate in the contest are: Patricia Morgan, Shirley Stover, Bobbie Richardson, Nadine Thornton, Naomi Hapke, Wanda Smith and Georgina Weisler.

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

The week of Nov. 8 through 12 is designated as National Education Week. We invite parents to visit our school at any time, but make an especial effort during this week to get them into our schools.

May I compliment the 7th and 8th grades of Texico school, and their sponsors, for the program they designed to bring parents into these two rooms.

May I extend a special invitation to parents to visit this week, and also extend the invitation to visit classes at any time during the school term.

PATter

By Pat

After the "long weekend" students enjoyed while teachers attended State Teacher's Meeting, it seems that everyone is about to get in the "groove" again. We're sure that everybody, both administrators and pupils, really enjoyed that short vacation.

There was really a tired bunch of seniors who returned from Clovis the other day. After a hectic eight hours of selling ads, having a picnic and all, we think the entire group was certainly glad to see Texico again.

You know, the other day we read a proverb which impressed us quite a lot. Just thought I would pass it on to you. "The best place to find a helping hand is at the end of your own arm." How true this is, because we think every student should learn to be self-reliant in all things. Don't become too dependent upon those around you. Just remember that someday you won't have anyone to lean on, so now's the time to prepare to help yourself.

Annual staff members breathed a sigh of relief last week as the first copy of our 1955 Wolverine was mailed to the publishers. Guess that feeling of relief won't last long, though, as work must begin right away on the next copy to be sent in. Deadlines must be met!

In closing, we'd like to call your attention to a poem we found: It's the little things we do and say

That mean so much as we go our way.
 A kindly deed can lift a load
 From weary shoulders on the road,
 Or a gentle word, like summer rain,
 May soothe some heart and banish pain.
 What joy or sadness often springs
 From just the simple little things."

How about trying to put this into action right here in Texico High? Just little things done for others sometimes mean so much. By being courteous, friendly, and helpful, you might make someone's day just a little brighter, both teachers and students. Try it—you might be surprised at the results; Pat

THIRD GRADE PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING

Third grade has been very busy decorating their room for Thanksgiving. They have several scenes which consist of harvest, Pilgrim, boys and girls, and a large bulletin board arranged with pictures which are typical of Thanksgiving.

Dorothy Hapke and Hap Danforth each brought log cabins to build at school.

Mrs. Faville brought a bouquet of chrysanthemums and Mr. Ritchie made the class a beautiful flower box. They help make the room more attractive.

Wanda Gayle Morgan made a trip to Texas last week. She gave an interesting report of her trip and brought back a branch of a pecan tree with several pecans on it.

H. W. Moore was absent last Wednesday because of illness.

IT'S YOUR STUDENT COUNCIL
 By Bobbie Richardson

"One of the most commonly-cited objectives of the student council is to train students in the fundamentals of good citizenship." This was a statement made recently in an article by Gerald M. Van Pool, Director of School Activities National Association of Secondary-School Principals.

We have some very important factors which go into a good student council. First, we have the co-operation of the teachers; they have shown this in their willingness to help the student council when they can.

Secondly, the students have shown that they are behind us by the number who voted in the election of student council president. Out of the entire high school, there was only one person who failed to vote.

Third, is the fact that there are no restrictions upon who can be members of student council. Any student is eligible to be selected as a representative of his class by his fellow classmates. This makes it your student council as well as anyone else's.

So, keep up the good work and don't let your student council down. If you have a suggestion to make which you feel would make Texico High a better place to go to school, and that suggestion is something for which the student council is responsible, get it to your representative or put it in the suggestion box. This is one way in which you can help your student council to build good citizens of tomorrow.

Coronation Rites Highlight Action At Carnival

Betty Curtis was crowned queen and Harvey Lesley crowned king in the coronation rites which climaxed the annual Farwell school Halloween carnival, held at the auditorium recently.

With votes going at a penny each for the various candidates representing the high school classes, the junior representatives were in by a landslide as the tally ran to 61,132 for their color bearers. The senior candidates, Barbara Metcalf and Jerry Poteet, were in second place with a count of 2026; sophomore Marion Smith and Jerry Primrose received some 215 votes; and the freshmen, Naomi Hubbell and Mitchell Walls, counted up 102.

The coronation was held on the stage with a background of deep blue sprinkled with silver stars. The "thrones" were silver chairs. Princes and princesses included Zella Marie Martin, Tommy Lovelace, Lucille Carpenter, Donnie Carpenter, Linda Kube, Jerry Don Utsman, Mona McDorman and H. R. Billingsley.

Serving as page boys and flower girls in the colorful performance were Debbie Hargrove, Connie Phillips, Sharon Williams, Edith Ann Walling, Donna Gail Spurlin, Carolyn Brock, Mark Hopkins, Tim Crume and Johnny Schell.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

We don't know how many yet, but several men, with some of their wives and children, are on their way to Galveston for the 21st Annual Texas Farm Bureau Convention. We well remember the 1949 convention in Dallas. Everyone attending stayed in the convention hotel. Since then, it has become increasingly more difficult to obtain rooms even in nearby hotels. Such are the consequences of the growth of an organization that attracts the interest of its constituents.

It is interesting to note that Parmer County has consistently reached its quota of memberships each year since they have been assigned. We are somewhat past that now, but expect a further increase this spring.

While we are gone, our office secretary, Letha Turner will, we are sure, render any service you may have need of, in the office. Don't hesitate to call on her, because we think she can take care of just about any situation that may be presented to her.

Confidence in the potentialities of this farming area are not waning. This is positively evidenced by the number of irrigation well permits being issued each month. This type of activity is also evidence of faith in the country called America. It's a country to be proud of and thankful for. We should be diligent in our duties of keeping it that way.

"What they're saying about farmers is mostly not true," regarding an article that recently appeared in Life magazine, is a reprint from Progressive Farmer appearing in your Texas Agriculture. Read it and know why farm legislation is difficult to obtain without a lot of screwy attachments on it.

Gas tax exemptions are being neglected by some farmers during the busy harvest season. May we again remind you wives that you can take care of this for your hus-
