

By Hop Jr.

At the open house of Gifford-Hill Western the other day, we ran into H. M. Knapp of Clovis. Knapp, a technician with the SCS, has been a hard worker in the Curry County Game Protective Association.

The news that Knapp passed on to us is exciting. He reports that the project for a dam on Running Water Draw not only has been revived, but that the Curry County workers have been assured by state officials that their dam is definitely the next in line to be built in the state.

The structure will be erected primarily with state funds, however, there will be some federal participation through channels into which our money goes when we pay license fees to hunt migratory water fowl.

Right now the project occupying the state's attention is the rather controversial development up near Clayton. But, within a year, believes Knapp, work will get underway on this local venture.

Plans are to construct an earth-fill-type dam across the draw at a point about seven miles west from the state line road which runs north of Texico-Farwell.

If the project proves successful, this would indeed be a great step forward for the recreational needs of this area.

We had lost track of the date, but we find out that now is the time that Lubbock and several other South Plains cities have voted on whether they want to develop a water supply from the Canadian River north of Borger.

This writer definitely fears the thirsty tentacles of the South Plains' biggest city, which are reaching almost to our doorstep for water.

The city, we know, has no choice but to develop whatever water reservoirs it can put its hands on, but we sure hope that the people are farsighted enough to see the necessity of development of a river before they deplete our upper ground storage.

The Muleshoe Journal last week reported that Lubbock has obtained water rights under 53,000 acres of land in the sandhills of Bailey County.

The city planning board proposes that Lubbock build a 45-inch pipeline to these fields, which would yield 40,000,000 gallons daily for the city's use.

Does that scare you?

Jack Williams says he now has figured out what's the matter with the schools. His theory: The principals are afraid of the superintendents. The superintendents are afraid of the school board. The school board is afraid of the patrons. The patrons are afraid of their children.

And the kids aren't afraid of anything.

Francis Perry of Slaton was right, we have concluded, when he told us three weeks ago that it is senseless for small towns to try to fight the big towns that loom next door to them.

Now, his approach to this is something different, we'll have to admit, but on reflection, we believe it has more merit than anything we've heard of in a long time.

If you're from a small community which is within but a few miles of a city, you're familiar with the old familiar strain wherein everything that fails is blamed on "unfavorable interests" in the big city next door.

"Stop fighting your neighbors," admonishes Perry, who runs the Slaton Slatonite. "Just let the big town next to you know that you need something, and they'll go to any means to help you get it."

He practices what he preaches, too, and thereby lends concrete proof to his theory.

He continually calls on Lubbock's leaders for this or that for his own town (only a few miles away), and gets done what needs to be done with the help of those influential men.

Ronny is coming into the hero worship stage. Each night he persists until we read him a "tory," and there is no doubt that he hears every word recited.

He also likes the comics, and appreciates the colored ones which are aimed toward the younger set. His current hero is none other than Bugs Bunny. This, says his mother as she shakes her head in wonder, is no doubt because the colorful rabbit is sort of a juvenile delinquent.

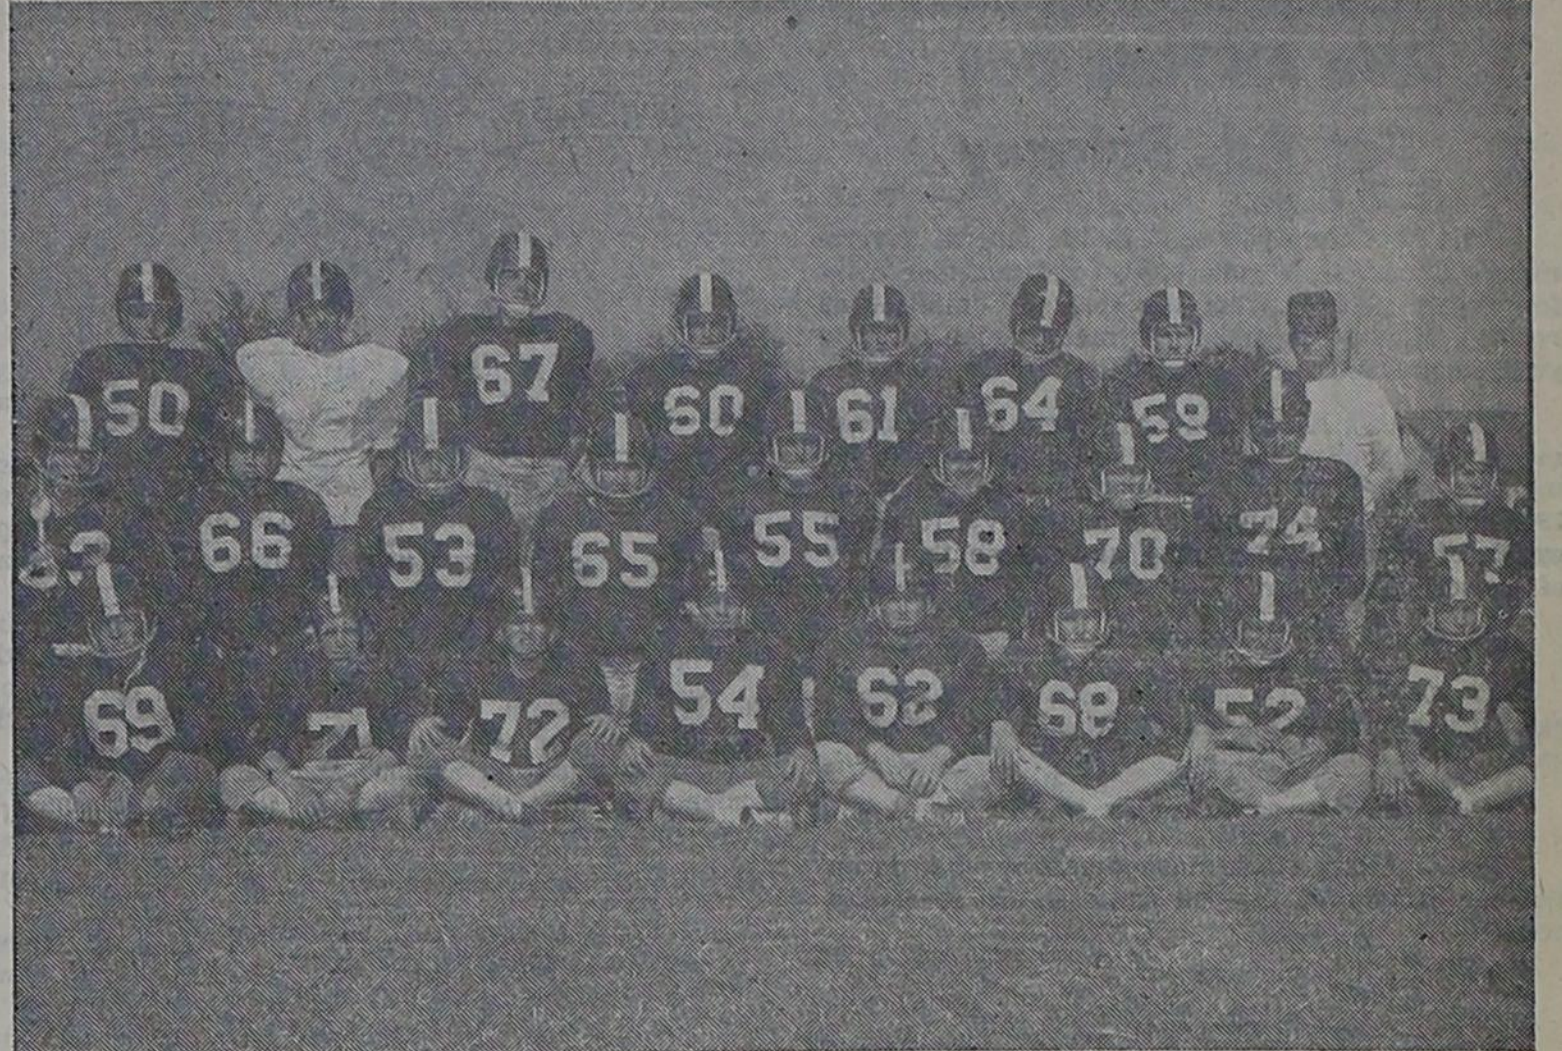

What does the sudden flurry of snow mean for this winter's weather?

Say, we're way overdue for a long-range forecast so we'll know what to expect from now until spring. Willie—Ches, drop us a card and get us out of the dark!

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Phillips spent Sunday in the V. L. Martin home.

Steers Vs. Mustangs in "Game of the Year"

Steers from Farwell will butt heads with Mustangs from Bovina Friday afternoon, in a game that may well prove to be the oyster's pearl so far as Parmer County football is concerned for 1955.

For both teams, little more is at stake than the satisfaction of having triumphed over the other, for neither eleven has any hope of winning the district crown.

Both groups have had rather inglorious seasons, although neither has been without their better moments, either. A win Friday afternoon would do much to make fans from either home town remember the season with satisfaction.

The rivalry between the two schools has always been spirited, and this year will prove to be no exception. The nearness of the schools, plus their comparable enrollments, have combined to put the Mustangs and the Steers on about equal terms as seasons come and go.

Bovina squelched Farwell's hopes of an upset last season when they pounded out a 27-14 victory to end their season undefeated. It also was a Veteran's Day battle.

The odds-makers aren't sticking their necks out very much on this one, and it's been hard for the Tribune sports staff to find very many who think either team will win by a sizeable margin. It usually depends on what part of the county the report comes from.

The game will begin at 2:30, and is to be played on the Bovina field.

Parmer County Hospital Reviews Its Busiest Year

By June Floyd

Stockholders of the Parmer County Community Hospital, Friona, Tuesday night heard a report that indicated how busy that institution has been during the past year.

During the year just ended, there were 834 hospital patients admitted, there were 149 babies born, and there were about 15,000 clinic patients. During the year, the hospital showed a net profit of $21,826.64.

Most important, a drive was launched for the erection of a new hospital building, and that dream is now becoming a reality, with construction under way at this time.

The meeting was opened by G. B. Buske, president of the board of directors. The opening prayer was led by M. B. McKinney, minister of the Sixth Street Church of Christ.

After the welcome address by G. B. Buske, an audit report was given by Bill Curtis of Amarillo. He gave a detailed report of the financial affairs of the hospital for the year. Jimmy Baxter gave a general report of the operations for the year.

Dr. Loyd Shackelford, dentist, has been added to the hospital staff.

The new building is estimated to cost approximately $170,000. The building fund now stands at $46,437.96; the board of directors expects to secure a loan for $100,000 and a fund raising campaign will

Graham Buys Out Thompson Insurance

The B. N. Graham Insurance Agency of Farwell this week purchased the insurance business of Lee Thompson, also of Farwell.

Graham announced that the two firms would be merged, but the name would remain his. The transaction is effective immediately.

Thompson has accepted a position with Parmer County Implement Co. in Friona, and will move to that community when housing is available. He says that he is keeping his real estate license.

INTERCEPTION

Crashing into a tackler here is Rolland Hillock of Farwell, who had just intercepted a Hart pass in the game Friday night. Behind him is Johnny Gulley.

Steers on Stampede, Trample Hart 53-0

Farwell Steers romped past the Hart Longhorns 53-0 in a wild ball game which saw almost all of the Farwell second stringers in action on Friday night at Steer Stadium. Capitalizing on fumbles and pass interceptions, the Steers chalked up a 34-0 halftime lead although they made only three first downs. Two Steer touchdowns were nullified by penalties.

Farwell kicked to the Longhorns and stopped the Hart fullback after a short runback to open the game. Quarterback Hindman threw an incomplete pass on the first play from scrimmage and on second down, the Steers recovered a Hart fumble.

Eddie Smith carried for 19 yards on a keeper and on the first of another series of downs, the Longhorns grabbed a Farwell fumble near the 25 yard line. Next play saw the Steers take a Longhorn fumble on the 20.

Smith again kept and made four through the line. Jimmy Schell then went the needed 16 yards to pay dirt and the first Steer touch-

Cotton Harvest Rolls, Ginnings Top 11,000

Ginnings of Parmer County's 1955 cotton crop topped 11,000 bales this week, as strippers began to roll on the area's highly mechanized farms. Up until last week, virtually all cotton ginned so far had been hand pulled.

The crop as a whole is regarded as substantially less than was harvested last year, according to a consensus of opinions from ginners. This is due not only to reduced acreage under allotments,

Bass Elliott Sale To Be Next Monday

The farm auction sale of Bass Elliott of Bovina will be next Monday, November 14, announce Dick Doshier and Orval Francis, who are billing the sale.

Farm machinery—a big list of it—will head the auction, which is scheduled to get under way at 10 a. m. The Bovina Woman's Study Club will serve lunch. The location of the sale is three miles north of Bovina on the paved road.

Four tractors and other large equipment are going on the auction block.

Texico Talent Show Set Monday Night

That the library fund may be boosted is the purpose of the talent show set for Monday night, November 14, at 8 p. m. (CST) at the Texico School auditorium. To emcee the show will be Dee Bowman, Radio Station KLLL, Lubbock.

Presenting special music at the half time will be the three Bowman brothers, who are popular radio and stage performers. This radio has performed in Clovis and here previously.

Admission is 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for students, and 15 cents for students in the first through the sixth grades.

Cash prizes are to be presented to first, second, and third place winners in the two categories—grade school and high school. Anyone interested in entering may do so by phoning the Texico School 8-2661 or contacting Mrs. Fred Danforth. This program is being sponsored by the junior high school.

A program of this type was sponsored by the school last spring and proved to be one of the better but a poorer crop as well.

Last year (and 1953 also), were regarded as ideal for cotton growing conditions, but this year has been altogether different. To start with, a cool, damp spring forced late planting.

Then, when really hot summer weather was expected a couple of months ago, the mild days, although pleasant for people, didn't develop the cotton as was needed.

These conditions held the cotton back until the "critical" days of early fall when an early freeze could hurt—bad. Most farmers admit that late waterings, in some cases up into September, cost them heavily this year, because the freeze that came the third week in October caught many bolls that had not developed.

Insects did not prove to be especially bad this year. In a nutshell, the story was: just not enough time.

Parmer County this year has 44,000 acres of cotton. In 1954, the allotment was 56,000 acres, although some was lost to hail and not all of this harvested. Very little cotton that was planted will not be harvested this year.

As the only large-scale crop still bringing a relatively high margin of profit, the cotton crop has been "babied" more than any other. The cotton growers gave the crop everything they had—it was the elements that didn't cooperate.

Here's the usual round-up of gin reports as gathered the first of the week by The Tribune.

Stagner Gives Up Building Project

After a delay of several months when construction was at a standstill, the residential building project of Stagner & Sons, Clovis contractors, has fallen through.

Stagner announced earlier this year that he would construct an addition on the south side of Farwell, initial plans calling for 30 units, to be both Spanish and ranch style.

Paving was installed, and curbing run, but no houses were built. A number of units had been signed for even before construction got under way.

Jack Stagner of the Clovis firm this past week noted that it had definitely not been his intention to abandon the project, but last minute developments over which he had no control forced him to do so.

"Politics," and "red tape" were mentioned.

It is understood that negotiations are being made to sell the development in its present state to an Amarillo contractor for completion.

650 Persons Attend Spurlin Open House

Six hundred and fifty persons attended the grand opening of Spurlin TV and Appliance in Farwell on Saturday, November 5.

Free coffee and doughnuts were served throughout the day. Jim Perkins was winner of the 21" Emerson TV set given away by the firm.

Jack Spurlin, owner and manager of the concern, expressed his appreciation to all the people who visited the business and for the flowers sent for the grand opening.

We All Help Pay For This Baloney

The next time you send in the federal government's tax bit from your pay check, consider these few items, gleaned from the Hoover Commission's reports. Maybe it'll make you mad enough to write your congressman, but we doubt it:

Although a Navy manual estimates that canned meat and poultry have a "keeping life" of 24 months, a study of 14 Naval supply depots showed: 79-month supply of canned beef and gravy, 75-month supply of canned ham chunks, and 719-month supply of canned hamburger.

To go with every pound of its 60-year supply of canned hamburger, the Navy had on hand nearly a gallon of ketchup.

Poor military stock management resulted in an 3 1/2-year supply of dry-cell batteries—a short life item.

America was developed and has grown strong on the principle of free enterprise. Yet our Federal Government owns and operates 342 laundries; 62 meat-cutting plants; 102 bakeries; 280 cafeterias and canteens; 346 post exchanges; 3 clothing manufacturing plants; 2 shoe manufacturing plants, and 4 coffee roasting plants.

Nearly one-fourth of the more than two million federal civilian employees leave the government service each year, running the taxpayers about $500 per person in replacement costs. The Hoover Commission has recommended better personnel practices, which, if they reduced turnover just from 25 to 20 per cent, could mean an annual tax saving of almost $50 million.

Inequities resulting from Federal Government invasion of the field of electric power is illustrated in the case of the states of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, which have 20 per cent of the total population and pay 29 per cent of the net cost without receiving any federal power.

A total of 4,700 different reports, forms, and questionnaires are imposed upon individuals and corporations by the government. An efficient and simplified paperwork system could save executive agencies and industries hundred of millions of dollars a year.

One of the most expensive items to handle—since each case must be turned in every 30 days—is evaporated milk. Yet the Naval Supply Center at Norfolk, Va., had 3 million pounds on hand and a similar quantity on order.

Gaps in central accounting and reporting make it impossible for the citizens to know what the government owns, what it owes, the extent of its contingent liabilities, and the cost of its operations.

Achievement Day Observed By Clubs

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

"Scotch Lite" Farm Bureau Stickers are now red and white. You're welcome to pick them up at the office for safety in night driving. They reflect.

Someone sent us a box of several hundred good quality pocket combs. We want to be as good as they were, so if you need a comb, or several for the family, just walk in the office and pick up some. They're free, in black or colors. Gilbert Kaltwasser, E. T. Ford, Sterling Donaldson, Roy Grace, Ralph Smith, Jack Patterson, officers and directors, and A. J. Ellison and Raymond Euler, agents, were in "Cow Town" (Ft. Worth) the first part of this week attending the Texas Farm Bureau Convention. There are probably others who went, but at this writing, we don't know who they are. Anyway, if you want to know how Farm Bureau policies are developed, ask one of these men who are your fellow farmers. They can tell you.

We feel this way about this subject: If your banker tries to tell you which church to attend, or which civic or farm organization to support before he starts, or continues to finance your farming operation, maybe you need a new banker. Collateral, character and interest should be enough basis for the loan you need.

E. T. Ford was elected vice-president of Farm Bureau at the last directors meeting. Directors thought he did a good job as commodity chairman last year, so they promoted him. He replaces T. E. Lovett, who has served well in that capacity the last two years. Roy V. Miller was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Chairmen of legislative, weed, commodities, and other committees will be named within a month, along with their committee members.

We are proud of the four new county directors who promptly announced their intentions of attending the state convention. Sterling Donaldson, Farwell, Jack Patterson, Rhea, Harry Hamilton, Friona (Lakeview area) and Roy Grace, Friona, (Black area) are the new men serving. If you will tell your farm problems to these and other directors, you can be sure they will be given prompt consideration by the board. To be even more sure, you are invited to attend the meetings with them anytime you wish.

Consider this: Every word of God is pure; he is a shield to them that put their trust in him. Proverbs 30:5.

Visiting Teacher Begins Duties At Farwell Past Week

Dalphin Hartsell, visiting teacher for Farwell, Bovina and Lazbuddie Schools began his duties at Farwell last week.

Hartsell will spend each Wednesday at Farwell visiting the home of the students and assisting students who are having difficulty with English.

His duties at the schools mentioned vary as to the type of assistance needed in the respective school. He will visit two days weekly at Bovina, one at Farwell and one at Lazbuddie.

Hartsell is a graduate of East Central State College in Ada, Okla., where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree.

A high school English teacher at Comanche, Okla., last year, Hartsell was an English major at ECSC. He served for two years in the U. S. Armed Forces and saw overseas duty in Korea.

At East Central he was a member of a male quartet and the men's glee club. He was also named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities while attending ECSC.

This is the first year that a program of this type has been presented in Farwell Schools.

Lazbuddie 4-H Club Elects Adult Leaders

The Lazbuddie senior 4-H Club met on Tuesday, October 25, at the Lazbuddie School. Minutes of the last meeting were read by David Tarter, secretary.

C. W. Bradshaw and D. B. Ivy were elected as adult leaders.

Members discussed their projects and where they might get other projects. They also talked about what types of feed they should be feeding swine and calves. Exhibition of their project at the fat stock show was also discussed by the club members.

A committee was appointed for safety day and 4-H Club Achievement Day. Committee members include Joe Don Beavers, Shorty Ivy, Odis Bradshaw, Bill Stigaulde and Derrell Jennings.

Metal reflectors will be put on cotton trailers and safety tape will be put on pickups and cars in connection with the safety day program.

Money from the project will go into the county 4-H Club fund.

Texico 42 Teams Win Monday Night

Both teams of the Texico 42 League, the Schleuter and Allred teams, have a two win and one loss record standing at the present time. No future games will be played until November 28, when the Schleuter team will play the Ranchvale Willis team. The Allred team will play the Railroad team of Clovis on the same night. The Schleuter team won over

Our lots and pavement will be sold to another building firm, and they will complete the project. We wish to profoundly thank all of you for your patience and cooperation. We apologize for any inconveniences we may have inadvertently caused you.

JONES GETS TASTE OF HADES' HEAT

Agrie Jones, Texico's energetic superintendent, last weekend was wearing a "fried egg" face and was minus what little hair he had, after a flash-explosion Thursday morning.

Jones, who was a cook at the regular early Thursday morning breakfast of the Methodist men, was in the basement kitchen at the time of the accident. The top burners of the stove were burning.

However, unknown to the cooks, the oven also had been turned on, but not lighted. Jones opened the oven door, stuck his head into the opening, and about that time the raw gas from the oven jets was ignited by the top burners. The resultant "poo" burned the cook painfully, although not seriously.

Commented he after the incident: "I know one thing—if the devil is cooking with gas, then Hades is the last place I ever want to go."

COMFORTS OF HOME

This Halloween creation was erected on Farwell's Third Street last week by pranksters. The outdoor privy was complete with easy chairs. Many people were amused at this scene, and two called The Tribune before 8 p. m. to notify the staff of this pictorial scoop.

From "Trends" in the Crosbyton Review, we borrow a minute editorial.
SMILE! It costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poor those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none is so poor but that he can be made richer by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's best antidote for trouble.

The wind was blowing, next came the sand, then a little sleet, and last of all—snow. It all happened within an hour's time. Joann Getz and the writer of this column braved all this and marveled at the great outdoors. Monday, as we "blew" from place to place in our quest for Christmas features for that big special issue of The Tribune that will be published pretty soon.

We came back with mud in our hair, eyes and ears. The sand that settled first was made more permanent by the moisture that followed.

The only solution would be to get out of the newspaper business and find a nice easy chair and a warm fire somewhere.

It's only a few—too few—weeks until Christmas. Only a short while ago, we were contemplating the advent of "ghosts and goblins," next comes Thanksgiving, then busy December.

Maybe some of you have your shopping list all made out and have begun buying. No such luck for us. Not only are we wondering who to buy for—we must have a hole in our "money" sock—the question for the Grahams, is what to buy with.

But we plan a lovely Christmas. We have two sweet kids and they are all paid for—the initial installments anyway. And they are small enough that we won't have to worry about Santa filling their Christmas orders. This is the year that they will have that mysterious Christmas, when everything is so exciting.

Especially to papa and mama!

In one of our exchanges recently was the story of a 75-year-old woman who was pulling cotton; not only that but she pulls about 500 pounds a day. She didn't feel that her work and her age were out of the ordinary. Her logical answer when asked why she pulled cotton was, "I have debts to pay."

She has picked cotton for 30 years during the harvest seasons.

It is only natural that those of us in the newspaper field would like the views presented in an editorial in The Memphis Democrat recently. But we feel that it is worth repeating. There are so many ways we can make others happy, this is one of them. We are not referring to newspapers only. The editorial of which we speak appears below.

making old-fashioned gingerbread this issue. Mrs. Humble says "she knows it is good."

Even in this age of quick mixes, it is nice to have a true "home-made" recipe. We think you will like this one.

Cream ½ cup sugar and ½ cup shortening. Add 2 unbeaten eggs, 1/3 cup molasses.

Sift 2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon soda and ½ teaspoon allspice. Add the dry mixture to the creamed mixture, alternately with ¾ cup milk. Bake in moderate oven (350) for 20 minutes

Mrs. Avis Carpenter and the writer of this column have a problem. Avis has a pyrex pie plate that she needs an owner for, and if the pie that originally was in the plate is as delicious as Avis says, we need the recipe for this column.

To be more specific, Avis bought a pie at the PTA booth at the Halloween carnival. She says the delicacy "was the most delicious I've ever eaten." But she doesn't know who made the dessert and has a large 10-inch pie plate that belongs to someone. Avis also wants the recipe.

The pie contained, among other things, pecans, raisins and coconut. Maybe some of you readers can help us out!

This meeting is being held at this time because the speaker could not be secured for a regular meeting of the Bureau.

Over 750 home demonstration agents, county agents and members of the extension service staff were present for the conference which began on Monday of last week.

Group meetings and preliminary activities were participated in on Monday and Tuesday, and on Wednesday and Thursday time was devoted to various agricultural studies.

In the home economics section, all home demonstration agents met together to hear outstanding speakers present a program on "Healthy Living."

Representatives from the Texas State Department of Health and the American Medical Association were present to participate in this program.

Among the speakers for this phase of the conference was Dr. Ruth Leverton of the Agricultural Experiment Station from Oklahoma A&M. Her topic was "Food for Health."

FFA Barbecue Is Outstanding Success

The F. F. A. barbecue and field day held Tuesday night in Texico school auditorium was a tremendous success in more ways than one, according to many people attending the affair.

Approximately 425 people partook of an excellent barbecue dinner and enjoyed a well-arranged program from beginning to end.

Appearing on the program were L. C. Dalton, FFA supervisor from State College who spoke on "The Modern Meat Type Market Hog" and "Cotton John," Farm editor for KGNC TV Amarillo. "Cotton John" managed to keep the audience laughing with a barrage of appropriate jokes and quips.

Also appearing on the program and giving accounts of work done on projects were Teddy Roth, Raymond Hadley, Dwayne Winkles, Jimmie Don Moss and Allan Kelley. These boys have been able to get $3.50 per 100 pounds of grain fed to hogs costing 14 1/2 cents which allows them a nice margin of profit.

Allan Kelley, FFA president, acted as master of ceremonies for the entire program. A number of people were taken on an inspection tour through the FFA barn where they saw the razorback sows that weighed 74 pounds when purchased last March 5 and which weighed 295 pounds five months later. These six sows farrowed and weaned 39 pigs which is equivalent to the national average for thoroughbred sows. Also seen on this tour were 20 registered Chester White and Duroc gilts recently purchased by FFA boys. J. C. Kelley and Bobby Patterson were in charge of this tour and were pleased with the interest shown by numerous visitors.

Two turkeys given away by the boys went to E. M. Roop and Raymond Maxwell. These turkeys were donated by Ray Tharp.

Three door prizes of one dollar bills were received by D' Rene Danforth, eighth grade students; Z. McCasland, Clovis and Mr. Swanky from Topeka, Kans.

Music was furnished throughout the program by the Pendergrass boys, Bobby, Matt and Marvin, and Hershel Parker from Clovis.

Juniors Are Hosts To Skating Party

Monday of last week, the juniors had a skating party in which they invited the seniors and the sophomores. Those attending from the senior class were Doyal Webster, Sue Reid, D'Tanis Caldwell, Roy Thornton, Sue Doolittle, Leon McDaniel and Lester McDaniel.

Present from the junior class were Betty Pendergrass, Sue Stover, Susan Levins, Dick Lockhart, Mikala Faville, Verlene Thigpen, J. C. Kelley, Joyce Gillean, Teresa Cox, Weldon Bell, Joe Glaze, Barbara Caldwell and Oneita Autrey.

Representing the sophomore class were Lynell Lovett, Armelda Cox, Garlene Seale, Judy Wakefield, Dickie Adams, Bobbie Patterson, Gloria Johnson, Ann Reed, Buddy Spears and Matt Pendergrass.

Also attending were Mrs. F. S. Thigpen, Mrs. D. G. Seale and Mrs. Buck Cox.

Sponsors attending were John Adams and Merle Thurman. The only mishap of the night was when Mikala Faville fell and cut her lip which required three stitches to mend.

Classes Present Education Program

A program in keeping with National Education Week was given this week by members of the seventh and eighth grades in the Texico school auditorium.

Millions of people attend the nation's schools during this week and find that the basic purpose of National Education Week is to emphasize the important role of education in our democracy and to help people to understand their responsibility for maintaining good schools.

Special invitations, made in the shape of red school bells, were sent to each parent to visit school during this week.

"We want to thank Leroy Faville at the Red Cross Pharmacy, and Mrs. Ruby Stone at the Variety Store for allowing us space for exhibits in their display windows," says Mrs. Fred Danforth, sponsor of the group.

"School Days" was the theme for the program presented which was told in verse, song and pantomime. Patricia Patterson was narrator for the program.

The first scene presented the "Good Ole Days" with Velma Martin as the old fashioned school teacher. Students participating were Amon Maxwell, Joan Brown, Phyllis Kelley, Barbara Chappell, and Wesley Engram.

"Little Red School House," sung by D'Rene Danforth, Gale Hadley, Judy Adams, Connie Tharp, Crayton Weisler, Charles Stockton and Don Johnson, was pantomimed by members of the old school.

Showing the modern day school was scene two which presented cheerful bright atmosphere found in most schools today.

Students in the play were Harlo Jean Walls, Mary McDaniel, Don Johnson, Christy Bowers, Charles Stockton, Crayton Weisler, Bobby Gooch, and Raymond Maxwell. The teacher was D'Rene Danforth.

Featured in two duets were the popular seventh grade duo, Kenneth Murdock and Leslie Dyer, who sang "The Girl Across the Aisle" and "An Apple For The Teacher." Larry Powell pantomimed the 10 o'clock scholar who brought the apple.

To show the sports in school, a recess was presented for scene three. Participating in this scene were Raymond Maxwell, Edmond Richardson, Wendell Doshier, Wesley Engram, Travis Taylor, Amon Maxwell, Joan Tadlock, Barbara Chappell, Connie Tharp and Christy Bowers.

Leading the cheers were Mary McDaniel and Harlo Walls while a trio composed of Don Johnson, Charles Stockton, and Crayton Weisler sang "The Ball Game."

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game" was sung during this scene by Betty Walton, Joan Brown, Phyllis Kelley, and Barbara Chappell.

"Mental Arithmetic," "Careers," and "Books" were sung along with classics shown in scene four.

Closing the program was the presentation of the American flag as it was brought in by Wesley Engram as Don Johnson played "Retreat."

Members of the seventh grade stood and sang "America" to complete the program. These students were Jackie Shelton, Lee Spears, Alfred Stover, Joe Ortiz, Donald Loflin and Billy Hukill.

Girls Victorious In Sadie Hawkins' Relay

One of the most fascinating events of the year occurred Monday morning when the girls laid all grudges aside in a ten minute Sadie Hawkins day race.

One of the main hi-lights of the race happened at the very beginning. When the whistle blew, all of the girl participants darted after Mr. Frederick, (our bachelor principal). Susan Levins caught and tagged him as one of her many escorts to the Friday night party.

Some of the more successful participants in the race were Susan Levins, Sue Reid, Karen Brehm, Fay Autrey, Anita Moss and Darlene Day.

The victims that were caught included Mr. Frederick, Bobby Patterson, Doyal Webster, Bobby Spears, Dicky Adams, and Raymond Hadley.

The girls chose some very romantic surroundings to capture their fellows. Susan Levins tagged Bobby Patterson on top of the pig barns. Fay Autrey caught Bobby Spears on the race track after a close race. Doyal Webster decided he was thirsty and was tagged by Sue Reid in the process of getting a drink.

Although the weather wasn't the best, the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

A party, given Friday night in the auditorium, climaxed the Twirp season "rage". Everyone had a wonderful time with Sue Reid in charge of the entertainment.

FIFTH GRADERS TAKE WEEKEND VACATIONS

Several members of the fifth grade class took advantage of the teachers' meeting held in Albuquerque last week to visit relatives and friends.

Kay Hall visited her sister and family, Mrs. Charles Lee in Amarillo; Judy Tharp visited her cousin, Patty Fryer, in Clovis; Carol White visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack White in Clovis; Linda Palmateer visited her aunt and family in Amarillo; and Carol Brown visited her aunt and family, Mrs. Vergie Bernum, at Tulia.

Two new students recently entered the fifth grade. They are Jenny Gonzales from Las Vegas, N. M. and Peggy Taylor from Farwell.

On the sick list for this week were Shirley Holmes, Jean Clayton, Glenn Cox, James Hudson and Vernon Thigpen.

Rosie Arnold, a student of the fifth grade, brings sad news that her father has been in the Albuquerque hospital since Tuesday. He will probably be hospitalized for at least a month.

Students To Attend J-Day at Texas Tech

Texico entries in journalistic writing were mailed last week to the journalism department at Texas Tech, Lubbock. These entries will be judged on the annual Journalism Day to be held on the Tech campus November 19.

Best editorial, best feature, best sports story, best column, and best straight news item, as well as three newspapers, will be judged. The Texico newspapers will be competing with other papers that are published in a local paper. Individual entries will be judged in competition with other student entries from all schools participating.

The program will center around career opportunities in journalism, and interviewing and feature writing with panel discussions being held in connection with each division.

Students will have lunch in the student union building and will attend the Texas Tech football game in the afternoon.

Mrs. Jimmie Allman, journalism instructor, Mrs. W. H. Graham Jr. and approximately eight students will attend this meeting.

THIRD GRADERS WORK ON SAFETY FIRST UNIT

The third graders have begun working on a safety unit. They hope to find many good ways of preventing accidents in the home, the classroom, the playground, and the streets. They feel that this is a very worth-while project.

They are happy to have three new pupils: Elizabeth Ann Simpson, Lubbock; Pauline Taylor, Farwell; and Joy Dell Thomas, Clovis.

Several boys and girls have been absent from school because of illness. Kathryn White and Roy Wall missed two days because of asthma. Sofia Zamora missed a week due to illness of her mother. Others absent were Mike Spearman, Judy Seal, and Kenneth Thomas.

Esther Thatcher made a week-end trip to Pampa. She reported a very nice time.

Halloween is a special time to the class. They enjoyed wearing false faces and going "trick or treat," most of all.

The class enjoys reading books very much. Jim Landon gave a good oral report on a book "In Storm and Rain."

A Brahman is a Hindu of the sacred or priestly class.

Cooperation Plus

EDITORIAL
By Betty Pendergrass

At the beginning of school this term, the superintendent warned the students to keep away from the new building which is still under construction. There were no rules against being near the building but the warning was for safety and benefit of the student body.

There have been very few exceptions to the warning. Some of the students have accidentally wandered into the territory which they were supposed to go around, and a very few have intentionally cut across in order to make a short cut. By far the larger percentage of the students have made it a point to go around.

It is not hard to realize the extra steps that have been taken when you are going to class and back and it has caused quite a bit of delay in getting to class on time.

Your co-operation has been and will continue to be appreciated until the construction is completed.

TWO NEW STUDENTS JOIN SECOND GRADE

TEXICO FHA GIRLS ATTEND SALAD SUPPER

No one went away hungry from the salad supper that was given by the Farwell FHA girls Monday, October 31. This supper was held in the Farwell school lunchroom in observance of National Friendship Week.

There were approximately 100 girls from Friona, Lazbuddie, Farwell and Texico attending, with each school taking part in the entertainment phase of the program.

A large variety of salads, wafers, cookies and iced tea were served to the group.

Those attending from Texico were Betty Pendergrass, Sue Stover, D'Tanis Caldwell, Anita Tharp, Joyce Gillean, Mikala Faville, Glenda Weisler, Karen Brehm, Rebecca Richardson, Teresa Cox, Lynell Lovett, Carolyn Curd, Ann Reed, and Mrs. Allman, the sponsor.

Freeze Flavor Into Fall Vegetables

Flavor's at its peak at harvest time and today's home freezer guards it for you. Since all vegetables start losing their natural monosodium glutamate content (and therefore flavor) the moment they're picked, be sure to restore it in your home freezing operation with Ac'cent. Think of freezing whole meals as well as single foods—Stuffed Baked Potatoes and Zucchini Creole which you can serve with a vegetable aspic salad are two new and modern home freezing ideas that will make meals tastier.

Stuffed Baked Potatoes
Scrub uniform sized baking potatoes; rub skins with butter or margarine. Wrap each potato in aluminum foil; bake in hot oven (450°F.) 45 minutes. Cool enough to handle. Cut slice from tops; scoop out pulp, saving shells. Mash pulp, adding 1 tablespoon melted butter for each potato. Season to taste with salt, pepper, and Ac'cent. Whip in enough hot milk to make mixture light and fluffy. Re-fill shells. Cool; wrap in freezer-weight aluminum foil; freeze. Re-heat in moderate oven (350°F.) about 40 to 45 minutes. If desired, tops may be sprinkled with grated cheese before re-heating. (Storage time: 3 to 4 months.)

Zucchini Creole
4 cups cubed zucchini squash Few grains pepper
1 can (1 pound) tomatoes 1/2 teaspoon Ac'cent
1 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Cook squash in small amount boiling, salted water 5 minutes. Arrange alternating layers of squash and tomatoes in aluminum foil baking dish, sprinkling each layer with salt, pepper, Ac'cent, and dots of butter or margarine. Cool; cover; seal; label; freeze. To re-heat: Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs on top; bake in moderate oven (325°F.) 45 minutes.
YIELD: 6 servings.

Ginnings Top 11,000 As Harvest Rumbles

hasn't had enough maturing time. He added that ginning is just getting started there.

Lawlis & Ely

"The yield isn't as good this year as it was last year," says Ovid Lawlis. "The cotton is frostbitten, and it rained at the wrong time. It was a rough year."

T. O. Lesly was reported to have made 15 bales from 10 acres, however. Stripping started last week. Ginnings as of Tuesday: 1172.

FRIONA L & H

Mrs. John Davis: "It's kind of slow now." She reports very little machine harvesting, but expects stripping to start as soon as the weather dries. (Snow fell on Monday).

First pullings are running about one-third bale per acre, she says. The freeze damaged yields up to 50 percent. Ginnings: 470.

North Plains

Mrs. E. L. Morrison also commented on the freeze damage, but said that the recent snow has only slowed harvest down, and is not expected to result in further damage.

The first stripped bale at North Plains came in Monday. Ginnings: 925.

SUMMERFIELD

Tri-County

Sam Patterson reports that the freeze appeared to damage cotton north of Highway 60, but strangely, cotton south of the highway did not seem to suffer as much.

Patterson told of the good yield of Floyd Cole, who has pulled 31 bales from 20 acres, and still hasn't used his stripper. "He didn't water late," was Patterson's explanation. Ginnings: 757.

HUB

West Hub Gin

The snow actually speeded up the harvest around the Hub, believes Leo Ruzicka, by softening bolls that have been ready to burst. When drying out, they will pop and be ready to go, he believes.

"The early freeze," says Ruzicka, "didn't hurt as much as the October rain. Everybody felt that they watered too long after that rain hit."

Grades have been reported to be down because of bad weather, but O. D. Bingham's stripped cotton graded middling light spot. He harvested 100 acres and averaged 1 1/4 bales. Ginnings: 1220.

Mills & Fleming

"People thought the crop would be as good as the one in 1955 until the freeze," reports O. L. McMurry. Bollworm damage and leaf spot has hurt grades, he thinks.

"A yield of one and three-quarters bale per acre will be tops this year," says McMurry. He says it will be another week before much stripping is done in the Hub area. Ginnings: 1303.

LAZBUDDIE

Scott Gin

The freeze damage around Lazbuddie ran as high as 50 percent, says Dick Scott. Hardest hit were the farmers who were attempting to squeeze in a long-staple variety, Acala.

Stripping in regular upland cotton is well under way in that area, says Scott. Some farmers have pulled a little over a half bale the first time over. Ginnings: 551.

Watkins

Watkins Gin was closed Tuesday afternoon late because of Monday's snow, and the owners could not be reached. However, farmers nearby report things are moving along well in that area (one mile from the school) and that ginnings are about 1300.

FARWELL

Nickel's Gin

Nickel's Gin of Farwell led the county in bales ginned this week, with considerable stripping coming from the southern and southeastern parts of the area. Ginnings were 2090.

Edward Gaston reported that yields have been good in the Farwell area, and that Bert Williams harvested 1 1/4 bales on some of his cotton.

Watkins' Gin

Grades are good in the Farwell area this year, reports Mrs. Drew Watkins. The harvest is just beginning to roll, and she expects their gin to be busy by next week.

LARIAT

Lariat Gin Company

L. L. Cooper reports that the snow the first of the week slowed things up there, but that the gin had been going "night and day" before the wet weather. Some yields are approaching two bales per acre, he says.

The Nowell brothers were reported to have harvested 20 acres that made over two bales per acre. This cotton was not damaged by the freeze because it had been planted early. Ginnings: 1060.

OKLAHOMA LANE

L & H Gin

The manager of this gin could not be reached, but farmers in the area report that things are just getting started around Oklahoma Lane, with very little stripping having been completed. Ginnings at L & H were reported to be 230.

Parmer County Hospital Reviews Its Busiest Year

be started soon in an effort to make up the difference. If nothing unforeseen happens, the new building should be ready for occupancy about September of next year.

Brief talks were made by Dr. Loyd Shackelford, Lee Thompson and Dr. Paul Spring.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and stood approved.

The nominating committee (Leon Grissom, I. W. Quicquel, Lewis Smith and A. W. Anthony) headed by Anthony, presented the following names as candidates to fill the term of Sloan H. Osborn which expires this year: Sloan Osborn, Bruce Parr, Donald Watkins and A. L. Black. No nominations were made from the floor.

Sloan Osborn was re-elected. Other members of the board of directors are G. B. Buske, A. W. Anthony Jr., Lee Thompson and Floyd Schlenker.

The meeting was closed by a prayer offered by the Rev. C. C. Nelson, minister of the local Congregational Church.

Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served to about 40 stockholders by the hospital staff.

Steers Stampede, Tromp Hart 53-0 down. Smith's kick was good to put the Steers in front 7-0.

Finney took Farwell's kick and made a 27 yard runback. Hindman carried for three yards on first down and Holloway was hit four yards behind the line of scrimmage on the next play.

A completed pass from Hindman to Savage netted the Longhorns 40 yards. A jump pass, complete from Hindman to Webb, added five yards. Finney was thrown for a four yard loss on second down try and Douglas Hillock intercepted a Hindman pass and ran 80 yards for a touchdown only to have the play nullified by an offensive holding penalty.

The penalty put the Steers back on their own five yard line where Truitt Hardage broke loose and scampered 20 yards on the first down. Then Hillock, determined to make that score count, ran 75 yards for the second Steer touchdown. Smith's kick was good and the Steers led 14-0.

Webb was downed immediately after receiving the kick from the toe of Preston Cain. Finney was dropped for a two yard loss on his first down carry and a pass from Hindman to Savage netted five yard. A 15 yard penalty against the Steers gave the Longhorns a first down.

Eddie Smith then captured a Hindman pass and went 40 yards for another Farwell TD. Smith kicked for the extra point to give the Steers a 21-0 margin at the close of the first period of play.

Savage made a seven yard runback on the next kick. A Hindman to Savage pass fell incomplete and a jump pass to Savage netted three yards. The Steers recovered a Hart fumble on third down try. Henson carried 30 yards for the next Farwell score on a handoff. Hillock was stopped as he tried to run for the PAT.

Savage carried for one yard as the Longhorns once again started operating offensively. A Hindman pass was knocked away by Hillock and on the next play, Hillock grabbed a pass intended for Savage.

Tommy Lovelace, replacing Smith in the quarterback slot, kept for a short gain on first down try. An offside penalty set the Steers back five yards and a Lovelace to Hillock handoff netted nine yards. Another penalty set the Steers back 15 yards. Lovelace carried for about a yard and a pass incompleteness brought fourth down and 25.

Savage picked up four yards on the punt return. A Savage to Finney pass was incomplete and two passes from Hindman were also knocked away. Savage kicked out of bounds on the 44.

Lovelace, still the man under, was hit for no gain on his first carry. A pass from Lovelace fell incomplete and the Steers drew a 15 yard penalty. With second down and 25, Lovelace went for 23 yards on a quarterback sneak. Hillock carried for five yards and a first down on third down.

A jump pass went incomplete and Henson was dropped for a yard loss to make it third down and 11 needed for a first. David Willard went for six yards and Lovelace carried for another six yards and another first down.

Willard was stopped for no gain and Hillock was piled up five yards behind the line on second down. Henson gained five yards and on fourth down try, Lovelace was stopped five yards behind the line of scrimmage to give Hart possession of the ball.

Finney's pass was intercepted by Jamison and a clipping penalty against the Steers on this play made it first and 25. Henson carried for three yards then Hart recovered a fumble. A pass from Hindman was intercepted by Willard who ran 55 yards for a Steer touchdown. Henson's ground try for PAT was good to give the Steers a 34-0 count as the second quarter ended.

Smith was nailed on the 37 as he ran back the opening kick of the third stanza. The Steers received another 15 yard penalty and Lovelace gained five yards on first down carry. Farwell recovered their own fumble on a handoff to Willard. Another handoff to Willard netted 17 yards, but a penalty ate away all but two yards of this gain. Willard went for six yards on third down carry, but failed to gain a first down.

Cain kicked and the Longhorns were operating from their own 44. Gonzales carried for nine yards then Holloway picked up nine more for a Hart first down. Hart drew a 15 yard penalty and a Savage pass was knocked away by Gerald Hardage. Another Savage pass was incomplete then Willard grabbed the next pass from the hand of Savage.

Farwell fumbled on the first play of the new down series and Hart chalked up another recovery. A Finney pass went incomplete and Finney then went for 25 on the ground to add another first down. Finney was the man again as he picked up 10 yards through the middle. Gonzales was downed for a nine yard loss as the third period ended.

With second down and 19, Finney's pass was intercepted by Willard. A pass from Lovelace to Willard was good for 24 yards and a touchdown which was nullified by a clipping penalty by the Steers.

Henson gained 12 yards, Lovelace threw an incomplete pass, then Lovelace went 40 yards to the Longhorn one yard line. Glyn McDorman plunged over from the one to make the score 47-0, Farwell. Cain's kick for the point after touchdown was blocked.

Finney returned the Steer punt back to the 50. Hindman carried for no gain as also did Gonzales. Hindman's pass was broken up before Finney grabbed the ball for a 25 yard pick up.

On the first down Savage went for eight yards. Hindman picked up the first down on a seven yard carry. Holloway added another first on a 15 yard gainer. Finney and Savage went five and seven, respectively, for the final Longhorn first down in this drive. Finney gained five yards in two attempts and the Longhorns recovered their own fumble. A pass to Webb was blocked to give the Steers possession of the ball.

In the final minutes of the game as the Steers were working deep in their own territory, Truitt Hardage was operating in quarterback position with Gerald Hardage, Jerry Owens and James Norton manning the other backfield positions.

Gerald Hardage smashed through the line for a 20 yard pickup, but an offside penalty put the Steers back inside their own eight. Truitt Hardage went for five yards on a quarterback sneak then James Norton picked up six yards. Owens then carried for a nice gain, but another penalty set the Steers back to their own three yard line.

An offside penalty against the Steers was refused and with fourth down upcoming, Truitt Hardage took the ball from center and scampered downfield in a beautiful run for 99 yards and another Farwell touchdown.

Rolland Hillock's kick for extra point was blocked and the final whistle blew before the kickoff play got underway.

The Steers will meet the Bovina Mustangs at Bovina this Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the annual Armistice Day grudge battle.

Farwell will travel to Kress on Friday, November 18, for the final game of the season.

Maps Show Water In Randall, Armstrong

The portions of Randall and Armstrong Counties within the boundary of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District have been combined on the accompanying maps. About 275,000 acres of Randall County and about 39,000 acres of Armstrong County are within the boundary of the Water District.

The map in plate 1 shows the thickness of the water-bearing strata between the water table and the redbeds in 1938 before an appreciable amount of water had been pumped from the reservoir.

The volume of water remaining in the underground reservoir was determined by subtracting the volume of material unwatered since 1938 from the total volume of saturated material in 1938 and multiplying the remainder by the coefficient of storage of 15 percent.

These data show about 3,940,000 acre-feet of water was in storage in Randall County available for pumping in 1938, and about 557,000 acre feet of water, or about 14%, has been removed from storage since 1938.

show about 325,000 acre-feet of water was in storage available for pumping in 1938, and about 46,000 acre-feet of water, or about 14%, has been removed from storage since 1938.

The approximate quantity of underground water in storage, available for pumping, beneath an individual farm may be determined by multiplying the number of acres in the farm by the thickness of the water-bearing strata underlying the farm and then multiplying by the storage coefficient of 15 percent.

The Irish phrase, "Frin, go bragh," means "Ireland, forever."

Chieftains Stung By Hornets, 41-7

In the second conference game of this season, the Friona Chieftains were defeated by the Sudan Hornets.

During the first session of the game, James Gore, right half-back, scored a touchdown for Sudan and the extra point was a success.

Fullback, Hanna, ran six yards for the only touchdown during the second quarter. At this time, the score was 13-0 in favor of the Hornets.

After the halftime exercises, the teams were once again testing their skills. Wells ran 35 yards for a Sudan score and the extra point was good also. The Hornets scored a second touchdown and extra point during the third quarter, making the score 27-0.

In the fourth quarter, Gore ran eight yards for a touchdown and the extra point was kicked. This made the score 34-0. Phillip Weatherly, left end on the Chieftain team, passed to Wesley Barnett, quarterback. He ran 45 yards for a spectacular play scoring for Friona. Leon Massey ran the extra point making the score 34-7.

After Friona kicked off, the Hornets received the ball on the 10 yard line and ran 90 yards for the final touchdown of the game. When the extra point was kicked the final score of the game was 41-7.

Friona received two injuries in this game. Alan Neff injured his knee and Wesley Barnett received a broken shoulder. Neither of these boys will play any more this season.

The last conference game for Friona will be at Springlake November 11. Joe Means, local coach, states that Springlake has a fine team with lots of weight, much speed, and are well coached. Springlake has had seven wins and one loss in the 1955 season and are now tied with Happy in this conference for the district title. Their outstanding players are Ronald Sandal, Rex Loftis and Donald Sandal.

Friona B Squad Ends Football Play

The Friona High School "B" team ended the 1955 football season with three wins, two ties, and two losses. The teams they played were Springlake, Farwell, Lazbuddie and Dimmitt.

Coach Jarboe stated that the boys worked hard and showed considerable improvement. It seems that the team always had one goal in mind—"Try your best to win each game." If they had a motto, this was probably it.

As far as injuries are concerned, there were very few. Roy Young was out some with an arm injury. Other than that, minor bruises were the limit.

A few of the outstanding boys on the "B" team this year were Beauford Carter, Frank Ready, Alan Hodges, Wayne Weatherford, Jerry McDonald, and Gary McLaughlin.

Friona Baptists Are Hosts For Conference

The Tierra Blanca Associational Worker's Conference was held at the Friona Baptist Church Nov. 3. The training union was the phase of church work which was emphasized.

The executive board had a meeting immediately preceding the program.

Rev. Bill Hogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Happy, called the meeting to order. Ernest Hock, newly called educational director for Friona, directed the song service which followed.

Franklin E. Swanner, district nine executive secretary, made the announcements for the evening. He also presented the Happy Baptist Church with a plaque and achievement scroll for the rural or village church in this district.

The retiring moderator, C. M. Fields, of Friona, presented Rev. Bill Hogue and the Happy church with the associational awards of achievement for rural and village churches.

At this time, the groups were divided into various conference meetings for the elementary, junior, intermediate, young people, adult, pastor and training union directors. After 30 minutes, the groups returned to the auditorium.

The Canyon Student Center presented the special music with a guest vocalist.

Rev. David Harold, new pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Canyon, brought the closing message.

Two hundred and twenty five persons were present for this conference.

Cotton strippers and trailers are beginning to take the place of the grain trucks that were so numerous on every road a few weeks ago. Most of the grain has been harvested and it will not be very long until the cotton strippers will be working in the fields, and cotton trailers will be forming lines at every gin.

Seems like Geneva Williams is getting quite a collection of gifts from a radio program. Sometime ago, her number was called and she answered the question. Then a few weeks ago Mrs. O. F. Lange was called, so Geneva rushed to her house, told her the answer to the question and received a consolation prize. One day last week, the Jake Lamb's number was called, and Geneva took the right answer to Mr. Lamb who had answered the telephone, so she added a billfold to her collection.

Some time ago, Frieda, our seven year old, came home from school very excited. She said, "Mother, we learned a new song today. Miss Ritter taught us The

We hear by the grapevine that the Bill Bandys and the Doyle Cummings have moved into their new homes and that Dr. and Mrs. Loyd Shackelford and children will move into theirs in the very near future. One look at the cabinets in the Shackelford home would convince anyone that dental work isn't the only skill the doctor possesses.

We have often thought that it would be a wonderful thing if each of us could change problems with his neighbor. Perhaps a plan could be devised whereby each person could have his problems printed on a card. Then all the cards could be shuffled and each person draw one. Of course, if anyone happened to draw his own card, he could call for a re-shuffile. Just listen in on any conversation, and before very long, you will hear someone say very emphatically, "Now IF I were in HIS place, I know exactly what I would do." There never seems to be any doubt in the mind of the speaker but that his solution would be a workable one; however, when his own problems confront him, the solution is never quite so obvious.

WE BEGIN TO WIN THE PEACE

Free peoples have not made war upon each other for nearly a hundred years. Freely elected governments know that the price of war is too high for survival. Free men and women will never go to war unless war is forced upon them.

Perhaps, at last, the world's last remaining slave empire is also turning away from the risk of war. Perhaps its Red masters realize that the loss of their own power—at the hands of those whom they have enslaved—is the price they would have to pay.

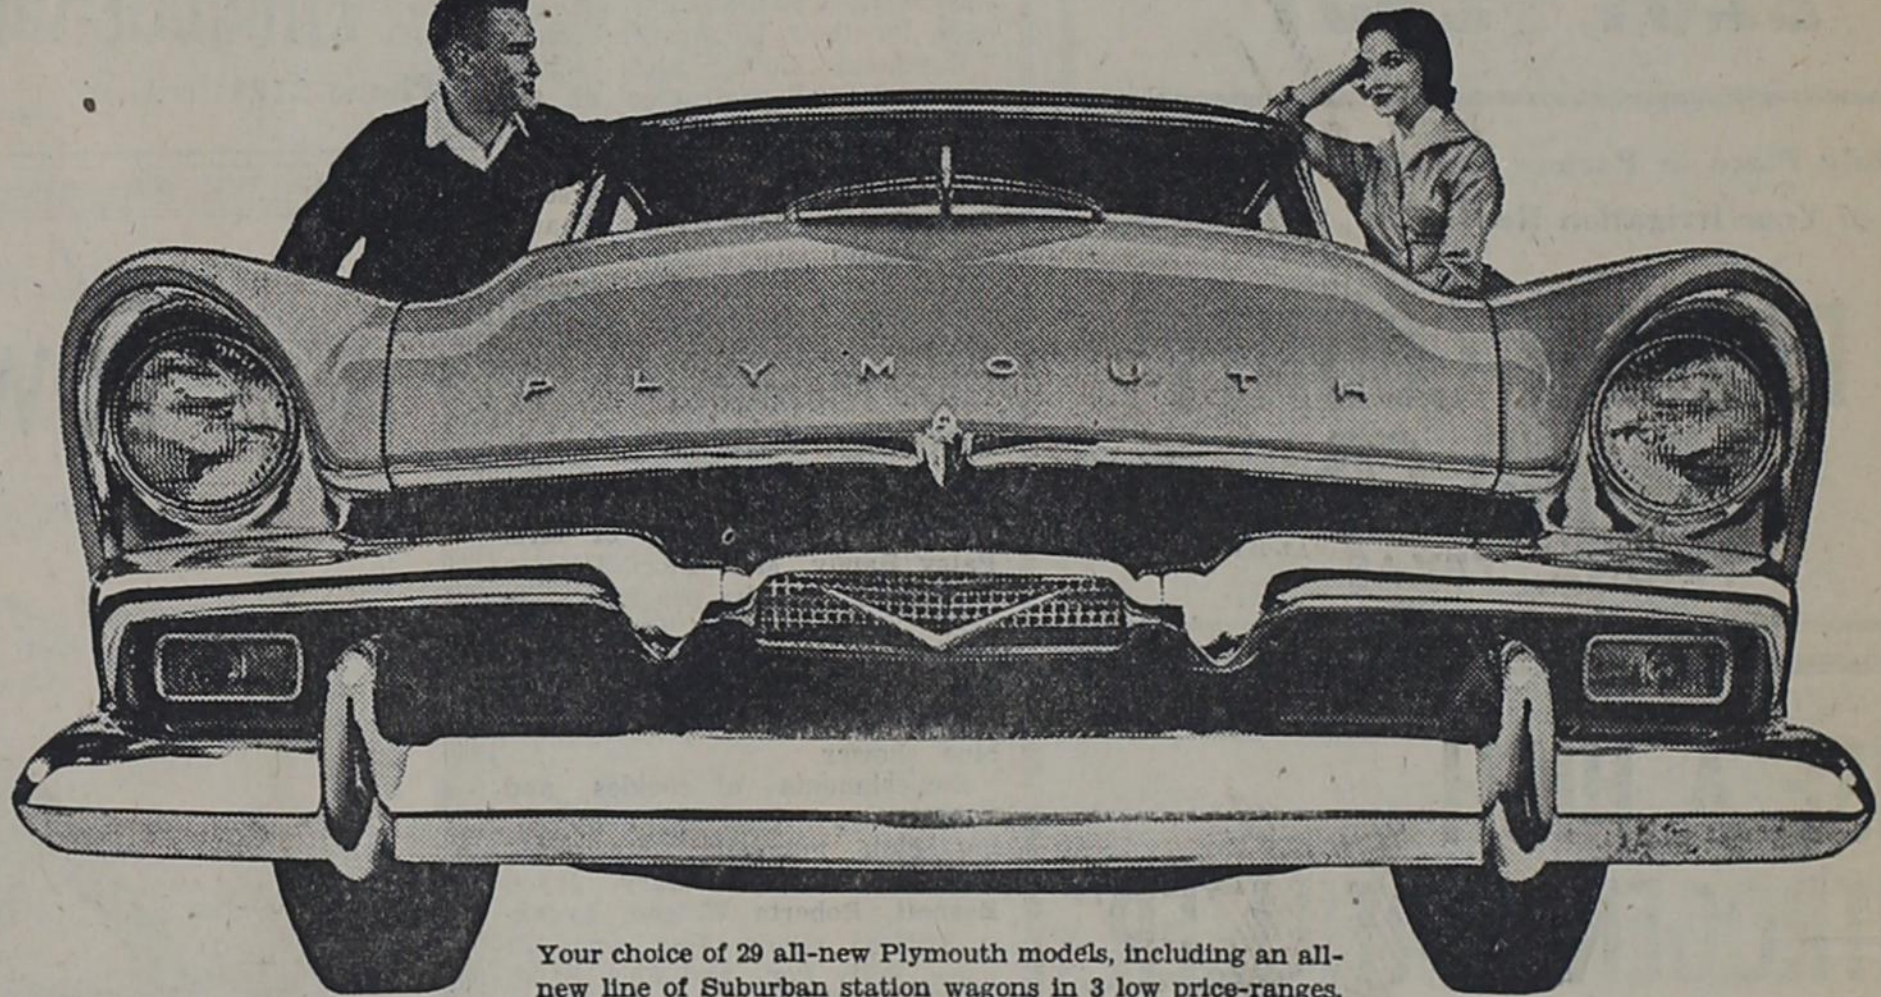

Americans may take heart. Perhaps we shall win the peace, after all. If so, no greater tribute could be paid to the memory of America's fallen.

Meanwhile, eternal vigilance remains the safeguard of our nation's freedom.

Work Is Continued On Youth Center

A group of Friona people interested in providing their community a place of recreation for the young people are pursuing their plans along that line, according to W. H. Long, a leader of the work.

Long this week reported that a meeting was held with the city commission the past week to obtain the views of the city dads and that another session, together with a meeting of leaders from civic groups of the town, will be held soon.

In the meantime, Long says he will this week go to Clovis to inspect a bowling alley there and obtain estimates on the cost of an installation. It is the hope of the group to erect a building, and have in it not only the alleys, but a library and TV room, a multi-purpose recreational room, and a kitchen and fountain.

Cost of the building would run between $25,000 and $30,000, estimates Long.

Baxters Return From Four-Week Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter have spent the past four weeks visiting with their children and grandchildren in Colorado and South Dakota. They returned to their home in Friona on Friday of last week.

In Colorado, they visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baxter at Lamar; the Clarence Baxters at Springfield; the Lewis Baxter family at Eads and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nidey and daughters at Campo. There they saw their newest great granddaughter, Brenda Coleen, daughter of the Eugene Nideys.

Those with whom they visited in South Dakota were Mr. and Mrs. Miles Robbins and Phyllis at Blunt; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Robbins and son at Hayes; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Massey and children at Blunt and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Martin and daughters at Stamford.

mates Long, but he says figures on the alleys and other equipment are not in hand as yet.

Contributions would furnish part of the investment, and the group is exploring the possibility of employing municipal funds also, with the project to be given to the city when completed.

Working on the idea are Long, Paul Fortenberry, Steve Bavousett, Mrs. J. D. McFarland, and Mrs. Charles Beaton.

Honored with Shower

Mrs. Coy Jeters of Farwell was honored with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. Lester Dean Friday afternoon. The gifts were displayed on a table.

The registration began at 11:00 a. m. in the Lincoln Hotel Lobby. The Lincoln Hotel Ballroom was the scene of a luncheon at 12:00 a. m.

Bill Dean, president from the Lubbock High School, was in charge of the general session. The invocation was given by the vice-president, Billy Simmons of the Colorado City High School.

The group was welcomed by Joe House, president of the Odessa SFC; James McMath, principal of the Odessa High School; Harold Downs, mayor of Odessa; and Billy Boyles, public relations director of the Odessa College.

The news of the Texas Association of Student Councils was given by Miss Dorothy Perkins, student council sponsor from the Midland High School.

The group was furnished with entertainment by a boys quartet consisting of Irby Gleaton, Jimmy Williams, John Clement, and Eddie Gray.

Warren Burnett, district attorney, was the guest speaker and the announcements were made by Moselle Alden, secretary from the Odessa High School.

At 2:30, the assembly was divided into discussion groups which met in the high school. Pat Cranfill of Friona led one discussion on the subject of "How Can We Maintain Harmony Between the Student Council and the Faculty?"

Other groups discussed council projects, constitutions, safety programs, responsibilities, and improving SFC meetings and assemblies.

There was a general assembly at 3:45 in the school auditorium. At that time, a two minute summary of the discussion groups was given by the discussion group leaders.

A business meeting followed and the meeting was adjourned.

Unique Program Features Canada

The Parmerton Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Johnnie Reed November 3, with seven members present.

Exchange material from Canada was used for the program. A box containing pamphlets, leaflets, pictures, patterns, a year book, a cook book compiled in honor of their jubilee, and a scrapbook from Talmage, Saskatchewan were very interesting to the group.

In Canada, the club officers are the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, three directors, program convener, and a public representative. The local club looked up references in the dictionary concerning the duties of a convener, and never did decide what they were.

A few things which interested the group most were pictures of a Canadian school bus built caterpillar style, grocery sales lists by the "case and tin," pamphlet about women's and children's rights in Saskatchewan, and a cook book.

One of the recipes favored by the group was for a bacon-cheese-omnip sandwich: Fry bacon until crisp, then chop fine. Mix with cream cheese and chopped onion and allow flavor to blend. Place between buttered slices of whole wheat or white bread. This recipe was supplied by the Swarthmore Homemakers of Advance, Saskatchewan.

The hostess, Mrs. Reed, served brownies and coffee to the following members: Mrs. Marion Fite, Mrs. J. B. Barrett, Mrs. Monte Barrett, Mrs. Manuel Clark, Mrs. Lloyd Battey, and Mrs. G. H. Brock.

The next club meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Battey on December 15 at 2:30 p. m. Each member is supposed to bring a game and a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Young, Joyce, Roy and Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Young spent Sunday in Levelland where they attended the wedding of Jody Young and Sharon Allen.

Mrs. Edgar Walters is visiting in San Antonio with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walters and son, John Mark.

School Dedication Scheduled Friday

Homecoming, dedication of Bovina's $600,000 school, and the annual Bovina Mustang-Farwell Steer football game will highlight Veteran's Day Friday, November 11 in Bovina.

High school bands from Bovina, Farwell, and Friona and American Legion posts from Bovina and Farwell will parade through downtown Bovina in the afternoon. The groups that will be in the parade will form at the end of North Street between Gulf Oil Corporation warehouse and Triplett Cattle Company. The parade is scheduled to start at 1:30 p. m. Plans are being made to get highway patrolmen to direct the traffic during the parade.

After the parade, flag raising ceremonies will be held at Mustang Football Field, says W. H. Willoughby, superintendent of Bovina Schools.

Andy Rogers, state senator from Childress, will deliver the main address at the dedication ceremonies of the school building. Rogers' speech topic was not known. The dedication will begin at 10:00 a. m. and will be held in the auditorium of the school building.

The invocation at the dedication ceremonies will be given by Rev. W. R. Beard, pastor of the Bovina Methodist Church. The Bovina High School Band, under the direction of Wayne Stevens, will present three numbers—"The Star Spangled Banner," "Maroon and White," and "United Nations March."

Following the band's presentations, the Junior Wilsonaires, a local girls' trio, will sing "Are You From Dixie?" and "Wake the Town and Tell the People." Kay Hartzog will sing "About A Quarter Till Nine." A choral group will sing "Dona Nobis Pacem," "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," and "The Shouting Song."

Judy Roach will follow with "Twelfth Street Rag." Kay Leake will sing "Why Don't You Fall in Love With Me;" Billy Charles, "The Little Red School House;" Nickie Woelful, "The Breeze;" Paula Kay Kerby and Elaine Fuller, "Goodnight Sweetheart, Goodnight;" and Harriet Lou Charles, "It's a Grand Night For Singing."

Earl Stevenson, president of the school board, will deliver the welcome and the student council will give the "reply."

Willoughby will give the Trustee Award and Rogers' talk will follow Willoughby. The program's benediction will be given by Rev. Virgil Goodwin, pastor of the Bovina Baptist Church.

School will be dismissed all day Friday. Willoughby said that it would be almost impossible to have school with all the activities during the day. The football game will begin at 2:30 p. m.

A tour of the school building and its facilities will be conducted after the program.

Sanders Construction Company of Sherman was general contractor for the building. The building was completed in September of this year.

LETTERS To The Editor

Shelbina, Mo.

Hop, Junior, State Line Tribune, Farwell, Tex.

Dear Hop:

Your 2626-mile "trip to the Midwest" as told in your issue of the 13th, was not all that it should have been. You were impressed, evidently, by the sights you saw only in Kansas, Iowa and Wisconsin. Must be you passed through Missouri in the night.

Likely you did not miss Shelbina by far, for to go into Iowa from Missouri with a destination of Wisconsin, you likely crossed Highway 36 at Chillicothe (65 miles west,) Macon (24 miles west) or Hannibal (38 miles east.) Possibly even at Monroe City (17 miles east).

Had you come through here we could have shown you outstanding examples of all the crops you mentioned for the other states—wheat still filling great storage bins, long lines of trucks hauling in the newly harvested soy beans to the elevators which had to be emptied for this crop; and corn pickers working on the crop.

Soy beans, our best money crop, are used for a score or more purposes ranging from food for humans as well as livestock, to oils for paint, oleo, ice cream, plastics and explosives. This has been a year of drouth but much of the crop ran from 25 to 30 bushels of beans to the acre, selling at the local elevators for better than $2 a bushel. They've come down from about $3.50 a bushel a couple of years ago. Corn is making 60 to 85 bushels, some of those more hurt by the drouth producing only 50 bushels. Wheat was generally 30 to 40 bu. per acre.

We have much clover and alfalfa with two and three cuttings to the season and so much harvested, many fields have bales lying all about with no storage space for them.

We Missourians think you should see what we have, and tell your people about it. And next time you go north, let us know so we can prevail on us to come this way.

Sincerely,

Edgar P. Blanton

Dear Edgar,

Sort of figured we might hear from you for not bragging on Missouri. Truth is, we just about missed it, passing through the northwest tip (St. Joe.)

The only publisher friend we stopped to visit with while gone was Bob Hennesy at Schaller, Iowa. We actually thought about going through Shelbina, but we couldn't find it on any map. Now, who can you blame for that?

The angler had just landed a fish when the inquisitive woman chanced to be passing.

"Oh," she exclaimed, "that poor little fish!"

The angler replied, "Well, madam, if he'd kept his mouth shut he would not have got into trouble."
