Election Participation Important to Farmers

Though they may not realize it, election of community and county ACA committeemen is vitally important to farmers and their problems, Ellis M. Mills, at the local AAA office, stated today, pointing out that such elections will be forthcoming between December 11 and 16.

"Last year," Mills said, "we had only 132 votes cast in the election, which means that only around 16.5 percent of the voters eligible were sufficiently interested to help select their committeemen."

This year, selection of the committeemen will be even more important, he stressed, since in 1945 community and county committees will be charged with administering the crop insurance programs. Members will set the premiums for insurance on wheat and cotton, and in case a loss is sustained, are to make the adjustments, Mills went on, which indicates that every farmer should take part in the election.

Recently, an act has been passed authorizing the "try-out" of crop insurance on practically all other crops, which means that farmers can expect to be able to secure some insurance on grain sorghums, etc.

Committeemen from each community will be elected at various meetings with the dates to be set today (Wednesday), when the current members meet at the AAA office. Also in the community gatherings, delegates will be named to attend a conference in Farwell to name the county-wide committeemen.

Mills urged that every farmer make plans now to help choose his own representatives for the coming year.

Booth Farm Sale Is Booked For Dec. 12

What is probably the biggest individual farm sale to be staged in this region in recent years is scheduled for the E. E. Booth farm, located 4½ miles south and ½ mile east of Farwell on Tuesday, Dec. 12th.

Mr. Booth, one of the largest and most successful farmers in this section, sold his farm last summer and is to give possession the first of the year, which forces him to offer at public auction his farming equipment and livestock.

One of the principal features of the sale will be the household goods, including many desirable items that are not on the market today at any price.

The sale will get underway at 10 o'clock, with Col. W. D. Wanzor in charge. Jack Williams will act as clerk. The ladies of West Camp will serve lunch at noon, with plenty of free coffee being offered those attending.

A complete list of the offerings will be found on page seven of this issue of The Tribune.

School District Case Affirmed Monday

Farwell Soldier Loses Five Tanks In Battles

Pvt. Glenn London, who two years ago left the States for action overseas, and who participated in practically all of the flaming tank battles in Africa when the Allies were cleaning out the Germans, is home on leave, enjoying "a fire and a bed". Sprawled comfortably, London recounted a few of his experiences in Africa and Italy, having spent the past few months in the latter country before being relieved for his return home.

Questioned as to his rank, Glenn grinned and reported that he took a "bust" from sergeant in Italy, when he transferred from tank commander to work in supplies. "I'd had five tanks shot out from under me," he said, "and figured my luck had been stretched far enough, so I took a change of jobs and ratings to stay out of the front line for a while."

Starting out as a tank driver, London was soon advanced to tank commander, when the 13th Armored Regiment of the 1st Armored Division was in the battle for Africa. "That division was about all the tanks," London said ruefully, "and consequently we covered some 10,000 miles in the African campaign."

His group participated in 15 major battles in Africa, at the conclusion of which a signboard listing the dates and places was erected by the boys, of which London has a picture. Roughest of the entire campaign was the battle at Mateur, where "we lost our tanks, had to get out, get more tanks and then go right back into battle. I lost my tank a second time, and had to crawl on my belly more than a mile to get out." Incidentally, this was where the local boy was awarded the Bronze Star for "bravery in action".

Scoreboard Explained

Noting that some of the dates of the battle overlapped, the veteran explained, "We'd fight one place all day, then set up dummy tanks to hold a hill at night—by the next morning we might be 100 to 135 miles away in another battle, while our dummies 'held' the other position for us. . . . It worked pretty good, too, for quite a spell."

Listed on the "scoreboard" for the regiment were the following: Nov. 8-10, 1942, Oran; Nov. 24-Dec. 4, Tebourba; Dec. 4-Jan. 6 1943, Medjez el Bab; Dec. 24-29, Siliana Pichon; Jan. 19-26, Aussettia Valley; Jan. 24, 1st Sene Station; Jan. 29, 2nd Sene Station; Jan. 29-Feb. 3, Mazilla Pass; Feb. 16-17, Setla; Feb. 20-25, Kasserine Pass; March 22-April 9, Maknassy; March 30-April 8, El Grettar; April 21-27, May 3-4, Mousetrapp; May 5-6, Mateur; May 7-9, final pursuit and drive to the sea.

Both in Africa and Italy, London met his brother Sgt. Orville London, now of Camp Barkeley, Abilene, who was returned to the States some months ago. "At Cassino, where we had to sit and wait for them to give us a bridgehead, I visited Orville quite a bit, since he was located only 2 miles from where we were located," London said.

Landed finally at Naples, London moved with the tank division through Rome, and was in a supply outfit in Naples when given his relief. He reported that enroute home he discovered that Captain "Penny" Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Anderson of Farwell, was at the same place in Naples, but he had not seen Anderson since the African campaign.

A volunteer, London was with the first group of Parmer county men sent into service at the beginning of the draft. He is on leave until December 8th when he will leave to report at Santa Barbara, Calif., for reassignment. In the meantime, he is taking life easy in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. London.

J. S. Glasscock, of near Muleshoe, was hospitalized in Clovis on Sunday, for treatment of a high blood pressure condition. He is the father of Mose Glasscock, of Farwell.

HOME FROM THE WARS—Pvt. Glenn London, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. London, who is home on furlough after two years overseas.

Machinery Repair Course May Close

R. L. Morton, agricultural instructor of the Farwell high school, stated today that there was a strong possibility that the farm machinery repair course, now being offered at the school, would be closed until after the holidays.

Morton said that a number of farmers had expressed themselves as interested in the free course being offered, but were unable to take advantage of the course as present due to the fact that they were too busy with harvesting operations.

Under the set-up, farmers having machinery to repair are permitted access to the school's machine shop without charge, to make such repairs on machines, cars and trucks. Morton expressed the hope that a good attendance of farmers would be present on Thursday night of this week in order that plans for the future of the course might be discussed. "We have been granted authority to postpone the course," he said, "but I would like to know what dates would best suit the farmers before going further with plans."

HAS HEART ATTACK

Albert Thomas, retired Texico merchant, was taken to a Clovis hospital on Saturday, where he is under treatment for a heart ailment. Mr. Thomas suffered a rather severe attack Saturday morning, and will likely be confined to the hospital for several days, his wife stated today.

Miss Dottie Dell Quickel, local teacher, spent the weekend visiting friends in Amarillo.

The Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo handed down a decision Monday, affirming the trial court in the case involving the State Line School district.

Some months ago, the Texas portion of the Texas-New Mexico Consolidated District No. 1 filed injunction proceedings seeking to restrain the old State Line district from withdrawing from the consolidation. The case was heard in district court in Farwell before Judge James W. Witherspoon, who held that the Texans in the consolidated district did have the right to withdraw because the compact between the State of New Mexico and the State of Texas was unconstitutional.

The case was appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals, and its decision, upholding the lower court, has just been announced.

Attorney J. D. Thomas, who represented the defense in the suit, stated today that the case could go to the Supreme Court, since the question of constitutionality was involved.

History of the Case

A brief review of the background leading up to the suit reveals that some years ago the Texas and New Mexico legislatures entered into a compact, whereby the creation of a consolidated district along the state line might become effective, with a majority vote of the school patrons in the proposed consolidation.

The voters of the State Line district in Texas and those of the Pleasant Hill district in New Mexico approved a consolidation in a special election. For a few years, the two district operated on the consolidation basis.

Some months ago, patrons of the Texas side of the line, in a special election, voted to withdraw from the consolidation, with part of the old State Line district being attached to the Bovina district and part to the Farwell district.

The injunction suit resulted.

High Wind and Cold Sweeps Plains Area

The first real cold weather of the winter season visited the Plains area the past weekend with sub-freezing readings being recorded over a wide section.

Light flurries of snow fell early Saturday morning and throughout the day a high wind lashed away. Many fields of cotton were damaged by the high wind, which whipped the staple from the open bolls.

Motorists were sent scurrying in search of anti-freeze solutions to put in their radiators, to discover that there was none to be had—except alcohol preparations.

SCHOOL DISMISSED

School at Farwell will be dismissed this (Wednesday) afternoon for students to enjoy the annual two-day Thanksgiving holidays from work. Supt. J. T. Carter stated that classes would be held as usual on next Monday.

Mrs. Forrest Bell and baby of Lubbock, visited relatives here over the weekend.

"We still have about a hundred thousand to go."

This was the terse comment G. D. Anderson, chairman of the War Finance Committee, made in a somewhat gloomy attitude today, when asked about the progress of the Sixth War Bond campaign in Parmer County.

Emphasizing that he had had only brief reports from the workers of the county, Chairman Anderson said that figures in his office revealed that less than $30,000 of the Series Ebonds had been sold, and slightly more than $1,000 in all other series had been taken up.

Anderson frowned on the idea of staging bond rallies over the county as a means of meeting Parmer's overall quota of $245,000. He reasoned that such a program would in-

To Oklahoma Citizens:

Since I have been placed on the Committee for the Oklahoma Lane community to assist in the sale of War Bonds in this 6th War bond drive, I would appreciate it very much if anyone living in the Oklahoma Lane community, desiring to buy bonds, would come by my office at your convenience when you are in town and give me your application. This will save me driving a lot of miles to see each of you individually.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

Lee Thompson.

involve unnecessary driving, and raised the question, "Why should this committee go out and beg the people to do what they know they ought to do?"

On the other side of the ledger, which gives a better picture of the chances for meeting the quota, Anderson said that "quite a number" of people had been in and said they intended to buy during the campaign, but "are just waiting" as he put it.

He said that the plan announced in The Tribune last week, setting up a schedule for bond buyers had received very favorable comment.

Anderson made an urgent appeal for all persons of the county to see the committeemen of their area and turn in their application for bonds without delay.

HAS SINUS OPERATION

O. C. Sikes, of the Sikes Motor Company, has been in Wichita Falls the past two weeks, where he underwent an operation for sinus trouble. He is expected to be home the latter part of this week.

Four Turnips Weigh 32½ Lbs.

Roy T. Slagle, of northwest of Friona, entered the biggest-turnip contest over the past weekend, when he brought in four purple tops that tipped the scales at 32½ pounds.

The biggest of the man-size bunch of tubers weighed an even ten pounds, while the runt was only able to draw 6½ on the beam.

Slagle says he planted a small patch in the garden, and "now I am wondering what in the world to do with the huge crop". He said that turnips make good cow and chicken feed, and will probably be used for that purpose.

Texas Veterans Help Bond Sales

Texans just won't quit fighting! Even the boys who have spent months overseas, been seriously wounded and returned to the States to recover their health, insist upon doing their extra bit for victory. Dozens of men in McCloskey General Hospital at Temple have volunteered to help with war fund and war bond drives, even though they have won the right to sit back and take things easy.

Two returned veterans, Capt. R. E. Erisman of Ennis and Pfc. Paul Trotter of Sherman, are touring the state now, putting on one-day "clean-up" campaigns for the National War Fund, helping local war chest workers put their counties over the top.

Captain Erisman recently returned from China where he spent 13 months fighting the Japs with Chinese troops. He is recovering now from a serious illness contracted there.

"People at home who think the war is over make me sick," he told a meeting at Stephenville last week. "If they realized how many of our boys will be killed before victory comes they would think differently. The Japs are tough, and it will take a long time to whip them."

Trotter, a likeable, lanky Texan, was wounded seriously at Salerno Beach captured by the Nazis, and spent almost seven months in a German prison camp. He returned on the Gripsholm and is recovering from bullet wounds in the left hand, arm and side and shrapnel wounds of the shoulder and face.

While in the prisoner-of-war camp he received athletic equipment, books and other recreational supplies from his Texas home-folks, through War Prisoners Aid, the National War Fund agency.

"I am making this tour to tell the people of Texas how much this help means to the men in Nazi camps," he explained. "Men would go crazy from sheer boredom if they didn't receive recreational equipment. Many close friends of mine are still prisoners, and I want to help them get the things they need."

And another Texas fighting "man" is back home, after engaging in two major battles in the Pacific. He is Alfred Wright of McAllen, who set a record by being the youngest gub to fight the Japs. Alfred took a heroic part in two tough fights before Navy officials discovered he was only 15 years of age. One of the battles was fought when he was 14.

The Navy sent him home when they learned his age. But no one can take from the fighting Texas youngster the two battle stars he wears so proudly!

Yes, Texans fight at any age! And their fighting, both at home and abroad, is going to do a lot toward victory in the war against the Nazis and Japs.

MERCHANT MARINE NEEDS RECRUITS FOR TRAINING

Lt. (jg) J. L. Vaughn, regional enrolling officer for the 10th Area of the U. S. Maritime Service, announced in Houston today that an intensive recruiting campaign by the Maritime Service, training organization for the Merchant Marine, began Monday, Nov. 27, in Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana. It will run through December 31. Lt. Vaughn stated this campaign is part of a nation-wide effort to recruit 16,000 men during this period.

Representatives will be in many employment service offices to recruit men between the ages of 17 and 50 for apprentice seaman training. This program is designed to train men between the ages of 17 and 35 for deck, engine, radio operator, hospital-corpsman-purser and stewards departments. Men 35 to 50 are given steward's training.

There now exists an urgent need for shells, guns, tanks, and other war materials in both theatres of war and the responsibility of getting these supplies to the fighting men depends upon a sufficient number of trained personnel to man the ever-expanding merchant fleet. In order for Texas to meet its quota of manpower, it is necessary to enroll at least 1250 men during the drive. Maritime Service offices are located in Dallas, Houston, and Port Arthur.

STORE PECANS PROPERLY

COLLEGE STATION—Pecans in storage should be well ventilated, otherwise heating and molding may result. This reminder comes from J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist for the Texas A. & M. Extension Service. He warns against storing the nuts in bins before the meats are thoroughly dry. It is better to keep the pecans in sacks for a couple of weeks, storing them where the air can circulate freely over and around them.

When freezer lockers are available, pecans will keep satisfactorily for three years. The shelled meats should be stored in tin cans or other tight containers. They should be stored early, usually in December, before any deterioration in the meat begins.

Crop estimate for Texas is 43 million pounds of pecans, good in some sections and spotty in others. Llano County, for example, reports the biggest crop in a number of years, and the nuts are of fine quality. In Galveston County, where nuts are not so plentiful, home demonstration women are pooling orders for a large shipment of paper shell pecans.

EGG SHIPMENTS INCREASE

AUSTIN—Egg shipments from Texas during September were almost double those of September a year ago, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research says.

In shell equivalent, a total of 1,332 cars were shipped, including those destined for both Texas and out-of-state points, compared to 733 cars in September, 1943.

September shipments of poultry included 17 cars of chickens and one of turkeys, compared with 10 of chickens and 3 of turkeys in September a year ago.

The average depth of the ocean is 13,000 feet.

THANKSGIVING—THIS WEEK OR LAST?

Did you celebrate "Franksgiving" or are you celebrating Thanksgiving? Students of Farwell school will be vacationing this weekend, while most other neighboring schools will be at work, with no holidays to look forward to until Christmas.

When the Pilgrims landed in what is now America, they gave thanks for the safe journey; for food and life; for a land all their own to raise crops and food; they gave thanks for their freedom and the right to worship unmolested. Today we have many of the same things for which to be thankful. In this hour, an hour of global war, we should turn more and more to the leadership of God. We can be thankful for life, for where there is life there is hope. Where there is hope there is the will to fight harder for what each heart desires . . . peace. On this Thanksgiving Day, let us lift up a special prayer for the boys "over there". Let us take advantage of the right to be true Americans so that next Thanksgiving we will truly have something great for which to be thankful.

THE MICE WILL PLAY

The old proverb (or is it a proverb?) "When the cat's away, the mice will play" might have been the case last Monday and Tuesday but as a whole we were a pretty good bunch of kids. Mr. Carter was in Waco and in his absence Reverend Walker, pastor of the Methodist Church, took over the superintendent's duties and classes. We say "thanks" to Rev. Walker, and we would like to know you better. To Mr. Carter, we say "Welcome home".

AS THE DUST FLIES . . .

Wynelle, what senior boy's class ring are you sporting? Could the initials inside be S. H.?

The Telephone Company should be having rushing business these days—just who is this guy from a neighboring school who calls Tommie Randol every morning in the first period study hall?

Just got word from a guy who heard that Travis Poteet is extremely bashful . . . he saw a pretty girl go down the street the other day and with all shyness and timidity he says, "Woo! Woo!"

Miss Quicquel, are you really dating a Looney? Gosh, how do ya rate?

Why was Latrille so up in the clouds Thursday morning? Could it have been the date the night before? Maybe Bert could give us a hint on that!

Just how did Ray get exempt in English?

Why is Bobby ashamed of the "Romance" books he reads?

It keeps us guessing who will win the affections of Latrille, Bert or Glenn!

We suggest using pins instead of buttons on basketball blouses—we think Laveta will agree on that!

Say why does Tommie Randol get her dates mixed so often? But who wouldn't, with at least four men on her string at once.

HAY RIDE HELD

On Saturday night not long ago some of the dignified kids of Farwell high and community went on a hay ride. The two fire-extinguishers (chaperones to you) were Misses Dottie Dell Quicquel and Berthamae Thomas. The boys forfeited the money and the girls purchased the grub. Of course, we bought the easiest things—weeners, buns, cokes and cookies. The idea was to go to the sand hills, but we ended up at the park in Clovis. Everybody had a wonderful time roasting weiners and trying to keep warm. Afterward we went up and down main street and MAYBE threw hay at a few open convertibles and a little on the streets, but it was all in fun. Everybody knew the country folks had come to town cause we wore coveralls and levis; After riding we went to the preview, nobody seemed tired even then. On the way home it was a little bit cold, but we didn't mind!

SENIOR CHATTER

C. J. Doose, who has had an appendectomy, is enjoying being at home again. We are glad that he is doing so well, and that Mrs. Doose is back in school again.

We are sorry to lose Clarence Summers from our class. He left on Friday for the Navy. Hurry back when you can, Clarence, and good luck.

FAREWELL PARTY

A farewell party was given Nov. 10 in the home of Latrille Hicks for Clarence Summers. Several games were played, after which refreshments were served to Joan Booth, Glenn Phillips, Norma Jean Thomas, Duane Sprawls, Don Williams, Natoma Hodges, Maxine Ford, Gene Templeman, Max Ford, Wynelle Brown, Misses Dottie Dell Quicquel and Berthamae Thomas, Tommie Randol, T. A. Gilson, Donald Summers, Bert Williams, and the honoree, Clarence Summers, the hostesses Bertha Gast and Latrille Hicks.

UP AND DOWN THE HALL

In case you have not figured it out, last month's "suspects" were Jo Ann Williams and Ray Ford. This time we have two very popular junior students for identification and some of their favorites are listed for you to use as clues. The girl is a very attractive brunette, has brown eyes stands 5 feet 5 inches, weighs 130 pounds. Her favorites: Subject—History. Book, "Trail of the Lonesome Pine".

Movie, "For Me and My Gal". Actor, John Payne. Sport, Baseball. Food, Fudgeicles. Hobby, Collecting tie clasps. The boy is a redhead, has green eyes, stands 6 feet tall, weighs 165 pounds. His favorites are: Subject, Typing. Book, "The Fullback". Movie, "Two Girls and a Sailor". Actress, Jane Withers. Sport, Football. Food, Fried chicken. Hobby, Meeting new girls! WHO ARE THEY? ? ?

GOING SOMEWHERE?

On quizzing the teachers about their plans for the Thanksgiving holidays, we found that the majority are to spend their vacation at home and are glad to have the opportunity to do so. The one taking the longest trip in such short time is Mrs. Dickinson first grade, who plans to leave Nov. 29 for Dallas for a brief visit with her sister. Miss Berthamae Thomas plans to be with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thomas in Clarendon and Miss Dottie Dell Quicquel will be in with Bovina with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Quicquel. Mrs. Hopkins, second and third grades, Mrs. H. V. Whitley, fourth and fifth, J. M. Baker, sixth and seventh, Robert Morton, ag, Mrs. C. J. Doose, home ec., and the J. T. Carters will spend Thanksgiving calmly at home.

JUNIOR GOSSIP

New President Elected

We are indeed sorry to announce that our class president, Verna Lee Hurst has left the class. Wynelle Brown was named to take the vacancy and Donald Summers was chosen to take the position of vice president.

Leaving for Merchant Marine

T. A. Gilson left Monday to take a physical examination to enter the Merchant Marines. He will be greatly missed by all.

I hear that Earl had some trouble getting his Model A started the other night. Bet he would really be mad if he knew just who disconnected the spark plugs. Eh, Earl?

They tell me Don Summers has his "cap set" for Jeatonne. Power to you, Don!

Wynelle certainly enjoyed the ball games Saturday and everything else that happened between Tech and Ranchvale, N. M. Just ask Sam H.

Chester, better known as the "lone wolf", makes a habit of attending mid-night previews . . . alone!

FFA NEWS

The FFA boys are planning a duck barbecue, providing we can get the ducks.

We wonder why Sam Young's sow is always so clean. It couldn't be Life Bouy, could it, Sam?

Why is it that Prof. Morton always sits on the radiator during class? What about this, prof?

Why is it prof is always telling us to keep our heads higher than our feet? Couldn't be because we always have our feet on the table, could it?

JERRY POOL REPORTING

The 6th and 7th had their regular meeting Nov. 16 and decided to give $5 out of the class fund to the Red Cross. For entertainment, Rosamond Booth recited a poem and Robert Armstrong read a story, "The Soap Box Derby".

CLASS PRESENTS PLAY

The Speech department received books for the new play, "June Mad" and try-outs are being held for the 13 different parts. Watch your local paper for the date. It will be worth your time and money.

GAMES PLAYED FRIDAY

The seniors, both boys and girls, challenged the rest of the classes to basketball games Friday. Both skirmishes were fast and good, the boys lost 29-21, while the senior girls won, 21-22. We are eagerly awaiting the games with Bovina, Dec. 1.

FINDERS . . . KEEPERS!

"No butter, no nothin'! We've looked everywhere—even took the bed apart this morning, but still no ration books!" These were the sad words of Miss Quicquel and Miss Thomas when asked if the rumor of the loss was true. "Only by the kindness of Rev. and Mrs. Walker who loaned us their books, temporarily, are we eating now—so if you find the books won't you please let us know, immediately?"

Ya know, kids, it's really no laughing matter, but isn't it funny to see the teachers suffer awhile?

NEW SUITS ORDERED

The girls' basketball team is happy to announce that it is to have new gym suits with hopes that the suits arrive in time for the first game of the season. The girls are working very diligently. If you are a sports fan, be sure to be on hand for the first basketball game of the season, as well as the first game in several years for the girls, on Friday night of this week.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to take this means of saying "thanks" to Mrs. Earl Booth who spent several days teaching high school English during the absence of Mrs. J. T. Carter. Through her kindness and generosity, we were able to continue our work in English during the recent illness of Virginia Carter. We are happy to report that Virginia is on the road to recovery, and are glad to have Mrs. Carter back with us again.

THRU THE LIBRARY WINDOW

"Say, Johnny, tell me a good book to read during the holidays."

"That I will; I read one last week that's really swell. It's 'Tad Lincoln, the President's Son' by T. Morris Longstreth. Here's a story of Civil War Washington seen through the eyes of the most lovable brat in American history. For Tad Lincoln, although the joy of the President's herat, was certainly a trial and tribulation to the others who knew him—to old Andrew, the greenhouse keeper, who discovered that the strawberries so carefully forced for a State dinner were not there when they should have been; to Stanton, the efficient Secretary of War, who was the victim of a hosing on the White House lawn; to Mrs. Taft, who returned home one day to stand scandalized by the object which flew from her flapper; and to practically everyone else who impeded Tad's wild enthusiasm and boundless imagination. Through Tad emerges the tender story of Abe and Mary Todd Lincoln—the Civil War as it was lived and suffered in the White House. And underneath the humor and suspense the President's never-failing understanding of the things for which he himself is fighting, an understanding that cannot overshadow his love for people, even those who are the enemy."

Land Loans

One of the larger Life Insurance Companies of Texas is making approximately 80 per cent of its real estate loans in West Texas. A West Texas man is in charge of the loan and real estate department for West Texas and will make prompt inspections. He will assist you in working out a loan to meet your needs.

Interest rates of this company are as low as the lowest. Terms, five to twenty years, lenient options and reasonable release and subdivision privileges.

This company, besides making loans on real estate, will buy outright or make loans on first vendor lien notes.

There's an unpaid balance due . . .

THE minute never comes when any of us can say, "I've done enough." Until the end of the war—and for years thereafter—there'll be an unpaid balance due the men who are winning Victory for us today.

But War Bonds do pay installments on that balance!

Right now, the only protection we can give our boys is guns that fire quicker, planes that fly faster, and tanks that maneuver better than the enemy's. Your War Bonds help to buy them.

And when the war's over, War Bonds will go on making "payments"—because they'll help the country—including your farm—get back to peacetime prosperity. Let your returning boy find the farm backed with a strong financial reserve in Bonds . . . or new buildings, new stock, new machinery, and extra living comforts for the home he's been fighting for.

Today, and every day you can, buy another Bond toward that unpaid balance!

5 REASONS FOR INCREASING YOUR WAR BOND PURCHASES

1. The tempo of this war is hitting its highest point. Government expenditures for war are at the peak. MORE MONEY IS NEEDED . . . NOW!
2. In proportion to WHO HAS THE MOST MONEY, individuals are not buying their share of War Bonds. America must correct this situation.
3. War Bonds provide the farmer and rancher with the financial reserve he must have to survive the ordinary ups and downs of farming as a business.
4. Money will be needed urgently at a future date to replace and repair farm equipment, machinery, and buildings. War Bonds will provide it.
5. War Bonds are the safest investment in the world, return a good rate of interest, are easy and convenient to buy . . . from bank, post office, rural mail carrier or Production Credit Association.

Winter Resorts Face Lack of Travelers

Motorists who use gasoline illegally to travel to winter resorts face the loss of their mileage rations, the district office of price administration advises.

An enforcement program now in preparation to prevent misuse of rations provides that motorists who use coupons illegally will be called before hearing commissioners who have the power to revoke not only the supplemental "B" and "C" rations, but basic "A" rations as well.

Each ration board in the Lubbock district has been instructed to review the mileage regulations governing vacation travel to resorts and reminded that they must deny gasoline for this purpose.

Support of Christmas Seal Sale Is Urged

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt today asked the American people to join with official and voluntary agencies in the fight against tuberculosis which is already taking a "tremendous toll of lives in the war-torn countries of Europe and Asia".

Supporting the 38th annual Christmas Seal Sale of the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliates, which opened November 27 and will continue until Christmas, the President said this country "cannot afford to permit the strength of its people to be sapped by this insidious disease".

The President's statement follows: "Knowing that tuberculosis has increased after all past wars, we must act now to prevent its spread. We can do this by joining with the medical profession and with official and voluntary agencies in their fight against tuberculosis."

"It is none too soon to act. I am informed that last year, tuberculosis took 56,000 lives in the United States and that the death rate from the disease increased in 21 industrial states, even though the rate in the nation as a whole declined slightly."

"Tuberculosis is a communicable disease, but it is also a controllable disease. Cooperation between the American people and the agencies devoted to spreading knowledge on the prevention of tuberculosis will

Woman's Club Meets With Mrs. Pool

The Texico-Farwell Woman's Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Lelton Pool acting as hostess in her home.

In the business session, the resignation of Mrs. F. E. Keploy as parliamentarian was accepted, and Mrs. Ellis M. Mills was named to the vacancy. It was voted that the annual Christmas party would be held the third Tuesday in December, in the home of Mrs. W. H. Graham. The gift exchange will be observed at that time.

Roll call was answered with "typical English remarks", after which Mrs. A. D. Smith took over the program, speaking on "English Home Life and Customs".

Refreshments of icebox pudding and spiced tea were served to Mesdames Smith, Sam Rundell, Mills, J. T. Carter, Clyde Magness, W. H. Graham, members; and Mrs. Porterfield, of Kansas, guest.

Local Youngsters Give Show For Hypnotist

Victims of a talented hypnotist, William Fayssoux, students of the Farwell school put on a highly entertaining show for a large audience gathered in the Farwell auditorium the past Friday night.

Charged into a deep "sleep", the boys fought swarms of bees, switched their shoes from right to wrong, turned coats inside out, went into gales of laughter and wound up by wandering around the stage crying "mama" before being brought out of their trance by the hypnotist.

Opening the evening, Fayssoux illustrated the powers of telepathy and numerology, and then presented the mail bag and trunk trick, in which his assistant was locked in a mail bag, placed in a trunk locked and tied securely by local men—the trunk was placed in a curtained alcove and in a matter of seconds the assistant stood free—with no visible means of escape.

The program was sponsored by the Woman's Club of the Twin Cities, and was one of the most interesting lyceum numbers presented locally in some months.

Mrs. Raymond Haynes returned home Tuesday from Lubbock. She had spent several days in that city with her sister, Mrs. Orville Williams, who sustained a major operation on Friday.

Miss Geraldine Thomas Weds In Charleston

Miss Geraldine Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas, became the bride of Staff Sergeant Edgar Campbell, of Charleston, South Carolina on Friday, November 17th.

A graduate of the Texico school, Mrs. Campbell is well known locally. For the past several months she had been employed by the Southern Union Gas Company in Clovis. Sgt. Campbell is formerly of the Hollene community.

Sgt. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in Charleston, where the groom has been stationed for the past three years at the Charleston Air Base.

Musical selections by the group will include masses, chorales, and Negro spirituals.

"Really should not write this a. m., as it is not raining and I feel too good to be mad at anyone. Even you, low down as you are. The Aug. 17 issue of your much appreciated, though somewhat doubtful, literary efforts came to me yesterday and fairly gave my blood a chill. Had I known how tough it really is over here I would probably have gone back to Italy long since. Just imagine snipers, mine fields, air raids, mud, sand, swimming around with 150 lb. packs, and last but not least, battling your way through those English pubs for a year or two. There should be a law against it (and all alone, too!) I would suggest the Congressional medal of honor at the very least. Some of our local heroes should be quite fluent in German after bartering them out of their supplies and material up in the front lines. Now that I've got that off my mind, Hop, I'll tell you about France. She is really one beautiful place. And I've seen stills running out where everyone could have a look—and a drink of grape brandy if you so desired—I did and it sure does wonders in digesting C rations. And the women, Hop, Well, just let your imagination run riot and you won't miss it much. Now don't you wish you had come instead of sending me? ? ?"

Health Notes

by Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—Despite the fact that the cause of tuberculosis is known, diagnostic aids highly developed, and treatment procedures definitely established, the disease still remains the chief cause of deaths among persons aged 15 to 35 years. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health officer, has stated that their age period corresponds to the time of greatest physical activity. The resulting chronic fatigue may be an activating factor in the development of tuberculosis.

"Today's distractions for the adolescent, whether in school or employed, are many and intriguing. Coupled with the daily requirements of study or work, are many activities and allurements that tend habitually to rob the girl or boy of the nightly adequate sleep requirement," Dr. Cox said. "For many young people, bed is but a last resort, and the next morning's ring of the alarm clock is a painful recall to the day's work or school. In this manner bodily resistance can be lowered, thus giving the latent tuberculosis germ, if present, its chance to become active, as well as to make those coming in close contact with an 'open case' more vulnerable to infection than usual.

"Another easy approach to chronic fatigue is through strenuous physical activities of any sort, including vigorous competitive sports (as distinguished from the usual run of recreational activities associated with school life), and hard, sustained physical labor. While most youngsters stand up to the physical demands of interscholastic sports, as well as hard work, those who are infected with the tuberculosis organism, however inactive the germ may be, rarely are so fortunate. The problem calls for more parental consideration than it is receiving today."

The lane was dark and almost deserted. Little Jones was suddenly accosted by two men, the larger of whom stopped him and said, politely: "Excuse me, sir; I wonder if you could oblige me with the loan of a penny, or some similar small coin?"

"Why, yes; I think so," Jones replied, feeling into his pockets, producing a penny, and handing it to him. "It's a small request—er—may I ask you for what purpose you require it?"

"Certainly, sir," the fellow replied. "My mate and I wish to toss the coin to settle our little argument as to which of us shall have your watch and which your wallet!"

Visual Education Bldg. Completed at Highlands

LAS VEGAS—With the completion of the new Educational Aids building set for the opening of the new term on November 27, Highlands University will open a new era of educational achievement.

The new building has been equipped with all the latest types of audio-visual aids so arranged that they can be used by every department of the college. Dr. Lester B. Sands, dean of the University and director of the enterprise, has pointed out that few colleges or universities in the country are as well equipped as Highlands now is in this educational area.

The center of activities in the new building is the excellently equipped auditorium, which has a seating capacity of about 100 students. Sound-proofed, it has facilities for sound motion pictures, slide and film strips and other audio-visual aids. From its stage, the weekly "Highlands University Presents" show is broadcast by direct wire over KFUN.

Other rooms in the building are designed for specialized class work.

For example, speech classes will record their work and play back results so that students may note their defects and correct them. Small music groups will be able to make recordings for the same purpose. A complete photography laboratory has been installed for the many students who plan to take the course in photography to be offered this Winter Quarter.

Educators have known for many years the value of these audio-visual aids, Dr. Sands pointed out, but only in the last few years has the technology reached the point where the quality and quantity of these aids are sufficient for a completely integrated program.

TELEPHONE COMPANIES PLAN FOR POST-WAR WORK

A joint committee of representatives of Bell and Independent Operating telephone companies throughout the United States has recently been formed to advance the nationwide post-war programs which the companies have been working on individually, to extend and improve farm telephone service. Co-chairmen are John Boylan, president of the U. S. Independent Telephone Assn., and Keith S. McHugh, vice president of American Telephone and Telegraph, representing the Bell companies.

"Rural telephone service is more highly developed in this country, under the American system of private enterprise, than in any other country in the world," the chairmen stated. "However, it is by no means as highly developed as we want to see it, and the industry intends to do everything in its power to provide more service, and better service, at a cost which the farmer can afford."

"Since operating telephone companies have been working on this problem, a representative joint committee has been formed of a number of our most expert officials. We believe that application of new facilities and methods, under development before the demands of war interrupted our research and construction program, will help bring telephone service to many new farm customers. As soon as war demands are reduced, we propose to resume and expand our research effort, and along with it, an intensive program for expanding farm service which was being carried on before the outbreak of hostilities."

One major objective is to continue the upward trend in rural phone use by making service, over existing lines increasingly valuable and attractive. A second objective is to extend service at a reasonable cost to families not now reached by existing lines, the committee said.

The telephone companies also plan to study the possible application of micro-wave radio systems to rural telephone service and to make use of this and any other new methods which will be helpful in service to the farmer.

Grady Teams Visit On Texico Court, Friday

Teams from Grady will meet the Texico players on Friday night of this week, in a series of cage games expected to rate as one of the best of the season to be played on the local court.

Checking up today, Coach C. E. Sanders said he understood the Grady boys had played "two or three" matches so far this year, having an unbroken list of wins up to date. Stout and Williams, returning first-stringers, are expected to bear considerable of the visitor's attack.

The tentative lineup for Texico includes Johnson at center, White and Roop at forward, Knox and Paul at guard. Probable subs will be Miller at forward, Baker and Freeman at guard, Martin and Doolittle and center.

The boys recently named White as captain and Knox as co-captain of the squad for the year.

The girls' team from Grady suffered a defeat at the hands of the Ranchvale team recently, as did the Texico girls, and the fight between the two team Friday night is expected to be about even, Coach Viola Rodewald opined today.

Betty and Peggy Flye and Beryl Brown will lead off as forwards, with Caldwell, Evelyn Brown and Calouett as guards. Baker, Box, May, Beverly Brown and Green are expected to see action as substitutes.

The opening game will be by the girls, at 8 o'clock, and admission is 20 and 30 cents. Pvt. Silvers, from the Clovis air base, is expected to call the games.

Junior Play Presented To Attentive Audience

A large crowd was on hand at the Texico auditorium the past Wednesday evening, when the juniors of the school put on costumes and make-up to present a clever three-act comedy.

The play involved the adventures of "High Pressure Homer" a fast-working salesman, who talked himself out of one job and into another in rapid-fire manner. The part of Homer was taken by Belvin Freeman.

Chief on the list of heart-throb "high pressure" candidates was Arlene Woodruff, played by Peggy Flye. Other members of the cast who did creditable work were Harriett Baker and Carl Miller, as the other members of the Woodruff family.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Pete Murphy and approximately $60 was realized by the juniors.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

The Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending November 25 were 23,243 compared with 22,243 for same week in 1943. Cars received from connections totaled 15,332 compared with 12,610 for same week in 1943. Total cars moved were 38,575 compared with 34,853 for same week in 1943. Santa Fe handled total of 41,769 cars in the preceding week of this year.

Basketball Season Opens for Farwell

Playing an old-time rival Bovina, the cagers of the Farwell school will open their 1944-45 season on Friday evening of this week at the local gymnasium.

In addition to being the opening of the season, scores of the games will have a standing on the conference record of the teams, it was announced today.

Actually, little "dope" could be secured on any of the teams. The Farwell girls are under the direction of Miss Dottie Dell Quickel, and although green "are showing promise", in the words of their coach.

J. T. Carter, who coaches the boys' team of the local school, was of the opinion that his boys would put up a lively scrap on Friday night, but indicated that with this being the first round, he was not inclined to make predictions.

The girls' game will be called at 8 o'clock, followed by the boys. Referee for the frays will be Jack Williams, and admission will be 20 and 30 cents.

Carnival Princesses Are Being Nominated

EL PASO—Communities throughout the International Southwest are selecting princesses who will represent them at the tenth annual Sun carnival, which will be celebrated here from Dec. 29 through Jan. 1.

These princesses will comprise a court of honor that will attend the Sun Queen when she is crowned at an elaborate coronation ball on Dec. 30. About 20 princesses are expected and they will come from communities as far east as Midland, as far north as Albuquerque, as far west as Phoenix, and from Chihuahua City. Also attending the Sun Queen will be several duchesses who will be selected in El Paso. To date, four princesses have been selected. They, and their sponsors, are: Evelyn Elliot, of Amarillo, West Texas State College; Jean Nunn, Fort Stockton Business and Professional Women's Club; Dorothy Norton, Alamogordo Chamber of Commerce; and Ann Ulmer, Midland Chamber of Commerce.

Meanwhile, the Southwestern Sun Carnival Association announced that the Ted Weems orchestra would provide music for the coronation ball.

The 1945 Sun Queen will be announced Dec. 10. The two teams who will vie for the Sun Bowl football championship will be announced shortly thereafter. This football game, which is the climactic event of the Sun Carnival, will be played Jan. 1. Tickets are now being sold and the net proceeds will go to war relief.

Publish Santa Letters

Beginning next week, The Tribune opens its annual "Dear Santa" column, in which letters will be published. Letters to Santa should be addressed in care of The Tribune and must be received by Tuesday noon to be in the current issue.

Bangs Tests Planned For Co. Dairy Herds

County Agent Lee McElroy revealed the first of the week that plans are now underway to have a veterinarian from the Bureau of Animal Industry visit the county, "probably around the first of the year", to make tests for Bang's disease among Parmer dairy herds.

A recent cattle census shows that there are 5,500 dairy animals in the county, of which only 1500 have been tested for Bangs, McElroy reported today.

To date, more than 300 animals in the Lazbuddy area have been listed for testing, and it hoped that this number will be swelled considerably during December. Dates for testing will be announced later.

"There is no charge to the herd owner for the Bang's tests by the Bureau veterinarian," McElroy said. The only requirement is that the owners sign papers agreeing to dispose of all reactor animals to slaughter pens, and to allow such vaccination for the disease as the veterinarian deems advisable. The program is sponsored in this county by the Parmer County Dairy Club.

Agreement forms are available at McElroy's office, and he urged that all dairymen of the county visit him and study the forms preparatory to having tests made of their herds.

Seed Loans Available At Local Courthouse

Emergency crop loans, generally known as "seed" loans, are now available to farmers of this county who need assistance in financing the production of 1945 crops. Leo Forrest, field supervisor, is in the Parmer county courthouse to take applications for loans, on Friday of each week.

An early installment of the loan may be advanced at this time for purchase of feed or fuel oil for preparing the land, as well as fertilizer, seed and supplies, which may be needed now, and the remainder of the funds will be disbursed as required.

As in the past, borrowers will be required to plant a large garden for home use and a balanced farm program of food, feed and cash crops is encouraged. Security for the loan
