New Price Support for Cottonseed Announced

COLLEGE STATION—A new support price of $55 per ton for cottonseed to Texas farmers was announced this week by the War Food Administration through the state AAA office.

The new price, which went into effect August 1, and will continue through July 31, 1944, is $6 per ton over last year's minimum price for basis grade seed, f.o.b., shipping points.

Commenting on the program, AAA officials pointed out there will be no contracts with processors on the 1943 crop. The price will be affected through an offer by Commodity Credit Corporation to purchase cottonseed products from oil mill operators who agree to purchase cottonseed in lots of not less than ten tons at the support price.

Since the majority of Texas cotton producers will not be able to dispose of their seed in minimum quantity, they are being encouraged to pool seed cooperatively or accumulate seed in lots of ten tons or more for direct sale to oil mills in order to receive higher price.

According to present regulations, the support price of $55 per ton, f.o.b. shipping point, basis "U. S. Standard grades," will apply in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, while other cotton producing states will receive $56 per ton on the same basis.

AAA officials add that in areas where oil mills have accepted the offer and desire to purchase cottonseed at a "flat" or "as is" price, these prices shall average not less than the average price which would have been paid if each lot of cottonseed had been purchased on a "U. S. Standard grades" basis.

It's a good idea to "put up" fruits and vegetables for next winter... but if you put up your car instead of using it for essential transportation, you actually throw an additional burden on overloaded streetcars, buses, and trains.

In the national interest, as well as in your own, the way to preserve your car is to give it the care it needs and deserves in times like these.

Save rubber, gasoline, and oil by cutting down driving speed. And get expert help to make your car and your tires go farther and last longer.

This expert help is waiting for you at every Phillips 66 Service Station. Go there at least once a week so that the Phillips 66 Service Man can check tire inflation. In hot weather, twice-a-week tire checks are even better. Remember, under-inflation not only increases tire wear but places an unnecessary drag on the engine and thus wastes gasoline.

The Phillips 66 Service Man will also inspect your tires for cuts and bruises, will crisscross them with the spare every 3,000 miles, will tell you when re-capping is advisable. He will check your radiator, battery, and air filter. Will change crankcase oil, and lubricate chassis parts at the nationally recommended 60-day intervals.

Remember, whether you buy one coupon's worth of famous Phillips 66 gasoline, or merely want water or air, Good Neighbor Service is always waiting for you at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Farming Talk

By GARLON A. HARPER
County Agricultural Agent

Texas A. & M. Extension Service

All of you know only too well what has been happening to our hog population during the last three months. I suppose that there have never been as many hogs marketed off our farms in any other such period. Nearly all our farmers have simply made up their minds that there is no money to be made in hogs and they have cut down on their hog numbers just as rapidly as they can. It is a situation which is enough to worry anyone. Every pound of pork which can be produced is needed. Farmers have been all set to produce pork to the limit. But these two favorable factors were offset very quickly by holding down hog prices and raising feed prices, plus a small supply of protein supplements.

In spite of the discouragement which all of us experience in this matter, there are some things which we should keep in mind. Hog business is not gone forever and there is still a great need for pork. So, we should at least start making plans for our hog business in the future. There are so many things we need to do to get to the place where we can really make profits from our hogs in the future. These things are to learn to feed properly, practice swine sanitation and disease control, learn to save more pigs from each litter, house our hogs better, provide more pasture, use better breeding animals, and a world of other things.

If I were a farmer now I would start in to keep at least a few sows and gradually switch these sows over to the best I could get in the breed I liked. I would start using only a high quality and well-bred boar instead of just breeding my sows to any boar. I would start a system of hog pastures so I could put every sow which farrows on a clean pasture and try to keep the pigs on good pasture until they reach about 150 pounds. I would do everything possible to eliminate roundworms from my farm by worming all pigs just before weaning and practicing sanitation. I would start improving my hog houses and feeding pens and providing a well arranged concrete hog wallow. THE MAN WHO DOES THIS IS GOING TO BE THE MAN WHO WILL MAKE MONEY ON HOGS YEAR AFTER YEAR. Try for better prices? YES. But clean up your own house first. You know you can do this. You may or may not be able to correct a national situation.

During one case in a Chicago court, a lawyer put a question containing 4800 words. The answer was "No".

Stresses Sanitation to Prevent Spread of Dread Poliomyelitis

Five Killed in $5,000,000 Harlem Riot

Private Robert Bandy, left, interfered with a policeman making an arrest, was shot, and thus ignited a Harlem, N. Y., riot in which five Negroes were killed, 600 persons were injured and property was damaged to the extent of $5,000,000. Right, Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia, with Dr. Max Yergen and Ferdinand Smith, Negro leaders, as they conferred on measures to stop the rioting.

AUSTIN—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the prevention and control of poliomyelitis which is assuming epidemic proportions in certain sections of the State.

Until recently it was generally believed that this infection is transmitted by means of discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis is primarily another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore, control measures must emphasize clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Strict sanitary measures must be observed in all communities. Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate the house fly and to destroy its breeding places. All mosquito breeding places must be eliminated at once. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems immediately. Safe water supplies must be assured. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is vitally important to promote and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All swimming pools should, under rigid supervision, maintain those standards approved by the Texas State Department of Health. This necessarily includes maintenance of proper chlorine level. Where such standards are not maintained, these pools should be closed immediately.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from flies, filth, and insects. Eating and food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the state law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. In the present emergency, those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation should close one or two hours a day so that the employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitary standards.

Every effort should be made to secure approved milk. Rats and mice should be eliminated. Maintain in the home the same sanitary standards that are necessary in community life. Particular attention should be paid to personal hygiene. Excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is a sick child. Cases should be quarantined for 14 days and adults who work in food establishments should be particularly instructed in personal hygiene. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theaters be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Quick Tricks In Fresh Vegetable Cookery

Gone with the can is the art of short-cut cookery. Back to the sink and the range we go. Ahead for all of us is some good old-fashioned cooking.

Biggest blow to short-cut cooks is the curtailed stock of canned vegetables. For most women have leaned more heavily of late on the food processors' skill with vegetables than their own kitchen cunning.

Meantime, though—while we've been wielding the opener and brandishing the can—food scientists have brushed up their cooking methods, discovered short-cut tricks.

Less time is needed now, less water used, less fuel than when you last cooked fresh vegetables. Short cuts in preparation, and quick cooking in just a little water are the newest rules, turn out vegetables superior in color, texture, flavor.

Epicures have taught us how to serve and season, too—advise herbs, sauces, condiments to enhance fresh vegetable flavors. Here is a comprehensive, up-to-date course in vegetable cookery. Clip and consult frequently.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—"Few conquests of science have been as spectacular and complete as those relating to diphtheria," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today. "Science has firmly established the value of serum treatment in both its preventive and curative phases. However, toxin-antitoxin, or its successor toxoid for immunization and anti-toxin for cure, are serums of which the general public is even yet not fully aware."

As indicated, toxoid is the immunizing or preventive agent now usually employed. However, three or four months are required for the body to develop immunity. At that time the Schick test can be applied to determine the results of the preventive treatment.

Dr. Cox urged that children receive diphtheria immunization as early as possible, preferably as soon as they are six months old. The necessity for this immunization is recognized when it is known that two-thirds of all deaths from diphtheria occur in the age group under six years.

"It cannot be too strongly emphasized that to deprive children of this protection which science has made possible is to subject them to unwarranted and unnecessary hazards that can easily turn into a tragedy," Dr. Cox said. "Parental interest in immunization must be more widespread if the Texas death rate from this disease is to be eliminated as a cause of death."

"When a child has been stricken with diphtheria, antitoxin is the only treatment that will save his life. Also, to be effective, it must be given early in the illness and in large doses. Delay is usually caused by parents' failing to realize that any sore throat may actually be diphtheria."

ADVENTURES MARK LIFE OF LOCAL FLYER

Through intimate friends, some information has been received here recently concerning Lt. Tom Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Caldwell of the Oklahoma Lane community, who is serving with the American Air Forces in England.

Lt. Caldwell writes that his ship was cracked up on landing in England and it was some time before he participated in a bombing raid over Germany. On his first trip out as co-pilot, a German shell crashed into the plane, killing the bombardier, and in the ensuing excitement the pilot became hysterical, with Caldwell being forced to take over the controls to bring the ship safely in to the landing base.

Now, he writes, the remainder of the crew is on "extra board" duty, being literally men without a ship, and are called into duty when another crew lacks a man. Caldwell has been in England since May.

WORLEY WARNS

lost materials can be replaced; but the lives of our boys must be preserved wherever possible.

Admits Waste

The speaker was frank to admit that there had been waste and extravagance in the preparation for this war, which caught us wholly unprepared. But he also observed that "war is a game of waste and destruction, in both materials and lives".

To justify the action of Congress in awarding war contracts on the cost-plus basis, Worley explained that when the War and Navy departments went to large contractors for the construction of materials, none of them would bid on the finished products. "Congress had no alternative but to award contracts on the cost-plus basis if we were to get the materials we had to have."

He cited the Pantex Ordinance Plant at Amarillo as an example by stating that when war broke out "nobody knew how many bombs we would need, and nobody knew how large these bombs must be, so we built a plant that would be able to cope with any demand that might arise."

"Your government has spent many thousands of your dollars in the manufacture of poison gas, which has never been used, and I hope will never be used. But we learned in the last war—as many veterans of this audience will testify—that we might expect the enemy to resort to this kind of warfare, and we are now prepared to meet them with more and more poisonous gas should they start a war of that kind. We have an ample supply and the best gas. And your government has taken pains to keep our enemies informed of that fact."

On The Home Front

Turning his attention to the home front, Congressman Worley warned against inflation. "You remember the experience of the last war. If inflation results from this war we will go ten times as high as we did in the last war—and just that surely we will have ten times as far to fall."

He praised the price stabilization act, but observed that "it does not go far enough in that it fails to regulate the price of labor also."

Served Eight Months

Speaking of his campaign pledge to vote against war, Worley said that he kept the pledge, "but when war was forced upon us I enlisted in the Navy and spent eight months of service at sea until I was recalled to my post in Washington by our Commander in Chief." During that eight months, spent principally in the South Pacific, Worley said he found more Texans than any other class of fighters. "Down in Australia, for example, the people there think the song 'Deep in the Heart of Texas' is our National Anthem."

Pokes John Lewis

In a departing word, Worley took a jab at John L. Lewis by declaring, "I may be on his black list, but thank God I am on the white list of the boys who are doing our fighting."

Concluding his address, the speaker declared that the length of the war "depends upon you and I—as individuals and collectively. This nation has never lost a war, and by the help of God she will not lose this one."

Preceding his appearance at the school auditorium, Congressman Worley was guest at a luncheon tendered by 30 businessmen and farmers of Parmer County at the Bovina hotel, served by Mrs. G. C. Danner.

Mrs. "Blackie" Poteet, who underwent an appendicitis operation several days ago, was reported on Tuesday to be in a critical condition. She was given a blood transfusion on Monday evening.

Proper Filling Out of Applications Required

Mrs. Roy Bobst, at the local ration office, said today that a large majority of "repeat" applications for Ration Book 3, which were being received at the local office, were not filled out properly, with resultant delays and re-applications. She reminded of three items which must accompany such applications:

1. The name of the head of the family by whom the original application was made.
2. The name of the person to whom the books were sent.
3. The number given on the stub detached from the original application.

"Unless these three items accompany the application," she stated, "we cannot issue the required additional books, or correct mistakes made in the first issuance."

Become Valid Sept. 12

OPA announcement on Tuesday was to the effect that brown stamps in the new books would become valid Sept. 12 for the purchase of meats, fats, oils, butter and cheese. These brown stamps will replace the red stamps in current Book 2, and will retain the same point value.

Between Sept. 12, when the first new series goes into use, and Oct. 2, when the final red stamps expire, both sets will be usable. After Oct. 2, only brown stamps will be accepted by merchants.

Blue stamps in ration Book 2 will be valid until November 1 for use in buying processed foods. The sugar stamp, No. 14, in Book 1 is likewise valid until Nov. 1.

Destroy Void Stamps

Ration officials further cautioned that all unused stamps should be destroyed by the owners of the books. Such stamps should not be turned over to merchants or friends or casually tossed aside, as such actions will tend to increase black market activities, it was warned.

Water Facilities Loans
Available Thru FSA

Farmers in Parmer County who need government financing with which to repair their home and farmstead water facilities or to install new equipment with which to produce food and care for livestock may obtain loans for these purposes from the Farm Security Administration, R. C. Middleton, rural rehabilitation supervisor, announced today.

Such loans, Middleton advised, are available to farmers who cannot obtain credit elsewhere for such needs. Loans are open to both tenants and owners.

Drilling wells, windmills, stock tanks, storage tanks for home and farm supplies and for irrigating gardens up to one acre are some of the purposes for which these loans will be made.

Middleton warned that these water facility loans are not to be confused with the FSA's irrigation loans which are available only in certain approved areas. The water facility loans available now will be made immediately to all qualified borrowers. Application should be filed with Middleton at his office.

WATER IS SAFE

The New Mexico Department of Public Health has advised W. L. Freeman, Texico town clerk, that tests made of the local water supply recently showed the water was safe for human consumption.

Freeman said that such tests by the New Mexico health authorities were made at regular intervals, and only once have they found the local water supply slightly contaminated.

Show Interest Grows
As Date Draws Near

Interest in the Parmer County First Annual Dairy Show is increasing on all sides this week, as the date for the show—Saturday, August 28 at Bovina—drew nearer. County Agent Carlon A. Harper stated today that the number of animals entered continued to mount and expressed the opinion that county dairymen would stage an exceptional show.

As yet no definite judge has been named, Harper stated, adding however, "We have been promised one from the dairy department at Texas Tech, and I am sure that he will be capable."

Additional prizes were also announced this week. The Milking Shorthorn Association has informed local officials that it will add $5 to grand champion awards in the Shorthorn division, and likewise, if a Shorthorn wins the sweepstakes award, will add $10 to this prize.

The Jersey Association will make special ribbon awards to 4-H club boys whose animals place in the show.

Clippers Available

Two sets of electric clippers are now on hand in the county for persons wishing to clip Jersey animals to be entered in the show.

One set is being used in the Oklahoma Lane community, and the other is at the county agent's office. Persons wishing to make use of the clippers are requested to contact Harper.

Ration Officials To Meeting In Hereford

Clerks and board members of the Parmer County rationing office were in Hereford the past Wednesday, attending a meeting held for such workers by the Office of Price Administration.

Talks by visiting OPA officials took up the morning session, Mrs. Roy Bobst stated, while the afternoon featured clinics where local officials were urged to ask questions concerning the various phases of the program.

Parmer County representatives included Mrs. Roy Bobst and Mrs. Mose Glasscock, of the office; and Olan Schleuter, John R. Armstrong, Frank Spring, C. L. Calaway, C. F. Hastings, J. P. Tate, Frank Phillips and T. J. Crawford, board members.

Copper Wire Quota Is Assigned County

Ellis M. Mills, of the local Triple A office, announced today that a quota of copper wire, for use on farmsteads to aid in production, has been assigned to Parmer County.

This wire, he stressed, is not to be used about the farm homes.

Farmers wishing to make application for such wire may do so at the local AAA office, but, Mills urged, "know how much you want when you come in to apply. We cannot grant an application if specific figures are not available."

Some 200 pounds, or 4,000 feet of No. 8 copper wire has been assigned the county for the current quarterly quota.

OFFICE FORCE CUT

Slashes in budgets have cut the local AAA office force down to three clerks and a supervisor, Ellis M. Mills, in charge, said today. The reduction in office personnel followed a meeting of AAA workers held last week in Plainview, when the budget was reviewed. Formerly the local office employed eleven clerks.

MAKING ADDITION

The Henderson Grain & Seed company is completing an addition to their office quarters this week. The new addition has been built to the east side of the office and will give badly needed room for the clerical force.

PLAN TO MOVE

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Henderson are making plans to move to their newly-completed home on their business property, expecting to be in residence there by Sept. 1. The six-room structure has been under construction for many weeks, and many delays have been occasioned by shortages of materials and workmen.

GETS DISCHARGE

France Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Welch of the Friona community, arrived home the latter part of last week from a camp in North Carolina, having been granted an honorable discharge. He plans to remain on the farm, and assist his father in his farming operations.
